

TWO BAGGAGEMEN INJURED WRECK AT LUCAN CROSSING

Special Train, With Doctors, Ordered, and Victoria Hospital Notified—Car Wrecked While Backing Up.

At Lucan Crossing this morning the baggage car on the London, Huron and Bruce train, due in London at 10:10 o'clock, was wrecked, and Baggage men Flynn and Sneath were seriously injured, according to reports received at the Grand Trunk offices this morning.

From meagre information that could be secured at 10:30 o'clock, it was learned that the baggage car was wrecked when it was backed up. The car is believed to have gone off the track and the baggage men were caught by the trunks and heavy packages and seriously crushed. By some means the car was seriously wrecked.

A special train and doctors were asked from the Grand Trunk, and Victoria Hospital was asked to be ready for an operation.

At 10:45 the London auxiliary, with Superintendent H. Davidson and a party of London doctors, left for Lucan Crossing. The doctors had been called from Victoria Hospital on first reports of the accident, and left on the special.

HALF OF THE TOWN OF BROOK HAS BEEN WIPED OUT BY FIRE

Brook, Sask., July 26.—Fire, which broke out in a barn here, spread rapidly, and more than half of the town was wiped out. Two men are missing, and supposed to have perished. The damage is estimated at $150,000.

A special train brought the Kindersley fire brigade, and fully 1,000 people from the surrounding country were in town when the fire broke out.

Six horses were burned in the livery stable, which was packed to the limit when the fire started.

At a late hour the fire was still burning, and a change of wind threatens to destroy all the remaining buildings.

BOY HURT BY WAGON IN CRITICAL STATE

Garfield Smith Passed a Bad Night and Is Suffering Considerable Pain.

Garfield Smith, the young lad who was seriously injured about the head Friday morning when the wheels of a heavy wagon passed over his head, tearing his scalp, was reported to be in a critical condition at Victoria Hospital this morning.

WHITNEY GOVT. WAS TWO-FACED OVER LICENSES

Said Meaford Would Have None After August 1 To Get Votes.

Told the Liquor People Not to Worry if Conservative Was Elected.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Toronto, July 26.—It is a little too early to obtain sufficiently definite information about the renewal of licenses in Meaford, but there are indications that the issue may become a live one.

Whether or not Mr. Hanna and the license branch at the provincial secretary's department were right in renewing the licenses which they had formerly decided not to renew, there are some significant facts that should be known.

During the recent by-election in the constituency of North Grey, of which Meaford is a part, the Conservatives made much party capital out of the action of Mr. Hanna in refusing to renew the Meaford licenses although local opinion in the town had been defeated by a fraction of a vote less than the required three-fifths.

In the government press throughout the province and on all the government platforms in the riding it was stated that the decision of the department was final, and that there would be no licenses in Meaford after August 1. This action was loudly praised as being a definite proof of the Whitney Government's advocacy of temperance and of its generosity to the temperance voters.

Two-Faced Policy.

At this very same time, however, it was being sedulously whispered about the town that if the government candidate was elected the licenses would be renewed. This underground rumor secured for the government the support of the liquor men and of those favorable to the liquor interests.

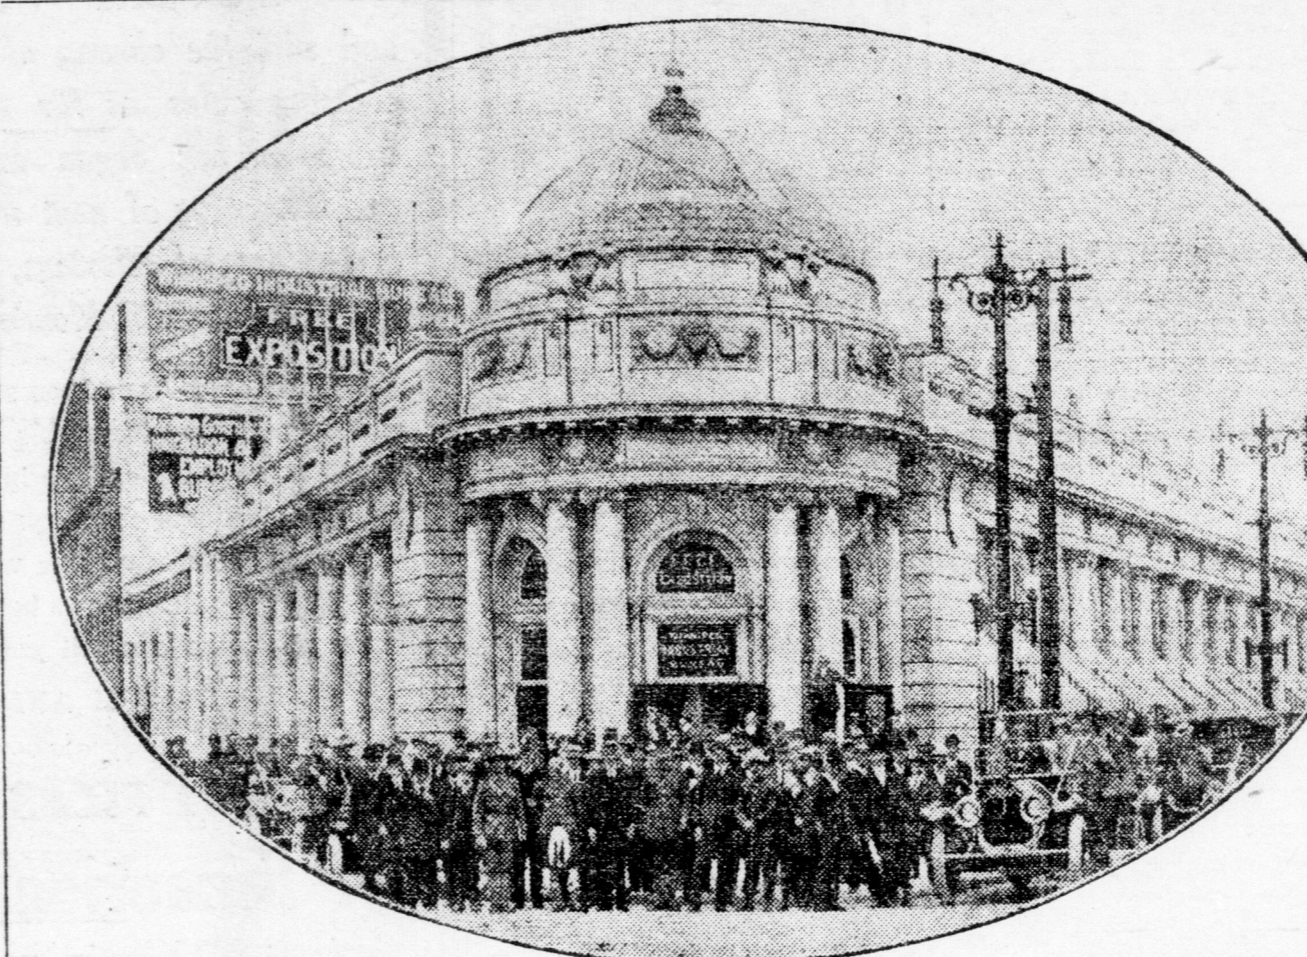

In Meaford, it is, however, the result was not favorable to the Whitney forces. What had been begun as a "whispering campaign" gradually became noised abroad, although not to any extent outside of the confines of the town and the temperance people of Meaford rallied against the Government to the extent of giving Mr. McQuaker and the Liberal party the unusual majority of 29.

People Want to Know.

Whatever the polling result, however, the people are being insistently asked today not only by temperance people but by those interested in Provincial politics. Why did the Government try to rid the town of the liquor traffic? and had the whispered rumor a basis in fact after all, in view of the decision of the department this week to renew the licenses?

Mr. Saunders, chief officer of the license branch, who officially gave out the Government's statement this week can not be saddled with the responsibility. Every person knows, of course, that no such important action would be taken except by order of the Government. In fact it is stated in the press that before Mr. Saunders made his announcement he had been closeted with Hon. W. J. Hanna and other members of the Government.

London Will Aspire To Have Such a Bureau

Headquarters of the Winnipeg Industrial Bureau, with industrial commissioner's offices, complete exhibition of local manufactured goods, and the natural resources of the west; convention hall (seating 5,000), lecture and banquet hall, with catering facilities, art gallery and museum, central farmers' market, etc., comprising probably the most progressive medium for civic development on the continent.

GET ALL LONDON PULLING TOGETHER, BUILD THE MADE-IN-LONDON EXHIBIT SAYS THE PUBLICITY COMMISSIONER

Mr. Gordon Phillips Announces His "Platform"—All Organizations To Be Banded Together for Community Betterment—Home Reunion For New Arrivals Planned.

Acting under instructions from the manufacturers' and entertainment committee of the city council, the new industrial commissioner, Mr. Gordon Phillips, has since his arrival in the beginning of the week been engaged in an active canvass of the administrative, financial, commercial, professional and educational interests of the city, with the view of establishing here a definite organization along the lines adopted with great success in western Canada and United States cities.

Most of the bodies, organized in the first place solely for the purpose of expansion and securing new industries, soon learned that the surest way to secure improved industrial and commercial conditions was by interesting and educating the whole community in cooperative plans for civic betterment. They discovered that the most practical method of bringing men, money and manufacturers, is to make the city not only a place in which to live, but a place in which to prosper.

It was recognized measures towards this end must be carried out, not only by a few enthusiasts, but by a representative organization all the available public-spirited and progressive citizens. This has been successfully brought about, in some instances, notably that of Winnipeg, by an affiliation of every civic organization of importance, with a central organization, usually known as the "Industrial Bureau," which annually appoints representatives, securing for the city the voluntary and practical assistance of individuals, whose training and experience render their service valuable in one or other phase of civic development, and together form an organization which having no axe to grind, other than community betterment, gives opportunity for right-minded people to "get together" and accomplish more than a little for the public welfare.

Standing Committees Named.

From the representatives of the various organizations are appointed annually standing committees, to carry on the various undertakings of the bureau. By this means, it is found possible to secure enthusiasts in the movements which the various committees instead of being cumbersome are split up in such a way that they fall on all.

The chairman of the standing committees act on the executive, to which matters of more than ordinary importance are referred.

In the work of aiding civic improvement, special situations, which call for special treatment, are best dealt with by special committees, but generally by the standing committees, can handle all the regular work. Some standing committees, which have been found useful elsewhere, follow, and it should be noted that the city will adopt only those improvements, which have proved worthy by actual experience and trial.

Home Reunion Association.

It is expected that at an early date London will follow the example of some twenty-eight cities of the Dominion in the establishing of a "Home Reunion Association." This organization which was originated by the Winnipeg Industrial Bureau, and later adopted throughout the Dominion, is designed to secure the settlement and immigration work now being accomplished.

By this means the wives and families of worthy British workmen, employed in this city, can be assisted to this country, to the mutual advantage not only to the husbands and fathers and their wives and families, but to the community in which they reside, and which supplies them with the necessities of life.

By these combined associations it is estimated that thousands of dollars annually are being saved for the Dominion, representing the money necessarily sent over the water for the maintenance of these families, as carried out elsewhere, this splendid and

REBELS RETIRE AFTER HAVING 1,200 KILLED

Chinese Are Taking Every Precaution to Protect All Foreigners.

Assassination and Intimidation Are Features of the Latest Revolution.

[Canadian Press.] Shanghai, July 26.—The fighting between the rebels and the Government forces, which was resumed at 9 o'clock last night, after fruitless negotiations for an armistice, closed at daylight today, when the southerners withdrew. Their attack again was unsuccessful.

The consular body is considering expelling Dr. Sun Yat Sen, Gen. Huang Sing and Gen. Chen-Nel, who are conducting the revolution, from the safety of the foreign settlement.

It is estimated that there are 100,000 Chinese refugees in these settlements, and many are removing from Nanking, Ku-Kiang and other Yang-Tze ports. The casualties of the southerners around Shanghai total 1,200. The losses of the northerners are much less.

Feeble Warfare.

[Canadian Press.] Peking, July 26.—Many of the picturesque features of the anti-Manchu rising of several years ago, and also the terrible slaughter of Manchus are absent from the present revolution, but assassination, intimidation, and robbery accompany, as before, what foreigners here consider very feeble warfare.

Quantities of ammunition are expended with little result because of the lack of training of the men in modern arms; armies march against each other and fire a few shots, and then negotiate or retire.

It is believed there is little patriotism in the ranks and that the soldiers fight primarily for loot or for pay. An indication of the character of the struggle is given in the central government's fear that Gen. Chang Hsiu-yuan, of the northern army, may transfer the allegiance of his 5,000 men to the rebels.

Careful of Foreigners.

The same careful regard for foreign life continues. Only a few of the old partisans talk of re-establishing Manchu dynasty. Manchus troops now form the chief guard of Peking, as well as of the court, which still remains here. The fighting on the Mongolian and Tibetan borders no longer attracts attention.

Has Serious Effects.

[Canadian Press.] London, July 26.—The defeat of the southerners at Shanghai, says the Peking correspondent of the Times, is calculated seriously to affect the prospects of the southern movement. Many rumors are current in Peking, indicating the probably early collapse of the movement unless the Nanking army shows unexpected spirit, and certain provinces prove their sympathy by immediate assistance to the southerners, the Government success is inevitable.

Col. Little Helped Organized Labor

Industrial Banner Refers to His Continual Efforts For the Workingmen of London During His Term in the Mayor's Chair.

The Industrial Banner in its current issue has the following on the late Col. J. W. Little:

It is with feelings of regret that the Banner learns of the death of Col. J. W. Little, ex-mayor of London. The deceased was one of the best-known businessmen in the Forest City, and what was more to the point, one of the fairest. He was a big man in every way, as the employees of the firm of Robinson & Little can attest, who were always treated with the kindest consideration and liberality. He was democratic in his disposition, easily approached, and ever ready to extend a helping hand to every worthy object, and his many acts of charity were performed in a quiet, unostentatious manner, most of them never coming to the notice of the public.

A Man of His Word.

The deceased was a man of his word, which fact on one occasion was attested when he held up a franchise to keep faith with organized labor. At the time he was mayor of the city, the London Street Railway Company desired to substitute electricity instead of horse power in the operation of its lines, and in order to do so it was necessary to secure the assent of the city to a change in the provisions of the franchise. The London Trades and Labor Council at the previous municipal election had taken advantage of the situation to demand that such consent should not be granted unless the company, which was working its employees as high as sixteen and even eighteen hours per day, was willing to agree to the insertion of a clause specifying that employees should not work more than 60 hours in any one week.

Stood by Labor.

J. W. Little was elected to the mayoralty, and when the time came to sign up the new franchise he refused to do so because the street railway management would not consent to the 60-hour clause.

At that time the editor of the Banner was secretary of the London Trades and Labor Council, and as secretary of the special committee having the matter in hand was carrying on negotiations with the city council. Col. Little maintained the stand, that as his word had been pledged to the workmen of London no legislation could go forward without the 60-hour clause being embodied therein, and on several occasions he visited the car works, where the editor was then employed, to see if any compromise would be acceptable to the labor interests, and

HAMILTON OLD BOYS DISCUSS HOME WEEK TRIP

Large Delegation Expected to Attend the Celebration at Ambitious City.

Hamilton Old Boys to the number of about forty, gathered in the Board of Trade rooms Friday evening, to discuss plans for Old Home week in the early part of August. It was decided to hold a private meeting of all Hamilton Old Boys in the Board of Trade rooms on the evening of August 2, at eight o'clock when final arrangements as to the date and time of going will be made. It is expected that a large delegation of former residents of the Ambitious City will make the trip. Each one of the members present Friday evening promised to bring another former Hamiltonian with him to the next meeting. A delegation of at least 100 is expected.

A deputation comprising the Board of Education of Hamilton stopped on its way to Detroit to visit the local organization and to extend a hearty invitation to re-visit the home town. Members of the deputations were Messrs. George Armstrong, W. J. Mahon, W. J. Clarke, E. E. Linzer, J. Foster, Col. Close, Capt. A. W. Penno, Major Yeates and others.

DEALERS PAY 320,000 FOR BLACK AND RED LIVE FOXES

One Consignment of Ten for New York Firm—The Prices Are Coming Down a Little.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Edmonton, July 26.—Two hundred and nineteen live foxes ranging from black silver to red crosses, valued at $320,000, have been shipped from Edmonton to points in the provinces of Ontario, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Alberta, and New York, and Pennsylvania since the opening of the season.

The most valuable consignment, which went forward recently consisted of ten pure black puppies, for which Kane Brothers, of Brooklyn, N. Y., paid $30,000. The animals were sent to Ogden, Penn., for propagation purposes.

Frederic M. Lee, president of the Western Fur Fur Company, who recently shipped 34 foxes, valued at $90,000, to breeders in Prince Edward Island, announces that he will not dispose of any more animals to eastern ranchers, having decided to establish a fox farm at Tees, Alta., where 40 foxes are now domiciled. He said:

Prices Decrease.

"Advice from eastern Canada are that prices of live foxes have decreased from 25 to 50 per cent, during the last thirty days. This slump is accounted for by large shipments through Edmonton from all over the northern country, between the Yukon and the province of Saskatchewan. There will be reaction next fall, when prices will be higher than they have been during the last few months.

Farmers Saving A Splendid Crop

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ingersoll, July 26.—The worries of the farmer have been increased. As was predicted recently wheat, oats and barley are ripening almost at the same time and the farmer has scarcely time to breathe.

Wheat cutting was commenced early this week on a general scale, but there is still considerable cutting to be done before the crop has been harvested.

The barley has reached the stage where it, too, is ready for the binder and next week oats will be ready.

With all the crops coming on at the same time the farmers are at their wits' end to know just when and where to start. The weather of the last two weeks has been almost unprecedented, and the growth has been phenomenal. From all sides reports of good crops are coming in.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF RAILWAY ON THURSDAY NIGHT'S CRASH

Superintendent W. R. Davidson, of the Grand Trunk, who has been out on the road for several days, gave out an official statement this morning, in which he declared that after a thorough investigation he did not think his company was in any way to blame for the collision Thursday night between a street car and a string of freight cars, when fifteen passengers were injured, two of the seriously.

The Foreman's Report.

Yard Foreman Eli Cake, in his report of the accident, says in part: "I was coading north on the inter-switching line with a string of seventeen cars on Thursday night, I was standing on the top of one of the cars near the end of the train. Before coming to Dundas street I signalled my mate on the other end to stop the train, which he did. The train stopped a short distance south of Dundas street and I got off. I walked across the tracks, and there being no street car close I gave the signal for the train to start again. We then proceeded at about three miles an hour. The first I knew of the accident was when the train was almost over the crossing.

No Street Lights.

We left the cars in the exact position they were in after the smash at cover.

THE WEATHER.

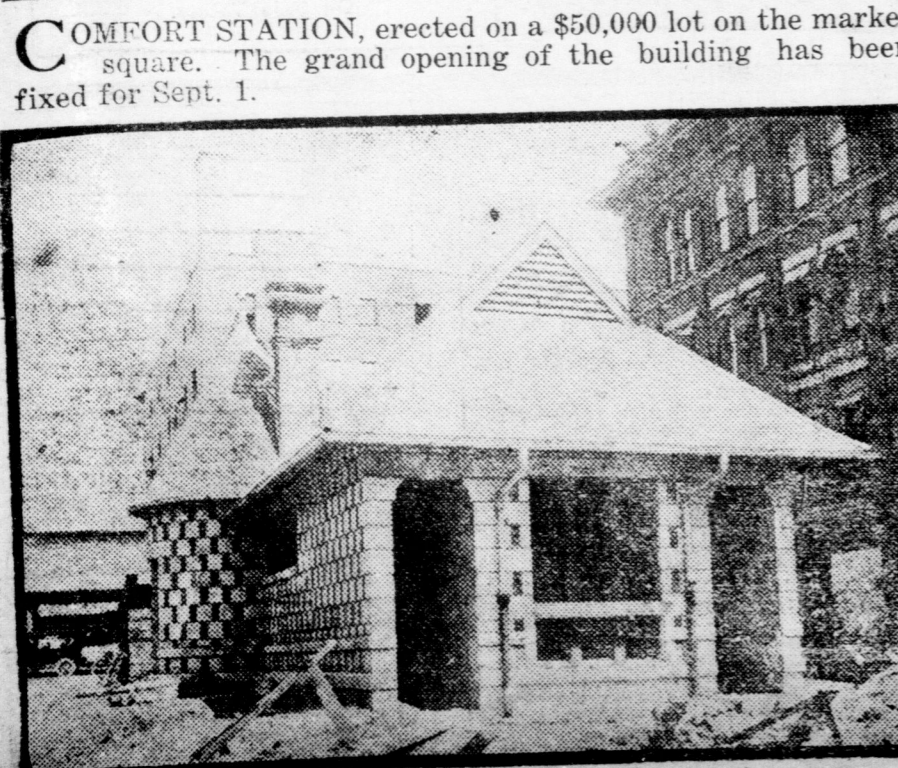

LONDON TEMPERATURES. The highest temperature yesterday in London was 76; the lowest, 46.

FINE AND WARM.

Meteorological Office, Toronto, Ont., July 25.—Moderate depressions exist tonight over the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the Western Provinces, while a widespread area of high pressure covers the Great Lakes and Eastern States. The weather has been mostly fair and moderately warm from Ontario to the Maritime Provinces. Some local showers have occurred in Saskatchewan and Alberta, with a change to cooler. Minimum and maximum temperatures: Victoria, 56, 70; Vancouver, 58, 74; Kamloops, 70, 84; Calgary, 52, 62; Edmonton, 56, 64; Battleford, 50, 74; Prince Albert, 58, 78; Moose Jaw, 52, 60; Regina, 55, 66; Winnipeg, 58, 84; Fort Arthur, 48, 72; Parry Sound, 46, 74; London, 45, 76; Toronto, 53, 77; Kingston, 54, 76; Ottawa, 56, 72; Montreal, 58, 70; Quebec, 54, 70; St. John, 56, 68; Halifax, 62, 74.

Precipitations.

Lever Lakes and Georgian Bay—Southernly to easterly winds; fair and moderately warm. Lower St. Lawrence—Moderate to fresh westerly winds; fair and moderately warm.

COMFORT STATION, erected on a $50,000 lot on the market square. The grand opening of the building has been fixed for Sept. 1.

AROUND THE CITY HALL

Will Extend Mains. The arrival, Friday, of a carload of water pipe means that work on the waterworks extension to the newly annexed districts will be started almost immediately.

Oil Sticks. Still another complaint is registered about the street oiling. This time the object is to "dry" the oil. It is claimed that oil-laden dust particles from the newly oiled thoroughfares fly in the air.

Sunday Cars Next Year. While no organization has yet been perfected to promote Sunday cars, it is expected that the commission will see a Sunday car service in London.

Free Houses Again. Free houses for the employees of the waterworks at Springbank is a question that is causing no little uneasiness in the breasts of some of the commission's employees.

May Move Out. Because of the extremely crowded quarters he is now forced to occupy, industrial Commissioner Gordon Phillips may move his office to the board of trade rooms under the temporary city hall is ready for occupancy.

Will Eliminate Delays. Though there have been unexpected delays getting the plan of the Barber Asphalt Company ready for the laying of asphalt on the pavements, the company is now putting down in London.

Taxes Chinking In. Music of chinking taxes is louder this year than usual. According to Tax collector George W. Hayes, the amount received so far is in excess of the usual first instalment payments.

Janitors in Plenty. The municipal monument, or in other words, the public comfort station on the market square, may not yet be ready for the grand opening.

Big Pavement Tenders. Tenders for over $21,000 worth of pavements are being called for by the board of works. These pavements will be sheet asphalt on Horton street from Talbot to Wellington.

No Room For Him. In the plans for the new city hall in the old Spencer block no provision has been made for the superintendent of the garbage department.

Digging Up Alibis. Members of last year's board of health are being "dug up" to find out if they were not responsible for the construction of the incinerator.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT. No Headache, Sour Stomach, Biliousness Or Constipation by Morning.

Turn the cascals out — the headache, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases — turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

No Commissioner Yet.

No successor to Mr. J. H. Cousins as superintendent of parks has yet been named by the water commission.

He Beats the Law.

There is one ice cream peddler in the city from whom no license fee can be collected. He is immune from the clutches and eagle eye of License Inspector McCallum.

Trying Out Insulators.

According to advices received by the local hydro-electric department from Toronto, all kinds of experiments are being tried out there with various types of insulators for the hydro commission lines.

What Red Tape Did.

The start of the pavements on Waterloo street from Queen's avenue to York and on Queen's avenue from Maitland street to Adelaide street, which has already been made, is only after a wait of nearly two years.

To Oil Eight Miles. Eight more miles of city streets will be oiled as soon as five cars of the official "dust layer" have on their way here.

Boasting Boulevard Plan.

Plans for creating a boulevard drive for the city via Waterloo street, Ottawa avenue, Wellington street, Grand avenue and either Ridout street or Wortley road are gaining an impetus.

London Electric Will Bid.

It's an open secret at the city hall that a bid from the London Electric Company for lighting the Western Fair grounds, as soon as the new equipment is placed there, will add interest to the present electric energy fight between the city and the company.

Boost For Pavement.

Rocmac pavements, the new type of macadam road, it is proposed to try out on Wortley road, are the while thing in pavements in the west.

Wedding Bells Ring.

It would be unfair to say that wedding bells are never rung about the city hall for they do. Still it is at such infrequent intervals that when the wedding march is sounded, the peals jangle out with a mighty loud ruck.

Material Was Left Over.

One of the coincidences that has been attending upon the pavement fiasco of two years ago when Aid. J. A. Tancock succeeded in knocking out nearly a mile of asphalt on a technicality is the fact that material shipped in here at that time by the Barber Asphalt Co. has remained in the local yard of the company ever since.

Wire Wounds

My mare, a very valuable one, was badly bruised and cut by being caught in a wire fence. Some of the wounds would not heal, although I tried many different remedies. Dr. Bell advised me to use MINARD'S LINIMENT, diluted at first, better, until after three weeks the sores have healed, and best of all, the hair is growing well, and is NOT WHITE, as is most always the case in horse wounds. KANSAS WOMAN WHO SUFFERED

From Headache, Backache, Dizziness and Nervousness, Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lawrence, Kans.—"A year ago I was suffering from a number of ailments. I always had pain and was irregular. During the delay I suffered a great deal with headache, backache, dizziness, nervousness, and I had been married nearly three years. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I feel better than I have for years. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all who suffer as I did."—Mrs. M. ZEUNER, 1045 New Jersey Street, Lawrence, Kansas.

Montana Woman's Case.

Burns, Mont.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me of awful backache which I had suffered with for months. I was so weak I could hardly do my work and my head and eyes ached all the time. Your Compound helped me in many ways and is a great strengthener. I always recommend it to my friends and tell them what a grand medicine it is for women. You may use my name for the good of others."—Mrs. JOHN FRANCIS, Burns, Montana.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as those above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

NAVY QUESTION CAN BE SETTLED ONLY BY CANADA

Lord Sheffield Says England Is Not Criticizing Canada in Any Way.

British Cabinet Ministers, Lords and Barons Are Visiting in Montreal.

[Canadian Press.] Montreal, July 26.—Testing cheese, stroking the fine cattle, admiring the flowers and particularly admiring the dancing of a dozen short-skirted damsels who are taking the summer course in physical training at McDonald College, the British cabinet ministers, lords, barons, and mere M. P.'s who are passing through Canada as an empire parliamentary association delegation, spent a highly enjoyable day at Ste. Anne De Bellevue. Under the country sun the distinguished Britishers broke their silence and talked upon subjects of general and local interest.

They agreed that Canada must settle the naval contribution question for herself and that England has nothing which can touch McDonald College. The party went out on a special G. T. R. car which they greatly admired.

Canada's Problem. Lord Sheffield, late member of the London school board, and of several royal commissions on education, in speaking of the naval question, said: "The English people think that the Canadian naval question is your job, not ours. I don't think you have seen any British criticism of the attitude of Canada in the matter."

In regard to McDonald College, Lord Sheffield said: "If we were not admiring you, we should envy you. It has been a big factor like Sir William McDonald, the English people might be more keen for technical education. We only really started with the beer money allotment in 1904, and we have not progressed very swiftly."

A Liberal Policy. "The thing that at once strikes all of us in visiting such an institution as McDonald College is the fact of how much more liberal Canadians and Americans are in the matter of material equipment enterprises than we are in England. The method of this college seems to me to be grounded on the correct practical empire and the teaching to be thorough."

Lord Emmot, under secretary of state for the colonies, said in regard to the naval question: "England will take it as a friendly act if Canada wants to contribute to the imperial navy, but we have enough sense to know that what's another man's job is not our business."

"Canadians must settle the question for themselves. We recognize that if any of the self-governing parts of the empire were to take it upon themselves to teach other self-governing parts their duty and their breaking down, the result would be irritation and friction. With our reception in Canada we have been very much touched."

SENATE LOBBY PROBE WILL END NEXT WEEK

Martin Mulhall Is On the Verge of a Break-down.

Washington, July 25.—With only about 1,000 more of Martin M. Mulhall's letters to read into the record, the senate lobby investigating committee adjourned today until Monday, expecting to wind up the correspondence of the "lobby" at the close of the day's session. Mulhall showed signs of the strain he has been under. He became confused during the reading of one letter, and when asked to read suggested that he needed a rest, exclaimed: "I'm just about broke down. For God's sake do have mercy if you can. I don't want to say I'm breaking down, but I don't want to answer questions if you will let me go."

Chairman Overman announced today that the attorneys for the National Association of Manufacturers and the American Federation of Labor would be allowed to question the witness through the committee, provided they submit questions twenty-four hours before the hearing and receive the committee's approval.

Senator Nelson had a talk with the Democratic members before the decision was announced, and it is known that he protested vigorously against allowing Mulhall's story to stand without examination by the lawyers for the organizations involved.

During the hearing today a sharp debate occurred among members of the committee about whether foreign manufacturers and importers had influenced tariff reductions in the present bill.

Little Girl Was Killed By Train

[Special to The Advertiser.] Preston, July 26.—The 5-year-old daughter of Allen Tremaine was hurriedly struck and killed by a train by being struck by the express from the north last evening near the Broadway crossing. The engineer made every effort to stop the train.

Hensall Planning Old Boys Reunion

[Special to The Advertiser.] Hensall, July 26.—Hensall people are beginning to arrange for an old boys' reunion to be held some time in August of 1914.

It promises to be a big affair, and the enthusiasm with which the citizens are taking hold of the matter means success. The union Sunday school excursion from Hensall to Goderich, held on Wednesday, proved a great success. When the train reached its destination there were 570 on board. There was the usual shortage of cars, but the excursionists took possession of a Pullman from Clinton to Goderich, which was used for the excursion. The day was spent in various ways, some taking to the water, others finding too much water, as it rained for a couple of hours during the afternoon. However, a pleasant day was spent. Two additional cars were added to the returning train.

AUSTRIA PLANS TO END FIGHT IMMEDIATELY

Will Protect Bulgars From Too Great Humiliation by Intervention.

Women Appeal to the French President to Save Them From Turks.

London, July 25.—The important developments today in the Balkan situation was a demand presented by the Austrian representatives at Athens and Belgrade for an immediate cessation of hostilities, together with a warning that Austria will not allow Bulgaria to be too greatly humiliated. It was declared in Vienna that should Greece and Serbia still oppose an armistice a Rumanian army, being as a mandatory of Austria and Russia, will prevent any attack on Sofia, and that Austria will take every necessary step, if necessary, to stop the war.

Should it be true that Austria and Russia thus have agreed to co-operate in the pressure exercised doubtless will be of value.

Appeal From Women. Sofia, July 26.—The French minister here was requested today by the Bulgarian women in Philippopolis, Eastern Rumelia to send the following telegram to President and Mme. Poincaré: "Bulgarian mothers, whose sons are on the battlefield, implore Madame and Monsieur Poincaré, with tears in their eyes, to save us from the Turkish massacres which threaten Philippopolis. Your intervention is our last hope. Accept our sincere thanks and eternal gratitude."

Seize Fortresses. The Servians have invested the ancient fortress at Vidin, Bulgaria, which is situated on the Danube, 130 miles south of Belgrade. The fall of the fortress cannot long be delayed—in fact a Belgrade dispatch reports that General Kutuntcheff's troops already are beginning to surrender. Vidin, which has a population of 15,000, will be Servia's biggest capture during the war.

Battleship Has Reached Esquimaux

Vancouver, July 26.—The battleship New Zealand reached Royal Roads off Esquimaux harbor today. Victoria is planning a great reception for the squadron, Hon. J. D. Hazen and Sir Richard McBride, with a small party of officials went out on the government steamer Quadra to signal a welcome as the vessel came up the straits of San Juan de Fuca.

The C. P. R. steamer Princess Charlotte with two thousand excursionists aboard also went out to meet the vessel.

KEEP CHILDREN WELL DURING HOT WEATHER

Every mother knows how fatal the hot summer months are to small children. Cholera, infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery and stomach troubles are rife at this time and often a precious little life is lost after only a few hours' illness. The mother who keeps Baby's Own Tablets in the house feels safe. The occasional use of the Tablets prevents stomach and bowel troubles, or if trouble comes suddenly—as it generally does—the Tablets will bring the baby safely through. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

LONDON, SATURDAY, JULY 26. THE AMERICAN MANUFACTURER IN CANADA.

Some of the anti-reciprocity papers in Canada are quoting with some glee a statement made by Governor Foss, of Massachusetts, that a branch of a large manufacturing concern of which he is the principal owner will be started in Galt, Ontario. This is pointed to as a proof that the defeat of reciprocity in 1911 was a good thing for Canada, as it encourages or compels United States manufacturers to establish their works, or branches of them, in Canada.

We shall be glad if Mr. Foss carries out his promise; the more of them the better. But we would suggest to the citizens of Galt that it might be as well to wait until the new buildings are erected and the plant installed before congratulating themselves on the addition to their local business enterprises. Mr. Foss, it should be remembered, is a politician as well as a manufacturer, and he is engaged in a campaign for a renewal of his term of office as governor. He was a Republican; but when Mr. Taft passed his reciprocity bill through congress he left his party and became a Democrat. Now that a Democratic government is going to reduce the tariff he is getting back to the old party which opposes lower duties. His great argument is that a lower tariff will be bad for manufacturers; that they will have to close their works, and go out of business, or else move over to Canada.

That is an old trick of his class. We have seen it on this side of the line. The threat of closing up business if a Liberal government came into power has been played in London as well as in other towns. There were a great many threats of that kind made in the campaign of 1896. But when the Conservative government was defeated nobody shut up his shop on that account. The threats did not materialize. Business was too good for any such nonsense. But the trick is tried at every election, in both countries. Possibly, Mr. Foss is just using the old trick for political purposes.

But suppose he is in earnest, and we hope he is. What is it got to do with the reciprocity agreement of 1911? That was practically confined to natural products. It scarcely touched manufactures. A trifling reduction of five per cent. on agricultural implements would not have hurt the industrial interests of either country. It is true that on both sides of the line the same interests fought the agreement. They effected to believe it was only the thin end of the wedge. And so we had the manufacturer in Canada crying that the country would be flooded with cheap goods from the States, and his brother in the States was wailing over a possible influx from Canada. As a matter of fact the condition of neither party would have been injured. If Mr. Foss wanted to do business profitably in Canada, reciprocity in natural products would not have prevented it. He would have done just the same as he says he is going to do now; he would start a branch over here.

Mr. Foss is one of those men who favor reciprocity of the jug-handled type. He wants an agreement by which the United States will let in free what they want to buy; and we shall let into Canada what they want to sell. It is difficult to understand how any sensible man can imagine the possibility of such a scheme. Reciprocity must be a good thing for both parties; no other kind would be acceptable to Canada; no other kind would ever be agreed to by the other party. Those of our own people who honestly opposed reciprocity in 1911 did so because they thought it was bad for the country, or bad for themselves. If they had thought it a good thing they would have voted the other way. Of course, much of the opposition was dishonest, such as the raising of the loyal cry for partisan purposes.

There is one reason why Mr. Foss and his friends may be disposed to start branches in Canada when their new tariff comes into operation. But it is a reason which they do not mention. High tariffs facilitate trusts and combines, and enable the man who has to get more at the expense of the man who has not. The reduction of the tariff is going to be a blow to some of the interests which have flourished so long. It is not unnatural that they should turn their attention to Canada as a field which may be exploited, and where more will be squeezed out of the consumer than would be possible under the new order of things south of the line.

CHINA'S GLOOMY OUTLOOK. The revolt in the southern provinces of China threatens the presidency of Yuan Shih-kai, but on the other hand, the presidency of Yuan Shih-kai threatens the integrity of the republic.

All parties were disposed at first to give him a fair trial, but he has not been long in showing his true colors. From the outset he has aimed at two objects; the securing and strengthening of his own authority, and the establishment of a constitution as little republican and as much like the late Manchu regime as possible. To further these purposes he has borrowed money abroad on the most usurious and discreditable terms against the protests of Sun Yat Sen, and he has made a treaty practically surrendering Mongolia. The democratic party has been convinced that his policy is dangerous to both the liberties and the integrity of China. Hence the recrudescence of revolt which has been headed by the former governor of Kiangsi, who was dismissed by Yuan. This official belongs to the new school of Young China, and received his training abroad. Kiangsi is a southern province, and there is plenty of evidence that the other southern provinces are ready to join a rising against Yuan Shih-kai and the north. Yuan may crush the rebellion temporarily with the help of his borrowed money, but there is too much vitality in the democratic movement to be annihilated. Unless Yuan flings away ambition, China may be thrown in a welter of blood again.

AS TO MR. HANNA. Mr. Hanna has been in some respects a useful public servant. Liberals will concede his ability and energy. They have not numbered him among the Seven Sleepers; whatever his failings, he has been always awake. His prison farm scheme was well conceived and executed. It stands to his credit.

It is Mr. Hanna who has given himself a black mark. When he accepted $500 from a Government contractor, he knew he was guilty of impropriety, even if he was not aware that he had violated the criminal code, as eminent lawyers say. The public confession of the fact, made by the prime minister, would have in some degree blunted the edge of censure, as it was designed to do, had Mr. Proudfoot's demand for a full inquiry been granted. Mr. Hanna must bear a double reproach, that of taking the money, and that of stifling investigation. A word from him would have turned on the light. The opportunity arrived when Mr. Taylor, the contractor, was in the box. When Mr. Proudfoot's counsel began to ask Mr. Taylor the circumstances of the payment of the money, he was promptly squelched by the partisan chairman and committeemen. Mr. Hanna's silence gave consent, but it was a silence that made a loud report in the Province. Having put Mr. Proudfoot out of court, Mr. Hanna and his associates added insult to injury by passing a vote of censure upon him for failing to prove what they refused to allow him to try to prove.

Mr. Hanna's pose as an injured innocent is obviously insincere and unbecoming. Any claim that he might have had upon public sympathy has been forfeited by his cynical refusal to acknowledge that he has done anything improper, and by his attempt to cover up the circumstances of the $500 transaction.

Too many of our Conservative friends are preaching that Canadianism and Imperialism are essentially antagonistic. In its effort to kill the House of Lords, the Asquith Government has been aided by the suicidal tendencies of that chamber.

The revolt against Yuan Shih Kai in Southern China is growing. Yuan appears to be a fine old Manchu despot, dressed in republican clothes.

Our local contemporary may argue till it's black in the face, but it cannot show where an electric road, dependent for most of its earnings on freight traffic, has successfully competed with steam roads.

The Democratic senators are standing together, and a sweeping revision of the tariff is now assured. Unless the Republicans can manufacture a panic before the next election, high protection is doomed in the United States.

New Zealand's Dreadnought has steamed into a Canadian port, and Conservative journals talk as though its presence was a reproach to this country. If the whole Australian fleet should come to Canada, against which political party would the reproach lie? Lord Emmott, under secretary of the colonies, tells a Montreal interviewer that Great Britain regards the question of Canada's naval policy as another man's job. So it is, but the Canadian Government doesn't think this country is equal to a man's job.

WHERE MEN FAIL. [Rochester Post Express.] Woman does not lack for duties of her own, nor lack in their performance. They are multitudinous, exacting, and are met for the most part in a brave and sacrificing spirit, admirable beyond praise. If some women finds that in adding to their own duties of voting citizenship, she has undertaken more than she bargained for, and balks at the overload, men will be the last to blame her, for hardly one male in a hundred gives his civic duties the conscientious attention that he should.

STRENGTHEN YOUR KIDNEYS

If you are a sufferer from any kind of kidney or bladder trouble, you know too well, the pain, the loss of sleep, the distress and disagreeable experience which are a part of these complaints, but you may not know that many complaints of the urinary tract will lead to serious complications if not checked in time. The earlier the trouble is attended to the better. SANOL, the great scientific remedy for kidney trouble, gall stones, bladder stones, and similar complaints, will get quickly at any stage of the disease, and will be found a most agreeable tonic and strength-giver for all who have weak kidneys, or are troubled in any way with that portion of the anatomy. The strength of the kidneys is quickly renewed, the pains, which frequently mean something serious, if allowed to go on, disappear at once. It is equally valuable in older and more serious cases, and we have testimonials from patients who have been spared the danger and cost of an operation through using SANOL.

DYING FROM GALL-STONES

Doctors Said Only an Operation Could Save His Life—"Fruit-a-tives" Enabled Him to Pass Nearly 200 Gall Stones.

J. B. HARDING, ESQ.

46 Grove Ave., Toronto, Ont., Jan. 10th, 1913.

"I suffered untold agony from GALL-STONES for the past three years, and tried many doctors without getting relief. I also paid $5.00 for one bottle of medicine which was useless. At times the pain from these gall-stones was so great that I lost consciousness, and my condition was desperate. I was quite satisfied that I was dying, and the doctors said I must be operated upon.

"During one of these very severe, acute attacks, I was given some 'FRUIT-A-TIVES,' and after taking a short course of treatment of this remedy, I passed gall-stones over an inch in length, and as many as one hundred and fifty or two hundred in number. 'FRUIT-A-TIVES' was the only thing that would relieve my pain. They are the greatest medicine in the world, and if there is anyone in Canada, or anywhere else, that suffers from gall-stones, I say, 'let them take 'Fruit-a-tives' and be cured.'

"If this testimonial will further the good work of 'Fruit-a-tives,' publish it with my full authority."

Are you wondering how 'Fruit-a-tives'—a medicine made from fruit juices, can cure Gall-stones? We will tell you. The Gall bladder is the reservoir for holding the Gall, or bile, secreted by the liver. If there is insufficient bile, then the bile in the Gall-bladder is thick and easily forms stones. When the liver is weak, it secretes very little bile and then the Gall bladder is partially filled with a thick jelly-like mass of bile and thus forms into lumps or stones. 'Fruit-a-tives' stimulates the liver to secrete more bile, and this increased bile softens the Gall-stones and by overriding the Gall bladder forces the passage of the stones through the Gall duct—and thus cures the disease.

'Fruit-a-tives' is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices. By a wonderful process, the medicinal properties of certain fruits are greatly intensified—then valuable tonics and antiseptics in every section of Canada as made into the pleasant tasting tablets known in every section of Canada as 'Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

50c a box, 4 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

PANAMA TOLLS TO BE DECIDED AT THE HAGUE

The Dominion Govt. Has Been Advised to Prepare Briefs at Once.

Sir Charles Fitzpatrick Is Likely To Be the Canadian Representative.

Ottawa, July 25.—That the question of toll exemption on the Panama Canal and the discrimination which it would involve against foreign shipping, will, despite the opposition of a certain section of the Democratic Government of the United States, be referred to the Hague for arbitration, is a matter of definite knowledge at the capital.

The British protest, along with Canada's own particular case, will be one of the regular arbitration tribunals in Holland. This is the news conveyed officially to the Government here, and it indicates that some definite assurance has been received from London to that effect.

To Come Up Soon.

The Dominion Government has received intimation from the Imperial Government to at once set about preparing briefs to be submitted to the arbitration, and also name commissioners who will work in concert with the British commissioners in handling the general case against exemption to American vessels passing through the canal.

It is expected that the arbitrations will be held early in the new year, and that all mercantile marine countries will be represented.

In the United States the situation is very complex. There are several arbitration treaties, the ratification of the renewals of which are held up by the United States Senate because of the opposition developed by those who look the advanced stand against what was a Canadian treaty, and by Great Britain in the tolls problem. The plan was to modify the British treaty on which all the others hinged, with a general amendment which would exempt not only the tolls but all canal questions, including armament and defence. It is now considered almost certain that the Senate will fall to do this.

A Firm Stand.

Sir Edward Grey has taken a firm stand as to the interpretation of that particular clause in the Hay-Pauncefote treaty which dealt with the canal. He would expect not only the justice of France's failure to complete it, and the United States Government, which took the initiative in international arbitration, cannot, it is believed, fail to accept the British minister's suggestion that the matter be referred to The Hague tribunal.

At The Hague it is expected that a Canadian and a German commissioner will be chosen to sit with the international tribunal, and it is suggested that a choice be made in readiness. It is probable that Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, chief justice of the supreme court, who is now a member of the international court sitting for the adjustment of financial claims between Canada and the United States, will be the Canadian member. Hon. Arthur Meighen, the new solicitor-general, will assist in the preparation of Canada's case.

Italian Consul Takes Up Case of Explosion Victims.

Kingston, July 26.—As a result of the accident which occurred several weeks ago, when ten Italians lost their lives in a premature explosion of dynamite, the Italian consul at Kingston, C. P. R., while engaged in construction work, the Italian consul at Toronto interested himself in the case, and has applied through Judge Price, here for administration so that damage suits may be brought.

The jury which investigated the case returned a verdict of accidental death. The men, it will be remembered were blown to pieces.

Heresy Charges Are All Dropped

London, July 25.—The Jackson "heresy" controversy may be regarded as definitely closed. Yesterday the pastoral session of the Plymouth Conference, having fully considered the views of the reverend gentleman, decided by a vote of 23 to 27 that the book did not in the least invalidate any matters of faith, or conflict with their standards. They were of the opinion that Mr. Jackson's only desire in his recent lectures was to stir up and maintain the authority of the Holy Scripture in the light of modern knowledge.

DELIGHTS LADIES

Parisian Sage, the Great Hair Beautifier, Is Guaranteed.

Half that is irresistibly attractive will make any woman look more youthful.

In Paris the clever French women fully realize this and retain the youthful appearance even in the fifties.

While Parisian Sage is known the world over as a certain cure for dandruff and falling hair and is sold by all druggists on the no-cure-no-pay plan, it is especially recommended to society women who greatly desire lovely, fascinating hair.

It will put life and lustre into dull, faded hair in one week.

Parisian Sage makes the head feel good the minute it is applied. The first application creates confidence, for the user cannot help but feel that such delightful cooling and exhilarating tints will do what ordinary commercial tonics have failed to do.

Parisian Sage is sold in London by all druggists, and by leading druggists everywhere.

Guaranteed to kill dandruff microbes, cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Comes in large, 50-cent bottles and "The Girl with the Auburn Hair" in every package.

PEACE BRIDGE IN FIREWORKS

Thousands of Dollars To Be Burned Up at Fort Erie.

A WONDERFUL DISPLAY

[Canadian Press.]
Fort Erie, July 26.—Thousands of dollars will be burned in the great picture of the proposed peace bridge to be built between Fort Erie and Buffalo to be shown in fire at the peace celebration to be held here next Wednesday (July 29).

It promises to be one of the most magnificent displays of fireworks ever seen in Canada or the United States. The beautiful peace bridge in different colored lights will be shown at the conclusion.

The Buffalo peace committee that prior to the big celebration in Fort Erie there will be a parade through the streets of Buffalo of the Chamber of Commerce, and other organizations in which 10,000 businessmen will participate. Then special trains will be boarded and all will be carried to Fort Erie where a big program of sports will be carried out.

CROPS DAMAGED

Heavy Hailstorm Ruins Buckwheat Around St. John.

St. John, July 25.—A disastrous hailstorm swept over the northern part of King's County this morning and causing great loss to farmers. The buckwheat crop in its path is ruined and potatoes and corn suffered severely. The windows of two churches in Penobscot were smashed as well as those in houses with a northern exposure. The hailstones were in size from a hazelnut to a walnut.

DODDS--MACKAY

Pretty Seaforth Girl Becomes Bride of Young Halifax Engineer.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Seaforth, July 26.—A pretty wedding took place this morning at six o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Dodds, when their eldest daughter, Miss Rhodella, became the bride of Mr. William Blain Mackay, of Halifax, N. S., and formerly of Seaforth.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. W. Barker, B. A., in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of both young people.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked exceedingly handsome in a neat travelling suit of blue and was attended by her sister, Miss Cora Dodds, Mr. Phil Colmar, of the Dominion Bank, was best man.

After a dainty wedding breakfast the happy couple left on the morning express for their new home in Halifax. Both young people are widely known in Seaforth and vicinity. Miss Dodds being an accomplished vocal and instrumental musician, and was formerly organist at the Methodist Church.

Mr. Mackay is a Seaforth old boy, who is now heating and ventilating engineer for the Gurney & Massey Company for the Maritime Provinces.

LONDON, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, JULY 26, 1913.

MIGHTY BUILDING BOOM SLATED FOR FOREST CITY BEGINS EARLY NEXT YEAR

Business men of the city and real estate dealers say that London next year will experience a building boom that will make this year's advance look like that of a country village. So if you are a loyal Londoner and a man with a tendency to knock instead of uphold this city should happen to meet you, and say that building in this city will fall flat in a short time, point with pride to the list above and show him what is expected in this city within the next twelve months. And those buildings will give hundreds of men a prolonged period of employment, while lumber, bricks, cut and polished stone, glass, paint, cement, slate roofs, tin roofs, roofs, plaster and dressed lumber of all descriptions will be needed for their erection.

Employment For Hundreds.
To get all those commodities ready for use will give employment to hundreds of skilled artisans, and while some of the articles will be imported a good many of them are manufactured in this city.

Hundreds of teams will be needed to haul sand away from excavations and to haul gravel from the river or pits to the buildings for cement mixture, while electricians will be kept busy wiring the large places and installing lighting fixtures, and in some of the buildings power plants will have to be provided.

The New Postoffice.
It is expected that early in the spring work on the new postoffice building which is said to cost $450,000, will be started. This building is to be located on Richmond street between Carling and Queen's avenue and when completed will be one of the finest in the city.

Plans are nearing completion for the Catholic seminary which is to be built in Sunshine Park and which is estimated will cost $380,000 when completed. The new Catholic school for boys which is to be known as Fallon Hall, will not likely be started until early in the spring. It is to cost about $130,000.

New Catholic Church.
The Redemptorist Fathers, who now have a small chapel on Dundas street near Pottersburg, expect to erect a $50,000 church and school combined, on land which they have purchased in that section. They will likely start work on the building early in the spring. An addition to St. Joseph's Hospital, which it is estimated will cost $75,000, was to have been started this summer, but owing to some hitch in the plans work on it will not be commenced until the spring, according to information supplied The Advertiser.

An addition to the McClary plant to cost $75,000 is also planned for next spring. It is also expected that work on the new city hall on the federal square, which the "wise ones" say will cost about $300,000, will be started next spring, although some people are doubtful as to this, and an addition which the government is reported to have in mind for the Armories is believed to be scheduled for next spring. It will cost about $75,000 a military man told The Advertiser.

Taking into consideration all those large buildings and the many houses that had to be abandoned this year on account of a scarcity of materials and money, next year promises to be a record one in the development of London, "the place where it is fine to live."

Front Street People Displeased With the Action of Council

Front street residents are not well pleased with the delay of the city council in taking some action on a petition sent in by them to have a permanent wall built along the south side of the river bank at the rear of their homes. They point out that it is now almost too late to do anything this year, and that next spring they will have to contend with flooding of their cellars, yards and houses as they have had to for several years past.

IS RECOVERING.
Mrs. George Tupholme, of the Hamilton road, who has been seriously ill, in Victoria Hospital, for some time past, recovered sufficiently to be removed to her home Thursday.

WEEDS OVERGROW STREETS IN NORTH END OF THE CITY

Clover at Corner of Pall Mall and Colborne Streets Obscures Sidewalk.

Weeds In Chelsea Green and Other Sections Worst They Have Ever Been.

There are some people in the north end of the city who claim they would think this city a large overgrown village if it were not for seeing street cars passing on Oxford and Cheapside streets at times, on account of the weeds and long grass that have been allowed to grow to a height of three feet in some places without being cut.

At the southwest corner of Pall Mall and Colborne streets sweet clover has been allowed to grow until it completely obscures the sidewalk. Not only that, but dust and oil from the road has settled on the "young clover trees" and every time a woman attempts to pass through them she spoils her dress.

Every Street Affected.
That is not the only corner that is affected, practically every street in the vicinity being more or less overgrown with the plant. Matland street, from Pall Mall to Central avenue is in the same condition and Colborne street, from Pall Mall to Central avenue, can boast of its share.

On practically every one of the outlying streets the same condition exists, and although many complaints have been registered at the city hall no attention has been paid to them.

Chelsea Green, Ealing and Pottersburg are in the same condition, and the residents of those suburbs say their streets were kept free from weeds before annexation than they are now.

HORSE TRAMPLES TOES
Mr. J. D. Patterson, Hamilton Road, is injured.

While attending to a horse Mr. J. D. Patterson, 124 Hamilton road, was trampled on and had several toes on his right foot badly bruised. Mr. Patterson was standing in the stall when the horse stepped suddenly to one side, planting one of its feet on the ends of his toes.

No Park for Chelsea Green This Summer

Residents Think Council Should Have Taken Some Action on Offer of Mr. Winslow.

Although the residents of Chelsea Green were quite anxious this spring to have a park for the workingsmen of that section located over there, they have abandoned all hope of the city taking hold of the proposition.

Mr. James Winslow, who conducts a grocery store in the suburb, offered to donate two acres of land to the city for park purposes, but the offer was simply ignored, none of the members of the council taking any action on it. The residents did not look for any great big expenditure, but thought if a few benches were distributed about the property it would make a recreation ground for the men after a hard day's work in the factories.

Residents Still Waiting For Free
Mail Delivery

And still the residents of Knollwood Park, Chelsea Green, Ealing and Pottersburg are waiting for free mail delivery, and the one-cent drop letter privilege, which they have been promised for seven months, would be coming in a short time.

The residents of Knollwood Park also asked for a paper box and a letter box to be put somewhere in the vicinity of Wolsey Barracks, but so far they have been unable to get one. They are not the only ones who are disappointed, for some time ago the East London Progressives asked that a paper box be installed at the corner of Rectory and Campbell streets, but their request has been completely ignored.

WON'T BUILD HOUSE UNTIL NEXT SPRING

Congregation of St. Matthew's Will Discuss House for Pastor.

Although there was some talk two months ago amongst the congregation of St. Matthew's Church of building a house for the pastor, Rev. E. Appleyard, the idea has been abandoned for a time.

It is not likely that anything more will be done until the fall, when the question will be taken up again. The Advertiser was told, and the question of building the house next spring will be gone into.

FLOWER BEDS DESTROYED

Residents of Princess Avenue Up in Arms Over Work of Unknown Persons.

HAVE NOTIFIED POLICE

Vandals have been at work in Princess avenue in the vicinity of Quebec street for some time, tearing up flower beds and destroying lawns, and the residents have become so enraged they have promised to give them a warm reception if caught at the work.

A number of men in that vicinity have been busy every night after getting home from work tending their flower beds and lawns, and had them in fine shape. Several nights ago someone in the middle of the night tore the flowers from some of the beds and scattered them over the roadway and also dug holes in the lawns. The matter has been reported to the police.

FALLS ON STEPS AND DISLOCATES SHOULDER

While going down the rear steps at her home, 129 Cathcart street, Miss Mary Low fell, and alighting on her shoulder, dislocated it. Dr. Ernest Williams, who was called, ordered her removed to Victoria Hospital, where the shoulder was put in place.

BIG FRUIT OFFERING ON THE MARKET TODAY

Black and Red Currants and Raspberries in Good Demand.

Fruit was the heaviest offering on the market this morning, and the price dropped a little from that of Thursday. Raspberries were in good demand at 13 to 14 cents a box, black raspberries at 15 to 16 cents, retail. Black raspberries sold at 12 cents wholesale, and 14 cents retail. Black currants at 14 to 15 cents a box, with some asking higher prices. Red currants at 8 cents were firm and in good demand. Apples brought 20 to 25 cents a peck, and gooseberries 8 to 9 cents a box.

Wheat and Vegetables.
The first load of new wheat was sold on the market yesterday at 85 cents a bushel. Vegetables were firm at the same prices as Thursday. Peas sold at 20 to 25 cents a quart, and beans at 10 cents a quart, and 50 cents a peck. Potatoes of which there was a large offering were a little lower at $1.25 to $1.40 a bushel.

Butter and Eggs.
Butter and eggs were higher and very firm some sellers asking as high as 20 cents a pound for creamery. The ruling price for good creamery butter was 25 to 26 cents a pound. Store lots sold at 22 to 23 cents a pound, and roll butter at 24 to 25 cents a pound.

BIG ROAD PROGRAM IN SPRING, SAYS ENGINEER

Providing That Storm Water Sewers Bylaw Be Passed This Fall.

"If the citizens pass the storm water sewers bylaw this fall we will prepare our estimates, call for bids, and be ready to award contracts and start an extensive road program the first thing next spring," declared City Engineer W. N. Ashplant this morning.

"The storm water system is not one of the same type as the sanitary system, where we have the main interceptor for all sewers. In the storm water systems all we have to determine is the watersheds and outlets. We can turn the water into the river anywhere without the slightest fear of contamination. Once we get the funds we can start right away."

"There is only a 10 and 12 inch drain line necessary on Richmond street, and we could carry that one through the street through the city limits the first thing in the spring. We could do the same with the other main arteries into the city—Ridout street, Wellington street, Ridout street and the Wharfside road."

Gave Boat for Picnic.
This is an episode in the municipal history of London that probably few remember, but it is one that served to show the high regard that the then mayor had for his word when it was given. In the following year the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada held its annual convention in the city.

"The only means of taking a pleasure party to Springbank Park at that time was by means of a hired motor launch, then piled there with passengers. The mayor chartered the boat and tendered the delegates a splendid banquet upon this occasion. During his term of office the editor of the Banner and other representatives of the trades council had occasion to do business with him on many occasions, and while their views did not agree in some instances, nothing but kindest regards existed for the mayor's magistrate. Now that he has passed away it is only fitting that his public life should be made public. As we have said, the Banner regrets to hear of his demise, and can testify that during his occupancy of the mayor's chair he was ready on every occasion to meet and confer with the representatives of the labor interests, and when his word was once given, they had absolute faith that it would never be broken. This is something that can be said of few public men of today."

the work of securing and entertaining conventions, and receiving other visitors and deals alike with the public in London an immediate one of securing that suitable accommodation is provided for these.

It is estimated that the average convention delegate spends about eight dollars a day in a convention city, and there is always keen rivalry amongst the cities of the continent to secure conventions. This committee can cooperate with the civic entertaining committee in entertaining the cities' guests.

Trade Expansion.
The committee on trade expansion is more directly of interest to wholesale and retail concerns doing business in the city, and also to established factories.

Arrangements for the holding of exhibitions of local manufacturers goods, to stimulate the sale, and organizing local excursions to and from London's extensive field for manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, are some matters which might be carried out with advantage for the committee.

Other committees. A few of value is assisting the work of the industrial commissioner, are the advertising and publicity, the former in advertising the city, the latter in publicizing the expenditures of the bureau, and devising ways and means of increasing revenue.

The above covers in a general way the probable activity of the organization now planned, but its development to full efficiency, will of course, entail a great deal of preliminary work. It is possible that a staff will be made up, a central way, and that the various committees will be added as the organization gains strength. Later other committees might be appointed as necessary, dealing with immigration, legislation, housing and town planning, or any of the numerous phases of activity which go to the making of a big ambitious city, whether in the city itself or the territory tributary thereto.

The industrial bureau of London, serving the work of organization has been received everywhere with interest and enthusiasm, and feels convinced that the present industrial, commercial and financial conditions of London, justify the establishment of such an industrial bureau here, and that its work will be of immediate and enduring benefit to the whole community.

Back From the West.—Mr. T. H. Nichol, of Toronto, is spending his vacation visiting friends and relatives in Westminster and London. Mr. Nichol has recently returned from the west, where he had charge of the musical services in the assembly committee on evangelism.

EXAM. RESULTS.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
Paisley, July 26.—The following girls and boys from Paisley public school passed the entrance in order of merit: Victor Smeaton, Robert McBride, Gladys McCallum, Ethel McLeod, Wallace Diehl, Harold Collins, Gladys Bell, Herbert Barnett—eight out of ten pupils. Miss Fisher, entrance teacher.

Miss Edna Carter was notably successful at the recent examinations of the Canadian Academy of Music, held at Walkerton, she having passed in the junior piano test and took first honors in intermediate vocal.

OLD BOYS AT DETROIT COMING HOME IN AUGUST

Special Excursion Will Be Run to This City on August 9th.

The London Old Boys of Detroit, who have run an excursion every summer for the last few years, are anxious that Londoners having relatives or friends in Detroit should communicate with them, urging them to attend the excursion of this year to London on August 9. The train will leave the Union depot at Detroit at 3 o'clock on that date, and will arrive in the city at 7 o'clock.

The committee in charge is composed of Messrs. George Moore, Art Lashbrook, Thomas Jones and Charles Sullivan.

There are many Londoners residing in Detroit whom the old boys residing there cannot get in touch with. Their relatives here can urge them to attend and assure them that the warmest welcome in the old town.

ENGLISHMAN'S PICNIC TO BE HELD IN AUGUST

Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night When Various Committees Were Named.

The English picnic committee, 1913, met last evening in Society Hall, East London, and on Monday, July 28, 1913, carry out the arrangements for the annual event, which it is anticipated will be held on or about the 26th of August at Port Elgin.

The following officers were appointed: President, ex-Alderman J. Nutkins; secretary, Ronald R. A. Emery; assistant secretary, Fred Pugsley; treasurer, J. J. Martyn.

Printing committee—Charles Holland, W. Neilson. Sports committee—Fred Pugsley (chairman), H. Gramlich, R. Martyn, J. Rankin, F. James, W. Wakeling, S. Manness, W. Garrit, W. Wingate, T. Holmes, G. Harris, P. Henshaw, G. Harrison.

Band committee—Geo. Enklish, G. White. Finance—President J. Nutkins. Cashier—R. A. Emery. A. Emery, G. J. Martyn, R. Freeman.

Those present were most enthusiastic and put it on record that the picnic for 1913 should be a hummer. Several of the officers are included in the committee, and they are determined that the English picnic of 1913 shall be something to remember.

Ladies' Aid of the Kensington Methodist Church gave a most successful garden party on the grounds of Mr. C. R. Smith's residence, 115 Mount Pleasant avenue, last evening. The attendance was large, people being present from many parts of the city. Music was most acceptably rendered during the evening by the orchestra of the Empress Avenue Methodist Church, and several solos were given by Miss C. Anderson, of this city, and Miss Tilla, contralto soloist of Toronto. Pleading instrumental numbers were also rendered by others present. The grounds were prettily illuminated with Chinese lanterns.

WOMEN CURED AT HOME

Women's disorders always yield from the very beginning of the treatment to the mild but effective action of Orange Lily. Within two or three days after commencing its use the improvement becomes noticeable, and this improvement continues until the patient is completely cured. Orange Lily is an applied or local treatment, and acts directly on the womanly organs, removing the congestion, toning and strengthening the nerves, and restoring perfect circulation in the diseased parts. In order to convince all suffering women of the value of this remedy, I will send a 30-cent box, enough for ten days' use, absolutely FREE. Recommended and for sale by Anderson & Nelles, W. T. Strong & Co., H. J. Childs, W. H. Lister, and all other leading druggists.

CANVAAS THE NORTH END FOR PLAYGROUNDS FUND

Mothers' Club of St. George's Decide on Personal Solicitation.

The Mothers' Club of St. George's school held a meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. Coles, Waterloo street, to discuss ways and means of raising funds for keeping open the playgrounds in connection with the school. After some consideration it was decided that a personal canvass of the north end residents would yield the best results, and this work will be undertaken at once by the ladies of the club.

As it will be impossible to have the playgrounds properly supervised without the finances, it is hoped that the response will be a generous one.

Apples and Berries Failure in Niagara

Fine Crop of Plums, Peaches, Pears and Grapes—Record Shipments Will Be Made to the West.

St. Catharines, July 26.—Nineteen-thirteen will go down in the history of the Niagara fruit belt as the raspberry year. Not that the raspberries, but because, compared with former years, the output was so small that scarcely any of the luscious berries were put on sale on the market here. The main trouble was in the fact that growers appear to be giving up raspberry culture in this district, and the dry weather this year, which cut off the crop almost before it got started. Such raspberries as there were quickly gobbled up by the numerous canning factories at high prices.

All Berries Dear.
Strawberries were the same way. They never got cheaper than ten cents a box, whereas in previous years they were sold at three boxes for ten cents. As a result of the shortage in berries, both straw and rasp, housewives here this year missed their annual preserve of berries, and there is a cry of indignation against the canning factories from many a feminine throat. But while the small berry crop hardly amounted to anything this year, cherries made up for it, and the housewives had to put up cherries instead. Though it has been generally understood that cherries are rapidly disappearing from Canada as a result of the black knot and other diseases, this has been one of the best cherry years in the history of the fruit belt. All varieties were plentiful and more were shipped away than for several years. Hardly any strawberries and raspberries were shipped this year at all from this district.

Shortage of Apples.
The only other shortage in the fruit crop this year will be apples, and they will be only half crop by reason of the fact that this is the off year for apples, and the growers here, some of whom have of late years gone into the culture of the apples quite extensively, did not expect much of a crop. But the hearts of housewives may be gladdened after all, for the peach crop this year promises to outdo even last year's record output, when more peaches were sold or shipped away from the Niagara fruit belt than in any previous year. Each year more peach orchards are coming into being, and though the demands by the canning factories are becoming something enormous they cannot keep up with the peach crop.

Lots of Peaches.
The peach growers have the San Jose scale well in hand now, and the latest pest, "the little peach," has also succumbed to vigorous spraying, and there is not much reported this year. It would be safe to say that close on a thousand cars of peaches were shipped away from the different fruit centres of the Niagara belt last year, some of the fruit going as far as the Old Country. This year will see the shipments just as heavy and probably more so. When it is remembered that this little peninsula and a strip along Lake Erie grows all the peaches practically for Canada, and that even then some are shipped out of the country, one can get some idea of the output.

Grapes Look Fine.
Grapes are likewise looking splendid, and many thousands of tons will be shipped from the grape belt this year. It has been good weather for the grapes as well as the peaches, and pears have also flourished. In plums and pears the growers expect bumper crops and there will be plenty for everybody, they say. It is expected that more Niagara fruit than ever will be sent to the West. Erie grows all the peaches practically for Canada, and that even then some are shipped out of the country, one can get some idea of the output.

WELLAND PREPARES FOR BIG FIGHT OVER LICENSE

Campaign Is at Hand to Apply the Canada Temperance Act.

Toronto, July 26.—Temperance forces and the liquor interests are watching each other through telescopes just now, which side is going to make the first move in the approaching campaign in Welland County to apply the Canada Temperance act to Welland and Niagara Falls. As the Canada Temperance act is a federal statute, the Dominion election law is in effect. Under this law in cities over 3,000 inhabitants a registration of manhood suffrage voters is good only for two months after an election. In the county it holds good until a new list is made.

Two campaigns are to be brought on in Welland—one to abolish all licenses in the county, another to abolish all licenses in the city of Niagara Falls. The petitions, which require the signatures of 25 per cent of the electors, will be deposited with the sheriff early next month, and the customary proceedings will follow, the vote being held in the fall. As the situation now stands, unless the Dominion Government interposes by way of order-in-council, the manhood suffrage voters in Niagara Falls will not be permitted to register their will for or against the liquor licenses, while in cities in the manhood vote large, while in small or negligible in the counties. This fact has seized the liquor representatives, and it is understood that an appeal will be made to the Federal Government to pass the necessary order-in-council and have an enumeration at Niagara Falls.

Meanwhile other campaigns are going on in Huron County, and in the district comprising Muskoka, Parry Sound, Algoma, and Sudbury. In the unorganized portion of this section there is no voters' list under the law, and the question whether there is a greater claim for an enumeration in Algoma or in Niagara Falls.

THINKS FIRE STARTED IN RAGS IN BASEMENT

Woman Says She Spoke of the Unusual Heat Before Flames Were Noticed.

[Canadian Press.]
Binghamton, New York, July 26.—A new trend may be given the inquiry into the cause of the fatal fire in the Binghamton Clothing Company by the evidence that will be offered by Mrs. William Whitney, of 262 Washington street, one of the employees, who declares she called attention to the unusual heat in the building at one o'clock and smelt smoke at two o'clock, and called the attention of the girls to it. The flames were discovered at 2:30. This would sustain the theory that the fire started in a large number of rags stored in the basement. The search for the bodies has ended, the last being found outside the ruins burned so as to be unrecognizable.

The insurance companies have agreed to pay life policies without demanding identification of fire victims, and the Binghamton Clothing Company announces it will resume work at once. Arrangements are being completed for the public funeral and interment of the unidentified dead in Spring Forest Cemetery tomorrow.

All of the injured in the hospital are now expected to recover.

MR. PHILLIPS NOT "BOOSTER" TYPE OF PUBLICITY MAN

Is Not a Member of "Ballyhoo" School of Community Advancement.

To Adopt Systematic and Businesslike Methods as Industrial Commissioner.

London's new publicity commissioner, Mr. Gordon Phillips, is not of the "booster" school of community advancement. To him, in the course of a long experience, the word has usually stood for "a lot of hot air."

It is usually the chief stock-in-trade of the publicity man, who injects it into conversation, interviews, literature, and considers that to be the chief end of the industrial commissioner.

It's Method That Tells.
But many citizens will agree that the simple mouthing of phrase such as "Boost London!" will retard. Businessmen are not "boosters," at least not in the sense of acting like the "ballyhoo" men one sees in front of every side-

MR. GORDON PHILLIPS

NON-MILITANTS INVADING LONDON WELL RECEIVED

Thousands of Suffragettes March From All Parts of the Kingdom.

Were Cordially Welcomed at Bedford By the Trades Unionists.

[Canadian Press.]
London, July 26.—Many thousands of non-militant suffragettes were on the streets of London this morning in preparation to attend a great meeting in St. Paul's Cathedral and a subsequent demonstration in Hyde Park.

They had turned out to greet at the cathedral the marching columns which arrived from all parts of the kingdom yesterday, whence they had converged on the capital along the five great roads leading to London, which end at the Mansion House, the centre of the British World.

Every constituency in the country sent representatives to join the various columns during their progress, and the small detachments of suffragettes who originally started from Lond's End and John o' Groats, the two uttermost limits of the island, were augmented on the way until they formed great columns.

Started June 18.

The women started out on June 18, and were five weeks on the way. They were cordially received in all parts of the country, clergymen, college professors, businessmen and noted women greeting them and speaking at their meetings along the route.

At Bedford the trade unionists gave proof of their civility and loyalty to the women by insisting upon forming an escort for a speaker who was about to explain the suffrage cause to an audience which had previously shown hostility to its advocates.

Triumphal Entry.
No untoward incidents marred the march, and when the women reached London they made a triumphal entry as they bore the banners of various societies and made their way to the official residence of the Lord Mayor. A cyclist corps of newspaper girls accompanied the marchers, some of them selling the organ of the constitutional suffragists.

Mr. Fawcett, president of the National Union of Women Suffrage Societies, was in command of the northern invaders.

BOY KILLED BY LIVE WIRE

Climbed Up Pole to Release a Kite for Another Lad.

WAS HORRIBLY BURNED

Toronto, July 25.—Climbing a cement hydro-electric pole on Carlaw avenue today to release a kite of one of his companions, which had become entangled in the wires, Edward Lead, a cyclist, came into contact with one of the wires and was instantly killed. The lad was horribly burned, and fell to the ground, where his clothing had to be torn from his body to prevent disfigurement.

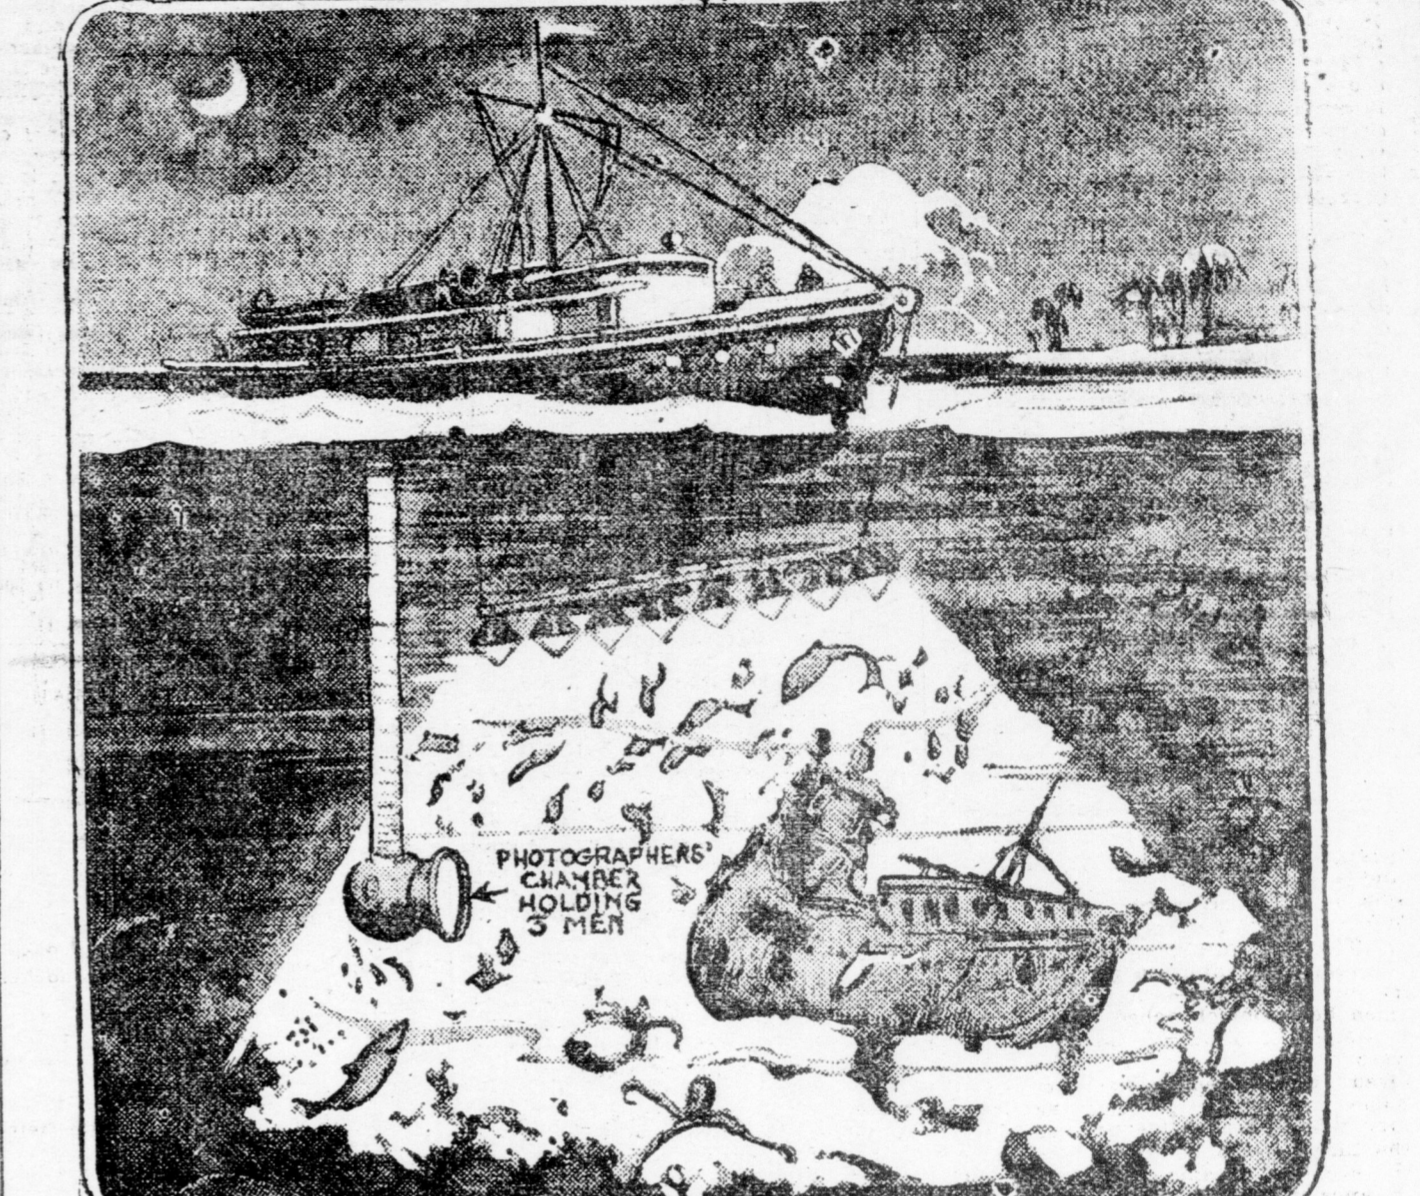

The boy was playing with a number of friends and when the kite crossed the wires he climbed the pole. As he touched the wire his body seemed to be encircled in a mass of flame.

His friends, who were nearby, tried to pull him down, but he was too high up. He was taken to the hospital, where he died shortly after midnight.

Sharks, Whales and Hideous Devil Fish "Movie" Actors Now

THEY POSE AT THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA FOR WILLIAMSON, THE JULES VERNE OF THE CAMERA WORLD.

BY GERTRUDE M. PRICE.
The London Advertiser's Moving Picture Expert.

Showing the Wonderful System of Getting Moving Pictures Under Water.

It is to see the wonders of marine vegetation in its natural environment. And it is to see, maybe, the remains of sunken Spanish galleys, which went down in hurricanes long ago, while divers ransack for lost treasure.

Fish will play about before the human eye at a depth of 500 feet below the surface.

Sharks will flash by. Hideous devil-fish will writhe through the water. Strange shapes, never seen before in their native element, will peer out from among swaying seaweed!

extended at will. It is simple in construction and is strong enough to withstand tremendous water pressure. At the bottom of the tube there is a chamber large enough for three men to live and work in for hours at a time. The front of it is cleverly fitted with a large window, through which all observations are made, and the actual photographs taken.

To offset the darkness which grows as the depth of the water increases, Williamson has cleverly brought electricity to his aid.

All this is practicable, because Ernest L. Williamson, of Norfolk, Va., the Jules Verne of the camera world, has discovered how to take pictures under water!

Here he is, and here is the way his machine looks and works.

He has already taken excellent submarine pictures at a depth of 35 feet, demonstrating the feasibility of his system.

The secret of this new wonder of the cinematograph is the Williamson submarine tube, invented by the camera man's father.

It is a remarkable invention, which makes it possible for men to go 500 feet down under water without diving suits or any special breathing apparatus.

It is just like going down into a tunnel. The tube is flexible and can be

By lowering a group of electric lights, properly safeguarded against pressure, into the water, he can take pictures at any depth, day or night. He has found that such artificial light, far from disturbing the fishes and their friends, attracts them towards the camera.

There is no end to the possibilities of this new invention!

Young Williamson has been experimenting at Hampton Roads. He has been so successful that he will continue farther afield and on a larger scale. His next work will be cruising the West Indies with a "movie" camera, and his Williamson tube. He hopes to get pictures of the "sunken cities" of Yucatan and many other wonders.

MR. COLWELL AT COAST

Former Londoner Visiting Many Points in Canadian West.

Referring to a well-known former Londoner, the Vancouver News-Advertiser says:

"Mr. Charles Colwell, who for several years has been a member of the House of Commons, arrived in the city yesterday with Mrs. Colwell. They are staying at the Hotel Dunsmuir, and will be here for over a week. This is their first visit to the Great Lakes, and both expressed surprise over the rapid development of the chief western cities.

"They stopped off at Winnipeg, Regina, Medicine Hat, Calgary, Banff and Laggan on their way to the coast, and while expressing delight with the appearance of each, Mr. Colwell informed a representative of The News-Advertiser that Vancouver was certainly the most beautiful and one of the most progressive in the Dominion.

"During the afternoon they motored up to Shaughnessy Heights and around Stanley Park, both places coming in for high praise.

"Mr. Colwell is an old newspaperman, working at the profession in London, Ont., and Toronto, before entering the government service. It is his duty to prepare the orders of the day for the House, and few men in Canada have a closer knowledge of parliamentary procedure and acquaintance with public men than he. All notices of resolutions are sent to him before they appear in the official orders."

Mrs. Harry Dean Died in Detroit

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Detroit, July 26.—Mrs. Harry Dean, wife of the division freight agent of the Pere Marquette Railroad, died Friday evening at the home, 48 West Ferry avenue, following a few days illness of apoplexy.

Mrs. Dean was born in Kincardine, Ont., and had been a resident of Detroit 23 years. She had a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

She is survived by her husband, her father, James Ginning, one daughter, Mrs. W. J. Smith, of Cadillac, one brother and one sister in Kincardine, and two brothers in New York city.

Another Week of Merry Carnival

The Shows Will Hold For a Week at Queen's Park.

London will have another week of merry carnival beginning Aug. 4 and continuing until the 9th. Queen's Park has been granted for the event, and it is said that the shows will equal any that have been seen in the city. There will be the usual line of novelties and a few that are different. Details are already being worked out, and even at this early date Mr. Charles Brennan, who is looking after the local arrangements for the Social Order of Moose, moose whose auspices the carnival is held, has everything practically in shape for the event. He is receiving co-operation and encouragement on all sides, as these carnivals attract people to the city.

FOOT DRAWN UNDER WHEELS

A Young Colored Man Meets With a Serious Accident While Boarding Car.

MEMBER WAS AMPUTATED

In an attempt to catch a rapidly-moving street car at the corner of Pearl street and the Hamilton road, late Friday night, James Duncan, a young colored man, son of Mr. Hodges, of 451 Philip street, fell between the wheels, and had his foot so terribly crushed that amputation was found to be necessary. The accident was unnoticed by the crew of the car, as it did not stop, and the injured man was left lying on the roadway. Recovering somewhat, he commenced to drag himself away from the spot, and reached a lawn opposite the wheels, where the accident occurred, where he was found by Mr. William Lowman, of 476 Hamilton road. The police ambulance was called and Duncan was conveyed to Victoria Hospital, Dr. W. J. Stevens attended him and found the injured member so horribly mangled that amputation was necessary.

Duncan claims that he was waiting for the car at the corner of Pearl street, and when a westbound car came along he stepped into the roadway to stop it. No notice of him was taken, however, he claims, and the car did not slacken speed. He attempted to board it while it was moving, and was thrown down, his foot being caught underneath the car. He was dragged a considerable distance before it was released. Another car passed shortly after, but by that time he had succeeded in dragging himself out of the way. Duncan is employed as a porter at a local barber shop.

Unknown Woman Found Murdered

[Canadian Press.]
Chicago, July 26.—The police were confronted with another murder mystery in the finding late last night of the body of a woman partly immersed in the shallow water along the lake shore in Rogers' Park. She had not been dead longer than three hours an undertaker asserted.

A bullet-hole over the right eye and two abrasions of the scalp are proof of the woman's violent death. The victim could not have held a revolver in a position which would send the bullet on the downward course it took, the police say. On the beach the officers found an automatic revolver containing one empty cartridge.

They came across two furrows in the sand, which were traced to an alley about 50 feet away from where there were several footprints made by a man's shoe, and an umbrella bearing the label of a Milwaukee manufacturer.

It is thought that the woman was murdered in the alley, dragged into a few feet of water, and that the waves washed the body shoreward again.

The body is that of a woman about 30 years of age, and who weighed about 125 pounds. The hair and eyes are brown. She wore a black skirt.

Mothers Planning a Birth Strike

[Canadian Press.]
Berlin, July 26.—A "birth strike" as a means of bringing about electoral reform in Prussia is reported to be under discussion by a socialist gathering which heard the idea recently advanced by a speaker.

The father of the idea was Dr. Alfred Bernstein, who declared that most successful pressure would be exerted on the Government if mothers would make some such announcement as this: "We will bring no children into the world to become citizens of this state unless better rights of citizenship are accorded."

The Gypsy Wind

By Berton Braley.

Without my walls the west wind calls
The rovers of the road.
It sings the thrill of vale and hill
About my snug abode.
It sighs, "How sweet with faring feet
To seek the trail again,
The skies are blue, oh, join the crew
Of roving gentlemen!"
And it does make me fain to take
My leave of this fair spot.

IT STANDS TO REASON.

To lie away at break of day?
No, frankly, it does not.
Why should I roam afar from home
In dust and dirt and such?
Am I not drawn to follow on?
Believe me, folks, not much!

My three (3) meals look good to me.
I'm fond of being fed.
I do not care to wander where
I'll miss my downy bed.
The west wind calls without my walls.
I hear its luring sound,
But where I'm placed quite suit my taste,
I guess I'll stick around.

"DOIN'S IN BRUIN TOWN."

DRAWN ESPECIALLY FOR THE LONDON ADVERTISER BY ARTIST FRANK VERBECK, THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS BEAR-PICTURER. COPYRIGHT, 1913, BY THE NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSOCIATION.

Dear Folks: It becomes my sad duty today to record, and to notify you, of a Bruin Town tragedy! It happened early this morning. Our dear old Wandering brother was shot! He went out on the mountain side about daybreak with little Katie and little Tommy to pick huckleberries! At 7:45 a.m. we heard that most dreadful of all noises—the report of a gun! Instantly all Bruin Town seemed to throb with alarm. Instead of the inhabitants trying to find a safe hiding-place, they moved, as one being, in the direction of the shot. I went, too. As we advanced, we suddenly saw Katie and Tommy, hand-in-hand, running toward us. They were gasping! They were breathless! They were speechless! To the frantic inquiries of the daddy bears and mamma bears, neither could say a word. Instead they pointed toward the woods. We hurried on. There we found poor Wandering Brother lying on the ground, unconscious!

Lovingly, big bear hands made a litter of pine boughs, and the wounded brother was placed on it with care. Slowly four of the biggest, strongest Bruins started off with the litter towards town. It was awful to see the way Tommy and Katie took on. They were so afraid poor Wandering Brother might be fatally hurt. Since old Father Bruin has been away fishing the last few weeks, Wandering Brother has been acting mayor. Who should be mayor now? As soon as W. B. was comfortably settled in his own bear house, and Dr. Bruin had declared he would get over his gun wound, everybody started wondering who should run the city till Father got back. After about a minute, one of the older Bruins came over to me and took me by the hand, and asked me to manage things for them. Imagine a MAN being mayor of Bruin Town. Well, I was sorry for them and agreed. I am now acting mayor of Bruin Town. It's an honor indeed! FRANK VERBECK. P. S.—Wandering Brother has asked for something to eat. There is much hope for his recovery.

HOT WEATHER RULES FOR HORSES

- (As Compiled by Boston Work-Horse Parade Association.)
1. Lead lightly and drive slowly.
2. Stop in the shade if possible.
3. Water your horse as often as possible.
4. When he comes in after work, sponge off the harness marks and sweat, his eyes, his nose and mouth, and the dock. Wash his feet, but not his legs.
5. If the thermometer is 75 degrees or higher wipe him all over with a wet sponge. Use vinegar water if possible. Do not turn the hose on him.
6. Saturday night give a bran mash, cold, and add a tablespoonful of salt-petre.
7. Do not use a horse-hat unless it is a canopy-top hat. The ordinary bell-shaped hat does more harm than good.
8. A sponge on top of the head, or even a cloth, is good if kept wet. If dry it is worse than nothing.
9. If the horse is overcome by heat get him into the shade, remove the harness and bridle, wash out his mouth, sponge him all over, sponges his legs, and give him four ounces of sweet spirits of ammonia, or two ounces of sweet spirits of nitre, in a pint of water, or give him a pint of coffee, warm. Cool his head at once, using cold water, or if necessary, chopped ice, wrapped in a cloth.
10—If the horse is off his feed, try him with two quarts of oats mixed with bran and a little water, and add a little salt or sugar, or give him oatmeal gruel or barley water to drink.
11—Watch your horse. If he stops sweating suddenly, or if he breathes short and quick, or if his ears droop, or if he stands with his legs braced sideways, he is in danger of a heat or sun stroke and needs attention at once.
12—If it is so hot that the horse sweats in the stable at night he is outside. Unless he cools off during the night, he cannot well stand the next day's heat.

OPINIONS ABOUT PEOPLE IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Sir John Simon—Duke of Sutherland—Editor of Spectator—Mrs. Snowden—a Great Lawyer.
OPINIONS ABOUT PEOPLE.
Sir John Simon for the Cabinet. There would be unanimity of view that if any new man were admitted to the inner circle of the cabinet, one figure easily outshone all the rest, says the Nation. "That, of course, is the solicitor-general. Sir John Simon has always been much more than a lawyer; and of late it has been his part in critical debates. Not only has he shown the greatest skill in this kind of swordwork, but his counsel and personality probably count for more than any member of the government outside the cabinet. "He has made a first-rate solicitor-general. But he is urgently wanted for more responsible work; and his character and talents are essentially of the stamp that cabinets need."
Editor of the "Spectator." The editor of the British Weekly thus writes of the editor of the Spectator: "The truth is that Mr. Strachey has been for a long time setting himself up as a moral censor, and he has not carried out his duty with the same element of candour and sense of fairness. He is not a Pecksniff, but it might be well for him to read and ponder and read again the marvellous and terrible exposure of the human heart in Dickens' delineation of Pecksniff."
A Great Landlord. The Duke of Sutherland, who died last week, was one of the greatest owners of land in the British Isles. He was an able and industrious business-man, an early riser, and an energetic and steady worker of marked shrewdness, says the Times. "He devoted the best part of his life to the management of his vast estates, and though a great deal of land had been sold, he probably died, like his father, the greatest British landowner. Besides his English and Scotch estates, he had a great deal of land in Canada, which he had visited several times. He owned nearly 1,500,000 acres. He worked as hard as any land agent in the management of his businesslike condition. "In 1884, he married, on her 17th birthday, Lady Millicent Panny St. Clair-Erskine, the eldest daughter of the fourth Earl of Rosslyn. When, in the absence of one of the expected guests, Lady Millicent, who was then little more than a schoolgirl, was called upon to fill the vacant place.

Every sort of appeal to sentiment and sensibility seems to be allowed by a French judge, and 'avocats' do not scruple to employ the arts of the stage to move the hearts of the good men and true who listen, in a judicial spirit, to their oratory.
Richard Cromwell's Grave. A discussion having arisen as to the whereabouts of Richard Cromwell's grave, the Rev. T. G. Crippen (secretary Congregational Historical Society) gave the correct facts in the Star. He said: "The Protector, Richard Cromwell, was interred at Hursley, but there was another Richard Cromwell, who died in 1759, and is buried in Bunhill Fields. This gentleman was a great-grandson of the Protector Oliver, his parents being Major Henry Cromwell and Hannah Hewling, and his grandfather the 'Lord Harry' who was ruler of Ireland during the Commonwealth."
An Apostle of the Open-Air. "Men who have sipped much under the skies and made themselves brothers to birds and beasts cannot be disguised by broadcloth and a townman's hat," says a writer in the Daily Mail. "Those who have noticed this who have had the felicity of seeing and hearing America's great apostle of the open-air life—Mr. Ernest Thompson Seton, who recently delighted British audiences with his lectures upon 'The Fascination of the Wilds'—for there never was a lecturer less academic than he. "No one has ever talked of natural history with so much nature in his discourse and so little chill science. No hunder of wild animals has been so kind a slayer and so constant a friend. He has not gone into the wilds, as so many would-be Nimrods have, armed with batteries of destruction and returned to write wearisome yarns of his prowess. He has gone out with batteries of observation, and his finest 'bags' have been with camera, pencil, and pen. Thus he came to write his best-known book, 'Wild Animals I Have Known.'"

WON THE WAGER.

At a certain club the other day two members were arguing about will power. The conceded man, who was in the habit of boring all present with his pointless tales, said that his will was stronger than that of his friend. "You are wrong there," said the quiet man, "and I will prove it in this way. You go and stand in that corner, and I will you come out of it. You will against me, and I'll wager I will have you from the corner before I have commanded you a second time." The smart one took up the challenge and put himself in the corner. The quiet man said, in a commanding voice: "Come out of that corner!" The other grimaced and shook his head. The quiet man sat down and looked at him steadily. Five minutes passed, and then the man of will said, with a sneer: "Hah! you better give it up! I don't feel any influence at all, and I can't stand here all the evening." "There is no hurry," said the quiet man, "and I have a very comfortable seat. There is no time-limit except that you are to come out before I ask you twice, and as I don't intend to ask you again until this day week, I think you'll soon begin to feel the influence." The smart man came out.

There's many a viand that pleases my taste And adds to my joy and the girth of my waist. I'm fond of ice cream and of crackers and cheese, And terrapin, too, with my palate agrees; Of food that is simple and food that is rare, I find I can utilize all of my share. But wondrous, indeed, are the inroads I make On cold mashed potatoes and left-over steak!

Ah me, how I pity the mortal who dwells In big boarding-houses or costly hotels. No matter how richly and grandly he dines With Frenchified dishes and notable wines, He never can know the delights of the deed Of raiding the icebox in search of a feed; He never can know what it is to partake Of cold mashed potatoes and left-over steak.

For when the forepart of the evening has sped And the stomach expresses a wish to be fed, To satisfy hunger that follows the play, I have no desire for the gaudy cafe; Ah no, I would stick to my regular hunch And dig in the icebox in search of my lunch. At home, in the kitchen, my fast I would break With cold mashed potatoes and left-over steak.

Shepherd Finds the Heartache of Paris; It Lies Just Beneath the Eternal Smile.

It's the Story of the Girl Without a Marriage Portion; the Story of the Girl Who Loves But Cannot Marry; the Story of Every Pretty Paris Girl Who Is Hounded Till She Yields.

[By William Shepherd.] Staff Correspondence. Paris, July 25.—I think I've reached Paris' heartache! It was hard to find, too, for Paris is bright and beautiful and green in the summer and almost everyone you see is gay and smiling. If you stay in Paris a few days you learn that a smile is only the armor that Paris wears; there is so much heartache that it must be hidden. It's Madeline's story and I'm going to let her tell it. There were four couples of them at a little hotel for

MARY BOYLE O'REILLY LEAVES HER TENEMENT FLAT TO MAKE A MIDNIGHT TOUR TO SEE HOW NEW YORK'S POOR DEFEAT MIDSUMMER HEAT.

BY MARY BOYLE O'REILLY.

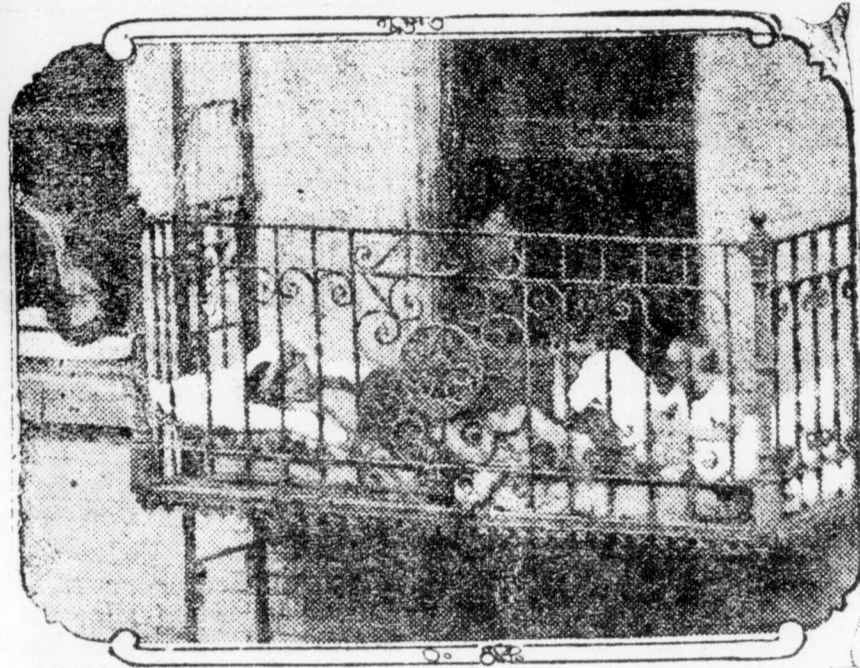

New York, July 25.—The heat that kills has come upon New York and yet we live. For the city, like a mighty mother, strives to shield her step-children. Hours after the sun is set, the cliff-like East Side tenements radiate heat, while the people whom they should shelter seek refuge on the swarming pavements. Yet care and forethought render life endurable.

Patrick Ahearn, district leader of the "Bloody Sixth" Ward, mopped his brow wearily as he sat on the stoop.

"We're ready for the work," he gasped, "but this will be a hard night on the women and children. Ten o'clock, with the thermometer still at 98!"

A tinkling glass at his elbow claimed his silent attention. Five discreet paces distant three keen-faced precinct lieutenants, smooth-faced, well-dressed and trigly-belted, fanned themselves with their panama hats. On the crowded sidewalks women, languid with exhaustion, waved palm-leaf fans over naked little ones lying in querulous unrest on vibrating baby buggies.

But the canyon-like street echoed with a gay clamor of childish voices, for the asphalt was awash from curb to curb. At every hydrant white wings with giant noses sent geysers into the air, and little girls with petticoats demurely tucked up and raggedly small boys with suspenders showing on their bare shoulders shrilled appreciation as they waded in the rippling tide while, a municipal band making concert music for twenty thousand overwrought workers.

"Well, I must be going," announced the district leader upending his empty glass politely.

"Will you come and see what New York does for its heat-stricken people?"

So we set out, the alert lieutenants following. "Take notice there are few flies and no insects to speak of—since Tammany made the big companies clean their water-front!"

The tenement blocks are dark, the pavements covered with weary workers sleeping in contorted attitudes. By hundreds and thousands they lie on stoops and areaways—men, women and young girls, driven from the airless warrens they call "home."

Municipal authority has detailed police reserves to guard the defenseless sleepers, and sent keen-eyed firemen to patrol the un-fenced roofs. By orders of the "Bloody Sixth's" far-seeing leader, teams passing between the ferries may only skirt his congested district that tired people may rest UNDISTURBED under the quiet stars.

The shriek of a siren from the East River startles us to attention.

"Daniel, what's that?" demands the ward boss, frowning slightly.

"A Standard Oil lighter, eh? Well, find them—and fine them. No explanations explain, y' understand?"

"I do, sir," and a fleet-footed emissary dashes into the dark. Minute by minute the streets grow more silent while the wind rises and utterly weary men and women sink to more refreshing sleep.

Block by block the district leader goes his rounds, admonishing, advising, commanding in crisp phrases.

And then—far-borne but insistent the shriek of a street speaker rings through the crowds. Though the words were Yiddish, the district leader understands.

"Hey, what's this?" shaking a severe head. "Socialism, revolution, tonight? Mac, that's your block. Get after him! No more of it. Free speech is good, but not in this weather!"

"Very well, sir," and "Mac," suddenly grave, was gone.

Eleven o'clock, and the thermometer a pitiless 95 in the dark. Along the curbs women with throats laid bare mop their faces, praying for the cool. On the fire balconies drowsy children chirp enjoyment of their novel sleeping-place. No smoke taints the atmosphere, for congested New York cooks with gas—but odors still drift from darkened homes, odors stuffy rather than reeking. Far down the block a house with a white front, still lighted, signals where milk can be bought at cost—carefully chilled milk, safe and sweet.

Slowly, with constant pauses, a van creaks along, peddling Tammany ice at five cents a generous cake.

Here and there white-clad doctors and nurses pause to inspect a huckster's doubtful wares or pass swiftly to meet an emergency. At strategic points ambulances wait to rush heat victims from the most congested district on earth. The hum of languid life sounds less and less as it falls to sleep to the thud and drip of the giant hose.

£75,000 FOR DEPENDENTS OF THE SCOTT PARTY

Widow of Explorer Gets £8,500 and His Little Son Peter £3,500—Doctor's Widow Gets £8,500—Generous Provisions for All.

The arrangements which have been made for the distribution of the £75,000 subscribed by the public to the Captain Scott Mansion House Fund are explained in the report of the Committee over the signatures of Sir D. Burnett and other members.

Thrilled by the great tragedy of the Antarctic, many of the subscribers explicitly assigned their contributions to the relief of the dependents of those who perished, and making this as a guide as to the direction the grants should take, the Committee decided to make what they deem very liberal additions to the Government annuities.

In a word, the £75,000 in the hands of the Committee is to be distributed as follows:

Widows and relatives £34,000
Deficit on expedition £5,100
Publication of scientific results £17,500

This will leave about £18,000 for a memorial to those who perished after their gallant dash to the Pole.

Additional Grants. The Government, it will be recalled, have decided to ask Parliament to sanction a special vote to provide annuities for Lady Scott, Mrs. Scott (the captain's mother), Mrs. Wilson (widow of Dr. E. A. Wilson), Mrs. Evans (widow of Petty Officer Evans), and Mrs. Bowers, and the two sisters of Lieut. Bowers, and the Committee, taking into consideration the considerable amounts explicitly assigned by subscribers for the widows and relatives of the dead men, made liberal grants to supplement these Government annuities.

In so doing they consider they are satisfying the obvious desire of the donors that, in distributing the fund, generous treatment should, above all, be rendered to those who were dependent upon the gallant men who gave up their lives in this expedition.

They have allocated the following sums:

Table listing names and amounts: Lady Scott £8,500 0 0, Peter Scott 3,500 0 0, Mrs. Scott (mother of Capt. Scott) and her two daughters 6,000 0 0, Mrs. Wilson 8,500 0 0, Mrs. Bowers and her two daughters 4,500 0 0, Mrs. Evans and her three children 1,250 0 0, The mother of Edgar Evans 250 0 0, Mrs. Brissenden and her child 750 0 0, Mrs. Abbott 750 0 0, Total £34,000 0 0.

Mrs. Brissenden is the widow of a sailor of the party who was accidentally drowned in survey work in New Zealand during the expedition, and Mrs. Abbott is the dependent mother of a chief petty officer who had become insane in consequence of the privations endured.

The Public Trustee. It has been decided that the Public Trustee shall be associated with the widow or relatives, and that trust-deeds be prepared in each case with such wide powers of investment, advancement, and administration as the Public Trustee shall advise. In the case of Lady Scott, the Committee have decided that after her death the trust money shall go to her son on his attaining the age of 25. In cases where there are at present, joint recipients, the grant will eventually become the sole property of the ultimate survivor, who will have power to dispose of the same by will as he or she thinks fit. In Mrs. Wilson's case, as she has no dependents, the same arrangement will, of course, prevail.

The estimated deficit on the cost of the expedition to the end of its work, after the payment of expenses and salaries, the grant of a bonus to officers and men, and the sale of the Terra Nova, amounts to about £5,100, and this is to be paid from the fund.

For the publication of the scientific results of the Expedition, the Committee, on the advance of a sub-committee over which the President of the Royal Geographical Society, and Staff Surgeon E. L. Atkinson, R. N., as representing the scientific staff of the British Antarctic Expedition, The Mansion House Committee have secured the services of Captain Henry George Lyons, R. E., F. R. S., who is willing to undertake without salary, the editorial charge of the preparation and publication of the scientific results of the Expedition, and will attend the meetings of the Committee.

£18,000 for a Memorial. When all these amounts have been allocated about £18,000 will remain for a memorial, and the Committee recommend the following distribution of the fund:

The provision of a suitable memorial tablet in bronze in St. Paul's Cathedral, sanction for this having been given by the Dean and Chapter.

The erection of a sculptural monument in bronze in a public place in London (preferably the space immediately behind the main building of the Royal Geographical Society), to contain the figures of the five dead men, by a sculptor of approved eminence to be hereafter selected.

The balance—estimated at £10,000—to be placed in the hands of trustees and devoted to an endowment fund in aid of future Polar research, the income to be applied either annually for the encouragement of such work as may arise, or allowed to accumulate until such an occasion presents itself. This is an object which it is believed would be particularly appreciated by the late Captain Scott.

As the relatives of the late Captain Oates require no assistance from the nation or fund, a contribution to the special memorial to this gallant officer, now being raised by his regiment, would seem to be particularly appropriate, and the Committee propose to make it.

Fight to the Death With a Sea Vampire Famous Combat of Man and Beast

BY AUNT GERTIE.

This is the story of a fight, to the death, with a sea vampire, the cold, bloodless, boneless, fleshless, flabby creature which wraps itself about a human being and draws the life-blood out, inch by inch, slowly and silently, until the last drop is gone! It is the famous combat in Victor Hugo's "Toilers of the Sea," retold.

The scene of this terrible conflict was a deep-sea cavern. The hero was Gilliatt, a great, strong, fearless man, who would dare everything and fight anything.

Gilliatt was exploring in the dark recesses of this watery cavern, when he suddenly felt himself seized by the arm!

A strange, indescribable horror thrilled him! Some living thing; thin, rosy, flat, slimy, cold, jellylike, had twisted itself around his arm. Its pressure grew tight like the pulling of a cord!

In a moment a long, spiral arm darted out towards his chest. Another passed around his elbow and reached almost to his shoulder.

A sharp point, almost like a knife, touched his armpit. A moment later, a second long, leathery, cold, slimy form, started out of the crevice in the rock; crept over his skin, and finally wound itself around him. Numberless flat, rounded points, that seemed like small mouths, about to drink his blood, crept on his skin.

A third long, cordlike shape felt its way about his body and then coiled itself, tightly around his ribs. He pushed and turned. But the more he moved, the greater the activity of the monster.

A fourth and a fifth long, slimy band twined around him, and all heaved, evidently, to the same centre.

All at once, as Gilliatt strained his eyes to see, a large, round, flattened, hideous mass made its appearance from beneath the rock. In the middle of the horrible substance, there were two eyes that seemed to be fixed on him, hungrily. With a new sense of horror and fear, he recognized A DEVIL-FISH!

There is only one way to kill a devil-fish. That is to sever its head from its body! Gilliatt knew it. His left hand holding his open knife, was all that was free. Knowing that he must act quickly and accurately he watched his

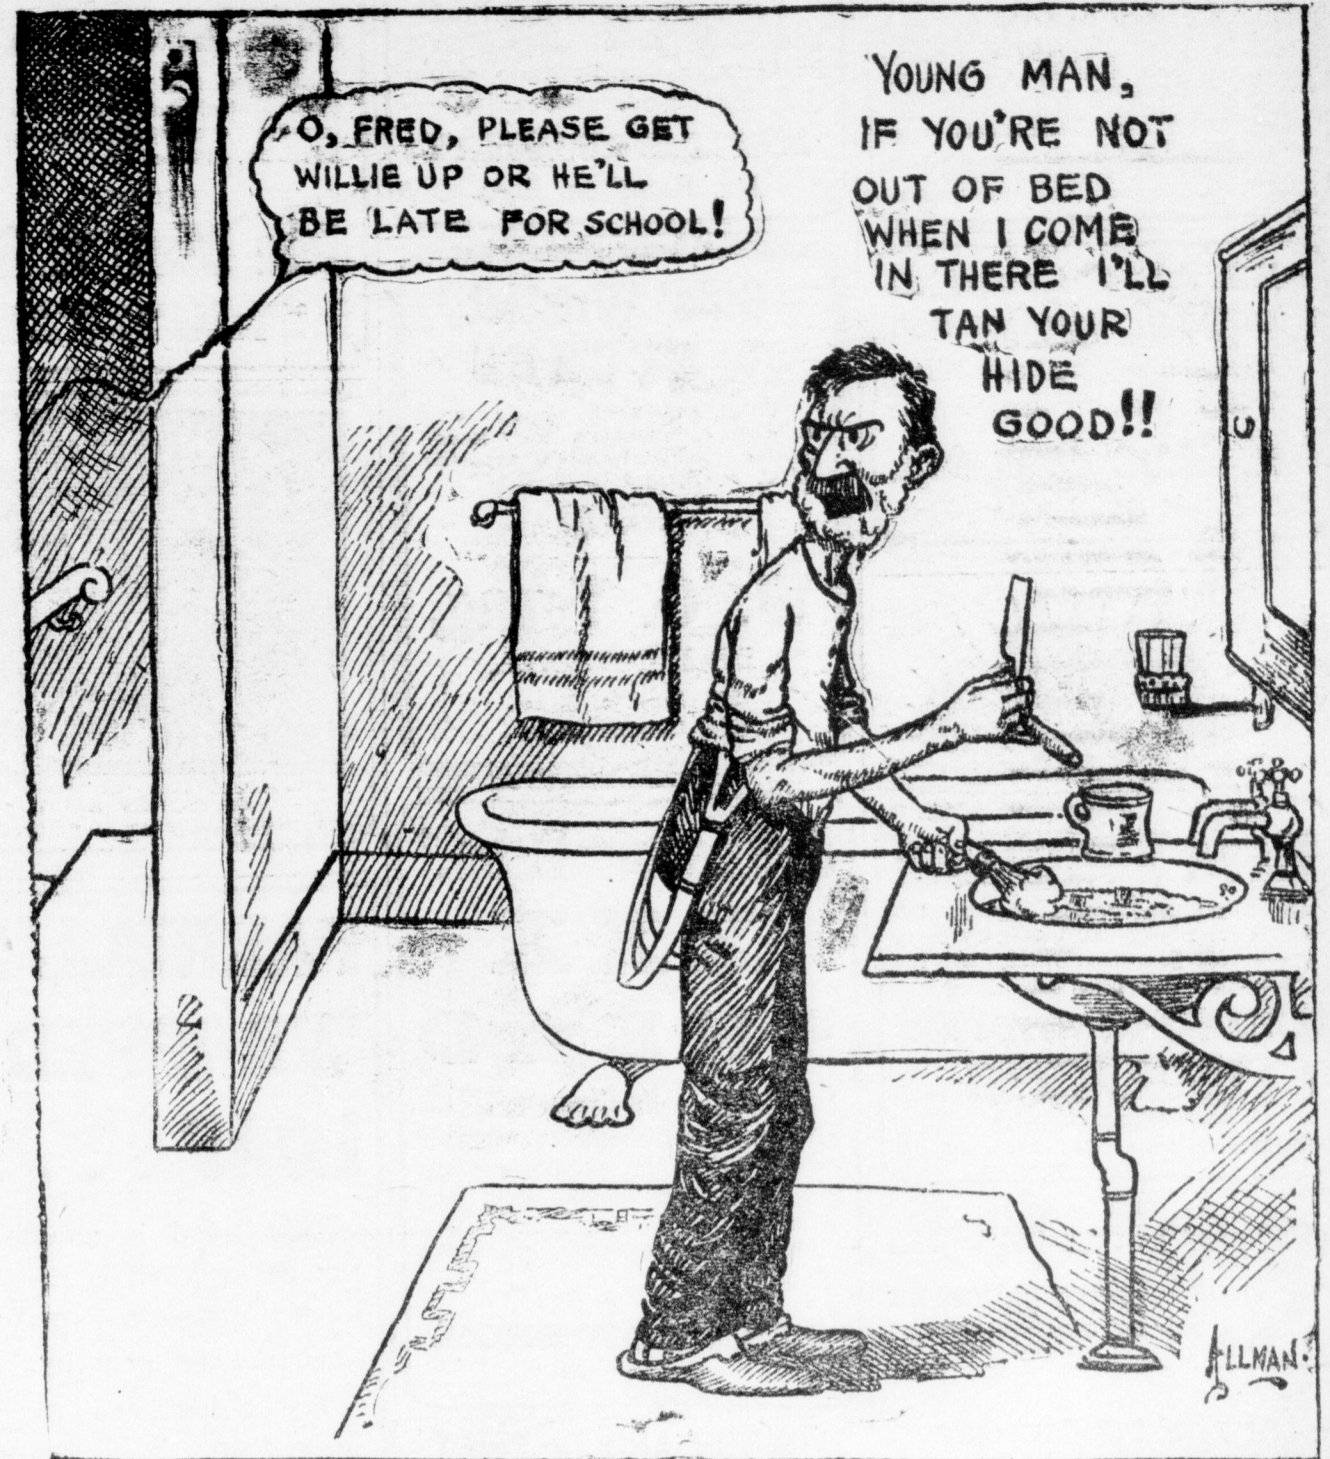

SUNSHINE FOLLOWS CLOUDS.

NOX RANDALL

"I'm glad," he cried, "to see you smile. Your own sweet smile again. To hear once more your laughter sweet in silvery refrain. You have been pensive and most sad, Of love I'd a doubt, 'Forget those sad, dark days,' she said, 'I've had my corn took out.'"

THE GREAT CANADIAN HOME

Just Little Things---A Poker, a Scrap of Paper, a Shred of Skin---Solved the Great Rock Island Express Car Murder!

BY FRANK PARKER STOCKBRIDGE.

(Copyright, 1913, By the Newspaper Enterprise Association.) It is "the little things" the criminal overlooks that sends him to prison or death. Little things—habits, a torn scrap of paper, forgetting to notice the weather.

A little past midnight on March 13, had used it to beat the messenger's brains out had hung it carefully in its accustomed place behind the stove. It was not ceased grinding before Brakeman Harry Schwartz came running through the train.

"The messenger has been killed!" he shouted to Conductor Danforth.

Kellogg Nichols, United States express messenger, in charge of the first second express car, was the only one of the two express cars, was lying dead on the floor. The safe was open, the car floor littered with papers, the robbery had shovled a revolver through the ventilator glass in the car roof. The $50 AND $100 BILLS WAS MISSING. All the train crew excepting Conductor Danforth and Brakeman Schwartz remained at Morris to guard the evidence until detectives arrived from Chicago, while the rest of the train went on west.

And these are the clues the detectives found next morning: A heavy poker, with blood and matted hair on it. A black cloth mask, lying in the snow near the tracks, with one of its white strings torn out. Shreds of human skin under the dead man's finger nails. A corner missing from one draft in a bundle of cancelled vouchers.

Little enough evidence to find a murderer with. But the test of a good detective is his ability to find clues in THE LITTLE THINGS the criminal has overlooked—and in this case the detective was William A. Pinkerton.

Another LITTLE THING the criminal had overlooked. Someone who had been on the robbed train had travelled back from Davenport, with Conductor Danforth, and Brakeman Schwartz. Every passenger on the train that brought the valise in from Davenport was hunted up and questioned. The very last one, found after weeks of search, remembered seeing Schwartz come out of the washroom just before the valise was found in there.

In the meantime, the "Rock Island Robbery" had become almost a national mystery. BUT THE DETECTIVES DECIDED TO SHADOW SCHWARTZ.

left hand Friday afternoon when in playing around a cook stove he came in contact with a hot pipe. His father was absent at work, and his mother was down town, but some ladies, attracted by his cries, were able to alleviate the pain. A stranger happening along took the boy to the office of Dr.
Lindsay, where his injuries were dressed.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Funeral of Hugh Campbell.
The remains of the late Hugh Campbell, who died at St. Louis July 20, were laid to rest at Woodland Cemtery Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Campbell was born at London, June 20, 1861, and went to St. Louis about 30 years ago, where he spent the greater part of his life. He was a printer by trade and a member of the St. Louis Typographical Union. He was of a very kind and charitable disposition and gained numerous friends by his magnanimous acts of kindness. Mr. Campbell was ill only a short time, the immediate cause of death being pneumonia.
He is survived by his three sisters, Mrs.
A. Simons of Kansas City, Kan.; Mrs.
C. J. Blodgett, Marshalltown, Ia.; and Miss Elizabeth Campbell, 54 Miles street, city. The pallbearers were Alex. Hugh, Finley and John McDonald, of Kintore, cousins, and Wm. Gaze and C. J. Blodgett.

SEAFORTH.

and Mrs. James Lawrence, Mr. Fred J. Lawrence, of Vancouver, is also home for the summer holidays.
Mr. J. W. McWilliams and daughter, of Detroit, are spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. James Kehoe.
Miss Gertrude Dorsey, stenographer for the Seaforth Milling Company, is able to be out again after a severe illness of two months.

Mr. William Barker, of Bismarck, North Dakota, spent yesterday with his uncle, Mr. Joseph Sproat. He is on his way to the Argentine Republic, and if he likes the country will remain
there.
The Citizens' Band will hold a lawn social on A. E. Forbes' lawn, opposite Victoria Park, next Friday evening. A splendid program of vocal and instrumental music has been arranged.
Mrs. J. E. L. Pangman and children, of Toronto, are the guests of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Case, Maple Hall.
Mayor J. C. Greig has handed in his resignation. The new law prevents him from being clerk of the division court and holding the office of mayor.
Nominations take place on Aug. 1, and if an election is necessary, voting will take place Aug. 8. In the meantime Councillor Harry Stewart has been appointed chairman until Mayor
Greig's successor has been elected.
The new postoffice has been completed and ready for the boxes and furniture, though the date of opening has not as yet been announced.
Miss Eva Chittenden has taken a

CANADIAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY, 1913

We have just received from the publishers, A. McKim, Limited, of Montreal and Toronto, a copy of the 1913 Edition of the Canadian Newspaper Directory. This is the eighth edition of this well-known work, which fills a very real need in Canada, and deserves a place on the desk of every businessman, whether he is an advertiser or not.
The Canadian Newspaper Directory lists and describes 1,588 periodicals in Canada and Newfoundland. Of these 152 are daily, 1,279 weekly or semi-weekly, 222 monthly or semi-monthly, and 25 are published less frequently.
This is a considerable increase over the last edition. There is also a specially-selected list of leading British publications, which will be of much use to those interested in the country trade. In addition to this, the Directory supplies a comprehensive Gazetteer giving the population, the chief industries, the railway, the telegraph and banking facilities, and other interesting features of every newspaper city, town and village in Canada. This work contains over 495 pages. It is splendently bound, and is certainly a credit alike to the publishers and to the Canadian newspaper generally.
A. McKim, Limited, are particularly well qualified to edit and publish this book of reference on Canadian publications. They are the pioneers in the advertising agency field in the Dominion, the McKim Agency having been founded in Montreal in January, 1889, 24 years ago, by Mr. Anson McKim, who is still at the head of the business.
During all this time they have been leaders in this line in Canada, and the agency business has been developed from a very small beginning—then performing only the functions of the middle man—to a very large producing enterprise which runs into millions. The price of the 1913 Directory is $2.00.

Personal Mention

Misses Olive and Myrtle Luce, of London, are spending a week's vacation in Kokoma at their uncle's, Mr.
H. L. Luce, Hill View farm.
Mr. Cyril Overend, of Winnipeg, is

Mr. and Mrs. J. Overend, 354 Picadilly street.
Mr. A. J. Goodall, formerly of the Imperial Bank of Canada in Quebec
City, and recently appointed manager of the London branch, has arrived in the city.
Mr. and Mrs. Oswald St. Lawrence, of Nelson, B. C., are on a visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John St. Lawrence, of 478 Talbot street.
Mrs. A. Mountjoy and son, Charles L. of London, are holidaying with the former's son, A. R. Mountjoy, after flooring well. Bake in layers. Mak
R. Cushman, district freight agent,
C. P. R., at Saskatoon, a London old boy, is visiting his parents at 263
Grey street.

Unable to Tell How
He Got to Montreal

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ingersoll, July 25.—Although the whereabouts of A. L. Wright, a policeman here up to Saturday last, when he mysteriously disappeared, have been established, the case has taken on another aspect.
It is practically certain that Mr. Wright is in Montreal, a letter written by him to his wife having arrived here on Thursday afternoon.
There is some apprehension as to his mental condition.
In the letter received by his wife he seems unable to account for his presence in Montreal, which would imply that he has not a very clear recollection of what has transpired.
Although a letter was written and posted at Montreal the missing man gave no street address and it has been impossible to get into direct communication with him.

ENJOY THE COOL ATLANTIC SEA BREEZES.

Those contemplating a seaside trip should bear in mind the excellent train service offered by the Canadian Pacific.
Fast Express trains leave Montreal at 1:15 p.m. daily and 9:00 a.m. daily, except Sunday, for Portland and other Maine Coast Resorts.
Connecting trains leave Toronto
9:00 a.m. and 10:30 p.m. daily. Day train carries dining car and parlor car and night train standard sleepers to Montreal.

Wrinkleless Skin
Now Easy to Have

[From Family Physician.]
There is no cure for other than having wrinkles now. It has been found that a simple mixture of salicic acid and witch hazel has a remarkable action upon the deepest wrinkles, no matter what their nature, whether caused by worry, habitual frowning, a debilitated condition or the ravages of Father Time. This harmless remedy, which anyone can easily make and use at home, acts both as an astringent and a tonic. The combined effect of tightening the skin and heightening its vitality is to immediately affect every line and wrinkle, keeping the cuticle smooth and firm as in youth.
The mixture consists of salicic acid (powdered)
to one-half pint with witch hazel.
The solution should be used as a wash and is equally effective in the case of flabbiness of cheek and neck, as well as sagging below the eyes.

HOUSE PROBLEM FACES NEWCOMERS AT QUEEN'S PARK
Cannot Secure Domiciles and Western Fair Will Require Present Quarters.
Immigrants Unwilling Guests of City—Very Few Going to Farms.

To be the unwilling guests of the city because of inability to secure dwelling houses at a reasonable figure, or in fact at almost any figure, is the predicament of a number of newly-arrived English families who at present are housed in one of the buildings at Queen's Park. Some have arrived within the last few days, while others have been there almost a month, but all declare that it is impossible to secure houses in any section of the city. Fifteen families are at present quartered at the exhibition grounds, numbering in all over fifty people. They were notified a short time ago that they were to vacate the premises by the seventeenth of July in order that the building might be put in shape for the Western Fair, but as one woman expressed it, "Where can we go? They can't turn us out on the street with our children, and we simply can't get houses."

MINARD'S LINIMENT LUMBER-MAN'S FRIEND.

Just what will have to be done in the matter is a problem which Dominion Immigration Agent Riggs will soon have to face. All of the men have succeeded in securing employment, but none have succeeded in finding suitable dwellings to which they can move with their families.
Meanwhile the discomforts of life in the fair grounds buildings are many and varied. The long period of waiting is proving especially trying on the young children, of whom there are a large number. It is impossible to watch them continually, one mother informed The Advertiser reporter, and the result is that there is constant dread of accidents. Automobiles and wagons are continually passing through the King street gate, near which the buildings are situated, and the youngsters playing around outside are in danger of being run over, and the mothers are anxiously awaiting some solution of the problem which will enable them to leave the fair grounds.

IRISHMEN DISCUSS PICNIC MAY "PASS UP" THE PORT

Some Possibility of Excursion
Being to Sarnia or Aylmer
This Year.
Port Stanley may not be the picnic grounds for the Irish Benevolent Society this year, as has been the case in former years. A meeting of the society was held in the board of trade rooms Friday night to make arrangements for the annual event, and while considerable business was disposed of there was no decision as to the date or place for holding the outing. The difficulty of securing proper accommodations at the Port, may lead to the picnic being held at some other place. Satisfactory arrangements have been made with the railroads, but the difficulty of securing a fine series of picnic grounds at Port Stanley is said to be lacking.
As a consequence, the claims of Aylmer or Sarnia, both of which towns are believed to be anxious to secure the picnic, will be considered.
The various committees met during the evening, and prepared the program, which will contain some new features. Mr. James McCormick has succeeded in arranging a fine series of dances, and Dr. W. M. Sheobhan reported that the baby show committee had secured a number of good prizes.
Mr. John P. Forristal, president of the society, presided at the meeting.

PRIVATE MAY KEPT ALIVE
BY GREAT WILL POWER

Although Terribly Crushed, the Doctors Think That He May Recover.
Private Richard May, of the Army Service Corps, who was so seriously injured in a runaway during the military camp a month ago, is still in Victoria Hospital in a critical condition.
Mr. May was caught between a heavy army wagon and a tree at the corner of Oxford and Adelaide streets, when the team which he was driving ran away.
He was taken to the field hospital at the time of the accident, and kept there for nearly a week, as it was thought his injuries were not serious.
He grew worse, however, and was removed to Victoria Hospital for an operation. While on the table the hydro lights went out, and the work had to be finished by gaslight. It is said that owing to the failure of the light the operation was not as successful as it might have been.
Physicians say it is a marvel that he has lived as long as he has. During the time he has been in the hospital he has been unable to eat anything, and the doctors claim that his will power, which is wonderful, is the only thing that is keeping him alive.
They also say that if he continues to bear up there is a possibility of his getting better.
