Lovers' Quarrel Causes a Double Tragedy

Asasola and His Victim Were Both Italian—Crime Occurred Near Scene of Holmes Murder

KINGSTON, Mass., Aug. 2.—After a lovers' quarrel today, Miss Vezzana, an Italian girl, living about half a mile from the centre of the village, was shot and killed and her assailant then committed suicide. It is believed that her persistent refusal led her lover to commit the deed.

Zecchi and the Vezzana girl went to the scene today, another Italian named Alfredo and a woman whose name is not known. Both of the latter came from New York. The quartet returned to Kingston about five o'clock this afternoon and all went to the Vezzana house, where the tragedy that followed, consisting of the girl's murder and her four brothers and four sisters, were away.

SVEABORG UPRISING SUPPRESSED BUT MUTINY SPREADS IN THE FLEET

Two Cruisers Hoist the Red Flag—Officers Murdered—Loyalty of Other Ships Doubtful.

Czar Flees in Terror from Peterhof, Under Guns of Cronstad, Where 100 Mutineers Were Killed. Revolutionists Confident in Spite of Reverses—Outbreak at Revel—General Strike May Begin Tomorrow.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—Previous reports that the mutiny at Sveaborg had been completely suppressed have been confirmed. It was reported that the mutineers were arrested. Although the mutineers at Sveaborg have been practically put down, the outlook is still black. The revolutionists, whose hands were suddenly forced by the premature rising at Sveaborg, are apparently undaunted at these initial reverses and intend to persist in their programme of calling a general strike on Saturday or Monday.

One of the leaders of the revolutionists with whom the Associated Press spoke last night boasted that the revolt would spread to the corners of the empire. His closing words to the correspondent were: "Now watch Revel, Riga and Libau."

CRUISER MUTINIES. The mutiny on board the armored cruiser Panayt Azova, off the Estonian coast, is fraught with enormous possibilities. The crew of this vessel rose and killed the commander and four officers. A dispatch from the American consul at Revel, saying that the Panayt Azova revealed that port this afternoon with the red flag at her masthead. Should this cruiser under the flag of the mutineers sail to the northward and appear before the main squadron in the Gulf of Finland, the loyalty of the crews of the vessels would perhaps be put to a stringent test than they could stand. Although the admiralty claims that the squadron of Sveaborg did not waver in its allegiance, there is something mysterious about the reports of the ship's actions which warrants the suspicion that all is not right aboard. Only two ships fired on the mutineers, the others remaining on the horizon as if the admiral were not sure that they could be depended upon.

REVAL, Aug. 3.—The cruiser Pamir has arrived in the roadstead here in the possession of the loyal portion of the crew. One hundred and fifty of the mutineers have been sent ashore and imprisoned. The remainder of the crew has been ordered to shoot the man down.

LOYAL SAILORS QUELL MUTINY. REVAL, Aug. 3.—The cruiser Pamir has arrived in the roadstead here in the possession of the loyal portion of the crew. One hundred and fifty of the mutineers have been sent ashore and imprisoned. The remainder of the crew has been ordered to shoot the man down.

ANOTHER SHIP HOISTS RED FLAG. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—The crew of the Russian cruiser Asa, which was sent to Abo, has hoisted the red flag. The vessel was left in the direction of Sveaborg.

OUTBREAK AT REVAL. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—Military disorders have broken out at Revel. Details cannot be obtained.

A GENERAL ASSASSINATED. WARSAW, Russian Poland, Aug. 2.—General Markgrafsky, chief of the gendarmes, was shot and killed by revolutionists today at Orzok, a summer resort situated about 20 miles from this city and much frequented by people from Warsaw.

HOW CRONSTADT MUTINY FAILED. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—Earlier accounts of the Cronstad troubles have been largely incorrect. The mutinous sailors never went to Fort Cronstad. The plan of the uprising was conceived by the revolutionary military committee. When the signal was given at 11 o'clock at night, the sailors, seppers and pioneers left their barracks and divided into three groups. The mission of the first and smallest group was to kill the officers, the second was to take possession of the arsenal, and the third was to seize the fortress and the train. The train crew agreed in advance to be ready. Revolutionaries cut the telegraph and telephone wires.

The horrible task of the first group was accomplished hurriedly and it then joined the second group, which was already on the bridge leading to Fort Constantine. This is the only fort directly connected with the main...

THE CZAR'S ADVANTAGE.

The mutiny in the great Russian fortress of Sveaborg will probably be suppressed. It was sprung prematurely, before complete arrangements were made for simultaneous uprisings planned elsewhere.

In France the revolution began at the centre of government and spread outwards. In Russia this process is apparently to be reversed.

When the real revolution begins, it will probably be preceded by a general strike on the railways and in the telegraph and postal services.

THE MAN WHO DRINKS.

The manager of the Toronto street railway is of the opinion that the recent decrease in the number of accidents on his line is due to his action in discharging all motormen who were addicted to drink.

The man who drinks has always been handicapped, but never so much as today. The positions of trust and responsibility open to him are continually growing fewer.

Under these conditions a man who, for the sake of so-called sociability or for the temporary exhilaration obtainable from strong drink, sacrifices money, time, health and clarity of brain, is a fool and the continually widening public appreciation of this fact is doing more for the cause of temperance than could all the laws the legislatures can enact.

HELSINGFORS, July 31.—A gigantic military conspiracy, aiming at the simultaneous capture of Russia's three great sea fortresses, Cronstadt, Sebastopol and Sveaborg, arranged by revolutionary military leagues, was prematurely sprung here last night by the attempt to arrest members of a company of seamen who had mutinied on account of the death of one of their comrades, alleged to have been due to a heart ailment.

Finally towards evening the firing ceased and the authorities announced that the barracks had been captured. At one o'clock in the afternoon the mutineers cleared the square in front of the palace facing Sveaborg and then drove the public from the entire waterfront for the purpose of preventing the sending of assistance from the city to Sveaborg.

ALL NIGHT UP A CLOTHES POLE

NEW YORK, July 31.—Henry Vogel, 37 years old, a clerk, living at 103 Ridge street, has been acting strange for several weeks. On Saturday night he slipped to the top of a forty foot clothes pole in the yard of his home and perched there until 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Three policemen, an ambulance surgeon and the crew of a truck company tried their best to get him down, but all failed, and it was only after the would-be rescuers pretended to leave the scene that Vogel came off his perch.

Three weeks ago Vogel disappeared from his home. A general alarm was sent out, but nothing was seen of him until Saturday night, when he was found in Edward Park. He went home with his father and went to bed at 9 o'clock. An hour later he got up and dressed and rushing out to the yard he climbed up the clothes pole like a monkey. He lay across the top and, striking his feet on a spy bar in descending, he saw the neighbors in the back, shrieking at the top of his voice that his demented son intended to jump from his lofty perch.

Father-in-law of the Union Marine station, who was called, sent an ambulance to Bellevue Hospital upon hearing that Vogel was mentally deranged. Ambulance Surgeon Lindsay, who responded, told the policeman that he could do nothing until Vogel was taken from his perch.

"When you get him down I'll come after him," said Dr. Lindsay, "but I don't feel like treating patients in mid-air."

Pfeiffer was reinforced by other policemen during the night, but none could hit upon a plan to capture Vogel. Several times the police took turns at climbing the pole and attempting to coax him into descending peacefully, but each failed. The policemen feared that he would jump to the yard at any moment and they proceeded to make the expected descent as early as possible. Mistresses were placed around the pole, but Vogel probably had made up his mind not to jump.

All night the police and hundreds of on-lookers kept watch and tried all sorts of dodges to get Vogel to the ground. Some of the women offered to marry him. At 4 o'clock yesterday morning the firemen of a truck company were summoned, but before they carried in a fifty foot ladder, the policeman saw that the coat was clear, the policeman having hid in a woodshed, and he slid down the pole. Then he started to run to the street. He was seized and bundled off to Bellevue Hospital, where he was put in the psychopathic ward.

THE REAL LORD HELD BY POLICE Was Arrested at Portland for Personating Himself

Man Wanted by Authorities is Accused of Bigamy and Many Other Crimes

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 1.—Lord Sholto Douglas, son of the late Marquis of Queensbury, is, according to the belief of the local police, the man held in custody here today by order of the Ashville, N. C., police, on suspicion of being the American known as "Lord Douglas" among other aliases who recently by the officers was arrested and for whom rewards aggregating several thousand dollars have been offered.

He was arrested at Sebago lake where he has been living since May when he came here from England as he claims, with Lady Douglas and her son, both of whom were with him when an officer called at the cottage they occupied. The Ashville officers have been advised the prisoner has convinced the local authorities that he is the real Lord Douglas and asked to telegraph instructions regarding him.

The man is touched for by his bankers here who state that he brought letters of credit and his drafts on a London bank have been honored. On careful inspection it also was found he does not answer the description of the bigamist beyond a slight resemblance. His age is 33 while that of the much wanted man is about 46.

He asserts he was with his family in England from November, 1904, until last May, whereas the crimes of the fake lord were committed mostly last year. A cablegram asking for confirmation of this was directed to Scotland Yard tonight, but an answer was not expected before tomorrow.

The purpose of the visit to this state was to benefit Lady Douglas's health, as they had heard much of the advantages of Maine's summer resorts. The Douglas family has been in the business of Maine's summer resorts. They have a large estate on the shore of Sebago lake where they might have been and were known there as Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Douglas.
