BRITISH COLONIES.

Notwithstanding the loss of the United States, the colonies of Great Britain, exclusive of India, exceed in number, extent, and value those of every other country.

An English Churchyard.—I know of few scenes more characteristic of the English nation than their village churchyard.

Boring for water has been tried in the desert of Suez, by order of the Pacha, and has been entirely successful.

Resignation of Earl Grey and his Colleagues.—The Duke of Wellington Premier, &c.

HOUSE OF LORDS.—May 9. Previously to the usual hour for the commencement of business, the house was filled with Peers.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.—May 9. At five o'clock Lord Althorp entered the house, which was crowded, and his appearance was instantly hailed with enthusiastic cheers and cries of "Hear! hear!"

tured goods. The British West India colonies export three great articles,—sugar, coffee, and rum. In the year 1850 there were about 4,000,000 of hundred weights of sugar imported from thence, upwards of 27,000,000 of pounds of coffee, and nearly 8,000,000 gallons of rum.

LONDON, (U. C.) JUNE 10. Children lost in the Woods.—On Saturday 28th ult. two children of Mr. Crouse, of Westminster, the one a boy and the other 3 years old, were, in the absence of the parents, allowed to go into the woods in quest of flowers and nuts.

The Earl of Carnarvon said he rose to move that the order of the day for proceeding in the committee on the reform bill be fixed for a future day. He did not think that the house would do its duty to the country or the sovereign, if it left then in this extraordinary state, by suspending so important a subject as Reform.

At a little after five o'clock the Lord Chancellor took his seat on the woolsack. The Earl of Carnarvon immediately rose and said, "Understanding, my lords, that a new administration is formed, but that it is not completed, I think it my duty now to tender to the House of Commons my resignation of the office of Lord Chancellor."

The Earl of Carnarvon presented a petition from Rochdale in favour of the reform bill. The Duke of Wellington, who had been present, but who had not taken any part in the proceedings, rose and said, "I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your petition, and to assure you that it has been forwarded to the Committee on the Reform Bill."

offered to his Majesty that advice the urgency of the case and the necessity required, and their advice accepted, the alternative which they duty to submit to his Majesty was been graciously accepted. At the time they had had their views, and were honored with Under these circumstances they lordships and the country; having given in signature, and that resignation being accepted, they now only had place left their should be appointed; and their lordships once set the propriety of any proceeding public business in relation to which it was that any contest or difference of opinion could the formation of any administration which was not being the case, of course it was not his intention going into the committee on the reform bill to-morrow.

The Lord Chancellor rose to present the in favour of the reform bill, from Dewsbury, (signed by 3000 individuals) and from the inhabitants of Birmingham and its vicinity. The latter petition had been recently presented to one of the largest meetings ever held in this or perhaps any other country. There was another matter to which he wished to allude, though it was not his intention to enter at large upon it—he referred to the resignation of his Majesty's ministers. In that respect he stood in the situation of his noble friend, (Earl Grey) having, in common with him, respectfully tendered his resignation, in consequence of the advice which they had felt it their duty to offer to his Majesty not being received, and his resignation, like that of his noble friend, had been graciously accepted. He would only add, that he and his noble friend could never feel to entertain the latest hours of their lives a deep and heartfelt sense of the unpopularity and gracious endorsement of his Majesty.

Lord Ellenborough suggested that the noble earl (Grey) would do well to move, that the order for going into a committee on the reform bill to-morrow, be discharged; and asked whether it was the noble earl's intention to fix another day for that purpose. Earl Grey said he intended to move that the order be discharged, but he did not think it necessary, under the circumstances of the case, to fix another day for the committee.

The Earl of Carnarvon said he rose to move that the order of the day for proceeding in the committee on the reform bill be fixed for a future day. He did not think that the house would do its duty to the country or the sovereign, if it left then in this extraordinary state, by suspending so important a subject as Reform.

any one who had a seat in that house would feel it his duty to attend, and in order to that end he would follow up his first notice with another, viz., that he would move that the house be called over.

Lord Althorp would submit that in the present state of affairs, and in the present crisis, any course which might throw embarrassment in the way of the formation of a new administration ought not to be taken.—(loud cries of "No, no.")—and he would therefore wish that his noble friend would for a short time postpone his notice.—(Cries of "No, no." repeated.)

Sir J. NEWPORT contended that in times like these it became absolutely necessary to know what course would be taken by the majority of this house.

Mr. LABOUCHER felt that if in the present crisis there were not firm—if they were false to their constituents and their own recorded votes—if they did not convey to the throne that they felt the greatest alarm at the formation of any administration which was not based upon the principle of carrying reform in Parliament, sure he was that they would expose the country to the risk of the heaviest calamity. (Cheers.)

Mr. O'CONNELL contended that the only question was, would the people of England be true to themselves?—That the people of Scotland would be true, he was quite sure. They had won by their broadsword the freedom which they conscientiously believed, and they would now win their rights, not by the broadsword, but by legal and constitutional means. For the people of Ireland, there might be some question, whether they would be true to themselves, but he would persevere until the great measure was achieved. He had too good an opinion of the reformers returned, to suppose that there would be found amongst them any skulker or recreant. Let them then firmly express their opinion, and let the King see that those who were truly loyal to the illustrious family on the throne were the same who were determined to maintain the just rights of the country.

Mr. BARING said that hon. members told them to beware of the perils and agitation which were likely to arise throughout the country from the announcement of the noble lord (Earl Grey) on the subject of his resignation; and he would venture to suggest the propriety of their not being themselves the creators of the perils and agitation which they would find deprecated. (Cheers.)

In New-York.—A very large and was held in New-York on Friday...

It devolves upon the Board of Health to perform the painful duty of announcing to the public the appearance of the Asiatic Cholera in this City and neighbourhood.

This announcement is made after mature deliberation, founded upon the unanimous opinion of the Commissioners of Health—the Medical Gentlemen belonging to the Board—and of a number of other respectable Medical Practitioners.

The Board pledges itself to use every precautionary means within its power to mitigate the calamity, and confidently upon the active co-operation of all classes in this City.

Annexed is a Bill of all the cases admitted into Hospital, hitherto, to the Board, and hereafter a daily report of the same to be issued together with whatever authentic information on the subject can be collected.

T. A. YOUNG, Secy. Board of Health.

BULLETIN.—Cases of Asiatic Cholera received into Hospital up to half-past one o'clock, P. M. on the 11th June.

June 8th.—Remaining 0; new cases 3; deaths 2; remaining 1. June 9th.—Remaining 1; new cases 13; deaths 6; remaining 8.

June 10th.—Remaining 8; new cases 10; deaths 11; remaining 7. June 11th, half-past 1 o'clock.—Remaining 7; new cases 13; deaths 11; remaining 9.

Quebec, June 11, 1832. T. A. YOUNG, Secretary Board of Health.

To the Editor of the Gazette.

It is of importance that it should be known, that the temperature in cholera patients can be re-established by rubbing the extremities and body with chalk in fine powder, such as is used by apothecaries.

The hitherto unsuccessful attempt of effecting this object, has induced me to communicate this information to you, as it may prove of utility to the public.

Your Obedt. Servant, W. LYONS.

From the N. York Sentinel, June 15. Cholera in Quebec and Montreal.—We have this morning received the following intelligence from Albany:

We feel me successful in

Its... death in some... of the City, and several... victims, though it raged... We have collected... the latest of which... it was received... on her way to Halifax... were also reported at... shortly we shall hear of... to other parts of the Canadas... The following are extracts:

From the Quebec Gazette, June 8.

Dr. Morrin, the Commissioner of Health, the Secretary of the Board of Health, and the quarantine station. The of these being persons at the station sick of cholera, is entirely without foundation. Three persons are at the hospital sick of ordinary continued fever.

Thirty-nine deaths had occurred during the passage of the Corvick from Dublin, in the space of 15 days, the last having died on the 6th of May.

All the passengers have been landed: their baggage and the vessel will be purified, and the latter released, it is thought, in about ten days.

The rumour of a death by cholera at the Emigrant Hospital in Quebec, now in circulation, is also entirely without foundation.

The following is a copy of the official notice issued by the Board this morning:—

Board of Health, Quebec, 8th June, 1832.

Various reports having circulated that a vessel had arrived at Grosse Ile in which there were several persons ill of the Asiatic cholera, public notice is hereby given, that the Health Commissioner, having proceeded to Grosse Ile by order of the Board, has reported that the Brig Corvick, James Hudson, Master, from Dublin, arrived at the quarantine station on the 2d instant; that there were on board, at the time of her arrival, one hundred and thirty-three passengers, all of whom have been landed, and are in the Emigrant shed; that the vessel is undergoing the usual processes of disinfection; and that at the time of his departure on the evening of the 7th instant, there was not a case of Asiatic cholera on the island.

By order of the Board, T. A. YOUNG, Secretary.

From the same, June 11.

The Asiatic Cholera.—After announcing officially that it did not exist at Grosse Ile on Friday, we announce to-day that it does in Quebec. It existed at the time we wrote on Friday, and it has made alarming strides. Its effects in an American climate are not known. It is likely to prove more severe than in Europe, where the climate is more equable, except (in the northern parts of that continent) where the disposition to bilious habits is greater. There is however reason to suppose that a common evil will not be borne here with as much resignation as elsewhere, and that the most vigorous measures of prevention will not be taken. It is every body's duty, under such a dispensation, to be most vigilant in aiding in the common cause. Cleanliness about houses and about the person, temperance in drinking, the moderate use of food, regularity of all habits, no excesses of any kind, warm clothing, and perhaps above all a manful determination to meet the worse, and indeed a kind of heedlessness about the disease, are the most useful preventatives.

At 6 o'clock P. M., Monday, 11th June.—The Board of Health has not yet issued a Report. It is uncertain if they will do so to-day, the Returns from private houses not having all been made. We believe the following is a pretty correct statement of the deaths, cases, &c. up to noon to-day:

At the Emigrant Hospital—39 cases; 26 deaths, and 2 convalescent.

From the N. York Gazette, June 16.

LATEST FROM QUEBEC.—We are indebted to Mr. Milford, of the American Hotel, for the following information, received last night:—

A gentleman of Georgia, a passenger from the North, direct from Quebec (having left the city at 2 o'clock on the morning of the 12th), brings the melancholy intelligence that there were upwards of 60 cases of cholera at Quebec on the 11th; 30 of which were in the hospitals, and the remainder in the city.

Amongst others, Mr. Saunders, a merchant in the Upper Town, had left a victim after six hours illness. The gentleman further states that three deaths took place amongst the passengers on board the boat which brought him to Montreal, at which place several fatal cases were reported.

LATER.—A slip from the Miramichi Gleamer Office, received on Saturday, furnishes the following:

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, June 19, 7 SIX O'CLOCK.

The Royal William, Steamer, has just arrived from Quebec, and brings the important intelligence that the Cholera broke out at that place on the 8th inst. and was raging to a very great extent when she left. She was immediately ordered to the quarantine station. Dr. Key has just now put in our possession the following extracts from the Emigrant Hospital Report.

From half-past 9 o'clock, 13th June, to half-past 9 on the 14th.—Remaining 63 admitted 41, convalescent 8, discharged and cured 0, dead 41, remaining 67.

Report to 8 A. M. 15th June.—Admitted 68, deaths 37, discharged and cured 2, convalescent 17, remaining 90.—Total admitted 259, total deaths 161.

A mercantile gentleman in this City has received a letter from his correspondent in Quebec, dated the 11th instant, in which it is stated that the panic among the inhabitants was so great, that many families in easy circumstances were making speedy arrangements to leave the City, till it should be restored to its usual healthy state. The trade of the place, it was thought would experience considerable injury.

FORMATION OF A BOARD OF HEALTH.

At a Meeting of the Common Council, Yesterday, convened for the purpose of adopting measures to prevent the introduction of Cholera, and other pestilential or infectious distempers, throughout the Province, and to limit their progress in the event of their being introduced, a BOARD OF HEALTH was formed for the City, composed of the following Gentlemen:—

- The Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistant Aldermen, Bayard, Boyle, T. Paddock, Walker, W. Crookshank, R. Donaldson, Thomas Heavyside, James Hendricks, High Johnston, John R. Parrylow, and Benjamin L. Peters.

And the sum of £250 of the funds of the Corporation, was placed at their disposal, for such purposes as they might consider expedient under the circumstances.

of war, which... of a Russian brig... since sailed... supposed, for the Ionian Islands... Nothing now mentioned in these papers regarding the passengers of the Corvick-Adriatic steam boat; nor are there any particulars of the late affray at Grenoble, between the 25th Regiment and the inhabitants. The Moniteur says, however, that tranquillity had been re-established at the latter place. The official accounts concerning the cholera show a decline of ten deaths on Saturday, on the number of the preceding day.

Some of the papers again give a very unfavorable account of M. C. Perier's health.

From the Courier of 14th May.

The news of our national calamity was received in Paris on Friday—we need hardly say with sorrow and alarm.—The funds fell indeed only one per cent, but then the mere fact of the resignation of Earl Grey was known. It was not known that the Duke of Wellington was to succeed him, and that the friend and pupil and admirer of Metternich was to replace a foreign Minister, who, although far from being a favorite with the Ultra-Liberals of France, enjoyed the confidence and esteem of the supporters of the Constitutional Throne.

Accounts from Alexandria of the 15th March say that Ibrahim Pacha had marched against Aleppo, for the purpose of engaging the Turkish troops, before they could receive reinforcements. According to other accounts he had raised the siege of St. Jean d'Acre, both by sea and land, and returned to Alexandria; whilst from Constantinople it is stated that he had converted the siege into a blockade.

An insurrection had taken place at Tarsus, in which the warehouse belonging to the European merchants had been plundered.

From Vienna, the 2d instant, it is said that the state of the Duke of Reichstadt excited very serious apprehensions.—Prince Otho, it is said, will not accept the throne of Greece.

CONSPIRACY AT BRUNSWICK.—The Countess Wieselberg was arrested by the magistrates of Gilhorn, at her residence at Wahrenholz. Solitious papers of an important character were found in her possession; she had plotted to overturn the government, but from her too great precipitancy, herself and accomplices were discovered and secured before the nefarious design could be matured.

AUSTRALIA AND INDIA.

The Cholera, in a mild form, has made its appearance at Hobart Town. "The following simple recipe taken at a draught, seldom fails of affording instant relief to the patient, viz. 1 oz. of cinnamon water, 85 drops tincture of opium, 1 drachm spirits of lavender, and 2 drachms tincture of rhubarb."

Kangaroo skins have become a great article of export from Hobart Town, and Sydney to China. Lord Brougham's "Treatise on the objects of science, has been translated at Calcutta into the Bengalee language.

A lithographic press has been established at Sheraz, in Persia.

LIVERPOOL, May 16.—Cotton.—The import of all sorts of Cotton into the Kingdom amounts to 319,600 bales, against 330,000 received up to this time last year; and of American Cotton we have received 229,300 bales. The sales during the week amount to about 4000 bales, the market
