Georgii II. Regis.

An Act for enabling His Majesty to raise the Sum of One Million for the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned ; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

En Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, having taken into our serious Consideration Your Majesty's most gracious Message, signifying Your Majesty's Desire to be enabled by Your faithful Commons to defray any extraordinary Expences of the War incurred or to be incurred, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty nine, and to take all such Measures as may be necessary to disappoint or defeat any Enterprizes or Designs of Your Majesty's Enemies, and as the Exigency of Affairs may require, have resolved to give and grant to Your Majesty the Sum of One Million for that Purpose ; and do therefore most poses before mentioned, or for the several Deficiencies or other Payments directed to be satisfied thereout by any Act or Acts, or any particular Clause or Clauses for that Purpose contained in any other Act or Acts of this present Session of Parliament.

Rules to be observed in the Application of the Half-pay.

And, as to the said Sum of Thirty four thousand three hundred and fifty seven pounds, fifteen shillings, and ten pence, by this Act appropriated, on account of Half-pay as aforesaid, it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid; That the Rules herein after prescribed, shall be duly observed in the Application of the said Half-pay; that is to say, That no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who was a Minor, and under the Age of Sixteen Years, at the Time when the Regiment, Troop, or Company, in which he served, was reduced; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, except such Person who did actual Service in some Regiment, Troop, or Company; that no Person having any other Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, shall have or receive any Part of the said Half-pay; that no Chaplain of any Garrison or Regiment, who has any Ecclesiastical Benefice in Great Britain or Ireland, shall have or receive any Part of the said Half-pay; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who has resigned his Commission, and has had no Commission since; that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any Person by virtue of any Warrant or Appointment, except to such Persons as would have been otherwise intitled to the same as reduced Officers; and that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any of the Officers of the Five Regiments of Dragoons, and Eight Regiments of Foot, lately disbanded in Ireland, except to such as were lately taken off the Establishment of Half-pay in Great Britain.

Clause in Act
31 Geo. I.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Thirty first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enabling His Majesty to raise the Sum of Eight hundred thousand Pounds, for the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; the several Supplies which had been granted to His Majesty, as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to the several Uses and Purposes therein expressed; amongst which, any Sum or Sums not exceeding Thirty five thousand One hundred and two pounds, was appropriated to be paid to the reduced Officers of His Majesty's Land Forces and Garrisons; subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf; Now it is hereby hereby probid, enacted, and declared, by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Sum of Thirty five thousand six hundred and two pounds, as is, or shall be, more than sufficient to satisfy the said reduced Officers, according to the Rules prescribed by the said Act to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall and may be disposed of to such Officers who are maimed or have lost their Limbs in the late Wars, or such others as, by reason of their long Service or otherwise, His Majesty shall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers, according to such Warrant or Warrants under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any thing in this Act, or the said former Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Decree or Decrees sustaining the Claim or Claims of any Creditor or Creditors aforesaid, shall not be so produced as aforesaid, in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, on or before the Fifth Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and fifty nine, such Claim or Claims shall not carry any further Interest to be computed from and after the said Fifth Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and fifty nine.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Barons of the Exchequer, or any Three or more of them, may, and shall, and they are hereby impowered, to settle and ascertain, with the Consent of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, the Rewards due for the Execution of this Act to the Officers of the said Court, and to issue Debentures for the same, which shall be paid by the said Bank or Banks out of the Money remaining in their Hands after the said Debts are satisfied and paid; and such Debentures shall be to the said Banks, sufficient Discharges for such Payments.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Officer or Officers of the said Court of Exchequer shall ask, demand, or receive, any Sum or Sums of Money from any Creditor upon the said Estate, in the Name of Fee or Reward, or on any other Pretence whatsoever, for or on account of their Trouble in executing this Act; and the Officer or Officers offending herein, and being thereof lawfully convicted before the said Barons, who are hereby empowered to judge and finally determine upon any Complaint brought against any such Officer or Officers, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds; to be levied and applied by the said Barons in the same Manner as other Fines payable in the Exchequer in Scotland now are, and shall further be found liable to repay to the Party the Sum or Sums so illegally exacted, with full Costs of Suit.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case there shall be any Surplus or Remainder of the Money by this Act appropriated for discharging all the said Incumbances on the Perth Estate, after all the several Claims, and all Arrears thereof, are satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for that Purpose, such Surplus or Remainder shall be reserved for the Disposition of Parliament, and shall not be issued but by the Authority of Parliament, and as shall be directed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament; any thing to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.
