to control the patronage in the country, despite the fact that he was read out of the party.
This fact Premier Borden did not attempt to deny when questioned by the deputation today. He stated that he had not considered this owing to being rushed with other business.
Mr. Garland recently published an appeal to his electors. This appeal reveals in somewhat striking fashion the peculiar views he has of the duties and functions of a parliamentary representative.
It contains no defence whatever for his connection with the drug contract, but is prefaced with the following significant words: "Weigh these facts well in your mind before deciding to vote against me in connection. I still hold the patronage of the county." Mr. Garland thereupon sets forth his record as Conservative member for the constituency of Carlton.
This consists of the securing of mail contracts, valued at $29,137; the disposal of $101,068 of public funds in his county, during his first year in parliament; the securing of fifty-seven permanent appointments to the civil service, despite the fact that permanent appointments are supposed to be free from political influence; of 110 temporary appointments; a second year county expenditure of $122, 168; a second batch of fifty-nine permanent and seventy-nine temporary jobs, and public works valued at $28,000.
It is little wonder that the Conservative association, in view of the fact that Mr. Garland still holds the patronage, hesitated to take the prime minister at his word.
It is understood that one of the questions asked the prime minister by the deputation today was as to whether Mr.
Garland would have the patronage if re-elected. The prime minister declined to answer. He declared that "he had nothing to add or take away from the management he made in the commons on April 15" and stated that he was going to mail a copy of Hansard containing his remarks to every member of the Carlton County Conservative Association. The new commission, however, would further investigate the contract.

Baron Mersev Rules That Question of Speed Did Not Enter Into Safety of Steamer
—Mr. Thomas' Statement.

London, June 17.—The public inquiry into the sinking of the steamship Lusitania by a German submarine was ended this afternoon. A short session in camera will be held tomorrow to take further evidence as to whether Captain Turner observed fully the admiralty's warnings, but none of this will be made public.
A feature of today's session was the ruling of Lord Mersev, president of the court of inquiry, that the question of speed had nothing to do with the catastrophe.
When the attorneys connected with the case were asked for their opinions this afternoon, A. C. Edwards, M. P., representing the Seamen's Union, said it was obvious that if a zig-zag course was an element of safety, as an admiralty expert had testified, then the captain and owners of the steamer "showed grave culpability."
"Had it anything to do with the calamity?" asked Lord Mersev.
Mr. Edwards replied that the evidence disclosed the company was economizing in the consumption of coal. As Captain Turner was holding the ship to a straight course at a speed of 18 knots, he said, it was easy for a submarine to take its proper position, whereas if the vessel had been zig-zagging it would have been difficult, if not impossible, to tell where the ship would pass.
The evidence shows the torpedo suddenly came into the side," was Lord Mersev's comment. "How would the speed of the vessel have affected that catastrophe?"
The only question on which Lord Mersev desired light was the statement of D. A. Thomas, the coal operator, that while the first and second passengers were calm, and the stewards and steer-wages brave and helpful, the steerage passengers were in confusion, and members of the crew were mainly interested in saving themselves, giving a general appearance of lack of discipline.

WHERE TO INQUIRE ABOUT PENSIONS

Ottawa, June 17.—The Militia Depart-give more prompt attention to the mat-

FRENCH MAKE SMASHING ADVANCE ON MEUSE HEIGHTS AND IN ALSACE; RUSSANS LIKELY TO YIELD LEMBERG

WITH FALL OF RAWKA-RUSKA, RUSSIANS CANNOT HOPE TO HOLD LEMBERG FROM POLISHS

Railway North of Galician Capital Reported Severed by Germans, Cutting Off Communications

Grand Duke Nicholas Carried Out Policy of Withdrawal Sooner Than Expected by Enemy—Turks Report Lively Fighting at Dardanelles With But Little Result—New War Loan in Britain Left With the People—DeWet Guilty.

London, June 21, 10:54 p.m.—Rawka-Ruska, according to a Berlin official report, is the latest Russian position in Galicia to fall into the hands of the Austro-Germans, and as the Austrians also are reported to be fighting east of this town the investment of Lemberg must be so nearly complete that the Russians either must withdraw from the Galician capital or leave a portion of their forces there to be besieged.

The German general, Von Mackensen, is reported to have seized the railway connecting Rawka-Ruska with Lemberg, thus cutting off the retreat northward of the Russians. According to the latest news from the Austrian headquarters the Teutonic allies are now within nine miles of the limits of Lemberg.
Considerable wonder is expressed by the German military critics over the Austro-German advance of the last few days. They had expected the Russians to make a firm stand along the Grodek line. Instead, however, Grand Duke Nicholas, the commander-in-chief of the Russians, not only retired quickly from this position but, evidently recognizing his dangerous predicament, also ordered the withdrawal of the Russian forces from south of the Dniester river.

SEDDUL BAHR UNDER BOMBARDMENT

An official Turkish report indicates that there has been considerable activity in the Dardanelles, with an Allied battleship again battering away at the forts of Seddul Bahr.

In the west Paris continues to report French advances, especially in the region of Arras. Here it is asserted progress has been made in the direction of Souchez, and the capture of several trenches has brought the attackers near the northwest of the village. Further progress also is reported in the Lorraine district and in the Vosges. In the latter region the French claim to have made an advance beyond the cemetery at Metzeral, the loss of which town is now officially admitted by Berlin.

England today turned its interest from actual warfare to the provision of sinews of war, the house of commons having provided the government a blank check, the size of which it to be limited only by the patriotism and resources of British investors.

The trial in Africa of General Christian De Wet, one of the rebel leaders, has ended in a verdict proclaiming him guilty of treason. It is not expected, however, that the death sentence will be imposed on him.

NOT NECESSARY YET TO ABANDON LEMBERG

Petrograd, June 21, 10:40 a. m.—via London, 6:35 p.m.—The Austro-German attempt to force a way through the Russian line north and south of Grodek, in the battle for Lemberg, has not yet been successful.

Regarding the approaching crisis in the Galician campaign, the Bourse Gazette says:

"In view of the continued German reinforcements in Galicia, the situation before us is to choose between retaining Lemberg and preserving the freedom of our operations, it is possible we shall have to make a sentimental sacrifice and abandon the Galician capital."

GERMANS REPORT RAWA-RUSKA CAPTURE

Berlin, June 21.—The text of today's German official communication follows:
"In the western theatre:
"On the front to the north of Arras our antagonists continued themselves chiefly with the fire of artillery. An infantry attack to the north of Souchez was repulsed by us. To the east of Souchez a partial night attack by the French against our positions to the west of Month-Toutvent resulted in failure.
"On the western border of the Argonne we opened the attack. The Wuertemburg and the North German Landstrum took several lines of defense works almost behind each other over a front of two kilometres (a mile and one-fifth) and inflicted heavy losses on the French.
During the unsuccessful counter-attack the French, the prisoners and booty taken in this fight amounted to six thousand and 623 men, three machine guns and three mine-throwers.

"In the Meuse Hill the French directed strong attacks last evening against our positions in the trenches to the west of Les Eparges, but at a point to the west of the high road their onslaughts broke down under our fire. To the east of the high road, however, the enemy penetrated into a portion of our positions which they have been partly driving again. Seventy prisoners were left in our hands.

"To the left of Lunéville we withdrew in face of superior forces. Our advance guards were pushed forward by way of Gondrenon to the main positions to the north of Lunéville.

"In the eastern theatre of wars:
"In the region to the northwest of Shavli and to the west of the Upper Dniester river several Russian attacks were driven in part by strong forces, resulting in failure.
"In the southeastern theatre:
"The armies under General Mackensen fighting for Lemberg and Zolokiev

Proposed New Loan at Four and One-Half Per Cent. Now Favorably Received in Financial Circles—French Ministers Well Pleased With Output of Munitions.

London, June 21, 10:10 p. m.—The House of Commons adjourned tonight after unanimously giving a first reading to a bill providing the new Chancellor of the Exchequer, Reginald McKenna, with a blank check which may amount, at a maximum, to one thousand million pounds ($5,000,000,000).

The vote of credit for $1,250,000,000 passed last week by the house, simply authorized the government to spend that much for war purposes, but did not provide for the manner in which this sum should be raised. Tonight's enactment was in the form of a resolution, which empowers the government to raise not only the $1,250,000,000 deemed necessary to pay the cost of the war, at the rate of $18,000,000 daily, for a limited period, but as much more as may be needed.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer made a long explanation of the proposed loan, and in closing said that on the technical question as to the limit of the loan it would be dangerous to disclose the necessity for not exceeding the sum, and he added that the only figure which could put in the bill was a maximum which would cover all requirements of the new loan, including provisions embodying the subscribers' covenants—the subscribers to the loan, the Austrian and the holders of Consols to participate. This maximum would not fall far short of a thousand million pounds sterling.

The generous terms provided for holders of Consols and the first war loan securities appear to meet the objections that have been urged in financial quarters to the issue of a four and one-half per cent. loan.

Although the stock exchange had closed before Mr. McKenna's statement was published, the proposed new loan is said to have met with a favorable reception in the financial districts, but it is not yet possible to say how the terms of the loan will affect other kindred issues, such as Consols and last November's war loan.

During the course of his statement in the house, the Chancellor, answering the suggestion that more money should be raised by additional taxation, said that it was best to take one step at a time, if, owing to the continuance of the war, it became necessary to find further very large sums it was obvious that additional taxation would be required. He said he had been asked to say how the terms of the loan will affect other kindred issues, such as Consols and last November's war loan.

FRENCH AMMUNITION MAKING SATISFACTORY

Paris, June 21, 11:05 p. m.—That the manufacture of arms and ammunition in France is progressing satisfactorily was made known in an official communication issued tonight concerning a tour of the factories, where the work is in progress, made by Minister of War Millerand, Sunday. The statement says:
"The Minister of War went Sunday on a tour of the factories in the interior of France and returned this morning.
In all the factories he visited, the privately-owned, as well as those belonging to the state the minister witnessed very great activity. He has satisfied himself personally, thanks to the great and progressive efforts shown up to the present, the expected results will everywhere be realized, and in a good many factories probably exceeded.

11,072 BRITISH OFFICERS HAVE FALLEN IN WAR

Of This Number 3,372 Were Killed and 6,651 Wounded —Heavy Losses Between May 19 and June 9 Also Affect Canadians—Death of an Aviator.

London, June 21.—The British army casualty lists, ending June 9, show that since the beginning of the war 11,072 officers have been killed, 6,651 wounded and 1,949 put down as missing, making a total of 19,672. From May 19 to June 9, 7,038 officers were killed, 1,407 wounded and 150 reported missing, or 8,295 in all.
During the last fortnight ending June 9, the Canadian contingent lost forty officers, killed and 130 wounded. The Austrian 107 killed and 175 wounded, and the Indian 49 killed and 117 wounded, who, being officers, were in large part English.

With each casualty list a certain number of officers and men are transferred from the missing to the killed, owing to the finding of their bodies. The number of the dead is also constantly increasing by those succumbing to wounds.

Major Lumsden Killed

London, June 21, 5:43 p. m.—Major Lumsden, of the Royal Army Flying Corps, was killed this afternoon while flying over the Brooklands aviation course.
Major Harry T. Lumsden was making a flight as a passenger on a trial trip.
The aeroplane had reached an altitude of 200 feet, when the engine went wrong and the machine dived earthwards and was smashed. Major Lumsden was so badly injured that he died. In a few hours, but the injuries of the pilot were not serious.

3555 In One Day

London, June 22, 3:44 a. m.—The British casualty lists issued Monday night contain the names of fifty-five officers and 3,500 men. The week-end list issued Sunday was four thousand.

ROUNDING UP ALIEN ENEMIES IN ONTARIO

Six Austrians, Two of Them Officers, Arrested Suspected of Being Spies—Other Arrests Expected.

Toronto, June 21.—The Ontario police have commenced a general roundup of alien enemies, and today six Austrians, two of them military officers, and three members of a committee suspected of being in communication with spies in the United States, were arrested at Acton and brought to Toronto for internment.
The three alleged members of the committee have, it is charged, been connected with a regular system throughout Ontario for the collection of money from German and Austrian sympathizers, the assistance of German economists to return to the Fatherland, and the transmission of reports to German agents in the United States. Other arrests are expected to follow.

Soldier Dies of Blood Poisoning

Kington, Ont., June 21.—The death occurred in the General Hospital today of Corporal Gilchrist, of North Bay, aged 35, a member of the Base Battalion at Berrie Camp. While shaving in camp he cut a simple on his face and blood poisoning developed.

FRENCH PUSH INTO ALSACE

Village of Metzeral Captured and Line Extended to Meyerhof

Germans Also Fall Back on Lorraine and Lose Ground on Heights of Meuse—Ground Won North of Arras Held Despite Attacks.

Paris, June 21.—The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight:

"In the sector to the north of Arras the situation is unchanged.
We have conserved all the ground conquered, and today only local infantry actions occurred and these have not modified the fronts.
The artillery combat continued.
"Our air squadrons effectively bombarded the aviation parks of the enemy, setting fire to four hangars and damaging two aeroplanes and one captive balloon.

"On the western border of the Argonne, on both sides of the road from Vielle Le Chateau to Binarville, the Germans on Sunday night delivered a violent attack, for which preparations had been made by an intense bombardment with asphyxiating projectiles. Our advance line was bent at certain points, two companies being buried in the overturned trenches.

"An immediate counter attack enabled us to regain almost the entire extent of our initial positions. The struggle was particularly spirited.

"On the heights of the Meuse, in the sector of the Calonne trench, after having repulsed counter attacks by the enemy, we enlarged today our gains of yesterday. A first attack made only slight progress. A second attack, on the other hand, enabled us to carry new trenches to the east of those which we had occupied on Sunday.
This gain has been conserved, as were the preceding gains.

"In Lorraine our reconnoitering parties, keeping in contact with the enemy, reached the works to the west of Gondrexon, and found them unoccupied. The Germans, in their withdrawal movement, have halted on the line of trenches to the south of Leintrey.

"In Alsace our progress has continued in the course of uninterrupted engagements. After having taken the cemetery of Metzeral, we occupied the station and then attacked the village, which we captured after a very hot fight. We have reached the outlets south of the locality and have pushed our line to the east, 550 yards beyond the outposts in the direction of Meyerhof.

"In these actions we took some prisoners, bringing the total since yesterday up to more than 200.

"To the north of the Fecht river the enemy attempted an attack on our positions at Reich-Ackerkopf, but was completely repulsed."

Cameronia Saved By Ramming At Submarine, Says Passenger

London, June 21, 5:07 p. m.—The Anchor Line Steamer Cameronia, under charter to the Cunard Line, had a narrow escape from a submarine in the Irish Sea on her voyage from New York to Liverpool, according to Peter Fletcher, of New York, one of the saloon passengers. The Cameronia arrived in Liverpool Sunday.

Mr. Fletcher says that during the run through the Irish Sea a submarine came out of the water, showing the top of her conning tower. To save the Cameronia Captain Kinnard headed the vessel for the submarine, which dived.
After passing over the spot where the underwater boat went down without finding any evidence that the steamer had collided with it, Captain Kinnard reversed the course of his vessel and got away safely.

Mr. Fletcher added that the passengers on the Cameronia, although many of them saw the periscope of the submarine, were cool.

The Cameronia sailed from New York, June 11, for Glasgow, by way of Liverpool. She had on board about 40 first-class passengers and a large number of persons in the second cabin.

NO DECORATION FOR LUSITANIA'S SINKING

London, June 21, 10:15 p. m.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Copenhagen says that official announcement has been made in Berlin that an Order of Merit has been conferred on any submarine commander for the sinking of the Cunard Line steamer Lusitania.

Daily Mail's Naval correspondent commenting of the reports from Holland that the Germans are rushing to completion several new battleships, armed with guns up to 17-inches, declares that victory in naval warfare in the present campaign has gone uniformly to the biggest guns and urges the British Admiralty under no circumstances to allow the Germans to gain ascendancy in this respect.

SINKING OF LUSITANIA 'FRIGHTFUL TRANSACTION'

But Pope Benedict Asks if Blockade Which "Constricts Two Empires and Condemns to Famine Millions of Innocents is Humane?"—May Issue Syllabus After War—Defining Doctrine of Church Regarding Rights and Duties of Belligerents.

Paris, June 21, 4:40 p. m.—La Liberte publishes today an interview with Pope Benedict, signed by Louis Lalapie, a prominent member of the staff who was sent to Rome for the purpose of ascertaining the Pope's views on the various aspects of the European war. Pope Benedict is quoted as expressing horror at some of the developments of the war, but in no way making the words of the Pope have to do with peace.

The interview began with an allusion by the pontiff to what the Holy See had done in respect to the war, but he had addressed a letter in favor of peace to the Catholic world. He had proposed a truce to the belligerents for the Christ-maside. He had endeavored to obtain an exchange of prisoners, untried for military service, and had had the good fortune to obtain, in this respect, an approachable result.

His holiness referred to the letter he had written to Cardinals Lucon and Amelot, of Rheims and Paris, respectively, and to his consistorial address on January 22.

M. Lalapie quotes the Pope as saying:
"You desire that I should condemn every Bismarck specifically, but each one of your accusations is accompanied by a reply on the part of the Germans, and I am not able to institute here a continuous discussion, nor can I make investigations at this moment."

"Is it necessary to inquire as to whether the neutrality of Belgium has been violated?" asked the correspondent.

"That was under the pontificate of Pius X," the Pope replied.

"Is it not known by all that many prisoners have been taken as hostages in Belgium and in France, and shot?" The Pope replied: "I have received from Austrian bishops the assurance that the Russian army has also taken hostages from among the Catholic priests, and that the Russians, on one occasion, pushed before them 1,500 Jews, so that they could advance behind this living barrier thus exposed to the bullets of the enemy. The Bishop of Cremona has informed me that the Austrians have arrested eighteen Austrian priests as hostages.

"The Germans," said M. Lalapie, "have committed other violations."
"Is this the Pope's opinion?" the cardinal secretary of state has received the representatives of seven Belgian congregations. They have declared that they are able to cite a single case in their congregations protected especially by the virgin or by some saint. We continue to be imperfectly informed on this subject."

"And the burning of Louvain and the bombardment of churches?"
"The Germans reply that their troops have been fired upon," the Pope made answer. "They have declared that there was an observatory in the tower of the cathedral at Rheims."

Cardinal Mercier Never Arrested.
"At least one can protest against the arrest of a prince of the church," ventured the correspondent.

"I shall surprise you; Cardinal Mercier (Archbishop of Malines) has never been arrested," replied the pope. "I have received from General Von Bissing, the governor of Belgium, a letter assuring me that he would repress hereafter, with the utmost energy, all acts of violence against churches and against the ministers of God."

The pope then referred to the sinking of the Lusitania, and is quoted by the correspondent as saying: "I do not know of a more frightful transaction. What right to see our generation the prey of father and this heart has been torn. But what do you think of the blockade which constricts two empires, which condemns to famine millions of innocents? Is that inspired also by feelings entirely humane?"

The pope continued: "I do not say that after the war I will not proclaim a syllabus, a re-calling and summing up of the doctrines of the church on this subject, and regulating, for the future, the rights and duties of belligerents. Then one will find, without doubt, the formal condemnation of crimes which will have been committed during the war." It was pointed out to the pontiff that France regretted to see that the pope had endeavored to prevent Italy from participating in the war, and the ques-

Election or No Election This Year.

Anyone who pays the most cursory attention to passing political incidents must have noticed that in spite of the talk about a party truce the Conservative associations all over the Dominion are nominating candidates, perfecting local organizations, raising funds, and circulating literature at the public expense.

While the Conservative managers are keeping up their election activity, Liberals would be foolish to rest on their laurels. It is to their credit that they are making preparation with preparation and nomination with nomination for the best way now to prevent an election from being held prematurely is to convince the Conservatives that they stand to lose more than they gain by trying to catch Liberals off their guard.

It would be useless to overlook the fact that the revelations of corruption developed by the Manitoba Royal Commission have greatly discouraged the Conservatives of western Canada. The man who is their self-appointed election director, and who boasts of knowing "how to win elections," graduated three years ago from the Conservative organization of Manitoba, which he had under his thumb long before he turned to the Dominion parliament as a sphere of sinister activity.

The War Contract Grifter.

New York is today infected with Canadians, some of whom have lived by their wits. Others lived off the country. A few weeks ago some of these Canadians could not have raised sufficient money to take a box of paper collars out of pawn. Today these persons are unanimously housed in palatial apartments. They are approached with difficulty. Cards are sent in by Canadians soliciting contracts. The amiable, confiding weakness of Sir Robert Borden has allowed a horde of middlemen to thrust themselves in as high-priced intermediaries between European governments that wish to place orders for war supplies and the Canadian manufacturers who wish to fill these orders.

Off in the Silly Night.

Off in the silly night, Ere slumber's chain has bound me, Fond memory brings the light Of days around me.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Quick Fruit Bread. Mix ingredients for baking powder biscuits, adding three-quarters of a cupful of raisins, and three-quarters of a cupful of seeded raisins. Make into a loaf, brush over the top with brown sugar that has been mixed with a little lard.

A Plant for Paris.

Mr. Atkins, loquacious, In my 'lyre in the 'ospital In a swanky great and lobbed out With painted 'ellins and gilded walls, And everythin' awful swell.

Not Passed by the Censor.

City Editor—"What did you mean when you wrote 'The statement is semi-official'?" Reporter—"Mrs. Blinks wouldn't talk so I got the story from her husband."

SUSPECTS CUGHT IN NUMBER CAMP

Officers Foster and Bell Captured Smith and Darrah Without Any Trouble—Both Deny Knowledge of Green's Death.

Woodstock, N. B., June 18—Aaron Green, father of the young man found in the River St. John and identified as his son, Fred Green, left here tonight for his home after swearing out a warrant for Charles Smith and Stephen Darrah, whom he charges with the murder of his son during a fracas on Florenceville bridge early in May.

Chief of Police Kelly and Constable Armstrong went to Florenceville today to make the arrests, but neither Smith or Darrah could be found. It is reported that they are in Odell, on the Tobique, pelling bark. Officer Armstrong went through by train and expects to find his men tomorrow.

Mrs. Kinney, who lives near the bridge, says that Green and Smith came to her house that night and asked for a lantern, as Smith had lost his hat. She says Green's face was covered with mud and when she saw Smith say to her: "If you bother me any more I will kill you." When Smith returned the lantern Darrah was with him.

Chief Kelly examined the place and says it is quite possible to roll from the house to the bridge in a motor car. The father of the dead boy says his forehead looks as if it had been hit with a bottle.

Mr. Hartland, N. B., June 20—(Special)—The arrest of Charles Smith and Stephen Darrah on the charge of murdering Fred Green of Fielding was effected by Officers A. R. Foster and David Bell on Friday night. The warrant was placed in the hands of Foster and Bell on Friday morning. They had a clue that led them to a lumber camp, about 26 miles from Bath. A part of the trip was made by auto, but seven miles of rough travel was a tramp through the deep forest.

MEDICINAL PLANTS.

To describe, or even to give a list of the five hundred varieties of plants that come under the head of medicinal, as given in a more than ordinarily interesting bulletin by Assistant Dominion Botanist J. Adams, M.A., would take up an exceptional amount of space.

ST. VITUS DANCE IN YOUNG CHILDREN

Can Only Be Cured by Enriching the Blood and Toning Up the Blood. One of the commonest forms of nervous trouble that afflicts young children is St. Vitus dance. This is because of the great demand made on the body by growth and development, together with the added strain caused by study.

Winnipeg, June 17—Two young fellows for stealing and damaging a boat, the property of Harry Brown, a shopkeeper. There has been a lot of rough work by gangs of young fellows at the village for some time, and the property of Harry Brown, a shopkeeper, was damaged by a boat.

British Leader Speaks With Emotion to Cavalry Division From Trenches

Anybody with Knowledge of wrongdoing Invited to Give Information or Evidence—Sir Charles Davidson Intimates That the Probing Will Be Deep—Powell Case Up First.

Ottawa, June 18—The opening meeting of Sir Charles Davidson's inquiry under royal commission into army contracts awarded in Canada since the opening of the war was held this morning in the railway committee room of the house of commons, where the public accounts committee last April did its delving with the results already known to the country.

Sir Charles intimated this morning that the probing process would continue from where the committee left off with a first re-probing of two of the most spectacular scandals disclosed last session. These are the Powell drug case, in which W. F. G. and W. F. G. were mixed up, and the sale of binoculars in which upwards of five middlemen were implicated, and a circumstantial case of the looting of the public treasury, was mixed up.

FIELD MARCHAL SIR JOHN FRENCH.

General Headquarters of the British Army in France, via London, June 19—Yesterday, the centennial anniversary of the battle of Waterloo, Field Marshal Sir John French, the British commander, visited a cavalry division not long out of the trenches.

The general stood in the centre of the square before the Tenth Hussars, once his own regiment, and before the famous First Life Guards. Sir John did not make a speech, but spoke as soldier to soldier, hesitating for words at times in his emotion. The men were actually seeing their commander-in-chief who, in the complicated immensity of modern warfare, is only a name to them.

"I know," said General French, "what you were capable of, and you have shown that you are equal to any work required of a soldier. It requires more dogged tenacity, more courage to stand for many days in the trenches than make one brave charge."

"Against that dastardly attack at Ypres, with a weapon against all usages, when the cloud of gas rolled over your trenches, gasping, blinded and in darkness you stood your ground with a determination which prevented disaster."

NEW AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL AT SUSSEX OPENS ON JULY 15

Already 250 School Teachers Have Expressed Desire to Take Summer Course—Practical Work Taught.

The fine new building for the use of the provincial agricultural school at Sussex is now nearing completion and it is expected that it will be ready for use by the date set for the formal opening, Thursday, July 15.

The first use to which it will be put is the work of the classes for school teachers who wish to qualify as instructors in agricultural subjects. The course will be four weeks in length and the date set for the formal opening, Thursday, July 15.

Plans for future work are still indefinite as the government has not set the seal of its approval on any scheme for a regular curriculum. It is expected that a class for young men will be held in the winter months but so far a comprehensive scheme to keep the institution busy for ten months in the year has not been settled.

FOUR SONS OF MR. AND MRS. JOHN TAIT IN UNIFORM

Three sons overseas on active service, another engaged in home defense, while awaiting his opportunity to get to the front, and the fifth not in uniform only because the doctors have refused to accept him; this is the proud record of the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Tait of 71 Somerset street. The call of king and country found no closed ears in this family and while today there are four vacant places around the board, the hearts of the parents are filled with pride when they think of the gallant record of their boys. To have such lads, willing to sacrifice everything in a just cause, is worth more to them than the safety of their sons would be if they were of less worthy material, willing to stay at home while others fought and died in their places. Charles left St. John under Captain Sturdee with the first contingent, and is now at the firing line in France. He is twenty-two years of age, and in a recent letter said he was well, and had up to that time escaped injury. Robert is a member of the 40th Battalion, and is either at the front or en route there. He joined the battalion in Amherst. He is thirty years of age. Charles, aged eighteen years, is with the 96th Battalion, and Lonzo, aged twenty-five, is a member of the home guards stationed at Partridge Hill. The fifth brother has tried repeatedly to join, but was not accepted on account of weak eyes.

CANADIANS MAY GO TO DARDANELLES

Correspondent at Shorncliffe Writes That Veterinary Corps and Dragoons Expect to Go

AMHERST PRAISED

Members of 22nd Say That No Town in Canada Could Have Used Them Better—Training Camp at Shorncliffe Now Covers Large Area—Machine Guns Ready for Use on Transports

London, June 1.—(Special correspondence to Montreal Gazette).—The last week-end in May was a very busy one in the Canadian camp in the Folkestone district, as it saw the arrival of several battalions, which, it is understood, complete the second division. Within two days three transports docked safely at Plymouth, or rather, at Devonport, which stands in relation to Plymouth as Maitland does to Montreal. The Carpathia got into Devonport on Friday night, the 29th (Victoria Rifles) and the 22nd (Montreal) and the 25th (Nova Scotia) Battalions. Later in the day there arrived the Misamis, carrying the 29th. With some months of experience in disembarking troops, everything now goes like clockwork, and by Sunday morning these four battalions had reached camp. Although there is a railway station known as Sandling Junction close to the camp, they left the train at another point more convenient for traffic, and had a march of six miles into camp shortly after midnight. Fortunately, their baggage, the 29th (Victoria Rifles) had anticipated their arrival and were good enough to supply them with hot drinks and food, as well as to lend a hand in getting their new quarters in order. The official statement was that the voyage of both ships had been calm and without any undue incidents, the health of the men being perfectly satisfactory, and the discipline good. Amongst the men, however, there reigned a feeling of relief at having escaped some great danger, and this was based on a rumor current among them that a transport had been sunk with 300 souls on board, of whom only one escaped. As the Megantic was the ship named by them, it is perfectly evident that the rumor had no foundation at all.

DUKE HIGHLY PLEASSED WITH 55TH BATTALION

His Royal Highness Inspected the Troops at Camp Sussex Saturday, and Complimented Officers and Men on Their Appearance—Governor-General Visited Recruits in Hospital Who Were Overcome by Heat During March Past Sussex, N. B., June 20.—A clear sky and warm sun gave favorable conditions for the review of the 55th battalion by the Duke of Connaught, and the event has passed, bringing the greatest degree of satisfaction to all concerned. The royal party reached Petticoat on a special train at midnight Friday and remained there until 9:15 in the morning. Lieutenant-Colonel McLean, brigadier, was early at the camp and met the duke and his party, who arrived at 10:10. Those composing the party, besides the governor-general, were Lieutenant-Colonel B. A. Stanton, military secretary, Major A. A. Duff, Gordon Highlanders, A. D. C., and General Rutherford. On arrival at the camp the battalion, under command of Colonel J. B. Kirkpatrick, were drawn up facing the saluting point and presented a royal salute. Major H. S. Jones was second officer in command, and Major S. M. Wetmore, adjutant. Officers in command of Companies were A. Company, Major Bull, B. Company, Woodbridge, C. Company, Campbell, D. Lieutenant Corr.

ASQUITH'S TWO SONS WOUNDED AT DARDANELLES

London, June 19, 2:09 p. m.—Lieut. Herbert Asquith, who returned to London recently from the Dardanelles, where he was wounded, is expected shortly to return to the fighting line. His wounds consist of contusions of the face, made by a splinter of shell, which also knocked out several of his teeth and cut his lips.

WHEN BABY IS ILL

When he is troubled with constipation, indigestion, vomiting or worms give him Baby's Own Tablets. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels and cure all these troubles simply because they banish the cause. Concerning them Mrs. Phillip Duval, St. Leonard, Que., writes: "We are well satisfied with Baby's Own Tablets, which we have used for our baby when suffering from constipation and vomiting." The tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WANTS CANADIAN OFFICERS BACK FROM THE FRONT

Ottawa, June 20.—Major General Sam Hughes has sent a special request to the authorities in England, asking that Col. J. A. Currie, M. P., commanding the 15th Toronto Highland Battalion and Col. Frank S. Meighan, commanding the 14th Battalion, Montreal, be allowed home on a month or so furlough in order that they might visit the various camps in the Dominion and instruct the officers and men upon the experience of warfare, which they have gained in action in Flanders. It is expected that the request will be granted. Both men were through the St. Julien battle and the subsequent actions in which the Canadians have been engaged and have earned the name of veterans. If Colonel Currie and Colonel Meighan return, Colonel Dave Marshall will take command of the 15th and Colonel Burland of the 14th. It is possible that this system of granting furlough to Canadian officers may be further extended later so that not only will a well earned rest be given, but the Canadian troops will benefit from the instruction which they are able to impart. Colonel Chadwick has resigned his command of the Mounted Rifles and is now in England, and has been appointed to assist Colonel Helmer, director of musketry, on the headquarters staff in Ottawa. The reason for Colonel Chadwick's resignation has not been divulged. He will assist at the school of musketry now being conducted at Rockville.

LIFE OF BRITISH HOUSE EXTENDED FOR WHOLE YEAR

London, June 19, 8:08 a. m.—"That there should be no dissolution of parliament was the decision virtually arrived at by the cabinet at its meeting yesterday," says the Times today. "The ministers decided, in principle, that the life of the present parliament should be extended twelve months and that no municipal elections should be held this year."

P. E. I. SOLDIER DIES FROM EFFECTS OF GERMAN POISON GAS

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 19.—James McIsaac of Souris has received word of the death of his son, Gunner Neil McIsaac, in hospital in France from gas poisoning. Major Donald was field officer today, and Lieutenant Corr was orderly officer. In the afternoon a Bible class was conducted by Captain Thomas, in the Y. M. C. A. tent, and many attended. Among the recent promotions noted is that of Corporal A. H. Sturmy to be

55TH BY NO MEANS COMPLETE

Lt. Col. Kirkpatrick Needs 400 More Men and Needs Them Quickly

It is incorrect to speak of the 55th battalion being recruited to its full strength yet. Progress has been steady and the whole has satisfied the commanding officer, Lieutenant-Colonel J. B. Kirkpatrick, considering that the amount of the work has fallen on his own officers. He and they have, in that every reason, to feel proud of the results they have attained. Especially is it satisfactory when it is realized that as the numbers under canvas at Sussex grew the greater were the obligations of the officers to take up the actual work of training the men, and the greater the demands upon their time for that first purpose for which officers themselves volunteered their services. No battalion in Canada has done better together so exclusively by the persistence of its own officers as the 55th.

CALL COMING SOON FOR 64TH

Officers of 55th Have Done More Than Their Share in Filling Ranks—Kings County's Brilliant Sons Continue Campaign Meetings.

NEED 400 MORE

In round numbers the total of the battalion may be said to be between 850 and 1,000. The exact number cannot be estimated as there are always medical rejections to be considered which cannot be foreseen by the best of medical men. In fact, many cases of latent typhoid will be dropped in the case of the men, and the greater the number have been put to the actual test of military work. Some of the men who are of mature age cannot stand up to the work though in the words of Captain Gannet, "Especially, the younger men grow up with it and strengthen."

NEED 400 MORE

But that is only the apparent number of the battalion. There has to be deducted the number of the overseas draft of 280 officers and men. To make up the total required for the 55th in the form that it will train with the first overseas draft, officers and men, there remains still something like 400 men, or nearly one-third of the battalion. No good can be done in letting this fact be overlooked. What is wanted is not optimism to recognize that much the work is still ahead even in recruiting, not to speak of the technical side of making soldiers out of the material that is available. Especially in the case of the 55th battalion need not be doubted. With the project of recruiting for the 64th already announced the task becomes more imperative.

Col. Kirkpatrick Needs 400 More Men and Needs Them Quickly

ALL COMING SOON FOR 64TH

It is incorrect to speak of the 55th attalion being recruited to its full strength yet. Progress has been steady on the whole as satisfied the commanding officer, Lieutenant-Colonel J. R. Kirkpatrick, considering that the amount of the work has fallen on his own officers. He and they have, in that every case, to feel proud of the results they have attained. Especially is it satisfactory when it is realized that as the numbers under canvas at Sussex grew the greater were the obligations of the officers to take up the actual work of training the men and the greater the demand upon their time for that first purpose for which officers themselves volunteered their services. No battalion in Canada has been got together so exclusively by the persistence of its own officers as the 55th.

In round numbers the total of the battalion may be said to be between 600 and 1,000. The exact number cannot be estimated as there are always medical detachments to be considered which cannot be foreseen by the best of medical men. In fact, many cases of latent illness only develop after the men have been put to the actual test of military work. Some of the men who are of mature age cannot stand up to the work though in the words of Captain Gardner, medical officers, the younger men grow up with it and strengthen.

But that is only the apparent number of the battalion. There has to be deducted the number of the overseas draft of 280 officers and men. To make up the total required for the 55th in the form that it will train with the first recruits, 1,400 officers and men, there remains still something like 400 men or nearly one-third of the battalion. No good can be done in letting this fact be overlooked. What is wanted is the optimism to recognize that much of the work is still ahead even in recruiting, not to speak of the technical side of making soldiers out of the material. That it will be hard to say, rather than a set campaign is what is needed from New Brunswick now if it is to take up its allotted share fully among the sister provinces of the New Brunswick.

Beyond the statement that no time is to be lost in getting the 64th under way, as soon as practicable, there is no news of the 55th, which is to be recruited by Minister-Private Speaks.

Private and Rev. H. Creed, formerly of Hampton, who early in the recruiting for the 55th battalion gave up his church to join his ranks, preached in the Methodist church, Pictou, on evening, that he wore the khaki uniform of the king's service. His remarks were chiefly confined to a many statement which made a deep impression on the audience, and reasons why he had enlisted. Incidentally he made a strong appeal for more men for the ranks of the battalion. His first reason, he said, was that he had been several times asked to speak on public platforms in favor of recruiting and disliked asking others to do what he himself would do. He said that he felt that this was a war in which the principles of righteousness and truth were at stake and he thought every able-bodied man should speak in its own cause; and, thirdly, he believed that his position in the ranks of a Canadian battalion would give him an opportunity for ministerial work of more importance than any other in the respect he regarded his call as more definite and insistent than preaching to civilian congregations.

Kings County Meeting.

Four former Kings county men spoke at Hatfield's Point on Tuesday night for the purpose of recruiting for the 55th. The speaker, G. W. Ganong acted as chairman. He remarked that New Brunswick seemed to feel the effects of the war less than any of the Canadian provinces in its general trade prosperity. That was due to the largely increased exports of war supplies that had gone through St. John which had had the result of improving the trade of the whole province. Then MacBride said that he had seen the large number of her sons who had joined the expeditionary forces had relieved unemployment.

Dr. Hartley, the next speaker, said that he thought the present war so far as Great Britain was concerned, was even more holy war than any of the Crusades had been.

Dr. E. M. Keirstead stated that in previous wars of this kind the freedom that the people of the dominion had been won and they now owed it as much to the past as to the future to take up arms in the defence of their country for liberty had its duties to the past as well as to the future.

Sir George E. Foster gave many statistics of the war and showed how Canada had contributed the patriotic and Belgian funds. Referring to the causes of the war he declared that the righteousness of the cause for which the country fought would bring its noble reward and victory. He appealed to all to make a more organized effort to support the patriotic efforts as it was only the realization that the best results would be obtained. He closed by pointing out that it was the duty of every young man who was physically fit to join one of the Canadian units for overseas service.

Rev. W. J. Wilkinson and Rev. Mr. Barlow were on the platform. Mrs. Newell sang Hallelujah and Hatfield Wetmore and others sang selections.

The nationality of Lieutenant Warford, V. C., who was killed recently in a flight, has been established. The late Lieutenant Warford was a cousin of Dr. Warford, of Hampton (N. B.), and was born in India. Dr. Warford said last week that the deceased aviator, who won undying fame in destroying a Zeppelin after a battle in the air with the monster machine, was born in India and lived there with his parents during his boyhood. He later attended school in England, where he was employed at the outbreak of war.

It is not hard to stop the hair from falling out and promote its growth if the right means are used. There is no hope for the scalp where the hair roots are dead and the scalp is shiny. However, to those who have not reached this condition immediate steps should be taken to stop it before it is too late. Here is a simple recipe which you can make at home. It promotes its growth, and eradicates scalp eruptions and scalp humors. To a half-pint of water add one ounce of bay rum, a small box of Oxoid Compound, and a quarter of an ounce of glycerine and apply to the hair, rubbing with the finger-tips two or three times a week. These ingredients can be obtained at any chemist's at very little cost, and mixed at home. This recipe not only promotes the growth of hair, but deters the hair from becoming thin and makes it soft and glossy.-Weekly Scotsman.

Major Archer Shee of the English army, who visited this section fishing is reported by Fred Grayson, of Banc (Vt.), as having his mother, Mrs. M. Adams.
