After the Campbells had kept that large tract of valuable that for sifting in his office attending lands hung up for years they sold it to his own private practice. Mr. Mc-Tweedie, Pugsley and Dunn agreed to the transfer. What was the consideration for that which these men signed? It was their way of doing business and the opposition would have to put up with it. The government had by this act robbed the country of upwards of $200,000. Mr. McInerney was then called for and he responded in a stirring address of considerable length. He regretted that the lateness of the hour precluded a lengthy discussion of the government's record just now, but later on there vould be ample opportunity There were so many things to discuss in connection with their administraso many wrongs. Considerable time was needed for their consideration. The thing to do was to arouse the righteous adignation of the people that they were being injured. What nust be done was get into condensed tion as form the feeling of opposition. But the government brought into operation all sorts of influences. Discussing the Muskoka deal, Mr. McInerney spoke of Mr. Mott as one of the honest public men of the province. The long term leases were moved for in the legislature by Mr. Tweedie, and he moved another resolution calling for a condition in connection with every license requiring the limits to be every year and an average cut taken off. It was on that condition that the determination was made to issue 25 year leases. But it had not been carried out. The Muskoka Company paid

TRURO, Sept. 27.—Morton McNutt, reproperty all those years without doing anything in the operating of it. The lumbermen of Restigouche demanded that under the circumstances it be thrown open to competition. The Campbell people sought to transfer the lands to Mr. Shives and Stetson, Cutler & Co. The crown had no right to allow this transfer, but they did it. Mr. Mott declared that he had evidence which would prove that the Campbells or the Muskoka Company cleared up $200,000 by the transaction. The evidence was complete and ample that such was the case. The Telegraphy. $25,000 for license fees and stumpage they would be called together to select that such was the case. The Telegraph delegates through the secretary, Mr. way conserved these lands for this term of years and now the north shore would reap a big benefit from the operation which would soon begin. Would it not have been better to have had the lumber taken off from year to year, which would have kept the mills busy and the people of Restigouche employerals present he wished to say that he ter gone against their own policy, but as a result of that fact they would be able to conduct their campaign with lots of money. THE MARITIME FARMER, SUSSEX, N. B.

In the Methodist general conference at Winnipeg two questions of great in-terest to the denomination have been discussed and settled. First is the term of the general superir which remains eight years. Following is the report of the discussion;

GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT'S TERM.

The question of the general superintendent's term was broached in the committe on itinerancy. It commended a memorial praying that the term be made four years instead of eight. Dr. J. J. Maclaren, K. C., Toronto, said the chief officers of the conference were elected for your years, and it had been the opinion of the committee that fixing the term at eight years might prevent the conference electing a competent officer who might not be capable of filling the duties for eight years.

"I am surprised at the very slender reasons that have been adduced," said Rev. Dr. Sutherland. "We began in the first place by having one for a term of four years and one for eight years. It is always a dangerous thing to tamper with fundamentals of the constitution unless there is very strong rea-

Rev. Dr. Williamson, Burlington, recalled that the eight-year term had been fixed at the time of union as the condition upon which the Methodist Episcopal church would enter, and the members of that church had suppos it would be permanent. The desire for change was merely sentimental; there was not the slightest necessity for it. Rev. Dr. Read, St. Stephen, N. B., said the tendency was increasing year by year toward the principle that each general conference should not legislate so as to tie the hands of the succeeding one. Rev. Dr. Williamson-Why were these reasons not stated at the time of the union? Dr. Read-I was not there then.

Joseph Gibson, Ingersoll, said provision was made in the union for any constitutional change at any time, therefore it would not be unfair to the M. E. people so long as it secured the required majority. He yielded to no one in his admiration for the present general superintendent, but at his (Dr. Carman's time of life they had to consider whether he would be able effi-than four years more. Rev. Dr. Ross thought conference was justified in looking ahead in framing this legislation. At present no personal question was involved; in future there might be; hence they should settle the question now when all was peace and harmony. He contended it for long terms might actually deprive the church of the services of some this. He thought everyone had his valuable man. If a man had good qualities he need have no fear of not Rev. A church of the dimensions and importance of the Methodist church, he said, should not hesitate for financial reasons to take such an important step. Rev. E. N. in the discussion, which must be very painful to the chair. Rev. Dr. Carman-The chair is wooden. (Laughter.) Mr. Baker favored the appointment of three superintendents, which would avoid one-man power, and would locate them respectively at Toronto, Montreal and Winnipeg. Rev. Mr. Dobson, Windsor, N. S., and Rev. Dr. Griffin, Toronto, opposed the increase in the number of superintendents, the latter going so far as to say: "If you leave it to me I would have none." (Laughter.)

J. T. Moore, Red Deer, who had submitted the original report, spoke in favor of Dr. Gundy's amendment. CHANGES VOTED DOWN.

Rev. Dr. Carman ruled that it was a constitutional question, and threeourth majority would be necessary to change the present law. On a vote by show of hands both amendments were lost, neither receiving twenty votes. The item in the report favoring the four-year term was lost by 105 to 103 on a standing vote. Dr. Allison also moved a lengthy amendment in a similar strain. Mr. Alkin's amendment was lost by a large majority on a show of hands.

The same fate met Mr. Rankin's

WINNIPEG, Sept. 16.—The Methodist general conference disposed of a large amount of business today, the principal item being the election of chief officers for next term. An outstanding feature was the re-election by a large majority on the first ballot of Rev. Dr. Carman as general superintendent for the next eight years, after having occupied the post of head of the Methodist church in Canada ever since the union, nineteen years ago.

Another important election was that of Rev. Geo. J. Bond of Halifax as editor of The Christian Guardian, in succession to Rev. Dr. Courtice, whose health is unfortu-nately far from vigorous. Mr. Bond has been for the past eight years editor of The Wesleyan, the Methodist paper at Halifay

EDITOR OF THE GUARDIAN.

The election of an editor for The Christian Guardian consumed a good deal of time. On the first ballot 233 votes were cast, but there was no election, Following was the result of the vote: Rev. A. C. Crewe, 53; Rev. G. J. Bond, 52; Rev. Dr. Ross, 22; Rev. Br. P. Bowles, 23; Rev. Dr. Ross, 22; Rev. Br. Williams, Rev. John McLean, 2; Rev. Dr. Ryckman, Rev. John McLean, 2; Rev. Dr. Ryckman, Rev. E. E. Scott, Rev. Dr. Williams, Rev. W. R. Young, Rev. Dr. Cleaver, Dr. Allison, 1 each. On the second ballot there were 244 votes cast, but the highest number, 109, received by Rev. G. J. Bond, was not sufficient, to elect. Rev. A. C. Crews came next with 92, and Rev. Dr. Courtice third with 23. The third ballot was also inconclusive, but on the fourth ballot Mr. Bond secured 121 to Mr. Crews' 112, out of a total of 233.

Town That Has the Worst Mail Service in Canada.

John Linton, whose funeral took place yesterday afternoon, was a lieutenant in the Salvation Army, and eight years ago went to Charlottetown, P. E. I., where he had great success. Then he also had a very severe illness and his life was despaired of, but he recovered and worked again in the S. A. until six years ago, when he met Captain Peach of Nova Scotia, and they were married. On account of his health, Mr. Linton left the army service and settled down in Fairville, where he conducted a fruit store and restaurant on Main street. David Linton of Silver Falls, is father of the deceased. The funeral services were largely attended, and conducted by the Methodist minister and Salvation Army. The burial took place at Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Wm, Barnhill was very badly hurt in St. John a few days ago by a truckman, running into her carriage and upsetting it. She was thrown between the wheels of the carriage. Mrs. Long, who was riding with her, with great presence of mind, threw herself to the opposite side of the carriage and saved herself from falling. Mrs. Barnhill will be confined to her house for some time.

It is a remarkable fact that Fairville only has one mail per day. The mail coming from the west reaches here about noon, but the mail coming from the east does not get here till the following morning. The evening mail found that the water which disappears is only local, and brings nothing from from the many mountain regions is not takes two days to get mail from Moncton, Sackville and points east, and yet the mail gets into St. John in the afthe mail is carried by here for St. John with fertility. at night and then brought back by the night train to St. John seems strange. If a letter reaches Fairville in the noon train requiring an answer to St. John there is no way to get it there before the next morning, as there is no mail to the city between the moon trains, except by way of Fredericton Junction, to connect with the night train from the west. DROUGHT IN AUSTRALIA The People Still Suffering from a Great Evil That Has Continued for Years. Mr. Bray, U. S. consul-general at Melbourne, writes that the long continuance of the drought has so far diminished production that the purchasing power of the commonwealth has an extract from one of the agricultural papers which says that the position of the country will soon be very critical unless rain relieves the distress. The drought has maintained its pitiless hold upon the country for years. In the State of Victoria, the districts north of the dividing range, are parched, and the outlook for the harvest, which is due in a few months, is ominous. The situation is still worse in the back country of New South Wales and Queensland. Stock is perishing and many squatters, as the ranchmen are called, have no hope of saving more than a remnant their animals. Large areas of grazing lands in Queensland have not a sign of greenness. Still the work of extending irrigation in the highland regions of inner New South Wales and Queensland is going steadily on. Wherever artesian wells are yielding a large supply of water there are today fertile oases amid the deserts of unproductive land. There is one peculiarity about irrigation in Australia; very little of it is derived from running streams, and irrigation improvements are, therefore, very different, for example, from those

The work began in 1881 and is today being pushed more vigorously than ever. The greatest centre of artesian wells is a vast region in Queensland, north of the sources of the Darling River. Along a line which extends north, northwest, south and southwest in the form of a half circle are over 360 wells, ranging in depth from 100 feet to over 3,000 feet. The quantity of water from these wells is variable, the majority of them yielding at least 100,000 gallons each every day. Some of them yield one, three and four million gallons a day. In fact, the artesion waters are used more to supply the millions of sheep and cattle with the drink they must have or perish than to spread over the grain fields and fruit farms. It remains to be proven whether vast areas of the continent may be reclaimed for farm the fourth. The course will be from crops by filling irrigation ditches with artesian supplies. MR. MOTT'S REPLY

To the St. John Subsidized Organs of the Government

A Plain Statement of Facts for the Consideration of the Electors of Restigouche County.

To the Electors of Restigouche County Gentlemen:-Since the publication of my card to the Restigouche electorate I have had my attention called to certain editorials, notably those of the Daily Telegraph and the Gazette (of the government's chosen), attempting to justify the action of the government in the matter of the Muskoka limits and in some respects making personal reference to myself, all of which are alleged to be based upon data furnish. ed by Surveyor General Dunn.

The gist of their defence is that the Messrs. Campbell purchased in open competition some years ago and "that they fully complied with the terms "of their leases," selling out to Mr. Kilgour Shives, Mr. Stetson and others in detriment to whose transfer the government was asked to give the petitioner 50 to 100 miles of the lands That prior to the filing of the petition those parties had secured an option on the limits and purposes erecting a large mill and operating upon an ex-tensive scale (a picture which was painted and a tale that was told by the way of the Muskokas themselves years ago). The suggestion is made that the lands were operated, though the Gazette editor is somewhat halting in his opinion, his language being: "The lands were not extensively operated "although there was always more or "less revenue derived by the crown "land department from the leases."

They further contend that all the time the lessees paid their mileage and protected the lands from fire and trespasses, the latter to quote the language being "a fact of considerable importance on the Restigouche." It is cut a log. boldly asserted that no one suffered by the action of the Muskoka's and that after all it will be a good thing as the limits will now be operated to the full extent of the law. Then as though answer to the public wrong, I am informed with you that I have forsaken 1st. Because of the dismissal of my crown land scaler. 2nd. Because of the loss of the speakership; and

3rd. Because of my dissatisfaction with the electors for defeating my friend and partner, John McAllister, at the late Dominion election.

The official figures showing payments up to the time of the filing of the petition against them in March

MILEAGE. Mileage on applications. 1893 and 1894 $ 2.984 $17,21. STUMPAGE. ..1898 $ 582 70 .1900 3,734 78

The foregoing figures for stumpage were paid into the department from the operations of parties who were comlled to seek the lands of the Muskokas upon terms and were wrongfully credited to the Muskokas as of their eperations. They never cut a log. As to the petition referred to the government were not asked to give 50

to 100 miles of land to the petitioner but as the public will see by its prayer, they were simply requested to set up at public auction sufficient land meet existing necessity of practical operators. As to the vendees having secured an option upon the lands prior to the filing of the petition, I say distinctly it is not true. Before the agreement of sale was entered into the petition was filed and before the filing of the petition with the government, the Messrs. Campbell and the purchasers had by my own act full knowledge of the petition and the action that was being taken. If it be asked why then did the purchasers dare to proceed, I say that even while the matter was pending and as yet not fully argued, the vendees held the assurance of the government that no portion of the leases would be disturbed. Replying again to the above mentioned sugges tion that the lands were operated lean only again emphasize the assertion that the lessees never cut a log, and I challenge the surveyor general or any member of the governm show the contrary. As to the lessees protecting the lands from fire, etc., they have never kept a warden on then and the lands in all respects were left to the care of Providence, as they always had been. If no one suffered, as alleged, by the action of the Muskoka Lumber Company-a name by fides—a loud cry has been made by some of my constituents for nothing Every man his heirs and assigns forever suffers who calmly tolerates injustice, and in this matter there ha on which good government proceeds Practical operators are today debarred from obtaining their rights and a ris-

This is excellent reasoning and peculiarly applicable to the refusal of the government to approve the transfer of the pulp company at Chatham. In that case there was no cause whatever for their interference a transfer legally and equitably made hypothecating plant and limits for advances was refused approval until a pet class of local creditors of the company in whom the public department was in no way interested was paid Confidence in the enterprise the wanton act of the government that today the pulp mill at Chatham is idle and its citizenship bewailing its loss. In the Muskoka case there never was a compliance with the leases, which in itself conferred rights on the operating public and there was an existing demand on the part of that public which required the just intervention of the government. The Gazette pointedly emphasizes that exploded fad of the paternal care which the local government has had of the lumber trade.

It nicely echoes the catering voice of the government when it tells how in bad years, when prices were low, the department did not compel lessees to cut the amount called for under the

The fact is that within the past few years prices have not been low: deals have been selling at gradually increas ing rates, until today they are higher than ever in the history of the province, and yet the government never called upon the Muskoka Company to

In every possible way the idea of suspicion against the opposition is cultifriend the late Alexander McBeath as vated until the lumber interest is led to view the opposition as an enemy seeking to unduly tax it by an increase of rates, notwithstanding the public declaration of Mr. Hazen to the contrary.

The knell of that suspicion may as well be tolled in this campaign; the Now, in reply, which is fairly called opposition have not been so loud or se for in face of wilful misrepresentation vaunting in their pretensions to their especially where a subsidized press support, but the lumber trade may be is laboring hard to conceal the truth- assured of full protection in their I have to say that the Muskoka limits hands. As a supporter of the opposiwere purchased in 1893 at the upset tion I am led to believe and personalprice through a solicitor who today is ly pledge myself that no injury would not far from the centre of government be done them by the incoming governand that the Messrs. Campbell, beyond | ment. I believe that a policy can be the payment of mere mileage, have initiated that will enable this province never in any year during their holding to successfully compete with its siswith the terms of their ters in its crown land administration. Respecting title to crown lands, I see no reason why practical operators should not possess the lease containing an option to renew in perpetuity. It adds stability and is necessary to induce the investment of capital here in enterprises which is seeking investment and finding it in the other provinces of Canada by reason of the perpetual lease a lower rate of stumpage and a more liberal scale. Attached to that lease there should be-must necessarily be-the option of the crown cause and where it is justified, upon compensation to the lessees. The utmost that a government can do is to insist upon the reasonable operation of the lands in the interest of the people, and the so-called small operator is as much protected if not more so under the perpetual lease as under the twenty-five year term. I am prepared to guarantee there will be no increase of the present stumpage rates under Mr. Hazen's leadership, but on the contrary I believe a reduction to 75 or 80 cents is possible without depleting the provincial treasury to the extent of a dollar. Further, if possible, without neglect of the treasury, to reduce to the competitive figure of the Quebe government-65 cents per thousand-it should be done.

Whatever the reduced rate of stumpage may be the best opinion among lumber merchants is in favor of paying in a straightforward way a uniform stumpage rate and be absolutely independent of the government as against the present terrorizing contributory methods in vogue. Apart from the lease and the stumpage rate think the country would approve a policy which would give to every lessee a rebate of stumpage upon all staple articles for the market manufactured in this province. Too much raw material is being shipped from this country, and while it may be too radical a measure to prohibit its export we can well afford to encourage its home manufacture.

In these particulars at least the opposition leader is not adverse, and it is absurd nonsense for the government press to boom the expired fad of Tweedie falsehood to lumber benefits.

I have left to the last the persona references of my friend the surveyor general. Large Attendance, and a Bright Fi-Horse : Races.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Sept. 26 .- The best exhibition in the history of Carleton Co, closed this afternoon, having been a most unbounded success.

The attendance yesterday was between three and four thousand, and although the attendance today was not so large, the general result of the three days' fair has been as satisfactory as the most sanguine expected. The financial result is ahead of any previous exhibition in Woodstock, also the visitors were more, and they came from all parts of the province and the county of Aroostook. The horse races were as good as could be looked for, and were attended by a large crowd. The unfinished 2.29 race of yesterday was ended by Zeta M. getting first money. Lady Lumps came in first, but the judges awarded the heat as recorded, and that ended the race. The races for this afternoon were closely contested, but in each case were won in three straight heats. address upon phases of educational affairs with which his duties bring him n contact. At the outset he referred to the cases of youthful depravity which have obtained such a hold upon the public mind, as developed in the recent trials in St. John, and the vioations of law complained of by dents in the railway towns and villages of the country. These matters awaken the question as to what, if legislature when they left it to the anything, the schools have to do with members for a vote, though the true them, and whether they can do anything to prevent their recurren Boys of tender years are found guilty of serious crimes and infraction of the laws, and it is learned that they resort to all sorts of schemes to avoid attend. ince at school. These may be merely coincidences and may in no way mark the trend of school work, but they do indicate that something is needed to nake the schoolroom more attractive and a more desirable place for boys to attend. He believed that the schools are doing better work, that more pupils are going to school, and that the product is better than ever before But such circumstances as those referred to prove that there is still much room for improvement. He regretted that so few parents visit the schools and thereby testify their interest in the work of taechers and pupils. There is an all too common idea prevalent that school is a place where children are prepared to earn a living for them-selves, and that having left school there is no need of any further interest in its affairs. He strongly urged the ultivation of the social side of school life, the constant visitation by parents and the building up in the heart of the children a love for the place and its associations which would bring them back from time to time, or if this were not possible, at least to bring up to the memory in after years associations which ever wrought for good in the

"Learn, my son, learn as much as you can, so that you won't have to work, like I've had to do," is the advice of many a parent to son or daughter. That is the surest way of raising a crop of criminals. They seem to have no idea that the acquisition of knowledge is only a step in the building up of those other principles of goodness and righteousness which alone bring true success, by producing men and women of character and no bility of soul. There is no place outside the home which has such an influence for good, if rightly conducted as the public school. It has been truly said that teaching is a difficult and complex art. The purpose of the teacher is to fashion, direct and inluence the lives of the pupils. This is the prize and the reward which the eacher must seek. The examination test is not the true test of efficient work, but the profession of wise counsels, high thoughts, true words, and noble deeds, which shall make a virile race who with Solomon have learned that "wisdom is the principal thing," and of the Great Teacher that to those who "seek first" the highest and noblest things, all these "other things" of wealth and wordly prosperity, shall be added.

The address throughout was mos practical and earnest, and made a strong impression on all present.

John March spoke with regard to the recently made statement in the court at St. John that "God was excluded from the school curriculum" and showed how the regulations provided for the inculcation of the noblest virtues and adorning the life with the highest principles of truth, honesty, honor, and purity, while teacher and pupils were empowered and authorized to make every school house a temple and every teacher's desk an altar for the worship of God, and prayer for the coming of His Kingdom and the doing of His Will. If blame lay anywhere it was n neglecting to use those opportunities for moral and religious instruction, so imply provided for in the law and rens of the board of education. Dr. G. U. Hay followed with a very interesting lesson of Ferns, providing the members with magnifying glasses as he proceeded. This was preliminar to the nature studies of the afternoon, when the whole membership drove in teams between three and four miles to Frost's Mountain, which they climbed to the very top, securing as they went many specimens of Fungi, which was the topic of the study lesson given by G. U. Hay, Ph. D., as the teachers sat on the rocks and drank in the beauties of mountain and valley, lake, river, and stream, cultivated field, wide stretching marshes, and rolling wooded hills, which lay unfolded at their feet and before their vision. The day

nuch interest was awakened in this almost entirely unexplored field of scientific research, so rich in material for enquiry and paucity of established

On returning a public meeting was held in Agricultural hall at the Village, with the Rev. C. D. Schofield in the chair. About him on the platform were the chief superintendent of education, Dr. Inch, Professor W. Raymond of the University of New Brunswick, Inspector R. P. Steeves, F. M. Sproul, Rev. Mr. Shaw, S. H. Flewwelling chairman of the Village trustees James W. Smith, secretary of the Station trustees, and John March, all of whom had something to say in turn of velcome, or suggestion, or thanks. Professor's paper on "The Advantages of a College Education" was scholarly, logical, and gilded with many apt and well-told illustrations drawn from the writings and lives of men from Plate to Kipling-from Midas to Carnegiefrom Dives to Dana.

Mr. Sproul's words of wlecome were accompanied by an urgent plea for the general recognition of the status of the teachers, and for an increase in their salaries.

Chief Superintendent Inch gave a vivid description of the greatness and fertility of the Great West, whence he had just come, and then dilated on the ecessity for, and particularly in regard to, the all engrossing subject of the centralization of schools. This necessity and these particulars were dealt with in a thoroughly practical way, and the hope expressed that the proposed scheme, which has long passed its experimental stage, would be speedily taken up and extended until every poor school is replaced by a good and efficient central school in every parish in the province. Mr. Smith's earnest words in regard to the over-supply of teachers as a cause of low salaries, seemed to find an echo in his audience, as did his suggestion that the central authoritie should proceed to reduce the "crop."

Inspector Steeves, in eulogizing the paper of Prof. Raymond, took occasion to say that to secure well equipped colleges it is necessary to have well conducted and efficient secondary schools, and that if these schools make good college men, they also make good men who cannot or do not go to college and so these should have a large share of the people's interest and support.

Warden Flewwelling humorously re ferred to the interest he had taken in teachers by making one his wife, and extended his welcome to all from every part of the county.

Miss Florence Pritchard sang a couple of solos, and Mesdames Humphrey and Wilson contributed a sweet duet, Miss Lodge and Mrs. R. A. March officiating at the organ.

It was eleven o'clock when, after a vote of thanks to all workers, the large and enthusiastic meeting was brought to a close by singing God Save the King. It should be said that the several speakers were introduced by the chairman in very happy terms, and his references to local educational matters were heartily endorsed.

At His Counsel's Request Argument Was Not Heard Yesterday Morning and Court Adjourned.

Frank Higgins has been given another lease of time from sentence. At the request of his counsel the cate for hearing the argument for a reserve and imposing the sentence, was advarced and fixed at October 7th. When court opened Friday morning, there was but a small number of spectators in the building. After a short consultation with Hon. H. A. Mc-Keown, his honor Judge Landry took up the civil case of Murphy v. Kelly, but as one of the counsel was absent it was found necessary to postpone this

Daniel Mullin, K. C., appearing for the prisoner Higgins, stated that he had had no opportunity of looking into the legal aspects of the case, since he had received word from his honor, that a hearing would be given him that morning. There were four points on which he would base his argument for a reserve, but these he would not he able to go into at once because of his inability to look up the legal authorities on the matter. One of the points, too, was taken from his honor's charge, and the transcription of that he had not yet received. However, if Judge Landry so desired he would proceed to the statement of the points. His honor said that as the matter was one of great importance to Mr. Mullin's client he thought it would be. better to fix a later date for hearing the argument, and he named Tuesday, October 7th, at ten o'clock in the morning as the time.

Mr. McKeown and Mr. Mullin ex pressed themselves as perfectly satis-

"Passing of sentence," continued Judge Landry, "is deferred because of the desire of the prisoner's counsel that it should not be passed until after argument was heard. As no harm can be done by this delay I have agreed with the counsel."

Court was then adjourned until Tuesday, October 7th at ten o'clock in the orning, when argument will be heard in the Higgins case, sentence will be imposed and the matter of Murphy v. Kelly will be taken up.

In the meantime Higgins passes his time much the same as before the trial and shows little concern as to the outcome. Throughout the day he whistles and amuses himself in his cell, exercises in the corridor, eats and sleeps heartily, just as any other boy of his age outside of the shadow he lives in. Goodspeed's daily occupation is some what quieter and he is seldom heard about his cell. ACKER CREEK BRIDGE.

A correspondent writes :-I notice in a recent issue of the Sun that some of our provinces are not blessed with the best of bridges; in fact that quite a number of them are in a most deplorable condition, the result, I have no doubt, of a careless and extravagant administration. There are, however, other bridges than those mentioned in a previous issue, and it seems well to have the public know of these things. Only a week ago Rev. J. B. Daggett, pastor of the Free Baptist Church at Hartland, while attending his Sabbath appointments, met our government bridges. In crossing the bridge, the only possible way of getting over his circuit, and one very argely used, his horse broke through in such a manner that his hinder parts were hanging in mid air. The pastor got out and held his horse quiet, fearing every moment that the next strug-gle would precipitate the horse to the stream bed, 100 feet below. He called lustily for help, which fortunately was not far afield, and with much trouble the animal was gotten on to a firmer part of the bridge. In the struggle the horse, a valuable one, was severely bruised and injured so that he was laid up for some time; the carriage was badly broken; the great marvel s that man, horse, carriage and all were not thrown clear to the bottom of this unusually deep creek. There are certainly no thanks due the present dministration that the reverend gentleman is still continuing his existence on this planet.

members for the county, Mr. Daggett was informed that the government was not liable, and further that they had no money to pay for horses' broken legs. He was, in fact, given no satisection whatever.

We add that this bridge has been rotten for years; has received a few patches from the government, but has been openly called "dangerous" and dreaded by the large public compelled to use it.

It may be that the administration spending our money has no right to attend to the reasonable, even necessary wants of the people whose money ney spend, and whose votes give them their right to spend it. MR. MOTT AND THE GOVERN-MENT.

We publish this morning an address by Mr. Mott to the electors of Restigouche in reply to the statements made against him by the government organs. Mr. Mott contradicts some statements and refutes some arguments made against him. He finds it necessary to assure the lumbermen that the defeat of the Tweedie administration will not ruin New Brunswick lumbermen, an assurance which sug-If Mr. Hazen should form a governtry in the province, and the only one incial revenue. What Mr. Hazen ter terms than can be obtained by genuine New Brunswick lumbermen. There will be no room in the Hazen government for Ontario investors to lock up New Brunswick lumber lands, holding them for nine years without operating, getting a clear profit of $200,000 out of the transaction, all in violation of the law. If government lands gain in value $200,000 by keeping the axe out of them, that profit should remain with the people of New Brunswick who own the lands, and not go to outside speculators, who have retained mem-

THE TAN-YARD BOY.

On the day following the verdict in the Doherty murder case the Sun, referring to the criminal "organization" of boys, described by Judge Landry in the best intellects of the town. his charge, said: "We do not believe that the organization is at all large." The Sun was then of the opinion that probably not more than a dozen boys were included in the circle of those peronally concerned in, or even acquainted with criminal deeds or plans. That was probably too low an estimate. There is reason to believe that the circle of lads considerably advanced in amiliarity with crimes and offences against the law was a few months ago onsiderably larger than this. If yould perhaps be not far from the mark to say that more than twenty ooys have formed the various branches and groups described as an organization, though there was and is probably no formal bond of unity or assoclation among them. A close inquiry the possession of revolvers or some other deadly weapon was not, until the murder of Doherty, an exceptional circumstance among these lads.

Since the murder a number of small robberies have taken place, and one of the boys accused has stated that he entered a shop and stole goods on the mitted. This offence was discovered and traced to the culprit in the course of the more important inquiry. By itself it might never have come to light, though it seems to have been gests the sort of local appeal that Mr. boys. In Sunbury county last Friday Mr. Hazen closed a series of effective pubhic meetings in the river counties. These gatherings in Victoria, Carleton and Sunbury were also addressed by Mr. Molnerney and by local speakers. The purpose of the leader of the opposition is not only to discuss freely wit the electors the character and conduct of the provincial administration, and to expose certain features and methods overnment, but to explain and defend his own policy and that of his colleagues as declared by the resolutions proposed in the legislature last

Children Cry for CASTORIA THE CONVENTIONS.

The opposition electors of the eastern parishes who met last Monday appointed a nominating committee to recommend a candidate. In Restigouche the same course was followed. This method was adopted in the St. John city convention, except that the committee on that occasion proceeded at once to make the selection and report the same. As the government does not appear to be bringing on the election immediately, the opposition can afford to take time enough to make careful and wise choice of candidates. It will, of course, be announced that the nomination was postponed either because there was a lack of available men or because there were too many aspirants. These reflections are not likely to divert the committees and the electors from the work they have in hand. It may be remembered that before the last federal contest, the opposition called a convention for Sunbury and Queens. Instead of at once making A Representative County Convention choice of a candidate the meeting delegated that task to a committee. The government organs easily discovered in this a sign of weakness and disorganization. These conclusions were somewhat discredited afterwards when the opposition carried the double constituency with a splendid majority. We see no objection to the same result in Restigouche and St. John county.

The New York Sun thinks that the British Government may yet be called to account by the United States for hoisting the flag of the Empire over the Island of Patos, off the coast of Venezuela. This island is claimed by Venezuela, and the New York Sun thinks that the United States must insist upon an impartial arbitration. The idea may be accepted with the suggestion that the Alaska boundary question be submitted at the same time.

predicting a greater success this year, troduced Hon. Mr. Farris. The commissioner was received with applause. He congratulated the peoole of Kings county on the magnifi how of products here shown. He also referred to the growth of the cattle and dairy business, giving the imiense total of butter and cheese raised in the county last year and forecasting an increased total. The present value of the importation of horses was touched upon and the belief expressed that a better grade of general purpose horses would be the result from the two horses now in the county. The actual figures of cheese manufactured in the province during 1901 was 1,887,370 pounds, of which Kings county produced 780,523 lbs. Butter was manufac tured to the extent of 542,626 lbs., and Kings county contributed to this 206,097 bs. The probable output of each of the present year would be 200,000 lbs more cheese and 100,000 lbs. more butter. In the raising of wheat, Kings county was not quite well up, only raising 12,781 bushels out of a provincial total of 478,836. Kent county was well to the front in this commodity, with 104,551 bushels. There were now 21 roller mills in operation, with a capacity of from 25 to 50 barrels per government was a magnificent success. stopped Oddfellows' hall was crowded to the : corded a most hearty reception and ber of electors was most favorable to tended her the opposition cause.

Previous to the public meeting a con vention was held in the same hall and was attended by some eighty delegates. Mayor A. E. Alexander was chosen chairman, and John Montgomery, sec retary. The convention decided to appoint a nominating committee to select candidates and report to a convention ne week hence. The following were appointed the nominating committee Ion. J. C. Barberie, Chas. Powell, Jas Wallace, John Moffat, John McLeod, Alex. Cook, Robert McNeil, Edward Sullivan, Edward Forth, Isaac Mann, John Dawson, jr., Alex. Robertson Nelson Bernard, Jas. Tardy, Alex. Maltais, Daniel McAllister, McMillan, Paul Doyle, James Lapointe, Louis Fournier, David Stewart, James McNeish, Mayor Alexander, Montgomery, Councillor J. Howe Taylor, County Warden A. G. Adams. Robert Stonge, Patrick O'Leary, Councillor John T. Vautour, G. G. McKenzie, R. W. Hamilton, John Gilbraith, Robert L. Duncan, W. M. Hamilton.

Mayor Alexander presided at the public meeting, which opened at eight clock. Michael McDade was the first speaker, and after referring to his former position of official reporter and his resignation from that position, he paid his respects to those attacking him in his opposition to the Tweedie Pugsley administration, and gave the electors an insight into the way Tweedie and Pugsley were manipulating affairs in their own interests rather than in the interest of any particular party. Mr. McDate's remarks were well received.

Hon. Mr. Mott followed, and was given a most cordial reception by his constituents. He proceeded at once to give his reason for opposing the preent administration, entering into an explanation of the Muskoka timber land deal. a matter which so vitally affects lumbermen and Restigouche in particular. Mr. Mott's clear and forcible explanation of his cause was losely listened to by the audience. He referred to the previous campaigns wherein pledges were made to protect interest of the lumber industry, and ably justified his course in opposing the government by pointing that so soon as the government refused to do justice to the lumber industry he felt called upon, in view of pledges to his constituents, to withdraw his support. He dealt at some length with the petition presented to the government with reference to Mr. Campbell's holding of lumber lands, and explained the manner in which it was juggled by the executive, showing that the transfer of land was approved by three members of the excutive only, while it was reported as having been approved by the full executive. Mr. Mott intimated his willngness to accept the nomination from the opposition or support other candi dates, but declared that in event of none being chosen he would put himself in nomination to give the people an opportunity to declare upon the O. M. Melanson, M. P. P. for West-

French. and afterwards briefly in English. He was proud to see a man of Mr. Mott's abilities have the courage of his convictions, and when he saw the government of which he was a supporter not doing justice to his constituents and the country at large to take his life in his hands and oppose them. He congratulated the elec tors of Restigouche on having such representative who would stand by his principles and pledges and go into opposition when the interests of the con stituency and country called upon him to sacrifice his personal interests J. D. Hazen, leader of the opposition spoke for over an hour and was given a rousing reception. He dealt with

The leader of the opposition reviewed the situation in masterly manner and in this, his first appearance before the electors of Restigouche, created a most favorable imsion. outlined the opposition's policy of econ-omy and retrenchment, and aroused the enthusiasm of the audience when he touched upon the lumber interests, laying down the policy of the opposition as one favorable to the greatest ssible encouragement to that great industry. Mr. Hazen's speech was characterized as one of the ablest ever heard here, and his clearly defined policy, especially with reference to the lumber industry, has undoubtedly gained many friends for the opposition in this section.

THE DOUKHOBORS

Gevernment Has Taken Steps to Rescue Them From Their Folly.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 23.—The reported fanaticism of the Doukhobor colony around Yorkton and their abandonment of live stock in pursuance of their strange religious belief that it is a sin to hold cattle or to use any beast of burden to assist in their lators, have not only been confirmed, but the government itself has taken steps to rescue the Doukhobors from their folly. Government agents have scized all the cattle, sheep, and horses which were turned at large by their owners, and the live stock will be sold at auction and the money so obtained will be used to provide for the Doukhobors during the winter months. It was some two weeks ago that an agent of the immigration department went into the district where the fanatics had left their live stock to run at large and rounded up the beasts. It is not likely that the sale at Fort Pelly will result in bring in any great amount of money, but the proceeds will, to a certain extent, go to relieve the starvation that will surely exist in the affected colony once the rigors

We go about from one place to another in search of something we desire, without success, and finally find it right at home awaiting us. A mining engineer out in Mansfield, Mo., tells of his experience with coffee.

He says, "Up to the year 1898 I had always been accustomed to drinking coffee with my breakfast each morning. In the summer of that year I developed a severe case of nervous prostration and I took several courses of treatment for it in Toronto, Buffalo and New York City without obtaining any permanent benefit.

One of the most trying manifestations of the malady was a condition of nervous excitement in which I found myself every day during the forenoon. It never occurred to me to attribute this to coffee until I read an advertisement of yours last fall describing a case similar to my own which had received benefit from the use of Postum Cereal Food Coffee, . I at once changed my breakfast beverage from Java and Mocha to Postum and the effect was nothing short of marvelous. After using it less than a week I was free from morning attacks and in six months all my nervous symptoms had disappeared. I have demonstrated the fact that by following your directions in making Postum Food Coffee any one can obtain as rich a cup of coffee from Posbrands, and may rest assured that they will escape the injurious effects of coffee and experience much benefit from

In reply to a Sun reporter the opposition leader said: Yes, we have had a most enjoyable trip and one that from a political standpoint. On Monday night last we addressed a splendid meeting at Grand Falls, which was presided over by P. G. Fraser, J. At Grand Falls we were the guests of Charles Curliss, who has recently built and conducts one of the finest hotels to be found anywhere in the province. Mr. LaForest has been carrying on a vigorous and successful campaign in Madawaska and feels con-

Carter spoke at the meeting briefly but forcibly. The statement in the Telegraph that Mr. Carter occupied the whole of the time to the exclusion of Mr. McInerney and myself was made out of whole cloth. He did not occupy over fifteen minutes. The meeting was one of the best I ever addressed. On the following morning the friends of the opposition held a meeting and decided upon holding a convention at Andover on Oct. 7. The general feeling is that neither Mr. els; Jessie Parlee, porridge set; Jas. The prominent position taken by Mr. Flemming in the legislature has greaty strengthened him in public esteem. and everywhere in Carleton, as in the other counties on the upper St. John, the reckless legislation and unwise expenditure of public moneys for personal purposes has greatly discredited the administration. Our final meeting of the week was that held at Sunbury county court house and was the largest I ever addressed in the county. The reception accorded Mr. Glasier and myself exeeded my expectations. Included in the audience and joining heartily in the applause were many liberals who have withdrawn their support from

At all these meetings the audience heartily approved of the opposition platform, the planks in favor of cheaper school books printed in our own province, the handing over of the by-road moneys to the municipalities, the secret ballot, a reduction in the controllable expenditures, and a progressive agricultural policy meeting with especial favor. All over the country we heard of neglect by the public works depart-ment of the roads and bridges, the statement being freely made that the roads are not now in as good condition as they were 20 years ago, and that bridges everywhere are in a dangerous and delapidated state.

I was especially pleased with the fact that wherever I spoke and went I found that Mr. McInerney's acceptance of a nomination in St. John wa regarded as a great source of strength to the opposition.

Before bidding the scribe good-bye
Mr. Hazen said that in all his campaigning experience he had never met with such a cordial reception from the electors as on his recent trip, nor addressed such successful meetings. He goes to Campbellton to be present at the convention this evening, and will a little later address meetings in all the northern counties.

COLONY LIFE.

Effect of Climate Overcome by Prope Food,

The necessity of pleasant, nutritive and proper food is highly appreciated in the Phillipines, particularly by Americans unused to climate and native customs in cooking. One of our soldier boys writes:-"In this land of bad food and disordere stomachs, a nearly fatal attack of malaria left my digestion for many months in such a state that food of any kind distressed me terribly. I suffered from the effect of drugs, but dared not eat. It was simply misery to live. The socalled remedies only seemed to aggra vate my sufferings.

Some friend suggested Grape-Nuts Food, and I gave it a trial. To my surprise and pleasure, it did all and more than was claimed for it. I am now, after using the food for 18 months, in good health; my digestive apparatus in perfect order, and I have long lost all feeling of pain or discomfort after eating. In fact, I live again. I would not be without Grape-Nuts for the world. It steel vessel of 672 tons and is owned is not only the excellent effect of your by W. L. Lovitt of Yarmouth. After a sumptuous repast the newly married couple were driven to Westfield wharf, where, followed by showers of rice and the good wishes of friends, they took steamer Hampstead for their

Popular Among Railroad Men

Because They Cure Kidney Disease, to Which Railroad Men are Particularly Susceptible-DR. CHASE'S Kidney - Liver Pills.

It would probably surprise you to know what a large proportion of railroad men use and endorse Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. For some reason or other, doubtless as a result of the jarring and jolting of the train and the necessity of being out in all sorts of weather, railroad men are very frequently sufferers from kidney disease. Conductors, engineers, brakesmen, firemen, as well as commercial travellers and others who go much by rail, find that when their backs ache and they feel the strain over the kidneys that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills bring quick and lasting benefit.

Mr. W. E. Berryman, conductor on the C. P. R., St. Stephen, N. B., writes: "I have been railroading for 23 years, and for 10 years suffered from a severe case of kidney disease and backache, a trouble common to railroad edy for all Summer Complaints, men. for Montreal and Quebec. This is not only the largest cargo of coal ever shipped from Swansea, but one of the biggest on record from the British Channel. It also exceeds in tonnage any coal cargo that has been sent to Western Hemisphere from the United Kingdom. Another vessel was oading 3,000 tons, and a third 4,000 ons, also for Montreal and Quebec. The Canadian commercial agent in South Africa, Jas. G. Jardine, writes to the department that he has visited Pietermaritzburg, Ladysmith, Newcastle, and Johannesburg. He says United States business men are making a strong bid for the trade of South Africa. He asks that Canadians exert the same energy. Mr. Jardine has already established communication between a large number of Canadian manufacturers and houses in South Africa. He says Canadians should advertise more. They ought to have a fair share of the lumber for South Africa as well as woollen wear, furniture, boots, shoes, organs, food products, lob-ster, herring, etc. There is a good chance for Canadian apples. A great quantity of machinery will be required.
