PROMINENT BOR MAN ARRESTED AFTER LONG CHASE ON GRAVE CHARGE

John J. McNamara, International Secretary of the Bridge and Structural Ironworkers of America, Arrested in Indianapolis, Charged with Complicity in Dynamiting the Los Angeles Times.

Other Men Concerned in Same Crime were Arrested First, and they Gave McNamara Away to the Officers -- Dynamite, Infernal Machines and Other Explosives Found near Union's Headquarters.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 22.—After months of investigation direct by William J. Burns, the San Francisco graft investigator now head of a detective agency, John J. McNamara, international secretary of the Bridge and Structural Ironworkers of America, the headquarters of which are in Indianapolis, was arrested here late today, charged with complicity in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times on Oct. 1, 1910 and the plant of the Llewellyn Iron Works in Los Angeles.

Four hours after McNamara was arrested detectives found two quarts of nitro-glycerine and 17 sticks of dynamite in a barn three-quarters of a mile west of Indianapolis. The barn, the detectives say, was rented by McNamara from T. H. Jones, the owner.

A later investigation of the international offices of the union disclosed in a storeroom in the basement of the building, 64 sticks of dynamite, 200 feet of fuse, 500 dynamite caps and a leather case made to carry a 10 pound can of nitro-glycerine. Detective Burns took possession of the dynamite and the leather case, and the case was signed by Governor Marshall before the arrest of McNamara and he resigned immediately before Judge Collins in police court.

Twenty minutes after McNamara had been seized in the association of the American Central Iron Building where a meeting of the executive board of the organization was adjourning, he was taken to the police station in an automobile. It is supposed it was the object of the officers to get McNamara out of reach before his friends had a chance to fight the situation.

A Spectacular Raid. Soon after the prisoner had been hurried to the police station, Detective Burns ran for another automobile and rode to the American Federal Iron Building where F. M. Ryan, president of the union, and other members of the executive board were being held by the police pending an investigation. Doors of the room were guarded with rifles.

More than an hour elapsed after McNamara had been taken mysteriously from the city before his companions in the meeting were released. When told he had been arrested as being responsible for the dynamiting of the Times and Llewellyn foundry in Los Angeles, he could not believe the report to be true. His surprise was greatly increased when they began to talk of procuring his release and he was told he had been taken from the city.

Immediately after the offices of the union were searched Detective Burns and a squad of his men went to the barn at West of Indianapolis where the explosives were unearthed. The search in the basement of the union headquarters revealed more explosives.

President Ryan said tonight that he has been connected with the union labor for several years and had never heard of a case similar to the one charged against McNamara, but that he had known of cases where "plants" had been made by enemies of labor found tonight they must have been placed by enemies of the organizations. The custodian of the building in which the office is located said that McNamara had come to him six months ago and asked for a store room, and that the request had been granted. He added that he had never seen McNamara or his companion carry anything to the room.

WIARDRO SIGNS STEAMERS HAD AN ARRIVAL FOR FIVE DAYS

Peace Negotiations Are Already On, But Will Affect Only Territory In The Vicinity Of Juarez.

El Paso, Texas, April 23.—An armistice of five days beginning at noon today was signed today by General Francisco Madero, the revolutionary leader, and General Juan Navarro, the Federal commander at Juarez. Peace negotiations were immediately begun but it is believed that its conditions will extend to Olinaga which is under siege by 1,800 insurgents.

Today the matter was discussed at great length by Francisco Madero, father of the rebel leader and his other three sons with the leader who was accompanied by Pasqual Gonzalez Fanchio Villa, formerly a bandit who has become a regular soldier under the good influence of Madero. General Garibaldi and Senora Madero, the rebel leader's wife, were also present. The peace talk until Juarez was taken, as she felt her husband could dictate better terms from a city than from a camp in the mountains.

While the correspondent of the Associated Press was present, he was not permitted to give details of the discussions or of the plans formulated. In a general way, however, it may be stated that General Diaz has given assurances of his anxiety to adopt such measures as will satisfy the revolutionists.

In fact the liberality displayed by the president has exceeded the expectations of Madero and his supporters. The articles of the armistice provide that the troops on either side must remain in positions they now occupy, that all fortification work on railroad repair work shall be suspended; that all necessities of life may be brought in by way of Juarez free of duty, but intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited.

ST. GEORGE'S DAY OBSERVED IN CITY CHURCHES YESTERDAY

Members of St. George's Society Attended Service in St. Paul's Church and Heard Eloquent Sermon by Rev. E. B. Hooper—References from Other Pulpits.

There were religious observances in honor of England's patron saint in many of the city churches yesterday. In the evening the members of St. George's Society attended Divine service at St. Paul's church, where Rev. E. B. Hooper, the rector, preached an eloquent sermon, pointing out the lessons of patriotism and righteousness inculcated by the life of St. George...

Mr. Hooper took his text from the 21st Psalm: "The King shall rejoice in Thy strength O Lord. Thou shalt set a crown of pure gold upon his head." The text exhorted, Lord, in Thine own strength; so will we sing and praise Thy power.

Let me begin by reminding you of the significance of the worship in which by your presence you are taking part. It is the recognition of God; it is the expression of your belief that the well-being and destinies of nations as of individuals are in His Almighty hand.

At such a service as this, it is not meet that the preacher should utter a word of praise, our King, our country, and our flag. I will therefore confine myself to two or three points, which are of great importance to all of us; and more especially to the members of the Society of St. George.

By a very happy conjunction of circumstances we are today celebrating in the octave of the most glorious victory of Jesus Christ over sin and death—that victory which brought light, hope and redemption to a world plunged in darkness and despair and sin.

And the second, springs out of the first, namely our obligations and responsibilities as Englishmen and as sons of Englishmen, or shall I not use the larger term and say as members of the British Race? Englishmen, Irishmen and Scotchmen, are we not all descendants? It is ours to keep inviolate the grand heritage which has come down to us.

At St. Anthony's church, St. Mary's, Rev. Father Ryan delivered an appropriate sermon on the patron saint.

In the other Anglican churches there was a very general reference to the day and its lessons. In Trinity in the evening the National Anthem was sung, suitable hymns were included in the service and Kipling's Recessional was given by the choir at the close. Rev. R. A. Armstrong, the rector, preached an eloquent sermon on Christian Patriotism.

In St. John's (St. George) church, the day was marked by suitable hymns and anthems. In the Mission church, Rev. H. A. Collins at the evening service, preached from II Timothy, IV: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course; I have kept the Faith," and made special reference to the life of England's Patron Saint.

At the morning service in the church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, the pastor, Rev. W. Loh, eloquently preached a sermon in which he made special reference to St. George, and the lessons of patriotism to be derived from the life of England's Patron Saint.

The annual dinner of St. George's Society will be held this evening at 8.30 o'clock in the Dufferin Hotel. His worship, Mayor Firth, who is the head of the table, will occupy the head of the table, and covers will be laid for eighty.

In Fredericton. At St. Andrew's church, April 22.—At several of the city churches today reference was made to the feast of St. George the patron saint of England.

Life-Saving Dog is Playmate of Kids

Dayton, O., April 23.—If you don't like dogs, if you don't think there are dog heroes, you'd better not read this story, because this is a story of an Alredale terrier that is a hero.

His name is Wachusett Flashlight and he's owned by G. J. Bulpin, of this city. Flashlight has a dual nature.

He's as gentle as a lamb with children. Any kid can man him around. But if you are a grown-up you'd better not get funny with Flashlight.

This terrier is a lifesaver—a saver of children's lives. There are three authentic cases in which the dog saved the lives of children, and stories of Flashlight are well known in the city.

When Flashlight saved Irene Miller from death, the child was standing on a street corner with her parents. Flashlight was crossing the street, carrying a package. The little girl started, unheeded, across the street. An automobile approached at high speed and was almost on top of Irene when Flashlight saw her danger.

Dropping his package he sprang to Irene's side, grabbed her skirt and lifted her to the sidewalk. As he let go of her dress the machine knocked him fully 50 feet. His side was torn open and he was otherwise injured.

As he arose, a man kicked him. Another man who had witnessed the rescue punched the kicker, and before Bulpin could capture the dog a street fight was on with Flashlight in his element.

Flashlight loves to fight other dogs, but their names have never been learned by Bulpin.

Flashlight likes to fight other dogs and to prevent him getting into trouble his owner has taught him to carry packages while on the street.

When carrying things he pays no attention to other dogs. Possessed of intelligence of a high degree, Flashlight is used to train Alredales as police dogs, for municipalities where they are used as an adjunct to the police force.

Flashlight has been stolen several times, but has always returned home. Since he saved her life, Flashlight and Irene Miller have been inseparable companions.

THE BOSTON GIRL'S LETTER

Boston, April 21.—An innovation in entertainments for all but elderly Hubbits is the old fashioned ring circus which is attracting old and young to the big Arena where the flash and ring of skates gliding over the smooth ice has given way to more reasonable recreations. To preserve the happiness of the youthful generation this one ring circus has been arranged to bridge over the intermediate gulf of time elapsing between the Wild West Show which preceded it, and Buffalo Bill's famous show which comes a few weeks hence.

Indians, cowboys and cowgirls became such familiar figures as they slipped their quiet and unostentatious way to and from the Arena building that the small boys of the city have had ample opportunity to get the details of western costumes and habits down pat. Doubtless with the lengthier stay of the one-ring circus there will soon be evolved in greater Boston such feats of trapeze work, equestrianism, animal training and clown performance as will make fond parents gasp.

A woful waste of pie greeted the eyes of one of the Hub's handsome patrolmen pacing his beat in a downtown district one night recently. Some vandal had removed half a window from a luncheon room and had smeared counters, floors, chairs and walls with custard, squash, mince and lemon pies.

Not a whole pie remained, not even the sacred New England apple, and the patrolman stood gazing about him at devastated stretches of yellow and brown mess. Though not a princeling of trade he then got, as it were, an inkling of the meaning of the pie.

New Englanders who have confirmed ideas of what's what in nutritive foods are likely to get something of a surprise from the reports of a lecture on "Digestion," given by Dr. Franklin Wilson, at the Harvard Medical School on Easter Sunday afternoon. Dr. Wilson believes in oysters insofar as they are very easily digested when eaten raw, but declares that they have practically no food value, as they are mostly water.

He who has been in the habit of claiming that half a dozen blue points were a hearty meal must feel rather hungry in retrospect.

Another illustration of the value of milk and eggs in nutritive food value is given in Dr. Wilson's catalogue of statistics regarding beef, pork, chicken and milk. It has been found by endless experiments that 25 cents worth of beef juice will yield only six parts of value to the body, while 25 cents worth of eggs will yield 700 parts, and 25 cents worth of milk 1600 parts of real food value to the human system.

Another illustration shows that it takes from 15 to 30 glasses of beef juice to equal the food value of one glass of good milk. Olive oil takes the lead in Dr. Wilson's catalogue of nutrients, while coffee, tea and the American habit of taking cocktails on an empty stomach, were scored heavily by the physician.

This year's legislative campaign for equal suffrage finished, Mrs. Mary Hutchison Page, of the Massachusetts Woman Suffrage Association, has occasion to say something of the progress of the cause, the standard of women to preserve the standard of self-respect among men.

The Massachusetts suffragist brings out the utter absence of any real argument in the jaunty remarks of the opponents of political justice to the disfranchised sex and refers to one orator's phrase "female women," as "as listened," she says, "to the futile, importance, and of the very deepest significance, a cause that has enlisted the warm support of the ablest minds since humanity began to think, a cause that the welfare of women and therefore of the race depends upon; as we compared the utterances of those illustrious men of Massachusetts whose names are emblazoned on the ceiling of the house, with the inept, degenerate semblance of a debate on the floor, it was irresistibly borne in upon us that democracy with man suffrage alone, electing such representatives as these, is an undeniable failure, and that suffrage in the hands of women is an indispensable condition to the progress of the race.

Women's Club, in voting to make its guest night, April 20, the occasion of an unanimous toast to woman suffrage, to which Mrs. Theresa Crowley, of Brookline, was invited to attend, Miss Georgia Babbitt and Senator Frank Bennett, both good friends of suffrage, were also speakers at this affair.

Society Woman Missing; Baby Left Behind

The above is a photograph of Mrs. Philip Hiehorn, society woman of Washington, and her baby. Mrs. Hiehorn, who is the wife of the son of Admiral Hiehorn, has been missing for several months and it is said that her husband is preparing to start divorce proceedings. The baby is with her grandparents.

Horace Wylie, a well known Washington society man who left Washington quietly several months ago, has returned to New York having enjoyed a trip up the Nile, where, it is said, Mrs. Hiehorn is also "passing her self-interests calm."

TAG DAY, SATURDAY, WAS SUCCESSFUL

In spite of the weather, over 100 young ladies tagged were at work on the streets, Saturday collecting for the free kindergarten. Some taggers filled more than one bank, and altogether 125 banks were issued during the day. Four automobiles were kept busy taking the taggers to the scene of their operations, bringing them back to Keith's assembly rooms for refreshments and a rest.

A number of young ladies invaded Croucheville, and others went to Fairville and in both cases they met with a good reception. Many of the young ladies continued their tribute levying campaign up till 6 o'clock.

As the banks have been sent to the Bank of New Brunswick (which furnished them) to have the money counted, the results will not be known till Monday. Many young ladies reported that contributions of $1 and $5 bills were quite common and it is be-

CLOSING STOCK LETTER.

By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.
 New York, April 22.—Liquidation in moderate volume, but nevertheless scattered over a considerable portion of the active list, was the feature of today's short session of the stock market. The selling of U. S. Steel common attracted particular attention in view of the current reports of unsatisfactory trade conditions and close observers thought that they detected evidences of distribution from what are usually accounted well informed sources. The fact that public holdings of stocks are comparatively small at the present time and that the new crop outlook is promising should tend to minimize any decline of the market at the present time, but with no incentive to buy in hopes of an immediate rise in prices, the professional element is inclined to work with more vigor for a decline. For the time being the best prospect for speculative profits appears to be on the short side.
 LAIDLAW & CO.

CLOSING COTTON LETTER.

By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.
 New York, April 22.—Liverpool advice again bullish this morning, foreign prices at the hour of our opening sales of 12,000 bales.
 Cables reported that foreign sentiment was affected by the bullish week-end movement and the continuance of an active spot demand. Our market made full response to the higher Liverpool and ruled strong at advancing prices throughout the session. The day was a notable one for bull interests, in the fact that July cotton both at N. Y. and New Orleans re-crossed the 15 cent level, an event which was greeted with a noisy demonstration on both exchanges.
 The general strength was all the more impressive for the fact that brokers who usually represent the leading bulls in the market were liberal sellers on a scale up. Heavy covering by uneasy shorts contributed the chief factor of strength, but there was a measurable increase of outside buying especially in the July option. Weekly crop advices as a whole were of favorable tenor. Many recognized authorities opining that the moisture recently complained of over a wide section of the belt had not been excessive and would in the long run prove highly beneficial to vegetation. It is contended however that the crop is from a week to ten days later.

MARKET HAS A RESTLESS TONE

New York, N. Y., April 22.—Restlessness was shown by today's stock market from the outset. Stocks were sold actively, the number of shares traded in during the two hours of today's session exceeding the total number of yesterday's full day. The movement was directed against the market leaders, especially United States Steel, which in the early trading fell to 72%, the lowest price for that stock since the early part of the year. Unfavorable reports of the conditions in the steel trade continue to exercise a depressing effect on the stock. Sloss-Sheffield also lost two points, presumably owing to the same cause. Other shares fell off in sympathy, the weakness extending to virtually the whole list. Price of most of the leaders declined a point or more. Towards the close there was a partial recovery, due apparently to short covering. Much of the selling was obviously of the short account, but it required no stretch of imagination to assume that a part of the business represented unloading of long stock held by speculative interests which have finally tired of the market's extreme dullness and many vagaries.
 One of few exceptions to the general heaviness was International Harvester, which gained 2 points. The annual report of this company which is soon to be issued, is expected to show large application to the common shares. American Cotton Oil was steady after its severe decline of the week, and closed steady with a substantial gain, a dividend reduction apparently having been discounted.
 The weekly trade reviews were in line with the reports of the past week of slackening business. Trade, it is said, continues to move slowly in almost every line. The fortnightly report on the number of idle cars showed however, another decrease, owing to heavier coal shipments.
 Money continued to pile up at this centre, as was shown by today's bank statement. The banks gained nearly $5,000,000 during the week, this amount being nearly as large as the highest estimates.
 The bond market was easy. Total sales, par value, $1,165,000. United States were unchanged on call on the week.

DEBEC NEWS

DeBec, April 21.—The annual Easter service held under the auspices of the Methodist W. M. S. was a pronounced success. Mrs. J. R. Kirkpatrick, the president, conducted the devotional exercises, while the choir furnished appropriate music, the various exercises by the children and others were well received, those receiving most favorable comment, included a duet "On King's Business," by J. B. and M. M. Brown, a duet by two little children, Catherine Green and Harry Carson; a waltz drill by four little girls, viz. Marion Elgin, Gladys, Winifred Elgin, and Charlotte Flemming; and a duet by Charlotte and James Flemming.
 Robert Kirkpatrick, who has been spending the winter at Havana, Cuba, has returned home. Mr. E. B. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick accompanied him home.
 Owing to the water being very high at present the saw mill has not commenced operations.
 Mrs. J. Meagher, of this place, has had new acetylene lights installed in her premises, the lights give splendid satisfaction not only to Mrs. Meagher's premises, but to the entire lower section of the village.
 Ralph Scott is now able to be out.
 Mrs. T. Furze has returned to DeBec.
 Howard Deakin of Benton spent the week end at DeBec, the guest of his aunt, Mrs. G. Flemming.
 Emma Nason spent Sunday at home.
 Jennie Gray of Houlton was the guest of Mrs. W. J. Craig for a few days.

HAMMOND VALE

Hammond Vale, April 21.—Easter passed off here very quietly. The weather on Easter Sunday was beautiful, but since then we have had two heavy snow storms and plenty of wind and frost.
 Quite a few from here attended the concert and picnic social at Markhamville, and all report a splendid time. A wood frolic was held at W. P. Crowe's Monday afternoon. A tremendous pile of wood proves that it was well attended, and good work was done. A dance followed in the evening, which a large crowd enjoyed.
 Miss Lizzie Alexander of St. John, who has been visiting Miss Ethel Kelly for some time, has returned to her home.
 G. U. Fowler of Sussex, spent Thursday in Hammond. Miss Ethel Kelly, who has been seriously ill for some time is still confined to her bed, though improving slowly.
 Percy Scott has gone west to attend the marriage of his sister, Miss Lizzie.

The Real Estate Market.

F. K. Brown has bought a freehold property on Rockfield road from the Millidge estate.
 John Brown, Jr., has purchased from Benjamin Roden the freehold property, 25x50 feet, on Southwark street, and the adjoining leasehold of Craze estate, and is planned that this property will be required for the extension of the I. C. R. yards.
 Wm. Smith has purchased a house and lot on Rodney street from Geo. W. Belyea, the consideration being $1,000.
 T. S. Simms and Co. have purchased the freehold property on Brasenale street at the rear of their factory from F. S. Scott. They purchased the building and the lease from Mrs. Mary Ann Ryan some time ago to give them a rear entrance.

THE STANDARD'S PLACE OF SPORTS

HOW TO PLAY FIRST BASE—BY HAL CHASE

I don't suppose I can tell anybody how to play first base. It is one thing to get in and play the game according to my own ideas, and a different thing to set myself up as an authority.

Let it be understood that these few words of advice are directed, not to the men who have made good as first basemen, but to young players. A youngster who wants to play first base—or anywhere else on the team—must have the natural ability. He must be able to play the mechanical part of baseball with ease.

A first baseman should be a left-hander. This is not a conceit because I am left handed, but it is a clearly apparent fact that a left handed man can handle first base more successfully than a right-hander. He has the entire infield "before" him, so to speak, and does not have to make the turns that a right handed player is often compelled to make. Of course, there have been some brilliant first basemen who were right handed, but they were brilliant in spite of this fact, and not because of it.

A first baseman must always make a specialty of handling thrown balls. He must be able to accept the throws of other players without regard to the man who may be coming down first base line from the plate at top speed. At the same time he must take the throw in such a way that he will be able to touch the bag and yet keep clear of the runner.

Let the youngster who wants to be a first baseman practice fielding his position constantly. Let him learn to take throws with ease and certainty. Of course a first baseman must field such balls as are hit to him cleanly. To do this he must learn to figure the manner in which the different players hit, when they mean to swing on the ball and when they mean to bunt.

The youngster can learn the peculiarities of players opposing him by close observation. Nearly every batter has some manner of betraying himself. Few use the same style in bunting and hitting.

I have found it good policy to play "deep" when there is a pitcher working who can be depended upon to get to first ahead of a runner. Once I heard an old timer say to a recruit, who made a spectacular one-handed stab, "Use both your hands—I signed 'em both." I should advise a first baseman to use both his hands in taking throws until he has become absolutely sure. A wide throw that gets away may mean a lost ball.

You want to succeed at baseball, learn every detail of the game. It is a never ceasing source of new problems, new situations, new conditions.

The process of figuring out a play should become second nature to the player. Cultivate the acquaintance of experienced players, and listen to them carefully.

Observe the rules of the game. Never bait an umpire. Behave like a gentleman. Play hard to win, and never give up. Keep regular hours. Let "boozing" strictly alone. Don't smoke to excess. Better not at all. Learn the inside of the game. Practice all you can.

GLACE BAY FANS SEE A FAST SCRAP

(The Glace Bay Gazette.) Tuesday's ten round bout at King's theatre, between Jack Ling, of Reservoir, and "Kid" O'Neill, of Sydney, for the featherweight championship of the province, was considered by many who saw it the most interesting fight pulled off in Nova Scotia for the past 15 years. It was fast and furious from beginning to end. Only in one round did the pace slacken. Never in Glace Bay have the fans been given more for their money. At the conclusion of the bout, referee Mike Schofield, announced it a draw. From the top of the ring both men set a terrific pace and the fans were treated to some real fighting. In the early rounds they fought so fast that many believed the bout would not last the limit, but the exact shape which both were in, enabled them to finish in pretty fair condition. Ling fought a different fight than on former occasions. He did not over-use so much, his work last night being more open. He showed improvement over his last fight with O'Neill. Ling has a dangerous and hard right wallop, and when he attempted to upset his opponent he landed nearly every time. O'Neill apparently being unable to negotiate a defense for it. The "Kid" used his left to good advantage, and repeatedly landed it to Ling's jaw with telling effect. In the fourth round he broke a bone in his right hand, which caused him much pain, but he gamely fought to the end, although he could hardly lift the arm.

The fight was fairly even although one man having the advantage in one round, and the other in the next.

THE BRITISH CHESS KINGS WERE VICTORS

New York, N. Y., April 22.—The City of London Chess Club today won permanent possession of the Nevnes trophy, inaugurated in 1884, by winning the 13th international cable match, by a score of 6 games to 4. Under the rules of the deed of gift by which the late Sir George Nevnes donated the trophy, the team winning three successive matches obtained final possession, and this the Britishers accomplished by today's victory. Of the total of 13 matches contested, each side won six, and 1, that of 1891, ended in a tie. A total of 128 games were played, each side being credited with 64 victories.

After the last start of Friday, when Marshall lost his game to Burn in London, the Americans picked up well today, winning three games and drawing two. The British, however, secured at the remaining two matches the individual honors of the match on the American side went to Albert W. Fox, of Washington; Roy T. Black, of Brooklyn, and Leonard B. Meyer, of the Manhattan chess club.

A gold medal offered as a special prize to the American winning the most brilliant game, was awarded to Fox.

The summary of the match follows:

1—P. Marshall...	0	A. Burn...	1

WALTER TRAVIS WINS GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Lakewood, N. J., April 22.—The old "Wet Horn" veteran, Travis, of Camden City, scored again when he defeated Fred Herreshoff, the metropolitan champion in the final round of the open golf tournament at the Lakewood Country Club today. The finish was sensational for the rivals had held out all square on the home green.

This meant an extra hole and despite the storm a large gallery swung in behind the men as they drove off. The first hole is 240 yards and a good four at any time. Her made the greens on their second, but Travis promptly settled all disputes by running down a long put for a 2. The best Herreshoff could get was a 4. Throughout the match Herreshoff outdrove his opponent all the way from 25 to 68 yards, but threw away many chances on the greens.

JEFF IN NEW YORK SAYS NEVER AGAIN

New York, April 22.—James J. Jeffries is in town accompanied by his wife and several friends. He arrived in New York Saturday from Chicago and hurried to his hotel, scarcely recognized by the crowd at the station. He will probably witness the Hogan-Wolcott fight here on Wednesday night.

"Will you ever fight again?" Jeffries was asked.

"Never," said the big fellow. "Jeffries looks well and weighs 260 pounds. This is his first visit to New York since the agreement to fight Hogan was made.

ROTHSCHILD HORSE PICKED AS FAVORITE FOR DERBY

The Coronation Derby an exceptional one to win and the summit of almost every horseman's ambition, seems likely to be won by Pietri, the property of Leopold de Rothschild. At least one thing is assured, the colt will, barring accident, of course, go to the post a top-heavy public choice and carry tens of thousands of pounds in commission.

The fact that Denny Maher will have the leg up on the splendid son of St. Prusquin will also tend to shorten the price, for in addition to having supreme confidence in his ability as a horseman, the English public also knows that the lad's honesty has never been questioned. Taking it all in all, there is hardly a question of a doubt that Pietri will go to the post the heaviest backed favorite since the inception of the race, away back in 1780.

At the present time, there remain over 200 eligibles for this, the blue ribbon event of the turf, and undoubtedly many owners who in other years would drop out, will by reason of the extra importance of the event, avail themselves of the prerogative and take a gambler's chance, hoping for the promised improvement over the two year old form.

Two Good Ones Ineligible.

Unfortunately two of the best three year olds in England are not eligible. These are Seaforth and St. Nat, whose records last season were, to say the least, vividly outstanding. Another lamentable fact is the ineligibility of the horses from the royal stud.

According to the rules of racing, all stake engagements are null and void with the demise of an owner. Hence the death of the late King Edward, temporarily placed a bar upon the splendid string which previously carried his colors.

King George who succeeded to the throne, and who also immediately announced his intention of keeping up the establishment of Sandringham, has during the period of mourning raced his horses under the colors of Lord Derby. The King, through Trainer Richard Marsh, has, however, made liberal engagements in all the future events of 1912 and subsequent years, for which his horses are eligible.

One thing against Pietri is that he is a most unruly post actor. But Maher humors him and has been far more successful than any other rider. Followers of the turf will remember Pietri's sensational victory in the Gimcrack stakes last August. As the barrier was sprung, the horse wheeled and was absolutely left. Maher, however, persevered with him and, after a most brilliant finish, won by open daylight. This incident, as well as the fact that the colt swerved under punishment, has, of course, been charged up against him, but the general consensus of opinion is that Pietri is honest.

The French owner, M. Edward Blanc, who has made repeated attempts to win the Derby, and who has spent upwards of a million dollars in the quest, will try once more with, of course, the able and wealthy George Stern in the saddle. Mr. Blanc's representative this year is Lord Burghley.

PING BODIE.

New York, April 22.—Americus, the Baltimore wrestler, defeated Yankee Rogers of Buffalo and Fitchburg, Mass., in two straight falls at catch-as-catch-can wrestling at St. Nicholas rink tonight. Both are light heavyweights.

Americus obtained the first fall in 4 minutes, 28 seconds, with a full crotch and further arm hold and threw his man a second time with a chancery and bar lock in 23 minutes 16 seconds.

Housekeepers' Excursions.

The Grand Trunk Railway has issued a circular authorizing all agents in Canada to sell Housekeepers' Excursion tickets to points in Western Canada. This is interesting information for those desiring to take advantage of these excursions on certain dates from April to September 1911. The Grand Trunk route is the most interesting, taking a passenger through the populated centres of Canada, through Chicago and thence via Detroit, on through Chicago and the twin cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul. Ask Grand Trunk agents for further particulars.

AD WOLGAST IS CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

New York, N. Y., April 22.—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, is in town with his manager, Tom Jones. Wolgast announced that he is here to put the finishing touches on his training for his 10 round bout with One Round Hogan, which is scheduled to be held at the Madison A. C. next Wednesday evening. The champion appears to be in excellent condition and declares that he will not have to do much work to get "on edge" for the fray with Hogan.

I saw a report to the effect that Hogan says he intends to quit the boxing game in case he is defeated by me next Wednesday evening. That's too bad, and I hope he will change his mind. It would be a severe loss to the profession to have a man of Hogan's ability drop out of the game. One of the things he is getting good at, of course, there is no doubt in my mind that I will beat him, but then Mr. Hogan must remember that I'm the champion and he shouldn't take a defeat by me too much to heart.

Why, there are many very good lightweight fighters who can beat nowadays a man who has to be a titleholder in order to make a very comfortable living by boxing, providing, of course, that he is really a class fighter. Look at Brown, McFarland, Welsh, Moran and Murphy. None of them is starving to death, and yet not one of them is a titleholder.

What's the reason for that? Well, my remarks are reiterated that he wanted the title or nothing.

The Californian put in a big day at Johnson's road house yesterday and his trainer, Johnny Loftus, is confident that One Round will score over the champion. Johnny says that Hogan is already in trim for a hard fight and that he will be in the very best physical condition when he faces Adolph in the ring at the Madison A. C.

HALIFAX TO HAVE GOOD BASEBALL

(Halifax Herald.) Hurray! hurray! It's all arranged now! What? Professional or semi-professional baseball for Halifax. This is almost too good to be true, isn't it? Some fans will think so, anyway, for some of the pessimistic baseball enthusiasts thought that Halifax was never going to have this—the right—brand of baseball. Everything has been arranged—at least enough to assure us that the city is going to have a great baseball summer. A meeting of those interested in the promoting of a professional or semi-professional league, was held Thursday night. It was an enthusiastic gathering, and the baseball question was thoroughly discussed. It was unanimously decided that if the M. P. A. A. would sanction it, a two-team semi-professional team league will be formed in Halifax. If the M. P. A. A. refuse to concede to this request, the teams will import professional batteries, which will make both teams professional. It is possible that a third team will be formed, but only preliminary arrangements have been made in that direction. One of the teams that is being organized will be called the Socials and will be managed by Roy Inou.

The other team has not been named yet. It will likely be managed by Jas. Cosgrove, of St. Patrick's team last year. The managers will agree to have their teams limited to two imported players.

The first games will be played on the 24th of May, one to take place in the morning and the other in the afternoon. The next game will take place on May 27th. After that a game will be pulled off every second Saturday, until the schedule is completed. Negotiations are being carried on with Moncton, Fredericton and St. John, in an attempt to make arrangements with one of these teams to come here on Friday and Saturday when the local teams will have no games. This means that, if possible, these games with outside teams would take place on June 2nd and 3rd, 16th, 17th, and a game early in July. Friday's games would be with one of the local nine.

Boy Bicyclist Injured.
 A serious accident occurred last night between 9 and 10 o'clock, on Mill street. A boy named Percy Hatfield was coming down Mill street on a bicycle at considerable speed. He applied the brake, but it refused to work. The wheel continued to develop speed and when opposite the Grand Union Hotel, the wheel struck a mud hole and Hatfield was thrown forcibly to the ground. He was taken into the Grand Union and the proprietor, W. McQuade, summoned a coach and had the injured boy removed to his home, 20 Brooks street. Later he was conveyed to the hospital, where it was found that one of his legs had been broken in the fall.

WAS WILLIAM M'ARTHUR'S DEATH DUE TO CRUELTY OF GUARDS OVER CHAIN GANG

Young Man who Died in Hospital Yesterday Morning, Said to have been Lashed to Post by Chain Gang Guards During Raging Storm—Father Demands Full Investigation.

"God have mercy on me; they have murdered me; it is nothing more than murder."
 With these words William McArthur, the 21 year old son of William T. McArthur, of 186 King street, West End, sank into death in the general public hospital an early hour yesterday morning, having been in the institution but a few hours. He was taken to the hospital from the jail about 1 o'clock on Sunday morning.

If the story told by the unfortunate man is true, and his father has taken the preliminary steps toward ascertaining the proof of its accuracy, it looks as if there would be serious trouble for some one, for behind the death, in a story of cruelty such as, happily, is seldom heard in an enlightened country, and which savors more of Russia, than St. John. It is alleged that McArthur's death was hastened, if not directly caused by inhuman treatment which he suffered while a member of the jail squad a few days ago. Although he was all right, and, it is said, in a very serious condition he was not removed from the jail to the hospital until a few hours before his death and at a time when it was practically too late to do anything for him. Had he received proper care at an earlier stage his life might have been saved, but that is one of the things which it is expected will be brought out at the inquiry which Coroner Berryman will hold.

Mis Parents Grief Stricken.
 Stories as to the young man's death were in circulation yesterday and it was in consequence of these that a standard reporter visited his father last night at his home in West End. It was a sad home. The father, bearing up well under his affliction, the mother, however, bearing her sorrow with a resignation which showed that she was not entirely unacquainted with grief, told their story in trembling accents with now and then a tear as mute evidence of the strain they had undergone.

"It is hard to think that my boy was dying and they would not tell me," was the mother's plaint—for although William McArthur may not have been a model son yet there was one heart, a mother's heart, that grieved for him and refused to be comforted.

Mr. McArthur has retained Daniel Mullin, K. C., to probe the circumstances of his son's death and if the story told by the dead man is true, action will at once be instituted against the guards in charge of the jail prisoners and the authorities of the jail.

Inhuman Treatment Charged.
 According to his father's story, young McArthur, about a month ago was sentenced to a term in jail on a charge of assaulting Policeman Robert Lawson, of Fairville. Like other prisoners he was put to work in the hard labor squad, and he stated that on one day about three weeks ago he was marched out with the other prisoners to his day of toil on the stone pile.

It was a cold, stormy day, and when the party reached the stone yard there was some trouble between the guards and a prisoner named McDonald. The guards started to beat McDonald and McArthur interfered. He alleged that because of this he

ST. JOHN LOSES GOOD CITIZEN BY DEATH

Mrs. Margaret A. Bailey, who Died on Saturday, in her Home, North End, was Zealous in Good Work.

One of St. John's pioneer residents passed away on Saturday evening at five o'clock in the person of Mrs. Margaret Aurora Bailey, and through her death the community suffers a severe loss.

The deceased lady was born in this city on May 24th, 1820, and had attained her 91st year when death claimed her. She was of Loyalist descent and was a daughter of the late Edward Walker, her grandfather was the late Dr. Asor Betts, who was among the first of the Loyalists to settle here. On November 18th, 1841, she married the late Simon Bailey. Three daughters were born of the marriage, and survive her; they are Mrs. Thos. R. Hilyard, Mrs. E. L. Jewett and Mrs. F. A. Roberts, all residents of St. John.

The deceased during her remarkably long life, had been most active. She had always been prominently identified with charitable and benevolent work of the city. Her life has been marked by unselfish endeavor and kindly thought for the welfare of others. The Union Hall in the North End stands as a monument to her earnest labor, as she was instrumental in bringing about its erection. Through her untiring efforts the funds necessary for the erection of a monument to the memory of the soldiers who lost their lives in South Africa were procured, the grounds on which the monument stands and which are now known as Riverview Park, Dingley Avenue, were purchased and the present park made possible.

Mrs. Bailey was the possessor of a gentle and kindly disposition which endeared her to all with whom she came in contact and the news of her death will be learned with regret by a large circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the community.

Gerald Gleason, son of John F. Gleason, left last evening for Winnipeg, where he has accepted a position with the C. P. R.

HATTIE LEBLANC WILL RETURN HOME TODAY

Her Examination in Connection with Glover Will Case Concluded on Saturday—Lawyers Return to the Hub.

The examination of Hattie LeBlanc in connection with the Glover will case, was concluded Saturday afternoon, and Messrs Barry and Elmore left for Boston at 11 o'clock when the will case comes up again.

Hattie and her father will leave for their home in Arichat today, and Melvin W. Johnson and F. S. Bates, who have been in the city for the purpose of protecting Hattie from possible annoyance, will leave for Boston as soon as possible after they have started their protegee on her homeward journey.

The will case comes up in Boston today before Judge Hammond, and it is expected the testimony of the girl will have an important bearing on the case. The examination was very lengthy and it was found necessary to engage Miss Alice Dustin of the Royal Hotel staff, as stenographer, to help Miss Alice Morrell of Boston report the proceedings and transcribe the notes.

Before he left Mr. Barry expressed himself as exceedingly well pleased with the testimony of the young woman and said she stood the strain of a searching cross-examination excellently. It is thought her story will be the utmost importance in the trial. It was insisted that after the ordeal she had left the witness stand she went into such a deep sleep that it was impossible to arouse her. She was greatly fatigued after the ordeal through which she had passed.

Mr. Johnson, who acted as counsel for Hattie in the murder trial and who is administrator of the fund raised to educate her, said he had nothing to say for publication in regard to the will case.

"He," he said, "would go to her home where arrangements had been made to give her an education. In this way they hoped to make up to her as far as possible for the time lost and suffering involved during her prolonged imprisonment."
