KING GEORGE URGES CZAR TO STAY HIS HAND; BUT GERMANY MAY LET LOOSE DOGS OF WAR ANY TIME

Only Hope Now Is In Efforts Being Made By The British Sovereign

HE COMMUNICATES ALSO WITH THE GERMAN EMPEROR

Situation Regarded as Desperate and One Report Says Czar Has Already Ordered Mobilization of His Forces on Sea and Land-- British Cabinet in Session Over Situation

London, Aug. 1.—King George of England today threw his full support to the cause of peace. He sent an urgent message to Czar Nicholas of Russia. It was reported in diplomatic circles that the message was an appeal for the Czar to stay his hand and avert the war catastrophe that threatens.

GERMANY MAY GIVE WORD ANY MOMENT Early today official announcement was made that the king had communicated with Emperor Nicholas.

RUSSIAN MOBILIZATION ORDERED? Paris, Aug. 1.—The Temps has a Berlin despatch dated 1.45.—"At the foreign office it was assured a despatch had been received from the German ambassador at St. Petersburg, stating that the Czar has just ordered a general mobilization of land and sea forces. The situation is considered desperate. The Emperor returned yesterday afternoon."

GERMAN TROOPS ON FRENCH SOIL Paris, Aug. 1.—Announcement by the Havas News Agency that German troops had penetrated French territory, well defined reports that Germany had demanded assurances from France by noon today, and the excitement due to the assassination of Jean Jaurès, Socialist leader, caused wild scenes in Paris today.

Mobs were fired by patriotic utterances of street speakers, who shouted "On to Berlin," as they paraded through the streets.

A special meeting of the cabinet was called early in the day. It was understood that this was for the purpose of taking action in the communication from Berlin.

Le Matin publishes an extra edition, carrying the declaration that the reply to Russia and France to Germany's ultimatum could not be delayed after noon today.

The general impression, it says, "is that Germany has gone too far and that war can be the only sequel."

Berlin War Mad Berlin is war-mad, patriotic mobs filled the streets during the night, shouting for war with both Russia and France.

GLOOMY REPORTS TO WASHINGTON Washington, Aug. 1.—President Wilson last night received despatches from American diplomatic and consular representatives in Europe on the war situation. Ambassador Penfield cabled from Vienna that the situation was growing worse rapidly; that the Emperor had ordered a general mobilization, including the Landsturm, which is the third branch of the Austrian reserves. He said this was the extreme length of military preparation.

Ambassador Herrick sent an equally pessimistic outlook from Paris. He stated that one French bank had closed on falling to meet engagements amounting to $1,000,000.

Other representations of an equally gloomy character, which reached the White House, impressed officials with the belief that little hope exists for averting the threatened European war.

From Berlin, it was authoritatively reported that the peace efforts of Germany had resulted in total failure, and that war now seems inevitable. This despatch together with the strident censorship and embargo on news to the press from Vienna, St. Petersburg, and Berlin, was regarded as virtual confirmation of the ominous reports of the last twenty-four hours. Practically all hope has been abandoned of confining the struggle to Austria and Serbia, or even to these two countries and Russia.

In view of the censorship prevailing throughout most of Europe and which it is expected will be more rigid than relaxed, officials of the state department have arranged for the issuance of fresh instructions to consuls and diplomatic officers, requesting that they make frequent and full reports of all developments in the situation. Each official hereafter will be expected to file a report at least once a day on important events within his district. In this way it is hoped Washington can keep pretty well in touch with events as they develop.

The Pope as Mediator Rome, Aug. 1.—The Pope has not yet intervened directly in the war. He will, however, at the earliest opportunity, offer his services as a mediator between the nations involved. The legates and nuncios at various places have been instructed to join their efforts with those of other diplomats in efforts to avert a general war.

England Holds Railways London, Aug. 1.—It is reported that the government has notified the London and Southwestern Railway and the London, Chatham and Dover that it might be necessary to take over their telegraph lines and train service. The London general omnibus company has also received notice to be in readiness to hand over its motor busses.

Puts Onus on Germany. Paris, Aug. 1.—The "Echo de Paris" says Sir Francis Bertie, the British ambassador, went to the Elisee Palace during the meeting of the cabinet and made an important communication. Premier Viviani left the cabinet to receive the ambassador, who afterwards saw President Poincaré. The paper says it believes that Great Britain will aid France if she should be attacked by Germany.

M. Pichon, begins an editorial in the Parisien as follows: "The die is cast. We are at war. We have tried every means of conciliation, but we have failed." The article goes on to say that Germany has acted in a contrary manner towards every proposition for mediation.

It adds:—"Her declaration of yesterday does not allow any doubt that it is war that Germany wants. Germany demands that Russia shall demobilize in twelve hours, or that she herself will mobilize. Germany then demands to know what France intends to do in the presence of Russian mobilization and insists on knowing today in terms which must be expected.

"There is nothing left to do but prepare for the great encounter, which for so many years France has striven to prevent. Defeated in 1871, she was victorious in 1914. Von Moltke gave fifty years for the Germanization of Alsace. Forty-three years have passed without this Germanization advancing."

German Preparations Paris, Aug. 1.—The most significant indication of the attitude of France is revealed in last night's Temps, the nearest to an official organ. It publishes telegrams from Berlin dated from Saturday to yesterday, which had been withheld by official orders. They give information, step by step, of German preparations for the "state of war." The despatches tell of the garrisons of Strasbourg and Sarrebourg being brought up to full strength; that military works on the French frontier were occupied by war contingents, also that harbor batteries advanced and the stores completed.

HE HAS STRIVEN HARD FOR PEACE

Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, who has been working hard for the peace of Europe.

companies were ordered to collect material in view of the mobilization and to have their platfords cleared. The next says the men on leave were recalled and the troops in the instruction camp and manoeuvre fields were ordered to rejoin the garrisons.

The best deductions from the telegrams is that France has been fully informed of the German activities and has met them. This explains the constant rumors of French night manoeuvres at the French frontier.

United States as Peace Maker. Paris, Aug. 1.—The suggestion undoubtedly has been made to the United States as the greatest power not directly interested in the present situation, that the American republic should assist the powers of Europe if there is any possibility of their using its services in an effort to maintain peace.

Such offers as that which the United States probably has been made only semi-officially. The chief obstacle to a peaceful solution of the difficulty through the efforts of the United States is the question of time. Any form of intervention would be welcomed by the powers, but any action taken in this direction must be taken immediately.

Such offers as that which the United States probably has been made only semi-officially. The chief obstacle to a peaceful solution of the difficulty through the efforts of the United States is the question of time.

Germany hitherto has not listened to any power, or rather she has listened without acting on the suggestions offered. If she would listen to the United States some good might come of an offer of the services of that country as mediator. But the German attitude maintained up to the present precludes that Germany would accept suggestions which might be offered by America.

BANK RATE NOW 10 P. C. London, Aug. 1.—The Bank of England today raised its discount rate to 10 per cent.

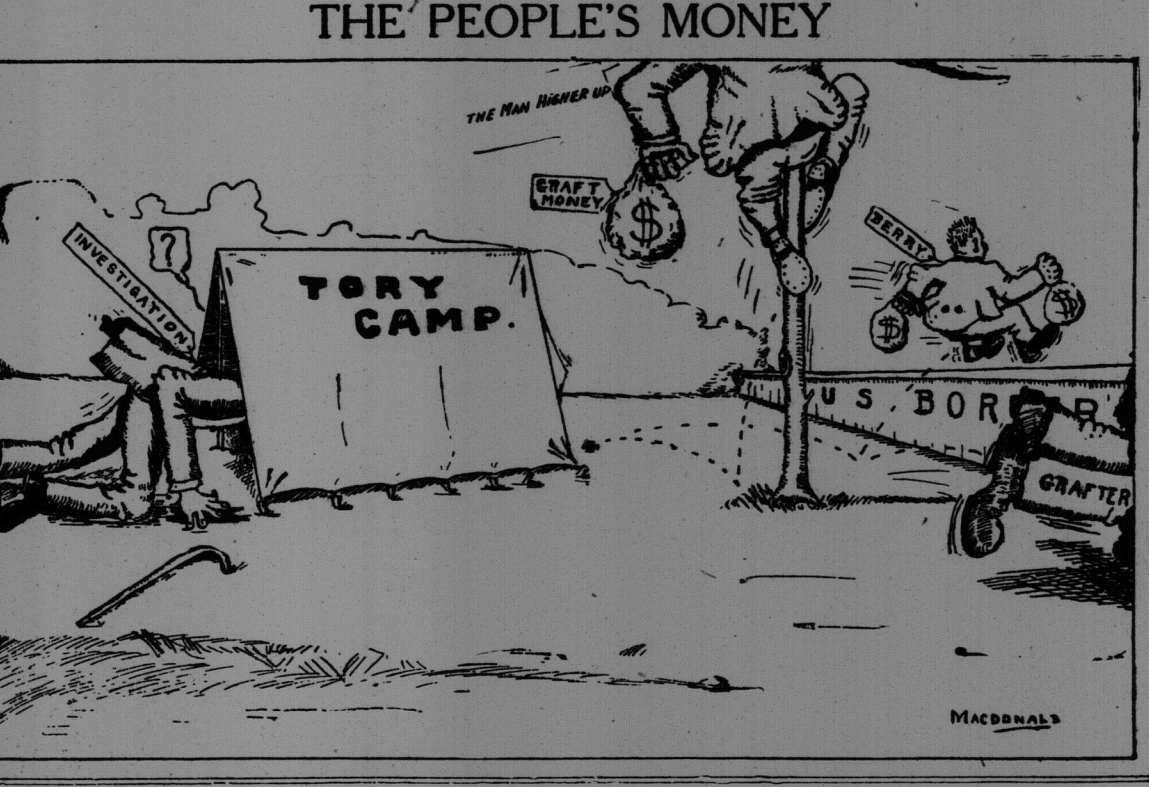

The national penny bank, an institution with many branches, where small depositors are received, was closed today.

New York, Aug. 1.—The belief in Wall street that the re-opening of the stock exchange might be postponed even longer than Tuesday.

Rush for Gold London, Aug. 1.—A run on the Bank of England was resumed today. More than 100 persons were in line when the bank opened. Most of them were demanding gold on notes with which they had been paid by other banks.

Italy Neutral Rome, Aug. 1.—Italy will remain neutral today. It was authoritatively announced. This will leave only Germany and Austria for the triple alliance to fight the rest of Europe. Italy takes the stand that, as it will not be a question of defensive war, Italy will confine herself to pointing out that her obligations under the treaty in the triple alliance do not obligate her to take up arms under the present circumstances.

All Austrians Arms Vienna, Aug. 1.—Emperor Franz Joseph today ordered general mobilization of all Austrian forces because of the McLean.

ALEX. GIBB AT NEW POST

Hearty congratulations and best wishes for success in his new office, were tendered by numerous friends to Alexander Gibb of North End, as he assumed charge of the ticket office in the Union Depot today. For the last twelve years Mr. Gibb has been chief clerk to L. R. Ross, terminal agent at the depot, and has greatly widened his circle of friends through his courteous and obliging disposition. His connection with the I. C. R. has been one filled with credit for himself, and the promotion with which he has been honored is richly merited, and is a cause for hearty satisfaction amongst all who know him.

THE PEOPLE'S MONEY

The results of the examination in the alumnae medal competition for Grade IX leading honors and for the governor-general's medal for Grade X were made known today. In both cases the winners were boys. Of late in the scholastic honors girls have been well to the fore. The winner of the Grade IX medal was Horace Wetmore, a pupil in Miss Dillion's class, with a total of 737. The other marks made were as follows: James Haines, 688; Lawrence Manning, 687; Howard Bustin, 681; Vivienne Dawling, 628; Celia Geldart, 623; Maude Manning, 568; Edward Cosgrove, 544; and Marjell Rogers, 522.

HOME FROM EUROPE

John Flood, accompanied by his son John Flood, Jr., were expected to return to St. John on the Boston train this morning, after a trip through Europe. They sailed from New York about the middle of May on one of the Hamburg-American liners and returned on the Vaterland arriving at New York on July 23.

IN TRAINING FOR THE POLAR TRIP

London, Aug. 1.—Sir Ernest Shackleton and the men who are to accompany him on his South Polar trip have undergone a regular course of training to prepare them for the long and hard walk across the Antarctic continent. Sir Ernest says: "One's only chance is to be hard and spry. I begin every day by boxing with one of the members of the expedition. We go to each other hard, and a shower bath after this exercise sends me to my office feeling full of energy."

ALL WORK AND NO PAY

Berlin, Aug. 1.—Tips make up the sole wages of the unskilled employes more than 60 per cent. of 706 German hotels, according to an investigation just completed by the Association of Hotel Servants. The highest wages paid is $11 monthly, and the total expenditures required of the employes more than equal their fixed wages. Only 2.5 per cent of the servants in the hotels investigated have less than 100 hours of work weekly, while 42 per cent work from 100 to 112 hours, and eight per cent have at least eighteen hours' work a day. Twelve per cent have no half or three half days in the month.

PAINT NO MORE PORTRAITS

London, Aug. 1.—John S. Sargent has declined a handsome commission to paint a portrait of Victor J. Dowling for the Manhattan Club of New York, and has reaffirmed his decision not to paint any more portraits. To John W. Cox, who made the offer to Mr. Sargent on behalf of the Manhattan Club, the eminent painter said the portrait of Henry James, which was damaged by suffragettes while on exhibition at the Royal Academy, was painted in accordance with an old promise, otherwise he would not have attempted even that one portrait. Mr. Sargent is now devoting himself to sculpture, in which he has been most as great a success as he did with portraits. He is now completing some work on the statue of the late Mr. Abbey at the time of his death.

More About Band Concerts.
To the Editor of The Times:
Sir—In reply to the letter of the commissioner of public works to the press re: City Cornet Band and Band Concerts,
I wish to state that according to the commissioner's letter it would appear that I on behalf of the band made a statement that the commissioner did communicate with all the other bands. By referring to my letter you will observe that a statement of such positive nature is not contained therein.
What I had reference to was an article which appeared in the newspapers to the effect that the commissioner had communicated with all the bands and had received an answer from one or two; we naturally inferred from this that the commissioner had corresponded with the bands in the usual way, by letter.
In regard to the bands failing to respond to a public notice, I desire to state the only article appearing in the press that the band has knowledge of was a conversation the commissioner had with a reporter, which the band did not consider an official notification.
The commissioner states he heard a report that the City Cornet Band would be unable to take part in the city band concerts owing to other engagements. I wish to say the band is not responsible for any reports of this nature.
Trusting I have made the band's position clear in this matter, and thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, remain, Yours truly,
FRID A. HAZEL,
Sec. City Cornet Band.

NOT RE-ASSURING

King George today made a strong bid for peace in a special message sent to the Czar asking him to stay his hand. There has as yet been no word of the Emperor of Russia's reply, but meanwhile hope is dimmed by cable news that Germany may declare war at any moment. The outlook is not reassuring.

THEY MOVE SWIFTLY

The week just closing has been eventful beyond the ordinary. Previous to last Saturday the despatches gave no evidence that ominous war clouds were gathering over Europe and yet today nations are under arms, troops and fleets are assembled and already the artillery booms, swords are drawn and men have fallen in battle. The swiftness with which the players in the grim drama of war have sprung to their places and the speed with which the stage has been set are remarkable features of the situation.

METHODS OF TRIAL

Commenting on the Caillaux murder trial in Paris, the Boston Globe says that had the woman been tried in America it is a matter of doubt whether she would have been convicted but "the methods by which she would have been tried, however, would have been far different. Hysteria and hearsay, bitter wailings and biting sarcasms, duels and scandal are all cast into the melting pot in France. The whole method of seeking the truth is different."

A TIME OF CHANGE

"We must have a country to squabble in," says a Unionist member of parliament—Sir Edward Cones. The difficulty is that his party in the current session of parliament threatens to pass from organized squabbling to disorganized squabbling. They threaten to repudiate all the conditions of civilized government, and to do what they can to break the public peace.

by the law, they most heartily agree; but the Liberals have won three very decisive and successive victories at the polls, and the Unionist leaders completely disregard this expression of the people's will.

Burke used to say that if the law was not strong enough to protect the humblest Hindoo upon the shores of the Ganges, the nobleman was not safe in his castle upon the banks of the Thames. And it is true that if at the first moment we owe everything to labor, at the second and at every succeeding moment we owe everything to law. Jeremy Bentham, in one of his addresses said:

"Law, alone, has accomplished what all the natural feelings were not able to do; law, alone, has been able to create a fixed and durable position, which deserves the name of property. The law, alone, could accustom men to submit to the yoke of foresight, at first painful to be borne, but, afterwards agreeable and mild; it alone could encourage them in labor—superfluous at present, and which they are not to enjoy until the future."

On him whose word plunges Europe into war a fearful responsibility rests. The first half of 1914 saw a gradual recovery in business. The second half, seems less promising unless the European crisis passes.

The man who had called for margins yesterday was able to congratulate himself on the fact that all the stock exchanges were closed. Evidence of the disastrous effect of the war outlook is early seen in the disruption of business, failures in many places and the price of money sent up alarmingly.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Cardinal Lugari, Assessor of the Holy Office, died in Rome yesterday, aged sixty-eight. Jean Jaures, a noted Socialist leader, was shot dead in Paris yesterday by Raoul Villain, aged twenty-nine. M. Jaures was opposed to war and it is thought that was the cause of the assassination.

A "TOWEL" OF HOT AIR

In hotel, factory and public lavatories where roller towels should not be used because of the danger of spreading skin diseases, and where the expense of furnishing individual paper or cloth towels is considerable, the electric hand drier is used economically and satisfactorily. A sanitary hand drier, described in the "Electrical World," consists of a sheet-metal case with an opening in its top in which the hands can be inserted and dried by a current of hot air.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Mrs. Benton tasted the savory morsel she had carefully compounded in the chafing dish and looked at her husband somewhat apprehensively. Then she said: "Somehow, it don't taste just as Mrs. Mink's did the other night. Yet I thought I remembered the recipe all right. I suppose I must have left something out."

Dante Gabriel Rossetti once showed Whistler a sketch and asked his opinion of its merits. "It has good points, Rossetti," said Whistler. "Go ahead with it by all means."

"Why are you so angry with the doctor?" asked Mr. White of his wife. "Because," she replied, "when I told him I had a terribly tired feeling he told me to show my tongue."

Where Shall I Invest My Money?

This is a question that often bothers us when we have any surplus money. Some people are born rich and do not have to provide for independence, others are looking for investments that will bring them in good dividends. The Silver Black Fox Industry in P. E. Island has made thousands of investors wealthy. In 1913 alone, 30 companies paid to their shareholders an average cash dividend of 105 p. c. Is there any other industry that would do this? 1914 dividends will be even greater than before. Now is the time to invest. Send in your application today to the St. Lawrence Silver Black Fox Co., Ltd. Head Office—Charlottetown, P. E. Island

Foxes Capitalized at $17,000 PER PAIR This capitalization included all expenses for the first year up to September 1, 1914. In other words, the breeding stock will be ranchered, cared for, fed and all expenses paid for the first year without any cost whatever to the shareholders. Instead of paying the 10 per cent to 25 1-2 per cent. increase charge paid to most ranches this money will go directly into the pocket of the investor.

Your Investment is Protected Each director is placing practically all his fox investments in this enterprise and the directors have their interests so involved in this ranch that they cannot afford to let their interest and watchful care lapse for a moment. The best breeding stock has been secured and one of the strongest, safest and most convenient ranches yet established is being erected and equipped.

The History of The Industry If you inquire, you will find that the majority of rich men in P. E. Island have made their money in the Fox Industry, which, while yet in its infancy, shows the probability of making a great many more rich men. This being the case, you should not let this opportunity of increasing the earning powers of your money pass without giving it your careful consideration.

Directors ARE Reliable Men This is a most important feature when you consider that these are the men that you must look to for a square deal. Read the list over carefully and you will certainly conclude that an investment here is as safe with better prospects than money in the bank. This Company has only a limited amount of stock for sale. Secure yours today. This is a gilt-edge proposition.

POLICE INQUIRY

Very little new evidence was produced at the afternoon session of the police inquiry before Commissioner Chandler yesterday, in the charges brought against Chief Clark. The witnesses included Sergeant Smith, Policemen Coyne, Briggs, Howard and Anderson. It was announced that there were about twenty-five more witnesses to be called.

The evidence given was similar to what has been produced at previous hearings. Sgt. Smith told of having been summoned to Market Square on the night of the riot disturbances, but said it would have been "suicide" to have tried to make any arrests, and that there were about twenty-five more witnesses to be called.

PALE AND SICKLY BOYS AND GIRLS Need All the Strength That Good Red Blood Can Give.

Youth is the time to lay the foundation for health. Every boy and girl should have plenty of pure blood and strong nerves. With thin, impure blood they start life with a handicap too great to win success and a handicap Pure, red blood means healthful growth, strong nerves, a clear complexion and good digestion. In a word, pure blood is the foundation of health.

The signs of thin, impure blood are many and unmistakable. The pale, irritable boy or girl, who has no appetite or ambition, is always tired, and who does not grow strong, is the victim of anaemia, or bloodlessness—the greatest enemy of youth.

There is just one thing to do for these boys and girls—build up their blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. You can't afford to experiment with other remedies for there must be no guesswork in the treatment of anaemia. Through neglect or wrong treatment, anaemia gradually develops into the pernicious form which is practically incurable. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills work directly on the blood, giving it just the elements which it lacks. In this way these Pills build up every organ and nerve in the body, thus developing strong, rugged boys and girls. Miss Anna Louise, Grand Forks, B. C., says: "I think that before taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I was one of the most miserable girls alive. I was hardly ever free from awful headaches, was as pale as a ghost, and could not go upstairs without stopping to rest. Now since taking the Pills the headaches have gone, my appetite is good and I am equal to almost any exertion, and you may be sure I will always recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing direct to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Bridegroom Falls to Appear. Belleville, Aug. 1.—Preparations of an extensive nature were made in this city for a Jewish wedding, but the bridegroom failed to appear. Upwards of 200 guests assembled, and were handsomely entertained by the bride's father, the disappointed bride-to-be, the groom-to-be was Frederick Deemes, a Jew, residing in Toronto. No excuse is given for his non-appearance.

HEAD GOT BALD IN PLACES

Very Itchy. When Brushed, Dandruff All Over. Hair Came Out in Great Bunches. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured Head in Three Weeks.

15 Hallam St., Toronto, Ont.—"About two years ago the dandruff began. My head got worse and scales formed on it which made it bald in places. It was very itchy and gave me a tendency to scratch it which made it worse. I always had to wear my hat whether in the house or work out. Whenever I brushed my hair it sent the dandruff all over. The hair came out in great bunches until I was nearly bald and when it was at its worst it came out roots and all."

"I tried several things after that but they were no good. After nine months like this I had hardly any hair left when one day I happened to see the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the paper. I straightway went for a sample. After first washing with the Cuticura Soap I applied some Cuticura Ointment and I could feel a great relief. After finishing the sample I went and got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. In three weeks they had cured my head." (Signed) B. Horn, May 10, 1913.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for poor-complexioned, red, rough-skinned, dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little, that it is almost criminal not to use them. A single set is often sufficient, sold everywhere. For liberal free sample of each, with 25-cent book, send post-card to Putzer Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A.

'Fruit-a-tives' Have Proved Their Value In Thousands of Cases

WONDERFUL RECORD OF A WONDERFUL CURE

Only Remedy That Acts On All Three Of The Organs Responsible For The Formation Of Uric Acid In The Blood

Many people do not realize that the Skin is one of the three great eliminators of waste matter from the body. As a matter of fact, the skin rids the system of more Urea (gr waste matter) than the Kidneys. When there is Kidney Trouble, Pain At The Back and Acid Urine, it may not be the fault of the Kidneys at all, but be due to faulty Skin Action, or Constipation of the bowels. 'Fruit-a-tives' cures weak, sore aching Kidneys not only because it strengthens these organs but also because 'Fruit-a-tives' opens the bowels, sweetens the stomach and stimulates the action of the skin. 'Fruit-a-tives' is sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50. 25c or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Great Scotch Captain of Industry Gives Freely

JUTE KING OF DUNDEE

Latest Call on Purse is For Half Million Dollars For New Town Hall In His Native City

(London Chronicle.)

The king will tomorrow lay the foundation stone of the new town hall of Dundee and visit the great jute works of the donor, Sir James K. Caird, a well-known baronet, whose latest example of practical philanthropy is his munificent donation to the Imperial Trans-Antarctic Expedition.

Sir James is one of the great captains of industry in Scotland and it will be during the king and queen's tour of the Ashton jute works that His Majesty will press a classic lesson and so lay the foundation stone of the new town hall. Comparatively little was known of Sir James Caird outside Dundee until he contributed £10,000 to the funds of the Free Trade Union in 1909. Many years before this, however, he was known to his fellow-citizens as a generous philanthropist.

His first public gift was on behalf of the Dundee Royal Infirmary in 1893. Two years later he founded the Dundee Maternity Hospital at a cost of £2,000. That institution had not long been open when Sir James followed with the presentation of a cancer hospital at a cost of £24,000. Next he added a consumptive sanitarium at a cost of £10,000 to his local gifts, and many similar benefactions were conferred upon local institutions.

We find him erecting an out-patient department of the Royal Infirmary, building a home of rest, contributing to ambulance work, spending £25,000 on pleasure grounds, handing over as a free unconditional gift £10,000 to the British Association, giving the Royal Society £25,000, and now erecting a new town hall for his native city at a cost of £100,000.

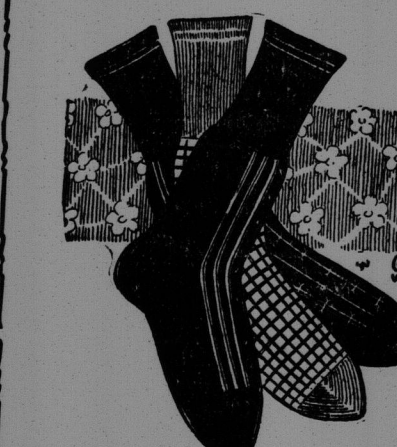

Sir James Caird's benefactions cover a wide field, to which he has now added Antarctic exploration, the gift to which is on a larger scale than his own. The "Daily Chronicle" has made possible a great many public improvements, and his gifts include the Caird Insect House at the London Zoo, where, as a natural humorist put it, the insects are now accommodated by themselves, and the old had arrangement in which they and the monkeys were kept together has been done away with.

Sir James Caird, who was created a baronet a few years ago, came before the public in another capacity as the new owner of Belmont Castle, the former home of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman. He is a fine type of a great business man. He is the leading jute manufacturer in Dundee, and jute manufacture may be regarded as the staple industry of the town, employing between 50,000 and 60,000 people. Sir James Caird has been a very successful business man. He has developed the business which he inherited from his father, enlarged it, and shown remarkable talent and organizing skill in bringing the works which the king and queen will visit on Friday to a great state of perfection.

Sir James Caird is a very quiet, unassuming, and modest gentleman, with few of the recognized traits of the philanthropist. He probably never made a speech in his life; he follows all matters that are engaging public attention quietly, and generally the first sign that he is interested comes in the form of a very brief communication in which he shoulders the financial responsibility for the matter in hand. The British Association, for instance, was taken by surprise when he gave it a gift of £10,000 to use as it thought best. Until then it had never received a higher donation than £200. But Sir James does things in a big way. Take for example the gift of the town hall. He had to be completed within three years. It has to provide the usual civic offices, council chamber, committee room, and also business premises which, when let, will bring in a good rental.

Peaceful There. Stockholm, Aug. 1.—The cordial way in which the 120 members of the Swedish parliament were treated during their recent visit to Christiania during the Norwegian centenary celebration is taken here as proof of increased friendship and understanding between the two countries. One result is a proposed visit of King Haakon to Sweden next year, although no plans have been yet made.

RECENT DEATHS

The many friends of Kendrick Outhouse and family were grieved to learn last evening of the sudden death of their little daughter Virginia. She was a very bright, attractive child, a great favorite with all. Besides her parents she leaves three sisters—Mrs. Plummer, of Sussex (N. B.); Miss Linnie and Miss Melba, at home. All deeply sympathetic with the stricken family in their sore bereavement.

The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of her father, 28 St. Andrews street.

At Shediac yesterday Alfred G. Lawton, a native of St. John who formerly conducted a drug store here, passed away. He was a son of the late W. G. Lawton of the old firm of Lawton & Vassie, and was in his 67th year. He leaves, besides his wife, three daughters, Misses Minnie, Bessie and Mollie. Stanley Lawton of this city is a brother.

Mr. Lawton conducted a drug store on the King square before the fire and enjoyed the friendship of a wide circle of business men and citizens in general in St. John. The funeral will take place at Shediac tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Charles C. Norris, president of the Norris-Patterson, Ltd., Advertising Agency, Toronto, died on July 22. His death will be greatly regretted by friends in the newspaper business, the printing trade and others throughout Canada.

To keep a fire in let it burn till clear and low. Then make a hole in the centre of the fire and into it put a large lump of coal. Lay a few small pieces of coal on either side and front and then bank down with small coal which has been damped well with water.

A prisoner at Marylebone, being unable to recall the name of Holloway Prison, referred to it as "the castle where they put the suffragettes in."

New York, Aug. 1.—A series of unusual occurrences marked July in professional baseball. Extra-inning no-hit games, and accidents on the diamond were grouped within a few days, as was the case just about this period in 1913. Taking the unusual features by dates, July 17 saw Clyde Miller in collision with Moeller, his team-mate, as both raced for a fly ball in a Washington-Cleveland game, with the result that Miller received a badly fractured jaw. On the same day George Weaver, captain of the Chicago White Sox, collided with Demmitt under similar circumstances, and was severely injured about the head. A no-hit no-run game and a twenty-one inning struggle also figured in the records of July 17. At Pittsburgh the New York Giants and the Pittsburgh Pirates played twenty-one innings, the New York club winning by 9 to 1. Babe Marquard and Babe Adams, the rival pitchers, twined the entire contest. With the exception of the twenty-four inning game between the Philadelphia Athletics and the Boston Americans on September 1, 1906, this is the longest game ever played in the major leagues. Three days previously the Hartford club defeated the New Haven team 2 to 1 in a twenty-three inning game in the Eastern Association, which is the third longest game in the history of professional baseball. The twenty-six inning contest between Decatur and Bloomingdale of the Three I League, played on May 31, 1909, still holds first place and the Philadelphia-Boston twenty-four inning match second position in the record of long games. Getting back to July 17 again, James Wilbers, pitcher of the Duluth Club of the Northern League, twined a no-hit no-run game against the Virginia Club of the same league. This is the third less game of the Northern League this season. The next day at Lebanon, Pa., the Lincoln Giants, a semi-professional team, varied the schedule by defeating the home club 2 to 3, and incidentally scoring eight home runs. Three players each secured two circuit hits. Moving on to July 18, the records show that the Wichita Club of the Western League defeated Sioux City 9 to 2 in a twenty-two inning game which required four hours and forty-eight minutes to play. On the same day at Long Branch, N. J., Jose Acosta, a Cuban pitcher of the seashore team, shut out the St. Louis American League club without a hit or run, winning a 2 to 0 victory in which he did not give a base on balls and had three hits called for in his delivery for the full nine innings.

GREAT MEN'S HOBBIES

(Pearson's Weekly.)
 "Now that Lord Justice Vaughan Williams has indulged in his hobby more time to his favorite hobby of ransacking second-hand dealers' shops for antiques than he would not even look at. It is almost a craze with him, and nearly every day after court work was over you would see him searching the antique shops."
 The quotation recently published in a London daily paper, gives an insight into the odd ways in which celebrated men pass their spare time, and although the sight of Lord Justice Vaughan Williams strolling along Fleet Street with an old fender under his arm, he did a short time ago, was unexpected, it was, in a way, no more curious than the sight of the Rt. Hon. John Burns doing golf for Lloyd George.
 The present leader of the Liberal party in the House of Commons is far more conventional in his personal resources. Mr. Asquith's hobbies are literature, golf, and bridge.
 Mr. Balfour mixes golf and tennis with the study of theology, while Bonar Law's main recreation is golf. Lloyd George is another golfer, but tastes of John Burns in the matter of games, and accidents on the diamond were grouped within a few days, as was the case just about this period in 1913. Winston Churchill admits to the possession of no particular hobbies, but his passion for fishing is well known. So is Sir Edward Grey's ability as a player of real tennis and a fly fisher; but there are not many people who know that one of Lord Charles Bessborough's great diversions is turning and carpentering.
 As a class, novelists appear to follow more queer pastimes than any other professional men. Here are some of the unusual ways in which well known writers amuse themselves.
 Henry Newhall, birds, nesting.
 E. F. Benson, shooting.
 Thomas Hardy, studying old church and dance music.
 S. Portal Hyatt, fighting tubercle bacilli.
 Cutcliffe Hynes, an enthusiastic cave hunter.
 William Le Queux, revolver shooting.
 Jack London, kite flying.
 E. F. Benson, canoeing.
 Sir Francis Burnand, sea boating.

WOULD CUT RETIRED PAY
 Washington, Aug. 1.—Secretary Daniels in a statement emphasizes the importance of action at this session of congress on legislation to curtail the increasing expenditures due to retired pay for young naval and marine corps officers.
 Mr. Daniels said he had found that frequently officers with comparatively little service were retired for physical disability of organic nature, and that a great majority of these still are able to take up pursuits in civil life without loss of time.
 A bill prepared by the secretary and pending would provide that any officer who had had less than ten years' service would receive one-fourth part on retirement, and those with more than ten years' service and less than twenty years' service, half pay, unless they have been totally incapacitated by disease or disability incident to the service.

LABOR PARADE AND GARDEN PARTY POSTPONED

The weather man interfered with the plans of the Trades and Labor Council for this afternoon. With the rain continuing to fall quite heavily it became necessary to postpone the big demonstration and garden party to have been held. The arrangements for the affair indicated that it would be particularly interesting, and had it not been for the weather success would undoubtedly have been met with. The parade and garden party have now been postponed until next week, probably on Saturday.
 At a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last evening the recent disturbances were discussed.
"BRING ON THE HORSES"
 Thursday next, on Moosepath Driving Park, the "bring on the horses" that is the real test horse—will be seen in action. Entries for the matinee are coming in by the ton, and a good afternoon's sport is assured.
 A few owners who had not yet entered, and they have done everything possible of being race horses, they belong to the class of "never was."
 The matinees are conducted under the National rules, and those interested feel that they have done everything possible to revive interest in horse racing.
 The public are assured of a good afternoon's sport, as only a small admission fee is charged. Trains will leave Union Depot for the park, and an old time crowd is expected. The kind that the Moosepath Park used to hold in the good old days, when excitement reached its height, and the favorite flag flew under the wire a nose ahead, or when under the beats the impatient crowd no longer could restrain the cry, "Bring on the Horses."
LOCAL BUILDING FIGURES
 Eighteen building permits issued during July by Inspector James Carleton show a total of $110,400 for proposed buildings. The figures for July, 1913, were $196,160. The total for the first seven months of 1914 is $404,650 and for the corresponding period last year $1,099,465.
 Some of the permits issued during the month are:
 Redeptionist Fathers, school building, two story and basement, brick, concrete and steel.

THE EAST ST. JOHN LINE

Work has practically stopped on the extension of the street car line to East St. John, although the tracks are almost ready for service between Cane's corner and the bridge at the Municipal Home. There still remains the work of making the connection with the loop line at Cane's corner.
 According to a statement made by H. M. Hopper, manager of the street railway company, this morning, the operation of the line will be held up on account of some changes the New Brunswick Telephone company are making in their line.
 The woodwork of the trestle is being erected to take care of the traffic while the new bridge near the Municipal Home is being put in position, in its new bearing completion.
 Asked if the street railway had gone as far as they intended to this year, Mr. Hopper said that he was unable to say, that they had no agreement with the government to use the trestle.

PICKPOCKETS GET $500

Boston, Aug. 1.—Two smooth-operating young pick-pockets who got away with $500 in bank notes as the basement of a Washington street department store are being sought.
 Sarah D. Miller of Revere, reported her loss at the Court square police station. She said she had the money in her hand bag and it comprised three $100 bills, five $20 bills and ten $10 bills. She noticed that the young men were constantly near her and that at every turn they jostled and crowded her until finally they disappeared. She reached for her handbag to take out some money and was told it was open and the money was gone. The two men who annoyed her were described. Detectives were sent out to search for the two thieves.
CHANGES AFFECT THE ST. LAWRENCE PILOTS
 They Will Be Taken on and Put off at Different Points.
 Ottawa, Aug. 1.—Captain Lindsay, superintendent of pilots, has submitted a report to the department of marine favoring the recommendation of the Mersey Commission, that pilots be taken on and put off at different points on the St. Lawrence, thus obviating the crossing of courses. The exact points where this will be done will be determined when the Shipping Federation is heard from. It is consulting its captains in regard to the matter.
FIRST TIME IN THE STATE
 Woman Presides at Opening of Democratic Assembly Session in Colorado.
 Denver, Aug. 1.—Issues growing out of the Colorado Coal Miners' strike were prominent when the Democratic State Assembly met to select candidates for the state-wide primaries of Sept. 8. The contest centered about the indorsement of candidates for governor.
 For the first time in the history of Colorado a woman called a state assembly to order. Mrs. Gertrude A. Lee, chairman of the State Central Committee, welcomed the delegates and presided until the election of a temporary chairman.
New French Coins
 Paris, Aug. 1.—The first of the new perforated nickel coins have just been struck at the Paris mint under the supervision of the designer, Henri Lidaudier, and from now on no more copper money will be minted. The passing of the traditional sou will, however, be slow. The new nickels will not be placed into circulation for several months, and then only in small quantities to replace the copper coins, which will be gradually withdrawn.
 Newspaper humorists are deriving much fun out of the hole in the middle of the five cent piece. It is asked whether they will be worn on a string round the neck, like Chinese "cash" and if so, whether a thoughtful government will provide the necessary string.

THE BEST QUALITY AT A REASONABLE PRICE

"It is Now Exactly—"
 Then you look at your watch and state confidently the correct time. There is a great deal of satisfaction in being able to do that, and there are many occasions during the day when it is important to know the exact time.
 You will always have the correct time if you carry a Watchman, Howard, DeLam, Elgin or Hamilton Watch. They are jewel set, run perfectly in any position and are not affected by heat or cold. All are guaranteed timekeepers.
 You can get a good watch for such a small sum you really can't afford to be without one.
 Step into Sharpe's and examine the watches. You'll be especially interested in the smaller size watches now becoming so popular.

ENGLISH LABOR MATTERS

London, Aug. 1.—The big lockout of builders which has held up building operations in London for months, is slowly crumbling without any definite settlement, the army of ironworkers, masons, carpenters and other men are turning to their work.
 The lockout arose from a number of sectional strikes, the men demanding better wages and shorter hours. Negotiations went on for weeks after the men refused to accept the terms and have now returned to work, leaving the smaller unions, which refused all terms offered by the contractors, to shift for themselves. As these smaller unions are nearly bankrupt, the members are expected to follow the example of the more wealthy unions.
 The story of the struggle shows how the men are revolting against the old leadership system. Three times the men refused terms agreed upon by their leaders.

LATE PERSONALS

AFRICAN HUNT AT IMPERIAL MONDAY

Boys and Girls Have Chance to Win Prizes For Best Descriptions
 Five reels of thrilling adventure in the depths of the Central Africa jungle (Pathe Freres special feature) will be the chief item in the Imperial's opening bill Monday in addition to the famous Vissochi Brothers. No circus, no ordinary hunting film yet to hand compares to this hour-and-a-half tramp into the haunts of the world's most ferocious beasts. It is claimed to be vastly superior to the Paul Halmey or Roosevelt films and was made during the expedition of a group of wealthy Frenchmen. Both as an educational and entertaining feature it is unsurpassed.
 So that the boys and girls of St. John may sharpen up on their zoology and general knowledge of animals the Imperial offers a cash prize of five dollars for the best 200-word description of the film "Sport" shown in Central Africa." To be submitted during the week and judged in time for next Saturday's matinee. Five Tango Racers will be given as supplementary prizes. No plain language is necessary, just a high-strung description of the picture is all that is asked.

GEORGE ADE'S
NEWEST FABLES IN SLANG

ILLUSTRATIONS BY HARRY J. WESTERMAN.

The Urchin went prowling around for Old Iron, which he trundled off to the Junkman.

A STUB-NOSED Primary Pup-rishly endowed with old-gold Freckles lived in a one-cylinder Town, far from the corrodng influences of the Stock Exchange.
 He arrived during the age of Board Sidewalks, Congress Gaiters, and Pie for breakfast.
 The Paper Collar, unminful of the approaching Celluloid, was still affected by the more tony Dressers. Prison-made Bow Ties, with the handy elastic Pastener, were then considered downright Natty.
 Limousines, Eugenes, Appendicitis, and the regulation of Combines were beyond the rise of the Hill, so the talk was mostly about the Weather and Married Women.
 The baptismal Moniker of the noted Offspring was Alexander Campbell
 Paris, but on account of his sunny Disposition he was known as the Countryside as Aleck.
 One morning the Lad did his crawl from under the Gull, at an hour when our Best People of the new Century are sending away the empty Siphons.
 He was acting on a Hunch.
 The far-famed Yankee Robinson Show with the Trick Mule and the smiling Tumblers, had exhibited the day before on the vacant Lot between the Grist-Mill and the Parsonage.
 Aleck was familiar with the juvenile Tradition that Treasure could be discovered at or near the trampled Spot on which the Ticket-Wagon had been anchored.
 It was known that the agitated Ya-hos from up in the Catfish County were likely to fumble and spill their saved-up Currency, thereby availing the trouble of handing it over to the Grafters later on.

 Aleck was the first Prospector to show. He got busy and uncovered a Silver Buck.
 It looked about the size of a Ferris Wheel.
 While beating it for the parental Roof he began laying out in his Mind all the Pleasures of the Flesh that he could command with the Mass of Lucre.
 The misce he made was to flash his Fortune on the Family Circle.
 After breakfast he found himself being steered to the Farmers & Merchants' Bank.
 He was pried away from the Cast-Wheel and given a leery Little Book which showed that he was a Depositor.
 "Now, Alexander," said his Mas, "if you will shin up the ladder and pick Cherries every day this week at two cents per Quart, by nightfall of Saturday you will have another Case-Note to put into Cold Storage."
 "But, if I continue dropping the proceeds of my Labor into the Reservoir, what is there in it for me?" asked the inquisitive Chick.
 His mother replied, "Why, you will have the Gratification of moving up to the Window at the Bank and earning a Smile of Approbation from old Mr.
 Fishberry with the Throat Whiskers."
 So the aspiring Mankin clung to the perilous Tree-Tops day after day, dropping the ruby Cherries into the suspended Bucket, while all the Relatives stood on the ground and applauded.
 One day there was a Conference, and it was discovered that little Aleck was solvent to the extent of $250.
 "Would it not be Rayzorius?" queried the Sire of Alexander, "would it not be Ispikene if Aleck kept on and on until he had assembled five whole Dollars?"
 Thus spurred by Endeavor by a large and rooting Gallery, the Urchin went prowling for Old Iron, which he trundled off to the Junkman.
 Also for empty Bottles, which he laboriously scoured and delivered at the Drug Store for a mere dribble of Chicken Feed.
 The sheet of Copper brought a tidy Sum, while old Mrs. Arbuckle wondered what had become of her Wash-Boiler.
 With a V to his Credit, Aleck put a Padlock on every Pocket in his Store
 Suit and went Money-Mad.
 He acquired a Runt and swilled it with solititude until the Butcher made him an offer.
 It was a proud Moment when he eased in the $7.20 to T. W. Fishberry, who told him to keep on scrounging and some day he would own a share in the Building & Loan.
 Our Hero fooled away his time in School until he was all of eleven years old, when he became associated with one Blodget in the Grocery Business, at a weekly Insult of Two Bones.
 All the time Aleck was cleaning the Coal-Oil Lamps or watching the New Orleans Syrup trickle into the Jug, he was figuring how much of the Stipend he could segregate and isolate and set aside for the venerable Mr. Fishberry, the Taker-in up at the Bank, with the Chinchilla on the Larynx.
 For ten long years the White Slave traded Eggs and scooped C Sugar.
 When Aleck became of age, Mr. Blod-get was compelling him to take $80 the first of every Month.
 He lived on Snowballs in the Winter and Dandelions in the Summer, but he had paid $800 on a two-story Brick facing Railroad Street.
 His Name was a Byword and Hising among the Pool-Players. Nevertheless, he stood Ace High with old Two-per-cent-a-Month up at the Abattoir known as the Farmers & Merchants' Bank.
 The Boys who dropped in every thirty Days came to know him as a Wise Fish and a Close Buyer. They boasted at Headquarters, so the first thing you know, Aleck was a Drummer, with two Grips bigger than Dog-Houses and a chance to swing on the Expense Account.
 A lowly and unsung Wanemaker would be sitting in his Prunery, wearing Yarn Wristlets to keep warm and mend tating another Attack on the Bottle of Stomach Bitters in the Safe, when Aleck would breeze in and light on him and sell him several Gross of something he didn't need.
 The Traveling Salesman dug up many a Cross-Roads overlooked by the Mapmakers.
 He knew how to pin a Rubie against the Wall and make him say "Yes."
 He rode in Caboses, fought the Roler-Towels, endured the Taunts of Eas, Beas, and Teas who shot the Sody Biscuit, and reclined in the Chamber of Horrors, entirely surrounded by Wall-Paper, but what cared he?

 He was sitting on the Needful.
 For a term of years he lived on Time-
 Tables and slept sitting up.
 Every January he dog-trotted through a feverish Routine of unpacking and packing, and then climbing back to the superheated Day Coach among the curdled Smells.
 One of the partners in the Jobbing Concern happened to die. Before Rigor Morris could set in or the Undertaker had time to pull a Tape Measure, Aleck was up at the grief-stricken Home to cop out an Option on the Interest.
 Now he could give the Cackle to all the Knights of the Road who had blown their Substance along the gay White Ways of Crawfordville, Bucyrus, and Scialina.
 He was the real Gasoak with a Glass Cage, a sliding Desk, and a whole Battery of Rubber Stamps.
 In order to learn every Kink of the Game, freeze out the other Holders of Stock, and gradually possess himself of all the Money in the World, Aleck now found it necessary to organize himself into both a Day and a Night Shift and have his Lunches brought in.
 The various Smoothshiners who were out on the Road had a proud chance to get by with the padded Expense Account. Aleck could smell a Phoney before he opened the Envelopes, because that is how he got His.
 With a three-ton Burden on his aching Shoulders, he staggered up the flinty Incline.
 Away back yonder, while sleeping above the Store, a Vision had come to him. He saw himself sitting as a Director of a Bank Meeting—an enlarged and glorified Fishberry.
 Now he was playing Fox and pulling for the Dream to work out.
 He was Guitton for Punishment, a Demon for applying the Acid Test to every Account.
 The Business Associates of Alexander liked to see Europe from the inside every summer and investigate the Coal and Crop of Florida every winter, so they allowed him to be the Works.
 He began building the Skids which finally carried them to the Fresh Air and left only one name on the Gold Sign.
 Up to his Chin in Debt and with a Panic flickering on the Horizon, it believed Alexander to be on the Job at 2:30 a. m. and hang around to catch the Pay-Roll until 9:30 p. m.
 Ofttimes while galloping from his Apartment to the Galleries or chasing homeward to grab off a few wasteful hours of Slumber, he would see People of the Lower Classes going out to the Parks with Picnic Baskets, or lined up at the Vaudeville Palaces, or watching a hard-faced Soubrette demonstrate something in a Show Window.

 It got him to think Folks could frivolous and waste the golden Moments when they might be looping on a Ten-Cent Piece.
 His usual Gait was that of a man going for the Doctors, and he talked Numbers to himself as he sped along, and mumbled over the important Letters he was about to dictate.
 Those who were pushed out of his way would overhear a scrap or two of the Baving and think he was Bally.
 The answer is that every hard-working Business Guy acts as if he had Screesh-Owls in the Tower.
 Aleck had his whole Staff so buffeted that the Hirelings tried to keep up with him, so that Life in the Beehive was just one thing after another, with no Intermision.
 With a thousand important Details claiming his attention, Aleck, had no time to monkey with side issues such as the general State of his Health or the multifarious plans for upholding the Flat-Heads that he could see from his Window.
 Those who recommended Golf to him seemed to forget that no one ever laid anything while on the Links.
 As for the Plain People, his only Conviction when he surveyed them in the Mass was that every Man-Jack was holding back Money that rightfully belonged to him (Alexander).
 Needless to say, the battling Financier was made welcome at the Directors' Table and handed a piece of a Trust Company and became an honored Guest when any Melon was to be sliced.
 All that he dreamt while sleeping in the cold room over the Store had entailed for fair.
 The more Irons in the Fire, the more slip-flops he turned.

He never paused except to weep over the fact that some of the rival Procurers were getting more than he could show. It was an unjust World. Breathing away the sally Tears, he would leap seven feet into the Air and spear a passing Dollar.
 By the time he had the Million necessary for the support of a suitable and well-recommended Lady, he was too busy to go chasing and too foxy to split his Pile with a rank Outsider.
 His Motor-Car squawked at the Sparrow Cops when they waved their Arms.
 The engineer who pulled the Private Car always had his Orders to hit it up.
 Sometimes the Private Secretary would drop out from Exhaustion, but the Human Dynamo never slowed up.
 He reposed at Night with a Ticker on his Bosom and a Receiver at his Ear.
 When he finally drew the Track and blew out all his Cylinders, they had to use a Net to get him under Control so that he could be carted away to the Hospital.
 Then the Trained Nurse had to practice all the Trick Holds known to Frank Gotch to keep him from arising to resume the grim Battle against his Enemies on the Board.
 He flattered long before calming down, but finally got him all spread out and as nice a Patient as one could wish to see.
 When he was too weak to start anything, Doc sat down and cheered him along by telling what Precautions should have been taken, along about 1880.
 "Alexander, I have some news for you," said the Practitioner, holding in his Grief so well that no one could notice it. "You are going away from here.
 Owing to the total absence of many Organs commonly regarded as essential it will be impossible for you to go outside to the Desk and duplicate any of your notable Stunts. No doubt we shall be able to engage Six Men of Presentable Appearance to act as Pall-Bearers. It is our purpose to proceed to the Cemetery by Automobile so as not to impede Traffic on any of the Surface Lines in which you are so heavily interested. I congratulate you on getting so far along before being tipped up, and I am wondering if you have a Final Request to make."

 "Just one," replied the Great Man.
 "I'd like to have you or somebody else tell me what it's all been about."
 The only remaining Fact to be chroniced is that the original Dollar, picked up on the Circus Lot, was found among the Effects.
 A Nephew, whom Alexander Campbell Purvis never had seen, took the Dollar and with it purchased two Packs of Egyptian Cigarettes, Regal Size, with Gold Tips.

Simple Home Remedy for Wrinkled Faces

Thousands are spending fortunes in frantic efforts to remove the signs of premature age from their faces. Such women will gladly pay almost any amount of money for worthless wrinkle removers, of which there are many.

If they only knew it, the most effective remedy imaginable is a simple, harmless face wash which can be made up at home in less than a minute. They have only to get an ounce of powdered seaolite and half a pint of witch hazel at the drug store and mix the two.

Gould and the Matter Of Payments To Premier

"Not Out of Railway Funds," He Answered, and Protested Against Giving Further Information - Paid $1,000 to Gleaner Because Crocket Wanted The Money - Winslow Got $3,000 For Some Reason - The Seely Letters

A. R. Gould, president of the St. John and Quebec Railway Company was on the stand at the Dugal inquiry all day yesterday until the commission adjourned. Another telegram was sent to New York with instructions to forward the books of the company and Mr. Gould will continue when the court resumes on Tuesday morning when it is hoped that the books will be here.

St. John and Quebec Railway, Presque Isle, Me., Dec. 15, 1912.

Dear Jim, - I was detained in Montreal last week longer than I expected and only arrived home Saturday night.

I saw and talked with all the interested parties in regard to the Crocket matter and I only saw him just a moment as he was making his way to the station.

First, we know that this amount will be satisfactory to you, and that it will be for you only.

OTHER GREAT AND MIDDLEDERS ARE TO ENJOY ANY PART OF THE FUNDS.

While the stock certificate you hold does not count for anything, it will be required to be returned to the secretary.

The next question arises as to how we are to get the money for you. While it is a simple matter to get all the money we want for construction purposes, it is a difficult matter to get ANYTHING FOR OURSELVES OR ANYONE ELSE OUTSIDE OF WHAT WE CAN SHOW LEGITIMATE VOUCHERS AS MONEY SPENT FOR CONSTRUCTION WORK.

I am obliged to return to Ottawa again tomorrow, and am not quite sure how long I shall be gone, but I expect to be down your way about Jan. 1, and about that time will endeavor to have something for you.

Yours very truly, (Sgd.) A. R. GOULD.

Mr. Carvell asked: "Did you pay any money to Mr. Fleming?" and witness replied "Not out of railway funds."

Mr. Carvell - Did you pay any money to Mr. Fleming by reason or because of having the contract with the government of New Brunswick?"

A. - I don't know that I should answer that.

Q. - Did you pay Mr. Fleming any money out of the fund you and your associates borrowed from the Prudential Trust Company?"

Mr. Gould objected to the question, and the question was ruled out.

Q. - Did you pay Mr. Fleming any money in the months of April, May, June or July, 1912?"

This question precipitated another battle between counsel with the lawyers for the defence fighting desperately to prevent the introduction of any evidence relating to payments to Premier Fleming.

Mr. Carvell (to opposing counsel) - You dare not answer the question. You know he did and every man in the court knows he did, and every man in the country knows he did.

Q. - I don't think I put it that way. To Mr. Teed the witness related the nature of his services to the company and said that the $5,000 a year only covered his expenses and that he looked to the profits to recompense him.

Q. - Can you tell me anything about the $300 retained for Mr. Baxter?"

A. - I authorized the check. It was for six months' salary.

Mr. Carvell - For salary? Mr. Guthrie here to see him, asking: Last fall when you needed counsel you discussed it with me?

Mr. Carvell - By whom was Mr. Baxter first mentioned? Mr. Guthrie mentioned his name and Mr. Barnhill recommended him.

A. - Yes, last December. I was not acquainted with him at the time. I told him that I wanted him as counsel for me, in the place Mr. Barnhill had held.

Q. - Did you give him $300 and Mr. Baxter did give you his advice from time to time and acted as counsel for some little time?

A. - Yes. Q. - There were, I think, two branches of the business in which you required Mr. Baxter - the Nagle matter and there was the business of the Dugal Company. In those two suits you retained him?

A. - Yes. Q. - And some time in the winter you received back the $300? A. - Yes. Q. - Was there some talk then of the company coming to the legislature. You further said: "Did you find out what it was that made him return the check?"

to Mr. Guthrie. Q. - Did he explain to you why he had returned it? A. - Yes; he said he could not serve the company and the legislature.

Q. - It was perfectly honorable engagement, was it not, you think? A. - I thought so.

Q. - He did not think it dishonorable to accept the $300, he mentioned it. A. - He seemed later to desire to wash his hands of it.

Q. - Had Mr. Barnhill been your counsel for a year before? A. - No.

Q. - Was it counsel you wanted or solicitor? A. - Counsel.

Q. - Didn't Mr. Guthrie was your solicitor at that time? A. - Yes.

Q. - And Mr. Baxter did not think there was anything dishonorable when the retainer was given? A. - No.

Q. - What did he say when he brought it back? A. - He said he could not act for the company and retain his standing, or something like that, in the legislature.

Q. - Didn't you know that it was some member of the committee who found the charge in the books and came to you about it? A. - I don't remember whether it was before or after.

Q. - Did you know it was after the committee was appointed? A. - I would not be positive.

Q. - I don't know anything about that. A. - I don't know anything about that.

Q. - What do you mean by charge? Q. - The charge in the books of $300? A. - I don't know anything about that.

Q. - Don't you know that the committee found this charge of the money having been paid to Mr. Baxter? A. - They must have found it because it was there.

Q. - Didn't they report it to you? A. - They did not say anything of the kind.

Q. - Did the premier say that was the reason Mr. Baxter returned the $300? A. - Yes, about the middle of March.

Q. - Are you aware that it was not given to Mr. Baxter until April 30? A. - I do not know.

It was but recently that the organization of an "association to combat the forming of associations" was reported.

MARGARET ANGLIN GOING TO GREECE

Plans To Study Costumes And Effects For Dramas

VISIT TO BROTHER, THE JUDGE

The Local Opera House Attraction — John Bunny to Lead a Big Specialty Show — New Stock Organization For Halifax

Margaret Anglin, after a few weeks in her Adirondack camp, will visit her brother, Hon. Francis Anglin, Justice of the Supreme Court in Ottawa, spending a fortnight at his place on Blue Lake in Quebec. She will then sail to confer with the author of one of the new plays which she intends to add to her now extensive repertoire next season.

Miss Anglin contemplates a trip to Greece soon for the purpose of studying the ancient costumes and effects. Professor William Dallam Armk, head of the dramatic department at the University, is already in Greece interviewing the professors in the university at Athens and visiting the scenes mentioned in the old Greek plays.

While at one time it was announced that "Medea" would be Miss Anglin's only offering for next summer it is now certain that there will be at least four dramas presented and that "Electra," "Antigone," and "Prometheus," will be the others, "Medea" will be presented in July and "Electra" probably a month later.

The engagement of Mack's Musical Revue at the Opera House seems to be the most popular with local theatre-goers. The policy of summer stock has met with favor, particularly since it is a musical nature for if there is one thing more than another that St. John theatre audiences like it is music interspersed with comedy. The company now at the Opera House is quite clever in many respects and if they remain until the reopening of the regular stock season in September, should continue to be given a pleasing and hearty reception as has already been accorded them.

W. C. McKay, the new manager of the Opera House, is fast making friends about the city by his pleasing personality and courteous disposition. Although he has not been in the city very long he is already popular with those with whom he has come in contact, and the hope is entertained that he will remain as resident manager not only through the summer, but as well through the regular stock season.

John Bunny a favorite in St. John and wherever pictures are shown, principal comedian with the Vitagraph for several years past, will not do any picture work next year as he arranged to appear at the head of a big specialty show. Bunny will be surrounded by a company composed mostly of juvenile performers. The plans for the Bunny tour are not complete but George Sidney and Louis Wiswell who have them in charge expect to make some definite announcements shortly. Mr. Bunny has been seen on the stage in St. John as well as in the "movies" having played here with Harkins several years ago.

Sydney Toler was in New York last week lining up plays and people for a new stock organization which will hold forth at the Queen's theatre, Halifax, N. S. from Sept. 22. Among the principals will be Elizabeth Ross and John Sumner.

In New York this week Houdini, who is appearing at Hammerstein's Victoria and Roof Garden, and who played in St. John about six years ago, gave a most remarkable demonstration of his mystifying ability by releasing himself from a heavy packing case, which was nailed and roped, then encircled by steel bands, with 200 pounds of iron weights lashed to the box. Houdini was rescued with "leg irons" and handcuffed. The case was thrown into the river from a chartered sea-going tug in New York harbor of the Battery near the Aquarium. It took Houdini exactly forty-five seconds to make his escape. The demonstration was witnessed by approximately 100,000 who lined the wharfs and docks of Battery Park. As soon as Houdini appeared on the surface of the water the entire throng applauded for fully five minutes.

"The Master Mind," a "crook" play new to Boston, was produced on Monday at the Majestic Theatre, with Edmund Breese in the role of an inflexible Nemesis, who as a clever member of the underworld works out an elaborate scheme of revenge against a former district attorney who sent the "Master Mind's" criminal brother to the chair. Donald Meek is in the cast.

Nance O'Neill is to play Camille in the Majestic, Boston, next week. Most important of John Cort's activities for the coming season will be the opening of another theatre in New York. The success of the Cort Theatre in West Forty-eighth street prompted the manager to promote the building of another playhouse, the Standard, on Broadway at Ninetieth street. This one will be utilized as a combination house, playing first-class attractions at popular prices following their runs in downtown theatres. The seating capacity of the Standard will be approximately 1,600. The attraction now scheduled to open the house on Sept. 5 is Laurette Taylor and her original company in "Peg of My Heart."

MAY BE TROUBLE OVER LITTLE MARY

Law May Be Invoked Over Pickford Films

LEO DELANEY A LAWYER

Popular Movies Actor is One With a Following—The Police and the Picture "Copper"—The Rosary For the Screen

In view of her popularity with local audiences, picture followers here should be interested in the following taken from "Variety":—"It is said that Adolph Zukor, president of the Famous Players, which has Mary Pickford under contract, is awaiting an opinion from his attorney as to the legal status of the two picture manufacturers that are now putting out old prints Miss Pickford's name heavily featured above all else on the paper.

The report is that a possible action lies with the P. P. through the other companies playing up the Pickford name on pictures that in current times might not rebound to the credit of Miss Pickford, who, since engaging with the Famous Players concern, has reached the top of the picture playing ladder in point of public popularity. Also it is said that the P. P. is of the belief it has caused "Mary Pickford" to become a trade name of value, and that the company "temperament" is an old boy but (that did not have "Mary Pickford" mentioned in connection with them when first shown) is now trading upon the reputation of the actress, forcing a condition that might be reliever for the P. P. protection, also Miss Pickford's, in a court of equity.

May Irwin is the first to show movie temperament. Among the "legits" the word "temperament" is an old boy but among the photo-play folks one doesn't hear anything about the idea. May Irwin, however, sprung it in such a way that it has caused talk. When the Famous Players cast Miss Irwin for the "Mrs. Black Is Back" picture, Carolyn Shannon (Spike) was engaged to play opposite her. Miss Shannon has been in many films, but Miss Irwin objected to her taking part in the Irwin picture, saying Miss Shannon's movie experience and grotesque make-up were too much. Miss Irwin said that she did not wish to make any of her pictures have too much of a "slapstick" atmosphere.

To his admirers in St. John the following from an exchange should be of interest:—"What right has a picture player to take a vacation, asked one of the Screen Club members of Leo Delaney, who will be remembered as a "Vitagraph Life Portrait." "The best right in the world," is Mr. Delaney's answer, "the right of six years steady work with one company." So it's settled that he is entitled to the vacation which is just coming to a close. Leo Delaney is now ready to get into the harness again and is thirsting for action. There are few, even among the ranks of film men, who know that Leo Delaney is fully entitled to practise as a lawyer before the "New York bar. After completing his course at Manhattan College, the former Vitagraph actor for he was too good as an amateur actor for his safety and the "hokey managers" got him. His long stage career includes six years with the Kirk La Shelle company and frequent stars. Then, six years ago, the motion picture, just beginning to reach out for recognized stage players captured Leo Delaney and he joined the Vitagraph Company, where he remained until a few months ago. Equally at home in light comedy and dramatic roles, by virtue of his long training in the hard and painstaking school of actual stage work, it was not long before he was in film's select society and recognized as one of the players with a following. The burlesque comedy play, which he was invariably recognized by the fans at the recent New York exposition and the writer's cramp he developed on several occasions from signing autographs are all-sufficient.

The International Association of Police Chiefs at their recent convention in New York, declared war on all makers of motion pictures who burlesque policemen and produce films depicting crime. It was recommended that police uniforms be prohibited by law. We are of the opinion that the police chiefs are too sensitive. We cannot detect anything horrifying in a slapstick comedy in which burlesque policemen perform, without the policeman in military uniform marching on and off, is a matter of the manufacturers to eliminate the comedy policeman. The burlesque police, however, will rise and call them blessed. Not because there is so much harm in the burlesque policeman as such, but because the character has been sadly overdone.

Arrangements have been made for the production of "The Rosary," as produced by Rowland and Clifford and played in every large city in the United States. The production will be a Selig work of the production is now going on in the big Selig studios at Edendale. The date for release has not yet been announced.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," a copyright injunction suit was filed in the United States District Court recently to restrain the Broadway Picture Production Company and the Eagle Feature Film Company from producing a photoplay entitled "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," which is said to be patterned after the novel of that name written by John Fox, Jr. The plaintiffs are Mr. Fox, the author of the book; Charles Scribner's Sons, the publishers, and Klaw and Erlanger, who produced a dramatized version of the book, as appearing as Lovey Mary in novel by arrangement with Fox.

THE DISCOURAGED PHILANTHROPIST. St. Thomas Lipton, who when first starting in business was very poor, was commenting on American charity. "It requires a vast amount of courage and charity to be a philanthropist such as Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller and numerous other noted men in America," he said. "When I started in business I was very poor, and making every sacrifice to enlarge my little shop. My only assistant was a youth of some fifteen years, faithful and honest. One Saturday morning I heard him complaining, and with justice, that his clothes were so shabby that he was ashamed to go to church the following morning. All chances of my getting a new suit this summer are over, as my Dad is out of work, and it takes all my wages to pay the rent," he said. "I felt sorry for the lad, and, after thinking the matter over I took a sovereign from my carefully hoarded savings and bought the boy a comfortable, good suit of blue cloth. He was so overwhelmingly grateful that I felt amply repaid for my sacrifice. The following morning, however, he did not make his appearance at the accustomed hour, and later in the day, as his mother was mending the building, I inquired the reason for her son's absence. "Well, Mr. Lipton," said she, with a bland smile and curtsying, "Arty looks so respectable, thanks to you, sir, that I thought I would send him about town a little today and see if he could not get a better job."—August Lippincott's.

"Mrs. Wiggs" House Peters is also one of the big characters in the new photoplay, Andrew Robson, entitled "Yuba Bill," in "Salomy Jane," is playing the part of Mr. Wiggs in a checkered career of renegade, circus ring-master and repentant husband. A copyright injunction suit was filed in the United States District Court recently to restrain the Broadway Picture Production Company and the Eagle Feature Film Company from producing a photoplay entitled "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," which is said to be patterned after the novel of that name written by John Fox, Jr. The plaintiffs are Mr. Fox, the author of the book; Charles Scribner's Sons, the publishers, and Klaw and Erlanger, who produced a dramatized version of the book, as appearing as Lovey Mary in novel by arrangement with Fox.

Of course any person with a more intricate understanding of civic affairs would never have made the mistake. And any one living in St. John for any length of time would have indeed a City Hall. But this girl was from the country, and when she took a "poshish" as waitress in a restaurant was quite unsophisticated, did not chew gum, when she was taking your order, or warm her thumb in bringing in the soup on a cool day.
