

THE FAIR IMPOSTOR.

CHAPTER V.
"My Name is Lillian Leigh."

(Concluded.)
"It was the driver, shot dead. The stage stopped, was surrounded—pistols were fired, men were struggling and fighting in the road. All was dark. In the darkness we two, hand in hand, ran into the bush, and, waiting till all was quiet, came here."

"Here—where you, a girl not older than I, carried me! And you have stayed with me all these hours, having the danger of the dreadful night! God bless you and reward you, dear! Let me look at you again."

Hilda turned her face once again. Eagerly, with loving gratitude, the dim eyes scanned her face.

"Yes," sighed the sufferer, "it is all true. Who says women have no courage? I used to say so once, but not so now. Bend lower—a little. It is kind of you to try and comfort me, but I know—I know that I have said good-by to this world, dear. I am not sorry to go—it has been a cruel world to me. Have you a mother, dear?"

Hilda shook her head.
"Dead? So is mine. It is better so. Do you know that—that you have not told me your name yet?" she murmured.

Hilda turned her face away, with a sudden twitch of the white lips.

"Have I not?" she said. "It does not matter."

"But I should like to know," said the other, wearily. "If—if I had lived, it would have been the first in my prayers, dear."

"My name is Hilda."
"Hilda! And you do not know mine, do you? How strange it seems that we two should be here, so closely knit together, and yet knowing each other for only a few hours! Hilda, I—I want to say something. What was it—that was it? It grows so dark, and all seems vague and misty. Yes—yes, I know! See—this—this—" and her hand wandered feebly to her bosom. "Take this. It is my diary—you will not smile at the poor story of my life? Take it and keep it for my sake. It is all I have to give you to remember me by. Take it, dear."

Hilda put out her hand, and took a small pocketbook, and held it, doubtfully.

"But," she said, hesitatingly, "would you not like it sent, if—anything should happen? Have you no friends—no relatives?"

"Not one," breathed the girl; "not one. No friend save you, and Heaven did not send you until the last hour, you see. Take it, dear—it is a poor, worthless thing, but I would not like strange eyes to see it. "Oh, how dark it grows!"

Hilda looked at the glowing sunset, and sighed. In a few short minutes she felt that she would be alone. With infinite tenderness she gathered the weak frame to her bosom, and brushed the hair from the white, hot forehead.

"Courage—courage, dear," she whispered; "you must not give up—you must—must live, for my sake, you know."

"For yours!" said the girl, opening her eyes, and pouring a loving glance upon the face above her. "Yes I would for yours, but it is not to be. Hilda—it is a prettier name than mine—Hilda, will you kiss me? Hilda; yes, it is a prettier name than mine."

Hilda bent and kissed her.
"You forget," she said; "you haven't told me your name yet!"

"No," panted the other; "there has been no time—no time; it is like a dream. My name is Lillian Leigh."

Hilda Fane put her hand to her mouth, to force back the cry that rose from her heart to her lips. Cold and trembling, she stared at the white face upon her bosom.

"Lillian Leigh," said the smitten girl; "that is my real name. At any other time, to anyone else, I should have given another name. Why, it is too long a story for me to tell—my little book will tell it. Did I give it you, yes; you will open it some day, when you are far from here. Some day, when you are sitting idle, and thinking over this dreadful time, you will like to know something of the girl whose life you tried so hard, so nobly, to save."

"Lillian Leigh," murmured Hilda, in a hollow voice.

"Yes, that is my real name, though I have not used it for some years. Hilda, it is better that I should die—you will see that when you know my story; there has been a curse upon my life, and my mother's, before it. We have been outcasts, wandering from land to land, hiding our heads wherever we went, changing our name. Why, I do not know, shall never know—never, now. Best so, Hilda; kiss me again, dear, good, noble Hilda!"

Lillian Leigh, muttered the white lips; transfixed to stone. Hilda Fane stared wildly at the white face upon her arm.

"How dark it grows! Or is it that I—that I am losing the light? Kiss me, Hilda! God bless you!"

Fainter and fainter grew the voice, until it died away inaudible.

Still, as if in a dream, Hilda Fane stood, with fixed eyes and white stony face.

"Lillian Leigh!"

The girl, to save whose life she had risked her own—this girl who, dying in her arms, poured out her loving gratitude; craving a last kiss, was the girl upon whom her mother's dying curse had rested. Lillian Leigh, her sister; lay dying in her arms!

So she stood, motionless as a statue; time lost its meaning, the whole space of her life was absorbed in this one, awful moment. Here in her arms lay the sister who was to rob her of nature's birthright. Here lay the child of the woman whose life had been blighted by their common father!

With wild, distended eyes, Hilda glared at the sinking form, struggling with the awful import of the situation. Then suddenly woman's nature conquered.

With a wild cry, she bent, and gathering the slim form to her bosom, kissed the white, wan lips; then, with a shriek that rang across the waste, she started back, and, letting the limp figure fall upon its rough bed, and crying, "Dead! dead!" sprang from the hut.

RETURNED TO WORK IN A WEEK

Mr. P. M. Shannon Cured of Catarrh by one Single Treatment of "Father Morrissey's No. 26."

Dalhousie, N.B., Nov. 23, 1908. FATHER MORRISSEY MEDICINE CO., LTD. For three years I had suffered from Catarrh in the head until March, 1903, when I had to leave my work, then in shingle mills, after trying a different so-called catarrh cures, and two doctors who claimed there was no cure. One single treatment of Father Morrissey's prescription cured me and I returned to work in a week after starting to take the treatment, and have never had so much as a cold in the head since.

P. M. SHANNON. We have plenty of letters like this proving positively that "Father Morrissey's No. 26" Combined Treatment has cured hundreds of cases of Catarrh, generally after other treatments had failed. Why shouldn't it cure you? In justice to yourself give it a trial. Combined Treatment (Tablets and Salve) 50c. At your dealer's, or from Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Ltd., Chatham, N.B.

Four hours later a party of horsemen pulled up at Five Forks Station. They were four in number; three, judging by their appearance, were men attached to the civil service, wearing long riding boots and slouch hats, and amply provided with weapons of defense. The fourth, an Englishman, clad in a serviceable riding suit, was evidently their leader. All four bore trace of a hard and long ride; the horses were wet with sweat, and flecked with foam, and every one of them turned, as with one mind, to the shed attached to the hut, as if they welcomed a familiar resting place. Dropping wearily from his saddle, the Englishman threw his bridle to the station keeper, and, entering the hut, dropped on to a rough settle which served as the common seat.

"What station is this?" he asked, as one of his companions entered.

"Five Forks," replied the man.

"Five Forks," repeated the traveller.

"We will stop here, then. The horses are dead beat. How many miles have we come?"

"Forty," replied one of the men.

"And forty badones, too."

The Englishman sighed.

"As long as any I have travelled. What a God-forsaken place!" he muttered, rising and looking out from the door, with a perceptible shudder.

"And it is near here; you say, that the stage was stopped?"

"Hereabouts, or at the next station, Marywell," said one of the men.

"It'll be here next time," growled the station master. The Englishman paced up and down thoughtfully, stopping now and then to look from right to left, at each glance growing more grave and troubled.

At length he re-entered the hut. The station master, assisted by the three guides, was busy preparing something in the shape of a meal.

A dingy cloth was spread upon the table of rough planks, four mugs and plates, three of the latter of which were cracked, were arranged upon it, and some bacon was frizzling in the frying pan.

The Englishman regarded these preparations with folded arms and the stoical expression which his kind wear at such times, and sat himself down, with a sigh of resignation.

"Almost in silence, the three guides followed his example, and the meal proceeded. The Englishman was the first to lay his knife and fork down.

With the same thoughtful, preoccupied air he filled and lit his pipe, and walked round to the shed under which the tired horses were munching their well-earned feed of prairie hay and dried beans.

Here and There.

THEY WERE RELEASED.—The six negroes brought into the station yesterday forenoon, each on suspicion of having attacked the little girl Baker, were released after the girl had seen them. She did not identify any of the men as her assailant.

A FALSE ALARM.—Tuesday night people living near a house on Water Street West thought they heard a noise in the basement and the belief was that a burglar was there. A search revealed the fact that it was some cats which made the noise and that the alarm was a false one.

OTHERS SHOULD COMPETE.—Now that it is the intention of the Bell Island fishermen to row at our Regatta, the suggestion has been made that crews from Portugal and Brazil should be invited to compete. This would give seven boats in this race and a splendid spectacle would be afforded for all these fishermen would make a close run of it.

HAS FINE POSITION.—By Monday's express Mr. Pierce Dunne, of Dunne Bros., the Beach, had a letter from his brother, Michael, who has removed to Butte City, Mont. He is an expert machinist, has charge of a large pumping plant, and he receives $5 per day of 8 hours. He has secured a job for his brother, also a machinist, who has been in Idaho several years.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.—At a meeting of St. Patrick's Church Committee held Tuesday evening it was decided to add twenty new names to the Committee list and to hold a convention in the convent schools next Sunday after evening prayers. A collection will be taken up next Wednesday, the Feast of St. Peter and St. Paul, in aid of the fund for the church repairs.

NEW CLOTHING FACTORY.—The work of excavating for the erection of the new Clothing Factory, just west of the Telegram Office, began yesterday forenoon. Mr. Meyers, of the Nfld. Clothing Factory, turning the first sod. The building will be 86 by 82 feet, and will be of concrete on a modern structure. Mr. Jonas Barter is architect and Mr. C. F. Lester is contracting for the excavation.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"What will that child think up next?" sighed Eleanor's mother.

You see, Eleanor had just been vigorously dispossessed of the notion that it would be a splendid idea to get the burdy gurdy man to let her swap places with his little girl, and go on his route with him for a few days.

She had come into the room where we were, bubbling over with delight at her scheme.

"You see, mamma, the little girl could sleep in my bed and have my place at the table, and she wouldn't be any more bother for you than me, I'm sure, because you always say I'm a whole houseful, and she is just as quiet—"

And then I could go along with him and shake the little plate with the jingles on it, and catch the money when the people throw it out of the windows, 'cause I'm very good at catching—"

About here Eleanor's mother caught her breath sufficiently to be able to interrupt.

Of course, an April shower and a lasty exit followed her vigorous denunciation of her daughter's scheme, and it was some time before she came back into the room after leading Eleanor to realms above to reason with her.

So I suppose it was no wonder that Eleanor's mother sighed as she sank into her chair and took up her sewing and began to hunt for her needle: "What will that child think up next?"

But I did wonder a bit when she added:

"How lovely it must be to have quiet children, like Mrs. L's, who always play just what she suggests, and never cook up things like that."

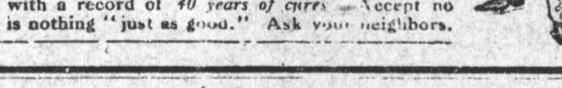

It is quite true that the L's children do not think up things like that.

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terror it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a hollow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 40 years of cure. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

Fads and Fashions.

Cold water, kept in a pitcher in the refrigerator, is not healthful.

A teaspoonful of salt and one of pulverized starch added to every two cupfuls of starch will give a fine glaze to starched clothes.

Always stretch out the body fully when sleeping. When the limbs are crossed or the body curled the rest is not so much benefit.

To make a refreshing hot weather drink, mix grape juice with a quarter as much lemon juice, add water and sugar to taste, and serve with cracked ice.

If linen on which ink is spilled is promptly soaked in sour milk and left for a few hours, then rinsed in cold water, the stains will be removed.

A relish made of one can of pimientos, mixed with finely chopped celery, is well liked. It is covered with French dressing and served on lettuce leaves.

A delicious extract of either oranges or lemons may be had by paring the rinds off as thin as paper and putting them into a bottle of alcohol.

If clothes are sprinkled at night to be ironed the next day cover the clothes basket with a big, heavy blanket, and it will prevent mildew or souring.

If the cuticle around the nails seems dry and stiff and there is a tendency to hangnails, rub in well a

One Cough

A cough, just a little cough. It may not amount to much. Or, it may amount to everything! Some keep coughing until the lung tissues are seriously injured. Others stop their cough with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. "Take it," then take it. Sold for seventy years. How long have you known it?

This a Medicine You Breathe.

Catarrh is one of the most common, it is also one of the most deadly diseases of the American. A disease that pollutes the system, renders oneself offensive to others, and should be driven out. Think how many people you know whose constitution has been wrecked by catarrh. Think how frequently it is a source of other sicknesses. Catarrh is bad in itself, but dangerous also because it leads the way to bronchitis and consumption. Because you know that drugs, snuffs, washes, ointments are useless, do not close your eyes to the fact that Catarrh-ozone has proved itself to be an efficient and prompt remedy for catarrh. Catarrh-ozone is not a medicine you take. It is rich fragrant essence and balsam that air breaks up into little drops of healing and carries them to every part of the throat, lungs, nasal passages. The whole tract is thoroughly bathed with the germ-killing, healing medication. It acts upon the inflamed parts in identically the same way that an ointment would act upon a cut finger—cleanses, soothes, heals. If you are a sufferer from grippy cold, cough or any of the symptoms that are associated with catarrh, use Catarrh-ozone; root it out now. If you think of Catarrh-ozone as little drops of healing carried by air you cannot escape the conviction that here is a rational way of treating diseases of the air-passages. You breathe healing to the sore places. Catarrh-ozone you see acts upon them and heals them. Complete outfit costs $1.00, with hard rubber inhaler, and liquid enough to last three months; trial size, 25c.

little vaseline or cold cream every night before going to bed.

The air of a room may be wonderfully freshened by putting a few drops of boiling water and letting it stand until the water is quite cold.

To preserve matting covering any floor and to keep it perfectly sanitary, go over it first with a damp cloth, let dry thoroughly, and then give it a thin coat of clear varnish.

To make sure a table cloth is pure linen, moisten the goods with the tip of the tongue. If it is linen the wet spot will immediately show through on the other side.

Laid Up With Lame Back

Pain, helplessness and suffering are overcome by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Mrs. Frank Bloom, Hardwood Lake, Ont., writes: "I want to tell you of the great benefit I found in the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I suffered so badly with kidney disease that when I lay down I could not get up without help. I was completely laid up with lame, aching back. I read about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the Almanac, got them and they cured me of kidney disease and backache."

"My husband had dreadful pains in his sides and obtained cure by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. These pills are the best on the market and I am glad to recommend them."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are definite and certain in action, enliven the liver and bowels as well as the kidneys, are lastingly beneficial and economical. DIRECTIONS

For the Guidance of Electors in Voting. Each Elector on entering the room where the poll is being held, shall declare his name, surname, and addition. After so doing he shall receive a ballot paper in the above form.

Each elector, if required by the Deputy Returning Officer, the Poll Clerk, one of the Candidates, or one of their agents shall, before receiving his ballot paper, take an oath of qualification. The voter is not to vote for more than six candidates as Councillors.

After receiving the ballot paper the voter shall go into one of the compartments and with a pencil, there provided, place a cross in the divisions containing the names of the six candidates for Councillors for whom he intends to vote thus—X.

The voter will then fold the ballot paper, so as to show a portion of the back only, with the initials of the Deputy Returning Officer and hand it so folded up to the Deputy Returning Officer, and the Deputy Returning Officer shall, without unfolding it, ascertain that it is the ballot paper which he furnished to the elector, and then immediately place it in the ballot box. The voter shall forthwith leave the Polling Station.

If a voter inadvertently spoils a ballot paper, he may return it to the Deputy Returning Officer, who will give him another.

If a voter votes for more candidates than he is entitled to vote for, or places any mark on the ballot paper by which he can afterwards be identified, his vote will be void and will not be counted.

If a voter takes a ballot or ballot paper out of the Polling Station, or fraudulently puts any other paper into the Ballot Box than the paper given him by the Deputy Returning Officer, he will be subject to punishment by a fine of five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a time not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour.

F. J. DOYLE,
Returning Officer.

Downs Wins the Walking Match.

The annual walking match held under the auspices of St. Andrew's Club, took place yesterday afternoon. There were ten competitors, viz:—

- G. Downs, J. Steele, W. Duff, C. Renouf, W. Larner, W. Tucker, A. King, J. Halfyard, J. Duff and J. Tucker.

The start was made from St. Andrew's Club Rooms at 2.15 in presence of a large gathering of people who lined both sides of the street right over to Rawlins' Cross.

The weather was quite suitable for walking as there was a steady easterly breeze prevailing which made the air cool.

When Robinson's Hill was reached the competitors began to get detached and W. Tucker, J. Steele and George Downs were ahead of the other seven a sufficiently long distance to predict that one of them would be the winner.

Near Ricketts' Bridge the two Duffs came to the front on a sprint. W. Duff being first and J. Duff second. Steele held the third place. Downs who had dropped to fifth place now began to come up and by the time Windsor Lake was in sight he had come up to third place and was bent on beating the two Duffs that were before him.

When Hughes' Pond was reached Downs had taken second place and Steele came third. From this time on Downs got in his work, and when Broad Cove Road was reached he had taken the van with Duff close at his heels. He continued to gradually increase his lead; Duff being still second and Steele third. It now looked almost certain that Downs would be the man. He was in good condition, and gradually getting the distance broadened between himself and the next two men.

At the Thornburn Turnpike he gained at a great rate on Duff and Steele, and coming down the ridge was fully 150 yards in advance of Duff. Steele being still in third place. The other seven men were so far behind now that the spectators of the race did not pay any particular attention to them.

At Power's Pond the race was conceded by most of the spectators to Downs, barring accidents. He still looked in good condition and went along at a swinging pace; Duff and Steele were now nearly a half mile behind him. This did not make Downs relax, and taking the Freshwater Road, by Baird's Cottage, he put on a beautiful spurt which delighted his friends and backers. Duff had now dropped to third place and

World's Missionary Conference.

One of the most remarkable gatherings of the age closes its conference to-day in Edinburgh. On June 14th 1,000 delegates met in the Athens of Great Britain to take counsel as to what the Reformed Christian Churches of the world were doing and what they should be doing towards the Evangelization of the World. 480 representatives were present from 54 American Societies; 394 from 44 Societies of the British Isles; 14 from 4 British Colonial Societies, and 139 from 37 Societies on the Continent of Europe.

Mr. Bryan, the great American orator and many time candidate for the Presidency of the United States, was among the American delegates, and we noticed that Theodore Roosevelt has been apologizing publicly for being unable to be present as a delegate of the American Dutch Reformed Church.

According to an exchange the main object of the Conference is as follows:—Hitherto mission work has been studied from the point of view of particular churches or denominations. The promoters of the Edinburgh Conference propose to pass out of denominational limitations, and to review the whole world as the field of missionary activity. Their object is not to consider how this or that missionary society can best discharge its duty, but how the total resources which are entitled to the name of Christian will appear when clearly exhibited over against the forces of heathenism, Christianity or Paganism for the world—that is the question with which the World Missionary Conference proposes to deal, and its magnitude is evident the moment it is thus concisely expressed.

Before the driver could rein in the animal it struck Mr. Atkins, throwing him violently to the ground. One of the wheels went over him and hurt him severely. Const. O'Flaherty and Fire Constable Harvey rushed to his aid, and summoning Cabman Cole drove the man home, Dr. Anderson following. It was found that he was hurt about the body and shoulders and had his lip split. Dr. Anderson gave him every attention. Mr. Jas. J. Channing kindly kept his pharmacy open to supply the medicine prescribed by the doctor.

36,00 Yards of Swiss Embroideries,

Imported Direct from St. Gall, Switzerland, at a Saving of from 20 to 40 per cent.

This is one of the biggest plums of the sale. Some merchants would consider it late in the season to be buying jobs of embroidery, especially such an immense lot as this. But when we can get values such as this fine represents, we have no hesitation in buying them at any time of the year.

The parcel consists—to be exact—of 36,064 YARDS OF FINE HAND LOOM EMBROIDERED SWISS MUSLIN and CAMBRIC EMBROIDERIES and INSERTIONS; all perfect goods; no faults of any kind; they are perfect in every thread and pattern. There are also matched sets, embroidery and insertions to match.

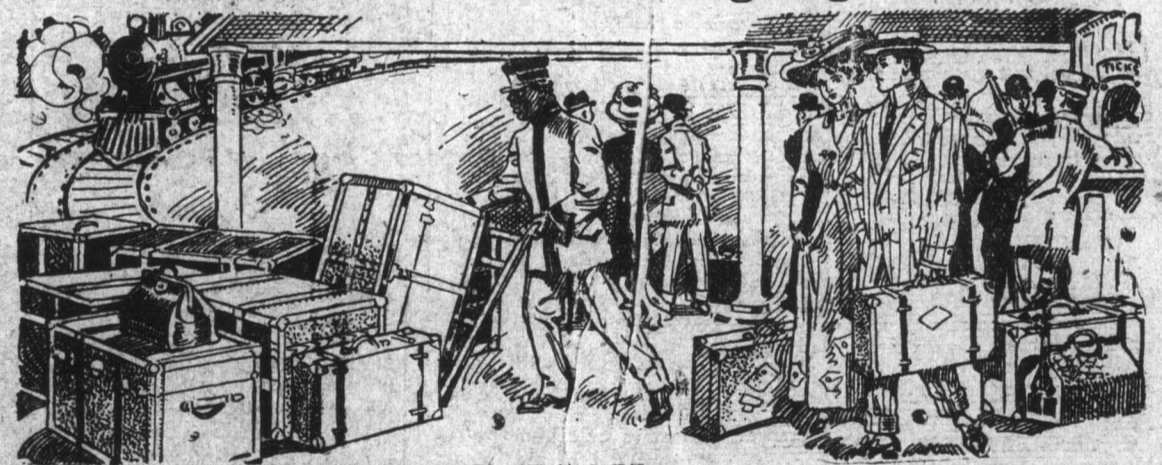

- Insertions—1 to 10 inches ..... 4c to 50c yard.
- Embroideries—1 to 20 inches ..... 4c to $1 yard.
- All-Over Embroidery—18 inches ..... 25c to 70c yard.
- Camisole Embroidery ..... 35c to 90c yard.
- Beadings ..... 4c to 30c yard.

It will be well worth your while to buy plentifully of these Embroideries, even if you have to lay them away for a season, "they'll eat no bread," and the saving is equal to double and treble the usual bank interest; indeed per cent. is a conservative estimate of the saving.

C.E.I.-C.L.B. Sports Yesterday.

Under very favourable conditions the annual sports of the C. E. I.-C. L. B. took place yesterday afternoon at St. George's Field.
There was a large gathering, and a light, easterly wind prevailed after four o'clock made the weather ideal for the competitors and not too unpleasant for the spectators. Amongst those who came to see the contests were:— His Lordship the Bishop of Newfoundland, Chief Justice Haywood, Judge Johnson, Rev. Canon Dunfield, Rev. Canon White and Lady Howard.
The band of the C. L. B. played appropriate music at the opening of the programme.
The College football contest in the final five between St. Bon's and the Collegians was very exciting. No scoring was done within the ten minutes, and in the "play off" the Collegians gained a corner thus winning the gold medals; St. Bon's boys won silver medals.
The presentation of prizes did not take place. It is likely that the prizes will be presented next week.
The hundred yards dash was also an interesting event and the contest was exciting between G. Knight and E. Bowring. They came neck and neck in two dead heats, and had to go the third time when the victory fell to Knight, who also distinguished himself by breaking the quarter of a mile record by one second and a half, covering the distance in 54 1/2 seconds.
Following is the programme in full and the winners:—
HURDLE RACE.
1st, E. Bowring, time 17 secs.; 2nd, R. Burnham.
FOOTBALL FIVES.
Inter-Brigade—M.G.B. vs. N.H. The former team defeated their opponents by 2 goals and a corner to nil. Their halves were—Quick (2), Windsor, Pike and Collice.
100 YARDS DASH.
Dead heat between E. Bowring and G. Knight; time 11 seconds.
QUARTER MILE RUN.
1st, G. Knight, 35 seconds; 2nd, J. Campbell.
HIGH JUMP.
1st, E. Bowring, height 3 feet 10 inches; 2nd, L. O'Dea.
HOOP RACE. K. M. B. vs. C. L. B. 1st, A. Whitten, time 1 minute, 25 seconds; 2nd, A. Snow.
HALF MILE RUN.
1st, J. Greene, time 2 minutes, 17 seconds; 2nd, S. Collett.
RELAY RACE—INTER-BRIGADE.
1st, C.L.B., Spry, Rendell, White, Oliver, time 2:18; 2nd, M. G. Fenwick, Quick, Ayre and Pike; 3rd, C.C.C., Cullen, Hart, Kavanagh, Duggan.
LEAP-FROG RACE, C. L. B.
1st, E. Hennebury and Kendrick, time 21 seconds; 2nd, Spry and White.
100 YARDS DASH—B. CO., C. L. B.
1st, Knight, time 14 seconds; 2nd, Bradbury.
ONE MILE RUN.
1st, Marshall, time 6 minutes, 2 seconds; 2nd, Hackett.

Notes From Harbor Grace.

Owing to some of the members of the band being unable to get off from work, the British band concert and dance at Brigus was postponed until Wednesday, 29th inst.
Lads and lassies with smiling faces are sending their way to the Academy and St. Paul's Halls as I write. The C.H.E. exams commence to-day. A glance at the tidy and neat appearance of the candidates seems to indicate that a large number will pass, that is if their work proves as good as themselves. We wish them all success. I will endeavor to give you all the names for a note in your columns.
Capt. D. Connolly of Messrs. Ryan's Virginia was in town yesterday to see his friends. The Virginia is on her way to Labrador with a coal cargo for the Hawk's Harbor wharf and touched into Carbonar on her way.
Mr. John Ryan, the very efficient mail carrier to and from the station here, was apprised on Saturday night that another man had been given the conveyance of the Labrador mail to Brigus, etc. This was always the work of the regular man, and as Mr. Ryan had gone to considerable expense to secure the necessary vehicles for such work, he considers he has not been dealt fairly with. Since taking charge of the mails Mr. R. has given every satisfaction, and it seems a pity to have him put to this unnecessary expense. Mail carrying is a very important part of the public service, and it is something that should not be handed around from one to another. A man receiving the appointment for carrying His Majesty's mails should be compelled to do so himself as far as possible. This Mr. Ryan has done since entering the service.
Farmers tell us that owing to the backward weather at present vegetation is not making so much progress as was at first thought. One farmer said to us, "I plant the potatoes on April 18th, and more on May 18th, and a third lot on the 8th of June, and there is very little difference in them now—peeping over the ground is all I can say."
The black grub is again making its presence known in the cabbage plots, in some cases where the cabbages are cleaned out by this pest. There seems to be no remedy like Mary's, and as we have heard nothing from her lately, we are inclined to think she has administered the cure to herself.
CORRESPONDENT.
Harbor Grace, June 21, '10.
REGATTA, 1910.—Juvenile Race (4) no person shall be eligible to row in this race who has attained his seventeenth birthday. A birth certificate must be furnished by each intending competitor at the time of entry. By order, JAMES L. NOONAN, Hon. Sec. Regatta Com.—ju22,4in
Cooking Lessons.
The British Hall is the centre of attraction for the ladies of the town just now, for the Fleishman Cooking Class in charge of Mrs. S. Anna Peacock, a well known teacher of domestic science, are giving practical demonstrations of the uses of Fleishman's compressed yeast for the benefit of the ladies, while "educative lectures" are also given. Modern science is used by the ladies who prepare dainty and appetizing menus each day. A cordial invitation to attend the demonstrations is extended to all the ladies, and the sessions are delightfully informal. The range used will be given away at the close of the demonstrations; the condition of the gift will be made known at the hall. The menu for the week is as follows:—
Friday, 2.30 p.m.—Bread, Rolls, Buns, Devil's Food Cake.
Saturday—Tea Roll, German Coffee Cake, Souffle.
Monday—Whole Wheat Bread, Currant Tea Ring, Lemon Merange Pie, Orange Biscuits.
Tuesday—White Bread, Clover Leaf Rolls, Children's Buns, Walnut Bread.
Wednesday—Graham Bread, Park House Rolls, Strawberry Short Cake.
Thursday—Bread, Clover Leaf Rolls and Doughnuts.
The excursion train which left here at 2.30 p.m. yesterday took out about 120 persons and 60 left by the evening train. These returned by the local train at 10.30 last night.

FRENCH BIRTH RATE.
Special to Evening Telegram.
PARIS, June 22.—A series of measures designed to stimulate the birth rate in France was introduced in Parliament to-day. They include the imposition of additional military service upon a bachelor over 25 years of age, making obligatory the marriage of state employees, who have reached the age of 25 years with supplementary salaries and pension allowances for those with more than 3 children, and the repeal of the law requiring the equal distribution of estates among the children. The dislike of Frenchmen to divide their property is a frequent cause of restricted families according to those who have studied the subject. This proposed legislation follows the recent publication of statistics which showed that the births in the Republic during 1909 were 1,700,000 against 792,000 in 1908, and that the population has been increased by only three million since 1851.
INSPECTION OF OVERSEA FORCES
Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, June 22.—In the House of Lords, Lord Lucas stated that the Overseas Dominions would be asked at the next Imperial Conference whether they approved of the idea of inspection of their forces by the Commander-in-Chief of the Mediterranean Forces. Lord Lucas emphasized the fact that there was no question of this country sending an officer, however eminent, to inspect the self-governing dominions forces except at their request. It would not necessarily be a periodical inspection, he concluded.
IN THE INTEREST OF PEACE.
Special to the Evening Telegram.
LONDON, June 22.—The International Congress of Chambers of Commerce to-day accepted an invitation to hold the second of 1912 at Boston. Mr. LaLaine, on behalf of the National Board of Trade of the U. S. introduced a resolution recommending the establishment of a permanent Court of Arbitration as proposed to the Powers by Secretary of State Knox. This resolution will be discussed to-morrow.
KAISER BETTER.
Special to Evening Telegram.
POTSDAM, June 22.—Emperor William left at 8 a.m. by train for Hamburg on his way to attend the yachting regatta at Kiel. He will board the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern at Altona. As His Majesty stepped out of the Palace he appeared somewhat pale, but walked without limping. It is understood that the inflammation at his right knee joint is nearly healed.
DEATHS FROM HEAT.
Special to Evening Telegram.
PHILADELPHIA, June 22.—Six deaths and many prostrations occurred here to-day as the result of the hot wave. The maximum temperature to-day was 91 degrees, one degree below yesterday, and at Fortville a temperature of 101 degrees was reported to-day.
ONLY SURVIVOR.
Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, June 22.—A Spanish sailor who was washed ashore at Penzance yesterday claims that he is the only survivor of the Spanish steamer Febro, from Bilbao for Newport. The sailor says that the steamer foundered with the crew of 25 off Lands End Monday night.
Chicago Stock Co.
Large audiences at both matinee and evening performances yesterday greeted the Chicago Stock Co's production of "The Cry of Old Drury." The play proved most entertaining, and better pleased audiences have rarely filled our local playhouse. In the name part, Clara Belle had a marvellous which fits her personality to a nicety. The entire company were at their best and the rich costuming and handsome scenery displayed to be desired. This evening the company will present Clyde Fitch's modern play of city life, entitled "The Straight Road." It tells a tale of manhood rescued and reformed through the efforts of the mission house, and carries a moral that will be stamped upon the heart of all. It is a heart story, and once seen will never be forgotten.
TO-NIGHTS MATCH.—The Feldians and Casuals will meet in the League Football match on St. George's Field to-night and a good game is looked forward to.
Sciatic Rheumatism
Unable to work or sleep—Six years of suffering—Cured by DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

I could not work, was unable to sleep, and had no appetite. Nothing seemed to build up my nerves until I made use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. After having used about $12.00 worth of this medicine I feel like a new man. I can walk all right and do a great deal of work, have a good appetite and sleep well every night. The weather was perfect and the average time maintained for the whole distance was about 41 miles an hour. The best speed for a single hour was 43 1/2 miles. The Count himself was at the helm when she rose from the ground at 3 o'clock this morning and sailed away on the trip that was to make an epoch in aviation. The passengers were some of the directors of the company and guests. They occupied the mahogany walled and carpeted cabin, situated between the Gondolas. The route had been carefully marked out in advance and was followed exactly.

SYNOD PROCEEDINGS.

Wednesday Evening.

The Synod met at 7.30, there having been no afternoon session. Rev. G. H. Bolt moved the following resolution with reference to the death of Mr. W. B. Payne, late Lay Delegate for Burin: "Mr. William B. Payne, Lay Representative for Burin, having died on June 21st, this Synod desires to place on record its deep sense of the loss which the Synod had sustained by the death of Mr. W. B. Payne, late Lay appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him to the Church for many years as Lay Reader in Burin Mission. The Synod also respectfully offers its sincere sympathy to the members of Mr. Payne's family in their great bereavement."

The resolution was carried by a standing vote. Mr. Blackall moved a resolution in reference to the exhibitions to be held in the fall of this year. The Newfoundland Teachers' Association had written Mr. Blackall pointing out that it was desirable that as many teachers as possible should be able to attend these exhibitions. The resolution read as follows:

"Whereas two important exhibitions are to be held in the month of October this year; and

"Whereas the Synod is of opinion that it will be to the advantage of Education that as many teachers as possible should have the opportunity of attending the said exhibitions.

"Be it Resolved that it be a recommendation to the Church of England Boards of Education to grant leave of absence for one week to such teachers as wish to attend the exhibitions, to enable them to do so."

Rev. A. G. Bayly asked if the leave of absence would in any way interfere with the statutory provision that teachers keep school during 210 days in each year.

Mr. P. G. Butler stated that 250 teachers had written the N. T. A. asking that a Convention be held this year, and he thought it a good opportunity to hold the Convention at the time of the exhibitions. When the exhibitions will be taking place there will be lectures delivered by experts on Art, Model Schools, Women's Work (including Domestic Science and Needlework), Floriculture, and also a general educational exhibition. He contended that it was the duty of the Synod to keep the standard of education quite up to that of Canada, the United States and other countries. He informed the Synod that the N. T. A. had voted $400 towards the expenses of the Convention.

Rev. J. H. Reed thought Mr. Blackall's motion was beyond the power of the Synod. He suggested that the Superintendent of Education should make the suggestion to the Boards. He was not prepared to speak for the Boards, as each clergyman was only the Chairman of a Board, not the whole Board. He thought the Superintendent might try to arrange with the Government to pay the expenses of the teachers, if it was thought the exhibition would be a benefit to the children, and this he (Mr. Reed) had his doubts.

Rev. E. A. Butler thought the suggestion a reasonable one, that the teachers got too much book-learning and too little practical knowledge, and this was an opportunity for them to get some valuable information.

Mr. Blackall's motion was put and carried.

The House went into Committee on the Bill to amend certain sections of the Rules and Constitution of the Synod.

Rev. A. G. Bayly explained that it was not with the consent of the Committee that Canon Bishop had moved his amendments. The Executive Committee believed that increase was essential, but he (Mr. Bayly) did not think the proposals of the Executive were sufficient to do that. He believed that a Finance Committee in every mission would have the effect of raising more money, and that the abolishing of the printed reports would be an economy. He believed that the three dollar standard was quite out of the reach of a large part of his mission.

Rev. F. Colley said it was difficult to know where he stood. The Executive had given great thought to this matter, and while they believed that the clergy on the whole were doing their best, the Executive wished to legislate for the whole diocese. There was no desire to penalize anybody.

Mr. H. W. LeMessurier thought that St. John's, at any rate, was doing its full proportion in the matter of finance.

Mr. Churchill was against any money qualification, and believed that the Church would be financed without it. A Finance Committee, however, was necessary.

Canon White said that if the report of the Committee was acted upon it would upset all existing financial machinery. We should raise the standard. Scarcely any more people would be affected than at present. The abolition of any money qualification was an excellent theory—in practice it would be very defective. A money standard was a necessity at present.

Rev. R. Hills believed that some of the unmarried clergy, like himself, would be satisfied with a smaller stipend.

Canon Bishop said a revenue was necessary, but if Finance Committees were formed, and people taught the claims of the Church, they would rise to the occasion.

Sir W. Horwood called attention to his amendment—that no person but subscribers to the Church funds for two years preceding should have a vote. No standard was to be set, but he had no fear of smaller subscriptions. Whatever was done, this discussion will have a good effect.

Rev. G. H. Bolt.—The idea of the Executive in proposing this legislation was to increase the income of the Church. He gave an interesting comparative statement of the finances of the Church in 1908 and to-day; for while the income had increased since the assessment act was passed 12 years ago, the needs of the Church have increased at a far higher rate. The self-denial fund tided us over the crisis two years ago, but we are now stationary, and more money is needed. The old standard must have seemed hard then, but the increased earning power of our people has made that standard a far smaller one than in those days. In Sydney, Newfoundlanders subscribe as high as $12 a year. He believed himself that the rate might well be increased, but he was prepared to accept Mr. Bayly's amendment that further discussion be postponed to the next Synod, when members would be in a better position to decide on the question.

The following also took part in the discussion: Canon Noel, Messrs. H. J. Bishop and W. Smith. The motion to postpone the matter being put, the house divided, and it was passed by a considerable majority.

On the House resuming, the Bill of the Executive was reported as having passed with some amendments. Mr. P. G. Butler then brought forward the following resolution, which was seconded by Mr. W. Smith, discussed and carried:

"Whereas the Synod is of opinion that the Education Committee of the Diocesan Synod should be the advisory Board of Education for the Church of England;

"Therefore Be it Resolved that two representatives of the Church of England Teachers of Newfoundland, actually engaged in teaching in the country, be added to this Committee."

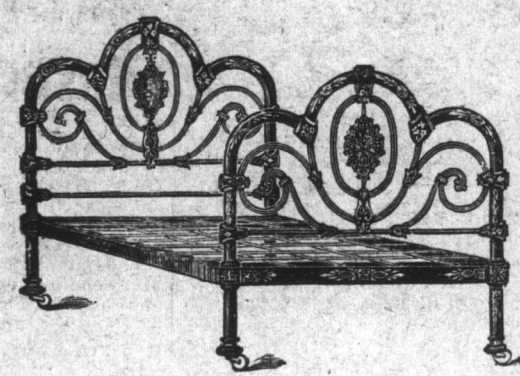

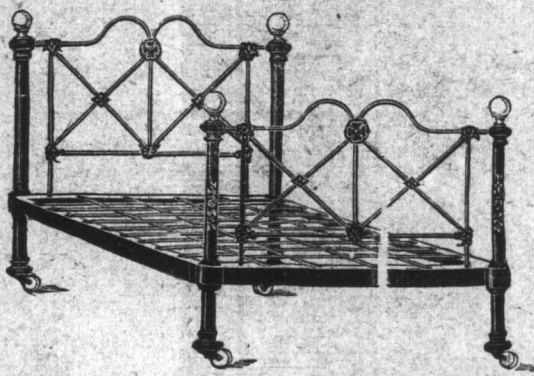

Messrs. R. R. Wood and Geo. House were accordingly added.

The Survey of Our Coasts by Officers of the Royal Navy

The following notes and chronological table of the Royal Naval officers who have taken a part in the survey of our coasts during the past century and a half should interest your readers. The first on the list, the immortal James Cook (1762-1767), made his reputation in the world of science by his report on the transit of Venus from observations taken by him at the Burgeo Islands. Cook has one claim on the gratitude of Newfoundlanders that should never be forgotten. Cook was the one and only man in his time who believed in our future. He reported on the coal, timber, agricultural and mineral wealth of the despised island. All the other naval officers of his time had only one object, to keep our island from being settled, it was to be used solely for the fishery.

Many of our older people will remember the genial Parson Bullock. He afterwards became Dean of Nova Scotia, but originally he came to this Colony as an astronomical surveyor in the Royal Navy. The work is now being carried on by Captain Combe, R.N., and the officers of H. M. surveying vessel Ellnor, at the northwest and N.E. of the Island, Notre Dame Bay, and the western approaches to the Straits of Belle Isle. The new chart to be issued this year will show a clear ship's channel through the Straits so distinct and accurately defined that with the lead it can be followed in perfect safety in the darkest night and the densest fog.
