LOCAL INDUSTRY IS GROWING

McKenzie Crowe and Co. Have Now Largest Number of Employees Since 1913.

The enterprising local firm McKenzie Crowe and Co. have added materially to the number of their employees since the first of the year taking on sixteen additional men. Their working staff now numbers forty-one and is larger than at any time since 1913. During the past year they tanned 4250 foreign and 4296 domestic sides of leather. Their products in larrigans and farm boots has always been of the highest standard and while the business in Ontario has shown a decrease by reason of destruction of properties by fire and also by withdrawals from business our local firm has pursued the even tenor of its way, gradually becoming more and more prominent in the trade as a producer of the finest goods in the lines they manufacture.

OBITUARY

Alonzo M. Daniels.
On Tuesday, 25th of March, at his home in Centrelia, three peacefully passed to the Great Beyond, Alonzo Whitfield Daniels at the advanced age of 82 years.

Mr. Daniels was born in Lawrenceville, N. S., March 16th, 1842, son of the late Simon Daniels and lived the greater part of his life at Paradise West from where he removed to Clementsport, where he served for some years as deacon of the Baptist church. He held the Baptist faith and was baptised into the fellowship of the Paradise Baptist church by the late Nathaniel Vidito. He always sympathized with the pastor in his work and the interest of the church held the chief place in his heart. In prayer and social meetings from which he was seldom absent, his utterances always gave evidence of an inward sense of his own unworthiness, and of the magnitude of divine grace. He was a devoted worker and teacher in the Sabbath school as long as his health permitted. He leaves to mourn their loss a widow, who was Mrs. J. B. Atkins of Dartmouth, four children, two sons, Bradford and Alister residing in the west, two daughters, Mrs. Ashby Hutchinson of Centrelia, Mrs. J. A. Whitman, Round Hill, thirteen grandchildren, ten great grandchildren, and many friends. The funeral service was conducted at his home in Centrelia by the Rev. Steadman Smith, pastor of the Paradise Baptist church. Interment took place in Evergreen cemetery at his old home, West Paradise.

GRANVILLE-BELLEISLE CONGRESSIONAL SOCIAL A GREAT SUCCESS.

The Granville-Belleisle Congregational Social of the United Church Congregation referred to in our notes last week was a decided success. The ladies arranged the tables for supper commencing at 6.30 and it was not until well on towards nine o'clock that all were served. About one hundred sat down to supper. Following the excellent supper was a program of music which was thoroughly enjoyed. The Pastor, the Rev. J. H. Freestone, in his address dealt with different items of interest. He said that such gatherings as this Congregational Social were a splendid help towards keeping the community a unity. He hoped, he said, that the two sections would strive to preserve unity remembering that the church at Granville was as much one section as the other's. He referred to financial success and suggested the appointing of a committee of twelve to consider this matter very thoroughly. This committee will doubtless be arranged for at the business meeting mentioned later.

INTER-PROVINCIAL GIRLS HOME

Needs For Extension of Social Work Through This Means Presented by Rev. G. S. Gardiner—Some Comments.

A meeting was held on Monday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms addressed by Rev. Geo. S. Gardiner, representative of the Social Service Department of the Protestant churches of the Maritime Provinces.

He reviewed the needs of the work and made a stirring appeal on behalf of the Inter-Provincial Girls Home to be erected at Moncton. This work is really an extension to that at present carried on in the Maritime Home for Girls at Truro which looks after girls up to the age of sixteen years. The institution to be established at Moncton is for those of mature years. The work outlined above is carried on by united effort of the four Protestant denominations whose activities have been made possible of development through united effort brought about through the Social Service Board. It may be noted just here that the Catholic church has had established for more than forty years, both at St. John and Halifax "Homes of the Good Shepherd" to look after unfortunate and delinquent girls and women, while to the shame of Protestants, he said, no similar institutions existed through their efforts till the home in Truro was established. But there is now much hope for the future since the work is to be amplified and extended by the proposed home in Moncton and the co-ordination of church effort through the Social Service Board, has rendered capable of achievement things hitherto unattempted.

Early next summer the representatives of the Fox Breeders will on invitation again confer with the government on other matters brought up in the resolutions and it is hoped to still further free the industry from some of the disabilities which breeders claim are unfair.
In view of the importance of the industry to the Province in general and to this county in particular it is advisable that all fox owners should be members of the Association and secure the benefits that come from united and concerted action. The resolutions presented government officials below.

Copy of Resolutions Passed at the Meeting of the N. S. Branch of the Canadian Silver Fox Breeders' Ass'n. Held at Bridgetown, March 11th.

WHEREAS fox growing in the Province of Nova Scotia is a youthful industry confronted with peculiar difficulties and hazards, thus particularly requiring Government encouragement and assistance.
AND WHEREAS this industry receives no such Government assistance as is today given to dairying or to other no more legitimate or deserving industries.
AND WHEREAS foxes grown in captivity are subject to municipal taxation as wild animals are not.
AND WHEREAS the administration of the Forest and Game Act is of no benefit to the industry of fox ranching.
AND WHEREAS, under the provision of the Forests and Game Act the pelts of foxes grown in captivity are subject to the payment of the same royalty as the pelts of foxes captured in the Province of Quebec, where domestic grown pelts are exempt from royalty.

THEREFORE RESOLVED that in the opinion of this Association legislation should be passed either to exempt foxes grown in captivity from municipal taxation as automobiles are now exempted or that the provisions of the Forests and Game Act providing for the collection of royalty on Ranch Grown pelts should be amended.
FURTHER RESOLVED that in the opinion of this meeting, the law requiring a buyer of fox furs or any person exporting pelts to take out a license for this purpose is adapted to curtail competition in the buying of furs, and thus works a hardship to which no other stock raising industry is subject.
WHEREAS in certain parts of this province a permit to keep foxes has been required from the owner of foxes as well as the keeper of the ranch.
AND WHEREAS this Association is of the opinion that this practice is

BUYING AT HOME

The Windsor Tribune has some very pertinent remarks on the subject of "sending out of town" and it is reproduced here on account of its general application.

The Tribune says:—
The merchants are dressing their windows with new lines to convince the purchasing public that they can supply the local trade, and it is only fair to give them an equal chance.

Every organization in town, every money-maker, every business man for support and every fall to get the cash, and yet in hundreds of instances leaders in these organizations from churches down consider it good business to spend their money with Ontario mail order houses or buy from the retail banker who slips in and out of town without a licence of any kind and frequently without leaving more than fifty cents for a lunch. This is not as it should be. It is poor business, extreme selfishness and a distinct violation of the principles under-lying the brotherhood of men.

The merchants and manufacturers themselves are not wholly blameless although they are chief sufferers on account of being the heavy tax payers who are obliged to keep up all civic institutions. Orders are given to Montreal and Toronto hawkers for all kinds of dry goods, groceries and other supplies, even to lead pencils, stationery, job printing and other numerous items that could be obtained here at same cost. And even if they cost a trifle more in the matter of small items the merchants get their profit, so it is fifty fifty proposition.

It is not unreasonable for the merchant requiring goods supplied by an other local firm to want to buy in the cheapest market, but at least might give the home dealer an opportunity of competing with the long distance retail runners from the Western Provinces. We have nothing that they want, hence we cannot trade on equal terms. Then why send the largest percentage of our hard earned cash to what, so far as we are concerned commercially, may as well be a foreign country.

"ONE-ROOMERS" WON AT SCHOOL MEETING

Granville Ferry.—The adjourned school meeting was held in the school house on Monday evening, March 24. Because of decrease in the number of children of school age during the past few years, much time was given at the meeting on March 23rd, to discussing the practicability of making this temporarily a one-department school.

At the adjourned meeting Inspector Foster was present and explained the laws relating to a one-department school, and gave his opinion of the matter, which was to remain as at the present time, a two department school. However, those in favor of a one department school won out, so it was decided that Granville Ferry should have a one department school for the coming year and $900 was voted for school purposes.

The decision, and all that it entails, has aroused such a spirit of dissatisfaction among many of the parents that now there is talk of petitioning for another school meeting.

THE FIVE SAFEGUARDS

The Spectator (London): There are certain things which the majority of the nation, a majority drawn from all classes and all parts of the country, most ardently desire. They want guarantees (1) Against revolutionary action, i.e., against changes in the laws and the conduct of the life of the community without the sanction of the people being legally obtained. (2) Against class rule, whether of manual workers or of capitalists. (3) Against the arbitrary confiscation of private property. (4) Against the deprivation of the individual of his liberty to buy and sell, and to live according to his own desires, provided he does so without injury to his neighbors. (5) Against any policy designed to break up the solidarity of the nation and of the Empire. That is to say, safeguards are required against civil war and assurances of international peace.

LABOR AND THE LEAGUE

Boston Globe: Not the least interesting part of Mr. MacDonald's programme is his plan to test the League of Nations as the instrument to be used in setting the major problems of Europe. First, Mr. MacDonald would admit Germany to the League, then put England's influence more fully behind it. In settling small problems the League has been useful. Its administration of the loan to Austria has put that little country on its feet. Now Hungary to obtain a similar loan, consents to accept League supervision. At last it appears, the Little Entente (which fears a revived Hungary as France fears a revived Germany) is ready to take the chance, and M. Benes has endorsed the project of a Hunnaria loan.

MARCHING BREAD FORWARD

London Daily News: The leaders of Labor know well enough—none better—the tremendous task they are undertaking. They know—none better—the fearful risks of failure. They know that, so far as they personally are concerned—though, to do them justice, we do not believe they give this matter much thought—the great adventure upon which they are entering offers for one chance to credit and honor and personal glory a hundred chances of defeat and shame and ridicule and misrepresentation. They are entitled in their dangerous and public-spirited mission to the respect and the sympathy which is due to all men of courage fighting against great odds for the faith in which they believe.

INEVITABILITY OF PUNISHMENT

Chicago Tribune: Every one respects the law of gravity. It is inevitable. Rich or poor, good or bad, we know that if we fall off a high building we will be killed. So we take precautions not to fall. To exactly the extent that punishment for crimes becomes inevitable crime will be discouraged. To exactly the extent that such punishment is capable of being evaded, or is likely to be modified and made less unpleasant, crime will be encouraged. Let the sentimentalist think that over while they wait for crime to strike into their own lives.

MILLIONS COULD BE KEPT IN NOVA SCOTIA

Maritime Provinces Last Year Spent $2,200,000 For Foreign Antiracer: N. S. Coke Would Do As Well.

The Halifax Herald has been urging upon the people of Nova Scotia the importance of spending their money in the Province. When millions of dollars are actually being shipped away for a commodity which can be better supplied at home, it is a time that people had their attention drawn to the fact.

According to the statements of E. G. MacKay, of Sydney, who was interviewed by The Herald, the Maritime Provinces sent across the line into the United States in 1923, $2,000,000 for 152,980 tons of anthracite. This money might have been spent at home in the purchase of coke, which, Mr. MacKay said, is as good as anthracite and costs $3 a ton less to the consumer.

It is this sum had been spent in the Maritimes, what benefits would have accrued to the people here? Mr. MacKay enumerated a few of them as follows: (1) Money remaining in circulation at home instead of going out of the country, $2,200,000; (2) Consumers save $3 per ton, amounting, on 152,980 tons, to $458,940; (3) The by-products made available in the manufacture of the coke would have been added to the sum total of production; these are gas, $3,059,000,000, ft. cu. ft., valued at $205,960; Am. sulphate, 7,649,000 pounds, $267,715; tar, 3,059,600 gallons, $61,000; motor fuel, 917,880 gallons, $229,470; and the royalty 12 1/2 cents on 305,960 tons of additional coal, $39,245. In all, this would be a total of $3,196,232 in circulation in the Maritimes which did not circulate last year because of the importation of 150,000 tons of anthracite from the United States.

In addition a new market would have been accorded for the 305,960 tons

FIVE YEARS' AGONY ENDED

When He Took "Fruit-a-tives" For Rheumatism

The Medicine Made From Fruit
There can be no doubt that "Fruit-a-tives" is the long sought remedy for Rheumatism and Lumbago. From all over Canada come letters testifying to this fact.
Mr. John E. Guilderson of Parrsboro, N.S. writes: "I suffered badly with Rheumatism for five years—tried different medicines—was treated by doctors in Amherst—and here at home—but the Rheumatism came back."
In 1916, I saw an advertisement for "Fruit-a-tives" and took a box and got relief, so I took them for about six months and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt since."
See a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

MRS. ALBERT WHITMAN CELEBRATES EIGHTIETH BIRTH
Mrs. Albert Whitman, formerly of West Paradise, celebrated her 80th birthday on March 23rd, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Wood, of Wilmington. Mrs. Whitman has made her home at different times with her two daughters, Mrs. James Payne, of Dedham, and Mrs. Wood, and has enjoyed excellent health since coming to Massachusetts to reside. Always intensely interested in the old Annapolis Valley families, she welcomed the weekly arrival of The Monitor with its chronicle of home events. Mrs. Whitman has been a reader of The Monitor for over forty years and sends her best wishes for its future prosperity.

Mr. Lennis Hiltz was called home to Springfield last week on account of sickness of his wife. Mrs. Hiltz, is reported better.
The Lower Granville U. Baptist Church has called Mr. C. Elmstead, Lic., to be its Pastor for the coming six months.
Mr. Charles Letteney went to New Jersey last week where he has accepted a position.
Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rosa went to Boston last week to engage in business in that city.
Mrs. Thomas Wood, of Canning, King's County, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Margaret Westhaver, and other relatives here.
The ladies of the U. Baptist Church held a social and tea on the 17th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Apt. A very good time and sum of $14.00 was realized. May there be more of them!
Wood piles are looking pretty well at this writing. A number of men here are doing nothing but saw wood and work.

RUM RUNNER HAS WAR EQUIPMENT

Rifle Practice At Sea Is Daily Routine For Crew of Butetown.

If the armament of the famous cruising yacht Mary O'Connor caused a mild sensation in Halifax, then the sight of the steamer Butetown should cause the citizens of this city to sit up and take notice. Not only is each man equipped with the latest patent revolver with an attachable stock, so that it can be in a few moments turned into a rifle, but the men are encouraged in this art, and revolver and rifle practice at sea is regularly indulged in to keep the marksman's eye in trim.

On account of the size of this steamer, which is one of the largest in the game, there is little to be feared from raiding pirates. These gentlemen have not yet been known to prey upon the larger ships, but prefer to confine their operations on the smaller craft. When the cargo of this ship has been nearly sold, there may be at one time over $2,000,000 on board. This would be a great bait for the pirate hands who might be inclined to become allied to make such a grand coup. It is mainly on this account that the "company of marines" on board of the Butetown has been established.

The Butetown, although of British registry, is operated by a syndicate whose headquarters are at New York.

PICTURE IS PROOF OF BOY'S MURDER

It has been definitely established that the Brenton Borden, Jr., of Avonport, has been murdered by the unknown assailant, who was afterwards shot to death by the sheriff's posse sent out to arrest him in Paso Rubles, California.
Brenton Borden, Sr., the father of the dead boy, received the photograph sent by the coroner which he was able to identify as that of his son. The photograph was attached to the passport which was found in his pocket. The name given by the Californian authorities was William Borden, and this aroused some hope that the original identification had been a mistake.
Mrs. Borden, his mother, is so seriously ill at her home in Avonport that the family dare not break the tragic facts of her son's death to her and as yet she knows nothing about it.

NOVA SCOTIANS TO BLAME FOR DEPRESSION

Practice of Sending Money Out of Province Having Serious Effect on Situation Here.

"If the people of Nova Scotia realized that every time they send away for things they buy they are weakening the best markets for the products they themselves are engaged in producing, that they are actively helping to keep the Province in a condition of depression and endangering their own homes and positions, even contributing to decrease the value of the real estate they may own, they would certainly send less money away and do all in their power to keep it in circulation at home."

This was the statement made by Edward Clayton of the well known Halifax firm, to a representative of 'The Herald'.

"When people buy at home," he continued, "they help to build up the village or town they live in and the Province to which they belong. Money in circulation creates activity, encourages more enterprise and industry, affords work for the sons and daughters who are not forced to work abroad and the produce of whose labor commands more money, which is brought into circulation. And so the cycle goes on. The tide flows in or out. The direction of the flow is determined by the people themselves. The effort put forth by any country is the aggregate of the effort of each individual of its population and that effort co-operating towards one end would be irresistible. Let Nova Scotians co-operate to boost Nova Scotia ahead instead of behind. She is worth it."

"If those old stalwarts of the days when the fight for responsible government was waging, whose intense belief in Nova Scotia and her future gave them powers and insight infinitely beyond what our public men of today possess, could come back and see our Nova Scotia of 1924—would they be disappointed? Is this the Nova Scotia of their dreams and hopes? Is this the Halifax they visited?"

"No, it isn't. The harbor of the Halifax they grew eloquent about was to be a harbor of masts; all the Winter trade of the Dominion was to pass through it. The Nova Scotia of their dreams was a humming land of industry. Why not? Here is a land with immense coal deposits at the water. Where else is such a combination to be found in the New World? What hinders the development of a great steel industry? She has vast potential water power, a unique geographical position. Then why hasn't she developed as these men who started her off expected her to develop?"

"There are many reasons perhaps, but not least of them is the attitude of her own people.

"To go away and send away has become a Nova Scotia habit. To the Nova Scotian far fields always look greenest. The days of her greatest prosperity began to fade with the advent of, but not necessarily because of, confederation. Rather because there came to be no more money available for local development. Men with money shipped, or allowed their banks to ship the money westward where it could earn most interest. It was not good business. Looking back, it was bad business. They sacrificed the present for the future. They lost the faith of the old members in their native Province."

THE VARIATION IN BELK TEA

The quality of bulk tea is unreliable for several reasons. In the first place its origin and age is unknown to the housewife so that it does not carry any responsibility. In the second place, it is exposed to the air while offered for sale, and therefore very quickly loses its flavor and freshness. Even if it were as good as "SALADA" in the first place, it would rapidly deteriorate for this reason and in any case it would be impossible for any dealer to follow consistently the same quality throughout the year. "SALADA" always maintains an unvarying high standard, possible through skilful blending and careful preservation in sealed aluminum packets.

HARM OF OVER-EATING

"Over-eating does more harm than over-indulgence in alcohol. It makes a sluggish stomach and prevents clear thought and serious effort to do decent work. The fussy, attention craving, self-satisfied neurotic ought to take a little less notice of his stomach and his heart and think more about other people than about himself."

These were some of the remarks made by Dr. F. H. MacKay, in charge of the Neurological Department of the Montreal General Hospital, at a lecture on "Psychotherapy" in that city.

"I would like to quote to you the last few lines of Paul Dubois' book on the subject," said Dr. MacKay. "He says: 'It is dangerous to go through life without religion or philosophy. It matters little which a man chooses as long as he holds one of these two flags high above him.'"

Dr. MacKay suggested that philosophy was probably the better of the two, but what was really dangerous was an aimless selfish path between the two.

"The old dogma that all men are born equal is not at all true," Dr. MacKay continued. "It all depends on what a child is handed down by heredity and it would be a good thing if a few more people nowadays would think for a moment what a tremendous responsibility they had thrust upon them in this way. Care of children when they are quite small has also a great influence on their lives. Too many mothers coddle them and ruin their nerves by a lot of foolish carrying about and swinging. The best sympathy grown-ups can show to children is the sympathy which makes them think and get along for themselves. The sooner a child learns independence the better, but the stories which nurse-maids sometimes tell children about the terrible things which are hidden in darkness are nothing short of criminal, for they make the child fear darkness instead of seeking it for rest and solitude."

"Children who refuse good healthy food are not suffering from some nervous illness, but the probability is that they have been fed on too much cake and chocolate, not only at all hours of the day, but also at all hours of the night. If we had no nervous children we should soon have very few nervous adults." Dr. MacKay then spoke of those people who repress their worries throughout life and go on plodding forward without ever blowing up or giving vent to their emotions. He said that very often these people developed into nervous breakdowns.

"We may rest assured that a man very seldom breaks down from over-work," said Dr. MacKay in conclusion, "hard work tends to develop the cells rather than wear them out. In many cases where I have heard a person say that he was a neurotic and needed a rest, it is just the contrary that was the case. He needed work and no rest."

A gentleman without living is like a pudding without suet.

EXPRESS COS. ARE LOSING BUSINESS

Due To Present High Charges, Says Representative of Manufacturers.

Ottawa.—Express companies were losing business due to their present high charges and any increases would divert further business from express, said H. W. MacDonald, counsel for the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, at the hearing of the express rates case before the Board of Railway Commissioners here.

Evidence given by the T. Eaton Co. and the Garment Manufacturers' Association was submitted. The all order business showed an increase of 16 per cent in 1921 over 1920, due to increased express rates in February, 1921. In 1923 there was a marked increase in business done, yet there was a falling off of express business of the T. Eaton Company.

S. B. Brown, manager of the traffic department of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, urged that express rates be revised to reflect the reductions made in the standard freight tariffs which are the basis of the haulage charge of express rates.

The results would mean a reduction in the first class rates ranging from 10 cents to one dollar per hundred pounds, and a reduction in second class rates to 75 per cent. of the revised first class rates. The result would bring down rates in zones B and C from 5 to 50 cents.

It was suggested that short haul rates up to two hundred miles be revised by a breaking up into 25 mile instead of 50 mile blocks. Rates between zones should be revised so as to reflect the haulage charge of the zone thru which the shipment passes instead of as at present applying the highest zone charge.

CRITICIZING THE PRINCE OF WALES Because of His Frequent Riding Habits

London.—The Prince of Wales' equestrian accident, in which he was thrown while participating in a race at Arborfield, Saturday, is made the text of editorial homilies addressed to His Royal Highness by several of the morning newspapers, which tell him that the people are very much concerned over the manner in which he continues to risk his life.

The writers reminded him that he is not a private person but a national asset, and say that although he is fully entitled to recreation, especially in view of the hearty and thorough way in which he performs his public duties, it is time he imposed restraint on his plucky spirits.

All the comments are framed in the kindest tone, expressing anxiety for his safety, except that of the Laborite newspaper, the Daily Herald, which insinuates that the Prince of Wales spends his days hunting and steeple-chasing and his nights dancing. It adds it is time he took life more seriously and devoted his energies to occupations more worth while.

While some of the writers criticize the Prince's horsemanship, suggesting his falls are due to lack of skill, others remark that such accidents are common and say in view of the frequency with which the Prince rides his crashes are in no wise numerous.

The Prince could certainly point to the testimony of the newspapers for the frequency of chasing accidents, as pictures appear almost daily giving the idea that a large proportion of the chasers spend their time in falling upon their heads.

Blue and Green

Made by the Deloro Chemical Company, under the Sanders Patented process.

These Dusts were widely advertised and tested in 1923 with the result that a 400 per cent. increase in their use is already assured for 1924.

One grower writes—"In 1922 my orchard sold for $100.00 and was scabby and wormy. In 1923 I used Sanders Green Dust and got a return of $7000.00 from the same orchard, and my fruit sold for the highest in the Hudson Valley.

Deloro has already sold six carloads of Dust to the United States, paying a duty of over one dollar per 100 lbs, making a profit and taking business away from U. S. Concerns. This shows Deloro's position as a dust producer and the value of the Sanders process.

Sanders Blue Dust is identical in appearance with the old mixed Bordeaux Dust.

Used successfully in 1923 and recommended by such Nova Scotia growers as F. H. Johnson, Hillcrest Orchards, Murray Elliott, B. M. Hudgins, W. E. Brown, R. A. Jodrey, etc.

On sale in Nova Scotia at the same old reasonable prices through the United Fruit Companies.

GIRLS HOME

den away are consigned to brief lives of degradation. The above briefly resumes a few features to emphasize reasons why the arm of Social Service work in its various activities should be strengthened. The Home at Truro has done splendid work for delinquent and neglected girls and has saved many from ultimate lives of shame and restored them lives of rectitude and usefulness. The Moncton institution is designed to carry forward a work equally needed among those of a more mature age. The cost of the building to be erected will be around $45,000 and nearly $30,000 has been received in cash or in pledges. A most necessary adjunct is a hospital. With these plans put through about $100,000 will be needed from the Maritime Provinces and it will be money well and wisely expended from an economic as well as from a humanitarian point of view.

At Monday's meeting representatives were chosen from churches and other town organizations to interest the public and it is felt that Bridgetown will not be behind in her share in this work.

The committee is made up as follows:

Mrs. (Dr.) Muir (Convener), Mrs. H. S. Magee and Mrs. J. W. Peters, representing the Women's Institute.

Baptist church—Mrs. J. I. Foster, Mrs. Lee.

United church—Mrs. F. R. Fay, Mrs. Frances Graves.

Anglican church—Mrs. S. W. Weare, Mrs. E. R. Oriando.

Rebekahs—Mrs. Fred Bath, Mrs. E. A. Hicks.

Rev. Mr. Gardiner whose home is in Sackville, is a ready speaker and a man with a splendid grip of general conditions all through the Maritimes. It is of interest in passing to note that he was pastor at one time of the Church at Beaton, the same church over whose destiny years ago presided Rev. James Law, father of Hon. Bonar Law, afterwards Premier of Great Britain, and whose death occurred not many months ago.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary E. Bent Miller

The death of Mrs. Mary Eliza Bent Miller, widow of Israel L. Miller, occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Willard M. Hatch of Swampscott Mass., on Monday, March 24th, at the advanced age of 87 years. Mrs. Miller was born in Paradise, N. S., the daughter of Warren and Frances Bent, and was the last of a family of five sons and three daughters. She was a home loving mother and devoted her life to her children.

The deceased was a resident of Bridgetown for many years and moved to the United States about 27 years ago, making many friends while a resident of Swampscott. She leaves to mourn their loss two daughters, Mrs. W. M. Hatch of Swampscott with whom she resided, Mrs. Fred W. Bean of Lynn, also two sons Archibald E. Reynolds of Lynn, and Herbert W. Reynolds of Oakland, California. The funeral took place Wednesday, March 26th, and the following references are from a Lynn paper.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Miller, widow of Israel M. Miller, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Willard M. Hatch, 23 King street, with whom she resided. Rev. G. Edward Allan, pastor of the Swampscott Methodist churching was the officiating clergyman. During the services several selections were sung by Mrs. Grace Traffon Sears of Swampscott. The floral remembrances were many and very handsome, and included pieces from the relatives, friends and neighbors of the deceased, and the associates of her daughters. The interment was in the family lot in Pine Grove cemetery, Lynn.

Mrs. W. R. Longmire and Mrs. James Brooks of Bridgetown are nieces of the deceased.

MUNRO-SMITH

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, Mar. 19, 1924 at 2.30 o'clock at the home of the brother of the bride, Charles P. Smith, 3 Brook street, Methuen, Mass. The principals being Grace only daughter of Edmund P. Smith and Nictaux Falls, and H. Parker, son of Howard I. Munro of Nictaux West. Rev. A. W. Jefferson, D.D., of Calvary Baptist church officiating. The double ring service being used.

The wedding was witnessed by the immediate relatives of the bride, and took place in the prettily decorated drawing room, where ferns, plants and early spring flowers were used in the decorative scheme. Miss Elsie Murille presided at the piano and rendered the wedding march. The bride looked charming, in colonial blue crepe de chene, with silver trimmings and carried a bridal bouquet of pale pink carnations and maiden hair fern.

Following the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served, after which the happy couple motored to Boston en route to their home in Nictaux, N. S.

A GOOD MEDICINE FOR SPRINGTIME

Do Not Use Harsh Purgatives—A Tonic is All You Need.

Not sick—but not feeling quite well. That is the way most people feel in the spring. Easily tired, appetite feeble, sometimes headaches and a feeling of depression. Pimples or eruptions may appear on the skin, or there may be twinges of rheumatism or neuralgia. Any of these indicate that the blood is out of order—that the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon you and may easily develop into more serious trouble.

Do not dose yourself with purgatives, as many people do, in the hope that you can put your blood right. Purgatives gallop through the system and weaken instead of giving strength. Any doctor will tell you that this is a tonic that will enrich the blood and build up the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do this speedily, safely and surely. Every dose of this medicine helps to enrich the blood, which clears the skin, strengthens the appetite and makes tired, depressed men, women and children bright, active and strong. Mr. Henry R. Robinson, Crutshank, Sask., says:—"My blood was out of order and I was nervous and run down. I got a supply of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking them for a while they full restored my health. I am now feeling fine and have no hesitation in recommending these pills to all who are feeling unwell."

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail, at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

My Ma Paints She Does

And Misses Knozey come to our house and she says I dunno ma'am why you can do things like paintin' and such kindy loffy-like. And my Ma says, Dear me Mrs. Knozey if I couldn't do good as the men-folks how could I see that the men do as good as they'd oughter. And what's buying a little brush and laying varnish or enamel on a chair back or round the tubs, or even doing the floor up fresh. Let's go to Macee and Charltons.

The fun I get out of it's most as much as the satisfaction of seein' things all bright and lovely. And I get to know just what's what about paintin' for I always talk it over with the man at the hardware store and he knows, I can depend on what he's tellin' me—and when the men come to do over our front porch and get through with what my Ma seen that they done it. I heard the boss feller say to the helper feller that My Ma paints she does, and buys all her paint, varnish and enamel at Magee and Charltons.

TALENT IS EXHIBITED AT MARGARETVILLE IN "A SCRAP OF PAPER"

A high degree of dramatic art was demonstrated in the Orange Hall by the Margaretville Players, who put on the popular drama "A Scrap of Paper" to a capacity house.

The play called for much more than ordinary ability in its presentation, and the performers admirably rose to the occasion and acquitted themselves in their impersonation of the various characters in a manner which took them well out of the amateur class.

The Director, Mrs. C. E. Balcom, an artist in her own right, possesses the rare ability of developing and transforming into a finished product any latent gifts that she discovers in others.

The hall had been specially wired for the occasion and the foot lights, together with the pretty scenery, added much to the stage effect.

The performers were Isabel Patterson, Harry McLean, Sadie McLean, Thomas MacLean, Kathryn Dodge, Mildred Barkhouse, Clair Baker, Claude Balcom, Donald MacLean, George Balcom, Annetta MacLean.

ESCALLOPED CORN AND MACARONI

Here is a good Lenten recipe: "Boil macaroni until done, drain, and rinse in cold water. Butter a baking dish or casserole and put in a layer of canned corn seasoned to taste. Over this put a layer of macaroni, a small amount of grated onion, one canned pimento cut in small pieces, and bits of butter, paprika, pepper, and salt. Continue in this way until the dish is full, with the corn on top. Sprinkle with fine cracker crumbs and bits of butter. Pour over the whole one cup of Borden's St. Charles Milk and one-half cup hot water. Bake one-half hour or until browned nicely on top.

"With a vegetable salad and a light dessert, this makes a good wholesome meal. A grating of cheese on top may be added."

Mr. Parker Sabean, of Mt. Rose, is very busy this week sawing wood in this locality.

The death of Capt. T. W. Templeman, which occurred on Saturday morning, March 22nd, came as a shock to his many friends. His health has not been the best for some weeks. His last sickness was only for a few days. Although he was in his eighty-seventh year, he seemed much younger. Always of a cheerful disposition he won many friends, and will be greatly missed in Port Lorne, where he and Mrs. Templeman have conducted very successfully the Bay View House for the past twenty-two years. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, who resides in New York, one brother, Mr. J. B. Templeman, of Hampton; three sisters, Mrs. A. W. Bogart, of Los Gatos, Calif.; Mrs. Walter Hillar and Mrs. Norman Farnsworth, both of Lynn, Mass., (not Florida, as reported in last issue).

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon. After a service in the church the remains were taken to Hampton, his former home, for burial. The service was conducted by Rev. D. W. Dixon, assisted by Rev. Asaph Whitman. Undertaker Reed was in attendance.

Spring is in the air early birds are returning as well as southern winter sojourners.

Sympathy is kindly extended to all near relatives and friends of Mr. Thomas Keely whose critical illness at V. G. Hospital, Halifax, is much regretted.

BABY'S HEALTH IN THE SPRING

The Spring is a time of anxiety to mothers who have little ones in the home. Conditions make it necessary to keep the baby indoors. He is often confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms and catches colds which rack his whole system. To guard against this a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and an occasional dose given the baby to keep his stomach and bowels working regularly. This will prevent colds, constipation or colic and keep the baby well. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A friend writing from Yarmouth says in speaking of the funeral of the late Mrs. M. S. Richardson says: "It was the largest funeral I ever attended. The church and vestry were crowded and everybody was their filled with sympathy. There was a most beautiful display of floral tributes. She looked life-like in death. Everybody loved her and the attendance at her funeral was a splendid tribute to her memory."

PREDICTS GREAT BOOM FOR CANADA

Millions of British Capital To Be Invested in Dominion.

Toronto.—There is going to be a great boom in Canadian securities, particularly in Northern Ontario mining securities," said J. G. Beatty, prominent financial man of this city, who has returned after spending some months in the Old Country, in conference with capitalists there.

Mr. Beatty declared that this expectation is shared by the shrewdest of English financial men. People who are acquainted with developments throughout the world see that Canada is a great and coming field for financial investments. English capital was not being spent in England's own industries, said Mr. Beatty because of the prevailing lack of confidence in the government and industrial victories of labor.

It has been stated—and Mr. Beatty did not deny it—that the Toronto financier brought authority from his British associates to spend up to sixty million dollars of English capital in Canadian enterprises, particularly those of the mining country.

CHURCH PROGRESS IN WEST FORCED TO SLOW DOWN

In consultation with Presbyterian leaders in 1920, the Methodist Church agreed to open a number of new centres for work among New Canadians in the West. Of two institutes proposed, one has been built and one of the three school homes projected has been occupied.

Seven social centres were decided upon for the Prairie Provinces, and two are now in operation. Of twelve new evangelistic centres agreed to as the Methodist contribution, six have been manned by Canadian or Ukrainian Pastors and are in full swing.

Shortage in current revenue to maintain the work, rather than lack of funds for building, is given as the reason for delay. The Methodist National Campaign of 1920 provided large funds for plant and equipment, but the operation costs would have to be provided from year-to-year contributions by the churches. These regular givings have not increased fast enough to warrant going ahead with construction, say Methodist officials.

A generous offering was subscribed at the time which has since been added to and will be forwarded to Mr. Prosser.

McKIM'S DIRECTORY OF CANADIAN PUBLICATIONS

There are 1,499 newspapers and regularly published periodicals in Canada, against 1,553 a year ago. Daily newspapers have decreased from 121 to 114; semi-weeklies from 34 to 30; and weeklies from 1,022 to 975. On the other hand, a small increase has taken place during the year in the number of monthly and semi-monthly periodicals. These facts are shown in McKim's Directory of Canadian Publications, under which name the Seventeenth Edition of the Canadian Newspaper Directory has just been issued. It is the only complete directory of the publications of Canada and Newfoundland, giving accurate, physical and circulation details of each publication. At the back of the book are several lists of publications arranged for convenient use by the advertiser, such as the condensed list arranged by Provinces, the list of daily newspapers, the newspaper list arranged by counties, the classified list of general and special publications, and a list of publications in languages other than English or French, with statistics as to the population they reach. Information on the geography, population and industries of each Province is given, as well as detailed facts about each city, town and village where a newspaper or other publication is issued. McKim's Directory thus is a valuable compendium of information commonly required by those whose business demands a general or specific knowledge of Canada.

A. McKim, Limited, is the publisher. In the preface it modestly states that it is only because of the service it renders to advertisers which it has become and remained the largest Advertising Agency in Canada. The price of McKim's Directory of Canadian Publications is $3.00. Copies may be had from the McKim offices at Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Hamilton, and London, England, 6 Norfolk St., W. C. 2.

YOUNG DAUGHTER MADE WELL

Mother Tells How Her Daughter Suffered and Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vancouver, B. C.—"My daughter is a young girl who has been having severe pains and weak and dizzy feelings for some time and had lost her appetite. Through an older daughter who had heard of a woman who was taking it for the same trouble, we were told of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My daughter has been taking it for several months and is quite all right now. It has done all it was represented to do and we have told a number of friends about it. I am never without a bottle of it in the house, for I myself take it for that weak, tired, worn-out feeling which sometimes comes to us all. I find it is building me up and I strongly recommend it to women who are suffering as I and my daughter have."—Mrs. J. M. 2947 26th Ave. East, Vancouver, B. C.

From the age of twelve a girl needs all the care a thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her during this time. If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, make it easier for her. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions.

Minister of Railways Brings Down Separate Bills For Branch Lines.

Ottawa.—Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways, intends to bring down twenty-six separate bills for the branch lines programme of the Canadian National Railways. Last year they were all covered in one bill, which was rejected by the Senate. By bringing down a separate bill for each branch line there will be an opportunity for parliament to discriminate between the different branch lines, if so desired. In all the bills, it is intimated, the three-year provision of last year will be included. The lines provided for in the bills which the Minister of Railways will submit to the House include: Nova Scotia: From Sunnybrae to Guysboro, 67 miles. Estimated cost $3,500,000. From Lockport Station on the Halifax and South Western, to the town of Lockport, four miles. Estimated cost $161,000. New Brunswick: From Kingsclear, on the St. John and Quebec Railway, to a point on the St. Croix River, opposite Vancouver, Maine, 41 miles. Estimated cost $2,123,000.

All changes of copy for ads, MUST be in by 12 noon on Monday's each week.

THE REVOLT AGAINST TAXES

In every well-organized community some system of taxation is a public necessity for the equitable distribution of public expenditure. In recent years, however, there has been an enormous increase of taxation, especially in the countries which participated in the war, the burden being so great in some instances that it is almost unbearable. In addition to this, the increased cost of living has necessitated high wages, and this has affected those of people engaged in the public service, and on National, State and Provincial works as well as those paid in ordinary trade and industry. The increased burden of taxation is largely, but not altogether, due to these facts. Both during the war and subsequent to it there has undoubtedly been in the countries, of all the Allies a considerable wastage in war expenditure. The burden of taxation is almost unbearable in some instances, and there is now no longer any excuse, either in Canada or the United States, for any unnecessary expenditure whatever. The demand for a reduction of the income tax is practically universal. Governor Smith, of New York, has advocated a cut of 25 per cent. in this tax. Governor S. Silver, of New Jersey, says that he is urging the state Legislature to reduce and "equalize" taxation. He declares that there is too much mandatory legislation providing for the appropriation of funds, too much reckless expenditure by public officials. He advocates co-ordination of small municipalities to reduce the cost of Government; and strict economy. Governor Channing H. Cox, of Massachusetts, says the direct State debt has been reduced over fourteen million dollars in three years, and the net direct State debt reduced more than five million dollars. "State expenses, exclusive of education, have been reduced by one-fourth during this administration, making the net cost to taxpayers, for better service, forty thousand dollars per working day less than during the previous two years," wires Governor Pinchot, of Pennsylvania. "Taxes must be lowered," declared Governor Percival P. Baxter, of Maine, who wants taxes "reduced, not shifted." He says "the people themselves often are more responsible for high taxes than are public officials." Taxes have been reduced in Missouri about twenty per cent, below what they were in 1920, reports Governor Arthur M. Hyde. These statements have a special significance for Canada. If by means of economy the United States can reduce its income tax while ours remains high, we shall penalize ourselves by making Canada a dearer place to live in than the neighboring Republic.

Canada has ninety-six Senators at $4,000 each—an outlay of $384,000. Other expenses in connection with the Senate would increase that amount to over $10,000,000. As both the Government and Opposition are in favor of retrenchment, why not abolish the Senate? The country would not suffer if such were carried out.—Recorder.

DEVELOP LOWER PROVINCES

Under the above caption, the Montreal Star publishes a letter from Ingram Oakes, Halifax, which is worthy of perusal. "The time has come," says Mr. Oakes, "when the intellectuals of this country should turn their attention to finding out and testing a sound trade policy. The protection of our key industries may still be necessary, but a transition from custom tariffs to purposes of protection, to custom tariffs combined with a corresponding inland sales tax on the home-made product for purposes of revenue only should follow. It seems to me, in the course of a period of from five to ten years, what has the talk of the politicians of the Maritime Provinces in regard to Maritime Rights ever yielded? So far as I know, nothing, except armories where there are no troops to drill, places where there is no shipping, grain elevators where there is no grain to ship, ocean terminals where there is no ocean trade, and railways where there is no freight. Why not stop such nonsense and begin to develop our own natural resources on business principles—to take into consideration our position on the map, the natural genius of our people, and what markets we are fitted to supply? There is an opportunity at this very moment to establish a movement or organization to promote sound methods of building up foreign trade with the Maritime Provinces and with the whole of Canada, and to establish and stimulate such industries as will attract our young and inventive geniuses, keep them at home and thus render an immigration policy unnecessary. This is no dream; but we need men of conviction in place of scheming politicians.

You Don't Have To Pay For Dr. Thachers Syrup Unless You Get Satisfying Relief!

Prescribed By Physicians For Colds, Sour Stomach, Bloating Gas, Sick-Headaches And Tired, Nervous, Run-Down Condition,

BUILDS UP SYSTEM: GIVES QUICK RELIEF

"The majority of people who come into this store for medicines of various sorts are really suffering because of a sluggish liver," declared a leading druggist the other day. "What they really need is Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup to cleanse and tone the liver and build up the system so that they feel their best again. It gives quick relief; this is why we can afford to sell it with the understanding that it will give complete satisfaction; otherwise the purchase price will be returned.

It is easy to tell when your liver is sluggish and clogged. Just ask yourself: Do you feel dull and tired so often? Do you wake up with a bad taste, coated tongue and offensive breath? Do you suffer from such symptoms as bad colds, sour stomach and gas, irregular movement of the bowels and that tired, nervous, upset and depressed feeling? If so, take just a spoonful of Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup after the next few meals and notice the quick difference in the way you look, eat, sleep and feel.

Get a bottle of Dr. Thacher's from W. A. Warren, in Bridgetown; from Watson F. Porter, Pharmacy, in Lawrence-town. And unless you really appreciate what it has done for you come back and your money will be returned without a single question. This is how much confidence we have in this splendid corrective, health-building preparation.

of the Education Department to obviate the arousing of any possible prejudice against tourist propaganda by the use of tourist letter-heads.

The correspondence is addressed to the Principals of the schools with the request that the letters be distributed to the subordinate teachers to be read in class. Each letter is accompanied by a lithograph folder entitled "Nova Scotia Invites You."

The multigraphing of these thousands of letters was expertly performed free of cost by the Scotia Typewriter Company. Major P. O. Somlis is a strong believer in more advertising for Nova Scotia and his co-operation in this instance is appreciated by the Directorate of the Publicity Bureau.

By means of this novel piece of publicity, Nova Scotia as a delightful vacation resort will be brought effectively and personally to the attention of more than a million High School students resident in territories which are known to be fertile tourist fields.

MEDIOCRE PLAYERS

The couple in Brooklyn, N. Y., who advertised for a pair of mediocre bridge players, have, no doubt, been accommodated by this time, if they are not still too busy making selections from the multitude which has heeded their call. There are said to be a great many people in the world whose game of bridge is distinctly below par.

The dubs all over the country, however, should be grateful that these two dubs have spoken out. Perhaps courage will be given to thousands of those who are obviously amateurs to get into the games they love, but at which they lack skill. There is no disgrace in being only moderately good at cards, nor is there any disgrace in being a poor golfer or a poor musician, provided of course one does not try to make a living at it. On the recreational side it is not true that anything worth doing is worth doing supremely well. It is told of Herbert Spencer, the philosopher, who played a fine game of billiards, how he fared when he picked up a young man as a billiard opponent in an inn one day. After Mr. Spencer had taken three or four turns, the unknown ran out the string. A second game ensued in much the same way. Mr. Spencer then paid the charges and said: "To play a good game of billiards is a mark of intellectual capacity, but to play as good a game as you played is a mark of a mispent youth."

The professional spirit is making trouble in quarters quite remote from intercollegiate athletics and club hockey. It has laid its hold on all sorts and conditions, and scared the people who show no evidence of having lived a "misspent youth." They are becoming afraid to play at anything. They should find their court not try to make a living at it. On age. Those who do not play too well have the most fun.

BURNS UP $250,000 BUT SAVED SHIP

Cuban Gunboat Captain Burns Lignors When Ship's Coal Is Gone.

Yarmouth—How the youthful captain of a former Cuban gunboat, lignor laden, converted his storm-tossed craft into a spirit burner, at sea in the height of a gale that threatened to swamp the vessel, was told when the Maria jumped into this port, her decks littered with the remnants of seven hundred cases of alcohol which had been burned in the furnace after the coal supply had been exhausted. The liquor fuel represented $250,000 valued at eighteen dollars per gallon.

The Maria, Captain Bernal, sailed from Havana twenty-four days ago, with 10,000 cases of assorted liquors, bound for St. Pierre via Yarmouth. It had followed, and almost throughout the twenty-four days at sea the Maria was in the clutch of such storms that it seemed impossible she would stay afloat.

After the crew had repaired broken down engines and ran before the gale for into the Atlantic, it was found that the coal supply was exhausted and food almost gone. It was decided to burn the vessel into a burner of spirits as the only hope of remaining afloat and all the ingenuity of the ship's officers was brought to bear upon the problem. Even with what was probably the most expensive fuel ever used by a steamer the best speed that could be averaged was four knots per hour.

The gold mines of Northern Ontario broke all previous records in the month of January, when they produced approximately $2,100,000, based on preliminary reports received from the mines.

It is reported that arrangements have been made for the financing of a $500,000 plant in Edmonton, Alta., for the manufacture of paving blocks from the tar sands of Fort McMurray.

The first of the private fur auction sales which the Hudson Bay Company has decided to hold in future at their head office in Montreal took place recently, when a collection of various furs, estimated roughly at $25,000 to $30,000 value, was put up for sale by sealed bids.

Grain handled at the port of Montreal in 1923 totalled 120,013,928 bushels, the largest amount shipped through any port in North America during the year. Montreal thus maintains for the third consecutive year her position as the leading grain exporting port of the continent.

Dr. Geo. H. Locke, chief librarian, Toronto, at the request of the Canadian Authors' Association, has undertaken to supervise the selection of volumes for the Canadian literature exhibit at the British Empire Exhibition. The task involves the gathering together of 500 representative books and it is anticipated will take about a fortnight.

From all indications, the potato shipments to Havana this season from the port of St. John, New Brunswick, will greatly exceed those of last year. To date there have been 750,307 bushels sent forward in twenty steamers, while from September 1, 1922, until January 31, 1923, a total of 505,668 bushels were shipped in seventeen steamers.

With heavy enquiries from South American sources for Canadian flour, millers expect to see their export volume substantially increased during the month of February, as compared with January. This movement, together with offerings of a premium for wheat at Vancouver, has been the most encouraging trade feature of the past month in Winnipeg, Man.

Colonel Geo. H. Ham, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who recently returned from Florida, reports that Canada was prominently featured at the South Florida fair, held at Tampa some time ago. A very striking exhibit of Canadian products and natural resources was displayed and a "Canada Day" was celebrated, all of which is said to have been a revelation to those who attended.

Buffalo meat from the park at Wainwright has recently been on sale throughout Canada and has been extremely well received. It is described as resembling beef but of a more gamy flavor. Government officials expect that this meat, with hides and other buffalo products, will become a regular source of income to the people of Canada in the future.

Work on the Kenogami dam, in the Province of Quebec, is reported as progressing very well, and the $2,000,000 works located at the upper part of the Saguenay River are expected to be completed within 15 months. As a result of these works, the mills operated by the Price interests will be kept in full activity during the whole year, instead of partly closing down in the winter months, as they have had to do in the past.

HELL AND DAMNATION AWAIT JOY RIDERS, JAZZ HOUNDS AND MORBID MOVIE FANS, SAYS FR. McBRIDE

"Hell and eternal damnation awaits many souls, due to the immorality which prevails in the low motion picture houses and dance halls," said Rev. Father McBride, speaking to the men of the Church of the Sacred Heart on Friday evening.

Father McBride's sermon dealt with the three concupiscences on which the devil plays in his degrading of human souls in the game of life—pride, sensuality and avarice.

The reverend father said: "The underlying cause of industrial disputes is lack of correction by the parents during the youth of the men employed in the industries. These men through this lack of correction acquire a pride which cannot be crushed, by themselves or anyone else. When their employers tell them to do a certain thing the youthful employees, due entirely to pride, maintain a stupid defiance. What is the result? A clash, cessation of work, and loss of time and money follows. Thus the parents are in the main responsible for many industrial disputes, because they spared the rod during the infancy and youth of their children. This is more noticeable in the present generation than in the past. The fathers of the present generation have gained their wisdom at the expense of the rod, are thanking their parents for it now. Children who refuse to be governed should be punished corporally. If at first they do not respond to kindness, then use the rod. Good habits will be installed and they will grow up to thank you for it."

Speaking of the sin of sensuality, Father McBride said: "There are two sins of sensuality—immorality and drunkenness. Go into the low motion picture house and what do you see? Practically nakedness walking the stage. Immorality is to be plainly seen and unvarnished immorality. The alliance of divorced couples takes place. How, in the name of God, can any man go in and take a seat and remain seated without blushing?"

"Go into the dance halls and you see dances gone through which are downright sinful. A man said to me the other day: 'Father, how in God's name can a man lead a decent life when he has to take part in the dances which are danced today—dances which are suggestive?'"

Going further in his sermon, Father McBride said: "The auto has its good points as a great means of transportation and recreation. I am ready to take an oath that more than one soul has been ruined through night auto parties. The young women of today, before they will go, ask the young man if he has anything. Of course they mean 'hooray'."

"My God, what a sorry spectacle it is to see a young man, half drunk, at the wheel, and a girl, in a similar condition, seated beside him. You well know what sins are committed by this couple while in this condition. On the day of judgment, I say, many automobiles will figure in the accusations. Many a car with its license number will be brought to accuse some men."

"Why do young people keep company? With the object of getting married. But today some young people think they have special privileges once they become engaged. You will even find parents going to bed and leaving young men and their daughters in the parlor. I cannot understand how they can do it. What can you expect of married life if this is the way they act during their engagement? What a mockery it is for these young people to approach the altar and ask for the Holy sacrament of matrimony. Be on your guard and remember the devil is always tempting you. Guard against it by prayer. Let us remember who we are, for, after all, we are the sons of God, and are made to His own image and likeness."

Effects of Immorality. Continuing, he said: "Go into the hospitals and insane asylums today and you will see young men lying pale and wan on cots, or walking the floor raving lunatics, suffering from a disease. What disease? A disease brought on by the occasions of sin. Go to the water edge in spirit tonight. If the waves could only speak what story they would unfold. A story of suicide brought on by the occasions of sin. Go to the depths of hell in spirit tonight and ask the suffering souls the cause of their condemnation. Their answer would be, 'because of the sin of impurity.'"

"The three faculties that make a man a man are reason, will, and ability to love," said Father McBride. "But the demon drunkenness robs us of these three faculties. A drunkard has not the use of his reason. He is incapable of expressing an idea. His free will is gone, and his faith is gone. My God, what is a man who has lost these three faculties? He is a brute, a low down brute. We are bound by commandment to love our parents, brothers and sisters and neighbors. Does a drunkard love his

Prominent Ontario Fruit Grower Tells Of Study Of British Market, Should Not Export Anything Less Than No. 2 Grade.

(The Farmers' Sun, Toronto)

The necessity of sending only good quality apples to the British market was strongly emphasized by James E. Johnson, of Simcoe, manager of the Norfolk Fruit Growers' Co-operative, in telling the Agricultural Committee of the Legislature of the results of his study of the Old Country and European market for fruit. Mr. Johnson was sent over for this purpose by the Ontario Government.

He advised against sending anything lower than No. 2 grade apples to the British trade. "Better leave No. 3 and Domestic apples at home," he declared, "or, better still, educate growers not to have so many of these. Every dollar invested in thinning means two dollars back in results." He advised pruning with the opening of Spring, except where orchards were thoroughly familiar with Winter pruning.

Mr. Johnson recommended against exporting apples in boxes, stating that barrels were more profitable and were what the English buyers were accustomed to. The varieties suited to this trade, were Golden Russets, Greenings, Newton Pippins, Ribston Pippins, Baldwins, Kings and in some years Wealthies.

He urged more careful packing for export, and explained the auction system followed in the Old Land. He had found British brokers dealt fairly and said the Commission men were often blamed for market conditions and condition of fruit for which they were not responsible.

Mr. Johnson recommended more educational work among fruit growers. The Department, he said, had done good work, but it was important that members of the House should get the public interested. Production and handling costs were not properly understood. An education campaign to increase production in the vicinity of urban centres would also be desirable.

He stated that 33 cars of apples sent to him from Norfolk to England netted $3.77 per barrel. This was not a high figure, he admitted, but important in that otherwise the price of apples sold at home would have been less. The latter netted $4.17.

The first step toward failure is landing a soft job.

wife? No. What a life the poor woman lives. It would have been better for her to have been put in a shroud on her wedding day than to face the hell upon earth that is her life. What do the children hear? Nothing but blasphemy and curses, with most likely the foulest oath. Poverty reigns because the husband will not work. I am not preaching to discourage you, but to warn you against the pitfalls. To the young man I say, 'Do not touch the sparkling glass, because ruin, remorse and sorrow follow in its wake. The perfume is the breath of death, its sparkle is the eye of evil.'"

"The last concupiscence upon which the devil plays is avarice, an inordinate desire for money. 'It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than it is for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven.' Now, why is it easier for the impossible to happen than for a rich man to enter heaven? Not because of his riches, but because he forgets God and his duties towards God. The rich man will rob his neighbors solely for love of money. He makes it his God. Look at the wild speculation going on in the exchange today. It converts them into nothing more than gambling houses. The press and the politicians promise to do anything for money. Judas paved the way to his suicide by his love of riches, which he gained while acting as treasurer of the money obtained by the apostles and betrayed his Master for 30 miserable pieces of silver."

This charm you can keep

Youthful radiance of complexion! Millions of women have learned this simple way

The fresh softness, the radiance of youthful skin need not be lost as the years accumulate. Clever women guard this charm—keep it—today.

This simple method does that for millions of women. Now you may use it—and keep that school-girl complexion.

You need only do this

Cleanse the skin regularly, authorities say, to keep your complexion lovely, radiant, youthful.

But beware of harsh cleansing methods. They injure skin.

Wash thoroughly with Palmolive Soap—each night before retiring. Rub the creamy, foamy lather well into the tiny pores. Rinse—and repeat the washing. Then rinse again.

Then—if skin is dry—apply a little cold cream. That is all. Skin so cared for is not injured by cosmetics, by wind and sun, or by dirt.

The simple, correct way

You cannot find a more effective beauty treatment. Because Palmolive Soap is blended of rare palm and olive oils—famous for mild but thorough cleansing qualities since the days of Cleopatra. And it is inexpensive.

Be sure you get Palmolive—which is never sold unwrapped. All dealers have it. For just one week try this simple method and watch results. You will be astonished, delighted!

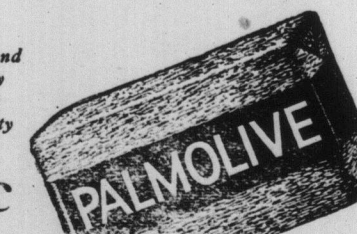

Use Palmolive for the bath, too. Thousands do—it is so economical.

SEWING CIRCLE GOSSIP.

There was some discussion at the Sewing Circle this week about the time of day when coffee tastes best. The preponderance of opinion was that coffee tasted best at breakfast-time; which is probably right. A poll of the members was also taken as to which is the richest-tasting coffee on the market today. The vote was unanimously in favor of LUXOR ORIENTAL COFFEE, which is sold by all first-class grocers in half and one pound tins.

The Economy in Clothes Made To Your Measure

After buying the cloth the custom tailor shrinks it in cold water and dries it in the open air. This process is repeated twice. It is much slower than factory methods where steam and forced heat drying processes are resorted to—but it adds to the life and wearing satisfaction the suit will give you. Every thread will retain its spring and resistance qualities. The natural elasticity has been neither cooked nor baked out. After the cloth has been properly shrunk, every inch of it is carefully inspected for misweaves and knotted threads. If any are discovered they are marked and that portion of the cloth discarded. Such imperfections are rarely found in present day weaves, but that does not eliminate this careful inspection. Nothing is left to chance. The custom tailor is a craftsman and jealous of his craft.
