WON IN A CANTER.

post—he resolved to press the matter, take the young lady...

After breakfast the Major... and proposed to take a walk...

"Never mind, dearest, I am all right," taking his seat beside her...

"Oh, Charles, I am so glad you are well," she said, looking at him archly...

"Then, Mary, I think I can answer you by saying I feel better...

"Oh, and all were glad Thornhill got the Ladies' Cup for his colt...

"It is the luckiest thing, Bessie, I ever saw," said Lord Verriest...

"My dear George, I really and truly am delighted to hear of it...

"The Major was not a needy man. He had a fair income of his own...

"Quite right, my dear, quite right," I said, and had the Major out...

"I have just been called up to town, and shall be absent for about a week...

"The Cottage, Tuesday evening." The Major was walking in the garden...

"The infernal cad," he blurted out, when he had mastered its contents...

"Now, Major, remember you promised not to get angry; what does it matter?

"A trip of this kind," he said, "although it is rather early in the season...

"Their present idea, Charlie, is to start from Scarborough. Verriest's yacht is at Cowes...

"Mary was delighted at the idea, and Charlie was as much pleased...

"He was a young man who was not given to gadding about. He liked pleasure...

Of his riding we have had a specimen, and he was just as good a shot...

of the party had received a kind old gentleman, and to all, and generally to the poor...

By George, Eliza, said the Major, as they were being married along...

On arriving in London they put up at Long a Hotel, where it had been agreed he should stay...

"To Yorkshire," answered the gentleman. "So am I, but just in time to be too late..."

Pleasant news for Duffer to hear, but he kept his mouth shut; for he was completely knocked out of time.

Slurkington arrived home about eight in the morning, did his tub; breakfasted; looked over his letters...

"My time will be up at the cottage the week after next, he said to himself, and then, D. I. O., I shall send the horses down to my old quarters at Brighton...

"Quite well, sir. You are just in time. Just in time," thought Duffer...

Colonel Downey stared aghast at him with a bit of cold pheasant on his fork...

Duffer stood looking with the utmost astonishment from one to the other; he could not make it out...

"I am afraid," said he at last, "I have disturbed a merry party."

Indeed it is, sir, more the pity; he was a kind old gentleman, and to all, and generally to the poor...

FENCING EXTRAORDINARY.

Washington was treated last night to an exhibition such as is seldom witnessed in this latitude. Two gentlemen, both officers of renown in European armies, gave an exhibition in fencing and broadsword at the Westington Gymnasium, which, although private, was witnessed by a vast assemblage of gentlemen interested in that noble art.

THE REAL CHINA LAND.

The following extract of an interesting letter from Wei-hyuan, in the Province of Shan-tung, appears in the London Times. Mr. Thomas Ferguson, the writer of the letter, is the principal merchant in Chefoo, and is also the British Consul at that port.

of our mines, and allow us to work them and gain our bread. This is what Volney seemed to be saying to themselves all the while. It was a strange sight as I stood in the midst of the crowd, with an umbrella over my head, and the people staring at me and good-naturedly walking with me to the coal pits.

CANVAS TARGETS AT WIMBLEDON.

The targets at Wimbledon are of canvas, stretched on wooden frames, which are so fitted in iron frames that they can be easily and quickly removed, or raised up to a horizontal position, or lowered on upright sliding poles.

THE RIDER LIFE RAFT.

Three thousand people were assembled on the beach to-day to witness experiments with the Rider Life Raft. Among the spectators were Secretary Robinson, Admiral Porter, Commodore Murray, Commodore Ride, Paymaster General Watmough, of the United States Navy, General Boynton, of Washington; Colonel James Bennett, Commodore Allan, naval contractor Hulsecomb, Hon. Samuel Ward, Hon. W. J. Elliott and Thomas Murphy.

BLOODHOUNDS IN PHILADELPHIA.

It was about eighteen or twenty years ago that two bloodhounds appeared at the beer house of Engel & Wolfe, then situated on Dillwyn street, above Callowhill. They were of the German breed, a male and a female, of a brownish black in color, and of immense size.

DECAY OF BROOK TROUT IN VERMONT.

The Rutland Herald, in commenting on the above subject, offers some very pertinent suggestions, both as to prevention and cure, which will apply equally as well to other parts of the country. Referring to the clearing out by natural decay and floods of the ancient windfalls, which made in time miniature dams, cascades and pools, it says:—

THE CEDARS OF LEBANON.

The cedars of Lebanon, once the glory of the earth, have become like a history of the past. Time was when their wide spreading branches, each forming a green plateau one above the other, flourished in all their luxuriance and beauty on the far-towered mountains of Lebanon.

It is altogether a wrong idea to suppose that the vegetable garden needs very little attention after the first weeding. People who labor under the impression that this necessary department cannot be made to appear in a manner ornamental as well as useful.

ADVICE TO GIRLS.

Somebody gives the following advice to girls: It is worth volumes of fiction and sentimentalism. Men who are worth anything want women for wives.

AN ARAB STALLION.

Ever since the long controversy in the Life concerning the Arabian stallions, there has been a strong opinion in the part of many gentlemen who interest themselves in the cause of breeding to see the question fully tested. This could only be accomplished by an enormous expense, but Captain Upton, of his valuable work on the subject, fairly laid it down that a dependance must be placed on the eye of the stallion.

RECIPE FOR PRESERVING MEAT.

The following by a writer in the New-York Times will prove of great use and convenience. There is a reason why salted meat and the like are so common in the West, and that is because of the want of salt.

A SUCCESSION OF DISAPPOINTMENTS.

During the past fortnight there has been a great deal of sport on the trotting turf, but it is not often so many great disappointments follow one another in rapid succession. On the 28th ult. Smuggler undertook to beat the best stallion time on record (2:20) and a failure was the result. On the 30th came the great pacing race for the championship of the world, and this resulted in a hollow victory for Sleepy George in miserably slow time. Then the open to all race at Hartford resulted in a fizzle, caused by the illness of Green, the driver of Lula, and the extreme cautiousness of Double, who would not risk another defeat such as the Maid received at Rochester. Then came the failure by half a second of Goldsmith Maid to beat her own time (2:14), and as if this was not enough, we have the additional failure of Nettie to either beat Smuggler or drive him into anything like fast time. In all or nearly all of these contests "Time" has sold cheap, and the wise men of the turf have come to grief. And yet it is difficult to see why the "knowing ones" should have been found laying their money against time in these contests. Smuggler has trotted very rapidly in places, and, no doubt, made some wonderful private trials, but he never was, and probably never will be a very reliable horse. Many others who have never distinguished themselves as winners in public, have shown wonderful private trials. In the pacing race there seemed to be every probability that fast time would be made, and the poor result only furnishes another caution to turfmen not to put up too much money on what may seem a sure thing. Why Goldsmith Maid should be so strongly backed to beat her wonderful performance of 2:14 is a mystery. At Rochester with her long score of victories and long odds in the pool box at her back, she was beaten in slower time than that asked of her in the trial, and that after a pretty sharp and tolerably long campaign. Goldsmith Maid is well up in years, and it is not at all probable that she will retire from the turf with a better record than 2:14. In the Smuggler vs. Nettie race there seemed also but poor grounds for those to stand upon who laid their money on 2:20 being beaten. It was pretty evident that Smuggler could not do it a few days before the race, and those who depended on Nettie's doing it with her sore feet, will in future remember that any horse, and a 2:50 race for the second day, and Boyle & Colt Stake, (trotting), a Dominion Handicap, (trotting), and an open to all (trotting) race for the third and last day. The probability is that each of these races will bring out a fine lot of starters, and should the open-to-all running race result in a meeting between Vicksburg, Inspiration, and Wild Briar, that race alone would be sufficient to attract a large attendance at the meeting.

THE OGDENSBURG MEETING.

On the 28th, 29th, and 30th of the present month, the Ogdensburg meeting will come off, when it is expected some capital races will take place. A reference to the advertisement of the meeting, which appears in another column, will show the proprietors of running horses that the terms offered them were particularly favourable, and it is probable that a good many of the race horse men of the Dominion will avail themselves of the excellent opportunities thus offered them. The entrance fee for the trotting purses is ten per cent of first money only.

THE FALL RACES AT CHATHAM.

As will be seen by an advertisement in another column, the Chatham Driving Park Association intend giving a first-class meeting in October. Three days of racing are promised, and $1,200 is the sum hung up in purses. In trotting, there will be a 2:34 race the first day (October 12th), a 3:00 and 2:45 race for the second day, and a 2:30 race for the third day. The running races will be as follows: first day, made heats race for Dominion breeds; second day, a three in five half mile heats at catch weights; third day, an open to all race at mile heats.

FAST TIME.

On Monday, at the Lexington Fall Meeting the br. c. Bob Woolley, 3 years, by Leamington out of Item, by Lexington, ran one mile and one furlong in 1:54, making the furlong in 18 seconds, and the mile from wire to wire in 1:41.

CORRECTING A CORRECTION.—Last week in our correction of the time record of the Montreal races, a typographical error made the first heat 2:23½, instead of 2:38.

SLEEPY GEORGE TO THE FORE.

Mr. C. B. Bennett sends the following to the Turf, Field and Farm:

JERSEY CITY, Sept. 1, 1875.

SLEEPY GEORGE—A CHALLENGE.—Sleepy George paced a trial to beat the Maid's time; he paced, in harness, in 2:11, and repeated in saddle in 2:08½—the fastest time ever made by pacer or trotter—and I will match him to beat any pacer or trotter to saddle or harness over any mile track, muddy or dry, for $2,500.

Yours respectfully,
C. B. BENNETT.

UNKNOWN, the chestnut gelding which trotted in the 2:34 class at Springfield, on Friday last, and gained a record of 2:23½, Mr. Hamilton (his owner) says, was got by a thoroughbred son of Lexington, purchased from the late James S. Watson, of Valley Brook Farm. The dam of Unknown, Mr. Hamilton further says, was by Mambrino Chief. The chestnut gelding is 7 years old, and is rapid. Mr. Hamilton has a full brother to him, 6 years old, which he claims is a much better horse than one so well known on the track.

The winner of the race came in as follows:

H.	M.	S.
Cuthbert.....	2	48	55
Oriole.....	2	58	52
Lady Standly.....	3	3	17
Brunette.....	3	3	40

Immediately after the race, demands were made on behalf of the Dauntless and Inn that the race should be run over again, on the ground that they had been delayed to save life, and one of the rules gave them a right to a new race under such circumstances. There was also a protest entered on the part of the Brunette, on the ground that the Cuthbert had fouled at the eastern buoy. In reply to this it was stated that the foul was accidental and could not have been avoided unless the Cuthbert had jibbed. With reference to the Inn, it was reported by the scrutineer on board of her that just before she lost the second man overboard, and while she was still in the race, she ran inside of one of the bell buoys at the outside of the Island. The Committee subsequently ruled that she had no right to demand a new race. In the case of the Dauntless it was decided that her appeal was well founded, and that a new race should take place on Tuesday, simultaneously with that for the Prince of Wales' Cup, in which the Dauntless and Brunette would run against the Cuthbert and Oriole; but if the two latter were not beaten the race to be considered decided by Monday's sailing, that is the Cuthbert to take flag and first money, and the Oriole second money.

SECOND CLASS YACHTS.

1st prize $60, second $25. The course for these yachts was out through the eastern gap and twice round the Island, keeping outside the buoys at Gibraltar point, and inside the buoys at the Queen's wharf, and between the buoys at the eastern gap. The race terminated as follows:—

H.	M.	S.
Surprise.....	1	22	25
Mazepa.....	1	35	45
Jacqueline.....	2	5	47

THE SKIFFS.

Of the skiffs entered all but the Bumblebee started. Their order and time of getting away was as follows:

H.	M.	S.
Kitty.....	11	2	10
Fanny.....	11	2	12
Seabird.....	11	2	50
Flutter by.....	11	6	30

The course for these craft was the same as for the second-class yachts. As they were sailing down the bay on the first round, the Seabird was struck by a sudden gust and capsized near the Water Works wharf. Her occupants, Mr. Andrew Green and Mr. Charles E. Ryerson, caught hold of her as she went over, and hung on until a skiff went out to them and rescued them. At the time the accident occurred the Seabird was second in the race. The Flutter by also met with an accident on her second round, and had to give up the race. The other two boats came in as follows:

H.	M.	S.
Fanny.....	1	26	40
Kitty.....	2	17	40

The prizes in this race were $25, $10 and $5.

On Tuesday the wind was very light but a good race was witnessed.

CAMPBELL'S QUININE WINE as prepared by Kenneth Campbell & Co. is an Invigorating, Agreeable and stimulating Cordial Tonic possessing all the well known virtues of Quinine, judiciously combined with the medicinal properties of Fine sherry and several Aromatic Tonics.

In the following complaints it will be found a specific: General Debility, Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, Fever and Ague, Miasmatic Complaints, Typhoid Fever, and in every complaint or condition of the system where the use of a Tonic, Febrifuge, or Anti-Periodic is indicated.

It has received the sanction, and is regularly prescribed by six leading Physicians of Montreal, to whom it was submitted.

To distinguish at a glance "Campbell's Quinine Wine" from the many imitations now before the public, we have adopted as our trade mark, and registered the same in Ottawa, the yellow wrapper with black printing, in which each bottle is wrapped, and which originated with us.

Any other Quinine Wine therefore, than Campbell's, put up in a yellow wrapper, "and so closely resembling it as to be taken for it by ordinary purchasers," will be considered by us as an infringement of our Trade Mark, and will, in every case, be treated as such.

TESTIMONIALS.

Messrs. Kenneth Campbell & Co., Montreal, April, 1875.—Gentlemen,—I have pleasure in testifying to the efficacy of Campbell's Quinine Wine made by your Firm. For some time I was troubled with Loss of Appetite, Lowness of Spirits, General Lassitude, and all the usual Symptoms of Dyspeptic trouble. My medical adviser Dr. Reddy ordered me to take your Quinine Wine, and the result was the speedy removal of all the disagreeable symptoms, and my complete restoration to health and vigor. You may publish this if you see fit, that other sufferers may be likewise benefited.

I remain yours truly, W. C., 19 Berthelot St.

Dear Sir,—I desire to bear my testimony to the value of your Tonic. This winter I entirely lost my appetite, and consequently became weak and languid. According to the advice of a friend, I tried Campbell's Quinine Wine, and before I had finished a bottle of it, I felt stronger, and now I am able to eat my food with relish, and feel very much better than I did 6 weeks ago. With my best wishes for the success of your invaluable remedy,

I am sincerely yours,
Montreal, C. E., March 10th, 1875.

LACROSSE.

CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH.

On Saturday afternoon an exciting lacrosse match, and one to which considerably more interest attached, owing to the fact that it was a contest for the championship of the city between our two senior local clubs, was played on the ground of the Toronto club in presence of a large number of spectators. The holders of the championship, and of the gold medal symbolical of it, were the Toronto club, and their challengers the Ontario club. The result of the contest was to leave the championship still in the hands of the Torontonians. The Ontarios won the first game in eight minutes, but the next three were taken by the Torontos in 18½, 16, and 19½ minutes respectively. The playing throughout was very skilful, and though the Ontarios were defeated they made the contest very lively for their victorious opponents. Their attacks on the Toronto goal were frequent and persistent, and it was only by strenuous exertions on the part of the Toronto men, and the active use of his lacrosse by the goal keeper on many occasions, that the ball was prevented being sent through between the Torontos' flags more than the once that it was.

THE WESTERN TROTTER, OBSERVER.—This horse, of whom such big things have been anticipated, won the free-for-all trot at Mendota, Ill., on Aug. 20th, beating Fred Hooper, Mollie Morris, Cosette, and three others. Fred Hooper won the first heat in 2:26, Observer the next three in 2:26, 2:26, 2:26½.

Mr. Defoe is the first purchaser of Hambletonian stock from the vicinity of St. Mary's, and we wish him success with his American Cousin, which will doubtless prove a profitable investment, and many a happy "hit" will occur by crossing this thoroughlybred strain of Messenger and Trustee blood upon the compact enduring nates of Canada West, richly imbued as they are with the blood of the Barb, and kept nearly pure for centuries. This system of crossing has generally proved more successful than with the native cold-blood strains of this country as shown by the Clay, Pilot and St. Lawrence families; also in the case of Bruno and his brother, Brunette, Gift, Boyce and other descendants of Corbeau, Butlgate's Norman, Alexander's Norman (the sire of Lula) and many other instances of minor importance that have occurred in this county, and other parts of the country and Canada.

BOGARDUS vs. PAINE.

AN OFFER TO SHOOT FOR ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—

Mr. Ira A. Paine, in to-day's issue of your journal, expresses a wish to see my "talent at the trap rather than read long newspaper dissertations." "Barkis is willin'"; very much so, and in my reply to his comments I hoped I had made offers tempting enough to draw out the veriest stickler. Of my European trip I shall now say little, leaving my forthcoming book to tell its own tale. The Wallace offer was received by me after I had made every arrangement for a return, which could not be then broken up without considerable loss. My proposition to return in May next to meet Mr. Wallace, of the Hurlington Club, or any man, still holds. That Mr. Paine persists in misunderstanding what to others is so plain may be attributed to his natural cupidity or stupidity. However, to put an end to mere talk, I am glad Mr. Paine has screwed his courage up to the point of accepting my offer to shoot for a fair stake. He must be aware, however, that I have already an engagement to hunt in the field, which will prevent my being at the Baltimore meeting in October. But I take his offer for Wednesday next at Deerfoot, Brooklyn, amount to be $1,000, to be deposited at the office of the Spirit of the Times on or before Monday next. I make this stipulation that I may be promptly assured of something coming of all this talk, as I am very desirous of getting back home after my long absence. It now lies with Mr. Paine to make good his boasting. For myself I flatly confess that I do not anticipate a meeting, and as an earnest of that feeling have this morning deposited $50 with Wilkes' Spirit, to be a gift to Mr. Paine should he come forward with the $1,000 stake on Monday next. In other words I have wagered $50 to nothing that he dare not come sharply to the score.

In case the match is brought about the gate money goes to the winner. I am particular on this point, as from past experience in sharing I know that Mr. Paine's ideas of meum and tuum in reference to gate money are somewhat confused.

Captain A. H. BOGARDUS,
Champion Wing Shot of the World.

A WONDERFUL TROTTER IN CALIFORNIA.—The exciting topic for the last week or two in the Golden City is the performance of a trotting mare belonging to Mr. Stark. Report credits her with going a mile in 2:18½, after taking 38 seconds to make the first quarter. This would be nearly a 2:18 gait for the three-quarters, the same time that Jim Irving made in the last heat of a race at Buffalo in 1872. She is described as a remarkably fine-looking mare, with an open, slashing stride, covering from twenty-four feet to twenty-six at each revolution. This mare is reported to have been recently sold for $26,000 to Mr. Pritchard. All that is known of her pedigree is that she was sired by Niagara (formerly Washtenau Chief).

MONTREAL VETERINARY COLLEGE.

The erection of the new premises of the Montreal Veterinary College has been pushed forward with unusual energy. It will be remembered that at the meeting of the Council of Agriculture, held here in March last, a proposition from Professor McEachran was brought forward, agreeing to erect, at his own expense, a complete Veterinary College, according to plans submitted, on conditions that the Council, would increase the grant, and guarantee its continuance for ten years—the Council to have the right to send a number of pupils free, which liberal proposition was agreed to. The new college is situated on Union avenue, near Dorchester street, the very position in the whole city for a Veterinary College. The buildings consist of a handsome edifice 57 feet long by 101½ feet deep, three stories high, and covered by a Mansard slate roof. The front is substantial and pleasing, being of red brick with cut stone basement and facings. The main entrance is by a handsome gateway in the middle of the building, a cut stone arch and colonnade supporting a balcony on which is a clock tower.

THOROUGHbred BLOOD IN THE TROTTER.

The croakers against thoroughbred blood in the trotting horse have had all their theories and speculations upset and scattered to the winds the present season. It has long been the habit of those who were so unfortunate as to own mares destitute of thoroughbred blood to decry the thoroughbred and hoot at the idea that any first-class trotter could be produced from mares in which the blood of the thoroughbred predominated. Yet these same croakers were in the habit of enough in private to convince his owner that he can beat 2:15. Another remarkable instance of the value of thoroughbred blood is Lula, whose fac., 2:16½, 2:16½, and 2:17, is the fastest four consecutive heats on record. She is by Norman, (son of the Morse horse, of Canadian descent), dam by Jersey Highlander, grandam by Bishop's Hambletonian (son of imp. Messenger.) Lula's dam, Kate Crockett, by imp. Hooton (son of Despot, out of a mare by Oatton); 2d dam by Texas, by Lance, by American Eclipse, by Duroc, by imp. Diomed, 3d dam by Coun's Sir William, by Sir William of Transport, by Virginus, by imp. Diomed; 4th dam by Whipster, by Blackburn's Whip, by imp. Whip, dam by Hambletonian, son of imp. Diomed.

Mr. Harker thinks when Lula is in condition and trots steadily she can beat 2:14. Another instance is May Queen, who is nearly full sister to Lula, being by Norman, dam by Crockett's Arabian, out of Kate Crockett, by h. p. Hooton, the dam of Lula, she trotted in 2:21, 2:21, 2:20, 2:20; Gen. Garfield won the third heat. We have always contended that thorough-bred blood did not destroy trotting action, and that all that is necessary is to handle them to trot from the beginning, and not destroy their trotting action by first training them to gallop and run.—Turf, Field and Farm.

HORSE NOTES.

ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.
 Jack Vandal and Gopher changed hands at Graud's Repository the other day for $105 each.

The old trotting stallion, Tom Rolf, out of the great pacer, Pocahontas, has been sold to Boston parties for $600.

A three weeks old colt at Hindsville, Ill., a few days since, made at one single leap, thirty-three feet, going up fifteen feet in the air and turning once and a half over.

A new association has been organized for racing and trotting purposes at Put-in-Bay, near Cleveland, Ohio. The capital stock is fixed at $50,000. Mr. H. B. West is the moving spirit in this new enterprise.

SALE OF PERCHERON HORSES.—Messrs. E. Dillon & Co., Normal, Ill., have sold to Mr. J. Brownlee, Knoxville, Iowa, their imported Percheron stallion, Favorite for $8,850; also two mares, one quarter, the other three-quarter bred for $760.

On Sunday, 20th ult., some ill-minded person or persons caught a span of horses belonging to George Buchanan, 4th con., Metcalfe, and tied an oil can and some tins to their tails, with some peas in them. The neighbors seeing them running so furiously across the farm owned by James Bennet, one of them ran out and liberated one of the horses, but could not catch the other. This one ran into the woods, when two boys, going to Sabbath school, saw it standing in the fence corner, bleeding at the nose. Parties having spite against Mr. Buchanan should go and talk to him, and not vent their revenge on his dumb animals. Ten dollars reward is offered for such information as will lead to the arrest of the perpetrators of such an act of cruelty.

Mr. James P. Frost says he was present when Ethan Allen trotted his first race on the ice of Lake Champlain. The son of Vermont Black Hawk was then two years old, and looked more like a sheep than a horse, his hair being long and sandy in the want of grooming. His owner proposed to enter him in a small purse with some other horses, and no objection was made for the reason that it was believed that the sheep, as they called him, had no earthly chance to win. The youngster, however, took the old heads by surprise. He won the race very easily in two straight heats. Had Ethan Allen, in his younger days, been in different hands, Mr. Frost is of the opinion that his turf career would have been more brilliant than it was. Mr. P. F. Avers thinks that the old stallion will live and do service until he is forty years of age.

ENGLISH TURF NOTES.

Shakespeare (two years) was sold to Mr. Hutton for 180 guineas, after winning the Two-year Old Stakes at Windsor, and after winning the Scurry Stakes at Windsor, was sold to Mr. J. Adams for 260 guineas.

The Kitton, 5 years old, by Ward Union, dam by Grayville, was bought for $200 after winning the Wolf Park Plate at Galway.

Gratinska, winner of the Coatham Welter Plate at Redoar, was sold to Mr. Horncastle for 145 guineas, and after winning the Tradesman's Plate she was bought in for 100 guineas. Mr. Legard claimed Adolais for 105 sovereigns, being an advance on the 8th guineas for which she was bought in after winning the Inukeeper's Plate.

Valuable Stallion for Sale!

"BLINKIRON," 8 years old, 15-2 high, beautiful bay; sired by imp Bonnie Scotland, dam Magenta, by imported Yorkshire.

Blinkiron is well known as one of the fastest and gamest horses ever brought to Canada. At Kalamazoo, Mich., he won a two-mile heat race in very fast time considering the track, viz.: S:52, 3:47, the last mile of the second heat being run in 1:47½. The 3 in 5 was also won by him in 1:46½, 1:46½. Last year, at Woodstock, he beat Protection, Jack Vandal and Donnybrook, mile heats, and at London beat Major Maccon, Trouble and Longueil, a dash of two miles, in 3:42½.

Will be sold very cheap, as the owner has no further use for him. For price and extended pedigree, apply at SPRINGFIELD, Traders Office. 207-3f.

MONTREAL VETERINARY COLLEGE.

The erection of the new premises of the Montreal Veterinary College has been pushed forward with unusual energy. It will be remembered that at the meeting of the Council of Agriculture, held here in March last, a proposition from Professor McEachran was brought forward, agreeing to erect, at his own expense, a complete Veterinary College, according to plans submitted, on conditions that the Council would increase the grant, and guarantee its continuance for ten years—the Council to have the right to send a number of pupils free, which liberal proposition was agreed to. The new college is situated on Union avenue, near Dorchester street, the very position in the whole city for a Veterinary College. The buildings consist of a handsome edifice 57 feet long by 101½ feet deep, three stories high, and covered by a Mansard slate roof. The front is substantial and pleasing, being of red brick with cut stone basement and facings. The main entrance is by a handsome gateway in the middle of the building, a cut stone arch and columns surmounted by ornamental fretwork. To the left are the office, pharmacy and laboratory; to the right, the entrance to the lecture room, which is on the second story, a room 84x36, seated for fifty students. Over the lecture room is the museum, of the same size, to be fitted up with shelves, tables and cases for the anatomical and pathological collections used for illustrating the lectures.

The stable is arranged, to accommodate twenty horses, eleven loose boxes 11x9, and nine stalls 6 feet wide. The height of the ceiling (12 feet), perfect ventilation and thorough ventilation will ensure health and comfort to horses under treatment.

Every precaution has been taken to remove as much as possible anything which might be offensive, dissecting will only be carried on during the cold winter months, and a thick walled brick vault has been provided for a manure pit, which is ventilated by a shaft communicating with a chimney. The dissecting room, on the second floor of the stable, is well lighted and thoroughly ventilated—will be fitted up with five tables, the subjects being taken up by a windlass. Adjoining the dissecting room is the infirmary for dogs, to be fitted up with a dozen cages for the treatment of the disease of dogs—a branch of veterinary science hitherto almost neglected here. Harness room, feed bins, hay loft, &c., are also on this flat. A residence for a qualified assistant in the front building, and apartments for a groom over the stables, make this one of the most complete veterinary establishments on this continent.

It will be ready for occupation on the 1st of October, and will be well worthy of a visit by those interested in this important science.

Waxy's dam by Stormy Petrel, by Medoc, by American Eclipse, by Duroc, by imp. Diomed. Waxy's grandam by Tom Hal, said to have been a Canadian. Grafton's dam, by Kavanaugh's Grey Eagle, by Woodpecker, by Bertrand, by Sir Archy, by imp. Diomed; grandam by Mason's Whip, by Blackburn's Whip, by imp. Whip, grandam by Post Boy, by Henry, by Sir Archy, by imp. Diomed. Henry's dam, by imp. Diomed; Post Boy's dam, by Duroc, by imp. Diomed; Kavanaugh's Grey Eagle, grandam by imp. Tranby, which Mr. Osbaldeston rode sixteen miles in his famous match of 200 miles in ten hours, Tranby running the third four miles in eight minutes, carrying 160 lbs. The two hundred miles was finished in eight hours and forty-two minutes, including stoppages; twenty-six horses, were used in the match. Grey Eagle's (Kavanaugh's) great grandam was by Collier, by Sir Charles, by Sir Archy, by imp. Diomed. He has also other crosses of Diomed and two of imp. Messenger, through Medoc and Post Boy. Grafton has shown

ENGLISH TURF NOTES.

Shakespeare (two years) was sold to Mr. Hutton for 180 guineas, after winning the Two-year Old Stakes at Windsor, and after winning the Scurry Stakes at Windsor, was sold to Mr. J. Adams for 260 guineas.

HORSES EXPORTED.—In the last seven months the value of horses exported was £180,922, against £110,071 in the preceding year. The value of those exported to France was £76,296, against £78,540 in the previous year.

Rouge Bonnet was bought in for 200 guineas after winning a Selling Stakes at Windsor.

Woodcut, 5 years old, was sold to Mr. Legge for 110 guineas, after winning the Magna Carta Stakes at Egham, and again to Mr. W. Walker for 295 guineas, after he had won the Town Selling Stakes at Windsor.

COCK-A-HOOP.—This three-year-old colt, winner of the Denham Selling Handicap at Egham, was after the race bought for 220 guineas.

Sir Thomas Lennard purchased Annette (dam of Lady Mostyn), last November for 110 guineas, at the same time that Emotion (dam of Sensation), was sold to Lord Portsmouth for 50 guineas.

THOROUGHBREDS BOUGHT FOR AUSTRALIA.—The following horses were sent to Victoria, Australia, last month: Hughenden, 5 years old, by King Tom, out of May Bloom; Vasco di Gama, 8 years old, by Beadsman, out of Salamanca. Yearlings: Fortress, ch f, by Citadel, out of Gemma; Glorious, br c, by Victorious, out of Letty West; Queen of the Forest, b f, by Lord Clifden or King of the Forest, out of Bupeo; Timey Lye, b f, by Typhous, out of Lily Lye; Giant's Daughter, b f, by Typhous, out of Mother Bunch; Nevada, b f, by Paro Gomez, out of La Neva.

Valuable Stallion for Sale!

"BLINKIRON," 8 years old, 15-2 high, beautiful bay, sired by imp Bonnie Sootland, dam Magenta, by imported Yorkshire.

Blinkiron is well known as one of the fastest and gamest horses ever brought to Canada. At Kalamazoo, Mich., he won a two-mile heat race in very fast time considering the track, viz: 3:39½, 3:47, the last mile of the second heat being run in 1:47½. The 3 in 5 was also won by him in 1:46½, 1:46½. Last year, at Woodstock, he beat Protection, Jack Vandal and Donnybrook, mile heats, and at London beat Major Macon, Trouble and Longneil, a dash of two miles, in 3:42½.

Will be sold very cheap, as the owner has no further use for him. For price and extended pedigree, apply at SPONTRIX TRAVEL Office. 207-4f.

TENT for SALE.

A new Canvas Tent or Awning, twenty-four feet square (without side-walls) but complete with ropes, poles, stakes, &c., good as new, having only been set up once. A great bargain. Apply or address for price, &c., to this office. 199f

CORRESPONDENCE.

KINCARDINE, Aug. 31st, 1876.

A few mornings ago Mr. Kenzie's fishing boat went out to the nets and returned in the afternoon with a good catch of salmon, trout and white fish, one salmon trout weighed 10 lbs., with a salmon trout that weighed 6 lbs. in his mouth.

Extraordinary run of Billiards in B. Carter's billiard parlor, Kincardine, by Mr. Michael McLaughlin, of Romago, Michigan, while practising the 3 ball French carom game. He cornered the balls and made a run of 584. Who can beat this.

A NEW VOLCANO.

In the course of her voyage in China seas the Challenger visited an extraordinary volcano on the small island of Camiguin, near the coast of Mindanao. A chain of high volcanic peaks, somewhat irregular in form, culminates near the center of the island in a mountain, the height of which is given as 5,380 feet; and a little way inland, just behind this volcano, there is another peak 4,700 feet high.

EVERYTHING.

1st dam, by Highlander; 2nd dam, by Cogswell's Consort; 3rd dam, by Duroc.

Height 15 hands; girth 54 inches; chest 48 inches; hind points; two white ankles; beautiful and small star on nose; trotter, and a beautiful trotting mare. Took the first prize at the New York State Fair, at Albany, in 1873, open to the whole United States and Canada. The sire of Fox, Cobler, Country Girl, Country Lady, Miss Ann, Country Lass, Country Queen, Golden Farmer, Kentucky Gentleman, Kentucky Girl, Kentucky Lady, Toronto, Gordon Grazer, and others, all registered in the 2nd volume of Wallace's American Trotting Record.

THE CELEBRATED THOROUGHBRED

...at the point of beginning... the end of three months... $10,000... ground at the time of the race... It should be understood that no forfeit was... a California gentleman was as good as his bond... The swan arrived and went into heavy... all the skill known to modern... Wm was exhausted to get her... With her opponent things were... different, though he was exercised and... kept in a stable, yet he got rather rough... as on the day before the race he... whopped all the way over the course at... and then carried to the zany, or water ditch and drenched with cold water... The American horse iron thought would... the thing, and they advised their friends more than ever to bet... The race day brought out the population far and near... The grandees from Santa Barbara, San Luis, and even from Monterey, came, whilst all San Diego was there... The Californians had early taken sides with their horses and the Americans were rigidly arrayed for the swan... The horse was to be ridden California fashion, that is, the rider was strapped on the animal's bare back, and his owners were permitted to ride beside and whip him... The mare came out equipped according to the American fashion, light... and spurs and light boy-weights were not taken into account... Mott says that he observed that the horse was ridden with a hackamur, a halter, and he felt that before than but for the rule as the least pressure would obstruct free breathing... It was agreed in the American party that at the starting point the swan should be checked, her mouth gagged out, and a manent given for breathing, supplying all ways that she would be kept under steady pull and spared from steel and lash... The custom amongst the Californians when they offer to bet with you is to hand you the sum proposed to be bet... If at the close of the race you have won keep the money, but if on the contrary, you have lost you return double the amount given you... The crowd, as we have said, was immense and the excitement intense... A German friend of the writer said that in a few minutes he had his buggy laden with coin, so eager and prompt were the Californians to bet... In fact he had staked nearly his whole fortune, which was considerable... This occurred with all who went out and who bet, which left the Californians masters of the situation so far as betting was concerned... At length the horses started amidst the yells of thousands and were followed by hundreds of mounted cavaliers... The mare led off, and under a strong pull commenced to open a gap, notwithstanding the convoys of the horse whopped him unmercifully... At the end of the third mile the mare had opened a gap of 150 yards, but when she came to the turning point the horse was so evidently holding his own, if not gaining, that Mott seized her by the bit and, jerking her around the post, ordered the rider to give her the steel and let her go... Though she sprang forward like a thunderbolt, yet the gamb horse commenced gradually to close the gap, and from there home the struggle was terrible to behold... With distended nostrils and panting sides the two gallant coursers thundered forward... but "condition" was too much for the wild California horse, for his rival passed the goal four or five lengths ahead, but bleeding at the flanks from the spur, and so weak and exhausted that she had to be supported as she was "cooled off"... The Californians gracefully yielded the victory, and it was not long before Septuvela was a winner to the extent of more than $50,000. But the second loss consequence than his victory... A part of the contract was that he should be permitted to purchase the mare if he could... He had been cooled out he called for her to be brought to him, and having his hand in the presence of the assembled multitude viewed that she should be broken by a rider or saddled... And he kept his vow, as Nathan Combs afterward said, "I paid $2,000 to bleed a calf from his stall was refused... She ran loose on the point till he died..."

Every gentleman should have Troubles perfect fitting shirts— they fit better— look better— wear better— than any other shirts. Troubles, 5, King St. West, 2 doors East of Bay.

...the mountain, nearly of the same form, rising immediately behind, is very striking. There is an irregular crater near the top, and from this dense masses of steam escape. More prominently it appears at night and in the morning, when the air is cooler and there is more rapid condensation, and here and there pale blue smoke arises from clefts and fumaroles on the flanks of the mountain. At night all the fissures round the crater and near the top show out red from incandescent matter within. The cone consists almost entirely of a pale grey trachyte. Much of the mass has been emitted in the form of mud and afterwards consolidated, but there are likewise beds of what appears to be true lava. One large bed is very distinct near the edge of the water, where there is a low sea cliff. This youngest of mountains was born on the 1st of May 1800... there were violent earthquakes extending through the neighboring islands and felt strongly as far as Zebu. After the first eruption the earthquakes at once ceased. The accumulation of the mountain has been going on gradually and apparently without little violence. At the end of the first four months it was about a third of a mile in diameter and 400 feet high. It is close on 2,000 feet high, and its base has gradually extended until it has entirely covered the town of Catarama, formerly the largest on the island, with a population of 14,000 inhabitants. Only a few ruined walls remain. Camaglin was lately one of the most fertile and prosperous of the smaller islands of Archipelago. It had a population of 25,000, and produced hemp, sugar and tobacco of the finest quality. Since the eruption the island is desolate and only a few hundred inhabitants remain; the houses are in ruins, and the paddy fields and groves of Musa textilis are deserted and overgrown with a second jungle. For miles the higher parts of the volcano in the paths of the two poisonous the trees are lighted and the vegetation destroyed by the sulphurous exhalations.— 'Friend of India.'

EVERYTHING.
...in that celebrated racing print that is so familiar to all sportsmen. "The Cracks of the Day," will be found the gray Chanticleer, who was the first really good horse that Mr. Merry owned. In temper he was a perfect demon, and at times when he was angry he would rear like a bull. As a stayer he had few equals, and his Goodwood Stakes victory, with 128 lbs. on his back, was one of the best things ever accomplished in that race. In the same year he carried off the Doncaster Cup and the Northumberland Plate. Apropos of the Goodwood Stakes, Mr. Merry gave the ride of his life. He did not soon forget the incident, for when his horse was backed the wrong way, he beat it. The commission he gave to his agent, and he set down to Edinburgh to see Mr. Merry his views of the case. "I am sure of your trainer," he asked, "if he was the only one that the horse had, and let me know the result." The horse was so far as the market appearances were concerned, a champion. Mr. Merry decided to ride it himself, and had him down to the jockey. The day of the race was a beautiful day, and the jockey, who was named, was backed in the telegraph. Shortly after wards the board was taken down again, and another jockey appeared as the rider of Chanticleer. The scene in the ring was indescribable. Bookmakers, who only a minute before had been offering all sorts of prices against the horse, were frantic in their offers to "cover" what they had done. To the entreaties of these men to hedge Mr. Merry remarked, "I will do my own betting, and you may get your own." The result will be printed hereafter. The horse kills no more.

BREAKING UP A SITTING HEN.—A friend of ours told us, says a "Rural Reader" in the Canada Farmer, the other day, how his wife cures hens of sitting, and as it is a very novel way, we will repeat it for the benefit of others who are bothered with inveterate old sitters. Picking up some splinters from the chip yard, some four or five inches long, she bound them firmly to the hen's legs, leaving only the hip joints in working order. Biddie was outwitted, like the old Dutchman's hen she would have to sit standing up.

"SOYTHIAN"
Bay, black mane and tail, one white foot behind. 16-hands high.

"SOYTHIAN" BY IMP. SOYTHIAN.
1st dam, Sally Shannon; by Woodcock; 2nd dam, Grey Maria; by Sir Richard Telford; 3rd dam, Lucy Clark; by Tennessee Oaker; 4th dam, daughter of Imp. Knowsley; 5th dam, daughter of Imp. Dibson.
Imported Soythian by Orlando; he by Touchstone; he by Camel; he by Whalshoney; and he by Waxy.
The above pedigree stamps Soythian as pure a thoroughbred as was ever foaled, and the remarkable fact that he is the only thoroughbred stallion in the United States that is producing trotters from common or cold-blooded mares, makes his services of peculiar value to breeders. This horse combines high breeding, beauty, great of action and is to an extent seldom equalled. He was awarded the first prize at the Ohio State Fair over twenty competitors, and his son awarded second prize. He has a record of 1:47 at Columbus, Ohio, over a track four corners, and 24 yards over one mile in length; ran the same track in a private trial in 1:45, and 4 times in 7:48.
These first class sires will make the season of 1875, at the low price of $50—with the privilege of returning the mare next season free if not with foal.
Mares sent on the steamer City of Toronto will be landed at Lewiston, 16 miles from us, where we will send for them when advised by mail or telegraph.
Youngsters trained and handled on our premises. Horsemen and breeders are invited to call.

THE "ATHLETICS IN CARICATURE,"
 The New York Clipper has received from the publisher, B. Blomfield, 30 North Fifth Street, Philadelphia, a copy of a caricature of the Athletic nine. It is from pen sketches by Th. Fleming, who has done his share of the work capably, the likenesses being good, and the positions in which the several players are represented comical in the extreme. The lithographic work is also excellent, and altogether it is a picture which no base ball family should be without. — N.Y. Clipper, July 17, '76.
