SARNIA, ONTARIO.

This Institution

Is delightfully situated on a gentle elevation in the midst of beautiful shrubbery. It commands a beautiful view of the City of Port Huron, Michigan, Sarnia Bay, and the Lake and River Shipping.

HEALTHY LOCATION.

The invigorating air of Lake Huron has for years made Sarnia a favorite Summer Resort for invalids from the South and Southwest.

EASE OF ACCESS.

From Detroit, Michigan, in Spring, Summer and Autumn we have a choice of railroad or water communication—distance 60 miles.

The system of discipline is mild but uniform, while every laudable incentive is employed to forward the pupils in knowledge and virtue.

The course of study embraces the various branches of a solid, useful and ornamental education.

Pupils of all religious denominations are admitted. No interference is permitted with their religious convictions. They are required, however, to conform to the general rules of the Institution.

The scholastic year is divided into two sessions, each of five months. The first session opens on the first Tuesday of September, and ends January 31st. The second opens February 1st, and closes last week of June. Pupils, however, can enter at any time of the year.

1898-99

In presenting to our patrons, this, our first issue of the Eastern Ontario Gazetteer and Directory, we have endeavored to make it as complete and concise as possible.

We have used both pains and expense to obtain all information necessary to the user, at the same time, we have made it a point to omit anything tending to make the book cumbersome.

Trusting that our patrons and the public generally, will find the work all that it should be, we remain yours truly,

TORONTO.

The largest city and the capital of the Province of Ontario, is beautifully situated on the shore of a spacious bay of Lake Ontario, in York Co., of which it is the county seat. Toronto has an excellent harbor, accessible to the largest craft navigating the lakes, and which is perfectly sheltered by a long narrow island extending about five miles along the front of the city, at a distance of about one and a half miles from the shore, forming a safe anchorage ground. It was incorporated as a city in March 1834. The city is laid out with great regularity, the streets running n, s, e and w.

The growth of Toronto may be seen from the following table of its population at various periods, viz:

1836.....	9,652	1881....	87,000
1850.....	26,000	1889....	171,822
1861.....	48,000	1894....	219,153
1871.....	59,000	1898....	235,000

It is true Toronto is to some extent prospering at the expense of surrounding towns and villages. This, of course, we cannot help. It is in the natural order of things, and it is our duty to take advantage of the situation.

In addition to its facilities for communication by water, Toronto is the centre of an extensive ry system, the following rys either running through or having one of their termini in the city: The main line of the G T R, with its Mid, Nip, N & N W and G W divs, and the C P R, with its divs of the C V, the T G & B and the O & Q lines.

It has excellent hotel accommodation, among the best being the Queen's, Rossin, Arlington, Kensington, Walker & Palmer Houses.

Manufacturing of almost every description is extensively carried on.

takes a high rank, having located within its boundaries the following educational establishments: The University of Toronto, University College, University of Trinity College, Knox College, Wycliffe College (Protestant Episcopal Divinity) the Baptist College, (McMaster Hall), St Michael's College (Catholic), Victoria College, the Bishop Strachan School for Ladies, the Upper Canada College, the Toronto Collegiate Institute, the Royal College of Dental Surgeons, the School of Dentistry, College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, Ontario College of Pharmacy, School of Practical Science, Ontario Veterinary College, Women's Medical College (in affiliation with the University of Trinity College) Toronto School of Medicine, Trinity Medical School, Ontario School of Art, to which may be added a number of convents and private schools, musical conservatories, etc, all first-class in their several appointments.

The schools, etc, belonging to the city comprise a model school, a normal school, collegiate institutes and public schools, the total number of teachers being about 600 and the value of the school property $1,600,000 and 18 separate schools with a staff of 80 teachers. The Department of Education is situated on Gould street between Victoria and Church streets, and has a library of 9,000 volumes. The public buildings connected with the Government comprise the Parliament Buildings (new stone buildings on an elaborate scale have since been constructed at a cost of over $2,000,000): a valuable library of 40,000 volumes is kept here; the Government House, the official residence of the Lieut-Governor; the Custom House, corner of Front and Yonge streets, and the Post Office building on Adelaide street, the Asylum for the Insane; the Central Prison; the Mercer Reformatory, and Osgoode Hall, containing the various superior Law Courts of the Province, with a magnificent law library of 20,000 volumes, the property of the Law Society of Ontario. There is an interesting museum attached to the Normal School containing specimens of school apparatus and furniture, a valuable collection of Dutch, Flemish and Italian paintings, etc. There is also the magnetic observatory and the principal meteorological office for the Dominion of Canada located in Queen's Park, and a public library containing 61,000 volumes and about 10,000 pamphlets, being constantly added to as occasion offers. The principal civic buildings will be the new Municipal and County Building, now being erected, to cost about $2,500,000, situated on Queen street w, at head of Bay street. The Canadian Institute on Richmond street is an important scientific institution, with a library of 4,000 volumes. The public buildings to be especially noted for their beauty of architecture, etc. are: The Bank of Montreal, and the Board of Trade Building, corner Yonge and Front; the British America Assurance Co's Buildings, corner Scott and Front streets; Building and Loan Chambers, 13 and 15 Toronto street; Canadian Bank of Commerce, cor King and Jordan streets; Canadian Institute, cor Richmond and Clare; Canadian Life Assurance Chambers, 44 King w; Canada Permanent Buildings, 18 Toronto; Central Prison, Strachan ave; Confederation Life Building, cor Yonge and Richmond; Custom House, cor Front and Yonge; Dominion Bank, cor King and Yonge; Educational Buildings, St James' square; Freehold Loan Building, cor Adelaide and Victoria; Imperial Bank, Wellington e; Knox College, Spadina crescent; McMaster Hall, Bloor w; Manning Arcade, 22-28 King w; Mercer Refor-

An incorporated town, municipality of Neebing, which comprises the townships of Neebing, Parpoonge, Blake, Pardee, Crooks and McKellar Ward, on the north bank of the Kaministiquia river, one mile from where it empties its waters into Thunder Bay, and stretching westward along the river for about three miles. This river is navigable for ten miles, and for four miles for boats drawing fifteen feet of water, and wide enough for the largest lake vessels to turn easily. On the bank of this river are the three elevators of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. having a united capacity of 3,800,000 bushels. It is in the district of Thunder Bay, on the C P R, and on the P A D & W R running from Port Arthur south-westward to the international boundary line at Gun Flint Lake. It is also connected with Port Arthur three miles east by an electric railway. It is distant from Toronto 860 miles by rail, 983 by water via Owen Sound, 427 from Winnipeg, 180 from Duluth, Minn, by water, and 40 from the international boundary line. It is the eastern terminus of the western division of the C P R. It has Baptist, Catholic, Anglican, Methodist and Presbyterian churches, public schools, two weekly newspapers—the Journal and Echo—a private and one chartered bank. The magnificent steamers of the C P R

KINGSTON

Is one of the oldest settled portions of Ont, being the location of the fort constructed by Frontenac, in July, 1673, to command the trade of the St Lawrence and the Lakes, and it was long known by his name. Its growth was slow as a trading town until 1842, when it became the seat of government and rose rapidly in population, being incorporated as a city in 1846. It is the fifth city of the province in pop, and is situated in Kingston township, Frontenac Co, of which it is the county seat, at the head of the Thousand Islands and River St Lawrence—where it issues from Lake Ontario. The Rideau canal also enters the lake here, and furnishes direct water communication with Ottawa and intervening towns. Kingston has good wharves and is well adapted for the building of ships and steamboats; the new government dry dock, costing $800,000, is a model structure. The G T R passes about

OTTAWA

The capital of the Dominion of Canada, is situated on the south bank of the Ottawa river, and is the county seat of Carleton. The view from Parliament Hill reveals its commanding position as well as its interesting surroundings. On the opposite bank is Hull, the 3rd city of Quebec in population, and to the west the Chaudiere Falls, the central motive force of the lumber and other mills around and all the electric systems.
 A fine new lattice-girder bridge connects Ottawa with Hull, below which the river is navigable to its junction with the St Lawrence, 87 mls east.
 The Ottawa is a large and important river of the Dominion, and flows 300 mls sw, then 400 mls se, in its winding course, to the St Lawrence, which it enters above Montreal.

During its course, it passes through several lakes, whose waters it drains; and it is augmented by numerous rivers and smaller streams, the principal of which are: The Gatineau, 420 mls long; the Riviere du Lievre, 260 mls long; the Madawaska, 210 mls; the Coulonge, 165 mls; the Petewawa, 140 mls; the Black River, 120; the Bonnechere, 110 m; the Rouge, 90. the Mattawa, 44 m; and the Rideau river. The drainage basin of the Ottawa has an area of 80,000 sq miles. It flows through a forest region of red and white pine, and quantities of timber are cut on its banks and those of its tributaries. The city was founded in 1727, and was originally called Bytown; it received its present name in 1854. To the north the country stretches away untill lost in the gentle slopes of a branch of the Laurentide Hills, rich in phosphates and other mineral deposits. In 1858 Ottawa was selected as the seat of Government for Canada, and the erection of the magnificent Parliament and Departmental buildings was at once commenced, the foundation stone being laid by H RH the Prince of Wales, in Sept, 1860 These building which occupy three sides of a quadrangle, are very extensive, and are handsome specimens of pure Gothic architecture, being the finest examples of that style on the continent, and were erected at a cost of $4,000,000. Another block, the Langevin, said to be the finest in the Province, was more recently built on the opposite side of Wellington street. The principal manufacturing interests in Ottawa, and surrounding places is that of sawn lumber, the enormous output of which, together with vast quantities of square timber, deals, etc., is shipped by rail, river and canal to Great Britain, United States and other countries. It is the most important electrical centre in Canada, and has splendid arc and incandescent systems, and an extensive and ably managed electric street railway. The Rideau Canal is a part of an inland system of navigation from Kingston through Rideau lake, and reaches the Ottawa River by a series of locks through the city, which it divides into "Upper and Lower town." This city with its unlimited and but partially utilized water power, together with its unrivalled water communication by river and canal, and ever increasing railway facilities, affords important opportunities, for the establishment of a variety of manufacturies, especially on account of its electrical facilities for which it is again indebted to its magnificent water power as well as to its enterprising electricians. The city is well drained, has a magnificent water works' system and a most effective fire department. The educational advantages which the city possesses are exceptionally good. The University of Ottawa (conducted by the Oblate Fathers, assisted by a competent staff of professors), is beautifully located and is a very prosperous institution, the Normal and Model schools, Collegiate Institute, public, separate and private schools afford ample provision for the training of youth. It has 2 opera houses and other assembly halls; excellent libraries connected with the various literary and other societies; and a goodly number of fine church edifices belonging to the Catholic, Anglican, Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Cong, Reformed Episcopal, Lutheran and Catholic Apostolic bodies. There are four daily newspapers, three English and one French; three semi-weeklies; four weeklies and several monthly and fortnightly periodicals. The assessed valuation of the City of Ottawa is $23,000,000. The total indebtedness is $3,826,000. There is at the credit of the general sinking
