

GRANDE OPERA HOUSE.

GREATE SYNGYNGE MEETINGE

—OF Y—

Olde Folkes

Tunes and Likewise Worldlie Songs,

IN Y^e OLDEN DRESSE,

—FOR Y^e BENEFIT OF Y^e—

ADDIANCE

TO YE

HOMES, OF Y^e TOWNE OF LONDON

—ON—

WEDNESDAY NIGHTE,

20th OF Y^e MONTHE OF JUNE, 1883.

Y^e Price to See and Hear will be 25, 50 & 75 Cents.

All y^e good folkes who would like to attend may as well step into y^e trinket shop of neighbor Murray, who will receive their money in exchange for tickets.

First Tune will be Sung at 8 of ye Clocke.

All y^e notices and admonitions on this bill should be carefully read and dutifully heeded, so that no tribulation may overtake y^e unwary sinners, for y^e Tythinge man, Philetus Hardscrabble, will keep a peeled eye on y^e conduct of everybody.

Printed at y^e Shoppe of Ye Advertiser Printing Companye.

Y^e LYSTE OF SYNGERS :

Tymebeater,

Harpsichordist,

DULCIMER LIGHTCHORD.

Mistress HARMONY STRIKESTRINGS.

Y^e WIMMEN SYNGERS:—Mistress Sophia, Stirabout, Kunagunda Primrose (she that was a King), Harmony Sweet-throat, Abigail Brighteye, Thankful Darling, Frivolity, Wiseman, Dorothy Doolittle, Cynthia Sweet-Tooth, Betsey Bumpus, Charity Anne Thicket, Prudence Keepallright, Sophrona, Poppinjay, Aunt Polly Bassett.

Y^e MENNE SYNGERS:—General P. O. Letterbag, Cream o' Tartar Singwell, Simon Eliphalet Nosegay, Hezekiah Blowhard, Ichabod Crane, Jedediah Beanpole, Eli Shakesides, Exodus Billthemthrough, Jeremiah Clearaccount, Obadiah Hollerwell, Deuteronomy Applesauce, Remarkable Podgers, Miraculous Weatherwax, Abijah Thimbleful, Peregrine Walkaround, Cousin Peleg Stirabout, Moriarty Porcelain, Drinkwell, and many others whose names y^e curious may learn on going to the Committe on Towne Gossip.

Y^e FIRSTE PARTE.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Apollo Strikes y ^e Lyre, | All y ^e Menne and Wimmen Syngers. |
| 2. A SWEET BUT WORLDLIE SONG—Bailiff's Daughter of Islington, | Harmony Sweet-throat. |
| 3. SONGE—Y ^e Shepherds Tell Me, | Y ^e Menne and Wimmen Syngers. |
| 4. SONGE—By y ^e Banks of Allan Water, | Mistress Sophia Stirabout. |
| 5. TWO PARTE SONGE—Larboard Watche, | Cream o' Tartar Singwell
and Exodus Billthemthrough. |
| 6. WORLDLIE SONGE—Y ^e Dashing White Sergeant, | Kunagunda Primrose. |
| 7. Dame Durden, | { Cream o' Tartar Singwell, General P. O. Letterbag, Worthie
Tymebeater, Obadiah Hollerwell, Exodus Billthemthrough. |

Y^e SECONDE PARTE.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. TWO HARPSICHORDES—Marche Triumphale, | Mistress Harmony Strikestrings and Dulcimer Lightchord. |
| 2. WORLDLIE SONGE—Home Sweet Home, | Abigail Brighteye. |
| 3. SONGE—Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming, | Simon Eliphalet Nosegay and Menne and Wimmen Syngers. |
| 4. SONGE—Auld Robin Gray, | Prudence Keepallright. |
| 5. SONGE—Olde Folkes at Home, | Abigail Brighteye and Menne and Wimmen Syngers. |
| 6. Y ^e Pilgrim of Love, | Cream o' Tartar Singwell. |
| 7. A THREE PARTE SONGE—Halt, 'tis y ^e Bugle's Sounde, | Cream o' Tartar Singwell, Dulcimer Lightchord, Obadiah Hollerwell. |
| 8. SONGE—Downe Among y ^e Dead Menne, | Obadiah Hollerwell. |
| 9. Sweet be Thy Slumbers, | All y ^e Menne and Wimmen Syngers. |

GOD SAVE Y^e. QUEENE.

N. B.—Y^e younge menne must not exchange glances across y^e house wythe y^e younge maydens.

N. B.—Y^e younge menne who desire to walke home wythe y^e young wimmen will please ask them before y^e syngyngē begynns, that there be no confusion while y^e syngyngē is going on.

N. B.—If ye should like to heare some of y^e songs two times ye maye clappe ye hands.

N. B.—Y^e syngers desire that no poesies be flunge upon y^e stage as it may cause rivalrie amonge y^e wimmen syngers.

N. B.—Y^e musicke people in the roome must not censture the great plainness of some of y^e menne and wimmen singers, as they made not themselves and are not blameable.

N. B.—When y^e songe be sunge for that y^e good Queenē maye be blessed with muche prosperitie, it is notice that ye may go home.

N. B.—Coaches and Sedan Chairs can be brought for y^e wimmen folkes at ten of y^e clocke.