FUNERAL OF THE LATE REUBEN PURSER.

There was a large gathering of friends and citizens generally at the funeral of the late Reuben Purser, of Windsor, yesterday afternoon. A simple service was conducted at the house, by Rev. James Livingstone, and the interment took place at the Windsor Grove cemetery. The members of Great Western Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of which the deceased was a long member, were present in a body, and marched to the grave. The Knights Templar formed the guard of honor and the Masonic service for the dead was read at the grave. The following pall-bearers were taken from Great Western Lodge: Joseph Hall, James Radcliffe, James McGarity, George Puffer, James McNally and Capt. Bush—Windsor Record.

The deceased was a brother of C. Purser, of Dover, and many of the early settlers in Dover will have a kind remembrance of him. In Windsor, where he has resided for many years, he was held in high esteem as a most honorable business man and a good citizen, who filled a number of important positions in the city and at the time of his death was a member of the waterworks board.

LOST THEIR ALL

Toronto, July 23.—A Toronto man called at the Parliament buildings today and asked for information regarding the recent fires in the Lake Temiskaming district. He had received a letter from that district. His father, mother, and two brothers had gone to that country, and were getting along well when the fire came along and burned all they had in the world. The mother and father had to go barefooted, having lost everything. The young man had a large case of clothes to send them and $18 in cash.

APPEAL TO COURTS

The Latest Move of the Sheet Steel Co. Against the Strikers.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 23.—It is asserted to-night, on good authority, that papers are being prepared by Hersifer F. Smith, district manager of the America Sheet Steel Co., to go in the U. S. Superior Court tomorrow for the purpose of securing an injunction against the strikers to prevent them from interfering in any way with the operation of the company's plants. Following this the rumor is in circulation that a carload of men will run into Wellsville tomorrow to supplement the force now at work. This latter story has not been verified. According to strikers' leaders, the officials of the Wellsville mill are apparently seeking to bring on an open conflict and involve the aid of the sheriff's deputies, and possibly the militia. Earnest and renewed warnings have been sent to the strikers to keep within the law.

NO MORE MONEY NEEDED.

London, July 23.—Mr. Balfour stated in the House of Commons today that there will be no supplementary estimates, and from this it is inferred that the Government does not intend to ask Parliament to make any further provision for the war.

FREEDOM OF OLD LONDON PRESENTED TO MILNER

Patriotic Demonstration in Favor of the War and the Government's Policy—Rumors of War.

London, July 24.—The presentation of the freedom of the city of London to Lord Milner, of Cape Town, at the Guildhall yesterday was made the occasion of another "jingo" demonstration in favor of the war in South Africa and the policy of the Government.

Joseph Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary; the Duke of Devonshire, President of the Council, and other cabinet ministers were among those on the platform.

Lord Milner, in a speech, said the compromising of the settlement of the South African situation by injudicious concessions must not be thought of. The speaker said there was an immense difference between the stout old Burghers of the late republics and the "roving ruffians" harrowing their fellow-British subjects of Cape Colony.

While it was resolved to treat the old Burghers, when the war was over, with fairness, and even generosity, convincing them that though they had lost independence, they had not lost their freedom, loyalists in South Africa, who had shown such splendid devotion to the Empire and the work of reconstruction already going on, should not be alienated. By the bold development of resources and incorruptible government, it was hoped soon to relieve Britain of what had been called the obsession of South Africa.

RUMORS OF PEACE.

London, July 24.—"We hear rumors," says the Daily News, "that negotiations with a view to peace in South Africa are proceeding in London."

KITCHENER'S LATEST REPORT.

The British War Office has received the following despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, July 23:— "A train from Cape Town, with 113 details and stores, was held up, captured and burned at Sheepers, eight miles north of Beaufort West, on the morning of July 21. Our casualties were three killed and 18 wounded. An inquiry is proceeding."

"French reports that Crabbe, with 300 men, was attacked in the mountains near Cradock by Kritzinger at dawn July 21. The horses stampeded. An all-day fight followed. Crabbe fell back on Mortimer. Our loss was slight."

DELAREY HAS REALIZED THAT HOPE IS GONE

No European Intervention Possible—New British Column to Operate in Cape Colony—Baden-Powell Seriously Ill.

London, July 23.—It is reported at Cape Town that General Delarey has informed the Kloofsdorp commando that there is no longer any chance of European intervention and that they must fight the war out to the bitter end entirely on their own account.

A NEW COLUMN.

A new British column is being formed to work in conjunction with the other columns operating in the colony.

COLD NIGHTS ON THE VELDT.

London, July 23.—On the veldt now the nights are bitterly cold, says the special correspondent of the Daily News. Food, clothing and forage are very scarce, and there is great mortality from disease among the Boers. The condition of misery to which they are reduced is indescribable. Many of them are in rags. The British flying columns are literally raking the country, bringing in vast herds.

WOMEN TIERED OF IT.

Mr. Bennett Burleigh writes: "The Eastern Transvaal is now so bare that the Boers must surrender or clear out elsewhere. The best sign I note is that the women are tired of the war. They are all glad to go into the British camps, and express the hope that their husbands will surrender."

Bloemfontein, July 22.—The Boer prisoners state that Commandant Kolbe has been deprived of his command because he favored surrender.

TO VISIT REFUGEE CAMP.

London, July 23.—In the House of Commons, Secretary of War Brodrick announced the names of the members of the ladies' committee which is to visit and report on the Boer refugees' camp in South Africa. Among those mentioned were Lady Knox, who has had considerable experience in South Africa; the Hon. Mrs. Millicent Garrett-Anderson, the widow of the late Postmaster-General, Rt. Hon. Henry Fawcett, and the author of a number of publications on political economy; Lucy Dean, inspector of factories, and Miss Scarlett. The first three sailed for Cape Town this morning.

MRS. KRUGER'S LAST WORDS.

Pretoria, July 23.—Mrs. Kruger, wife of former President Kruger, of the South African Republic, who died Saturday last of pneumonia, after an illness of three days, was buried here this afternoon. Her last words to her son were: "Tell your father that he must place his firm trust in God."

"B.P." A SICK MAN.

London, July 23.—The Times says that the illness of Gen. Baden-Powell is more serious than the public is aware of. When he left Cape Town he was prostrated from the long strain he had undergone. He was ordered to entirely cease work for three months.

KING'S REPLY

It is Making Some Americans Talk Apparently.

London, July 24.—Much gossip in American and English society has been caused by the presentation to King Edward Monday by some American ladies of the hospital ship Maine committee of a medal commemorative of the Maine's work, with a request that the King transmit the medal to Queen Alexandra. It seems that the idea was opposed by a number of influential members of the committee on the ground that the King did not want the medal, but the others carried the day.

The King's reply to the delegation which made the presentation is causing some comment, as he thanked "this American committee" for their "loyal, dutiful sentiments," as he did the Kansas Legislature in answering their telegram of condolence on the Queen's death, and as he also thanked the committee for the bringing of their valuable services to a culmination by presenting the ship to the government, whereas this was done solely by Mr. Bernard H. Baker, of Baltimore.

W. E. Rispin, City Passenger and Ticket Agent, 115 King street, will issue tickets July 24th, 25th and 26th to Chicago and return at $8.70 each, good returning July 31st, and extension of time can be granted on payment of 50 cents in Chicago, good until 24th of August. He is also selling cheap tickets to Pan-American Exposition, Buffalo, and to Winnipeg and all points in the Northwest, special excursion July 23rd.

CHINESE WAR

Eng and's Expense Bill is $25,000,000 —Does not include Navy.

London, July 24.—In the House of Commons, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer, stated that the cost of the military operations in China up to the present time was $4,500,000. This, of course, did not include the naval expenses, which it was impossible to estimate.

Viscount Cranborne, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said the latest information in regard to the whereabouts of Prince Tuan, in China, was that he was with a relative, a Mongol Prince. There was no information to the effect that he was at the head of a considerable force of troops.

Lord Cranborne also stated that the foreign troops in Shanghai at the present time were:— British, 1,945; French, 750, with six guns; Germans, 850, with from four to six guns, and 300 Japanese.

FLAMING OIL

Steamer Explosion Brought Terrible Death to Captain and Crew.

Stockholm, Sweden, July 24.—An explosion of petroleum on board the American schooner Louise Adelaide, Capt. Orr, in the harbor here, resulted in the death of Capt. Orr, 10 members of the crew, four Swedish customs officials and the Brazilian consul.

Two of the crew were saved.

The explosion set the schooner afire, and the blazing petroleum enveloped the vessel and those on board. The barkentine Louise Adelaide, Capt. Orr, left Philadelphia April 24 for Stockholm. May 18 she put into Dutch Island harbor, R. I., having encountered a heavy gale on the edge of the gulf stream. From Dutch Island harbor she was towed to Portland, Me., for repairs where she was refitted as a schooner and resumed her voyage for Stockholm June 4. The Louise Adelaide was built in Yarmouth, Me., in 1882. She was 154 feet long, 34 feet beam and 12 feet deep and registered 672 tons. She was owned by Edgar Orr, of Portland, Me.

FOUND DEAD ON THE RAILWAY.

Burlington, Ont., July 23.—Wm. Simpson, a resident of the west end, was found dead on the G. T. R. tracks last evening. His neck was broken and his body badly cut up, and he had been dead some hours when found. Simpson was 26 years of age, and leaves a wife and one child.

GATHERING MANY IN

Kitchener's Report of Boer Losses in Killed, Wounded and Captured Since July 15.

General French Pressing Cape Colony Raiders Northward—A Boer Attack on Aberdeen Repulsed.

London, July 23.—Lord Kitchener cables the War Office as follows:— Since my last report of July 15, the various columns report that 43 Boers have been killed, 25 wounded, 126 surrendered and 190 were taken prisoners. Three thousand one hundred and sixty rounds of ammunition, 125 wagons, 5,600 horses and much stock have been captured.

Blood's column reinvaded Rossendale, Transvaal, and cleared the country north of the railway line.

In Cape Colony French is gradually pressing the Boers northward.

ATTACKED ABERDEEN.

Cape Town, July 23.—A number of the Boers who are invading the Cape Colony began an attack on Aberdeen at seven o'clock one evening last week. They obtained excellent shelter in a donga, but their fire was ineffectual. The militia, a portion of the town guard under Capt. Miller, of the North Lancashire Regiment, advanced steadily, under a heavy fire, and from their position, the burghers retreating precipitately. One of the British was wounded. The Boers renewed the attack the following night. It was intensely dark, and this made it difficult to locate them. They contented themselves with sniping at the pickets until midnight, when the Australian artillery, with a fifteen-pounder, dispersed the Boers, who retired to the mountains.

THE CAPTURE OF A TRAIN.

Cape Town, July 23.—Details are now to hand regarding the capture of a train by the Boers on the Pieterburg line. The line passes through a thick bush, interspersed with rocky ground, affording admirable cover for an attacking party. The train carried some officers and 18 men of the Gordon Highlanders as an escort. While it was passing through this broken country a mine exploded and damaged the piston rod of the engine. At once the Boers, who, under Commandant Lys, of Pretoria, lay hidden in the grass at a distance of 50 yards, opened a heavy fire, killing the driver, the stoker, an officer and seven men, and wounding the remainder.

..The Planet.

S. STEPHENSON - Proprietor.

IS THERE YET HOPE?

Perhaps, in time, its disgraceful paroxysm will pass away and the Banner-News may reach a position in which its sanity and sobriety will not always be questioned. It contained nearly two columns of editorial yesterday and actually omitted its following favorites from its vocabulary: "Thug, Liar, Thief, Heathen, Sime Spitterer, Hypocrite, Blooming Idiot, Sand-bagger, Forger," etc., etc.

We trust their absence may mean the dawn of a reformation and that the time may come soon when true Canadians will not have to stand the shame of acknowledging the publication of the sheet within their fair borders.

BULLY FOR OUR OARSMEN.

Canada is all right, and she can hold her own with the United States in any sport in which the contestants are not hired men.

When we produce mile runners like Orton, or shot-putters like Gray, we must expect to see them lured away from us into a larger field of athletic sports across the border, there to win championships for the colleges or clubs with which they connect themselves. Our athletes, like our poets, wander off to the biggest market on the continent.

But in rowing it is different. Our eight oar crews cannot be taken away in the group, and the fact that we produce good oarsmen was demonstrated by the victory of the Argonauts at Philadelphia with the Winnipeg crew in second place. If we had a bird over here that screamed as the American Eagle does the present opportunity for screaming would be made much of.

ENGLISH ONLY.

The policy of Great Britain in respect of the language to be used in the new South African possessions seems to be settled, comments the Hamilton Spectator. When in March last, Kitchener offered terms to Botha, one of the clauses provided for the use of both the English and Dutch languages in the public schools, where the parents desired that it should be so. That was a sad mistake; but the offer was not accepted.

The other day the British deputy administrator at Bloemfontein addressed school teachers gathered from all parts of the Orange River Colony. He condemned the old dual language system and announced that in future there would be but one standard in the schools—and that standard the best fitted to equip the children for the future battle of life: the English standard. The address brought out applause from an audience in which the Dutch predominated.

Thus a most important work has been accomplished. The Orange River Colony is rescued from the fate of Quebec; and the people of the whole of British South Africa are safe from an intolerable nuisance.

THE BOER ARMY.

We are beginning to get some idea of the original strength of the Boer army, and to understand how the Boers have been able to hang on so long in the face of the big British army, says the Hamilton Spectator. Capt. Fickley, of the Steamer Reading, lately arrived from New York from St. Helena, in speaking of the Boer prisoners, said:

There are just 4,700 prisoners there. Of these 17 per cent are Transvaalers and Orange Free State. The remaining 83 per cent is made up of other nationalities, in this order: Scandinavians, Germans, Italians, a few Russians, Irishmen, and even Englishmen, a handful of Scotchmen, a few Americans, a few Greeks, and scatterings from other nationalities.

Capt. Fickley intimated that he had learned that these proportions held throughout the entire army. Thus it appears that Great Britain, instead of fighting forty or fifty thousand Boers, has been fighting an immense army of which the Boers constituted only a small part. And it is not preposterous to imagine that the murderers and looters now being pursued by the British are principally foreign adventurers who propose to fight as long as there is anything to steal—if they can.

A USELESS BRANCH.

The uselessness of the Dominion Labor Department was revealed by the Globe in an article intended as a defence of that branch of the service. Points out the Toronto News. A column of space is used to say that compulsory arbitration is outside the powers of the Federal government, consequently all that the Minister of Labor can do—or is authorized by the act to do—is to assist disputants when they want to settle their differences.

The Labor Department is simply a spectator of the struggle until one of the contestants asks for its inter-

Impaired Digestion

May not be all that is meant by dyspepsia now, but it will be if neglected.

The uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, sourness of the stomach, and disagreeable belching may not be very bad now, but they will be if the stomach is suffered to grow weaker.

Dyspepsia is such a miserable disease that the tendency to it should be given early attention. This is completely overcome by which strengthens the whole digestive system

ence, and then it cannot really intervene unless the other party is agreeable. This Bureau of Conciliation cannot move hand or foot until both parties want to be conciliated. The absurdity of creating such a board is instantly apparent. If the parties to a dispute want to settle it, and are willing to accept the services of a third party to mediate between them, they will reach a settlement without the aid of a government bureau. There are a hundred men in sight from whom to choose a conciliator in any industrial conflict that can take place. We do not say that the Department of Labor is essentially an evil institution—although it can do much in the way of political wire-pulling. If the Minister is so disposed—but we do say that it is an utterly useless branch of the service, and we are convinced that it was established, first to make a show of friendship for the labor interests, and secondly, to find places for some friends of the government.

OLLIE WANTS A CRACKER.

Ottawa Citizen.

That was a ridiculous story about Olive Schreiner being a prisoner in a wire cage. A cross-bar on the top of a pole would be more Olive's style.

A BROAD ASSERTION.

Belleville Intelligencer.

There is another newspaper war in Hamilton. The editors are fighting about water now, something with which they have not even a bowing acquaintance.

BY HIS OWN STANDARD.

Hamilton Spectator.

Common honesty and hard work are as successful in politics as they are in any walk of life, and nowhere are they more needed.—Goderich Signal.

We are afraid that the McGillicuddy isn't much of a politician.

IN FEMALE MARCHING ORDER.

Ottawa Citizen.

Thorold has appointed a lady town treasurer. She will probably be seen hustling down street with her handkerchief, pocket-book, smelling-salts, reticule and the key of the safe clutched in her good right hand.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

Bobcaygeon Independent.

Sovereign Lord of Canada is an addition suggested in some quarters to the title of the King. What is the matter with Conquering Cockleorum of the Colonies? But why have any monkeying with the title? King is good enough, and sufficient for all the time it will be needed.

THE END OF THE WAR.

Bobcaygeon Independent.

The Hamilton Spectator, too much overcome with the heat to tackle the African news, puts all that can be said in the two lines, "well, the Boer war had one end, anyway—the front end." That is right. It is much too like the Dutchman's dawg, ears cut short, and tail cut long.

FASHION NOTE.

Bobcaygeon Independent.

The masculine shirt waist does not appear to meet with general favor, in fact it meets with very general disapproval at the hotels. At the same time there is a strong demand for cooler clothing. Why not revive the Garibaldi jacket or blouse? That would fill all the wants and meet all the objections. It is not a shirt, it takes the place of a coat. It is loose, cool, becoming to all ages and forms, and has no association with a shirt. It is to all intents a coat, and yet it is not a coat. Neither is it in the slightest respect a shirt, and could be worn anywhere with perfect propriety. Adolphe Sniff will revive the memory of his old friend Garibaldi, and lead the fashion with a terra cotta colored Garibaldi jacket and brass buttons.

MISSION OF STRAY KISS

Disclosed a Murderer Who Escaped Justice for Seven Long Years.

A True Tale That Reads Like Fiction—A Southern Story.

Memphis, Tenn., July 23.—A kiss is the new factor in criminal records. It has broken the seal of a seven years' secret, brought a murderer to justice and revealed the man in woman's clothing who had for seasons deceived an entire community. "Jennie" Sears, of Huntsville, Ark., arrested as the man wanted for a crime committed in western Texas, was betrayed by a kiss.

The ethics of the kiss masculine and the kiss feminine does not so much enter into the evidence as the simple physical fact that "Miss Jennie" had so long neglected the barber. Therefore, when a little girl, carried away by the excess of her affection for the sweet young school teacher, threw her arms about her neck and planted her rosy lips full on "Miss" Sears' mouth, she became conscious of a curious pricking sensation. Being a child of an inquiring turn of mind, she meditated on the phenomenon till she evolved a theory, and it was her explanation of this unique discovery that led to the detection of one of the cleverest desperadoes that ever eluded the sheriff.

"Jennie" Sears had for seven years played the woman to an admiring audience in the little rural settlement of Arkansas. Her appearance was the immediate sequence of a singularly cold-blooded murder in the Lone Star state. The victim, an innocent young country girl, has been down to her death by a jealous lover, one Albert Sears, of whom all trace had been lost.

CHARMING YOUNG "WOMAN."

When a petite blond with sky-blue eyes and curly hair, armed with a good education and musical accomplishments—supposedly outcome of a course at the Cincinnati conservatory—sought pupils in Huntsville, she was accepted much as a gift from a benignant Providence. Charming, confident, young woman, with vast possibilities in the social line, are not an everyday occurrence in that region, and Madison county presently rang with her praises.

When a petition was circulated asking that she have charge of the county school, the susceptible trustees yielded without a dissenting voice. "Miss Jennie" entered on her duties in an atmosphere of worship from the gallants round about. Her manner of handling what might have proved an embarrassment of beauty to any less astute dame, however, only won her fresh enemies. She bestowed her favors with such unerring discretion that each thought himself the favored one.

The school prospered. The pretty young schoolmistress was eminently fitted for her task. She ruled her pupils by love, and for several years her life moved on like a peaceful tide. The disturbing element which suddenly roughened the current was a too ardent wooer, who in the person of a local politician pressed his suit in and out of season. The hesitation of "Miss" Sears was met with a hint that her suitor's influence might be brought to bear against her in her school appointment. This forced her hand. She promptly resigned.

THEN CAME THE KISS. The little drama, which had of course been witnessed by the entire country, only raised "Miss" Sears higher in public estimation.

The young kissing girl's story, at first discredited as childish imaginings, and finally believed, brought to mind other happenings, and link by link the chain of evidence was welded against the school teacher. So carefully was the matter kept from "Miss" Sears that when Detective Irving, of Baird, Texas, arrived with

A REMARKABLE DUEL

BOTH OF THE PARTICIPANTS WERE QUICK ON THE TRIGGER.

An Entertained Parade Preceded the Gun Play, Which Was on the Pull and Shoot Order—Why Bratton Was Glad He Lost His Right Hand.

"The most affectionate looking two handed gun play that I ever saw," said a Colorado gentleman in one of the house committee rooms, "was the one that happened at La Junta, in my state, between 'Big Divide Jim' Bratton and George Gannon, as pizenish a pair of real bad men of the type that has now passed away as ever fanned a .45 or twisted a Bowie.

"Gannon was the proprietor of the Gill Edge honkatunk in La Junta, and it was at this place that he had some trouble with Bratton. The argument ended by Bratton picking out of the door with his hands up, Gannon having the drop. Gannon didn't shoot then because his gun wasn't loaded. He had been cleaning it and had forgotten to replace the cartridges. He'd have killed Bratton, otherwise as a matter of course.

"That same night Bratton sent word to Gannon that he meditated shooting him up some on the following day. Gannon wasn't a man to take to the cliffs or the cactus, having plenty of notches on his gun barrel himself, and he walked around the next afternoon like a light battery of artillery. 'Big Divide Jim' Bratton bulged him, however, by turning a corner suddenly as Gannon paraded down the main street, and then it was Gannon's hands that went up for a change. Bratton had two guns covering him, and Gannon knew his gait.

"This," said Bratton, "is where I get an even break for my coin. Now, you like me so much, Gannon, that I want you to sort of show your appreciation of me by walkin around town linked arms with me for awhile."

"It was up to Gannon to comply with this peculiar request. 'Big Divide Jim' Bratton jabbed his guns back into his belt, and then he clutched Gannon's right arm and passed it through his right arm. The disadvantage of this arrangement accrued to Bratton. It left Gannon's gun arm free, while in case of argument Bratton would have to use his left gun. But 'Big Divide Jim' wasn't selfish.

"The population of La Junta was amazed to see 'Big Divide Jim' Bratton and George Gannon, who had already been more or less sore on each other and who had had a quarrel that meant the death of one or both of them on the night before, walking arm in arm up and down the main street of the town. It looked like a peripatetic love feast between the two of 'em. But they were watching each other like cats. At the end of the street Bratton, still with his right arm linked to Gannon's left, stopped suddenly and said:

"George, I ain't much on the blow about any gun suddenness that I may possess, but I sure want to give you a chance. You thrung it into me last night in a way that's eat up so much of the atmosphere around here that there's not enough air left in this neighborhood for both of us to breathe at one and the same time. I'm a-goin to count three, and when I say 'three' it's a breakaway and a finish. You've got a loose right arm, but I ain't no hog. One-two-three!"

"The event proved 'Big Divide Jim' Bratton the quicker man and the better marksman. He got Gannon through the heart, whereas Gannon's ball lodged in Bratton's right wrist. Bratton had to suffer his right hand to be cut off that same night.

"The last time I saw him was in a bunk. He was sitting on the edge of a bunk in his own cabin, close to a claim he was working. I hadn't seen him since he'd lost his hand.

"Jim," said I, "it's too bad you should have lost that right hand. If the fellow that plugged you had only got the left hand, why?"

"Oh, I don't know," said Bratton philosophically. "If I'd ha' lost my left, I wouldn't have been able to play the fiddle any more."

"He reached under his bunk and brought forth an old violin. Then he rigged up an attachment he had for holding the bow in his right stump, and he played the instrument real sweetly for me for half an hour or so.

"I couldn't have done no fingerin' if I'd ha' lost my left book, you know, I said simply when he put the old fiddle away."

The Result of His Study.
"I suppose you have made a study of human nature," remarked the friend.

"I attribute my success in life to that fact," answered Senator Sorghum.

"Were you ever tempted to give the world the benefit of your observations, to put them into book form as a human comedy or something of that sort?"

"My dear sir, it wouldn't take a book to do it. I have figured on the problem of human nature until I know the answer. I should just say, 'Human nature loves money,' and let it go at that."—Exchange.

Buttons.
Towne—For goodness' sake, what are you so cranky about?
Browne—Oh, I asked my wife to sew a button on my coat.
Towne—And wouldn't she do it?
Browne—Yes, but I've just discovered that the button she sewed on my coat she cut from my vest.—Exchange.

What Was Needed.
Henry Ward Beecher used to tell a story about a priest in the olden time who was called to bless the field of a poor farmer prior to the planting. He came and after surveying the soil remarked to the agriculturist, "Praying would do here; what you want is manure."

Strong Again.

The woman who knows the full value of health is the woman who has lost it and regained it; the woman who from being weak and sickly is once again made a strong woman. Half a million women have been made strong and well by the aid of Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription."

It cures the ills which weaken women. It regulates the periods, dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It nourishes the nerves and so cures nervousness. It promotes a healthy appetite and induces refreshing sleep.

"I had female trouble for eight years," writes Mrs. J. Dennis, 835 East College Street, Jackson, Ill. "Words cannot express what I suffered. I sought relief among the medical profession and friends urged me to try Dr. Pierce's 'Favorite Prescription.' When I commenced taking this medicine I weighed ninety-five pounds. Now I weigh one hundred and fifty-six pounds—more than I ever weighed before. I was so bad I would be from day to day and long for death to come and relieve my suffering. I had internal inflammation, a disagreeable odor, bearing-down pain, and such distress every month, but now I never have a pain—do all my own work and am a strong and healthy woman."

Use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets with "Favorite Prescription" if the bowels are inactive or irregular.

Testing His Temper.
"A year or two ago," said a young man to a friend, "I spent a few weeks at south coast watering places. One day I saw a machine which bore the inscription, 'Drop a penny in the slot and learn how to make your trousers last.' As I hadn't a great deal of money, I thought an investment of a penny to show me how to save the purchase of a pair of trousers would be small capital put to good use, so I dropped the required coin in and a card appeared. What do you suppose it recommended as the way to make my trousers last?"

"Don't wear 'em, I suppose."

"No."

"What did it say?"

"Make your coat and waistcoat first."—London Tit-Bits.

He Had His Doubts.
"You seem strangely depressed," commented the companion of the man who was leaving home to assume a new official position, "and yet I should judge that you were extremely popular."

"Why so?" asked the new appointee.

"They cheered you so heartily when you left."

"But my lot had not been because I was leaving?" demanded the pessimistic one.—Chicago Post.

It Was Dear Hunting.
McJigger—They say it costs $2,000 a shot to fire one of those big guns in the navy.

Thingumbob—Yes, I gave up deer hunting on account of the cost. The idea of paying $30 for a shot!

McJigger—Nonsense!

Thingumbob—Not at all. That's what the farmer said his cow was worth.—Philadelphia Press.

GRANT TO EARL ROBERTS.
London, July 23.—It is believed, says the Times, that a grant will be made to Lord Roberts in recognition of his services in South Africa, and to enable him suitably to maintain his Peerage. To provide this an additional estimate will be submitted to Parliament forthwith. The grant will be £100,000.

NOT YET SOLVED.
Ottawa, July 23.—A new theory in the river mystery is gaining currency. It is that Miss Morrison was taken sick on the Saturday night before the body was found, and that she leaned over the cliff above the river, when she overbalanced and fell into the river. When the body was found the stomach was empty, and Miss Morrison's hand satchel was found hanging on the fence at the place where it is supposed she fell over. A provincial detective is expected here to-day to clear up the mystery.

DUCKS IN THE SHELL

HOW THEY ARE HATCHED AND HELPED IN INCUBATORS.

The Young Bird's First Danger After Breaking a Hole in Its Shell Is Death by Drowning—No Swimming For the Growing Fowl.

Duck culture as a business proposition is not so simple as it seems. To one of all experts in this line the hatching and rearing of ducks are a comparatively simple matter, and there is a chance to figure out what the product will be from a given number of eggs. In this respect there is a difference between ducks and chickens, for a certain percentage of ducks can be raised and marketed under given conditions.

Through the eastern states there are many large plants devoted entirely to the rearing of ducks. One man, a pioneer in the business, keeps 2,000 breeding ducks in stock at all times and has such one as near a perfect specimen of its kind as can be found. One of the largest plants turns out about 50,000 ducks annually, and in the height of the killing season it is no exaggeration to say the feathers fairly fly on this place.

In this respect there is a difference between ducks and chickens, for a certain percentage of ducks can be raised and marketed under given conditions. The best point about the Pekins, in the eyes of the poultryman who is in the business for profit, is the rapidity with which they grow and the fact that they grow better out of the water than in it. It is a common thing for experts to raise Pekins that weigh six pounds when 10 weeks old. Ducks that weigh under the pounds at that age are a reflection on the skill of the poultryman who turns them out. An expert with chickens is not always successful in the handling of ducks, as the quackers need to be handled differently at all stages of their growth. A difference is found at the outset, as 28 days are required in which to hatch a duckling, while a chick needs only 21 days in which to complete the process of maturing and to enter into the world to scratch for a living.

The best work in producing ducks is done with an incubator, which will hatch more and better ducklings than an old duck or a hen. For incubating purposes the humble hen surpasses the duck, strange as it may seem. But whatever way it is hatched, the duckling is much more interesting and more valuable than a chick shortly after hatching.

A chick that cannot work itself out of the shell in short order is not worth bothering with, while a duck that is helped out of the shell is as good as one that scrambles out without assistance.

When the duckling is ready to hatch, it taps a small hole in the shell and then stops to consider it. It is a wise, wary creature, and it is not until it is sure of its own mind that it enters into the world to scratch for a living.

It seems odd to think that a duck would die in such an ignominious way, but practical poultrymen know that it is a danger that makes a difference on the wrong side of the ledger if it is not guarded against, which is an easy matter.

When the duck has tapped a hole in the shell, it lies on its back if it is a well-bred youngster. Some of them, however, will turn over on their sides, and the hole in the shell is beneath them. This wouldn't matter were it not for the fact that the duckling has its bill pressed against the opening in order to get air. When the egg is turned over, the fluid remaining in the shell flows to the opening, fills the tiny bill and the opening at the same time, and the foolish duckling chokes to death, unless some one happens along and turns the right side of the egg upward.

If the duck doesn't come out of the egg in proper time, the poultryman takes it out of the incubator and examines it. He breaks away part of the shell, being careful to rupture no blood vessels in the duckling, inserts a finger into the shell and yanks the duckling's head out. If ducklings express their feelings, they are certainly pleased when this operation is performed.

The ducklings, which look like so many fluffy golden balls, are left in the incubator to dry off, during which time they are as lively as crickets. They run and hop about, bump into each other and are continually searching for something to eat. From the first they are fed a combination of grains, with a large proportion of meat. The more meat they get, within reasonable bounds, the better they will thrive. With a proper degree of heat and suitable food, not more than 2 per cent ought to be lost.

But, above all things, they must be kept away from water. If they are allowed to pad in or run through water, they will certainly die or be so badly crippled that they will not be available for market.

They are allowed to drink only when eating, and then the water is absolutely necessary. Without it the ducks cannot get the food down their throats. They fill their bills with food, into which sufficient grit has been placed to fit out their digestive apparatus, and then try to gulp it down. The food is always moist, but they cannot force it down until they have run over to a fountain and washed it down with a swallow of water. They slop the water all around their quarters, into which dry earth must be placed frequently in order to keep down the dampness.

While the rearing of ducks is simple enough, as has been said, it is another matter to make a good profit out of them. They eat voraciously and must be killed at a certain time for pick properly.

For the first few weeks of early spring they bring good prices, after which the price depends on the supply and demand. One season, for instance, the first consignments of broods brought in New York city 50 cents a pound at wholesale. In a short time the price tumbled until it got down to 11 cents a pound, and there was no money in it at the latter figure.

Too Strong a Negative.
"It's pretty hard to select a wife nowadays," remarked Mr. Con Sect.

"The average girl of today doesn't know enough."

"I've found," replied Mr. Mittens, "that they 'No' entirely too much."—Philadelphia Record.

INJUNCTION SERVED

Two Railway Companies After Charter in Lincoln County.

St. Catharines, July, 23.—A special meeting of the county council was held here this morning to consider the by-law to permit the Hamilton, Grimsby & Beamsville Railway to extend the road from Beamsville to Vineland over the Queenston & Grimsby stone road. The Niagara, St. Catharines & Toronto Railway, which got the franchise at a former meeting of the council, have, it is claimed, failed to comply with the provisions of the by-law, and also neglected to put up a cash deposit, which the warden and councillors demanded, a guarantee bond having been offered in place of the cash, but refused. The warden stated that as the Niagara, St. Catharines & Toronto Railway people had not complied with the conditions of the by-law it had lapsed. As the council was discussing the question, Sheriff Dawson entered and served an injunction on the members on behalf of the Niagara, St. Catharines & Toronto Railway Company, restraining them from taking any action or passing any resolution by-law to repeal, amend or modify the said by-law, and to restrain the council from granting any franchise to any other person, firm or corporation, to the prejudice of the plaintiff. The council at the afternoon session gave the by-law of the Hamilton, Grimsby & Beamsville people its first and second readings, and then adjourned until the injunction, which is to be argued before Judge Carman next week, is disposed of.

SPLENDID SPORT

Many Athletic Doings at Walpole Island Yesterday—The S. S. Outing.

A large number attended the Park St. Methodist Sunday school excursion to Walpole Island yesterday. A very pleasant time was spent by all. Sports were indulged in during the stay at the island. The feature of the day was the baseball match between the married men and the single men.

When the boat whistle blew the score was 28 to 7 in favor of the single men, with the married men at bat. One of the professional married men, after the game, expressed his opinion that notwithstanding the enormity of the bachelors' score his side would certainly have won the game had they been given their innings. The feature of the game was the excellent catching of P. K. Morley and the splendid pitching of H. Westman. The following is a list of the players:—

Single Men—P. Morley, H. Westman, J. Osterhout, W. Piggott, W. Shillington, H. Jordan, F. Sheldrick, W. Hillman, J. Glover.

Married Men—J. Brock, J. Dyer, A. D. Westman, D. Winters, Dr. Thornton, M. C. Murray, Dale, Snell and Milton Bogart.

A number of races also were run. The excursionists returned to the city about half-past nine, each laden down with bows and arrows, canes, bark canoes, etc.

THE RACES.

Boys under ten years—Richard Pope, John Barfoot.

Boys under 15 years—Fred Munro, Roy Breen.

Girls under ten—Olive Hewson, Nellie Old.

Girls under 15—Pansy Pope, Nina Flater.

Married men—J. E. Brock.

Sack race—Chas. Trot.

Three-legged race—Albert Old and Arthur Ray.

WINNING

Maple City Bowlers More Than Holding Their Own in the London Tournament.

London, Ont., July 24.—The opening of the Western Ontario Bowling Association's tournament brought a large number of bowlers to the city yesterday from the cities and towns of the west. And more were expected last night and to-day.

The arrivals include bowlers who have not missed one of the six tournaments held under the auspices of the association, and who make the three days spent on the London bowling green the most pleasant of their annual outings.

Play was commenced at two o'clock in the afternoon and it will continue until Thursday evening or Friday morning. The prizes offered this year are exceptionally good.

Chatham is represented by one rink, composed as follows:—A. H. VonGuntzen, G. Merritt, W. Thrasher, J. Sowerby, skip.

Hemlock's rink is J. H. Ferguson, Geo. J. Gibb, John Mulholland, R. L. Gosnell, skip.

In the trophy preliminary both were successful. Sowerby defeated the rink of J. H. Brown, London, by 15 to 12, and Gosnell the rink of Dr. English, London, by 20 to 10.

In the first round Sowerby, Chatham, defeated Laird, Brampton, by 21 to 18, and Gosnell, Blenheim, defeated Dempsey, St. Thomas, by 19 to 14.

The annual meeting of the Western Ontario Bowling Association was held last evening in the reading room of the Tecumseh House. A large representation of bowlers, at present in the city attending the annual tournament, attended the meeting, among those being present were:—R. L. Gosnell, first vice-president, occupied the chair; also Messrs. J. McMichael, Sowerby, W. Brydone, Clinton; Col. McBeth, T. S. Clarke, J. K. Spry, A. Parfitt, T. Blakeney, J. McDougall, London; W. R. Jackson, Clinton; J. Sowerby, Chatham, and J. Mattinson, honorary secretary-treasurer.

The election of officers was proceeded with and resulted as follows:—Hon. President, Mr. D. W. Karn, Woodstock.

Patron, Mr. J. S. McMichael, Sowerby.

Chaplain, Rev. Canon Dunn, London.

President, Mr. R. L. Gosnell, Blenheim.

First Vice-President, Mr. J. H.

Brown, London.
 Second Vice-President, Mr. W. Jackson, Clinton.
 Hon. Sec.-Treas., Mr. J. Mattinson, London.
 Auditors, Messrs. J. S. McDougall and M. J. Kent.

HOISTING THE UNION JACK.

Ottawa, July 23.—St. Patrick's Literary and Scientific Society last night passed a resolution condemning Mayor Morris for hoisting the British flag on the twelfth of July. Drury Scott, president of the society, protested. The society upheld his actions, and said:—"Irish Catholics and all other Catholics were publicly insulted by the Mayor's act."

JAKE SKIN GETS TWENTY DAYS.

Cornwall, Ont., July 23.—Jake Skin, the red man who took possession of Colbourne's Island, east of Cornwall, and defied the authorities, was tried before the police magistrate. There were 200 or more Indians present at the trial. There was practically no evidence offered in behalf of Skin, and the magistrate sent him down for twenty days, with a warning that with the next offence he would get much more.

ARE READY TO FIGHT

Strikers are Keeping Ominous Guard in McKeesport and Pittsburg.

Situation Seems now to Indicate a Protracted Struggle With the Combine.

Pittsburg, July 23.—The strike situation appears as if the contending forces are settling down to a prolonged struggle. Wellsville and McKeesport mills do not appear likely to start up soon. Strikers maintain the ominous watch.

In McKeesport strikers are wary. Pickets along the streets stop all strangers, who are kindly but firmly asked to show who they are and how it happens they are in McKeesport. Little doubt remains that these mill workers intend to fight if the issue is forced.

Reports are rife that the United States Steel corporation will shortly make an effort to start up Painters mill of the American Steel Hoop Co. in this city. The Amalgamated men will do everything in their power to frustrate the company, and at the least sign of any activity on the part of this company the ringing of a bell or the blowing of a whistle, will bring the strikers to the scene without delay.

One of the most significant developments of the strike is the order from the officials of the National Steel Co. to have the former rail mill of that company, in Youngstown, fitted, for rail rolling again. The fact that the National Steel Co. is preparing to change its rail production and shut off its steel bar and billet production is taken as an indication that the officials of the United States Steel Corporation are anticipating no early settlement of the strike.

CYCLING ON SIDEWALK

Judge Houston Expresses Some Pointed Views Concerning the By-law.

As the Enactment now Stands, However, it Must be Enforced—The Remedy is Agitation.

"Gen. Grant, when his officers complained that the orders were bad, said, 'Let's carry them out and we will cause such a commotion that we will get rid of such bad orders in the future,' and I intend to adopt the same course with the bicycle by-law," said Judge Houston at the police court this morning. "The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it."

W. J. Taylor was charged with riding his bicycle on the sidewalk. He fought the case and O. L. Lewis appeared as his counsel. "Major" Fleet, the informant, was the first witness. He said that he had seen Mr. Taylor riding on the sidewalk on the west side of King street near the Riverside Terrace.

Mr. Lewis—"Did you get anything out of these informations?" Constable Fleet refused to answer and was sustained in his refusal by the judge.

Mr. Lewis—"Did you get anything out of this information?" The witness asked the court if he had to answer, and Judge Houston telling him to suit himself he refused to answer.

Captain Boles was the next witness. He saw a man riding on the sidewalk but couldn't swear that it was Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Lewis tried to show that the constable was responsible for the laying of the charge, but Judge Houston said, "I don't think that the constables are to blame. I don't believe in the bicycle by-law, but I don't think it is fair to jump on the people who ride on the sidewalk."

Mr. Taylor testified that he had ridden from the corner of his residence. Judge Houston in dismissing the case expressed his intention as previously quoted and said, further, "I have not heretofore fined any persons for this offence, but I want it distinctly understood that in the future I will fine any one who rides on the sidewalk even if they only ride a foot. The constables are only doing their duty, and I think that every freeman or constable who sees a cyclist on the walk should report."

"The by-law is very strict. It says riding on any sidewalk or foot-path, and I haven't the slightest doubt but that under its provisions every person who owns a wheel in the city could be fined. Instead of the newspapers pitching into the constables, they should get after the people who made the by-law."

Mr. Lewis—"You have got to excite an expression of public disapproval in some way to get the citizens aroused."

Judge Houston—"The by-law is too broad and I am afraid, according to a recent ruling of Justice McMahon, that I have not properly carried out its provisions. However, the Chief or Mr. Fleet desire to appeal against my decision to-day I don't think it would stand."

CRITICIZED

St. John Methodists Regret "Open Disregard of Lord's Day."

St. John, N. B., July 22.—The Governor-General's tour of the Maritime Provinces includes St. John, leaving on a special train, Sunday. To-day the Methodist ministers of this city, at their meeting, passed a resolution expressing regret at the "open disregard for the quiet of the Lord's Day, as evinced by the official tour of His Excellency the Governor-General, Lord Minto, being arranged so that he will leave this city on Sunday afternoon, thus causing a great deal of unnecessary work on that day, and greatly disturbing its sanctity. We specially deplore this in view of the offers being made throughout the Dominion to preserve the day for rest and worship."

PESSIMISTIC

English Premier Thinks the Tendency to Extravagance is Increasing.

London, July 23.—In the House of Lords to-night the Marquis of Salisbury made a pessimistic speech in support of the Finance Bill. The Premier said: "The tendency to extravagance is increasing. We have had no choice. We have had to protect ourselves and must pay the cost. For years public opinion was in favor of a pacific policy, but now that state of opinion has passed away. The tide has turned, and who am I and who are we that we should attempt to stem the tide? If the tide has turned, we shall have to go with it. We are in the presence of forces far larger than we can wield."

"The noble Lord," referring to Baron Welby, "has alluded to the celebrated passage in which Sydney Smith warned the American people against the dangers and the discomforts attaching to the pursuit of glory. No doubt it was thought at the time to be a very wise lecture. But has it been successful? Has he induced the American people to adopt his views. On the contrary, we know that one of the most powerful engines of the state consists of appeals to that national and imperial sentiment to which we have been so much bound to abide by."

TENNIS LEAGUE

Thamesville Made Very Good Showing Against Bothwell.

Thamesville, Ont., July 23.—In the sixth game of the Peninsula Lawn Tennis League series played here to-day, Bothwell, the leader of the league, defeated Thamesville. Considering the strength of the Bothwell club, the locals put up a much harder contest than was expected, the playing throughout being very even.

Summary:—Singles—Pudicombe, Bothwell, defeated Duncan, Thamesville, 6-4, 6-5; Todd, Bothwell, defeated Vincent, Thamesville, 6-2, 6-1; McMurrich, Bothwell, defeated Syer, Thamesville, 6-3, 6-4; C. A. Mayhew, Thamesville, defeated Brown, Bothwell, 6-4, 6-4; Reid, Bothwell, defeated Stewart, Thamesville, 6-1, 3-4, 6-3; Campbell, Bothwell, defeated W. E. Mayhew, Thamesville, 6-1, 6-2.

Doubles—Syer and Duncan, Thamesville, defeated Todd and Pudicombe, Bothwell, 6-4, 6-8, 6-4; McMurrich and Reid, Bothwell, defeated Stewart and Mayhew, Thamesville, 6-1, 7-5; Brown and Campbell, Bothwell, defeated Mayhew and Vincent, Thamesville, 9-7, 6-0.

MURDERER HANGED.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 23.—Elmer E. Barner was hanged this morning for the murder of his brother-in-law, Isaac Miller, last August, near Hallifax, Pa.

Barner was jealous of Miller, and accused him of intimacy with his wife. This led to a quarrel, during which Barner shot and killed Miller in the presence of his wife and children. Barner was cool and collected on the gallows.

INVESTIGATION

To be Made into the Charges Against U. S. Admiral Schley.

Washington, D. C., July 23.—Admiral Schley proposes to ask an investigation at the hands of a naval court of inquiry and then to sue Historian MacLay for libel. His action is the sequel to the developments during the past week, when the entire country, has been stirred by the publication of the attacks made upon him in the third volume of E. S. MacLay's history of the U. S. navy, in which publication Schley is said to have run away in "cautious flight," and is, in addition, denounced as a coward, a cur, and a traitor. The Schley court of inquiry will undoubtedly be one of the most celebrated in naval or military history of the country.

THUMPED SAM

Vicious and Apparently Unprovoked Assault Upon a Windsor Chinaman.

Windsor, July 24.—Sam Lee, who conducts a Chinese laundry at No. 2 Goyen street, was viciously assaulted last evening by an unknown man who afterwards escaped.

The man and two companions visited the laundry, and, after some words, they came out of the door, followed by Lee, who held a stick in his hands. One of the men turned back and followed Lee into the shop, where he assaulted him with a heavy cane. He struck him several times over the head, causing the blood to flow at every blow. He then came out on the street, remarking that he had got even with the Chinaman. By this time a crowd had collected around the door of the laundry, and some of those present tried to prevent the man from escaping. He intimidated them with his cane, and started to run west on Pitt street, followed by the crowd. When he reached the postoffice building, he leaped over the iron fence at the rear and made good his escape.

The physician who was called dressed Lee's injuries. There were several scalp wounds which necessitated a number of stitches.

BROKE RIB

Remarkable Injury to Master of the Stratford Collegiate.

Stratford, Ont., July 23.—A sneeze very nearly caused the death of W. W. Nichol, mathematical master in the Listowel High School, and whose home is in this city. He was in Toronto the latter part of last week, and hurt his side on board a street car. On Saturday evening a violent sneeze resulted in fracturing a rib and rupturing the pleura. Severe agony ensued, and for several hours Mr. Nichol's life was despaired of. He is now considered out of danger.
