Weekly Colonist

FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 1889.

A WORD IN SEASON.

Sir Charles Tupper is a hard-headed practical statesman. He is not carried away by fanciful theories. He sees things as they are, and this is why he has been reprobated by some sanguine advocates of Imperial Confederation for throwing cold water on their magnificent scheme.

It is not prepared to go so far as the lecturer has gone in the following sentence:—"It is morally impossible that the present loose relations of the United Kingdom with the Colonies in Imperial affairs can long co-exist with the integrity of the Empire."

A SERIOUS CRIME.

The Germans have been blamed, and with good reason, for placing themselves in needless antagonism to the natives of Eastern Africa, among whom they proposed to settle and to do business.

THE IMMIGRANT.

Men who are not prepared to do the rough work of a new country have been so often warned against emigrating to British Columbia and to Canada, generally that it seems unnecessary to repeat the warning.

without manual labor will find himself grievously disappointed. When that comes to pass, as it surely will in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, he must blame the country. The population of Canada is limited. It can only give employment to a limited number of intellectuals and semi-intellectual workers.

AN UNFAITHFUL SERVANT.

It is quite clear that Mayor Grant's organ uses words without paying the least regard to their signification, and that it makes assertions without waiting to enquire whether they are true or not.

MR. GRANT'S TACTICS.

It may be very convenient for Mayor Grant to lay the blame of his vacillation at the door of the Times Colonist. There are some people who are never at a loss for an excuse for what they do, however childish and inconsistent they may be.

SINGULAR INSENSIBILITY.

The Times is wrong when it says that we hold Mayor Grant responsible for the acts of the late city treasurer. We do not hold him responsible for that official's conduct. It was his duty, as we showed in yesterday's issue, to inspect the conduct of all subordinate officers.

THE DOMINION'S DEBT.

Canada Public Accounts for the year ended 30th June, 1888, have come to hand. They are rather late in appearing, but there is yet time before Parliament meets for the representatives of the people to study them so that they will be able to form an intelligent opinion of the discussions on the financial condition of the Dominion when they take place.

THE LAW OF THE CASE.

There are some who may think that we have been rather hard on Mayor Grant and who may believe that his duty as Mayor did not require him to keep a sharp eye on the Treasurer and other officials of the Corporation. Well, for their information we will quote the law, which very clearly defines the Mayor's duty in the premises.

LITERARY NOTES.

With the old year we have said goodbye to many a friend, whose acquaintance indeed, we only made at the beginning of the year. But those who have turned to us have followed from month to month with ever growing interest.

A SUCCESSFUL EXPERIMENT.

That gifted philanthropist, Max Adler, has established in New York a number of schools for the children of the Jews of that city, in which the use of tools is taught. They have been in operation for about eight years. There has, therefore, been time to observe how the system of combined manual and intellectual training works.

THE BUTE INLET ROUTE.

To the Editor.—Any stronger evidence of the practicability of a scheme for having for its object the construction of a line of railway connecting Esquimalt and Victoria with the northwest via Bute Inlet, Cariboo and Yellowknife, and forming a link in another and a northern transcontinental system, could hardly be desired, than the vigorous opposition the project has evoked from the promoters of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. at Vancouver, the News-Advertiser.

Colonel Geo. Montague died at Dartmouth on Friday. He was a distinguished soldier and statesman. He was born in 1812 and died in 1888. He was a member of the House of Commons for many years.
