Parish Notes

The Easter Services were, as usual, bright and hearty, and attended by full congregations. At the three celebrations there were 300 communicants, not including those who received privately and on Easter Tuesday. The offerings for the day, as will be seen from the statement above, were considerably in excess of last year.

Nevertheless, the financial statement of the Wardens, which was distributed before Easter, shows a deficit on the year's income. It was strongly felt at the Vestry meeting that an addition to the number of weekly envelope subscribers was necessary to bring the income up to the amount required for church expenses. It is only necessary to call attention to the matter, for there must be many who are under the impression that the Sunday offertory is sufficient for all needs. Let the Wardens know that you are willing to aid them in their responsibility by assuring them of a regular offering each week.

Mrs. Kenrick is sailing for England on the 26th inst. All our readers will wish her bôn voyage! She will be accompanied by Mr. Kenrick, who has had no release from continuous work for over a year, and needs some rest. His place will be taken on four Sundays of his absence by the kindness of the Provost, Professors Jenks and Duckworth, and Mr. Hibbard. We wish him renewed health and strength for the autumn work.

The members of the Sanctuary Guild acknowledge with grateful thanks the following donations towards the Easter decorations:

Mr. F. J. Gosling, $5.00; Mrs. Campbell Reaves, $3.00; Mrs. Charles Nelles, $2.00; Miss E. Boulton, $2.00; Mrs. John Cawthra, $1.00; Mrs. O'Grady, $1.00; Miss Street, 50c.; Miss Patton, 50c.; Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Bohn, Misses Greening and Ogden 25c. each; Mrs. Da Costa, Mrs. Morson and Miss Keating, Easter lilies; Miss Cayley, lilac bush. Mrs. George Biggar has kindly become a subscriber of $4.00 a year to the flower fund of the Guild.

Some companies are not satisfied with their work until they see their name on it. But the Gardner Paving Co.'s work is so excellent that it speaks for itself. Just see it at 205 John St. and judge.

EASTER VESTRY

The Rector reported the suggestion of several clergy and others to bring the question of a Canadian Church Hymn Book before the Synod, and their request for the concurrence of the Vestry. On motion it was decided not to favor the project.

Teachers and Officers, to the Sanctuary Guild, to the Chairman and Sidesmen: and warm appreciation expressed of their valuable work, by which the efficiency of the church in the Parish is maintained and increased.

The business of the Vestry being ended, the Rector closed the meeting after a few words expressive of the general harmony and good feeling.

The election of Lay Representatives to the Synod then took place.

It was moved by Mr. Weller and seconded by Mr. McMurray that Messrs. C. R. W. Biggar, H.

W. M. Murray, and G. F. Harman be re-elected. There being no other nominations the Rector declared these gentlemen as being unanimously elected to represent the Parish. The meeting then adjourned.

THE CONFIRMATION

The day of the Confirmation was fixed for Tuesday, 2nd May, but as our own Bishop could not be with us, the Bishop of Ottawa most kindly came to confirm our candidates at St. George's, and with ours the young people from the Church of St. Mary Magdalene. Altogether there were fifty-four confirmed, of whom thirty-two were ours. The church was filled by the candidates and their friends, and all were greatly impressed by the solemn service. It was in the month of May, just ten years ago, that the same dear Bishop confirmed our candidates, and therefore we were prepared to welcome him again. We were not disappointed and we can only feel thankful, in the absence of our own Bishop, that our young people had the privilege of listening, we doubt not, and taking heed to his earnest and helpful words. On the Sunday following, almost all who were confirmed received their first communion.

The following are the names of those confirmed:—
