FLOOD CLAIMS LIVES
AND RUINS THOUSANDS

East Indian Valley Devastated and Natives
Forced to Eat Unripe Grain.

CALCUTTA, Sept. 23.—Many lives have been lost and enormous damage done by a flood that devastated the Darangah Valley. Thousands of natives are homeless, and are making raids on the grain growing in the fields, though it is not yet nearly fit to eat. The railway has been swept in several places, and many bridges have been broken down. Telegraphic communication is entirely interrupted. The flood swept the valley with such astonishing speed that many natives had no time to escape. Four Nepaulis were drowned as they were rushing away from their hut. A police inspector and a native were drowned in attempting to cross a broken railway bridge by means of a trolley. Three men out of a boatload of eight were drowned in attempting to cross between Kishanpur and Haynhat. The other five clung to trees and were rescued. The villagers have lost everything, even the greater part of their scanty clothing. They are camping on the public roads with their live stock, and are subsisting on the grain which they can steal from the fields.

SORRY U. S. WILL NOT INTERVENE.

Cubans Disappointed at the Prospect of Peace.

Many Had Hoped for Annexation as They Feel That the Country is Not Able to Look After Itself.

HAVANA, Sept. 23.—All classes are now waiting for the conditions under which tranquility will be restored to Cuba, and keen disappointment is expressed on every side because of the likelihood of peace being brought about without armed American intervention.

That the differences of the opposing factions could be reconciled was not believed to be possible until today, when it was announced that the Liberals and the insurgents had empowered a committee to represent them before the American mediators.

It is evident that the business interests of the island have no confidence in the ability of the Cubans to rule themselves, and now, when it appears too late, they are openly favoring forcible intervention and possible annexation. Secretary of War Taft is cognizant of this general opinion that peace cannot last unless it is enforced by an American army, but he considers that it is the duty of the United States to give the Republic another chance and believes that it would be bad policy for the United States to keep a large force in Cuba longer than was required to supervise the laying down of arms. He said today that if the Liberals and Moderators harmonize their differences the United States must regard the compact as made in good faith. That peace will come as the result of the mediation of the United States is now believed by Cubans regardless of party affiliation, but whether it will be on terms which will insure permanent tranquility is questioned.

Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary Bacon spent Sunday quietly, receiving few callers. Representatives of the veterans and of the Diplomats made brief visits. Senator Alfredo Zayas later met the mediators at the American legation and arranged for their first meeting with the insurgents and Liberals committee at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

When the Diplomatic representatives of the foreign powers visited Mr. Moraga's villa at Marianao today, Mr. Moraga stated that he could not give them the definite assurance of peace for the reason that terms had not been put forward. This was in response to an expression from Gaytan de Ayala, the Spanish minister, that the work expected of the United States to settle the turmoil on such generous but firm conditions as to maintain the integrity of the republic. Among the other callers mentioned were Generals Menocal and Agramonte, who congratulated Messrs. Taft and Bacon on their success in bringing the Moderate and the Liberal leaders to a realization of the necessity of making some concessions. The veterans evidenced sympathy with many of the principles for which the insurgents took up arms. They suggested that the first basis of the negotiations should be for the revision of the Cuban constitution, alleging that it conferred too much power and too little responsibility upon the members of the cabinet.

"Cubans are too hot blooded to be given unlimited powers," said General Menocal. He declared that the present trouble resulted from dissatisfaction over the action of the present and the former secretaries of the Interior.

Despite the armistice which now exists, a clash between government troops and Pino Guerra's force was threatened today. General Agramonte, four hundred cavalry and three hundred infantry, arrived at Guanajay at noon, having come by train from Pinar del Rio to Antillas, where they proceeded to Camp Columbia, near Havana. This meant passing through the rebel camp. General Agramonte sent a message to General Avelos that this might lead to an encounter and that he would not be responsible for the outcome. General Avelos declared his intention to continue the march, but General Rodriguez, by direction of Secretary Taft, ordered him to take his force to Mariel, which will be done tomorrow.

There was considerable comment today over the fact that a salute of thirteen guns was given Secretary Taft when he visited the warships. Previously he had been given the usual seventeen guns to which the secretary of war is entitled.

The two extra guns means that he is recognized as an ambassador extraordinary on a special mission with plenipotentiary powers from President Roosevelt. It is known that he now has been authorized to exercise his own judgment in all matters pertaining to the negotiations and that the squadron with its entire force is under his immediate control.

Concerning the reported preparations of Saturday night for the transportation of marines and bluejackets by rail to Camp Columbia, Secretary Taft said today:

"The United States forces are under my orders. I have given no order for them to land and not a man shall land until I give such an order."

It now appears that Secretary of the Interior Montalvo ordered the trains prepared in anticipation of the possible landing of a supply of winter clothing at the wharf. The captain of the port gave color to the report that they had been placed there in readiness for the landing of men. Captain Couder, commander of the squadron, today explained that the stores for Cuba were hurriedly placed aboard the cruiser Newark when she sailed and that they so encumbered her deck as to interfere with ventilation and that it was necessary to hire space ashore where they might be stored.

TROOPS MAINTAIN
PEACE IN ATLANTA

The Race War is at an End
for the Present.

Ten are Known to be Dead, but it is Believed that the Number is Larger Than This.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 24.—With sixteen companies of infantry, one battery of light artillery, and one squadron of cavalry, and the entire city police force still guarding the city Atlanta early today is comparatively quiet.

The negro trouble, while breaking out in several sections during last night, is now almost entirely abated. By the action of the mayor, saloons have been closed until further notice and many business places, such as restaurants, all night drug stores, were closed early in the evening. In the early part of the night there were several cases where street cars were shot at from ambush and a few motormen and conductors refused to continue on the cars. About 10 o'clock a negro pursued by a crowd of about fifty persons, ran into the Marion Hotel, where he was shot, and it is thought, fatally injured.

A negro was shot in the hip in the street, but the prompt arrival of the militia saved him. A street car conductor (white) was shot by an unknown negro, but his injuries were not serious. The number of killed all told is still placed at ten, but there is no way of finding out the definite number, as the negroes' friends carried the dead away in many cases, fearing they would not receive proper burial.

Six bodies at one local undertaker's establishment. At the request of the authorities the newspapers issued no extra editions today. ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 24.—At 8.30 the city is quiet, the 17 companies of state militia are in complete control of the situation. Business has assumed normal conditions, the street car schedules have been resumed, the schools are open as usual, the public peace is being restored under the energetic measures taken by the authorities, city, county and state, to maintain order. No further outbreaks are anticipated.

Bourgeois, traveller for the Record Foundry and Machine Co. Rev. Father Savage, pastor of St. Bernard's, will perform the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends of the contracting couple. The bride will wear a navy blue broadcloth travelling suit, with hat to match and carry a shower bouquet of bridal roses. They will leave for P. E. Island on their wedding tour, and will reside in Regina.

RUSSIA.

VITNA, Russia, Sept. 24.—Prefect of the home of Mile Maria Spiridonova, who shot and killed the emperor, police Lashenofsky, was fired at and seriously wounded in a street here by terrorists who also shot the prefect's wife and two girls, who were accompanying them.

The would-be assassins escaped. VITNA, Russia, Sept. 24.—Thirty-eight men belonging to the revolutionary military league who have been working among the troops have been captured here. Important letters revealing the league's workings in other garrisons were seized.

Today was one that the family of President Palma had embarked on a vessel bound for New York, which is totally bound for New York, which is totally bound for New York.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Official news with regard to the situation in Cuba was received in Washington this morning. The Pacific tone of the despatches from Havana yesterday had a favorable effect upon the military and naval officials. The prospect of an amicable adjustment of the issues between the Palma government and the insurgents, however, does not deter the officials here from keeping up the preparations which have been making to land forces in Cuba if it becomes necessary.

SIX FAMILIES WERE
POISONED BY BREAD

Insect Powder Had Fallen Into
the Flour.

Action Will be Taken Against the Bakery
—Most of the Victims are Out of Danger.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 24.—Six entire families, of Allegheny, whose members number over a score, have been poisoned through the product of a bakery. The poisoning was caused by eating wares that were purchased Tuesday, Friday and Saturday of last week, according to a physician who has been treating the cases, and while the afflicted have not recovered all but two were last night reported out of danger. An investigation was made by Dr. Graham and Dr. Weiler and last night it was said that the poison was roach powder that had dropped from a shelf in the bakery into a barrel of sugar. The case will be taken up by the health authorities.

MAINE GAME WARDEN FIRED ON POACHERS

No One Was Injured and the Culprits Got Away

WATERVILLE, Me., Sept. 23.—Word reached this city tonight that Game Warden John Polant exchanged shots with two deer poachers today on the shore of Potter's Pond in Unity plantation. No one was injured and the poachers escaped arrest.

For more than a month poachers have been active in the vicinity of Unity plantation and during the past ten days the game warden has been looking for the offenders. Today he found two dogs and killed them. One of the dogs was held by a leash and the owner of the animal ran into the woods. Polant gave chase and saw the two men were running away. He fired at them and one of them returned the fire. The men then separated and the game warden was unable to capture either of them.

It is understood that Polant recognized the two men, both of whom are said to belong in Belfast.

C. J. Driscoll left Saturday evening for New York to bring the remains of John Keller to this city for burial. Mr. Driscoll will send a telegram to his relatives on Somerset street when he will leave with the body for St. John.

A. grounds Saturday, the championships going as a rule to New York athletes, members of the Irish American Athletic Association carrying off the majority of events. Only one Canadian won, Peter of Hamilton, carried off the 220 yard event in easy style, beating such fast men as Robertson and Archer of the Irish Americans. One world's record was broken, M. J. Sheridan of the Irish Americans broke the record of 135 feet 5 inches and beating the record by two feet and five inches. One Canadian record was broken, M. J. Sheridan of the Irish Americans broke the record of 135 feet 5 inches and beating the record by two feet and five inches. One Canadian record was broken, M. J. THE TURF

ABOUT GLORIA.
In the editorial columns of the American Horse Breeder of the 18th inst. the following appeared:

"Those who watched the game near Gloria in her work at Combination Park the first of this season, when her owner, Frank Fox, was putting her in condition for the season, will not be surprised to learn that the daughter of Ethan Wilkes won the free-for-all at St. John, N. B., on Saturday, Sept. 23, 1906, and lowering the track record from 2:17.4 to 2:15.8, two years ago by Phoenix W. (2:08.3), to 2:16."

"If we remember correctly Gloria was bought in Kentucky when young and undeveloped, by the excellent judge of horses, Joshua Wilkes of East Brantford, Mass. She was first raced in Maine in 1898 and made a record of 2:30.1 at Biddeford that season. The next year, 1899, she lowered her record to 2:19.4 in the second half of a race at Cornish, Me., August 24. She has been raced regularly every year since then and has won an average in at least a dozen races each season, yet she seems to be better and faster this year than ever before."

"Gloria made a record of 2:16.1 in the fifth heat of a race at Franklin Park, Augusta, about the middle of October, 1904, and at the close of last season had won 54 heats in standard time and now has to her credit upwards of 100 heats in 2:20 or better."

Gloria was bred by W. S. Estes, Clintonville, Ky., and was got by Ethan Wilkes, a horse of the season and Morgan lines. Ethan Wilkes was got by George Wilkes (2:22). His dam was Andy Ethan, a producing daughter of Ethan Allen (2:25.1-2). By H. H. (Vermont) Black Hawk; second dam, Topsey (dam of Hambletonian winner (2:13.4) by Alexander's Abdullah, the dam of Gloria (2:10.4) was by Alexander's Norman, sire of Lulu (2:16) and May Queen (2:20). It is a great credit to the ability of a man as a trainer and caretaker to campaign an animal as long and successfully as Mr. Fox has campaigned Gloria and keep it in as good condition as the daughter of Ethan Wilkes is this season. An animal must be bred right, however, in order to be capable of racing so long."

lag between the Marathon's five and twenty yard line. The new team were, however, compelled to touch for safety. On the ball being kicked off the Beavers rushed it down to the Beavers' 35 yard line. Malcolm then made a pretty run and gained 15 yards, but being tackled had to retire from the game on account of a sprained ankle. There being only a minute to play the Marathons consented to drop a man, and the game was continued. The first half ended with the ball on the Beavers' 15 yard line. The second half was the Marathons from start to finish, although the Beavers did some very nice work. About seven minutes after the whistle "Bill" who had a clear field, having passed Bonnell and the full backs, was almost sure of a touchdown when Stockton, by a pretty run across the field in a hard tackle, brought him down, but in doing so he had his shoulder dislocated and had to retire. This caused a change in the Beavers' line-up as Marry replaced Kenney at full and the latter took Stockton's place at half. The Marathons then to even matters up dropped Masters for the remainder of the game. About five minutes later Howard on a pretty 30 yard run carried the ball over the touch line and made the first try for the Marathons. A few minutes later Sandall again carried the ball over for the Marathons and passed to McKay who made the touchdown. Neither try was converted into goals. After a little more scrim work and dribbling the game ended 6-0 in favor of the new team.

SPECIAL CREDIT IS DUE

Special credit is due the Marathon club for the fact that the grounds were well marked and all ruled off. The game was refereed in a satisfactory manner by H. F. Paisley.

THE RING

MIKE (TWIN) AFTER GANS AGAIN
MIKE (Twin) Sullivan of Boston, who has just returned from a successful trip in the West, was scheduled to morning a formal challenge, through the Boston Herald, to fight Joe Gans, the lightweight champion, who is entitled to meet Gans, for the third time in his career. Each has won a battle against the other, and Sullivan believes that it is eminently fitting that just at this stage of the proceedings Gans should take on for a third engagement.

"I will not quibble with Gans over the question of weight," said Mike last night. "I will fight him anywhere he prefers. I can get the title that Gans now holds. All I want is the opportunity of proving it."

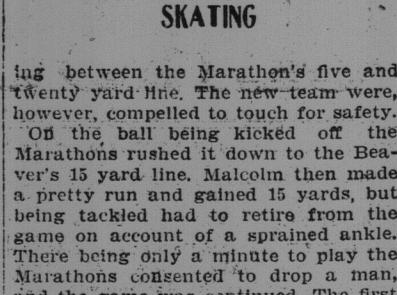

Regarding the last meeting with Gans, in which the champion was the weight champion, Sullivan says that he was not in proper physical condition and that he did not even diet on the day of the fight.

"But I am in great condition now," he added, "and it wouldn't require very much work on my part to be in step into the ring again, even against the champion. It can be a limited round bout or go as long as Gans wants, and I will fight him anywhere he prefers. He can dictate the terms. I will do the fighting."

POLICE INTERFERED

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Sept. 23.—A twenty round fight, for the welter weight championship, scheduled to take place in a grove this afternoon between Joe Walcott, the negro champion, and Billy Rhodes, was prevented by the police.

SANTOS-DUMONT HAS A POOR OPINION OF DR. BELL'S INVENTION.

An Aeroplane Which Receives Energy by Wireless Electrical Power Could Not Go Very Far.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—M. Santos-Dumont did not think much of the success of Professor Bell, the Canadian, who is reported to have manoeuvred an aeroplane on a dynamo placed on the ground to a motor on a flying machine of sufficient power to raise it from the ground, and I remember that an experiment of this kind was made comparatively recently at Monaco.

"I do not think that Professor Bell's experiment is of very much practical value. A flying machine must, if it is to be any use, be self-supporting—that is to say, it must carry its own motor on its own back. Unless power can be transmitted by wireless energy from the earth to a practically unlimited distance, the experiment which Professor Bell is reported to have made is of little real use, for a flying machine worked by such means could not fly very far."

SANTOS-DUMONT HAS A POOR OPINION OF DR. BELL'S INVENTION.

An Aeroplane Which Receives Energy by Wireless Electrical Power Could Not Go Very Far.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—M. Santos-Dumont did not think much of the success of Professor Bell, the Canadian, who is reported to have manoeuvred an aeroplane on a dynamo placed on the ground to a motor on a flying machine of sufficient power to raise it from the ground, and I remember that an experiment of this kind was made comparatively recently at Monaco.

"I do not think that Professor Bell's experiment is of very much practical value. A flying machine must, if it is to be any use, be self-supporting—that is to say, it must carry its own motor on its own back. Unless power can be transmitted by wireless energy from the earth to a practically unlimited distance, the experiment which Professor Bell is reported to have made is of little real use

PROTEST FORWARDED TO THE VATICAN
Text of the Document Giving Grievances of Ottawa English-Speaking Catholics.

DISMEMBERED BODY FOUND IN NEW YORK
Another Revolting Murder Brought to Light—The Body Concealed in a Sack.

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—Interest in the controversy between the English-speaking and French Catholics of Ottawa, upon educational matters, has been renewed by the publication of the text of the protest of the English-speaking Catholics which was sent to Rome by a special messenger this morning, and which led to Mr. Sherritt, the Apostolic Delegate, being summoned.

The appeal was drafted by a special committee appointed by the English Separate School supporters, and forwarded to Mr. Sherritt. After time had been allowed for the Apostolic Delegate to take action and no solution of the difficulty had been offered by Mr. Sherritt, the appeal was forwarded to Mr. Merry Del Val and Cardinal Gotti at Rome with the hope that action might be hastened.

The appeal recites at great length all the differences which have existed between the two races for years, and summarizes the attitude of the English-speaking Catholics in the following paragraph:

"We submit that the facts herein set forth constitute such an unmanageable and insupportable ecclesiastical method that their mere recital merits and demands the necessity of immediate action. Every day that action is delayed a fresh injury is done to religion and education. Respect for ecclesiastical authority is fast disappearing, and unless radical means be taken to make that authority worthy of respect, the final result must be disastrous to the church. Hence we respectfully request that Your Excellency will at once take steps to secure the legislation necessary to make the French, or bilingual schools a system distinct and separate in law, as they are in fact from the English-speaking separate schools. We further request that Your Excellency will exercise the prerogative of your office and restore the essential features of the compact of 1884."

The committee above referred to is explained by the text of a resolution passed at a meeting of English-speaking separate school supporters, and which is quoted in the appeal to Rome as follows:

"In the opinion of this meeting the only solution to the present acute condition of things which has lately been intensified between the English-speaking separate school supporters and the English-speaking separate school supporters is by the abolition of the amalgamation of the two sections of the Roman Catholic Separate School Board of the City of Ottawa as entered into in 1903, and to revert to the contract entered into in 1884, whereby it was agreed that there be two sections of the separate school board—the French section controlling the finances and management of the French schools and the English section controlling the finances and management of the English schools."

The committee appointed to draft the appeal was composed of Messrs. J. P. Dunne, D'Arcy Scott, T. D'Arcy McGee, and Thomas Smith. The petition is approved by many prominent Roman Catholics, whose names are appended following the names of the members of the committee.

The appeal of the committee is also augmented by a letter sent to Mr. Sherritt by Mr. J. P. Dunne, chairman of the committee, some weeks after the committee's appeal had been forwarded, in which the Apostolic Delegate was again urged to take action.

BIG COASTING STEAMER

ASHORE AT STOCKTON, ME

The Mohawk Fast on the Rocks With a Couple of Bad Holes in Her Plates

STOCKTON, Me., Sept. 22.—The steamer Mohawk, of the Maine Coast Transportation Company's line struck Squaw Point reef at the entrance of this harbor today and this evening was fast on the rocks. The water rushed into the hold through two large holes in the plates and at high tide the steamer was full of water.

The Mohawk had been engaged in the freight business and carried no passengers at the time. When the accident occurred the boat was en route to the wharf here from Portland.

A wrecking pump was placed on the steamer tonight and an attempt was made to patch the injured plates and float her. Captain Day thinks the steamer can be saved.

The Mohawk is a small iron boat and runs from Boston to Lubec, Me., calling at Portland, Stockton and other points.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—A burlap bag stuffed with the man's shirt and a strip of a woman's skirt and an oil-cloth tablecloth bearing a red sketch of the landing of Columbus, the only immediate clues to the perpetrators of a revolting murder committed in the early hours of this morning and accidentally revealed by a gruesome discovery in West 38th street today.

The dismembered body of a man apparently an Italian, wrapped in the burlap bag was found in a hole twenty-four feet deep, forming a part of an excavation at 604 West 38th street where an addition to a brewery is to stand. A systematic search by the police resulted in finding the parts of a man's legs from the knees down and the arms and hands. These were wrapped together in a newspaper of the date Sept. 10 and bound about the bundle was a strip of a woman's skirt. All was neatly and securely tied with a string suggesting deliberate preparation. This latter bundle was found under a covering of hay in a freight car at 26th street and 11th avenue. The car was unloaded of a shipment of horses yesterday. The head and the thighs are missing.

It is the theory of the police that the murder was committed where the body was found and that three packages of the dismembered parts had been made with the purpose of disposing of them at some distance from the scene of the crime. The police believe that the persons carrying the bundles became alarmed and hurriedly disposed of them at the nearest convenient hiding place.

They expect to find a third package in the same vicinity.

Conner's physician, Weston, who examined the body, said that the work of dismemberment had been deliberately and skillfully done, suggesting the work of one familiar with surgical instruments.

Dr. Weston uncovered the body which had been first wrapped in a newspaper, then covered with a tablecloth of oil cloth. Dr. Weston said from the appearance of the remains were those of an Italian or Syrian, in life about 5 feet 3 inches in height, weighing approximately 120 pounds and from the appearance of the hands probably a mechanic. The body had been washed after death which had evidently preceded the discovery of the murder only a few hours. The physician said that had occurred after Saturday midnight.

There were three stab wounds on the body, one immediately over the heart, another in the left shoulder and the third in the right breast.

The burlap bag bore the name of "K. Mano" and was of the type which are in use in the importation of Syrian nuts into this country. It was the name of K. Mano appears as a nut importer of No. 67 Washington street and inquires there about Mr. Mano, a Syrian, died six weeks ago and that about three weeks since his wife auctioned off the stock in trade of her late husband's business. Something like sixty sacks, similar to the one in which the body was found in were among the effects sold.

Of these fifteen were sold to Balan & Balish, No. 63 Washington street, also the bulk of the business, a number to a nut importer, while another is reported to have bought some of them.

CANADIAN ATTACHE AT WASHINGTON

No Immediate Prospect of an Appointment—Government Has No Man With Qualifications.

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—There is no immediate prospect of a Canadian attaché at Washington, a number to a nut importer, while another is reported to have bought some of them.

The duties of such an official would probably be of a quasi-diplomatic as well as of a business nature. It would be his duty to keep the Canadian Government advised of any trend of events affecting Canada; to look after the interests of Canadian trade agents such as are located in Great Britain, Australia, Japan and elsewhere. It is felt that a representative could do at Washington without in any way infringing upon the prerogatives of the British Ambassador.

PEEPS AT THE KAISER BY GLASSES BAKED

His Majesty Annoyed at Being Made Target of Array of Telescopes.

BERLIN, Sept. 23.—There has been a good deal of criticism in the German press lately of the "gush" published in connection with the wedding of the Kaiser and his family. It appears that when the Crown Prince and his bride were on their honeymoon at Klein-Siegendorf they suffered intolerably from the curiosity of the people, who did not hesitate even to look into the windows of their dwelling with telescopes.
The Kaiser has frequently been the target of the curious, too, and in connection with his visit next week to Legniza, in Silesia, where the annual army maneuvers will be held, the board of admirals has issued a proclamation saying that the "bad taste of turning field glasses and telescopes upon the monarch pains his Majesty excessively, and the urgent wish is therefore hereby expressed to the populace that they will set a limit to their curiosity in respecting the susceptibilities of his Majesty."
The assumption is that an imperial hint was responsible for this curious notice.

CURIOSITY CAUSED DISASTER.

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 23.—The curiosity of a boy and girl caused a serious accident here yesterday by the premature explosion of a charge of dynamite in a sewer trench on Wilson street.
The dynamite had been placed and wires from a battery attached. Loss were placed over the hole and it was while the men were adjusting the tie chains around these that the children
happened to pass the battery.
The girl raised the lever and her companion thoughtlessly shoved it down. Then a terrible explosion followed, sending the logs and fragments
of rock in all directions.
One of the men had his arms shattered and another man and two children standing nearby were painfully
but not seriously hurt by being struck by flying debris.

It is probable that a new ferry service, is said to have ordered two new
will be started next spring. A Moss Glen man who is to introduce the service, is said to have ordered two new scows to be built. No doubt the services will pay, as at present the farmers in the vicinity of Moss Glen are obliged to drive to the Willows to get across the river.

LET THE PARENTS TRY IT.

Almost without exception, parents who have children attending public schools are anxious that every precaution should be taken for the safety of their little ones in case of fire. They insist that fire drill shall be regularly practised and that the children be taught to retain their presence of mind in the face of danger. And they are right, for although in the past fires in the school buildings of St. John have been of rare occurrence, no one can tell when such a disaster may be witnessed and it is advisable that nothing should be left undone to warrant the safe exit of all the pupils.

But this policy on the part of the parents is clearly a case of preaching
what is not practised, and it is a glaringly obvious fact that if fire occurred in any crowded public building in St. John the adults through their own lack of self control and systematic procedure would suffer. A school with five hundred pupils can be emptied in three minutes; a theatre
is often not cleared for twelve minutes, this being due solely to the manner of the people who dawdle along, pushing and bumping each other from side to side, and making very little headway.
If a fire had occurred in the Opera House on Friday night or in the York Theatre on Saturday afternoon how many lives would have been lost? These instances are only mentioned because the buildings were then crowded.
How many of the hundreds of adults would have known where to look for the fire escapes? How many would have retained their nerve? It is safe to say that in case of fire, the confusion which can ordinarily be witnessed at any such entertainment would develop into a panic, and with serious results. People are usually very anxious to get their wraps on before the end of a performance, but when the curtain falls instead of quietly taking their places in the line and walking to the door, they jostle their neighbors, struggle in various directions, and get out about five minutes after they should do. The people who first leave the hall are largely responsible for the delay, as they set the pace. Does any one think they ever go down the stairs in her own home in as deliberate a manner as she does in the Opera House or York?
Why can they not walk as if they meant to go out instead of spending time in crowding the halls?
The children of St. John are well up in fire drill; it is the parents who need instruction.

JUST FOR FUN.

During the past week the people of St. John have spent nearly four thousand dollars in amusements. Although there have been occasions on which many times this amount has been paid out in one day still it is unusual for two theatres to have during the same week such liberal patronage, and it is safe to say that even more rarely is such an amount expended by so few people. There were many who attended one or other of the performances
several times, and in this way the outlay was distributed to a much larger number than in the case of a circus or similar attraction.

Theatres are a necessity in the world of today, and while there are some who object to them, their continued existence and prosperity for several generations at least is assured. Their influence may be uplifting, educative, or the contrary, depending to a large extent on the policy of the management, but in the majority of instances their main object is to afford amusement, to lift everyday people from the monotony of everyday life, to make them forget the worries of business, and to bring a few hours of brightness of unadulterated enjoyment to those who sweat of their time in work.

This is not an argument for or against theatres. In St. John during the past week nearly four thousand dollars have been spent, handed out for fun, with no visible return now that the money is gone. Setting aside the good that may have been received at the different entertainments, the pleasant hours enjoyed, and the memories that remain, the fact still is that this large amount has been given for pleasure. Four thousand dollars would supply five hundred people with bread for a year; it would support nine or ten families in comparative comfort; it would buy coal and wood for one hundred and thirty homes; it would pay
the taxes of five hundred working men;
it would give a thousand children each a week at the seashore during the summer; it would send barrels of flour to eight hundred families; it would pay the wages of one hundred and twenty city laborers for a month; it would pay the salaries of at least four ministers for a year; it would if properly handled support a public playground for three summers. There is no end to the usefulness of such a sum of money, and the list might be extended to almost any length. But people as a rule do not think of these things. They are cautious about contributing to charitable objects but have no hesitation in paying largely for pleasure.

THE OPEN BACK.

She stepped upon the car with a dainty air.
Her hair was pretty and so was her hair.
But as I leaned over to do the work
her collar:
She dressed all alone, I could bet a dollar.

It was planned as crooked as crooked
could be,
And I thought to tell her for sweet
charity:
But as I leaned over to do the work
I came back to my seat with a terrible jerk.

For her waist was unbuttoned half way down her back
And between belt and skirt I could see
a great gap:
A little bit shocked, I sunk back in my seat.
When a sweet gentle voice brought me
onto my feet.

"Pardon me," said a voice, "I don't mean to offend.
But your waist is unbuttoned 'way
down to the bend.
I will button it for you and also make bolster."
To ask if you'll button my waist on the shoulder."
If we cannot have made and do not have sisters.
We must go all unbuttoned or learn to be twisters.
It is really so common that alas
and snick,
Well soon be quite used to the open back.

resulted in the discovery of certain papyrus which prove to us that advertising is not so modern as it is supposed to be, and that the art of exploiting their wares found favor with the world's ancients. In King's College, London, there has lately been exhibited a fragment which is believed to be a part of the Gnomon of Epichar-mus, although it is credited by some to Axiopistius, which contains an announcement, that for a consideration,
"phrases for use on friend or foe when speaking in court or in the assembly,
on a race, a gentleman, a stranger, a bully, a drunkard of a boor may be obtained." Since Epicharmus flourished between 540 and 480 B. C., it will probably be news to the "originators" of modern advertisement writing to learn that the seductive art in which they claim perfection was apparently contented almost 2500 years ago.

A DEADHEAD.

Francis Wilson was talking at the Players' Club about the ignorance of dramatic literature that is to be presented in America, according to a writer in The Springfield (Mo.) Republican.
"Why," said Mr. Wilson, "a company went to the theatre to see 'The People in a Small Western town last winter
when a man without any money wishing to see the show, stepped up to the box office and said:
"Pass me in, please."
"The box office man gave a loud
harsh laugh.
"Pass you in? What for? he asked."
"The applicant drew himself up, and answered haughtily:
"What for? Why, because I am Oliver Goldsmith, author of the 'Rattle-bag' and 'The Good Doctor'.
"Oh, I beg your pardon, sir, replied the other in a shocked voice, as he hurriedly wrote out an order for a box."

NOT ON THE BILL OF FARE.

He was a stout, podgy individual, liable to be irritated early in the morning—evidently subject to indigestion—and he walked into the dining room with anything but good grace.
Turning to the Italian waiter, he said:
"Haven't you people any conscience here?"
The child of the Sunny South only shrugged his shoulders and suavely
replied:
"Eef eet nes not on so bills eet ees
charged extra for."—Stray Stories.

THE HESITANT SWAIN.

From the Bohemian for September.
He—"What would your father do if I told him I wanted to marry you?"
She—"He'd refer the matter to me."
He—"How?"
She—"Oh, Fred, you are just the loveliest fellow on earth."

FUTURE PROMISE.

From the Bohemian for September.
She—"If I marry you, Fred, will you promise to take me to the theatre or out to dinner, at least three times a week?"
He—"Well, maybe I won't be able to get off always, but if I don't, I'll find another chap to take you."

She—"Oh, Fred, you are just the loveliest fellow on earth."

WAS UNABLE TO TELL.

"Well, Harry," said the hostess to her small guest, "did you rest well last night?"
"I don't know," answered Harry.
"You don't know?" echoed the lady.
"No, ma'am," replied the little chap:
"I was asleep all the time."

THE LISTENING WORLD.

(From Judge.)
They were making the usual round of exhibitions.
"Oh," he exclaimed, "do look at that beautiful 'Apollo Belvedere'!"
"Sh!" she returned. "Don't say that!"
"Why not?" he asked.
"Because everybody knows we're just married."

At the St. Andrew's Railway tonight the 2nd and 3rd will be present and after the last band there will be two races. Merritt and Hanson of Boston, the three-mile champion of New England, will skate a three-mile race. Merritt is the world's five-mile champion. The two are fast, and a close and exciting race may be looked for. This is the first long distance race that has been held here, and Merritt's admirers will see him at his best.
The next race will be one mile between Bennett and Wilson, two fast boys and very evenly matched. As they are keen rivals an interesting race will result. Tomorrow is "ladies' night."

STEAMERS AGAIN RUNNING ON MISSOURI RIVER

After a Lapse of Over Ten Years—Due to a Struggle for Lower Freight Rates.

KANSAS CITY, Miss., Sept. 24.—With
the blowing of whistles, the clanging of bells, and the cheering of thousands of persons who had gathered at the river shore, the renewal of steamboat traffic on the Missouri river after a lapse of more than a decade, was continued today, when the steamer Lora, laden with freight from St. Louis, poked at the wharf here. The trip was under the most unfavorable circumstances, the river being exceptionally low and its channel unexplored for several years. The movement to establish a boat line on the Missouri river grew out of the fight of Kansas City merchants for reduced freight rates. Regular traffic between here and St. Louis will begin as soon as suitable boats can be obtained.

A SCORE OF BODIES FOUND IN A BURNED HOUSE

Ghostly Find in the Ruins of San Francisco
—Other Persons are Still Missing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—Another tragedy of the great fire of April 18
this morning found light through the finding of a score of human bodies in the ruins of a lodging house at Fifth and Minna streets. The lodging house, which was a four-story frame building, was tossed bodily into Minna street by the earthquake, and immediately took fire. It is said that the fire took place in the house.
Fifty persons were in the place at the time of the quake, only seven of whom have been accounted for. Mrs.
Murray, the landlady, has never been heard from by friends, and it is thought that her body is among those found. She is said to have a wealthy daughter in New York City.

PASSENGER STEAMER STRUCK BY WATERSPOUT

The City of Sydney Had a Narrow Escape
From Total Wreck—Considerable Damage Was Done.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Sept. 24.—
The Examiner says:—By a miracle the Pacific mail steamer City of Sydney escaped wreck in a huge water-spout off
the Mexican coast near Acapulco, last Sunday morning. As it was, the water spout struck the stern of the ship, wresting away stanchions and awnings and terrorizing the passengers, who were awakened by the shock of the hurling waters. Yesterday, the steamer reached port and those on board told
of their experience.
It was shortly before four o'clock in the morning that the water-spout hit the ship. Unnoticed by the lookout, because of the darkness, the column of water suddenly loomed up within a few feet of the stern, which swept with the rapidity of the whirlwind.

New York Police Secure Portions of the
"Limb of the Man"—The Head
is Still Missing.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—An early hour today the police had made practically no progress in unraveling the mystery surrounding the finding yesterday of portions of the body of a murdered man in a pit at West 34th street, and several feet beneath another portion of the dismembered body was discovered by the police today. One of the missing thighs was found wedged between blocks away at 11th avenue, and in a street. It was wrapped in a burial bag and was found in an empty railroad car
in a freight yard near the place where the arms and the lower portion of the legs were found yesterday. In another bundle was a short portion of a leg below the knee.
Search for the head of the missing
man is being kept up.

FOUR SURVIVORS FROM A MEXICAN SCHOONER

Had a Terrible Experience After Their Vessel Was Lost—Clung to Loose
Boards for Some Hours.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The British steamer Rosefield, Capt. Blackmore, which arrived here today from Mexican ports, brought four Mosquito Indians picked up at sea on September 14.
They were the survivors of the crew of the Mexican schooner Morales bound from Campeche to Tuxpan, with a cargo of salt and lumber. The men were clinging to a number of loose boards which were not fastened and were held together by their weight. One man was crazed from drinking salt water,
and had to be put in a straight jacket
until he recovered.

When they were able to talk it was found that the schooner had foundered in a hurricane about 2 o'clock that morning. The captain, mate and three men were drowned.

Paris Specialist Says That Hehrings
Treatment Does More Harm
Than Good

PARIS, Sept. 23.—The eminent Paris specialist, Dr. Bernheim, describes Professor Hehring's alleged cure for tuberculosis as a complete failure, and others declare that it even produces the more deplorable effects on the patients experimented upon.

The doctor says that he took part in Strasbourg with several other doctors,
in the post-mortem of the first patient treated with the Behring "ulase." The examination showed that the remedy
did no direct action on existing lesions, but, on the contrary, had caused many fresh granulations in various parts of the body.

During and after the injections of "ulase" all the twelve patients treated showed no improvement after many weeks' treatment. The eleven survivors are worse.

PRIZE FIGHTER DEAD AS
THE RESULT OF A BLOW

Richard Munson Was Struck Behind the Ear in a Bout With Walter Robinson.

BUFFALO, Sept. 24.—Following a prize fight held late Saturday night in the dance hall of the Titus Hotel, Woodlawn beach, Richard Munson, 20 years of age, one of the contestants, died early today. Injuries to the brain, resulting from a blow behind the left ear, are said to have caused the young man's death.

Walter Robinson, colored, 26 years of age, Munson's opponent, was arrested and committed to jail. The charge against him was left open, but today it probably will be made murder.

COMMERCIAL.

$552,000,000 IS NOW ON DEPOSIT. The August statement of the Canadian chartered banks came out Saturday, and shows increases all along the line.

Deposits by the public have now reached the remarkable total of $552,000,000, or an increase of over $3,000,000 compared with the month previous. Other figures amply demonstrate our great expansion in trade.

The circulation of the banks went up to $70,108,000, while there were $7,000,000 increase in current loans.

Call loans also increased, while it is safe to say that the gain in call loans elsewhere in Canada means that the banks have put out more money in Wall Street in anticipation of the fancy rates ruling there.

The principal items in the statement compare as follows:

NO DIVIDEND. People very close to the Dominion Coal Company now express the opinion in no uncertain terms that there will be no dividend for this year's business, and the way the stock is acting seems to bear out their view.

The company will probably earn something on the common, but Mr. Jas. Ross is for conservative financing, and will not doubt, pause everything down to the bone, create a new and solid foundation and start everything in ship shape for 1907.

WALL STREET. NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—There was a decline from Saturday's level of prices shown by the opening sales of stocks, which were on a liberal scale.

Lesser than a point in Union Pacific, Great Northern, P. & L., Louisville & Nashville and Colorado Fuel and to a large fraction of the Union Pacific. Otherwise the declines did not extend beyond half a point.

A DOUBLE BREASTED SHIRT WAIST.

6743.—Some one has said that "The apparel of the man" and the blouse portrayed would surely be excellent taste. For one who is particular to have her waists becoming and suited to her style as well as up-to-date in design the model shown will appeal with peculiar force.

The broad-shouldered effect gained by the deep tucks over the shoulders combines well with the double-breasted front and its dainty chemise effect. Tucks and chemises are very much in vogue just now, and not only are they very becoming but practical as well. The sleeves of this waist may be of full

HOUSEMAID AND COOK

SPOIL WOMAN'S GAME. Disclosing Plot, They Deprive Her of Lover, Friend and Money.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Tiring of the plebeian name and a state of single blessedness, a woman named Maria Huot changed her title to the "Countess Maria de la Mollie" and set out in search of a husband. She was followed by her closest friend, M. Dubois.

At Calcutta, the "Countess" met a wealthy Belgian, M. van Hornaert, who lost no time in paying court to her. But she was of noble blood, she told him, and the sole heiress of the Marquis de la Mollie, who had left her, in 1886, a fortune of several millions.

M. van Hornaert followed her to Paris, where, to allay his doubts, she forged, with her maid's help, the will of the Marquis in her favor. The lover, still suspicious, bribed the maid and the cook to watch their mistress's report to him. The woman told the "countess" of this, and their reports to M. van Hornaert were excellent.

The "Countess" scheme was ruined by a fight in the kitchen, as a result of which the cook was told to go. She went, and the maid went with her, and both together set to work to blackmail the unhappy "Countess."

Brewers say they cannot work at a profit if they have to pay the entire tax themselves, and they show no signs of giving way. It has been stated that plans have been drawn up for the establishment of co-operative breweries, but these could not be got ready near fast enough to supply the present demand.

DEPRIVED OF HER LOVER, FRIEND, AND MOST OF HER MONEY, the "Countess" prosecuted the servants for blackmail. They have been remanded, but will shortly be brought up for sentence.

WILD WOMAN CAPTURED

BUT AGAIN SET FREE. Roams Forest as Old Mother Eve and Lives on Roots and Berries.

GENEVA, Sept. 23.—The mayor of the French commune of Scenier, a few miles from Geneva across the frontier, accompanied by many gendarmes, entered the forest near the village yesterday in search of a "wild" woman who has been living for the last few months in a savage state.

She is a mystery to the French villagers. She does not remember her name, but calls herself Eve, and lives in the same way as her original ancestor. She is about fifty years of age, is well built, and of more than average height, carries herself like a soldier and has beautiful white flowing hair.

She lives on fruits, berries and roots that she finds in the forest, and has a sleeping place made of branches and twigs in a tree. She has on many occasions refused bread and meat, and also shelter and clothes, of which she is innocent.

"Eve" runs like a deer, and the gendarmes had a long chase before they were able to surround her and bring her before the mayor, who—rather embarrassed—questioned her for half an hour without being able to obtain any information as to her identity.

"I have always been called Eve, and have always lived in a forest," she repeated many times. The mayor considered the woman a harmless creature, and allowed her to return to the forest, refusing to send her to the workhouse or lunatic asylum.

"NO BEER," THE CRY

OF GERMAN WORKMEN. Advance in Price by Brewers Resented by Saloon Men and Public Alike.

BERLIN, Sept. 23.—The beer war, which began by the brewers attempting to force the equivalent of the new tax out of the pockets of their customers, is being waged with unabated bitterness all over the country.

The publicans are siding with their customers, who refuse to pay the extra half cent a glass for beer, and a large number have placed cards in their windows declaring that they sell no beer supplied by the brewers at enhanced prices.

The great brewers are using every endeavor to persuade workmen not to forego their beer, and they trust that the prevailing heat will help them to win. At present very little beer is being consumed, and the brewers are producing much less than their usual quantity.

Unless the boycott soon ceases, serious labor troubles will follow, for the breweries will find it difficult to keep their worse going, and many thousands of men must be thrown out of employment.

Brewers say they cannot work at a profit if they have to pay the entire tax themselves, and they show no signs of giving way. It has been stated that plans have been drawn up for the establishment of co-operative breweries, but these could not be got ready near fast enough to supply the present demand.

NIGHT VIGIL SPENT

BY WOMAN ON ALPS. Her Mate Companion Falls Over Yawning Precipice to Instant Death.

GENEVA, Sept. 23.—A Dresden engineering student named Julius Haase was killed by a fall on the Stanserhorn (6236 feet) yesterday evening while attempting to come down the mountain by another way than by the easiest path.

It appears that Herr Haase ascended the mountain, accompanied by a woman, by the railroad to the summit. Toward evening they started to descend on foot, but wandered from the path, and Herr Haase fell into the Kraehenhubel Gorge.

The woman's cries for help were heard by some shepherds and railway employes, but it was not until this morning, after she had passed the whole night on the mountain, that the relief party was able to extricate her from among the rocks by means of ropes.

Herr Haase's body was found to have been terribly mangled by the fall, and death must have been instantaneous.

RACE WAR IN SOUTH; TEN LIVES SACRIFICED

Scores have been injured in Atlanta, Several of Whom Cannot Recover -Negro Assaults on White Women Began the Trouble-Mob Led on to Frenzy by Sensational Papers - Militia Called Out.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 23.—In the 24 hours since a race war of no mean proportions began in Atlanta, at least ten lives have been sacrificed and the number of injured will be at least forty, several of whom cannot recover. At 10 o'clock tonight the city was controlled by the police, aided by nearly a thousand of the state militia. The authorities seem to have the situation well in hand. Governor Terrell, who ordered seven companies of the state militia into service from points outside of Atlanta, to aid the eight local companies, stood ready tonight to declare the city under martial law, if the scenes of last night were repeated.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 22.—Five assaults today by negroes on white women resulted in a deadly race riot here tonight, during which three negroes were killed and many injured. The assaults of the day followed two others of a similar nature within 24 hours. At midnight Governor Terrell issued an order calling out eight companies of the fifth infantry and one battery of light artillery. This order was not issued until three negroes had been killed and fifteen taken to the hospital, five of whom will die. This includes only those cases of which the police have official knowledge. The newspaper men claim the number of dead is larger.

The mob began its work early in the evening, pulling negroes from street cars and beating them with clubs, bricks and stones. Negro women were riding to their homes after the work of the day, were ruthlessly torn from the cars or attacked on the streets. In a few cases the negroes retaliated during the early part of the night.

The fire department was called out to disperse the mob on a street most frequented by negroes, and for a time seemed to hold the crowd at bay. The police reserves were called out and with the situation until the troops were mobilized. The mob seemed to lack leadership, and this doubtless prevented greater slaughter.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 22.—Following the riots of Saturday night and Sunday morning, there were unconfirmed rumors of a white man killed by negroes today and of a negro being shot to pieces by enraged whites.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 23.—Throughout last night the race war was waged with varying vigor, and when morning dawned today, it found the downtown streets in possession of eight companies of the fifth Georgia infantry with a battery of light infantry in reserve. Through the day, little of importance had occurred. The police claimed, with the aid of the militia, to have the situation under control.

This condition came as the result of numerous and repeated assaults or attempted assaults upon white women by negroes. The list of an even dozen of such assaults, within the limits of Fulton county, within the last nine weeks, came yesterday when four attempts at assault were reported. Fearing headlines in the special editions of afternoon papers wrought the populace to a high pitch of excitement. The usual Saturday night crowds were largely increased by men and boys who thronged the downtown streets. There was no leader and no overt act until late in the evening. About 10 o'clock a negro man shoved a white woman from the sidewalk on Whitehall street, in the centre of the town. Almost simultaneously a negro woman made an insulting remark to a white man on an adjoining street and the mob was born.

From this start the mob began its work of destruction. Five thousand men and boys thronged the downtown streets looking for negroes. The news that a riot had started brought thousands more from their homes in the suburbs and residence districts, until fully 10,000 men thronged the downtown sections.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 23.—Although urgently requested from many sources to declare martial law, Governor Terrell has so far declined to do so. He said tonight if the scenes of last night are repeated he will not hesitate to put the militia in supreme control.

Mayor Woodward has urged that the city and county police with the militia, be kept in reserve tonight and tomorrow morning, all day if necessary. All boys under 21 years have been ordered to keep off the streets. It was the consensus of opinion during the early evening that if tonight passes without serious disturbance no further trouble need be expected.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 23.—At ten o'clock tonight the militia appear to have the situation under control. Over telephone Governor Terrell declared that the situation is satisfactory to him and he sees no reason to declare martial law at present. Persistent rumors were heard this evening that the mob has taken a negro porter from the Marion Hotel, in the heart of the town, and shot him to death. At 10 p. m. this

They made attacks on the incoming street cars. Each car was swarmed by negroes. The trolleys were pulled from the wires and in the darkness of the unlighted cars negroes were beaten, cut and stamped upon in an unreasoning, mad frenzy. If a negro ventured resistance, or remonstrated, it meant practically sure death. One car, half filled with negroes, approached from an outside run. The mob dashed for the car. Resistance was made by the negroes, who had not been apprised of the trouble. Three negroes lay dead on the floor of the car and several were seriously beaten and unconscious.

When the crowd seemed to be getting beyond control, at about ten o'clock Mayor Woodward mounted a car platform on Peachtree and Marietta streets, and urged the crowd to disperse, declaring that the assaults of the white women would be adequately and promptly punished by due process of law.

Woodward was given a respectful hearing, but when he finished his address of denunciation was resumed. He made another appeal a few moments later but without result. Then he turned a general fire alarm, calling the entire fire department to the scene. To Chief Joiner he gave the laconic order: "Clear the streets."

The result was to stop the mob in its work in that immediate section and to drive it to other streets. The situation became so threatening at eleven o'clock that Governor Terrell was appealed to, to order out the state troops. Although no request had come from the sheriff, Gov. Terrell gave the order mobilizing eight local infantry companies at once. Previously a police riot call had been sounded summoning all police reserves to headquarters, with the decision to call out the troops, the fire bell sounded once more, this time the call for every member of the militia to report forthwith at his armory. It was almost two o'clock this morning before the first squad appeared on the streets and at five o'clock six companies were under arms.

The attacks on negroes had the effect of clearing the streets of blacks. Street hacks were abandoned at curbside and drivers were taken by white men. This fear of the mob has affected several public conveniences today. The post office officials had much difficulty in delivering special letters to the residences of the city. Many families temporarily without male protection, feared the possibility of danger, of which they knew but little. The fear of trouble was accentuated by the newspapers' cries. It was a night of terror to hundreds.

The lawless character of the mob last night was fully demonstrated during the latter part of the evening. When negroes had vanished from the streets the mob from pure wantonness broke windows and damaged property. The crowd after pulling the negro porters from the Pullman cars of a Western and Atlantic train getting ready to start, commenced to smash the windows in the day coaches and mail and baggage car. They then crossed to the Kimball house and continued to smash windows, causing a loss of several hundred dollars. Numerous windows in stores on Peachtree street today show the marks of the mob's attack. A close watch was maintained to guard against incendiarism, but fortunately this precaution was unnecessary.

CANADA A FIELD FOR EMIGRANTS

Hon. Frank Oliver Speaks on Feeling Abroad

Strong Sentiment in Favor of the Dominion, He Says—Good Class of Immigrants Expected

OTTAWA, Sept. 23.—The Canadian minister of interior, Hon. Frank Oliver, returned to Ottawa Saturday. For the past two months he has been in Europe looking into the immigration machinery which is under his department. Mr. Oliver returns well satisfied with Canada's prospects for continuing to receive a large volume of the best class of immigrants. He stated to your correspondent that he has found a general sentiment in favor of Canada as a field for emigrants prevailing among all classes. The Dominion is favored in British opinion over foreign countries and over British colonies as a place for the man who wants to make a home for himself in a new land. The feeling in favor of Canada, Mr. Oliver says, will result in our receiving not only British immigrants but the best class of immigrants from the motherland. The minister states there is no intention of relieving the effort to obtain these immigrants—the contrary, the machinery is more likely to be strengthened. Mr. Oliver said he found no evidence of British ignorance of Canadian resources and conditions. On the contrary he was surprised to find how much all classes he met knew about Canada.

Speaking of continental immigration Mr. Oliver said he had been in Belgium, France and Holland. Canada has immigration agents in the principal cities of those countries. From France a small immigration of a good class was coming and might be expected to increase. Belgium was becoming more crowded and Canada should soon be getting a share of the overflow of that country. Holland, like the Scandinavian countries, and Austria-Hungary have laws which are designed to discourage emigration. However, there is immigration to be obtained from all those countries.

Steamship lines from North Sea ports are in a conference and have an arrangement which makes it to their interest to direct emigration to British Canada. At some disadvantage there, but there is some immigration bound for Canada. The Dominion last year increased its consumption of beer and tobacco but drank less spirits than the year before. For the year ending June 30 the consumption of beer was 5,866 gallons, of spirits 277 gallons, wine 686 gallons and 2,991 pounds of tobacco per head.

ELOQUENT SERMON BY BISHOP JAGGAR

Reference Was Made in His Evening Discourse to the Many Startling Eruptions of the Past Year

Rev. Thomas Jaggar, formerly Bishop of Southern Ohio, at present rector of St. Paul's church, Boston, occupied the pulpit at Trinity church at both the morning and evening services. The reverend gentleman delighted his audience at both services by able and eloquent sermons.

In the evening the preacher took for his text a part of the 11th and the whole of the 12th verses of the 19th chapter of the first book of Kings. The speaker referred to the startling eruptions which had occurred during the past year which seemed to shake the faith of many in a divine ruler of the earth.

In the text the Lord spoke to the people in a still, small voice not in an earthquake or a mighty tempest. At the present time, said the speaker, people like the ancient Hebrews look for God to appear through natural phenomena. But God is spiritual and should be seen by natural manifestations then he would partake of the natural and not of the spiritual. There is in us, said the speaker a spiritual nature. "The deepest silence and the loneliest place a man's individual soul." Only through the spiritual can man know God. Those who accede to the call of duty, and work for the improvement and enlightenment of mankind, the real revelation of God dwells upon them. Those who are troubled by earthquakes and tempests, continue the preacher, fear dissolution, but those who obey the call of duty fear not death.

lacked confirmation. Conductors and motormen on the Magnolia street car line refused to take their cars out. One car which came in about 2:30 p. m. had several broken windows where negroes in the outskirts of the town stoned it. This line runs through a section thick populated by negroes.

GOV. GENERAL WAS DISGUSTED

Seven People Attended Civic Reception in Calgary

Vice Royalty Is More Incident Says the Herald—New Conservative Paper for Toronto—A Big Fire

CALGARY, Alta., Sept. 23.—Lord Grey, governor general, with his vice-regal party, was tendered a civic reception by the Calgary, Alta., city council. Just seven people attended. Not all the council, which extended the invitation were present. It was not a case of studied neglect but apparently the result of the failure of the council to notify the public of the function. The governor general and his staff were disgusted, and said so. The incident has provoked adverse comment.

The Daily Herald, owned and edited by J. J. Young, said: "Lord Grey did not meet with insult, but his coming was regarded with indifference. Vice-royalty is a mere incident. The west is busy and usually takes a man at his word. The graduate drops his degree and the nobleman leaves his title behind. Man is the biggest thing in the west, and in the face of this levelling process which takes the man on the shoulder wherever he goes can Lord Grey or any other nobleman expect a great demonstration?"

TORONTO, Sept. 23.—The manufacturing establishment and oil warehouse of the Canadian Oil Company, Ltd., Saturday was destroyed by fire early in the morning. The office fronting on Strachan Ave. and a frame building used for storing varnishes and paints were saved. The loss is estimated at over $100,000. The company carry that amount of insurance. Thousands of gallons of oil, a large quantity of grasses and four cars loaded with oil for shipment to Port Arthur were destroyed.

The stock is a total loss but is fully covered by insurance. The Toronto Daily Standard Publishing Company, Ltd., has been incorporated at Ottawa to carry on the business of a newspaper and general publishers, etc. Capital $500,000. It is said new papers will be strictly conservative in politics.

DOMINION EXHIBITION OPENED AT HALIFAX; SPLENDID EXHIBITS

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 23.—The Dominion Exhibition was formally opened on Saturday afternoon by Lieut-Governor Fraser. The weather was perfect and over a thousand persons witnessed the opening proceedings which took place in front of the grand stand. The show is the biggest ever held in eastern Canada. Every department is filled with interesting exhibits. The most noteworthy, some notable exhibits being those from the British West Indies and from the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan. The art exhibit, mines and fisheries are very fine, the latter being made particularly attractive by a display of live fish in tanks and live lobsters in glass cases. The display of some of the field and farm is big and better than ever, the fruit show being very fine.

The live stock show surpasses anything ever seen here, there being over six hundred horses and eight hundred head of cattle housed on the grounds some of which are from Quebec and Ontario. Famous flocks of sheep are shown and the swine exhibit is well up to the standard. In the poultry department over 1200 birds are exhibited. Following the opening ceremonies on Saturday the horse show took place and in several of the classes competition was very keen. A nine days' speed event will be held on Monday with three races.

FOUR SEAMEN MET DEATH IN TERRIBLE GALE

Two Survivors Flashed on Bits of Wreckage for Three Days Before They Were Picked up by Steamer

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 22.—From Monday morning at 8 o'clock until Thursday evening following, thirsting and starving but for three small fishes which were cast up by the sea upon the bit of wreckage on which they rode and were divided and devoured raw, John Koerber and Karsten Bernsten, seamen aboard the late three-masted schooner Nelson E. Newbury of New York, Captain Jernard, rode on a raft on the sea off the coast until the steamer Egda came along and saved them. The men were landed here this morning by Captain Thomas Olsen. They said that the Newbury sailed from Port Royal, S. C., Sept. 8, for New York, with cargo and a deckload of lumber; that they were becalmed outside for eight days, but on last Monday morning, when off Charleston, a hurricane struck them and quickly stripped every sail from the vessel.

Next the deckload on the lee side was washed away and blown overboard. Then the schooner dipped her stern and the cabin deck was washed away. Within a few seconds the vessel was turned over and all hands tried to climb over the weather side. A big sea came then and swept four of the six men off the wreck and the survivors never saw them again. Koerber and Bernsten got on top of the cabin roof and hung to it until they were rescued.

The cabin tablecloth which they found hanging on a hook, an oilskin coat and a pair of overalls were hoisted above the raft and were waved by the men, who also shouted and screamed when passing ships were sighted. Fifteen steamers passed them, some of them so close that they could see their rigging from before the Egda came.

MONCTON MAN MAY BE DROWNED

A. J. Gorham Has Been Missing—A Body Seen Floating in the River

MONCTON, N. B., Sept. 21.—A. J. Gorham, a well known citizen who was assistant manager of Peter McSweeney Co., Ltd., store here, has been missing since yesterday morning and a good deal of apprehension has been caused among his friends by the fact that about half-past twelve o'clock yesterday afternoon the body of a man was seen floating in the river. Gorham has been traced up to about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, but later than that his movements are unknown. Shortly after the body came in yesterday, a body floated by on the tide, being within 25 feet of the shore and observed by a number of boys who were fishing at the banks. The police were notified and Chief Chappell drove up river to a point beyond the bridge but was unable to locate the body. There are a number of eddies and strong currents which would have deflected it to the other side of the river. Those who saw the body say that it was dressed in dark clothes and a hard hat floated a few yards behind it.

The description of both the hat and clothes tally with what Gorham is said to have worn. He is a man of about 35 years of age, of medium build, and was last seen on the morning of the 20th inst. when he was on duty at the Newbury. There was a meeting of the Freight Truckmen's Union yesterday afternoon in their rooms on Charlotte street. Nothing but regular business was transacted. The members of the union above the rift and were waved by the men, who also shouted and screamed when passing ships were sighted. Policeman Hamm reported Peter Buckley and George Murphy for interfering with the workmen, and with work generally in F. E. Sayre's mill early Friday morning. There was a crowd of boys and only the two reported were known to James Lovell, the night watchman. It appears that it has been the habit for a number of boys to congregate in the mill yard and interfere with the workmen to a considerable extent by throwing things around. Horses become frightened and the men distracted from their work. Mr. Lovell, wishing to put a stop to this reported the two above named boys to the police thus hoping to put a stop to any further annoyance from this source.

The staterooms of the Eastern Line steamer Calvia Austin are being rapidly taken up for the two last direct trips of the season, via tomorrow and Saturday evenings. The Austin has carried a very large number of passengers this season.

Last night about seven o'clock little Eddie Monahan, son of Patrick W. Monahan, was riding a bicycle along Charlotte Street when he broke the handle of his bicycle. The lad was thrown violently, his cheek coming in contact with the edge of the curb, and he sustained quite an ugly cut but was able to walk home.

The increasing sharpness in the air admonishes men and youths to look well to their underwear needs. Parents will attend to the boys' in this issue. M. R. A., Ltd., explain concisely how well they are prepared to supply all demands with a bigger, better and more extensively priced assortment of shirts and drawers, embracing all standard makes. The underwear department of the house has put every line they carry to a severe test before offering it for sale.

Thompson, the popular skipper of the Eastern Line S. & Company's service, who has been in command of the Huron, chartered for a short period by the company, has returned to the command of the St. Croix now that the Huron has been taken off the route. Captain Mitchell, first pilot of the Calvin Austin who has been in command of the St. Croix during the time of the Huron's service, has returned to the Austin.

The official figures on the number of harvesters to arrive in Winnipeg on the many excursions this year, show that 22,850 persons were carried by the C. P. R., the net receipts, at $12 a ticket, amounting to over $274,000. Last year 16,225 harvesters were carried, the increase this year being 6,525. Altogether twelve excursions were run from the east, half of them during September. The number of harvesters carried is greatly in excess of previous years.

The yachting season is drawing to a close. While but one boat is out of the water so far, it is safe to predict there will be a dozen on dry land before the next ten days. After yesterday's short sail several veteran yachtsmen brought their "sea chests," containing clothing, etc., ashore. The marine railway at Millidgeville is in readiness for the hauling-up activities. A few yachts will remain in the water for over a month yet to carry duck gunners about.

Rev. D. Long returned this morning from Woodstock. Mr. Long said that the report that he had received a call to Carleton County was not correct, as the only thing he had heard about it was that some one casually mentioned it to him last evening. Mr. Long said that the meeting tonight was not called to consider his resignation, but rather to deal with the question of union. Mr. Long also stated that he would likely leave this fall and would in all probability go West.

The membership of the Marathon Athletic Club continues to grow, although no regular canvass is being made at the present time for new members. It is understood this club has plans in view for different sports in the winter, as well as for this fall. The club is also making arrangements for a number of outside football games. It is probable that the team will go to Halifax on Thanksgiving day. Moncton, Truro, the U. N. B. and the R. C. R. Federation, have also expressed a desire to play the new team and an endeavor will be made to accommodate all these.

THIS EVENING.

There will be a meeting of Victoria Division, No. 1, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, in the Armory, Germain Street, tonight at eight o'clock.

JOSEPH McNAMARA IS VISITING FRIENDS HERE

Former St. John Athlete Is Now Instructor in a Boston Gymnasium.

Joseph McNamara, the well known athlete, of Boston, is in the city the guest of John T. Power. Mr. McNamara will be remembered by many St. John people, as he figured in some of the greatest running races ever held in this city.

The race between "Joe" and Fred Scott was of a very exciting nature, and many heavy bets were made. Mr. McNamara was under the doctor's care at the time and lost the race by about six inches.

A short time after the race Mr. McNamara left a deposit of $50 at the Sun office as a guarantee of good faith in a challenge to meet any runner in Canada. No one accepted the challenge, and Mr. McNamara had no opportunity to compete for the championship of the Dominion.

When the Shamrock, St. John's famous baseball team, were on the diamond, Mr. McNamara was an all-round man, and was a tower of strength to the team. Having retired from running circles, Mr. McNamara graduated from Dr. Sargent's school of gymnastics at Harvard, and was appointed physical instructor at the Tyler street gymnasium, Boston. He still holds this position, and in the summer months conducts a swimming class at North End Park.

The Tyler street gymnasium is up-to-date in every particular, and twelve classes meet during the week. Men, women and children attend.

Mr. McNamara has conducted four very successful athletic meets in Boston, and men such as Paul Pilgrim, Wm. Eaton, Thos. Cronin, and Parsons of Yale, competed in the different events. These men have figured in the games at Athens.

Mr. McNamara pays St. John a visit every summer, and is a regular visitor at the Neptune Rowing Club's rooms, where he enjoys many games of hand ball, etc.

H. P. Robinson, manager of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, was in the city this morning. In conversation with the Star, Mr. Robinson said that it was not his intention to remain in the telephone business very long, but that he would retire in a short time. He said that there would be a meeting of the shareholders of the company held in this city tomorrow night to officially ratify the action taken by the directors of the company in regard to the recent amalgamation.

Frank Whelpley, of Winnipeg, formerly men's outfit on Main street, this city, enjoyed a sail in one of the R. K. Y. C. yachts after yesterday's storm. Mr. Whelpley was formerly a prominent member of the yacht club, and was credited with being one of its very best skippers, having won many a race by careful handling. Therefore, after a four years' absence in the west where the yachting sport, as it is in St. John, is an impossibility, Mr. Whelpley was thoroughly pleased with his half day's work at the tiller. In examining the large fleet at Millidgeville the ex-officer of the R. K. Y. C. was surprised at the increasing size and elegance of some of the craft, also the motor craft.

After a short stay home Mr. Whelpley will return to the western metropolis, where he has a prospering business. Upon first going to the west he launched his commercial bark in Sinclair, Man., a small outlying place, but later on found it advisable to set up shop in the big city.

20th Century Brand

$18 Suits . .

An examination of our splendid line of 20th Century Brand Suits at $18 would prove very interesting to you and convince the most skeptical of the enormous improvement in the best class of Ready-to-Wear Clothing.

The cut of Coat, Vest and Trousers is of the most fashionable model, conservative yet stylish and becoming. The tailoring is of a quality approached by few custom tailors—the coat, with ordinary usage, never losing shape; the collar and fronts do not break away in unsightly folds. The materials are imported Tweeds, Worsteles and Serges; the linings high class.

In a word you would pay $5 to $7 more to any fine tailor for a suit of the same class, and we claim that 90 or 95 per cent. of men can obtain entire satisfaction. Call, try on and thoroughly inspect these excellent productions of tailoring art.
