

FREIGHT RATES NOT TO BLAME FOR BIG PRICES

Manager Says That Living Is Just as High in American West.

Railway Board Has Adjourned Rate Investigation Until Next Monday.

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, June 20.—That it was not C. P. R. rates which were responsible for the high cost of articles in the Canadian West, inasmuch as they had increased in price on the American side of the border, as well as certain shipping privileges not given the western farmer, was the gist of some testimony given at today's session of the western freight rates inquiry by Assistant Freight Traffic Manager W. B. Lanigan.

It was decided to adjourn tonight until Monday, and then go on all next week to the finish of the case. The Government will present its case next week.

Many Increases.
Mr. Lanigan submitted a statement to show that since 1902 the price of binders, mowers, grain plows, sulky plows and western points both in Canada and the United States.

Binders now cost from 3 to 8 per cent more; mowers from 2 to 10 per cent; grain plows from 2 to 15 per cent; sulky plows from 6 to 12 per cent; and wagons from 11 to 25 per cent.

Wagons were going up, said Mr. Lanigan, because of the scarcity of hardwood lumber. He gave these figures to show that the privilege accorded by American roads as the stop-over privilege, by which a car may be partially unloaded at any point, had not reduced United States implement prices appreciably. This statement was supported by a number of affidavits from shippers to the effect that it was true, but as no names were mentioned Mr. Isaac Pitblado, for the Winnipeg board of trade, objected to its being taken as evidence, and the chairman upheld him.

Lower Than C. N. R.
Mr. Lanigan went on to claim that C. P. R. rates on agricultural implements and binder twine were lower from Fort William to Regina than Canadian Northern Railway rates in.

Too Much German Responsible For Hydro Breaks, Say Experts

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, June 20.—Experts in the electrical business and hydro men, who have been talking to other electrical men, are agreed that "too much German" is the secret of the hydro-electric breakdowns of recent date, and that there can be no dependability in the service before sweeping changes are made in the system of insulation.

A great part of the installation was made by the German experts on the line, and the German system of Ganz insulation was used. In spite of statements to the contrary, this system extends over a great part of the transmission lines, even to London, and until it has been renewed, according to Mr. Gabey, there will be no definite assurance that the breakdowns will not continue.

Cause of the Cracks.
The trouble with the insulators in question is said to be that into them is inserted an iron pin by which they are connected with the bracket. When the hot weather comes this iron pin expands and causes the pewterware to crack. The insulators may stand the strain for some time, but eventually they are certain to crack, according to the construction experts.

These insulators were brought from Germany, and were the cause of problems. Radial lines had tried them in Ontario and had rejected them, after repeated failures in favor of insulators containing wooden pins, which do not expand or contract with the weather. The Canadian engineers wanted the wooden pins for insulators, but the German engineers appealed to Mr. Beck, and Mr. Beck declared in favor of the German system, although it had been declared imperfect by all other high-voltage transmission lines.

Hydro men are free to admit that until these insulators are replaced, which will be a work of months, the public will have no security from breakdowns.

DR. PYNE'S PAPERS ARE UNDULY HARD SAY THE TEACHERS

Entrance Examination Tests in Some Instances Are Very Severe.

Arithmetic Paper and That On Literature Held To Be Unfair.

Some of the London teachers are of the opinion that several of the high school entrance examination papers this year have been unduly hard.

One of those found fault with is the written reading or literature paper. Mr. G. L. MacDonald, English master at the Collegiate Institute, points out that one of the questions asking the candidate to show the sentence connection in a paragraph taken from a speech by Lord Balfour was really a question in the rhetoric, properly speaking an upper school subject.

Another question deals with nicety of meaning in pairs of words, and requires pupils of 13 or 14 years of age to explain the difference between "art" and "ingenuity," "wilds" and "deserts," "forest" and "reserve," and "broke a treaty" and "falsified its word."

Edwards regarded the arithmetic paper as a trifle stiff. Principal McCutcheon thought it was a fair but thorough test. In three out of nine questions no marks are to be given unless the answer is correct. As they necessitate a good deal of more or less complicated figuring, teachers regard it as rather unfair.

LONDON MUST HAVE AUXILIARY TO COPE WITH HYDRO BREAKS OPINION OF MANY CITIZENS

General Manager Glaubitz Believes It Must Be Installed, But Commission Chairman Says It Will Not Be Considered Here, Although Negotiations Are Under Way in Other Cities to Provide Protection—Buy London Electric, Says Ald. Richter

Failure of hydro during the past week, and with such disastrous results, has but added fuel to the agitation for an auxiliary plant in London, that would prevent the recurrence of such a complete shut down of industry as occurred yesterday and Monday. In Toronto and other cities, similarly crippled by the failure of hydro, the proposition to either purchase or construct auxiliary plants has practically come to a head. In London the negotiations have not been opened, as they have in Toronto.

An aftermath of the failure of hydro yesterday was a score of applications for London Electric power signed by hydro users. The actual applications represented only a small portion of the number of inquiries received at the London Electric office, according to statements made this morning.

Auxiliary Necessary.
"We ought to either purchase the London Electric and so have a steam plant available, or we should make an arrangement to secure power from it, on the street railway, in case of a break such as yesterday," was the declaration of Ald. J. G. Richter this morning. His view is shared by hundreds of others who were inconvenienced, more or less seriously, by the failure of the long distance "juice" yesterday.

Mr. Pocock Against It.
Chairman Pocock, of the water commission, is opposed to an auxiliary plant. General Manager Glaubitz is in favor of one. Chairman Pocock says an auxiliary plant will not be considered here. Manager Glaubitz declared that his scheme for the generation of power with a hydraulic plant at the Springside pumping station would have prevented much of the inconvenience of yesterday. He believes that it will be taken up and carried through to a successful consummation next year.

Complaints Galore.
Another, but of a different type, was a sheet of complaints, as well as several hundred verbal telephone messages that poured in on General Manager Glaubitz, of the city electric department, and his assistants.

Improved lights—candles, lanterns, lamps, and even bonfires, not to mention electric torches and other lighting devices—were the order of the night all over the city. At the military camp and at the summer carnival in Queen's Park flaming gasoline lights served to replace the hydro.

TRACTION COMPANY WILL USE STEAM AS AN AUXILIARY

Patrons of the Road Will Not Be Inconvenienced by Hydro Breakdowns.

Company Sent Carriages From City to Bring in Passengers Stalled Thursday.

Put in Steam Plant.
The London and Lake Erie Railway and Transportation Company expects to have its steam plant in commission by the end of this week, and will be able to assure a service within one hour after a hydro breakdown.

The steam plant had to be overhauled, and the transformers in the sub-stations will be altered so that one in each will be capable of handling the 10,000 voltage from the steam plant, while the other will handle the 13,200 voltage of hydro.

The company intends, despite the fact that the hydro commission has so far refused to grant permission for the company to use steam power for emergencies, to run with steam power at the first opportunity, in defiance of the commission, if necessary.

Not a Fair Deal.
"We are in business to serve the public," said General Manager Warburton this morning. "If hydro officials insist that we be tied up every time their power goes off, we do not intend to stand for it, and we do not think it will appeal to the public as a fair deal. It looks as though they were bound to be tied up, and we do not think it should happen anyone else."

WIFE FLOWN, ALSO FAMILY

North End Man Finds Note at Home Telling of Departure.

SAYS NOT COMING BACK

Returning from his work in a local factory Thursday night, a resident of the north end of the city was surprised to find the house shut up and no signs of his wife or children about.

He waited around for a short time, thinking that the woman might have gone down town and been delayed, but when she did not put in an appearance he made a search of the house.

In one of the rooms he came upon a note left by his wife. It was addressed to the husband, and informed him that the woman had left the house, taking the children with her. She also stated that she did not intend to return, and that it would be useless for the husband to look for her or the children.

The police say that they have not been asked by the man to try and locate the missing woman, and that they know nothing of her disappearance.

Pumps To Rescue.
In spite of the centre that has from time to time been levelled at the hydro pumping equipment at the Springside station, the water-power

FORMER LONDON WOMAN WAS PERSECUTED BY RIEL'S MEN

Mrs. W. B. Hall, Who Is Dead at Winnipeg, Was a Daughter of the Late Senator Talbot—Underwent Many Hardships During Rebellion.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Winnipeg, Man., June 20.—Mrs. W. B. Hall, a pioneer of Fort Garry, and a resident here for fifty years, who died on Wednesday, was born at London, Ontario, in 1836. She was the second daughter of the late Senator Talbot.

In 1861 she married W. B. Hall, of Fort Erie, Ont., and journeyed that year by canoe to the Red River settlement.

During the first Riel rebellion her house was Riel's rendezvous, and his officers persecuted Mrs. Hall and children unmercifully during her husband's absence.

Martyr to the Cause Is In Awful Agony

The Newspaper Casabianca Does the Famous "Boy Stood On" Scene Leaving Out So Trifling a Detail as the Burning Deck.

The thirteen-hour interruption of the hydro electric system throughout the province did not incapacitate the plant of the London Free Press, the mouth champion of the people's power in its own parish.

The reason was not that the Free Press had emergency power that could be switched on in case of a break down.

The reason was that the Free Press does not use hydro electric power in the operation of its plant.

NO TIE-UP THERE.
From front to back the night life of the great morning newspaper was uninterrupted. The electric sign split the gloom at Carling street, the editorial rooms were as usual resplendent with incandescence and enthusiasm, the linotype battery clicked its message into the evening air, and the stereotyper sweated over his boiling pots of molten soap, which is the second course in the journalistic breakfast.

When the momentous hour of press time arrived, the presses started without interruption, and the carriers to the mailing room carried the fresh-linked edition, hydroless, to the mailers. The whole intense system of things seemed to sing, "Hydro may come, and hydro may go, but we go on forever."

IT HIT THIS COMPANY.
In striking contrast to the unconcerned attitude of the Free Press was the straits the London and Lake Erie Railway and Transportation Company found itself in. Its system was tied up for practically the whole day because it uses hydro and pays out thousands of dollars every few months to the hydro electric system. It lost hundreds of dollars and got a lot of bad advertising.

Yet the paradox of the whole thing is that in the screaming hydro-less production that came from the hydro-less presses, the railway company is held up as the arch-enemy of the system that it stuck to while the newspaper that does not use one cent's worth of hydro power in the operation of its plant, is great enough hypocrite to claim that it is the one true, unfailing friend of hydro electric power.

The traction company takes a chance on breakdowns and the consequences.

LOTS OF TALK IS CHEAP.
The Free Press has a steam plant that could be used for emergencies, if it chose to use hydro, but it has not a penny's worth of faith in "the great Government scheme."

If ever a newspaper of deceitful design was unlooked by its own double dealing that newspaper is the Free Press in its present hydro-less state.

It should be posing as a martyr to the system. Instead it continues to throw stones at the real martyrs.

In other words it is playing that famous scene of "The boy stood on the burning deck" without the burning deck.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Winnipeg, June 20.—Sir Hugh John MacDonald held unfolded a domestic tragedy in police court today, when Mrs. Henry James Herbert sued her husband, an electrical engineer, for the support of their two children, he having, it was alleged, deserted them all.

The couple were married in London, Ont., in 1906, when both were mere children. They lived happily there for sometime, then moved to North Bay. There Mrs. Herbert became ill, and returned to her mother in London with the children, and since then Herbert, it is claimed, never sent her money, and she never saw him until a month ago in Winnipeg, both having moved here unknown to each other.

The magistrate ordered $6 a week to be paid to the woman for her children. He would not return, although his wife offered to take him back. Mrs. Herbert is in the editing department of a local publication.

Twelve nephews of the women were pallbearers.

Toronto Hebrews Eating Meat Again

Unable to Get Any for a Week Owing to Killers' Strike.

[Canadian Press.]
Toronto, June 20.—After a week's abstinence Toronto's Jewish population is again eating meat. According to their religious dictates, no Jew may purchase meat other than that killed and dressed in a special manner by the shochtim, as the Jewish killers are called, and the latter, who are paid per head of cattle slaughtered, went on strike for more pay. They were backed up by the rabbis, who held the situation pretty well in their hands, as no Jewish killers are appointed without their approval. The strike is now ended, the strikers being granted a higher rate of pay.

Berlin, Ont., June 19.—The newspaper offices here issued delayed editions today owing to the failure of the hydro power. The Daily Telegraph used a motorcycle late in the afternoon to provide power for the typesetting machines, and had the forms on the press when the power was turned on at 6:30 o'clock. The News-Record issued a small handbill informing its readers that the power was off.

HURRICANE AT LETHBRIDGE WRECKED MANY BUILDINGS

Electric Light and Telephone Systems Were Put Out of Commission—Cloudburst Caused Heavy Damage to Unroofed Places.

[Canadian Press.]
Lethbridge, Alta., June 20.—A combined hurricane and cloudburst struck Lethbridge yesterday and considerable damage is reported. The city spent the night in darkness owing to the disabling of the power plant and in loneliness as telephone communication in the city and on the rural lines was partially destroyed. The gale ripped the roofs off several houses, causing heavy damage to water. Several barns, outhouses and fences were blown down and many trees destroyed. In some sections of the city shacks were rolled about like the city shacks were rolled about like boxes and piled one on the other. Rain came down in a perfect deluge and scores of cellars were flooded. The precipitation, which in an hour here amounted to 1.11 inches, was general over the south country.

LONDON, FRIDAY, JUNE 20.

THE TIE-UP.

The serious disturbance of the hydro-electric light and power this week naturally causes anxiety. All will hope to see the faults made right without delay.

After the Province and municipalities committed themselves to this gigantic scheme, at such a time, it is a vital necessity that it should work with a minimum of loss and a maximum of smoothness. Otherwise, private companies might be able to exploit the country and the provincial enterprise suffer shipwreck.

The London Free Press says:

"The London Free Press to bring out who are the enemies of private ownership and of the hydro-electric system. These, it will be found, are not as much the private interests, who generally take their medicine gamely, as the petty politicians."

And again:

"Two years ago newspapers like the Stratford Beacon and the London Advertiser were telling us that the people would use gas-producer and steam engines in preference."

Now, you would think from this talk that the Free Press was a loser by the tie-up, taking its medicine gamely, and trusting that all is nevertheless for the best. But whatever "the people" use, the Free Press does not use hydro power. It lost nothing. It is no martyr to its own faith.

As for "petty politicians," it is interesting that while these lines were penned at the Free Press office, an editorial writer in today's Toronto Globe was busy trumping on some recent falsehoods of the Free Press in regard to the Proudfoot charges, and the conduct of the investigation. Says the Globe:

"We will never have decency in public life until newspapers rise above this kind of subservience."

This petty paper is ill-advised to fling about at "petty politicians," who ever they may be, and at "enemies of public ownership," having itself no stake in that provincial enterprise which it forever praises.

Hydro-electric has to be made good, now that we have it and it has us. Perhaps some auxiliary system may be devised, as it is proposed to secure for Toronto, and as is used in the cities of Central New York, Syracuse, Rochester, etc.

Another serious phase of the situation which the Free Press, whose claims to championing the cause of the people are well known, fails to regard is the water problem. London depends almost entirely on hydro-electric power for pumping purposes, and the chance of calamity to which the Free Press made frequent reference in its defunct filtration scheme, is apparent to many thoughtful citizens, in view of the breakdown. An auxiliary plant may impress itself upon citizens as an absolute necessity.

THE CURFEW.

In the years of hydro twilight London had almost forgotten what real night looked like. The accidents which have happened this week have refreshed our memories.

Fortunately the moon was full out one night, and not far away the second, though the murk of threatening thunder-showers obscured its refraction. In the endearing gloom of the streets all lights were kindly, a lamp and candle in a corner drug store, brilliant gas in another, are lights at the railway station, the passing flash of street cars, the twinkling glances of motor lamps, and merciful gleams from those houses which were not dark.

People went to bed early, many of them. They would be all the sooner up in the morning. Why not? In these modern times a good part of the free daylight is thrown away for some hours of artificial light after sundown. We do not appreciate the morning freshness and coolth. Probably numbers of London boys and girls cramming for examinations found the morning light the best.

WORK, BUT DON'T VOTE.

The Synod of the Anglican Diocese of Huron Thursday rejected the proposition to allow women to vote at vestry meetings. There was a majority in its favor, of both the clergy and the laity; but a two-thirds vote was necessary to effect the change; and it fell short of the required number. The change suggested is a new thing in this diocese, though it is in operation in other sections of the Dominion.

Of course, this is a matter concerning the private business of one religious denomination. It is for the Anglican Church to settle as it seems to itself advisable; and other people have nothing to do with it. And yet there is a general principle involved which may justify outside comment. Is it a just rule in any institution, religious or otherwise, that there should be an important class who are expected to work, and who do work, and yet are forbidden any voice in the management of that work? The Anglican Church is just like any other church in its domestic work. It is largely dependent for its success on its women. Let the women stay at home, and what a beggarly array of empty seats would face the preacher. Let the women abstain from all work, and what sort of church would remain? Is it a wise policy, to say nothing of its justice, for any church to take the ground that its women may work for the comfort of their fellow-worshippers, may collect money, may give of their time and their means to carry on its schemes, and yet should sit silent and take their orders from the male members? The women may decorate the altars, mend the leaks in the roof, carpet the floor, collect money for the missionaries, look after the poor and the sick, but they must go no further. To itself advisable, and other people they would be censured if they did not. But when it comes to a question of voting on their work, then some man who has never done a stroke of work takes control of affairs.

The opponents of woman suffrage in civil affairs may have some arguments to advance, though the arguments are not very strong. The member of a voluntary association of people, composed in greater part of women, and largely dependent upon women for its success, who gets the idea into his head that the female shall work, while the male shall sit at ease and oversee the job, is mistaken, to put it lightly. In the beehive the female has to work; but she turns the male drone out into the cold, where he freezes or starves. It is the warning of nature. The working bee in the church is the woman. If the male is stubborn, the queen bee and her army of Amazons may interfere with the domestic arrangements to his discomfort.

EXAMINATIONS.

The younger fry have very serious business in hand with their examinations. Parents are anxious, sometimes more so than their offspring. The varying fortunes of the day make an interesting topic for the evening hour.

To hear of Latin and mathematics makes pater-familias half reconciled to being a boy no longer. He may blush with conscious pleasure at being able to recall and repeat a few words in the language which Ruskin called the most heroic ever spoken by man. But on the whole it is just as pleasant to feel that Latin and geometry are closed books, the battle done. Those games, like leap-frog and wrestling, are a little too strenuous for stiff middle age. What good is this Latin? Oh, it is like running and jumping, a good limbering exercise, an expression of youth, a business of young heroes.

At this time of the year the question is apt to be asked, what use are examinations, especially when they seem to test the ability of teacher and pupil to cram? But cramming is a rather important matter in life as it is lived. We bolt our meals, and we often have to snatch information in a hurry. A lawyer getting up a case crams, a physician or surgeon has often to read up quickly and know at once where to get what he wants, the newspaperman is a great crammer, and ministers shake a sermon together in a way that might astonish the uninitiated. Time and space are not ideal, but they condition all our work.

THE FASCINATION OF TROUBLE.

[Washington Star.] All strive to shun the various cares which ordinary life contains. Yet when a man finds his affairs are free from Worry's wakeful pains, And he contentedly might jog Through paths that Trouble cannot mar.

He goes and gets himself a dog Or else he runs a motor car.

MOTHER TALKS PLAINLY.

[Pittsburgh Post.] "Daughter, I want you to be nice to that young druggist. He will make you a good husband."

"He isn't the kind of a man I want to marry."

"I know the kind you want to marry," replied mother, picking up a paper-backed novel. "You want to marry either a duke or a gentleman. Raffles, but there are none in your set. Now, you look at that young druggist with kindly eyes."

And daughter subsequently did.

YES, IT REPEATS WHAT IT HEARS.

[Woodstock Sentinel-Review.] Godefrich has a crow that talks politics. And no doubt it talks as intelligently as some of the humans that might be named. N. B.—The reference, of course, is to the fellows in the other party.

ANY OLD SEASHORE.

[St. Louis Republic.] "Going to the seashore this summer?"

"You betcher."

"Going to flirt some?"

"A little."

"Where are you going?"

"Oh, I dunno. Any of those places where the flirting's good."

HIS NEW MARK OF FAVOR.

[Cleveland Plaindealer.] Barrie is a baronet. Great Sir Peter Pan! Any honor Jim may get Cannot spoil the man. Barrie is a baronet.

Sure, it serves him right: Hats off to the man we've met— Never to the knight.

THE TALE OF THE SHIRT.

[Ridgeway Dominion.] The usually cheerful Toronto Star is in tears. The reason: Not that the Liberals are in Opposition; not that Toronto roosters crow in the night; not that the street cars miss fire and are crowded, but because "Fashion and the shirt-makers have combined in a successful effort to shorten the tail of the shirt." The Star complains that year by year "this useful, warming, and comfortable part of the garment has been disappearing," until now nothing is left. The Star's tale of a lost shirt-tail is truly heart-rending and worthy of wide sympathy.

The only hope we have or suggestion to make is in the immediate organization in Toronto of a club or association having for its object the lengthening of the "tails" on shirts. There should be no difficulty in the way of starting such an organization in Toronto, where thousands of people are ready at all hours to join any movement for any object under the sun.

FUNNY IDEA.

[St. Louis Republic.] "Here's something that has just struck me as funny."

"What?"

"Toppe and Goodwin never have been the husbands of Lillian Russell, with all the marrying of the three of them."

WALKS PROBE TO BE RESUMED

Board of Works Has Decided To Reopen the Investigation.

PAY FOR GOOD ONES ONLY

Echoes of last year's sidewalk scandal are to be heard once more. Thursday night the board of works decided to reopen the inquiry into the condition of the sidewalks of Dundas and Richmond streets, laid last year, and declared to be of faulty construction. A civic investigation followed the charges, and it is this that is to be reopened.

Acting City Engineer Brazier last year reported that the walks were defective, but it was too late to do any repairs. Since that time Ald. B. W. Bennett, chairman of the board of works, and City Engineer W. N. Ashplant have arrived at an agreement with the contractor who did the work. All sections of the sidewalk torn up and found to be defective, will be paid for by the contractor. The city will pay for the sections that are found to be in good repair.

The request of an Emery street deputation that the board give some relief for the poorly constructed roadway on that street, was sent over to the council. The board expressed sympathy with the committee's request.

Additional dressing-rooms for the public baths in the south branch of the Thames will likely be ordered. The city engineer was Thursday night instructed to report on the question.

When this report is submitted the committee will take action on providing the dressing rooms for the north end baths.

HYDRO ENGINEER CONFIRMS WORDS OF MR. WARBURTON

Mr. Gaby Admits That a Large Number of Insulators Are Going to Pieces.

Failure to Take in Slack of the Wires May Have Caused the Tie-Up.

The London Free Press this morning labels General Manager Warburton of the London and Lake Erie Transportation Company as an enemy of the hydro-electric system, because he stated that hydro men had told him that the insulation of the system was going to pieces.

General Manager Gaby in a statement given out in Toronto, Thursday night admitted that a large number of the insulators were going to pieces, and that the whole line would have to be gone over. He has discovered that the German insulators are bad, and that the line will not be safe until repairs had been made.

Mr. Warburton is confirmed by the statements of Mr. Gaby. Mr. Warburton states that he has no hope that the system will "go to pieces." His company is tied up to it, and it would not be good for his company.

A London electrician states that it is his belief that the hydro system has been tied up because the commission had failed to take in the slack of the wires, caused by expansion in hot weather.

Last year these lines should have been taken in before the hot weather was not touched until October," he said.

Australian Premier and Cabinet Resign

Action Is Result of Recent Sweep in Elections.

[Canadian Press.] Melbourne, Australia, June 20.—The Australian federal premier, the Right Hon. Andrew Fisher, and the cabinet resigned today in a result of the general elections in which the Liberals obtained a majority of one over the Labor party in the Federal House of Representatives.

Andrew Fisher had been Premier of the Australian Federation since April, 1910, when the Labor party came into power.

The general elections, held on June 1, caused great excitement owing to the closeness of the contest.

There were several women candidates, all of whom were defeated.

3,400 SHARES OF C.P.R. STOCK ARE HELD IN CANADA

British Investors Control Sixty Per Cent. of Common Stock.

Canadians Have Been Buying Many Shares in the Past Few Months.

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, June 20.—Much speculation has been indulged in as to where the stock of the Canadian Pacific Railway is at present held. Sir Thomas Shaughnessy this week informed the Monetary Times that the total number of Canadian Pacific common stock shareholders at the present time is about 27,000, the number of Canadian holders being 3,400.

Of the common stockholders in Great Britain have approximately 60 per cent. About 15 per cent is held in Germany and France; 23 per cent is divided about equally between Canada and the United States; the remaining 2 per cent being scattered in the colonies and other countries.

Held in England. Nearly all the 4 per cent consolidated debenture stock and the 4 per cent preference stock is still held in Great Britain.

The Monetary Times prints the following interesting table comparing these figures with the position in January 1911.

	January, 1911	June 1913
Total number common stock shareholders	24,000	27,000
Number of common stockholders in Canada	2,500	3,400
Percentage of common stockholders in Great Britain	65	60
Percentage of common stockholders in Germany and France	15	15
Percentage of common stockholders in Canada and U.S.	20	23
Percentage of common stockholders in colonies and other countries	2	2

Steadily increasing. The number of shareholders has increased by 3,000 in the two years and a half. A notable gain of 900 Canadian holders is recorded. On June 30, 1911, $180,000,000 common stock of the company was outstanding. On June 2, 1912, $18,000,000 additional stock was allotted at 150, and on Jan. 2, 1913, $60,000,000 at 175.

WEARY HIKE TO CITY LIMITS

Guests for Moonlight Excursion Were Unable to Reach the Port.

STALLED BY THE HYDRO

Waiting at the dock, waiting at the dock, waiting at the dock. We can't get there tonight. For the moonlight excursion, Hydro won't let us, hydro's on the rock.

Two special cars crowded with Londoners bound for Lake Erie to enjoy a complimentary lake ride at the invitation of the Cleveland and Buffalo Transit Company on the State of Ohio on the occasion of her first visit to Port Stanley, were stalled about four miles southwest of the city when when hydro went off about 7 o'clock Thursday night. The steam was in waiting at Port Stanley, but the special cars from London and St. Thomas would be unable to reach the lakeside, the excursion was cancelled and the passengers resorted to a variety of ways of getting back to London.

Hiked It For Home. Everybody waited until an advance squad that had gone on ahead hove into sight from away in the distance, marching grimly along, marshalled by a military man in a khaki suit. Silent and resolutely they passed the two specials, looking wistfully across the green Westminster fields in the direction of dear old London. Back in the distance followed a second company, making slower progress because many of them carried grips, suitcases and other luggage. It was the light infantry that had gone on ahead and made a grim determination and a fierce light in their eyes that threatened a terrible fate for General Manager Gaudin should he by any chance fall into their hands.

After 9 o'clock when the advance guard marched through the dark, deserted streets of South London and down the Ridout street grade towards the Horton street sub-station. The military commander was about to give an order for a mad rush on the fortress of unhappy hydro, but his heart misgave him. Four or five hydro employees sat outside, disconsolate and unformidable. The light of an oil lantern gleamed faintly through the window. Across the street the gas light signs across the gas reservoir around. The light brigade marched on. There were others who walked in. Taxis were phoned for. Automobiles sent out from the city. Buckboards and rural vehicles of all descriptions were pressed into service. A milk wagon carried some of the passengers back to London. Others walked to the nearest point on the Ridout street car belt.

Attracting Baby's Attention

DR. CLARK ADVISES MOTHERS TO INTEREST BABIES IN THE RIGHT THINGS AND THE RIGHT WAY TO ACT AND PLAY.

[By Dr. Margaret Vaupel Clark.]

I have already spoken of the importance of giving your baby a good example to imitate and I want to impress upon every mother the importance of attracting the baby's attention.

This is not done by dangling things up and down before its eyes until it gives a fretful glance at it, but by really arousing its interest.

A child can early be taught to show its tongue, to allow one to look in its throat, and to examine its eyes, its ears and all its body thoroughly. Every mother should make this a part of her everyday teaching, as often, when the baby is ill, it will not allow an examination, which is important. But mothers, however, must never frighten nor hurt a child when trying to teach them this.

I am glad that God made mothers patient.

When you ask your baby to open his mouth, to let you examine his eyes or ears, or rub his back, shoulders or limbs, you can make a little game of it until the habit is formed of obedience.

You should early get him interested in pictures and artistic things, for the love of art plays a great part in the joy of living, and if you can get your baby's attention attracted to a picture book you can be sure that it will live in your mind in hours when your household duties are imperative.

Be sure you make your baby pay attention to the right things. Don't let other children jump around in front of him in a haphazard manner to attract his attention. Rather teach them to play pretty games and make graceful gestures. You will find baby soon imitating them. Remember what I have said of imitation.

If a baby is normally healthy it will not be fretful unless its attention is riveted upon things which will make it fretful and fiddle its nerves. To me there is nothing as interesting in the whole wide world as to watch a young mother guiding her baby's intellect and attention in the right direction, and I regard nothing more important in the making of "better babies."

Berry Puddings.

Beat two egg yolks well, then add four tablespoons melted butter, one-quarter cupful sugar, one cup of milk, enough flour to make a batter that will drop easily from the spoon, sifting two rounding teaspoons of baking powder in it. After beating to a smooth batter, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Place in the bottom of buttered cups, then fill two-thirds full with the batter. Bake in a quick oven for about fifteen minutes. Run a hot knife about the hot batter and slip the pudding onto hot dishes. Serve with hard sauce into which has been whipped several large ripe berries.

Stuffed Steak.

Make a dressing of two cupfuls of stale bread crumbs, one large tablespoonful butter, one teaspoonful minced green parsley, one teaspoonful finely chopped onion, one teaspoonful salt and a generous dash of pepper. Spread this onto two pounds of beefsteak, roll it up and secure tightly. Dredge with flour and brown on all sides in hot butter or lard, then add to the pan just enough hot water to cover the bottom. Cover closely and cook in a moderate oven for an hour. Baste every fifteen minutes. When done remove the meat to a hot platter and make a brown gravy of the drippings, adding a tablespoonful of the strings and skewers from the meat pour over the gravy and serve.

Dainty Bridal Gifts

When one is called upon to choose a wedding present it is sometimes not the easiest matter to decide exactly what would prove the most acceptable. Presents should suit the income of the young couple as well as the purse of the donor. Every young housewife is interested in new articles for her home. A half dozen casseroles would delight any woman. They are placed in little silver filigree baskets after the food is ready to serve. Another desirable article is an ice pitcher which contains a receptacle which holds ice and does not permit it to melt in with the drinking water. Usually such pitchers are sold with a half dozen goblets of similar pattern.

One clever girl made a unique kitchen picture for a prospective bride. On a sheet of heavy white paper she wrote with a typewriter the various weights and measurements, times for cooking foods and a few good kitchen maxims. This was finished with pictures of tin cups, plates, cups, saucers, teapots and a host of other kitchen articles. When attempting to find a unique, inexpensive wedding gift, have made up as a tray one of the beautiful kitchen articles. Cover with glass and a soft brown tray frame.

An illustrated book is being made for one bride. Her friends are contributing the best of their tried recipes. They are cutting from vegetable and fruit catalogues, pictures to illustrate each, and pasting them in a handsome scrapbook.

Jane Addams on Woman's Awakening

Spontaneous awakening of women all over the world instead of a movement in any one quarter is Jane Addams's explanation of feminism. In a Paris interview she said: "The women's movement is the result of the efforts of any single group of emancipators but of the spontaneous awakening of women throughout the world."

"It is part of the general impulse of the humanity towards self-government, which is now affecting such widely separated countries as Portugal and China."

"I have been two months in the east, and I found that even the Egyptian women were bestirring themselves and demanding greater freedom. It was my first view of the scheduled life of the Moslem women, and it seemed so different from anything known to me that when I landed again in Italy it seemed like coming home."

"After the Paris congress of women I am going to a similar meeting in Vienna and then to the greater suffragist conferences in Budapest, where many other American delegates are expected."

"As for England leading the world, more American women voted for the president at the last election than the English franchise bill, if passed, would have given the vote."

KATHERINE LESLIE'S HOME REPAIRS

To Freshen Up Verandah Furniture.

If your verandah and porch furniture is in need of cleaning and repainting here is a goodly method to follow. To begin with the cleaning, this can best be done out of doors, with a garden hose and plenty of hot water. For each chair have a pailful of hot suds softened with borax. Apply this to the seats of the chairs with a stiff whisk broom and scrub it about vigorously. Then scrub the back, sides, and under part of the chairs in the same manner. Dash whatever suds remain over the chair and then rinse with quantities of clean cold water from the hose. Clean the tables and all the other articles of verandah furniture in the same way and let them dry out of doors in the sunshine. The cleaned and well-dried furniture will be as good as new. If the furniture does need a fresh dressing apply this without scrubbing off the old paint. The result will not, of course, be perfect, but it will be sufficiently good to make the time saved seem worth while. Most verandah furniture is not valuable enough to spend hours over with sandpaper and paint removers.

New furniture should be carefully stained and enamelled. It can, of course, be bought already colored, but the price of such articles of furniture is a dollar less when uncolored, and as the work is easy to do, and even pleasant and cheap, it can advantageously be done at home. Enough varnish, enamel or stain for a chair or moderately large table costs from 15 to 25 cents. If a shiny finish is desired, enamel paint may be applied. Care should be taken to make the brush marks even, and to apply the enamel thinly and evenly. Like stain, the first coat should be allowed to dry thoroughly before the second is applied. If a second is needed.

There are varying tastes as to the color of porch or verandah furniture. I have seen a verandah done with brown matting rugs and yellow enamelled furniture. The place was perfectly satisfactory to the eye and very charming. White enamel, however, is good and lends itself to cushions, such as plain Turkey red, which is a most enduring color for out of doors. Verandah chairs done in deep crimson enamel are also attractive, especially when there is a great deal of green foliage about the verandah.

ON AN ORCHARD.

Good is an Orchard, the Saint said,
With a cool well, a hive of bees,
A hermit's grot below the trees.

Good is an Orchard: very good,
Though once it should wear no monkish hood;
Right good when Spring awakes her flute,
And good in yellowing time of fruit;

Very good in the grass to lie,
And see the network against the sky,
A living lace of blue and green,
And boughs that let the gold between.

The bees are types of souls that dwell
With honey in a quiet cell;
The ripe fruit figures goldenly
The soul's perfection in God's eye.

Prayer and praise in a country home,
Honey and fruit; a man, might come
Fed on such meats that walk abroad
And in his Orchard talk with God.

NEW STRAWBERRY DESSERTS

A warm weather dessert for exquisite delicacy is known as strawberry trifle, and it is so simple to make that one scarcely needs a recipe. Crushed strawberries, rubbed through a sieve, should be sweetened in the proportion of a cupful of pulp and juice to one of powdered sugar. To this amount add gradually the well beaten whites of two eggs. Pile it lightly into dessert glasses and serve immediately.

Velvet Cream.

Somewhat similar, though not quite so easy to make, is velvet cream. For this a quart of berries should be rubbed through a sieve, sweetened with a cupful of granulated sugar and flavored with the juice of a lemon. A package of gelatin, previously soaked and dissolved in as small a quantity of water as possible, should be added. Stand this aside to cool, but before it is set add a cupful of whipped cream. Have a mold ready, wet with cold water, turn the cream and strawberry mixture into it and chill for several hours before serving it.

Berry Custards.

One of the most wholesome ways of serving strawberries for children is in the shape of strawberry custard. For this make a boiled custard, fairly thick. Pour it into a serving dish and put a layer of crushed, sweetened strawberries on top. Over this put a sweetened meringue made of the whites of the eggs whose yolks were used in the custard. Place it in the oven till brown and puffy. Serve cold.

For strawberry charlotte a good custard is also needed. Put a layer of lady fingers or other small sponge cakes in a dish and moisten slightly with milk or cream. Cover with crushed and sweetened strawberries and add boiled custard. Over this put a layer of whipped cream.

Fluff Pie.

There is perhaps nothing better in the domain of strawberry desserts than the old-fashioned strawberry pie dear to the heart of childhood—though for some reason it is seldom heard of nowadays. The foundation for this is a fluffy, crisp baked pie shell. This should be filled with crushed and sweetened strawberries, covered with meringue baked until brown. It should be eaten cold.

Another strawberry pie is made with two crusts not previously cooked. The lower crust should be filled with berries sprinkled plentifully with sugar. The upper crust should be added as for apple pie and baked as usual.

Batter Tiddits.

With what is known as border mold many interesting strawberry desserts can be devised. Cake or pudding batter of almost any kind can be baked in the mold and when ready to serve the centre can be filled with crushed strawberries which have been previously sweetened and allowed to mellow in the sugar for an hour. The cake is as pudding can be covered with whipped cream or warm strawberry syrup can be passed.

New Styles Come From Lands Where Fashions Never Change

This year's fashion "novelties" originated in lands where fashions never change. The paradox is unique in the annals of style.

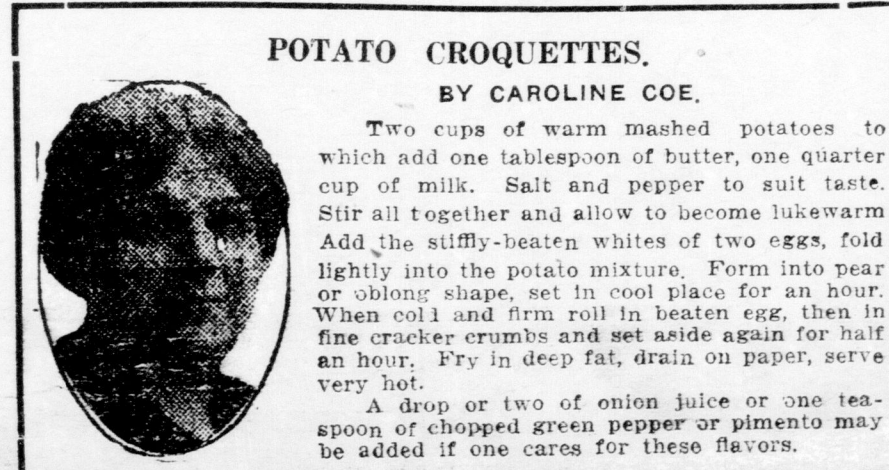

That women of fashion in Vienna, Paris and New York should clothe themselves in gowns whose chief claims to beauty are based on ideas taken from the dress of European peasants or the inmates of Oriental harems sounds unbelievable. But it is true, nevertheless, says the New York Evening Mail.

First take the new draped skirt. Its history is interesting as an example of skillful adaptation. It is simply an outgrowth of its two predecessors—the harem and the pannier. The harem, of course, was an adapted form of the trousers worn by Turkish women. The pannier, in cruder form, has been worn for centuries by the Breton peasants.

Bulgarian Embroidery. There is nothing new in the so-called Bulgarian embroidery. The same bewilderingly-colored needlework has been worn for centuries by the Bulgarian peasants. "Bulgarian" is simply a name given for the sake of the advertising value gained by anything supposed to come from the land that most conservative of lands, come a large number of the decorative schemes now being used with evening cloaks. Indeed, this year, as was the case last season, opera cloaks will be distinctly Chinese and Japanese.

FOR A KITCHEN SHOWER.

If you are going to give a kitchen shower, arrange a "Dinah." Stand a broom in a dishpan, fastening it by strong cords tied to the handles of the dishpan, then put a crossbar near the upper end of the handle. Hang kitchen aprons from the ends of the bar by strings. These will be the arms and the hands. Then dress Dinah with a kitchen apron, dressing sash, dustcloth, kerchief, sunbonnet and a false face. Tea strainers could serve as earrings.

POTATO CROQUETTES.

BY CAROLINE COE.

Two cups of warm mashed potatoes to which add one tablespoon of butter, one quarter cup of milk. Salt and pepper to suit taste. Stir all together and allow to become lukewarm. Add the stiffly-beaten whites of two eggs, fold lightly into the potato mixture. Form into pear or oblong shape, set in cool place for an hour. When cold and firm roll in beaten egg, then in fine cracker crumbs and set aside again for half an hour. Fry in deep fat, drain on paper, serve very hot.

A drop or two of onion juice or one teaspoon of chopped green pepper or pimento may be added if one cares for these flavors.

EIGHT

ONE WONDERFUL NIGHT

BY LOUIS TRACY.

"Lady Hermione, I take it, will now go to bed," he said coolly, "and, if she is wise, will refuse to unlock her door again till her maid comes in the morning. I purpose changing my clothes, in case I may have to accompany you on some midnight expedition. My uncle and aunt will tell us where they are staying, and arrange to meet us here at lunch tomorrow. You, Devar, being an approved night hawk, will join me in a cigar. How is that for a reasonable disposal of the company, Mr. Steinthal?"

As though in reply, the telephone rang again, and the detective lifted the receiver from its hook.

"Hello! That you, Clancy?" he said. "Right. I'll come along the subway from Fifty-ninth street—that will be quicker than a taxi... yes... yes... yes."

He turned, and the five people in the room saw that his face was glowing with the fire of action, that change of suits. "You can sleep, that change of suits. Mr. Curtis, we must be off at once. Mr. Devar, have you an automobile?"

"Get hold of it now? Well, phone your chauffeur to be at Centre street headquarters in as much under half an hour as he can manage. Taxi-drivers gossip among themselves, so a private car is better. Excuse me, Lady Hermione, and you, too, Mrs. Curtis. I haven't another minute to spare."

Lucky Curtis found his overcoat awaiting him in the cloak room, or he might have been in a difficulty, for New York in November is a city of midnight journeys in evening dress.

Uncle Horace and Aunt Louisa were hurried into a taxi, and as they were being whisked off to a quiet hotel to which their baggage had been consigned, the stout man began polishing his domed forehead once more.

"Don't you see, I can't make head nor tail of this business, Can you?"

"Not yet, Horace," was the hopeful response.

"But—what sort of marriage is this, anyway?"

"Oh, that's all right. Those two haven't begun courting yet. But it won't be long before they start. Did you notice—"

And details observed by Aunt Louisa endured till the taxi stopped.

CHAPTER X.

Midnight.

After a quick journey by N. Y. York's univocal system of rapid transit, the three men alighted at Spring street, and a couple of minutes' brisk walk brought them to a large, white-fronted building of severe architecture. Above the main entrance two green lamps stared solemnly into the night, and their admonitory gleam seemed to bid evil-doers "Beware!" nor was there aught far-fetched in the notion, because from this imposing centre New York's guardians kept watch and ward over the city.

"Clancy still waiting?" demanded Steinthal of a policeman in uniform who was on duty in an inquiry office.

"Yes, sir. He asked me to be on the lookout in case you turned up unexpectedly, as he didn't want to miss you."

The chief inspector led his companions straight to the detective bureau, taking good care to avoid the room in which the "covering" reporters were gathered, because the police headquarters of New York, unlike any similar department outside the bounds of the United States, takes the press welcome, and gives details of all arrests, fires, accidents and other occurrences of a noteworthy nature as soon as the facts are telegraphed or telephoned from outlying districts.

Passing through the general office, Steinthal entered his own sanctum. A small, slightly built man with bent over a table and scrutinizing a folder of photographs in a large album. He turned as the door opened, straightened himself, and revealed a wizened face, somewhat of the actor type, its prominent features being an expressive mouth, a thin hooked nose, and a pair of singularly piercing and deeply sunken eyes.

"Hello, Hot!" he said to Steinthal. Then, without a moment's hesitation, he added: "Good evening, Mr. Curtis—glad to see you, Mr. Devar."

"Good evening, Mr. Clancy," said Curtis, not to be outdone in this exchange of compliments, though he could not imagine how a person who had never seen him should not only know his name but apply it so confidently.

"May we smoke here?" asked Devar, who had lighted a cigar on emerging from the subway station.

"Oh, yes," said Steinthal. "Make yourselves at home in that respect. I am a hard smoker. Let me offer you a good American cigar, Mr. Curtis."

"Thank you. Perhaps you will try one of mine. I bought them in London, but they are of a fair brand. You, too, Mr. Clancy?"

"I'll take one with pleasure, though I don't smoke," said the little man. Seeing the question on the faces of both visitors, he chuckled in a queer, high-pitched voice.

"I refuse to poison my gastric juices with nicotine, but I'll have a small one of yours. Poor old Steinthal there has pretty fair eyesight, but his nose wouldn't sniff bromine in a volcano, all because he insists on being a teetotaler."

"Gastric juices!" laughed Steinthal. "You don't possess the article, and your tongue and tongue are your chief constituents. I'm not surprised you make an occasional hit as a detective, because the average crook would never suspect a funny little geek like you of being that celebrated sleuth, Eugene Clancy."

"Clancy's long, nervous fingers had cracked the wrapper of the cigar given him by Curtis, and he was now passing it to and fro beneath his nostrils."

"You will observe the difference, gentlemen, between beef and brains," he said, holding derisively at the bulky chief inspector. "He rubbers along because he looks like a prize fighter, and can drive his fist through a quarter-inch thick pine plank. But we hunt well together, being a unique combination of science and brute force. By the way, that reminds me. If I have got the story right, Count Vassian only landed in New York to night. Did he drive straight to a boxing contest, or what?"

"Well, a second, Clancy," interrupted Steinthal. "Is there anything doing?"

"Exactly twenty minutes. At twelve-thirty I must be in East Broadway."

"Good. Now, Mr. Curtis, tell Clancy exactly what happened since you put your hunter's overcoat at the corner of Broadway and Twenty-seventh street."

Curtis obeyed, though he cannot but have never encountered more unofficial official than Clancy. Shrewd judge of character as he was, he could hardly be expected to guess, after such a momentary glimpse of a man of extraordinary genius in unravelling crime, that Clancy was never more discursive, never more prone to chaff and sneer at his special friend, Steinthal, than when he held on the trail of some particularly acute and daring malefactor. The chief of the bureau, of course, knew by these signs that his trusted aide had obtained information of a really startling nature, but neither Curtis nor Devar was aware of Clancy's idiosyncrasy, and a few minutes elapsed before they began to suspect that he had a good deal more up his sleeve than they gave him credit for at first.

From the outset he took an original view of Curtis's marriage.

"The girl is young and good-looking, you say?" was his opening question.

"Not yet twenty-one and remarkably attractive," said Curtis, though hardly prepared for the detective's interest in this direction.

"Well-educated and lady-like, I suppose?"

"As befits her position."

"Cut out her position, which doesn't amount to a row of beans where intellect is concerned. Well, a man never knows much about a woman, anyway, and what little he learns is acquired by a process of rejection after marriage."

"May I ask what you mean?"

"Judging from your history and apparent age, Mr. Curtis, I take it you have not had time to go fooling about after girls."

"You are certainly right in that respect."

"Naturally, or you wouldn't be so ignorant concerning the dear creature. You are to be congratulated, for my soul, you will have the rare experience of constructing a divinity out of a wife, whereas the average man begins by choosing a divinity and finds he has only secured a wife."

Curtis laughed, but met the detective's penetrating gaze frankly.

"Your bitter philosophy may be sound, Mr. Clancy," he said, "but it is built on a false premise. My marriage is one of form, it may be legal—indeed, I believe it is—but there can be no dispute as to the nature of the bond between Lady Hermione and myself. She regards me as a husband in name only, and will dissolve the tie at the first opportunity."

"You place no obstacles in her way?"

"None."

"Quite absolutely?"

Curtis giggled, as though he were a comedian who had scored a point with his audience.

"Then you're married for keeps," he announced, with the grin of a man who has solved a humorous riddle. "By refusing to thwart the lady you throw away your last slender chance of freedom, and you will find her waiting at the gate of the state penitentiary when you come out. By love you've been pretty rapid, though. No wonder people say the East is waking up. Are there many like you in Chicago?"

SCORE "DEBORAH" CENSURE JUDGE IN RESOLUTION

Toronto Baptists Will Send a Copy to the Minister of Justice.

Stand of Rev. John Coburn Was Unanimously Approved by Association.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, June 19.—At a largely-attended meeting of the members of the Toronto Association of Baptist Churches, the following resolution condemning the play, "Deborah," and endorsing the stand taken by Rev. John Coburn in behalf of the "Committee of Forty," was passed:

"The Toronto Association of Baptist Churches hereby declares its approval of the efforts made by the committee of forty through its secretary, Rev. John Coburn, to promote and insure as far as possible the innocence and purity of the dramatic entertainments presented to the young of this city; and especially in regard to a drama called 'Deborah.' We approve of the proceedings instituted by the crown attorney at their instance which led to its condemnation by our police magistrate and consequent banishment from the stage of the Princess Theatre in this city. We have to express our profound sorrow and regret that one of his majesty's judges of the county of York has, by annulling this decision, restored to the stage a play, which from reports in the newspapers from the public press and other sources, seems likely to lead the youth of the city, to whom it was presented, to vicious courses of living; and we furthermore urge all our fellow Baptists, and especially those connected with this city or district, to aid and support so far as possible the efforts of the gentlemen herein before mentioned to elevate and purify all such entertainments and to banish from our city and district all that tends to the desecration of the home and the lowering of good morals."

A copy of the resolution will be forwarded to the Minister of Justice at Ottawa and to the Attorney-General of Ontario.

The resolution was moved by Rev. Professor Bell of McMaster University, and was unanimously adopted. During the discussion of the resolution the question of closing up public places such as churches during the week-end cropped up, and resulted in some rather heated remarks.

Rev. A. J. Vining, of the Roman Catholic Church in regard to the methods employed in missions in South America by Rev. A. J. Vining, featured the morning session. "The Roman Catholic Church has been working in Bolivia for a century, but has accomplished nothing," he declared. "If Bolivia were added, 'Is left to the Roman Catholic Church to evangelize then the devil could leave that land to that organization to complete the work of debauching and destroying people. This is not said in unkindness. I believe it to be true and say it whether the people like it or not. The people of Bolivia are in darkness, and will grope on until they have perished." Mr. Vining also said the Roman Catholic Church was endeavoring to bind Canada with the chains of medievalism, and called upon the Baptists to help break the chains.

MAYOR OPPOSES THE SURPLUS BEING USED FOR PEOPLE

Is Against Hydro Earnings
Being Used on the Public Parks.

The parks department is hard up. General Manager Glaubitz says that unless help is forthcoming from some outside quarter, the roadways in Victoria Park will have to go without oiling this summer. The parks commission is averse to this, and recommended risking an overdraft if need be. Chairman Pocock at the meeting of the board of water commissioners Thursday declared in favor of making a grant of $5,000 from the hydro department surplus to the parks. The question at once arose whether this would be legal. Mr. Pocock didn't think that the Hon. Adam Beck would object, but it so happens that he is in Europe, and it is not likely that the water commissioners will turn over the money until he returns. Mayor Graham said that only a part of the citizens use hydro, and that any surplus arising ought, therefore, to go towards reducing the rate to them, rather than for the benefit of the citizens at large.

Heating Spencer Block.
A tentative agreement was arrived at between the city and water commissioners whereby the latter will move into the west wing of the Spencer Block at a rental of $85 a month, provided satisfactory heating arrangements can be arrived at. The estimated cost of improvements necessary for the purposes of the board is $4,000. John Hayman & Sons will do the work. A discussion arose over the cost of heating. Commissioner J. H. Chapman thought it ought not to cost more than $100 a year. "You can get heat from the Helena Costume Company or the Greene-Swift Company for $100," said Mr. Chapman.

"But you must remember," said the mayor, "that the Helena and Greene-Swift people sell heat as a by-product. The city cannot provide it for that figure."

"One hundred dollars is ample," said Mr. Chapman.

"We want an understanding how long we can stay," said Mr. Pocock. "We could get a better place for less money, and with the heat thrown in elsewhere."

"But it wouldn't be as central for your sales department," said the mayor.

"It would probably be much more central," said Mr. Pocock.

Mayor Graham contended that in any event the cost of heat would only be nominal. The city would charge the water commissioners with a proportion of the total cost of heating the Spencer Block, calculated on the floor space in the water and hydro departments.

"We don't want a charge of $500 or $600," said Mr. Chapman.

It was finally decided to accept the city's offer.

CANADIAN PACIFIC GREAT LAKES EXPRESS STEAM-SHIP SERVICE.

Few people realize with what ease and speed a trip from the east to Fort William and Winnipeg can be made, via the Canadian Pacific Great Lakes Express Steamships. Stop for a moment and consider that you can leave Toronto at 12:45 noon on Tuesday or Saturday and arrive in Winnipeg at 9:40 p.m. Thursday or Monday. Fifty-seven hours from Toronto to Winnipeg—twelve hours faster than any other service. For those who wish to leave on different days in the week, and have a little more time on the water, the trip can be made leaving Toronto at 12:45 noon on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, arriving in Winnipeg at 11:40 a.m. on Tuesdays, Saturdays and Sundays.

Think of a steamship service five days each week across the Great Lakes. The steamships are built and furnished to give the very best comfort that marine architecture can devise and the cuisine is the result of years of studied effort and experience, and is, needless to say, the best.

The Tuesday and Saturday boats contain inside and outside staterooms and cabins de luxe. Large, well-ventilated dining saloon and rest rooms, together with spacious decks for promenading. All staterooms on the Monday, Wednesday and Thursday boats are outside and in addition there are parlor rooms.

If you are contemplating a trip don't let this slip your memory. Canadian Pacific steamships make the fastest time, have the best of accommodation, and the table is unexcelled. Full particulars and reservations on trains and ships, at every Canadian Pacific ticket office, Toronto city office, temporarily located at 16 King street east, in a few days will be in the new big building, southeast corner of King and Yonge streets.

Bladder and Kidney Troubles

Are caused by poisoning impurities which clog the kidneys; intense pain is the result, and sleepless nights follow. The patient becomes annoyed with sharp pains shooting through the back and up the spine. These pains are often so violent and acute that the victim suffers the greatest agony and is driven almost to despair. The refuse and sediment which settles in the kidneys must be removed in order to procure relief.

SANOL, the Kidney Cure, is the only reliable remedy which has a combined effect of acting on the kidneys, and restoring them to their natural condition and removing kidney, bladder and gall stones by dissolving same. It cleanses and purifies the system, strengthens and invigorates the kidneys and encourages gives strength and energy to the body.

JUNE WEDDINGS

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ingersoll, June 20.—At the home of Mrs. John C. Smith, the marriage of her daughter, Ethel Rose, to Mr. William Hector Bailey took place yesterday afternoon, the Rev. Alfred Bright officiating. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Homer Smith, and was daintily attired in marquisette over white silk, which was caught up by pink rosebuds, and trimmed with Irish point lace. The bride carried a bouquet of roses. After a sumptuous repast and congratulatory speeches, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey left on a honeymoon to points east.

LAURIER WILL TOUR ONTARIO

The Liberal Leader to Address Many Meetings Before Next Session.

WILL START IN AUGUST

Ottawa, June 19.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier intends to tour Ontario and Quebec and address a series of meetings in each province before the next session of Parliament opens. The meetings will probably begin during the latter part of August and continue during September. Sir Wilfrid will spend the next months at the capital and holidaying with friends, probably in the mountains of the New England States.

His residence at Arthursville is being enlarged and greatly improved this summer, and the Liberal leader hopes to spend quietly there a considerable part of the succeeding summer.

WATFORD MAN IS NOT GUILTY

Reeve Acquitted of the Charges Made in an Effort to Unseat Him.

WAS GIVEN A WARNING

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, June 19.—"The verdict on this charge will be 'not guilty,' but don't do it again," remarked Mr. Justice Riddell, with regard to a charge that Sanford Watford, reeve-elect of the Village of Watford, had an old debt to secure the vote of Mrs. Minnie Chapman.

His lordship dismissed the motion to unseat the reeve on quo warranto proceedings instituted by W. E. Fitzgerald. There were four grounds on which the election was attacked: two, that scrutineers had been paid to act for Mr. Watford, and had voted; one, that a debt had been paid because Mrs. Chapman had she would not vote until it was paid; and one, that the reeve-elect or his partner was interested in a contract with the corporation with respect to a postoffice site.

With regard to the scrutineers, it is held that they are not to show that they were not in good faith paid merely as scrutineers.

TORONTO, June 20.—The run at the Union stockyards yesterday totaled 53 cars, with 499 cattle, 212 calves, 1,885 hogs and 387 sheep. The market today remained practically unchanged, there being only a fair demand for good cattle, and very little for heavy stock. Calves, sheep and small stuff remained firm, practically all offerings being snapped up. Hogs continued firm at yesterday's advanced prices. A review of the week shows a slow market for heavy cattle, and many good cattle going at sacrifice prices. Calves and sheep have remained very steady throughout the past two weeks, and present conditions indicate another firm trade next week. The hog trade opened easy on Tuesday, but the following day advanced from 5c to 10c, and held that price to the close. There have been some very large shipments of hogs during the past two markets, and the supply has been in excess of the demand. Dealers predict a big drop in this market next week, some going as far as to say that the opening of the week will be 50c less than this week's closing for all classes and 1c less for all over 220 lbs. If grass-fed cattle are not shipped in large quantities next week's market should experience no further decrease, but become firmer towards the close. This, however, depends entirely upon the producers. Quotations were: Export cattle, choice, cwt., $8.85 to $9.50; Butcher cattle, choice, 640 to 830; Butcher cattle, medium, 600 to 810; Butcher cattle, common, 475 to 525; Butcher bulls, 400 to 600; Butcher cows, choice, 525 to 845; Butcher cows, medium, 450 to 600; Butcher cows, common, 350 to 425; Feeders, bulls, 350 to 450; Feeders, cows, 300 to 600; Stockers, 300 to 600; Cannons and cutters, 400 to 550; Milkers and springers, 400 to 600; Calves, good veals, 8.50 to 9.00; Calves, common, 5.00 to 8.00; Lambs, 7.50 to 10.50; Ewes, light, 6.00 to 6.40; Hogs, fed and fattened, 8.50 to 9.50; Hogs, f. o. b., 8.00 to 9.00; Hogs, off cars, 10.10 to 10.15.

Constipation and Headache

CURED BY
Burdock Blood Bitters.

Various kinds of headache exist; for example, nervous, bilious, congestive, and sick headache, headache from constipation or dyspepsia, periodical headache, etc.

In all cases of headache the treatment should be directed to remove the cause, and with the cause removed the headache vanishes for all time.

It is impossible to find a better remedy for headache of every description than is Burdock Blood Bitters, acting as it does on every organ of the body to purify, strengthen and regulate the whole system.

Miss May Bourdage, Nepean, Ont., writes: "For years I was troubled with sick headache, and it was also accompanied by constipation. I was advised to take Burdock Blood Bitters, and I only took three bottles when I felt like a new person. I can recommend it to anyone who suffers the same as I did." Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over thirty-five years, and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Had Rheumatism

WAS CONFINED TO HIS BED FOR FOUR MONTHS.

Mr. W. H. Riley, Ruddell, Sask., writes:—"It is with the greatest of pleasure that I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all suffering with rheumatism. I was so bad with this terrible disease, I was unable to get up from my bed for four months, and nothing seemed to relieve me until a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I had my doubts about them, but was so desperate I would try anything suggested to me. After taking half a box I was able to get up, and after taking two boxes could get around quite well. After taking six boxes I was completely cured, and able to work for the first time in five months, and have not had a touch of rheumatism since. Anyone who saw me then would not know me now, as I am strong and active since taking your valuable medicine."

Rheumatism is caused by the presence in the blood of uric acid, and the kidneys not working properly is the sole cause of this, and unless you remove the acid by flushing the kidneys, there is no possible chance of getting rid of rheumatism.

Doan's Kidney Pills help the kidneys to flush off the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, and thus clear out the kidneys and dispel the rheumatism from the system.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In ordering direct, specify "Doan's."

Willie Ritchie and His Manager Are On the Outs

San Francisco, June 19.—Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion, has dismissed Manager Billy Nolan. The champion came down from Nolan's ranch today to begin training for his fourth of July fight with Joe Rivers. He announced the break, adding that his reasons were "personal and financial." Ritchie said he had had a financial settlement with Nolan but declined to discuss the details.

Maniac With Pistols Loose in Schoolroom

[Canadian Press.] Bremen, Germany, June 20.—A school teacher and two children were shot dead, another teacher and three children gravely wounded, and three other children slightly injured today by a former teacher named Schmidt, who, armed with six loaded revolvers, and carrying a quantity of extra cartridges, entered a Catholic school and started a fusillade among the class. The man, who was apparently demented, was overcome and arrested by people attracted to the scene by the reports of firing. He refused an explanation of his action.

Knight Engine vs. Poppet Valve Engine

Four years ago, before the Royal Automobile Club of Great Britain, a 38-h.p. Knight Engine of Daimler manufacture made a world's record for durability and efficiency.

That record stood unchallenged until May of this year, when, before a Committee of Judges of the Automobile Club of America, an acknowledged leader among manufacturers of Poppet Valve engines put up his best 38 h.p. six-cylinder engine to beat or to equal the record held for four years by the Knight Engine.

The Judges' report on the two tests settles the question of all-round supremacy in automobile engines.

In a series of advertisements we shall show how thoroughly the Knight engine's supremacy has been upheld, and prove that even four years ago it was superior to the Poppet Valve engine of 1913, in the following particulars:

1. That for the size of motor the Knight Engine develops greater horsepower than the Poppet Valve.
2. That it generates its horsepower with less consumption of gasoline.
3. That it requires less adjusting, and its condition after use is more perfect.
4. That the test to which the Knight Motor was subjected was much more exacting than that of the Poppet Valve.
5. That where a Poppet Valve motor loses in power with use, the Knight Motor increases.

We want every owner or prospective owner of an automobile to watch for and read these advertisements, because for four years we have made many claims for the Knight Engine. The comparative figures of the two tests will prove how fully our claims have been justified.

TIED TO COW; GIRL MAY DIE

Was Dragged Through Bush
for Two Hours Before Being Found.

LAI D OUT FOR BURIAL

[Canadian Press.]
Newdale, Man., June 20.—Ruth Phil-pot, a Galician girl, aged 11, when sent to take a cow to another farm, tied the cow's chain to her waist. Something scared the animal, which ran away, dragging the girl through the bush for two hours.

When a man found her tied to the cow, he thought she was dead, so did not touch her, but went to her parents and told them. They went out and got the child, and, thinking she was dead, washed and dressed her in a white dress, and laid her out for burial.

SYNOD OF HURON REFUSES WOMEN VOTE IN VESTRIES

Resolution to Effect Change in Canon Defeated After Prolonged and Keen Debate in Which Several Sensational Scenes Occur.

After a keen debate lasting nearly six hours, the Synod of Huron Thursday night defeated the resolution to effect a change in the canon of the church to permit women to vote in the vestries. The measure was defeated on both the clerical and lay votes. A two-thirds vote is necessary to change a canon, and the cause of the women received a majority of the clerical vote, the division being 41 to 30, but this was not sufficient to carry the measure. The laymen voted 20 to 17 against it.

A Keen Debate.
The debate was one of the keenest heard on the floor of the synod for a long time. Feeling ran high at times, and a doctor was called in. He found her in a fearful condition, but she may er at the afternoon session, and he summed up the case in favor of the women being allowed to vote.

He was followed by Canon Downey, of Port Stanley, who thought that as there was a great deal of work which only women could do, just so there was also much that should be left to men only, and the vestry meeting was part of it. He thought the resolution was exceedingly weak in the way it was gotten up, the fact that 2,400 women had signed the petition not being significant in his opinion as he stated he could easily have secured 5,000 names
against it.

Champions of Women.
Mr. R. H. Shaw then spoke on behalf of the ladies. "I think it would be the most unjust thing in the world not to allow the ladies a place in the ves-tries," he said.
Rev. T. E. Clarke, rector of All Saints' Church, in this city, delivered a strong plea on behalf of the women.
He thought that women should be the equals of men in the church as well as in everything else. They partake of the same sacraments and undertake the same obligations, although "for some reason, which I have never been able to understand," he said, "the poor woman takes a vow to 'obey' in the marriage ceremony."

Lower Dignity.
Mr. A. H. Backus spoke briefly in favor, after which Rev. W. Henderson delivered a strong speech against the measure. Instead of elevating womanhood, he said, it lowers women's dignity to send her into a public place where debating is going on. Any man desiring to see her in that position had a poor ideal of womanhood.
The placing of a bomb in St. Paul's Cathedral was an act of sacrilege which men would not be guilty of and showed that women were unfitted to exercise the franchise.
Rev. Mr. Ardich thought that the woman's proper sphere was the home.
"If she wants to wield the sceptre let her wield it in the home," he said. If Christian women wanted work, let them turn aside from their social functions and devote themselves to finding a solution for the white slave traffic.

Archdeacon Mackenzie pleaded for the women. They were not asking a favor of the synod, but simply a restoration of rights.
Several speakers, including Rev.
Mr. Robertson, Mr. Henry Macklin and His Honor Judge Holt, then spoke in behalf of the motion, after which Rev.
Canon Hicks spoke at considerable length against it.

Sentimental Vaporings.
Mr. Charles Jenkins was the first speaker at the evening session. He proved a keen debater, and by the consent of the synod his time limit was extended to 30 minutes. He took the question up most minutely, in explaining his reasons for opposing the measure. Much of the speaking during the afternoon he characterized as sentimental vaporings. He described the office of the vestry in the Church of England in Canada. It existed not only for secular reasons, but had had also a spiritual function in the selection of the clergymen for the church.
When considering the advisability of admitting women to the vestry, the delegates must take into account, whether they liked it or not, the physiological differences between men and women. The sex relation would have to be considered, and they would also have to take into account the fact that the Creator had made her thoughts, her constitution, her instincts, her feelings and speech different from those of the man, and this fact unfitted her for the work of the vestry. "Man and woman have separate and distinct functions," he said.
"Let woman attend to her own. With all the changes and developments of the last forty years, there had been no change in the status of woman."
Mr. John Ransford took strong objection to this remark later on in the evening. The present status of woman was as different from that of forty years ago as light is from darkness,
he declared.

Canon Tucker.
Canon Tucker followed with a speech of some length. "If the women desire a place on the vestry, I see no reason why it should not be granted them," he said. "The vestry existed principally to look after the material interests of the church, and he could not see where the question of sex could be raised in connection with it."

Mr. McElheran Hissed.
After Rev. J. W. J. Andrew had spoken very strongly in favor of the measure, the floor was granted to Mr.
R. M. McElheran.

Up to this time, although the tension was marked at times, there had been no incident to mar the debate.
When Mr. McElheran, however, declared in a fiery speech against the measure, that it was only the thin end of the wedge in securing votes for women in everything, there was a demonstration among the women who thronged the gallery, and the speaker was hissed from several quarters.
Canon Tucker rose to a point of order, and drew attention to the actions of the women. The excitement was intense, but his lordship adopted strong measures, and soon had the situation under control by threatening to clear the gallery on the first repetition of the offence.

Mr. McElheran stated that Mr. Ransford's championing of the cause of the women was due to his love of art. "For the modern woman is certainly a work of art," he said.
Rev. Principal Waller followed Mr.
McElheran's address, pointing out that the family and not the individual was the unit of the vestry, and that any move to make it an aggregation of individuals was along the line of adventure.

Dr. Moorhouse spoke briefly, and commented upon the excellent quality of the speeches of the day. Rev. Mr.
Farney made a significant remark when he stated: "I was inclined to be in favor of the motion, but after hearing that hiss, I am converted."
The vote was taken at about 10:15.
The bishop commented upon the fact that the debate had lasted 315 min-

The women in the gallery took their defeat in silence, many leaving before the closing exercises were begun.

WHITE GRUB IN THE OATS

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Belmont, June 30.—The splendid rains have helped crops all through this district immensely and farmers everywhere are much more cheerful than they were a short time ago.

The cold and backward spring has had a bad effect on hay and some of the spring crops, and farmers report that the white grub has done considerable damage to the oats. Corn was seriously retarded by unseasonable weather. Very little if any damage was done by the recent frosts, either to fruit or crops.

Mr. J. Bloomfield, of Belmont, holds the championship in this district for for a week on potatoes grown in his own garden this year.

examination, eleven for the lower school and five for junior teachers' en-also Mr. A. Betterly. Mr. Ward in-

STRIKES DUE TO ADJUSTMENT OF WAGE SCHEDULES

Nearly All Recent Labor Disputes Were of Very Short Duration.

Greatest Number of Walkouts Occurred in the Metal Trades.

[Canadian Press.]

Ottawa, June 19.—The record of trade disputes maintained by the department of labor shows that, as usual at this season, the majority of the disputes occurred pending the adjustment of new wage schedules. These were nearly all of short duration.

The mining industry on Vancouver Island was seriously interfered with, more than 3,000 men being out during the whole month through the continuance of the dispute at Ladysmith and Cumberland mines, and the closing down of the mines in the Nanaimo district.

A great number of the disputes of the month occurred among workers in the metal trades. The disputes of May affected upwards of 11,600 employees, and accounted for the loss of more than 150,000 working days.

Disputes affecting various classes of municipal employees in Vancouver, and affecting also the boot and shoe workers in a number of the factories in Quebec were satisfactorily adjusted during the month through the instrumentality of boards under the industrial disputes investigation act.

The department of labor also assisted in the adjustment of disputes affecting the employees of the hydro-electric commission in Toronto, and affecting also the longshoremen in Montreal and St. John, N. B. In the latter case a board has been established under the industrial disputes investigation act.

KILLED UNDER TRAIN

Catching Glove Was Still on Dead Boy's Hand.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

St. Thomas, June 19.—Wilfred McDonald, the 13-year-old son of John McDonald, a Pere Marquette watchman of this city, was instantly killed, being run over by a freight train this afternoon. The lad was playing baseball in a yard beside the tracks, and as no one saw the accident it is supposed that the ball was knocked over a standing freight train, and that the boy either climbed or crawled under the train just as it started to move. The baseball glove was found still on his hand.

WIDER FIELDS FOR PHYSICIANS UNDER NEW PLAN

Dominion Medical Register Is To Be Opened on July 1st.

Graduates Passing Council May Practice Anywhere in the Dominion.

Ottawa, June 19.—The Dominion Medical Council, which has been in session here for the past three days, concluded this afternoon. The organization under the Dominion medical act was completed, and bylaws and regulations were adopted for submission to the Government, whose approval is necessary. Arrangements also were made for the first Dominion examinations. They will begin at Montreal on Oct. 7. The Dominion register will open at Ottawa on July 1, which is not only Confederation Day, but also marks the confederation of the Canadian medical profession. The first annual meeting will be held here on June 16 of next year. The council, which embraces 32 members representing the provinces and universities, or appointed by the Government, selected a list of 20 examiners, all of whom are medical professors.

Long Planned. The final establishment of the council marks the completion of the scheme of medical reciprocity which has long been advocated. The moving spirit in it was Dr. T. G. Roddick, of Montreal, the president. Herebefore there have been a series of provincial councils whose licenses held good only in the province where they were issued. The provincial councils are not abolished, but a medical graduate who now passes the Dominion Council may, without further examination, practice anywhere in Canada upon registering with the provincial body. Physicians of good standing for ten years before October, 1912, may secure the diploma without examination upon payment of a fee of $100. If a medical graduate locates in any province and intends to stay there the Dominion examination will not be necessary. He cannot, however, practice in any other province on the strength of the provincial license. This privilege is granted only to those who pass the Federal Council, or register, without examination, after having practiced ten years.

A Wider View. The fundamental principle of the bill is to do away with provincial limitations and provide that a physician who secures the Dominion certificate may practice in any province without the necessity of undergoing an examination before the provincial authority. Hon. Dr. Roche, minister of the interior, who convened the first council meeting in Ottawa last October, was elected an honorary member, and Dr. R. W. Payell, of Ottawa, is the registrar. The first Ottawa, is the registrar. The first Ottawa, is the registrar. The first Ottawa, is the registrar.

That Mr. Bilodeau entertains a suspicion as to the identity of the sender of the fatal parcel is inferred from his declining to answer the question: "Do you know of any person whom you consider could be capable of sending this package?"

In addition to the regular criminal investigation, the postoffice authorities will hold an inquiry, as sending explosives through the mails is an indictable offence.

According to Chief of Police Bourdreaux, the bomb was composed of gun-cotton and nitric acid, so arranged in the parcel that when the lid was raised the two were mingled and a spark supplied by friction.

Strong Suspicion. That strong suspicion is directed against a person in the city, and that evidence may be adduced at the resumed inquest this evening which may give point to this suspicion is announced by the police, who have been making very careful inquiries in town to find out what people are known to have a knowledge of nitric acid and gun-cotton, and what persons have displayed animosity towards Mr. and Mrs. Bilodeau.

A Former Attempt. That another and previous effort had been made to kill Mr. Bilodeau was the purpose of a statement made this morning by Lydia, his young daughter.

Miss Bilodeau told her father today that several days ago a parcel addressed as the bomb was labelled, "A. O. Bilodeau," was delivered. It contained two pills, instructions to take one after meals were on the box.

Mrs. Bilodeau threw the pills and box in the fire, and remarked that "somebody was trying to poison father." She asked the child not to say anything about it.

TO APPOINT COMMISSION ON MEDICAL EDUCATION

General Provincial Law To Be Framed to Deal With Many Important Questions—Too Many Applications for Special Privileges.

Toronto, June 19.—At the opening of the Toronto General Hospital here today Sir James Whitney announced that a royal commission would be appointed by the Provincial Government to inquire into the whole question of medical education in Ontario.

As many were aware, explained Sir James, hardly a session of the Legislature passed without applications of a variety of descriptions being received asking that the Government protect and place upon a proper footing in the Province members of various schools of medical thought and promoters of different forms of medical education. It was most difficult to deal with all such applications.

Appoint Commission. "The Government," he said, "has decided to appoint a commission to deal with the whole subject of medical education and the practice of medicine. The object of this will be to secure information on which to base legislation under which every imaginable application such as I have described can be regulated and controlled and governed in the interest of the people."

Under the powers given to the commission medical treatment will include all means of preventing, healing or curing human disorders. It will be the duty of the commission to investigate and report upon any matter relating to the education or practice of medicine, the constitution, powers and bylaws of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario and the Ontario Medical Council, the medical faculty of the University of Toronto, osteopathy and the creation of a school of osteopathy in the Province; nursing and the schools for training nurses; the practice in any branch of medicine of Christian Science; opticians and their training in relation to the human eye; dentistry and the training of dentists; the practice of any branch of medicine by the members of any class or sect.

Often Talks About Father. Young Robert Gordon Thought a Lot of Man He Killed.

A Model Prisoner.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Goderich, June 20.—Young Robert Gordon, who is confined to the Goderich jail on the charge of murdering his father near Searforth, is the sole and only prisoner here at the present time.

The jail officials say Gordon is a model prisoner and is a young man of very refined thoughts and deportment. He speaks frequently of having thought a great deal of his father and does not seem to realize the enormity of his offence.

Militant Firebug Hoodwinked Police. Lillian Lenton Made Her Escape in Men's Clothes.

London, June 19.—Miss Lillian Lenton, who was convicted of having started the fire in the Kew Tea Garden Pavilion, escaped in men's clothes from the house where she was living in Leeds, pending the expiration of her license.

Miss Lenton has given the police considerable trouble. She was released from jail in March, because of illness brought on by a hunger strike. She broke her license, and was not heard of again until June 10, when she was arrested at Doncaster under dramatic circumstances. A woman named Winship was charged with breaking into Westfield House at Doncaster with the intent to burn it. A witness for the defence, who called herself May Dennis, confessed that she, and not the Winship woman, was guilty. She proved to be Miss Lenton, for whom the police had been searching for so long. The Winship woman was released and Miss Lenton was sent back to jail.

Miss Lenton immediately started another hunger strike and again got out on a license a few days ago. She was placed in a house at Leeds until she had sufficiently recovered to be returned to jail, and police guarded the house. She again eluded their vigilance, and got away today.

DESPERADO IS CORNERED. [Canadian Press.] Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 19.—The outlaw Russian, Tobias, is cornered between Garden River and Echo Bay, twelve miles east of the Sault, and his arrest is expected at any moment, or, what is more likely, the report of his suicide or shooting by the armed forces.

Coming and Going

THE smooth, clean, economical concrete road is coming—as certainly as the railroad, the steamship and the telegraph came.

And the muddy, sticky, deep-rutted dirt and macadam road is going—as surely as the stage-coach, the sailing ship and the spinning-wheel have gone.

It's simply a question of which communities will take advantage of the better, modern way of building roads now—enjoying its benefits from now on—and which ones will continue to "get along" in the poor old way until forced by competition to avail themselves of science's latest contribution to public convenience.

Concrete Roads

are not experiments. There is no "chance" taken with their adoption. They have been quietly proving their value for twenty years. Concrete roads built twenty years ago, when concrete construction was nothing like so far advanced as it is to-day, are still giving absolutely satisfactory service.

Concrete roads have proven themselves best—under all sorts of conditions, from the standpoints of both service and economy. Their first cost is near that of good macadam, their service is greatly superior, and their final cost—the only one to consider in comparing roads—is a great deal less.

These are strong statements. They might be stronger and then not over-state the truth. Concrete roads "back them up" with facts—facts that prove concrete to be the best and cheapest material for road construction—either for city streets or country highways.

Many Canadian counties and cities are already using concrete pavements. Many others are preparing to do so as fast as they can.

They will be enjoying the many advantages that good roads bring, while others who stand by the "poor old way" with its mud and ruts and expense and repairs are waiting—for what?

Every citizen should have the information on concrete roads which we will send free upon request.

WE MANUFACTURE OUR OWN CLOTHING.

BUYING CLOTHING SHOULD BE A PROFITABLE INVESTMENT, MR. MAN!

You want to get all that's coming to you when you spend your money, don't you? But do you get it? If you buy your clothing anywhere outside of Grafton's we emphatically say you do not.

Now a man spends considerable for clothing in the course of a year, and a saving of three to ten dollars on a purchase is too important a thing to be side-stepped in these days of increased cost of living.

And you are side-stepping just such savings when you fail to buy your clothing at GRAFTON'S.

This is a pretty strong statement, and we wouldn't make it unless we were prepared to prove it.

Of course you know that when you buy from us you buy directly of the makers. The clothing comes from our factory at Dundas directly to you with but one moderate profit added to the cost of production. You save the middleman's profit, which profit you must pay at other stores.

You see, therefore, the reason for the difference between our prices and other stores' prices.

You understand now, don't you, why we can sell for less, and you realize that there is no exaggeration in the statement that you can save 25 to 33 1-3 per cent when you purchase clothing from us.

And besides saving money, you will get clothing that has no superior in quality, style and durability.

FORMER LONDON JOURNALIST A CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR

Mr. Carl Stubig to Try For Municipal Honors at Sandusky.

Newspaper work is a pretty fair apprenticeship to nearly everything, from driving a hack to sailing the ship of state, whatever that may be. It isn't such a far cry from the daily grind of a newspaper office to the political arena, and Carl H. Stubig, a former London newspaperman, is taking the plunge this year.

To Run For Mayor.

Mr. Stubig, who is a former city editor of the London Free Press, has announced his candidature for the mayoralty contest in his home city of Sandusky, Ohio. The election will take place this fall, with the former Forest City scribe running as either Republican or Independent candidate for Mounted Officers Swam Out and Saved Seven From Drowning.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, N. Y., June 19. — Coney Island policemen mounted on horseback have become a valuable adjunct to the life-saving forces at that popular resort. Two of the mounted patrolmen, Edwin Cody and James J. McDonald, who were on regular duty regulating traffic ashore, distinguished themselves yesterday when they swam their horses about 300 feet out to sea and rescued seven persons in a disabled motorboat. A 35-foot craft was nearly swamped by a choppy sea, and two women in the party, with

PUBLICITY MAN COMES TO LONDON WELL SPOKEN OF

Former Winnipeggers Say That He Is Splendidly Fitted For Position.

And Believe Everybody Should Get Behind Mr. Phillips and Work For London.

Mr. Gordon Phillips, chosen as London's publicity commissioner by the city council Wednesday night, is given high recommendations by Messrs. D. R. Woods and L. M. Metcalfe, partners in the Argyle Land Company. Both gentlemen say that while they have no brief for Mr. Phillips, they know that he is a man of the highest character and abilities. They say that as assistant publicity commissioner of Winnipeg he has done a large share of the work in attracting industries to that city. They are confident that he will be found a different type of man than the average run of publicity commissioners.

Get Behind New Man.

HAD ITCHING PILES FOR 27 YEARS

Often Laid Up For Days at a Time—A Wonderful Tribute to Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Few people were ever more enthusiastic in praising Dr. Chase's Ointment than the writer of this letter. When you read the description of this case you will not wonder why Mr. Joseph Johnson, Coleman, Alta., writes: "Three years ago I was cured of blind, itching piles of 27 years' standing by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. I used to think that death would be the only relief I would ever get from the terrible misery of piles. Often I was laid up for three days at a time, and at other times worked when I should have been in bed. "Dr. Chase's Ointment is worth sixty dollars a box instead of sixty cents. I am a different man since using it. I am farming all the time, and never miss a day. Words fail to express my gratitude for the cure this ointment made for me. I cannot tell half as much about it as it deserves. Anyone doubting this can write direct to me." Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

lips, and though Mr. A. E. Welch probably was backed by the majority of citizens for the position, there is a tendency among all of those interested in advancing the city to set behind Mr. Phillips and give him the broadest opportunity to advance the interests of London in general.

Messrs. Wood and Metcalfe are enthusiastic over the money in London men are doing the same thing. They are putting this property on the market at very low prices. Yet we have been told by citizens that we should not have invested our money in London property. How do they expect their town to go ahead if they talk that way? What is needed in this city is a pull together, a chasing in of the knocker on the street. London people don't realize what a city they have.

Here To Stay.

"We are not making real estate men. We have made our home here and we intend to remain in business. So far the real estate expansion in London has been on a conservative basis. People don't need to buy unless they want to, and no one can go far wrong at the prices that are being paid. With the proper spirit London can force to the front. We don't want to be mistaken for advice-givers, but these are our friendly impressions as newcomers who see things from a different perspective."

Mr. A. E. Welch stated this morning that he wished Mr. Phillips every success in his position. Mr. Welch believed that he could have attracted much capital to London to be invested in railways and industries.

SILLY SARAH BROKE JAIL

Wild Adventure of a Heifer, a Street Car and a Courageous Cop.

A TAIL TWISTING STORY

Silly Sarah, a refined heifer, the property of the Hon. William E. Robinson, had been confined to a prison yard for some time, and for some time she had gazed longingly through an aperture in the fence at the green and luscious grass that grew along the boulevards, just beyond her reach. Often she longed for some of that grass, but not until Wednesday night were her desires realized. Wednesday evening Sarah succeeded in breaking jail, and after regaling herself on the grass, started on a giddy romp down Richmond street. Here she discovered one of Manager King's limousines, and it being her first appearance in public she decided to stop in the middle of the tracks and investigate. This did not appeal to the motorman, who was averse to causing any consternation to a number of women passengers or possibly dinting the front of his car or smashing his headlight by collision. The car stopped. So did a number of pedestrians, and advice pertaining to moving a good-sized heifer from in front of a street car was handed out lavishly.

Finally a "S. O. S." call was sent out, and in answer one of Chief Williams' braves appeared. He took in the situation at a glance, and bucking his belt a notch tighter and tilting his helmet to one side, he stepped into the middle of the tracks with a look akin to that of a Roman gladiator.

Grasping Sarah by a pair of very short horns, he attempted to move her from the tracks. There was "nothing doing." Sarah stood firm as Gibraltar. Then a rope was secured and placed around the dear creature's neck (that is not what the officer called her), and still she refused to leave the glare of the spotlight. The cop was in a quandary, but there was an ex-farmer in the crowd, who was not. "Grab her by the tail, give it a twist, and then you can lead her home," he advised.

The policeman took his advice, grabbed the aforementioned adornment, and after giving it several twists Sarah moved. More than that, she moved quickly, and a surprised cop was nearly thrown off his feet, but, clinging desperately, after chasing up and down the street several times, he succeeded in ending the heifer back in the yard.

"Your wife gave a beautiful address," "Yes," replied Mr. Meekton. "She said it was woman's especial duty to be kind to dumb animals." "I heard about it," "But you don't seem impressed," "It doesn't seem to be anything that interests me—not unless you are going to put husbands in the dumb animal class."—Washington Star.

COTTON LOOKS OVER CAMP

Arrives Unexpectedly and Inspects Men at Carling Heights.

A GOOD SHOWING MADE

There was a mysterious and hurried bucking on of belts and straightening of uniforms at Carling's Heights on Wednesday afternoon, when word was whispered through the lines that Brigadier-General Cotton accompanied by his staff officer, Col. Heward, had arrived unexpectedly for inspection purposes.

The general appeared shortly after 3 o'clock, and as soon as his presence was made known, the majority of the men were ordered out for inspection. The soldiers made an excellent showing, despite the fact that they have been in camp only a few days.

Gen. Cotton left the camp at 4 o'clock, later taking a train for Niagara-on-the-Lake, where he makes an inspection today.

Col. Nelles will arrive in the city this evening to make an inspection of the Hussars and the Grey's Horse, and Lieut.-Col. Diggar, director of supplies and transports, is expected in the city some time before tomorrow night to make his inspection of the Army Service Corps. A medical inspection of the camp will also be made on the 25th and 26th by Col. G. C. Jones, director-general of medical services.

Lieutenant Inspector Galpin paid an unexpected visit to the camp on Thursday evening, but found everything in excellent order, there apparently being no intoxicating liquors of any description for sale on the grounds.

Private May Has Chance of Recovery

Operated On at Victoria and Is Greatly Improved Today.

Private Richard May, of the Army Service Corps, who was injured in a runaway accident on Tuesday, was operated on Friday evening at Victoria Hospital. This morning he was resting easily, and his chances of recovery are good. He was taken care of at the camp by the surgeons, but grew worse on Friday, and was removed to Victoria Hospital, suffering from a lacerated scalp and internal injuries. The injuries to the abdomen were caused by a heavy wagon passing over him. The operation was exceedingly difficult to perform owing to the absence of electric light. The emergency cause was used to light the operating-room.

The Government was appealed to for help, and a cablegram asking for details was sent to the British ambassador at Washington.

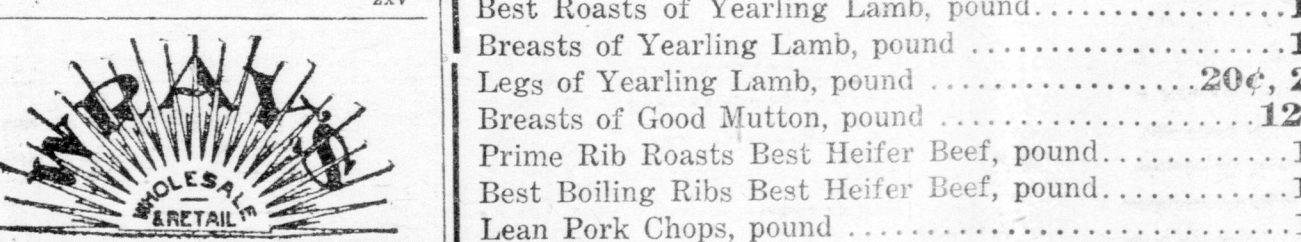

The banana industry is the principal one of Jamaica, and as most of the fruit goes to the United States the tax will be a serious blow to the British colony.
