WHO THE CANDIDATES ARE

In the following symposium The Observer gives a fair review of the four candidates offering for election to the Legislature. Honest voters will choose the first two, who are pledged to oppose the Government in its wild career of graft. They are pledged to run their election without the expenditure of a dollar or the use of a drop of rum to influence voters. The government candidates have refused such a pledge and are known to be backed by a huge "campaign fund."

GEORGE W. UPHAM

George W. Upham is one of the best known business men of the county. Although still in the prime of his manhood he has successfully conducted a lumber business for some 25 years. In 1893 he saw at the mouth of the Becaguimac an ideal sight for a large sawmill and forthwith began to build, selling out later to A. H. Sawyer. (It was thus that Hartland's chief industry began). Mr. Upham for years ran a big mill on the Gibson Branch, and for the last few years has been at the head of the Upham Lumber Co. doing business at Odell River, tributary to the Tobique. Mr. Upham resides in Woodstock.

In 1909, soon after the Hazen-Fleming government attained power, Mr. Upham was successful in winning the seat in the Legislature made vacant by B. F. Smith resigning to run against F. B. Carvell in a federal election. He won over his opponent by a handsome majority.

In the Legislature Mr. Upham ably supported the remnant of his party that had been returned at the general election, bringing credit to himself and to the county he represented. He is not a college man and his education is not of classic order. He is a busy, rough-and-ready lumberman, with plenty of common house-sense, and a man who holds his pledged word as sacred as his bond; a man who has kept his honor undefiled and whom all men respect. There is nothing "narrow" or mean about George Upham and his friends are not all of one political faith. Returned to the Legislature he will seek no favors for himself, no graft for his friends, nor will he submit to the cunning devices of the lobbyists. He will demand a square deal for all the people, and will not hesitate to express his hard-headed sense and sound judgment at the right times.

ANDREW D. McCAIN

Mr. McCain is a young man and the only son of his father, H. H. McCain, who very creditably represented the county in the Legislature for a number of years. "Andy," as the young candidate is known to a real host of friends, has never been in public life, but he might just as well as not have had M. L. A. attached to his name these past four years, as he will have during the next four. Young Mr. McCain is so well known throughout the county that it seems superfluous to state that he was reared in the produce business, and is now at the head of the McCain Produce Company, one of the largest buyers of farm products in the province. No man can point to Andy McCain and say "he cheated me; he is a crook; he is a grafter; he did not give me a square deal." Rather, his record is of honest dealing, as every farmer for miles around will bear willing witness; he is a conscientious, straightforward, hundred-cents-on-the-dollar man. And no one is going to accuse Andrew McCain of going into politics to enrich himself. That was not the record of the prideful father who preceded him in the legislative halls, and Andy will maintain not only family tradition but his own personal ideals. Similar to his "running mate," Mr. McCain's real education has been gained in actual business, although as a legislator he shall have had the advantage of academy schooling. But we want not so much of classic lore in the Legislature as we need the experience of real men who have won success through business done squarely; men who have profited by being true and just in all their dealings. For that Andy McCain is such a man, and such a man in such marked degree, the people will on Sept. 21 return him at the head of the poll.

B. FRANK SMITH

Mr. Smith has been longer in public life than any of the candidates and he needs no introduction to the people of Carleton county, or of Victoria county, or of Westmorland county where he admitted that Fleming had done grave wrong. Mr. Smith is the man whom the Fredericton Gleaner described as having already made trouble enough for his party. But Frank Smith is a smart man. We must in all honesty concede that. If any one thinks he is a fool they've got another guess comin'. Sharp, keen, shrewd—and cunning. Mr. Smith being naturally a smart man, with splendid business ability, it is all the more shame that he is not honest and that he is not straight. Had he these absolutely necessary qualifications we know of no man better qualified to be Minister of Public Works. But, alas! In his career he has left a trail so crooked that it would break the back of an eel if it attempted to follow therein. We do not want seriously to refer to unproven stories of his office building resting on logs stolen out of the river, or of sawmills mysteriously burned, for these tales may have been maliciously formulated. They are best left unmentioned—best for Mr. Smith as well as the Observer, who could not prove them. But the farmers of Carleton county should remember the

WHO WILL YOU VOTE FOR?

The local government of the day finds itself with all the signs and symptoms of a lively fight on its hands in Carleton county. The nomination of Messrs. McCain and Upham is a sign that the county is going to see the sharpest fighting in many years. These men make a strong and sterling ticket.

They are known favorably in every parish.

They are practical, straightforward business men of high-reputation, each has a large personal following.

They will fight, and they will command a fighting support. The effort to elect them will be no half-hearted and perfunctory performance; it will be the kind that will shake up the county from end to end.

The Carleton county voter who really wants good government—how can he hesitate in choosing between George W. Upham and Andrew D. McCain on the one hand and the Hon. B. F. Smith, and the running mate who approves of Smith, on the other?

The frantic attempt of the government workers to line the electors up as Grits and Tories in this fight will fail.

Hundreds of Liberals voted for Mr. Fleming in 1908. They will not vote for Mr. Smith today.

They voted for Mr. Fleming and his ticket in the real hope that they were going to improve conditions. They will vote against B. F. Smith now for the same reason.

And many Conservatives will vote for the opposition ticket now because it is composed of sincere and reliable men, and because Messrs. Smith and Fleming have brought discredit upon their party and harm to the province.

Thousands of electors in New Brunswick, regardless of politics, are saying to themselves today: "This is the time to clean up." Carleton county must have its due proportion of such men. They do not want Mr. Smith as Minister of Public Works: they do not believe the government can last or should last: they are confident that it would be overwhelmed tomorrow if the people had an opportunity to pronounce upon its conduct.

Clergymen, whatever their politics, will naturally be expected to exert their influence upon representative men in both parties to set their faces resolutely against the use of money and intoxicants.

Now that the opposition position in this matter has been made public, clearly and officially, those in Carleton county whose regard for public morality is sincere cannot fail to recognize the opportunity to make a real beginning in the task of raising our election-eering methods to a decent plane.

WHAT CATARRH IS
 It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body, and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.
 To cure catarrh you should treat its cause by cleansing your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building-tonic, free from any harmful drugs. Try it.

CARVELL AS LIBERAL LEADER?

A well known writer has in McLean's Magazine (Toronto) for September an article booming Hon. Lyman Poole Duff as a successor to Sir Wilfred Laurier in the leadership of the Liberal party. Of course Sir Wilfred will remain leader until advancing years compel retirement, and it is certain if his health and vigor continues he will see his party through another general election.
 Justice Duff is not now in parliament and the writer goes on to say that of the present members four are outstanding figures if the choice of a leader should be made from those sitting in the House. He says "All of them are in the prime of life, and all are good pickings. Their names are George Graham, Edward McDonald, Frank Carvell and Dr. Pugsley."

Hon. B. Frank Smith was challenged by the opposition to have an agreement made between the responsible leaders of both parties to prevent the use of rum or money in the Carleton campaign. Mr. Smith refuses to do so, and insults the opposition by charging that they would violate an agreement if it were made.

Mr. Fleming is the real issue. Condemned by a royal commission, he retired from the premiership and from the legislature. Now he is back again on the public platform with members of the government, announcing his return to public life, and receiving the blessing of the government from the lips of the Hon. James A. Murray.

Mr. Fleming and his methods are to be forced down the throats of the people if the thing can be done. The dose is being administered openly and shamelessly, with an assumption of virtue as nauseating as it is brazenly insincere. Of what use would it be for any man to pretend that he cared for honor in public life if he endorsed the most flagrant examples of graft and plunder that have ever been exposed in New Brunswick?

Premier Fleming, in his "come back" speech at Woodstock, failed to make any reference to a certain letter relating to campaign funds which Col. H. F. McLeod, M. P., dictated to H. M. Blair. The matters referred to by Col. McLeod, were declared by him to be "absolutely in the public interest," add so far there has been no contradiction of the damaging statements therein made. Ex-Premier Fleming should be confronted with a copy of the Blair affidavit at every public meeting at which he appears during the campaign.

J. B. Daggett informs the public in a letter in the St. John Standard that he has declined an invitation to go to Carleton and stump for Hon. B. F. Smith. This is all very well as far as it goes, but many people would like to know why an official of the government, who is also a deputy head of a department, should be asked by a Minister of the Crown to take the stump in a political campaign.

The Fredericton graft organ, which refused to support Hon. Mr. Mahoney as Minister of Public Works, is doing its best on behalf of Hon. B. Franklin Smith. This is evidence that the palm greaser has been getting in his work.

Government Nomination

The supporters of the Provincial Government in Carleton county held a convention at Woodstock on Thursday. They selected Mayor W. S. Sutton as the colleague of Hon. B. Frank Smith, Minister of Public Works. M. L. Hayward of Hartland, was in the chair. Addresses were delivered by the candidates, Hon. Dr. Landry, Hon. James A. Murray and former Premier Fleming. Resolutions were passed concurring in the selection of Hon. B. Frank Smith, Minister of Public Works and approval of the policy of the administration since 1908.

The excursion trains carried large numbers, men of both parties and women and children. Free tickets were provided for many voters and liquor flowed freely.

Will Fleming Read Blair's Statement?

St. John Telegraph: When Mr. J. K. Fleming takes the stump in Carleton county he should read to his audience the sworn statement of H. M. Blair containing a document prepared by the former Provincial Secretary of this province, Hon. H. F. McLeod. The people of Carleton county know the contents of that statement, but it would take on new beauties and a fresh significance if they could hear it from the lips of Mr. Fleming. Will he read it?

DECLINE SUBSTITUTES

A CONSERVATIVE TO CONSERVATIVES

J. K. Fleming's brazen activity in the Carleton county bye-election and his announcement that he proposes "to remain in public life," have drawn a broadside from the Chatham World, of which J. L. Stewart, M. P. P., is the editor and proprietor. Mr. Stewart is an independent in local politics and a Conservative in Dominion affairs. He upholds Sir Sam Hughes, and he is disposed to be merciful to Colonel John Wesley Allison. He is a severe critic of Messrs. Carvell and Kye in connection with the shell charges. Those who think him unjust or misguided in Dominion affairs will find his condemnation of Mr. Fleming quite as thoroughgoing as that of the most outspoken opposition journal. But let Mr. Stewart speak for himself, keeping in mind that he is a conservative speaking to Conservatives on provincial issues. He says editorially in the latest issue of the World:

"The official report of ex-Premier Fleming's speech at Woodstock Convention says:

"Hon. Mr. Fleming, continuing, referred to his management of the Provincial Secretary's Department and also of the Crown Land Department, and challenged any one to show where he had committed an act discreditable to himself or not in the best interests of the province. "Mr. Fleming, when Minister of Lands, was the head of a blackmail conspiracy, of which his chief scaler was the executive officer, for levying contributions to the amount of $100,000 on the holders of land leases who sought renewals, and actually collected about $70,000. This money was given to a man of his selection to hold, and was used in stock speculations, precisely as if it were the personal property of Mr. Fleming and his treasurer. Since the exposure of this great crime half of the money has been returned to the lumber men who contributed it, and the other half is either in the hands of Mr. Fleming's treasurer or has been lost in speculation."

"And yet Mr. Fleming thinks he has done nothing discreditable and denounces this exposure of his conduct as scandal!"

"What sort of a moral monstrosity is he anyway?"

There we have the deliberate judgment of a member of the Legislature who knows the whole story, and who would have protested against the resolution whitewashing the ex-Premier had he, Mr. Stewart, been present when it was presented. The resurrection of Mr. Fleming is the text of more than one cutting editorial observation in the World. In addition to the article quoted, the World says:

"J. K. Fleming has surely some gall. He is actually taking part in the campaign in Carleton county on behalf of the Minister of Public Works! We presume that Mr. Smith could not restrain him, after having voted for the resolution that declared him innocent. Mr. Fleming's gall is phenomenal.

It is, truly. What will the Carleton county electorate do about it? Will the people of that county justify Mr. Fleming's estimate of their character? Or will they punish Smith and Fleming as they deserve? The whole country is watching and waiting for the answer to this question.

As to some of Mr. Fleming's defenders, the World says: "Mr. J. K. Fleming used to tell a story, in his campaign speeches of a juryman who justified his verdict of not guilty, in the case of a man charged with stealing a hog, by saying that he had received a piece of the pork. The applause that greeted Mr. Fleming at the Woodstock convention, and the eulogies the Gleaner passed on him, remind one forcibly of this story. But the Conservatives who didn't get any of the pork shouldn't be held responsible for the acts of Mr. Fleming and the applause of his admirers."

There must be hundreds of Conservatives in Carleton county who will agree with Mr. J. L. Stewart, M. P. P. As for those who shared the "pork," they count for little. Their motives are pretty generally understood, and they will be more thoroughly appreciated as further particulars concerning the distribution of the "pork"—and it was not always a willing division—age made public.

In presenting for public support and admiration that pair of practical statesmen, Messrs. Smith and Fleming, the government of the day sufficiently proclaims its character. It is exceedingly raw work. The province at large naturally expects Carleton county to resent it, and very emphatically.

Kidney Disease Overcome

Mr. James Prouse, cattle dealer, Sheho, Sask., writes:—"For about ten years I suffered from Kidney disease, at times I was bad with backache, and derangements of the digestive organs. During that time I was treated by four different doctors. One day I read in Dr. Chase's Almanac about the Kidney-Liver Pills and began to use them. Altogether I used six boxes. All I say is that I feel well now and attribute this condition to the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills."

Effrontery of Mr. Fleming

St. John Times: Two blows have been struck in Carleton county for good government. One of them was the nomination of Andrew D. McCain and Geo. W. Upham by the Opposition party as their candidates. The other was the open and public embrace of J. K. Fleming by members of the present government, an act which seals the political doom of the whole outfit, no matter what the electors of Carleton county may do with the challenge flung in their faces by the Flemming group.

Service will be held in the Methodist church, Hartland, on Sunday, Sept. 10, in the morning at 11, when the pastor, Rev. G. S. Helps, B. A., will preach. A hearty invitation is given to all.

Very much space of this issue is devoted to the election campaign, but not more than that paramount question deserves. There is however, no other news matter "left over" for the editor printing all the county happenings that have been reported. District correspondents are unusually shy this week and it is assumed that election excitement overshadows all things else. No doubt correspondents will take the hint and "get busy" for next week.

On Sunday after the evening service the United Baptist congregation remained in their church to consider the question of a pastor for the ensuing year. It was their undivided mind to invite the present incumbent, Rev. Geo. Kincaid, who has been their pastor for two years, to remain. On Monday he decided to accept and so notified his flock. The Rev. George Kincaid is an earnest and forceful preacher and untiring in his other pastoral duties. He is held in high esteem as a citizen and the village, generally, will be pleased that he is to remain.

Happy Family Reunion

The home of George Raymond of Middle Simonds was the scene of a pleasant reunion Wednesday of last week when there was a large gathering of family relatives numbering 68 people in all. Among those present were Mrs. Woodbury Raymond and little son from New Mexico, Mrs. Hubert Holmes, Mrs. John Bacon, Worcester, Mass.; Miss Maude Raymond, Fairfield, Mass.; Mr. and Miss Estey, New York; Mrs. Whelpley and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, New Hampshire; Mrs. John Farley, California; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Estey and two daughters, Bridgewater; Mrs. Spurgeon Everett, Fort Fairfield; C. R. Estey, Charles Estey, Wicklow; Mrs. Boardman Wheeler, Henry Estabrooks and daughter, Chester; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hayden, Woodstock; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, St. John and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Everett, Jacksonville. There were also a large concourse of relatives who reside nearby. An honorable guest was the patriarchal Rev. Hiram Raymond, in his 88th year.

The spacious verandahs of Mr. Raymond's beautiful residence afforded a delightful opportunity for such a happy "gathering of the clan" and the occasion will go down in their family history as being of rare pleasure. All will never meet again, but in later years the youngest of them all will doubtless meet on similar occasion and recall this as the grandest reunion of all.

TWO DOLLAR POTATOES

Today local buyers are offering $2 a barrel for potatoes hauled direct from the field to the cars. It was the lure of "two dollar potatoes" that drew scores of Carleton county farmers across the boundary line to become good and wealthy citizens of Aroostook. Even at the price farmers are not rushing the market and this morning a leading buyer said that at all their shipping points they had not more than eight or ten cars loading. Farmers are still busy with their harvest and are rushing to get that under cover before going into the potato fields. Many Aroostook spuds are moving. From Sunday at 6 p. m. until Monday at 10.30 a. m. 81 carloads rolled by the editor's window.

Potato Products Company to Start Operations

The Potato Products Company, which started business last fall, at Woodstock will again begin operating their plant very soon. Owing to the shortage of potatoes last year the company was obliged to shut down during the winter, but hopes this season to get all the stock necessary for the manufacture of potato flour between 60 and 70 hands are required to operate the plant.

H. H. Hatfield of the produce firm of Hatfield & Scott is the head of this concern.

Hagerman's Building For Sale

Having a desire to make a change in my business I offer for sale that centrally located concrete block in the village of Hartland. The building is, 28x80, with basement 10ft. in the clear, the whole size of building. Store well finished, lighted and heated. Two upper stories contain three 7-room tenements besides halls and closets; also an office. All the tenements are furnished with modern conveniences. There is sufficient room behind the building for a barn or large warehouse if necessary. This is freehold property and possession can be given any time. Enquiries by mail promptly answered. Paint that House this Fall

Protect it from the destructive effect of a winter's snow and ice—save valuable time next spring for other work. Fall painting pays. But be sure you choose the right paint—one that will give your buildings the years of protection that you've paid for.

"ENGLISH" B-H PAINT

is made according to the formula which scientific tests and many years of experience by practical painters prove to be best to meet Canadian weather conditions.

Formula: 70% Pure White Lead
30% White Zinc
100% Pure Paint

It contains 70% of Brandram's B.B. Genuine White Lead—of standard purity for over 100 years—and 30% of pure white zinc—thus combining, in the proper proportions, pure lead and pure zinc, and making a perfect paint. You take no chances with B-H "English" Paint. Be sure you get it! There are cheaper paints, but none more economical when covering capacity and length of wear are considered.
