

THE CITY AND VICINITY.

THE DAILY ROUND OF LIFE IN AND ABOUT TORONTO.

What the People are Doing and Saying and Thinking About - Brief News Gleaned from Wherever by Wise-Awake World Reporters.

It is returned by Ethel Brown; "Oh, darling," he cried, "won't Uranus say..."

"Mars coming," she whispered, "which Jupiter..."

Storm signal No. 1 is up at this port. The gas lamps spoiled the moonlight last night.

The hounds had a run away up Yonge street Saturday.

Vital statistics for last week: Births, 57; marriages, 25; deaths, 33.

The Telegram finds the Freeman handy to get its craft news from.

A Torontoian shot a large wild cat in the woods near Woodbridge last week.

Alpacas are being brought in again by the Countess of Bradford and other English ladies.

Mr. A. W. Smith and wife Toronto were registered at the Palmer house Chicago Friday.

Next week will be observed throughout the Christian world as a week of prayer for young men.

Wm. Spencer had to pay $5 30 at Yorkville Saturday for assaulting Robert Crown at Deer park.

Archbishop Lynch is up north on a confirmation tour. He was at Collingwood yesterday.

Rev. E. Harris of St. Thomas will probably accept the call of the Yorkville Baptist church.

Uncle Tom's Cabin at the Royal opera house tonight by Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Wren and their company.

The crossings at King and Yonge streets, the prominent corner of Toronto, are a disgrace to the city.

The book debts of John Taylor & Co., amounting to $697, were sold at auction Saturday at 3c on the dollar.

The Freeman is out for November, as lively and fearless as ever. The little monthly is doing well.

The English mail per special from Montreal arrived at 11 o'clock last night and was assured before midnight.

Twenty-five persons were admitted to the membership of the Board street Congregational church yesterday morning.

Rev. D. Briggs of this city preached at the Methodist church at Ottawa yesterday.

While a Yorkvillian was serving a term in goal, his wife sold the most of his household effects. The man is now trying to recover them.

The executive committee of the Ontario teachers' association were in session Saturday arranging the programme for next year's meeting.

The Reformatory father yesterday resumed their mission at St. Michael's with high mass and jubilee services which were held at the cathedral during the week.

At the Canadian institute 8 P.M. Sunday evening, Rev. Dr. Scadding read a paper on "the delectable life of Latin in the modern scholastic world."

George Laycock, who worked for the street railway here up, last month ago died at Minneapolis Minn., to four months ago of the effects of an accident.

The football match Victoria v. Upper Canada college arranged Saturday was postponed until Tuesday by a storm on account of the inclemency of the weather.

Bridesmaids' dresses are usually short, of rich, delicate fabrics, and the bride's gown is a simple, girlish affair, in white, with a train, and a small hat.

Myrtle green will be the fashionable color for ladies' dresses this winter. They blue will be the fashionable color for the faces of the men who have to pay for them.

The two tall men attached to Hagar's ministrations are considered to be the giant of Halle, a small village ten miles from Liverpool. The giant of Halle stood nine feet high.

Havily's Strategists comedy company play at the Grand opera house to-night and tomorrow night. The Strategists are said to be among the finest comedians on stage. Good as seen. They will make you feel good for a week.

The program of Saturday printed as news in item which appeared in The World of October 20th. They should "render assistance to the things which are scarcer," and sell old lamps for new ones.

Between 7000 and 8000 tons of freight were handled in Toronto by the Grand Trunk last week. The goods consisted principally of currants, raisins, gold and bottled liquor, sugar and other.

Little Ernest Avery is still missing from his home 126 Duke street. The boy is long boots, white cotton shirt and brown hat, he having left the house without a coat.

Captain Mallett will return from Chicago Tuesday with the mail for the zoo. These consist of 2 African lions, 3 panthers, 3 sea lions, 1 buffalo, and Arctic bear from the north of Russia and some birds.

John Regan, a resident of Monroe street Riverside, dropped dead from heart disease while on his way home from the city Friday night. Deceased was a tailor by trade, 52 years of age and leaves a large family.

On Saturday afternoon a boy from Ann street was knocked down and run over by a horse and buggy while attempting to cross the street opposite the post-office. The buggy passed over the boy's body and hurt him considerably.

The night schools under the supervision of the young men's association of St. Andrew's congregation have been resumed at 106 Adelaide street west. Afternoon classes are held for the purpose of instructing girls in needlework.

In the case at London against McClellan, of knights of the macabees fame, the vice chancery ordered him to deliver the seal and return the $200 to the proper parties, and restrained him from using the corporate name of the society.

Miss Maggie L. Porter, the soprano of the famous Fisk university jubilee singers during the wonderful successful tours of that troupe in this country and Europe, will be married at Detroit tomorrow evening to Mr. Daniel Cole, deputy collector of the port at the city of the straits.

An action has been entered against the proprietors of the Shickuna by Mrs. Moore of Montreal, for the loss of her husband, who was killed by falling into a hole in the vessel in this city about a month ago, while at the foot of Church street. The amount claimed is $2 00. The ground for the action is negligence.

A skunk last night invaded the north-east part of the city, and snout louder than a whole park of artillery. The odor was strong enough to hang over the city, and a boarding house butter will hang its head in shame at being unable to cope with it.

WHENCE THE NEGRO RACE.

THE GREAT PREACHER CHALLENGES THE EVOLUTIONISTS.

The Negro is the result of climatic differences. Man Originally Red - White and Black Races Accidental and Occasional - The Nephilim and Nephilim are incidentally referred to.

The World carried with him to Bond street last night a small iron wedge, made by a crafty artificer.

Approaching the church at 6.30 he found a great concourse of people at the doors, and after getting jostled about unmercifully by the crowd, he reached the entrance door of the church.

"Will you admit the World," said the World to the deacon who examined the tickets.

"The World's too sarcastic on the doctor-keep back, gentlemen, don't crowd so much there. Is this lady your wife?"

"Yes," cried a struggling individual who had just raised his head out of the crowd and caught the eye of the deacon, on whom he looked imploringly.

"Well, do you admit the World," said the reporter?

"Oh, yes, pass in," the deacon hurriedly replied, glad to get him out of the road of the advancing crowd.

The World walked with steady step and reached the auditorium, where he was able to breathe a little freely.

The deacon had filled a great portion of the church, but the seats were not at all crowded. A most benign and self-satisfied expression marked the countenance of all the happy ticket-holders.

With unknown interest that the World regarded them as they sat away from the speaker and late in secure places and fortified themselves against attack by the rabble when it should be let in, while at the same time the rabble was outside bearing hard against the doors.

While this favorable opportunity presented itself the World took out the iron wedge he had referred to, and spiked the door with his right hand. This he found on his experience to be necessary if the rabble was to be kept out.

Two well-to-do and important citizens afterwards failed to draw out that seat, and an energetic deacon also gave up the task.

The World is much obliged to the patient kind of the man who sat sideways in the pew and who was trippingly knocked with an embossed rose in the centre.

Brother Fitzesup Buggins in the meantime had taken a seat on the north railing of good tin. We have a report of a young man who was trippingly knocked with a three-thumbed people, he delivered a most impressive lecture on the evils of the race.

The rabble was presently let in. Rough men bounded forward and crushed women heaved a sigh of relief when they gained the seats, and the heavy young ladies complain of being nearly crushed to death, and they earnestly denounced men generally as great big rough things.

"Bliss my soul, let it be said," "I nearly faint, let it be said!"

The World was sorry that he could not, in his unique and interesting, unspike the seat he had rendered useless. Even this, however, he had difficulty in taking notice of.

The rev. doctor was eight minutes late in making his appearance. Eight times 3000 (the number of people present) makes 24,000 minutes, or four hundred days. This is the aggregate of the time lost in consequence of the doctor's delay.

The doctor began to read from the 13th chapter of Zecharia, and only got through a verse or two when he proceeded to answer the letters he had received.

A Frankish and a young lady, the audience, you had better and this request to the Young Men's Christian association, as they can deal more extensively with it than we can, and do not waste more time on their hands than I have.

There is only one thing about that address of Mr. B. M. Moran, an experienced artist when Mr. Laut brought down from Detroit especially for the purpose.

Mr. Laut's opening day was Saturday and a good day was despite the disagreeable state of the weather. The World was among the many callers at the 25th December, 1881, upon which date the price of the present comes out of the purchaser in the shape of cheap and nasty tea, in proof of which Mr. Laut offers to sell a letter tea at twenty-nine cents per pound than any gift store in Toronto possesses at this time.

These were the only letters referred to last night, the number being less than ordinarily answered by the preacher.

THE TOPIC OF THE EVENING, as previously announced, was "From whence the Negro Race?" The text was from Solomon I. I. "Look not upon me because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me; my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept; therefore will I be despised, and will be a laughing stock to all mine adversaries."

That the words of the text there can be no more expressive language as to the origin of the color and the slavery in the negro race. As the text reads: "The difference in color gave rise to anger and alienation, to inferiority and superiority among the children of the same mother. Those upon whom the sun had looked so effectually were accounted inferior; in fact blackness became synonymous with inferiority and with subjection and servitude. No book expressed so much truth in so few words as the bible, and especially was this the case in the text to-night. Milton in parvo says a line in cadly to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano is an exhibition in the window. It is a handsome, finished upright and well worth the trying for. Already a number of residents have secured tickets for the draw. Among Mr. Laut's customers Saturday were the wives of two wholesale grocers, who each bought five pounds of tea merely on account of the instrument. Another customer, the Grand Trunk lorry driver, who carried off a five lb. caddy to his 'boarded house' in great glory. Besides getting the first-class tea at 60 cents you have a chance of drawing a $500 piano, which is nothing to be sneezed at. After this piano is given to the holder, the holder of the certain number will be the winner of a $500 piano. The drawing will be conducted by the store, by the gift system, and straight forward piece of business. Mr. Laut does not pretend to say that his profits on tea will warrant this piece of liberality, but he wishes to meet the popular taste and introduce his goods at the same time. The piano