Trouble in Chitral.

BOMBAY, April 27.—Serious trouble is again brewing in the State of Chitral, lying again brewing in the State of Chitral, lying between the valleys of the Oxus and Cabui rivers, where the former ruler, Afzul-ul-Mulk, was murdered by his uncle, Sher Afzul, the latter being afterwards driven out by the rightful surviving heir, Nizamul-Mulk. The State is tuil of intriguers, and Umra Khan is said to be the chief instigator of the agitation. It is stated that the Ameer of Afghanistan, who had claimed sovereignty over Chitral, is also taking part in stimulating troublesome intrigues, and is alleging that the British are endeavoring to encroach upon Chitral, It is said that the Ameer is seeking an alliance with Umra Khan and is urging the chiefs to unite in opposition to Great Britain.

The Naronic's Loss-Sad Sequel. LONDON, April 27.—The wife of Captain Roberts, of the White Star steamship Noberts, of the White Star steamship Naronic, which has been missing since Feb. 11, when the vessel sailed from Liverpool for New York, and the wife of Chief Officer Wright, who was second in command to Captain Roberts on the Naronic, have both gone insane through dispair caused by the loss of their husbands, and have had to be placed in an asylum for the insane.

The writer stated that unless tepairs were made while the vessel was lying at Liverpool the return trip would very likely prove to be a dangerous one. From the tone of his brother's Jetter, Lucock said he was inclined to think that the boilers had blown up. Spicy Libel Suit. LONDON, April 28 .- Col. Hughes-Hallett, London, April 28.—Cel. Hughes-Hallett, who married Miss Emily Schaumburg, of Philadelphia, from whom he is now separated, has brought an action for libel against John Passmore Edwards, and the Weekly Times and the Echo for a statement to the effect that Sir Charles Dilke would be the fittest colleague of Huges-Hallett in Parliement, and that Sodom and Gomorrah would be their proper constituencies, the allusion of the libel being to a certain scandal in which Sir Charles Dilke and Col. Hughes-Hallett, then Conservative M. P. for Rochester, were involved, and which at the time led to the withdrawal of both from political life. Mr. Gill, who appeared as counsel for Hughes-Hallett at the hearing of the case to-day, stated that while Passmore Edwards posed as a moralist, he was really a hyprocrite. Mr. Willis, counsel for the defense, asserted that no reader of the statement alleged to be libelous would think any worse of Hughes-Hallett's life was known to everybody. who married Miss Emily Schaumburg, of

One thousand dollars has been voted by the Cabinet, upon the recommendation of the Acting Minister of Marine, for distri-bution mong the families of the five heroic men who lost their lives last winter off the coast of Massachusetts in attempting to rescue the crew of the Canadian vessel Aquatic from St. John, N. schools. The expenditure on public schools, he said, had not much increased since 1875. The schools attended by the mass of the people should receive the major portion of Government aid.

Mr. Wood (Hastings) complained that the aid to poor schools was not distributed judiciously.

Mr. McLenaghan enlarged on the alleged inefficiency of rwal schools.

London, April 27.—It has been learned that Mr. Gladstone, who attended a dinner party last night, was walking to his home about the time the man who fired the revolver was arrested. He saw nothing of the occurrence, and no one now believes any attempt was made to shoot him.

When the shooter was arraigned in the Bow street Police Court this morning the policeman who arrested him stated that the man had discharged the revolver in the Horse Guards parade near Downing street. He evidently intended to shoot the officer. An examination of the note book revealed the fact that it contained a mass of ravings against Irish home rule, and which was a suggestion that the murder of Gladstone would be justifiable. Upon this slender foundation the report of the attempted murder of Mr. Gladstone was constructed. Tounsend went away from Sheffield on Saurday last without informing his wife or anybody of his purpose to go away. His wife says he is subject to fits, and is often absent from home for days at a time without his whereabouts being known. He has been subject to apells of deep depression, but has never shown any symptoms of homicidal mania.

An unusually large number of people, attracted by the report that Mr. Gladstone's life had been in danger, waited for the arrival of the Premier at the Houses of Parliament. When Mr. Gladstone appeared he received a cordial ovation.

In the House of Commons to-day several questions were asked in regard to the report of an attempt on Mr. Gladstone's life. Home Secretary Asquith replied that the incident of the arrest and prosecution of a man for unlawfully discharging a revolver in a public thoroughfare was now under judicial investigation, and in the murder of President Garfield, and "warns the Unionist statesmen who indulge in abuse of Mr. Gladstone that there are people in Ireland and England ready to translate such abuse into actions."

The Daily Chronicle says that the attempt to shoot Mr. Gladstone says set he incident has embarrassed Unionist circles, and has encouraged many U

At 1:30 the first boom of the ten inch gun on the Miantonemah announced that the Dolphin, with the President on board, was passing up between the two columns of war vessels. The roar of the Miantonemah's 21 guns was followed by a salute from the Brazilian steamships Republica and Tirantes. The Dolphin replied to the Brazilians, whose sallors manned the yards. The Dolphin moved at a slow and stately gait, and the salute of each ship was distinct and sharp. The Aquidaban, flagship of the Brazilian fleet, finished saluting at 1:40, and the Neuva Espana took its turn. The Dolphin was followed by the Blake and she in turn by the Miantonomah. The bands on the ships played the national air, but it was only at intervals between the roar of the guns that the music could be heard.

When the Dolphin reached the end of the line in the neighborhood of Ninety-fifth street she dropped anchor and made preparations to receive the commanding officers of the foreign squadrons, who were presented to the President by their respective ministers. Duly attired in full ceremonial form with cocked hats and swords, the distinguished officers entered their barges and pulled off for the Presidential yacht. Sir John Hopkins, the British admiral, was first presented, followed by the naval representatives of Russia, France, Italy, Argentine, Brazil and Germany in the order named. As the President left the Dolphin and entered the barge at the foot of Ninety-sixth street every vessel in the fleet again manned the yards and rails and once more fired a salute of 21 guns. Then the President's flag was lowered from the Holphin and the public ceremonies of the day were considered over.

A GO-AS-YOU-PLEASE DEMONSTRATION.
But the private part of the run had only just begun. As soon as the Dolphin passed out from between the anchored fleet the cordon was broken and private steamers and yachts rushed in. When the smoke had partially cleared they obtained a magnificent view of the combined naval forces at close range. The flagships of the squadrons courteously returned the innumerable salutes tendered them by private steamers, and their officers seemed to heartily appreciate the interest that their appearance created. Mesars. Whitney and Sol White continued the attack on the same lines, Mr. White suggesting that the portfolio of education be abolished altogether. NEW YORK, April 28.—One o'clock was the hour for forming the land parade. The proceedings were managed by Gen. Louis Fitzgerald, of the New York State National Guard, and Commander J. W. Miller, of the Naval Reserve, acting under the directions of Admiral Gherardi, and the committee of 100 citizens appointed by the mayor. Reviewing etands had been erected by the committee at Madison Square and at City Hall Park. From these the admirals and officers of the vessels in the river and other invited guests witnessed the parade. Thousands of private stands had been erected all along the line of march, and windows, balconies and roofs along the route were utilized by the people. Gov. Flower rode at the head of the procession, followed by details from the United States army and engineer corps. The came the admirals in carriages. The foreigners were escorted by officers of our own navy. Following the carriages came the first division, consisting of United States sailors and marines, resplendent in their showy dress uniforms. It contained the sailors of the visiting fleets, and the marines of Great Britain and Holland, the only two nations represented besides our own who have marines. First came the troops of her majesty the Queen. There were officers and men, 650 all told. The British marines were resplendent in red jackets, blue trousers, with a narrow red stripe down the side and black helmets topped with git. The band from the Blake led them. The British artillerymen wore black jackets, blue trousers with a wide red stripe down the side and little dinky caps with a yellow band and a strap under the chin. Her Majesty's blue jackets wore the regulation blue sailor's shirt, open low at the neck, blue trousers very tight at the hips and very wide at the ankle, and light straw hats. The Britons marched with precision and looked neither to the right nor left. They were cheered as they passed the reviewing stand and whenever they whoeled to turn a corner.

Following the British came the Argentines, 100 men in number, the Russians 330, the Hollanders 120, the French 300, the Germans 120, and the Italians 100. The Spanish sent none ashore.

The Beligian revolution is now an accomplished fact. It has been brief and not bloodless, but effective. The arrogant oligarchy has yielded to the democracy. It yielded, it is true, with more of panic than of grace. But it is not particularly graceyielded, it is true, with more of panic than of grace. But it is not particularly grace-inspiring for a regularly-constituted Government to submit to the demands of a modeven though the former be in the wrong and the latter in the right, as was in this instance undoubtedly the case. The Government was a class Parliament, chosen by a small fraction of the nation, and unwilling to take any step that would imperil it despotism. The mob was the people of Belgium, with their King—in spirit, at least—at their head. Such a contest in these days could, of course, have but one end; and in that end we must rejoice, however much we may deplore the necessity for the and in that end we must rejoice, however much we may deplore the necessity for the means by which it was attained. There is, moreover, room for hearty rejoicings over the comparative case with which the people have won the day, for in these unsettled times in Europe any little spark of violence may kindle a train of consequences that will explode the whole magazine of social and political problems.—[New York Tribune.

Untold Misery—What a Well-Known Commercial Traveler Suffered, and How He Was Cured.—Gentlemen.—About five years ago I began to be troubled with dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time traveling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but all to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegertable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I seon began to improve. I continued using this medicine, and when the third bottle was finished I found I was entirely cured; and as a year land when the third bottle was finished. I found I was entirely cured; and as a year land selapsed since then, I feel confident that has elapsed since then, I feel confident that I heartily recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vegertable Discovers, believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of dyspepsia. Tuesday night a young woman carrying a baby in her arms came to the residence of William Miles, on Mercer street, and asked to be allowed to want the child. In a few minutes she asked Mrs. Miles to watch the baby, as she wanted 'to get her value, that she left outside. She left and has not yet returned. The baby is a sixweeks old boy. It is thought the woman was from Detroit.

There is considerable merriment among those who are engaged in the Chinese smuggling business in this city over the way Sophie Lyons hoodwinked the police of Detroit Tuesday morning after they had errested her in company with a Chinaman, on a Fort street car. Monday she came over to Windsor and was seen in company with a Celestial. She hired a rig from Mc-Keand's livery, went up the river, and in a few hours returned alone. The Chinaman was taken over in a boat, and on the American side was met by the wily Sophie. That, the knowing ones would say, accounts for their early trip on a street car.

A correspondent writes: Great excitement at present prevails in Bothwell over the gushing well recently atruck there. Oil men say they have seen nothing like it in years, and considering it has not been alou with glycerine it is somewhat of a marvel. The arillers got about fifteen feet of good oil autorings, and say there is lots of oil there, and now as they understand the surface wells can be put down cheaply. This oil has been struck at a depth of 400 feet. At present the well is being pumped under a disadvantage with an old three-inch pipe, but a two-inch pipe will be put in which will be a proper test. The company intend putting down more wells and a new pumping rig with a capacity of 100 wells. George McGillivray, of London, oil producer of Petrolea, is one of the company and also the manager.

THE LONDON SENSATION. No matter what the final result of the inquiry into the case of the man arrested in the neighborhood of Mr. Gladstone's residence may be, there seems to be good ground for believing that he was moved to pursue his murderous line of conduct by the incendiary speeches made by the anti-Gladstone politicians, who, in various parts of the United Kingdom, have been counseling forcible resistance to the will of the majority of the people.

It is easy to make some descriptions of people believe that they have grievances people believe that they have grievances that can only be remedied by bloodshed, and even by assassination. In 1809 John Bellingham killed the British Premier Percival after brooding over the supposed neglect of the injuries sustained by him in Russia, on which he had artificing the Administration. Presihad petitioned the Administration. President Lincoln was assassinated by Booth, not because the murderer had any legitimate grievance against the emancipator of the slaves, but in consequence of the cultivation in an ill-balanced mind of a spirit of resentment against the President and his policy. The act of fanaticism was encouraged by men who ought to have known

Men high in the counsels of the nation, indeed, incur a grave responsibility when, by harsh and incendiary language, they counsel resistance to law. They should know that not only the level-headed take note of their advice, but, as in the case of the man Toursend, the semi-creckbrained are ever ready to follow incitements to lawlessness with deeds of murder. There can be no doubt, from the documents in Tounsend's possession, that he had been brooding over the anti-Gladstone speeches, and had worked himself up into a condition certain to prove dangerous to anyone who opposed his designs. Mr. Balfour and Lord Randolph Churchill, who have been counseling their friends to rebel in the event of the Queen setting her sign manual to the bill granting local self-government to Ireland, should take note of the experiences. of the past, as well as of the effects
so far of their course, and cease their firebrand warfare. Legislation should be carried or defeated on its merits.

Appeals to the worst instincts of the human race can only bring those who resort to them into disrepute.

NEXT to being a member of the family of Minister Bowell, the office-craving public may well wish to belong to the house of Ingram. The St. Thomas M. P. will soon not have a single male relative that will not be feeding at the public crib, with strong probabilities that he will himself get in out of the another general election.

AGAINST THE PLEBISCITE.

Our city contemporary expresses its aver sion to the taking of a popular vote in the Province on the question of whether or not the liquor traffic should be abolished. It votes the plebiscite "no good" and pretends that it would be non-effective even were it that matter.

The people of London, after the experience of the plebiscite in this city, may well refuse to place any reliance upon the arguments of the Free Press in this connection. Our contemporary says that the plebiscite would not secure the end in view, even if taken, as is proposed. Was it noneffective in London? We all know that by its agency the public mind was ascertained free from any other disturbing municipal As would be the case a Provincial plebiscite, the result was act really binding on the local law-makers, apart from subsequent action. If the mayor and aldermen elected had not been men of their word, the plebiscite would have resulted in nothing. But we all know that, almost to a man, the candidates for public office manfully took che ground that in this matter the majority should rule, and did not hesitate to pledge themselves to abide the result of the plebiscite. And when the time came for the aldermen-elect to put their pledges to the test, there was no shirking. The mandate of the people was respected.

ontemporary tell us why a Will our contemporary tell us why a plebiscite on the questions at issue could not be taken with equal fairness in the Province and in the whole Dominion? Candidates for public office could be lates when the plebiscite was taken here. I delayed.

We repeat that the plebiscite is the fairest and by all odds the best means of arriving at a correct conclusion regarding the views of the public on this question. When that of the public on this question. is ascertained beyond a peradventure there need be no excuse on the part of anyone for further delay.

EDMUND YATES asserts that the late Lord Derby was a leviathan of wealth. The rental of his Lancashire estates is estimated at about £250,000 a year, and the accumulations must be enormous. He was one of the largest holders of Colonial Government securities. It is settled that his estates in Lancashire, with the domain of Knowsley, and Derby House, St. James' Square, will pass to Lord Stanley of Preston, who succeeds to the earldom; but it is understood that the Fairhill property, in Kent, and the charming residence Holwood, near Bromley, both of which Lord Derby had himself purchased, have been bequeathed, with the bulk of the personalty, to Lady Derby, with the remainder to her sons. Lord Derby's states were most judiciously managed and greatly improved and developed. He sold his Irish estates at the top of the market several years ago, when few people except himself realized what troubles were coming to the absentee landlords. If the land tax had been in operation both in England and Ireland all these years, the Derby family would have had far fewer riches, but the people at large would have been relieved of many taxes that in the past landlord Par-liaments shifted upon the masses. In all probability, the Garter vacant by the death of Lord Derby will be awarded to Lord Aberdeen, who is one of the favorites of the present awarder of titles.

THE STURDY BEGGARS. A demand is made upon the Ontario Government that it should grant a bonus of $20 a ton for all nickel smelted in the Province, and rich men who want to make money by smeltering iron not only ask the Province to pay them a handsome bonus yearly, but are going up and down the country requesting municipalities to compete for the establishment of their works by offering the speculators financial and other advantages.

Has not the bonus system gone far

The Legislature so decided, when, at the demand of public opinion it imposed restrictions on municipalities to prevent them from becoming the victims of bonushunters. The idea that most people entertain in regard to this system is that it is not right to impose taxes on one section of the people for the benefit of another. In this respect, the "protective" tariff is the worst bonus system of all, for it enables a few men to collect tribute from the large majority, and it does so in such a manner as to conceal the full extent of the burden. The direct bonus system has an advantage over the indirect, inasmuch as we know just how much we pay the beneficiaries.

The invariable reply to all objections to bonusing is that the community as a whole is compensated by the increased employ-ment of labor resulting from the operation of a bonused institution. If a bonus to an iron smelter can be defended on that ground, why should it not, with equal justice, be paid to the farmer who is the greatest producer of all. There is a disposition to restrict the cultivation of wheat in this Province; but if a bonus of so much a bushel were to be paid by the Government, the wheat area would be extended, the free grant lands would be picked up and cultivated, and much additional labor would be employed. No one, however, suggests that the farmer should be bonused, or dairymen, or the maker of newspapers, though all these would be willing to employ more labor if they were paid to do so by a

What the taxpayers have to realize is that the money paid in bonuses does not grow on trees, and that it has to be contributed from some source. Traced back, it will be found to come out of the pockets of the people, from which it should not be taken except for the purpose of economically proexcept for the purpose of economically providing for the public service. THE Methodist Book Room (Rev. Wm. Briggs), 29 33 Richmond street west, Toronto, are issuing a Canadian addition of the famous "Pansy Books," written by Mrs. Isabella M. DR. RAINSFORD'S LATEST.

Rev. Dr. Rainsford, of New York, who for a time lived in this city, has adopted a unique method to promulgate his view that the evils of the liquor traffic may be greatly modified by selling liquors in club houses connected with churches, instead of in saloons and hotels as at present. He will write two articles on the subject, the first of which will appear in the May number of the North American Review. In this he will define his theory briefly, and invite the public at large to send him questions and criticisms regarding it. His second article will appear in the June number of the Review, and in it he will answer the most pertinent of the questions and criticisms which have been sent to him. All communications should be addressed to the Rev. W. S. Rainstord, D.D., care of the North American Review, No. 3 East Four teenth street, New York city, and should be in his hands not later than May 12.

It will take very much more than Dr. Rainsford's acknowledged great reasoning powers to make temperance people believe that progress in the direction of overthrowdrunkenness can be effectively pro moted by the church joining hand-in-hand

POPE AND SCRIPTURE.

POPE AND SCRIPTURE.

[New York Christian Union.]

The cable announces that the Pope is about to issue an encyclical letter urging upon all the faithful a more thorough study of the Scriptures, and especially upon the priesthood such a study of the Scriptures as will enable the church in its instructions to keep abreast of scholarly research and criticism. The cable is not always authentio in its information and this report must as yet be characterized simply as important if true, yet it is so much in accord with the general course and policy of the present Pontifi that it cannot be regarded, by any one familiar with the course of events, as at all incredible. Nor would it be difficult to frame an argument for the purpose of showing that such an encyclical is not inconsistent with the attitude of the Roman Catholic Church toward the Scriptures in the time of Luther. On the one hand, the Roman Catholic would argue that the reading of the Scripture in that age on the world might be dangerous and in this age of the world safe, and he might also contend that recommending the studying of the Scripture does not involve recommending it as the only and all-sufficient rule of faith and practice. In other words, he might accept so much of Dr. Briggs' position as affirms that the Reason, the Church, and the Scriptures to men of Dr. Briggs' position as affirms that the Reason, the Church, not the Bible, is the supreme and final arbiter. We venture to predict that if the encyclical prophesied by the cable is issued, it will not be found to put the authority of the Scripture before that of the Church, if it does not, then the fundamental issue between Protestantism and Romanism raised by Martin Luther will remain essentially unchanged.

The New York Sun of Wednesday says:
There was a large gathering of horsemen at Tattersalls' Repository, Seventh avenue

60 odd head of well-bred Canadian harness were consigned principally by S. Osborne, of Montreal: Dr. C. C. Maclean, of Meaford; T. T. Davis, of Cornwall, and T. D.

not high, were very fair, averaging $176

Boston, April 28.—The servant-girl problem may become a serious one for Boston housekeepers to solve on account of the exodus of domestics to Chirago. One employment agency sent out 800 of them yesterday, another 75, and still another 50. The girls thus far sent to Chicago are not the kind that are desired to work in families, but are from the class employed as waiterses in cheap hotels and restaurfamilies, but are from the class employed as waitresses in cheap hotels and restaurants. The manager of one of these employment agencies said that she had refused repeatedly to fill orders from Chicago for girls, and advised all the desirable girls with whom she had dealing not to go there.

Allerton himself will not be trained or have a harness on this year. He has been in active training since a 2-year-old, and will, is is thought, be a better horse next season for a year's rest. His record of 2:094 is the fastest of any living stallion to a high-wheel sulky, and conservative judges believe if he is sound and right in 1894 he will certainly reduce the present stallion record of 2:07 several seconds, and may possibly chip a fraction off the world's record of 2:04, now held by Nancy Hanks. A Number of Material Reductions

The City Council of 1893 will certainly be noted for the large number of its special meetings. The aldermen held another last evening to complete the consideration of the estimates, to deal with the request of the Board of Trade for the withdrawal of the London West Amalgamation Bill, and to talk over the L. and P. S. R. situation. Mayor Essery, Ald. Pritchett, Shaw, Parnell, Welford, Dreancy, J. Fitzgerald, Scarrow, Stevely, Thomas Jones, Moule. J. W. Jones, Garratt, Carrothere, Heaman, Taylor, Coo and F. J. Fitzgerald, City Clerk Kingston, City Solicitor Meredith and a number of spectators were present.

In opening the meeting Mayor Essery attacked the Free Press for publishing what he claimed to be a garbled report of No. 1 committee's proceedings, styling the report a disgrace to decent journalism in this country. Had he (the meyor) been chairman the man who called him a sneak would have either retracted the statement or been taken out of the room by a policeman.

London West amalgamation.

There was a delegation present from the Board of Trade to request the withdrawal of the bill before the Ontario Legislature providing for the amalgamation of London West to the city. Mr. M. Masuret, the president, objected to the large representation the proposed new ward would have for such a small assessment. London was to gain absolutely nothing by taking in the adjoining village. The least thing that should be done would be to have the matter submitted to the electors of the city.

The mayor stated that W. R. Meredith, M.P.P., had inquired whether the city's deputation would be ready on Monday or Tuesday to support the bill in the Legislature. LONDON WEST AMALGAMATION.

Ald. Taylor thought there was nothing to be gained by the withdrawal of the bill. London West was not going to come in, anyway, but were going to law against the city.

Ald. Thomas Jones moved in amendment that the bill be not withdrawn, but that a clause be inserted providing that the bill be not brought in force until after the matter had been voted upon by the electors of the city. Ald. Stevely seconded.

A long letter was read from Mr. D. C. Macdonald criticising the request of the Board of Trade and objecting to the withdrawal of the bill.

Ald. Parnell claimed that on account of the unequal assessment London West should not have the same representation as the other wards in the city. He would favor the withdrawal of the bill.

The amendment was lost on a vote of 8 to 6 and the motion carried on the following division: Yeas—Ald. J. W. Jones, J. Fitzgerald, Garratt, Dreaney, Welford, Parnell, Shaw, Pritchett and Coo—9. Nays—Ald. Taylor, Heaman, Thos. Jones, Carrothers, Stevely and Scarrow—6.

THE L. AND P. S. B. QUESTION.

The City Clerk read the agreement entered into on March 20 between the L. and P. S. R. lessees, the M. C. R. company, the city of London and Mr. J. W. Little, by which the M. C. R. was to have running powers over the L. and P. S. R. for six trains per day, at $5,500 per year, and any additional trains pro rata. The agreement covered a period of twenty years.

Mr. Meredith urged that some action should be taken at once, as the option expired as soon.

Ald. Parnell spoke in favor of accepting the agreement. If the syndicate failed to carry out the terms of the lease the dealing would then te entirely between the city and the M. C. R. It would be disastrous to the city were the option not accepted, for the M. C. R. might then withdraw at any time.

THE L. AND F. S. R. INSPECTION.

The mayor explained the difficulties in connection with the inspection of the L. and P. S. R. by Mr. Jennings. The letters already published in the ADVERTISER were read by the clerk. Mr. Ivey refused in his letter to allow such inspection until a full statement was furnished him regarding the inspection and the time to be occupied in such inspection.

Mr. Ivey was asked whether he, on behalf of the lessees, would have any objections to Mr. Jennings going over the road.

Mr. 1vey replied that there was no objection, but the lessees wished a statement in writing. The lessees had only one hand car, and that could not be loaned, as the foreman necessarily used it daily.

The solicitor will prepare the necessary statement, and if satisfactory to Mr. Ivey the mayor will sign it.

Automatic Telephone & Electric Co.

Incorporated by Special Act by the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada, March, 1893 and assented to on the first day of April, 1893, to transact a general Telephone and Electrical Supply, Manufacturing and Operating Business throughout the Dominion of Canada.

OF CANADA (LIMITED).

Among those who now control the patents and who have subscribed for stock, and who ill probably be associated with the direction of the Company, are the following: ill probably be associated with the direction of the Company, are the following: ill probably the associated with the direction of the Company, and Director Moreal P. THE CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE.

This Company now proposes to carry on a Telephone Business on the Automatic Principle, and to that end proposes to purchase the patents of the Strowger System of Automatic Telephony. The present owners already have orders for the equipment of several Canadian towns with their Automatic System. The present owners of the patents have subscribed for sixty thousand dollars of the stock at par, paying cash therefor.

The success of the system has been practically demonstrated by actual operation, and must necessarily supplant the present cumbersome system.

It is also exclusively used in La Porte, Ind., a town of ten thousand inhabitants, where it irrelated the original system, and it has been adopted by the United States Government i installed for it at Fort Sheridan. Installed for that Fort Sheridan.

It has also been purchased by and is in successful operation in the Free Press building at International Control of the International Control of the International Control of the International Control of the International Control of Inte

The Strowger system possesses the following features:

IT REQUIRES NO CENTRAL OPERATOR. EVERY SUBSCRIBER MAKES HIS OWN CONNECTIONS. No delay or reply from Careless and indifferent operators of "Line busy." Revery subscriber has a privare as well as a Public line without extra cost. The Village requiring ten telephones can have as perfect a service as the CITY religing 10,000.

quiring 10,000.

The service being automatic is ready NIGHT and DAY.

The fact that OTHER SYSTEMS require operators PREVENTS many SMALL TOWNS from having a TELEPHONE SERVICE, as they need but a few telephones and cannot afford from having a TELEPHONE SERVICE. Other towns employ a day operator but have no NIGHT SERVICE, which this system gives.

The Company desires to equip exchanges in every CITY and TOWN throughout Canada as rapidly as possible, and now offers TWO HUNDRED and FIFTY THOUSAND DULARS ($250,000), of its Capital Stock at par (of which sixty thousand dollars has been subscribed by the present owners). Terms of subscriptions:

10 PER CENT, ON SUBSCRIPTION, 15 PER CENT. ON ALLOTMENT.

Remainder as may be required by the Board of Directors, but calls not oftener than thirty spant, nor for more than ton per cent. at one call.

The right is reserved to reject any or all subscriptions, and to allot a pro rate amount is use of over-subscription.

PERFECT SYSTEM, REQUIRING NO OPERATORS, "THE SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST."

That Telephone Stocks are among the most propitable of all investments the ollowing quotations of present prices and dividends show: Bell Telephone Company, United States, Price, $190 per Share. Dividends, 8 per cent. Bell Telephone Company, Canada, Price, $150 per Share. Dividends, 8 per cent.

The price to be paid for the exclusive right of using and of manufacturing under these patents for the Dominion of Canada is $90,000. The patents are valid for fifteen years from 1891. 1891.
Subscriptions will be received at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Toronto, and its branches in Montreal, London and Hamilton, where full prospectuses can be obtained.

Subscription Books will be opened at the Canadian Bank of Commerce in the said cities on MONDAY, APRIL 24, and close SATURDAY, APRIL 29 The system can be seen in operation at the Temple Building, Montreal, the Bank of Commerce Building Toronto, and the Free Press Building, London, Ont.

It is reposed as soon as the Directors may deem it advisable to list the stock of the Company on both the Montreal and Toronto Exchanges.

Society were Miss Evelyn de Latre Street, violinist, of London, Ont., and Miss Lillian Blauvelt, the popular soprano of Brooklyn, N. Y. Miss Street selected for her solo the second and third movements of Max Bruch's first concerto, a work that has been played here by Mr. Jacobsen and Mr. Boucher. Miss'street made a genuine success, and the audience evidently took pride in paying tribute to the talents of the young Canadian srtist. Miss Street has extensive technical powers, and is an accurate and neat player, and in the performance of the concerto displayed a fine tone and excellent phrasing and a legitimate interpretation." Miss Street will play at the concert of the London Choral Society in the Grand Opera House on Tuesday evening next.

Dr. Caven's Lecture.

It was a pleasant incident—a lecture under the auspices of one congregation (Park Avenue Presbyterian), held in the church edifice of another congregation (St. Andrew's). It illustrates the pleasant relations which unite all the Presbyterian pastors and congregations of London. The lecturer was the Rev. Dr. Caven, principal of Knox College; the subject, "A Trip Through Palestine"; the chairman, Rev. W. J. Clark; on the platform, aiso, Rev. W. Messrs. Murray, Talling and Black, and Rev. Mr. Wilson, returned missionary from India. Among those in the audience were likewise Rev. Messrs. Gordon, Aylward and Ballantyne. After the lecture, which was interesting and instructive, as well as entertaining, votes of thanks were passed to the lecturer and to St. Andrew's Church for the use of their building. Prof. Barron gave some organ music previyus to and after the lecture. Of Dr. Caven it is not necessary to speak at length. The Presbyterian Church does not acknowledge any formal "leader," but we doubt if any one comes nearer to that position without desire on his own part than the worthy lecturer. Few men in Canada unite in so unique a degree the chaiacteristics of gentleness of demeanor, firmness of purpose and lucidity of mind.

"I, more at liberty to dispose of have to leave."
Was he not at full and entire liberty?—
if so, why was she not? The question set Oswald thinking.
But he had no time to pursue thought, or anything else that day, save business; and he rose to deput. Lady Oswald asked him he rose to depair.

If she should we him on her return from Mr. Low's?

"Why trouble yourself to go there?" he could not help sace more asking. He felt sorry—sorry that she should subject herself to renewed disappointment,

"I shall go!" imparatively, answered Lady Oswald. "Surely, I am at liberty to pay a visit to my own landlord if I please!"

But circumstances seemed inclined to prove themselves stronger than Lady Oswald's will. Even as the words left her lips, her coachman made his appearance with hindering news; one of the carriage horses had fallen lame.

"Accept it as an omen that the visit would have brought forth no good luck," said Oswald Cray, with a smile, while Jones stood deprecating his lady's anger.

A doubt flashed across her mind for a moment whether the excuse was real, and the amzed Jones had to repeat it, and to assure his mistress that he was going "right off for the veter inary surgeon them.

"It will not avail," said Lady Oswald. "I shall go by train. Perhaps you can tell me, Oswald Cray, at what hours the trains leave for Hildon?"

Oswald Cray said not another word of hindrance. To make use of the railroad, to which her objection had been so insuperable, proved that she was indeed bent upen it. He took from his pocket a list of the de-

"There promised to pass it with a sick friend," he answered. "One not long, I fear, for this world."

Lady Oswald would have detained him to inquire who it was, and all the particulars, and he began to think he would never get away. Hastily replying to her, he at length went out and met Dr. Davenal driving up to pay the usual daily visit.

She was somewhat of a capticous woman, Lady Oswald to few month's before, in the summer time, Dr. Davenal had been hoping, it may almostibe said secretly plotting—but the plotting was very innocent—to get Lady Oswald to favor Mark Cray sufficiently to allow of his paying these daily visits. Since then Lady Oswald had, there was a very innocent—to get Lady Oswald to favor Mark Cray sufficiently to allow of his paying these daily visits. Have You Headache?

Headache, which is usually a symptom of stomach trouble, constination or liver complaint, can be entirely cured by B. B. B. (Burdock Blood Bitters), because this medicine acts upon and regulates the stomach, liver, bowels and blood.

CHEAPEST IN THE MARKET.

Generally speaking, however, more care appears to have been taken in this respect than in former years.

Horses are reported in good condition, but there is a difficulty in selling them, and there are too many on hand.

Horned cattle are well spoken of as to condition, and there is a good demand for dairy cows.

A heavy mortality is reported among newly-littered pigs, but the swine industry generally is in a hopeful state, and the Canadian pig is said to be getting a fair measure of appreciation.

PARM SUPPLIES.

Although hay was treely fed during the winter, a considerable quantity is still on hand, low prices having discouraged sales. The reports concerning the supply of cats are more variable. In the Lake Eric counties there was not a large surplus, and in the beefing and dairying counties of Middlesex and Oxford there was rather a scarcity, but elsewhere a fair amount is reported on hand. There appears to be a good deal of wheat still in the hands of the farmers, and some correspondents speak of some of the yield of 1891 as still being in the bin. Owing to the relatively high prices offered for hogs, a considerable quantity of wheat and other grain was turned into pork, and more of cereals not go up. Fat cattle appear to have had good sale, and although a fair supply is still left, May shipments are extpected to call for all that can be offered.

A Crimean Veteran Killed.

Kingston, April 27.—A fatal accident occurred at Fort Henry to-day. At noon Sergt. Marsh, of "A" Battery, fired the 12 o'clock gun as usual from the wall of the fort. Not returning home within a reasonable time his family went in search, and found him badly mangled lying in the ditch. Atter discharging the gun Marsh is supposed to have proceeded to reload, ready for the 9:30 p.m. gun, without "swabbing" it, and as a consequence the powder ignited. He died this afternoon. Marsh was a Crimean veteran.

Band of Hope "Surprise" Supper.

The Band of Hope night school in connection with the W. C. T. U., and under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. McDermid, held their closing exercises in Somerset Hall last evening. There was a full attendance of boys and many prominent W. C. T. U. workers were also present. Mrs. May R Thornley occupied the chair, and after prayer the following programme was carried out, with the addition of several hymnes:

The room was then darkened and a magic lantern exhibition given by Mr. Fred Bapty. The boys were delighted with the many pretty colored and comic scenes as they rapidly flitted before their gaze, and showed their approbation by cheering each picture to the utmost extent of their lung power. Then followed the distribution of prizes. Master Ernie Moule secured the medal presented by Ald. J. W. other boys called for a speech they did not call in vain. Master Moule thanked the donor (Ald. Jones), and then thanked the ladies of the W. C. T. U. Then his heart was so full he thanked them over again. The smallest boy in the room, Arthur Armstrong, was then called up to receive his prize. He was so smallthat it was necessary for those in the back of the hall to stand on chairs to see him. He didn't make a speech, although he received a generous invitation to do so from his classmates. About a dozen other boys received prizes for regular attendance and good conduct, and then, after a hymn and a prayer, the boys were marched up stairs, where a "surprise" supper was waiting. If the boys were taken by surprise their appetites were still doing business at the old stand, and judging from the rapid lightening of the tables, the surprise must have been agreeable.
