Thanksgiving Service

Community Service in Lyceum on Thanksgiving Day

A Community Thanksgiving and Armistice Day Service was held on Monday morning in the Lyceum Theatre, for the citizens of Watford and district, and proved to be very enjoyable to the large number present.

The service had been planned jointly by the Municipal Council and the resident clergymen of the village, this being the fourth annual community service.

The Reeve of Watford, W. G. Connolly B.A., presided over the meeting. Rev. J. H. Hosford M.A., B.D., rector of Trinity Anglican Church, led the reading of the special Thanksgiving Psalms and prayers; Rev. L. J. Stones, pastor of the Baptist church, offered prayer, and also presided at the piano, and Rev. H. V. Workman, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, read the Scripture Lesson. Rev. S. J. Thompson, of the Methodist Church, was unavoidably absent through being out of town.

The address was delivered by Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, pastor of the Congregational Church, who called attention to the two special days, with their historic memories, which were being commemorated in the service, and made brief reference to the Pilgrim Fathers and the First Thanksgiving, and also to our heroic dead of the Great War, and the disabled veterans in our hospitals today. Then reminding the congregation of the goodness of Almighty God in giving us victory and peace, and then in giving such a bountiful harvest, the speaker asked the psalmist's question "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits towards me?"

"True thanksgiving must be threefold in character," said Mr. Rayner. "There must be Praise; There should be the thanksgiving of the lips; There should be the thanksgiving of the hands; and there should be consecration, the thanksgiving of the life."

An offering was taken to be devoted to the maintenance of the Memorial Flower beds in Federal Square, and will be handed over to the Horticultural Society for this purpose, the Society undertaking the care of the flower beds.

Rev. E. H. Savers pronounced the Benediction, following which the singing of the National Anthem brought the service to a close.

may now enjoy a dash of soda with their grapejuice. The ban on carbonated

however, complain of cramped quarliquors on the city dump. The rats in the vicinity are reported to be holding a carnival.

Students attending the Oregon

special course in nutrition. A special diet course is prescribed for the "fats" and another for the "skinnyies". The object is to discover a tilt-proof balanced ration."

At the Sunday service in an east-

name their favorite hymn. "Gates Ajar" was the unanimous choice. The warden suggested that the service
close with singing "Abide With Me."

Many distinguished visitors have the amiable habit of stating that the ably than any other point they have visited. "Soft soldier" is cheap,

easy to take and leaves no unpleas-

Petrolia's Grand Old Man,
John Sinclair, Dies
Aged 91

Petrolia, Nov. 10.—John Sinclair, Petrolia's grand old man, died this afternoon at the family residence, Greenfield street, in his 92nd year after an illness lasting only two weeks.
Mr. Sinclair was born in the County of Peel, May 10, 1833, of Scottish extraction. His father, John Sinclair, Sr., was born in Argyleshire, Scotland, in 1787, as was also his mother Jane Currie, who was born in 1797 and died in 1876. They came to Canada in 1832 and settled in the County of Peel, where they cleared a farm and endured all the hardships of the early pioneers. He came to Petrolia in 1866 with his family.

Mr. Sinclair attended the public schools of Peel and in early life became a county contractor and builder of houses, barns, bridges and remained there until 1866, coming to Petrolia with his parents. Here he carried on the same business of contracting and building, erecting some of the largest pumping rigs in the territory. He was such an adept craftsman that he could join two timbers together so one could not see the joint.

Lambton Bailiff
This business he carried on successfully until late in the 80's, although in 1876 he had been appointed bailiff
of the 8th division court, Lambton County.

In addition to his other duties of manifold character, Mr. Sinclair had been agent for several steamship companies and also the agent to supply men for drilling all over the world.
His first arrangement of this sort was made in 1880, when he sent 10 men to Italy to drill for oil. For some years he was engaged in the oil business, but sold out his interest.
He was an auctioneer for a great many years.

On November 4, 1879 Mr. Sinclair married Miss Lizzie O'Neill, of London Township, Middlesex County, who died in 1898, leaving one daughter, Miss Nellie Jane, who is at home.

Few men in Western Ontario have been more prominently identified with fraternal life than Mr. Sinclair;
in fact, he was known from one end of the province to the other. He had been an Oddfellow for over 56 years.
He had occupied all the chairs in Friendship Lodge, No. 65, was a past
D.D.G.M. of St. Clair district, No. 2,
I.O.O.F. He also passed through all the chairs in the encampment and was a P.D.D.G.P. of that body. He was grand patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Ontario and ruled over that body in 1887-88. During his term of office he instituted encampments from Ottawa to Windsor and had many amusing stories of his experiences during that time to tell.
He was treasurer of Friendship Lodge for over 50 years and was greatly beloved by all its members.
Active in Masonic

Deceased had been a Mason for over 57 years and was a past master of Petrolia Lodge No. 194, and its treasurer for nearly 50 years. He was district deputy grand master of St.
Clair district when it extended from Lake Huron to Lake Erie and examplified the work at the first lodge of instruction ever held in this district, which was held in the east end of Petrolia and lasted for three days.
He was counted as one of the most correct and proficient workers of that day and it was owing partly to his efforts that Masonry has the present beautiful work, as he was called to Hamilton in March, 1873, to assist and advise a committee of past grand masters in the revision of the work. He had been through all the chairs in the chapter and was its scribe for many years. He was one of the first directors of the Masonic Temple Company, He was also a member of the Royal Arcanum and the Woodmen of the World, in which he was banker. He had been a member of St. Andrew's Society since its organization in 1869, being past president and treasurer.

Mr. Sinclair held many municipal positions, being tax collector for many years. His passing will be mourned by the whole community, as he was held in the greatest veneration and esteem by everyone he came in contact with. He dearly loved a good story or joke and his humorous reminiscences of things that happened 50 or 70 years ago were always a source of great pleasure to those fortunate enough to hear them, as he had a most retentive memory to the last. The sympathy of the whole town is extended to his only daughter, Miss Nellie, who has been untiring in her devotion to her father.

He was a lifelong Conservative and a member of the Presbyterian Church.
The funeral will be held from the Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock and will be conducted by the Masons of the district. The honorary pallbearers will be old lifelong Masonic friends and the active pallbearers will be past district deputies of St. Clair district.

Women's Institute
Convention

The 10th Annual Convention of the Womens Federated Institute of Ontario was held in the Masonic Temple
London, last week. Several Watford Institute ladies attended and report
a very pleasant and profitable time.
Mrs. G. Edwards, president of the Federated Institutes of Ontario presided and Mr. G. A. Putman, supt of Ontario Institutes was also present.
Addresses were given by a number of delegates, who told of the excellent work done in the different branches.
The city entertained about four hundred delegates to a banquet Tuesday evening which is always a very enjoyable feature of the convention.

The Mayor of the city gave the address of welcome and said that as the institute had held their conventions

Stability and Credit

THE Sterling Bank occupies a strong and stable position to-day because it has followed a policy of rigid conservatism since its inception.

This, of course, means that we have strict requirements where the granting of credit is concerned. Firms, however, whose finances are sound and whose management is capable and conservative, will find us ready to co-operate generously with them.

Strangled with Asthma is the only expression that seems to convey what is endured from an attack of this trouble. The relief from Dr. J. D.
Kellogg's Asthma Remedy is beyond

there comes comfort and rest.
Breathing becomes normal and the bronchial tubes completely cleared.
This unequalled remedy is worth
many times its price to all who use it.

Keep Friends
with Health

HEALTH is too valuable an asset to be considered lightly.
It is very essential, if you are to take a leading part in business, to get the greatest pleasure out of life.
Abundant health depends upon steady nerves—nerves untroubled
by poisons often unknowingly taken daily into the system.

These poisons are Caffeine and Tannin
—in tea and coffee. They are detrimental to the whole nervous system—
frequently cause restless sleep, excit-ability, indigestion and other troubles which affect health.

Keep friends with health through Instant Postum, the hot, full-bodied drink which is friendly to all. Delightful and wholesome at any time, it is made instantly in the cup with boiling water. Economical—costs half-a-cent
a cup. Ask for it at your restaurant, your club and on the train. For those who prefer it, there is Postum Cereal,
made by boiling for twenty minutes.
Take advantage of Carrie Blanchard's offer. Send the coupon.

Carrie Blanchard's Offer
"I want you to try Postum for thirty days. I want to start you out on your test by giving you your first week's supply.
"It seems to me that it would be a wise plan for mothers, particularly, to think of this test in connection with the health of their families.
"Will you send me your name and address?
Tell me which kind you prefer—Instant Postum

You know how many children do not like the taste of milk. You know how they like to have the same drink as the "grown-ups." You know, too, how good it is for them to have a hot drink!
Make Instant Postum for them, using hot milk instead of boiling water! They'll like the taste immediately! And they will get the food elements of wheat, plus the nourishment of milk, in a hot drink that is economical and so easy to make!

Baptist Young People Convene in Arkona Church

Five Hundred From Lambton and Middlesex Attend the Annual Gathering

The annual Baptist young people's rally was held at Arkona Baptist church Monday afternoon and evening and proved to be an inspiration to the five hundred who attended. There were delegates from many churches and the number of rural young people's societies with large representations present showed the great extent to which this branch of the Middlesex and Lambton Baptist association is being carried on.

Clarke Burney of Forest, opened the session by leading in a bright song service which was followed by devotional exercises by Rev. J. B. Brown of Poplar Hill. The address of welcome by the pastor of the entertaining church, Rev. J. H. Moore, gave to the audience the assurance of his congregation's hospitality. The reply was made by the vice-president Rev. L. J. Stones, of Wyoming, who gave very encouraging remarks but pleaded for more assistance in the work. The secretary-treasurer, Miss Ada Jackson of Sarnia, gave an able report. Roll call showed that Wortley road, Baptist church, London, Strathroy, Sarnia, Ailsa Craig and Denfield were the chief contenders for the attendance banners. Miss Richardson of the Arkona choir sang a very acceptable solo and a missionary reading by Miss May Daniels of London, created an excellent impression.

The main speaker for the afternoon was O. L. Bayner, president of the Ontario and Quebec Baptist young people's association who congratulated the convention on its achievements in the past and urged continued efforts in the future.

An acceptable solo by Clarke Burney and the announcement that Wortley road church, London, had won the first prize for attendance and that the Sarnia B.Y.P.U. had taken second honors, brought the afternoon to a close.

A banquet was served by the ladies of the church in the basement and much credit is due them for the manner in which they catered to the delegates.

Rev. W. W. Wylie of Ailsa Craig took charge of the devotional part of the evening session. The auditors report was given and declared correct. The nomination committee was next heard from and their selected officers for the coming year were as follows: president, L. J. Stones; 1st vice president, Miss P. Kennedy, London; 2nd vice president, Rev. J. H. Moore, Arkona, and secretary-treasurer, Miss Ada Jackson, Sarnia. Councillors are Miss M. James, London, Miss B. McKay, Petrolia, M. Campbell and J. Ricketts, Strathroy.

A duet by Rev. Gale and Mr. Woods of Arkona was enjoyed and Rev. R. J. Murphy of London gave a description of the revival in Ireland this summer. Rev. R. R. McKay of Central Baptist church, Sarnia, outlined the duties of the Baptist young people of the present day and stated that at the present stage of affairs minor obligations were considered before the spiritual side of life. Whole-hearted co-operation said Mr. McKay was a necessary factor to improve present conditions. A solo by Mrs. J. H. Moore and benediction by the Rev. Stones brought the convention to a close.

The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach, banish constipation, colic and indigestion and promote healthful sleep. They are absolutely guaranteed free from opiates and may be given to the new-born babe with perfect safety. You can obtain the Tablets through any medicine dealer at 25 cents a box or by mail postpaid, from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Ready-made Medicine.—You need no physician for ordinary ills when you have at hand a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. ### Garden of Eden—An Apple—A Canadian Ship

Above is photograph of tree designated by the British Government as "Tree of Knowledge."

An apple from the Garden of Eden arrived in Montreal this week aboard the Canadian Pacific steamship Melita. With it came the story of history repeated after six thousand years and a reprieve for sundry passengers who had been threatened with irons, trial in the admiralty courts and what not.

The apple came to Montreal with Robert J. Casey who was a passenger aboard the "Melita." Mr. Casey is a well-known member of the staff of the Chicago News and among the books of his authorship are "The Land of Haunted Castles" and "The Lost Kingdom of Burgundy." He was on the way home from a trip through Syria to Damascus and Bagdad taken for the purpose of gathering material for another book.

Mr. Casey said that the apple was one of a pair brought from Quernah the traditional site of the Garden of Paradise at the junction of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers in Mesopotamia. It was placed in a stateroom with Babylonian bricks and other relics from the cradle of the human race and did not figure in the log of the "Melita" until the ship had been four days out of Cherbourg. Then it disappeared.

The owner complained to Commander Clews. "I regret this unfortunate incident," said the Captain. "But of course you must have read the notice on the card given you as you came aboard: The company will not be responsible for apples and other valuables unless they are deposited with the purser. As it stands at present this looks like a matter for the appellate court. But of course we shall see what can be done about it."

Three women named Eve and a man named William Adamson from British Columbia were found on the passenger list and they fell under suspicion immediately. Attempts to establish alibis were as fruitless as they had been before Noah built the ark. Adamson admitted that he was the tenant of a cabin on the same deck as that occupied by the apple and he was summoned for an interview with the captain. He was a technical prisoner when the "Melita" reached Belle Isle and might have been landed in shackles at Quebec had it not been for an unexpected denouement. A room steward, penitent but brave appeared before the officers substituting for angels with flaming swords.

"If it's an apple you're looking for I think I can find it for you," he volunteered. "It looked like just an ordinary apple and what with the way the women passengers are always wanting things there was no way of telling about it—you know how it is. I had brought a dish of fruit into that cabin the morning all the fuss started and when I was taking out the dishes some time afterward it was only natural-like that I should have made a mistake. I picked up that apple . . ."

"And so it's lost," gasped the investigators. "That's where you're wrong," declared the steward triumphantly. "It's found. As soon as I heard of the howl I traced that apple. I followed its trail back to the pantry and thence to the cold storage room. And this morning I discovered it. One of the chefs had been in just before me. But I was determined. I went right out after him. . . . And I found the apple. . . . It's in here. . . ."

And with a magnificent air he lifted a napkin from a large pan of apple sauce.

Another apple, later found concealed in a locked trunk, will be presented to the Field Museum of Chicago. The tree from which the fruit was picked has recently been designated as the "Tree of Knowledge" by the British Government substantiating an Arab legend of long standing. The document authenticating the claims of Quernah as the site of Eden is a record of court martial, a copy of which was brought back with the apples.

The case in point was that of Thomas Rogers, a sergeant in the British Flying corps stationed in Iraq since the armistice. Rogers, climbing the tree to have his picture taken, broke off one of the branches and was arrested by the Arab police.

The verdict finds him "guilty of having broken a limb from the tree of knowledge in the Garden of Eden" and fixes his fine at "one month's pay," a lighter sentence than that visited upon his remote ancestor for a similar offence.

FINE CHRISTMAS GREETING CARDS AND STATIONERY

IN THE PUBLIC EYE BY Carl A. Glass. DO YOU EVER HAVE AN EYE-HEADACHE? An eye-headache some times accompanied by an earache and burning sensations of the eyes is caused by an over effort of the brain to understand a blurred image that has been thrown on the retina of the eye. In the eye-camera the foci are changed by the eye muscles that swell and reduce the shape of the crystalline lens. When these muscles become weakened an optometrist must prescribe the outer-man-made lenses to bring about this focus accommodation.

It was his first day in the country, and he was given a glass of milk for breakfast, fresh from the cow. "Where d'ye git this from, ma'am?" he asked, after a long, delicious draught. "From the cow, of course," was the answer. He drank again, then said wistfully. "Wish our milkman 'ad a cow!"

The Color Scheme.

A wealthy girl from America was attending a social function at a country house in England. "You American girls have not such healthy complexions as we have," said an English duchess to the girl. "I always wonder why our noblemen take such a fancy to your white faces." "It isn't our white faces that attract them," responded the American girl; "it's our greenbacks."

A Close Call

Smith—"I woke up last night with a horrible suspicion that my new gold watch was gone. So strong was the impression that I got up to look." Brown—"Well, was it gone?" Smith—"No but it was going."

A trained spider in a side show at Vienna is said to wear a ballet dress. We can easily believe it, for only the other day we saw a moth in our winter overcoat.

In the States, a man who was arrested by the Ku Klux Klan wrestled with two of his captors and broke several of their ribs. This style of wrestling is what is known as the Klatch-as-Klatch-Klan Kode.

Mr. George Harris, a farmer of Hemyock, told the magistrates that he had no idea with whom he had been at war. Heaven help him when he tries to find out who won!

At The Movies

She was well over eighty years of age, and for the first time in her life she had been taken to a moving picture theatre. As she came out a friend met her in the vestibule.

"Hope you enjoyed yourself, Mrs. Smith," she exclaimed. "Yes," replied the old dame, "I did, but I'm getting that deaf now a days, I couldn't hear a word they said."

"Farm products cost more than they used." "Yes," replied the farmer. "When a farmer is supposed to know the botanical name of what he's raisin', an' the entomological name of the insect that eats it, an' the pharmaceutical name of the chemical that will kill it, somebody's got to pay."

The Interloper

"In time of trial," says the preacher, "what brings us the greatest comfort?"

"An acquittal," responded a person who should never have been admitted."

Another Thing

Neighbor's Little Girl: "When did you get back, Mrs. Smith; did you have a good time?"

Neighbor: "Why, I haven't been away, my dear."

Neighbor's Little Girl: "Haven't you really? Well, I heard mother saying that you and Mr. Smith had been at loggerheads for a week."

The Kind Word

"I'd like," said the young man to the waitress, "Two boiled eggs and a kind word."

Very good, sir." The waitress brought his eggs five minutes later, set them down before him, and turned away. He called her back, and said: "Here, you've forgotten my kind word."

She bent over him with a laugh, and whispered, "Don't eat the eggs." French Senators are elected for nine years. In Canada they are sentenced for life.

Failed To Do It Justice

Despite the efforts of song writers to sing the glories of California, they have failed in giving an adequate description of this land of remarkable loveliness. It is a land of perpetual summer, of romance and beauty, of rest and play. Cool, inviting mountains, sun-steeped slopes and vales, balmy breezes carrying the tang of growing fruit, bring the glow of health to the cheeks of the ailing. The world-weary find rejuvenation on the sunny bathing beaches, in motoring, riding, bowling dancing, tennis or golf, while deep sea fishing, surf-bathing or aquaplaning keep the more active entertained.

There are two splendid routes to California, the first via Chicago reached by the famous "International Limited" of the Canadian National Railways, also by late daily evening connection (observation sleeper from Toronto). The "International Limited" is of course a daily train and offers a service unexcelled for speed, comfort and convenience. At Chicago connection is made with all the crack trains for the South and Southwest.

The other route is by the "Continental Limited" leaving Montreal daily and "The National" from Toronto daily via Vancouver and Victoria. This "All Canadian" route is very popular with the regular tourists to California. It takes you through the world famous Jasper National Park and Mount Robson Park and the white, mantled mountains are beautiful beyond description. At Vancouver connection is made with Rail and Steamship lines serving all destinations in California.

Any Agent of the Canadian National Railways will gladly give you literature, complete information or make through reservations for either route. n7.14.21.28

Congregational Church History

The Oldest Organized Church in This District

The Congregational Church of Watford which is celebrating the eighty-fifth anniversary of its organization on Sunday and Monday, is the oldest organized congregation in this village, and also, together with the Zion Congregational church on the corner of the second concession N.E.R., and the fifteenth sideroad, Warwick township, is apparently the oldest organized congregation in the township.

Back in 1839, some thirty-five years before Watford was incorporated as a village, Rev. W. F. Clarke, pastor of the First Congregational Church, London, journeyed out of London, along what is now the Sarina Gravel Road and established preaching stations at various intervals. His farthest point west was the township of Warwick where he commenced preaching services in an old log building on the outskirts of what is now the Village of Watford, and also in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Thomas on the second line, N.E.R. A nephew of Deacon Enoch Thomas as he was familiarly known, is still serving as deacon of the Watford church in the person of John Thomas; while several grandchildren of Enoch Thomas, together with three great-grandchildren, are serving the two churches in official positions.

The first pastor of the two churches was the Rev. Mr. Geikie, who was followed by Rev. Leonard McGlashan. During Rev. Mr. McGlashan's pastorate he started a school of higher education in the home of Deacon Enoch Thomas. It was a kind of "Preparatory School for the Ministry" and at least two Congregational ministers, the Revs. William and James Hay, brothers of Rev. Robert Hay, who was later the pastor, for many years of the Watford and Warwick churches, began their theological studies under the tuition of Rev. Mr. McGlashan.

Rev. Mr. Armour was the next pastor.

Shortly before, or about, this time a church building was erected on the Main road and fifteenth sideroad, Warwick township, on the opposite corner to that on which Knox Presbyterian church stands today, and this church was shared with the Presbyterians, who had just commenced services, just as the building erected by the Presbyterians on the outskirts of Watford, on North St., was shared by them with the Congregational church of Watford. This cordial good-fellowship between these two denominations has been manifest throughout their history ever since.

Rev. Daniel McCallum commenced his pastorate about the year 1849, and continued as pastor for about sixteen years. A singular coincidence is that at the time of Rev. Mr. McCallum's death in May 1917, at Kingston, his pastor was Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, the present pastor of the Watford Church.

Rev. John Salmon became pastor in 1866, and during his pastorate the first Congregational Church edifice was erected in the Village of Watford, this being a frame building, 30 by 40 feet in size, painted white, with Gothic windows and doors. The Church, which was known as the Bethel Congregational Church, stood on Victoria street, and was opened on Friday, Jan. 7th, 1870, Rev. Dr. Wilkes, of Montreal, being the special preacher at the afternoon services, the Church being filled for the occasion. A tea meeting was held in the evening, the church being crowded and people turned away from its doors.

During Rev. Mr. Salmon's pastorate the Zion Congregational church, in Warwick township, decided to give up the use of the edifice on the Main Road, and, having secured a new site on the corner of the Second concession N.E.R., and fifteenth sideroad, in 1868 erected the present church edifice which was opened on Sunday, January 31st, 1869, with Rev. J. Wood, of Brantford, and Rev. Mr. Bauld, C.P., as special preachers in the morning and afternoon, and the pastor, Rev. J. Salmon, as preacher in the evening.

The brick used in the new church was donated by one of the members the late R. J. McCormick, afterwards M.L.A. for East Lambton.

Rev. Robert Hay followed Mr. Salmon as pastor, and remained for some years after which he resigned and was succeeded by Rev. J. B. Colwell, who served as pastor for about one year. Rev. Robert Hay was then invited to return for a second term as pastor, and served the church faithfully for about fifteen years.

Rev. Mr. Hay continued to reside in Watford following his retirement from the active ministry, and is the only former pastor who is buried in Watford Cemetery.

During Mr. Hay's pastorate the present site on Main street was purchased in February, 1889, and a large frame church edifice erected.

Rev. Mr. Hay closed his pastorate early in 1894, and in the middle of that year, Rev. W. H. Madill became pastor for a short term. In 1895 Rev. Albert Margrett succeeded Mr. Madill and continued as pastor until December 31st, 1898.

Rev. Charles R. Ashdown served the church as pastor from April to September 1899, and was followed by Rev. C. H. Routcliffe, who commenced his pastorate in October 1899, and continued until the middle of 1902 when he resigned on account of ill-health.

Rev. Albert Margrett returned to the church as supply-pastor for several months during Mr. Routcliffe's illness.

Rev. J. P. Gerrie B.A., accepted a call to the pastorate and commenced his work in September, 1902, continuing as pastor until September, 1904.

Rev. Matthew Kelly succeeded Rev. Mr. Gerrie, commencing his pastorate in November, 1904, and remaining with the Church until April, 1911.

The Church building was destroyed by fire on April 4th, 1911, and services were held in the old Town Hall. The present brick building was erected in 1911, the re-opening services being held on January 28, 1912.

Rev. R. M. Stevenson, F.R.G.S., served the Church as pastor for various periods from 1911 until the end of 1918; and the present pastor, Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, commenced his pastorate on May 4th, 1919, coming here from the pastorate of the First Congregational Church, Kingston, Ontario.

Several of the former pastors have been very prominent in the life and work of the Denomination, serving on various Denominational Executive Committees; the following having been honored with election as Chairman of the Congregational Union of Canada: Rev. Daniel MacCallum, in 1876; Rev. J. P. Gerrie, B.A., in 1903, while pastor of the Watford Church; Rev. Matthew Kelly, in 1919; and Rev. Albert Margrett, in 1920. The present pastor, Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, has served as Young People's Editor of "The Canadian Congregationalist" for the past seven years, and also as a member of the Executive of the Department of Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies of the Congregational Union of Canada.

Discovered in 1513

Four hundred and eleven years ago an intrepid Spanish explorer and adventurer, Juan Ponce de Leon, by name, first set foot on land of luxuriant sub-tropic growth known today as Florida.
Since that time Florida has become perhaps the most alluring Winter Resort in the world. A warm-watered ocean offers bathing at its best; a few miles off-shore the monstrous and sporty Tuna and Tarpon await the more adventurous disciples of Isak Walton; a marvellous beach fringed with exotic palms, broad motor highways, scores of green, velvet-smooth golf courses—the whole steeped in glorious sunshine and perfumed with the fragrance of fruit blossoms and sub-tropical flowers.

Nature has lavished her bounties on Florida, and man has moulded them for his convenience. There are facilities for every summer recreation—surf-bathing, deep sea fishing, boating, golfing, tennis, riding, motoring, bowling and dancing; beautiful hotels, splendid apartments and bungalows house the visitor in luxurious comfort.
Canadian National Railways can offer a splendid service in helping you plan your visit, together with many choices in routing. Any agent will gladly supply full information and make your reservations. n7-4t

The neighborhood was very sorry to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Mary E. (Minnie) Wiley, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Marshall, second line north, on Thursday, Oct. 30th. Deceased was a widow of the late Nelson Wiley of Wisbeach, who predeceased her eighteen years ago. ### OUR LETTER BOX Skidgale Mission, B. C.

Q. C. I., Oct. 14th. 1924.
Our last mail boat brought my souvenir badge, which I think is a beauty. Many thanks. I certainly was with the Old Boys and Girls of Watford in spirit from 17-20 August. However, it's nice to even be missed at times! Am indeed pleased the re-union was such a success and the surplus goes to a worthy cause.
Very Sincerely yours,
Annie M. Andrews.

"Who are those fellows, Mike?"
"They are Shriners."
"And what are Shriners?"
"Why, they are Masons."
"Sure, and what the devil do they want now? They're gettin' $18 a day."

NEWS BRIEFS

Laura Jean Libby, widely known woman writer, died on Saturday at her Brooklyn home. She had been ill only a short time. She was born in New York, 62 years ago. Miss Libby wrote more than 50 novels and a vast number of articles and short stories.

Fees of returning officers who officiated in recording the plebiscite vote will be less than the scale recently in effect in taking of similar votes. Attorney-General Nickle announces that the minimum to be paid such officials, for one riding, is now $300, and the maximum $500, although in general elections the amounts may be somewhat higher. The amount is determined by the number of names on the list, and ridings with more than 15,000 names on the list will be allowed $500, while in smaller ridings salaries of $300 and $400 will be paid.

The Canadian weekly newspaper editors who visited Europe and Britain this summer have some amusing incidents and stories to recount to their readers. Lorne A. Eddy, editor of the Walkerton Telescope, and President of the C. W. A. this year, crossed the Atlantic both ways without experiencing the terrors of seasickness tells the following story on one of the party—

"It was late at night. No one seemed to be about and the poor woman was very seasick. She thought if she could only get up to the deck a few minutes the fresh air would do her good. So, in her nightgown, she was crawling up the stairs when she met an equally sick man coming down. She gave a feeble scream of embarrassment." "Don't worry lady," the man groaned. "I'll never live to tell it."

PRINTED MATTER of all kinds when you want it.—Guide-Advocate

A few days ago Miss Kathleen McIntyre, of Ailsa-Craig, received a fine gold wrist watch from the Bell Telephone Company as a slight token of their appreciation of her good work at the switchboard during the disastrous fire at Ailsa-Craig.

A quiet marriage took place at the rectory, Glencoe, on Wednesday, Oct. 15, when Miss Hazel Dodge, only daughter of Mr. Frank Dodge, of Alvinston, became the bride of Robert Dudley, of Inwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dudley, of Brooke.

Mrs. Esther Tyndall Tudor, widow of the late Sanford Tudor, died at her home in Parkhill on Tuesday, October 7th, in her 80th year. She is survived by two sons, George of Parkhill, and William of Theford; three daughters Mrs. Geo. Ross and Mrs. J. W. Skinner, of Parkhill, and Mrs. John Thompson, of East Williams.

While operating a creamseparator Isla Batchelor, residing near Dundalk had her scalp completely torn off. She had just finished operating the machine when her hair, which was not bobbed, caught in the flanges where the handle cogs mesh to turn the separator. Her hair was literally torn off her head, and the scalp had to be sewn to her head by two physicians.

There is a movement on foot to have the automobile taxes for road maintenance placed on the gasoline instead of on auto licenses. The proposed mode of taxation would be more than paid in accordance with the use they make of the roads. It is heavy trucking and fast driving that destroys the roads, and car owners who make only occasional quiet drives have to pay as much for road upkeep as do those who do the damage. In many of the neighboring States the tax on gasoline is proving satisfactory.
