THURSDAY EVEN'G, JAN. 30, 1873

Town and County News.

VALENTINES.—Young people, eye and many old ones too, do not forget that Friday, the 14th day of February, is fast approaching. The fine assortment of Valentines displayed in our bookstores has many ardent admirers. The long-continued custom of sending these love epistles, though materially on the decline, is still in vogue.

Y. M. C. A.—The Monthly Public Meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in their rooms this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, and it is expected that a very interesting programme will be gone through. We would invite all friends to be present, more especially the ladies.

EVANS vs. HOOGE.—We see from the Toronto papers of this morning, that in this case, which our readers will remember was tried at great length at the last Chancery Sittings here, and judgment reserved, and in which the title of the defendants to a farm in Pulnich was disputed by the plaintiff. Judgment has been given by the Chancellor dismissing the plaintiff's bill with costs.

THE St. Catharines Times says: We are informed that St. Catharines is to be blessed with another daily paper. Well, all we have to say is, the more the merrier. This business of running a daily paper is much more easily commenced than continued, and by the time a few more inexperienced novices with more money than brains have tried their hands at such a delightful pastime, the newspaper business in St. Catharines will find its true level.

NEEDED WARNING.—During one of the excessively cold mornings of last week, Mr. Henry Patmore, blacksmith, Harrison village, when lighting the fire, was astonished to see two mice, followed by the whole family, snugly ensconced themselves under the cooking stove and there remain until they received that warmth of which they evidently stood in need. Hunger has an emboldening effect as cold, and Mr. Patmore did right not to deny the poor little mice the comfort craved.

ROBBERY FROM A BEDROOM.—A daring robbery was committed in Wingham some time during the night of Monday, the 27th inst., in the house of Mr. Jindson. A young man named H. G. Cox, a tinsmith, boarding there, had his cashbox stolen out of his bedroom while asleep. It contained 563 in cash, and $547 in notes. The thief is supposed to have entered by the back door, crossed the kitchen, passed through a bedroom where two other boarders were sleeping, then through another room into this bedroom, and out again unobserved by any one. No clue has been obtained to lead to the detection of the thief.

THE HERMONDS.—Another crowded house greeted the Hermonds last night. "The Colleen Bawn," one of the most beautiful Irish dramas which has ever been written in the English language, was placed upon the boards last night, and although the smallness of the stage precluded the possibility of employing the effective and really necessary scenery in this play, yet it was so remarkably well rendered that the scenery was scarcely missed. The troupe are first class artists, and where all do so well it would be invidious to particularize. We cannot help remarking, however, that the Colleen Bawn, despite the brogue, was irresistibly charming, and it was no wonder that her husband's friend should have had an eye on her if she ever—unfortunately, of course—became a lonely widow. Johnny Ward, in his songs and dances gave great satisfaction. Mr. Healy, as Danny Moran—a character which we should like to choose—acted his part so ably and so well, that we were repeatedly enraptured. Mr. Ryder, as Father Tom, was jolly. The band played Kathleen Mavourneen, and other Irish airs so expeditiously beautiful, that it seemed as if the music were an expression of applause. Those who were present cannot but feel that, while these who were about are sorry for to-day, to-morrow the Company announce a most attractive bill—"Out of the Fire"—which is a highly interesting and novel play, in which they are drawing crowds of houses just now in Toronto, who have been pleased to see the boards by the author himself. By all means go and see the play. It is possible that the people of Guelph, who are so anxious to see the stirring drama—"East Lynne" played by this troupe, may be disappointed.

THIS Poppy has assured the new French Ambassador that he will leave Rome if the Italian Government continues its policy of suppressing the religious orders.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Livingston's Health Improving

A Strong European Alliance.

The Tichborne Claimant in Trouble.

Centennial Exposition.

Sale of Malt Liquor Prohibited.

London, Jan. 30.—Latest news from Dr. Livingstone is to 28th Sept. He had received goods sent to him by Stanley, and had gone on a final exploration. His health has improved. A war is going on in the Ouri country.

London, Jan. 29.—It is rumored that the differences between Great Britain and Russia, arising out of the Khivan question, instead of being in a fair way for mutual satisfactory adjustment, are increasing, and that France, Austria, Italy, Turkey, Denmark and Sweden, have determined to support the British Government in the position assumed.

London, Jan. 29.—The Tichborne claimant has entered into recognizances in the sum of £400 to appear before the Court of Queen's Bench, and answer a charge of contempt for certain utterances in a recent speech at Brighton.

Philadelphia, Jan. 29.—This afternoon a meeting of the citizens committee of three hundred, on Centennial, was held here. A resolution was adopted asking the city council for appropriation of one million dollars for Centennial exposition. Total amount pledged at the meeting to-day is $189,000. Total of over $6,000,000 subscribed by Philadelphia.

Boston, Jan. 29.—In the House of Representatives to-day a bill to prohibit the sale of malt liquor was ordered to the third reading. It will doubtless become a law.

The Madoc War.

LATEST ADVICES FROM THE SCENE OF HOSTILITIES.

San Francisco, Jan. 23.—The intelligence from the seat of the Madoc war is to the effect that Captain Jack is evidently contemplating a raid upon the white settlement at Battle Creek, within forty miles of Yreka. In the recent fight the Indians captured seven guns and a considerable quantity of ammunition. The particulars about the battle do not change the results as first announced. An eye-witness says that the troops fought with determined bravery, but could not see their foes. Once only during the day did the Indians manifest a willingness to fight in the open field, and a company of soldiers charged on them, when they fled back to their rocky caverns. The dense fog protected each party, and prevented the Indians from picking off the troops with their rifles at long ranges. The Oregon volunteers, acting as the rear guard, made a gallant fight, and prevented the wounded men and the howitzers and camp equipage from falling into the hands of the Madocs. Captain Jack preserves regular military discipline, and drills his men every day, with the assistance of persons well acquainted with military tactics and ambushing, and who are supposed to be renegade whites, who have become their allies. The men wounded in the fight with the Madocs are doing well. No further deaths have occurred. General Wheaton has established his headquarters at Lone Tree, and will commence active operations on the arrival of the reinforcements. He has detachments stationed to prevent the savages from raiding on the settlements. Much interest was created at Yreka by a report that a Madoc scout was seen in that vicinity, but the report is pronounced unfounded.

The Railway Fund.

ORDERS-IN-COUNCIL SUBSEQUENT TO MARCH 29th, 1872.

The following is a synopsis of the returns submitted yesterday to the House of all Orders-in-Council issued since the close of last session granting aid out of the Railway Fund—

March 25th—Granting aid to the Toronto, Grey & Bruce Railway, and the Wellington, Grey & Bruce Railway, for their lines in South Bruce.

March 25th—Granting aid to the Midland Railway Company, at the rate of $2,650 per mile, for that portion of their line between Orillia and Munday's Bay, on condition that before the 1st of June, 1872, the Northern Extension Railway Company give the Midland running powers over that portion of the Northern Extension between "The Narrows," near Atherly, and the point of intersection of the tramway at Lake St. John, according to terms settled by three arbitrators, the Midland before the 1st of July to give the Northern Extension Railway Company and the Grand Junction Railway Company, running powers over their line between Orillia and Munday's Bay.

March 25th—Granting aid to the Northern Extension Railway Company at the rate of $1,900 a mile for that portion of their line between Washington and Grayhaven, conditionally on granting running powers to the Midland Railroad Company as above.

June 11th—Granting aid to the Wellington, Grey & Bruce Railway, the Order-in-Council of the 24th March having approved, at the rate of $2,000 a mile for that portion of their line between Wingham and Kincardine, on condition of furnishing power before the 1st December, 1872, of bona fide contract for the completion of the road from Wingham to Kincardine.

November 30th—Extending the time allowed the Toronto, Grey & Bruce Railway, by the Order-in-Council of March 25th, on furnishing power of bona fide contract for the completion of the road from Harrison via Wingham to Teeswater.

The final protocol of the new treaty of commerce between Great Britain and France, was signed in Paris yesterday.

Serious Accident in Rockwood.

Special to the MERCURY.

Rockwood, Jan. 30th.—A serious accident happened to a farmer named David Moore, who lives about two miles from here. As he was chopping down a tree yesterday, it struck a stump in its fall and sprang back and knocked him down, and then fell on his legs, breaking them badly above the knees. Fortunately help was at hand and he was immediately taken home, where he lies in a dangerous condition. The doctor says this morning that he is lying easy, and if inflammation does not set in he may recover. Nothing can be done for him for a few days. Although the bones are badly broken there are no serious flesh wounds.

Local and Other Items.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A young man named Charles Lewis engaged in cutting saw logs for Mr. Benjamin, was fatally injured at Wellington Square on Wednesday, by a limb of a falling tree striking him on the temple. It is thought that death will ensue in a few hours.

ACCIDENTAL HOUSING.—A coroner's inquest was held in Wroxeter on Wednesday on the body of the late James McGee, of Turnberry. The jury's verdict was that the deceased came to his death by the shot of a gun, accidentally discharged, in the hands of Robert Yeo, on the 27th instant.

ABANDONING AN INFANT.—A lady, well attired, and with a babe four or five days old, took the cars on the Great Western at Copetown, on Wednesday evening, leaving at Lynden, and abandoning the child. At Harburg the Great Western officials assumed charge of the waif and sent it on to Hamilton.

INTENSE COLD.—The cold throughout Canada on Tuesday night was very severe. At Barrie the thermometer stood 15 degrees below zero, at Drummondville the same, at London 28, Owen Sound 20, and at Parry Sound 38 degrees below zero.

GOVERNOR DIX is irresistible, and refuses to commute Gaffrey's sentence, he will therefore suffer the extreme penalty of the law in Albany, on the 7th February. Governor Dix is right. The world will be well rid of a man who is about to suffer a righteous sentence.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Timothy Dewey, of Saltford, died suddenly at 8 o'clock, near Stoney Creek, on Tuesday last. He had been watching the horse racing, and feeling cold went to the public house to warm himself. He had been there but a few minutes when he was seized with an apoplectic fit which ended his days.

PRAISEWORTHY.—The old King's College building, for years occupied by the Toronto School of Medicine, has lately been overhauled and besides being in part rebuilt, painted and refurbished, has had the Medical Museum enriched by valuable additions which cannot but prove exceedingly useful to students and the profession.

HIGH TIME.—The License Committee of Toronto have been recommended by the Mayor to withhold licenses from all such cab-drivers as use their vehicles to drive prostitutes about the city. Every afternoon numbers of these—one or two to a cab—drive along King street, to the disgust of respectable people, and preventing many ladies from using cabs for themselves.

IT CANNOT PASS.—The Bill to amend the Ontario Act, among other things asks for an annual grant of $5,000. The Medical Council, chief promoter, Dr. Campbell. Much diversity of opinion exists among medical men as to its merits and there is some probability of its being thrown out. As to the clause asking for a grant of $5,000, it is a clause which is not to be taken into consideration by the profession nor student will pay towards the sustenance of the Medical Council, as existing under the provisions of the Act.

BELLEVILLE DEAF AND DUMB ASYLUM.—A large party from Toronto, including Lieut. Governor Howland, some members of the Legislature, and a number of ladies, visited the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb at Belleville on Wednesday. A train had been specially engaged for the party by the Commissioner of Agriculture, which left Toronto at 8 a. m. On the arrival of the party addresses were presented to the Lieut. Governor by the Corporation, County Council and Council of Albert University. The Asylum was visited, and a number of the pupils examined, who exhibited the greatest proficiency, and delighted all who witnessed their marvellous quickness in answering questions. After the examination complimentary addresses were given by the Lieut. Governor and Hon. Mr. McKellar. The party was afterwards entertained at dinner by the Town Council.

HORRIBLE INHUMANITY.</

Guelph Evening Mercury

THURSDAY EVENING, JAN. 30, 1873

Training School of Idiotic and Imbecile Children.

The bill now before the Ontario Legislature for the establishment of a training school for idiotic and imbecile children provides among other things for the purchase of a suitable lot of land, on which buildings may be erected for the purposes of such a training school. No child shall be received into the institution, except under the order of the Provincial Secretary, without a certificate from two legally qualified medical practitioners, setting forth that after a proper examination of the child for whom application for admission is made, and after due enquiries into all the facts relating to his, or her, case, they find him or her to be an idiot and incapable of being instructed in the ordinary schools of the Province. The application for admission to the institution of any idiot shall be signed by the parents, guardians, relation or friend of such idiot, or by the Clerk of the Council of the Municipality in which he or she resides. Any idiotic or imbecile child who may have been or may hereafter be committed to any common goal in the Province as being dangerous to be at large, and who upon examination and after due enquiry into all the facts relating to his or her case shall be certified by two medical practitioners "to be an idiot," or any idiot child who has been committed to any asylum for the insane or idiots under the provision of any existing statute may be removed and transferred by order of the Provincial Secretary from such common goal or from such insane or idiot asylum to the said institution. If any idiot so transferred to the institution by order of the Provincial Secretary, is found by the superintendent of such institution not to be susceptible of improvement through the training and instruction of the same, the Provincial Secretary may order such idiot to be re-transferred and sent back to such common goal, or such insane or idiot asylum from which such idiot was received.

Wellington County Council.

Wednesday, Jan. 29, 1873. Council met at 8 o'clock p.m., pursuant to adjournment. The Warden in the chair. All the members present. A petition from the Municipal Council of Lincoln was read, having reference to the destruction of forests by fire, and the scarcity of timber which must eventually ensue, and praying that the Council might take some united action in the premises. A copy of a resolution, passed by the County of Elgin, was read, in reference to the securing from Government one half the expenses incurred in making alterations in jails. Referred to County property Committee. Moved by Mr. Massie, seconded by Mr. Hamilton, that the copy of resolution from the Municipal Council of Lincoln be referred to a special Committee, comprised of Messrs. Patterson, Hanson, Laidlaw and Roberts, to report at the present session of this Council.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Chalmers, seconded by Mr. Hanson, that the following gentleman be appointed a special Committee to consider and report on Friday upon the new Consolidated Municipal Act, viz: Messrs. Leslie, Rea, Laidlaw, McCarthy, Michie, Dawson and Massie. The Report of the Township of Minto reported having spent $27 on making approaches to a bridge on County line between Minto and Normanby. Referred to Road and Bridge Committee. A numerously signed petition was read, praying for a road allowance between the Township of Puslinch and Puslinch, and the construction of a bridge across the river, so as to form a communication between said township of Puslinch and Nassagaweya. Referred to the Road and Bridge Committee. A petition from Robert Roberts, lessee of a toll gate on the Ferguson and Douglas road, complaining that the receipt of the gate had been so small, in consequence of various circumstances, that he trusted some allowance would be made. Referred to County Road Committee. A communication was read from Mr. Blakey, of Eramosa, praying that he be relieved from the payment of four notes, of $25 each, now in the hands of the Solicitor of the Council, as he had received no value therefor. It appeared that Mr. Blakey's son had rented a toll gate, and fell behind in his payments, and his securities were worthless. Mr. Blakey, in order to save his son, signed the notes, for which he had never received any consideration. Moved by Mr. Massie, seconded by Mr. Rea, that the petition of Mr. Blakey be granted, and that the Solicitor be instructed to give him back his notes, upon Mr. Ogden consenting to give back the lease got from Blakey, junior, and John Blakey, junior, paying costs.—Carried. Moved in amendment by Mr. McGowan, seconded by Mr. Sutherland, that the petition of John Blakey be referred to the County Road Committee, and be reported on next Friday.—Lost. Moved by Mr. Stevenson, seconded by Mr. Robt., that this Council appoint a special Committee to consider the propriety of petitioning the Legislative Assembly to grant aid to those municipalities that are indebted, in giving aid to assist in building railways in the County of Wellington, and that the following gentlemen named be a Committee for the purpose of considering the same, and drafting a petition.—Messrs. McCarthy, Prain, Laidlaw, Leslie, Rea, Sutherland, Broadfoot, Massie and Stevenson, and said Committee report on Friday.—Carried. Council adjourned till ten o'clock tomorrow.

adjourned. The receipts during the year amounted to $2,220.93, and the expenditure $2,252.55. Balance to be provided for $271.62.

Mr. Laidlaw said it afforded him pleasure to present the petition. The hospital was well conducted, and patients were admitted without reference to creed or condition. He paid a very high tribute to the manner in which the ladies of the hospital attend to their duties, and hoped something would be done for their relief.

Moved by Mr. Stevenson, seconded by Mr. Prain, that the prayer of the petition of St. Joseph's hospital be acceded to by granting the sum of $200.—Carried unanimously.

Several of the members expressed themselves in favor of giving aid to the hospital, while others were not in favor of giving an annual grant to the hospital. The general hospital will require county aid, and before taking a vote on the motion, several of the members would like to know what the Council were prepared to do in the matter. The motion was put, however, and carried without a dissent.

The Warden read a petition from Mr. James Houn, complaining of the smallness, darkness, and unhealthiness of his office, and praying for a safe. Important and valuable records were lying in the office without any protection from fire, and a safe was much required. Referred to Standing Committee on County property.

Council adjourned till 2 o'clock.

Puslinch Agricultural Society.

The annual meeting of the Puslinch Agricultural Society was held in the Town Hall, Aberfoyle, on Tuesday, the 14th inst., when the following report from the directors was read by the Secretary, and adopted by the meeting:—

The Directors, in presenting their report for the past year, beg leave to draw the attention of the members to the position at present held by the Society, which is, financially speaking, in a flourishing condition. In taking a retrospective view of the crops throughout the Townships for the past year, the prospects are less cheering. The extraordinary dry season has told severely upon this Township, consequently all the grain crops have been far below an average. The hay crop has been almost a failure. The root crops, however, have been remarkably good, if what has been exhibited at the show is taken as a criterion—fully better as regards size and quality, than former years—Turnips, for instance, have been an unusually good crop with some, while with others a complete failure, necessitating, in many instances, the land to be sown with fall wheat. Potatoes have been very good, considerably above an average. It is with satisfaction we notice the more extensive cultivation of mangolds and carrots in the township which, as regards size and quality, compared favorably with those shown at the late Provincial Exhibition.

The general Exhibition, held in the Agricultural Hall and show grounds, on the 8th October last, was a success, every class being well represented, and would have been more so were it not that the Nassagaweya show was held on the same day. We hope that steps may be taken to prevent such an occurrence in future. The following is a list of members of this society, with the amount paid by each. Of those to whom prizes were awarded, with the amount, and the name of the animal, article or implement in respect of which the same has been paid. Also a detailed statement of the assets and disbursements of the society for the past year, all of which is respectfully submitted. W. Nicol, President.

The following gentlemen were elected officers—honorary for the current year:—President, W. Kerr; Vice, W. Thompson; Sec. and Treas., J. Grant; Auditors, Messrs. Samuel Falconbridge and John Black; Directors, Messrs. T. Carter, C. Heath, R. Little, Malcolm McNaughton, James Mason, Allan McIntyre, W. Nicol, Duncan McFarlane, Peter Malcom, Committee of Management at General Show, Messrs. D. Gilchrist, A. McCain, Jas. Scott, Jno. Scott, J. Jeffrey, Samuel Panabecker, J. Cattanech, and J. H. Glennie.

A vote of thanks was then cordially tendered to the retiring President, also to the Auditors and Secretary for their efficient services, which were duly acknowledged, and the meeting adjourned.

WARDENS ELECT.—Bruce, James Baird, Reeve of Kincardine; Gray, Hugh Reid, Reeve of Sutherland.

CHAPTER III.

THE MOVEMENTS OF THE GABRIEL.

One of the few lighted windows was exactly above the roof of one of the offices, and on its white fully-drawn blind the man's attention was closely fixed.

"She is in her room, at any rate," he said. "So it will be all right if she is alone—if any of the other servants are with her it will turn out awkward. How am I to climb up with this stiff arm?"

In his disabled condition the effort to reach the roof of the outhouse was difficult and laborious, and was not accomplished without much time and pain, which elicited more than one groan and muttered oath.

He gained the ledge at length, and being now within easy access of the window he laid his head against the sill to listen if any voices came at any rate, he said.

"Ellen—Nell?"

Inside the room a tall, elegantly-dressed woman was at the moment standing at the little dressing-table, just over the leaves of a book, and at the sound of the low tap upon the glass she started and turned a surprised gaze towards the window—never moving or speaking, but listening intently.

At the end of a few moments the tap was repeated, and the same low voice was heard calling as before—

"Ellen—Nell?"

An enlightened and suspicious look came upon the woman's face, and glancing round at the door of a closet which stood ajar, she quickly entered, and drew it close behind her.

"Oh, heaven, it is Richard," she murmured. "Why—oh, why he come here to ruin me?"

She went to the window and threw aside the blind, when the shaggy, ill-favored face of the robber was revealed to view.

"Oh, do go away, Richard," she said. "You promised never to come near me again. You will destroy me if you do not go."

"Open the window, Nell—do, like a good lass," replied the other, in a loud whisper.

"No, no, Richard; I cannot, I dare not. Pray go away—for God's sake, go. You may be seen, and if you are, I am lost."

"Let me in for a minute, Nell. I won't be long, and nobody will see me. I've got a hurt arm, and want it dressed. Quick, lass, for its devilish sore, and the night is a cold and a wet one."

"Oh, heaven, if he remains there, he will be sure to be seen," murmured the girl; "and he won't go. What is to be done? I must—for my own sake—I must admit him."

And with agitated fingers she opened the fastenings of the window, and as she noiselessly raised it, the man stepped through, and stood wet and dripping by her side.

"Oh, Richard, how cruel, how very cruel it is of you to come here, when you know how great a risk it is to my character and prospects," said Ellen, addressing him in a reproachful tone.

"Well, it's precious hard if a brother can't come to see his sister," growled the other.

"Now, Dick, you know it's not that," she quickly and vehemently retorted. "If you had behaved yourself—if you had kept respectable and virtuous, I should have been glad and proud to have you visit me, but you know how I have disgraced us all, how you broke our parent's heart, and—"

"Oh, I know," interrupted Dick, with an oath. "I have gone to the bad, as you call it. I wasn't tame-spirited enough to stay at home among clothoppers, and toll my body twelve hours a day for potatoes and meal—that sort of life wasn't brisk enough for me, so I left it, that's all, and that's what you rate me for."

"Yes, you left it, Dick; and for what kind of a life did you leave it? For a life of vice and crime, and having ruined yourself, you would ruin me, too."

"Oh, come, that's too bad. I don't want to ruin you."

"Then, why do you come here? If Mr. or Mrs. Laughton knew I was the sister of such a man, I should lose my situation in a single day, and then what is to become of me? I am not strong—I am far from well, and could not battle with the world as some do."

"I couldn't help it to night, Nell; I couldn't, indeed, for you see I'm brought sharp up, and hadn't a bit of room to turn in. See this—oh, Lord, how it pains me."

He had managed, though not without difficulty and intense pain, to remove his coat; then rolling up the sleeve of a very dirty shirt, he showed his arm and shoulder all swollen, bruised, and discolored. The sight at once roused Ellen's pity and commiseration, for had as the man was, he was her brother, and had been her playmate in the innocent days of childhood.

"Oh, Dick, how have you got that?" she cried.

"Ah, I'll be even with the fellow who gave it me; see if I don't."

"This is the result of the evil courses into which you have fallen," said his sister, with a shudder. "You must have been engaged in some terrible scene of violence."
