The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol ➡ (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole ➡ signifie "À SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

Secretary's Office, Penetanguishene, Oct 6th. 1886.

DEAR SIR:—

No doubt you have wondered at the delay in receiving some report of our meeting of September 14th. It has arisen from the fact that I was waiting for several arrangements to be completed of interest to our Association, and therefore did not care to address you before. To those who were not present I am happy to report that the meeting was a very successful one, and will no doubt be fraught with great benefit to ourselves. I shall not here detail the proceedings of the meeting as you will find them in the number of the Law Journal which will reach you by concurrent mail. The reason for sending you this copy is that, as you will see by the published minutes of the meeting, Mr. O'Brien, the Editor of the paper, gave a short address at our meeting and made a suggestion as to placing the Journal within reach of the Division Court Clerks and affording us space for discussion etc. This offer was afterwards referred to E. H. Duggan Esq., Clerk 10th. D. C., York, to confer with Mr. O'Brien in the matter, the outcome of which is that Mr. O'Brien has made us the following offer, i. e. If 100 Clerks subscribe the terms will be $4.00 per annum. If 200, $3.50 per annum, and if 300, $3.00 per annum, and it is in order to set before you a copy of the Journal that it is sent you. I have no doubt that there may be some confusion as to what amount is to be sent, but I think that can be obviated, by each Clerk who receives this circular at once advising me of his intention to take the Journal or not. I shall then, within a reasonable time, send to Mr. O'Brien a list of those signifying their intention of subscribing, and in accordance with that list will be the subscription price asked by Mr. O'Brien. This is really the most practical way in which we can secure the use of an organ of the press, of weight with the public, which is a great desideratum to such an Association as ours. You will see, by the minutes that His Honor Judge Sinclair did not care to reply fully to many questions submitted to him, as he was taken somewhat by surprise, but made a liberal offer to reply to questions submitted to him through our Association. Since that time he has made a still more liberal offer which is this: He is about to publish his work on the D. C. Act of 1886, and he has offered, through our 1st. Vice President, to give one chapter in that work, entirely to replies to enquiries made by the Clerks as to matters touching the tariff and procedure, and in accordance with this I would ask any Clerk, who has enquiries to make in reference to these subjects, to at once formulate them to me and I shall then send them forward to His Honor Judge Sinclair. In sending these enquiries, I would request my brother Clerks to confine themselves entirely to questions pertaining to the application of the present Tariff, and to procedure under the existing Act, as it is only on such subjects that we can expect any reply. I would ask that any such queries should reach me not later than the last day of this month.

I regret to say that there are yet a large number of Clerks who have not responded to our calls on them to become members. To such I would again appeal to at once become members. We are not trying to push the interests of any one individual Clerk, but we are working for the general benefit of the whole of the Clerks of the Province, and it is hardly fair that a small portion of them should bear the brunt of the work, both financially and physically. If we cannot have your attendance at our meetings (and to many it is almost an impossibility to attend) we can at least have the encouragement of your support, and the knowledge that the efforts being made are appreciated by the whole body of the Clerks in Ontario; and there is not the slightest doubt, that, if we work together as a united body, there are many changes and improvements that we can obtain, of vast benefit to us all. Trusting we may have a hearty response from all.

I remain,

Yours truly,

H'Y JENNINGS,

Sec.-Treas.

To

M. R. Kiffin Esq.
Div. Court County Windsor

P. S.—I beg to hand you herewith copy of Constitution and By-Laws as adopted.
