The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Manuscript Division
Public Archives of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol —> (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Division des manuscrits
Archives publiques du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole —> signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PROSPECTUS

NEW ILLUSTRATED HISTORY

OF

PROVIDED sufficient encouragement is extended to the enterprise it is proposed to bring out an Illustrated History of Toronto and the County of York, which will contain:—

I.—An Outline of Canadian History from the landing of Jacques Cartier; reviewing the Indian, French, and American wars; the explorations, discoveries, and vicissitudes of the voyageurs, missionaries and early pioneers; the national and political changes through which the country has passed during the periods of French and British rule; and ending with the present epoch of material development and progress. This part of the work will contain finely executed portraits of a number of leading Canadians, both of native and foreign birth, whose lives and labours have helped to form the history of the Dominion, and so largely contributed to make the country what it is to-day.

II. A Resume of Facts connected with the founding of the city of Toronto; a history of the growth and development of its municipal, parliamentary, and judicial systems; a record of its commercial life, lake traffic, and railway enterprises; together with incidents connected with its industrial and social progress; notices of its public men and well-known citizens, and other matters of interest to the community relating to the "Toronto of old" and Toronto of to-day; all of which will be interspersed with suitable illustrations.

III.—A History of the County from its earliest settlement, carefully compiled from authentic sources, with special chapters on its topographical and geological characteristics, and natural advantages; together with all such facts and incidents connected with the early settlements as will prove interesting to the present generation, and tend to preserve for a future age the story of the heroic part played by the pioneers in conquering from the wilderness this fair domain, now one of the most advanced and progressive sections, not only of the Province, but of the whole British Empire. This portion will deal with all matters of general interest comprised within the scope of a county history; including municipal organization and parliamentary representation; the military record of the "Men of York" in the stirring times of '12 and '37; political topics and incidents; organization and growth of religious and educational institutions; the advancement made in manufactures, arts, agriculture, etc., etc.; all ably written, and presented in a concise and attractive form.

IV.—A Descriptive History of towns, villages, and townships, with interesting facts connected with the local records of each, carefully gleaned; description of soil, products and agricultural development; first settlers and incidents of their settlement; first schools, churches, marriages, births, deaths, etc., etc., so far as obtainable; personal incidents and reminiscences; and many matters of interest, referring both to the olden times and to more recent events.

V.—A Biographical Department devoted to sketches of the lives of the patrons of the work, alphabetically arranged by municipalities. This will be an important feature of the work, preserving in a desirable form the family record, which might, through the ravages of time, pass into oblivion; thus handing down to posterity information of ancestral lineage that could not otherwise be readily preserved. In addition to the illustrations noted above, that portion pertaining specially to this county will contain a number of portraits of well-known citizens, pioneers and leading men of the different sections of the county, so executed as to add materially to the interest and value of the work.

The literary portion of the publication will be in charge of gentlemen in every way well qualified to do justice to the work; while its excellent typographical appearance is guaranteed by the style and character of the books already issued by the publisher. The forthcoming volume will be printed on heavy calendered paper, from new type, and will be substantially bound in half-morocco, with marbled edges, gilt back and title stamp, and will contain about 800 pages. In a word, it will be the publisher's aim to produce a book which shall not only be an ornament to the drawing-room table, a useful and reliable work of reference in the library, but a source of pride and satisfaction to the inhabitants of the Capital of the Province and the Metropolitan County of the Dominion.

As a large outlay will be entailed in the production of such a publication, a liberal patronage is necessary. If warranted by an experimental canvass, everything will be done to carry the work to a successful and early completion.

To this end the coöperation of influential and public-spirited men throughout the county is invited, and their cordial assistance asked, in giving such information as they only can furnish to the staff of writers engaged, thus conducing to its completeness, accuracy and value.
