CLAIMS OHIO AND MICHIGAN WILL SUFFER FOR COAL IF CANADA GETS FULL SUPPLY

Cleveland and Akron Chambers of Commerce Present Plea For Modification of Recent Coal Order—Want Shipments Diverted in Order To Prevent Fuel Famine.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 30.—Ohio and Michigan should have an equal show with Canada in the distribution of coal, C. A. Albright, of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, told the Interstate Commerce Commission today, supporting the petition of Cleveland and Akron for a modification of the northwest emergency coal order. The Cleveland and Akron chambers asked that some of the coal shipped to the northwest under the order be diverted for the use of their cities.

Mr. Albright said Cleveland could not avoid a coal shortage this winter even with maximum distribution. It could be shown, he said, that Canada does not face a shortage, and argued that the Dominion should not have 100 per cent coal supply, and all the shortage fall on Michigan and Ohio.

ONTARIO ARCHITECTS HERE FOR 31ST ANNUAL CONVENTION

President Herbert E. Moore Says More "Made in Canada" Products Are Being Used — Co-operation of All Urged To Produce Greater Results.

Opening the 31st annual convention of the Ontario Association of Architects in the Tecumseh House this morning, Herbert E. Moore of Toronto enunciated as the principal aims of the association the promoting of good architecture, keeping high the standards of Canadian architecture, and rendering for the public's service commensurate with the best service to be obtained anywhere in the world. The public needs to be educated concerning the practice of architecture, he said, and the policy of the association is, in part, to conduct a campaign for a better-informed and more sympathetic public.

This is the first occasion on which the association has met in London, the majority of previous meetings having been held in Toronto and Ottawa, and credit was given to John M. Watt of London for securing the convention for London this year.

To Extend Work.

The work of the association, in part, will be, Mr. Moore said, to organize its offices to insure good architecture suited to the country and national character, to secure the co-operation and sympathy of the public, and to encourage its members to take a more active interest in affairs of the nation. Governments should be brought to realize that the resources of a country ought to be conserved for the development of its brain power.

Architecture is both an art and a business. Architects are master builders, as well as artists. Architects are naturally conservative, but their conservatism should be sprinkled with flexibility and readiness to adapt themselves to new conditions. A committee to study changed conditions in architectural practice was proposed.

Made in Canada.

There was a greater use being made of Canadian building materials, and the Canadian Manufacturers' Association was reciprocating by encouraging the employment more widely of Canadian architects.

The universities should be equipped to produce good designers and constructionists, and the technical schools

COURT'S DECISION MAY BE APPEALED

Crown May Press Beef, Iron and Wine Case Further.

Despite the fact that The Advertiser was informed by a reliable authority today that the crown would appeal the dismissal of charges against John McDonald of Middlemiss for selling beef, iron and wine containing over 2½ per cent. spirits, License Inspector J. E. Keneyside of London district stated today: "I know nothing about it. You are getting too much in your papers these days, and there is nothing in it."

McDonald appeared before Squires W. H. Chittick and John Stuart in the county court here a week ago, and their decision dismissing the charge, on the ground that beef, iron and wine is a proprietary medicine protected by the Government, was announced on Saturday.

TORONTO RESTAURANT PROPRIETORS WARNED

Cafe Men Given Notice That Prosecutions Will Follow Profiteering.

Toronto, Aug. 30.—Preliminary steps toward a thorough investigation of food products in local restaurants and a general war against overcharges were taken this morning, when a number of restaurant proprietors appeared before the mayor and Police Chief Dickson. A probe will take place into profits and prices, and a strong effort made to protect the public against profiteering. The city and the board of commerce will cooperate in the matter, and Dr. Hastings, medical officer of health, will obtain information which may lead to prosecutions or the cancellation of licenses.

Six restaurants had personal representatives at the meeting, and W. C. Miller, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, represented the others. The mayor told the restaurant men frankly that stern measures would be taken to check profiteering, and that the public must be protected.

SIR AUCKLAND GEDDES ARRIVES IN MONTREAL

British Ambassador Going to Ottawa On Tuesday.

Montreal, Aug. 30. — Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador to Washington from Great Britain, arrived here from Toronto yesterday for a brief rest. He will remain here until Tuesday morning, when he leaves for Ottawa on a visit to the governor-general. Sir Auckland said outside of meeting some old friends and catching up with official work he had no program here.

NOVA SCOTIA DAILY FIVE CENTS A COPY

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 30.—The Sydney Daily Post, owing to the increased cost of production, has followed the example of a number of other dailies and raised the price of its subscriptions. Copies of the paper will now sell at 5 cents.

CANADA HAS A GREAT CHANCE TO GET BIG TRADE FROM FRANCE

Fred H. Screaton, Formerly of This City, Sees Wonderful Opportunity.

New York, Aug. 30.—(By Canadian Press).—That there is a wonderful opportunity for the extension of Canadian trade in France at the present time is stated by Fred H. Screaton, formerly of London, Ont., and now Paris representative of the American Drygoods Association, who arrived today on the steamer Mauretania, after an extensive trip through France.

"France is rapidly coming back to normal," Mr. Screaton told a Canadian Press representative. "The firm attitude of the Government both in matters national and international is quickly restoring confidence. Crops are wonderfully good; even the north of France which six months ago was a desolate area, is now under the hands of the harvesters.

"France this year should raise a very large percentage of her cereal requirements. Food restrictions are rapidly disappearing. Manufacturing in a sufficiently large way to mean large exports is in evidence in all of the large centres. Public works are being undertaken. Civic improvements are under way, and the remarkable spirit of the French people is everywhere in evidence.

"The Canadian in France holds an enviable position, admired, respected, and everywhere favorably received. There is the greatest opportunity for the Canadian manufacturer and exporter to establish a connection in France."

London Motor Club Largest In Ontario

Membership Has Grown Until It Now Numbers 846.

According to information received by C. E. Bernard secretary of the London branch of the Ontario Motor League from headquarters at Toronto this city now possesses the largest club in Ontario with 846 members. Hamilton and Ottawa rank second and third with 546 and 500 members respectively. Toronto has no club the motorists there joining Ontario Motor League at headquarters.

ITALY INFORMS U. S. THAT NATIONS AGREE ON IMPORTANT ISSUES

Washington, D. C., Aug. 30.—Italy has informed the United States that the two governments are practically in accord as to sentiments concerning Russia and Poland contained in the recent American note, Secretary Colby announced today.

OLDEST MEMBER OF ST. ANDREW'S DEAD

Mrs. Eliza Hamilton, a resident of London for a great many years, died at her home, 434 Dufferin avenue, on Saturday in her 86th year. Mrs. Hamilton was a lifelong Presbyterian, and was the oldest living member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Hamilton is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Riddell of Petrolea, and the Misses Sarah, Elizabeth and Margaret, all living at home. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon from her residence to Woodland Cemetery, Rev. D. C. MacGregor will conduct the services.

NEWEST ADVANCE TO MINERS WILL MEAN MILLIONS TO 175,000 MEN

President Wilson Approves Majority Report of Coal Companies.

RETROACTIVE APRIL 1

Latest Increase Will Amount To About $85,000,000 Annually.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 30.—President Wilson today approved the majority report of the anthracite coal commission, increasing the wages of the contract miners 20 per cent over present rates.

Miners employed as company men are given an increase of 17 per cent, and the same amount is given "consideration miners" and miners' laborers and monthly men.

The findings, the report said, would fix a minimum rate of 52½c per hour for the lower paid men in the anthracite industry.

The president struck out of the report a provision fixing the terms of retroactive payments under the award which he said was outside the commission's jurisdiction. Thomas Kennedy, chairman of the miners' scale committee, had protested this feature of the award, he said.

Anthracite mine workers will receive about $18,000,000 in back pay under the retroactive feature of the award, which makes it effective April 1, 1920, and the total increase awarded to the 175,000 miners will average, the commission said, "at least $85,000,000" annually.

INTERNATIONAL UNIONS TO STRIKE IF MINERS IN BRITAIN WALK OUT

Geneva, Aug. 30.—Montreal Gazette Cable.—As announced as probable in recent dispatches, an international miners' strike will now be definitely declared, should the British miners decide to this effect. The strike was arranged between the British miners' delegates and the Germans, French and Belgians during their congress in Geneva in the first week of August.

It is learned now that as soon as the British miners strike no coal from Germany, Belgium or France will be allowed to leave for England. The miners in these countries will cease work and demand nationalization of the mines.

The International Miners' Federation will also appeal to the United States miners not to allow coal to leave the United States.

The result of the ballot for a strike in Great Britain was openly foretold at the beginning of August at the miners' congress here. There was, it is now said, a solemn covenant between Robert Smillie, president of the British Miners' Federation, Otto Hue, the German miners' leader, and the French, Belgian and other European miners' leaders, to stick to one another through thick and thin during the coming international strike.

In the meantime, the anxiety in commercial circles on the continent is very great, and it is feared that, should wiser counsels not prevail and an international coal strike occur, the whole of Europe will be paralyzed.

The international labor office in Geneva appears helpless in the face of this situation. It has not hitherto come into touch with the various labor organizations of the world, so that observers here believe it cannot have any real influence upon them. Moreover the miners' leaders who visited the labor office referred to it afterwards as a "white elephant."

LEVEL CROSSINGS TO BE DISCUSSED

Town Planners To Hear Noulan Cauchon's Plans For London.

At a meeting of the town planning committee to be held in the city hall tonight citizens generally are urged to attend as important matters in connection with doing away with level crossings will be taken up. Noulan Cauchon of Ottawa, will give an address on London's railway problems.

Discussing the question today with The Advertiser, Mr. Cauchon pointed out that London has two big problems to solve, track elevation and the establishment of a union depot. Track elevation, he declared, is the only solution to the level crossing problem.

"Between 1900 and 1918," he said, "twenty-eight people went to their deaths at London railway crossings, and seventy were injured. There is only one crossing, Clarence street, where accidents have not occurred. Adelaide street and Wellington street are the worst for fatalities, seven people having been killed at each. At Adelaide street three were injured, and at Wellington street four. At Rectory street there were two people killed and seventeen injured, and at Egerton street three killed and three injured."

Mr. Cauchon favors the establishment of a big union depot in the area between Colborne and Waterloo streets and Dundas and Queen's avenue. By purchase of additional property he would establish around it a traffic area, in which could be located a market.

All these ideas will be explained by him at tonight's meeting and he will show a number of plans

MEXICAN CAVALRY PURSUING BANDITS

U. S. Government Orders a Search For Persons Who Were Kidnapped.

Mexico City, Aug. 30.—Search for British and United States subjects kidnaped by Pedro Zamora, the Jalisco bandit, during his raid on the town of Cuale, on Aug. 20, has been ordered by the war department.

Gen. Rafael Buelna, commander of a force of cavalry pursuing the outlaws, continues to follow their trail, and it is declared that the bandits are demoralized and in flight.

VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

WALTER ROBERTS, young London athlete, who was fatally injured at Port Stanley.

WALTER ROBERTS DIES OF INJURIES

Dive Into Shallow Water At Port Stanley Results Fatally.

Walter Roberts, aged 21, of 335 Horton street, died at 4 o'clock this morning from injuries sustained at Port Stanley on Sunday afternoon, when he dived into shallow water from the top of a water slide. Death was due to a fracture of the spine and shock.

Besides his mother and father Roberts is survived by three brothers, Alwyn of Toronto, Kendrick, who left for the west about a week ago to work in the harvest fields, and David, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. T. Boyce, of 735 Princess avenue, city, and Mrs. G. Hastings at home.

Roberts was a well-known athlete, and was termed by all boys of the Y an excellent swimmer. He was a member of the local Y. M. C. A. for four or five years. He was especially prominent in the physical tests department, and always when the results were shown his name was near the top of the list. He was a member of the senior boys' leaders and belonged to the club basketball team. He was also a member of the Hexathlon team which won the championship of Canada for two successive years, and was considered a good all-around athlete.

Roberts was very fond of swimming. When the accident occurred he was trying shallow diving, and it is surmised that he miscalculated the distance or the depth of the water and did not turn quick enough to avoid striking the ground which is only about four feet below the surface at that point.

It was not until two or three minutes after Mr. Roberts dived into the water that it was noticed that he was in difficulties, and assistance immediately rendered by those nearby. Mr. Roberts was first removed to the bathhouse, and shortly afterwards to the emergency hospital, where he was attended by Dr. Douglas and Shannon, the latter having made a rush trip from St. Thomas.

Some little delay occurred when Manager Richards of the L. and P. S. objected to the young man's removal from the scant accommodation for an accident case at the bathhouse to the fully-equipped hospital. Mr. Richards claimed that a doctor had been called and would be there in five minutes. As a matter of fact it was practically an hour before the doctor called by Mr. Richards arrived on the scene. In the meantime the patient had despite the objections raised been moved from the overheated quarters to which he was first taken to the hospital, placed in a comfortable bed and medically attended to.

While able to converse with those around him Mr. Roberts, who is an employee of the Brown Optical Company, London, complained that he had no feeling below his shoulders, and while it was impossible to definitely diagnose his injuries it was feared that he had fractured the spine a short distance below the shoulders.

Walks Into River During Her Sleep

Death Comes To a Quebec Woman Under Tragic Circumstances.

Montreal, Aug. 30.—Death under tragic circumstances was revealed with the finding of the body of Miss Emma Senecal, member of a well-known family at Boucherville, Que., floating in the St. Lawrence River on Saturday.

Evidence deduced at the brief inquiry which was held immediately after the finding of the body showed that the unfortunate young woman was a victim of sleep-walking, and that she had left her home while in a somnambulistic condition on Friday evening or early Saturday morning, and walked into the river and lost her life.

POLES THREATEN TO QUIT PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

Claim Interference With the Wireless Is Hampering Efforts.

PROTEST TO BE SENT

M. Domski Announces Polish Delegation's Work Is Obstructed in Every Way.

Minsk, Russia, Aug. 30.—M. Domski, the Polish under secretary for foreign affairs, has prepared a protest to be presented to the peace conference, threatening that Poles will withdraw immediately from the negotiations unless the soviet ceases its interference with the Polish wireless and otherwise obstructing the work of the Polish delegation.

The note of M. Domski will protest against the Soviet Government's charge that the Poles are causing the delay for which the Soviet delegates are blamed. It will especially complain against a new order of the Bolsheviki sealing the Polish wireless at all hours when it is not in use by the Poles and threatening to shoot anyone approaching within eight feet of the plant if they fail to halt at the first challenge of the sentry.

The Soviet government allows the use of the wireless for four periods. Yesterday while the Polish delegates were getting into communication with Warsaw the time limit elapsed and the Soviet officials closed the station before the Poles could finish transacting their business.

SULTAN REFUSES TO FIGHT NATIONALISTS; INSUFFICIENT TROOPS

Turkish Ruler Has But Two Battalions of Fighting Men.

Constantinople, Aug. 30.—The sultan of Turkey has refused to lead his forces against the Nationalists, declaring them to be too few in number.

The sultan's forces at present consist of only two battalions. The valor of these was not sufficient to withstand a two days' campaign on the Black Sea coast. They made a landing Thursday, but returned Saturday, and once more bivouacked on the bathing beaches along the Bosphorus.

MUSTAPHA KEMAL ILL.

Constantinople, Aug. 30.—Mustapha Kemal Pasha, head of the Turkish Nationalist Government at Angora, is ill of chronic malaria, his condition being made worse by worry and overwork. Physicians are in constant attendance.

LAWYERS FROM ALL PARTS OF CANADA IN SPECIAL CONFERENCE

Recommendations Will Be Considered Regarding Uniform Legislation.

Ottawa, Aug. 30.—Leading lawyers from all provinces of Canada arrived in Ottawa today and started sessions this morning in the Chateau Laurier which are to last for five days. The object of the conference, which has already held meetings in other provinces, is to consider and make recommendations in regard to uniformity of provincial legislation in Canada.

The conference, which meets under the chairmanship of Sir James Aikins, lieutenant-governor of Manitoba, and chairman of the Canadian Bar Association, has full status, its members being appointed by the different provincial governments of Canada each and every government taking part.

The feature of this morning's session was a ringing speech by Sir James Aikins, which was largely applauded. The Nova Scotia and Quebec delegates have not yet arrived. The other provinces are represented as follows:

The province of Ontario is represented by J. C. Elliott, K.C., London, who took the place of Matthew Wilson, K.C.; Francis King, Kingston. J. D. Falconbridge, K.C., of Toronto, is also a delegate, but is prevented from attending by a family bereavement.

Subjects of large interest are to be taken up.

AUTO ESCAPADES COST HIM $42.50

Magistrate Bartlett Reconsiders Decision and Fines Driver Who Was Drunk.

Hubert Watkins of Detroit was sentenced by acting magistrate P. H. Bartlett in police court Saturday to a term of 10 days in jail following a conviction under the new law of driving a car while intoxicated without the option of a fine. The court explained to Watkins that there was no alternative but to send him to jail. Ten minutes later Watkins was released on payment of a $25 fine.

In explanation of this procedure acting Magistrate Bartlett said to The Advertiser today, "The old law, which has not been repealed is inconsistent with the new one, and there was some doubt in my mind regarding a jail sentence to this man who is a visitor from the United States. Accordingly after consulting the crown attorney I gave him the benefit of the doubt. He was en route to Toronto with his wife, and I think that the fine has served the ends of justice. Future cases of a similar nature coming before me may not be dealt with in the same manner, and possibly when Magistrate Graydon returns his interpretation of the two laws will be different to mine."

The auto escapades of Watkins in this city cost him $42.50 in all.

SOVIETS IN W. SIBERIA OVERTHROWN

Peasants Rise and Banish the Bolshevik Administrations.

MOVEMENT IS SPREADING

Outbreaks in Far East Indicate Early End of Soviet Regime There.

Harbin, Manchuria, Aug. 30.—Western Siberian peasants have overthrown the Soviets at Tomsk, Novonikolaeivsk, Omsk, Barnaul and other important towns, it is reported here from reliable sources. Isolated peasant uprisings which have been in progress since spring appeared to have culminated in a general insurrection. This was led by an uprising of the Kirghiz tribesmen which followed the withdrawal of the Bolshevik troops, presumably for the Polish front.

The tribesmen were joined by Cossacks and detachments of anti-Bolshevik troops which furnished them competent leadership. This force marched on the more important centres, but found them already in the hands of insurgents. Two thousand Russian officers released from prison have joined the anti-Bolshevik force. The insurgent movement is reported to be spreading. Outbreaks are frequent in the Far East, where it is expected that the Soviet regime will soon fall.

Eastern Siberian authorities are dazed by the suddenness of the new developments. The main support of the uprising appears to come from the Mujik farmers of the provinces of Altai, Tomsk, Tobolsk, Semipalatainsk and Akmolinsk, which are the richest farming districts of Siberia.

LETVIAN GOVERNMENT HAS MADE NO REPLY TO POLISH REQUEST

Warsaw, Aug. 30.—While Riga has been agreed upon by the Polish and Russian Soviet Government as the place for future peace negotiations it was said at the foreign ministry late last night that no word had been received from the Letvian Government regarding the Poles' request for permission to hold the conference in Riga.

FOUR VILLAGES ARE CAPTURED BY BOLSHEVIKI

London, Aug. 30.—Russian soviet forces engaged in a counter-offensive against the Poles east of Brest-Litovsk have occupied four villages in that vicinity. Near Lemberg there is heavy fighting going on, and in the Vlodava and Grubeshoff regions there is local fighting. This information was received here this morning in a wireless dispatch from Moscow containing an official statement issued there yesterday.

POLES NOT PLANNING TO ADVANCE BEYOND ETHNOGRAPHIC LINE

Warsaw, Aug. 30.—The Poles apparently are planning no advance beyond the ethnographic frontier as mentioned in the United States note to which the Poles have replied. The front lies virtually along the line laid down by the Allies. There are indications that the eastern line is being stabilized temporarily and the general staff has directed that there be no advance into districts where the Poles might not be welcomed by the people.

The military authorities announced today that the Poles along the front were resting and regrouping the Soviet forces beyond the Bug River, where they are prepared to make a stand if attacked. There are no indications, however, that the Poles are planning to continue their drive eastward. The moderate elements are urging the Government not to attempt to shove the line too far to the east.

REGROUPING POLISH FORCES.

Paris, Aug. 30.—Military operations in Poland seem, for the moment at least, to be limited to local actions, and Polish commanders are utilizing the period of inactivity along the front to regroup their forces, which were separated during the recent rapid advance. Advices from Warsaw state a wireless message from the Bolshevik commander-in-chief to Moscow was intercepted, and that in it he made protests against the sending of unarmed reinforcements to the Polish front.

MOTOR MAGNATES ARE IN THE CITY

F. W. Ruggles, E. L. Smith, Charles D. Smith, all of Alma, Mich.; A. C. Smith of Chicago, and other men interested in the automobile manufacturing industry from Indiana, Michigan and Illinois, are registered at the Tecumseh House. Inquiry as to the probability of large motor manufacturing industries being located here, brought the reply that no announcement would be available until the arrival of other men interested in the same propositions tomorrow. The visitors spent the morning looking over London and the available industrial sites in the city.

CIVIL SERVANTS WILL GET BACK PAY SOON

Toronto, Aug. 30.—Members of the Ontario "inside" civil service will find their pay envelopes bulging with extra money at next pay day when their checks will cover increases, following the reclassification which is just about completed. The increases will date back to November, 1919. The average clerk, stenographer and messenger will be boosted about $200, and the back pay to clerks at the Parliament Buildings will average about $100 each.

FOUR MORE PERSONS ARE KILLED WHEN RIOTING IS RESUMED IN BELFAST EARLY THIS MORNING

Unionist Quarter Is Centre of Serious Disorders—Soldiers Rushed To Scene As Fighting Begins — More Serious Developments Are Feared—Large Amount of Property Destroyed in Irish City.

Belfast, Aug. 30.—Today's rioting was said by the police to be the worst Belfast has yet seen. Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon it was definitely known that four deaths had occurred as a result of the disorders. These included Grace Orr, who was shot when troops opened fire to clear a street in the Unionist quarter.

Numerous persons with bullet wounds were admitted to the Royal Victoria and Mater hospitals.

In the fighting between Sinn Feiners and Unionist shipyard workers, many shops were wrecked in York and North streets. Soldiers got between the combatants in York street and kept them apart. There were numerous baton charges by the police. The military held York street with armored cars at mid-day. A girl in a green blouse headed the Sinn Fein attack in York street, keeping a dozen yards ahead of her nearest male companion.

Before 2 o'clock the death toll was increased by the shooting of a small boy by a sniper. A curfew law will be introduced in Belfast tomorrow night, extending from 10:30 p.m. to 5 o'clock in the morning.

Belfast, Aug. 30.—Rioting and destruction of property was renewed in this city early this morning, the Unionist quarter being the scene of serious disorders. Troops rushed to the centre of disturbance opened fire to clear the streets, a young woman being gravely wounded and a man injured. Further grave developments are apprehended. Shipyard employees, who were unarmed, were on their way to work at 8:30 o'clock this morning, when they were attacked, it is charged by the police, by Sinn Feiners, and shooting soon began. Soldiers arrived soon after disorder commenced, and assumed a firing position across York street, giving the crowd three minutes to clear the thoroughfare. Most of the people fled to cover.

At an early hour this morning other disorders occurred in the neighborhood of Ewarts Row, a Unionist quarter, which was attacked by Sinn Feiners yesterday morning. Shops were wrecked and to clear the street the troops opened fire from an armored car. Falls road, which traverses Joseph Devlin's political division, was simmering this morning. Great excitement also prevailed in other affected areas, and crowds were gathering during the early forenoon.

A party of shipyard workers, headed by a man carrying a Union Jack, proceeded up North street, a wide thoroughfare leading from Royal avenue to Shankill road, and wheeled into Wine Tavern street, a Nationalist locality where there were suggestive piles of stones. Shots were fired, and the ranks of the shipyard worker were reduced by several, who were rushed to a hospital. The shopkeepers of North street promptly closed their stores. There have been 135 fires since Wednesday.

ELEVEN DEAD, TOLL OF NIGHT'S INTENSE FIGHT IN BELFAST

QUIET AT MIDNIGHT.

BELFAST, Ireland, August 30.—Quiet prevailed in Belfast at midnight, last night, furnishing a strong contrast to Saturday night's fighting.

BELFAST, Aug. 29.—Eleven men dead is the toll of Saturday night's fighting in Belfast. In addition to the six men killed during the height of the battle two of the wounded died today.

A feature of the rioting was the extent of the destruction of property by incendiarism. The fire brigade had an especially hard time during the night in fighting the flames. Their work was rendered hideous by the constant rattle of the machine guns. The Sinn Fein were in strong force and appeared to be well supplied with arms and ammunition.

The greatest of bitterness was displayed during the fighting. There was a great amount of wrecking of houses and the burning of furniture, both indoors and on the streets. The yells of the mob and the shrieks of women and children and the groans of the injured were audible throughout the fighting. When the rioting was at its worst women could be seen clad in their night attire rushing from their homes, attempting to lead their families from the danger zone.

The excitement was intense until 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Isolated firing was to be heard throughout the forenoon, and the people were apprehensive lest there should be a renewal of the disorders at nightfall.

Three attempts were made tonight to burn the Independent Labor party hall. The last attempt resulted in serious damage to the building.

The police tonight charged crowds in the Crumlin road with their batons, but order was not restored until the troops arrived.

It is reported that an armored car fired on a crowd around a bonfire, and that a boy was shot through the breast. Two constables are declared to have been sent to hospitals as a result of their injuries.

SUGAR PRICES UNCHANGED ON TORONTO MARKET

Dealers Predict There Will Be No Drop in Flour Quotations.

Toronto, Aug. 30.—There is no change in the price of flour or sugar. In connection with the latter commodity the motto is: "Business as usual." Predictions that there will be a drop in the price of flour are not justified, according to some merchants, who say that if there is any change the trend will be in an upward direction and not downward. Farmers are holding for higher prices and increased freight rates will also have an influence.

WINNIPEG MILLERS TO MAKE PRE-WAR GRADES OF FLOUR

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 30.—Winnipeg millers expected today to resume manufacture of the pre-war grades of wheat flour Wednesday, following relinquishment of control of grain markets by the Dominion board. No more 95 per cent flour will be milled, they say. A drop of $1 a barrel on the higher grades and $1.50 on the government standard grades is expected to result immediately. It was believed probable today that many of the mills in this district would resume full operations by the latter part of the week.

Bleriot Called To Pay Large War Profits

French Government Makes a Demand For 5,000,000 Francs.

Paris, Aug. 30.—Louis Bleriot, the first aviator to cross the English channel, has been ordered by the French courts to pay immediately five million francs into the French treasury. The amount was claimed by the ministry of finance as war profits M. Bleriot accumulated through manufacturing aeroplanes and motors during the war.

NO CHANCE FOR MACSWINEY IS DOCTOR'S CLAIM

Hunger Strike Has Progressed So Far That Hope Is Abandoned

BY PRISON PHYSICIAN

Lord Mayor of Cork Still Conscious, But Unable To Speak.

London, Aug. 30.—The hunger strike of Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, has progressed so far that he is in such condition that even if he took food now it would do him no good, according to a statement by the Brixton Prison doctor to MacSwiney's wife, who visited her husband this morning.

Mayor MacSwiney is said to be even more gravely ill than at last reports and a change for the worse may come at any time in the next 24 hours. Mrs. MacSwiney remained with her husband for three hours. She said he was conscious and recognized her, but was unable to speak. Mrs. MacSwiney was pale and bore evidence of the terrible strain.

LONGSHOREMEN AT QUEBEC RETURN TO WORK TODAY

Quebec, Aug. 30.—The Longshoremen who struck on Saturday last as a protest against the imprisonment of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, Ireland, went back to work this morning as usual.

OHIO IRISH SEND MESSAGE TO WIFE OF CORK OFFICIAL

Cleveland, O., Aug. 30.—A cablegram expressing sympathy with Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, who is on a hunger strike in London, was sent to his wife yesterday by a committee representing 10,000 members of the Friends of Irish Freedom from Cleveland and Lorain.

A purse was gathered at a picnic given by the organization for James Larkin, Irish labor leader, recently sentenced to a five-year term in Sing Sing on a charge of criminal syndicalism. The money will become part of a nation-wide fund in an effort to have Larkin's case retried.

AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND EDITORS START ON RETURN JOURNEY

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 30.—When the Imperial press party disembarked from the Victoria steamer last night in Vancouver a series of leave-taking, ensued between delegates who crossed the Atlantic to attend the second imperial press conference, and those who crossed the Pacific, and are taking ship for Australia and New Zealand.

William Davies, one of the Welsh delegates, is very ill in a Vancouver hospital.

BRITAIN TO ESTABLISH ARAB PARLIAMENT IN MESOPOTAMIA

London, Aug. 30.—According to the Daily Mail, it has been decided to establish an Arab Parliament in Mesopotamia, and also an Arab cabinet, with British advisers in charge of the administration. It is understood that approval will be given if the Arabs create a native prince as governor.

SOME OF LONDON'S YOUNG JACK TARS

NAVAL BRIGADE BOYS EMBARK ON ERIE CRUISE

To Be Given Fortnight's Instruction On Pinta — March To Ship.

With drums beating and bugles blowing as smart a looking set of young bluejackets as ever stepped entrained for Port Stanley on Saturday morning. Noon saw them aboard the Pinta, with sleeping quarters and lockers identified and kitbags stowed away, ready for their first meal on shipboard. At 8 o'clock in the evening they set sail, and by now they are tasting the joys of a life on the bounding billows. When they return in two weeks' time they will have had one of the most interesting experiences of their lives.

John M. Watt, chairman of the Navy League in London; Mr. Stewart, general superintendent for Ontario of the Boys' Naval Brigades; Mr. Beswick, Bugle Band Instructor A. W. Nanfan and Mr. Akiens of the London instructional staff accompanied the boys down to Port and saw them aboard ship. Mr. Beswick and Instructor Nanfan will accompany the boys on the cruise.

Trip to Port.

The Scriptural injunction "to make a joyful noise" was never more literally fulfilled than on the trip to Port. Every station was greeted by a spontaneous outburst of cheers, yells and gloriously-deafening row from the bugles and drums. St. Thomas was particularly favored, and the envy written deep on the faces of the many boys at the station would seem to indicate a prospective increase in the number of recruits for the Naval Brigades.

On arrival at Port the brigade formed up in marching order, and headed by the bugle band, proceeded with smartness and precision along the board walk and through the outskirts of the town to where the stately Pinta lay at anchor, gay with her many-colored signal flags spelling out a welcome to the Boys' Naval Brigade.

Here Mr. Watt formally handed over his charges to Captain Redfearn and Chief Instructor Rogers, and ceased to be careful and troubled over many things, to enjoy to the full the delight and joy of the boys in their new experience. Upon his departure for London a little later he voiced the good wishes of the Navy League of London to the boys for a healthy, happy time on their cruise. His last words to the captain indicated the practical side of the thing, too. "Sure, I'll look after the laundry."

Meal on Board.

"All ready for the first wave," sang out the ship's cook of the Pinta, who, as an ex-service man, could be trusted to know that "wave" was right when applied to a bunch of hungry boys "going over the top," which in this case was "down below."

Generous supplies of wholesome and well-cooked food convinced the lads that this important part of their cruise was to be highly satisfactory. After dinner they cleaned up, and then spent some time showing admiring friends and relatives about the ship with the most proprietarial air possible. You could see that they already thought of it as "our ship." When shore leave was piped and the boys rushed off to show their uniforms to the town, leaving the ship to visitors, who, escorted by the officers and instructors, examined details of arrangement and accommodation with greatest interest. The first-aid cabinet came in for especial notice. The ship's staff displayed the most painstaking care in giving information and answering queries and one cannot help thinking that the lessons to be gained in coastesy alone, "the way they have in the navy," will prove invaluable to the boys' training, apart entirely from the seamanship and technical training.

Captain Redfearn, in command of the Pinta, is a genial, hearty sailor, who embodies the best traditions of seamanship and who is sure to become the idol of the boys before their voyage is over. He is assisted in navigation by Mr. Davy as first officer. Chief Instructor Rogers has direct charge of the instruction of the boys, and with his assistant and the London instructors will give them daily practical lessons in ship's routine. The ship's chaplain, Mr. Baines, conducts daily prayers, with special services on Sunday.

The personnel of the Pinta is completed by Mr. Parkin, who looks after the auxiliary engines, one seaman and the cook. All of the personnel of the Pinto have seen war service, some of long standing, Inspector Rogers having served in the Khartoum campaign as well as in the recent war.

A Mystery Ship.

The Pinta was one of the mystery ships used off the Canadian coast during the war. Built before the war for the Gloucester fishing trade she had the lines of a fishing schooner. False sides masked a number of 6-pound guns, and if danger was encountered on her cruising among and about the fishing fleets, down went the sides and the guns came into play. The Pinta is 92 feet 6 inches in length, with a beam of 24 feet, 4 inches. Her inner cabin depth is 9 feet 2 inches. She is a two-masted schooner of the "fore and aft" type, and carries auxiliary engines.

Practical Seamanship.

The boys do all the work of the ship. They have had training of a theoretical type on land, and now they are to carry it into practical effect. At 6:30 a.m. their activities begin. They lash up and stow away their hammocks and make everything ship-shape above decks and below. They assist the cook in preparing and serving the meals and in cleaning up afterwards.

Once a week they holystone the decks. They learn to make sail, to steer the ship, to do everything pertaining to navigation. Their necessary recreation is not neglected, books and song sheets being provided and time given daily for relaxation and pleasure. Lifeboat drills are taken every day, as well as the ordinary boat drills, each boy knows exactly what to do in case of danger and is drilled until action becomes automatic. In case of a storm the lads are kept out of danger, the officers and crew doing the work of the ship.

The purpose of the training on the Pinta is to encourage boys to become apprentices to navigation, later officers in the Canadian or Imperial marine service, whether merchant or naval. Boys placed as apprentices go under a bond of $1,000, furnished by the Navy League. Their education is attended to during training and in every way they are prepared for commissions they are to hold some day. Three boys from London have already signified their wish to become apprentices, and it is expected that others will join up after the cruise.

The officers of the Pinta expressed the opinion that the Londoners were as fine a body of boys as they had ever seen, and it is felt that great credit is due their instructors here for their smart appearance and good training. Warrant Officer Nanfan, who trained the bugle band, is to be commended on their good showing.

HOWDEN HARDWARE COMPANY PICNICS

Such a Success That It Will Be Annual Affair, Resolution.

The first picnic of the H. D. Howden Hardware Company held at Springbank on Saturday proved such a success that the employees have resolved to make it an annual affair. Starting out at an early hour in the afternoon, the picnickers chose one of the prettiest spots in the park. Immediately on arrival a program of sports was run off. Great amusement was caused during the biscuit-eating contest when someone almost choked in an effort to capture the prize. The tug-of-war between the office staff and the warehouse men was also exciting. The tug was won by the warehouse men. "Chasing Chickens," a new race on picnic programs, was the liveliest event of all. A brown-speckled hen, a black and a white hen were let loose, and the person catching the chickens was lucky enough to keep them as rewards. The confused birds gave the picnickers a merry chase.

A long row of tables were arranged for supper and the ladies proved themselves good cooks. Everything good to eat was on the menu and justice was done to the eatables. After supper a baseball game was played between the office staff and the warehouse. The game was won by the warehouse men by a score of 10 to 18. Those winning in the events were:

Girls' race—Jean Burt, Olive Martin.
Small boys' race—O. Sinclair, M. Craig, F. Craig and W. Sinclair.
Girls, 14 years—J. Burt, T. Kaiser, F. Burt.
Boys, 14 years—R. Walsh, B. Ferguson, M. Craig.
Office girls—E. Bowie, M. Carrothers, E. McNaughton.
100-yard dash—C. Donaldson, H. Dickenson, J. Herring.
Chicken chasers' race—Miss McNaughton, H. Burt and Mrs. Devlin.
Fat man's race—D. Whitton, J. McNaughton.
Married ladies—Mrs. Prince, Mrs. Devlin.
Three-legged race—Mr. Herring and Mr. Howiem, Mr. Donaldson and Dickenson.
Boot and shoe race—H. Prince, F. Burt.
Elbepement race—M. Swallwell and Carrothers, Donaldson and Clement.
Biscuit eating contest—D. Davis, W. Logan.
Nail driving—Miss McNaughton, who drove 10 nails in 1½ seconds.
Wheelbarrow race—Mr. Dickinson and Mr. Davis.
Thread needle race—E. Bovce and M. Carrothers.

HYPOCRISY THING TO BE GUARDED AGAINST

Should Love Righteousness For Its Sake, Not Because of Fear.

With a strong plea that the members of his audience should love righteousness for righteousness' sake, and that they should hate iniquity, Rev. J. T. C. Morris resumed his ministry in the Askin Street Methodist Church on Sunday evening after a five-week holiday spent in the Canadian West.

Mr. Morris said that although contrary to the belief of many, God showed no partiality in his dealings with mankind. There was, nevertheless, an election and rejection. God was continually seeking throughout the world for men with character and the love of virtue in their lives.

There were two quantities in the character loved by God, continued the speaker; the love of righteousness that knew no ulterior purpose, and the hatred of iniquity. We know that Christ hated iniquity because of the flawless life he lived while on earth, and we know that God hated wickedness because of the suffering of his Son on Calvary.

Hypocrisy was the one thing that must be guarded against, warned Mr. Morris. There were many, he asserted, who proclaimed to the world that they hated iniquity because they sought to gain the good opinion of men. There were those who claimed they loved righteousness because they feared the wrath to come. Men must be pure because they love purity, because they could not hide their hearts from God.

PENMAN EMPLOYEES ATTEND FIRST PICNIC

Many Errors Add To Excitement of Girls' Baseball Game.

More than 500 attended the first annual picnic of Penman's, Limited, at Port Stanley on Saturday. The employees decided but a week before to hold a picnic, and if it was successful the outing would be continued annually. The officials were satisfied at the conclusion of the picnic that it was very much so, considering the short time in which arrangements had to be made. Probably the most exciting feature of the sports held on Invererie Hieghts was the ball game between the girls of the hosiery and underwear departments.

The errors could not be kept track of, and only with great difficulty could the scorer keep track of the runs. According to the girls, the umpire will probably be a patient in a hospital when they get together to make a settlement for the way in which he handed down his decisions. The score was 19 to 18 in favor of the underwear department team. After the sport program refreshments were served to the picnickers on the heights.

The results in the sport events were:
100-yard dash for girls—Olive Thomas, E. Ford.
100-yard dash for men—Hoyt Remick, Harold Richmond.
Soda biscuit contest—Ethel Leath, D. Bruce.
50 yards wheelbarrow race—William Scott and Bella Dye, Harold Richmond and Edna Tomlinson.
50-yard sack race for girls—Olive Thomas, Tilley Clayton.
Tug-of-war for men (hosiery vs. underwear)—Won by underwear department.
Tug-of-war for girls (hosiery vs. underwear)—Won by hosiery department.
75 yards, married ladies—Mrs. M. Welch, Mrs. H. Hinsliffe.
Clothespin contest, boys and girls—Jack Speirs and Ada Cushman, Charles Creighton and Hattie Livermore.
Three-legged race for girls—Olive Thomas and E. Gorrard, Ada Cushman and Nora Hicks.
50-yard sack race—Harold Richmond, H. Remick.
50 yards wheelbarrow race—Charles Creighton and Harold Richmond, Jack Spiers and Earl Snelling.
Child's race—Myrtle Gladstone.
F. B. Hall was the official scorer, William Baker and Mrs. Hager were in charge of refreshments. K. E. Robertson acted as chairman. A. Widdop was chairman of the sports committee.

CANADIAN OIL CO.

The employees of the local branch of the Canadian Oil Company, Ltd., held their annual outing at the lakeside on Saturday, about 100 attending the event. A sport program was run off and a baseball game was staged between the outside and the inside men. The inside men were not on the inside of the game, because they lost by a score of 18 to 2.

The results of the sports were:
Single girls' race—Miss M. Brooks, Miss E. Hessell.
Single men's race—H. Underwood, A. D. McWilliams.
Three-legged race—Miss Broos and A. McWilliams, Miss McRae and James Cronin.
Girls under 12 — Margaret Curtis, Lottie McIntosh.
Married ladies' race—Mrs. John McIntosh, Mrs. A. C. Morris.
Married men's race—W. Hanstin, R. H. Hicks.
Wheelbarrow race—Neil Coglier and Miss Hessel, A. G. Austin and Mrs. Morris.

WOMEN IN BUSINESS

Woman's power in America is well illustrated by the thousands of women who entered almost every line of business to replace men who were drafted during the war. Health proved their strongest asset. Many women, however, developed weak, nervous conditions and could not stand the strain of a business life. Such women should remember there is one tried and true remedy in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for forty-five years has been restoring health and strength to the women of America.

REMEMBER MANAGER

The London and Port Stanley Tea House on Invererie Heights, Port Stanley, was the scene of an interesting event on Saturday, when the employees gathered and made a presentation to T. H. Haskett, manager of the London and Port Stanley Railway parks with a pair of gold cuff links, beautifully engraved.

F. W. Monnell, manager of the tea house, made the presentation, and said a few words of appreciation on behalf of the employees.

Mr. Haskett made a suitable reply and thanked the employees for their remembrance of him at the closing of the 1920 season.

CHRIST IS OF GREAT VALUE IN BUSINESS

"We Are Only Bankrupts in His Sight," Says Brantford Preacher.

Rev. C. L. Bilkey of Brantford, speaking at St. James' Anglican Church, South London, yesterday evening in the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. L. Armitage, who is on his holidays, chose as his text the 66th verse of the 26th chapter of the gospel of St. Matthew, "What Think Ye of Christ?" In his opening remarks he conveyed to the large audience that this is the most searching question ever asked.

"We can only answer this when we are old enough to tell right from wrong," said Rev. Bilkey. "When we are at this stage of life we can answer any question if we have faith in God and trust in him. It is the Christian that makes the profession not the profession that makes the Christian. God sent his only son into the world to set an example and this he did to the utmost ability.

"Christ was a man. Some people think he was only a mere man. If he had not been a man he would not have paid the sacrifice in order that we might live. He was a perfect man and is of great value to you and me, both in our business life and in our recreation hours. We must take advantage of this and make the best of it. He was obedient all the time right unto death and always will be.

"What think ye of Christ as your righteousness? We are only bankrupts in his sight, but we can make ourselves real Christians if we follow out his works and have faith in him. Let us all come to the man who kept his promises and will keep them.

"Does Christ dwell within you? This is the most vital question of all. We cannot help but succeed and have everlasting life if he dwells within us.

VISCOUNT CAVE AND HENRY FORD HERE

Famous British Guest Was On His Way To Ottawa.

London was visited by two famous personages on Sunday when Henry Ford, the motor car manufacturer of Detroit, and Viscount Cave, a former member of the British cabinet, passed through this city while en route eastward. Lord Cave passed through this city over the C. P. R. in his private car, the "Metapedia," at 5 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Ford, accompanied by Gordon MacGregor, general manager of the Canadian Ford Motor Car Company, spent some minutes here while motoring to the Toronto Exhibition.

Viscount Cave, who has been visiting in the Canadian west, is a well-known British jurist. He was en route to Ottawa, where he is to address the annual meeting of the Canadian Bar Association. Lord Cave, while a member of the British Government, acted in the capacity of home secretary, and for some time was the solicitor-general.

During the ten minutes he spent in this city he was visited by Walter H. Dunston of Winona, Minn., who is an old friend. Mr. Dunston is visiting his uncle, Walter Dunston, 246 York street.

Henry Ford arrived in this city shortly before noon. Accompanied by several officials of the Ford motor plant in this city, he lunched in the Tecumseh House. Mr. Ford will be the guest of the directors of the Toronto Exhibition, as today is automobile day in the National Exhibition.

IF TRIBUNAL PICTURED GOOD WOULD RESULT

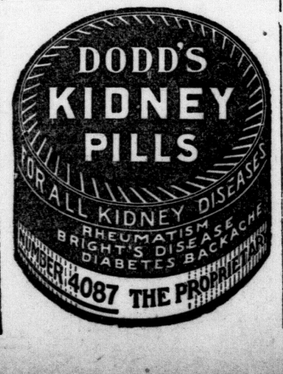

"Everyone does not realize that we are just stewards here on earth to look after that which God has given us. So many use what He has given them for pleasure or business," said Rev. Dean Tucker in his sermon at St. L. N. Paul's Cathedral on Sunday.

"What God has given us we should use for the extension of His kingdom generally. We came into this world with nothing, and we shall take nothing out, and it is only natural to think that we shall have to appear before a tribunal of some sort and account for our work here on earth. It would do a great deal of good if people would picture more often the tribunal above and so make their life here on earth one that will be worth accounting when they pass away," the speaker said.

Dean Tucker advocated that in these times of pleasure, people do more things for the glory of God than their own glorification.

BELIEF OF SUPERIORITY CAUSE OF WAR UNREST

The belief that one is better than the other fellow, that one nation is better than the other was claimed by Attorney Joseph Wearing, B.A., LL.B., of Peterboro, in his sermon at Adelaide Street Baptist Church on Sunday morning, the subject being "What's Wrong with the World?" to be the cause of social unrest, strikes and wars. "There is a lack of brotherly love in the world. People must stand on more common ground before strikes and wars are eliminated. The people of one nation believe that their nation is superior to any other and to prove that theory they go to war. It is practically the same between individual persons."

ANNUAL OUTING OF NASSAU ORANGE LODGE

Fine Program of Sports Included a Fine Baseball Game.

The third annual picnic of the members of Nassau L. O. L. was held at Springbank on Saturday afternoon, when about 200 were present. This is the second time the picnickers made their way to Springbank, rain preventing any sports being run off on the previous Saturday. On arrival at the park a baseball game was played, captained by Worshipful Master W. C. Cross and Deputy Master W. E. Savill. The team captained by Mr. Cross won the game by a score of 15 to 8. A program of races was run off following the ball game. Tea was served by members of the Edith Cavell L. O. B. A. The Hackett L. O. B. rendered music during the tea hour. The race results were as follows:

RETURNS NEXT SUNDAY

Pastor of Dundas Centre Church Will Resume His Charge.

George A. Stanley of Lucan, who has been supplying the pulpit at Dundas Centre Methodist Church for the month of August, preached his farewell sermon last evening. Mr. Stanley remarked that it gave him great pleasure to occupy this pulpit, though, he said, as a local preacher for the last 41 years, he had always avoided a city charge.

The quartet of the church, composed of Miss Anna Cochrill, Mrs. J. W. Cahill, Charles Jolley and Walter Chalcraft, has had charge of the musical portion of the services, while Mr. Starling presided at the organ.

Rev. W. E. Pescott, the pastor, will have charge next Sunday at both services, while the choir and organist, Mr. Parnell Morris, will resume their work. The Sunday school, which has been meeting on Sunday mornings, will hold their session in the afternoon, with the full orchestra in attendance.

FOREST CITY PIGEONS IN RACE FROM WINDSOR

The Forest City Racing Pigeon Club held their fourth race of the series from Windsor, a distance of 110 miles, but owing to unsettled weather the birds were hard put to it to make home, only three birds arriving in the city before the close of the race. Henry made a splendid performance by winning two straights and getting in the lead for the cup, which is sifted down to Henry and Westman, with the final race of the season from Britton, Mich., a distance of 156 miles. Another feature of Henry's win is that the bird winning the race has been the one bird to hold him in the lead, without any assistance from his loft-mates. The birds were slow in traveling. Results and georgette, with picture hat and corsage. George A. Henry supported the groom. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served at the home of the groom's brother, G. A. Henry, Thornton avenue. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid and amethyst necklace, and to the groomsman engraved cuff links. Mr. and Mrs. Henry left on a boat trip to Montreal and points east, and on their return will reside at 345 Maitland street as follows: Henry, 1, velocity 553; Westman, 515 and 495.

No reports from any other members.

PENSIONS BOARD TO START OCTOBER 1

Work of Organization Is Being Proceeded With Rapidly.

Major T. J. Murphy, who has just returned from the the second session of the Ontario mothers' pension commission, reports that satisfactory progress is being made in organization, and everything should be ready for business by October 1, the date the act goes into force.

At present the commission has divided the province into nineteen districts, this being merely a tentative arrangement, subject to increase or reduction in number.

For some little time the commission will be engaged in reading applications for investigators to be appointed under the conditions previously stated in these columns. These investigators will be appointed on probation, and the appointments made permanent if they are found capable and satisfactory.

The members of the commission are five in number, three men and two women. Rev. Peter Bryce of Toronto is chairman; Mrs. Adam Shortt of Ottawa, vice-chairman, and the others members are Major Murphy of London, Mr. Reynolds of Hamilton, and Mrs. Singer of Toronto, who represents labor.

LOCAL NEWS

START DRILLING. — Drilling for water on Carling Heights was begun today, and if successful, wells will be sunk to augment London's supply of drinking water. The drilling apparatus was moved from the Coves last week and set up on the heights, where it is now in operation.

WRIT FOR $408.—A writ has been issued in the county court by McKillop & Douglass for their client, Thomas L. Partridge of this city, against the Cleveland and Erieau Steamship Company and J. H. Clark, for the sum of $408.58, balance due for work done on the steamer Theodore Roosevelt, and for material supplied.

GOING TO INGERSOLL.—Staff Capt. Ritchie of the local command of the Salvation Army, left this afternoon for Ingersoll, where he will hold a special counsel with the young people of the town this evening. Adjutant Martin of the Salvation Army will leave for Ingersoll in a few days to look over plans for new quarters for the officers in charge of the command.

DAIRYMEN FINED.—Heavy fines have recently been imposed on milk producers supplying deteriorated milk to cheese factories in Western Ontario. Earl Finch and L. C. Garnham, selling to Fairgrounds cheese factory, each paid $50 and costs; W. M. Brown of Lakeview factory paid $60 and costs, and Samuel Schmidt of Molesworth-worth was fined $20 and costs.

BUYS PROPERTY. — The George White property on King street, formerly the site of the old White engine works, has been purchased by a Moose Jaw man named Griffiths. For some time the land was held by a western farmers' syndicate, and the building is at present occupied by tenants holding a two-year lease. So far as is known locally, no particular use of the buildings for other purposes is contemplated in the near future. The premises, assessed at $31,000, sold for $50,000.

HOME ON FURLOUGH.—Dr. Margaret McKellar, the medical missionary, who has served in India for 30 years, is the guest of Mrs. Donald McLean. Dr. McKellar has many friends here, having spent several of her furloughs here. She will give an address in St. Andrew's Hall on Wednesday evening regarding her work in India. Dr. McKellar has the distinction of being decorated by the King recently for wonderful service performed in India during the war.

INDUCTION THURSDAY.—The induction ceremony of Rev. M. F. Cree, formerly of Alliston, into the Hamilton Road Presbyterian Church will be held on Thursday evening. Rev. W. J. Knox, moderator of the presbytery, will preside. Rev. C. A. Malcolm of Cowal will preach the sermon and conduct divine service. Rev. James McKay interim moderator of sessions, will narrate the steps taken to fill the vacant charge. Rev. T. A. Symington will address the new minister and Rev. Dr. D. L. McCrae, a former minister of the church, will induct Rev. M. F. Cree into the charge.

ADJT. SMITH HERE—Adjutant A. J. Smith, in command of No. 1 Corps of the Ottawa division of the Salvation Army, is in the city on his return to Ottawa, where he will resume his office after a few weeks' vacation. Prior to going to Ottawa Adjutant Smith was corps officer at Kingston, and did splendid work during the war for the soldiers at Barryfield, as chaplain of the camp. He also worked among the convicts at the penitentiary. His work in connection with the convicts was to help them find work after this release. Aijutant Smith was the founder of the first women's band in the Dominion, consisting of fifty women.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

DEATH OF JOHN WARD.

John Ward, aged 77 years, died on Saturday at his residence, 78 Smith street. He is survived by his widow, and three sons, John of Detroit, W. H. of Michigan, and Frederick of this city. The funeral was held this afternoon from his residence to Woodland Cemetery.

DANIEL MATCHETT DIES.

Daniel Milton Matchett died in St. Joseph's Hospital on Saturday night following a lingering illness. He was 34 years of age, and prior to his illness was an employee of the Murray Shoe Company. He is survived by his wife. Interment was made this afternoon in Woodland Cemetery.

IN LONDON 40 YEARS.

The death occurred on Saturday afternoon at the family residence, 324 Simcoe street, of Margaret, dearly beloved wife of John C. Brady of customs house staff. She had been a resident of London for over 40 years, and an active member of Wellington Street Church, during that period. She is survived by her husband, J. C. Brady, and three sons, Oliver C., of the Empire Brass Company; Marshall E., city engineer's Cowan & Co. The funeral was held this afternoon to Woodland Cemetery. Rev. G. W. Young conducted the services. The pallbearers were John Wallace, John Watson, H. Flemming, J. Brooks, R. Booth and Mr. McBurney.

BURIAL IN BIDDULPH.

The funeral of Mrs. Boyce took place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Dickey, Clandeboye, to St. James' Cemetery, Biddulph. The funeral service was held in Clandeboye Methodist Church, of which Mrs. Boyce has been a member for many years.

SETTLEMENT BOARD MAY BE CONTINUED

Chamber of Commerce Is Taking the Matter Up At Ottawa.

The secretary of the local branch of the G. W. V. A. received word from the London branch of the Chamber of Commerce that it is going to take up with the Government the question of having a local branch of the soldiers' settlement board continue its work in the city.

Some time ago the local settlement board received word from its headquarters at Toronto that it would after September 1 close its doors, and the work of the London soldiers would be handled by them. The local G. W. V. A. took the matter upand sent word to their headquarters asking them to reconsider their plans and let the local branch continue its work. Word has not yet been received by the secretary ,and he is going to write both to the Provincial and the Dominion commands of the G. W. V. A. asking them to approach Premier Sir Arthur Meighen. The Chamber of Commerce is making representations to the Government against closing the office.

NO RACE SUICIDE IN LONDON, COMMISSIONERS' FIGURES SHOW

Interesting Details Regarding London's Growth in Report of Assessment Department—Selling Value of Property Is No Guide To Equity Under New Conditions.

That there is no race suicide in London is shown by figures presented to the council by Assessment Commissioner Grant who has just completed his year's work. Out of London's population of 59,281 there are 8,383 children between the ages of 5 and 16. There are 10,849 between the ages of 5 and 21.

Ward 3 is the big family district with 2,999 children from 5 to 16 and 3,742 between the ages of 5 and 21. Ward 4 is a close second with figures of 2,539 and 3,301. Ward 1 is next with 1,903 and 2522, and Ward 2 has 942 and 1,234.

No Guide to Value.

The assessment commissioner makes some decidedly interesting comments regarding property values, in part, as follows:

"Owing to the increased value of property an effort had to be made for a complete revision of the assessment, which could not have been done but for the placing of the assessors on the ground some months before the active work commenced, and I would recommend that this system be continued. Equity of taxation is quite a problem, and, I suppose, always will be. The selling value is no guide to equity; it is but an assurance that the property has increased in value. We find from the registry office returns that properties from $2,000 to $8,000 are selling at large margins over their assessed value. Vacant land is held at a good figure, but not many sales are recorded.

A Steady Growth.

"The increase in population over last year is 181. This does not appear to be a very large increase, but taking into consideration that there was 1,165 of a population shown at Wolseley Barracks last year, against 350 for the present year, as well as with persons connected with military work residing in other parts of the city. With the gain of 181, I would consider the increase in resident citizens to be approximately 2,000."

Other details of the report are as follows:

School Figures.

The total number of children whose names, ages, name of parents or guardians, R. C. S. S., or public school attenders, is 3,860. The above particulars have to be written by the assessors as a guide for the attendance officer. The above statistics are quite troublesome to the valuators, and, in addition, they will be required next year to enter upon the roll the name of every person who is of the full age of 21 years, a British subject, and who has been a resident of Ontario for a period of nine months prior to the date fixed for the assessor to begin to make up his roll, and who is a resident of the municipality, and qualified in other respects, as the assessor believes, to vote at elections to the assembly.

Business Figures.

The assessment of the business centre north of Horton street south of Fullarton street east of the river and west of Wellington street gives: Real estate, $11,466,228; business assessment, $3,797,365, and income assessment of $1,717,425. This is an increase over last year of $4,712,830, composed of real estate, $3,163,340; business, $1,188,078, and income, $361,412. The erection of new buildings is a large factor of this increase viz.: McClary Manufacturing Company Limited; the Holeproof Hosiery Company, Loew's and Allen's theatres, Greene-Swift Company, the Bell Telephone Company, and many other additions.

The increase in percentage in the business centre on real estate only (new buildings included) figures 27½ per cent, and the city, exclusive of the business centre on real estate only (new buildings included) figures 17¼ per cent, and the increase in percentage on the total assessment over last year (including real estate business and income figures), say, 23 per cent.

FINED FOR THROWING WATER OVER BOY

Row Over a Right-of-Way Again Results in Police Court Case.

H. W. Shoebottom, 358 Ridout street, appeared in police court today on a charge of assault on Walter Simpson of 360 Ridout street, and was fined $5 and costs. He was ordered to keep the peace, and deposit $100 with the police court clerk as an assurance that he would.

The charge was laid by the young man's mother, Mrs. Maggie Simpson, who claimed that they must use Mr. Shoebottom's yard so as to gain entrance to the street. While Walter Simpson was so doing, it was alleged that defendant threw two or three pails of water on him and used abusive language.

Mr. Shoebottom has appeared in the police court previously to answer a similar charge laid by the same complainant. The right of way through his yard has been a source of inconvenience, and they allege that he uses abusive language and attempts to block their way. When Mr. Shoebottom appeared before Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon on a serious charge the court held that the Simpson family had the right to travel through Mr. Shoebottom's yard on the way to the street.

Mrs. Maggie Simpson, in the witness box, swore that Mr. Shoebottom frequently used abusive language. But to keep the peace she laid no complaint until he assaulted her son.

Mr. Shoebottom informed The Advertiser that he intends taking legal action and will place his case in the hands of a lawyer.

SAYS SHORT WEIGHT WAS ACCIDENTAL

Magistrate Warns Local Coal Dealer To Be More Careful.

Joseph A. Shannon, of Finney & Shannon, coal dealers, 599 Adelaide street, appeared in police court today to answer a charge of delivering coal of short weight. The charge was laid by Inspector J. W. McCallum. The coal was consigned to a local hotel, and when weighed by the inspector was found to be 40 pounds short on the ton.

Mr. Shannon explained that it was not done intentionally, and that an accident which he regretted occurred.

"Five dollars and costs, and you had better be more careful in the future. Coal is high enough without getting short weight," stated Acting Magistrate P. H. Bartlett.

HOSPITAL SUPPLIES ARE NOT ANY HIGHER

Contracts For the Year's Supplies Are Awarded by Trustees.

Tenders for Victoria Hospital supplies, received at a special meeting of the hospital trust, Saturday afternoon, averaged up to about the same as last year, indications being that so far as the hospital is concerned prices will not go any higher.

The same firms, practically without exception, were the lowest and the successful tenderers for the various classes of supplies again this year, as follows: Willis & Co., groceries; Cairncross & Lawrence, drugs; Parnell-Dean Company, bread; London Pure Milk Company, milk; James Smith, meat, and F. S. Onn, fish.

OFF THE RAILS

EXHIBITION SPECIAL.

The first G. T. R. Toronto Exhibition special left London at 10:45 this morning. It was due to arrive in Toronto at 1:48 p.m., after stopping at all intervening stations. The train did not run into Hamilton. There was not a very big crowd when the train left London.

WILL RUSH CONSTRUCTION.

All workmen employed by the G. T. R. during the summer on the London, Huron and Bruce were moved to the lines east of the city this morning to facilitate the construction work which is being carried on there.

ON HIS HOLIDAYS.

Barney Parsons, acting night station agent on the G. T. R., left on a two-weeks' holiday this morning.

LABOR DAY SPECIALS.

Excepting on Labor Day, no special trains will be operated by the C. P. R. to the Toronto Exhibition. On September 6, a special will leave this city at 6 a.m., arriving in Toronto at 9:55 a.m. It will stop at all stations. A special train will leave Toronto at 6:20 for London, while another will leave Parkdale at 10:45 p.m., making all stops.

NO WORK ON SUNDAY.

As the result of the agreement made between the G. T. R. and the several employees' organizations concerning working conditions a few months ago, the clerks employed in the East End yard office were not required to work on Sunday this week for the first time in the history of the road. In the past the five clerks worked seven days a week, but now everyone has been given a six-day week.

HAS HIS OWN TROUBLES.

As an example of what is required to make a first-rate station agent, the following is related: No. 117, the noon G. T. R. train for Detroit, was just pulling out when a man jumped from one of the cars and ran, frantically waving his arms to where John Crooks the station agent, was standing.

"What did they do with those two cars they cut from this train?" he yelled.

"They're probably half way to Sarnia by now. What is the matter?" Mr. Crooks said soothingly.

"My grip," he gasped, "was in one of those cars, and it is gone!"

"Well, we will try to find it for you. Where do you want it sent," asked the agent as the man started to retreat toward the moving train.

"To Windsor."

"Any name?" yelled Mr. Crooks.

"It has a broken handle."

"Yes, yes, but the name."

But the man had just swung aboard the last coach.

"Oh, hell," breathed Mr. Crooks in rather an audible breath.

MEANS LARGE SUM.

While no official communication has been received from the headquarters of the G. T. R., it has been announced by the officials of the Canadian Brotherhood of Shop Trades and Carmen that an agreement has been reached with the Canadian Railway Association whereby the scale of wages awarded in the United States will go into effect in the Canadian workshops. This agreement will mean an increase of 13 cents an hour for the majority of the shopmen and a 5-cent increase for car cleaners.

As the new scale is to be retroactive to May 1 the award will mean a considerable amount in back pay for the men here. Although the agreement was signed on August 23 it will not be in effect for another month at least it is expected, as much work must be done by the accounting department before the new payrolls can be arranged.

The agreement was the first to be signed with Canadian Railway Association. According to the officials of the union, the association was loath to grant any increase before an increase in freight rates could be announced. It is expected that other agreements will be signed in the near future.

HAD LEG FRACTURED.

Jerry Colley, an employee of the C. P. R. roundhouse, residing at 197 Wellington street, suffered a compound fracture of his leg early this afternoon when a drivewheel of a locomotive fell upon it. Mr. Colley was helping to raise the wheel into place when one of the supports gave way. He was removed to Victoria Hospital after receiving medical attention.

THREE NEW LOCOMOTIVES.

Three new locomotives, Nos. 647, 614 and 1089, were received by the C. P. R. in this city today for use in the local division.

SINGER DIES SUDDENLY

Complications which followed a severe attack of the flu last winter resulted in the unexpected death at Crystal Beach on Saturday of Miss Vera Allister, a former well-known London singer. She was in her 22nd year and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Allister, now of Buffalo, formerly of London. Miss Allister had been at Crystal Beach for some weeks and was thought to be improving, until Saturday, when heart weakness developed, and she died quite suddenly. Besides her parents she is survived by one brother, Herbert, of Buffalo. Miss Allister had sung on many occasions in London churches, and was regarded as a singer of much promise. The remains are being brought to London, and the funeral, which will be private, will be held on Tuesday afternoon from the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Charles White, of 69 Adelaide street. Rev. W. R. McIntosh of King Street Presbyterian Church will conduct the services.

LABELED "LEMONADE" BUT WAS ALCOHOL

John Donohue Is Sent Down For Three Months.

John Donohue again appeared in police court today on a charge of being intoxicated on a public street, but had a more serious charge laid against him than usual. When he was arrested by P. C. McCrae and placed in the patrol, he was found to have in his possession a bottle labelled lemonade, but which contained alcohol. Mr. Donohue will spend the next three months as a guest of Governor Carter, not having the $200 required to give him his freedom.

One motorist was fined $2 and costs for breaking one of the city's bylaws. Three drunks were assessed the usual ten and costs.

ROTARIANS TO HELP CATTLE EXHIBITORS

Will Attend the Fair in a Body On Wednesday.

London Rotarians will attend the Western Fair in force on Wednesday of fair week. They will lunch on the grounds and a 1 o'clock will assist in leading the prize cattle around the ring in front of the grandstand. Following an address by Lieut.-Col. Robert McEwen of Byron at the meeting of the Rotary Club at he Tecumseh House today, it was explained by Frank Jewell and A. M. Hunt that exhibitors of cattle who win as many as twenty prizes only bring two or three attendants to the fair with them, and can only lead into the ring two or three animals, unless additional assistance is provided them. The Rotarians decided unanimously that all the prize cattle will be paraded before the grand stand this year at 1 o'clock on Wednesday.

President James Gray and other local speakers welcomed the delegates to the Ontario Association of Architects' convention who were the guests of the Rotary Club, and Herbert E. Moore of Toronto replied.

C. H. Acton Bond spoke on the boys' work that the Toronto Club is doing, and also on the public service rendered by the architect. There is a wonderful future for Canadian architecture, he declared. Canada is a democratic country, and Grecian architecture flourished most when Grecian democracy was at its height.

CEMENT SHORTAGE HOLDS UP PAVING

London's paving program for the rest of the year will be seriously handicapped by a shortage of cement, according to City Engineer H. A. Brazier. The shortage has been acute during July and August, due according to the manufacturers to labor difficulties and a scarcity of coal. A clause in the city tender allows the municipality to purchase cement elsewhere, but as all contractors obtain their supplies from the one Canadian firm there is none available.

The city uses about one car of cement per day on construction work and hence no advance supply to any great extent has been accumulated. While the plans of the city engineer were made this year to lay all pavements possible, there was no definite program. Bylaws have been passed for such work to keep the department busy for two years.

CITY PLAYGROUNDS TO CLOSE SATURDAY

Big General Field Day Is Planned For September 18.

City playgrounds will be closed here for the year on Saturday, September 18 in a fitting manner by a gala field day according to present plans. On this date children from all three playgrounds who have proved their proficiency in athletic events will compete for the city championship in various branches of sport. Points will be awarded to the districts represented, which will also compete for the city championship.

It has not as yet been decided where the tournament will be staged, but Queen's Park is favored. The sports will be under the supervision of David Allan, director of playgrounds, and the supervisors under his jurisdiction. The public will be invited to attend the tournament which will be in progress all afternoon, with the idea of demonstrating to London parents the good work accomplished in local playgrounds during the summer months.

COUNTY BUREAU OF AGRICULTURE PLANNED

A special committee of the county council met here Saturday afternoon in consultation with Agricultural Representative R. A. Finn to discuss the advisability of establishing a bureau of agriculture for the county. The proposed bureau would consist of one representative from each township in the county to act in co-operation with Representative Finn, and the special committee recommended the formation of same, which will be dealt with in the near future.

INJURED IN MOTOR SPILL.

Winnipeg, Aug. 30.—H. R. Hawkey and his mechanic, Hugh Logan, were severely injured in a spill at the Ukrainian Red Cross sports Saturday afternoon, when their car turned two somersaults.

ARRANGING FOR SOCIAL SURVEY

Director For the Work Will Be Chosen Shortly.

Rev. T. D. McCullough will leave early this week for Toronto, where he will confer with the executive of the Ontario Social Service Council regarding the program of work for the coming year, and arrange matters for the social survey to be made in this city.

After Mr. McCullough's return from Toronto a meeting will be called of the committee which was instructed to draw up plans for the survey. Mr. McCullough says that in all probability the survey will be begun about the second week in September. When he is in Toronto it is possible that he will be in touch with the person who is to direct the survey. Mr. McCullough does not yet know whether it will be a man or woman. The committee has no particular preference, so long as the person is experienced in social survey work.

At various meetings of the Social Service Council held before the summer holidays, reports were given of insanitary conditions, poor housing, etc., particularly amongst the foreign element. This will all be eradicated when the survey is held.

ONTARIO ARCHITECTS

and industrial concerns should co-operate in whatever ways possible.

A very favorable treasurer's report was presented by Gordon M. West of Toronto, who suggested ways and means for further increasing the associations. The report of the registrar, J. P. Hynes, the chairman of the board of admission, Andrew Sharp, showed that since 1911, when the association had only 104 members, its membership has increased to 150 at the present time.

R. K. Shepard reported for the editing and publishing committee, and Joseph Banigan, described the results of an advertising and publicity campaign, which the association had conducted. The Manitoba Association, he said, favored united action in a Dominion-wide campaign.

Canada For Canadians.

Discussing the report, President Moore declared: "Our country should be built by Canadians; if not, we are not going to have any Canadian characters." C. H. Acton Bond and C. P. Meredith of Toronto moved the adoption of the report.

J. P. Hynes and J. M. Watt moved that non-members present be invited to take part in the discussion, upon which W. D. Cromarty of Ottawa introduced the question of war memorials. This matter will be discussed again, and Mr. Cromarty will himself address a public meeting, to which all citizens are invited in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium Tuesday evening.

C. H. Acton Bond and C. E. Langley spoke in connection with the Canadian National Exhibition, and J. P. Hynes reported on the work of the Toronto Industrial Council of the building trade.

Instead of tying up work in the busy season, builders, contractors and trades unions commence negotiating September 15 on the next season's wage scale. If they cannot decide by November 15, the industrial council fixes the scales, and announces its decision before the end of the old year. There is then plenty of time for builders to figure in the increased cost of labor on the new year's contracts.

G. W. V. A. TO ASSIST CRIPPLED VETERAN

John Shaw and His Wife Are in Need of Food.

John Shaw, residing at 428 Clarence street, a veteran of the battle of Balaclova, who some time ago applied to the local branch of the G. W. V. A. for aid, again came to the local headquarters today and informed the secretary that he needs more money for food for himself and wife. Mr. Shaw is a cripple as a result of his services and is unable to work. His wife is also a cripple.

J. W. Cunliffe, secretary of the G. W. V. A., is going to ask the members of the association to start a contribution for him and he can arrange will try to have a benefit soccer game played this week. If this is not carried out, it is thought that a band concert will be given in Queen's Park next Sunday evening and the proceeds go in aid of the Balaclava veteran.

LONDONER, IN FEAR OF MONTREAL DIPS, LETS POLICE KEEP MONEY

Restaurant Keeper From This City Was Taking No Chances.

Montreal, Aug. 30.—A man who said he was on his way to Egypt called at detective headquarters here Saturday night and left money and checks to the value of $1,900 with Sergeant of Detectives Lamont for safekeeping.

He explained he was a stranger to the city and he had heard so much about pickpockets, highway robbers and thieves in Montreal that he did not want to take any chances.

He said he was a restaurant-keeper from London, Ont.

NO ONE CLAIMED BOTTLE OF WHISKEY

Quartet Arrested in Hyman Street House for Being Disorderly.

For being disorderly by swearing and using abusive language in a house at 172 Hyman St. James Park, Charles Broughton, Frank Cahill and Hugh Lawrence appeared before acting magistrate P. H. Bartlett in the police court Saturday. All except Charles Broughton were assessed $5 and costs. Mr. Broughton, told the magistrate that he had always been respectable and had never used profane language. The other prisoners corroborated his statement by saying that they had never heard him use profane language during his three nights stay at the house. Mr. Broughton assured the magistrate that he would get out of town immediately. "You are discharged, but you had better be careful in what company you get into in the future." One full bottle of whiskey taken in the raid was not claimed. Residents in the neighborhood where the raid took place have made many complaints regarding the house. P. C. William McCullough and P. C. Middaugh made the arrests.

James Howe, charged with being drunk with Watkins and with damaging the water pipes in the police cell was fined $20 and costs witth the option of 30 days in jail. The charge of being disorderly was later withdrawn and he was assessed $15 to cover the damage to the water pipes. He explained that he was shaking the water pipes to make a noise, because he wanted a drink when they broke.

LAISSEZ-FAIRE IN RUSSIA.

Premier Lloyd George's policy of letting Bolshevik Russia alone should be a good one in various ways. The civilized world is sick of making war and wants to get down to making money. Give us peace in our time, is the general cry.

Bolshevism may be a bad enough government for Russia, but it could hardly be quite as dangerous to the rest of the world as the old Czarist regime used to be. Like the Turks in the Middle Ages, Czarist Russia hung over Britain as a constant and gloomy menace. With a Bolshevist Government at Moscow, Russia would probably be so divided against itself that the rest of the world would be comparatively safe from Muscovite aggression at any rate.

It is interesting to analyze the Pan-German mind in the presence of the Russian rout in Poland. Chagrined doubtless at the triumph of French aims, the German autocratists must nevertheless console themselves with the thought that an overthrow of Bolshevism and the setting-up of a Wrangel or some other Russian Junker may make naturally for a rapprochement between the Junkers of Prussia and Russia. German military specialists are in fact reported as already starting the cry that "the coming Russia" and Germany must be friends and economic allies and later military allies. Birds of a feather flock together and it is hard to conceive of a Bolshevist Russia acting long hand in hand with Prussian reactionism.

All things taken together, then, Lloyd George is playing safe in leaving Russia to itself. If Russia wants Bolshevism, right or wrong, she will be less a peril being let alone. If, through a more peaceful evolution rather than by military violence, the despotism of Lenin and Trotzky falls to pieces, some moderate constitutional system may take shape that will bring Russia at last into the sisterhood of true democracy and the League of Nations that is bent on ending war.

HOUSELESS MARRIAGE.

The Manchester Guardian writes on the subject of "The Houseless Marriage." Shortage of houses causes crowds of English couples giving up all idea of an individual residence to ensconce themselves with parents or lump in with other families. Love mocks at even landlords.

We shall soon be hearing of attics, cellars, offices being made into refuges for the newlyweds. Mr. Chesterton wrote a lively story of a "flying inn," devised after the establishment of total prohibition, and we see that liquor may still be found outside the once licensed houses. So love and marriage also, and more legally, may be enjoyed on the wing. Let the bride abate her traditional hankering for a home, carpets, tablecloths, pretty dishes, "fly-bitten tapestries," as Falstaff called them, heavy furniture, and the oak floors in need of eternal polishing. All these things are expensive and more or less useless, a mere extension of the personal finery dear to womankind. A corner of an office for night quarters, a stick or two of folding furniture, a motor car, and you have the rock-bottom requirements of a happy married career. "Ask little of life" would be the motto hung over the screen of the family nook.

MARSE HENRY'S MEMORIES.

From the United States have come two good biographies recently—good in the sense of being chatty and interesting, while at the same time giving the reader a pleasant little surprise occasionally by revealing something new about the outstanding figures in the politics across the line. "Marse Henry" Watterson and Champ Clark, former speaker of the House of Representatives, are somewhat alike in their style, which ambles along in leisurely southern fashion, with occasional little moral reflections of Chautauqua flavor that indicates a friendly heart.

Champ Clark has more to tell about the politicians of his country than his journalistic contemporary, but the latter provides some anecdotes of a larger world that are of interest. Mr. Watterson was evidently as well known in some parts of Europe as he was in America. He knew Leopold II. of Belgium, Gambetta, the Duc de Morny, and he says that he once acted as accompanist to Adelina Patti at a charity concert. He liked to hobnob with the people who were in the public eye and he tells one story of how he fell in with several lions unawares. He had gone to Europe with a letter of introduction to a Mr. T. H. Huxley, of whom all he knew was that the gentleman lived at the school of mines. He writes:

> "It was a good dinner. There sat at table a gentleman by the name of Tyndall and another by the name of Mill—of neither I had ever heard—but there was still another of the name of Spencer, whom I fancied must be a literary man, for I remembered having reviewed a clever book on education some four years agone by a writer of that name, a certain Herbert Spencer."

Henry Watterson was on the side of the South during the Civil War, as a fighter and as the editor of the Rebel. His story of the war-time period indicates that he wasn't very enthusiastic for the southern cause at the beginning of the war. Coming back to his home town he found his old chums all gone, and the girls—"well, they were all crazy"—so he joined up and in time got to be a pretty good rebel. After fifty years he sums up the secession movement:

> "I think now, as an academic proposition, that in the doctrine of secession, the secession leaders had a debatable, if not a logical case; but also I think that if the Gulf States had been allowed to go out by tacit consent they would very soon have been back again seeking readmission to the Union."

Henry Watterson's comments on politicians of the day are, as might be expected, trite. President Wilson he regards as a special pleader rather than a statesman; he is represented as "talking about American ideals that have won the war as if there were no English ideals and French ideals"; and he is summed up as "the schoolmaster who arrived at the front rather too late in life."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A Babe Ruth home run looks small alongside the home run Trotzky is making.

Isn't a live "patriot" of more use to his country than one who commits suicide?

A grave-diggers' strike at Hamilton is a serious matter when one considers the number of dead ones in that burg.

Those Tennessee legislators who ran away to another state to prevent a quorum on the woman suffrage vote are a noble example of man's superiority.

The United States came late into the war, so we mustn't hurry them too much into the League of Nations. Some day they will be telling the world how they made the League a success that would never have come through without them.

Toronto is raising a fund for a residence for business girls. Why not a residence for household assistants, mother's helps, etc.? Pa has a girl stenog. for him in the office, but the dishwasher or baby-minder is scarce, and ma "can't sit 'round all day."

PAINT AND POWDER.

[Kingston Standard.]

A campaign has been started in New York by a woman's temperance society for a nation-wide crusade against the use of paint and powder, the rouge pot, the lip stick, the eyebrow pencil, and other devices used by girls and women to make themselves look more beautiful than nature made them. What is the good of trying? For centuries women have sought these means of beautifying themselves. Do we not read of Jezebel painting her face and tieing her hair. Pots of cosmetics are found in ancient tombs and so the story goes on. Men are asked to aid in this campaign. Will they? Not much. The only thing they could do, we suggest, would be to take to painting and powdering their faces, and "tieing" their hair, if they have any. We know, though, several individuals who would look all the better for such treatment—and there it is! Better leave the ladies to do as they like.

A KING WHO SMILES.

[Montreal Gazette.]

Gazette correspondence from London notes the fact that King Alfonso of Spain, a welcome visitor in his wife's country, is better looking than any photograph of him, and possesses a remarkably bright and pleasing smile, which lights up his bronzed and healthy-looking face in a most attractive manner. Yet when the boy, born posthumously in 1886, assumed the government in 1902 there were fears that he might not long survive. But His Majesty Alfonso XIII. apparently has a healthy mind, which has helped him to survive the vicissitudes of rulership in a period when crowns have been sent tumbling off heads that were presumed to be stronger. Alfonso philosophizes and smiles and his subjects support him as a reasonable and kindly monarch, and the Spanish republicans' cause is made so much the weaker. The sabre rattler who, by the king of Spain's own account, despised and insulted him, is a man without a country. It pays for kings to smile rather than frown, it would seem. Good humor saves even royalty an uneasy head.

WHEN POSTCARDS BEGAN.

[London Express.]

The jubilee of the postcard will be with us shortly. It was in October, 1870, that the British postoffice introduced them. The real inventor of the postcard was Dr. Hermann, of Vienna, who, twenty months before (January 26, 1869), had gone to the Austrian postal authorities with an idea and sample of an "open card for correspondence." The Austrian postmaster-general was delighted with the idea, and at once ordered a million to be printed. The new cards bore the very cautious announcement: "The postoffice undertakes no responsibility for the contents of this communication." And thus the postcard started.

Picture postcards came in 1894—no private postcards were permitted until that year. Illustrated postcards had been sent out before 1894 as advertisements, but as such they were classed as printed matter and sent at book-post rates.

AN INNOVATION.

[Montreal Gazette.]

Where the treasure is there will the heart be also. That farmer of Malden road, Sandwich West, Ont., who, with his brothers, defended his whiskey supply with rifle and shotgun from attack by five motor cars filled with booze runners, put up a valiant fight and won. The result may evoke cheers from quite a few residents of that and other rural neighborhoods, for there are still, by all accounts, some fine whiskey stocks located in barns as well as in city cellars. All have to be defended, by armed force if necessary. It is an extraordinary situation, and unprecedented so far as Canada is concerned.

INEVITABLE.

[New York Evening Sun.]

Bankers are restricting credits, merchants are buying more carefully than formerly, the people are refusing to pay top prices. More important still, the impact of economic forces has made itself felt upon production itself, forcing the manufacturer and the farmer to realize that there will be no market for their goods at the top notch figures that have recently prevailed. This in turn must soon react upon the retailer and lower the cost of food to the consumer.

It is by no means a painless operation, this descent from higher to lower levels. Always it slows up the wheels of industry, produces widespread dissatisfaction among laborers, and brings a very real hardship upon the debtor class. But having mounted the peak of high prices the world needs must come down again, trusting that the process will be a slow and sure one, free from disastrous falls.

"WHO KILLED COCK ROBIN."

[Our Dumb Animals.]

In this case it was a farmer. The cherry tree in his garden was all the proof he wanted that that "confounded robin" was his enemy. "Why I saw him stealin' cherries," he said, "and I caught him in my strawberry bed, too, and I'll shoot every one of them thievin' fellers I get a chance at." Well, we didn't have any of the poor dead things he had killed or we should have shown him the contents of their stomachs. Had he seen the grubs and bugs, the cutworms, the caterpillars, the grasshoppers, and the score and more of other foes of his garden and orchard and farm that these poor dead robins he had shot had been destroying, how small would have seemed the board bill they owed him for the few cherries and berries they had eaten. Indeed the bit of fruit they had taken was just an occasional dessert after their abundant meal of bugs and grubs. The birds he shot are dead. The farmer lives, we hope a wiser if sadder man.

A NEW ENGLAND.

[Montreal Gazette.]

The mitigation of caste, the larger intercourse between all classes, the wider recognition of a common purpose in the national life, the warmer regard felt for different sections, the conviction that a common destiny demands the cordial co-operation of all classes and interests in the nation—these features are working their way in the new England, which, if not so picturesque as the old, is more robust and vigorous and purposeful.

THE MIDDLE TEMPLE MURDER

A Detective Story by J. S. Fletcher.

Copyright 1920, Fred A. Knopf.
Copyright, 1920, by the Public Ledger Company.

Another hour had gone by ere the two came to the cottage. Sometimes the guiding light had vanished, blotted out by intervening rises in the ground; always, when they saw it again, they were slowly drawing nearer to it. And now, when they were at last close to it, Spargo realized that he found himself in one of the loneliest places he had ever been capable of imagining—so lonely and desolate a spot he had certainly never seen. In the dim light he could see a narrow, crawling stream, making its way down over rocks and stones from the high ground of Great Shunnor Fell. Opposite to the place at which they stood, on the edge of the moorland, a horseshoe-like formation of ground was backed by a ring of fir and pine; beneath this protecting fringe of trees stood a small building of grey stone, which looked as if it had been originally built by some shepherd as a pen for the moorland sheep. It was of no more than one story in height, but of some length; a considerable part of it was hidden by shrubs and brushwood. And from one uncurtained, blindless window the light of a lamp shone boldly into the fading darkness without.

Breton pulled up on the edge of the crawling stream.

"We've got to get across there, Spargo," he said. "But as we're already soaked to the knees it doesn't matter about getting another wetting. Have you any idea how long we've been walking?"

"Hours—days—years!" replied Spargo.

"I should say quite four hours," said Breton. "In that case it's well past two o'clock, and the light will be breaking in another hour or so. Now, once across this stream, what shall we do?"

"What have we come to do? Go to the cottage, of course!"

"Wait a bit. No need to startle them. By the fact they've got a light, I take it that they're up. Look here!"

As he spoke, a figure crossed the window, passing between it and the light.

"That's not Elphick, nor yet Cardlestone," said Spargo. "They're medium-heighted men. That's a tallish man."

"Then it's the man the landlord of the Moor Cock told us about," said Breton. "Now, look here: I know every inch of this place. When we're across let me go up to the cottage, and I'll take an observation through that window and see who's inside. Come on."

He led Spargo across the stream at a place where a succession of boulders made a natural bridge, and, bidding him keep quiet, went up the bank to the cottage. Spargo, watching him, saw him make his way past the shrubs and undergrowth until he came to a great bush which stood between the lighted window and the projecting porch of the cottage.

He lingered in the shadow of this bush but for a short moment; then came swiftly and noiselessly back to his companion. His hand fell on Spargo's arm with a clutch of nervous excitement.

"Spargo!" he whispered, "who on earth do you think the other man is?"

CHAPTER XXXIV.
The Whiphand.

Spargo, almost irritable from desire to get at close grips with the objects of his long journey, shook off Breton's hand with a growl of resentment.

"And how on earth can I waste time guessing?" he exclaimed. "Who is he?"

Breton laughed softly.

"Steady, Spargo, steady!" he said. "It's Myerst—the safe deposit man. Myerst!"

Spargo started as if something had bitten him.

"Myerst!" he almost shouted. "Myerst!" Good Lord! Why did I never think of him? Myerst! Then——"

"I don't know why you should have thought of him," said Breton. "But he's there."

Spargo took a step toward the cottage; Breton pulled him back.

"Wait!" he said. "We've got to discuss this. I'd better tell you what they're doing."

"What are they doing, then?" demanded Spargo impatiently.

"Well," answered Breton. "They're going through a quantity of papers. The two old gentlemen look very ill and very miserable. Myerst is evidently laying down the law to them in some fashion or other. I've formed a notion, Spargo."

"What notion?"

"Myerst is in possession of whatever secret they have, and he's followed them down here to blackmail them. That's my notion."

Spargo thought a while, pacing up and down the river bank.

"I daresay you're right," he said. "Now, what's to be done?"

Breton, too, considered matters.

"I wish," he said at last, "we could get in there and overhear what's going on. But that's impossible—I know that cottage. The only thing we can do is this—we must catch Myerst unawares. He's here for no good. Look here!"

And reaching around to his hip pocket Breton drew out a Browning revolver and wagged it in his hand with a smile.

"That's a useful thing to have, Spargo," he remarked. "I slipped it into my pocket the other day, wondering why on earth I did it. Now it'll come in handy. For anything we know Myerst may be armed."

"Well?" said Spargo.

"Come up to the cottage. If things turn out as I think they will, Myerst, when he's got what he wants, will be off. Now, you shall get where I did just now, behind that bush, and I'll station myself in the doorway. You can report to me, and when Myerst comes out I'll cover him. Come on, Spargo; it's beginning to get light already."

Breton cautiously led the way along the river bank, making use of such cover as the willows and alders afforded. Together he and Spargo made their way to the front of the cottage. Arrived at the door, Breton posted himself in the porch, motioning to Spargo to creep in behind the bushes and to look through the window. And Spargo noiselessly followed his directions and slightly parting the branches which concealed him, looked in through the uncurtained glass.

The interior into which he looked was rough and comfortless in the extreme. There were the bare accessories of a moorland cottage; rough chairs and tables, plastered walls, a fishing rod or two piled in a corner, some food set out on a side table. At the table in the middle of the floor the three men sat. Cardlestone's face was in the shadow; Myerst had his back to the window; old Elphick, bending over the table, was laboriously writing with shaking fingers. And Spargo twisted his head around to his companion.

"Elphick," he said, "is writing a check. Myerst has another check in his hand. Be ready! When he gets that second check I guess he'll be off."

Breton smiled grimly and nodded. A moment later Spargo whispered again: "Look out, Breton! He's coming."

Breton drew back into the angle of the porch; Spargo quitted his protecting bush and took the other angle. The door opened. And they heard Myerst's voice, threatening, commanding in tone: "Now, remember all I've said! And don't you forget. I've got the whiphand of both of you the whiphand!"

Then Myerst turned and stepped out into the grey light—to find himself confronted by an athletic young man who held the muzzle of an ugly revolver within two inches of the bridge of his nose, and in a remarkably firm and steady grip. Another glance showed him the figure of a second businesslike looking young man at his side, whose attitude showed a desire to grapple with him.

"Good morning, Mr. Myerst," said Breton, with cold and ironic politeness. "We are glad to meet you so unexpectedly. And I must trouble you to put up your hands. Quick!"

Myerst made one hurried movement of his right hand toward his hip, but a sudden growl from Breton made him shift it just as quickly above his head, whither the left followed it. Breton laughed softly.

"That's wise, Mr. Myerst," he said, keeping his revolver steadily pointed at his prisoner's nose. "Discretion will certainly be the better part of your valor on this occasion. Spargo, may I trouble you see what Mr. Myerst carries in his pockets? Go through them carefully. Not for papers or documents—just now. We can leave that matter—we've plenty of time. See if he's got a weapon of any sort on him, Spargo—that's the important thing."

Poetry and Jest

SHADOW RIVER, MUSKOKA.

[Pauline Johnson.]

A stream of tender gladness
Of filmy sun, and opal-tinted skies,
Of warm midsummer air that lightly lies
In mystic rings,
Where softly swings
The music of a thousand wings
That almost tone to sadness.

Midway 'twixt earth and heaven,
A bubble in the pearly air, I seem
To float upon the sapphire floor, a dream
Of clouds of snow,
Above, below,
Drift with my drifting, dim and slow,
As twilight drifts to even.

The little fern-leaf, bending
Upon the brink, its green reflection greets,
And kisses soft the shadow that it meets
With touch so fine,
The border line
The keenest vision can't define,
So perfect is the blending.

The far fir trees that cover
The brownish hills with needles green and gold,
Repictured are
Beneath me far,
Where not a ripple moves to mar
Shades underneath, or over.

Mine is the undertone;
The beauty, strength and power of the land
Will never stir or bend at my command;
But all the shade
Is marred or made,
If I but dip my paddle blade;
And it is mine alone.

Oh, pathless world of seeming!
Oh, pathless life of mine whose deep ideal
Is more my own than ever was the real,
For others' fame,
And love's red flame,
And yellow gold, I only claim
The shadows and the dreaming.

SELF-LABELED.

The manager of a large firm—a hot-tempered, somewhat grumbling man—had occasion or thought he had, to rebuke one of his clerks for some mistake. The clerk attempted to explain the matter, when his chief cut him short by exclaiming:

"Look here, sir, are you the manager—or am I?"

"Well, I'm not," said the clerk.

"Then, if you are not the manager," said the enraged chief, very emphatically, "why are you speaking like an idiot?"

IS IT TOO LATE?

[Frank L. Stanton.]

Is it too late—dear eyes, withdrawn for weeping,
To stand once more a suppliant at Love's gate?
To lay one flower where withered blooms are sleeping—
Is it too late?

Is it too late—in sight of earth and heaven
To wreathe with laurel brows thorn-crowned of Fate?
To kneel to Love, and ask to be forgiven—
Is it too late?

O death in life!—for deeper than all dying,
With sad Regret in utter Night to wait
For some sweet word, and hear Love's voice replying:
"Too late! Too late!"

FRUITLESS ARGUMENT.

A well-known barrister was cross-examining a witness.

"Did you call on Mr. Fragner on September the 14th last?"

"Yes, sorr."

"And what did he say?"

Before the witness could reply, the opposing barrister interposed.

"My lud, I object to the question."

Thereupon a long argument ensued, precedents were quoted, and, at length the judge decided that Mr. Fragner's statement was admissible as evidence.

"Now, my man," said the victorious barrister, "and what did Mr. Fragner say?"

"He wasn't at home, sorr."

SOME DAY, PERCHANCE.

[Marion K. Patton, in Harpers's.]

I cannot send you gifts of price or art,
You will not share the happiness I bring,
And for my love you have not need, it seems.
Yet I will give it you with all my heart,
It cannot harm you, dear—this tender thing—
It will not even trouble your faint dreams.

But some day when you're drooped with circumstance,
And weariness drags at your finger-tips,
And you sit staring grimly in the eye
Your sad philosophy—ah, then, perchance,
My love will flutter up against your lips
And you will smile, although you know not why.

REALISM.

Friend (viewing picture)—How realistic! It fairly makes my mouth water.

Artist—A sunset makes your mouth water?

Friend—Bless me! I thought it was a fried egg.

THE PEACH BLOSSOMS.

[John James Pratt.]

It was a gentle gift to send,
This thought in blossoms from a friend;
Within my city room
I seem to breathe the country air.

O, beautiful the welcome sight!
(Flushing my paper as I write,
My words seem blossoming!)
The lovely lighted snow that falls
Rosy around the cottage walls,
A miracle of spring!

Dream-like I hear the sunny hum
Of swarming bees; low voices come.
Familiar, close, and dear;
I hardly know if I am there,
Or, shutting out the noisy air,
Those birds are singing here!

A child whose laughter-lighted face
Breaks from some happy door, a-chase
For new-winged butterflies:
The wind, how merrily, takes his hair!—
Sing, birds, and keep him ever there
With world-forgetting eyes!

THE NEW NECESSITIES.

Jud Tunkins says he's going to have help this summer if he has to put phonographs on the farm machinery and have moving pictures in the barn.

AN ACCOMMODATING MAN.

[Boston Transcript.]

Young Freshleigh drew his car up at the rural garage, and with a wink at his young lady passengers, he said to the proprietor, "Got any gasoline?"

"I calc-late I have," said the countryman.

"How do you sell it, by the glass or the spoonful?" asked Freshleigh.

"Wa'al, that all depends, mister," was the calm reply. "Mostly I sells it by the day, but when some golderned jackass from the city comes along and wants it by the glass, I generally accommodate him. How many glasses do you want?"

THE OLD-TIME LONGINGS.

[Frank L. Stanton.]

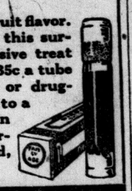

Want to glimpse the old woods
When the sun strikes fire,
Want to see a bluebird
On a telegraph wire:
Want to watch the towheads
Swingin' on the gate
An' a one-suspender feller
Diggin' round for bait.

Want to glimpse the pine box
By the grocery store
An' play a game o' "seven-up,"
Or checkers, just once more!
Things that used to pleasure me
From springtime to fall—
The city's took a-many
But the city ain't took all!

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

For Colds, Pain, Rheumatism, Aching Joints, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, and for Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, take Aspirin marked with the name "Bayer" or you are not taking Aspirin at all.

Accept only "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in an unbroken "Bayer" package which contains complete directions. Then you are getting real Aspirin—the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years. Now made in Canada.

Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

COOKING POTATOES.

Well-cooked potatoes are mealy, of even consistency and color. We get new potatoes, ripe ones and old ones. New potatoes have a thin skin and are properly in the market in July and August. They should not be pared before being boiled, but well scraped, so that only the flaky outer skin is removed. Ripe and old potatoes of autumn and spring are usually darker and have coarser skins than the new potatoes.

New potatoes are best boiled or baked whole, for their flavor is delicate and the skin tender and palatable. Old potatoes are best pared and boiled and then mashed, with plenty of seasoning, or if boiled or baked in jackets they should be opened and seasoned before being served. The skins are tough and indigestible and should be used only as a mold to hold the potato.

Cooked potatoes may be used in many ways, hashed or browned, sliced and browned, or diced and browned in the oven, with a bit of parsley and onion juice. Fat for browning potatoes should be melted and very hot before the potatoes are put into it.

Potatoes should be put on in boiling water, boiled steadily, but not hard, until tender, salted just as they are done, and removed at once from the water, which should be saved for soups and gravies.

Cream sauce for new potatoes or for diced cooked potatoes should be prepared as follows: Melt two tablespoonfuls of fat in a granite saucepan, stir into this two tablespoonfuls of flour, and add a cup of cold milk, stirring steadily until it thickens. Allow the sauce to boil at least two minutes, season with pepper and salt, and onion juice or celery salt. It should not be too thick, and can easily be thinned by the addition of a little of the water in which the potatoes were boiled.

FLORENCE, Aug. 27.—The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Frank Daniels for their August meeting. About 50 members were present. After the business session was completed a program was given consisting of a paper on "Canadian Authors and Poets," by Miss Davis; a duet, "Wee Hoose Among the Heather," by Misses Helen Forstice and Marguerite Osborne, also selections by the institute choir, after which a dainty lunch was served on the spacious lawn.

The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. McRobert, when the town line branch will give the program and the Florence branch will entertain the visiting branch to luncheon.

Advertiser Patterns

Owing to the pattern manufacturers increasing the price of patterns to us, all patterns advertised from this date will be 15 CENTS EACH.

A Dainty Apron.

Pattern 3254 is here depicted. It is cut in three sizes, small, medium and large. A medium size will require 2½ yards of 36-inch material.

For this pretty model one could have lawn or cambric, finished with embroidery or braid, or dotted Swiss, dimity or linen, with lace, embroidery or braid. Gingham, percale, sateen and alpaca are also good materials for this style. The bib and straps may be omitted.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 15 cents in silver or stamps.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

But let me tell you somethin'—there's been good in all the knocks ever I got in my life, if I had the sense to see. Why, the hardest knocks a party'd land you, right between the eyes, you'd see STARS. —Julia Lippman in "Making Over Martha."

Attention of Carnation.

Will Carnation, who wrote about having trouble in her home, please write me again and tell me her name and address?

CYNTHIA GREY

A Shower of Good Things.

Dear Cynthia Grey,—I am returning patterns that Fluffy Ruffles and Flowers and Foliage so kindly sent in, and I thank them very much for same. Also am returning postage due to Mail-Box. I see where any kind of pickle recipes are acceptable, so thought I would copy a few off, hoping someone will like them, as I have found them fine.

Pepper Hash.—Chop fine 1 head of cabbage, 6 onions, 18 peppers, some red and some green (4 of the peppers should be hot one, half cup salt sprinkled over; let stand 24 hours, drain and cover with vinegar; add 1 large tablespoon celery seed, three-quarters cup mustard seed, 1 bowl sugar; let stand a day or two, and bottle. If you wish you can add sugar to suit taste.

Cucumber Relish.—Two dozen very large cucumbers, 4 large onions, 1 quart vinegar, 2 cups brown sugar, 2 tablespoons mustard, 4 tablespoons flour, pinch of cayenne pepper; cook dressing, then put in cucumbers and onions, set on back of stove and cook till tender. Peel cucumbers and onions, slice, put on some salt, let stand over-night, then drain. Put in glass jars and seal while hot.

Cucumber Salad.—Two dozen large cucumbers, 1 quart white onions, 1 quart vinegar, 2 cups white sugar, 2 teaspoons celery seed, ginger, pepper and salt, 2 tablespoons turmeric powder; slice the cucumbers, add layer of onions, sprinkle with salt, let stand one hour, rinse and drain well; put vinegar, spices and sugar in a kettle, add cucumbers and onions, and let come to a boil. Put in glass jars and seal.

Mustard Pickles.—Four quarts cucumbers, 2 quarts small onions, 2 quarts tomatoes, 2 quarts cauliflower; put salt on, let stand 24 hours, then take out and put in vinegar and water, and cook slowly until tender; mix quarter pound mustard, 2 cups sugar, 1 cup flour, 4 chopped peppers, 4 quarts vinegar; put pickles in this and cook until thick.

Here are a few others that I find are very satisfactory:

Date Cake.—One cup brown sugar, 2 eggs, half cup butter, half cup sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1½ cups flour, 2 cups chopped dates. Icing: Use icing sugar wet with hot coffee, put in a little butter, mix well and spread on cake.

Graham Gems.—One tablespoon butter, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon sugar, pinch salt, 2 cups sour milk, 2 cups graham flour, 1 cup white flour, 2 teaspoons soda.

Salmon Loaf.—One can salmon chopped fine, 1 package crackers; grease bake-dish, put in a layer of crackers, then a layer of salmon, then a layer of dressing, and so on until you have two layers of each, with the dressing on top. Dressing: Melt 2 tablespoons of butter, stir into it 2½ tablespoons flour, then add 1½ pints milk, and cook until thick. Bake in a moderate oven for 1½ hours.

Hoping someone will find these useful, I must stop, or Cynthia will think I want all the Mail-Box. FRECKLES.

P. S.—My hubby thinks my dumplings are so good that I really should pass the recipe along to someone else, so here goes:

Dumplings.—Cook from three to five minutes, if stock is boiling. One cup flour, heaping teaspoon baking powder, a pinch of salt and sugar. Dampen with sweet milk and water.

These are also good:

Twin Mountain Muffins.—Half cup white sugar, pinch salt, 1 egg, shortening the size of a walnut, three-quarters cup sweet milk and water, 1 cup flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder. F.

Ans.—How lovely of you, Freckles, to copy all these good recipes for the Mail-Box. We appreciate it very much. They were so neatly written and arranged.

VERANDA CHATS.

Dear Miss Grey,—I venture to write to your valuable column. I must say I greatly enjoy March Wind's writings and sympathize with her in her great loss. I have not been out in this country long and I like it immensely. The lovely woods and scenery, and isn't Springbank just lovely? I would like to correspond with someone about 17 years of age. Inclosed is a mite for the C. H. Will sign myself

JUST PLAIN PEG.

Ans.—Thank you for your Hospital gift. We are so glad you like London and enjoy the beauty of its trees and parks. You did not send your name and address. Please do so in case of a correspondent asking for it.

I am a stranger to your Mail-Box, so will make my visit as short as possible.

I would like to correspond with one of your Boxites about 14 years of age. I will leave my address with Miss Grey.

We would like to hear more about Cynthia Grey's cot.

I am sending my wee mite for the S. C. H. Fund.

Well, I guess this is all I have to write this time. Sorry that you will receive no help from VIRGINIA CREEPER.

P. S.—Am spending my summer vacation on the farm, but will be going to the city soon, so will leave my city address with Miss Grey.

Ans.—Thank you for Hospital gift. As yet your "Cynthia Grey cot" is but a dream, but we are quite sure it will come true. The gifts keep coming in and it is wonderful how the fund grows. A few days ago I said we had $14 on hand. Today it is $17. When it is $25 we will give it to the treasurer, Mrs. Campbell, or perhaps we'll wait until it is $35 and then our total contributions will be $200. Hope you had a lovely vacation.

From Cripple Annie.

My Dear Miss Grey,—I saw in Tuesday's Mail-Box where Crimson Rambler wanted the words of "Red Wing," so as I have it I will copy it for her, and you needn't send it back to me. And, Hiawatha of the Northlands, I saw your letter in the Mail-Box some time ago, and you said that you had written to me. I am sorry, but I never got your letter, so you can write to me again, and if I get it I will surely answer. I will close. As ever,

CRIPPLE ANNIE.

Ans.—Why, Cripple Annie, how glad we are to have you drop in for a visit. You are very popular in the Mail-Box, you know, and we want you to come often. Thank you for sending the song for Crimson Rambler. I hope Hiawatha of the Northlands sees your letter and will write you again.

REQUESTS.

Dear Miss Grey,—Please find inclosed one dime for Sick Children's Hospital. Kndly send me famous stocking-foot pattern. Am inclosing self-addressed envelope. CHINK.

Ans.—Thank you for Hospital gift. Pattern mailed to you.

Wedding Queries.

Dear Miss Grey,—I believe that you are not quite so rushed as you were some time ago, so I thought I would ask you for some advice.

1. Will you give me a menu for a buffet luncheon, or give me some idea of just what is served?

2. How is it served? I have never been to a luncheon of the buffet variety, so am puzzled just what to serve or how to do it?

3. Is it necessary to have a best man to stand up with the maid of honor?

4. In a house wedding is it quite correct to wear a suit or a dress of some pretty shade for the bride instead of white?

If you will please answer these questions I shall be so glad. I hope that you have enjoyed this summer weather; it has been quite perfect since that extremely cold spell. I was out in the country then, and believe me, a good, warm comforter felt good. How is Hiawatha of the Northlands? What a jolly little girl she is, always out of doors braving the sunshine and rain. I can't imagine Hiawatha real small either, can you, Miss Grey?

Hoping you will have space to permit an early reply, sincerely,

FLAMING MAPLE.

Ans.—Not too rushed to assist in anything so delightful as wedding arrangements, Flaming Maple. Answering your questions: 1. Dainty sandwiches, chicken salad, cake, ice cream, coffee; this menu is quite possible, or a simpler one of sandwiches, cake and coffee, as preferred. 2. The guests are served where they are standing, from buffet; coffee is served from a small table. 3. It is customary. 4. She may use her own taste in the matter.

Veranda Chats.

Since I saw my first letter in print I thought I would write again. I am visiting in the country with a friend of mine. I ride the old horse most of the time. This August weather is beautiful, I think. The summer holidays will soon be over, and then I will have to go to high school. I will close, wishing the Mail-Box success.

CRIMSON RAMBLER.

Ans.—Please send me a stamped addressed envelope for song Sardonyx has sent in for your, Crimson Rambler.

I thought it about time I was writing to thank Queen Bess for copying the patterns for me, and to thank you for sending them on. I have been so busy in the crops that I didn't have time before. I am inclosing "Beautiful Ohio" for Yellow Tulip, the words, and "Red Wing" for Crimson Rambler, seeing their request in the paper for same.

SARDONYX.

Ans.—Thank you for filling requests, Sardonyx. Will Yellow Tulip please send stamped addressed envelope for song?

I have long been a silent reader of the Mail-Box, and I think it is a great help. I have at last got up courage to write. I saw a request in today's paper to Whip-Poor-Will for the poem "The Dying Nun." As I have a copy I thought I would help out. I will close wishing the column every success,

ENID.

Ans.—Thank you, Enid, for the song so neatly copied. Have mailed it to Whip-Poor-Will. Glad to welcome you to the Mail-Box.

I am a newcomer, but I read your page daily, and enjoy the useful hints and recipes. I saw in the paper (Wednesday, 18), where Rosetta was wanting recitations for her niece. I am inclosing some. Would you kindly send them on to her? Also, I am inclosing the words of the songs, "Hello, Central, Give Me Heaven," "Smiles," and "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles," for use in the Mail-Box. Would you please send me the crochet butterfly pattern, and a pattern suitable for a crochet nightgown yoke, if you have any? I would copy and return them soon as possible. And, Miss Grey, have you any contests on hand, if so could I have them? I would also like Hiawatha of the Northland and Carnation's addresses, if it is not too much trouble for you. I am sending a self-addressed envelope for patterns, contests and addresses. I will try and bring more help next time I call. Inclosed find a dime for hospital fund. My but how it is growing, we will soon have enough for the cot Pollyanna mentioned today. Thanking you for your trouble. I remain your, COMRADE ROSALIE.

P.S.—I would like a girl correspondent of my age, 15. My address is with Miss Grey.

Ans.—Thank you, Comrade Rosalie, for all the help you bring, and for your hospital gift. You are indeed a real comrade.

Dear Miss Grey,—Am sending this book of yoke and cap patterns for use in the Mail-Box, and hope it will be of use to some lover of crochet. I wonder if any of the Boxites have the words and music or even just the words of "The Yellow Rose of Texas"? I should like very much to get it.

MUTT'S SISTER.

Ans.—Thank you, Mutt's Sister. Your request is referred to readers.

"That's The Best Looking Suit He's Had Yet."

FATHER looks approvingly up from his paper at his son and heir as Mother slowly turns him around for inspection.

"He does look nice, doesn't he," she answers fondly. "I made up my mind to get him a good suit this time so I bought Wearbetter. The others he had were a little cheaper but they lasted no time at all—and he looked horrid in them"

Father nods his head.

"It never pays to buy cheap clothes. You may save a dollar or so on the price but, when you figure up what we have had to pay in the past because that young man was so hard on clothes, you can see we'd have saved money if we had always fitted him with Wearbetters."

School Bells Are Ringing Again

Within a few short days the doors of our London model educational institutions will be thrown open, and the streets and parks will be thronged with merry little persons wending their way to the classrooms, glad that the long holidays have come to an end and that they are to renew happy friendships that make this the most joyful period in life.

There is no longer the dread of lessons experienced in the days of the little red schoolhouse. Sunny, airy and pleasant schoolrooms now hold a place in the hearts of the pupils that is second only to their homes.

With this, too, has come naturally a change in the students. No longer is the school boy and girl shabbily and poorly dressed. They go to their studies in garments which, while quite practical for the wear and tear of school life, are nevertheless quite in keeping with the improved surroundings.

Shagmen Get 2--1 Verdict, While Sox Just Nose Out Flint.

KITCHENER'S BIG GAME

Winters and McCallum in Great Duel in Front of Perfect Support—Latter Loses.

BRANTFORD, Aug. 28.—George Orme, the Red Sox star outfielder, was responsible for the winning of today's game from Flint. In the eighth inning he drew a base on balls, advanced on a sacrifice hit and scored from second base on an infield hit. The locals scored two runs in this frame without a hit. The score was 2 to 0. Both Estelle and Tengen pitched good ball, the former getting the breaks, however.

THIS LOOKS GOOD.

KITCHENER, Aug. 28.—Battle Creek and Kitchener staged one of the best games of the season here this afternoon on the last appearance of the Michigan teams in this city for this season, the Custers winning by a score of 1 to 0. After the first inning the game developed into a hurling duel between Winters and MacCallum, both pitchers receiving perfect support in the field. The Beavers bunched three hits in their half of the first inning, but a fast double play prevented any scoring. The Custers tallied in the second inning on Heving's single and Horne's triple, the latter being nipped at the plate, when he tried to stretch it into a homer. No official umpires appeared and player umpires were again pressed into service, many of their decisions being criticized. Score:

THREE TAPS DID IT.

HAMILTON, Aug. 28.—A single, sacrifice and another safe hit in the ninth inning won today's game for Hamilton by a score of 2 to 1. The Tigers thus took the odd game of the series with the Saginaw Aces. The clubs performed on a muddy field, but the brand of baseball was very fair, considering this handicap.

Behan and Dodge, the opposing hurlers, pitched great ball, and each was accorded support that at times bordered on the sensational.

Owing to the threatening weather the attendance was small.

VEHICS AND ACES LOSE SUNDAY ON THEIR HOME LOTS

Whaley's Homer Won For Wolves, While Custers' Was Close Cut.

FLINT, Aug. 29.—The Vehics lost to the Bay City Wolves today when in the eighth inning for the visitors Whaley drove a home run and sent McHale ahead of him to the plate, this coupled with Cuyler's score in the fifth decided the afternoon issue. Both pitchers hurled good ball. Bay City is here again on Monday and the game is called for 3 p.m. After Monday the Vehics will not be home again until Labor Day.

MANHATTANS TRIM ORIENTS AT PORT 3—1 SATURDAY

Downs and Clark Oppose, With Latter Having Edge of Good Duel.

PORT STANLEY, Aug 28.—Clark and Downs were pitted together in a pitchers' battle today. Both hurlers worked well Clark having the edge. Downs accounted for nine opponents, while Clarke had eight strikeouts. Three passes by Downs helped the winners. Both teams scored in the first inning, but Clark held the Orients scoreless for the balance of the game. Downs wrenched his ankle in the last of the eighth and Pring finished the game.

Twin Bill From the Pack Puts Tecs on Thin Part of Pole

Delotelle Blanks Wolves On Five Hits in First 9--0, While Harper Turns in Seven-Frame Win 5--1 in Second—Listless Ball.

The Tribe, by taking both games of Saturday's double-header at Tecumseh Park by the scores of 9—0 and 5—1, swept the series with the Wolves and shinned up near the thin part of the pennant pole.

Both games were rather listless, not that the outfits didn't try, but because there wasn't an awful lot at stake. The merit of the afternoon's performance before a big Saturday crowd was that Mr. Cook, who has been fairly successful on the mound against the London team, took to it first Saturday and received a heavy bombardment during his whole tenure there, fifteen solid swats registering for the Londoners on the quiet afternoon stillness of the ball yard. Old Twenty allowed but five hits to the Pack, but they came when he had the Wolves well muzzled.

Harper took up the seven-inning trick and after the Wolves had bunched three hits for one run in the second frame he allowed them but two scattered pastes. Laurent, who was beaten Friday, came back for more in this affair and was hurt in the same place again.

The First Game.

In the second inning of the first frame with one gone, Crichlow, Pitt and Dowling all hit, the former getting home while they worked over Pitt at second.

The third was the big affair of the game. Parker miscued on Delotelle's grounder. Kennedy hit safely to the danger sack. Shay fouled out. Calbert slammed a single to right, scoring Delotelle and Kuhn obliged with another to the opposite corner, scoring Kennedy, but Calbert was caught going into third. Kuhn scored, when McHale, who was put out by Calbert's slide, threw and Witry came in when Cuyler mussed up Crichlow's long fly to right. The sixth was another mussy canto. Pittenger and Dowling both got on and Kennedy's triple came beaming out on Cook, sending two runners across the plate. Shay trotted out a single to view and that scored Speck. Calbert walked, but Kuhn grounded out, leaving two stranded on the sacks.

The last counter in the seventh was a scratchy affair, Pittenger moving right around on his hit to third and home on Cook's error.

THE SECOND GAME.

The Tribe didn't give the Pack a respite at all, but got right in their stride in the first frame of the second affair. Shay's triple started things off to a bang-up start. Then Calbert walked and Kuhn laid down a choice, which got Cal at second, but let Walter slip in across the plate. In their half of the second the Wolves got that run back by slamming into two singles and a sacrifice, Whaley coming in when Parker picked out for a single to left.

It wasn't with them long, though. Crichlow was hit, Pitt sacrificed and Dowling walked, Crich coming in when Laurent lossed a wild pitch.

The Tribe came back thirsting for more in the fourth and straightway Laurent got himself into a heap of trouble. Witry singled, Crich sacrificed and Pitt's single to left, and Reik, in trying to catch Witry steering for home, threw wild, though there was time for the throw. Dowling singled right after that to middle and Pitt dusted in with a second tally. Harper singled to short and Kennedy banged one to left, which got Dowling at the plate on the return in. Shay laid down a choice, getting Kennedy at second. The last counter came in when Crichlow singled and Whaley threw wild on Pitt's intended sacrifice, getting Crich to third, from where he scored on Dowling's sacrifice fly.

LONDON UTILITIES AGAIN HOLD ST. THOMAS TO 0—0 TIE

700 Fans See Return Game At St. Thomas—One of Best This Year.

[By Unoml.]

Utilities of London travelled once more to St. Thomas, the Railway and Flower City, and engaged St. Thomas City in a friendly encounter to a scoreless tie on the Woodworth Rovers' grounds before a crowd of seven hundred soccer fans, scores of ladies being present, thoroughly conversant with the game and showing great enthusiasm whenever any of the finer points of the play took place.

Everyone interested in the game on Saturday was assuredly keyed up in expectation of a hard and fast struggle in this second game between these formidable elevens. None who were favored to witness this exhibition were disappointed, as both sides rose to the occasion, and gave the spectators their money's worth, and then some. St. Thomas City took the field with practically the same team that played in the previous game, with the exception of Arrell, who took Sutherland's place in the centre half position, and Farr, who filled the breach in the inside left position in place of Branston. Utilities were minus their captain, Jimmy Smith, who wrenched his back in the previous game. Potter made a first-class substitute, whilst Dickson took his old position as centre pivot in the forward line, with Short being tried out in the left half position.

First Half.

Utilities won the toss and L. Davey kicked off for the railroaders, who were playing up grade. The opening augured well for a fast and furious game, the homesters' goal being seriously assailed in less than a couple of minutes. Utilities' attempt caused both Allman and Arnold to look lively in getting rid of some splendid shots that were being driven in by Utilities' forwards. Billy Medlyn, St. Thomas' speed merchant, and outside right, brought off as plendid single-handed run to Utilities' goalmouth, where Hunt, Utilities' right back, who was in fine fettle, gave the sphere the right-about. Utilities again pressed the play into their opponents' territory, forcing a corner, the kick being taken by Whitworth, who centered well with nothing resulting, except that another corner kick was granted Utilities. Leigh took the kick, which was a splendid try, the ball being well directed for goal, with Green getting it with his head just under the crossbar, and Duckworth miraculously saving by tipping the sphere over the bar. Utilities still continued to bombard the homesters' goal, but the two "A.'s" were in great form and cleared well.

St. Thomas half-back trio, who were working hard, got the play transferred to foreign ground with Medlyn again showing great speed and passing the ball to perfection to his left wing, who in turn tried to locate Utilities' net, but failed to do so. Things at times looked promising, but proved abortive. Utilities' defence was severely tested, Hunt, Utilites' right back, showing a vast improvement on his former games, his tackling and kicking being superb. Utilities' forwards, who got the sphere at this time, again showed great combination, carrying matters right into home premises.

Jimmy Green, Utilities, old reliable, got the sphere and almost scored. Ince also had a try for the net, sending in a terrific shot which Duckworth saved in grand style. St. Thomas had another grand run up the field, and brought the play right within the penalty box with Dennis clearing well times and again, and Alf Whitworth between the sticks also stopping some good drives directed for goal, his saving being on a par with Duckworth.

St. Thomas had another run up the field, their speedy outside left, S. Davey, showing class in individual play, but as combination counts all efforts were wasted, as the St. Thomas forwards, who were otherwise brilliant, fell away in front of the goal and seemed to go to pieces at the most critical moments when both combination and coolness counts. The whistle tooted for half-time amidst fast play.

Local Half.

On the kick-off St. Thomas immediately pressed Whitworth, clearing well, the play being carried by Utilities to the other end of the field. Medlyn, Kelly and S. Davey had several dashing runs of their own, but were unfortunate in their finishes, and all met disasted by holding too long onto the ball. The railroaders' vanguard aroused wild enthusiasm by a series of determined assaults on Utilities' goal, but, try as they would, they were unable to penetrate Utilities' defence, although it must be said that St. Thomas had hard luck at times in not scoring. Midplay ensued, some good flashes of play taking place with St. Thomas through grand combination work, carrying the sphere right down to Utilities' goal area and almost scoring.

Utilities' defence did yeoman service, Leigh, in conjunction with Green, who was playing a great game, sending in a daisycutter which Duckworth saved. Utilities, who were keeping the pace well, had another run-up, and Billy Whitworth, getting control of the sphere, that brilliant player sent in a tremendous drive, in fact, the best shot of the game, which Duckworth barely saved. Ed Farner tried hard to catch the rebound, but was prevented from doing so by the spectators unconsciously encroaching too far infield.

On the kick-off St. Thomas carried the sphere down the field as far as the Utilities halves would allow them, that trio's checking, heading and kicking being a treat to witness. St. Thomas outside left, S. Davey, had a grand opening at this time, but sent the ball wide. Farr, their inside left, who was playing great ball, sent in a terrific drive to Whitworth, who saved magnificently. St. Thomas worked hard to register the winning goal, but luck, in conjuction with Utilities' defence, was assuredly against them, and when the referee blew his whistle for time up, with Utilities on midfield, one of the fastest and cleanest games yet played in St. Thomas ended satisfactorily in a scoreless tie.

Mr. Farr, who had charge of the game, refereed in grand style, and gave satisfaction to all parties concerned.

The line-up:

Public Utilities—Goal, A. Whitworth; right back, Hunt; left back, Dennis; right half, Ince; centre half, Potter; left half, Short; outside right, W. Whitworth; inside right, Turner; centre forward, Dickson; inside left, Green; outside left, Leigh.

Beat Sarnia 5--0 For Senior W. F. A. Title in Match Listless Because of One-Sidedness—2,000 See.

GALT, Aug. 28.—This city, which 20 years ago, was a football centre of Canada with its world's championship team, regained its former prestige this afternoon, when the local senior eleven won the W. F. A. senior championship, defeating Sarnia 5 to 0. It was in 1885 that Galt first won this championship, holding it at intervals until 1904. Since Sarnia had held the locals to a tie score 1 all in the Tunnel Town Wednesday, the crowd, numbering over 2,000, was out for today's game, many coming from distances. However, the game did not provide the calibre of football expected in a championship series, the visitors being so badly outclassed that the match became listless, being too one-sided.

Good Field.

Playing on one of the finest football fields in Ontario the local eleven were able to show their speed and they simply ran away from their opponents, and with beautiful combination easily commanded an early lead, while the visitors only twice in the game had straight shots on the Galt goal.

During the first 20 minutes the game was close and interesting, but after that play was all in Sarnia territory and when the whistle blew for half-time Galt had tallied three counters. With this lead the play at the start of the second period was slow, the locals easing up, but still holding the visitors in check all the time. The crowd, however, becoming dissatisfied and wanting to see more scoring, appealed to the locals to add a few more goals, and they did, tallying two counters before the whistle blew for full time. The game was a remarkably clean one and not a penalty was drawn. For more than three-quarters of the game Galt had all the play and only brilliant work on the part of MacMillan in goal for the visitors and a little erratic shooting at times of the Galt forwards, kept the score down to 5—0.

Manchester, star back of the visitors, was easily again their best man and he worked hard, and in the last period went up on the forward line in an effort to get a goal, but he found the Galt defense a regular stone wall. Weston, on the half-balk line, played a hard game throughout and collapsed at the end of play from exhaustion.

Offense Not Strong.

The visiting forwards showed little class, being outplayed in every way. In the last half the visitors played nine men to eleven, two of their men being off with injuries. The success of the Galt team can be attributed to the fact that the same team has played together for the entire season with a record of only one defeat, their first game to Guelph and two drawn with Brantford United and Sarnia. While the whole Galt team played well Saturday, George Moss of the forward line, starred with three goals to his credit. The back division to a man played a splendid game, Taylor doing some fine kicking and head work. President Harry Brown of Kitchener and other officers of the W. F. A. were here for the game, previous to which there was a parade of the 29th H. L. I. band, Mayor Mercer and the council, the officers of the W. F. A. and G. A. A. A. and the two teams. Referee Phil Evans of Guelph handled the game to the entire satisfaction of all, and at all times had the play well in hand. The W. F. A. champions will now make an effort to add other laurels by winning the fall inter-county series for the Mac and Casey Cup.

Teams today were as follows:

Galt—King, goal; Walker, Rhodes, backs; Bennett, Tayor and Lawrason, halves; G. Devere, A. Devere, Parkes, Moss and S. Devere, forwards.

Sarnia—MacMillan, goal; McNair and Manchester, backs; Weston, Thorpe, N. Cook, halves; F. Cook, Willis, Swan, Baxter and Hicks, forwards.

Referee—Phil Evans, Guelph.

Miske Tells Why He Knows He Has Good Chance of Beating Dempsey

Has Stood Him Off For Twenty Rounds in Two Ten-Round Bouts, When He Was Lighter and Not Feeling As Good As He Does Now—Philadelphia Papers Gave Him Verdict Last Fight.

Billie Miske tells his history in the Detroit News:

Benton Harbor, Aug. 28.—On Monday, September 6, I expect to win the world's heavyweight boxing championship.

On that date I box Dempsey, world's champion, at Benton Harbor, Mich. I have met him twice before, doing what no other fighter did—going ten and six rounds. I never was off my feet.

Willie Meehan has boxed Dempsey several times, always four rounds, and by his peculiar methods lasted. Outside of that every other heavyweight in America that has climbed through the ropes with him has been knocked out. In 1918 Dempsey had 21 fights, winning seventeen by knockouts. He won one on a foul from Carl Morris, and he also stopped Big Carl in one round in another bout. Meehan stayed four rounds with him. The other two bouts were both with me, and I stayed ten and six rounds.

Now just get this: In 1918 Dempsey flattened 17 out of 21, and of the 17 stopped, 12 were finished in one round and three more in two rounds. Terry Kellar lasted five and Bill Brennan six rounds.

Yet I met Dempsey in ten and went the limit. I guess that everyone who saw us fight at the St. Paul Auditorium will say that I fought him. I did not run for cover. I fought him. He shook me up in the second round with a fearful left, yet I fought him off his feet and drove him into the corner before that same round ended.

He cracked me another big punch in the seventh round, and I shook it off and came back and made him break ground before the gong rang.

I am stating these facts to let you know that I know how hard he punches, whether I can stand his battering ram wallops, and also fight him back.

Was Not Well.

I was not well when I fought him in St. Paul, and was very ill when we boxed the second time in Philadelphia, yet some of the newspapers gave me the decision over him in the second fight.

Now I am well, am bigger, heavier and much stronger than ever before in my life. My chances of beating him are much better.

Now I must say a few words as to my health. Until six months ago I have not been well for several years. I have had trouble with my hip which caused a pressure on the nerves in my back, and as a result my back was weak. I suffered pains similar to those of neuritis. I could not train properly, was unable to do road work, as my legs and back would ache.

Was Sick Man.

I was getting worse, and when I met Dempsey the last time I should not have been in the ring. Yet I gave him a six-round battle in Philadelphia that they are still talking about.

When I met Tom Gibbons a year ago last June, I should have been in bed; the same the last time I boxed Bat Levinsky.

I got up out of a sick bed to box Tom. I wanted to call the fight off. Mike Collins came to my home where I was in bed. Calling off the fight would have meant a big loss to Collins, to Manager Reddy, and I could also use the $4,000 I hoped to get nicely.

I told Collins:

"Go ahead; if I can get out of bed and into the ring I'll be there." I was covered with boils the day of the bout, and had nine of them lanced also; I had a fever, but got it down and got by the medical examination. Although weak and sick, my back ached, my legs were numb. I had dark specks in front of my eyes. I said my prayers, gritted my teeth, and said, "I'm going to go those ten round."

I know it was not a good fight, but those who saw it know that I kept after Gibbons all the way, even though I do not know how I did it.

Ill When He Boxed Tom.

Now, then, that's the sort of condition I was in, through a bad hip and pressed nerves causing bladder trouble. Now, if in that condition I could give Dempsey the kind of arguments I did twice in 1918, why should I not feel confident of beating him when I meet him for the third time?

I have fought once in the past fourteen months, that bout with Jack Moran in Minneapolis, and I stopped him nicely. I am stronger than ever before. I am heavier by about fifteen pounds than when I quit boxing. Each pound has brought increased strength. I am faster, my eyes are better, clear, not blurred. I am punching harder, as Dempsey will find out. I can stand a jar on the head or side better. I proved to all the critics who have seen me that I am a new Miske.

That's why I expect to win and bring back with me to my home city of St. Paul the heavyweight championship of the world.

I hear that a lot of my friends are saying that "Bill is through; he's been sick for a year; has had but one easy bout, and now is going to bet the big purse with Dempsey, and then he's through."

Expects to Beat Champion.

Now, do not think anything like that. I would not meet Dempsey if I did not think I had a very good chance of beating him.

I am going to try my best to win, but if I do not I will give Dempsey such a fight that I can go on out and clean up $100,000 in the next year or so.

Now as to the $25,000 I am receiving for this fight. I can make that much in four or five bouts, say with Bob Martin, Martin Burke of New Orleans, Gene Tunney and others. But with this $25,000 I am getting a crack at the world's title, which I have so often dreamed about and wished that I might some day have.

Dempsey is heralded as a "superman," as the greatest fighter of all times. I see where one writer says he is the greatest puncher that the ring ever saw. As I sat in the arena on July 4, 1919, and saw Dempsey batter that great big Jess Willard, I marveled. If I had not met Dempsey twice previous to that bout I might really wonder now if I could take any of Dempsey's punches and stand up. But I know I can, and have taken them in two fights and was never off my feet.

RACE FOR ATTENDANCE NOW ON IN MINT

Toronto, Aug. 30.—There have been some entirely unexpected developments in the matter of attendance throughout the Michigan-Ontario League during the present season. There has been a very gratifying increase on the whole, and the confidence reposed in the league by those who invested their money in the clubs has been fully justified. The inaugural season of 1919 was highly successful. Predictions of further successes in 1920 have been realized.

From now until the close of the campaign next month, there will be a race for attendance honors. Throughout the league efforts are being made by club owners and fans to improve the positions the various clubs held last season in the matter of attendance. The race in this respect right now is very close and the remaining games will provide a test of the civic pride and loyalty of the basebal lenthusiasts to their respective cities. At the close of the season a comparative table showing increases or decreases in attendance between 1919 and 1920 will be issued. Rumors of changes in the composition of the circuit are heard again. Clubs' claims to recognition will be based largely on the support accorded the teams this season. Attendance at games during the month of September promises to be much greater than during the same month last season. The M.-O. League teams are playing class AA ball.

NOTTS WIN CRICKET.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—(By Canadian Press.) — One cricket championship match was finished on Saturday, when Notts beat Derbyshire by 197 runs, after declaring the second inning closed at 252 for seven wickets. The best individual scores were Whysall's 142 and J. Gunn's 123, not out, for the winners and Oliver's 170 for Derbyshire.

NAPS SLIP DOWN TO THIRD RUNG ON ONE-RUN DEFEAT

Senators Administer Close Win On Indians—Yanks Also Win Close One.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Cleveland lost to Washington today 3 to 2 and dropped to third place. With the score tied at 2 all in the ninth inning Judge doubled and reached third on Milan's bunt. Morton replaced Coveleskie and purposely passed Rice, filling the base. Brower singled, scoring Judge with the winning run.

Score:		R.H.E.
Cleveland	000 101 000—	2 8 2
Washington	002 000 001—	3 9 1

Coveleskie, Morton and O'Neil; Courtney and Gharrity.

DOUBLE DOES IT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Ward's double in the ninth after he had struck out three times today, scored Lewis and New York won from St. Louis 4 to 3. Quinn put the Yankees in the lead in the fifth inning, when his home run scored Ruel ahead of him. In the sixth the Browns hit Quinn hard and got two runs on four hits before Mays was called in.

Score:		R.H.E.
St. Louis	000 003 000—	3 10 1
New York	000 020 101—	4 9 1

Shocker and Severoid; Quinn, Mays and Ruel.

George Orme, of Sox, Sold To the Boston Red Sox

BRANTFORD, Ont., Aug. 29.—The first of the Brantford Red Sox to go to the majors this year is George Orme, star outfielder, batting .320 to date, and one of the league leaders in stolen bases. He will go to Chicago at the end of the Michigan-Ontario season, and there join the Boston Red Sox, who will be playing there. It is expected that three others of the Brantford Red Sox will be sold.

MARSH OF LONDON HUNT FOURTH IN PROV. GOLF PLAY

Brazier of Stratford Is Third After Marsh Was Disqualified.

Davie Black of the Shaughnessy Heights Club, Vancouver, formerly of Rivermead, won the professional championship of Canada on Saturday. In the annual tournament of the Professional Golfers' Association, held over the course of the Royal Ottawa Club, Black was victorious against representatives of nearly every other club in Canada. The Vancouver professional reached the height of his form and turned in a remarkable score of 135 for the two rounds of medal play, being ten shots lower than his nearest competitor, George Ayton, of Regina, Sask., and thirteen better than the third man, K. Marsh of London, Ont.

Black, in addition to winning the Dominion professional championship, also carried off the P. D. Ross Challenge Cup.

This is the third time in succession that Black has won the professional championship, as he captured it in 1913 and again in 1919, play having been suspended during the war. George Ayton of Regina was second with 145, while Kearney Marsh of the London Hunt Club, and W. J. Brazier of Stratford tied for third and fourth honors with 148, but Marsh disqualified himself by playing two strokes with some other person's ball. Marsh played both shots into the rough, but was disqualified, so third prize goes to Brazier.

Some of the scores:

D. L. Black, Vancouver	68	67	135
G. Ayton, Regina	73	72	145
K. Marsh, London	70	78	148
W. J. Brazier, Stratford	72	76	148
A. Keeling, Sandwich	76	77	153

DE PALMA WINS ELGIN ROAD RACE IN RECORD TIME

Milton, Second, Was Just Minute Behind—Murphy Was Third.

ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 28.—Ralph De Palma, Italian speed king, added another jewel to his crown this afternoon by a brilliant victory in the annual auto race here this afternoon. His time for the 250 miles was 3:09:54, or 79.50 miles an hour—a record for the course.

Tommy Milton was second, a little more than a minute behind, with Jimmy Murphy a close third, in 2:12:47.

The winner led from the start. Though maintaining a record pace, he was never more than a minute and a half ahead at any stage of the race.

Not a stop was made by any of the leaders, either for gas or tires. But two halts were made by any of the eight contestants in the race, and one of these was for a switch of drivers. Race officials declare the race to be the most remarkable run on any course since the sport began.

DePalma won $6,000 for finishing first, a trophy cup and $3,000 additional because he led on each of the 30 laps at $100 each.

The last man to finish in the money was Percy Ford. Finishing outside the prize list were Tom Alley and Gaston Chevrolet.

EDGAR OPEN GOLF CHAMPION FOR HIS SECOND TIME

OTTAWA, Aug. 29.—For the second year in succession J. Douglas Edgar of the Druid Hills Club, Atlanta, Ga., is the Canadian national open golf champion. In the play-off at the Rivermead Golf Club on Saturday of their triple tie, Edgar, playing magnificently, defeated T. D. Armour of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Charles B. Murray, of Royal, Montreal. Edgar finished the 18 holes with a card of 73, and Murray finished second with a score of 74, while Armour was third with 75. Douglas Edgar thus takes the championship back to the United States. He defeated the cream of the Canadian amateur and professional open opponents and proved himself a wonderful player.

One of the largest galleries which has ever made its way out to the course was on hand to witness the deciding round of the tournament. Several hundred were present when Edgar, Armour and Murray drove off at the first tee at 2:30, and the spectators increased in number until nearly 600 were present when they drew toward the last green. Excitement ran high from start to finish, and though Edgar won the first hole and was in front throughout, he was never more than two up on his rivals, and at times it looked as though Murray or Armour would pull out and defeat the famous player from the South.

The cards of the three playtrs were as follows:

T. D. Armour, Edinburgh:

Out	444	444	446	—38
In	443	353	375	—37
Total				75

J. D. Edgar, Atlanta:

Out	443	443	354	—34
In	353	643	654	—39
Total				73

C. R. Murray, Royal Montreal:

Out	464	443	543	—37
In	553	443	454	—37
Total				74

Edgar, champion for 1919 and 1920, carried off the $300 prize and the Rivermead Golf Club challenge cup, while Armour received an order for $100 on the Henry Birks Company. Charlie Murray took down $200 and a silver medal.

J. K. L. ROSS' HORSE SETS WORLD RECORD

Sir Barton, Four-Year-Old, in Sensational Contest At Saratoga.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 29.—A new world's record for a mile and three-sixteenths was established here on Saturday, when Commander J. K. L. Ross' Sir Barton, 4-year-old, captured the Merchants' and Citizens' handicap, covering the distance in 1:55 3-5. Sir Barton, carrying 133 pounds, clipped two-fifths of a second from the old mark made by Cudgel in 1918.

The contest was one of the most sensational seen on a metropolitan racetrack in years.

KELLY WINS SINGLE SCULLS

BRUSSELS, Aug. 29.—Jack Kelly, Vesper Boat Club, Philadelphia, single sculls champon of the United States, defeated J. Beresford, Jun., the British sculler, in the final heat of the Olympic single sculls race here today. Kelly time was 7 minutes, 36 seconds. Notwithstanding his hard singles event, Kelly doubled with Costello for the double sculls, the pair winning easily by five lengths, after taking the lead at 1,000 metres.

The United States eight-oared crew defeated the English eight in the final of the Olympic race for eight-oared boats with coxswain. The winners covered the distance in 6 minutes, 5 sconds, to the losers' 6 minutes, 5 4-5 seconds. The time is a new world's record for the 2,000 metres.

The eight-oared event was the greatest of the day. The Leander crew, representing Great Britain, took a slight lead, which it increased to half a length at the 1,000 metres. Both crews were rowing 38 strokes a minute.

Here the United States midshipmen increased their power, and after each crew had alternately taken the lead, spurted ahead 150 metres from the finish. The middies won by a half-length sitting up and fresh, while the English eight crossed the line bent over and utterly rowed out.

The regatta was witnessed by a large crowd on both banks of the canal.

Following are the summaries in today's rowing finals:

Four-oared race—Switzerland 1, United States 2, Norway 3. Time, 6:54.

Single sculls—Kelly, United States, 1; Beresford, England, 2. Time, 7 minutes, 35 seconds.

Pair oared, with coxswain—Italy 1, France 2, Switzerland 3. Time, 8:56.

Double sculls, without coxswain—United States 1, Italy 2, France 3. Time, 7 minutes, 9 seconds.

Eight-oared race—United States 1, England 2. Time, 6 minutes, 5 seconds.

The double-oared event, with coxswain, was won by Italy in the last 100 metres, with the French and Swiss crews collapsing and paddling at the finish.

WINNIPEG WINS.

FORT WILLIAM, Aug. 29.—The Winnipeg Britannias won the Connaught cup football match here on Saturday. They defeated Fort William's C. P. R. team by 1 to 0.

Fort William, Ont., Aug. 29.—The winners will play the Westinghouse team of Hamilton a two-game series for the Connaught cup and the Canadian soccer championship, September 4 and 6, the first game to be played at Toronto next Saturday, the second and final game at Hamilton on the Monday following.

HAS NOW THROWN HIS CRUTCH AWAY

Weatherdon Says He Is Entirely Free of Rheumatism Since Taking Tanlac.

"I feel I ought to let everybody know how Tanlac has relieved me of rheumatism, for I doubt if anyone has suffered worse than I have during the last ten years," said William Weatherdon of 118 Agricola street, Halifax, N. S.

"I used to ache all over with pain that seemed to go right to the marrow of my bones and drive me almost frantic. At times I couldn't bend my arms enough to get my coat on, and it was only with great pain and difficulty that I could stoop over at all.

"My feet swelled up so that I was unable to get my shoes on and my knees got so stiff that I was barely able to get around with the help of a crutch. My hands were all drawn up, so I couldn't use them, and at night my whole body ached, so I couldn't sleep.

"The way Tanlac helped me is simply wonderful. I have taken seven bottles altogether, and the rheumatism seems to have left my system entirely. Today I haven't an ache or a pain in my body and all the stiffness and swelling has left my joints, I no longer need crutches to get about and, although I am working every day, exposed to all kinds of weather, the rheumatism never gives me a bit of trouble. Never in my life have I known a medicine to do what Tanlac has done for me, and I strongly recommend it to all who suffer as I did."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

A. L. IVENS CAPTURES AMERICAN HANDICAP

Springs Surprise by Breaking 99 Out of 100 Targets At Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 29.—Breaking 99 of the 100 targets, Albert L. Ivins, Red Bank, N. J., yesterday sprang a surprise when he won the Grand American Handicap, the classic event of the week's international trap-shooting tournament here. When the shooting was interrupted by rain Friday Ivins had shot at 75 targets, missing the 53rd. Yesterday he ran 25 straight and won. He had never been to a Grand American Handicap at clay targets before. Ivins shot from the 19-yart line.

Second place was won by Edgar H. Sturtz, Hailton, Ontario, with 98. Third place was a tie between H. Kay of Oakland, Cal., Nick Arie, Beard, Texas; his brother, Mark Arie, Champaign, Ill; Woolfolk Henderson, Lexington, Ky., and S. S. Hopkins, Lewiston, N. Y., at 97.

Notwithstanding that the entrants were less than in several years, there were 334,700 targets thrown. The tournament closed yesterday, and the Grand American Handicap will be staged again next year.

MFRS. LEAGUE ORDER GAME REPLAYED AT QUEEN'S PARK

The protest committee of the league has ordered the game between London Bolt and Hinge vs. G. T. R., played August 24 last, to be replayed Tuesday night, August 31, at Queen's Park at 6 o'clock sharp.

This game has considerable bearing on the standing of the second series, as a win for the Bolt Works would mean a tie, as they have only lost one game. If the G. T. R. wins it gives them the cup, and the record of having lost no games in either series. A large crowd of fans, no doubt, will be on hand.

TOM WATSON DIES

Toronto, Aug. 29.—Thomas Watson, a member of the staff of the Evening Telegram of this city, and one of the outstanding authorities on soccer football in Canada, died at his home here today. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and was prominent in football in Scotland while a boy. He came to Canada in 1912. In 1913-14 he was president of the Dominion Football Association, and was one of the founders of the Provincial League, which was finally merged with the T. D. F. A. At the last meeting of the Ontario Football Association Mr. Watson was elected president.

"Tom" Watson will be missed from soccer circles, not only because of his enthusiasm and helpful work for the game, but because of his lovable disposition.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Aug. 30.—October wheat opened 1⅛c lower at $2 61½.

October oats opened ⅛c higher at 80⅞c; December oats opened unchanged at 75¼c, and May opened ⅛c higher at 89⅝c.

October barley opened ¼c higher at $1 22¼.

October flax opened 1½c lower at $3 40.

October rye opened unchanged at $1 96½.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Opening: Wheat—Dec., $2 35½; March, $2 32.

Corn—Sept., $1 43¼; Dec., $1 19¼.

Oats—Sept., 67⅝c; Dec., 67⅝c.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Weakness developed in the wheat market today, owing more or less to bearish estimates of the Canadian crop. Demand was light.

Opening prices, which ranged from the same as Saturday's finish to ½c lower, were followed by a moderate setback all around.

Larger receipts depressed corn. After opening unchanged to ⅜c lower, the market underwent a general sag.

Oats held within narrow limits. The start was ¼c off to ⅛c up, with a subsequent slight general gain.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

New York, Aug. 30—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Shorts were in indisputable control of the market during the morning, the entirelist, excepting rails, continuing to lose ground. In addition to ois, equipments, steels, motors, food and miscellaneous shares fell 1 to 3 points. Replogle was under continual pressure, declining 3¼ points. Harvester last 3, General Chemical 3, and American Chemical 2 points. The cheaper automobile shares and their subsidiaries forfeited 1 to 3 points. Further losses were made by Crucible, Canadium and Republic. Foreign exchange was in no wise benefited by reports of the completion of arrangements for payment of the Anglo-French loan, and call money opened at 8 per cent.

1:30 p.m.—The reaction became more general at midday. Atlantic-Gulf then showed a loss of 4 points, Republiic Motor 5, Kelly-Springfield 2¾, Famous Players 2 and ReRmington Typewriter 1½ points. United States Steel also became heavy, but rails continued to resist bear pressure.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE.

Toronto, Aug. 30.—Price changes were irregular on the stock exchange this morning, but gains were more numerous than losses. While business was far from normal, transactions were a little heavier than during the last few sessions. Atlantic Sugar was strong throughout the morning at 140. F. N. Burt preferred showed an advance of a point at 92, while Steamships preferred was fractionally higher at 92. C. P. R. sold ex-diviidend at 135. Steel Corporation was one of the weakest issues, selling down 1½ points from 60. Provincial Paper lost half a point at 114, and Spanish River 1½ points at 122.

Western Canada Pulp featured the unlisted department, selling up to 40, with 39¼ bid for more at the close of the morning trading.

WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 30.—Wall Street.—10:30 a.m.—Despite last Saturday's favorable clearing house statement stocks were heavy to weak at the opening of today's trading, oils, equipments and steels being the centre of another selling movement. Mexican Petroleum lost 1¾ points, Baldwin Locomotive 1⅜, and Vanadium Steel 1½ points. Others of the leaders of the industrial division were fractionally lower. Local tractions were not affected to a material extent by the strike on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system. Rails were well supported, an early advance of one point for St. Louis and Southwestern preferred suggesting further buying of these speculative transportations.

MONEY.

London, Aug. 30.—Closing: Money, 5½ per cent.

Discount rates—Short bills, 6½ per cent; three months, 6¾ per cent.

Gold premiums at Lisbon, 140.

PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Higher quotations on hogs gave strength to provisions. Most of the trade was in lard.

BRANTFORD'S STAR PITCHER IS SOLD

Brantford, Aug. 30.—Announcement was made this morning that Tom Estelle, the Brantford Red Sox pitching ace, had been sold to Louisville of the American Association, and will report to them at the end of the Michigan-Ontario League season; Sumpter Clark will go to the Chicago Nationals for a tryout as an infielder, he having been doing sensational work since he was brought in to take Stupp's place at third base, when Stupp broke his leg. Werre, first baseman, it is expected, will also be sold. George Orme has already been sold to the Boston Red Sox.

MONTREAL MAN ELECTROCUTED.

Montreal, Aug. 30.—Darius Nantel, 30, was instantly killed last night when he tried to disentangle a parachute from the wires on Hadley street, where it had become fixed after a successful descent from a balloon by a young woman. Nantel had been warned by firemen not to attempt to touch the parachute.

RUDDY CHEEKS, SPARKLING EYES, WOMANLY HEALTH

Thousands of Vigorous, Happy Girls and Women Indorse the Treatment.

BRINGS KEEN APPETITE, GOOD SPIRITS.

Women who are all played out, droopy, pale, nervous and irritable will certainly be greatly interested. So will folks who are embarrassed with pimples, rashes and pallid complexion.

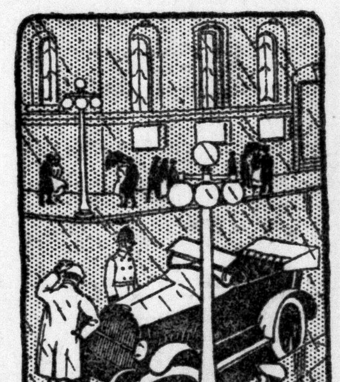

The real joy of living is best known to those who keep the blood pure and the system toned by the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, a soothing tonic laxative that puts health, vim and spirits into those who lack these qualities.

You will be stronger, better nourished, in better spirits, and sleep better after using Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

This wonderful medicine will do you good in a hundred ways. It will put spring in your step, an attractive brightness in your eyes, and on your cheeks will be stamped the glow and blush of a June rose. All this is possible because Dr. Hamilton's Pills bring about vigorous digestion, perfect assimilation, pure blood and a proper working of all the organs.

The benefits from Dr. Hamilton's Pills come about in a natural, soothing, easy way, and girls and women of all ages are advised to try this old-time family remedy, which is sold by all dealers in 25c boxes.

Why carry these risks?

A LITTLE skid—but fixing a wheel, the windshield, fender and radiator cost us $95. A woman stepping suddenly from the sidewalk was hit—slightly—by one of our policy holders. It cost us $150. In another case, just a word to a companion at his side—a car ahead stopping suddenly—crash!—our cheque was issued for $265!

In competition with us you can't afford to carry these risks!

Rupture Expert

FOR

Men, Women and Children

AT

Hotel Belvedere London Ont.

REPRESENTING

W. S. Rice:

Adams, N. Y.

Our expert, C. N. Dewey, will be at the Hotel Belvedere, London, Ontario, September 1, 2, 3 and 4. Every ruptured man, woman and child should take advantage of this opportunity.

The Rice Method for rupture is known the whole world over. You can now see this method demonstrated and have a Rice Appliance fitted to you. Absolutely no charge unless you are satisfied to keep the outfit after having the Appliance adjusted and you see how perfectly and comfortably it holds. No harsh, deep-pressing springs, nothing to gouge the flesh and make you sore. Can be worn night and day with positive comfort. Soft, rubber-like composition pad, any degree of pressure required.

Don't wear a truss all your life when thousands have reported cures through using the Rice Method. Why suffer the burden of rupture if there is a chance to be free from truss - wearing forever? Anyway, it will cost you nothing to come in and see Mr. Dewey at the Hotel Belvedere. Office hours, 9 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m., evenings 7 to 9.

Don't miss this great opportunity to see an expert on Hernia.

REDS AND ROBBINS DROP GAMES AND GAPS CLOSE UP

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Terry's double in the ninth inning sent Tyler home with the run that gave Chicago a victory over Brooklyn in the final game of the series today by a score of 4 to 3. The Cubs took an early lead by launching hits behind a pair of Brooklyn errors, but the visitors bunched hits and tied the count, when Deal put Chicago in front again with a home run drive. Two hits with a wild pitch in between let Brooklyn tie the score again in the eighth.

The score: R.H.E.
Brooklyn .. ..100 100 010—3 11 2
Chicago .. ..020 100 001—4 9 1
Mamaux, Smith and Miller; Tyler and O'Farrell.

GIANTS COP SERIES.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 29.—The Giants made a clean sweep of their series with the champions by taking the third and final game of the series. Barnes was in rare form and was not scored on until the eighth inning. Owing to wet grounds the second game was called off.

The score: R.H.E.
New York .....000 030 010—4 11 2
Cincinnati .. ..000 000 010—1 4 1
Barnes and Smith; Ring, Bresaler and Wingo.

YANK SWIMMERS WIN 800-METRE RELAY RACE

ANTWERP, Aug. 29.—The United States swimming team won the final of the 800-metre swimming relay race here today, creating a new Olympic record of 10 minutes, 4 2-5 seconds. The team was composed of Duke Kahanomoku, Honolulu; Norman Ross, Illinois A. C.; Perry McGillivray, Illinois A. C., and P. Kealoha, Honolulu.

The Australian team finished second and the English team third. The old Olympic record, 10 minutes, 11 1-5 seconds, was made by the Australian team in the Stockholm Olympiad of 1912.

The final heat of the 400-metre relay Olympic swimming race for women was won by the United States team. The team hung up a new Olympic record for the event.

MORAN GETS DECISION OVER CHARLIE WHITE

East Chicago, Ind., Aug. 29.—Pal Moran of New Orleans had the better of Charlie White of Chicago in a ten-round bout here Saturday night. Moran carried the fighting to White all the way, and after a furious exchange of blows in the final round White fell into a clinch to wait for the bell. White lost his forfeit when he went into the ring weighing 135¾ pounds, three-quarters of a pound above the figure agreed upon.

White in a few rounds gave a good exhibition of infighting, but Moran's superior footwork carried him out of danger.

WATCH YOUR GUMS— BLEEDING A SIGN OF TROUBLE

Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it knows that tender and bleeding gums are the fore-runners of Pyorrhea, that dread disease which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

If the disease is unchecked, the gum-line recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the Pyorrhea poisons generated at their base—poisons which seep into the system and wreck the health. They cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anaemia, and many other ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment.

At The Theaters

AT THE GRAND.

"HELLO ALEXANDER" TONIGHT.

One of the most surprising incidents of the current theatrical season is the unusual hit scored by the Misses Vivian Holt and Lillian Rosedale in McIntyre and Heath's jazzified extravaganza "Hello Alexander," coming to the Grand tonight for an engagement of two nights only.

For two years, explain these young ladies, they have been fighting to preserve their musical chastity. The fact that "Hello Alexander" is a literal riot of jazz did not daunt these young ladies nor deter them from carrying out their plans to interpolate several operatic numbers. Their friends tried to discourage them, insisting that opera amongst jazz was just as much out of place as a business suit at a formal supper. But, like the celebrated Steve Brodie, they "took a chance"—and won.

The Misses Holt and Rosedale have had an interesting career. Miss Rosedale claims but three years of theatrical experience. In that period of time she has risen from obscurity to a commanding position in her chosen profession. Her association with Miss Holt began almost at the outset of her career. Miss Holt has been on the stage for nine years, during which time she has appeared in character roles in a number of productions. As both recently expressed themselves, the Misses Holt and Rosedale intend to continue their stage partnership in the hope that they eclipse the world's record, now held by McIntyre and Heath,—forty-five years of active association. While they never intend to enter the domain of jazz, they have fond hopes of some day playing the principal roles in a romantic operatta —a hope that may soon be realized, according to a recent announcement by the Messrs. Shubert.

"MADAMOISELLE OF BULLY GRENAY."

Come and laugh through an evening with the troops. The great war was not quite all mud and "crumps." Wander into Julie's estaminet and visit No. 16 Platoon in a real cushy billet. Listen to the language of the troops, hear their quips and jests and laugh with them if 'Erbert 'Awkins does "grouse" don't forget that he and his kind are of the "die-hard" breed.

If your son or nephew landed at the front with "his" commission, come and see what a time he had. Maybe he hasn't told you all about it. Now you will understand why he is so glad to meet any of the men who served in his platoon.

Hear the marching songs and trench ditties, which helped to make the rough spots easier. But, first, last and all the time, and find out the spirit that carried the army through until the war was won. See the Poor Bally Infantry "carrying on" in the great war. Seats go on sale today for both performances Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

EDNA GOODRICH IN "SLEEPING PARTNERS."

One of the most renowned beauties of the American stage in one of the most-talked of comedies of the year will be seen at the Grand next Friday and Saturday evenings, with popular Saturday matinee, when Miss Edna Goodrich will personally appear in "Sleeping Partners." Miss Goodrich has appeared here as leading woman and co-star with Nat Goodwin, and her present vehicle has behind it a record of success in New York and Chicago, Paris and London. This is the only organization on tour in this play, and the original production, which was seen at the Bijou Theatre in New York, will be used in the current presentation.

"CHU CHIN CHOW" COMING.

"Chu Chin Chow," the big musical extravaganza, now in the fifth year of its amazing run at His Majesty's Theatre in London, and which ran an entire season at the Century Theatre in New York, will be presented at the Grand in this city September 16, 17, 18. The coming of this famous and brilliant attraction, which is said to have been breaking all known records everywhere, promises to be one of the real theatrical "high lights" of the current theatrical season. "Chu Chin Chow" was produced by F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, and ran an entire season in New York at the Century Theatre. It has been praised as the most bewildering and beautiful productions ever made in America. It is a musical romance of ancient Bagdad, told in fourteen scenes and utilizing the services of more than 300 people. Seats by mail now if accompanied by check, postal or express order, including tax.

AT LOEW'S.

Theatregoers may now enjoy once more the brilliant performances of William Faversham, who, after an absence of several years from American dramatic activities, appears in the ranks of motion picture stars under Selznick management. His first production as a Selznick star is "The Man Who Lost Himself," a romantic mystery drama by H. de Vere Stacpoole, which will grace the screen at Loew's for the next three days. The "Man Who Lost Himself" depicts the experiences of a financially embarrassed American in London. He becomes someone else over night without his consent or knowledge, and has some equally thrilling and laughable times passing from the true self to a false one. The situation is complicated by the existence of a wife, relatives, a fortune and a title. A funny Vitagraph comic, Loew's Pictorial and Loew's extraordinary vaudeville completes the entertainment for the next three days.

REX BEACH'S "GOING SOME" HITS THE HIGH SPOTS OF FUN AT ALLEN TODAY.

Fun with a hundred punches, thrills with a countless number of laughs, that is Rex Beach's great comedy feature "Going Some," which is shown at the Allen today, tomorrow and Wednesday.

With Cullen Landis, the fat and funny Walter Hiers, beautiful Ethel Grey Terry and a supporting cast of unusual comedians, "Going Some" is a picture which you will remember and chuckle over for months. Just think of the fun—here is an outline of the story: A cheer leader taken at his own estimate as a champion sprinter by a lot of cowboys who have lost their money to the fast-footed cook of a ranch. They seize upon their cheer leader and stake three months' pay on him. Before the great race is won the two ranches and a couple of youthful hearts are amongst the wagers also. Then the cowboys begin to suspect, through their champion's rival in love, that he is not such a great racer after all—there's all sorts of h—l apopping to a hot and unexpected finish. Among the extra attractions will be a big Christie comedy, the always interesting Allen News, beautiful scenics and an overture by the famous Allen concert orchestra.

H. B. WARNER IN "THE WHITE DOVE" AT THE PATRICIA.

How a secret may lie safely hidden for years until it rises at the wrong moment, like a grim spectre to bring misery to innocent persons is dramatically shown in "The White Dove," the H. B. Warner special, released by Robertson-Cole, which will be seen at the Patricia Theatre for three days, starting today.

In this picture, which is founded on the novel by William J. Locke, Mr. Warner has the role of Dr. Sylvester Lanyon, a physician called in to treat an old friend who has been fatally hurt, and who learns from the latter's

ALL ABOUT MUSIC.

The new catalogue of Victrola Records that will be sent to anyone on application from the Victrola Parlors of Ye Olde Firme, Heintzman & Co., Limited, 242 Dundas street, London, is a perfect encyclopaedia of music. It contains 9,000 selections within its 620 pages, and a literary-music interest is added to the catalogue in the number of illustrations that appear of famous artists and sketches of these people and of famous operas. b

GROCERS EXPECT ANOTHER DROP IN SUGAR PRICE

Toronto Wholesalers Uncertain As To Time of Anticipated Fall.

TORONTO, Aug. 29.—Another drop in the price of sugar in this city is anticipated by the wholesale grocers, but they cannot predict just when it may come and to what extent the drop may be. The retail price at present is from 22 cents to 23 cents a pound. It is stated by some wholesalers that sugar stocks among the wholesale houses in Toronto are light. The market generally is in a state of expectancy.

FATAL AUTO CRASH AT MORPETH LATE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

14-Year-Old Boy Crushed To Death Under Heavy Car.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

MORPETH, Aug. 29.—The 14-year-old son of George Neville of Detroit was instantly killed here late this afternoon, when two big autos crashed together at a cross road, and one of the cars was turned over, pinning the lad under its weight and crushing him to death.

Mr. Neville, who was driving a big Overland motor, was proceeding from Detroit to Aylmer, East Elgin, accompanied by his two sons, aged 14 and 12, to visit some friends and was crossing a road at Morpeth, a clear view of which, it is stated, was obscured by some buildings, when a big car driven by Miss Shirley Lawton, daughter of Dr. Lawton of Ridgetown, crashed into the Overland, turning it completely over.

Mr. Neville and his younger son escaped with a severe shaking and some minor injuries. Drs. Marr and Gillies of Ridgetown were called, and an inquest has been ordered for Tuesday next. Miss Lawton escaped injury.

RETURNED SOLDIER BADLY BURNED WHEN GASOLENE TANK BURSTS

Accident Happened at Port Stanley on Saturday Night.

PORT STANLEY, Aug. 29.—Mrs. J. F. Thompson, who has charge of the first aid station at Port Stanley, reports a total of 393 cases treated in the hospital to date. One of the most recent cases was that of a returned soldier who keeps a stand at the holiday resort. The gasoline tank of a popcorn machine took fire in some way, and he was terribly burned when the burning gas was sprayed over his face.

Protection Needed.

Mrs. Thompson comments strongly of the need for protection at the cliff edge at Invererie Hights. No less than six serious concussion and fracture cases have resulted from the unprotected condition of the cliff, says Mrs. Thompson, adding that when one was killed and the public rose in arms about it, no doubt measures would be taken, but that prevention was surely better than cure.

TOWN PLAN EXPERT IS IN THE CITY

Noulan Couchon Comes To Speak To Council—Guest of Convention.

Noulan Cauchon, town planning expert from Ottawa, arrived in the city last night, having come here to address the city council and the town planning committee.

When interviewed last night, he stated that he was also here as a guest of the architects' convention, which opens here this week. His advent was the result of the civic authorities' invitation. Mr. Cauchon has been in the city on other occasions, laying before the city's representatives plans for a greater London, including a union station and municipal buildings.

100,000 COMING

WINNIPEG, Aug. 28.—(Canadian Press.) — One hundred thousand immigrants to Canada will come from the United States next year.

That was the view expressed generally by members of a party of 40 American bankers, businessmen and farmers, who last night completed a 3,000-mile trip through the prairie provinces of Western Canada. The party, which left Winnipeg on August 18, took the first of a series of immigration prospecting trips to be conducted by the industrial and resources department of the Canadian National Railways. Heavy purchases of prairie lands were made by several of the visitors.

DEMOCRATIC FORCES IN CANADA MUST JOIN TO BEAT TORYISM

Mackenzie King Makes Stirring Appeal To Farmers and Labor To Get Together Under Liberal Flag To Avoid Defeat Before Determined Onslaught of Reactionaries —Bureau Denies Cleavage Between Ontario and Quebec.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Aug. 28.—(By Canadian Press).—Addressing an open air meeting held under the auspices of the Leeds and Brockville Liberal Association Saturday afternoon, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal Opposition in the Federal Parliament, made a strong bid for the rallying of farmers and labor to the ranks of the Liberal party on the plea that it would be better for democratic forces of all classes and shades of opinion to unite against what he termed reactionary Toryism.

In laying down the Liberal platform Mr. King stressed his claim that the Liberal party alone stands for the right of the people to govern themselves. He contended that at the present time there is neither a representative Parliament nor a responsible ministry. Other speakers included Hon. Jacques Bureau, who made strong protestations against the supposed cleavage between Quebec and other provinces of the Dominion, and sought to correct what he held to be misrepreesntation of the oldest province.

The Hon. G. P. Graham and J. H. J. Logan, ex-member of Amherst, N. S., also spoke. The meeting was attended by about 1,500 persons.

Alludes To Traditions.

Speaking for about an hour and a quarter, Hon. Mackenzie King opened with an allusion to traditions, in which his name had been mentioned by the chairman, and said:

"We may have new parties spring up here and there, but after all the forces that are going to count in the long run are not the new forces that have just came into being, but the old forces that have come with might through the centuries, replenished, renewed and revived by new springs of influence and power, which come with changing times and seasons."

Referring to the presence of Jacques Bureau on the platform the speaker spoke of the help he had lately received from Quebec members in his campaign, and added that he had heard there was to be a society formed for the better understanding of the two provinces.

"What better understanding cany uo have between the Hon. Jacques Bureau and myself?" he asked. "What we want is not to talk about better understanding, but to come and know each other, and then there will be no necessity to talk about better understanding."

French War Service.

From this the Hon. Mr. King went on to speak of the war service that had been rendered by French-Canadian members and Liberal members or their sons, mentioning several by name, explaining that he did so because some of them who read the perorations of Premieer Mighen might think that the Union Government had saved the country.

"In my opinion it is the worst of any taste in any man, especially the one who calls himself the first citizen of the country, to monopolize the honor of having saved the country in the war. The Liberal party seeks to see that these sacrifices are not all in vain."

Turning to the speech recently delivered by Hon. Hugh Guthrie at Truro, when the solicitor-general, in referring to Mr. King's meeting, had expressed the opinion that the latter would find old-time Liberals pretty scarce in the province of Ontario, the leader of the Opposition retorted: "If all the old-time Liberals indicated by Mr. Guthrie were of the type of Liberalism that would forsake all their principles for the sake of power then it is likely they have disappeared. But if they were men like the Hon. G. P. Graham who refused to go into the Union Government because he was a Liberal and felt he owed loyalty to his old chief, then the old-time Liberals are one more than ever in the past."

New-Time Liberals.

There were also new-time Liberals, the speaker added, who were seeing in the banner of Liberalism that appeal to nobler aspirations and these were coming in hundreds and thousands to their banner. Everywhere were groups which had democratic principles, and these groups had more in common with each other and with Liberalism than their leader supposed, and in the long run should become one and help to put into the laws of the land the hopes they cherished.

What was wanted was a union of those forces of a common enemy, which was reactionary and needed to be overthrown.

Mr. King proceeded to outline the policy of the Liberal party, which party, he declared, stood first and foremost for the right of the people to govern themselves. "I contend that at the present time we have neither a representative Parliament, nor have we in the true sense of the word, a responsible ministry."

New Parliament.

The only hope was a new Parliament with a ministry composed of men who had not the war habit, but the peace habit of mind for carrying out peace policies. The right of Premier Meighen to claim credit for his Government for winning the war and carrying out mobilization was also challenged by Mr. King.

Mr. King alluded to the program of tariff policy, which would be in the way of downward revision, peace policies for the encouragement of industry and promotion of good relations between employers and employees and open diplomacy.

In conclusion, Mr. King made a strong appeal to farmers and labor to unite their democratic and progressive forces.

SHEDDING OF BLOOD IS NECESSARY BEFORE REMISSION OF SINS

Rev. T. D. McCullough Talks Interestingly On Doctrine of Blood Atonement.

The doctrine of the blood atonement was interestingly and impressively presented by Rev. T. D. McCullough, secretary of the London Social Service Council, preaching on Sunday evening in New St. James's Presbyterian Church from the text "Without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin."

That idea of blood sacrifice was found all through the Old Testament, said Mr. McCullough, and it was especially emphasized throughout the Book of Levitticus. It was found in many other ancient religions, as well as in Judaism and Christianity. There were old beliefs that new land could not produce crops unless consecrated with a blood offering to the deity. An old legend connected with the founding of the city of Copenhagen is to the effect that the walls could not be laid on a stable foundation until after repeated failures a prince of royal blood offers himself as a sacrifice, and was buried alive in the foundations, which then remained firm and solid.

The marks of the cross show in all that is valuable and worth while in life and in the world, said Mr. McCullough. The sacrifice of the hard-toiling pioneers who devoted their lives to hewing homes out of the wilderness built up the Canadian nation. All great benefactors of the world, all world saviours, have given their lives and their blood, as it were, to make mankind better and happier.

Gethsemane was the crowning hour in the life and sacrifice of the Christ. After Gethsemane, where the Saviour sweat drops of blood, the cross was easy.

Without the shedding of blood there is nothing, there is no salvation. The red cross is the place of safety on the battlefield. The red cross is also the place of safety to the troubled and harassed soul in life.

A graphic war incident was related by Mr. McCullough. A Red Cross unit found itself without a flag. The surgeon took a white sheet, and, cutting the veins in his own wrist and in the wrists of his comrades, stained a crimson cross on the sheet with their own blood. Then with the flag they went out to rescue and protect the wounded.

Emphasizing the need for a more aggressive Christianity, the speaker recalled that when the Moravian Church had only 600 members, out of that small number it had missionaries in every field of the world that was then open to the preaching of the Christian gospel.

TO PLAN LARGEST BANQUET YET HELD

Men's Brotherhood Meet in Y. M. C. A. Tonight—Many Prominent Speakers.

Plans for one of the largest banquets ever held in this city will be laid before the executive of the Men's Federation of Brotherhood for London this evening, when it meets in the Y. M. C. A. building to discuss the work of the coming season. The annual banquet of the federation is to be held on September 23.

Many prominent speakers from England who will have come to America to attend the World's Brotherhood convention in Washington in October will address the assembly. Brotherhood Sunday will be celebrated in all the city churches on September 26.

Large delegations, numbering probably 200, will motor from this city to Washington, D. C., to attend the world's convention, which opens in that city on October 9. Arrangements for the transportation are already being made.

PROPERTY SOLD.

The George White property, which has 110 feet of frontage on King street and a frontage of 176 on Ridout street, the assessed value of which is $31,000, was sold to a Mr. Griffiths of Moose Jaw, Sask., for $50,000.

A. O. F. HAS RECORD CROWD AT OUTING

Fine Weather Aids Second Postponed Event — Long List of Sports.

The Ancient Order of Foresters picnicked at Springbank on Saturday afternoon. The members went down the preceding Saturday, but the rainstorm which lasted throughout the afternoon and evening prevented any program being carried out. Excellent weather on Saturday brought a record crowd to the picnic, and a program of sports under the direction of H. Cassin, F. Rossiter, D. Woods and Hugh McPherson was run off. A great deal of fun was had during the races, and everybody seemed out to capture a prize. In many races there were ties, the clothespin race being run three times on that account. A baseball game was the feature of the program, which was exciting from start to finish. Miss V. Fenn and Mrs. C. Berry were the captains of the teams. Miss Fenn's team won the game by the score of 20 to 13.

The race results were as follows:

Juvenile race—Orvill Stewart, F. McLeod, C. Tinsley.

Committeemen's race—D. Woods, F. Rossiter, H. Cassin.

Married ladies—Mrs. F. Brown, Mrs. J. W. Fenn, Mrs. D. Woods.

Married men's race—D. Woods, G. Stewart.

Single men's race—W. McLeod, L. Fenn, A. Madeley.

Boot and shoe race—O. Stewart, Miss F. McLeod, Owen Thatcher.

Girls, 5 years and under—Rosie Summers, Shirley Fenn, Vera Nutkins.

Boys, 5 years and under—Jack Broth, H. Hurst, I. Woods.

Girls, 10 years and under—Lulla Bruce, Amy Bowder, Z. Fenn.

Wheelbarrow race, lady and gentleman—R. F. and Mrs. R. F. Brown, L. and V. Fenn.

Men, 40 years and over—John Stewart, J. W. Hockney.

Ladies, 40 and over—Mrs. J. Fenn, sen., Mrs. Wright.

Obedience race—C. Manness, S. Manness, C. Berry.

Clothespin race—L. Fenn, C. Manness, M. McAdam.

Throwing the ball—Miss Vera Fenn.

Three-legged race, lady and gentleman—W. McLeod and Florence McLeod, V. Fenn and L. Fenn.

Elopement race—F. and W. McLeod, W. and J. W. Fenn.

Boys, 10 years and under—Arthur Emigh, Cliff Hawe, Frank Thatcher.

Young ladies—V. Fenn, Dorothy Bowder, Florence McLeod.

Companions of the Forest—Mrs. Berry, Mrs. C. Perrin.

WAR VETERANS AND VICTORIA CROSS MEN HONORED AT TORONTO

Geddes Welcomes Heroes At Exhibition—Urges "Work and Prosper."

TORONTO, Aug. 28.—War veterans of Canada and their kinfolk were the honored guests of the officials of the Canadian National Exhibition today, Victoria Cross and Veterans' Day, at the opening of the great annual fair. Everything on the grounds was devoted to the veteran and his relatives, from free admission at the gates to an entire reservation of the evening performance on the grandstand, which is also free to veterans and their friends.

Towards noon the sky, which had been overcast all morning, began to clear up, and everything was in readiness when the formal opening ceremonies commenced at 2 o'clock. On their arrival at the grounds shortly before 2 o'clock, at the head of a long procession of returned soldiers, Canada's winners of the much-coveted Victoria Cross, along with their admiring comrades-in-arms, were officially welcomed by Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador to the United States. Later in the afternoon the lieutenant-governor presented over 30 war decorations to those who had won them or their relatives.

Yacht races and automobile races were features of the sporting events.

GEDDES OPENS EXHIBITION.

TORONTO, Aug. 28.—"Work and prosper," was the motto which Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador to the United States, invited Canadians to adopt, during the course of his speech at the opening of the exhibition this afternoon. "But remember," he added, "that material prosperity alone can never make a nation great."

Spiritual fortitude was also required to meet all the jars and shocks that would come before peace was fully established. He laid particular stress on the opportunity presented to Canada for helping to restore the world to normal conditions, and incidentally described Canada as the sheet anchor of the British Empire. The distinguished guest dilated eloquently on the ties that bind the British and American people, and emphasized interdependence existing between Canada and the United States.

His address follows:

Anxiety Follows Strife.

"Ladies and Gentlemen,—To us who are citizens of the British Empire, some of whose fellows can at every moment watch the sun climb from behind the shoulder of the whirling world, the past years of strife inevitably brought hours of anxiety and days of danger. Not yet, and not for a long time, will the spirit of peace be reestablished in the hearts of men. We cannot hope to remain in splendid isolation. We cannot insulate ourselves from the thought currents of humanity. Whether we will it or no, whether we like it or no, we must be prepared to meet every jar and to endure every shock and every blow which angry men, disappointed men, mad men can deliver to the framework of society. That there will be jars and shocks is as certain as it is that winter will follow summer, and spring, winter. To meet them, to endure them without flinching is an affair of the spirit made strong by faith in some great ideal—the ideal of ordered freedom. But to meet and endure them without failure requires not only spiritual fortitude but material preparation. Four years of bloody war made heavy inroads on the accumulated wealth and seriously impaired the prosperity of the empire. It will take all our efforts to regain the ease and comfort and the times of quiet leisure for holidays, for art, for study, for research, and for invention that were ours before the war. To you whose proud privilege it is to be Canadians, is granted the great opportunity of helping in that restoration to an extent and in a measure that is not granted to any other of our fellow-citizens.

Lived in Canada.

"I know your spirit for I have lived among you. I never forget that by deliberate wish and choice I was one of you. I know your great country and its wonderful natural richness, for in days before the war, with pride I called it mine, but now that I am the servant of the whole empire, the servant of India, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, no less than of the West Indies, of Canada, of the British Isles, I can see you as the great part of a great whole, and realize how much for us all depends upon your efforts and upon your success. 'Work and Prosper' is a motto of no limited application. It is the motto to which must be made to ring in the ears of all the British peoples, but though it rang in the ears of England and the dominions beyond the seas, if it did not ring in Canada it would ring in vain.

"By chance, by fate, by luck, in the good providence of God, you have at this speaking, vast rich lands waiting for the plow, railways made and laid through the great Northwest that can serve the population that will come that is even now coming.

"In all sobriety of thought and in the greatest clarity of vision at my command, I see you, Canada, with your vast natural, unwasted wealth, as the sheet anchor now of the empire that we love. Within a century (and what is a century in the history of the English-speaking peoples?) you will be numbering your population not by millions, but by tens, perhaps hundreds of millions. With confidence made absolute by knowledge of you and yours I look forward to the future of your land which, when my service to the empire is finished, will I hope again be mine.

Work and Prosper.

"Work and prosper, yes, but working for yourselves under the protection of democratic laws remember that the work cannot ever be for yourselves alone, and your prosperity preserved like treasure in a napkin. Work for greater things, the British Family of Nations, whose existence, in unseen ways, in a manner that only the archives of the chanceries of the world capitals could reveal, serves, watches and protects your interests.

"And remember, too, that outside the family of nations to which we belong, is a great and powerful nation that has drawn its fundamental ideas and laws as milk from the breasts of the same old mother that nursed us in our infancy. England, mother of freedom, is now but the greatest of the sister dominions in the British Empire, but England and Britain were when Canada was not, and it was in England that a vague theory of democratic government was made into a possible national practice. America with all her power owes much to England, but let us not forget that we all owe much to America. Her interests and ours are interwoven through a million ties. It is vital for her I believe, for us I know, for the whole world I feel sure, that she and we should work together in friendship based on mutual respect and understanding. You, Canada, are her nearest neighbor. An invisible line, unfortified, unguarded, separate you and her along thousands of miles of frontier. You have the great opportunity of interpreting us to her and her to us. Your prosperity must, for many years to come, be closely linked with hers. You and she are too near neighbors not powerfully to affect one another. Your life and her life cannot fail to act and react each on the other, and as you grow more powerful and prosperous that action and reaction must increase in intensity.

All-Sufficient Reason.

"Were it possible to destroy by an effort of will all the other reasons which make friendship between all the English-speaking peoples essential, there would remain the all-sufficient reason that you, a member of the British family, and she, great and legitimately proud, are such close neighbors as to be almost economically interdependent, while your and her ideals and ambitions run on paths so closely parallel that not even the watchman on the tower can see any reason why, with prudence and statescraft on both sides, they should ever clash.

"But I have no fear for your future. During the war, with deepening pride, I watched and heard of the doings of your fighting men. The nation whose sons were such bonnie fighters, the men who did the doughty deeds the story of whose doing stands to the imperishable glory of the Canadian Corps, is not and are not of the sort that is going to fail. You are winning back fast to prosperity. This great exhibition shows that the springs of confidence and energy have not run dry in Canada. What have you to fear? Your land and its resources we know. Your climate and its vitalizing properties are the joy of all who have experienced it. The rest is in your own hands. What the red man failed to do in the millenniums you will do in the decades, for you are workers, workers by brain and hand. You have the great opportunity to serve yourselves, to serve Canada, the empire, humanity. Take it, and may God go with you.

"But remember that material prosperity alone can never make a nation great. Greatness is not in outward things. No marble palace as an habitation is required to make a man great. His greatness resides in the inward recesses of his being, and in his soul made strong by struggle and schooled to humility by disappointment, perhaps by pain and suffering. Remember the children that they must be educated to understand the nobility of work and not permitted to believe that luxury bought by wealth for which their fathers labored is theirs by some divine dispensation. It is easier to be great in the midst of hardship than in the midst of wealth, and so I would amend slightly the motto of your exhibition, and say, 'Work, that you may prosper spiritually and grow great,' for I know that if you do so, material prosperity will be yours also and your cup will overflow."
