PASTORAL ADDRESS

To the Members of the Primitive Methodist Church, from the Canadian Conference.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHERN,

Grace, mercy, and peace be multiplied unto you. We, your representatives in Conference assembled, send you this our Annual Pastoral Address, greeting.

Our Conference has been one of pleasure, harmony, and profit; our business has been transacted in order and concord; our opinions may have differed, but our aims and object have been one—God's glory, in the moral elevation of mankind and the salvation of souls.

An earnest feeling has been manifested to maintain our constitutional principles in their integrity—to uphold our usages, which we believe to be scriptural, in their vigour, and a solemn, intense determination to dedicate ourselves afresh to the work for which God has given us an existence, as a part of His universal church.

We are thankful that our work generally is manifesting a healthy, vigorous condition. Still, in our numerical report, we find matter for serious reflection in the large amount of defections and removals; which have, nevertheless, been made up, leaving a small nett increase. Yet we have great cause for humiliation before God that our increase is so small. The increase in our connexional funds is very encouraging; yet what we have feared for years is now being experienced, that for want of means our missionary operations must be circumscribed, or our missionaries crushed beneath a burden of financial deficiency too intolerable to be borne. We have therefore restricted our work, and placed our missionaries on more hopeful ground as regards their grants; and we now wait in high expectation that the missionary funds of the ensuing year will warrant our further advancement, on a safer basis than heretofore. We commend to your serious consideration the painful fact, that quite a number of missionaries and ministers on circuits are suffering large deficiencies, and pray you, that as the temporal comfort, spiritual efficiency, and general success of your ministers depends in some measure on being free from anxiety and embarrassment in this respect, therefore for Christ's sake seek to meet the claims of that scriptural duty which is enjoined on you that "the labourer is worthy of his hire."

A change has taken place in our Connexional Secretary and Editorship—our highly respected Brother Crompton, for whose success we pray, being elected; and our esteemed Father Davison retiring, after more than forty years of uninterrupted and arduous labour, the last nine of which he has been Missionary Secretary, &c. As a mark of the regard felt for our retiring Secretary and Editor, the Conference unanimously passed the following:—"Resolved,—That we cannot allow our venerable Brother John Davison to retire from the offices he has so long and so efficiently filled without placing on record our high appreciation of his character as a man, a Christian, and a connexional officer; and we hope that his life will be spared for many years to come, and that we may still be benefited by his ripe counsels and experience."

The Stationing and Granting Committees have, with care and patient investigation, sought to meet the exigencies of their important work; and it is to be hoped that their decisions, as confirmed by Conference, will meet with approval and co-operation.

The subject of Christian Union was placed in the no man shall see the Lord." "Be ye therefore holy, even as he is holy"—"Lights of the world"—"Salt of the earth"—"Living epistles, read and known of all men." O let us be deeply impressed with the abiding truth, that God would have us to be holy and useful; else, as fruitless branches, we shall wither and be cut off. Let, therefore, a Christian sanctity pervade all your conduct as individuals, as brethren, as heads of families, as children, as masters, as servants, as members of the community and of the Christian church. Let us, in godly sincerity, meekness, plainness, and simplicity, with watchful, prayerful, quenchless zeal, emulate our Master's example, vindicate the doctrines we profess and the name we bear. Conscious of the awful responsibilities God has laid on us, may we, in the true spirit of earnest Christianity, be "all at work, and always at work," seize the golden opportunity, show ourselves equal to our day, and as disciples of our triumphant Lord "press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and we pray God your whole spirit, and soul, and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen."
