ELEVENTH YEAR

cral:

Toronto, March 7.

Please adjourn the inquest in the Princeton case until 1 o'clock to morrow.

J. P. Cartwright.

Coroner McLay said he was perfectly willing to agree to Mr. Cartwright's request; infact in face of present developments he could not see how he could do otherwise. In the first place Mr. Pelley, who had received a subport in Toronto until late in the afternoon, then the started for the village. Detective John Murray was also missing, much to the disgust of Coroner McLay. "These witnesses were of the utmost importance," said the Coroner, "and I don't see how I can get along without them." But the most serious disappointment of all, at least to the 500 countryfolk who had gethered in the village streets and taverus, was the non-arrival of J. Rex and Florence Burchell. The prisoners, it was expected, would arrive at 11 o'clock on the carcommodation from the east, and when only three or four Toronto reporters stepped from the train loud was the protest of the two where.

This no longer a secret that there is a hitch tomewhere. Coroner McLay was carranty of J. Miss Malc and was the protest of the two where.

ssrs. Generoux & Lloyd, the leading re Messrs. Genereux & Lloyd, the leading real estate men-set the West End, have organized a new land and loan company, to be called "The City & District Land & Loan Company of Toronto," and in The Ontario Gazette of Saturday last Messrs. Murray, Macdonell & Corley, solicitors for the applicants, give notice of intention to apply to the Lieutenant-Governor for a charter of incorporation under the Ontario Joint Stock Company Letters Patent Act. Among the shareholders are such men as F. W. Walker, Esq., C. R. S. Dinnick, Esq., A. A. Dame, M.D., Joseph Walker, Esq., Benjamin Lloyd, Esq., A. C. Lighthourn, Esq., Major Evans, J. M. Horsey, Esq., A. C. Macdonell, Esq., and L. O. P. Genereux, Esq., A. The primary officers of the company are F. W. Walker, Esq., president; C. R. S. Dinnick, Esq., and C. O. P. Genereux, managing director. The say at stock is to be $500,000. The Oddest-of-the company is to improve land in the northwest part of the city and loan money to assist in building. This company will fill a long felt want in the West End and a most successful career may be safely predicted for it. One of the leading properties placed on the market is that announced in this issue by Mr. F. B. Robins. It is situated at Lambton, bordering on the Humber River. If has frontages of 1100 feet on Dundas-street, 2500 feet on Church-street and 1700 feet on St. Clair-avenue. Full particulars may be had by referring to page 81.

Mr. Kerr of Kerr & Cobbold says he had more replies from his advertisement in The World last Saturday than from the other papers combined. He thinks The World is coming up as exceeding for property announcements. World last Saturally than trong up as a medium for property announcements.
"How is business?" The World's Real Estater asked Mr. George Faulkner yesterday. "As flat as a pencake," he replied; and he turned on his heel and whistled "The Last Rose of Summer." But you can never tell when Mr. F. is in earnest. Speaking to a World reporter yesterday Mr. L. O. P. Genereux of Genereux & Lloyd said that he had advertised in The World for a number of years, but had never had as good value out of his announcements in it as he had these last two months. months.
Several proposed improvements out west have a considerable effect on land values. The bridging of the Humber so as to continue Bloor-street, the grading and leveling of Bloor west and the straightening of the Humber River are works which are needed and cannot fall to be of benefit.

In answer to this Urzen went on and related what he had prepared on the subject; and it need only be said that the report was about on a par with what we have already heard. He even went so far as to swear that the count had tried repeatedly to compromise matters after the conflict had begun -that he begged of Nevel to give up the battle; but that the latter, thirsting for the young nobleman's blood, kept hotly, madly

It was at this juncture, and without referring to the surgeon, that the Emperor sent for Ruric; and having learned that a lieutenant of the Khitagord guard was present at the duel, he sent for him also Orsa arrived first, and was present when

And now Ruric Nevel stood before the Emperor. Peter gazed upon him for some ents, and then he said "Sir, thy bearing is bold."

"Why should it not be, sire, when I stand before one whom I honor and respect-and do not fear?" So spoke Ruric calmly, and with peculiar dignity. "Not fear?" repeated the autocrat, stern

"Insolence !" uttered the duke. The Emperor looked up into his face, and he added:

"Now, sire. you can see for yourself some of his traits of character." "Aye," returned Peter, "I see. They e wonderful. I knew not that among my artisans there were men of such boldness." ntered the chamber and announced that The duke knew not how to interpret this and he moved back a pace.

"Now, sir," returned Peter, turning to the gunmaker, "how dared you strike a Russian nobleman?" "I did not, sire. Conrad Damonoff came to my shop, and he brought me a paper, in which I was required, or ordered, to relin-you strike the count?" "Because, sire, he descended from his station and struck me. He threw away the shield, which should protect the nobleman, and struck me without provocation."

"And then yourknocked him down?" "I did, sire," "And perhaps you would have done the same to me." "Sire," answered the youth, quickly. When Damonoff tried by threats to make me sign his paper I told him that there was but one man on earth at whose order I would do that thing. The man who has the right to command shall never have occasion to strike me."

There was something in this reply, and more in the tone and bearing of him who spoke it, that made t e duke tremble. He saw plainly that the Emperor's eyes sparkled with admiration as they rested upon the gun-maker.

"But now about this duel," resumed the Emperor, "How dared you take advantage of the count in the conflict ?". "Advantage, sire," repeated the youth in "Sire." he said, "I would rather you would judge of that for yourself." "Me judge? And how am I to do that ! "Let Ruric Nevel be tried here before you. If I mistake not you have some good swordsmen near your palace. There is Demetrius the Greek." "What-my Master-at-Arms?" "Yes, sire."

Has BRYCE'S PAVEMENT proved itself

The time is now drawing near when the weather will be favorable for the laying of all sidewalks, drive-ways, garden walks, stable floors, brewery floors, cellar floors, etc., and we beg to draw the attention of the public to the fact that for the above named

BRYCE'S PATENT PAVEMENT

Is unequalled. It has stood the test in all kinds of weather and has been acknowledged by experienced men, well known to all in the City of Toronto, that it s the best, not only for its durability but healthiness, cleanliness; that it can be laid perfectly watertight, that it never absorbs fluids of anykind and never becomes slippery, and for many other reasons it is preferred by all who know of it. It is more durable than stone and does not cost half the price. For cellar floors it is a decided preventative against rats or mice or dampness or bad smells. Please see what Dr. Strange says of it in his letter, which we have below given a copy of. No cellar should be without it to insure healthiness. For garden walks and driveways it is unsurpassed, from the fact that no grass will grow through it as it does through slat walks, and no loose gravel to come from it to destroy lawns or lawnmower. See Osgoode

This pavement is entirely a Toronto invention and manufactured in Toronto. It has been laid in all parts of the city and has proven itself a success in every sense of the word. Below we give a list of names for whom we have laid our Pave ment in various parts f the city and for various purposes

What the Consumers' Gas Company Say About It.

Messars. Bryce Bros., Toronto:

Dear Sirs:

Replying to your favor of the 19th inst. I have pleasure in stating that the "Bryce," Patent Asphalt Pavement" laid by you in this Company Purifying House at the Works, and in the yard and cellar at the Company's offices, Toronto-street, in December last, has given entire satisfaction. That laid in the yard has been exposed to the rain, snow and frost during the winter and has not cracked at all, and seems to be quite as good as when laid down. This pavement is also laid above the cellar, and has proved perfectly watertight, not allowing any incisture whatever to penetrate through into the cellar, although we snow has been allowed to remain on it for a considerable time. ow has been allowed to remain on it for a considerable time.

Yours truly, W. H. PEARSON, eral Manager and Secretary. What Dr. Strange Says About It. 218 SIMCOE-STREET, TORONTO, May 16, 1889.

Gentlemen,
The Asphalt flooring laid by your firm last year in my stables and coach-house has given me great satisfaction. It appears to be perfectly durable, does not absorb fluids and is consequently always is weet and clean. Another good feature it possesses is that it never becomes slippery. It do not see how it is possible to have a more satisfactory flooring for FREDERICK W. STRANGE.

What Architect D. B. Dick Says About It. Messrs. Bryce Bros., Toronto: Messrs, Bryce Bros., perono:

Dear Sirs,
Replying to yours of yesterday in reference to the stable floor which you laid for me some time ago with your pavement, I have pleasure in saying that when I last saw it—which was after it had been in use about four months—it appeared to be standing very well indeed even the sharp winter calks having made very little impression on it.

Yours truly.

Church Building Goes On Apace.

St. Alban's Methodist Church, the somewhat independent offspring of Rev. Dr. Stone's Parkdale Church, is growing rapidly and will open a new place of worship on Sunday, March. 23. The congregation has been meeting in Union Hall. Union-street, but these quarters are becoming altogether too small for the increasing membership. So far the pulpit has been filled by local prachers and the city clorgy, but a minister will be called to the position in a short time. The trew building is in Campbell-avenite. With a pleasing red brick exterior and an interior accommodating 400 people the congregation may well be proud of their new meeting place. There's a commodious basement suitable for Sunday school purposes and ground enough fronting the street to build a large church when the occasion demands it. The cost will be in the neighborhood of 66000. Rev. Dr. Briggs, Rev. Dr. Dewart and Rev. A. M. Phillips will conduct the opening services. Any of the above can be obtained of all music deale's. Dance Music and Piano Score will be published shortly. Angio-Canadian Music Publishers' Association (Ltd.) 18 RICHMOND-STREET WEST. 246 AMUSEMENTS. CADEMY OF MUSIC.

LMOST A DAILY QUESTION with our friends: "Why do we stick to central property?" Our answer is: "Because it is a safer investment than anything miles away in the outskirts." Central property is less speculative—often productive—and in the end more profitable—and further, because we don't want any investor to lose money by purchasing property through us. The supply of outside property is far beyond legitimate demand and is ahead of our practical requirements for the next three or four years. R. J. GRIFFITH & Co., 16 King-street east.
