It was thought he had got lost in the snowstorm of yesterday, while cutting logs on a piece of land he owns on Green River. He had not got back as usual Saturday, two men went for him with a lantern at 6 o'clock, but on account of the snowstorm they could not trace him, but found his dinner, which had not been touched. They went again for him Sunday morning and found him dead, sitting alongside of a tree with a leg broken. He had cut only two logs that day and the second he had cut seems to have taken a bad course and struck him, breaking his leg. He evidently struggled about two rods from there and sat by the side of a tree, where he died. He leaves a wife and five children. Deceased was about 60 years of age.

PORTLAND'S NEW BISHOP. Vicar General O'Brien Has Been Appointed.

Portland, Me., Jan. 16.—The selection of Vicar General O'Brien as bishop of Portland, in succession to the lamented Bishop Haley, comes as a pleasant surprise to Catholics here as it had been generally understood that O'Brien some time ago declined to be a candidate, when requested by fellow-clergy.

The new bishop is held in high universal esteem in Portland. Vicar General O'Brien, who is in the 77th year of age, is a native of the city. He was educated at the University of Toronto, and spent several years in the study of law. He is one of the best equipped men among the Maine clergy for the office of bishop. Nothing concerning the date of his consecration or other details can be learned, owing to his absence from the city.

THE GORHAM MURDER. In Looking for McLain, the Wrong Man Was Tracked.

Rollinsford, N. H., Jan. 15.—The man seen in Rollinsford yesterday and who was suspected of having been connected with the Gorham murder case, was today traced to West Kennebunk, Me., where he is employed by William Webber. His name is Joseph A. Russell. He received his present job from West Kennebunk, but returned Monday forenoon. Mr. Russell says he went to Portland Saturday, where he went to a house for the night. He returned to Rollinsford on a row in the house and he was obliged to get out, leaving his trousers in his room. He is unable to say how he reached Rollinsford, some 20 miles distant, but remembers calling at a house Sunday morning where a pair of overalls was furnished him. He then went from Rollinsford to Gorham, where he was arrested by the police. Mr. Russell bears no resemblance to the description of John McLain, who is suspected of having been a confederate of the Gorham murderer.

The fourth day after the tragedy at Gorham began with no more known than the whereabouts of McLain than when the hunt for the missing white confederate of the Gorham murderer began. All reported clues have been followed with unvarying disappointment.

Havana, Jan. 15.—The Ward line steamer Vigilancia is aground on the Banks of Los Cochinos, about 100 miles westward of Havana. The Vigilancia was on her way from Vera Cruz, Mex. Later it was discovered that her husband also had smallpox. Great anxiety is felt by the health officials as Belanger has been working in the Washington Mills every day and other operatives may have caught the disease from him. Mr. and Mrs. Belanger will be removed to a temporary hospital house tomorrow. It is thought the contracted the disease from relatives who came here from Manchester, N. H., on a visit. Forty persons have been put in quarantine by order of Agent Smith of the health board.

He is now in cell 451, gallery 24, where he must remain for ten days in quarantine against disease. He will have to serve eight years and three months if he behaves himself, as he will be allowed four years and nine months for good conduct. His sentence was 13 years.

BURNED AT THE STAKE. Work of a Lawless Frenshish Western Mob.

Leavenworth, Kan., Jan. 15.—Fred Alexander, the negro who on Saturday evening attempted to assault Miss Eva Roth and who was supposed to have assaulted and killed Pearl Forbes in the city in November last, was taken from the sheriff's guard by a mob today and burned at the stake at the scene of his crimes, half a dozen blocks from the centre of the city. Probably 8,000 people witnessed the lynching.

NEGRO'S AWFUL DEATH. The Mob Broke Into the Jail Where He Was Confined and Carried Him To Scene of His Crime—Details Of the Horror.

The negro was taken from his cell at the state penitentiary this afternoon and brought to town. Fifty deputy marshals surrounded him and deputy sheriffs sat in the back of either side of him. Fifty vehicles followed the mob. The trip to town was made quietly.

When the corner of Fourth and Olive streets was reached the police who were in the back following the mob, the mob and Alexander was concealed jumped out and chased several negroes.

This created a diversion which attracted the attention of everyone and during the excitement the mob was frantically driven to the county jail where the man was locked in a cell just as the mob reached the doors of the cell. The ten jail were then locked. Sheriff Everhardt, on demand, refused to deliver the negro. The side door was forced from its hinges and the crowd poured in. The mob then broke into the cell and the iron door of the cell room forced far enough for the men to climb over. Several men were killed. In the meantime the crowd had gained entrance to the stockade and there was a yelling pack in the jail yard.

The doors of the cell room were then broken down. A man with sharp eyes espied a shapeless mass crouching down in one corner of the dark cell and a yell of terror issued from the cell. The tension at this time was so great that strong men filled the corridors with hysterical laughter. Outside the crowd was yelling itself hoarse.

The negro was dragged into the open. He had been struck over the head with a hammer but still conscious. Men fought to get at him and infuriated, struck savagely at him, hitting only his captors, who guarded him well.

"Don't hurt him now," they cried. "Let us take him to the hill into the court house yard where they dragged him and there they stopped."

In reply to a demand for a confession the negro said: "I am innocent. I am dying for what another man did. I see lots of my friends. They know I did not do it. If I had been guilty I would have said so at the penitentiary and would have staid there for life. The warden told me so. The policemen told me so. Would not I have told them if I was guilty?"

At this one young fellow struck Alexander in the forehead with his fist three times.

Alexander had spoken with the resignation of a man who sees before him only death. When he had finished talking a negro made for a large cottonwood tree in a corner of the court house yard. The negro was backed up against it and while a chain was sought Alexander was given another chance to confess.

"I have told you that I am innocent. I cannot tell you any more. I did not do it."

The suggestion to take the man to the place of the murder met with instant approval and the crowd, carrying the negro, pushed on towards Fourth street. He was thrown into a wagon which was started for the vicinity of Lawrence avenue and Spruce streets, followed by the crowd.

A railroad engine was also destroyed. The result in $6,200 loss to Mr. R. C. Tait over and above insurance. Mr. Tait had 2000 bushels of potatoes stored in one of his warehouses on which there was only $400 insurance. On the hall and warehouse buildings there was $2,000 and on the house and carriage stock there was $800. The fire originated in the carriage shop, where men have been at work during the winter. Burns belonging to E. J. Smith and William Jackson were also destroyed, but the loss is not heavy. The fire had gained such headway when discovered that it was impossible for the men to cope with it, but had to let it alone for its course.

Annual Meeting Last Evening—Election and Address of President.

There is Some Grippe in St. John This Winter, BUT NO EPIDEMIC.

This City is Fairly Free While New York and Other Places Suffer from the Disease of Grippe—Some Pneumonia and Bronchitis Cases.

The grippe is now almost as epidemic in American cities as it was several years ago. Recently it was stated that in New York alone there were over 120,000 cases, while Chicago, Toronto and other cities have a proportionately large number. In view of these conditions a Telegram representative called on some of the leading physicians of the city and obtained an interview with them on the state of health here, which is found to be very satisfactory.

"That grippe is an infectious disease is highly probable, although difficult to prove. There seems no doubt that the so-called common bacillus is the cause of the disease. However, it is an ill wind that blows nobody good" and while it might not be quite correct to say that the medical men rejoice in ill winds certain it is that many of them are reaping a rich harvest as a result of the changeable weather of the past month or two.

Many of the doctors are kept busy night and day. While the majority of them say that there is nothing serious in the way of disease or sickness, there is plenty to keep them on the alert all the time.

There is a prevalent idea that influenza is becoming epidemic here but several prominent physicians seen yesterday said that it was nothing more than the severe cold usual at this season, at least in the majority of cases.

Dr. E. B. Berryman said in discussing the matter: "Severe colds are usual at this time of year, but the present one seems to have assumed more the character of grippe and pneumonia. Personally, I have in the past few weeks seen more cases of pneumonia than for some years. Otherwise I think the winter a particularly healthy one. There are many cases of grippe and I regard it as contagious. Its symptoms are unmistakable. It comes with a general miserable feeling, irritation of the lungs and rise of temperature. The patient does not recuperate as quickly as from influenza."

Dr. Walker said he could hardly dignify the prevailing cold with the name of grippe. It was more of the ordinary kind, and he was from saying in which it ran through whole families he would be inclined to think it contagious. There seems to be more bronchitis than pneumonia among his patients. He thought the present winter particularly free from sickness. Judging from his personal experience, though he had greatly feared, Dr. Walker said there was no usual amount of sickness among children, but so far nothing of an alarming nature had developed.

Dr. Emery found a strong tendency to bronchitis and pneumonia this winter but less of the latter than the former. The form of grippe he encountered was fairly severe and probably contagious. Not all the colds which affected people were grippe, but there was much more of it this year than last. It is more severe than influenza, inasmuch as other complications usually follow.

Other physicians were seen and expressed the opinion that the grippe was only prevailing form of sickness. In discussing the smallpox scare one doctor remarked that it was a particularly mild type indeed as he had not heard of a fatal termination of a single case.

Two or three druggists said that in the past three weeks they had filled more prescriptions for severe colds, grippe and bronchitis than for years in the same time.

A GHASTLY FIND. Body of a Man Found in a Trunk.

New York, Jan. 16.—The body of a man, with his throat cut and showing other marks of violence, was found in a trunk at the bulkhead of pier 11, East River, just before noon today. It was identified two hours later by a woman as the body of Michael Weissburger, an east side Hebrew, employed to set jewelry on the installment plan. The name of the woman who identified the body, and the address at which the victim of the murder had resided, the detectives refused to disclose.

Three of the victim's front teeth had been knocked out.

Captain Titus, speaking of the case, said: "I believe that the crime was committed in a house—probably a tenement—and that the murderers knew that Weissburger carried jewelry about him. He had $200 worth of jewelry with him at the time, which he carried in bags. He was a married man and had a large family."

"Captain Titus said that the woman who identified the body was not the victim's wife, but was one of his customers. Detectives are at work now on every end of the case."

It is right to the seat of the trouble and removes the cause. Many so-called cures butadden pain temporarily only, to have return again with doubled violence. Not so with this great remedy. It eradicates from the system the last vestige of the disease and its cures are permanent.—74 Sold by E. C. Brown.

THE BOSSCHIETER CASE. Medical Evidence As to the Cause of Death. CHLORAL HYDRATE Found by Analysis—The Evidence Given at Tuesday's Sessions of the Trial—One of the Prisoners, Death, Made a Scene—He Was on the Stand for a Time. The plea set up by counsel for the three defendants was general and specific denial of all the accusations made against the men. He opened with an attack on the moral character of the dead girl and claimed that the prisoners were in no way responsible for her death. He denied that she had been drugged, and he denied that she had been ill-treated or assaulted. McAlister, Death and Campbell were each on the stand. Their testimony was on the line that they were acting on a generous impulse when they took the girl out of the saloon to the back. They claimed that she was "jolly drunk" for a time in the back room of Saal's saloon; said she was laughing and joking after the first drink; that she became "dopey" after taking the absolute and then became drunk. The story as told by each appeared plausible, explanatory and reasonable, but conflicted with the testimony of the hackman and the street sweeper. Death and Campbell, as introduced by the state and admitted as evidence. The morning Prosecutor Eady will begin summing up. The case will then take up the argument from the side of the defense. He will be followed by Mr. Mann and then Judge Hoffman will make the summing up for the prosecution and the appeal to the jury. Mr. Entley will close for the state.

Says, in speaking of the part taken by the Canadians at the battle of Paardeberg, that it was their forward position which gave the final move that compelled the insurgent force to lay down their arms on the anniversary of Majuba day. The Weekly Globe, Toronto, is enabling its readers to see the position of the Canadian troops at that time. Mr. Patrick Hamilton, the Globe's correspondent, and others, who were eye-witnesses, express the greatest satisfaction with the picture, and it certainly is worthy of that journal's enterprise in making it possible to keep the event ever in memory. The picture can be secured by becoming a subscriber of The Weekly Globe, at the regular price.

JEKYLL OR HYDE.

The Tory machine, which a few years ago manipulated the ballot boxes in Kings county has taken a new guise and is posing today as the apostle of political purity. Its professions of hatred of bribery at elections and its snark satisfaction at its own political holiness are, however, but a thin veneer to cover its true purpose. Last fall on the retirement of the Hon. H. R. Emmerson from the premiership of New Brunswick and the assumption of leadership by the Hon. L. J. Tweedie, a local by-election was necessary in the county of Kings, owing to the death of an attorney general. At that time Dr. Pugsley's opponent was a gentleman by the name of Sproule. The Tory machine was quite open in its avowed indifference as to the success or failure of this Mr. Sproule, and refused to accept him as the candidate of the Conservative party. Whether this hesitation was due to financial or moral considerations, we are not aware. Today, however, we find the same Tory machine with its St. John morning organ talking up the cause of another Mr. Sproule as the opposition candidate in the coming by-election in Kings. Surely these two gentlemen are the same person? It is true that they have the same christian name and that their surname is identical, but we can hardly believe that the party of political purity can today be endorsing a candidate that it did not consider fit for its endorsement a few months ago.

DUPLICITY OR IGNORANCE.

There seems to be a wrong impression in the public mind as to the arbitration proceedings which are at present being held on the property belonging to Mr. Joseph A. Lively, expropriated by the Dominion government. These proceedings do not refer in any way to the Lively property taken by the government in the year 1899 for general railway purposes in connection with the extension of the I. C. R. to its Long Wharf property. In that case arbitrators were appointed who decided upon a price which seemed to them a fair valuation of the property. Mr. Lively refused to accept the valuation, and brought suit in the Exchequer Court. That suit is still pending and will probably come up for trial in March next.

The present arbitration proceedings refer to another piece of property owned by Mr. Lively, which was expropriated last October by the government in connection with the cold storage project, and is now being utilized for the purpose of laying a siding into the site of the Cold Storage Company's warehouse. As was necessary the government appointed arbitrators to decide the value to be paid Mr. Lively on this additional property, which had been expropriated. The arbitrators in the present case are Mr. D. J. McLoughlin and Mr. Arthur W. Adams, while the arbitrators in the case which has gone to the Exchequer Court were Messrs. F. J. G. Knowlton, J. MacGregor Grant and M. B. Edwards.

In fairness to Mr. Lively, the arbitrators and the government, it is well that the facts should be clearly understood, as the matter has been entirely misrepresented, either from ignorance or duplicity, by one of the city newspapers.

BARBARITIES IN CHINA.

Within the past year the continental press, and more particularly the German, has been very severe in its criticism of the so-called cruelty of the British in South Africa in dealing with the Boers and in their burning of buildings employed by the enemy as a means of protection for the attacking of patrols, etc.

The greater portion of the cruelty and looting, which was reported in these papers as supplied from the Boer headquarters at Brussels, was pure fiction, but that did not deter many of them from their strong anti-British crusade. During the Chinese episode, if we are to believe the newspapers of all nationalities, the German and Russian troops have been guilty of the most atrocious barbarities. They have not hesitated to butcher, in cold blood, harmless women and children in China and decimate whole villages and towns with fire and sword.

Looting has been an hourly occurrence, and these troops have joined in a practical illustration of the theoretical saying "to the victors belong the spoils." According to a recent issue of a German paper, "Swabian Mercury," the motto of the allied troops is "take all you can" and even the passengers landing from Europe fall into the category of the "heavenly Chinese," and are considered legitimate game for spoliation. The Paris "Matin" even charges the American soldiers with having been guilty of vandalism and sacrilege in digging up coffins and rifling them of their valuable contents.

The Cosmicks who were guarding the Russo-Chinese Bank actually forced open the safes and appropriated the money. Russian officers are known to have valuable collections of precious art objects obtained from these looting expeditions, and openly boast and exhibit their collection of the spoils. It would almost appear as if the object which was foremost in the minds of many of the allied troops in their occupation of China was cruelty and looting. Kaiser William has forbidden soldiers writing home giving details of the outrages, but nevertheless the facts are coming to light every day of the true position of affairs in China. All these circumstances are to be regretted as they impart to the Chinese a very wrong impression of modern civilization and must have a very injurious effect on the progressive development of China by the Europeans.

SYDNEY AND ST. JOHN.

We desire to call attention to a letter published in this issue pointing out the danger which threatens the St. John jobbing houses that their trade with the growing towns of Sydney and North Sydney, Cape Breton, may be diverted to Halifax owing to the lack of proper shipping facilities between St. John and Sydney. It appears that a direct steamship service now exists between Halifax and Sydney which enables the shipper in the former town to place his goods more promptly and economically than could possibly be done at present by his St. John competitor. As against this direct steamship service, the long railway haul from St. John to Sydney would be a prohibitive factor in the matter of prices. It is absolutely necessary if St. John is to keep and extend its very substantial trade with this rapidly growing district, that similar transportation advantages should be established here, and we think that a movement deserves the very heartiest support and practical financial assistance of every business house in the city. There will be no use closing the door when the time has passed to save the valuable content. The time to take action in this steamship project between St. John and Sydney is while there is a chance not only to save the trade we have, but to largely extend it with that growing manufacturing centre.

AN IMPORTANT INDUSTRY.

As intimated in our columns yesterday there is every probability of Halifax obtaining the steel shipbuilding plant. It is a great pity if through the inactivity of our council and citizens this city should lose this large industry. The committees of the Board of Trade and city council of Halifax have met promptly, and each have formulated a proposal. The former suggested two dollars per ton on each steamer for a period of five years, while the latter proposed a subsidy of $6,000 a year for the shipbuilding and an additional sum of $4,000 a year if engineering works were also established in connection with the plant. The subsidies to extend for a period of twenty years. It is quite probable that some compromise between these two proposals will be submitted to the company, and possibly result in the establishment of steel shipbuilding in Halifax.

It had been hoped that some local inducement would have been held out by our city to obtain this large industry, but for some reason or other the people of St. John up to the present time have shown little inclination to encourage the company to establish the works here.

A STRONG BANK.

The annual statement of the Bank of Nova Scotia for the year ending December 31, 1900, shows a very flourishing condition of the bank's finances. The net profits for last year, after providing for losses by bad debts, amount to the respectable sum of $115,228.15, out of which the two half yearly dividends were paid, and the sum of $136,077.14 turned to the reserve fund. The bank's capital is $1,800,000, but this is largely exceeded by the bank's reserve fund, which amounts to $2,418,000, or 130 per cent. of the capital. In other words the reserve fund to protect the bank's interest and that of its shareholders is nearly $600,000 more than its capital stock.

The business of the Bank of Nova Scotia has been extending from year to year until today it is one of the very strongest of the Canadian financial institutions. Mr. H. C. McLeod, the general manager of the bank, is one of the leading financiers of the Dominion and under his management the progress of the bank has been rapid and steady. The local manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at St. John, Mr. T. B. Blair, is one of the most popular business men of the city.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Another American Barbicue.

Do you belong to the Kings county "Four Hundred."

Who is the Ward McAllister of the Kings county 400?

George Goodenham's interview was too much for the equilibrium of the C. P. R. magnates.

The question of the hour in Montreal is: Will the president of the C. P. R. have to step down and out?

The reorganization of the I. C. R. will likely be followed by a similar shake-up on the C. P. R.

It is suggested that De Wet's atrocities are due to a desire for revenge for newspaper puns. He had terrible provocation.

The attacks upon Premier Ross by the "blue" press of Quebec is only an illustration of a new form of the Tory hysteria.

The jail will not be so popular when the prisoners have to take a bath before being allowed admission.

In Halifax the police are making a crusade against vice, while in St. John vice is making a crusade against the police.

The suggestion of another Canadian transcontinental line rather stirs the business imagination.

If the Boer general has butchered the peace envoys, he cannot know enough to come out of De Wet.

It is easier to criticize than to originate projects for the commercial advancement of this city and province.

St. John needs to wake up on the steel shipbuilding project. Sleepy old Halifax has stirred from her slumbers.

While the vaccination campaign is in progress, it might be well to inoculate the St. John police force with an anti-vice vaccine.

That Canada attracted fifty thousand new settlers to her western domain last year is the best proof of the progress the country is making under present conditions.

The proposition to furnish the jail-birds with separate baths and individual towels will help to take the rough edge off the counter-proposal of hard labor for long term prisoners.

The British manufacturers are having a small panic over American competition especially in the iron and steel trade. Canada will eventually play a leading part in the game.

The discovery of a million bushels of grain in the West Side elevators by an evening paper justifies the impression that there is some winter export business being done through St. John.

In the assignment case of Campbell & Nixon, Hartland, N. B., the creditor's complaint seems to be that the boy was simply father of the boy.

The St. Martins cantenarian is to be presented with a congratulatory address and an arm chair. The only wonder is some of the aldermen did not propose to present him with the "freedom" of the city.

There are only 538 questions to be answered in the coming census. Luckily we have not each to answer them all. Wonder if there is any provision for a substitute to give the information for each establishment.

The proposition to charge the city $5 a day for the privilege of dumping snow into the Market St. is, as a display of local patriotism, equal to the proposal of the gentleman at Little River to sell the city four acres of farm land for four thousand dollars.

General Hutton has been heard from. In an address before the Imperial Institute, London, he decides that the Boers are the greatest soldiers of ancient or modern times, and that it was, fortunately for the Empire that he was sent to the seat of war. It is now time to hear from Sam. Hughes.

ANNUAL COUNTY MEETINGS.

Municipal Councils of Several Districts

IN SESSION TUESDAY.

York Shows a Good Financial Standing--Northumberland Was Asked to Provide Colors for the 73rd Regiment--Charlotte Council.

Fredenton, Jan. 15.—(Special)—The January session of York municipal council convened at the Court House this morning. After roll call, Warden McAllister thanked the council for the consideration shown him while occupying the warden's chair and tendered his resignation. On motion, Councilor Moushous, of Bright, was unanimously elected warden for the ensuing year. Secretary Thompson asked that the balance to the credit of the county in the Royal Bank of Canada, was $7,283.75. He considered the financial condition of the county was very satisfactory indeed.

Northumberland.
Newcastle, Jan. 15.—(Special)—The Northumberland county council met in annual session here today. Warden Kerr in the chair. Secretary Thompson asked to be relieved of his duties for a day as he was suffering from a severe cold. On motion of Councilor Wurt, Mr. Thompson was excused. The following councillors answered to the roll call: Councilors Pond and Campbell, Ladlow; Councilors Swin and Hurley, Hillsfield; Councilors Brophy and Hayes, Blackville; Councilors Ryan and Whitney, North Esk; Councilors Johnston and Tozer, South Esk; Councilors Parker and Crocker, Derby; Councilors Plett and Saunders, Nelson; Councilors Bourke and Chasson, Rogersville; Councilors Davidson, Doyle and Lonsbury, Newcastle; Councilors Kerr, Watt and Connors, Clatham; Councilors Cameron and Ullock, Gloucester; Councilors Wilston and Lewis, Hardwick, and Councilors Macrae and Restigouche, St. John. Councilor Bond moved that Councilors Connors, Tozer and Swin be appointed to nominate standing committees. They were appointed.

The 73rd Battalion petitioned the council to grant it colors. The battalion is composed of men from Kent, Northumberland and Restigouche. The petition was referred to the committee on petitions. A petition was read from Roger Flanagan of Chatham. Mr. Flanagan wanted a refund on certain Scott Act lands paid by him. This petition was also referred to the committee on petitions. A number of accounts had been dealt with the council adjourned until Wednesday.

Charlotte.
St. Andrews, N. B., Jan. 15.—(Special)—The county council of Charlotte convened in annual session today with all the councillors in attendance. Chas. Copan, of St. Stephen, Newcastle, was elected warden, defeating J. W. Stevenson. Nothing of importance is to come before the council.

The county government at its quarterly meeting yesterday had a lengthy session and dealt with a number of important matters. Wm. McDougal presided while the councillors in attendance were Messrs. Daniel, Stetson, Hilyard, Colwell, Baxter, Waring, Tutts, White, Armstrong, Macrae, Robinson, Millidge, Christie, McMillan, Catherwood, Lowell, Lee, Horgan, Ruddick, Fowles, Cochran, Dean and Hargrove.

Resolved recommending payment of a number of accounts the finance committee recommended that the lieutenant governor-in-council be memorialized to repeal the law relating to the registration of marriages, births and deaths, as it is unsatisfactory and exceedingly expensive; also that they be authorized to institute and direct legal proceedings against all or any defaulters for taxes in the parishes; and that the amount to the credit of the recorder's license account and the board of examiners of lumber surveyors be distributed as by law directed.

Births Not All Registered.

The section relating to the registration caused a lengthy discussion. Councilor White said the present law in some respects was a hardship on the medical profession, but he thought it would be unwise to interfere with the law bearing on such important statistics even if it was forced upon the municipality.

Councilor Christie was of the opinion that the law was worthless as fully 20 per cent. of the returns of births were not collected. Councilor Baxter thought the collection and preservation of the statistics important. He moved, seconded by Councilor Robinson, that the section be struck out.

Councilor Daniel concurred with the opinion expressed that the registration was not complete as far as the births were concerned. Accurate records of the marriages were kept in church books, while the board of health looked after the mortality figures. It was important that full returns of the births should be collected. He thought that the section might be referred back and a suggestion made to improve the law in order that complete statistics might be obtained.

Finally the matter was referred to the committee on bills and by-laws to report at the next meeting. The other sections in the report were adopted.

Making Prisoners Work.

The report of the buildings committee, among other things, contained the following sections respecting the carrying out of hard labor sentences and additional accommodation: The committee recommend that the committee on bills be authorized to prepare a bill for the next session of the legislature to provide for the more efficient carrying out and enforcing of hard labor sentences in the jail, and that the secretary be authorized to publish the necessary notice. The committee on jail improvements

Prince Ching Affixing The Imperial Seal

IN THE FORBIDDEN CITY.

The Papers Will Not Be Presented to the Foreign Envoys Until Today--A Hitch in the Railway Transfer--A Chinese Court of Justice.

Pekin, Jan. 15.—Prince Ching and his staff were a long time in the forbidden city today. Accompanied by the chief eunuchs, they saw a woman servant guaranteeing the imperial seal. She produced the seal, the papers were sealed in her presence, and then the seal was returned. Owing to the lateness of the hour the papers thus sealed will not be presented to the foreign envoys until tomorrow.

In the American district a Chinese court of justice will come into being and operation tomorrow. The death penalty must be inflicted for murder, manslaughter, attempted murder, robbery, counterfeiting, hoarding and burglary. It may also be inflicted upon those known to have been Boxers, who have done injury to life or property. Other punishment like whipping, imprisonment and the imposition of fines, can be inflicted.

Owing to orders received from Berlin a hitch has occurred regarding the transfer of the railway, which Russia yesterday began turning over to Germany.

Berlin, Jan. 15.—The German foreign office has received official dispatches confirming the press report that the Chinese plenipotentiaries have signed the agreement but has received nothing to indicate whether the note has been returned to the foreign envoys.

Pekin, Jan. 15.—French railway engineers have made a breach in the western wall of the province of Shan Tung, which they will bring in the Pao Ting Fu railway. The Tien Tsin line will be extended to the wall of the Tartar city.

Shanghai, Jan. 15.—Yun Shi Kai, governor of the province of Shan Tung, has been ordered to proceed to Peking to assist in the peace negotiations; but it is expected here that he will decline to go.

Deceased was about 45 years of age, and was unmarried. He had clerked for a number of years in the stores at Albert, and made many friends. He also at one time conducted a mercantile business at Albert.

Deceased was a member of the Baptist church, and was prominently connected with the Mesonic order. He leaves three brothers and two sisters, John and Geo. Richardson, of Melville; Jas. Richardson, New York; Mrs. Warren Oliver, of British Columbia, and Mrs. C. P. Keith, of Cambridgeport, Mass.

Mrs. Brown, widow of Mr. David Brown, and her little boy, went this week to Hall's Harbor, N. S., to visit relatives of her late husband.

The snow storm was severe in this section. The roads were very heavy in some places.

REPORTS, DISASTERS, ETC.

The old brigantine C. C. Vanhorn, one of the first vessels built by the Messrs. Churchills of Halifax, which has been lying on the beach at that port for several years, went adrift last week in the ice, and after drifting up and down the river with the tide, finally sank near Summerside. She was partially destroyed by fire in 1878. The iron schooner City, another of Churchills' fleet, built in 1871, was wrecked last week on the coast of Nova Scotia. She was formerly a brigantine.

The wrecked steamer Marotis still lies on the rocks near Coxey, N.S., and is smashed badly from number three hold aft, but the forward portion of the ship is still unbroken. It is being used for a lumber yard.

JUST A FACE IN THE CROWD.

"Some of these good people will get hurt in a minute!" Captain Ferrars of her Majesty's Life Guards gazed over the surging sea of packed humanity that struggled and swung to and fro in the approaches to Ludgate Circus.

The passing of a parcels mail-van had broken the ranks of his troopers, and the crowd had immediately taken advantage of the eddy in the wake to make a blind rush, which, with irresistible force, had swept him with his charger half a dozen yards from his station.

"Steady, Sultan!" murmured the captain, patting his charger's glossy neck. "If you kick now you'll kill a ratpater, and get the army diked, just when we are doing our best to make it popular."

Sultan shook his patrician head disdainfully at his master's warning, and knooched the hat from the head of an enthusiastic citizen who was celebrating the return of the South African troops by wearing a large false nose and blowing a tin trumpet.

"Not 'arf!" responded an appreciative bystander. "I 'ear the guards are goin' to leave us! Ho, listen to the band!"

The crowd took up the chorus, and Captain Ferrars felt himself blushing as pink as the symbolic lobster.

"Gilded bloomin' poppin'—that's wot you are! A bloomin' fever-bed sojer, wot 'as to 'ave a couple o' blaters to keep 'im in 'is bloomin' saddle in case o' falls or accidents, 'is bloomin' 'elmet. Bloomin' nickel-plated policeman—that's wot you are!"

"Ho, 'earn, 'earn, 'earn, can't 'yer!" shrieked the factory girl, whose attention had been drawn at last by the persistent ticking of the peacock's feather.

SEVENTEEN ADJECTIVES Required to Express Mr. Driggs' Opinion of Cadet Dockery, Who Was on the Stand in the West Point Hazing Investigation—The Witness Lost His Breath.

West Point, N. Y., Jan. 16.—The congressional committee put in a good day's work at the West Point academy today. They got down to the bottom of the hazing practiced at the academy during the last four years and while at least a dozen other witnesses have yet to be examined in this connection the committee has laid out the work for touching rock bottom before the end of the week.

"Did you think it was cruel?" "Yes, sir." "Well, young man, for your information I will tell you that I think it was atrocious, base, detestable, disgraceful, dishonorable, despicable, heinous, ignominious, infamous, odious, outrageous, scandalous, shameful, shameless, villainous and wicked," Mr. Driggs, and the torrent of adjectives almost took away Dockery's breath.
