THE SITUATION IN VANCOUVER

Everything Quiet and Orderly—First of the Prosecutions—Orientals Fined.

Vancouver, B.C., Sept. 11.—The day was quiet, but hotels and restaurants are still without Chinese help, and good square meals are not yet the order of the day. The body of a Chinaman was found this morning who had committed suicide by hanging. It was at first suggested that this was a murder, but an investigation showed that his mental condition was impaired, he being old.

Hon. Mr. Morikawa asked that the mayor have the militia called out for protection, but his worship declares there is no necessity of this, for since Saturday night no unusual occurrence has been noticed. Monday night it was stated that an attempt was made to fire the Japanese mission, but the quarters were strongly guarded the police cannot see how any one could have gone to such a public place without having been seen. The belief is that the Japanese themselves put the city waste under the building to arouse suspicion.

In the police court today there was a great array of riot cases and bowie knives and revolvers formed a conspicuous exhibit. Many Orientals were up for carrying concealed weapons and in cases that were tried the minimum fine of $10 was imposed. The magistrates in imposing fines stated that they had no objection.

That the authorities will not countenance any opposition to law and order was shown in the action of the magistrate in imposing a fine of $100 on a young man who attempted to pass the police into Chinatown. He said he was intoxicated and did not know what he was doing, but as he was not badly so the magistrate concluded he did. This is the first case of the whites in which a conclusion has been reached. In one other case, a young man charged with rioting was sent up for trial. Other cases are now proceeding.

New Westminster, Sept. 10.—The Swifts of Chicago, pack packing fame, are the capitalists who put up the money involved in the recent sale of the Fraser River Saw-mill, Ltd., and the Anacortes Lumber & Box Company. This is the first investment of the department of the interior, nominally Messrs. A. D. Macrae, of Winnipeg, and J. E. G. Macrae, of New York, were the parties who bought into the Fraser River sawmills, and it is they who are acting on behalf of the Chicago millionaires.

THE HUDSON BAY ROUTE IS NOW DEEMED PRACTICABLE

J. A. J. McKenna Presents Report on the Projected Short Line to Old Country Markets for Canadian Wheat. When Railway is Built 970 Miles Will be Saved in Transportation.

Ottawa, Sept. 11.—J. A. J. McKenna, of the department of the interior, has completed a report upon the proposed route of the Hudson Bay railway and navigation of Hudson Bay Strait. The report shows that the route is practicable. Fort Churchill is a satisfactory harbor and the contributory country can provide ample business for a port. A review has been made of all the reports on this subject. The latest report is from W. Thibodeau, who made an exploratory survey of the country to North Hudson Bay on the supposed railway route between Fort Churchill and Lepas, where the railway now terminates.

Fort Churchill Safe Port.
Mr. McKenna comes to the conclusion from all the material he examined that Canada has at Fort Churchill a safe port open for several months each year, and a site for a city with immense fisheries and large business in developing the mineral wealth deposited in the neighborhood. Thibodeau, in his report, says that Fort Churchill can be kept open all the year round with ice breakers. An ice breaker similar to that now in use between Quebec and Lewis would keep the harbor open the year round.

Railway Easily Built.
After covering the route from Churchill to Lepas, he says: "The total mileage of the route explored is 600 miles. It is estimated that the length of the line along the route explored would be 474 miles. From the exploration I am convinced that a good railway can be built at a reasonable cost almost anywhere close to the proposed location. What is absolutely necessary is good drainage through a country having so little slope. A railway to Churchill would be of the greatest commercial advantage to the people of the west."

Great Saving in Route.
Mr. Thibodeau then gives the reasons why a saving of 970 miles in the western provinces as against the Montreal route. Fifteen cents a bushel

WILL NOT REACH POLE.

Captain Amundsen Fears Wellman's Trip Will Fail.

Christiania, Sept. 9.—Captain Amundsen, the famous Norwegian explorer, interviewed by the Vedens Gang, expresses himself very despondently as regards the success of Walter Wellman's approaching flight by balloon to the North Pole. He says Mr. Wellman has only one chance in a hundred of getting near the pole, and this consists in the possibility of the balloon being caught in a storm and carried there.

Should Mr. Wellman descend in America or Siberia, Captain Amundsen says he will perhaps return alive, but never if he reaches the pole, as his provisions are totally inadequate.

Case Against Him Dropped.

Winnipeg, Sept. 10.—James D. Lawrence was released from jail yesterday, and the case against him, in which he is charged with alluring a Pilot Mound heifer from her home, has been dropped. Lawrence paid his fine for the sum of his brother's ticket on the C.N.R. on his return to the east.

People are beginning to realize the great future before the country," he said. "We are getting the best immigration—probably 90 per cent of what comes from the Old Country and the U. S.—of any country in the world. The people are optimistic, and in this regard I think the press has done much to cultivate the national feeling. I always give the newspapers credit, when I have an opportunity, for their good work."

UNFAVORABLE TO CHURCH UNION

It is definitely understood that the Baptist committee will report against the union, and there is no hope of a favorable conclusion from the Anglicans.

ENCOUNTER WITH BIG BEAR.

Lumberman Fought For His Life in Bush—Finally Shot Animal.

Robin, Sept. 9.—Albert Baldwin, more familiarly known as "Irish" amongst the lumbermen, tells of an interesting encounter with a bear the other day in the neighborhood of Hanbury's camps. He was wandering along with a rifle under his arm when he suddenly came face to face with a large bear with two cubs at his side. At sight of the man the animal stood up and showed signs of fight while the cubs scrambled up an adjacent tree. There was no getting out of the tangle, and in the excitement he took unnecessary aim. The bullet peeled the hide of brain's long nose, which merely maddened her. She rushed at him growling with rage and tearing at the bushes and shrubs with her paws as she approached. "Irish" beat a hasty retreat to a tree and was enabled to get another cartridge into his gun as he dodged back and forth behind this friendly obstruction, pursued by his obstinate foe. When it came to close quarters, however, "Irish" not only secured the carcass of the "old 'un," but also one of the cubs, the other escaping.

Gompers Wants Strike to End.

New York, Sept. 11.—Without hesitation of the telegraphers' strike has accomplished nothing towards at present, Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, left here for Washington last night. Gompers declared he would do anything in his power or make any personal sacrifice to bring the strike to an end.

MUCH PLEASSED WITH THE WEST

Hon. R.F. Sutherland Speaker of the House of Commons Is a Visitor to the City Yesterday.

Monday's Daily.
"You have a fine city here with undoubtedly the most beautiful townsite in the West," said Hon. R. F. Sutherland, Windsor, Ont., Speaker of the Dominion Parliament to a Bulletin representative yesterday afternoon. Hon. Mr. Sutherland during the summer has made a tour of Canada from ocean to ocean visiting every province of the Dominion, partly on pleasure and partly to obtain a wide knowledge of this country.

He came up from Calgary on Monday night and left again last night over the C.N.R. on his return to the east. This is the first time the Speaker has been west of Winnipeg and he is much impressed with western conditions. "People are beginning to realize the great future before the country," he said. "We are getting the best immigration—probably 90 per cent of what comes from the Old Country and the U. S.—of any country in the world. The people are optimistic, and in this regard I think the press has done much to cultivate the national feeling. I always give the newspapers credit, when I have an opportunity, for their good work."

Skeleton keys were found in his boots, and some of the goods stolen from Duffy's store at Broadview were still on his person.

RED DEER. Bulletin News Service.

Red Deer defeated Olds on Labor Day by the monster score of 12 to 11. The game was a ragged exhibition of ball from start to finish, but the score was largely due to the roughness of the ground. W. He was passed to first three times on balls and twice his pitcher, Steve, of course, counting no times at bat. Porter who was in the box for Red Deer was not very successful, although the support he received was certainly rank. The teams were: Red Deer Olds. Porter Catches Larsen. Richards Shields. On the Day of Atonement the Jews shut their doors to business and the great festivals occur during its days. From the first to the tenth are called the ten days of penitence given to the chosen people to repent their sins and prepare for the tenth day, which is the Day of Atonement.

On this day the ministers and readers are dressed in white instead of black, which is the usual color of the year round. The trumpet is blown on New Year's Day, and a blast on it at the close of the Day of Atonement marks the end of the solemn fast. In connection with this it is interesting to note that this trumpet is the only relic of the musical instrument mentioned in the Bible that is used in the present day service, and which has been used without interruption for the past ten thousand years.

The secretary referred to a letter from the secretary of the New Westminster fair, thought this was one year of all years that we should make an exhibit. The impression had gone abroad that this was an offshoot of the fair, and that it was not the case.

The secretary referred to the necessity of attracting manufacturers to Edmonton. He had written a number of letters to what industries they were offering. It was time, he thought, to consider how we should induce manufacturers to locate here.

Mr. Fisher pointed out that when the country presents difficulties, few prospectors have hitherto ventured here. Compared with travel here, it is a comparatively easy thing to state that the night rate there is not coming in, and there have been claims in a few big holdings for years.

AUSTRALIAN COAL ORDERED AT ONCE.

Vancouver, Sept. 9.—Appreciating the fact that market conditions and mine outputs all point to a shortage of fuel for domestic purposes next winter, Vancouver parties are now negotiating for the charter of a sailing vessel to bring 5,000 tons of coal from Newcastle, Australia.

The demand for domestic coal in Vancouver will be greater next winter than was the case last year even in the event that the coming cold season should prove milder than the last. During the past eight months tonnage has been added to the population of Vancouver and the outlook for coal supply is even worse than at this time last year.

Mr. Fisher pointed out that when the country presents difficulties, few prospectors have hitherto ventured here. Compared with travel here, it is a comparatively easy thing to state that the night rate there is not coming in.

WITNESSES IN LUMBER PROSECUTION ALL TELL OF DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Monday Daily.

The prosecution of the Alberta Retail Lumber Dealers' association has been in progress three days. During that time seven witnesses have been examined and cross-examined. The witnesses, Messrs. A. M. Grogan, secretary of the Alberta R. L. D. association; Geo. P. Woods, secretary of the Mountain Mills association; R. H. H. Alexander, secretary of the British Columbia Lumber and Shingle Manufacturing Co. (Ltd.), represent more particularly the organizations whose alleged machinations constitute the charge of conspiracy made against the members of the A. R. L. D. association. Each of the above witnesses had practically the same story to tell, namely, that they with one accord have destroyed the documents which were used at the investigation at Ottawa last winter. Secretary Grogan says he was highly displeased with the destruction of the documents, but that he was not on the committee which was formed to investigate the matter. He stated that he had access to the letters to papers. He revealed that when he obtained possession of them again he would put them out of the way. When he received the package from Ottawa he burned them without looking them over. Secretary Woods did the same thing. Secretary Alexander saved the minute book of the defunct coast millmen's association, and a number of letters and price lists which the executive of that association considered necessary for the inception of the business of the incorporated company which was formed last March superseding the old association. The effect of destroying the documentary evidence pertinent to the prosecution has placed the Crown at a disadvantage in obtaining specific examples of the charge mentioned in the indictment.

Lumber Sold to Members Only.

The witnesses Ambrose and Filtz gave evidence to show that it was difficult to obtain lumber in the district. The witnesses stated that they were members of the Retail Lumber Dealers' association. Ambrose distinctly stated that when he was in the district he purchased a car from the Standard Lumber Co., the management specifically inquired if he were a member of the Alberta association. The witness afterwards refused, presumably on the ground that he was a non-member. It also came out in the evidence that the Elk company, the history of the Skeed case and the Taylor cases formed part of his evidence, in which he stated the association was formed to protect the interests of the Elk company in the district. A committee of four the Mountain Mills association waited on Boynton, the Elk company to renounce against the practice of shipping to persons not members of the association, as being "bad business practices."

Local Rings Related to Provincial.

The evidence of C. R. Filtz was important in the fact that he was connected with the Elk company and election to the Alberta Retail Lumber Dealers' association indicated relationship to the Elk company. The witness stated that he was connected with the provincial association. His application was found in the documents submitted to the court by H. J. Helliwell, secretary of the local Lumbermen's association of Edmonton. The witness testified that he was a member of the Elk company and had practical experience in the district. He stated that he was a member of the Elk company and had practical experience in the district. He stated that he was a member of the Elk company and had practical experience in the district.

Secretary Grogan's Evidence.

The evidence of Secretary Grogan brought out the following facts: As secretary of the A. R. L. D. association he has a list of the millmen both of the Mountain Mills association and the B. C. Lumber and Shingle Manufacturing Co., Ltd.

That pursuant to a resolution passed in Edmonton the Alberta Retail Lumber Dealers' association, he sent to the millmen's associations lists of "legitimate dealers" in Alberta, which list was a list of the millmen of the Alberta Retail Lumber Dealers' association.

One of his duties was to consider and transmit the complaints of retailers to the millmen for shipping to consumers direct and to men who had no yards. No complaints save those of members of the association are considered.

That if he found that a certain mill continued to supply a firm or individual who was not a member of the association, he would call a meeting of the directors.

That F. D. Becker, a member of the Alberta association, attended a meeting of the Mountain Mills association in Nelson, reported to Secretary Grogan, who sent the gist of the report to all the members of the association in a circular letter.

Secretary Wells' Evidence. The evidence of Secretary Wells brought out the following points: That he wrote to the Enterprise Co., a retailer in Alberta, dealing with the complaint of this company because the King Lumber company were receiving lumber though not members of the association. The letter issued of the Enterprise company that Ross Bros., who made the shipment, would be disciplined.

That no shipments are made by millmen to municipalities or consumers. He never heard of any attempt to restrict the freedom of trade of any dealer in Calgary and practically refused to sell direct to the consumer, which, if continued all over the province, would put the dealers out of business. He did not know of any documents of the association used at Ottawa, were destroyed until he read the newspapers a few days ago.

The cross-examination attempted to show that the letters written by Becker were really those of Staples & Co. and had nothing to do with the trial in progress. Witness never heard of meetings of a local retail dealers' association outside of the province for in the by-laws. He stated that he as director, would consider all the applications for membership of dealers in the Calgary district. He never heard of any person refused admission to the association.

He never heard of any attempt to restrict the freedom of trade of any dealer in Calgary and practically refused to sell direct to the consumer, which, if continued all over the province, would put the dealers out of business. He did not know of any documents of the association used at Ottawa, were destroyed until he read the newspapers a few days ago.

With respect to his visit to Nelson he stated that he knew of no arrangement by which the members of the Alberta association had a stake in a meeting of the Mountain Mills association. He merely conveyed his business at Nelson he bring up the complaints to a body of manufacturer-

Secretary Alexander's Evidence.

The evidence of Secretary Alexander brought out the following: That the old Coast Mills association was superseded by a limited incorporated company, because they feared they were contravening the law. That members of the old association were required to take an affidavit that they would not cut prices, alter terms, nor sell to any but members of the association.

Also Burned Documents.

The witness stated that when he left the province he burned all the letters and papers that were in his possession and those that were used at Ottawa. He also burned the report of the Nelson meeting, which he submitted to the association in Calgary and to Secretary Grogan.

Speaking of Mr. Taylor, he said he was selling to contractors, and was not carrying any stock. He had no yard, Taylor solicited orders, and then would have it shipped by the Ladysmith Company. Witness stated that the association tried to stop the Ladysmith Company from shipping to Taylor, but could not tell what methods were used to accomplish this. He stated that Taylor was unable to get lumber.

Witness stated he knew of the local association in Calgary, i.e., the local Alberta Retail Lumber Dealers' association, which was formed in Calgary of the provincial association in the Calgary district. The local dealers used to meet for their own district around Calgary. Applications for admission to the provincial association were received through the directors in the local district, but such applications, as far as he knew, were not discussed by the local association, i.e., the dealers of Calgary. Witness admitted that if an individual applied for membership in the provincial association the local dealers would soon know about it through the secretary of the big association.

TUESDAY'S SESSION.

The preliminary hearing of the case against the Alberta Retail Lumber Dealers' association was continued this morning at 10 o'clock, after an adjournment from Saturday, before Inspector Worsley, at the R. N. W. M. P. barracks.

F. D. Becker, vice-president of the Alberta Retail Lumber Dealers' association, was called to the stand by the Crown. He stated that he had been in the province last May and is now in Savona, B.C. He is secretary-treasurer of the Mountain Mills association. He stated that he had access to the letters submitted to the court last Saturday.

Mr. Becker related the history of his visit to Nelson on behalf of the Alberta association to present the complaints of the association before the Mountain Mills association. He had business in Nelson which led to his being selected. He had no stock in the meeting of the millmen and merely stated his case. The action taken by the millmen was conveyed to him verbally by Secretary Grogan. The letter advised Mr. Grogan to be out of a price list when Lachner applied for admission to the association. He stated that if there was a third yard needed in Dadsbury the association should see that a "good dealer" be placed there.

Admitted Writing Letter.

Mr. Becker admitted that he had written a letter to the Elk company, the history of the Skeed case and the Taylor cases formed part of his evidence, in which he stated the association was formed to protect the interests of the Elk company in the district. A committee of four the Mountain Mills association waited on Boynton, the Elk company to renounce against the practice of shipping to persons not members of the association, as being "bad business practices."

Before and After.

Before the meeting of the association he was unable to obtain any discount, while afterwards a price list was given to him. In another case he received no discount that attributed to local jealousy. To Mr. Bennett's witness admitted that his application to the Alberta association had never been refused. He stated that he had been in the association in Edmonton. He has found difficulty in obtaining supplies to meet the needs of his trade. No flat refusals had been given, but the similar procedure had caused dissatisfaction.

To Mr. Woods witness stated that since he became a member of his party, the case of the Elk company was better and there was plenty of lumber this year.

WEDNESDAY'S SESSION.

J. W. McNeil, Lethbridge, was the first witness in the afternoon. He is president of the West-Edmonton Lumber Co., Ltd., which bought out the Lethbridge Lumber Co. The largest stockholder in the East-Kotnam was each director for four years in the lumber business in Lethbridge. The old firm was in connection with the association of the Behlerters, an employee of the Lethbridge Co. He attended the meetings of the West-Edmonton Lumber Co. Like other defendants and secretaries, had been careful to have a cleaning up about June whereby all papers and documents of the business had been burned and consequently he had no documents to submit to the court in answer to the witness.

Becker Cross-Examined.

To Mr. Bennett the witness stated that he indeed had the documents to join the association. There was no secret understanding that the by-laws should mean anything but what they say, i.e., the by-laws expressed the real objects of the association. He was merely stating from hearsay that the association had accomplished its aim in restricting sales to consumers and that his answer to Mr. Woods in this respect was, "I don't know."

Witness stated that he volunteered to bring the grievances before the millmen at Nelson. He did not go to the meeting and made his complaints to the millmen there. He did not know of any documents of the association used at Ottawa, were destroyed until he read the newspapers a few days ago.

Appointed a Director.

He was appointed a director of the Alberta association at the organization meeting at Calgary. His duties were to get all the dealers in his district into the association. He went on missionary trips at $5 a day plus railroad fare, to other districts to complete the organization. Your object in organizing districts would be to get them to sell at a stable price, would it not?"

"Not exactly. There are other matters such as grading, granting credits and in maintaining uniformity of prices."

"Are prices stable and uniform?" "No, they are not so in Taber. I cut myself at Taber."

Witness stated that the general custom of the association was to break away from the point of delivery, that is, 20 per cent, was added to the net cost. Freight was part of the net cost. The members of the association did not cut below this if they were not members of the association.

Witness stated that it was his duty to get the dealers who were not members of the association to work in harmony with the association. The association was opposed to selling to consumers. "What would you do it a mill sold to a consumer or contractor?" "The Enterprise Co. would not buy from such a mill."

"When the Alberta association meets are prices discussed by the members?" "No, I don't know what prices are outside my own district. It is a matter of honor to stick to a uniform price."

Witness admitted that the breaking of prices would constitute a complaint. He said he never complained through the association.

Witness identified all the letters, among which was a second-hand invoice to Mr. Helliwell to attend the meeting of the Mountain Mills association. A letter was read from Secretary Grogan to the witness stating that he (Grogan) was cognizant of the fact that witness was appointed secretary of the business end of the Alberta association in Edmonton and requestof the Alberta association was made indicating that there had been correspondence, with a view to establishing harmonious relations and a uniform policy, between the Western Retailers' association and the Alberta Retailers' association. The correspondence was not produced as it was among the 468 letters burned by Mr. Grogan.

Witness could not recall writing to C. R. Filtz, of Edmonton, acknowledging his application for membership in the Alberta Retail Lumber Dealers' association and stating in reply that his application would be considered by Mr. Macdonald, of Edmonton. There was correspondence before the court to this effect:

A list of members of the Alberta Retail Lumber Dealers' association and a list of dealers who are non-members were put in as exhibits by the counsel for the crown. These lists were prepared last May by Secretary Grogan in response to a request at Vancouver, now secretary of the Mountain Mills association.

Witness stated that he sent a copy of Becker's report to each dealer who was a member of the Alberta Retail Lumber Dealers' association only. The members of the association in Calgary had meetings which the witness attended. With respect to the price lists, witness stated that the association printed blank lists denominated the kinds of lumber material. The local association or dealers generally had the lists printed, stipulating the prices. Each local association did likewise.

Mr. Foblett came here from Dawson City to take up market gardening and has been very successful. He has a full line of vegetables and the secretary says his farm is worth paying a visit to. Driving on to the Copper Lake district the secretary found all the hay and barley and oats being cut. On the farm of Jas. McIlmott, who is government homestead inspector, he found thirty acres of oats that will yield between 25 to 30 bushels to the acre and about 35 acres that will yield about 75 bushels of wheat to the acre.

Thursday's Daily.
At the Police Court this morning before Magistrate Cowan two trunks were each given $5 and costs. A wages case occupied the attention of Magistrate Wilson last night.

The meeting of field naturalists called for last night was fairly well attended in spite of the very inclement weather. So many, however, who have expressed a desire to join were unable to be present that the meeting has been postponed until next Monday night, September 15.

Word has been received in the city from Hon. George A. Cox by his nephew, E. W. Cox, district manager of the Canada Life, that he will arrive in Edmonton on Thursday. It has been decided that the Canadian club will entertain Mr. Cox at the United luncheon, the date of which will be announced later.

E. Henratin, S. J. Truttsch, and J. B. Wallace are in city from Chicago. These gentlemen travelled from Winnipeg to Edmonton on the C.N.R. and stopped at Saskatoon, Lloydminster, Ver-million and other places for the purpose of seeing the land with which they are delighted. They purpose investing.

Mrs. O. Westlund is in the city on the way to her husband's farm, about 20 miles west of Morinville. The family have emigrated from Aiken, Minn., where they have lived for the last fourteen years, coming originally from Sweden. In Minnesota, they were very successful and acquired a large farm there, but the tales of the west attracted Mr. Westlund, and last spring he came to Edmonton and bought a farm. He still owns the farm in Minnesota, but is bringing all his live stock out here.

OKLAHOMA SETTLERS.

A party from Oklahoma composed of H. M. Rains, E. L. Porter, Dr. O. W. Wright, Chas. Sowards, and Noble McDonald arrived in the city on Sunday morning. Every member of the party is pleased beyond his most sanguine expectations with the country and weather. The party will leave on Wednesday morning by train for Fort Assiniboia on the Athabasca River on a land seeking expedition. Mr. Rains will locate as he finds things suitable. This party is the vanguard of a large number of Oklahoma settlers and investors and on their report many more will no doubt follow. The president of the Oklahoma bank, Geo. Sowers, a wealthy capitalist, is anxious to come and just as soon as he can dispose of some of his many interests there he intends locating in the Edmonton district.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Fred Gobel, who conducts a feed stable on Bellamy street, reports a narrow escape that he with his wife and three children had on Saturday evening. They were driving towards Stony Plain and when about three miles from this city suddenly came upon five breeds who were fighting among themselves on the road while their team of horses, wagon and a horse rick attached, were standing nearby. The horses took fright and ran towards Mr. Gobel's buggy coming down right on top of it, narrowly missing Mrs. Gobel, though only slightly, as well as breaking the buggy badly. The horses ran away and left the entire outfit on Mr. Gobel's hands.

Just then W. E. Gilmore and two other men from Edmonton came along and the party all returned to the city.

Mr. Gobel took charge of the two horses and is now holding them pending the payment of his claim for damages.

SHOT ON RIFLE RANGE.

Saturday afternoon while P. McNaughton, of the rifle club was practicing at the range on the south side of the river he was accidentally shot in the arm. Mr. McNaughton was lying flat at the hands of a spectator, standing behind, was discharged the bullet passing under Mr. McNaughton's body and entering his left forearm. The shooting though accidental was evidently due to carelessness. The bullet was removed by Dr. Braithwaite and the victim of the accident is about again to-day.

THE LICENSE WILL STAND.

The application to set aside the license granted the Y.M.C.A. at Jasper avenue, was refused on Saturday by Judge Harvey in Chambers. The application was made by the Temperance and Moral Reform league through the president, J. D. Blainey. The application was made by the league and obtained through fraud. The hearing lasted the greater part of Friday and after the evidence of License Commissioners H. W. B. Douglas, Jno. McKenzie, W. A. Deyl, chief license inspector, and Robt. May, the judge refused the application, not entirely on its merits, but on the ground of the technical objections that had been made by the league.

Chas. Grant, of Bishop & Grant, was counsel for the appellants and O. M. Biggar for the defence.

NEW C.N.R. PAMPHLET.

The Canadian Northern has issued a new pamphlet, beautifully bound in a buff-colored linen paper and finished with gold letters. It speaks of Canada as the granary of the empire and has several good cuts showing the industrious farmer working in his grain field. It deals with Canada's growing trade and speaks of the boundless optimism of the people. In its sketches of notable cities it places Edmonton as ranking fifth in Canada for buildings under construction during the past year. It shows many fine pictures of the city and vicinity.

BUSINESS MERGER.

A business merger of considerable importance was consummated last week, when Johnson & Hubbs, the west end jewellers at 118 Jasper avenue, and E. E. Cohoon, the optician, of McDougall avenue, joined forces the former firm buying a half interest in the stock and plant of Mr. Cohoon.

Johnson & Hubbs, although a comparatively new firm in this city, have established a reputation for reliability in jewelry and optical goods. Mr. Cohoon has had a long experience as a manufacturing and prescriptive optician in the United States. He was associated with the Boston City Dispensary, and the Boston Optical Co.

The union will make a strong business firm, and one which claims to have the only plant for the grinding of lenses, etc., west of Winnipeg.

DOWN FROM FORT RESOLUTION.

Mrs. Harding, wife of the Hudson's Bay company's factor at Fort Resolution, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Brabant, Sixth street. She was one of the party that came out recently on the steamer "Midnight Sun," and is on her way to Winnipeg to visit her mother.

At Fort Resolution, which is situated at the south end of Great Slave lake, the population consists of the missionaries and teachers, the men of the post and Indians, with the visits of occasional fur traders and the rare visits of explorers and scientific men to break the monotony. The mail comes four times a year and is now controlled by the government instead of as in former days by the Hudson's Bay company.

As at other points in the north, Mrs. Harding says that the Fort, the climate at Resolution is particularly healthful. There are frequent epidemics of grippe among the Indians, however, and these for lack of medical attendance, proper nourishment and nursing, are quite disastrous to them.

Notwithstanding the apparent drawbacks to a life so far removed from civilization, Mrs. Harding says that it has a pleasure and fascination of its own, that draws people back to it after they have once come to it. Mrs. Harding stayed a few days longer in the city and then resumed her trip to Winnipeg.

NO FROST AT ST. PAUL DE METIS.

At the immigration hall today Mr. Stier received a letter from L. G. Clark, of St. Paul de Metis. Mr. Clark says that up to Sept. 5, there had been no frost in that vicinity and that there are fine crops of potatoes and tomatoes. The grain is in splendid condition and everything taken into consideration the year promises to be a successful one for the farmers.

SMALL BLAZE AT NOON.

The first brigade was called out shortly after twelve o'clock today for a small blaze in residence of Alex Norquay, acting Dominion lands' agent, at the corner of Jasper avenue and 15th street. The fire had originated in a bundle of rags in the pantry and was extinguished without the assistance of the brigade, which was stopped at Tenth street by a messenger. The alarm was sent in from box 16, at the corner of 13th and Jasper, by someone who had seen the smoke in the house.

IS BY-LAW INVALID?

Opponents of the early closing by-law contend that the statute passed a second time some weeks ago, owing to the invalidity of the first, is also in the same position as the former, that it is also invalid.

It is contended that when the bill was given its third reading in the city council on the same evening as the previous two readings, Alderman Daly strenuously protested.

The city charter provided that any bill shall not be given more than two readings at any one meeting, except by unanimous consent of the aldermen present.

When seen by The Bulletin this morning, Alderman Daly stated that it was a fact that he had refused his consent to the third reading when the bill was up, but it was passed despite his protest.

No information has been laid as yet against violators of the new enactment, and thus no test case has come before the police court. In the meantime it is stated that the police are going slow till they ascertain the validity of the latest enactment.

DOWN FROM NORTH.

Thursday's Daily.
Bishop Brynart, O.M.I., vicar-apostolic of the Mackenzie and Yukon districts, who came recently down from the north on the "Midnight Sun," leaves today for Montreal. Father Roure, who has been thirty seven years engaged in missionary work at Fort Rae, on the north arm of Great Slave Lake, will return to France for a short visit. Father Husson is one of the best known residents of the north and vastly popular with white men and Indians alike.

The Bishop and his companions will return in late November to Ed-
