COMMITTEE OF THREE ALDERMEN APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE CITY'S PART IN PAYMENT OF A FINE OF MAN SENTENCED TO JAIL

It is Alleged That a Foreigner Was Fined $300 by P. M. Livingston Some Time Last Winter, and Had Only $100 to Pay it So Went to Jail, and That City Paid the Balance and the Man Was Released--Aldermen Want Information on the Subject.

THE DAYLIGHT SAVING SCHEME NOW ADOPTED

At Midnight Next Saturday all Clocks Will be Put Forward One Hour and Will be Put Back One Hour on Saturday, Sept. 30th at Midnight--Change Was Adopted Without Dissent.

Brantford is to be like Ottawa and have an investigating committee of its own. At last night's council meeting, a committee of three aldermen, Ald. Dowling, Freeborn and Wiley, was appointed to investigate and report on a suspicion of alleged irregularity in the liberation of a prisoner who was sent down by Police Magistrate Livingston, because he could not pay a $300 fine, imposed upon him for having too much liquor on his premises. The manner of his liberation was reported to him by various sources, said Ald. Dowling last night, to be that the prisoner had $200 and the city paid the balance of the $300 and thus freed the man of his term of servitude. The mayor, who, it was alleged, authorized the payment by the city, declared as an explanation, that the fine was excessive, that the $200 was all that the man had, and that by the city paying the balance it received the $200 which otherwise it would have nothing. As Mayor, he declared, he had the right to do as he did. While only a couple of aldermen spoke on the matter, they expressed some astonishment at his Worship's intervention in the sentence handed down by the police magistrate, and on the suggestion of Ald. Wiley the committee was formed to investigate the whole affair. Whether or not the investigation will be public will be determined later.

The other chief item of business put through last night was the adoption of the Daylight Saving Plan, by which the clocks of the city will be set forward one hour at midnight next Saturday and will be put back to their original time at midnight on Saturday, September 30th. There was considerable discussion on this resolution, but the consensus of opinion was that if the workmen of Brantford were in favor of the proposed measure then it should be adopted. From the speeches of the various aldermen it was evident that they were convinced that the workmen favored the scheme, so it was finally passed without division and without dissent, although the Mayor spoke against it.

The meeting was rather quiet, though at one time Ald. Pitcher declared that if the Mayor did not cease his habit of interrupting the council some night he would move that he leave the chair.

Just before the council adjourned Ald. Mellen rose on a matter of privilege. At the last meeting of the council one of the newspapers had quoted him as saying that the government should supply all the overseas battalions with everything they needed. If he said such a thing he wished to withdraw it. He was not opposed to anything the city or any other person might do in aiding the overseas forces.

There were three absentees last night, Ald. A. O. Secord, Ald. Minshall and Ald. Welsh.

The Council adjourned at 10.20 to

WORN WORRIED WOMEN

Her Many Duties Affect Her Health, and Often She Breaks Down Completely

It is little wonder that there are many times in a woman's life when she feels in despair. There is no nine-hour day for the busy housewife. There are hundreds of things about the home to keep her busy from the time she arises until it is again bed time. What is the result? Often her nerves give way, her good looks suffer, her blood becomes thin, her digestion is disturbed and her system threatened with a complete breakdown. Every woman should do all possible to protect her health and good looks, and there is one way in which she can do this, that is by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These actually make new, rich blood, strengthen every nerve and every organ, bring the flow of health to the cheeks and restore to the eye. These pills have done more to make the lives of thousands of women sunny than anything else in the world. Mrs. Daniel Theal, Waterloo, Ont. says: "I was very much run down, my blood was thin and watery and I would faint at the least excitement. I suffered from headaches and dizziness and often it seemed as though there were a curtain drawn over my eyes. Finally I was forced to go to bed with weakness. I doctored for six weeks while in bed without receiving any benefit. Finally I was induced to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and when I had taken ten boxes I was completely cured, and never felt better in my life. I am convinced that what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do for me they will do for others, and I warmly recommend them to all weak women."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

meet again Monday, June 12th.

The usual time lists were confirmed.

Mr. George Hatley on behalf of the Board of Trade, wrote enclosing the copy of a resolution adopted by that organization favoring the Daylight Saving Scheme, and asked the City Council to take action, stating that a canvass of the merchants and manufacturers of the city showed them in favor of the scheme.

EXTRAVAGANT.
Mr. James Costain wrote protesting against the expenditure of money by the city on the entertainment of Lord and Lady Aberdeen. He thought the money would have been better spent on red cross purposes. His complaint was filed.

Mr. A. K. Bunnell reported that the Brantford Industrial Realty Co. paid 6 per cent, at its annual meeting a week ago.

BALANCE ORDERED PAID.
The agreement dealing old post office to the city will be delivered by the government's solicitor, Mr. A. Hollinrake, on receipt of a cheque for the balance due, $2,500. The amount was ordered paid.

Mr. Leonard, as instructed by the Finance committee, has obtained answers from various municipalities regarding their by-laws governing plumbers and electricians. The finance committee asked for this because the local plumbers and electricians had petitioned for protection by-law, some time ago, and the petition had been referred to the committee. Some curiosity was expressed by several aldermen at the matter, and when the committee reports there will be some discussion.

Chief Lewis reported in favor of a gasoline tank on the premises of Mr. W. G. Brown, 14 King street. He provided it was put under his supervision. Referred to the Board of Works.

A MYSTERIOUS BILL.
The Hydro-Electric wants the sum of $30,000 for their work in drawing plans regarding the removal of poles from the front streets of the city.

The Hampel Paper Box Co. wrote asking for a fixed assessment for ten years on their premises. The Manufacturers committee will look after their request.

The Children's Aid Society was granted $300.

Another instalment was received from Mr. C. J. Mitchell on the purchase of the old Waterloo property, reported Mr. Bunnell.

Some discussion arose over the Hydro-Electric Bill. It did not seem to be the same amount as the last one, the former one being higher, and there was some doubt as to whether it was the same bill. Ald. Pitcher thought it was the same bill. Major Henderson had seen the Hydro people in Toronto and reduced the bill. The Board of Works will enquire into the matter.

THOSE INVITATIONS.
Ald. Ward took a little exception to the manner in which the invitations for Lord and Lady Aberdeen reception. The invitations were issued in the name of "The Mayor," instead of "The Mayor and Corporation." The Mayor said Ald. Ward was not talking to the Council, but to the electors, and declared he knew what he was doing when he issued them.

L. E. AND N. AT PARIS.
Ald. Bragg explained that the Railway committee and Mr. Todd of the L. E. and N. where it was learned that several feet of land had to be deeded over to the L. E. and N. from the 924 feet adjoining the station at Paris before it could cross the canal. The exact number of feet required was not known, so he moved the adoption of a resolution that the matter be left in the hands of the local Railway Commission to deal with. The Mayor approved, but pointed out that the matter really lay in the hands of the Council; that it had to approve any change.

WHAT ABOUT THE $30,000?
Ald. Ward asked if this matter was holding up the payment of the $30,000 to the city. The Mayor said he was not. Ald. Ward asked if the money had been received. Ald. Dowling said he had not got it yet. Ald. Bragg explained, however, that the L. E. and N. did not want to pay until the matter of getting enough land at Paris to cross the canal was settled. However the company was paying 5 per cent. on the amount due, explained Ald. Bragg and the Mayor.

PUT IT THROUGH NOW.
Ald. P. H. Secord thought the land should be given that night and settle the matter. The Mayor said the L. E. and N. should pay for anything they got. Ald. Ward was under the impression, he said, that the $30,000 to be received by the city was not considered when striking the estimates. Ald. Dowling explained that it was the money being applied to pay most of the back taxes of the Street Railway. The resolution carried, the local railway commission to report to the council for their action thereon.

The fortnightly accumulation of accounts was passed and ordered paid.

B. OF W. REPORT.
The board of works reported as follows:

1. On May 10th according to arrangement the City Engineer met the residents of the G. T. R. and discussed the question of the paving of the Albion street and Niagara street subways and the protection of the water from the former overflow of water. The resident engineer has reported to the Superintendent of the London Division and an adjustment of the matter is expected.

2. That the petition of Ernest Moule and others of May 3rd for curb in front of their properties on Peel street be referred back to the city clerk, who is sufficiently signed as a local improvement, and if this is so the work to be carried out.

3. That the communications of R. J. Martin to and D. G. Hammer of Feb. 24, be filed and that of W. A. Hollinrake of April 14th re accidents to wagon and horse and wagon of J. A. Mathewson be referred to the city solicitor.

DAYLIGHT SAVING.
Ald. Dowling moved, seconded by Ald. Freeborn:

That in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Trade of the City of Brantford at its annual general meeting, and in accordance with petitions largely, signed by mechanics and other citizens of Brantford, the City of Brantford is hereby resolved that the city clocks be advanced one hour at midnight, commencing Saturday, June 3, and that the clocks be continued until Saturday, Sept. 30, and on Saturday, Sept. 30, at midnight said clocks be put back one hour.

And be it further resolved that the citizens of Brantford be requested to advance their clocks in accordance with this resolution.

THE DISCUSSION.
Ald. Dowling declared he was in favor of the resolution and it was now up to the council.

"Where is the petition they talk about?" asked Ald. Pitcher. "Who did they consult?"

"There isn't any," said Ald. Mellen.

HOW INFORMATION WAS OBTAINED.
Ald. Dowling explained that two committees of the Board of Trade had met and decided to submit the proposal to the employers of labor and for them to find out the attitude of the employers. Ald. Dowling said they had called on some ten places. He had been informed by the manufacturers and other members of the committee had also been informed, that very few people seemed to be opposed to it. Ald. Dowling said he thought the adoption of the scheme would be a step in the way of progress. The extra daylight would be gained in the evening. Fresh air and daylight is the best cure for mental depression, and at no time was such a cure more needed than now. It was not a new thing. Besides many European countries, some American cities, Detroit and Cleveland, for example, had adopted it. He thought it would be a good thing to adopt, it

ALD. WILEY IN FAVOR.
Ald. Dr. Wiley said he was heartily in accord with what Ald. Dowling said. It was his business to see that people got fresh air. By changing the clock, the change was universal. If the workmen went to work one hour earlier, they would get the benefit.

Some corporations would not change, but they were in a minority. The school board was in favor.

"You can't change the Grand Trunk," said the Mayor.

"We can change the street railway," said Ald. Wiley.

"We can't change the post office or customs," said the Mayor.

THE STREET RAILWAY.
Ald. Bragg declared Mr. Hartman said the change would throw out the whole street railway system. If he could be convinced that the street railway would change its time, he would be in favor.

WHAT WAS LABOR'S VIEW?
Ald. Pitcher said that when he asked Ald. Dowling about the petition, he was not necessarily opposed to the change. He wanted to know, however, just where the laboring man stood on the matter. "If the laboring men of the city of Brantford are in favor of the scheme, so am I," declared Ald. Pitcher, but he wanted to be convinced that it was not merely a fad of the Board of Trade.

RATHER DOUBTFUL.
Ald. Mellen said his own experience showed it to be unsatisfactory. But if the working people wanted it, he was in favor. He was in doubt however whether they were or not. The few he had spoken to were opposed to it. Moreover, he said that the working people would not go to bed an hour earlier, but would get up an hour earlier, with a consequent loss of sleep. He did not think it would benefit the working people; if it did, let them have it.

WORKING MAN IN FAVOR.
As a working man himself, Ald. Jennings said he was sure the working people were in favor of the scheme, and it was the best scheme this city could adopt for the working man's benefit.

Ald. Hess wanted to know if any factories would object. If some did, that might mean two people from one

ATTEMPT MADE TO KILL AUSTRIAN PERSIAN MINISTER
Old Hand at Assassination Game Tried It Out Again.
By Special Wire to the Courier.
Berlin, May 30 (by wireless to Sayville).—An unsuccessful attempt to assassinate the Austro-Hungarian minister to Persia is reported in a Constantinople despatch to the Overseas News Agency. The attempt, according to the despatch, was made by Djemel Bey, who several years ago was involved in the assassination of Mahmoud Scheket Pasha, Turkish grand vizier and minister of war, and who in consequence was expelled from Turkey.
"Djemel Bey," continues the despatch, "who has been for some time in the service of Russia, wore the uniform of a Cossack when he attempted the assassination. An attempt to arrest Djemel Bey made by a Persian soldier was interfered with by a Russian officer. The Persian government has instructed an investigation into the affair."

OUT OF HIS MIND FOR IRELAND
An Irishman's Summing Up of Sir Roger Casement.
"Ireland," published in New York, contains an estimate of Sir Roger Casement by the young Cambridge poet, Shane Leslie, which those who wish to acquire some degree of understanding regarding this latest storm petrel in Irish history, says the Catholic Record, will do well to study carefully. Its gist is shown in one sentence: "We believe Sir Roger's mind has been truly and terribly set on one cause only, and that Ireland is the cause for which he has gone out of his way and out of his mind in order to sacrifice his life." Or: "If the Irish in America demand a hero let them take him if they will. Let them contract what is good and what is not good in what Casement has done. And then let them contrast what is not good and what is good in what John Redmond has done. Which is best for Ireland? The man who made Home Rule possible or the man who endeavored to make it impossible. The Irish must choose their hero. We have chosen ours; a choice which is shared by an overwhelming majority of the Irish race throughout the world."

LESS PEOPLE VISIT BIRTHPLACE OF SHAKESPEARE
War Cuts Down Numbers Who Can See Where Bard Used to Live.
By Special Wire to the Courier.
Stratford-on-Avon, May 30.—Shakespeare's birthplace was visited by only about 23,000 persons during the past year as compared with 37,000 in the preceding year, and approximately 50,000 in years of peace. The diminution of visitors from America was most marked, only 254 having signed the register album as against 3,000 the year preceding and an average of over 11,000 during the five years prior to the war. The pressure of the war also brought about a reduction in the number of admissions to Anne Hathaway's cottage and New Place.
The trustees of Shakespeare's birthplace at their annual meeting elected the Earl of Plymouth, a life trustee in place of the late Lord Ronald Sutherland-Gower. Sir Sidney Lee, who presided, expressed the confident anticipation that American visitors would come in their ordinary numbers when the war was over.

The Situation.

The Huns continue to make attack after attack on the Verdun front, with an ever-increasing sacrifice of their forces, and the only recent outcome has been the gain of three hundred yards of trenches near Cumieres.

The Italian war office reports that the big Austrian offensive still continues, but that the invaders now continue to be held. Vienna, on the other hand, has a different story. The truth will probably be found between the two.

General Smuts is forming a ring around the enemy in German East Africa, and the Turks are offering more of a resistance to the forces of the Grand Duke.

The stiff tone of President Wilson's note to John Bull, in which he asserts that the opening of U. S. mail must stop, has excited a good deal of comment.

The Fuse Charge Fizzle.

The enquiry at Ottawa, with reference to the fuse charges, still drags its expensive way along, but everyone who has followed the evidence is well aware that the whole indictment has long since absolutely collapsed.

Safe within the precincts of the House of Commons, where they could say or hint anything they liked, Messrs. Kyte and Carvell, Liberal M.P.'s, threw broadside a list of allegations which depicted a deplorable state of affairs in connection with war purchases, and indirectly charged that Sir Sam Hughes, War Minister, was either guilty of gross incompetency or worse.

AT THE GRAND

Brantfordites had occasion at two performances yesterday to amply realize why it is that Creatore and his band hold such a deservedly high place in the musical world. It is a marvellous organization which this master conductor and musician has built up, with the reeds and the brasses held in perfect balance, and with tonal effects of sublime beauty.

Mathewson Wins.

Boston, May 30.—The Giants continued on their unbeaten way yesterday, shutting out Boston, 3 to 0. Mathewson pitched for the visitors and held the Braves to four singles. The veteran did not waste his strength seldom using a fast ball, and Boston hit but few of his slow ones outside the diamond. Five double plays shortened the game. One of these was started by Mathewson. He pitched one of Smith's last shoots out of the air with his bare hand and doubled Konetchy off first. Score:—

R. H. E. New York 100000000—3 7 2 Boston 000000000—0 4 3 Mathewson and Rariden; Rudolph and Gowdy.

A society of lady chaperons has been formed among women of the north side of Chicago to provide escorts for girl pupils home from the school.

beginning behind the clear-eyed purpose of the Prime Minister, and they are so now; and so I believe are the thoughts and efforts of the people of Canada.

Dr. Clark in this attitude took the stand of a man, and the traducers who for a contemptible party advantage thought they were going to smash Sam Hughes, and incidentally the Government, have had the charges recoil upon them, to their own deserved discomfiture and debasement.

The Passing of a Big Man.

The late James J. Hill was a very big man—big not only from the standpoint of a large railway builder and one of a little group of whom Donald Smith (afterwards Lord Strathcona) was another who with large vision helped to open up and develop great tracts of territory, but notable also for his sound common-sense and wonderful grasp of economics and other matters.

Mr. Hill never entered public life, but the utterances which he made to the public during more or less frequent intervals, carried with them all the weight of some man of prominence in state affairs. He was quite apt at phrase-making. For instance, one of his statements not long ago in connection with increased cost of living expenses was: "It is not so much the high cost of living as the increased cost of high living."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

If the city starts, in its habit to help pay police court levies, this community will be in for a fine time all right.

The Russian Foreign Minister, Sazonoff, has dwelt upon the real alliance which now exists between Great Britain. In this Sazonoff apparently cannot say too much.

The Teuton crop in German East Africa is suffering from smuts. J. J. Hill's father wanted him to become a doctor. He earned very much more out of railway operations.

If the Greeks continue to fall back in front of that Bulgarian invasion they will earn the Marathon running championship in a very different way from what that event typified.

COMMITTEE OF THREE

(Continued from page two.) house going to work at different hours. Ald. Dowling said he knew of no factories opposing it.

SHOULD BE PROVINCE WIDE. Ald. Ward said the objection to the scheme was that it was piecemeal. The whole matter should be provincial. Let cities get together and memorialize the government at its next session and get the change adopted by the legislature.

THE SWEETEST HOURS. If it were good thing for the working people, it might be adopted, but he was not sure but that it would be a hardship for them. The sweetest hours of sleep came early in the morning.

"No they don't," said Ald. Dr. Wiley. There were business objections. Banks, customs, post office, what about these?

"The banks will change," said Ald. Dowling. However, Ald. Ward concluded, if the Council was in favor he would not object, though he was doubtful as to the score of the hotels. He suggested trying it out for a month.

ALD. FREEBORN. Ald. Freeborn said he had consulted many workmen in his ward and with few exceptions, they were all in favor. For that reason he felt it was his duty to support the question. There was no need to worry over the hotels; September would finish them anyway.

NOT GONE ABOUT RIGHT. Ald. Harp said he had heard more objections around the Council board than anywhere else. He was in favor; it would be a good thing for the barbers for instance. However, he thought a committee of the Council should have looked after it instead of the Board of Trade.

In reply to all the objections, Ald. Dowling said that while he was in favor of provincial legislation, yet the government would not likely do anything until several cities had shown the scheme was a good thing.

Ald. Dowling named several factories in favor of daylight saving, including Massey-Harris and Waterloo Co. THE MAYOR'S VIEW. The Mayor said he was perfectly willing to let the people have what they wanted. But the customs, post office and railways would not change their time, which would make things inconvenient for many people.

The resolution carried without dissent and without vote. HOLES IN THE PAVEMENT. Ald. Wiley asked when the Bitulithic people repaired the pavements. It was time something should be done to fill the holes.

Ald. Ward reported that the City Engineer reported to the company on the matter, and the repairs would take place sometime during the summer. ST. PAUL'S AVE. SUBWAY. While on his feet, Ald. Ward touched on the proposed St. Paul's Avenue subway. The preacher was "treacherously betrayed" said Ald. Ward, when the avenue was closed up. The cost of the subway would be about $500,000, the city engineer reported.

LAYING THE DUST. Ald. Bragg wanted to know when Ward 4 was going to get some oil on its streets. Ald. Ward, in reply, said Terrace Hill got the first instalment this year. Then again the rain stopped the work on several days.

OIL IS GOOD. The oil proposition was panning out very satisfactorily this year, declared Ald. Ward. The oil received from the Crescent Oil Co. was very satisfactory for having too much liquor on his premises. He could not pay it and went to jail. He understood, said Ald. Dowling, that the city paid $200 and the man $100, and thus the prisoner got out of jail.

CITY PAID $200. Ald. Dowling said that he had been informed that some time this winter a foreigner was fined $300 by the police magistrate for having too much liquor on his premises. He could not pay it and went to jail. He understood, said Ald. Dowling, that the city paid $200 and the man $100, and thus the prisoner got out of jail.

The mayor said in explanation that the fine was excessive; furthermore it was a case of getting either $100 for the city or nothing. All the man had in the world was $100.

Ald. Dowling said several people had been fined $300, and thus the fine could not exactly be called excessive. The mayor of the city should not go over the head of the police magistrate or the head of the Council.

USED HIS OWN JUDGMENT. The mayor declared he exercised his own judgment in the matter. "What right have you to release a man from gaol after the magistrate sends him down?" asked Ald. Dowling.

The mayor repeated his former explanation, that it was a case of the city getting either $100 or nothing. Some sharp discussion took place between the mayor and Ald. Dowling over Ald. Dowling's demand that the mayor explain on what legal basis he took the action he did. The mayor said Ald. Dowling could go to the City Solicitor for his information. Referring to Ald. Dowling's statement that he thought the council should investigate the matter, Mr. Bowley told him to "go ahead. Go as far as you like."

RATHER ASTONISHING. Ald. Wiley said the discussion revealed an astounding state of affairs. He could not understand why the mayor should intervene in the matter. It was creating a precedent. If one man had a right to get off, why not another? He did not see how the man could have been released from jail by the mayor.

The mayor said he did not release him. "How did he get out?" asked Ald. Dowling.

"I don't know," replied his worship. Ald. Dowling stated that the fine was paid with the city's money. Ald. Pitcher said he could not understand how the city could pay the fine. That seemed impossible.

Ald. Wiley said a committee should investigate the matter. "I know," said Ald. Wiley, "but the mayor interrupted him, stating that if the Council wanted a committee, why let it have one."

TOO MUCH ONE MAN. Ald. Ward objected to the mayor acting in the matter himself. He should have taken the council into his confidence, or at least the finance committee.

A committee of three, Aldermen Dowling, Freeborn and Wiley, was appointed to investigate the whole matter. "I never had the honor of being investigated before, but I am perfectly willing to be investigated," said Mr. Bowley.

Ald. Ward asked if the finance committee was going to report on the suggested grant to the local battalions. Ald. Dowling said a report would be brought in at next week's session.

POLICE COURT.
Earl Koenig of Paris was charged with using seditious utterances. The P. M. in dismissing the case with costs uttered a warning but said perhaps that the utterances had been somewhat provoked by the over-zeal of a recruiting sergeant. Defendant is of German ancestry. GOOD PROGRESS.
Excellent results in the form of a rapidly increasing membership roll, are being achieved in the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. through the efforts of Secretary George Mosley, who had adopted a new and original plan of obtaining new members, which he styles the "gang" system. Mr. Mosley is not satisfied with obtaining one new member here and there; every one secured is invited to bring the rest of his particular gang, all his chums, in fact, not necessarily to join the Y. M. C. A., but simply to pass an hour or two there some evening. The upshot of the matter usually is that the entire "gang" ultimately joins, several groups of new members having been obtained in this manner.

A cheque for $100 has been received at the 215th headquarters from Mr. Reg. Scarfe, to be devoted to the battalion funds. For this welcome and unsolicited donation, the officers of the battalion desire to express their sincere gratitude.

Lt.-Col. Cockshutt, Major Snider and Capt. Ferguson yesterday afternoon visited Paris, Glenmorris and St.

George where they report recruiting prospects for the near future to be very bright indeed.

Eight recruits were obtained by the 215th yesterday and several more this morning. The battalion strength at noon to-day was 360, and still running. The results of the recent city and county campaign of the 215th are now commencing to be realized, and it is expected that recruiting records in Brant county may be again broken soon.

A small touring car for the Battalion has been purchased by Lt.-Col. Cockshutt, to be used for the purpose of facilitating recruiting in the country districts.

The work of issuing A. R. buttons to rejected men is going on at headquarters, and the new slogan, "Get a uniform or get a button," is being adopted everywhere.

MEREDITH-DUFF COMMISSION HAS RESUME INQUIRY, COL. ALLISON AGAIN ON STAND FOR EVIDENCE

Amounts Paid to Him by Others as Commission Were Purely Arbitrary and Fixed by Himself - Had Paid All His Own Expenses in the Shell Dealings Which Would Out-Weigh What He Had Made; Never Made any Commission on Canadian Business.

Ottawa, May 30.—The Meredith-Duff Commission yesterday afternoon resumed its enquiry into the Kytze fuse contract charges. Col. J. Wesley Allison, whose testimony had to be discontinued when the commission was last sitting, owing to physical weakness, was on the stand all afternoon, his examination-in-chief by Mr. I. F. Hellmuth, as Commission counsel, being completed, and his cross-examination by Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, as chief Opposition counsel, begun.

Both the direct and the cross-examination of Col. Allison centred largely on details connected with his division of the $200,000 commission which he expected to realize as his share of Mr. B. F. Yoakum's portion of the total commission on the American Ammunition Company's fuse contract. It had been brought out, in previous evidence that Col. Allison had given orders on this $200,000 to Major George Washington Stephens, of Montreal; Col. McBain, Eugene Lignani, and to Miss M. G. Edwards, and yesterday afternoon he was asked to explain his reasons for so doing.

HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH CONTRACTS

His statement made it clear that none of the beneficiaries mentioned had figured in any way or had anything whatever to do with the two fuse contracts. They had simply been given orders on Col. Allison's share of the commission on the American Ammunition Company's fuse contract because of general working arrangements with him covering other munitions transactions with foreign Governments in which they were jointly interested.

Eugene Lignani had received $50,000 of Col. Allison's commission as a purely arbitrary sum fixed by Col. Allison himself. Lignani was also to share in any profits Col. Allison was to make on the Edwards Valve Company contract, which were known as two Southern rifle deals, and contracts for picric acid and perchlorate powder.

Major Stephens had received $10,000 out of Allison's commission on the fuse contract because of his general working arrangement with the witness on munitions contracts, and in particular because of his services in going to Europe to straighten out the matter of a $10,000 commission which was owing to Col. Allison there.

The amount of $30,000 given to Col. McBain had been fixed on as a general settlement of all deals with foreign Governments in which Col. McBain had been interested with Col. Allison. As for the payment of $105,000 out of Col. Allison's commission to Miss Edwards, he explained that by the statement that Miss Edwards acted as his secretary for the last ten years, and that consequently when he was very ill last January he had made this provision for her.

Col. Allison was also questioned as to the commission of $30,000 paid by

AT THE BRANT

Another excellent all-round bill is presented at the Brant for the first three days of the week. A picture of particular interest to all Brantfordites is that showing the recent military parade in Hamilton, in which the 84th and 125th battalions took part, the former being clearly visible in the picture, as are also Lieut.-Colonel Harry Cockshutt and Hon. Lieut.-Colonel W. F. Cockshutt on the platform with Sir John Hendrie, General Logie and others.

The thirteenth episode of the "Red Circle" is filled with stirring and dramatic incidents, the climax of the entire story being reached. Debonair John Barrymore is cleverer than ever in his interpretation of dual roles in "Nearly a King," and is surrounded by an exceptionally powerful and interesting one, teeming with dramatic and comic incidents.

The Nickelson Trio present a musical comedy novelty which last night won immense favor with all, while the transformation scene staged by Crest and Co. is mystifying to the point of weirdness.

GENERAL LOGIE ON OFFICERS' DUTY

Gives Advice as to Manner in Which Officers Should "Carry On."

Niagara-on-the-Lake, May 29.—"There are no bad battalions, only bad commanders," said Brig.-General Logie to an open-air conference of officers in the grounds of the headquarters last evening. "Punctuality, discipline and efficient administration are three essentials to a good officer. Be on time, do it now, should be your motto. Discipline is founded upon the faith of men in their officers. As to administration, I would advise commanders to organize a good orderly, and then leave it to their Adjutant and Junior Major to run it, while they should get out and look after the training of their men."

"An officer should have a sense of humor and high ideals. An officer and a gentleman should be synonymous."

The general urged them to observe the ordinary manners and conversation of their own homes while at the table and in their quarters and to show a healthy example to their men in all such things. He asked them to exercise their authority with fairness and good-humor. Not to make a personal matter out of an official rebuke. They should disabuse their minds of the idea that they are business men, and then leave it to their Adjutant and Junior Major to run it, while they should get out and look after the training of their men.

LISTENING TO WIRELESS MESSAGES IS A FASCINATING DIVERSION

Wireless Operator on a British Man-of-War in the North Sea Listens to Press Despatches to Atlantic Vessels From British Sources, But Also to German Despatches and Messages From Commanders of Allied Units.

The complexity of the wireless traffic over the North Sea, says the Wireless Age for May, is well illustrated by the story of a correspondent who visited the radio room of a battleship of the British fleet. Not only could he pick up Poldhu, the German press sent out from Nordeich, and the Eiffel Tower, but communication from Madrid, the Russian commander in the Baltic, the Mediterranean fleet, the admiral of the British Grand Fleet, and the German headquarters were all plainly audible. This, of course, was accomplished by adjusting the apparatus to accommodate the varying wave lengths.

The wireless officer in charge on the vessel which the writer visited had described it as a "wonderful night for wireless," though the night was muggy and cold. But there was something in the atmospheric conditions which responded exactly to the requirements of the wireless.

The operator had just finished taking the daily news message from Poldhu, the Welsh station of the English Marconi Co's station at Cape Cod, which sends press despatches to Atlantic passenger vessels, and remarked that it ought to be possible in a moment to hear Nordeich, the high power German station which sends out the German press despatches to ships at sea. The operator had his eye on the clock, whose minute hand was approaching the hour of nine. "He is very punctual, sir, is Nordeich; you can set your watch by him. I dare say he is just knocking out his pipe now, he will start in a minute. If you take the receiver over my ears," the correspondent continued, "A black volcanic disc which regulates and times the wave-length to synchronize with one of the many voices in the air, was set to a certain number. I listened; there was a very faint, ghostly chorus of indistinct whines and buzzes, like that coming from a colony of insects disturbed in some affair."

"Punctually, as the minute hand rested on 12, a strong, clear and distinct note broke forth into the burning. 'There he is,' said the operator, who had a duplicate set at his ear. Nordeich began, as everyone begins, by making his call sign, advertising to all who might concern that he was about to begin his daily recital of the German version of the war.

"Now listen to Poldhu," said the operator, adjusting the apparatus. The set broke forth into the burning, and in their place, a deep, gruff muttering dominated the air, when I was listening to Nordeich, Poldhu had been among the night chorus of whines and buzzes; when the dial change was made Nordeich sank to join its voice in the background of soft songs, and the rough voice took up the solo. Another adjustment, and the gruff voice finished and in its place came a musical note, small and bell-like took up the tale.

"That is the Eiffel Tower," said the operator, and by imagination, which had been fixed on that tall group of masts that rises above the heather and gorse on the downs beyond Mullion, transported itself to the night streets of Paris and that busy network of steel girders among whose interstices a little living, breathing human figure was sitting and pressing a key.

"Again there was an adjustment to reach another wave-length. 'Ah, you have got the Commander-in-Chief,' said the operator.

"But those were not all the wonders shown to me in the wireless office that winter night in the Northern seas. It was indeed a 'wonderful night for wireless,' almost unique in the experience of those to whom I was speaking.

"We heard all kinds of things on that night which are seldom heard together and under the same conditions. We heard the Russian Commander-in-Chief in the Baltic, we heard Madrid and we heard the German Commander-in-Chief from his fastness across the North Sea.

"We heard the British Commander-in-Chief in the Mediterranean; all these of course were call signs known and recognized, but there were many others, coming, no doubt, from places as diverse and remote and as kindling to the imagination, which we did not know or recognize. Yet they were for the most part voices only—voices and nothing else."

SOLICITOR-GEN. OF BRITAIN IS VERY ABLE MAN

Sir George Cave Has Been in Parliament for Ten Years.
SALARY OF OFFICE $75,000 PER ANNUM
Even at That He Makes Financial Sacrifice in Holding Office.

It was once said by Sir John Simon, at the time he was Solicitor-General, that the occupant of that post was really an "office boy of the Government." If that be so, the present government have an "office boy" of very notable distinction and remarkable ability, as well as of somewhat mature years. For the Rt. Hon. Sir George Cave, Unionist M. P. for the Kingston division of Surrey, is one of the strongest and sanest members of the House of Commons, and one of the very soundest lawyers at the English bar.

He is just sixty years old—sixteen years older than his senior fellow-officer of the Crown, Sir F. E. Smith—and has been in parliament for ten years only. From the moment he entered the house he made his mark, thus constituting himself a tangible refutation of the generally-held doctrine that neither a middle-aged man nor a man who enters the House with a great reputation gained outside it has much chance of becoming a first-rate House of Commons success.

Sir George Cave, however, was happy in his opportunities. When he became Parliament the Unionist party was at very low ebb, and a man of really great debating gifts, such as he possesses, was bound to come to the fore. Moreover, the subjects of discussion were such as he was pre-eminently well versed in. He had not been long in the House before the Campbell-Bannerman Government brought in its licensing bill—and what George Cave does not know on the subject of licensing is not worth knowing. He regularly riddled the bill, and the hands of the peers, at that time with their veto unimpaired. Subsequently his speeches in criticism of the famous Lloyd George Budget made a deep impression in the House. To-day Sir George Cave is a distinct power in Parliament—a greater power than his official position of Solicitor-General would seem to indicate.

As Solicitor-General Sir George Cave draws a salary of $30,000 a year, but he probably makes a financial sacrifice when he accepted office—even an office carrying with it remuneration so generous a scale. For he was doing literally an enormous business at the Chancery Bar, and since 1913 had what is called a "special," which term has a world of significance about it as regards the magnitude of the fees which the lucky "special" receives. In fact, he swept all before him at the bar just as he had done at Oxford, and he is recognized as perhaps the most erudite and profound lawyer in the present House of Commons.

WILL INVESTIGATE
HIGH COST OF TEA
Mr. Runciman Promises to Deal Sharply With Gamblers.

Will investigate adBwj
By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, May 30.—In reply to a question in the House of Commons from Sir Richard Essex, Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, said he had been making careful inquiries into the increase of tea prices, said to have been caused "by gambling of certain persons operating in the London tea market."
Mr. Runciman said his investigations had been made with a view to determining what action should be taken and promised that if there had been any withholding of food stuffs the board of trade would exercise the powers it possessed.
