FOR AND ABOUT WOMAN

THE MARTIN'S SONG.

Dear Heart, to-day, somewhere I heard a matting martin sing.
 In his wild flight above my head upon a tireless wing.
 And with the note so new and sweet,
 so plaintive, strange, and low,
 There seemed to flood within my soul
 love songs of long ago.

He did not linger in his flight to rest
 nor yet to sing.
 I only caught a fleeting glimpse of polished breast and wing.
 But with it came the fragrant scent
 of climbing roses red,
 And with it came the memory of summer days long dead.

Sweet summer days and glorious nights, when hearts beat fast and true;
 When down the primrose path of life
 I wandered, love, with you;
 But now the days of youth are dead—
 the path of Life is long,
 And only memories of all come with the martin's sing.

Garden as a Sanitarium.

Among the new fancies in horticulture in France, says Town and Country, is one which is not only esthetic, but at the same time logical and scientific, and it is gaining many disciples. It is the curative garden. Vlaud-Briand, a well-known writer on such subjects, has given its history in a most interesting paper, accompanied by a number of photographs.

He calls this essay "The Flowers Which Cure." It seems that several English physicians have been practicing one form of the theory. They find that nervous persons and persons slightly afflicted mentally derive great benefit in summer from sitting from three to four hours a day under certain trees. The apple, the cherry, the acacia and the ash possess these curative properties. Others are made to pass the day from June until the vintage in pergolas under grapevines.

Vlaud Briand, in referring to this treatment, gives quite a flip to the careless and inartistic landscape gardener. He says that all gardens should be restful. They should in a certain sense be sanitariums; but they are nerve-racking, because the first rule of the painter is so frequently disregarded. This rule is one of complementary colors, as necessary for painting as harmony and chord building are for musical composition.

Green is the complement of red, orange of blue, and violet or purple of yellow. You can bring yellow and violet together, red and green, blue and orange; but yellow will create an optical discord when mingled with orange; and so will red when combined with violet or purple. Thus, gardens should be planted so that there shall be no clash in hues and tints. The gardener is the artist of the soil, and from his palette of seedlings he can paint a picture with nature's colors. Red, yellow and orange are stimulating; blue and green are calming, and violet is depressing. Here you have the list of remedies.

People who are in a state of high nervous tension should be treated in a garden planted with larkspurs, blue-bells, wistaria vines, delphinium and lilacs, and there should be masses of shrubbery. Others, who are tired, exhausted, depressed, should be brought into gay and cheerful pleasure grounds filled with brilliant blossoms and laid out and furnished in a perfection of artistic taste.

PUBLICITY FRIGHTENED MAN WHO STOLE CHILD

Read of His Crime in the Newspapers, Then Gave Girl a Ticket and Told Her to Go Home.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Veronica Cassidy, a 12-year-old girl, whose abduction last Thursday caused unusual police activity, returned home this evening from Cincinnati, whither she had been taken by her alleged abductor, F. J. Blair.

She told her parents that Blair had placed her aboard a train immediately after leading her away from home, and that they had been in a rooming house in the Ohio city, until this morning, when the man, gave her a ticket to Chicago and told her to go home.

Blair, it is alleged, enticed Veronica from her home by a newspaper advertisement "to be a companion of his wife."

A search of the room which Blair had occupied revealed several letters tending to show that he had been a contractor or builder, at Moyle, British Columbia. The papers proved also that Blair had been in that town as late as July 22. The girl said that, after Blair had read the newspapers on the morning after their arrival in Cincinnati, he became nervous and appeared worried. The police believe the man to send her away.

Passed for His Niece. On her return home the girl said to her relatives: "I had a perfectly lovely time. Mr. Blair said that he had to hurry to see his sick wife, and he sent me home.

"Mr. Blair was awful nice to me," she said. "He brought me candy, took me to the park to see the animals, and bought me a new dress, a purse and three handkerchiefs. We went to the Polk-street station right after we left home Thursday, and he bought two tickets to Cincinnati. When we got there we went to an hotel and he told the clerk that I was his niece. I heard him say this, but I did not say anything. After breakfast on Friday, he read to me, told me stories and then took me to the park. I saw in one of the papers how I had been kidnapped, and asked Mr. Blair if he was going to take me home. He said that he would send me back to Chicago in the morning. Then he kissed me and I became frightened when he hurt me and cried. This frightened him and I did not see him again until late this morning. He bought me a checkered dress and some other things and then took me to the train."

Were Noticed by Guests.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 1.—Frank Blair and niece, in the manner in which a man and girl about 12 years registered at a rooming house at Fifth and Bay Mills-streets, last Thursday. The man asked for two separate rooms. The two remained until Saturday morning. Guests in the house noticed that the girl's eyes appeared heavy and gave the appearance of having spent much time crying. When asked what was the trouble the girl said that she was homesick and the two immediately left the house.

Kingston Excursion.

The Kingston Old Boys' Excursion on Saturday afternoon next will undoubtedly be largely attended, judging from the numerous enquiries received, many from outside places; but ample accommodation for all will be provided. That the trip may not be tedious, very few stops will be made. Tickets may be purchased from the G.T.R., or at the station.

TORONTO COUPLE CLUNG TO UPSET BOAT ALL NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Gasgin Have Thrilling Experience Near Port Dalhousie.

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 1.—(Special)—A thrilling experience was that of Mr. and Mrs. Gasgin, residents of Toronto, who spent Friday night battling with waves and wind on Lake Ontario.

In the afternoon they left Jordan Beach in a two-masted thirty-foot sail boat with the intention of cruising to Port Dalhousie. Before the destination was reached, however, a violent wind suddenly arose, and it was impossible to make the harbor. The boat, continuing before the wind down the lake in an easterly direction and the occupants had recourse to the anchor, which, however, snapped from the chain, and the boat was practically left to the mercy of the waves and wind.

Eventually it turned topsy-turvy, but the man and woman, although dressed to the skin, hung on to the overturned boat, which tossed about all night.

In the early morning the boat was washed ashore near McCallas Grove, and with much difficulty the man and woman made their way to the summer house.

William Wilson of Merriton, with his wife, did everything for the shipwrecked ones, giving them nourishment and warm clothes. To-day Mr. and Mrs. Gasgin did not appear to have suffered any serious results.

FLAT CAR RUNS WILD.

Motorman on Niagara Central Saves Load of Passengers.

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 1.—(Special)—An unusual and exciting trolley accident occurred yesterday afternoon at Thorold. While the car bound for Niagara Falls, filled with passengers, stood at the station awaiting orders, the motorman, Tom Clark, saw a flatcar rushing across the trestle on the downgrade and evidently beyond control of the one man aboard. Clark quickly sent his car back towards Merriton, with the wild flat car quickly following, and it was followed in turn by an engine which caught it some distance below the station.

AMALGAMATION OF UNIONS. Lithographic Trades May Now Get Together.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Preparations are being made by the various branches of the lithographic trade for the amalgamation of the unions in these branches into one central body, so as to act in unison in case of any emergency. A convention of representatives of the different branches will begin Monday in Buffalo for that purpose. Delegates from the local branches will be at the convention.

The new central body, it is planned, will take in the national unions of the pressmen, transferers and proofers and feeders, artists, and lithographic stone preparers. No strike movement is contemplated now, but an agitation will be started against the alleged bringing of uncut lithographs from Europe as "unfinished work" on which there is only a nominal duty.

It is asserted by the lithographers that this foreign work throws a great many of the American lithographers into idleness.

INCREASED FREIGHT RATES WOULD BE FATAL. Japanese in Porcelain Trade Will Be Compelled to Abandon Shipments if Rates Go Up.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 2.—News was brought by the steamer Oanfa, which reached port to-day from Japan, that Japanese shippers, particularly those engaged in the porcelain and curio trade, will be obliged to abandon shipments by the direct steamer to the United States, if rates are increased in consequence of the ruling of the Inter-States Commerce Commission to be enforced Nov. 1.

The Japan Mail says strenuous exertions have been made by the Nippon Yusen Kaisha and others to induce the American railway companies to reconsider the proposed changes and, as assurances have been telegraphed from Chicago by the railway company, that every effort will be made to arrange a satisfactory freight schedule.

It is pointed out that any increased rate, such as contemplated, would be fatal to the trade and the Buez route would have to be chosen instead of the trans-pacific steamers.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 2.—Izzet Pasha, the former sub-secretary of the sultan, who a few days ago was given a post that amounted practically to exile, has succeeded in making his escape from Constantinople. He left the German Embassy at Thessalonica, where he had taken refuge, on board the embassy launch. The young Turks made active efforts to stop the Maria, even applying to the British Embassy to compel the surrender of Izzet.

C., Aug. 2.—News was brought by the steamer Oanfa, which reached port to-day from Japan, that Japanese shippers, particularly those engaged in the porcelain and curio trade, will be obliged to abandon shipments by the direct steamer to the United States, if rates are increased in consequence of the ruling of the Inter-States Commerce Commission to be enforced Nov. 1.

The Japan Mail says strenuous exertions have been made by the Nippon Yusen Kaisha and others to induce the American railway companies to reconsider the proposed changes and, as assurances have been telegraphed from Chicago by the railway company, that every effort will be made to arrange a satisfactory freight schedule.

It is pointed out that any increased rate, such as contemplated, would be fatal to the trade and the Buez route would have to be chosen instead of the trans-pacific steamers.

Our August Sale of FURNITURE

Begins on Tuesday, the day after Toronto's Civic Holiday.

For a couple of months past our buying organization has been making large preparations for this Annual Sale of Furniture. Toronto's needs are growing with its rapidly increasing population, and this, more than anything else, has encouraged us to make enormously big purchases. The price at which we've managed to mark this Furniture should make its distribution the biggest on record.

Save for a few American samples, all this Furniture was made in Canada—the product of half a hundred Canadian factories. Vast quantities of Furniture are here because this year vast quantities have been produced, and we have been able to take the entire surplus production of overstocked manufacturers—the good ones, that is, for bear in mind there isn't a piece of Furniture here that was made to sell at a cheap price. Our reputation for selling only sound, honestly-made Furniture gives us an advantage over other firms, for it is to us that the higher class of manufacturers send their goods by the carload.

In this way we get Furniture that you can find nowhere else, and our range of styles has never been wider or more attractive than at present.

Houscholders, hotelmen, managers of institutions—every user of Furniture, in fact, will do well to visit the exhibition on our fourth floor, Tuesday morning. It is impossible to get an idea of the good things we offer by simply reading an advertisement. But from day to day certain specials will be published in the papers, and those who cannot come to the store should take advantage of them through the mails. We will send you any further particulars that you may want.

The following partial list may help you to judge the calibre of this sale. Even if what you want is not mentioned here, you may be sure it's on our fourth floor,—and it's at a low price.

Earmarks of a Bull Market Still Visible at New York

Another Week of Easiness on Wall Street - Toronto Market a Miniature Imitation.

World Office, Saturday Evening, Aug. 1. The advancing market at New York is an utter enigma to the outside public. Traders are not with legislation while they are long of the market and more so when they take the opposite tact. It is altogether contrary to common prudence that falling revenues should be marked by rising values for securities, but this has been Wall-st's method for years and will so continue until the populace as a whole refuses to take part in keeping intact a combination which only serves to protect an immense rake-off from the public and survives by the shrews of the nation. Morgan and Harriman control sufficient millions to make the public believe that they are imbeciles, and the people acquiesce.

It is utterly useless to attempt to arrive at the value of any security listed on the New York Exchange. The Wall-street financiers offer the plainest inducements to any and all to investigate and draw deductions from any of the various companies, and when this has been accomplished they easily confound the whole reasoning by manipulation and rigging of the market. Falling railroad earnings, decreased revenues in the coal and iron industry, and difficulties in financing are surrounded by rising prices in the stock market. It is beyond the comprehension of any but those in the "know" why such should be, but it is so, and traders to be successful in this the fustiest of all markets must so govern themselves as to act in accordance with the dominating interests.

Since a week ago, if comparisons can be made, events have demonstrated an improvement in regard to stock market conditions. The statement of the Steel trust for the June quarter showed net earnings over $20,000,000, an increase of more than $1,000,000 over the estimate. Accompanying the statement was the announcement that the company would be closed upon to operate at over 70 per cent. of its plant for immediate future business, and this was taken and intended to infer that a rapid improvement in commercial conditions is in effect. The government report on the cotton crop issued on Friday was of more consequence in that it implied a standing of over 83 per cent., as compared with a ten-year average of 81.2 per cent. Both of the above were prone to influence outside speculation in regard to the market, and prices were made to agree with the opinion.

During the week there was some fear felt regarding the Wheeling and Lake Erie railway notes. Harriman might have attempted to take a hand in this difficulty, as he did in the Erie trouble some months ago, and the financing was accomplished without causing a liquidation. Part of the letter of acceptance of the Erie railway notes was about as cunningly devised as it was possible for an astute politician to contrive. He advised the trusts, but does not wish to disclose the details, and is stroking them. While promising to maintain the Rooseveltian policy, he cleverly endeavors to point out that his interests in the people impelled him to keep a check on the big financial interests, that would work to the harm of many of both. The market was pleased with his interpretation of affairs, but the end is not yet.

To get back to the speculative side of things, for there is nothing new in New York, it would appear that the financiers and stock backers are determined to put prices up, and to clean up of margins may be ultimately consummated. Pools of every description are working overtime to produce a long interest, and to accomplish this end. The public has not yet acquired sufficient confidence to warrant a break in the active stocks on the exchange, but the temptations are accumulating and the time is but a question of time. All kinds of money are available for market operations and until the valve opens and the exhaust is let out, there are no signs of a break in values, but it is becoming dangerous to follow the active stocks on a two-point stop loss. Several issues have made new high records for the year this week, and until these occurrences cease the bull market can be counted upon as still in effect.

Local financiers have essayed to copy the example of the Wall-street manipulators and make the Toronto stock market imitate the indication of that at New York. Contrary to all ideas a number of speculative specialties, controlled by one group of financiers, have all made advances during the week, and to all intents and purposes formed the bulk of business done on the exchange. The reason assigned for the extraordinary movement in the foreign traction securities is that the British investor has taken a sudden interest in the securities, and is buying them regardless of cost.

The Sterling Bank of Canada.

Notice is hereby given that a dividend of one and one-quarter per cent. (1 1/4 per cent) for the quarter ending July 31st instant, (being at the rate of five per cent. (5 per cent) per annum) on the paid-up capital stock of this bank, has been declared, and that the same bank on and after the 15th day of August next, the Transfer Books will be closed from the 20th of July to the 31st July, both days inclusive.

called good, it is always advisable to look at the market movement after it has been completed. In the ordinary course of business traders would have called the market a Union Pacific, D. & M. & Co., Harriman & Co., and other houses very good, but the price of the stock advanced, and the market was not so good. Marshall, Spader & Co. to J. G. Beatty at the close of the market.

The close of the month under review finds the average level of the active list well maintained and above the record of a year ago, and also for any period since that date. The market appears to have successfully digested the several movements of the last ten days of July this class of trading was perhaps a nearly supreme test of the market.

In any event the dominating influence is more favorable at this writing than at any time during the current year, and notwithstanding the many problems yet to be solved, and the vicissitudes of the political campaign, we are inclined to look for a still higher level in the very near future.

J. R. Heintz & Co. wired R. B. Holden at the close of the market. There was considerable profit-taking in Reading, which caused a sharp break in that issue of a couple of points. Next week, however, insiders were conspicuous buyers, which is a good stock to be long of. L.O. and P.R.S. should be bought on dips. Marshall, Spader & Co. to J. G. Beatty at the close.

The outlook now favors further general advance and activity Monday. Undoubtedly there has been heavy accumulation by big interests yesterday and to-day at which the market has been considerably higher levels before attempting distribution.

A gentleman attired in light tweeds of quiet pattern, accompanied by a lady of most distinguished mien, alighted at 7.30 Saturday morning at the Queen's Hotel. Pole-Carew, and Saturday morning was spent in the realm of classed beauty, the brilliant drawing-room queen, Lady Carew.

General Sir Reginald Pole-Carew, K.C.B., C.V.O., is the distinguished former named. General is the third daughter of the Marquis of Ormonde. It may be interesting to know that the name is pronounced "Polly-Carew."
