A large mass meeting of working men was held last night to discuss the nime hour movement. The subject was debated in a moderate but DETERMINED SPIRIT. and there seems a feeling on the part of employers to meet them in the same spirit. There was an extensive fire last night in this (Dity ; the new iron block on Front street, containing eleven wholesale stores, was almost totally destroyed. Each store cost $11,000. DHK SUFFERERS by fire are Staunton, room paper dealer ; Fisher, dry goods ; Robertson, Son & Co, dry goods ; Brunel & Russell, drugs ; Charles Worth & Co., Barclay Evans & Co., hoots and shoes ; Livingston, John- ston & Co., dry goods ; Wales & Co., dry goods ; Jennings & Brandon, dry goods ; Dubbie & Currie, dry goods. The report that SURVEYOR MCNAB AND HIS PARTY of 25, engaged in the exploratory survey of the Canada Pacific Railway, were low in a storm on Lake Superior, has not been confirmed.	In the Commons to-night, THE BALLOT BILL passed a second reading, 109 against 59. The Lords engaged in a long and bitter debate on a motion made by Marquis of Selisbury to censure the Government for COLLIER'S APPOINTMENT. Motion rejected 89 to 87. The adherents of the Ex-Emperor Napo- leon are actively engaged among THE WORKINGMEN of Belleville and Vilette, endeavoring to create a feeling in favor of his return to the throne.
