

Brantford Will Have 1000 Men This Winter Municipal Securities Are Locally Offered

LOCAL MUNICIPAL SECURITIES OPENED TO BRANTFORD PEOPLE

At an Important Meeting of the Chairmen of Standing Committee Last Night it Was Decided to Try Out New Scheme.

A very important meeting was held last evening in the office of the City Treasurer, when Mr. Bunnell recommended to the Mayor and the chairmen of the standing committees, who were all present, the offering of Brantford municipal securities directly to the citizens and others interested, in a sound and remunerative investment. These will probably take the form of one, two and three-year notes bearing interest payable half-yearly, and secured by long-date debentures which have been regularly authorized and issued. It is not thought advisable to at present dispose of these long date debentures on account of present conditions.

The notes may be in denominations of one hundred dollars and upwards, and will be offered directly to purchasers, who may apply at the office of the Treasurer.

The City Solicitor attended the meeting and gave assurance that the suggestion could be legally carried out. The Mayor and all present were unanimous in approval, and full particulars will be announced in a few days.

The Treasurer reported that over 90 per cent. of the taxes for 1915 had been received, and that the expenditures of the different committees of the Council had, up to date, been kept within the appropriations. This is a very satisfactory state of affairs and reflects credit upon the chairmen of the committees, the members of the Council, and all concerned.

ONE THOUSAND MEN WILL BE QUARTERED HERE ALL WINTER

There is no doubt now but that Brantford will have half the 84th Battalion remain here this winter. Yesterday Col. Stewart and Capt. Duggan from Niagara Falls were in town in consultation with the Mayor and Aldermen Ryerson and Dowling. Arrangements were made and confirmed at the meeting of the military committee last night.

The arrangements will be briefly as follows: The larger portion of the 84th Battalion, consisting of about 700 men will be stationed in Brantford for the winter. The remainder of the battalion will be in Ottawa, but the senior staff and headquarters staff will be located in Brantford.

The men will be accommodated as regards lodgings, in the armories, which are now being altered and overhauled to meet the new conditions. The men will have a dining hall in some central building down town, the details of which are yet to be arranged.

The senior and married officers have rented the home of Dr. Ballachey on Brant Avenue, while the unmarried officers will take up their quarters at the Y. M. C. A.

The men accompanied by a regimental band will arrive here at the latest in the middle of the month and most likely next week. In addition to these all the recruits which join here will find room and lodgings about the city for themselves, reporting every day after drill. This means that there will be upwards of 1000 men quartered in Brantford all winter, making it a real garrison city.

SEC. OF SIR E. GREY OF GERMAN DESCENT

Startling Accusation by London Globe, Which Shows That the Teutonic Arm Reaches Even to the Foreign Office.

London, Oct. 9.—Describing Great Britain's "diplomatic failure" in the Balkans as "ghastly," the Globe declares the foreign relations of the country cannot safely be left in the hands of the Foreign Office as it is at present constituted.

Its record, says the Globe, "has been one of dismal weakness. It is a misfortune that Sir Edward Grey speaks no language but his own. It is a greater misfortune that he has been incapacitated through ill-health. It is the greatest of all that his Permanent Under-Secretary, whom he must chiefly depend on, is sprung from a German mother and married to a German woman."

"If the failure is not to culminate in disaster, the ill-omened partnership must be ended."

GERMANS DENY SUB LOSSES

Special Wire to the Courier. London, Oct. 9.—A semi-official despatch received from Berlin referring to statements made in England and America that the losses of German submarines have reached an aggregate of sixty, says categorically that the actual losses in underwater boats is "less than a quarter of the above number."

losses, has been obliged to restrict her submarine warfare, we can state that the submarines now at Germany's disposal is considerably greater than at the beginning of the submarine war."

Liebkecht Wounded.
Special Wire to the Courier. Berne, Switzerland, via Paris, Oct. 9.—Dr. Karl Liebkecht, the famous German Socialist, who has been fighting on the eastern front in the engineer corps, has been injured in the head by being struck by a falling tree, according to the Tagwacht.

WHAT TEUTONS PAID BULGARS FOR NEUTRALITY

Macedonia, Peace With Turkey and Expansion at Expense of Serbia BULGAR MANIFESTO STILL EXPLAINING
Quadruple Entente is Not to be Trusted, But Germany Always Kept Her Word.

Special Wire to the Courier. London, Oct. 9.—A despatch received from Frankfurt says the Bulgarian manifesto praises Germany for giving Bulgaria financial aid after the treaty of Bucharest without any political conditions. It indicates Serbia as Bulgaria's greatest enemy and Russia's "spoiled darling," declaring that Russia never will consent to favor Bulgaria at the expense of Serbia. The manifesto asserts that the quadruple entente offered Bulgaria nothing adequate for her neutrality, but "required a complete command of the Balkan army which was to take Constantinople and then hand it over to Russia. In return for all this, it is stated, Bulgaria was to receive territory up to the Enos-Midia line and was promised vague, inadequate compensation in Macedonia, only, however, on the understanding that Serbia get sufficient compensation from Austria."

THE PRICE OF NEUTRALITY.
The document then says that the Austro-Germans offered in return for Bulgarian neutrality:
First, the whole of Macedonia, including Uskub, Monastir and Ochrida; second, friendly mediation between Bulgaria and Turkey, with a view to cession of the line to Dedaghat and territory west of Maritza. A still greater territorial expansion at the expense of Serbia is said to have been offered as a condition of active military assistance.

JUST WHAT THEY WANTED
These promises correspond to our desire to have a common frontier with Austria-Hungary along the Danube," says the document.
The manifesto emphasizes the contrast between the two sets of promises and declares:
THINKS GERMANS WILL WIN.
"While the quadruple cannot be trusted, we are fully entitled to trust a treaty with Germany who always has fulfilled her treaty obligations. Finally, Bulgaria must adhere to the central powers because from the development of operations in the var-

GREAT ARMY OF PLANES IN FRANCE

Battle, Cruiser, Scout and Torpedo Aeroplanes Are Heavily Armored.
CARRY CANNON AND RAPID-FIRE GUNS
Huge Dreadnought Battle Plane Carries Twelve Men With Two Cannon on Wings.

Paris, Oct. 9.—An aerial army is no longer a dream or romance. Such an army, formed in divisions and squadrons, with battle aeroplanes, cruiser aeroplanes, scouts and torpedo planes, all armored heavily and carrying three-inch cannon and rapid-fire guns, is a reality. It has been made possible through the remarkable development of military aviation in France.

The French Government yesterday permitted the first inspection of its new fleet of aeroplanes. Opportunity was given to inspect the large and small types of the new battle planes, and watch them as they were manoeuvring high in the air, firing round after round from their three-inch rifles, while they soared, looped and dived about.
The Minister of War, Alexandre Millerand, assigned two military experts of the staff of the aviation service—Captain de Lafarge and Lieut. Paruf—to conduct the correspondents first to one point, the name of which may not be mentioned, where the new fleet of battle craft had been assembled, and later to the aviation school at B—, where 100 military aviators were learning to navigate the new war craft.

FORMED LIKE A BATTALION.
The aviation field is a vast enclosure. Entering the field, a monster battle plane loomed up 30 feet high, across the front and ten deep. Their huge wings made a front half a mile wide.
The battle plane and the cruisers were armed heavily. Each carried both the three-inch cannon and the rapid-fire gun.
The huge battle plane was the chief centre of attention. The engineer who constructed it explained the details. The officers stated this was the first actual realization of the battle plane.

FOREIGN OFFICE SCORED HEAVILY BY LONDON PRESS

Its Handling of Balkan Affairs Stated to be a Series of Blunders.

ITS FAILURE CLOSES PAGE IN HISTORY

British Prestige in East Spatched Away Through Optimism, Carelessness and Stupidity.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, Oct. 9.—The newspapers devote an increased amount of editorial space to a discussion of the foreign office's share in the Balkan debacle. The Post, after remarking that its handling of Balkan affairs has been a series of blunders which would have been remarkable in a parish council, discusses at length the work of the foreign office in the diplomatic exchanges which precedes the war, and then in the contraband controversy over iron ore and cotton.

The Post finally turns bluntly to the proposal for establishing an international court of appeals from decisions of the prize court, saying:

SHOULD SIR EDWARD RESIGN?
"It appears that proposals are being entertained by the foreign office. We are glad Lord Strachie is to raise the question in the House of Lords. Should it prove to be the case that such a design is being prosecuted we say plainly that in the name of our national honor and our national security, the resignation of Sir Edward

LETTER TELLS HOW EARL HOUSER DIED

H. A. Spencer Writes to His Parents Telling of Last Hours.

A few days ago the Courier announced the sad news of the death of a Brantford boy, Earl Houser. Following is a letter from a chum of the dead young man, written from the trenches of the front.

The writer of the letter, H. A. Spencer is also a Brantford boy:
Trenches, Belgium, September 25, 1915.
Dear Mr. and Mrs. Houser—
It falls to me to acquaint you with the sad news of Earl's death, as I am the only Brantford boy, besides Mr. Chambers, his sister, Mrs. Pettit, lives on Clarence street. I knew Earl in Brantford and it was a great blow to me and the whole troop, who send their heartfelt sympathy. I think our officer, Mr. Nordheimer, is writing you also. Earl was in our tent with us out at billets and we sure had a good time. We came from Canterbury on the same draft and believe me, when a man's time comes to die he will die, whether he is in the trenches or not. Strange to say, he remarked several times in the tent before we left for the trenches, "Do you know I feel it in my bones; I will get it this trip." I jokingly said, "Oh, no; it is only your imagination." The doctor told me that he died ten minutes after he was carried to the dressing station. He was unconscious all through, as the bullet struck him in the forehead. He died a noble death, as he was bombing between the German lines and our own. A stray bullet struck him. I know it must be a terrible blow to you. Perhaps you will be acquainted with the circumstances of this tragedy. He was buried at Ration Farm, near Neuve Eglise, and his grave will be kept in order as many of his comrades are with him at the same spot. I will visit the place where he was buried and attend to it with Mr. Chambers. I am bombing myself now and it may be a couple of days before I can be free for a while. It may be my turn next. If I ever return to Brantford, I will visit you and explain more fully. Mr. Chambers and I buried him. I do not know what more I can say. I will give you my address, and if you wish me to do anything, I will try and fulfill it. Trooper H. A. Spencer, 3rd Troop, B Squadron, R.C.D. 7839, 1st Canadian Mounted Brigade, France. I live on Mintern avenue, Eagle Place. Again conveying my deepest sympathy.

Yours truly,
H. A. Spencer.

BRITISH SUBMARINE SINKS HUN TRANSPORT IN BALTIC

Climax is Not Come Yet in Political Situation in Balkans--Germans' First Attack on Serbians a Failure.

NO CLIMAX YET.
London, Oct. 9.—Although the last twenty-four hours brought no climax in the swiftly changing political situation in the Balkans, London begins to view it in clearer perspective. The departure of the quadruple entente diplomats has given finality to Bulgaria's commitment to the side of the central powers, but as yet there has been no formal declaration of war between Bulgaria and Serbia or the entente.

NO HOSTILITIES.
Excepting an unconfirmed report of a Russian bombardment of the Bulgarian coast near Varna, no overt act of hostilities has been committed by Bulgaria or her new opponents. Nevertheless Bulgaria is reported to be preparing a flank attack on Serbia, carried out in conjunction with the Austro-German invasion. She is concentrating cavalry, supported by heavy artillery under German command, in the direction of Koestendil, southwest of Sofia near the Serbian border.

FIRST ATTACK FAILED.
According to official Serbian advices, the Austro-German attack has not won much of an initial success, the invaders having suffered large losses in crossing the Saxe and now being pinned to the brink of the river. Mary Germans are among the prisoners, and some of them are said to be members of a Prussian brigade which formerly was operating against Italy. There still remains a slight element of doubt as to the attitude of Greece, which probably will not be dispelled until the new cabinet makes definite pronouncement of its policy. In the meantime the entente powers appear to be satisfied with assurances of continued neutrality and see no reason to believe Greece intends to array herself against them in the impending conflict. Allied troops to have landed at Saloniki and obstacles to their transportation to Serbia have been removed by the prompt action of the Greek Minister of Communications, the Venizelos' cabinet. M. Diamantidis, in freeing the railways from Austro-German control.

GERMAN TRANSPORT SUNK.
Russia has made official announcement of the sinking of a German transport by a British submarine in the Baltic.

Epidemic of Typhus.
By Special Wire to the Courier. London, Oct. 9.—An epidemic of typhus fever has broken out in the state of Victoria, Australia, according to a Reuter despatch from Melbourne, which says 447 cases already have been reported. Of this number 134 have resulted fatally.

BRITISH WILL CONTINUE LANDING TROOPS IN GREECE

British Minister Elliott Told King Constantine Plainly That Allies Would Push Through to a Finish.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, Oct. 9.—Strong representations are said by the Central News to be made by Bulgaria to Greece against the landing of the French and British troops at Saloniki.

BULGARIA OBJECTS.
The despatch to the Central News forwarded from its correspondent at Sofia says that Premier Dadoslavoff informed the Greek minister that the landing of allied troops at Saloniki, was not in harmony with the attitude of the Greek Government toward Bulgaria as recently expressed. The premier added that if the attitude of Greece was not altered the Bulgarian cabinet could not be responsible for a change in the feelings of the Bulgarian people. The Bulgarian minister at Athens is said to have been instructed to make similar representations to the Greek Government.

PLAIN SPEAKING.
Rome, Oct. 8.—Via Paris, Oct. 9.—King Constantine of Greece was told plainly by British Minister Elliott during the audience granted him Thursday that Great Britain and France were determined to push through the military expedition now being landed at Saloniki. The Athens correspondent of The Giornale d'Italia says the views of the quadruple entente government were explained to the Greek ruler in very energetic terms by the British diplomat.

CONTINUE LANDING TROOPS.
Turin, Italy, via London, Oct. 9.—According to the correspondents of local newspapers, the ministers of the entente powers have notified the Greek Government that for the present the entente allies intend to land an expeditionary force of slightly over 70,000. It is stated that Austrian agents are watching the landing carefully and claim to know the exact composition of the force.

AMERICAN ROLLING STOCK.
The prompt action of the Greek minister of communication, M. Diamantidis, it is said, prevented a possible disaster at the beginning of entente movement. When the landing began three railways out of Saloniki were in Austro-German hands and the employees had received advance instructions from Berlin to obstruct the movement by all possible means, according to the correspondents. Rumors spread of an impending sabotage, but M. Diamantidis is said to have made a hurried trip to Saloniki, seized control of the railway and discharged all Austro-German employees. The cars in which the allied troops are being transported inland are now rolling stock, which has just arrived from America.

HAD TO RUN AND SWIM AFTER THE EXPLOSION

Wonderful Feat of Lieut. D'Oily Hughes, British Sub. Commander.

London, Oct. 9.—How Lieut. D'Oily Hughes, attached to a British submarine operating in the Sea of Marmora, swam from the craft, pushing ahead of him a raft bearing explosives with which he made a breach in the Turkish railway skirting the beach, is related in an official report given out here to-day. This statement, chronicling perhaps the strangest experience that has befallen any man during this war, says:
"His weapons consisted of an automatic service revolver and a sharp-edged bayonet. He also carried an electric torch and a whistle. The cliffs proved unscalable at the first point of landing. He therefore launched his raft till a less precipitous spot was reached and after a stiff climb and a long march, he reached the railway. Sighting a viaduct, continues the statement, he planned to destroy it, but abandoned the idea because of the presence of enemy workmen. He then selected a brick culvert under the railway, placed a charge of explosive and lit a fuse. He effected his escape by running a mile down the railway, and plunged into the sea just as the explosion was about to take place. He was near him, indicating that the explosion was effective.

Having blown his whistle to summon the submarine, the lieutenant swam out to sea. However, on sighting the submarine he mistook it for a group of Turkish rowboats, whereupon he swam towards shore and began to ascend the cliff in hope of hiding. He then discovered his mistake and again entered the water. Subsequently he was rescued by the submarine when he was on the verge of exhaustion.
Col. Logie, commander of the district, has ordered that no intoxicating liquors are to be allowed in any mess in Hamilton, and the hotelmen have an agreement not to sell to soldiers.

HAL JOHNSON "IN SKIRTS."
For good straight comedy Hal Johnson "In Skirts" which will be the offering at the Grand Opera House on Thanksgiving afternoon and evening takes second place to none on the stage to-day. It is interspersed with delightful musical numbers and the plot is absolutely free from anything objectionable. One funny situation follows another in rapid succession and the audience is kept laughing all the time. "In Skirts" fairly bubbles over with music and mirth and critics who have seen the production and company are loud in their praise. Hal Johnson, a comedian of ability, has the principal role and the company all through is well balanced. The seat sale for this production opened Thursday at the Drug Store. Secure your seats early.

Old World Notes

A hook and eye revival may possibly result in England from the shortage in those useful metal press-studs which during the past few years have to a very large extent been used as fastenings for ladies' dresses.

The Medway is now navigable for barges 100 feet in length, with a beam of 20 feet and a draft of 5 feet 9 in., between Maidstone and Tonbridge. This improvement is the result of an Act of Parliament which received the Royal Assent in June, 1911.

The total value of British contributions to war charities during the first year of war is estimated at one hundred and twenty-five million dollars. The gifts made through agencies in the British possessions would perhaps bring this total up to near one hundred and seventy-five million dollars.

The Situation.

There is some pretty heated talk in the Old Land just now with reference to alleged blunders by the Foreign Office, particularly in connection with the Balkan States.

Brantford's Y.M.C.A.

No one can compute the far-reaching influence for good which the Y.M.C.A. exercises in all portions of the world.

The Submarine Failure.

Some of the U. S. papers have boasted that President Wilson brought the Kaiserites to time in the matter of the sinking of the Arabic without so much as having a shot fired, and they seem to think that John Bull, per example, might just as easily have called Berlin to time without hostilities had there been another Wilson at the head of affairs over there.

GERMANS COULD STOP ATROCITIES, SAYS BALFOUR

On Other Hand, German Papers Say the U. S. is Presumptuous.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, Oct. 9.—Arthur J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty, expressing regret at his inability to attend the meeting to be held by the Lord Mayor at the Mansion House next Friday to start a fund for the relief of Armenian refugees, says with reference to the massacre of Armenians:

"It is a crime unsurpassing the worst deeds of the Turks. As the Turks are entirely dependent upon the Jews for support, the Germans surely could, if they would, put an end to so disgraceful a condition of affairs, and I should hope that the German-Americans, who must be anxious to save what remains of Germany's good name, would use their influence to check a continuance of these purposeless barbarities."

CRIME UNSURPASSED. "It is a crime unsurpassing the worst deeds of the Turks. CALLS IT PRESUMPTION. Amsterdam, via London, Oct. 9.—Commenting on the representations made to Turkey by the United States concerning the massacres of Armenians, The Cologne Volks Zeitung, characterizes it as a presumption, and says that the United States again gives herself airs as a guardian of humanity in a matter that does not concern her directly. The newspaper adds that the United States would do better to scrutinize its colossal supply of arms to the quadruple entente.

This is an appeal from the British Red Cross Society in England for funds to carry on their work, sent out to every city, town and municipality in Canada.

A meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the Public Library and the following committee was formed to aid in the work: Chairman, Rev. G. A. Woodside; secretary, H. T. Watt; Mayor Spence, M. F. Cockshutt, M. W. O. Raymond, T. H. Preston and F. D. Reville.

The following ladies were pledged on the committee representing the Women's Patriotic League, and Red Cross Society: Mrs. Livingston, Mrs. Lloyd Harris, Mrs. George Watt, Mrs. R. H. Reville, Mrs. G. P. Buck and Mrs. C. L. Laing, with power to add to their number.

INSPECTOR'S REPORT. City Clerk H. F. Leonard has received the following report from Mr. Devereux, which is very satisfactory. Market has been inspected every day, and only five cases of diseased meat have been offered for sale on the market since July 1st; butter and vegetables have at all times been up to standard weight.

Foreign Office. Grey and the re-organization of the foreign office will be demanded.

FOREIGN OFFICE SCORED. "We do not propose to commit the decisions of the foreign office to a mongrel assembly of foreign jurists, in which Great Britain can be outvoted by representatives of Ecuador, Bolivia, Switzerland and Germany. The record of the foreign office is sufficiently dubious. It may be that its series of unparalleled blunders is due simply to incompetence. If it is not incompetence, what is it?"

SECRET DIPLOMACY. The Post lodges vigorous protest against old-fashioned secret diplomacy, remarking that the British foreign office always demanded immunity from criticism or comment. "Previous to the war," the newspaper declares, "the premier and his friends assumed us nothing could be more friendly than the attitude of Germany to Great Britain. Last year the result of diplomatic secrecy and misrepresentations was, briefly—war."

THE MAIL'S VIEW. "We have frittered away our great near-eastern prestige of power and tradition, literally allowing them to be snatched out of our hands through optimism, carelessness and stupidity. Our failure closes a great page in history. What possible excuse has the foreign office to make to our allies and our people?"

THE TIMES. The Times is not surprised to find the government's record in relation to its Balkan policy becoming a matter of public discussion, asserting that the shortcomings of British diplomacy constitute a painful theme. It contends that Great Britain held a unique position in the Balkans, especially in Bulgaria, for some time among the entente powers had a reputation for complete unselfishness of purpose in Balkan politics. Russia, Italy and France all were regarded with suspicion as being too deeply interested.

FRITTERED AWAY. "Britain alone," says the Times, "could speak with force and weight and get an attentive hearing. That priceless advantage somehow has been frittered away in recent months, largely the result of inattention, half-heartedness and the want of a definite policy. It can still be regained and only by vigorous government action, backed by the whole weight of an informed public opinion."

ST. MARY'S CHOIR HONOR MISS PHILLIPS

Miss Edna Phillips, a popular young lady of this city, who left last week to take up residence in Chicago, was made the recipient of a number of useful gifts from her friends and associates, chief among these being a beautiful dresser set in solid white ivory, from the senior choir of St. Mary's church, of which she was organist. The address was read by Miss Annie Smith, while Miss Cahill made the presentation. The Young Ladies' Sodality also remembered Miss Phillips by donating a leather writing case, the address being read by the president, Miss Gertrude Kew, while the children's choir presented a handsome amethyst rosary, and finally a farewell party was given in her honor at the park, where dancing and refreshments helped to while away a pleasant evening, about fifty in all being present.

Miss Phillips made suitable replies to each of the addresses, thanking her many friends for their kindness and hearty co-operation in the past, and in closing expressed the hope that some day she would return to Brantford to renew her acquaintance with those friends who were then called on to say "good-bye."

Rome, via Paris, Oct. 9.—An engagement between Emperor William of Germany and King Ferdinand of Bulgaria providing for joint military action, The Tribuna says, was concluded last April. Germany, the paper asserts it has learned intended to attack Serbia in May, considering that time opportune as the Balkan state was being ravaged by epidemics, which finally were overcome, chiefly through the efforts of Red Cross workers. Action against Serbia was delayed, however, by Italian intervention in the war, which forced Austria to send strong forces to the Italian front.

PHILADELPHIA FIRST OF

Luck is a Big Factor in the Red Sox Defeat.

MIGHTY ALEXANDER TIGHT IN PINCH

More Hits by Boston, but Scott—No Record Crowd and no sensational Features in Opening tie—Shore a Great Pitcher.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 9.—In the history of the world's series has not been a game in which fortune played so large a role as this part as in that of yesterday when the Philadelphia Nationals, the Boston Americans 3 to 1 in the first game of the big annual league championship tournament—Lucky—the so-called breaks of game—comprised a very large percentage of the total.

STUPID PLAY BY SCOTT

But it was not luck alone that for the Quakers. The game to us as stupid a play by Scott of ton as one would see in any circuit. Then too, there was the called another solitary break.

BOSTON TWIRLER THE B

Shore outpitched Alexander. B was not one good honest hit out of the Boston infield unless a Texas Leaguer which popped Hoblitzell's head off Paskert's bat the fourth could be described as a Phillie were swung about on slippery infield. On the other the Red Sox hit viciously and line, all of their eight hits being ringing drives, which were touched by the opposing fielder's spectacular catch by Paskert Gardner in the eighth saved the for the Phillies. In contradistinction to this, all three of the Phillie runs were the result of ridiculous hitkey infield rollers.

STRAIGHT BASEBALL ONLY WAS ATTENDED BY EITHER SIDE

The Phillie peared the better team in the while the Sox seemed to be to their National League rival hat. That constitutes a glaring versal of the "dope." The diame opposite was coincidently expect

"ALEX" TIGHT IN PINCH

The Red Sox got a hit in inning but the last, and had a left stranded in every inning. So for Alexander's effectiveness, times the Red-legs got the first on base via the clean-hit route, and by means of their work, they hunt sacrifice, but big "Alex" down on them right there each. It may be said that, as against three runs scored by the Phillie with the bases full, a weak run was the outcome of a clean drive single by Lewis.

SPEAKER HIT

The sluggers of the resp teams failed to slug. The much-teared Cravath did not get a hit anything like one would expect. Speaker, the Boston better, also of a base knock Speaker twice and hit two long drives field. The stage was all set for with in the eighth when he caught the bases full. A weak short was his contribution, scored Stock from third.

PHILADELPHIA WINS THE FIRST OF WORLD'S SERIES

Luck is a Big Factor in the Red Sox Defeat.

MIGHTY ALEXANDER TIGHT IN PINCHES

More Hints by Boston, but Scattered in No Record Crowd and no Sensational Features in Opening Battle—Shore a Great Pitcher.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 9.—In all the history of the world's series there has never been a game in which fickle fortune played so large and so effective a part as in that of yesterday, when the Philadelphia Nationals beat the Boston Americans 3 to 1 in the first game of the big annual international championship tournament. Luck—the so-called breaks of the game—comprises a very large percentage of baseball and renders the most uncertain basis upon which to calculate.

Yesterday the Phillies had enough luck, had it been scattered over a series of games, to enable them to win a majority of the contests. In the remaining games of this annual world-renowned campaign the Philadelphiaans can have no just complaint if they do not get another solitary "break."

STUPID PLAY BY SCOTT

But it was not luck alone that won for the Quakers. The game turned out as stupid a play by Scott of Boston as one would see in any "bush" circuit. Then too, there was the excellent pitching of Grover Cleveland Alexander.

Big Alex' was hit harder than Shore, the former International Leaguer, but like Christy Mathewson, of whom he is almost a double in appearance and style, the number of a-pitches registered against him was offset by his effectiveness in pinches.

BOSTON TWIRLER THE BEST

Shore outpitched Alexander. There was not one good honest hit exacted of the Boston fielder unless a puny Texas Leaguer which popped over the Philadelphia head of Paskert's bat in the fourth could be described as such. Three of the five hits collected by the Phillies were swinging bunts on the slipper infield. On the other hand, the Red Sox hit viciously and on a line, all of their eight hits being solid smacking drives, which were not even touched by the opposing fielders. A spectacular catch by Paskert off Grover in the eighth saved the game for the Phillies. In contradistinction to this, all three of the Philadelphia hits were the result of ridiculously flakey infield rollers.

Straight baseball only was attempted by either side. The Phillies appeared the better team in the field, while the Sox seemed vastly superior in their National League rivals at bat. That constitutes a glaring reversal of the "dope." The diametrical opposite was contentedly expected.

ALEX' TIGHT IN PINCHES

The Red Sox got a hit in every inning but the last, and had a runner stranded in every inning. So much for Alexander's effectiveness. Three times the Red legs got the first man base via the clean-hit route, and as many times they worked him to safety by means of the handy little sacrifice, but big Alex' shut them out on their right there each time. It may be said that, as against the three runs scored by the Phillies on the scratch hits, the only Boston hit was the outcome of a clean line-out single by Lewis.

GRAVATH AND SPEAKER HITLESS

The sluggers of the respective teams failed to slug. The much-to-be-lamented Gravath did not get a hit or anything like one, while Tristram Speaker, the Boston belter, also failed to get a base knock. Speaker walked and hit two long drives to left field. The stage was all set for Cravath in the eighth when he came up on the bases full. A weak roller to second was his contribution, but it was not good enough to get Cravath to the plate. The use of Scott at short instead of Paskert by Boston seemed advisable for many reasons. Scott is a superior fielder as a rule, although his hitting is very light. His failure to cover second base when Jack Barry made a dazzling bare-handed stop of a liner over second by Bancroft put the skids under Boston's chances.

BARRY'S SPLENDID PLAY SPILT

With the score 1 to 1 entering the Philadelphia half of the eighth, Stock walked and Bancroft singled through the box. Barry's stop was most brilliant. On the assumption that Scott would cover second for the made-to-order double play, Barry started his throw for that bag before he saw that Scott was in a trance. Barry then turned to throw to first, but too late to get Bancroft. Thereupon the storm broke. Paskert walked and the bases were all occupied. Gravath's slow rolling infield tap scored Stock. Luderus, another of the reputed Philadelphia fence-busters, eased a sickly little offering toward the pitching mound. Shore came in to field, but it took a bad bound and Shore slipped and fell as he tried to field it. Bancroft scoring from third with the last run. Commencing with Scott's display of somnambulism and followed closely by the effulgent smiles of Dame Fortune, there was nothing to that momentous eighth inning but two runs and the victory of the Pennsylvaniaans. The brace of winning counters were not earned in the baseball or any other sense of the word.

CHALMERS WILL TWIRL TO-DAY

This first game did not provide the calibre of baseball that is looked for in the yearly autumn clash. The Red Sox are still favored to win the series. Certainly the Phillies did not display any outstanding all round superiority yesterday. Chalmers is regarded as the most probable pitching selection for the home team to-day. He will be opposed by either Leonard or Foster. Carrigan's men are well satisfied with their showing against Alexander so far as their ability to hit him is concerned. He will doubtless be used again on Monday.

HOW PEOPLE FOUGHT IN DAYS OF YORE

Duelling Used to be the Method by Which Persons Settled Their Quarrels.

WHEN WILSON FOUGHT LYON

Old Upper Canada Case Which Came Eventually Into the Law Courts.

Mr. Justice Riddell of the Supreme Court of Ontario, publishes in the journal of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology an interesting account of the duel in early Upper Canada. He is hardly correct in saying that the custom of duelling was brought by the United Empire Loyalists from the United States. Although by the law of England, and therefore, of Canada, a deliberate duel had long been unlawful and the parties and their seconds liable to be convicted of crimes, the custom continued in England as late as in Canada. A hundred and seventy-two duels were noted during the reign of George III. In ninety-one of them fatal Pitt and Tierney fought in 1796, Canning and Castle-rough in 1809, Christie and Scott in 1821, Scott being killed, the Duke of Wellington and Winchester in 1829, Rosbuck and Black in 1835. There were others as late as 1848 when the public attention was aroused by the Fawcett-Munro duel in which Fawcett was killed. The Queen and the Prince Consort took an active interest in suppressing the practice, the Prince Consort, with German convictions, suggesting the alternative of courts of honor. The result was an amendment of the Army act, still in force which suppressed duelling in the army, and consequently suppressed the practice in other classes of society. It may, therefore, be said that the custom of duelling existed in both England and the United States, at the beginning of the last century, and was doubtless brought to Canada from both countries.

Duelling did not cease in Ontario until the cases which Judge Riddell cites, but lasted till the middle of the 19th century, if not later. The late Chief Justice Burton, of the Court of Appeal of Ontario, who died a few years ago, fought a duel in Hamilton while at the bar, probably after 1860.

HOW PEOPLE FOUGHT.

The practice of duelling in Ontario seems to have been confined to lawyers. There is no report of duelling by officers of the resident British.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

It is now getting to be a fairly common thing in Canada, yet rare enough to deserve comment, for three or more members of a Canadian family to go overseas. Another example has just come to light. Lieut. O. B. McMurtry, a young lawyer from Montreal has just joined the 3rd Battery of Seige Artillery. He has two brothers now at the front. Major Eric, of the 24th Regiment, and Lieut. Alec, of the 2nd Brigade Canadian Field Artillery. The three boys are the sons of Mr. S. A. McMurtry, secretary of the Ogilvie Milling Company, Montreal. The three are university graduates and held responsible positions, which they gave up to do their bit.

Mr. Fred Norworthy, son of J. C. Norworthy, of Ingersoll, Ontario, has just returned from Costa Rica in order to go overseas with the Canadian forces. Not only has Mr Norworthy made a lengthy journey to get into the fight, but he is also the third member of the family to go overseas. His oldest brother, Major E. C. Norworthy, second in command of the 13th Battalion, was killed in the historic fight at St. Julien. Another brother, Stanley, came home to enlist, and is now at the front. Major Norworthy was Montreal manager of the Dominion Securities Corporation.

Car Ferdinand of Bulgaria, popularly known as the "Fox of the Balkans" and as the "Bulgarian Sphinx" is very much in the public eye at the present time. Ferdinand plunged Bulgaria into two wars within the last two years, and is acting as if he intended to join fortunes with the Teutons in the present struggle. He has both German and French blood in his veins, but the former predominates, while his queen is a German princess. The King is also an Austrian nobleman and has extensive estates in Austria-Hungary, so that his personal tastes favor the central powers.

Ralph Pulitzer, whose interesting letters on the war have been appearing in the New York World, is editor and part owner of that paper. Pulitzer is probably the wealthiest working journalist in the world, but writes because he likes the game. He is a son of the late Joseph Pulitzer, the blind editor-proprietor of the "New York World" and the "St. Louis Post Dispatch." Young Ralph Pulitzer and his two brothers derive a yearly income of over two million dollars from these two papers, but he has various other interests which add to his stipend. Pulitzer is satisfied that the Allies will win out in the struggle.

Sir Charles C. Wakefield, who has just been elected Lord Mayor of London, is one of the merchant princes of the world's metropolis. The new Lord Mayor is head of the firm of C. C. Wakefield & Co., oil manufacturers, etc. He was knighted in 1908, has been decorated with the Legion of Honor and various other decorations from foreign countries. In addition to his business, Sir Charles is somewhat of an author, having written a very interesting book on "Future Trade in the Far East." He has been a frequent visitor to Canada.

ENGLAND AND WALES.

Preparations have already been begun in connection with the big industrial exhibition in London next year, which will take place probably late in April or early in May. With the co-operation of the Board of Trade a strong advisory committee is to be formed to carry out the details of the proposed exhibition. The idea is to make London a permanent world's buying centre. The coming exhibition will be greater than Leipzig Fair. At the latter the German municipal, leaders, traders and others all vied in giving visitors a good time, but it is now expected that London's hospitality will be all that can be desired. The place where the forthcoming exhibition will be held has not been finally settled, but the Agricultural Hall will probably be chosen. As before, all the big trading associations will be invited to join. It is expected that a number of "side shows" will be placed in the various hotels with the consent of the proprietors.

HINTS ON KNITTING SOCKS FOR SOLDIERS

Don'ts to Remember When Making Socks to Wear Comfortably and Well.

To help knitters make their work of the greatest service to soldiers either in or out of the hospital, it is desirable to call attention to a few "Don'ts" when knitting socks. Don't cast on tightly. An otherwise well-knitted sock may become useless by this tight cord at the top. Don't knot your wool. Join it by splicing the ends or leave two or three inches of each end and darn back carefully. Don't make a heel with a seam on the sole. The gusset heel is best; next the strap heel. Don't finish the toe with a hard lump caused by running the thread through the stitches two or three times and pulling tightly, or finish with a hard seam caused by knitting off two needles together—or worse crocheting them together. In fact, avoid all seams, lumps or knots anywhere. The inside of the sock should be as smooth as the outside.

Remember, a man may not have a chance to change his socks for many days, and a lump or knot brings in blisters, if the blisters break, blood poisoning may set in, and result in the loss of a foot or even life. We cannot afford to lose our men through negligence or ignorance. Don't use black, dark, or bright colors. There is again a danger of poisoning. Don't use needles too fine for the wool. The knitting should be elastic—if too tightly knitted the sock becomes hard and board-like in use. Don't make a foot less than 10 inches long.

The following general directions may be of service.—Cast on 64 to 72 stitches of 4 ply fingering or 3 ply wheeling on No. 10, 11 and 12 needles, according to knitter. Finer wool requires finer needles and more stitches. Make ribbing at top 4 inches. Knit plain 7 inches. Divide for heel. Knit heel piece 3 inches, making 14 inches in all for length of leg. This may be reduced to 12 inches in all, but not less. Foot should measure 10 to 11 inches. Begin narrowing for toe about 2 1/2 to 3 inches before finishing. Darn in all ends of wool. Match socks carefully before tying together in pairs at top and toe. Socks should be well washed before forwarding.

MOVIES, MUSIC AND DRAMA

Robert Warwick is the star of the part photoplay "The Man Who Found Himself," based upon the drama which, when it was produced, and successfully so, a few years ago, was called "The Mills of the Gods" in New York, and "The Coward" in Chicago.

AT THE BRANT FIRST HALF NEXT WEEK

forger; has been sent to goal and escapes. This is where his problem presents itself. Society is his old associates and partners in error, won't let him go straight. They never do—or more accurately, perhaps, they frequently do not. It is in the main an unforgetting world. People have long memories as James Clarke in this film-play found to his cost.

mailer, tightened his hold, so Clarke, the poor fellow, was driven to desperation. Payton, in the last resort of the quarrel called Clarke a coward. But coward he was not. He accepted the situation. He resolved to defeat his enemy. "He had found himself." So he voluntarily went back to prison to see the remainder of his sentence, conscious that his girl would wait for him and would marry him when he came out.

Robert Warwick's sterling abilities find splendid scope in this role, and the production, in the hands of Frank H. Crane is, in every way worthy of the theme. There is a wonderful support cast in the photo drama and the offering will assuredly please millions. As a special holiday attraction, the management of the Brant has secured the famous comedian, Jack Rose, who is at present playing the Lowe circuit in a sensational new comedy act. The popular "King of Nuts" is supported in this act by one of America's leading Rag-Time Pianists, and has just completed a third return engagement at the Academy Theatre, Buffalo with this act.

NEW WELDING PROCESS INSTALLED

W. G. Hawthorne Adds Valuable Apparatus to His Present Equipment. An announcement is made by W. G. Hawthorne, which will be of great interest to Brantford and vicinity, that he has installed a new apparatus for welding by what is known as the Davis Bourneville Oxy-acetylene process, or autogenous welding.

the firm was so favorably impressed with the excellence of the work it achieves, that they decided to install one. Mr. Leonard Isaac went to Toronto where he took a course in this line with the Carter Welding company, and the firm is now in a position to do Oxy-acetylene welding of any kind in the most satisfactory manner. This enterprise on the part of W. G. Hawthorne will be appreciated greatly in this city, since it will doubtless fill a long felt want. The apparatus is now in full working order, and firms and garages having broken castings will no longer have to send these out of the city to be welded.

ANNUAL REPORT LAST NIGHT OF THE Y. M. C. A.

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night in the board room with nearly all the members present. The meeting was opened by a short prayer by Rev. Mr. Peters and the following reports were read and adopted: Financial Statement, The Building Fund, and the General Secretary's report.

The following were re-elected to the directorate for a term of three years: Messrs. Geo. Wedlake C. Cook, E. Sweet, H. Yeigh, P. E. Verity, A. McFarland. One was elected for two years, Mr. Ernest Denby. Although there is a deficit amounting to quite a sum, it is hoped to be able to make this up in the near future, and taking into consideration the general depression throughout the country during the past year the board are to be congratulated on their fine showing.

Heartily votes of appreciation were extended to Mr. Cook, the officials with his work. Mr. Cook has worked hard and long for the success of the institution and is certainly deserving of much credit.

The matter of the use of the building for the soldiers was also discussed and although it was shown that a small charge would have to be made for certain privileges, it is sure to be a very nominal one and the officials are certain that the men and the public cannot fail to see, considering the heavy expense connected with the building that this is but the right and just thing to do.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mr. Goodwin after which the members held a short session to discuss matters in connection with "Association Week" which commences on Sunday.

GENERAL SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Two years of work in the new building has now gone into history. During the first year we met many problems, especially along the line of the opening up of a new building and the adjustment to meet conditions and problems of a nature that we thought at that time could not be greater.

We entered upon our second year, however, with the greatest of all absorbing topics and interest, and we had to meet problems in some sense even greater than those we faced during the previous year.

As complete financial statements are forthcoming from other sources your general secretary need give little reference to this matter, but only to say that with the strictest economy we have been able to close the year we believe, in a most commendable fashion.

Following upon the Patriotic Campaign of last fall we launched our annual membership campaign, and considering the situation in general in the city, we believe the campaign was a success. So far as membership is concerned we close the year, when all transfers, etc., have been taken out, with a net membership of 1147. This is not as large as any of us would have hoped when we compare it with the closing figures of the previous year, which were 1594. Some of us are grateful that it approaches these figures as near as it does. We believe during the past year, however, that so far as membership privileges were concerned, we were on a more satisfactory basis, and that our membership was a little nearer what might be called the normal for this size of city.

When we compare ourselves with the average of cities of this size, we can indeed justly say that Brantford leads in membership, as from 600 to 700 is usually considered a good membership for population such as we have.

The compiling of statistics is a poor method of showing the work done by the association. The true index of what is being accomplished can only be discovered in the lives of the men and boys influenced directly or indirectly through the association.

How many have been kept from evil courses? How many have been strengthened in noble resolves. How many have been brought back from wrong paths? Only books lighter than ours can answer these questions correctly.

As we look back over our year, our activities have been very gratifying and, we believe, have counted in the right direction towards answering these questions.

SOCIAL.

The social side has shown a marked improvement. Thirty-one social events are listed for the year. One hundred and five Bible Class Suppers which for that part of the program, at least should be added as social events. We here desire to pay special tribute to the women of our auxiliary and mothers of the boys who made this work possible by their splendid service to the boys of the association.

Among those most worthy of mention was the Men's club "At Home," the events arranged for men of various ages.

Our building also gives ample room and facilities for the work of the Women's Patriotic League, as well as Red Cross Society, and our "honor roll" of enlisted men is very large and growing. Three men of our staff are among the number. Mr. MacFarland, already mentioned, Mr. Thos. Tisdale, our engineer, and Mr. James Napier, our janitor being among the list of whom we are especially proud.

IN CONCLUSION

As a "civic centre" and in a real sense a civic institution our association is taking its rightful place. Forty-two societies, organizations and committees have met at our building and used our facilities for the general uplift of our city. To such an extent has this grown that many evenings during the past winter our building was taxed to its utmost to accommodate the needs in this civic sense.

SHARP ATTACK REPULSED

Dangerous Condition Relieved Just in Time by "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. F. J. CAVEEN
632 Gerrard St. East, Toronto.

For two years, I was a victim of Acute Indigestion and Gas In The Stomach. It afterwards attacked my Heart, and I had pains all over the body, so I could hardly move around. I tried all kinds of medicines but none of them did me any good. At last, acting on the advice of a friend, I decided to try "Fruit-a-tives". I bought the first box last June, and now I am well, after using only three boxes. I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to anyone suffering from Indigestion, no matter how acute".
