

CRYING EVIL OF THE WEST CAN'T MOVE CR

Important Debate in Which Mr. Tarte Reiterates His Partiality for Protection. Ottawa, March 10.—This was western day in the House. The proceedings began by the introduction of Mr. Stewart, the new Liberal member for Lisgar, and wound up with a debate on the transportation of the western grain crop. Incidentally, however, Mr. Tarte rapped the Globe over the knuckles as a non-progressive sheet, and told the free traders on the government side that protection was in the air. New Conservative Act. Mr. Puttee introduced a bill to amend the Conciliation Act of 1900, the object of the bill being, he said, to extend the scope of the present measure. It would give more initiative to the labor department and allow an arbitrator to be appointed upon demand of one party to a dispute, who may take evidence under oath and make an award which may be published in The Labor Gazette. Another provision is to prevent a decision by conciliation or arbitration, which shall stipulate that an employee must leave his labor union. Amend Allen Labor Law. Mr. Charlton's bill to amend the Allen Labor Law was also introduced and read a first time. Mr. Ross (Victoria) raised a laugh by refusing to sign the bill, the member for North Norfolk, the ordinary courtesy of seconding his motion for a first reading. Mr. Ross would not take any chance of being connected, even nominally, with a measure the government might oppose. A Railway Commission. Mr. Davis asked: Does the government intend taking action during the present session on the motion of this House, passed in the session of 1901, approving of the appointment of a railway commission? Mr. Blair replied: My answer to that question, Mr. Speaker, is in the affirmative. To a question by Mr. E. F. Clarke, the Minister of Public Works replied that the position of Mechanical Engineer of the government buildings in Toronto has been vacant since Sept. 30, 1901, the duties of the position being temporarily filled by James Cosgrove. The government "has under consideration" the appointment of a permanent official. Mr. Blain was informed that no circular has been issued giving the prices at which binder twine will be sold in 1902. Col. Hughes' Resolution. Col. Hughes moved, that in the opinion of this House, in the best interests of the people of Canada, a joint commission should be appointed by the United States and Canada, to examine and report upon the diversion of the waters between the two countries, and to investigate the conditions and fall, supply and uses of the waters adjacent to the boundary line between the United States and Canada, including all the waters of the lakes and rivers whose waters flow by the St. Lawrence River to the Atlantic Ocean. He urged in support of his proposition the possibility of still greater diversion of waters of the lakes and rivers on the boundary being made, to the injury of navigation. Col. Hughes said he merely wished to draw the attention of the government to the matter, and did not wish to press his motion. Mr. Tarte Will Do It. Mr. Tarte admitted the importance of the question, and that a survey should be made with the object in view. He proposed to take steps in that direction this summer, but did not consider it advisable to ask the House to do so. (Continued on Page 2.)

Defeats E. V. Bodwell, K.C., the Opposition Candidate By a Majority of Thirty-One. DUNSMUIR GOVERNMENT IS SAVED Now Has a Following of Twenty-One in a House of Thirty-Nine. Vancouver, B.C., March 10.—Col. Prior, Minister of Mines, was today elected in the bye-election in Victoria City over E. V. Bodwell, K.C., opposition. Col. Prior's majority was 31. The vote was Prior 1495, Bodwell 1464. The fate of Premier Dunsmuir's government hangs on this election, as prior to it Dunsmuir hung on to office with a following of 20 in a House of 38, with vacancies in North Victoria and Victoria City. Victoria City is now filled, giving Dunsmuir a following of 21 in a House of 39. Col. Prior represented Victoria in the House of Commons for a number of years. He is a Conservative, the politics do not play a large part in B.C. NEARLY 40 YEARS MARRIED. King and Queen of Great Britain Celebrated the Event. London, March 10.—The 39th anniversary of the wedding day of the King and Queen was celebrated at Marlborough House today with a dinner. Albert Edward, Prince of Wales (now King Edward VII.), married Alexandra, the eldest daughter of King Christian IX. of Denmark, in St. George's Chapel, Windsor, England, March 10, 1863. He was then 22 years old, and she was 19. Now he is 61 and she is 58. They have had three sons and three daughters. The first born, the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, died 10 years ago at the age of 28. Their second son, now the Prince of Wales and heir-apparent to the throne, is 37. Their youngest son, Prince Alexander, born April 6, 1881, lived only one day. Of the daughters, Princess Louise is the wife of the Duke of Fife. Princess Victoria is married to Prince Charles, the second son of the Crown Prince of Denmark. ABSOLUTELY PURE ACETYLENE The Newest Process—All Danger of Explosion Done Away With. The Sicke Gas System is the only rational system of using carbide of calcium for lighting, heating and cooking. See particulars in catalogue mailed free on writing 35 York street, Boston House block, Toronto. The machine producing Sicke gas stores no gas whatever; the only gas on the premises is what is in the service pipes, and an accident is an absolute impossibility. For like blackberries that are always red when they are green, the machine cannot be opened to recharge it without closing it. This paradox is explained in the catalogue. It is accomplished by our fool-proof lock valve, which, like a good lock, is bound to come out safe, however it is worked. This is why the Sicke system is fully approved and endorsed by all fire underwriters. See what Mr. Willis Chipman, the well-known consulting engineer and gas expert, says about the Sicke system: Toronto, May 7, 1901.—The Sicke Gas Co., Toronto: After carefully inspecting your apparatus for the generation of gas from carbide of calcium, I have pleasure in giving my opinion that the machine is thoroughly practical, convenient, simple and safe. "Your principle of making extremely small quantities of gas in rapid sequence as required by the demand of the burners in use is undoubtedly the sound one, and I believe the Sicke machine solves the problem of acetylene lighting, removing as it does practically all the danger of fire or explosion. Yours truly, (Signed) Willis Chipman, M. Am. Soc. C. E., M. Can. Soc. C. E."

BOERS BROKE BRITISH REAR GUARD FLANKS RUSHED AND PANIC ENSUED Disaster Last Friday Results in Three Officers and Thirty-Eight Men Killed, Five Officers and Seventy-Two Men Wounded and One Officer and Two Hundred Men Missing. GENERAL LORD METHUEN, WITH FRACTURED THIGH, TAKEN PRISONER Boers, Disguised as British Troopers, in the Grey Light of Dawn, Could Not Be Distinguished From Friends—Warm Words Spoken in the Imperial Parliament For the Captive, Who is Doing Well. METHUEN AND DELAREY. Lord Methuen was the British commander who led the army to the relief of the beleaguered town of Kimberley, in November, 1899. In this expedition he successfully engaged the Boers at Belmont, Graspan, Modder River and Magersfontein. The British were successful in the first three battles, but suffered a severe defeat at Magersfontein. The Boer commander at Graspan was Gen. Delarey, who has now taken Lord Methuen, who was after the Magersfontein defeat that Lord Roberts was sent to South Africa, where he took personal command of the British advance on Kimberley, and, assisted by Gen. French, relieved that place Feb. 16, 1900. Paul Sanford Methuen, third Baron Methuen, is descended from John Methuen, Lord Chancellor of Ireland. He was born Sept. 1, 1845, and succeeded his father on the latter's death in 1891. He was educated at Eton, became a lieutenant in the Scots Guards in 1864. He served with distinction in Egypt and South Africa, and has been frequently decorated and mentioned in despatches for bravery. Gen. Delarey is, second to Dewette, the cleverest of the Boer generals. He has been called the Burgher General French, because his methods are so near akin to the British general. He has been prominent in recent engagements in which he and Dewet have kept their pursuers on a hot trail. The news caused excitement in the mine market. Shares were offered freely at first, but by 6 o'clock the excitement had abated, and the curb tone hardened. The news was received in the House of Commons amid great excitement. The reading of Lord Kitchener's telegram by the War Secretary, Mr. Brodrick, was listened to in deep silence, which was broken by loud Irish cheers. Instantly there were cries of "Shame, shame," from the government benches. Then the Irish members seemed to think better of their outbreak, and suddenly subsided. The subsequent eulogistic references to Gen. Methuen were received with cheers. Advice received to-night says that the force under General Delarey was almost entirely dressed in British uniforms. This made it impossible for the infantry to distinguish between their own men and the enemy when the mounted troops were driven in on them. The enemy numbered 1500 men. They had one 15-pounder and a pom. pump. Delarey, Callers, Kemp, Tromp and other commanders were present. In a private telegram just received here Lord Kitchener adds: "I find Methuen has a fractured thigh, but he is reported to be doing well." Lord Methuen was wounded in the thigh. Three British officers and 38 men were killed. Five British officers and 72 men were wounded. One British officer and 200 men are missing. The fight in which Gen. Methuen was captured occurred before dawn, March 5, between Wynburg and Lichtenburg, Transvaal. The British force numbered 1200 men. The Boers captured all the British baggage. General Methuen is retained as a prisoner. Kitchener's Announcement. The text of Lord Kitchener's despatch announcing the capture of Gen. Methuen is as follows: "Pretoria, March 8 (Saturday). I greatly regret to have to send you bad news of Methuen. He was moving with nine hundred mounted men, under Major Paris, and three hundred infantry, four guns, and a pom-pom, from Wynburg to Lichtenburg, and was met by a Boer force of 1300 mounted men, at Rovinsfontein to-day. Yesterday morning early he was attacked by Delarey's force between Tweesbosch and Palmietkruis. The Boers charged on three sides. "Five hundred and fifty men have come in at Marlborough and Kraaipan. They were pursued by the Boers four miles from the scene of the action. They report that Methuen and Paris, with the guns, baggage, etc., were captured by the Boers. Methuen, when last seen, was a prisoner. I have no details of the casualties, and suggest de-

REPORT OF JUDGE SNIDER AGAINST THE CONTRACTOR

Believes Brennen Offered Writings $35 and $100 to Leave Hamilton. Hamilton, March 10.—Judge Snider's report of his finding in the investigation respecting the delivery of coal to the city scales and afterwards unloading it in Mr. Brennen's yard; the endeavor made by Mr. Brennen to bribe Conklin to sign a declaration that all the loads weighed were delivered; that Mr. Brennen offered Conklin $35 and $100 to leave the city before the investigation began. The judge believes that the contractor offered Caretaker Harry Headland of No. 3 police station money to induce him to sign a receipt for coal not received, and that Mr. Brennen offered to "go halves" with Engineer Leslie, if the latter would sign three receipts for coal not delivered. With reference to one load of coal in dispute, for which the contractor produced a receipt, the investigation, the judge mentions allegations and imputations in Mr. Brennen's book which diminished the value of the book as evidence. The judge found that Caretaker Charles Hurton of the City Hall had shown great carelessness in the signing of receipts for the delivery of coal there. His Honor believed that Contractor Brennen tried to induce Clerk Herbert Barr of the City Hall to pass a receipt for coal to him by Hurton. Clerk Barr, in the judge's opinion, rightly refused to pass the ticket. His Honor was further of the opinion that there was great carelessness on the part of the contractor in the receipting for tickets at the disposal works. The judge thought the weight scale tickets should not be accepted as vouchers, for anything but the weight. On this point His Honor gave the city officials some good advice. Judge Snider found that the charges concerning the improper filling of charcoal orders for coal and wood were proved. He also found that Mr. Brennen had offered a bribe of $5 to Relief Officer McMenamy.

LIT MATCH IN POWDER ROOM

FACE, HANDS AND BREAST BURNED William Peaker, Junior, of Brampton Perhaps Fatally Injured in His Store. He Was Found Lying Unconscious, With His Clothing Burning—Building Badly Damaged. Brampton, March 10.—A terrific explosion occurred this afternoon in Peaker & Sons' hardware store, and William Peaker, Jr., was, perhaps, fatally injured. When the firemen reached the scene the smoke was so dense that they could not enter the third story window, from which great volumes of smoke were issuing. After ten minutes the building was entered and young Peaker was found lying insensible, his clothing on fire. He has several dangerous burns on his hands, face and breast. It is thought he went to the powder room and struck a match to see what was in stock. The building was badly damaged. Mr. Peaker is a brother of Drs. Kenyon and Edward Peaker of Parkdale, and Dr. John Peaker of Bathurst-street, Toronto. He has a wife and several children, for whom much sympathy is felt, as little hope is entertained that Mr. Peaker will recover. He was still unconscious when the last report was received from the house. At 2:45 this morning Dr. Hall of Brampton telephoned The World that Mr. Peaker's condition was satisfactory to the attending physicians. He had rallied considerably and was conscious at intervals during the night. Mr. Peaker could give no information as to how the accident occurred.

GROUND LOST BY FREE TRADE

Protection Gains in Britain Because of Promises to Colonies. Chicago, March 10.—The Record-Herald's London correspondent says: The Imperial trade relations show an increased protectionist tone on the strength of Mr. Chamberlain's promise to reopen a discussion of the whole subject when the colonial premiers come to London next June for the coronation festivities. The Colonial Secretary has said it is a statesman's privilege, no less than a woman's, to change his mind. Evidently he has changed his since he declared four years ago that Great Britain would only consider a preference for colonial over foreign imports on the basis of a free trade arrangement with the empire, assuring colonial markets to British manufacturers. At that time the colonies retorted that such an arrangement was out of the question. Either he is ready to propose easier terms to the colonies or to give them an opportunity to thrash out the case in the metropolis. Whatever the explanation of his change of front, a favorable impression has been made in Australia and Canada. Another departure from free trade without significance to the government's action in forcing the sugar question to agree to abolish bounties by threatening countervailing duties. Of course if bounties are swept away there will be no preferential duties to colonial sugars. British protectionists are in line for their over this.

INDIANS AT TACK A FORT

Endeavor to Take Possession of the One at Quebec. Victoria, B.C., March 10.—E. L. Keenan, the Hudson Bay Company's manager at Fort George, arrived at Quebec and stated that the Indians were endeavoring to take possession of the fort. Attorney-General Eberts forwarded instructions to send several special constables to Quebec, and they were to take such steps as may be necessary to quell the disturbances and punish the Indians. James Thompson, the general manager of the Hudson Bay Company, was seen to-day in reference to the matter. He corroborated the report of the trouble, having received a statement of the trouble, from Mr. Keenan. Mr. Thompson was that the district last year, and his opinion of the Fort George Indians are the worst in British Columbia. They are continually giving trouble.

FOUND HIS DEAD BODY

Officer Was About to Remove William Boyd to the Hospital. When Police Constable Cathers went to the Salvation Army Rescue Home, corner of Wilton-avenue and Victoria-streets, with an officer of the institution last night, to remove William Boyd, 45 years of age, to the hospital, he found the dead body of the man lying beside the bed in a room in that institution. Boyd had been staying at the home for several days, and had taken ill there, and Dr. Elliott was called, and he notified Coroner Greig, who deemed an inquest unnecessary. The body was removed to the morgue.

REGRET IN PARLIAMENT

House of Commons and House of Lords Discuss the Defeat. London, March 10.—Lord Kitchener's despatches announcing the disaster to Gen. Methuen's forces were read in both the House of Lords and House of Commons to-day, by Lord Roberts, the commander-in-chief, and Mr. Brodrick, the War Secretary, respectively. They both paid tributes to Gen. Methuen, the former expressing his appreciation of Methuen's success through the war, declaring that his task of forcing the Boer position at Magersfontein was an almost impossible one. Lord Roberts, the commander-in-chief, who announced the British disaster in the House of Lords, said Gen. Methuen, for over two years, had carried on his work with zeal, intelligence and great perseverance, adding that the general was beloved of his men, and that no work was too dangerous or difficult for them or Gen. Methuen. The commander-in-chief was sure the House was deeply grieved at what had occurred. He

THE KING'S BREW OF BEER

Will Be Kept for Twenty Years to Be Good and Strong

HIS MAJESTY ROYALLY RECEIVED

And Greatly Pleased That His Own County Grows More Barley Than Any Other.

London Daily Mail: The 50,000 men and women and children who live by the making of beer, or because of the making of beer, at Burton-on-Trent, gave the King a most loyal and hearty welcome when, on Saturday, he visited the Bass' Brewery to watch the King's brew.

For a couple of hours before His Majesty drove in from Rangemore, where he is Lord Burton's guest, until noon to-day, thousands were tramping gaily thru the mud of Burton's narrow streets, gazing at the wealth of decorations.

So thick were the crowds that the country carts, filled with rosy-faced families, could scarcely thread their way to the courtyards of the queer little inns scattered about High-street.

At every turn there were Venetian masks, banners and motes and bunting. The good folk of Burton needed small prompting to decorate their streets, but by way of encouragement, Lord Burton had sent in word that no expense should be spared, and that he would see to the payment.

One somewhat unusual wish, but one that spoke of his trust in Burton's good behavior and loyalty, was expressed by the King: "Don't let me see a policeman." His Majesty had said, so the policemen were drafted in from all the country round, they were hidden away in corners or discreetly dressed in plain clothes.

It was nearing 11.30 when the carriages bearing the royal party reached the boundaries of the borough with Lady Burton by his side, and Lord Burton and the Portuguese minister opposite.

As they drove past Shobnall Schools 2300 children burst into "God Save the King," and His Majesty turned with a smile to salute them.

At the Brewery. A few minutes later the carriages drove past mountains of barrels into the yard of the maltsters, Mr. P. E. welcomed the King, and conducting him into the building, showed him first some specimens of barley. And vastly pleased was His Majesty as a North-west farmer, to see the barley that has been grown in Norfolk last year than in any other county.

Next the King looked at the barley in sacks, and afterwards passed up stairs to the stowage halls where the barley, fresh and sweet from the water, lay swelling and covering the floor as with a golden carpet.

Two men, "turning" it and showing it like golden rain from their wooden spades, and as the midday sun danced in thru the windows the King paused to remark upon the pretty effect.

Then, after he had stood for some minutes ankle deep in the warm, yellow grain in the drying room, the King drove away to the new brewery.

Here there were but one porter and a detective, and it is trial of the King's courtesy that as he saluted he raised his hat to each of them.

First the King, with Mr. O'Sullivan, the chief brewer, went up to the five great vats, each big enough to hold a folk from the town. The water lay ready below, and the malted barley lay ready on the floor.

The Mash Room. The King, with a smile, stepped forward, and, firmly gripping the level thrust it up. Down roused the malted barley into the water, and the forks being set in motion, the mash of the "King's brew" was begun. "This, when it is ready, should be the strongest ale that has ever come from Burton. It will be put away to mature, and not a drop of the 400 barrels of the "King's brew" except for the purpose of testing, will be drunk for at least 20 years.

The royal party afterwards went thru the huge, sweet-smelling vats where the beer is alternately boiled and frozen, and came to the fermenting squares. Here the King laughingly blew aside a froth to inhale the cooling carbonic acid gas, and watched with interest the extinguishing of a lighted match in the fumes.

From the "racking room" where, in a dim space, vast as a cathedral, hundreds of casks were stacked in long rows, the King moved to the vat room. Here at a table in the centre he wrote "Edward R." in the visitors' book.

SCROFULA.

"Scattered consumption" is a good way of describing this disease. It is in fact a real consumption of the little glands under the skin.

Scott's Emulsion cures it. It heals the sores—but doesn't stop there for the weakness and loss of flesh is the worst part of scrofula.

Scott's Emulsion feeds and strengthens scrofulous children.

ALLIANCE TRILLED BY JAPAN

General Approval of the Treaty With England is Shown Most Clearly.

SUPPORT OF AMERICA CONSIDERED

Press of Orient Thinks Pact Insures Peace and Opens Door.

Victoria, B.C., March 10.—When the steamer Empress of India left Yokohama on Feb. 21, the people of Japan were celebrating the consummation of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, upon which the Japanese press comments favorably. In China, also, the newspapers refer in a pleased manner to the alliance.

A German newspaper published in Yokohama says it is a move which will guarantee the peace of the Orient for a term of five years. We can think of nothing that could occur to prevent the alliance remaining in force for an indefinite number of years.

"Japan may now devote her entire energies to internal reorganization and consolidation, reduce her naval and military budget, and use the proceeds to cover her domestic nakedness. The alliance gives much to Japan, but we must not overlook the fact that England's position in the Far East is in no wise improved by the alliance. It is not England's habit to make such alliances unless she actually finds herself in the presence of perils suggesting them.

See American Support. The Osaka Mainichi says the contracting powers are Great Britain and Japan on paper, but there is also the unofficial American support of the alliance. "It is an alliance of the three powers which hold the balance of power in the Far East in commerce, in navigation and in naval and military strength. The three powers in combination can defy the world, and we do not hesitate to assert that the alliance is sufficient to guarantee the peace of the world. The mist of uncertainty which has hung over the Far East since the Chinese-Japan war has been dispersed by the alliance. It is a new era of peace, and the other policies of some powers are gone, and the alliance protects the lives and the safety of one-third of the population of the world. The condition of affairs in China and Korea, which has hitherto been disastrous, will become a paradise. The alliance is one of the great successes of the world."

The North China Daily News, the well-known Shanghai paper, says: "Events have been moving toward this point for some time. The Japanese have been warring ever since Lord Rosebery refused to join the combination which prevented Japan leaving the fruits of her victory over China and enabled Russia, without spending a ruble, to take it. The Japanese have been warring on the pretext of their 'high-handed' action, and they would have appealed to the United States for aid. The fact that Russia would have at least one ally by her side. RUSSIA FEARS GERMANIZATION

Measures May Be Taken to Restrict Influence on Border.

London, March 10.—There are certain indications, says the Vienna correspondent of the Times, of a disposition in Russia to adopt stringent measures in order to avert the Germanization of the Russian provinces, where trade and industry have passed almost completely into the hands of German merchants.

The correspondent says the restriction of German influence in these districts has become a matter of national importance. The prospect of anti-German action is welcomed by the Russian people, who bitterly resent the wholesale expulsions of Austrian, Polish and Czech laborers from Germany.

The Moscow Vedomosti says the Germans are gradually effecting a peaceful conquest of the Russian provinces on the German and Austro-Hungarian frontiers.

DECLARE FOR METRIC SYSTEM

Associated Chambers of Commerce Also Urge Decimal Coinage.

London, March 10.—For years the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Great Britain and Ireland have been urging legislation in favor of the adoption of the metric system of weights and measures and a decimal division of the pound sterling.

At their annual conference on Thursday last this matter under discussion, and the delegates almost unanimously passed a resolution in favor of these systems.

It is estimated that there are people in this country who still believe that to alter the systems of weight and measure, either the metric, because they argue, the curious anomalies of British measures were a matter of divine revelation.

Government to Prevent Bill Providing Money for Men.

London, March 10.—The threatened railway strike has been averted, says the Rome correspondent of the Times. The result has been accomplished by the government agreeing to contribute three annual instalments of £1,320,000 out of the total of £1,680,000 demanded as a provisional concession, the companies paying the balance.

The railway men will reserve future agitation until 1905, when the railway convention will be renewed.

The government, says the correspondent, has undertaken to draft a bill sanctioning the outlay, and to make it a cabinet question. The government has also undertaken to contribute three annual instalments of £1,320,000 out of the total of £1,680,000 demanded as a provisional concession, the companies paying the balance.

The "Blighting White Plague." How Catarrh Does Its Deadly Work.

Cooling Off—Taking Cold. Doctor Says It is Catarrh. Has Developed Bronchitis. In the Grasp of Consumption. It is just the same old story of exposure to cold. The neglected cold becoming chronic catarrh, extending along the mucous membrane, and along the bronchial tubes, causing chronic bronchitis, coughing and expectoration. Still neglected, further extension, the lungs are reached, and the grave consumptive established. The "White Plague" roars another victory and the grave consents the record of the catarrh. A well-worn road to a withering cough and untimely death. Thousands have travelled it, and thousands upon thousands more are travelling it. Every year develops a multitude of new victims. It is a terrible and deadly disease, and it is alarming in its frequency and dire in its results. It is a disease that has been known for 4000 years, and it is still as deadly as ever. It is a disease that is caused by cold, and it is a disease that is cured by the use of the latest method of treatment. It is a disease that is a scourge to the human race, and it is a disease that is a deadly enemy to the human body. It is a disease that is a blighting white plague, and it is a disease that is a deadly work.

In that year Prof. B. J. BRITISH COLUMBIA

The Western Province Sends Good News—More Sick People Cured.

To-day It is Newfoundland and Tomorrow British Columbia—From Far East and Extreme West—From All Parts of the Dominion Come Reports of Remarkable Cures By Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Stanley, B.C., March 10.—(Special.)—Dodd's Kidney Pills have done wonders for the sick people of our fair Western province. Endorsed by the profession and public in Ontario, Quebec and Manitoba, they were at once accepted here as a genuine medicine, and among the number none can be more enthusiastic than Mr. J. W. Thomson.

Reports of marvellous cures have been published in the papers almost every day, and thousands and thousands just as wonderful are never heard of outside the country.

It has come to this that there is scarcely a home in this Western country where Dodd's Kidney Pills have not been tried, and as marked as their cures of advanced cases.

Right here at Stanley several have testified that Dodd's Kidney Pills have helped them more than any other medicine they have ever used, and among the number none can be more enthusiastic than Mr. J. W. Thomson.

This gentleman had been suffering for a long period with Acute Kidney Disease. He could not eat, sleep, or stand, and although he had tried many remedies, he found no abatement whatever in his portico of suffering.

He was, however, no doubt, by their wonderful reputation, as a cure for Rheumatism and all Kidney and Bladder troubles, he began a treatment with Dodd's Kidney Pills. He tells everybody: "For the benefit of suffering humanity, I wish to show my thankfulness, and this is the only one of the many cases which could be reported from the neighborhood. Many cases of chronic Rheumatism have been cured, as well as some of Bright's Disease, Diabetes and Dropsy.

CROWDS VIEWED THE BODY.

Impressive Scene at Lying in State of Rev. Father Ryan.

The staging of Vesper in St. Michael's Cathedral last evening, while the remains of the late Father Ryan lay in state at the head of the main aisle, was most impressive. The sacred edifice was brightly lit up in mourning, and the glimmer of the lights upon the drapery and the casket and the silent throng of people, many in the congregation were brought to tears as they gazed upon the form of their lamented spiritual adviser in a plain coffin and in the vestments with which he had officiated at the various religious ceremonies in connection with his duties as pastor.

The various Catholic societies will attend the funeral, which takes place this morning at 9 o'clock, the order of procession being as follows: Ancient Order of Hibernians, Knights of St. John, C.M.B.A., I.C.B.I., the heroic ten carriage, containing the clergy, and the public. No regrets will be worn.

They should be always kept at hand, and once their beneficial action becomes known, no one will be without them. There is nothing nauseating in their structure, and the most delicate can use them confidently.

The committee in connection with Wilson Masonic Lodge have arranged to hold the annual banquet in the Masonic rooms in the Temple building on the evening of April 4.
