THE QUEEN'S CASTLE

She is Now Negotiating For Purchase of Clondalkin Castle, Near Dublin, AS A ROYAL RESIDENCE.

The Castle Will Probably be Given to the Duke and Duchess of York, So the Story Goes.

DUCHESS FRIENDLY TO IRELAND

Rain Does Not Deter Her Majesty From Carrying Out Her Program of Drives.

Dublin, April 14.—It is said here that Queen Victoria's private secretary is making enquiries with a view to the purchase of Clondalkin Castle, the latter of which is a splendid residence with a thousand acres of beautiful park, within five miles of Dublin.

Some members of the royal family usually inhabit this royal residence.

When the Duke of York died the Duchess of York was very anxious to get White Lodge, Richmond Park, her father's residence, but the Queen has given it to Emperor Frederick. It is now believed she will give the Clondalkin Castle to the Duke and Duchess of York, the latter of which has always expressed great friendliness toward Ireland.

The excitement of the Irish visit has undoubtedly led to the Queen's wish to have a long drive this morning through the villages adjacent to the city.

THE IMPERIAL PREFERENTIAL TARIFF

That is What Sir Charles Tupper Promises to Aim at First Thing If Entrusted With Power.

The Veteran Replied to Addresses in Montreal on Saturday—His Quebec Speech Not Accurately Reported—Would Demand Some Return From Mother Country.

Montreal, April 15.—(Special.)—"If I am entrusted with power, my first act will be to appoint a commission to negotiate an inter-imperial mutual preferential tariff."

This important statement was made yesterday afternoon by the leader of the Liberal-Conservative party, the occasion being the presentation of an address to Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., by the Sir John A. Macdonald and Junior Conservative Clubs.

The signs of the times are hopeful, and for the first time since 1896 have the leading manufacturers of Montreal identified themselves with the Opposition.

On the question of Imperial Defence, Sir Charles remarked that he would never as a Canadian consent to Canada being placed in such a position that Britain or any other country could impose a cost of taxation upon the Canadian people without their direct consent.

He did not take this stand on narrow local grounds, but because the adoption of such a principle would lead to the destruction of the great and beneficent Empire of which Canada was so proud a part.

What has been done by Canada voluntarily during the present war would not have been done with so much of a forced contribution.

Great Victory Ahead.

In concluding, Sir Charles expressed his delight at meeting so many prominent members of the party in Montreal. It was a splendid augury of the great victory which he felt was ahead of them.

Personally, he predicted that the coming election would result in a more unqualified verdict than had been given by the electorate in 1878. The people of Canada would say: "You have been weighed in the balance and found wanting. Let us go, and make way for more able men."

Sir Charles Tupper will be given an impromptu dinner at the Place Viger on Tuesday evening by about 100 of the leading Montreal Conservatives.

ENGLISH SOCIETY WOMEN NOT WANTED IN SOUTH AFRICA NOW.

Sir Alfred Milner Wires Mr. Chamberlain That They're a Nuisance and That the Accommodation is Needed for People From the Front.

London, April 15.—Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, has received the following telegram from Sir Alfred Milner, British High Commissioner in South Africa:

"The number of visitors to South Africa is constantly increasing, and I include the number of ladies, who seem to have no particular call of duty or business, but I am sure this would not be the case if it were realized at home that visitors who are not really needed in the country, but who are sent out for the sake of the money, are a serious source of inconvenience, interfering with the work of the military and civil officers, and putting a strain on our limited means of accommodation, which are urgently required for those who have duty to perform here, or who are invalided from the front."

A considerable increase in the expense of living, at all times very high, is caused by this excessive number of visitors, and this is a hardship to persons of the front class."

After saying that there is no place left suitable for reception than South Africa, Sir Alfred Milner concludes as follows: "Lord Roberts, to whom I have submitted this message, authorizes me to add that he fully concurs in the views expressed."

BURGLARS ROB VAULT AT ST. SIMON'S CHURCH

Dug Thru the Wall With a Pickax and Got Away With $315 in Cash and $875 in Cheques—the Morning Offertory.

Police Have Not the Slightest Clue to the Thieves—Banks Will be Asked to Stop Payment of Cheques—This Is the Second Theft.

Members of the fraternity of burglars for the second time within two years made a big haul at the pretty little Church of St. Simon on Howard-street last yesterday afternoon.

This time the thieves succeeded in carrying off $215 in cash and $875 in negotiable cheques. The robbery occurred in the time between 5 and 6 o'clock while Mr. Joseph Sylvester of 708 Ontario-street, the sexton, was away at his home for supper.

Were Experienced Burglars.

Detective Forrest says it is his opinion that the same thieves did this and the robbery committed a year ago last fall—when the same church was broken into and known just where to make the opening to get at the contents of the vault so easily.

When the first robbery was committed the thieves got in by forcing the rear door, which was broken in yesterday. With a crowbar, afterwards found, they attempted to knock the bricks out at the back of the vault, and finding this a long and tedious job, went round to the front.

Here they tore the bricks away alongside the vault door, and with the help of a piece of wire pulled the contents out. At that time they got about $100, and about half as much in small silver was left scattered around on the floor.

Took the Money Only.

The thieves who visited the church yesterday afternoon either did not see or did not want the valuable silver communion set, because it was found on the shelf after the robbery in the usual place.

Payment Will be Stopped.

Rev. T. Street Mackenzie, rector of the church, in making an announcement of the robbery at the service last night, asked all members of the congregation who had given negotiable cheques into the offertory plates at the morning service to visit their respective banks this morning and stop the payment of them.

The substantial collection which the burglars made off with was the result of a special appeal made last Sunday for subscriptions to be devoted to the building fund of the church.

The church warden intended to announce the excellent response made to the appeal at the meeting of the vestry to be held to-night, but now they will have a different story to tell.

The church haven't the slightest clue to the burglars.

PLAN OF THE WIDE FIELD OF OPERATIONS.

Wepener, the scene of the latest fighting, southwest of Bloemfontein, on the border of Basutoland. On this point are now converging, apparently to surround the attacking Boers, if possible, a column from the Free State capital, another from the direction of Beaufort and a third from Allwal North.

MRS. KRUGER'S IDEA OF THE WAR.

She Hopes God Will Soon Put a Stop to the Bloodshed, But Says the Boers Will Fight.

Lorenzo Marquez, April 14.—A correspondent had an interview to-day with the wife of President Kruger in regard to the war. Mrs. Kruger said that she most welcome, under existing conditions, become a serious source of inconvenience, interfering with the work of the military and civil officers, and putting a strain on our limited means of accommodation, which are urgently required for those who have duty to perform here, or who are invalided from the front.

London, April 15.—A despatch to a news agency from Bloemfontein says that on April 12 Gen. Roberts sent a strong protest to President Kruger about the treatment of the Colonial prisoners and the sick at Waterfall. Gen. Roberts demanded that the rules of the Geneva Convention be observed.

British Prisoners of War Treated by the Boers as if They Were Criminals.

Bloemfontein, Saturday, April 14.—Lord Roberts, in his telegram of protest to President Kruger, regarding the treatment of the sick and wounded British prisoners, and the sick and wounded Boers, says that the Boers are now prisoners at Pretoria have been subject, complains that the Boers have treated them as if criminals confined in jail.

Boers Are Inhuman.

He points out that there are 60 cases of enteric fever and dysentery in the prison camp at Waterfall, and that the Transvaal Government failed to supply, on demand of the doctor, the necessary medicines and medical comforts; that the prisoners were forced to bivouac on the open veldt; that the sick were placed in an open shed, with an iron roof, and that it was only when the new doctor threatened to resign that medicines and mattresses were supplied.

CHURCHILL IS PESSIMISTIC.

Says 250,000 Men Will be Needed, and is Blue Also on the Subject of the Boer Question.

London, April 16.—Mr. Winston Churchill telegraphs to the Morning Post from Bloemfontein under Saturday's date, reiterating his opinion that the war is bound to prove an extremely expensive business.

He says: "Two hundred and fifty thousand men will be needed before the end is attained. The question of recruits will continue one of vital importance. Great numbers are now arriving, but owing to the fact that they have to be put to work before time is given them to recover from the effects of the voyage, their condition is low and the death rate among them high. Thousands, therefore, will be wanted in addition to those now here on the way, and great resting depots must be formed, together with an ample staff to nurse and exercise them. If that is done then about four or five months before you will be able to give your cavalry a new lease of life and strength."

THIRTY-SIX HOURS SAVED PENALTY FOR MURDER

When the Canada National Railway and Transport Company Gets Into Business.

Thug Who Killed Poor Varcoe Went to the Gallows the Most Unconcerned Man in the Assembly.

The Final Act in One of the Most Sensational Murders in Toronto in Which All Three Are Now Dead.

Harry Williams was hanged in the Toronto jail yard at 8 o'clock Saturday morning. He proved to be one of the nervous men who ever went up to a scaffold.

When Williams walked from the jail to the yard he was accompanied by Sheriff Mowat, Gov. Green, A. H. Baldwin, Deputy-Governor Brown, and four guards.

Prisoner Slept Well. Mr. Harris, the sheriff's officer, who was his last guard from 11 o'clock Friday night till 6 o'clock in the morning, told the world that Williams slept pretty well.

About Seventy Present. When Williams and his attendants came out at two minutes to 8 o'clock, there was a crowd of probably 70 newspapermen, doctors and medical students in the jail yard, and they awaited with interest the proceedings.

Williams did not die until five minutes after the drop had fallen. When he stepped on the trap he tried it with his feet, like a child playing with a skipping rope.

Admitted the Crime. The affair was pathetic in many ways for the witnesses, it more particularly on account of Williams' wonderful nerve.

Always Perfectly Cool. Good night had a big breakfast after a good night's sleep. A couple of hours before the execution he walked around the corridors of the jail. He was perfectly cool and chatted with the body guard, which in the meantime, had been under the surgeon's knife, as is usual in such cases.

After the body had been taken down the spectators gathered in the central hall of the jail, with their backs up against the broad room. A jury was empaneled from among them, and they viewed the body, which in the meantime, had been under the surgeon's knife, as is usual in such cases.

After he was hanged the black flag was hoisted on the jail, the not until four or five minutes after the actual execution. There was not the slightest hitch in the proceedings.
