The departure of the ministers, adds the despatch, was without incident. The ministers representing the central powers at Athens, in requesting an audience with King Constantine, stated that they did not regard the action of the entente powers in demanding their departure from Greece as involving responsibility on the part of the Greek Government or the king, nor as being a hostile act as far as Greece was concerned, says a Reuter's despatch from the Greek capital under date of November 20.

"The Greek ministers accredited to the central powers," adds the despatch, "will remain at their posts. The ministers and the personnel of the legations of the central powers at Athens will remain on board the Marienhad (an Austrian merchant vessel) until a Greek vessel or other

NORTH BAY LIBERALS MEET.

All patriotic Canadians are heartsick over the nickel situation. There is something horrible beyond words in the thought that Canada is furnishing the enemy with ammunition to slaughter Canadian boys at the front. The war might have been ended long ago if Germany had not replenished from time to time her daily dwindling supply of nickel. That she has been replenishing it from Canadian mines, via the International Nickel Co.'s refinery in the United States, is now a fact, proved fairly beyond dispute. Yet we are told that we are helpless because Canadian nickel must be sent to the United States for refining purposes.

Of this hereafter. For the present let it be noted that no Canadian ore shipped to the United States ever comes back in any form to Canada unless, indeed, it be brought back in the dead and wounded bodies of our soldiers at the front. We are assured, however, by Hon. Howard Ferguson, minister of mines and lands for Ontario, and others, who profess to speak for the federal and provincial governments, that every ounce of nickel refined by the International Nickel Co. is delivered to the British Admiralty, or the United States manufacturers, engaged in making munitions for the allies. No doubt the "arrangement" between the International Nickel Co. and the Dominion Government requires this to be done, but we all know that Canadian nickel is finding its way from the United States to Germany; some went by Sweden, some by Holland, some by Denmark. No one seriously doubts that the Deutschland carried Canadian nickel on both her trips. on both her trips. To put it mildly, we cannot be sure but that some Canadian nickel seeps away on its journey from the mines at Copper-cliff to the battle front of the allies. This leak is not in Canada, nor is it at the front. It is the United States, where the nickel is for a time the private property of the International Nickel Co., subject only to the laws of the United States!

If the nickel never left Canada it could never go to Germany. This is plain enough. But we are told that we must permit our Canadian ore to be shipped to the United States so that it can be there refined and delivered to the American manufacturers, who are making munitions for the allies.

But if we admit that some Canadian nickel must be refined in the United States for the use of the allies, does it follow that the present slipshod arrangement cannot be improved upon? The World suggests, and for the past two years has over and over again insisted, gests, and for the past two years has over and over again insisted, that no person, firm or corporation should be allowed to export any nickel from this country. If it be necessary for any purpose to refine some Canadian nickel ore in the United States, let the Dominion Government purchase the ore and ship it to the American refinery as its property. It can toll and weigh the matte at the border, and it can see that every ounce of it is accounted for in refined nickel; and as soon as the nickel is refined it should be brought back to Canada, here to remain in store as the property of the Dominion Government. Then, if the British Government wants refined nickel the Dominian Government can ship it across from a Canadian port. If some ally country wants refined nickel the Dominion Government can send it to that country under British convoy. If some munition maker in the United States needs a certain amount of the refined nickel to manufacture munitions for the allies the Dominion Government can ascertain his needs, can supply him with the necessary nickel, can ear mark that nickel, and see by our own men that it goes into munitions for the allies, and that none of it is shipped to Ger-

If the Dominion Government owned the refined nickel it could deal it out to the American munition manufacturers on its own terms see that every grain of it went into munitions for the ailles, and that none of it went into submarines for transport to Germany, or in some other way sneaked out to a professed neutral port.

This was the plan proposed by W. F. Maclean, M.P. for South York, in the bill which he presented to parliament in Pebruary, 1915. It is the plan that should have been adopted at the outbreak of the The Germans claim that their troops recaptured a height near Paralova, ten miles east of Paralova. Here's a New Type of Overcoat For Men

The "Trench Coat" Illustrated is the Newest Style for Winter Wear and is Priced at $25.00, $30.00 and $35.00

THIS NEW OVERCOAT is at present a feature of many of New York's leading men's stores and promises to be a very popular style there this winter, especially among young men.

It's designed somewhat in the same style as the British army trench coat, in swagger slip-on style with large flare in body, drawn in close just above waist with large all-round belt; has draw straps on sleeves, convertible lapels, vent in back which can be closed with buttons and large vertical pockets with openings to inner clothing.

The first illustration to the right is one sketched from a coat made up in our own workrooms.

It is single-breasted and has buckle and eyelet on front of belt and on sleeve straps. Shoulders are built in smart military effect and vent closes with buttons.

The materials included are new and distinctive, heavy, thick, warm winter-weight materials, in fancy olive mixtures, brown and grey and golden mixtures.

The inside is in plaid design, which forms self-lining; shoulders and sleeves are lined with silk, and the vertical pockets have opening to inner pockets, and close with buttons. Price 30.00.

The illustration on the extreme right is a very similar model, with a more distinct flare at bottom. It is single-breasted and has shorter notched-shaped convertible lapels and is lined through shoulders and sleeves with satin. A smart swagger coat that will appeal particularly to young men. Prices 25.00 to 35.00. SEE THESE COATS FRIDAY.

Encouraging Words From a New Customer

George Lawrence, Esq.:—

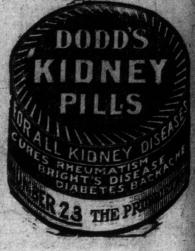

Dear Sir.—I want to express my admiration for your big stroke in the interests of the public. If it is good business for you, I am glad, for it certainly is good business for us, and every man and woman in this city should show appreciation by giving you immediate support and patronage. Enclosed please find $5 for tickets. I will now buy your bread, no matter how cheap other bakeries may offer theirs.

both from the same hydrant at King and Jarvis streets. I signaled from high pressure box on King street just west of Francis street, three different times, pausing between signals as I thought long enough, but did not receive an answer to my calls of attention. Thinking there might be something wrong. I went to the next box on King street. I called attention again to the key. This time I was answered promptly. I sent five blows in and was promptly answered.

Citizen: Have You Allied Yourself With This Cause?

If the public really want the price of bread reduced they must prove it when they get the chance by helping the man who is helping them. This is no sham. It is a genuine attempt to give the public low prices, based on the supposition that the public will throw their influence and trade to the bakery which dares to take the risk of loss in making the big cut in price.

Citizens, this is your day of testing. Are you in earnest or not? Do you want bread at a low price? If you do, there is only one way - the only solution yet offered in all Canada-give me your trade. If you support me by sending me your orders and give me the volume of business necessary, I can carry this big project through. If you do not, I will do the best I can, but it may mean 9c bread or possibly 10c.

This is a case of the "quick and the dead"—which are you? Which side are you on? Show your loyalty to your own cause by ordering your bread from the Lawrence Bakery, which in one day put down the price of bread all over this city. Do you believe the man who did it deserves your support? He needs it and counts on it.

The new finance commissioner, Mr. Bradshaw, will, it is to be hoped, reorganize and place it on a paying basis, which can be done without raising the rates to the flat rate consumer. The mayor and board of control will be expected to explain why their promises of last year were not carried out.

Theatre, and from present indications the Alexandra will house capacity addences for the entire four performances. The initial presentation will be Puccini's "Tosca." Tuesday evening Tamaki Miura, the only Japanese prima donna, will have the opportunity to repeat the success achieved on the occasion of her last visut to Toronto in Puccini's "Madame Butterfly." Perhaps the feature of the engagement will be Umberto Giordano's masterpiece, which wild be renuered on Vednesday evening. Seats are now on sale for all performances at the box office of the theatre.

"THE LODGER" NEXT WEEK.

EDMUND BREESE IN "THE SCAPE-GOATS."

Seats are now selling for "Scapegoats," next week's attraction at the Grand Opera House. A large number of reservations have already been made and from present indications the capacity of the Grand will be tested at the opening performance on Monday night. The play has demonstrated its value on previous performances and the most fishier appreports of its success have reached Manager Cowan. "Scapegoats" is a modern drama with a new twist in its construction.

bell's "Liberty Girls" company begins a week's engagement Monday. The cast of principals is headed by Jack Conway, the well-known versatile character comedian. Besides Mr. Conway will be found such favorites as Miss Etta Joerns, the handsomest prima donna in burlesque, who will introduce many new song numbers; Arthur Mayer and James Collins, a very clever straight man.

"GIRLS FROM THE FOLLIES."

James' Cemetery.

"The Paim Beach Beauties," one of the most elaborate and pretentious musical comedies ever shown, will be the featured attraction at Loew's next week. Plenty of comedy will be furnished by the team of Burns and Kissen, two clever chaps, always a riot with their Hebrew comedy and song. Ferguson and Sunderland, another Western feature, will offer bits of musical comedy in a vanue-while way. Burke and Burke will offer a combination of songs, foolishness, dances and comedy. Coscio and Verdi, two clever Italian musicians, will provide a real treat for music lovers with their violin and 'cello numbers. "The Unwelcome Mother," a five-act photo production, with Walter Law and alistar cast, will be a special feature. As something entirely new in high-class hurlesque, critics in other cities say the "Girls From the Follies," which starts a week's engagement Monday at the Star Theatre, is deserving of the closest attention. Its American beauty chorus, twenty-five in number, is said to eclipse any ever carried by an organiza-tion presenting this style of entertain-ment.

WAR FILM AT STRAND.

Charles Dickson, supported by a capable cast, will headline the bill at Shea's next week in vaudeville's newest playlet, "A Glance Ahead." Edward Flanagan and Neely Edwards return with their amusing "Off and On." The Alexander Kids are known as the brightest children appearing before the public. Julius Tannen has his chatterbox offering, in which he tells some real good stories. "Oklahoma" Bob Albright will make his initial appearance here, while the Five Florimonds have a spectacular balanchy offering. Erank and Tobic in "The Jockey": Bolger Brothers, expert vaniers, and feature film comedies, complete the bill. "Europe's Reign of Terror," the stu-pendous set of actual war motion pic-tures which is being presented all this week at the Strand Theatre is certainly drawing the big crowds. Among the audiences have been several returned sol-diers, who expressed themselves as being imensely impressed with the realism of the battle scenes depicted.

THE REGENT.

There are now at Exhibition Camp 145 officers and 450 n.c.o.'s, to take these courses. They represent battalons in military districts 1 to 5, which takes in all the territory from Nova Scotia to the boundary line of Manitoba. The two largest classes are those giving training in bayonet fighting and physical training, and in bombing. The former is directed by Capt. R. V. Conover, who has been on active service at the front with the 4th Battalion: and the latter under command of Capt. N. F. Kalley, who was at the front with the 3rd Battalion. All the courses are under the general direction of Major S. L. B. Buchman, another first contingent man.

All of the 600 officers and n.c.o.'s being trained as C. E. F. instructors are located in Exhibition Camp. They are all quartered in the industrial building, where they have special accommodation provided for sleeping and also for meals.

New Battalion.

The newly authorized 248th Grey County Battalion is to be commanded by Major J. H. Rorke, instead of Lt.-Col. W. N. Chisholm, who was provisionally appointed. Major Rorke was a member of the McGill College C.O.T.C., and is the son of a former commander of the 31st Grey Regiment of Owen Sound. Junior Meds and C.O.T.C. have a scheduled game to play in their Mulock Cup group. Junior Meds are undefeated, but a win for the soldiers would tie up this group. To overcome any chance of dragging out the season and delaying the semi-finals, the two clubs have agreed to count total points on their two meetings. Junior Meds were winners, 7 to 6, in the first game, and the second and deciding game will be played shortly.

Senior Meds and St. Michaels will play-off for their group on the same day that Junior Meds and C.O.T.C. are battling.

Last night on the West End Y.M.C.A. loor two fast indoor baseball games were played in the Commercial League seriore one of the largest crowds of the cards for the position. Bruce Stuart, so a local paper said tonight, could have the position. "if he wanted it."

The World correspondent, in conversation with Stuart, learned that he not only didn't want the job, nor had been offered it, but that he was "sticking to business." Reviewing the whole situation, the Ottawa Club appears to be in bad shape, despite Mr. Dey's offering that all the claims of the other clubs about having players signed up is without foundation. Listening to Mr. Dey's preamble, it sounds like this up to last Sunday: Wanderers, Quebec and Torontos had only two players signed for each club; the Canadiens had not signed any: the 228th Battalion team was under military control; Ottawa has not signed—so, what's the guess?

Joe Malone has signed his Quebec con-

A secret session of the Ottawa hockey magnates is supposed to be held tonight. Who will attend it, outside of Operator Dey, and where it will be held "nobody" seems to know.

One Ottawa hold-out, Boucher, has expressed himself willing to play for $800, but he reasons like this: He knows the club is taking a chance in operating this year, but, why should he be a sucker in signing at a low figure and have the other fellows come along later on and get a bigger stipend?

Corbett Denneny is still at outs with the Toronto Club. He says he will not sign until a reasonable contract is offer-ed. Brother Cyril announced in a letter to a Toronto friend yesterday that noth-ing can coax him into hockey this win-ter.

A Kingston despatch says: The 3rd military district is to have a lively hockey league this winter. Major R. D. Sutherland of the 253rd (Klitte) Battalion is back of the scheme, and the arrangements are well under way. Besides Kingston, it is the intention to have Ottawa, Belleville. Renfrew. Peterboro, Bowmanville and Lindsay enter teams, and possibly other places. The team at Renfrew is already organized and has a number of fast players.

Collingwood is evidently put for one per process.

Collingwood is evidently out for one or two O.H.A. championships, judging from the enthusiasm shown at the singual meeting. The meeting was the largest attended in years, representatives not only of the town club being present, but also a goodly number of soldiers of "C" Company of the 17th Battation. It was the unanimous decision of the meeting to enter teams in the intermediate and junior series of the O.H.A.

The clever centre men of the Canadiens has not as yet come to terms with Manager George Kennedy, but stated that he expected satisfactory arrangements would be made within a week or two. Although the has not signed up any of his regulars, Manager Kennedy said that none of the players had complained to him about the offers made them and that he hoped to have them all in line within the next two weeks. He announced that he had signed up a new player by the name of Tep'm of Blind River, Ont. Tepin played in the Sault Ste. Marie League last year and is said to be one of the best players of the league. He is one of then we men whom Manager Kennedy intends to try out this season.

Unless the Ottawa Hockey Club gives "Art" Ross his release, it is not likely that the management of the Canadien Club will dicker with the husky defence player. Manager Kennedy states that he would not purchase Ross from the Ottawa Club, but that if the player secured his release he might offer him a fair contract.

Eddie St. Pere has dubbed Jack Laviolette of the Canadiens as the Dario months and in his odd moments Jack pilots a racing car and does more than a little motorcycle racing. His efforts in this direction are as daring as they are at hockey.

He is also wanted by the St. Paul club, so is Goaltender Raymond Ronney. Wellington is a flashy and popular player in this city.

PIRATES' RECRUIT FIRST BASEMAN LOOKS GOOD ON PAST RECORD

Made to satisfy the man who knows a really delightful cigar.

ILSON'S

John Peter Wagner, having completed twenty seasons in the big show as a shortstop—barring a year or so in the outfield—will next year start all over again and get a "try-out" on first base with the Pirates. The fact that Honus is about to do this stunt, and also that he is the sole remaining member of the pennant-winning Pirates, makes it seem a ripe time for a review of his work in the past. The record is such as to indicate that the 48-year-old recruit first-baseman should make good.

Wagner participated in 125 games this year, making 123 hits and 45 runs. Althous these figures are not official, they probably are very close to correct, in which case the Flying Dutchman had an average of .284, which is precisely ten points better than his batting mark of 1915. His safe wallops for 1916 netted him 37 extra bases, for he was credited with one homerun, nine triples and sixteen doubles.

The famous shortstop's consistent performance for the entire twenty years is brought out by a glance at his grand totals for this length of time. He has been at bat 10,198 times, and his safe swats foot up to 3368. Thus he can boast of a grand average of .330, in spite of the fact that his last three campaigns have found him below the coveded .300 mark.

Another interesting fact is disclosed by the records. Haps still has the distinction of having registered a fraction more than one hit per game for his score of years in the National League. He has played in 2722 games. This means that he has placed almost five drives in safe territory in each of his four games, on an average.

Thus, it is seen that baseball's grand old patriarch continues to uphold his unique record for reliability, While ne is naturally proud of his dazzling diamond achievements, Wagner plays ball for results, and not for glory. He clouted in the .300 class the largest part of the present year, but late in the race a series of injuries got the best of him, and he fell into a siump which took him down just sixteen points below the triple-century mark at which eve the Pittsburger's wonderful mark of 17 straight years. Dan Brouthers, the old-timer, therefore, remains second to Wagner. Dan-smote 300 for 14 years.

Wagner played in 61 games during 1837, which was his first season as a major leaguer. He made 83 hits and 38 runs out of 241 times at bat, giving him an average of 344 as a starter. He fell back to 305 in his second year, getting 180 hits and 80 runs out of 591 times up and participating in 148 games. In 1899, which was his third and last season at Louisville, Hans hung up the highest betting average of his great career. He took part in 144 games, was at bat 549 times and made 197 hits and 102 runs, for a percentage of 3.86.

The Louisville stars were transferred to Pittsburg in 1900, and Wagner continued his wonderful work with the stick, clouting the ball at 380. His figures in the following 13 seasons were 352, 339, 356, 349, 363, 329, 365, 334, 324 and 300. By this time he had rounded out 17 consecutive seasons without falling below the 300 class. No other player in fast company ever registered such an achievement, and it is believed that this enviable record never will be equaled in the annuals of modern baseball. Hans Wagner's first year outside the cherished 300 circle was in 1914, when his figures dropped to 252. However, be made 139 safeties out of 552 times at bat. In 1915 his showing was a triffe better, for his 155 hits out of 566 times up gave him a percentage of 274. The season just ended netted him 123 hits out of 433 times at bat, his average being 234.

Steals Over 700 Bases.

During his 20 years of service under Barney Dreyfuss the Dutchman has stolen a grand total of 717 bases. His best season in the pilifering of pillows was 1907, when he was credited with 61 steals. His poorest showing in this respect was made this year, when 11 steals were recorded by this great athlete. Prior to the season hust finished his worst attempt was in 1911, when he purloined exactly 20. The latter number was just two shy of the pilfering total he made in his first to the season. This is based upon the official figures of the National League for 19 years and the unofficial averages for the present season.

Here are the records of Wagner in a nutshell, showing what he has done in all his 20 years as a batsman, the figures in each instance demoting his total for the season beginning with 1897 and ending with 1916:

Number of games played: 61, 148, 144, 134, 141, 137, 129, 132, 147, 140, 142, 151, 163, 150, 139, 145, 114/150, 156, 125; grand total, 2722 games.

Number of hits, 83, 180, 197, 201, 196, 177, 183, 171, 199, 175, 180, 201, 168, 178, 158, 181, 124, 129, 155, 123; grand total, 3368 hits.

soldiers who for two days and two nights had been fighting and advancing, with only such food as they might carry in their haversacks.

This long, dark road was infermittently shelled, but if it were shelled on every yard of it the transport men would willingly have gone up it to meet their battle-worn comrades.

The great majority of the wounded had been picked up and dealt with, but after an action, singly and in little groups, wounded men are encountered—men who have been sheltering in shell-holes and unable for the time to reach assistance or make their plight known. From these returning sufferers much information is gleaned by the men of the transport as they pass along. Comrades are enquired for and officers asked after. Sometimes "Wounded." and sometimes it is hard to get definite news.

"How is the Old C.O."

On the night to which the writer soles the transport men of a certain battalles asked many questions of the men they met coming down from the front. Nearly all the questions included enquiries as to the colonel. "How is the old-O.F. Is he all right?" Particularly anxiously did the colonel's groom ask this question.

At last there is the steady noise of marching feet. The battallon has arrived, and all is stir about the kitchens. The colonel's servant meets a man of his own company, very tired, very mudity, and very careworn. "Hullo, Pat! Glad to see you, old man! Is the C.O. come?" Pat stops suddenly, and looks up, a little startled and surprised.

"The C.O.? Yes, ah, yes! The C.O. has come!" And, heartily rejoiced at the news, the colonel's servant hurries off to the cook-sergeant for the hot tea he has arranged to be ready for his master.

Even the most weary and worn-out soldiers let their tongues wag when they come to the field kitchens and know the, some hot food is at hand. It is strange tought, tho, how silent the men are. They sink to the ground slowly, they seem even indifferent to the greetings of the transport men—they even ignore the kitchens!

the transport men—they even ignore the kitchens!

The colonel's servant comes hurrying along with a steaming cup in his hand. He stops near the shelter he has put up for his master behind the wagon. There is an officer standing close by. "Very glad to see you safe, captain! Is the colonel here, sir?"

The Servant's Greeting.

The officer looks up, his face haggard. Pointing to the shelter, he replies to the servant in a low voice: "Yes, oh, yes, the colonel is here." Very eagerly the servant goes towards the rude shelter, saying: "Colonel, indeed, I am glad you are back. I have your tea, sir, or perhaps you would like a little soup, or else, ma" be—"

The officer interrupts him, and, laying his hand upon his shoulder, says! "Don't you understand, man—the colonel?"

The two men stare at each other. In a lash the servant now understands! Very tenderly they raise the covering from the body, and by the light of an electric torch they look at the calm, dead face.

When the morning dawned they carried him, in mourning and respect, to the graveyard in the little ruined town near-by. And so it was the colonel came back

LEADING BATTER TO GET JOB WITH THE DODGERS

Montreal, Nov. 22.—There seems little prospect of Red Smythe, the flashy infielder, coming back to the Royels next season. If Smythe can hit over .300 in the big show there is a possibility of his supplanting George Cutshaw at second base for Brocklyn next year, according to Gotham critics. Smythe gives every promise of battering his way into the select class in the big show. In the International this season he played in 114 games and faced the opposing pitchers 436 times. He made 150 safeties, which gave him a percentage of .344. With his speed on the bases he is good enough for the best company.

CAR SHORTAGE ALLEGED

C. N. R. Says "Spotty" Crops and Bad Weather Cause Trouble.

By a Staff Reporter.
Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 22.—A large number of complaints have been received by the railway commission as to the scarcity of cars on the lines of the Canadian Northern Railway in the west with the result that, with full elevators, the farmers are in some instances unable to market their grain. The daily average of cars transported over the system is much lower than last year and the commission has sent deorge Spencer, its chief operating officer, to the west to look into the natice. scarcity of cars on the lines of the

ficer, to the west to look into the naticer.

The Canadian Northern accounts for the apparent falling off in efficiency in several ways. It points out that the crop last year was well distributed, therefore, the average distance of transportation was much less this year. This year the shorter hauls are comparatively few. The weather also has hindered transportation as well as loading by the farmers. When cars are placed and a few bushels put in the company can do nothing until the loading is completed.

The company also claims that the other traffic demands of the provinces have greatly increased. The railway commissioners point out that the car shortage is not confined to the lines of the Canadian Northern into western territory. The Canadian Pacific, for example, has an absolute car shortage in connection with the eleshortage in connection with the ele-vator movement. However, the car

Washington, Nov. 22.—Rep. Fitzgerald.
Democrat, chairman of the house appropriations committee, announced today that he favored an embargo on foodstuffs, and that it was his purpose to prepare a bill and to press the subject early in the coming session of congress.

"The reasons forcibly impel me to favor embargo legislation on goodstuffs, said Mr. Fitzgerald. "It is the most effective weapon in our controversy with Great Britain over her unwarranted blacklist of American merchants. As our foodstuffs are needed abroad, an embargo will be more effective than weary months of diplomatic negotiations which and in the continuance of the indefensible practices against our rights.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.

London, Nev. 22.—Mai. Butterworth of Montreal was wounded during the advance on Courcelette by a bullet splintering his left shoulder. He will return to Canada on Friday. Being left-handed, he finds the injury particularly harassing. He was firing a revolver with his left hand when a German shot shattered the shoulder.

Speaking of Capt. Horace Dickey of Edmonton, adjutant of the same battalion, who died of wounds received in the same advance, Major Butterworth said: "He was a prince of good fellows, loved by eyeryone, He inherited fine qualities from his mother, who is of Tupper stock, and his father, the late Hon. Arthur Dickey, former minister of militia."

The Standard says: "It is too early to assess the specific responsibility of the late emperor for the crime of 1914. Whether he was forced into that crime or gave himself willingly, there is at present insufficient evidence to determine, but it is certain that the woes descended upon Europe were the direct result of the subordination of Austrian policy to the ambitious rulers of modern Germany. The senility of the emperor facilitated the evil work just as it assisted later in the process of subjecting all the haps-burg dominion to Prussian control."

Expressing the opinion the death of Francis Joseph will have no effect on the war. The Standard continues: "Austria-Hungary is so completely under the German thumb that it is difficult to see how the transfer of nominal authority from a nerveless old man to a characterless young one can effect the conduct of the war. Under Francis Joseph, Austria blundered into rain, bankruptcy and woe unutterable. There is no sign that his death will release healthier or more virile forces, or assist in the salvation of the im-

ARE MAKING A MISTAKE.

A. G. McIntyre of Toronto, who is now the newsprint expert of the American Publishers' Association, in an interview regarding the present high cost of newsprint states that the manufacturers are showing a short sighted policy in taking advantage of the present abnormal times. The attempt to put the responsibility on the publishers will result in future over production, as new capital will be invested in new mills.

The attempt to make publishers raise the subscription and advertising rates is made without realizing the difficulty of increasing an intangible thing like advertising space, compared with commodite that can be weighed, measured or seen An over-development of machines wrapping paper and the production papers for magazines has greatly against the shortage of newsprint, says.

The new managing engineer, Mr. Frank G. Stevens, took charge of opcrations a little over a week ago, and the more aggr. ssive development policy which he has inaugurated is already bringing reguits. On the 100-foot level a raise was started above the west drift, and the first cut taken out exposed a face of ore eight feet wide which promises to carry high values. The purpose of this work is threefold—it will enable the management to determine definitely the grade and tonnage of the ore body on the first level, it will place the ore body in better shape for stopping, and will improve the ventilation and general wolking efficiency of the mine. It is probable that raising will also be done from the 200 to the 100-foot level as soon as the survey of underground development has been completed.

SOME LIQUIDATION

Early Gains Partially Lost in Afternoon Trading-Newray Gained Three Points.

The activity which has featured the trading in mine stocks all this week was continued yesterday, altho the volume of business was not so large as on the previous day. During the morning session the general list of both Cobalts and Porcupines displayed considerable firmness, but in the afternoon traders seemed disposed to so, and stocks eased off in consequence. Much of the selling was due to shorts, but from the appearance of the market covering will be a difficult matter. On the recessions good buying appeared.

Silver was up to a new high for the present movement at 73, and this influence was partly responsible for the strength of the Cobalt issues.

In the Porcupine list Newray was one of the features of strength, making a new high record at 115, an advance of 3 points for the day. Despite the tendency in the rest of the list to ease off in the later trading, Newray maintained its advance in its entirety. was continued yesterday, altho the ray maintained its advance in its entirety.

Davidson closed strong at 64, and Big Dome firmed up a little, closing at $24. Holly Con. was steady at $6.95, Inspiration was also a strong spot, reaching nigher levels around 30.

McIntyre looked top heavy, and after opening at 182 slumped to 177. Little movement one way or the other is expected in this stock until after the amlagamation matter is definitely cleared up. The meeting of the directors to consider the question is to be held on Thursday, and again on Friday, after which some announcement may be expected. McIntyre Extension made a small gain to 52½, but suffered from the liquidation in the aftermon, and sold off to 50.

Schumacher made further ground, touching a new high at 75, but reacted to 70 later. Reports on this property are extremely bullish.

Teck-Hughes was strong, selling thruout at 54 to 55, and West Dome Consolidated held steady at 33½ to 344.

IN MINE STOCKS MARK HARRI MINES and MINING

During the past eighteen months the United States he been fairly inundated in a flood of prosperity, and the wat instead of receding, as many predicted, have expanded until the have covered the country from Maine to California, and fro far-off Alaska to Southern Florida.

Nearly every industry is directly or indirectly affected, b it is the mining industry that is reaping the greatest benefit, f iron, steel, copper, lead, zinc and silver are all in such demithat normal values are forgotten, and the manufacturers needin these raw materials are bidding up the price to insure a future

Copper is selling at the highest price since the Civil War. and the consensus of opinion among metal brokers is that it will go much higher during 1917.

Copper is just as necessary to business life as bread is to the human life, and, so long as the demand for copper exceeds the supply, you will see record prices for the red metal.

Copper for immediate delivery is selling at above 34 cents pound, and foreign countries, as well as large manufacturers, are now endeavoring to place contracts for enormous quantities of copper, to be delivered the latter part of next year.

Nearly all of the big producing copper mines have sold their entire production for this year, and for the first half of 1917; therefore, new contracts specify the last part of 1917, or in some cases, as far ahead as 1918, as delivery dates. This means that the year 1917 will eclipse 1916 in the copper industry, and, as the year 1916 has already established phenomenal records as to earnings, production, etc., one can only leave the 1917 figures to the imagination.

Copper companies are earning double and triple dividend requirements, and, in consequence, they are building up cash surpluses that insure dividends for years to come, providing they do not distribute these surpluses as cash dividends or in some form of a bonus.

There is no such thing in this world as an absolutely safe investment (for even government bonds, the premier security of the world, have, in the past, shown losses through repudiation or defaulted payments, and will, no doubt, do so again in the future), but I believe copper securities are about as safe as anything can be, and, under present conditions, you can purchase such securities where an income of 8, 10, 12 and even 15 per cent. is assured for many years to come.

Stocks like Kennecott, Utah, Anaconda, Chino, Miami, Inspiration, Ray Consolidated, United Verde Extension, Nevada Consolidated and a host of others I could mention are investment class, and they will, no doubt, pay big dividends for the next decade, even if the European war is settled and peace reigns throughout the land.

Nearly all of the above-mentioned stocks could have been purchased in the past at a fraction of the present market prices, as, for instance, United Verde Extension selling before the war as low as 32 cents a share, and now quoted above $40; or Chino and Miami, both offered to investors at $5 per share, and now selling at $70 and $48.

The investor who had the courage to buy copper securities when the company was still in the development stage is now reaping his just reward, which, in many instances, means dividends every year far in excess of the original cost of the stock.

The proper time to purchase a mining security is when it is an opportunity, and the proper time to sell is when it is an achievement. All of the above were once an opportunity; now they are achievements, and should be purchased for the income they yield rather than for any increment in market value.

While all of the big copper companies have passed into the achievement class, there are many junior coppers on the mining list that are just entering the opportunity stage, and some of these will, no doubt, emulate the record of Chino, Miami, or United Verde Extension.

It takes anywhere from two to five years to develop a copper property from the prospect to the producing stage, and, right at the present moment, there are half a dozen young copper companies working night and day to bring the properties up to a point where they will enter the producing class.

These companies, in my estimation, represent the opportunities of today, and, as the shares can be purchased at a very low figure, I believe it is the psychological moment to buy.

Butte-Detroit and Boston & Montana are two companies of this character, and, upon request, I will gladly send full and complete data which will give you the past, present and future of both companies.

Both Butte-Detroit and Boston & Montana have their future before them, and, according to many eminent mining engineers who have lately examined the properties, this future looks as bright as Chino, Miami or United Verde Extension did when these big producers were in the same stage of development.

For full and complete information on the big copper producers or near producers, write me.

STEEL LOSES AT END

Motor Shares Dominate Exchange, But Lose Ground

Near Close.

New York, Nov. 22.—Trading in today's active, market was governed to an unusual extent by technical conditions. There were further indications countered bull account, especially in metals tonded bull account, especially in metals and specialties of recent prominence and strength.

Stocks of the more speculative character were freely offered almost from the outset, but registered lowest prices in the final hour when the entire list became unsettled. One of the primary causes was an unexpected rise to 4½ per cent. in call money.

Authoritative denial of any impending deal of consolidation of the metal companies was the chief factor in that quarter. Coppers fell 2 to almost 5 points from highest quotations of the preceding session and twice that much from best prices of last week. Paper issued lost as much, also some of the equipments and independent steel and iron issues, Bethlehem Steel falling 30 points and recovering 10, with a loss of 9 for the preferred.

U. S. Steel held steady during the forenoon, the action of the corporation in the matter of the increased wage schedule being accepted as a favorable development. Steel made its best price in the later dealings, but lost ground as selling pressure increased, closing at a net loss of almost two points.

Motor shares and accessories dominated the market for a time at gains of two to seven points, Chandler Motors leading the advance, with Studebaker and Maxwell. Most, if not all of these gains were forfeited, however, as were some substantial advances in the leather group. Ohio Gas retained over half its six-point gain, but this proved to be an isolated instance.

Rails were strong during the mid-session, presumably in consequence of the

LONDON STOCK MARKET.

London, Nov. 22.—The Roumanian situation was responsible for today's easier and stack stock market. The death of the Austrian emperor had practically no effect. Home funds sagged from lack of support, and shipping, metal, rubber and Roumanian oil shares finished lower under tradizing. American securities were der realizing. American securities were ider which the exception of steel issues, which were firm.

Money was in short supply, and dis-coun rates were steady.

Last week's revenue returns included fil.,000,000 from the sale of treasury bills, and fil2,000,000 from exchequer bonds, and the sum of $4,000,000 was gathered from excess profits.

Steel of Canada Only Holds on Dividend Declaration-Old Issues Quiet.

The declaration of a 4 per cent. dividend by the directors of the Steel dividend by the directors of the Steel Co. of Canada did not take the Torronto stock market by surprise except in the modesty of the distribution after all the rumors of the tremendous earnings of the company, and the market so took it after the first splange of inspired buying. Compared with old Canadian industrials which have stood the test, or with American industrials of long standing and equal or larger dividends, the price is altogether out of line. In price is altogether out of line. In Illinois pfd. 88 caused a jump of three points in the Macdonald Bridge and apparently recent liquida-tion has brought this stock down to a level at which the public are willing to buy it again. Canada Steamship was in good demand and the stock acted very well in the face of a rather heavy general market, both here and in New York. Prices sold off fracthonally, with two or three exceptions. thru the local list, but there was no pressure to sell and the reaction in New York prices was accepted here as overdue and of a healthy nature.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET.

Winnipeg, Nov. 22.—Wheat closed 4chigher for November, 41½c higher for May. Oats saired %c in December and 1½c higher for May. Oats saired %c in December and 1½c higher for May. Barley was 1c lower for both months. Flax gained 4c in November, 3¾c in December and 3½c in May.

Wheat opened strong, but during the day sagged. The trade was small up to the closing hour, when a big rush of buyling orders flooded a tight market and sent prices up nearly 5c over the previous close. Late news said that it was snowing in Alberta, which helped to boost prices. Cash wheat demand was very poor, 2½c lower. Oats were fair, barley in good demand and flax steady.

On Judicious

Purchases

At the present time the Can-adian Mining Market offers a large number of excellent op-portunities of purchasing stocks would warrant and there is little question but that a very great amount of money will be made in the market during the next three or four months-by those who exercise a proper amount of discretion in the selec-

There are, of course, always two ways of going about the pur chase of stocks; the one, that of rushing blindly into the market to buy some issues upon which has been whispered a "tip" that the stock in question is to be rushed up, and the second, which is a careful and judicious selection of a security which has real merit behind it and which appears to be selling at less than its actual worth. The first method is not to be characterized as even speculation—it is simply guess work and needs no further consideration. The second method requires the careful consideration of all the factors governing the issue in question; the ore reserves of the mine, the management, the earning power and likewise the market or technical position of the stock. There are on the list today issues which are intrinsically worth more than current prices, but which fall short of meeting the requirements of the careful speculator simply because the technical position of the issue is such as to prevent an advance in the price of the shares. On the other hand there are stocks which have, for one reason or another, been put to prices which are much higher than the condition of the property warrants, sidered if the fullest advantage is to be taken of the opportunities which present themselves. The average trader is not in a position to keep in touch with the mining camps closely enough to follow the developments of the various properties from day to day nor, in the very nature of things, can the average trader know the variations of the market which make for the good or bad technical position of the stock. Yet these matters are of the very first importance, and knowledge of all the governing factors must be obtained if the best results are to be secured from careful speculation. It is here that the broker can be of greatest service, and we beg to draw your attention
