BAR HARBOR, Me., July 25.—The publication of the Behring Sea correspondence caused a great sensation here, especially in the circle of the Secretary of State's immediate friends and of the Secretary of State's immediat

ment what attitude France would adopt toward the Congo Convention.

Premier Bernaert replied that in 1884 the International Congo Association had assured to France the right to the Congo in the event of the association's relinquishing a portion of its territory in 1897. The Congo State had informed France that in granting this right it did not intend to imply that the right could be used in opposition to Belgium, and France had formally noted this condition.

The Congo bill was adopted, there being cally

"Jim" is the Royal Chief of the Scottish clans, and he was at Shaftesbury Hall last an inght helping to organize a branch in Toronto. Mr. Sutherland was one of the Noble Thirteen that voted against the Jesuits Bill, and he takes great pride in the vote he gave. But some of the Equal Righters afterwards said some unkind things about the gentleman from Oxford, and D'Aiton McCarthy even went so far as to read him out of the party. But this does not prevent him from still admiring his vote on the Jesuits Bill. As he walked arm-in-arm along King-street last night with Chris Bunting they both seemed in immensely pleased with the parts they had played in the great anti-Jesuit crusade.

Continuing, he said that yesterday concluded the year's sport except that a matinee might be given in the fall. The attendance exceeded that of the preceding day by a faw hundred. There were no mishaps and everything passed off as smoothly as possible. The night's rain laid the dust and made the track somewhat heavy. On this account Hattie Hawthorne's performance in the Free-for-All mile in 2.234 may be considered a phenomenal one. Blackstone won the heat left over in the unfinished race. Hattie Hawthorne captured the half of the $700 purse in brilliant style, and Jim Crack did not permit a heavy fall of rain after five heats had been trotted in the last race to bother him in the least.

Endeavor to get anyone who sends milk to your factory or who is concerned in its management, to try to bring it to the very front in point of reputation for the excellent quality of its product. Work conscientious ly for that end, then talk your factory up always and wherever you go, and get your patrons to do likewise. In short, think and work to make your factory and its product worthy of a higher reputation, especially for August cheese.
