150,000 STRIKERS IN BERLIN

BERLIN, April 2, (Night). (By Frank J. Taylor).—More than 150,000 workers went on strike in Berlin late yesterday. Metal workers, technicians and other skilled craftsmen were the first to walk out. They were quickly followed by several other trades unions.

While the strike had been anticipated for several days, it was believed it might be postponed until next week, and the sudden walk-out caught the government forces unprepared.

British Labor Registers Views on Peace Acts

SUGGEST AMENDMENTS TO LEAGUE COVENANT

LONDON, April 3.—British organized labor today officially registered its views concerning the peace settlement and the league of nations. Nearly 10,000 delegates, representing between eight and nine million workers throughout the country, met in a central hall, at the invitation of the Labor party and the trades union congress, for the purpose of articulating their peace policy.

ARRIVED HOME

The following men arrived on 9.15 p.m. train at the station last evening: Privates Read and Gregor of this city and Crossman of Breslau. They were received by the reception committee and Mayor Gross, Oliver Master came on 11.32 train today.

Nursing Sister Minerva Musselman, in a message to her brother, Mr. A. R. Musselman, 17 Rose street, stated that she would arrive home here via London, Ont., on the 2.32 train tomorrow afternoon.

Gratefulness to Returned Men Expressed at Entertainment

Event Followed Banquet in Masonic Hall. Gen. Gunn Urges Business Men to Get Behind all Who Have Returned.

"If I know the spirit of the business men of Kitchener I think you'll have a citizen for every soldier." General Gunn, Toronto, Officer Commanding of Military District Number Two, remarked at the entertainment for the great war veterans in the Roma theatre last evening.

General Gunn was one of the speakers at the event which was provided by the Daughters of the Empire following the banquet. He was among those who spoke outlining the needs of the hour in this day of readjustment, referring especially to bringing the returned men back into civilian life and the necessity of giving them opportunities. He outlined what had been accomplished in Toronto, where the Citizens' Repatriation League had been formed, who number tens of thousands and whose object will be to see that every returned man "is in the place he should be. The whole work includes recognition of returning men by a special committee employment and the relief of those who have been maimed in the war and of those who have been bereft of dear ones.

Emphasizing the need of giving all returned men opportunities he stated that the League had secured the services of a lawyer, a returned soldier, who would be at court everyday just to watch for possible cases where the defendant might happen to be a returned soldier. This man would immediately investigate his troubles and see that the man was given every chance. Assistance and advice to soldiers' wives, adjustment of pension difficulties besides employment were other matters that were taken up by the Toronto citizens repatriation league.

Concluding his remarks General Gunn urged that the business men here get behind the returned men and assist in organizing as the Toronto citizens did. "It would mean a great deal to the city for what we want is unity in peace as in war," he concluded.

Message From Captain.

Capt. (Rev.) W. A. Cameron of Toronto, who accompanied General Gunn, also spoke. He is a humorous and witty speaker, whose remarks are always interspersed with flashes of oratory.

Capt. Cameron briefly expressed admiration for the spirit of the men over yonder on all occasions, not referring so much to the fighting spirit, for this was so generally known. It was a tribute to that other spirit of tenacity, which permeated the whole nation and which has always been a characteristic of the British people.

As to the future Captain Cameron said the greatest question is service to Canada in the future. It was absolutely essential that Canada have citizens who are self-sacrificing and unselfish. Conditions after and before the war cannot be the same.

Presentation of Medal

At this juncture the presentation of the military medal to Spr. H. Lindsay took place. General Shannon had the honor of affixing the medal on the hero who distinguished himself by bravery on the field, while looking after the wounded. Preceding the presentation, General Shannon said he felt honored by being given the opportunity to be present and to speak. He remarked that he was not one of those who had the privilege of going overseas. But he has felt that while he could not go overseas there was important work here for him and he found pleasure in having command of military district number one. He paid a tribute to the 50,000 men that were raised in this district.

Ontario President Speaks

Capt. (Rev.) C. E. Jeakin, of Bradford, president of the Ontario branch of the Great War Veterans' Association, also briefly spoke. "As to the men I need not say anything. We all know they were as splendid to pass resolutions declaring it is highly important the peace conference quickly adopt substantial progress.

They were also expected to adopt regulations for amendments to the league covenant, including a revision of Article XIX, so that the principle of self-determination shall be extended to the colonies of all nations (which would effect Ireland, Egypt and India); a revision of Article VII, so as to prohibit conscription and provide for general disarmament; a revision of Articles I and II, so as to provide for the election of the body of delegates by parliaments according to the countries populations instead of the members being appointed by the governments.

The delegates were also expected to make a charge against the peace conference of reverting to the old "balance of power" basis in handling the Polish and Dalmatian situations.

It was also believed they would make suggestions concerning the settlement of the Rhine question.

TWO DELEGATIONS TO GO TO WEIMAR

BASLE, April 3.—Two delegations, representing strikers in the Ruhr industrial region, were at Weimar yesterday to discuss the situation with Herr Bauer, the German Minister of Labor. After the conference the delegation went to Berlin to see other members of the German cabinet.

Dispatches received here place the number of strikers in the Dortmund district at 56,000.

Three Lives Lost in a Hull Fire

EARLY THIS MORNING

OTTAWA, April 3.—Three lives were lost and property damage estimated at between $35,000 and $40,000 was caused by an early morning fire at Hull, which gutted what is known as Dorson Block, on the corner of Main and Leclac Streets, consisting of the Social Club and three stories in the heart of the business section of the city.

The dead are: the Misses Marie Dorion, aged 40, Grace aged 32, and Blanche, aged 10. The two former are daughters and the latter the granddaughter of Mrs. L. N. Dorion, part owner of burned block. The girls lived alone in top flat of the building and it is surmised were overcome by dense smoke, which suffocated them, as the bodies when recovered were not touched by flames.

Although the firemen knew the girls were in building and made valiant attempts to rescue them, they were unable to enter the apartment where they were known to be, owing to the intensity of the fire.

Pinchon Says Peace Coming at Easter

STATEMENT MADE AT BANQUET

PARIS, April 3.—"I have always thought, and think more than ever today that the peace preliminaries to be imposed upon Germany will be ready before Easter, unless something unexpected arises," said Stephen Pinchon foreign minister, yesterday in reply to questioners at a banquet given by French Republican journalists, according to the Matin.

Left Bank of Rhine TO BE NEUTRALIZED FOR SOME YEARS.

PARIS, April 3.—The Council of Four has virtually decided, according to information from French sources, that the left bank of Rhine will be neutralized until Germany has paid the in emities fixed by the peace conference.

It is understood that French and Belgian troops will hold this territory, the United States claiming it to be impossible to leave American troops in Europe after the signature of the peace treaty; and Great Britain, having insufficient effective troops to maintain garrisons along the Rhine.

Budapest Soviet and Outside World

COMMUNISATION OF WOMEN, BUDAPEST, (Via Vienna), April 3.—Communist Budapest is orderly and the government is putting forth every effort to stabilize conditions. There are pessimists, however, who declare the government will endure less than a month.

It being pointed out that its success will be partially dependent upon the success of the Russian Bolshevik army to establish a corridor from Kiev to Budapest by way of Bessarabia and Bukovina.

Bela Kun, foreign minister, receives hundreds of telegrams of an official nature every day, among them being messages from Nikolai Lenin, Russian Bolshevik premier. He receives newspaper—men freely but has ordered that their dispatches be censored for the purpose of eliminating all references to be sent over all government wires, so as to eliminate objectionable features.

Kun, who was formerly secretary to Lenin, is most anxious to deny reports relative to the communisation of women in Hungary, which he declares to be "propaganda." He also denies rumors of assassinations and disorders. There are twenty-four members of the government nineteen are Jews.

London's Application Was Turned Down

Desired to Get Commission Government

HON. I. B. LUCAS WAS UNFRIENDLY

TORONTO, April 3.—London's application for a commission form of municipal government was rejected by the Private Bills Committee of the legislature this morning and permission for the erection of a new city hall was granted only on condition that the project is ratified by the ratepayers of that city.

G. Meredith, city solicitor of London, presented the municipality's case, assisted by former Mayor Stevenson. The opposition to the erection of the new city hall was taken by Colonel Coles.

Mr. Meredith explained that the principle underlying the bill was to give 20 commissioners control over all city expenditure. In reply to I. F. Hilliard, of Dundas, he admitted that the educational commission would be in a minority in the council. The feeling prevailed in London, he continued, that the present form of municipal government was not the best. It was felt necessary that the city should have control of the expenditure of the board of education, the largest independent spending body.

This is the most radical legislation affecting municipal government that we have considered for some time," observed Hon. I. B. Lucas, Chairman of the Committee. He pointed out

SPANISH INFLUENZA IS NOW BEING OVERCOME

It Caused 10,000 Deaths in Ontario

IN MARCH THERE WERE 798 DEATHS DUE TO IT

PARLIAMENT BUILDING S, Toronto April 3.—Spanish influenza is disappearing from the province, as indicated by the decrease in deaths shown in the Provincial Board of Health statistics for the month of March.

Since the first of October the disease has been either the primary or contributor cause of nearly 10,000 deaths in the province.

Deaths by months were October 3015, November 2608; December, 1568; January 1512; February 812; March, influenza, 285, pneumonia 516, total 703.

Cities and towns reporting the most at this for March were Toronto 50; Hamilton 29; London 4; Soo 10; Ottawa 8; St. Catharines 7; Woodstock 5; Fort William 17.

The reports of secretaries of local Boards of Health for the month of March show scarlet fever and diphtheria prevails to a much greater extent than in the corresponding month of 1918. The cities where the increase for the last few months in diphtheria was most noticeable were, Ottawa, Toronto, and Windsor, scarlet fever has also been prevalent in Fort William for some weeks. The provincial board of health has distributed free of charge, where diphtheria prevails, 25,946,000 units of antitoxin, at cost of $3891.

Hungarian Basis of National Representation

SYSTEM ANNOUNCED TODAY

COPENHAGEN April 3.—The new Government in Hungary has definitely promulgated a system of government by village, town, district and county councils and a national assembly of councils, so a dispatch from Budapest says.

Representatives to national assembly will be elected by town and county councils. The last day on which elections can be held for council has been fixed for April 14.

All men and women who have reached the age of eighteen will be permitted to vote, with the exception of those who employ wage earners for profit or who live on unearned income or are merchants, common criminals or lunatics.

Bela Kun Seeks An Alliance With Others

SAID TO BE NOW IN MUNICH

BERLIN, April 3. (By J. Frank Taylor).—Foreign Minister Bela Kun, of the Soviet government, has arrived in Munich for the purpose of forming an alliance between the Hungarian, Austrian and Bavarian soviets, so the Deutsche Zeitung declared to-day. The report could not be verified.

The general strike is growing throughout Germany. More than 100,000 men are now out in the Ruhr industrial district, and half the miners in the Rhineland are not working.

Parents Take Daughter From Husband's Home

CLAIM SHE HAD NOT THEIR CONSENT TO MARRY

HAMILTON, April 3.—A few days ago Daniel L. Reid, fireman, married Violet Rutherford, daughter of Alexander and Mrs. Rutherford of Toronto. A few hours after the wedding, the young bride's parents arrived by motor and insisted on taking her back, stating that the marriage had been performed without their consent.

Mr. Reid this morning retained M. J. O'Reilly to take legal steps to recover his wife, who he claims is old enough to marry without parental consent.

ROYAL BANK CLOSES OPTION

Purchases Former Economical Block

The Royal Bank has closed its option on the Economical Block at the corner of West King and South Front Street. It was intimated some time ago that the option would probably be taken up by this bank and the intelligence that the deal went through was not unexpected. The option was for $70,000.

The property is valuable one. The location and the building both are favorable. The property has a frontage of 54 feet on King Street, and includes the quarters occupied by the Bank of Montreal and the hardware store of J. Fennell and Son. The former's lease does not expire for two years, after which time they have the option of renewing it for another five years.

The sale of the property will be ratified at a meeting of the Economical Board of Directors this evening. As to when the Royal Bank will

WATERLOO NEWS RECORD

ROYAL BANK WILL OPEN BRANCH

Waterloo is to have another branch of the Royal Bank of Canada having decided to open up a branch in the course of 10 days. At present alterations are being made to the quarters formerly occupied by the Bank of Commerce on the corner of Erb and King Streets. The past few years these quarters were used as headquarters for the Red Cross Society. The addition of another banking institution in town will be welcomed and no doubt they will receive a fair share of patronage.

SIBERIAN HARES BEING RAISED IN WATERLOO.

It may be interesting news to a number of our readers to learn that right here in town we have two people interested in the raising of hares and so successful have they been that their stock of thoroughbreds are known throughout Canada from ocean to ocean. The Company is known as "The Black Siberian Hare Co. and on looking through the pens one is surprised at the size of the hares. They are jet black and of large size, weighing all the way from 12 to 15 pounds each.

The pens are scrupulously clean and sanitary and everything is up-to-date in every respect.

The demand for their stock has become so large that they intend branching out on more extensive lines.

BOARD OF WORKS ON TOUR OF INSPECTION

The members of the Board of Works, Messrs. Deputy Reeve Strook, Chairman, Reeve Bohlender, Mayor Kutt, Counsellors Sturm, Kinswetter and Foster and Engineer Moogk, made a tour of inspection throughout the town yesterday getting a line on the necessary work to be done the coming summer.

They visited the gravel pit and drove over John, Essen, Charles, Bowman, Allan and George Streets and no doubt, as a result of their inspection, needed improvements will be completed this year.

A suggestion may be made to the residents on Allan and George Streets for the putting down of a permanent roadway. These streets situated as they are near the centre of the town and being two of our best residential streets, a permanent roadway would not only add to the appearance of this section but would greatly increase the value of the property fronting thereon.

A busy season is anticipated for the Board of Works Dept.

POST OFFICE CLOCK STILL ONE HOUR BEHIND

Many citizens are still wondering why the Post Office Clock has not been advanced to the new time as it seems to cause some little annoyance having two distinct times in town. However for the benefit of those who need their disapproval this morning it might be stated that as the Post Office Clock is a government time piece and as the Govt. has not sanctioned the Daylight saving movement as yet there seems no reason why our gov't officials in town should take it upon themselves to change the time without proper authority.

However the mails are being sent out and taken in on the new time, it being necessary to do this on account of the railways having adopted the new time.

However there is no doubt the clock will be changed just as soon as the orders are received from the Government.

Barn Burned at St. Clements

A disastrous fire took place at eleven o'clock yesterday morning at the farm of Conrad V. Gies, one mile north of St. Clements, in Wellesley township. When the barn, one of the largest in North Waterloo, was burned to the ground, including considerable stock and grain. The blaze was caused by a spark from a steam engine igniting the roof of a shed at the rear of the barn, and three hours later the structure was in ruins. The highest winds caused the flames to spread with great rapidity. Besides the barn implements, wagons, harness, twenty-seven sheep, forty hogs and the remainder of last season's crops were burned. The loss is estimated at $10,000 partly covered by insurance.

VERY EFFECTIVE METHOD FOR BANISHING HAIRS

At very little cost any woman can rid her face of hairy growths if she will use the delicate treatment. This is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. This paste is spread upon the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes then rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. No harm results from this treatment, but care should be used by real delatone.

Another inspiring and helpful sermon was delivered by Rev. E.D. Silcott at the Congregational Church last evening. The first part of his text was taken from Ecclesiastes 2:17 "Therefore I hated life"—These words were the writer's opinion of life after having lived a godly life, full of worldly pleasures, with everything that money could buy and doing everything that his mind could suggest to make life worth living, but his cry was "All is vanity." In contrast to this was the second part of the text being the words of Timothy "lay hold on the life which is life indeed." This was the summing up of a Godly life that gives satisfaction. The speaker urged his hearers to accept this life that they might say as Carlyle "the longer I live the more I feel the truth of the words" "The chief end of man is to glorify God and enjoy him forever."

Brantford Wants Highway Constructed

DELEGATION TOLD 100 MILES TO BE CONSTRUCTED THIS SUMMER.

TORONTO, April 2.—The need for permanent road construction and for alleviating the employment situation, were urged on Hon. F. G. McDiarmid, minister of public works and highways, as reasons for speeding up work on the provincial highway from Hamilton to London, by a deputation from Brantford, which waited on the minister this morning.

The deputation was headed by Mayor McBride and included representatives from the City Council, Trades and Labor Council, and the G.W.V.A. The Hon. McDiarmid, in reply, pointed out that the work has already been undertaken by the highways department, and that it is expected to construct 100 miles of highway this summer.

Commission To Consider Joint Control of Industry By Capital and Labor Committees

SENATOR ROBERTSON, MINISTER OF LABOR, ANNOUNCES INTENTION OF GOVERNMENT TO APPOINT COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE FEASIBILITY OF PROPOSAL AND REPORT BY MAY 15.

Ottawa, April 2.—The proceedings in the House of Commons were completely overshadowed to-day by the Senate where Hon. Gideon Robertson, minister of labor made the most important announcement of the session and there was given a second reading to the daylight saving of Senator Robertson told the senators that the Government had decided to appoint a commission consisting of either five or seven members representing capital and labor to investigate the feasibility of joint control by capital and labor of industry and report by May 15. The commission will hold sittings throughout Canada. Senator Robertson said that personally he thought there were some industries where it was not feasible, but in many large Canadian industries some plan could be evolved. The senator said that the Government had been urged from all parts of the country to use force against the growing Bolshevik movement. He believed this would only aggravate the situation. What was needed was a better understanding between capital and labor and this was the Government's method of arriving at the solution. Personnel Immediately.

Mr. Robertson whose announcement of such a far-reaching step was made in the course of a statement replying to an interrogation by Senator Michener as to what steps the Government was taking to secure greater co-operation between capital and labor, did not divulge the personnel of the commission he has in view but he emphasized that it would be composed of men who would have the confidence of the whole Canadian people and it is understood that the name of those composing it will be announced almost immediately.

In reading up his statement of policy Senator Robertson gave a most comprehensive review of the labor situation in Canada. The situation which which the country was confronted he said, was an intense and evergrowing desire on the part of workmen that there should be a greater measure of industrial democracy which was to say that workmen felt that through some means of organized effort they should have some measure of voice in the control and conduct of industries. This attitude was largely born of the fact that whereas in days gone by the vast majority of employers were proprietors of their industries and a measure of co-operation and loyalty existed between employers and employees to-day they were confronted by a system which gave their labor and capital of capital made contact between workmen and their employers impossible thus rendering co-operation between and loyalty to one another, extremely difficult. The result was that employees were compelled to organize and to strive for fair conditions, under which to give their labor, and made, in turn brought difficulties, disputes and more frequent strikes.

Does not Meet Conditions. Twelve years ago Canada in a effort to meet these new conditions inaugurated what was known as the Lemieux Act. This legislation proved to be wise and beneficial, but he submitted that it did not meet the new conditions confronting them. The Government to-day felt that what was required was not so much the settlement of disputes and strikes but their prevention before they occurred. The policy of the labor department was to work in this direction and with this end in view had secured last year a conference of labor and capital and this conference meeting together surveyed all the difficulties had accepted 12 principles upon which employers and employees could agree. From that beginning there had grown a condition under which the Government had been receiving a splendid measure of support from both capital and labor and out of it also had come a very wide acceptance of the whitley and Rockefeller plans for industrial control which meant the giving to labor of a voice in the control and management of industries. The Imperial Oil Company, the Canadian Shoe Manufacturing Company, the Toronto Builders' League had all established industrial control and other firms were following their example. At the present time representatives of shipbuilders were in Ottawa conferring with representatives of labor negotiating in regard to differences and seeking to establish new uniform wage scales and a week ago, as the result of a conference between Western miners and operators, held in the capital, a serious dispute a dispute which might have had grave consequences was smoothed over.

Recourse to Compulsion. One year ago the country was facing a tie-up of coal production of Nova Scotia and with it the paralysis of transportation of munitions vital to our army overseas, but a few days ago as the result of both sides giving allegiance to the 12 principles which had been reached in regard to wages and working conditions for the year 1919 and the result was that the stability and unbroken maintenance of coal production in Nova Scotia was assured. All of this had been obtained by suggestion and without the slightest resort to the use of force. It was the opinion that no legislation of compulsory character could be of the slightest value in aiding or in any way improving the situation the Government had to deal with.

in their lives as they were glorious and magnificent in death." He referred to the present problems. The trouble was that the world had not been prepared for peace, just as it had not been prepared for war. This was the reason for the atmosphere of uncertainty and unrest in the world to-day which, however, would disappear if properly dealt with. "The storm door against Bolshevism is the contented returned soldier. We must see that the returned soldiers are justly and honorably treated. We will then attain that state of peace, founded on mercy, justice and good-will whose maker and builder is God."

Chairman's Remarks

The chairman of the evening was Rev. Langford, city. In opening the meeting, Rev. Mr. Langford said that the citizens were deeply grateful to the men and the occasion of the meeting in a small way was to be an expression of thankfulness to them.

The Program

1. The moving picture depicting the murder of Edith Cavell.
2. The arrival of the Veterans.
3. Selections by the Orchestra, interspersed by songs by the boys, led by Mr. Irvin Axt.
4. Chairman's Address.
5. Brig-Gen. Gunn.
6. Solo by Miss Dorothy Titchener.
7. Capt. (Rev.) W. A. Cameron.
8. Presentation of military medal to Spr. Lindsay, by General Shannon.
9. Capt. (Rev.) C. A. Jenkins, president of the Ontario branch of the G.W.V.A.
10. God Save the King.

On the platform besides the chairman and speakers were Captain McIntosh, city, who assisted Gen. Shannon in the presentation of the medal; W. G. Turley, Ontario secretary of the G. W. V. A., Toronto; E. Waekett, president of the local G. W. V. A., and L. Axt, of the same organization.

AT THE FESTIVE TABLES

The banquet was a sumptuous repast. About a hundred of the city's business men did the waiting on table, while the ladies, Daughters of the Empire, prepared the tables. Decorations of flowers and flags adorned the festive tables.

After the partaking of the spread the Chairman, Rev. Mr. Langford, called on two visiting veteran officials for remarks.

Secretary W. G. Turley, of Toronto, of the Ontario G. W. V. A., spoke, outlining the ideals and aims of the G. W. V. A. and the relation between the government and the returned men who are not members of the Association to join it.

Referring to after war conditions, specifically Bolshevism, he said Bolshevism was hated by the G. W. V. A. The little that exists in this country was to be found among foreign elements which have not been absorbed into the country. To absorb these their community spirit had to be broken. The English language should be made compulsory over the whole country, allowing also for the French language in this country.

Capt. (Rev.) Jenkins, of Brantford, president of the Ontario branch of the G. W. V. A., said that the returned men should join the G. W. V. A. not in order to get something out of it but to give what they can. The same ideals should be held in it as were held in France, where sacrifice even to the extent of giving one's life was made in the cause of service to the country. The association's ideals were to work for the betterment of Canada.

Capt. Jenkins before concluding his remarks referred to what would be the greatest monument to be men who fought; this was a proper pension system he said. A few cheering songs by the boys enlivened the event.

ECHOES FROM THE G. W. V. A. EVENT

A number that was highly appreciated by the audience was the solo by Miss Dorothy Titchener, who is singing at the Allen Theatre and who kindly consented to sing at the entertainment at the Rom. The young lady is an able vocalist and her future in the art is undoubtedly. Her voice and personality made a marked impression on the audience. So deep was the appreciation that a request for further numbers was made, being apparent in the encores. In the refrain part of one of the numbers the young vocalist was assisted by her mother who accompanied her to this city Miss Titchener will sing at the Allen again this evening. It is the intention of the management to have her fill a return engagement at some future date.

French Say Progress is Now Being Made

GERMANY HAS A DEAL OF READY MONEY

PARIS, April 3.—Several members of the French peace delegation assure the Paris Matin that French ideas on peace treaty and other matters are gaining ground and that an understanding has been almost if not altogether reached regarding the subject of the financial demands to be imposed on Germany.

The Echo de Paris says that the council of four believes that Germany will be able to pay immediately six billion francs in money of various kinds. Deliveries of raw materials and manufactured goods from Germany, it says, will reach an undetermined sum, which some optimists estimate will amount to thirty billion francs.

Abyssinia in Revolt

ADIS ABABA PROCLAIMS HIMSELF KING

LONDON, April 3.—Adis Ababa, of Abyssinia, a grandson of King Johannes, the second, who died in 1889, has revolted and declared himself king under the name of Theodore. The government has sent out a punitive expedition to put down the rebellion. Governor Tjyon of Debiach has also revolted against the government. The government announces that it will send a mission to Paris to apply for the admission of Abyssinia to the league of nations.

There has been more or less disorder in Abyssinia since the death of the famous Emperor Menelik in 1913. He was succeeded by Lidj Jeassu, who was overthrown in 1916, by Zauditu, daughter of Menelik. Lidj Jeassu, who was a nephew of Zauditu, started a revolt in August 1917 but his effort, was soon put down.

Honored by Their Friends Recently

A very enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Willrich, 52 Heins Ave., when a number of young people gathered in honor of the Misses Violet and Pearl, prior to their leaving the city. Presentation of beautiful fountain pens were made by Miss F. Wendell and Miss M. Lauder on behalf of their friends, while the following address was read by Miss L. Heit: Kitchener, Ont., March 31st, 1919.

The evening was spent in music and cards after which a delightful supper was served. The party dispersed at an early hour in the morning, conscious of an evening well and pleasantly spent.

Simcoe Interested in Port Rowan Ry. AND PROPOSED ELECTRIFICATION.

SIMCOE, April 2.—Citizens of Simcoe in general look with much favor upon the proposal to electrify the Woodstock branch of the Grand Trunk system and would add to the project the South Norfolk branch to connect up Port Rowan.

Manufacturers prefer, in some cases, to await more details regarding inter-switching and service. A simple electrification on the road without a better schedule for both freight and passenger service would be taken here with indifference, for the present passenger service gives the district, to the North of the county less than two hours to transit business in town and reach home on the same day.

Attraction The Basis of Advertising

The purpose of Store Advertising is not merely to sell goods, but to sell more goods—to make friends, build up a patronage that will not only stick, but grow. Newspapers reach the greatest number of people in the immediate vicinity in the most natural way, at the least expense, and they are therefore the best of all mediums for stores. In a newspaper you follow the lines of least resistance—you follow with the stream—you talk to an audience, already assembled, to the people who want to read—their mental cosmos is right—they are on your wire, and they won't ring off if you hold their attention. Attraction is the basis of all advertising—the store is the sun, the customers the planets that revolve around it.—Ma Jene (N.Y.) Paldium.

Letters to NewsRecord PROHIBITION.

To the Editor: I notice, in your valuable paper, some interesting letters on Prohibition. I wish to offer a few thoughts in answer to one, by Mr. J. F. McKay, who, by the way, seems to be an ardent student of the Bible, altho he seems to be rather a "hit and miss" reader however, as only those parts, which seem to suit his ideas, evidently only make an impression.

In his letter of Mar. 25th he informs us "that the Almighty never predestinated that any of the human race should be engaged in so low and contemptible an occupation, as to become a spotter, and snoop and sneak and skulk." Truly said. Neither did he pre-destinate that any of them should become a thief, black-leg, murderer, etc. But because some human beings do become such, we must appoint policemen, detectives, to "snoop, sneak and skulk." "Spotters" if you please, and so it becomes an honorable occupation.

So it is also with the booze. If human beings would use it as it is intended, namely for medicinal purposes only, the "spotter" would not be necessary, but under existing circumstances, it is an honorable occupation.

If some of the saints in Old-Testament times did use wine, and in some instances an excess, is it reasonable to advocate that we may CARRY ON in the same way in this enlightened age of the New Testament times? Surely not as well try to argue we introduce polygamy because in olden times they had several wives. I am an aged mother and have not the "knowledge" of Boaz, who pleases some of the correspondents on this subject, but surely any child can see the fallacy of such arguments.

Respectfully submitted by an anxious mother and advocate of total Prohibition. (Mrs. H. Werner.

BETTY FLYNN MAKES A DISCOVERY.
Betty Flynn made a new discovery this morning. She's been making discoveries every day since she opened her eyes on the world nine months ago.

She learned quite early that the things one enjoys most are the things that are not good for one; for what is there more comforting than a nice little pink thumb to suck? And yet, every time that Betty essays to enjoy its pink smoothness mother takes it out and tucks it in the bed clothes.

Then Betty learned that things can become very painful in the region of one's piny, and that mother can relieve the situation by turning one on one's face, but that father invariably makes matters worse. There was one glad day, when she discovered that hands are good for something else besides sucking, the day she grabbed for the bright thing in father's tie. Then, grabbing because life is almost sport, until holding things, and dropping them almost ousted it from favor.

Down at the end of Betty Flynn are two little pink things, perfectly useless things. Mother makes a fuss over them and kisses them and exclaims adoringly about the tiny toes; but Betty doesn't see what they are there for, she's grabbed for them and tried to get them in her mouth, but the effort has never been very successful, although mother always applauds the attempt heartily, and seems willing to witness the effort as often as Betty cares to try.

But to-day Betty made the crowning discovery of her life, it was quite accidental—and there MAY be some excuse for the existence of those little pink things with toes after all! She was grabbing for the bar that runs round her crib, grabbing and stretching, with little hope of reaching it, when, sure enough she caught it, pulled on it, and there you are—her whoop of triumph made mother look round—"Why baby's standing!"

Flop went Betty Flynn, but she knew about those two pink things, and as soon as she got her breath she is going to try it again!

CONCRETE HIGHWAYS Save Time Money Labor. WHATEVER speeds up traffic must be a real economy. Whatever delays traffic must always involve waste of time and effort. Concrete, being the road material of minimum tractive resistance, makes a pavement on which all types of vehicle can travel quickly, and this speeding-up of traffic makes possible the speeding-up of production. Wherever there is a concrete road, in that locality you will find farmers and their "help" able to devote more time to the vital work of sowing and gathering the crops. SAVING TIME OF BERRY PICKERS. THE girls who helped so splendidly in the gathering of our berry crop last summer, can testify to the value of a concrete highway along lines of time-saving. To those of them who were able to use the Toronto-Hamilton highway, it meant many hours saved in transit between their camps and their berry-patches—thus giving them more hours for berry picking than they could possibly have had if their travelling to and fro had been on the old style road. The manner in which the Toronto-Hamilton highway conserved time in last summer's berry picking is but one of the many sidelights on the value of concrete that have been revealed to those farmers whose properties adjoin this modern concrete road. SAVING THE FARMER'S TIME. THIS same concrete highway has resulted in the opening of many wayside markets, to which motorists come for their fruit and provisions, thus saving much of the farmer's time. Then, too, those farmers who still take their "truck" to market are able, on this highway, to get to market and back in double quick time. A farmer situated on this highway, twenty miles from market, can load his motor truck, and leave in the morning—be back home for lunch—and make another trip to market in the afternoon. Instead of three uncomfortable team trips per week, which was his average before the concrete road was built, he now makes twelve trips in comfort—two trips each working day—by motor truck. HOW ONE FARMER PROFITS. THIS is the experience of R. H. Lush, of Clarkson, Ontario, whose farm adjoins the Toronto-Hamilton highway. He sold at his wayside booth last summer among other fruits, 700 baskets of cherries at an average price of $4.50 per basket, a total of $3,150, for cherries alone. Had he shipped these 700 baskets to Toronto (as he had to do before the highway was built), he would have had to reckon with the following items: Commission to commission house (12 1/2 per cent on $3,150) $440.00 Express (at 5c. per basket) 35.00 Cartage at city end (1c. per basket) 7.00 Hauling from farm to railroad 7.00 $489.00 The $189 which he saved by selling his cherries at his wayside booth represents an extra profit of $189 on cherries alone. It is the duty of every Canadian citizen—a duty he owes both to himself and to his country—to get the facts about concrete highways which will enable him to intelligently use his influence for the building of the kind of roads which shall result in more complete conservation of all we produce.

OLD FOLKS' COUGHS, CATARRH BRONCHITIS QUICKLY CURED

This Tells of a Method That Cures Without Using Drugs

Elderly people take cold easily. Unlike young folks they recover slowly. That is why so many people past middle life die of pneumonia. Cough Syrup seldom does much good because they upset digestion. Any doctor knows that a much more effective treatment is "CATARRHOZONE" which heals and soothes the irritated surfaces of the throat. In using Catarrhozone you do not take medicine into the stomach—you simply breathe into the throat, nose and lungs rich piney balsamic vapor, so full of healing power that colds, catarrh and bronchitis disappear almost instantly. The germ-killing balsamic vapor mixes with the breath, descends through the throat, down the bronchial tubes, and finally reaches the deepest air cells in the lungs. All parts are soothed with rich, pure medicinal essences, whereas with a syrup the affected parts could not be reached and harm would result through bouncing the stomach with drugs. A Catarrhozone inhaler in your pocket or purse enables you to stop a cold with the first sneeze. Large size costs $1.00 and supplies treatment for two months small size 50c; trial size 25c; all storekeepers and drug-gists, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

PROPOSED PROVINCIAL COUNTY-ROAD

Credit will go to Warden Panabaker for having crystallized public opinion on a Provincial County road and taken steps to have it become an accomplished fact.

The resolution passed at Monday's conference attests that the time is ripe for having a permanent roadway constructed from the Wentworth County boundary, through the leading centers, to Elmira. Agreement is generally given to this. The crux of the matter will be reached when the municipalities interested attempt to reach a decision on the style of roadway.

Sentences taken from the speeches made show that a deal of education remains to be done before the municipalities will adopt a standard roadway.

A member of the government's roadway staff is reported as having said:
The kind of construction depended upon local conditions. Sometimes it was found that a gravel road was the cheaper method, including reconstruction and resurfacing from year to year.

If gravel were not available under comparatively favorable conditions, crushed stone or some more permanent bituminous bound material could be used.

The government bears 60 per cent. of the cost of construction and maintenance of a provincial county road.

The Reeve of the Township averred that "this county was not populated enough for general heavy road expenditures."

It is conceivable that the Ontario Department of Highways should deem it right to leave to the municipalities the decision as to the class of roadway to be constructed. Yet having all the data before it, making a specialty of road making, and fully aware of the growth of motor traffic, no public body is in as good a position to suggest or recommend that counties, like thickly populated, industrially and agriculturally prosperous Waterloo County, should, at least in the matter of a provincial county road, buy the best.

Municipal representatives cannot close their eyes to the fact that motor traffic has become the preponderating factor in the road equation. Yearly the number of cars increases. The commercial truck and motor express lines are being introduced elsewhere and will appear in Waterloo County. Cheaper automobiles, which will be within the reach of even the moderate purse are coming.

Already the farmers of Ontario are the largest class of motor car owners. Their number will grow. Along with the city owner of a car, they are expected to become advocates of good roads. When any of these in Waterloo County require to go to Toronto, why do they travel via Hamilton instead of via Guelph? Gravel roads abound on the latter route. Yet they go out of their way to utilize the concrete highway between Hamilton and Toronto. They thus acknowledge that travelling over permanent roadways saves time and wear and tear. Were there a concrete highway from the Wentworth line to Hamilton it would be still more popular and generally used.

It is probable that the farmers living along the Toronto-Hamilton highway appreciate the concrete highway and would not willingly revert to gravel or macadam. But it required a practical test to woo them away from the gravel and macadam roadways of their forebears.

Cities and towns have long since become convinced that cheap roads are the dearest in the end. These would yet be using gravel or macadam on their principal streets had more permanent roadways not been put to the test of use. Similarly, the rural sections will demand the best, once it has been demonstrated that they are better and cheaper than gravel and macadam. They need only be shown.

A former county road superintendent said that the roadway between this city and Preston is one of the most travelled in Ontario. He also declares and the wreck is there to prove it, that gravel or macadam between these two points will not withstand its load one year. Maintenance costs then came in. The taxpayers cannot be expected to build new gravel or macadam roads yearly nor be expected to bear heavy and annual costs of repair. Good sense will lead them to perceive that a permanent roadway is necessary for use and economy's sake.

There are many points in favor of concrete. It is not a patented road. It is probably the most permanent. It can be laid by any reasonably experienced road foreman; can be made narrow enough to allow two vehicles to pass or made the full width, according to the amount of traffic; for at least fifteen years it requires no repairs; it is possible twelve months of the year, while other ordinary roads are not; and its use is not confined to any kind of wheeled vehicle.

Everybody prefers a permanent road but not everyone presently likes to help pay for them. The Reeve of the Township was, when he objected to a first-class, provincial county road, only voicing a general rural opinion. The cities and towns, aided by the provincial authorities, may find it necessary to build a sample road in order to convince all concerned.

What better place to give a practical demonstration than on the stretch between this city and Preston? The urban municipalities at either end are, since their adoption of the Suburban Good Roads Act, shareholders. Given say a concrete road between these points, it would find such favor with its users, rural and urban residents alike, that a general conversion to concrete would likely follow.

The provincial government pays 60 per cent. of the cost and maintenance of provincial county roads. At bottom, it will be found that the fees levied on motorists provide the money to pay this sixty per cent. Motorists everywhere in the county have a clear right to press for a standard road. These may be found to be a unit against further, wasteful expenditures on gravel and macadam county roads.

As the leading municipality, this city ought to lead and advocate concrete between here and Freeport. It would be within its rights to decline to contribute toward the expense of anything less durable.

The Motor League of the county can also exert a deciding influence in this matter. They may have both hands up for a provincial county road but it is, if anything, more important that it should, when constructed, be a first-class roadway.

THE GRAND VALLEY'S CITY SERVICE

The question has been put, Whether the Grand Valley Railway Company intends to build a passenger depot on South Queen or other street?

It is recognized that its doing so would end the course of operating its passenger cars on King Street, making it inconvenient for incoming and outgoing passengers to the city. Also it would necessitate the company running its coaches on the back line, to and from Waterloo.

In case of a steam road it would be necessary for it to have a passenger depot, since its cars could not properly be operated on the main street of a city. Electric lines, on the other hand, are non-objectable and derive much of their popularity by bringing its cars to its patrons instead of patrons to the cars. Having enjoyed having a G.P.A.H. car traverse King Street, our citizens would make objections were it proposed to build a depot and transfer the cars to one side of the city.

An inquiry has elicited the statement that it is not the intention of the Grand Valley Company immediately to erect a passenger station in the city. They are said to have acquired a property on South Queen Street. But the assurance is given that there will not be any change in the immediate future.

The city and railway company will, this year, require to negotiate and renew the franchise. The city's guardians might well then stipulate for the continued use of passenger coaches on King Street.

LEADING NATIONS CONSIDERING HIGHER PROTECTION

The international trade movement is towards protection. Great Britain has accepted Imperial preference. It is protecting key industries, restricting foreign imports, and is pledged to adequate measures to prevent dumping of foreign goods on British markets. Australia is to increase its protective duties and promote industrial development. According to an announcement by Acting Premier Watt, revision of the tariff laws of the Commonwealth will be directed largely by the following considerations: 1. The necessity of preserving those industries brought into existence through the war. 2. The encouragement of contemplated new industries and extension and diversification of existing enterprises.

South Africa is increasing its tariff. New Zealand, Newfoundland, Japan, Brazil, and Portugal are rigidly maintaining theirs. A higher tariff for the United States is forecast by Chairman Fordney of the Ways and Means Committee of the next United States Congress, who will be the author of the new tariff bill. Congressman Gillett, of Massachusetts, who will be the Speaker of the House of Representatives in the new Congress, says, "at the earliest opportunity there should be passed by the Republicans of the House a protective tariff measure, which will provide more abundant revenue and prevent an inundation of foreign goods produced by cheaper labor." France is exercising Government control of imports to build up home manufactures and home markets. Italy's aftermath program calls for a higher protective tariff. Representatives of German industries are not only urging continuation of the protective policy, which gave the country its great commercial position before the war, but they are advocating State organization, State control, and gigantic monopolies to sell products to other nations.

BY THE WAY

Stratford ratepayers will this year be called upon to shoulder 39.9 mills of municipal taxation. More than 10 mills more than our taxpayers will.

Seeing that the wage-earners of the city are principally interested in the housing question, ought they not to request that the Provincial Director of Housing be invited to come and address a public meeting, explaining the new Act and answering any questions that may be put?

Some of our readers believe it is up to the manufacturers to provide homes for their employees; while others object to this, on the ground that the employer for whom a home was thus built would feel himself tied to one employer. Few manufacturers could spare or raise the sums needed. They would require to borrow from the province or insurance companies. By having the city borrow, the objection of an employer being tied to one firm is removed. The shortage is so general that it is no longer an individual puzzle. It has become a city problem.

EXTRACTS OF EXCHANGE

ANTAGONISM TO CITY?

The Woodstock Sentinel-Review which has a large circulation amongst the farmers of Mid-West Ontario, expresses its inability to understand the farmers' opposition to daylight saving. The Sentinel-Review says:

"It may be easy enough to understand this opposition, but it is not so easy to define the motives behind it. It may be said that the change will bring no benefit to the farmer; but surely that would not be a reason for opposing a change that brought benefit to others! If the farmers derive neither benefit nor injury from the change why should they show so much activity in opposing it? The theory is advanced in some quarters that the farmers are opposing daylight saving partly out of a feeling of an antagonism towards the city people, and partly to show their own strength. According to this theory, the farmer is represented as arguing that daylight saving is advocated by the city people, therefore it is the duty of the country people to oppose it, partly for the sake of opposition and partly to compel the Government to respect rural sentiment even when rural interests are not affected. It is difficult to accept such an explanation. It is to be hoped there is a better one. It would be an unfortunate thing for the country if there were not a better one. Much more important than even daylight saving is the question of good relations between the various classes of people of which our population is made up."

Edmonton Bulletin.—The staff of the Canada Food Board is being demoralized. There is a glimmer of hope in this that the cost of living may begin to come down.

Halifax Chronicle.—The opportunity that offers of sending the transatlantic mails on a five-day boat is quite lost on the Post Office Department. Apparently it is afraid of speed and quick despatch.

Galt Reporter.—Canada's problems are piling up. And because they are problems is no reason why they should become the footstool for the press agent of the Man in Office who Hungers for Publicity.

Calgary Herald.—A Didsbury farmer concealed a wad of five hundred dollars under a mattress in his house and it disappeared. Say what they will of our Canadian banking system, it is a deal safer than a Didsbury mattress as the custodian of a man's hard-earned savings.

IF STRENGTH DECLINES AS AGE ADVANCES FOLLOW SUGGESTION

So many women grow old before their time, perhaps your wife or sister. A little while ago, buoyant, full of vigor and activity—she enjoyed life and imparted pleasure to the whole family; but now in a few short years she has faded and lost color and strength. She is just ready to develop some disease that will further weaken and debilitate. You remember how it began, failure of appetite, tired in the morning, found housework burdensome, always nervous and a little irritable. It's a shame to let her go down hill further when you can build her up so quickly with Ferronone. The change this nourishing tonic makes in a weak woman is surprising. It gives great zest for food, increases appetite and digestion enormously. The blood gets richer and stronger, and adds new life to every organ in the body. A rebuilding process works through the entire system. The first week will show an improvement, and a month or two will fasten up the tired, most run-down woman you can think of. Take Ferronone for loss of color, for nervousness, for weakness, for the "run-down" and feeling poorly. It will do you more lasting good, keep you in better health than anything else. Just as good for men and children, too, because Ferronone is harmless and safe, one per box or six for $2.50 at all dealers, or direct by mail from the Cattaraugus Co., Kingston, N.Y.

LEMONS BRING OUT THE HIDDEN BEAUTY

Make this lotion for very little cost and just see for yourself.

An attractive skin was admiration. In social life and in business the girl or woman whose face and hands show evidence of constant care enjoys a tremendous advantage over those who do not realize the value of a healthy skin and a spotless complexion. At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white, at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocery and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily, into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin.

Provide For Vote For Sale of Beer

NO DECISION YET REACHED BY ONTARIO GOVERNMENT.

TORONTO, April 2.—The Ontario Government's temperance proposals are apparently still in a formative state. For three hours to-night the Conservative members of the Legislature were in caucus with the members of the Cabinet thrashing out the whole question, and, although no authoritative statement regarding results was given out, it is understood that the long discussion produced nothing in the nature of a clear, definite and final proposition. It is stated that the prime minister intimated to the rank and file that the Government was open to suggestion, and that it was anxious to have the members reach something approaching an agreement. Members were not backward in expressing their views, and, though they were many and varied, the Government carried away a pretty fair idea of the opinions of its supporters. Another caucus will, however, likely be necessary on the subject.

Settled in General Way. The second, if not the third discussion of the temperance question in caucus has settled several questions in a general way. There is no longer any doubt, for instance, that the Government in submitting the referendum will provide for a vote on the sale of beer, and possibly wine as well. The discussion also indicated that the Government is giving the people a vote on the question of the sale of beer will define beer, not as the pre-war beverage, but a beer of 4 per cent. proof spirits, or a little stronger, such beer, in fact, as is asked for by the labor organizations. A good deal was said last night in caucus about the advisability of meeting in a reasonable way the demands of the workers.

Method of Sale. The real difficulty confronting the Government appears to be the method of selling beer in the event of a favorable vote on the matter. The Government and a large element of its support, it is stated, favors sale in sealed packages, but some member tonight objected that this would not give a fair show to the workingman, who would have to pay a good deal more for package liquor.

Under-Currents

By The Duchess

Scaton Dysart's arrivals being only looked for by the girls at about seven o'clock in the evening—just an hour or so before dinner—gave them plenty of time to prepare for his coming. Any day on which he was expected Mrs. Grunch brought a formal message to Vera from her uncle to that effect. Never yet had their opinion come without the announcement being made, and to them his understand- ing was it that he would not put in an unexpected appearance, that when after a rather longer absence than usual, an absence extending over all last week and part of this, he turns up at half-past two in the afternoon, his coming causes distinct embarrassment in several quarters.

"What's that?" says Grischda, starting, and dropping her fork (they are at their early dinner). "Did you hear it? A knock! A thundering knock!"

"Scaton's knock!" says Vera faintly changing colour.

"What can have brought him at this hour? London must be reduced to ashes," hazards Grischda, her tone now as genial as usual. "For one instant a sickening fear that it might be Mr. Peyton's knock, had made her blood run cold. There had been a short but sharp one under between him and her the day before yesterday, and a wild fear that he had come up to have it out with her now, and here, had taken possession of her. At such a moment the advent of Scaton is hailed by her, at least with rapture.

"Why that happy wind drove you down at this hour?" cries she to the friendliest air, beaming on him as he comes into the room.

"It is good of you to call 'happy' says he, casting a really grateful look at her as she shakes hands lovingly with Vera. "In time for luncheon too, I see, though" with a rather surprised glance at the table, "you don't seem to be in a very hospitable mood. Nothing to spare eh? Water get me something."

"Yes, sir," says that old fossil shuffling out. "The rosin in a mighty hurry." "We didn't know you were coming you see," says Grischda mildly. "That knowledge would have worked a miracle in this household. And it isn't lunch you see (or rather you don't see) before you, it is dinner."

"What?" says Scaton flushing a dark red. He has got up from his seat, and is regarding her almost sternly. So is Vera, with a light in her eyes meant to strike Grischda into silence but that reckless person refuses to see it.

"Dinner?"

"Yes," says Grischda returning her cousin's stern glance with the pleasant little nod. "Have I said anything indiscreet?"

"Is it true?" asks Scaton turning to Vera. It is a rather rude question, but there is so much shame and anxiety in his tone that Grischda forgives him.

"Why should it not be true?" says Vera, coldly, with a gravity that savours of disapproval. "As a rule we dine early."

"It means that we always dine early except when we know you are coming" supplements Grischda, even more mildly than before.

"And this" with a hurried glance at the scanty meal "do you mean to tell me that—that this is your dinner every day?"

"Literally" says Grischda cheerfully "this is the chop that changeth not. It is not all that one could desire, of course, but it sometimes it might be altered for—"

"Grischda!" interrupts Vera rising to her feet.

"Why should I not speak?" asks Grischda in a meekly injured tone. "I was merely going to add that a fowl occasionally would be a good deal of moral use to us. I have always heard that to keep the temper in a healthy state change of food is necessary."

"I feel as if I ought to apologize to you for all this," says Dysart with a heavy sigh, addressing Vera, exclusively, "and as it, too, no apology could be accepted. But I shall see that it does not occur again."

"I beg you will do nothing," says Vera quickly. "Nothing. I will not have my uncle spoken to on this subject. Grischda is only in jest; she speaks like a foolish child. I'll folding her hands tightly together. "I forbid you to say anything about it."

"I regret that I must disobey you," says Scaton courteously but with determination. "My father's house is in part mine, and I will suffer no guest to endure discomfort in it."

"There is no discomfort in it," there will be if you try to alter matters in our favour."

"You mean that you will accept nothing at my hands is that it?" exclaims he, passion that will not be repressed in his tone; the coldness seems broken up, there is fire in his eyes and a distinct anger. "You have had that time you spoke of; has it fulfilled its mission has it taught you to detest me? Not" detaining her deliberately as she seeks to leave the room, "don't go, you shall give me a real reason for your studied discourtesy, for I won't believe that I am naturally abhorrent to you. There must be something else."

"If you must know" says she, looking back defiantly at him, her blood a little hot "you are too like your father for me to pretend friendship with you."

"Oh, Vera, I think you shouldn't say that!" cries Grischda, now honestly frightened at the store she has raised, but neither of the others hears her. Vera with one little slender white hand grasping the back of another near her looking fixedly at Scaton, whose face has changed. An expression of keen pain crosses it.

"I as he been so bad to you as that?" he says, and then, with a profound sigh, "My poor father!"

There is something so homely grieved in his whole air that Vera's heart smites her.

ONLY MEDICINE MADE FROM FRUIT

Extraordinary Success which "Fruit-a-tives" Has Achieved

One reason why "Fruit-a-tives" is so extraordinarily successful in giving relief to those suffering with Constipation, Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Chronic Headaches, Neuralgia, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, Eczema and other Skin Affections, is, because it is the only medicine in the world made from fruit juices.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

We're not here long, so let's make our stay agreeable. Let us live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, and look well, what a glorious condition to attain, and yet, how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gasses, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of inside-bathing before breakfast.

Mother! Your Child Is Cross, Feverish, From Constipation

If tongue is coated, breath bad, stomach sour, clean liver and bowels

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company"

A Modern Luxury for Modern Homes

IMAGINE what strides we have made since Grandmother's time! Really our house-keeping is now only a matter of remembering names—we step to the telephone, and command as we will! And think how vastly better the article—how clean, wholesome, uniform it is, from the maker to your table! Take, for example,

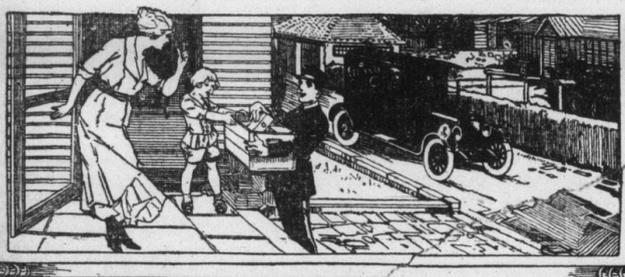

Swift's Premium Oleomargarine

—that dainty, appetizing, nutritious product that is recommended by domestic science authorities everywhere for table and kitchen use, as a delicious spread for bread, for the making of cakes, cookies, sauces and general cooking. Compare it with old-fashioned standards! My goodness! In Swift's Premium Oleomargarine you have an article that's always sweet, pure, clean (it's Government inspected, and never touched by hands)—always the same in flavour, texture, quality—reaches you fresh—and with all this, saves you about fifteen cents per pound!

Merely remember the name—telephone your grocer or butcher today for a pound carton—and a luxury undreamed of in Grandmother's home will be a necessity in yours!

Lt. Frank McBrine is Home Again

Was With Engineering and Construction Section

Having the appearance of the best of health and having come through the big scrap sounder than ever there has returned to his home city, Lt. Frank McBrine son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McBrine.

Lt. McBrine went overseas in September 1915 with the Fourth Field Company Ottawa which was in the second Canadian Division. During the period since then he had been at the front practically continually except an interval when he was suffering with wounds received in his duties which were engineering work which included construction work and while this did not bring him into the heat of battle yet on more than one occasion it put him under enemy fire. On one occasion a machine gun shot got his right leg above the knee which put him out of commission for some time. After recovering from these wounds he returned to the front and was transferred to the third division.

It was at Dieppe beach near Ypres where he received these wounds, this was one of the places where the fighting was the severest of the war and in which the Canadians saved the day.

Later a gas attack effected some of the boys in the section including Lt. McBrine who however stuck to his duty and gradually recovered from all bad effects of the same.

During the anxious period of March to August 1918 Lt. McBrine was in the section where there was activity, including Amiens.

When the armistice was signed he was at Mons. In connection with this fact it might be stated that he has in his possession a souvenir in medal form which was presented to each of the Canadian boys by the city. The token of deliverance naturally is valued highly by Lt. McBrine. Later they moved up to Brussels.

An interesting souvenir of the great war is also worn by the Liege. It is in the form of the machine gun bullet which temporarily put him out of commission, it being affixed to his watch chain.

Regarding the old country, England, Lt. McBrine paid a tribute to the English people particularly the middle classes. Words of eulogy were uttered by him for the English girls who had contributed so much to the winning of the war.

THE HEAVENLY HILLS

Oh, come out with me to the heavenly hills,

Away, away, away.

Where great rivers begin in the tinest hills,

Away, away, away.

Away from all care and worry and strife,

To where everything is as it were with new hills,

Away, away, away.

Oh, the sky is so blue o'er the heavenly hills!

Away, away, away.

And the bright sunlight gleams in the tinest hills,

Away, away, away.

Our nostrils are filled with the resinous pine,

And we tread a rich carpet of needles as fine,

Oh, the sky is so blue o'er the heavenly hills!

Away, away, away.

Broken hearts will find balm in the heavenly hills,

Away, away, away.

They will find there a cure for life's various ills,

Away, away, away.

Where the birds and the bees sing a wonderful song,

And the wind whistles gaily, the grasses among,

Broken hearts will find balm in the heavenly hills,

Away, away, away.

At the Congressional Church last evening, Rev. Mr. Silcox took for his subject the fifth chapter of Mark, describing the casting out the evil spirit, curing the sick woman and raising Jairus' daughter. Speaking of evil spirits he said the devil still goes around like a roaring lion but Jesus Christ the Lion of Judah is still able to cast him out if we only come to Him. Christ can still heal if we come in faith. Though all by nature are dead in sin we can have everlasting life through Jesus who today is raising dead souls. PLURALITY OF 15,000 FOR WILLIAM HALE THOMPSON
CHICAGO April 1—Mayor William Hale Thompson, Republican was re-elected to-day in one of the most exciting political struggles the city ever witnessed, the incomplete unofficial returns late to-night indicating that his plurality would be in the neighborhood of 15,000.

The city voted "wet" by a sweeping majority the first time the question had been voted on in Chicago. The liquor adherents made a campaign based on the slogan "Let Congress hear your protest." The vote was three to one in favor of the prohibitionists. The dry Chicago federation made no concerted campaign, relying on national legislation.

"Oh, You Do Look So Strong and Well"

"AND why shouldn't I?"

"You always wrote about how well you were, but we never thought you would be so hearty-looking as you are after all the hardships of camp and trench life."

"Oh, we had our share of hardships, all right, but except on rare occasions we had plenty of good, wholesome food and lots of fresh air and exercise. That is what makes a person strong and well. But I don't think I have it much over you. What have you been doing to look so hearty?"

"Didn't I tell you I was using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food?"

"You don't mean to say that has made such a difference. You were so thin and pale when I went away."

"Yes, it certainly has, and after you went away I had a regular break-down, and was in a bad state for some months."

I had nervous headaches, could not sleep, and grew down-hearted and discouraged. Mother got after me to try the Nerve Food, and I am so glad I did, for I did want to be well to welcome you home."

"It is a joy to me to find you so well. And now that we have such a good start surely we can keep well and enjoy life. My experience overseas has caused me to place a greater value on life and health than I ever did before, and your experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food convinces me that you women folks need not be pale and weak and nervous if you will but use it when you feel tired out and run down."

LICENSE BOARD PROBE IS ON

Chairman Flavelle Gives Evidence Before Committee

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS INQUIRY BEGINS

TORONTO, April 2.—The Public Accounts Committee of the Legislature met this morning to begin the inquiry into the Dewart charges with reference to the administration of the Ontario Temperance Act.

Chairman Flavelle, of the License Board, told the methods under which the board operated. He explained the extra large payments to certain outside detectives as having been authorized by former Inspector Morrison (later resigned), whom he had trusted. He had not known until recently that Morrison had been in a detective agency. At one stage of his evidence, Mr. Flavelle, having told of the methods used to "trap" those known to be lawbreakers, said that if he had been wrong, he was willing to resign. Mr. Dewart said there was no suggestion of that.

Eudo Saunders, formerly head of the License Department, who had been summoned to attend, informed the committee that he had absolutely no knowledge of the public accounts in any shape or form. The accountant who had charge of the accounts was well aware of that.

"As I have important legal business to attend to, I ask to be excused for the present." If the committee thinks it necessary to call him at a later date it would be easy to do so at a minute's notice, he said. Mr. Saunders was excused.

Chairman Flavelle Testifies

J. D. Flavelle, examined by Mr. Machin, said he had been chairman of the Ontario License Board for nearly four years. He detailed the nature of the board's duties, saying they received deputations of all kinds and conducted a heavy correspondence, which he personally looked over every day. His regular hours of sitting were from nine to five, but when necessitated by heavy work they sat before nine and after five.

"To whom are you responsible?"

"To the Provincial Secretary."

"Your commission is charged with the enforcement and general administration of the O.T.A."—Yes.

"When did that act come into force?"—September 16, 1916.

"Can you get for us the total number of convictions under the O.T.A. up till March 31?"—Mr. Mowat, the accountant, could get that. Personally he could give approximately the number of persons committed.

Remission of Fines

"From whom can I obtain information as to how many fines during the same period have been remitted, wholly or in part?"—From Mr. Mowat.

"Would you outline the method or procedure adopted by your commission in recommending remission of fines to the Lieutenant-Governor?"

"An application is made in the regular course to the Attorney-General, who sends on the application addressed to me as chairman of the board. We at once try to get all the information available as to the character of the man and the facts in connection with the case, anything that will give any light to give an intelligent reply to the Attorney-General as to whether in our opinion there is any justification for recommending any remission of the fine, wholly or in part."

The whole commission dealt with these applications from the Attorney-General's department. The decision as to sending for information rested with witness and Vice-chairman Dingman.

Medical Orders

Regarding the number of doctors' certificates for prescriptions of liquor granted, witness said he could get that information from the board.

"Without giving too much trouble could you tell us roughly whether it would be 200,000 or half a million?"

"I guess they would reach over the bigger mark." He could get the information roughly.

Employment of Detectives

Special investigators, spotters and detective agents had been employed from the start. Their number had been increased or decreased as the work demanded. He thought the number employed under the O.T.A. varied very little from the number employed under the old Liquor License Act. Their appointment was left principally to Provincial Inspector A. D. Sarvis, although Inspector Aycerst occasionally had such power. The commission only exercised jurisdiction in a general way as to the class of men employed as spotters. Witness knew them all by sight—they were much "better company than a good many other men."

Mr. Mowat could furnish the amount paid in salaries and expenses of these special officers. "If the committee so desires it, I could give a list of all the permanent officers," said Mr. Flavelle.

"Do your spotters receive any part of the fines for breaches of the O.T.A.?"—Absolutely not.

The board had had the co-operation of the provincial police in tracing offenders, and the provincial police also worked independently.

Bogus Spotters

"I presume letters regarding complaints are available?" "Yes, sir."

"A number of your spotters were employed on trains?" "Very few of our special officers."

Sometimes those mentioned in newspapers were bogus spotters.

"Was there a system of searching baggage?" "Not unless they had reasonable grounds warranting it."

Flu Trouble

Regarding the relief to the public during the flu epidemic, Mr. Flavelle stated that practically no relief was given, but he pointed out that doctors under the act were allowed to have 10 gallons of liquor. Regarding the number of orders, he admitted they fell down in Toronto by getting behind as many as 1,700 orders. He also admitted the board itself had to make technical breaches of the act by allowing doctors to get liquor direct from the distillers.

"A matter of common sense," commented Col. Machin.

Withdrawn Charges

"Have there been any charges made in court and withdrawn at the request of the commission?"

"Not to my recollection."

The commission had $41,000 of liquor on hand, and in the last 28 months had in addition sold $18,000 to vendors and given $11,000 worth to hospitals.

"None of the liquor seized is destroyed?" asked the Colonel, to which witness said only a small quantity of what had gone bad.

"In the vouchers for 1917 I notice several items of cheques to J. D. Flavelle accountable—" "We have a special deposit in the account of J. D. Flavelle," said the chairman, who explained it was a special fund deposited to him in trust to facilitate the work. The account is audited by Mr. Mowat and this is charged up to Sarvis, head of outside detectives, who gives in his account details of how the money is spent. Only in a general way is any supervision kept of those expenditures, as the board trusted Mr. Sarvis."

Simpson Item.

A payment of $1,339.85 to W. Simpson was then referred to "How did Simpson come to be employed?"

"In nine-tenths of the cases he was employed by Mr. Morrison and I repeatedly asked him if he would not use our own men. I felt he was an expensive man."

"Why were the special officers not satisfactory to these men?" asked Mr. Cameron (North Grey). "He simply said he could not use those accounts of Simpson's?" asked Col.

Macb'n. Mr. Flavelle admitted he did, because he considered Morrison's work expensive. He also admitted officers could break the law by buying a drink to catch a man.

"That was provided for in the act," stated Mr. Cameron.

"They were observing the law" broke in Thos. Hook, member for Southeast Toronto.

Depend on Officers.

With regard to liquor seized at outside points they had to depend on the honesty of the inspectors making the seizure, and on the waybills to ensure that none was diverted before and while enroute to the Parliament Buildings.

A stock balance list was now kept at the Parliament Buildings. Prior to that they had trust to the honesty of the men in charge.

Replying to Mr. Dewart on the duties of officers, witness said they had no particular territory but looked after the whole province. Mr. Aycerst also worked in Montreal.

"Apart from the board, or Mr. Aycerst, could anybody hire men for outside work?" "Not on my knowledge."

Trusted Sarvis.

Mr. Sarvis checked the accounts of spotters and the board trusted to him to give them a proper report. "We trust our provincial officers on the same basis as the province trusts their provincial officers," he said.

Mr. Dewart referred to an account of W.N. Simpson 70 Sun Life Bldg. for the services of "two operators." The items included 41 days at $5 each board and room, $254 drinks and other expenses securing evidence $157 and railway fares.

"Have you any recollection as to the result of that operation or the benefit it was to the province?" he asked—"I would not tell you. We might spend $100 in a blank or we might get very different results." No one could give the results absolutely—they were intermingled with other work and the operations were warranted by the total results. Inspector Morrison checked the accounts. Witness remembered no case when the fines did not exceed the total expenses.

Trusted Him

"With regard to yourself you wouldn't suggest your endorsement of the accounts that meant you were accepting any responsibility?" asked Mr. Dewart. "We come to the fact on Mr. Morrison's account—" "I trusted him."

"Did you exercise any supervision of this $5 a day for these outside officers?"—"He engaged these officers."

"You notice your own officers were getting $2.50 a day?"—"And doing good work" said Mr. Flavelle.

Explaining why officers engaged by Mr. Morrison were paid more Mr. Flavelle said he trusted Mr. Morrison as a faithful officer.

"These men employed by Mr. Morrison were only for short periods?" asked Mr. Cameron—"Yes, and our own men were employed by the year."

"Take W.N. Simpson's account, did you know who he was?"—"I had no knowledge who he was except that he was head of an agency."

"The suggestion of this agency was made by Morrison?"—"We never discussed it."

Extravagant Way

"Can you not recollect any discussion with Mr. Morrison about these amounts paid out?"—"Nothing more than that it was an extravagant way to administer the law."

Mr. Dewart then referred to a number of vouchers for different amounts, each running from $1,000 to $2,000. These totalled about $14,000.

"No, have you heard W.E. Simpson was with the Employers' Detective Agency and that Mr. Morrison was a shareholder?"—"Not until the last week or so."

Referring to the W.J. Burns private agency, Mr. Dewart referred to $728 paid for Toronto investigations from Sept. 27 to Oct. 31, 1917. "Did you employ this agency?" "I asked Mr. Aycerst to employ this agency for a specific case and I assume the responsibility of that account."

"Throughout there were two or three operatives at work on the expense account of $8 a day" said Mr. Dewart who asked why these expenses sometimes ran up to $25 Mr. Flavelle explained that automobiles were used.

Liquor by Will.

"Does the Board recognize the right of a testator to will liquor to a private family?" asked Mr. Dewart. "I have no knowledge of such a case so far" said Mr. Flavelle who expressed the opinion that if such liquor came into their possession and was sold, the proceeds should go to the beneficiaries of the estate who were householders.

Replying to Col. Machin witness understood that the attorney-general always acted on the report furnished by the board concerning applications for remissions of fines. He had no knowledge that W.N. Simpson was head of a detective agency.

Between October 31, 1918 and Feb. 28, 1919 eighty-nine fines were wholly or partly remitted on the board's recommendation, and fifty-seven applications were refused.

Called for Friday

Mr. Elliott carried a motion summoning J.D. Flavelle, W.S. Dingman, G.T. Smith, commissioners; J.A. Aycerst, inspector and J.F. Mowat, accountant, to appear on Friday or to give evidence on 1916-17 accounts, fines and forfeitures and to produce all books of account, papers, vouchers and documents in any way relating hereto and all orders-in-Council, reports or recommendations relating to the remission or reduction of fines and penalties and the withdrawal of prosecutions under the O.T.A. during the fiscal year ending October 31st 1917. Mr. Dewart carried a similar motion for the year 1918.

The committee stands adjourned till Friday at 10 a.m.

If Hair is Turning Gray, Use Sage Tea

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair.

CITY AND DISTRICT

ALL THE LATEST LOCAL AND DISTRICT NEWS

On Behalf of Children's Aid Society. Rev. Theo. Spetz is presently engaged in making a round collecting the annual membership fees of the Children's Aid Society, in whose welfare he takes a deep interest.

Clearing House Figures. Local clearing house figures for the week are $709,894.62 as compared to $864,192.01 for the same week last year.

Again Back to Regular Hours. The Public Library is back to the regular hours. The institution is again open to the public at nine o'clock in the morning.

Must Be Tied. The new dog-by-law, which came into force recently is being enforced by the police. It is interesting to note that from April 1st. to Oct. 31st. all canines in the city must be tied. Heretofore the limit was April 15th. to Sept. 15th.

Carpenters' Event Coming. The Ontario Provincial Council of Carpenters and Woodworkers' intend holding their annual convention this year in this city on a date in June yet to be decided on. It is expected that nearly 100 delegates will attend.

GLEN ELLISON RECITAL. Call at once, or it will be too late to secure tickets. All cards of invitation must be exchanged for tickets. No charge. D.S. Cullen, 3 King St. E. Open this evening.

Col. Weir of Walkerton A Visitor. A visitor in the city yesterday was Colonel Weir, of Walkerton. He was the guest of Magistrate J. J. Weir, of whom he is a cousin. Col. Weir recruited the well-known 160th Bruce Battalion and took the unit to England. While here he met Generals Shannon and Gunn, who attended the veterans' entertainment.

Laid to Rest. The funeral of Mr. August Schmidt, of 12 David Street, was held at two o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence, interment following in the East End Lutheran Cemetery. Expressions of sympathy and condolences were in evidence in the attendance of friends and in the beautiful floral emblems received, which included the following:

Sprays from Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt and family, Mrs. Paetz and family, Mrs. Kaminski, firm and employees of J. Walter, the girls of the Lang Treacy & Co., Miss Pritchard, Mr. Otto Schmidt and family; pillow from the family at home; pillow from the National Furniture employees; wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Welch and family; wreath from C. G. Prischau.

Listen to these staggering figures, over $600,000 is the amount of coal cash we Canadians pay annually to the United States for coal. On Friday and Saturday, April 4th and 5th, we will demonstrate a new Canadian Fuel, called "Nukal" (new coal), which we believe will enable us to retain millions of the above amount in Canada. This demonstration is for YOU. Come.

Card of Thanks. The undersigned wish to thank their many friends for the kindness shown them during the bereavement caused by the death of Mr. August Schmidt; also for the use of autops at the funeral on cyanides.

FUNERAL OF MR. S. BADKE. The funeral of the late Samuel Badke who died suddenly last Friday morning was held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from the residence, 143 Edward Street, to St. Matthew's Church where a memorial service was held, conducted by Rev. John Schneider. Interment took place in Mt. Hope cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful; they included a wreath from Mr. Badke and family; wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Badke, of Transcona, Man.; wreath from Riley Lodge, No. 34, Transcona, Man.; spray from wife and daughter; spray, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hoch; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Faber; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Faber; spray, from quarter room of the Kaufman Rubber Co.; spray from a friend. Many friends and relatives were present on the occasion of the last sad rites.

Card of Thanks. The undersigned wish to thank all friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during their sudden sad bereavement and the beautiful floral tributes and for the use of autops. Mrs. S. Badke and family.

Getting Auxiliary Pump. The Public Utilities Commission, Stratford, has accepted the offer of the Goldie & McCulloch Company of Galt, for a gasoline engine and pump to complete the auxiliary force at the Water Works as required by the Underwriters' Association. The outfit is to cost $4,700 complete with self-starter and ready to install.

New Oil Company. A company composed of fifty business men of Meaford has been formed here for the purpose of developing certain oil lands in the township of St. Vincent, about nine miles from here. The lands comprise about 1,000 acres, and are owned by Mr. Ben Doran. Recent tests have resulted in a strong flow of oil, and it is believed that drilling operations, which will be undertaken as soon as the necessary machinery can be placed on the ground, will reveal the presence of oil springs of great monetary value.

GLEN ELLISON RECITAL. Call at once, or it will be too late to secure tickets. All cards of invitation must be exchanged for tickets. No charge. D.S. Cullen, 3 King St. E. Open this evening.

LABORERS WANTED. A mass meeting of city laborers, building and factory laborers will be held on Friday night, April 4th, at 8 o'clock at the T.&L. Hall, King St. W. Mr. J. A. Flett, of Hamilton, General Organizer of A.F. of L. will address the meeting. All laborers are invited to attend. 4-3-2t.

Defaulters Dealt With. At the Police Court Guelph four cases of defaulters under the Military Service Act were dealt with. Edward J. Baetz, whose case has been remanded several times, pleaded guilty to being a defaulter under Group 2, having failed to report for medical examination on October 24 last. He was fined $25 and costs. Leonard Martin of Ariss, a Group 3 absentee, who failed to report for service at any time, also pleaded guilty. He was fined $40 and costs or two years in default of payment. Emil Ruming, a Group 1 defaulter, was remanded for another week, as was also Geo. Berberich, who was previously remanded for medical examination, no report having been received regarding him.

One Day, Then Five Minutes. One day's experience with two times proved sufficient, the confusion and inconvenience having proven such that Mayor A.W. Mercer was besieged with requests that Galt have uniform time with the railroads. His Worship consequently hurriedly summoned the members of the Council together last night and at a session which did not last more than five minutes a resolution was passed instructing the Mayor to issue a proclamation requesting the citizens to advance their clocks one hour at midnight Tuesday and adopt daylight saving. The decision meets with popular favor.

Reading And Newark Clubs

They Are Suggested For International League.

"Thanks to well-lined purses in Reading, Pa., and the kindly offices of Connie Mack, the International League soon may be shaped up as an eight-club circuit and the schedule announced. The folks in Reading want to get upon the baseball map again. They always have been pretty hot fans, but while strong in enthusiasm were not particularly strong in numbers. However, the International League could not afford to be choicy and when the Reading fans raised enough money to float the orphan franchise, for which Syracuse, Montreal and Ottawa have been angling, President David L. Fultz probably concluded that the Pennsylvania town deserved an opportunity to make good.

After all there may be wisdom in his choice, for it seems there is little doubt now that Reading will be declared it, because it is better to plant the franchise in a town where it will be regarded as a valuable prize than to drop it into Syracuse, where the fans, apparently, are not exactly keen for it.

The other weak sister, Newark, appears to be about able to sit up and take nourishment. Connie Mack has been helping the International to land the franchise in a town where it is believed he has succeeded in doing this splendid service for the minor league. Fultz is of the opinion that the plant will be in International League hands in a few days.

"PROF." HOCKEY FOR HAMILTON.

Hamilton, April 2.—The Hamilton Herald says:—Local hockey fans are going to be educated to professional hockey next winter. The local arena directors are anxious for the "pro" article, as well as the O. H. A. brand, as they realize that in order to make their new arena a paying investment they will have to have plenty of games. Charley Querrie, manager of the Toronto club of the N.H.L., in a conversation with Hamilton hockey officials recently, stated that the N.H.L. would gladly welcome Hamilton to its ranks, so it does not look as if this city will have to do any begging to become affiliated. A four-club league would prove much better than the present job-tailed arrangement, and Hamilton would make an ideal fourth club, the league officials say. Hamiltonians do not care much for professional hockey, but if given a first-class team they likely could be induced to enthuse. Plans for the new arena are now being prepared.

OLYMPIAD IN 1921

Paris, April 2.—The French Olympic Committee has voted unanimously to abide by the resolution passed by that organization in November 22, 1918, in which it and its affiliated bodies decided they would not compete in any Olympiad in which citizens of enemy nations would compete. The committee suggests that the Olympic games should not be held before 1921.

EVEN DECISION OF RECEIPTS FOR SEATTLE AND CANADIANS.

Seattle, Wash., April 2.—Technically the Seattle team could have claimed the title as a result of the Canadians' failure to play the deciding game for the Stanley Cup. However, under present conditions, President Frank Patrick of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association, declined to claim the cup on those grounds. As Toronto, last year's champions, won the trophy by defeating Vancouver in the big series, the Stanley Cup will remain in the East this year.

"This has been the most peculiar series in the history of the sport," declared President Frank Patrick after the decision to definitely cancel the game had been reached. "Precedent after precedent had been broken. There never was another series of games like the present one."

Manager Kennedy of the Canadians was anxious to play the game evensunder the conditions. He proposed borrowing several men from the Victoria team and putting a club on the ice anyway. "The Seattle men disagreed with this proposition, however."

The players, who are given the proceeds of the first three games, will divide the money on a fifty-fifty basis. The winner was to have been awarded sixty and the loser forty per cent. An equal division is the only possible way the money can be disposed of under the circumstances.

Seattle, Wash., April 2.—"Newy" Lajoie, Manager George Kennedy and GABY DESLYS COULDN'T BUY "TINY." "Tiny," the little white and black Pomeranian dog, who was born in the trenches two and a half years ago, arrived in Toronto Sunday with the 58th Battalion. A large sum of money was offered its owner by Mme Deslys, the famous singer, but it was refused.

Barlinguette to-day were reported improving. The other influenza-stricken members from the Montreal hockey team were reported to be still suffering from high fevers.

TORONTO BALL TEAM A Toronto report on its ball team and prospects says: "If this weather keeps us," remarked President McCaffery, of the Leafs, yesterday, "there will be no chance for the local squad to work out at the Island." The president has a feeling that the warm weather will come in time to allow of practice across the bay. He has figured on using the Arena for the use of the pitchers, and may also endeavor to secure the use of the University of Toronto gymnasium and grounds until it is warm enough to go to the Island. Contrary to general opinion, it is not cheaper to train in Toronto than in the south. Transportation has to be given to all candidates, and this amounts to more than if they were to work out in Virginia. Then, when the training season is ended, the players have to be taken to the city where the opening game is staged. Hotel accommodation in Toronto, to, is higher than in the South. Frank Carroll is the likely choice as trainer of the Leafs, and it will not be a new job for Frank. He handled the Leafs in 1916 under "Joe" Birmingham, and also in 1917 under Lajoie. Harry Smith, who is well known around the Arena, and who helped Business Manager "Knotty" Lee of the Leafs last season at the Island, has been given the position of business manager this season. Local fans should not be surprised if Outfielder "Duke" Reilly is traded in the near future. It is said that Indianapolis is willing to take Reilly in exchange for utility player Hendricksen. So many glowing reports have been received about infielder Busseto, the Cleveland lad, who will try out with the Leafs, that President McCaffery expects the lad to be a coming star.

RUS LENINE'S P TO B

It is Now FAILING ITS ACCEPTANCE WILL SEEK AN ALLIANCE PARIS, April 4. (By Lowell) Premier Lenine's in "peace" to the Allies is virtually ultimatum, it was learned from authoritative source to-day. The Russian bolshevik is known to have suggested time limit for acceptance offer, beyond which he would undertake to abstain from consideration of Chancellors' proposals, as conveyed to Minister Trotsky. The time is understood to be a matter of a few weeks. The German government officially reported recently by Karl Kautsky to Russia purpose of studying the alliance between Germany and the Allies have a formal peace offer from Russia technically correct. The fact

IN CASE OF ANOTHER NECESSITY. PARIS, April 4.—Premier George, in an interview published in the Parisian today, declared that should Germany ever again attack France, the British would fight at the side of the French. He denied rumors of dissension between British and French delegates conference. "Naturally have been discussions," he was quoted as saying. "The necessary to reach an agreement is a question. But the Anglo-French entente was never more certain than it is now. The British did not come beside French merely that should enjoy comparative rest for a little time. They insist France have good security in future."

NO DISSENSION BETWEEN THEM.

PARIS, April 4.—In a statement to the Parisian today, Premier George denies there are dissensions between France and Great Britain regarding guarantees for France.

Guelph Tackles Building Pro

RAILWAYS, MANUFACTURING AND BUILDERS HOLD CONFERENCE. GUELPH, April 3.—There were a few building permits issued from the office of the city engineer during the month of March, the total being $11,885. In connection with general lack of house building, a conference was held this afternoon between the railway, the manufacturers' committee and a number of builders, when the whole question was discussed. The chief objection raised by those who were disposed to erect houses over the vacant lot question, claimed that there were too vacant lots being held by their many of whom reside outside the city, for the purpose of the high cost of building materials was also blamed, some of this is due to foreign no immediate relief is in sight. The committee decided to advise contractors and builders who are prepared to construct houses under Government plan.
