Town and County News.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—Remember the Wesleyan Strawberry Festival to-morrow (Thursday) evening in the Drill Shed.

The Star second nine beat the Atlantic first nine last night by a score of 21 to 13, five innings each.

BASE BALL MATCH.—Remember the match for the championship to-morrow (Friday) at half-past two p.m., between the Maple Leafs and the Pastimes, of Alton.

THE FIRE COMPANY.—There was a meeting of the Fire Company last night, when the men decided not to continue in the Company unless the Council raised their pay as desired. Their period of service therefore expires on the 30th, and as will be seen by advertisement in another column the Chief Engineer is now ready to enroll the names of new members who may be desirous of joining the Company. Applications may be made to him, or to Mr. Alex. Bruce, Assistant Engineer.

PHOTOGRAPHIC AND LITHOGRAPHIC VIEWS.—Mr. James Eason, who has here some four years ago, has revisited Guelph, for the purpose of taking photographic and stereoscopic views of the town and its immediate vicinity; and he does not doubt that our country friends especially will be glad to secure the services of an artist who has so much experience in the art. He is prepared to take views of public buildings, private residences, &c. Mr. Eason contemplates a visit to the various villages and municipalities throughout the County. See advertisement.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH FESTIVAL.—The Drill Shed, on Tuesday evening, was thronged with a large assemblage in response to the Committee's invitation to partake of luscious fruit, ice cream, cakes, &c. The fashion and beauty of Guelph were numerous represented, and votaries attended to bring an opera here, but owing to the absence of scenery this could not be done; but they will give an entertainment which will embrace choice selections from the operas, and the most popular ballads, the whole forming probably a more pleasing entertainment to a Guelph audience than an evening devoted wholly to opera would have done. The members of the troupe have a world-wide fame, many of them having appeared in all the cities of the Old World—at St. Petersburg, Russia; Milan, and Covent Garden, London. Their reputation in the United States is equal to that of any troupe of operatic artists now before the public; and we see the press of Hamilton and London, in which places they have just given a season of opera, give them a place in advance of any company ever visiting those cities. The sale of seats will open at Day's bookstore to-morrow morning, and we trust and believe our people will be soonly won by the troupe of such operatic talent visited this town.

GRAND CONCERT IN COSTUME.—A grand Italian Opera Troupe of Associate Artists, now making an operatic tour of Canada, will give one of their grand concerts in costume at the Town Hall on next Friday evening. The company intended to bring an opera here, but owing to the absence of scenery this could not be done; but they will give an entertainment which will embrace choice selections from the operas, and the most popular ballads, the whole forming probably a more pleasing entertainment to a Guelph audience than an evening devoted wholly to opera would have done. The members of the troupe have a world-wide fame, many of them having appeared in all the cities of the Old World—at St. Petersburg, Russia; Milan, and Covent Garden, London. Their reputation in the United States is equal to that of any troupe of operatic artists now before the public; and we see the press of Hamilton and London, in which places they have just given a season of opera, give them a place in advance of any company ever visiting those cities. ARRIVAL OF THE GOVERNOR GENERAL.—Lord and Lady Dufferin arrived at Quebec on Tuesday. Most of the Dominion ministers and other prominent gentlemen were on board the steamer, and were presented to Lord and Lady Dufferin. His Lordship was dressed in plain clothes, without ornament or insignia of any kind, he received the gentlemen presented to him in an easy and affable manner, entirely free from that official stiffness and affectation which usually accompanies such ceremonies. Indeed it is a misnomer to call the presentation a ceremony at all, for the frank, open, and cordial manner of his Lordship and Lady Dufferin at once put the company at their ease, and the affair passed off more like a sociable party of friends than an official presentation to the representative of Royalty. The pleasant task of handshaking with his Lordship and Ladyship concluded the party proceeded to land. The moment his Lordship set foot upon the wharf a salute of 17 guns from the citadel, followed by another from one of the Allan steamers up the river, announced the fact to the citizens, who by this time lined the streets by thousands, and were on the look-out for this signal. At the same moment, the band struck up the National Anthem, and the guard of honor presented arms. His Lordship, on being introduced to Major Montaubert, expressed his satisfaction at the soldier-like appearance of this portion of the Queen's army. The party then drove to Spencer Wood. At three o'clock His Lordship was sworn in as Governor-General in the Executive Council Chamber. Sir Hastings Doyle then delivered the Great Seal of the Dominion to His Excellency, who handed it to the Premier. The next order of proceeding was the presentation of addresses to His Excellency. The first was read by Mayor Garneau for the corporation and citizens of Quebec. Mr. R. Dobell, Vice-President of the Quebec Board of Trade, in absence of the President, read an address on behalf of that body to His Excellency. Mr. Murphy, of the St. Patrick's Society, also presented an address. His Lordship made suitable replies to these addresses. The usual formal meeting of the Privy Council was held, His Excellency being present, which only lasted a few minutes, when His Excellency again drove to Spencer Wood, where Lieut-Governor Bellenau gave an official dinner in the evening.

Fruit Growers' Association. This important association holds its regular meeting in Guelph, on Thursday the fourth day of July next. The sessions will be held in the Town Hall, commencing at one o'clock p.m., and continuing throughout the evening. The questions to be brought under discussion are important and have a very direct bearing on the successful cultivation of choice fruit. That pest of the apple orchard, the codlin moth, comes in for a share of attention. And we most sincerely hope that the discussion upon that subject will arouse the attention of every owner of an orchard to the importance, nay, the necessity, of the vigilant use of every means available which may result in a diminution of the numbers and the ravages of this small but destructive insect. The Pear tree, and its cultivation, and the Pear tree blight, will also be discussed; the plums and its varieties, and that enemy of the Plum, the Curculio, and how to destroy it, will be considered; while the fruit of the season, the delicious Strawberry and varieties most profitable, with the best mode of culture, will not be forgotten. We may expect at the same time to see some fine specimens of the Strawberry on the tables, for inasmuch as the exhibition of the Guelph Horticultural Society comes off on the preceding day, doubtless the best samples of Guelph's best fruit will grace the occasion. We expect this meeting will be one of great interest, and that there will be a large attendance.

THE GRAND TRUNK ACCIDENT. BELLEVILLE, June 25.—Two more victims of the Shannonville accident died this morning in the hospital. This makes a total of 30 deaths. Oliver Latham, of Montreal, died at 10:30 a.m. The deceased was a horse dealer, and was well known in racing circles. Up to the time of sending this despatch no more deaths have occurred. The rooms in the temporary hospital are becoming to show plainly the vacant places made by death. There are now only 25 patients there. Some will hardly live until morning; but good many are looking much better, and are sitting up on their beds. The place has been thoroughly deodorized, and much of the effluvia which had been painfully distinguishable during the last day or two has been done away with. The lady nurses and their male assistants have not relaxed their assiduous services, and yesterday several Church of England and Roman Catholic clergymen have been ministering to the sufferers, all of whom are most patient under their pain. The Attorney General has instructed the Crown Attorney to open an inquest upon the next fatal case that may occur, and it is likely that further evidence than that adduced will be brought forward.

Guelph Township Council. This Council met on the 21st inst., pursuant to adjournment. James Laflamme, Esq., Reeve, in the Chair. Present—Messrs. DeWitt, Dury, Harve, and Sweetnam. The minutes of 18th meeting were read and confirmed. The Reeve stated he had in accordance with the opinion of the Solicitor, forwarded $100, being the amount of reward offered for apprehending John Wilson, who has been convicted for committing the outrage on the Erasmus Road. Mr. Sweetnam, with leave given, introduced By-law No. 69, to provide for liabilities and expenses of the Township for the current year. The blanks were filled up in committee, and the By-law having gone through the several readings required, imposing the following rates: On the total amount of assessment which is $1,247,290, for County rate 3 five-tenths mills per $, $1,393,35; Government Grant for school purposes, six-tenths of a mill per $, $732.38; interest on Galt and Guelph Railway debentures, 1 mill per $, $1,237.20; Township rate, 1 five-tenths mills per $, $1,855.45; total $1,082.21. Mr. Wm. Parker was present and made a complaint against the passing of the By-law for stopping up and selling that portion of road allowance leading from the Ferguson Road to the Nichol Line. Moved by Mr. Darby, seconded by Mr. Hawes, that the By-law for the stopping up and selling that portion of road allowance leading from division C and D leading from the Ferguson Road to the Nichol Line be laid over till the next meeting of Council. Carried. The Reeve read a petition from James Fields requesting to be refunded a portion of the amount he paid for license, as three months had expired previous to receiving his certificate. Moved by Mr. Sweetnam, seconded by Mr. Benham, that the petitioner, Jas. Fields, be refunded the sum of $5, as three months had expired previous to the license being granted. Carried. The following accounts were presented and ordered to be paid: From Robert Brydon, for gravel, $2; Dunn & Keating, printing, $3; John Anderson, school account and stationery, $4.15; A. McCorkindale, Clerk, for Ontario Statutes, express charges and postage, $4.75. The Clerk applied for $65 on account of salary which was granted. The Reeve issued his order on the Treasurer for the amount. It was then moved and seconded to adjourn till Monday the 4th day of Sept. A. McCORKINDALE, Clerk.

Some 50,000 dozen eggs were shipped weekly from Morrisburgh, Dundas County. A wife in Indiana has been granted a divorce on the plea that her husband had refused to assist her on washing days. SALE OF CATTLE.—Yesterday Messrs. Satchell Bros., of Ottawa, bought a car load of very nice cattle from Mr. John West, and shipped them for the capital. The sash factory of Mr. Brennan, Hamilton, was burned down on Tuesday, also the cooorage of Mr. Eoyd. Loss heavy. A man near Vernon, named Liseubn, committed suicide on Tuesday morning by cutting his throat while holding potatoes, his mind having become deranged by stunkrose a few days previously. The camp at Niagara is now being broken up. Some of the troops took their departure on Tuesday, and the last are expected to leave on Thursday. The camp is considered this year to have been eminently successful in imparting useful instruction. The Synods of the Church of Scotland and of the Canada Presbyterian Church, the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, the Congregational Union, and the Bible Christian Conference, have all agreed to observe the 14th of November as a day of thanksgiving. BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.—The June number of Blackwood has been received from the Leonard Scott Publishing Company. It is an excellent number. The contents are:—Part II of the Mail of Sker; Thackeray in America; Zanibar—A Review; Part IV of True Reformer; Reviews of new books, and The Downward Course—being a criticism on the present Government. For sale at the bookstores. Colonel Stuart Knox has given notice that he intends to ask the Irish Chief Secretary whether his intention has been directed to the great increase in intoxication in the North-West of Ireland, caused by the use of ether and mixture of naphtha and ether sold by chemists and grocers; and if so, if he is prepared to take steps to put a stop to the abuse, and deter parties from turning their establishments into dramshops. THE DAYS GONE BY.—An ungalant newspaper man remarks:—"We have a hazy sort of remembrance that it was once the pride of women to walk erect in stature, but at the present time, from the appearance of the ladies in our streets, the larger the hump they can build upon their backs the greater their satisfaction therat. We saw a lady (we suppose she was, at all events) on Sunday who would have put the biggest dromedary completely in the background, and she seemed perfectly serene about it, too."

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

THE BALLOT BILL PASSED.

THE TROUBLE IN SPAIN.

The Geneva Arbitration.

London, June 25.—At the session of the House of Lords to-night, the Ballot Bill as amended by that body, passed its third reading.

Madrid, June 25.—Several small Carlist bands which have been lurking in Andalusia formed themselves into one body near Jerez, and entered that town and threw up barricades. The insurgents were however soon compelled to leave, as a force of Government cavalry attacked them and drove them from the town. They were pursued by loyal forces who captured 100 prisoners.

London, June 25.—Special despatches from Geneva to London papers state that the Tribunal of Arbitration will meet again at 11 o'clock on Thursday morning. The American representatives before the Tribunal in consequence of the confusion of English dispatches misapprehended the intention of President Grant and Secretary Fish who did not definitely withdraw the claims for indirect damages. The majority of the Board of Arbitrators are in favour of a longer adjournment of the Tribunal than a fortnight. The English representatives will leave Geneva on Thursday, and it is therefore supposed that an important decision will be given by the Board on Thursday.

St. Louis, June 25.—The Daily News says that American agents to be non-suited in its case before the Board of Arbitration so far as indirect claims are concerned.

New York, June 26.—A Geneva special at 10 o'clock says that the summary of the position of the United States is the withdrawal of nothing of its claims. Both parties are fairly before the Tribunal; England, however, persists in her demand for a longer adjournment, but it may be received as certain that a long adjournment will not be granted. It is certain that a majority of the Arbitrators will vote against adjournment for a longer period than a fortnight.

A Washington despatch says that in consequence of the severe and protracted drought throughout almost the entire cotton growing region in the Spring three weeks behind, the crop is considered three-fourths of a normal yield. It is expected by a most favorable Fall. It is thought the yield will fall 1,200,000 bales behind that of 1870.

The camp at Niagara is now being broken up. Some of the troops took their departure on Tuesday, and the last are expected to leave on Thursday. The camp is considered this year to have been eminently successful in imparting useful instruction. The Synods of the Church of Scotland and of the Canada Presbyterian Church, the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, the Congregational Union, and the Bible Christian Conference, have all agreed to observe the 14th of November as a day of thanksgiving. BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.—The June number of Blackwood has been received from the Leonard Scott Publishing Company. It is an excellent number. The contents are:—Part II of the Mail of Sker; Thackeray in America; Zanibar—A Review; Part IV of True Reformer; Reviews of new books, and The Downward Course—being a criticism on the present Government. For sale at the bookstores. Colonel Stuart Knox has given notice that he intends to ask the Irish Chief Secretary whether his intention has been directed to the great increase in intoxication in the North-West of Ireland, caused by the use of ether and mixture of naphtha and ether sold by chemists and grocers; and if so, if he is prepared to take steps to put a stop to the abuse, and deter parties from turning their establishments into dramshops. THE DAYS GONE BY.—An ungalant newspaper man remarks:—"We have a hazy sort of remembrance that it was once the pride of women to walk erect in stature, but at the present time, from the appearance of the ladies in our streets, the larger the hump they can build upon their backs the greater their satisfaction therat. We saw a lady (we suppose she was, at all events) on Sunday who would have put the biggest dromedary completely in the background, and she seemed perfectly serene about it, too."

Centre Riding Reform Convention.

In consequence of the change made in the Centre Riding of this County, by the addition of Peel, it has been deemed advisable to call a new Convention, at which Mr. Ross's nomination, made at Marsville last January, may either be confirmed, or another candidate selected. This Convention will, accordingly, be held at Elora on Tuesday first, at Elora Hotel, at 2 o'clock. The Municipalities composing the old Riding will be represented by the delegates formerly chosen to attend the Marsville meeting, and the Reformers of Peel will meet on Friday, at Goldstone, to choose eight delegates to represent their Township.

We trust that every delegate will make a point of attending, and we have no doubt they will come to such a conclusion as will secure the union and triumph of the party at the forthcoming election. If the Riding has lost two Townships in which the Reform element was largely predominant, it has gained a Township in which that element is equally strong and united. The Reformers there are indignant at the Government, which, to please Mr. Drew, and make him more secure of his seat, cut them off from their old Riding where in days past they had done noble work in the cause of Reform. And we are satisfied they will take as prominent a position in the Riding to which they now belong, and work heart and hand with the Reformers in the other municipalities, for the triumph of their principles and the election of their candidate. There is not a Tory in the Centre Riding—except, perhaps, Dr. O'Connell himself—but he will be beaten. The jealousies and animosities are being revived among the Conservatives, since the doctor's nomination, who, by a system of delicate manipulation and flattery on the part of Mr. Drew, and his low-wor of a partner, has been gradually elevated up to the point of standing for a candidate only that he might be sacrificed by these two wolves in sheep's clothing who could not brook any other Conservative member in Wellington. Mr. Geo. A. Drew, we would pity the doctor were it not that his own ambition has also urged him on to take this final step in order to secure a political position for which he is not by any means well fitted. That he will be beaten is as clear as the sun at noon-day, and then Drew and his lieutenant, while weeping over the tears before him, will secretly chuckle with delight at his downfall. George A. Drew is not enough for Wellington. To have one opponent in John A. is to have one competitor at his back-stairs, especially while he himself is that highly honored individual.

The Tories and the Bonus Question.

Some two weeks ago the Guelph Herald, in order to make a point against the present Ontario Government, accused it of injustice to the County of Wellington, because it did not refund to this County a portion of the bonuses granted to the Wellington, Grey & Bruce Railway by the different municipalities of the County, as was done to the County of Bruce. We did not take any notice of the Herald's article at the time, because its statements are so completely worth nothing, as they are in nine cases out of ten based on false statements which it has distorted or colored to suit its own object. We notice, however, that the Warden of the County, at the Tory meeting at Ferguson on Saturday, repeated the same complaint. We are surprised that a gentleman of Mr. Mair's intelligence and fairness would be induced to make such an erroneous view of the case, or that he should be so ignorant of the facts on which he seeks to base his charge against the Government. The Warden knows, or ought to know, that the bonuses given to the municipalities in this County to the railway were unconditional. So was the bonus first given by the County Council of Bruce. But the Railway Company were unable to take advantage of that bonus, as they could not build the road to the Bruce line within the time specified in the by-law. The Company, with the consent of the County Council of Bruce, got a special Act of Parliament, passed extending the time for the construction of the road, but on the express condition that if the Company received a bonus from the Government so much of the County bonus should be refunded. Here, therefore, was a special Act of Parliament, passed during the Sandfield Administration, which no future Government could overrule or ignore.

The statement that Mr. Mair had not received a cent from the Government in the shape of railway bonus is not correct. Before the last Government bonus was granted, the line was built to Harrison, and the road running on to it. But no bonus had been provided for the construction of the seven miles from Harrison to Clifton, and in the scheme brought down by Mr. Mair, and confirmed by the Legislature, a bonus was granted to that section of the road, also to the balance of the line from the Wellington boundary to Southampton. The Warden forgets that the Government aid was granted only to portions of lines to be built, not to those portions already constructed, and in running order.

A Trumped-up Demonstration.

Mr. Drew's pocket organ—by which we mean the Elora Times—groves quite jubilant over a proposed political demonstration which is expected to come off shortly at Clifford, and to which John A. Macdonald, Hincks, Tipper and other heavy Tory guns have been invited. This place is considered the best centre from which will radiate the pure Conservative doctrine, which it is expected will influence the electors in Wellington, G. E. and Bruce. George A. is badly in want of a few defenders of his votes, and he thinks if only John A. would come up and show his face in Wellington it would be all right, and all the rest of things, very much friendly lift, and he will need it a great deal more before Dr. Landerkin has done with him. Sprout is beginning to get rather shaky in Bruce, and needs his neck stiffened before the contest commences. It was a capital idea, therefore, to get the three comforters, in the shape of three ministers, to come to Clifford. But we are afraid they will turn out to be no better than were Job's comforters, for after they feel the public pulse about Clifford, they will come to the conclusion that the three members are in a bad way, and the wisest thing to do is to leave them to their fate, and to the political death that awaits them.

The Plough Trick.

The Elora Times tries in a clumsy sort of way to get off a little banter about Mr. Drew's plough trick, which he successfully performed last year, and which we explained in a former issue. As the Times asserts that none of the ploughs were entered free of duty, we accept the statement. But will the Times oblige by telling us when, and by whom, the duty on the two ploughs first taken out were paid, and then also inform us if Mr. Drew has yet been paid the duty he advanced on these ploughs unknown to the owner, who innocently imagined that through the supreme influence of his "member" he was getting his ploughs out duty free. Herein lay the trick which was so deftly performed by that great political necromancer Mr. George A. Drew.

ELECTION NEWS.

Mr. Alexander Hill has been nominated the Reform candidate for Welland, in opposition to Mr. Street. The nomination of Mr. M. Cameron for South Huron has been made unanimous. Mr. Gavin Fleming, of Glenora, a man of great ability and a most reliable reformer, has been nominated Reform candidate for North Brant.

MEAN AS USUAL.—The Hamilton Times of Saturday credited us with a paragraph which never appeared in the Mercury, respecting the defence of the Provincial Government. We took occasion on Monday to correct our contemporary. Yet the Herald, in the face of this denial, has the goodness a Tuesday to repeat what the Times said, and seeks to father on us a paragraph reflecting on our Reform contemporaries which appeared in its own columns, and which the Times by mistake credited to us. This is a fair sample of the honour which the Herald brags of.

When, therefore, about 25 years ago, of the Township of Elora, committed suicide by hanging her self to a pine tree. It is a parcel she first attempted to burn herself, for when the body was discovered her clothes were so full of pins and needles. The cause of the crime is supposed to have been disappointment in love.

CHAPTER III. WHAT KENNETH AND THE ITHERS FOUND

Kenneth was now free to proceed to his own residence, and as he walked up the slope carrying his little burden, he grew anxious as to the state in which he might find Lucy. He had been absent for fully two hours, and if in the interval she had awaked and learned whether he had gone, he dreaded the effect.

His fears were groundless. On entering the bed-chamber he found his young wife sleeping as calmly as before, and Beattie, the maid, informed him that she had been going in and out of the room every few minutes, and she had never stirred. The druggist who had been called to do his work effectually and well.

His purpose was to place the sleeping boy in bed by Lucy's side, and preparatory to this he removed the rest of the wrappings which still enveloped him, the last being a soft, warm, richly-patterned Indian shawl, which must have been wrapped round the boy before the vessel struck, for while it was damp outside the inner folds were not wet, and the child's own dress beneath was perfectly dry.

As Kenneth unfolded the windings of that soft downy shawl, he reflected with mournful sadness that the enveloping of the little limbs in its protecting folds was in all probability the last act of the dead mother's care.

The dress of the child, which was now revealed, he noticed to be exceedingly neat and useful, and made of such materials as showed that it had been made to those who were, if not rich, at least highly refined. But, indeed, the whole appearance of the child showed this, as did also the delicate signs of being that of a noble.

Ken. He contemplated with a mixture of pity and admiration the shoes and stockings, which with great care he laid the sleeping child by the side of his sleeping wife, and drew the warm blankets over both.

Then he stood for many moments gazing down upon them, and had no doubt given to what he had done and thought. Well did he know that Lucy would surely endorse all that he proposed, and take to her heart, as he had done, the poor fatherless orphan babe cast on her care in such sad and sorrowful circumstances. The little stranger, with its shawl and its shoes, lay by the side of her own little Lucy, and would be remembered not to be the mother of which she had been deprived. This would be a boon to her, and she would be comforted by the two growing up to render her happiness as a mother. Now, though she was separated from her own children, she was not separated from her own little Lucy, and she would be comforted by the two growing up to render her happiness as a mother.

As at four or two night till dawn, Kenneth thought he would embrace the opportunity of taking note of the child of the wreck. Bringing his materials, therefore, to the window—from which he leisurely made a faithful transcript of the scene, he looked at the child in the view he had just had of the place and its dead features. In every real and terrible manner he had been presented to him, circumstances which formed every feature into his mind, and now he would have no difficulty in adding it to his picture, with all the possible minutiae and telling power which reality always conveys.

Engaged thus, for two hours were passed unperceived, and first as he was putting the last touch to the sketch he had so carefully taken, a rattle of the door, which he had just closed, intimated that Lucy was about to awake.

In haste he threw down his pencil and ran to the side of the couch, and the first thing his darling child had when she opened her eyes might be the smiling face which she so dearly loved.

HASTY CONSUMPTION CURED BY FELLOWS' HYPOPHOSPHITES.—Caribbean, Newfoundland, Barb. J. 1871. Mr. James I. Fellows, Barb. St. I came to this country in May 1871. I found a countryman of mine in a bad state of health, and he was suffering under some affection of the lungs. I recommended your Syrup, tried at the Dispensary in Harbor Grace, but they thought I was inventing the name at their expense. However, in April, 1870, Mr. E. J. Jones rapidly wasted away with every symptom of quick consumption, so that he was unable to walk across the room, having no appetite, pains in the left side, nervous system unstrung, dry, hacking cough, &c. Fortunately I learned that your Syrup could be obtained at Mr. Deane's, in St. John's, and immediately procured some (showed one to W. H. Thompson, who ordered a supply at once). This was Tuesday afternoon; at night he took the prescribed dose, and in the morning he described the very results notified on the wrapper. His appetite soon began to return, and a voracious one it was; the dry, hacking cough gradually changed into loose but violent attacks, finally disappearing altogether; pains left his sides, his hand assumed its usual steadiness, and before he finished ten bottles his health was quite restored and he was a more healthy person than he had been for many months; and it is the opinion of all, had he not been fortunate in getting your valuable Syrup of Hypophosphites, he would now be in his grave. I also recommended it to another consumptive, but have not heard from him since, as he lives in a distant part of the Island. Having this will give you some encouragement. I remain yours, &c., D. H. Brimmer.
