THE STEEL STRIKE.

No Material Change in the Conditions Today.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 12.—The total number of men now on strike in the neighborhood of 60,000. Both sides have settled down for a determined struggle.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 12.—At 9 o'clock last night the Riverside steel workers at Wheeling voted to work until September 7, in observance with their thirty day agreement with the National Tube company. There are 500 men at work in the Wheeling district mill of the United Steel corporation. The strike situation early today is briefly summarized as follows: Lindsey and McCutcheon plant of the American Steel Hoop company. The first all lighted and the management declares that the plant will soon be in full operation.

Republic Iron Works—No effort is being made to start the mills. Mills Iron Works—One watchman on duty for the company says he knows nothing of any intention to start and no men are expected to go to work today. The fires in the furnaces are banked.

Painters' Mills—Fires were lighted this morning but no men appeared to work. It was expected this plant would resume. Police alone on guard. Everything quiet.

McKeesport National Tube Works—Work has been much delayed by the striking of 250 boys at the blast furnace, which quit at midnight, but all the men are at work.

Mopangahela Steel Works and Furnaces, McKeesport—No effort is being made to start work. Fires are all banked.

Boston Rolling Mills, McKeesport—No fires in furnaces. No effort to start. National Rolling Mill, McKeesport—No men appeared to go to work. Fires are banked.

Monessen—No effort to start the steel mill was made this morning. Bellairs, Ohio—An attempt will be made to continue operations.

Newcastle, Pa.—No change in the situation here.

Wheeling, Va.—River-side plate and tube mills are tied up. The report that the steel mill will quit September 7 is confirmed.

GOT OFF WITH $30,000.

CHICAGO, AUG. 12.—It leaked out here today, says the InterOcean that one of the Chicago banks was recently withdrawn out of the city in a skilful manner. An effort is being made to keep the matter secret, and not even the name of the bank is given. It seems that a depositor of several years standing appeared a few days ago in the bank president's office with a draft of London for $2,000 which was perfectly good. The depositor informed the president he desired to deposit this London draft, and at the same time to check against it, presenting his check for $30,000 for the president to OK. The latter put his initials on it and thought nothing of it. The depositor then went out into the bank and deposited the London draft, and on the following day presented a check for $30,000, which was paid, the teller knowing that amount was to his credit on the books. Later in the day he again appeared at the window and presented the check for $30,000 which had been initialed by the president. This check was also paid. Nothing more has since been seen of the depositor.

BRIEFS BY WIRE.

A new state loan of $10,000,000 will it is expected, be negotiated by Denmark shortly. The government hopes for the assistance of American and French bankers in making the loan.

Upon the occasion of the anniversary of the death of the Danish astronomer Tycho Brahe, which occurs Sept. 21, King Oscar, of Sweden will give a great fête on the island of Hven, formerly the Danish site of Brahe's observatory. Danish royalties and many prominent persons are expected to take part in the celebration.

Mr. Potter, wife of Hon. William A. Potter, former minister to Italy, died at Kennebunkport, Maine, last night.

John Tanner, 33 years old, father of Henry "Fisher," an actor now with the Foxman Co. in Buffalo, was run over and killed by an automobile in New York late last night. The driver of the automobile was arrested. Four-fifths of the town of Farsund, Norway, on the North sea, has been destroyed by fire. The church, post office, state bank and schools have been gutted. About 1,200 people were rendered homeless.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, August 12.—Since Sunday night Robert Stephenson and Mrs. Lillie Kispert have been dead in their room at 125 Cutter street and when the police broke open the door early this morning, murder and suicide were disclosed. It is believed that Stephenson shot Mrs. Kispert in the temple, while she was asleep and then put a bullet through his brain. Nothing was found to indicate a reason for the crime.

A SHOCKING CRIME.

NEW YORK, August 12.—Another case resembling in some of its details the notorious Jennie Bosccheter assault case, is reported from Passaic, N. J. The alleged offense is said to have been committed late on Saturday night. On Sunday morning Irene Jones, 19 years old, was found in an unconscious condition at the door of the residence of her sister, Mrs. Bertha Tracy. As a result of a story told the police, warrants have been issued for seven young men, some of them having excellent family connections.

LAI D TO REST.

Dowager Empress Buried With Solemn Pomp at Potsdam.

England's King and Queen in Attendance at the Mournful Pageant.

POTSDAM, August 12.—The remains of the Dowager Empress Frederick were interred today beside those of her husband, in the mausoleum of Friedenkirche, near Potsdam.

LONDON, August 12.—A memorial service was held today in the Chapel Royal, St. James palace, simultaneously with the funeral of the Dowager Empress Frederick at Potsdam. Among those present were the Duke and Duchess of Argyll, Lord Salisbury, the United States ambassador, Mr. Choate, Sir William Vernon Harcourt and Lady Harcourt, Lord and Lady Wolsey, Lord Lansdowne, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, A. J. Balfour and many members of the diplomatic corps. After the opening sentences of the services were chanted a royal salute was fired in St. James park, followed by firing of sixty minute guns.

POTSDAM, Aug. 12.—Between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning the bells of the churches in Potsdam were tolled, with two intervals of rest. Shortly before half-past ten Emperor William, the other members of the imperial family and the visiting princes assembled in the royal hall at the Wind Park railroad station. The high court officials, military dignitaries, Count Von Buelow and other members of the cabinet, Knights of the Black Eagle and the members of the reichstag assembled at 10.25 o'clock in an adjacent hall.

Soon after ten o'clock the special train ordered by the emperor to bring the invited guests from Berlin reached Wild Park station. Among the guests the foreign ambassadors made a striking figure, wearing their highest official uniforms. The United States ambassador, Andrew D. White, however, was attired in simple black.

At 10.30 the signal was given that the funeral train was approaching. Conversation, which had hitherto been carried on in suppressed tones, entirely ceased, and an air of great solemnity possessed the company. The train rolled in slowly and noiselessly. Twenty non-commissioned officers of the Dowager Empress Hussar regiment, No. 2, came forward and bore the coffin to the royal hearse, which had in the meantime arrived from the new palace. Chamberlains and courtiers with royal insignia participated in the transfer of the coffin from the funeral car to the hearse.

Slowly and solemnly the procession formed. Eight staff officers seized the reins of the eight splendid black horses attached to the hearse and four Knights of the Black Eagle took hold of the points of the pall cloth, while twelve royal chamberlains held the supports of the canopy covering the hearse and four other courtiers held the cords from the corners. Flanking these to the right and left were two staff officers and twelve captains. The procession formed in the shady avenue extending from Wild Park to the new palace. The public had the only opportunity to see the procession, but not only the slightest view of it, although immense crowds had assembled upon the streets intersecting the road at right angles, and the people strained their necks to get a glimpse of the cortege.

The following was the order of the procession: A squadron of the Gardes Corps. A squadron of the Dowager Empress Hussar Regiment.

The Band of the Leib Infantry Battalion. Courtiers, Clergymen and Pages, and the Physicians of the Dead Dowager Empress. The Officers Corps and a delegation from the Dowager Empress Frederick's Foreign Orders.

Gen. Von Der Planitz, with the Louise Order and the Cross of Merit for Women, and Lieut. Gen. Von Lese, with the Star and Chain of the Black Eagle. Gen. Von Walckers, bearing the Dowager Empress's Ensigns.

Numerous Courtiers as Marshals. The Dowager Empress Frederick's Court and Pages. The Hearse. Emperor William. King Edward.

Crown Prince Frederick William and the other Royal Princes and Princes. The Foreign Ambassadors and Ministers and Personages from the Emperor's and Empress's Embassies.

Two Noble Marshals and Princes not belonging to the Royal Family. The Imperial Chancellor, Count Von Buelow, and the other Members of the Cabinet and Government Officials. Members of the Order of the Black Eagle. Members of the Reichstag and of the Diet. The Burgomasters of Berlin and Potsdam.

The procession moved through the tree-arched avenue to the new palace, and then through the park to the Sans Souci garden, all of which were closed rigidly against the public, though a few newspapers, which were admitted by card. When the procession started the bells in the Friedenkirche (Church of Peace) began tolling and all other bells in Potsdam joined in. When the procession reached the mausoleum adjacent to the Friedenkirche, all those in the procession in advance of the hearse took up positions opposite the church. When the coffin was borne across the threshold of the mausoleum, the cathedral choir from Berlin intoned a solemn strophe. Only the emperor and, suppress, the other members of the imperial family, King Edward, Queen Alexandra and the other members of the British royal party and the princes of the highest rank entered the mausoleum, which is small. Dr. Peratus, the chaplain, offered a prayer, after which the choir again sang. When their majesties left the mausoleum the procession dissolved. The empress, Queen Alexandra, and the other ladies went in carriages direct from Wildwood to the mausoleum.

THE GREY WOLF.

The grey wolf comes again; I had made fast the door with chains; how has the grey wolf passed. My threshold I have nothing left to give; Go from me now, grey wolf, and let me live! I have fed you once, given all you would, given all I had to give. I have been prodigal; am poor now, the table is but spread With water and a little wheaten bread; You have taken all I ever had from me. Go from me now, grey wolf, and let me live! The grey wolf, crouching by the boiled deer; Wait, watching for his food upon the deer; I see the old hunger and the old thirst of blood. Rise up, under his eyelids, like a flood; What shall I do that the grey wolf may go; This time I have no store of meat to throw; He waits, but I have nothing, and I stand Helpless, and his eyes fasten on my hand. O grey wolf, grey wolf, will you not depart This time unless I feed you with my heart? —Arthur Symonds, in the Saturday Review.

The Montreal gathering will present to the Acadian gathering on that occasion a celebrated painting by M. Beau, the young French-Canadian artist. The picture was exhibited in the Canadian section at the Paris exposition and created a most favorable impression.

AN AGGRESSIVE SNAKE. (Moncton Times) Mrs. Andrew Fitzsimmons, while picking berries near a fallen log in a field back of Cherryfield one day last week, was attacked by a large snake, which would itself around her body. Mrs. Fitzsimmons removed the intruder as speedily as possible and betook herself to another part of the field, but the snake followed her and renewed the attack, winding itself about one of her legs, from which it was necessary to remove it by force. Fortunately Mrs. Fitzsimmons was not bitten, though she describes the snake as one of unusual size.

REV. DR. SIMPSON. The Gifted P. E. Islander Raises $40,000 at Old Orchard.

The audience which attended the Christian Alliance meetings at Old Orchard Sunday was as large as ever seen at an Old Orchard campmeeting. The annual collection for foreign missions, always an important and picturesque feature of the alliance, midsummer convention, took place, Rev. Dr. Simpson, the alliance leader, being in charge in the forenoon, and Rev. G. N. Eldridge conducting the solicitation in the afternoon.

The total amount of cash handed in during the forenoon and afternoon session was $1,255, of which $500 was raised for the special purpose of paying the expenses of the return of Rev. Martin E. K. Vall and wife to China, where they labored several years prior to the outbreak of the Boxers.

Many of the contributions were announced as being for the support of orphans in the famine district of India. Dr. Simpson having stated that it costs about $15 each to maintain the 500 children in the alliance orphanage in India.

The pledge cards, upon which the contributions were announced, read: "In dependence upon God, I will endeavor within months to pay."

SENeca CHIEF'S LAST BATTLE. A Pretty Canadian Squaw and a Bottle Caused the Trouble. A special to the Buffalo Express from Gowanus says: Jesse Jamison, for years the recognized chief of the Seneca nations on the Cattaraugus reservation and one of the most prominent men in this part of the United States is dead.

Richard Crouse, another red man high in the councils of the Indians is in a precarious condition and his son Dick is under arrest as the result of a bloody fight which took place about six miles from here on Thursday night. It is said that other Indians who have the reputation of being quiet are arming and further trouble is expected.

The federal authorities in Buffalo have been notified that a man who has yet no official has arrived to take charge of affairs. The trouble arose over a woman. Some weeks ago a pretty Canadian Indian girl arrived here from upper Canada. Jamison immediately engaged her for his housekeeper. Jamison went on a spree a few days ago and chased the young woman out of his house. Crouse consented to take her in until affairs quieted down. When Jamison heard that the girl was at the Crouse home he procured a gun, went to the house, broke open the door and began firing into the room where Crouse and the girl were sitting.

Crouse was shot in the ear and above the heart. Crouse's son ran to his father's assistance. Jamison ran. Crouse and his son gave chase for a short distance and they returned. But the old chief had fought his last battle. He was found several hours later with his body fairly riddled with bullets and weak from loss of blood. He died in a few hours. The elder Crouse is not expected to live and his son has been arrested.

Valuable Property Sold—Mill Destroyed by Fire. Adams, Burns & Co. have sold their milling property at Burnville to John Robertson, of the Robertson hotel, Bathurst. This carries with it nearly one hundred miles of timber limits.

The lumber mill at factory of John McDonald, builder and contractor, was destroyed by fire Saturday evening with virtually all their contents. The men left the premises at six o'clock and about a quarter to seven the fire was first noticed here from an industrial building in the vicinity of the engine room which was then a mass of flames. The fire brigade promptly responded to the alarm given and worked bravely to save the buildings, but the flames spread with such rapidity that they were powerless to cope with the devouring element. In a short time the main building was enveloped in flame. The loss is $10,000, no insurance.

BLONDI'S BOW-LEGS. (New York Sun) Men with bow legs seen at Little Meils and thought to be Blondin.—Boston Herald. The bow-legged men will organize an army and hunt for Blondin if the police don't find him pretty soon. Meanwhile, those in New England or elsewhere who have crucial curves must bear suspicion meekly. In this imperfect world most legs must have their share of imperfections. The only complete series of perfect mauls and legs in the world is the Putnam Phalanx of Hartford, Conn.

Mrs. Andrew Fitzsimmons, while picking berries near a fallen log in a field back of Cherryfield one day last week, was attacked by a large snake, which would itself around her body. Mrs. Fitzsimmons removed the intruder as speedily as possible and betook herself to another part of the field, but the snake followed her and renewed the attack, winding itself about one of her legs, from which it was necessary to remove it by force. Fortunately Mrs. Fitzsimmons was not bitten, though she describes the snake as one of unusual size.

COL. DENT'S VISIT. Date of His Tour Here to Buy Horses for British Army.

The following programme for Col. Dent's visit to this province in connection with the purchasing of horses for the Imperial Army has been arranged:

Fredericton—Thursday and Wednesday, 20 and 21 August, J. A. Edward, Esq., Queen Hotel, agent.

Woodstock—Thursday and Friday, 22 and 23 August, W. F. Glidden, Esq., liverly stable keeper, agent.

St. John—Saturday and Monday, 24 and 25 August, J. B. Hann, Esq., liverly stable keeper, agent.

Sunday—Tuesday and Wednesday, 27 and 28 August, Geo. H. Barnes, Esq., agent.

Moncton—Thursday and Friday, 29 and 30 August, Ferdinand Thibodeau, Esq., Riverside Hotel, agent.

Chatham—Saturday, 31 August, and Monday, 2 September, Chas. Sargeant, Esq., of Newcastle, agent.

Anyone having horses for sale answering the descriptions which have been already published in Col. Dent's letter of 13th July, will please bring them to the agent's place of business at the nearest point, and on the dates set forth.

If enough horses are offering during this, the first visit of Col. Dent to New Brunswick, it will no doubt lead to the establishment of a permanent purchasing station in this province, which would be of great benefit to breeders generally. It is to be hoped that persons having horses for sale will make an effort to bring them to one of the points as outlined.

As regards price, the colonel says he is unable to fix positively, but probably between $90 and $100 for cobs and from $100 to $150 for cavalry and artillery.

YOUNG MAN MISSING. An old gentleman by the name of Robert McArdie applied at the central police station today for news of his son Patrick, who came to the city on Thursday from his home on the Black River road and has not since been heard of. The father says that Patrick, although he had plenty of work to attend to at home, spoke of going to the west on the harvest excursion to look for a job, but does not know whether he carried out his intention or not. Patrick had been drinking, and the father thought that perhaps he had been arrested and was now in jail, but no such name appears on the police books.

MISS SHERWOOD DEAD. Miss Edna T., daughter of Rev. Wilford Sherwood, of St. Mary's, formerly of Midland, Kings Co., died today at her father's home after four weeks' illness of typhoid fever. She was 22 years old. She leaves four sisters and three brothers, one of the sisters being Mrs. Edward Pyne, of St. John, west. Her body will be brought to Midland tomorrow for interment.

Scar, Elbridge Grant, Edwin Ashford, C. H. Stealing, Andrew D. Macpherson, James Torrence, George Holmes and George Tapley will represent Nashwaak lodge of Marysville.

THE KNIGHTS.

Richard Coeur de Lion and Sussex Preceptories Arrive Today

From Montreal and Quebec and Arrive Met By the Encampment of St. John.

Social Festivities This Afternoon.

The first of the Knights Templars from Quebec to attend the meeting of the Sovereign Grand Priory arrived today. St. John commandery, Union de Molay preceptory and Malta preceptory, in all about fifty strong, met at the Masonic temple and under Colonel Markham, constable, Fred. C. Jones, constable, and C. Phillips, constable, marched to the depot headed by the 62nd regiment band, and there train at waiting the arrival of the train.

The music and the appearance of the St. John knights attracted a large crowd to the depot, and when the train pulled in about 7 o'clock the place was completely filled and the streets and sidewalks were lined with people to see the visitors.

Representatives from Richard Coeur de Lion preceptory of Montreal and Sussex preceptory of Sherbrooke were on the train, and were welcomed by the officers of the St. John encampment.

Then headed by the pipes and drums of the 62nd Royal Canadian Company of Montreal, under Pipe Major Mathieson the visitors marched past the St. John knights. There were about 60 Templars in the party, and they were accompanied by twenty-three ladies.

With the 62nd band and the St. John Templars marched out of the depot and up Mill, Dock and King streets to the Royal Hotel, where the visitors will stay. The St. John men drew up here until the members of Richard Coeur de Lion and Sussex preceptories had entered the hotel.

They then marched on to the temple. This afternoon there will be a sitting of the grand master's council.

While the train bearing the Knights Templars from Upper Canada was on its way down, Murray, the drummer of the band, accidentally fell from the train at Sherbrooke and narrowly escaped being badly hurt. He was missed shortly afterwards and those on the train did not know what had become of him until a telegram was received saying that he had been taken to the Sherbrooke Public Hospital, suffering from a sprained ankle.

The social festivities commence this afternoon with an "at home" given by Mrs. John V. Ellis at 219 Princess street. In the evening there is to be a reception at Freemasons' hall, Germain street, to the visitors by the two bodies here. The mayor of St. John, who is a member of the order, will speak to the visitors. He will be Dr. Walker, commander of the Encampment of St. John, and F. A. Jones, preceptor of Union de Molay Preceptory. Tomorrow morning the visiting ladies will be shown the city by the members of St. John. In the afternoon there will be an excursion on the river in the steamer Victoria, the members marching to Indiantown to take the steamer. Tea will be served at John Vanvor's, after which the return will be made to the city.

The Priory will meet on Wednesday and Thursday mornings for the transaction of business, when reports will be received from the grand master, the deputy grand master and the provincial priors.

When the proceedings here are over, the Montreal and Sherbrooke men proceed to Augusta, Biddeford and Portland, where they are the guests of the city by the members of the order. They have formally invited the grand master, Dr. Walker, Em. commander of the Encampment of St. John, and F. A. Jones, preceptor of Union de Molay, to be their guests.

MISS ETHEL STEWART. Well Known Young Lady has Been Missing for Two Weeks.

Miss Ethel Stewart of this city, formerly of Woodstock, traffic manager of the C. P. R., has been missing for the past two weeks and her whereabouts is a matter of extreme anxiety to her friends. Miss Stewart was a nurse in the 62nd regiment, and during the war suffered from nervous prostration, and six or eight weeks ago left there to rest and recuperate. She was staying with her aunt, Mrs. Knight, of King street east, and two weeks ago went to visit a friend in the evening. In the friend's house she spoke of feeling much better, and declared her intention of returning to the hospital next day. She left the house about ten o'clock to return to her aunt's and has not since been seen or heard of. A young lady friend of hers from Boston, who was visiting in the city, was recalled to Boston by the death of her mother, and it was thought that Miss Stewart had perhaps accompanied her, but no trace of her has as yet been discovered. Her friends have made enquiries at the hospital, Woodstock, McAdam and other points at which it was possible or probable she might have remained, but have as yet been unable to learn anything at all about her.

RECORD PRICE FOR SPRUCE LOGS. The annual sale of unmarked logs took place at Fredericton today. The hemlock, 33,640 feet, went to the Boom Co. at $4.50.

D. E. Babbitt & Son, of Gibson, got the county 78,471 feet, at $3.25.

W. H. Murray got 22,820 feet of pine at $3.50.

John E. Moore bought 69,992 feet coned spruce, 48,948 ft batten logs, and 27,410 ft merchantable at $1.90. The highest price ever paid at one of these sales. These logs will cost Mr. Moore about $12.50 landed at St. John.

TO ADVERTISERS!

Advertisements in the STAR are requested to send in copy not later than TEN O'CLOCK IN THE FORENOON, in order that the matter may be set up in time for the day's issue.

THE TELEGRAPH. Makes a Violent Attack on Police Magistrate Ritchie.

The Telegraph this morning created a sensation by an editorial charging Police Magistrate Ritchie with having written an article in Saturday's Freeman relating to police affairs, and in which it says he "gives vent to his spite against the Telegraph, the local and Dominion governments." Such phrases as "flagrant offence," "Indian warfare," "treachery and black-hearted ingratitude," "evidence of baseness," and "anonymous penny-a-liner," are applied by the Telegraph to Mr. Ritchie, whom it also charges with seeking to "stir up the religious passions of our citizens by inciting creed against creed."

As the police magistrate is not in the city the Star was unable to interview him today concerning the matter. The Telegraph's article has caused a great sensation in police circles.

THIS WAS NO JOKE. A "horror of great darkness" fell upon the suburbanites who went out of town on the late train on Saturday night. One man who got off at Quispamsis and started to cross a field to a house, and was not quite sure of his way, became entirely lost. The darkness was so intense that he could see nothing. Rain was falling, and added to his discomfort. In the end he simply had to give up, and seating himself on a stump and stayed there till dawn.

At Nauwigewauk, a man lost his reckoning entirely after getting away from the depot, and was only able to get his bearings by the aid of a friendly flash of lightning. Then he stumbled on and literally felt his way home. Other men tell similar stories of the trouble they had in making a homeward course through the inky blackness of the night.

MARRIAGE ANNIVERSARIES. A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farris, of High street, called in last evening and helped them celebrate the seventeenth anniversary of their marriage. The evening was very pleasantly spent in games and music. Mr. and Mrs. Farris were presented by their friends with a number of handsome presents.

The home of Officer Patrick Killen, on Queen street, was last evening taken possession of by a number of the friends of that popular officer and his wife. Officer Killen happened to be out on duty at the time, but he was sent for. The occasion was the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Killen's marriage, and they received from their friends tangible congratulations on the event. The evening was spent pleasantly.

YORK POINT RAZOR CASE. The Hennessey razor case, which has been adjourned from time to time, has been still further postponed. David is in jail and Garrett, who got the cutting up, seems unwilling to appear in court against his brother. He is said to have been seen walking about the city, but every time the police notify him to come to court he is not well enough, and cannot come up. David perhaps has inside information that the charge against him will not be pressed very strongly, as he seems quite content in jail.

CANOEBING PARTY. The canoeing party organized by L. E. D. Tilley arrived safely at Rothery yesterday afternoon after a delightful trip on the St. John river and its tributaries. The party left this city on Saturday, 3rd inst., for Woodstock. The party consisted of Mrs. Stephen Todd, chaperon; Misses Howland, Robertson, Thompson, Smith, Vassie and Winnie Hall, and Messrs. Tilley, Arthur Hazen, Drogan, Harry Harrison, Fred Taylor and Dr. Howland. Three Indian guides accompanied the party.

SCOTCHMEN ENTERTAIN. Clan McKenzie visited the Provincial Lunatic asylum last evening and rendered a selection of vocal and instrumental music. Dancing (Highland Fling, waltzing and schottisches) filled in the evening after the close of their varied programme of Scotch songs, recitations and pipe playing. The members and guests were boundlessly entertained, coming home on the last trip of the ferryboat.

THE STAR IS ALL RIGHT. "I put a want ad. in the Star last Thursday," said a citizen this morning, "and on Friday I got what I wanted. And it cost nothing. I couldn't ask any better return than that—could I?"

The reason the Star is so popular is that the reader does not have to wade through columns of matter of no earthly interest in order to find what he or she wants or appreciates.

NAUGHTY GIRLS. Those two young ladies who sauntered through King square yesterday afternoon certainly looked rather sweet and quite harmless, but was it not taking a liberty, even for pretty young maidens, to stroll across the grass and pluck flowers from one of the beds? Perhaps it was only a few, but example, young women—example.

IT WAS NOT THE STAR. The Star learns that a report has been industriously circulated to the effect that in his allusion to an evening paper last Sunday Bishop Casey meant the Star. In its own defence this ambitious journal is constrained to say that the paper his lordship alluded to was the Globe, from which, he said, his congregation had reason to expect better treatment.

A WILD RUNAWAY. A horse belonging to Robert & Co., grocers, of Main street, had quite a run this morning. The driver was delivering an order on Douglas avenue when the animal took fright and started down Main street at a speedy clip. It came to Paradise Row, turned the corner without any difficulty, sped along Mill and Dock streets and on Water street managed to get clear of the express wagon, which was proving a hindrance. Freed from all encumbrances, excepting some parts of the harness, the brute went along Water street to Reed's Point, making directly for the American boat wharf, and might now be half way to Ectoport only that Officer White happened to be there and caught it. The whiffle tree of the express was broken, but no other damage done.

COURT NEWS. In equity court today in the case of Gallagher v. City of Moncton his honor ruled that the referee's fees, Frank Sweeney, should not be paid until the whole work was concluded and the reference disposed of. M. G. Teed, K. C., for plaintiff; W. B. Chandler, K. C., for defendant, and E. R. Chapman for Sweeney.

Copp v. Bannister will be argued this afternoon at 2 p. m. in supreme court chambers. In the matter of Ira Cornwall's estate an order was made in chambers, proving the security and settling the appeal to the supreme court of Canada. A. W. Ewing for Mary D. S. Cornwall, and J. R. Armstrong for Halifax Banking Co.

In Jack v. Bonnell, Ewing applied for further time to give notice of appeal to supreme court of Canada and to perfect case on appeal. Judge considers. W. B. Wallace, contra.

In Northrup v. Perkins, a review case in county court chambers, Mr. Raymond for defendant asks to have verdict set aside. Mr. Tweedie contra. Court considers.

The Carleton Cornet band will play tomorrow evening on the balcony of the Victoria hotel, King street, beginning at 8 o'clock.

TOURIST ITEM. (Baltimore American.) Mr. Gettitt—Well, that place where we boarded this summer advertised the truth, anyway.
