

CHIEF JUSTICE GRAHAM OF N. S.

(Halifax Echo) Hon. Wallace Graham, senior judge of the supreme court of Nova Scotia, has been appointed chief justice of the province of Nova Scotia, succeeding Sir Charles Townshend, who retired from the bench a few weeks ago.

The remarkable coincidence is noted that Judge Graham's appointment was made public concurrently with the news of the death of Sir Robert Weatherbe, a former chief justice of Nova Scotia, and the first partner of the newly appointed chief justice when the latter first entered the profession of law, forty-four years ago.

Chief Justice Graham was born at Antigonish on January 12th, 1846, and was the son of the late David and Elizabeth Bigelow Graham. He received his primary education at Antigonish and graduated from Acadia University, receiving his B. A. degree in 1867.

Chief Justice Graham was called to the bar in 1871 and practiced in Halifax where he was first a partner of Robert L. Weatherbe and then being known as Weatherbe and Graham, subsequently Thompson and Graham and Tupper, when Charles H. Tupper joined this firm after the death of his senior partner, Samuel G. Higney to the bench. Then when John S. D. Thompson became a judge of the supreme court Mr. Graham formed the firm of William F. Parker, Graham, Tupper, Bowden and Parker. It was in this firm that he had as partners during his career men who became known throughout Canada as Sir John Thompson, Sir Robert Borden, both prime ministers of the dominion and Sir Herbert Tupper, himself minister for many years in the dominion cabinet and the son of a prime minister of Canada.

There has never been another law firm in Canada to have the honor of giving two prime ministers to the dominion, and in this respect the firm of which the chief justice was a member of years the senior partner stands unique, probably in the empire. Subsequently the firm became Borden, Parker and Chisholm.

SAV AEROPLANE BATTLE Chief of Police McCollom, Fredericton, has received a letter from his brother, Private Ernest McCollom, formerly of St. John, stating that he had been in hospital in France with wounds sustained from barbed-wire encountered during a charge and was about to rejoin his regiment, the Princess Patricia's Light Infantry, in the trenches.

The day before writing the letter, Private McCollom witnessed a duel between a British aeroplane and a German "Taube". After a long fight which was seen by many troops, the German aircraft was brought down.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a becoming costume of blue and white, and carried a white prayer book. Many beautiful and costly gifts were received, including cut glass and silver, and also a check from the bride's parents. After June 1, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will make their home at Paddock street.

CABLES FROM A. S. C. Mrs. Rosa, of Waterloo street, received a cablegram this morning from her son, Wm. Rosa, sergeant major with No. 3 Co. of the Divisional Train, telling of his safe arrival in England. She has another son, Frank, in the same unit.

C. H. Hanson, of Fairville, received a cablegram this morning from his son, Harold, of the medical section of the Divisional Train, saying that he had arrived safely in Avonmouth, England.

The receipt of a cable from Lieut. Col. Massey, containing the good news of his safe arrival, will put an end to the various rumors which have gained currency during the last few weeks with respect to the sailing of his steamer, the "Grampan". It had been said that they were up to a day or two ago, still outside Halifax, under guard of British warships as a convoy, and another report yesterday had it that they had put back to port again at that place. Today's cable will definitely end such rumors.

A SOLDIER'S FUNERAL (Amherst News). Awe inspiring in its solemnity, was the military funeral of the late Lance Corporal William Elmore, of the 40th Battalion, held yesterday afternoon. With the long dirge-like roll of drums, the reversed guns and the slow measured step of the deceased's late comrades in arms, made the sad spectacle one that will be long remembered.

The closing ceremonial rites were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Dobbie, the funeral taking place from Christ church, a man and woman, musical comedy sketch team putting on a side-splitting farce "A Rural Piteous".

LACK OF AMMUNITION KEEPS ROUMANIA OUT Plans Based on Secret Treaty With Austria and Germany, Denounced Since Beginning of War

London, April 29.—The Daily Mail Bucharest correspondent answers the question: "Why is Roumania not yet in the field?" "Because hitherto she has not had a sufficient supply of ammunition to make her position safe, and because of the small supply of ammunition because her plans were based on the hypothesis that Austria in any way—naturally so—she had a secret treaty, an offensive and defensive alliance, with Austria and Germany. This however, was denounced at the beginning of the present war on the same grounds as Italy denounced hers."

ST. GEORGE TAKEN FOR HOSPITAL SHIP The steamer St. George of the C. P. R. Bay of Fundy service, was being definitely taken over by the admiralty for use overseas. She is to be taken to England for service in the Mediterranean, but few changes in the way of remodeling for the purpose. The steamer will be used with her sister ships, of the same type which are now in the Red Cross service, conveying wounded from France and hospitalizing them.

IMPERIAL'S FINE FILLS

Tonight Concludes "The Crucible" — "Loss of Birkenhead" Tomorrow

Mark Lee Luther's splendid story "The Crucible" is the imperial yesterday attracted a large number of readers of current fiction as well as those who follow the big plays as produced in the popular centres and there was general satisfaction with the film production.

It is a fact that not all good novels or spoken drama lend themselves to the silent form of play, but "The Crucible" is a brilliant exception, for its powerful and exciting action, combined with an intense love-story, holds the watcher in closest attention throughout. It is a social story dealing with the trials of a good-natured toymaker who was put in the reformatory through the influence of a too exacting mother and a quarrelsome sister. Indeed the story reads a splendid lesson to many a household in St. John.

For Friday and Saturday the big feature will be that never-dying story "The Loss of the Birkenhead" which has been one of the conspicuous incidents in British military history and which is familiar to the old and young both here and in story. The picture is of English make and faithfully portrays that terrible night off the rocky coast when the troopship with its hundreds of men, women and children, was sunk, the soldiers standing shoulder to shoulder on the deck as they sank beneath the waves, while their wives and little ones crowded the lifeboats.

In a pretty story preceding this dramatic climax, dealing with the enlistment of soldiers for foreign service of that period and the quaint English villages, old-fashioned costumes and uniforms and methods of joining and drilling the army, come to us now with especial interest. Parents should make it a point to allow their children to see "The Loss of the Birkenhead", which is truly an inspiration in these troublous times.

The Imperial's programme this week are causing considerable wonderment by their splendid work on the revolving stage, and the reason is the wonderful treat for those patronizing the week-end programme. Next week another good feature is the handsome comedy, "A Man and a Woman", musical comedy sketch team putting on a side-splitting farce "A Rural Piteous".

LESS THAN THIRD OF GERMAN INTERNED

London, April 29.—Of the 27,000 male Germans above the age of seventeen years, in the United Kingdom, only 8,000 have been interned in the concentration camps. The remaining 19,000 are for having to report to the police at certain periods, quite as free as the neutral aliens in Great Britain.

These figures were made public in a government paper containing a memorandum between the British foreign office, and the American ambassador, regarding the treatment of civilians.

ST. JOHN MEN APPEAR IN OFFICIAL CASUALTY LIST

(Continued from page 1) are completed the total will be up to two or three thousand. It is apparent that already about a third of the officers of the division have fallen and the deduction is almost inevitable that every officer half a dozen men may have gone down. Many days will have elapsed before the bodies of the men who are reported to be missing will be recovered, and the bodies of the men who are reported to be missing will be recovered, and the bodies of the men who are reported to be missing will be recovered.

Reinforcements. In the meantime reinforcements from the Canadians at Shorncliffe have gone on and there is reason to anticipate that before long another Canadian division will be on the firing line with reinforcements from the British and the fourth contingents. Whatever the depressing effects of the news from Flanders these days, the effect upon recruiting at home is most notable. The loss among the Canadians have caused a decided stimulus in the work of enlistment.

BURGERS BUSY

Some thief or thieves have been operating in the vicinity of Market Square during the last couple of weeks, but as far as can be learned, they have not been very successful. Recently an attempt was made to force an entrance into the wholesale store of R. Sullivan & Company, in Dock street. The attempt was made from the roof. From a hill in the rear of the building the roof was easily accessible, and it was at that place that the unsuccessful attempt was made. The culprit forced a board in the elevator tower, but apparently because of the prospect of having to slide down a wire hawser for three stories. Even had they made the attempt they would have been frustrated, for the doors in the elevator shaft were bolted on the outside. It is also reported that another business house in that vicinity was entered and $20 taken from a till. This, however, could not be substantiated.

DEAN APPEAL DISMISSED

Judge Forbes gave judgment this morning in the case of the King vs. Benjamin Dean, which came up on review from the police court, dismissing the appeal without costs. The defendant in this case was convicted by Magistrate Ritchie on a charge of forswearing, and fined $30. The case was reviewed and argument took place some time ago, judgment being reserved at that time. C. S. Hamilton appeared for Dean, and Mr. Baxter, K.C., for the complainant.

A COLD PLUNGE

Some excitement was caused about noon today on the North Wharf when a man under the influence of liquor wandered too near the edge and losing his balance, tumbled over into the harbor. The plunge sobered him very quickly and he struck out for safety. With the assistance of some men about the wharf he was pulled up on the wharf again and quickly sought the warmth of a neighboring furnace to dry out his clothes.

THE WAR NEWS.

Today's cables say that the Germans admit the failure of their attempt to capture Ypres and crumple up the British left wing. They are retreating from positions northeast of Ypres, and are being hard pressed by British and French troops, who give them no rest. We are also told that they have been using new troops, many of them under fire for the first time, in this battle, and that they have been demoralized by the terrific shell fire.

THE DARDANELLES

The Allies have been successful in landing supporting armies on both sides of the Dardanelles, near the entrance to the straits, and the co-operation with the powerful fleet which is attempting to force the passage. It is a task of great magnitude, and although the Turks have thus far failed to win any distinction whatever in this war they are sturdy fighters, and in positions where they are strongly entrenched they may be expected to make a very stubborn resistance. Here, however, as elsewhere, artillery will play a most important part in the struggle, and it will probably be found that in due time the Allies will prove their superiority in this respect. It was only a few days ago that reports that have come from the quarter of the Dardanelles have shown that the war in which they have thus far gained no glory and have suffered much loss, and apparently they depend a good deal upon German officers and gunners, and of these the supply must be somewhat limited. We need not look for an immediate victory in the region of the Dardanelles, but there is every reason to expect that the combined operations of the allied fleet and armies.

COL. HAMBRO'S MISSION

The mission on which Col. Hammond of the Salvation Army comes to Canada is of great importance. As set forth in yesterday's issue of The Times, he is here in connection with a great scheme to avoid unemployment as far as possible at the end of the war, and to do it through the agency of emigration from the Mother Country. There will be a considerable period after the war when everything relating to employment will be in an unsatisfactory condition. Hundreds of thousands of men will return from the war, and while many of them will be able to take up their old work again, many others, because of the unparalleled dislocation of business, will find nothing to do. Many of these will desire to make their homes in some other part of the Empire, and Canada should offer the most inviting field. Of course the problem offers serious financial difficulties, but these can be overcome by co-operation between the governments. The Salvation Army has offered to place its emigration department at the service of the Empire for this purpose. That department was established eleven years ago, and has already distributed nearly 90,000 British people among the Dominions overseas. It is an Empire-wide organization, and has commended itself to those in England who are interested in themselves in the great problem which must be solved at the end of the war. The London Standard says:— "The emigration department of the Salvation Army is quite the most important of the bodies which deal with emigration." The Daily Graphic says: "In the magnitude of its charitable operations throughout the world many people are apt to lose sight of the great work the Salvation Army is doing through its emigration department. It is not merely that by its agency it is safeguarding the immigrant in every possible way, but it is steadily and surely forging link by link a vast chain binding together the British Empire."

PRaise FOR CANADIANS.

The Canadian newspapers speak with pride, and they certainly have the right to do so, of the gallantry exhibited by the Canadian troops in the recent great battle near Ypres. In the sharp German assault upon the lines of the Allies the Canadians were left temporarily unsupported and were forced to fall back. The French and Belgians were also forced back, but the Canadians, who had been ordered to hold their ground, rallied and charged—regaining the ground that they had lost and doing a vast part toward saving the day for the Allies. There were great losses and the horror of the war is now brought home to our neighbors across the border as it has not been previously, but they have the consolation of knowing that the Canadian contingent did its full duty.

Great Canada's Wholes!

"Great Canada's Wholes! Ain't they got any health laws in that town?"

More and more evidence is required to prove that German soldiers have been guilty of utterly brutal and inhuman conduct. One report says that Canadians found that wounded comrades had been bayoneted to death by the Germans, and if the report is true, we can but well believe the additional statement that their revenge was swift and terrible.

Mr. A. DeWitt Foster takes care to say that he does not consider that he was read out of the Conservative party by Premier Borden, and adds that his future is in the hands of his friends. His resignation was voluntary and not in response to a demand from Sir Robert Borden. Neither has the latter asked for the resignation of Mr. Garland. It would be indeed interesting if Mr. Foster and Mr. Garland, as well as Mr. J. K. Fleming, should be candidates for the Conservative party in the next elections.

Rev. Dr. Shearer made it clear to a St. John audience last evening that there are bad housing conditions in some Canadian cities which could hardly be surpassed in European centres. We cannot be too often reminded of the importance, not only of town planning, but of housing reform. There is a great need of it in St. John. Occasionally conditions are revealed which shock the community, but they are soon forgotten, and there is still lacking that organized effort which alone can bring about the necessary reform. There are slum conditions in St. John, and they should not be tolerated. Just as soon as the pressure of the war is relaxed the questions of better housing, better care of children, better provision for the jail prisoners and some other matters must be taken up seriously, and dealt with by the people who are now so nobly responding to the appeal for personal service under war conditions.

CALAIS TO CELEBRATE THE GLORIOUS FOURTH. Elaborate Programme of Sports Arranged for Border City; Excursions Planned.

Calais, April 29—Calais will have an old time celebration of the glorious Fourth of July, under the auspices of the Calais Fire Department. Six bands of music will be in the big parade which will be composed of decorated floats, automobiles and fire apparatus in addition to street sports, including a hose running race in which five companies will compete. In the evening there will be a grand display of fireworks. An able committee will have charge of the arrangements for the celebration, and this committee will arrange for excursions from St. John, Fredericton, Woodstock, and St. George, N. B., Houlton, Machias, Cherryfield, Eastport, Lubec, Woodland and other towns. Another feature in the line of attractions which the committee is considering is a high class vaudeville act. Outside of the celebrations held at the Calais fair grounds, Calais has not had a celebration in a number of years, and the good old fashioned kind which is being arranged by the firemen is sure of sufficient support among the business men and citizens generally to guarantee ample funds for a successful carrying out of the same.

Seized With Paralysis Could Not Walk

Most Extraordinary Cure Effected By The Use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. To have the nervous system paralyzed, to be unable to walk and scarcely able to talk, and then to be completely cured, is not a usual experience, but Mr. Hyatt tells in this letter what he passed through. Doctors told him his case was hopeless, and when they gave up he turned to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and obtained complete cure. Mr. Hyatt, blacksmith, St. Ann, Lincoln Co., Ont., writes:—"I am a blacksmith by trade, and ten years ago became afflicted with paralysis. I could not walk or read or write, and could talk with difficulty, so that it was a hard matter to understand anything I would say. Being only a young man, I was nearly discouraged. Two doctors told me that my case was hopeless. "One day my father read about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and advised me to try it. I bought twelve boxes, and when the fifth was used I saw that I was getting better. By the time the twelve boxes were used I was cured. I am well and strong and working every day. This statement is certified to by Mr. Elmer J. Hodgkins, J. P. No ailment is more dreaded than paralysis. And yet how few people realize that paralysis of the nerves is only the natural result of neglected nervous troubles. At first you do not sleep well, have nervous headaches or indigestion, find yourself easily irritated and annoyed, can hear noises which in good health you would never notice. You do not consider yourself sick, and yet you lack the usual energy and vigor and feel out of sorts. Restore the nerves by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, a box, 6 for $25.00. ARENAULT OF OLD TOWN LIVES BOTH ARMS AND A LEG AS STICK EXPLODES IN HAND AT THE GULF ON PLEASANT RIVER

Katadine Iron Works, Me., April 29—William Arenault of Old Town, twenty-eight years old a riverman on the Pleasant River, received terrible injuries from an explosion of dynamite at The Gulf, twelve miles from here, early Tuesday. He died while being brought out twelve miles over a rough woods road to this place, where it was intended to rush him by rail to a hospital. Arenault, who was regarded as an experienced and daring riverman, was using dynamite Tuesday morning to break a jam of logs in the gorge. He lighted the fuse on a stick of the explosive, and, believing that the spark had gone out, picked the dynamite up in his hand. He had no sooner done so than there was a terrific explosion which sent the unfortunate man hurling through the air. Both arms and one leg were blown from his body and he received other injuries. Arenault was not instantly killed, and a hurry call was sent to Brownville for a physician. The fellow members of his driving crew started to bring him out through the woods, but he succumbed. His limbs were amputated. A message was sent to the Jordan Lumber Co. at Old Town, telling of the accident.

WOMEN THROW SALT INTO EYES OF MAYOR

Wives of Stamford Strikers, Seeking Husband's Release, Fight Police

Stamford, Conn., April 29—Mayor John M. Brown, Chief of Police Brennan and a number of policemen were roughly treated this forenoon by a crowd of 200 women and children who were storming the town hall in an effort to obtain the release of eleven striking laborers on trial in the city court for intimidating other laborers.

The women all had salt in their aprons pockets and some were armed with sticks and broom-noses. All had sharp fingernails and strong fingers.

After the mayor and chief of police had endeavored with words to disperse the women, who insisted on entering the town hall in a body, saying they and their children were starving and that their husbands must be released and set to work. Chief Brennan arrested the leader, Mrs. Mary Nordasno. The other women then attacked the policemen, scratching and biting them and throwing salt into the eyes of the officials, including Mayor Brown.

Mrs. Nordasno was finally overpowered and carried into police headquarters and the rioting women were dispersed. Meantime nine of the laborers had been fined and two had been sentenced to jail. About 1,000 laborers are on strike here.

"A THEFT IN THE DARK," FEATURE DRAMA AT GEM

Pictures of Championship Fight Big Drawing Card Yesterday—Lubin Comedy Also

A three part drama of rare delight was given yesterday at the Gem Theatre when the Edison players presented "A Theft in the Dark," a gripping story of higher society, so-called, and a cunning scheme of intrigue perpetrated at a gala function. The clever cast of players was headed by two popular favorites, Marc McDermott and Miriam Nesbitt, who played the leading roles to general satisfaction.

The Gem orchestra afforded pleasure in late selections, while a Lubin comedy, "Spaghetti," and "Laffery" aroused hearty laughter. A feature of especial interest was the showing of some twenty slides of views taken at the recent world's championship match at Havana, giving patrons of the Gem a realistic idea of the encounter. These were not in motion, but were photographs taken from the ring-side, and they caused keen interest. This show will be repeated today.

SAYS GERMANY IS FOR PEACE WITH HONOR JUST NOW

Would Be Satisfied Without Great Addition of Territory

VIEW COMES FROM BERLIN

And Agrees With Letter Read by Dr. Dernburg at Portland, Maine, a Week Ago—Returned Traveler Talks

New York, April 29—Rowan J. Koepelman, for the last fifteen years the general counsel of the New York Insurance Company in Europe, with headquarters in Paris, who arrived in New York on the Camarer Lusitania Saturday, talked today of the determination of the French to do their part in winning the war for the allies; of the great change for the better that has come over the French people of conditions in England, Sweden, in Norway, and of the feeling that is becoming general in Germany that an "honorable peace" without any great addition of territory in Europe or elsewhere, will be satisfactory to the Kaiser's government.

"Nothing has so interested me since my arrival here," Koepelman said, "as that letter of Dr. Dernburg's read in Portland, Maine, a week ago last Saturday. What he said was quite in line with information sent out from Berlin by one of the European representatives of the New York Insurance Company, just sixteen days ago this man talked with our general manager in Berlin, who happens to be a nephew of Prince von Bismarck. He said that that Germany wanted an honorable peace, and that his country was quite willing to get out of Belgium if such a peace was arranged, although he added that Germany would like to retain Liege for strategic reasons.

"Other things he said talked exactly with what Dr. Dernburg said a week later in this country. That letter of Dr. Dernburg's was quite in line with the attitude of all France. The Paris before the war was a very different Paris from that of today. It is a city entirely free of tourists and pleasure seekers. All places of amusement, of whatever nature, have remained closed since the outbreak of the war, even the clubs close at eight in the evening. After nine p. m. in the streets, the appearance of a deserted city. All these changes have come to once again Paris, with the exception of the grand boulevards, which have remained rather animated in the day time. They might be described as a large quiet provincial town.

"As for the people, the war has effected an almost inconceivable change in them, not only in their manner of life, but also in thought. All the able-bodied male population in the front and in the most all business has been suspended. The demeanor of all Paris is one of great earnestness.

"The interest in the new serial 'Runaway Jane' deepens, and affairs have taken an unexpected turn. The question of money and the woman's brocade, and now we are alive to see that the time to read the story was a serious one. The domestic troubles of the man in the world to whom the problem is a serious one. The domestic troubles of the man in the world to whom the problem is a serious one.

"When last we left June she had succeeded in escaping the embrace of her immediate family, and had disappeared from the world. In Episode 8 we find her faithful maid taking her to an obscure boarding house where she herself had lived in former years. The 'man with the black Vandyske' still in pursuit, discovers her whereabouts from the chauffeur whom he knows drove the car in which she went to the boarding house, sends 'Tommy' Thomas to offer her a position which she accepts, and from which, also through the financial mentality of Blye, she is later discharged, for what reason of his we will doubtless learn in the next episode.

"The comedy element brought into the story by Blye's wife increases in quality, and we witness her forceful presentation of intention of holding on to Blye's trunk even if she falls to retain her grip of him; for be it known that the Blyes have no part company and private detectives are on the trail of both. Blye and June are preparing to mix up things generally.

"We are breathlessly awaiting the capture of June by her husband, who, having caught sight of June's maid about to enter the boarding house, has mounted the stairs in her wake, and that of Blye, who is in the act of calling at the house when the husband Ned plunges into the hallway, when the curtain draws on Episode 8, and June has again disappeared, leaving her maid on all fours under the bed, with Ned despondently making his way out again.

"This instalment of 'Runaway Jane' after shall be limited, will be discussed. The sessions yesterday morning and afternoon were taken up mostly with the presentation of reports. In the afternoon, the Dorcas secretary, Mrs. J. M. Hay, submitted her report. She related in detail the charitable work in this branch during the season and said that forty-eight bags of goods had been distributed in the various missionary fields through the efforts of the Dorcas workers. She told of the very satisfactory work in all the branches of this, one of the most important sections of the auxiliary, and her report was received with appreciation and was the cause of much praise and comment.

"Following the officers of the girls' branch of the work submitted statements of their work, led by Miss Edith Skinner. These reports were all of a satisfactory nature and reflected much credit on the work of the girls during the year. A w. hymn composed by Miss Plumtree, of Toronto, was sung by Miss Knight, whose rendition of the piece was most splendid. The hymn was heard for the first time, and its own merits combined with the vocal effort put into it, made it very impressive.

A paper on "The Arresting of the Kingdom," which had to deal with the possibilities for the future, and the projects under consideration, was read by Mrs. Sherwood Robinson. It was splendidly written and thoroughly represented the aims and objects of the organization and pointed out in some cases when a strengthening of forces would be beneficial, but on the whole she had congratulations for all workers.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS

It is a glad and proper thing to be the originator of a proved success. The article that has caught on to the public taste may be less than your finger nail, or bigger than your whole body—but it's least counts—nothing really counts but this: That you have worked your way to the discovery of a commodity that supplies a known and felt want and that the great wide-eyed public have unanimously taken on your new production and made it a success.

It has been exactly like that with H. P. Vance. The delicious relish, made by the Midland Vinegar Company, of England, the largest firm of malt vinegar brewers in the world, has been an unqualified success from the first day of its distribution until now.

It is a thick, rich Sauce, compounded solely of most delicious Oriental fruits and spices, and pure malt vinegar. Its makers claim that it is not only another sauce to compare with it for true fruity flavor, and judging from its already wide popularity, the general public have been quick to endorse the good opinion of the manufacturers.

It has been exactly like that with H. P. Vance. The delicious relish, made by the Midland Vinegar Company, of England, the largest firm of malt vinegar brewers in the world, has been an unqualified success from the first day of its distribution until now.

NON-RUSTABLE L&P CORSETS

Did you contribute to the $700,000.00 sent from Canada in 1913 to corset makers in the United States, and to the $245,000.00 paid in customs on them?

Keen Canadian Shoppers have for years bought the "D & A" and the "La Diva" Corsets in preference to the imported, because they are better value.

Justly after statement by comparing "D & A" and "La Diva" against foreign makes. It is only a few old style or impractical forms who do not sell these Made-in-Canada Corsets.

PUBLIC MEETING OF THE AUXILIARY

The annual meeting of the Women's Diocesan Auxiliary of the Anglican church concludes today, and the most important session will be that held this morning when the officers will be elected and the resolution as to whether the delegates to the annual meetings hereafter shall be limited, will be discussed.

The sessions yesterday morning and afternoon were taken up mostly with the presentation of reports. In the afternoon, the Dorcas secretary, Mrs. J. M. Hay, submitted her report. She related in detail the charitable work in this branch during the season and said that forty-eight bags of goods had been distributed in the various missionary fields through the efforts of the Dorcas workers.

Following the officers of the girls' branch of the work submitted statements of their work, led by Miss Edith Skinner. These reports were all of a satisfactory nature and reflected much credit on the work of the girls during the year.

A w. hymn composed by Miss Plumtree, of Toronto, was sung by Miss Knight, whose rendition of the piece was most splendid. The hymn was heard for the first time, and its own merits combined with the vocal effort put into it, made it very impressive.

A paper on "The Arresting of the Kingdom," which had to deal with the possibilities for the future, and the projects under consideration, was read by Mrs. Sherwood Robinson. It was splendidly written and thoroughly represented the aims and objects of the organization and pointed out in some cases when a strengthening of forces would be beneficial, but on the whole she had congratulations for all workers.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful of a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

THE BLESSING OF MOTHERHOOD

Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes

Motherhood is woman's highest sphere in life. It is the fruition of her dearest hopes and greatest desires; yet thousands of noble women through some derangement have been denied this blessing. In many homes one childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong. This is evidenced by the following letters which are genuine and true:

London, Oct.—"I wish to thank you for the benefit I received by taking your famous medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before my baby was born I was so ill I could not stand long or walk any distance. I had to lie down nearly all the time. After I took your medicine I felt like a new woman. I could work from morning till night and was happy and well. I certainly think it relieves pain at childbirth and recommend it to every woman who is pregnant. You may use this testimonial if you like. It may help some other woman."—Mrs. FRANK CONNOR, 122 Adelaide St., London, Ont.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I was ailing all the time and did not know what the matter was. I wanted a baby but my health would not permit it. I was nervous, my side ached and I was all run down. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good and took the medicine. I have now a beautiful baby and your Compound has helped me in every way."—Mrs. J. J. STEWART, 239 Humboldt St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Letters From France

In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gray, Erie street, Driver Andrew Gibson tells of some interesting experiences near the fighting line in France, where he is with the first contingent in the ammunition column. He says he is well and asks to be remembered to his friends and family. He acknowledges with thanks receipt of parcels from his home and other friends, particularly tobacco which, he says, was greatly appreciated.

A letter from Corp. Walter Wilson, received by his brother, Thomas Wilson, of North End, says that he has been placed in charge of a squad of German prisoners taken recently in battle. He says he is well and came through recent fighting unscathed.

Miss Ethel Kennedy, of 106 Brussels street, has received a chatty letter from her cousin, John Sullivan, now serving in France with an ambulance unit. He speaks of having been in the midst of battle, and of being wounded and brought to the rear by the ambulance in which they were taken farther back to the hospital. He said he had seen some exciting moments, among others of the front being a battle between a German and a British airplane. So far this company had not lost a man, although powerful machine guns had swept the roads over which they passed, and at night the Germans had played strong search-lights on them as they made their way to the dressing stations. German air-machines dropped bombs upon their billets, but did very little damage, except in one instance where their bombs had wounded a man very badly.

Driver Nash at Tidworth.

Driver T. Nash wrote from Tidworth, Eng., on April 18 to say that he was well and having a good time, and wished to be remembered to all his St. John friends. The only incident noted in the letter was the runaway of his team one day, when he had a rather narrow escape from injury.

Letter from Capt. Corrie.

Capt. V. G. Currie of Amherst writing from France on April 6 said—

"We have been resting here for a week or ten days and more at six a.m. tomorrow to a new field further north. We have been marching and trench digging around here about six hours a day. This place is called Estaires and it is not far from Neuve Chapelle. We have fifteen miles to march tomorrow and will be somewhere north of Hazebrouck and about twenty miles from the front line, the furthest away from it we have been in one instance where their bombs had wounded a man very badly.

One hundred replies received up to yesterday by the Toronto Star in reply to its query addressed to mayors of Ontario towns "Are you in favor of an election during the war?" brought responses against the suggestion to hold an election during the war. A few were non-committal and two or three in favor of having an election to clear the situation.

dropping very thickly in our vicinity. We dug from eleven thirty p.m. till three a.m. and we weren't sorry to go. Three bombs dropped near our billet the other morning by a German plane. Broke a lot of windows but didn't kill anybody."

Oppose Election.

The Montreal board of trade has passed a resolution opposing the suggestion of holding an election during the war.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water, and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinges of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with litmus and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent litmus-water drink which overcomes acid.

Morning War Cables

London, April 28, 10 p. m.—"Our operations in conjunction with the French have definitely stopped the German attack."

In these words, Field Marshal Sir John French, commander-in-chief of the British forces on the continent, announces the conclusion of another German attempt to break through the Allied lines around Ypres and along the Yser Canal, which brought about one of the most sanguinary battles of the war.

This, however, only brings to an end the first phase of the battle, for the Allies have yet to win back the ground which they lost in the great German sweep. For this purpose they are now delivering counter-attacks against the German lines. Only at one place, Steenstraete, have the Germans managed to keep their footing on the western bank of the canal, while to the north of Ypres the positions remain much as they were, the Allies making no claims to an advance there, and the Germans reporting that all the British attacks have been repulsed.

CHLORINE OR BROMIDE USED. London, April 28, 7.40 p. m.—Dr. John S. Haldane, who was sent to France to observe the effect of the gases used by the Germans in opening their attack near Ypres, reports that he examined several Canadians who had been incapacitated by the gases.

"These men," he said, "were lying struggling for breath, and blue in the face. On examining their blood with a spectroscope, and by other means, I ascertained that the business was not due to the presence of any abnormal pigment. There was nothing to account for the business and their struggles for air but one fact, and that was that they were suffering from acute bronchitis, such as is caused by the inhalation of an irritant gas. Their statements were to the effect that when in the trenches they had been overwhelmed by an irritant gas produced in front of the German trenches and carried toward them by a gentle breeze."

"One of the men died shortly after our arrival. A post-mortem examination showed that death was due to acute bronchitis and its secondary effect. There was no doubt that the bronchitis and accompanying slow asphyxiation was due to irritant gas."

Brindisi, Italy, Tuesday, April 27, via Paris, April 28—(Delayed in transmission)—The French cruiser Leon Gambetta, which was torpedoed in the Straits of Otranto, was the victim of the Austrian submarine U-4.

The first report of the destruction of this cruiser came from the men on duty at the semaphore station of Santa Maria Leuca. These men at once gave the alarm, and vessels were sent out to the aid of the Leon Gambetta from Brindisi, Taranto, Otranto and Bari. The men at the station also went on in their own boats and were the first to reach the scene.

It has not yet been ascertained whether the attack on the French cruiser occurred within the territorial waters of Italy. The Austrian submarine U-4 is the same craft whose officers a few days ago boarded the Italian steamer Jolanda.

All the officers on board perished at their posts. One hundred and thirty-six members of the crew, including eleven under-officers were rescued by vessels sent out promptly to their help by the Italian authorities.

German Fleet in North Sea. London, April 28—Captain Scott, commanding a Swedish steamer reports the presence in the North Sea of a German fleet numbering no less than sixty-eight vessels all told.

Captain Scott, whose vessel has just come to port, reports that he was held up by one of these German steamers while crossing the North Sea. After an examination of his papers he was permitted to proceed. The German fleet was composed of vessels of all classes, from battleships to torpedo boats.

The date of Captain Scott's encounter and just where in the North Sea he sighted this German fleet has not been announced. Raid on Friedrichshafen. Berne, Switzerland, April 28, via Paris 6.30 p. m.—The military station at Remanshorn this morning reported the appearance of a squadron of allied aviators making for Friedrichshafen, where the headquarters of the Zeppelin dirigible balloons is located.

Soon afterward a lively cannonading lasting half an hour was heard. Six machines are said to have been seen over Friedrichshafen. Details of the raid are lacking.

TURKS HATCHED INDIAN REVOLT

Singapore Rising Worst Since The Mutiny

MANY CIVILIANS SHOT

People Playing Golf at First Thought it a Sham Battle—Cosmopolitan Force Called Out

Chicago, April 28—A special correspondence letter to the Daily News from its London correspondent says: "Sufficient details of the recent Singapore riot are beginning to leak through to indicate that it was the most extraordinary native outbreak a British colony has experienced since the Indian Mutiny. Dramatic details are given in a letter I have been just received by a Mr. Lloyd of Kirby, Essex, from his son G. J. Lloyd, stationed at Johore."

"The Singapore riot," he writes, "has been very terrible. The local newspapers were not allowed to be sent out of the place and we have depended on wandering Chinese for scraps of information."

"A friend of mine returned last night, however. He went through it and knows all about it."

"Thirty-three names of dead Europeans have been published, seven of whom were civilians, but the latter are only those who were in no volunteer regimental association of any kind. Really the majority of the killed were civilians, clerks or business men belonging to local corps. Any number under a hundred may be dead, as a matter of fact while the rebels killed may be 800 to 900. The mutiny had been coming for a long time. It was probably finally hatched by the Turks in Singapore, who comparatively are really very few."

"The Fifth Light Infantry, Mohammedan Indian troops, broke out from different barracks simultaneously and simply ran wild. One barracks is next to the golf course. When the mutineers had rushed out on to it the players merely sought a sham fight, was on and went on with their game until some of them were shot down. Two of those shot dead with their golf clubs in their hands were a major and a captain in the Royal Garrison Artillery."

Women Fugued Dead. "That on into the road rushed the mutineers, firing at every white man and woman in sight. A doctor and his wife were shot in their automobile. The doctor who walked in his sleep was challenged by a sentry and was shot as he fled to give the password."

There were many remarkable incidents during the mutiny. The second night for instance an overworked volunteer who walked in his sleep was challenged by a sentry and was shot as he fled to give the password."

eminent House. Sixty volunteer civilians pluckily charged 800 mutineer soldiers, who fired into them and turned tail. At the point of the bayonet these civilians chased them cleared of the town.

"I should have said that at the first of the outbreak every white civilian was called up and armed. The Japanese Consul called out the Japanese reservists, and any ships of the allies in near waters were witnessd for. Eventually there were British soldiers, sailors and volunteers, French and Russian soldiers and police in action against the rebel Bengalis in one way or another.

"The cause and effect may never be fully known. The German prisoners, who had all along been treated with much laxity, may have engineered the whole thing. Anyway, it was well thought out."

"There were many remarkable incidents during the mutiny. The second night for instance an overworked volunteer who walked in his sleep was challenged by a sentry and was shot as he fled to give the password."

STILL SEEKING INFORMATION Mr. Dugal Asks About Patriotic Potatoes

SHAKE-UP AMONG OFFICIALS? Mr. Stewart Wants New Bridge Policy - Violation of Crown Land Laws - St. John Assessment Bill Agreed To

Frederickton, N. B., April 28—No opinion is expressed as to whether the house will be able to finish its business before Saturday, but the prospects are that no business will be done until that date.

It is understood that the lengthy act to consolidate the mining laws of the province will not be pressed this session, and probably before it is introduced again there may be some important amendments making it conform more generally to the up-to-date mining laws of other provinces.

Acting on the supposition that the business of the house will not be completed until Saturday, J. L. Stewart this afternoon gave notice of a resolution which is of considerable importance, inasmuch as it has to do with the contracting of large liabilities by the province. His resolution reads as follows: Resolved, that, in the opinion of this house, the system of incurring large liabilities by contracting for and beginning the construction of bridges that are not urgently needed to replace structures that have been destroyed by fire, flood or other disaster, be discontinued, and that such works be undertaken in future only when specially authorized by law, and that all public works, particularly the erection and repairing of bridges, when the job is estimated to cost $100 or more, should be let by public tender, whenever possible, to the lowest responsible bidder.

Wants More Light on Patriotic Potatoes. Mr. Dugal gave notice of further inquiry into the matter of patriotic potatoes. From information which the department has already given it seems that a considerable quantity of potatoes intended for the patriotic gift or for the Belgian relief were not sent forward but were sold either in the Cuban or St. John markets. Information has reached here that some 12,000 barrels were shipped about March 1 from St. John to Cuba, where a J. C. Manzer is acting as some kind of a commissionaire for the province of New Brunswick.

While Mr. Daggert, secretary for agriculture, was in Cuba, in the month of March, he arranged with Mr. Manzer to set in this capacity and with the assistance of another gentleman named T. G. Waite, it is reported that they made a sale of the potatoes in question to a group of people in Calabaria. The potatoes did not arrive at Havana until April 18 and thus it would appear having been shipped from St. John about March 1 that they were between six or seven weeks' make. The trip, just what effect this sale has on the quality of the potatoes will be best known to those who are in the business of shipping potatoes to the West Indies. The inquiry made of the government this afternoon touches upon this shipment and also seeks to learn some other particulars. It was as follows: "What amounts have been paid to A. C. Smith & Co. since the close of the fiscal year in connection with the reception, sorting, packing and packaging, freight, etc., of the patriotic and Belgian potatoes?" "Was their account itemized, and if so, how was the cost distributed?" "Have A. C. Smith & Co. been paid any amount for storage of the potatoes or brokerage in connection with their sale - distribution in St. John or elsewhere?" "Was there a shipment of about 8,000 barrels of the 'Belgian' potatoes from St. John about March 1 which did not reach Havana until April 18?" "Were these potatoes sent first to Calabaria and then shipped by R. G. Waite to Havana?" "Has the department any information as to the arrangements made by Mr. Daggert with Messrs. Waite and Manzer with respect to the shipment, or any information as to the price the potatoes brought in Havana?"

To Shift Auditor General? There is a bill before the house to amend the audit, and so far as is known at the present time the chief amendment will be to increase the salary of this officer from $1,900 to $2,100 per year. That is all that appears upon the surface, but it is said that it is intended to make an official shuffle which will place the present auditor general, Mr. Loudon, in the position made vacant by the death of the Deputy Receiver General Geo. N. Babbitt, and that Donald Munro, M.P. for Woodstock, will be appointed as auditor general.

Mr. Munro was recommended for the

INDIAN HEROES FOUGHT TO LAST 300 Held Post Against 2,000 Germans ONLY TWENTY SURRENDERED

The Other 280, Including Commander, Had Perished in Battle - Enemy Posts Occupied

London, April 28—An official report tells of the heroic defence, by 800 British Indian soldiers, of a position in East Africa against 2,000 Germans. The Indians held a hill until their ammunition ran out and all but twenty of their number had been killed.

The report, which was previously announced in Berlin, also is mentioned, and against this is offset the success of the British in several engagements on the frontier and on the shores of Lake Victoria Nymanya.

The British post at Jessin, held by 800 Indians, was attacked by 2,000 Germans. Jasini was surrendered after its ammunition had been exhausted and the commander and 280 men had been killed. An expedition sent from Mombasa occupied the German island of Mafu, the German garrison surrendering unconditionally. Shirati, on Lake Victoria Nymanya, was attacked and occupied by the British.

THE HOUSE AGREES TO AMENDMENTS The house again went into committee with Mr. Grimmer in the chair, and took up further consideration of a bill to amend the St. John City Assessment Act, 1902.

THEY GOT THEIR WANT Amherst News—In last evening's issue of the News, there was an article published concerning a fight between private and public interests. The fight is C. M. R. The News secured the item through a so-called reliable source, but it happened to be at fault. The chap that he beat up was a local hard character, the sergeant was detailed to get him and get him tight. It was a matter of duty, and as the man had the reputation of a scrapper, he was taken in the only way available. Truly we must apologize to the two sergeants who made the arrest for the previous statements.

MILLING BUSINESS SHOWS AN INCREASE IN SASKATCHEWAN Regina, April 29—Alone among the chief industries of the province, the milling business has shown an increase in the volume of its business in 1914 as compared with the previous year. Since 1911, when the Bureau of Labor first began to collect statistics, the industry has shown a steady growth. In that year there were operating in the province 22 mills with a gross produce of $2,896,384. In 1914 there were 87 mills operating, three less than the previous year, but employing 310 men instead of 320, and less capital, but the number of working men in the year was increased on the average by 16, and the 1914 output was $7,756,869.00, as compared with $6,118,260.00 for 1913. An industry which seems to be making progress in this province is that of the foundries and machine shops, and though until the year 1914 it had not been considered sufficiently important to include with the other industries by reason of the probability of the figures, still the amount of business done in 1914 has been recorded. There are such establishments in the province employing altogether 84 men, and the gross value of the output was $222,000.

SUGGESTS DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST THE GLEANER (Toronto Globe) The Freeholder of Ontario, on Wednesday, April 21, tells its readers that one of the scandals at Ottawa consisted of the purchase of binoculars through the connivance of a Grit official whereby a relative, a Grit member of the Ontario Legislature, was enabled to obtain a quantity of worthless articles, getting a rake-off of $2 apiece. This is grotesque and untrue so grossly that Mr. C. C. Hardman, M.P., should not content himself with an apology. Only substantial damages will teach editorialialists to lie discreetly.

FRENCH-CANADIANS WELCOMED One day last week a portion of the 2nd Battalion marched from Amherst to Sackville. They were welcomed there by the mayor and the president of M. Allison and the ladies of the town served them with hot tea and coffee, cake and sandwiches. They were also shown through the college buildings.

Friction Over Polish Aid. London, April 29—Count Alexandre Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador to Great Britain, Countess Benckendorff and Rudyard Kipling have withdrawn their patronage from the Polish relief fund, which was organized by Ignace Paderewski and Miss Laurence Alma-Tadema, because of statements in an appeal through the press which they regard as reflecting on the Russian policy and army.

WITH RED CROSS IN THE VOYAGES Shatters Traditions BRAVE BUT SERIOUS Ambulance Worker Paints Vivid Picture of Relief Work on the Battle Field—A Ward to Those at Home

(London Morning Post) A busy man in charge of an English Ambulance Corps serving in the French lines has found time to write a paragraphic description of the heroism of the French soldier, as well as of the conditions of hospital work in the snow-covered land. From his letter, are taken the following extracts:

Our base is a comfortable house in not far from the front. The Germans are about twenty miles away from here, where they are still obstinately holding the line on one of the last ridges stretching from Mt. Mehel by the Mont Donjon, which can be seen clearly from the base of St. Maurice and the Ballon d'Alsace to Breisach and the Swiss frontier.

A Call About a week ago I had been on duty in the office all night, coming in to see the doctor at 11 o'clock, and at 1 a.m. when an order came for six cars at once at a point about 22 miles off I expected it, as the big guns had been booming all night long. At 6.30 a.m. we were off. We took a long time getting to the rendezvous, and as there were sentries everywhere we had to pick our way through the shell holes and the barbed wire. We got as near the lines as possible and left the car in shelter behind a hillock among the trees. There was a battery of 750 about 100 yards away, firing at intervals, and a whole squadron of cuirassiers standing motionless ready for orders. Ammunition wagons drawn by mules were passing to and from the guns, and infantry of all sorts, most chausseurs-alpains, being sent to the front. I saw a French soldier captured some trenches and a hill-crest at dawn, and a counter-attack without lights down the mountain track to the hospital.

There another strange scene. Wounded men on stretchers lying everywhere in the passages ready to be taken to the dressing or operating rooms, some moaning or writhing in dumb agony, some quietly asleep from sheer weariness, some greedily drinking the soup offered them by busy business-like nurses, some even sitting up smoking cigarettes, with a friendly nod and smile to the stretcher-bearers. One young fellow, hardly out of his teens, who I heard had been one of the bravest in defending his trench, was lying in a corner riddled with bullets, semi-conscious, watched by an sympathetic attendant, who was merely waiting for a chance to take him to the end. On the other side of a door the hospital kitchen—soup, coffee, wine, and an excellent stew to which a weary looking band of assistants were doing full justice, a grim contrast of life and death. Here we find an urgent appeal for more ambulances in another direction at once. We do not feel any inclination for sleep—besides, if we did, our petty inconveniences are as a drop in the ocean to the miseries that these poor fellows are undergoing day by day and night after night to save their Fatherland from the horrors that have marked the track of the invading hordes. Not ours to complain. By God's mercy we are glad to be able to add our mites to the work of salvation. So off we start again for another and yet another day's work, the same harrowing round which has now become a mere matter of routine, which we carry out as best we may in silent bewilderment, with the unanswered question in our minds: "Can I wonder what will be the lot that is meted out to those on whose heads these rivers of blood will pour?"

All along the roads that we traverse we see the mark of the beast—the lily, the mound, the simple wooden cross, with its kepi or tattered tunic that cry out for vengeance. Can those who have not seen these things realize the duty that it rests with them to perform—those who sit by their fireplaces in comfort, read their daily papers and perhaps criticize the actions of the men who at least are doing something, however insignificant, for the good cause? I cannot say—but this at least I can assert: that during the last few months in this land of France there has grown up a race as far apart from the laughter-loving, thoughtless family of mortals, that some of us though we know some years back, as the two poles, men who are setting out in grim earnest ready to sacrifice all to ensure an ultimate victory, and it behooves every member of the civilized world to do his share towards securing that the nameless horrors shall never recur.

A Forgotten Password. On the other hand we are sometimes provided with a laugh by some of our members. The other night the password was "Constantine." We were crawling along a narrow line when I caught up the ambulance in front of me to find that they were in difficulties with the sentry. They had forgotten the word, but had some vague idea that it ended in "ine" and one tried "Clementine" and the other "Benedictine." Our arrival set things straight, and with a grin the sentry said in quite decent English: "Right. You English are very damn good fellows! Pass away!" We passed away. There is a temporary lull in the fighting, and as we have had a hard time for nearly a week we have come back to our usual pace to rest and rest.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM. The Editor of the Times—It has been brought to my notice that when the National Anthem was played at the Imperial Theatre, the audience (with the exception of some soldiers and a few citizens) at once made a rush for the doors, thus showing flagrant disrespect for our King; surely at this time when our men are fighting and dying for the Empire, the audiences at all theatres might show their loyalty, and it again bring to your notice the resolution passed by St. George's Society, that whenever "God Save the King" is played it should be received with all possible respect, as the people standing until its conclusion, and in the open by men lifting their hats and soldiers saluting. Yours Truly, F. E. HANINGTON, President, The St. George's Society.

CONDITIONS FOR THE RIVER LUMBER DRIVE

Northern Waters Mostly Favorable For Getting Out the Cut—Prospects Poor in Lower Section

Throughout the lower province the lumber drives are held up on account of the low water in the streams, but in the upper portion of New Brunswick reports indicate that the drives are all running smoothly and the expectation is that the cut will be got out without difficulty.

Several prominent lumber merchants were interviewed this morning and it was learned from them that the streams in Maine, Quebec and the upper counties are running all right; it is feared that there may be a heavy loss to the lumbermen who cut in the lower counties unless the next week brings heavy rains.

F. C. Beatey of Stetson, Cutler & Co., said that the drives in the upper St. John are running freely but the success has not been so great on the Tobique and Miramichi. The best water of the Tobique is flowing strongly, he said, but the reports that are being received from the company's drives show that the water is abnormally low and unless atmospheric influences favor them, the lumbermen will have difficulty to release this winter's cut.

The majority of Murray & Gregory's drives are in Quebec. Mr. Gregory told the Times today that he had not received much word from them since the stream opened, but he believed that they were coming along all right.

John E. Moore reported that his drives were not running as well as was expected. The streams on which his drives are drifting are very low, in fact the water is below any precedent mark. He has had no report from them since the rains of this week began and, although they may ease the situation somewhat, he expects that it will require a great deal more before the cuts are brought safely to the mills.

NEW BRIDGE OPEN BY AUGUST 1

Messrs. McVey and Dominion Bridge Company to Complete Concrete Work—Removal of Old Structures

(Special to Times).

Fredrickton, April 29—Chief Engineer A. R. Wetmore of the public works department was in the city today looking over the Suspension bridge work and making arrangements to carry it forward to completion as early as possible.

There is considerable concrete work to be done and the contractor who built the anchor piers, Messrs. McVey of St. Stephen, will look after that part of it. The work of this nature will be open for both the eastern and western approaches to the new bridge. The Dominion Bridge Company also is to put a concrete floor on the structure and it is estimated that if contractors get to work promptly, the bridge will be open for traffic about the first of August.

It will not be possible to make the approaches to the bridge at the start what they will be later when the old suspension structure is removed as well as the anchor piers, and the huge cables. Until this is done some inconvenience may be experienced by the public but it will not be a matter of a short time to dismantle the old bridge and clear the way for the approaches to be placed on the new bridge. The rails for the street railway will also be put in position and no suspended tracks will be laid from each end of the bridge so that the through street car service may be begun as soon as possible.

It has been determined to begin the dismantling and tearing down of the old Suspension bridge just as soon as it is possible to cross the new structure. There are firms in the United States as well as in Canada who make a specialty of this sort of work and, as there will be two large bridges in New Brunswick to be removed at Grand Falls and at the St. John falls—no difficulty is anticipated in getting one of these firms to undertake the work. There should be considerable material in the structure that is of some value but whether there will be sufficient to defray the cost of removal remains to be seen.
