THE CASES PROVING OF INTEREST Reference to Mrs. Normansell Assault in Police Court "tearing" INTERVIEW BY DEPUTY

Joseph Daley Tells of Being Questioned by Official Relative to Stone, One of Prisoners In Connection With Emerson & Fisher Break

The preliminary hearing in the case of George Stanton and Harry Stone, charged with breaking and entering the premises of Emerson & Fisher, was continued this morning before Judge Ritchie in the police court, and adjournment was made until Thursday at 2 p. m. E. S. Ritchie appeared for Stanton and G. E. Logan for Stone.

Mr. Logan hinted at the "third degree" or "sweating process" having been used in the case of the first witness, Joseph Daley, who was recalled this morning, after having been examined privately yesterday by Deputy Chief Jenkins, following his taking the stand yesterday morning. Mr. Logan said that he believed the deputy had endeavored to refresh the witness' memory, and the witness himself said that the official had "tried to fix him, by getting him to tell something about which he knew nothing."

Daley said that he had been told by the deputy that he knew something about the Normansell case, which he denied. The deputy then asked "Didn't Stone tell you something to the effect that he did Mrs. Normansell's witness said he answered "No," as he did to the question which followed, "You know all about it, as sure as you know you are sitting on that trunk, don't you?" Daley could not remember, he said, all the conversation which took place, or the questions asked.

He said to the deputy chief this morning that the form of the questions which he had stated. The deputy had said, he agreed, that what he wanted was to get the truth, and not to "sweat" facts, but he believed that the questioning had been done to refresh his memory. He agreed with the deputy concerning the form of the questions put to him.

Daley said he could throw no light on the case. He was with Stone last week, and thought the prisoner had said something about a razor in his coat, but was not certain.

Samuel Stone, cousin of the defendant, told of receiving a cigarette from the latter on Tuesday night last, and he asked also if the witness wanted, and he gave him some razors, a revolver, and a knife, but the witness returned them the next day. Stone's watch was recovered with handcuffs and he took it home for him.

Anthony Howe said he was in the company of Stone, Stanton and Daley, but had nothing to say about the case. George Dunham, bartender, was also called, but gave no evidence of importance.

At this stage the prosecution asked for an adjournment until Friday, but Mr. Ritchie objected, saying that the police had broken faith on the last adjournment, and had interviewed the client's wife, Mrs. Stanton, immediately after the hearing had ended.

Detective Killen said that he had been questioned at her home, and been treated kindly and considerately.

Mr. Ritchie—"I will show that you did not treat her kindly, if it is necessary."

Deputy Jenkins—"I want no insinuations of that kind."

Mr. Ritchie—"I wouldn't consent to an adjournment till Friday if there is to be more of that kind of work."

Deputy Chief—"These lawyers are insinuating and nasty, Your Honor. Because of them we have not had other witnesses here. They always want to get back to their offices early. I ask for adjournment until Friday."

Mr. Logan—"A frank admission."

Deputy Jenkins—"Will you stick to your facts."

Mr. Logan—"It's impossible to stick to your facts."

Detective Killen—"Now that's an unfair thing to say about the deputy."

The discussion ended here and the case was postponed until Thursday.

ANOTHER CUSTOMS FIND (Canadian Press) New York, Jan. 31.—The World says that investigations conducted by collector of customs, Leach, and appraiser, Wainman, have uncovered a revenue through which the government possibly has lost hundreds of thousands of dollars.

According to the World, federal officials today confirmed that importers of musical instruments for years have brought into this country instruments of all kinds invoiced below their true value, and that the value of the largest importers in the trade has paid into the treasury $30,000 representing under valuations, plus a penalty.

Havana, Cuba, Jan. 31.—The hardest thing I have undertaken today was the effort to present to the readers of the Times, St. John, my impressions of crossing the Gulf Stream, between Key West and Havana, for a distance of over ninety miles; not that my impressions are not clearly defined, but by the effect that the flight has had upon the impressionable Cuban who has enthusiastically monopolized my time from the moment that I landed on shore from the United States torpedo boat destroyer Pendergast.

To those who have not experienced the sensations of an aeroplane flight, it is difficult to convey a comparison sufficiently realistic to impart the impressions and effect the flight had upon me. In fact, I have made many flights over the land, and I realize that those who have not been aloft in an aeroplane would have difficulty in comprehending what my sensations were. In the literature that I have read, in the newspaper accounts of aerobal flights that have come to my notice, and more especially in the tales of maritime experiences and adventures that have been written, I have never noticed anything that expresses in the slightest measure the picture that was presented to me.

The Wonders of It Nature, whose wonders are being reproduced upon us by science and civilization, is a wonderful thing. My first start was a sensation of a soldier's father having fought through the Peninsular war, and with Wellington at Waterloo. She was of a long lived race, her grandfather having passed the century mark and each of her parents having lived almost 100 years.

Whitby, Ont., Jan. 31.—The oldest person in this vicinity, so far as known, died in the Ontario county House of Refuge on Saturday evening. Samuel Langham, known as "Sammy Lone," was, as early as could be traced, 108 years of age. He was an Irishman.

VACCINATE 3,000 (Canadian Press) Philadelphia, Jan. 31.—One of the most sweeping quarantines in the history of the city was put in force today following the discovery of smallpox in the tenement district. The section was roped off and everyone found within the police bounds was compelled to submit to vaccination. Knowing the custom of most of the residents, the physicians waited until 10 o'clock this morning when every one would be home.

At that hour 100 physicians, accompanied by large details of policemen entered the district, which includes Philadelphia, Chinatown, and began vaccinating. It is estimated that 3,000 persons submitted to the doctors while hundreds of policemen stood on guard and permitted no one to escape.

PEOPLE AROUSED BY GIRL'S FAST; THE POLICE MAY ACT (Canadian Press) McKeesport, Pa., Jan. 31.—The Lord has called on me to evangelize the world. He will give me back my sight." Walking on a trance, Margaret Shipley, a girl who had fasted for eight days in expectation of a miracle that would give her power to see eyes which have been blind from birth, shrieked out these words today and then collapsed. After her guardians had worked over her for some time, she returned to the state of trance and lay rigid, though her eyes opened from time to time.

They claim that the girl has revealed to them that she can see slightly, but public sentiment is becoming so bitter against them that little credence is given to their words. The police are liable to take action. It has been decided that unless she is given some new treatment the authorities will end the fast by force and take the girl to the hospital.

DEATH LIST REACHES AWFUL TOTAL OF 400 (Canadian Press) Manila, Jan. 31.—The latest conservative estimate places the dead as the result of the eruption of Mount Taal at the accompanying tidal waves at 400. The earth quakes continue. The volcano continues active, and there is no lessening of the showers of mud and stones.

Up to noon today the Observatory had recorded 337 shocks.

PEERED BELOW SEA SURFACE (Special Times) Passing successively the Dryden and the Terry, I occupied such time as the occasional wind gusts permitted by endeavoring to see to what extent it is possible to peer into the sea. I estimated that I could define an object at approximately 100 feet below the surface.

The only fatigue experienced was that due to the constant strain upon my hands in controlling the machine. I was able to relieve the strain by occasionally operating with one hand. Strange to say the possibility of encountering the much dreaded man eating sharks, the only danger to which I had previously given serious thought never occurred to me from the time I started on the flight until a sailor on board the Terry informed me that two of these scavengers of the sea had been hovering about my machine when the life boat from the destroyer came alongside my machine.

As the motor of the atropine consumed gasoline and oil I could appreciate more thoroughly that I had started on the flight very heavily laden. While apparently an insignificant weight this reduction of the gasoline and oil supply affected the speed of the machine to an appreciable degree and made it more easily controlled. It was only after I had left the destroyer Terry behind me that I realized the motor was giving less power and I then first felt that something was going wrong.

In Sight of Goal As the power of the motor diminished I drew the machine closer to the sea's surface. Before making my final descent I was able to see the city and harbor of Havana and to distinguish the crowd on the waterfront. After I alighted on the water I could but vaguely distinguish the crowd from the shore. To those who were strangers, I suffered no inconvenience from my glide into the sea. I was fished out by members of the crew of the "Terry" under Captain French after four or five minutes.

It was very gratifying to me to find that even my tobacco in my hip pocket was not wet. In fact the most surprising incident of my whole trip was the way in which I alighted and rested on the water. The kindness shown me by the officers of the United States navy and by the people of Havana made me feel more kindly the disappointment I experienced in not reaching the selected landing place for the flight. Without the able assistance of the United States navy I should have lacked in that contingency which I believe is vitally necessary for the success of every aeroplane flight.

My disappointment in having to alight within sight of my goal can only be measured by the indelibility of the impressions and scenes of the flight. While the true cause of the loss of power through exhaustion of the lubricating oil supply might have been averted, the actual cause, the puncture in the motor which occasioned the leakage, could not have been foreseen. I was strongly tempted when making my preparations to carry more oil than I finally decided upon the old age "penny wise and pound foolish" motto.

CONSERVATIVES IN TORONTO ARE DIVIDED (Canadian Press) Toronto, Jan. 31.—Delegates from all five Toronto ridings last night formed an independent Conservative caucus, and the proceedings are characterized as a "revolt" against the Albany Club.

Sam Hughes and W. F. McLean came in for high praise from the speakers at this convention of insurgents. The chairman, Mr. Worrall, delivered that if Col. Sam. Hughes would accept an independent conservative nomination in Toronto, he could be elected any time, because of his courageous support of Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the navy question.

It was said that W. F. McLean was doing more for the Conservative party than any other man at Ottawa because he was fighting for a principle.

NO STRIKE BEFORE A VOTE BY ALL IS TAKEN (Canadian Press) Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 3.—Several important amendments to the constitution of the United Mine Workers of America were adopted by the international convention yesterday. One provided that a general strike shall be ordered until endorsed by the entire organization by a referendum vote.

THE need of a prison farm for inebriates, the tery problem, the high cost of living, the increase in rents, the suffering of the poor in this cold weather, and various other matters that might afford an opening for an interview. When he had exhausted the list of subjects in which a muscular and intelligent citizen might be assumed to be interested the penative one leaned forward in a confidential way and observed:

"I came in this morning to ask you if you could tell me where I could get the price of another drink."

PAVING ESTIMATE $90,600

New Covering in Pond, Nelson, Mill and Dock Streets Recommended

THE HASSAM WORK

Question of Paying for Germain Street, Pending Repairs, to be Taken Up by Board of Works Tonight—Street Railway Extension

The board of works at its monthly meeting this evening will have a number of important matters to deal with. Among them is a recommendation from the engineer that granite pavement be laid in Pond, Nelson, Mill and Dock streets, at an estimated cost of $90,600. There is also a recommendation that the pavement work done by the Hassam Paving Co. in Germain and Smythe streets be accepted by the city and payment made for it. It is probable that there will be some discussion as to the advisability of paying for the Germain street work, pending some repairs that will have to be made in the spring, where portions of the street have been broken.

With regard to the request of the St. John Railway Company for permission to extend their tracks along Brasenale street, across the Marsh Bridge and over the Old Westmorland road to the city line, the engineer recommends that permission be granted.

Regarding the lighting of Nos. 1, 2 and 3 warehouses on the west side, the engineer estimates that conversion from arc lamps to tungsten lights would be $800. He recommends that the C. P. R. be granted permission to make the change at their own expense. Reporting on fire protection at Sand Point, the engineer says there seems to be sufficient protection except in No. 4 warehouse, the upper story of which is under lease to the Dominion government, and has no fire protection appliances.

The engineer recommends that permission be granted to T. McAvity & Sons to place an electric lighting post in front of their store in King street. He recommends also that the property offered for sale by William Lipsett, Kennedy street, be purchased for $125.

There are communications from E. T. P. Shewen, resident engineer of the public works department, calling attention to the fact that refuse is being dumped in the channel in the harbor by steamers, from representatives of the Dominion government regarding wharf frontage near No. 6 berth, and from Alexander Thorne asking for an opportunity to bid on electric wiring for the city.

ASHORE ON GOODWIN SANDS; ALL PERISH (Canadian Press) Dover, Eng., Jan. 31.—An unknown sailing vessel went ashore on Goodwin Sands today, and all her crew perished in a terrific gale which swept the English Channel and the Straits of Dover. Three bodies were washed ashore.

The vessel went ashore near Walmer. The wind lashed the water to a fury, threatening sea walls and driving all vessels which could harbor to safety. A great quantity of wreckage was washed ashore near Folkestone.

ONTARIO BUDGET MAY BE BROUGHT DOWN IN HOUSE ON THURSDAY (Canadian Press) Toronto, Jan. 31.—It took the legislature just sixteen minutes to dispose of the business before it yesterday. There was nothing of consequence upon the order paper and several resolutions completed the afternoon's work.

The provincial treasurer paved the way for the consideration of the supplementary estimates by moving that the house dissolve into a committee of supply and ways and means. If Hon. Mr. Matheson presents his estimates this afternoon his budget address will probably be delivered on Thursday.

F. G. SPENCER TO BUILD OPERA HOUSE IN AMHERST (Special Times) Amherst, N. S., Jan. 31.—F. G. Spencer of St. John, yesterday announced that he had made definite arrangements to erect an up-to-date opera house in Amherst, costing $25,000. Since the burning of the old opera house, Amherst has been without a proper building for this purpose. Mr. Spencer has not fully decided as to the site, but has options on two desirable lots in King street, on the rear of the Maritime Block, with entrances from Havelock and Church streets, and one in the C. C. Heuston block with the entrance from Victoria street, Maple avenue and Electric street.

Fatal New York Fire New York, Jan. 31.—(Canadian Press)—One woman jumped to her death and two were probably fatally burned in a fire which practically destroyed a four-story tenement building at 37th street and Sixth avenue today. Search was begun for the body of another woman believed to have perished.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

AN INTERVIEW The Times new reporter looked up from his desk to see at his elbow a muscular figure who gazed pensively upon him, as if lost in thought.

"The penive one sat down and removed his hat. "What do you hear about reciprocity?" "I didn't hear about it," said the penive one.

"No? Not in your line, eh? Perhaps you have something to tell me about the plans of the C. P. R. on the Grand Trunk Pacific?" "I beg your pardon?" said the visitor, doubtfully.

"Or perhaps," said the new reporter, "you have heard of some new project that will add to the prosperity of St. John this year?"

The penive one made no reply, but continued to gaze at the new reporter.

The latter continued to make suggestions. He referred to the commission plan of city government, the new spirit of enterprise that appears to have taken possession of the minds of the eastern provinces, the campaign against tuberculosis,

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE

IRELAND IN THE FIFTH CENTURY. By Rev. John Hughes

From a Thanksgiving sermon on the emancipation of the Catholics of Great Britain and Ireland in the church of St. Augustine, Philadelphia, May 31, 1829. It was in the fifth century of our era when Christianity having already scattered her divine illuminations extensively over the globe, landed at length on the shores of Ireland and planted the cross, at once the emblem of our doctrine and the evidence of her conquest—where the Roman eagle never floated.

FORTY-EIGHT MILE WIND AND THE MERCURY LOW

Bitterly Cold in the Early Hours Today—A Drop of 40 Degrees

The mercury took another record tumble of 40 degrees during the last twenty-four hours. There was another rapid run from springlike to arctic weather. The maximum temperature yesterday was 40 above, but at 9 o'clock last night, it had dropped to 24 above, and as Jack Frost became more strenuous, the glass dropped to zero at 8 this morning. At noon the reading was one above with the wind north-west, the weather clear and the wind velocity forty miles an hour.

The indications are for continuation of the cold weather today and tomorrow, then moderating.

WASHINGTON SAYS THAT TRADE AGREEMENT WILL NOT GO THROUGH

(Canadian Press)

Washington, Jan. 31—Even with an extra session, Canadian reciprocity appears to be doomed. The Republicans in the majority in the congress are hopelessly split on the question, and while the Democrats would now vote for the agreement, they could not pass it this session, with the hold of the few Republicans who favor it.

New York, Jan. 31—According to the Herald today, the executive of the New York Mercantile Exchange, whose members handle most of the agricultural produce coming to this city has voted its endorsement of the Canadian reciprocity agreement and it is expected that the exchange will ratify this action by formal vote of its members.

It is held that the agreement will tend to minimize fluctuations in the produce market, particularly in such staples as butter and eggs and that its adoption will not hurt the farmers. There is room for all and the stimulus of competition will help him in the long run.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANADIAN HISTORY RESEARCH WORK

(Canadian Press)

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 31—With a view to the establishment of a limited number of scholarships applicable to students of Canadian universities, the Canadian government has been asked to endorse research work in Canadian history and it is considered there is every likelihood of its doing so. The plan is that a limited number of students chosen from the universities of the country, should pursue at the Canadian archives building here, research studies in Canadian history during the mid-summer vacation. The government is asked to pay their expenses while at work.

Such a plan, if carried out, would enable some of the future leaders of thought in the country, who were carefully selected from the honor list of their respective alma maters to study in detail certain phases of Canadian history, before entering on their careers. They will write essays for publication, thus placing before the public much of the valuable material that the government has spent money to get. As at first proposed, the plan was that the universities should defray the expenses of their students, acting in unison in this regard, but it is now hoped the government will recognize the importance of the work and bear the cost.

Lewis H. Bliss, of St. Mary's Ferry, came to the city today.

TRURO FIRM IS BURNED OUT; VERY SERIOUS AT ONE TIME

(Special to Times)

Truro, Jan. 31—A blaze here this morning was one of the worst for many months. Crowe Bros., druggists and stationers, lost their stock and the building is ruined as far as interior fixtures go. The fire is supposed to have started from either the furnace pipe or a small stove.

The east side of Inglis street was saved only by the work of the firemen, who battled for nearly five hours. It was necessary to flood the building to save the adjoining structures and the stock of both the stationary and drug departments was ruined.

The insurance about covers the loss, and was placed in the following companies: Liverpool & London & Globe, Canadian Canadian Fire, Sun, Montreal, Northern and Guardian.

NOVA SCOTIA'S DELEGATE

IS CHARGED AS A SPY

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 29.—The sensational announcement was made just before the adjournment of the miners' convention today that there was a spy sitting in the convention as a delegate, and, when his name was demanded the delegate making the charge named J. M. McSweeney, representing a local in Nova Scotia, whose home, however, is said to be in New York state. He was said to be in the convention in the interest of coal operators of Nova Scotia, and for the purpose of discouraging the delegates from that district from continuing their alliance with the United Mine Workers. For this purpose it was charged, he maintained quarters at a local hotel, where he entertained delegates in furthering his object.

TEMPERANCE CAUSE IS

PROGRESSING IN IRELAND

Dublin, Jan. 31.—The temperance cause in various parts of Ireland is making satisfactory progress, and those who have promised to abstain are being provided with suitable amusements and companionship by means of local clubs, where every reasonable comfort is to be obtained, and where wholesome literature is placed for the use of members. In many parts of the country the clergy of all denominations are working thus to foster self-respect and manliness in the Irish peasant tradesmen and laborers, and although the experiment is only in its infancy the results so far are very encouraging. Wherever the temperance societies are at work the marked improvement in the dress and cleanliness of the school children is obvious, and optimism look forward to seeing a sober, self-reliant industrious young Ireland prepared to assume with dignity their future role as proprietors of the Emerald Isle.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By BETH CAMERON

HERE is a certain astonishingly common little social sin which has three roots—one in impatience, one in egotism and one in selfishness. I wonder if you can name it from that description. I mean the habit of interrupting. It is really astonishing to me to notice how many people, otherwise well-bred, are guilty of this offense against tact.

I know a dear little hostess, with charming manners for the most part, who continually embarrasses her guests at the table by breaking in on what someone is saying to ask if they do not wish to be helped to this or that.

Of course she only does this because she is anxious for the well being of her guests, but surely they would not be in danger of suffering the pangs of hunger if she waited for a lull in the conversation to offer to replenish their plates.

Blatant and open interrupting is what another is saying by some remark of one's own is, of course, a fault easily recognized and promptly condemned, but there are some less obvious forms of interrupting that I consider quite as bad offenses.

For instance, to interrupt a general conversation on a subject which does not happen to interest one by abruptly turning the trend onto some subject which one does like, seems to me to be quite as bad as to break in when another is speaking.

And then there seems to me that the blank stare of those people, who always think of what they are going to say next while you are talking, deserves to be classed as an interrupting. It is a silent one to be sure, but none the less irritating, as all who have suffered it can testify.

Another brand of interrupter is the person who breaks in with a pun or joke, or something he has been reminded of, right in the middle of your narrative and shunts you so completely off the track that it is impossible, or at least most awkward to attempt to get back again.

If I had begun with my favorite lead, a question, and asked, "Do you ever interrupt?" you would doubtless have mentally answered, "Of course not." But now that I've explained all I mean by interrupting perhaps you won't be quite so positive. How about it?

Daily Hints for the Cook

HAM TOAST
A nice way to use the remnants of a boiled ham is to make ham toast. Grind the ham until you have about a cupful of meat, using some of the fat, which has been washed with a fork. Season with pepper and a little salt. Pour spoonful of butter in a saucepan and add a tablespoonful of flour. As soon as blended, add a cup and a third of sweet milk and the whites of two hard-boiled eggs. Cook for five minutes, stirring constantly. Serve with a slice of ham and a slice of buttered toast.

FIGURES THAT TELL STORIES

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE TRAFFIC

LONG distance telephone facilities are being more and more appreciated in Canada, for every year sees thousands of miles of new lines in operation. Unfortunately, at present no department of the Federal Government collects complete statistics of the hundreds of companies now in operation throughout the Dominion, but the records of the Bell Telephone Company, which is the largest single operating company, reflect the growth of long distance communication since 1885. This company commenced operations in 1880, so that the earnings first shown represent long distance traffic in its infancy. But its development has been marvelously rapid. In 1900 the earnings were $359,000, and in the decade since they have multiplied more than three-fold. The pictures up to 1905 represent the earnings of the Bell Telephone Company in five provinces, but since 1907 the company has disposed of its lines in Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba, and these are now being operated by the Provincial Governments. Consequently, the earnings for 1909 represent the receipts from traffic only in Ontario and Quebec. Some idea of the steady increasing business of these two Provinces is got from the fact that the earnings in 1909 for two Provinces are only some $34,000 behind what they were in 1907 for five Provinces; while the mileage of trunk lines was 48,969 in 1909 for two Provinces compared with 49,748 miles in 1907, for five Provinces.

THE PANEL AT THE BACK A NEW NOTE

Staight down at the back of many of the new costumes hangs a panel or two. The satin skirt has a little square train panel, in such-and-such effect. The narrow and the straight panels also give a square effect, though the whole costume gives the effect of height and grace. With this bottom. On evening frocks the panel suggests a sash, or separate tunic, as in this frock of white satin over which is a Paradise plume.

COMMISSION IN DES MOINES EXPLAINED BY ONE WHO HELPED TO PUT PLAN IN OPERATION

John MacVicar Describes Working of New Municipal Organization—Responsibility on Few Men Declared to Make Them Efficient and Salaries Paid to Ensure the Thorough Doing of Tasks

City government by commission, now considered by many to be past the experimental stage, is a topic of deep interest in St. John and therefore the Times and Star presents to its readers a first-hand description of the working of the new plan in Des Moines. It is a city that was one of the pioneers in the effort to raise the standard of municipal efficiency. The writer of the article, John MacVicar, has been secretary of the League of American Municipalities since its organization a number of years ago. He assisted his home city of Des Moines in changing its form of government, was elected to the first commission to serve under the new system and has been re-elected for a second term of two years. He writes:—

What we have been doing in Des Moines is a political organization of the municipality as an expression of its political spirit, which is also expressed in a business and industrial activity, to the benefit of all, the elimination of partisan politics from the city's business, the selection of municipal employees and minor officials by a responsible body, having power to make the city's civil list elastic, so that it contracts and expands with the city's needs instead of growing into an unvarying burden upon the public; the consequent elevation of municipal employment to the plane of merit and honor, instead of letting it fall to the level of inefficiency or graft; the payment of salaries to the municipal boss out of business, the transaction of public business in both large and small affairs, without delay; a better quality of work both in the direct service of the city and in service performed by contract, and the retaining in the hands of the people of the entire power of both legislation and administration through the initiative, referendum and recall, thus putting the political machine, the objectionable ward politician and the municipal boss out of business, and opening the door to every citizen who has the desire and the capacity to serve the city in office.

Many cities follow. More than 100 cities in 21 different states have within less than three years adopted new charters showing the influence of the Des Moines plan. Several hundred additional cities are considering the adoption of similar plans whenever the legislature will permit. Many commission charters vary in more or less essential particulars and some appear to have been formed with a view to presenting novel and original features rather than by profiting by experience already gained from the operation of the more approved forms. For example, some Colorado cities have thought best to elect each commissioner for the specific department in which he is to serve, instead of leaving it to the commission to assign its own members to the several places. So far as I know there was no reason arising from the practical workings of the Galveston or Des Moines plans for making this change. On the contrary, it makes the commission less elastic and deprives the city of the possible advantage of a reassignment of the commission as the first adjustment proves to be the best. Besides, it reduces the responsibility of the commission as a whole.

A still greater and more essential mistake, in my judgment, has been made by the city of Boston, which in the abundance of its caution, adopted several of the good features of the Des Moines plan, but left out the one essential element of the commission plan itself, that of having its feet firmly on the ground of experience. A mayor of large powers and a council of able men, representing the city at large and at a supposedly non-partisan election, with certain safeguards and supposed thrown around them, is probably an improvement upon the old charter of Boston; but why the citizens of the western hemisphere close to adopt a method providing divided responsibility that had been previously tried and found wanting in Indianapolis and St. Wayne, Ind., and elsewhere, is something an uneducated western man can hardly be expected to explain.

Another fundamental element lacking in the Boston charter, if it may be permitted to criticize, is the important power of appointment of the working force of the city government reserved by the state for appointment by the Governor. This is not only a further division of responsibility and powers properly belonging to city officials, but also it denies the people of the city the right of home rule, and cannot fail to have a detrimental effect upon the civic spirit which counts for so much in city government. We should not fear to place upon the people the full burden of the responsibility of their government.

Better Service Secured. Better service is secured under the commission plan because the city government is constantly in the limelight of publicity; because being elected at large, the commissioners are free from ward influences, and when right upheld by the whole city, the official is able to render more independent service; because, owing both to his nomination and his election directly to all the people, he is emancipated from partisan pressure and the clamor for rewards for service rendered; because representing the entire city and not a small fraction of it, his service trains him to take a broader view of both his duties and his opportunities for public service. The entire city organization is free from the complications of county, state and national political machines and becomes an instrument for transacting the city's business and nothing else. The initiative and referendum place in the hands of the people the means to prevent unwise and venial acts on the part of officials, and permit a direct voice in enacting or repealing wise or unwise measures. Objection is made that it would be fatal to our public institutions if the legislative and the administrative bodies were joined in one, and fatal to our cities if the tax levying and tax spending body was one and the same. These are no objections, are fanciful evils. The city council is not in fact a legislative body. Any man of experience knows that when a state legislature gets through enacting laws for a municipality it leaves very little for the city council to do in the way of legislation. Its duties might be likened to those of a business corporation with powers to enact by-laws for its conduct. The primary evil in the conduct of government in all cities, is, first and foremost, the demoralization of officials because of the supervision of politics, particularly party politics. The officials elected are rarely free moral agents. Few officials, however honest, are lacking in that element, which appeals to the sense of obligation for favors received, and the MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES. During Saturday's fierce gale and blinding snow storm two men lost their lives near New Glasgow. Alexander McDonald lost his way on the ice and broke through regularly with his horse, and was drowned. A man named Starr, who was driving to Dominion with a companion named O'Hanley, was so badly frozen that he died. Two men and a girl were killed by the falling of a large gin pole in Philadelphia yesterday. Half a dozen were injured, several seriously. The dead were John Ellis, 40 years old; Henry Hahn, 28 years old; and Ruth S. Ribold, aged 17. The sign fell from the top of a four-story building. Jan. 29—Representatives of the Dominion Steel Company, who are in the city, are urging the removal of the steel houses which will expire in June. One argument is that it would offend, or tend to offend, the effect of any proposed reciprocity agreement with that industry.

MORNING LOCALS. At a largely attended meeting of the Liberals of Westfield which took place at Westfield beach last evening, delegates to the Kings-Albert convention, which is to be held at Hampton on Feb. 15, were elected as follows: C. R. McKennie, chairman; C. T. Hayter, J. A. Langford and H. Longley. The substitutes chosen were R. T. Ballestine, C. T. Crawford, P. G. Nase and E. H. Macdonald. The meeting was most enthusiastic and in addition to the election of delegates some very interesting matters were discussed. A pleasing programme of dances were carried out, after which luncheon was served. The adjourned meeting of the creditors of the White Candy Company will be held this afternoon. It is understood that an offer has been made to the company more than sufficient to pay Nova Scotia town and it is said they are considering the offer. The Epworth League of the Queen square Methodist church had a delightful social last evening. There were music and amusements were indulged in by the young people and refreshments served. Mrs. J. H. McEwen and Mrs. Rodgers were the hostesses. There was a large attendance yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the St. John Art Club in their studio, Union street. Miss McGivern continued the reading of the art criticism of Kenyon Cox. The subject was Millais and Burne-Jones. The reading aroused great interest. A committee of the ladies served 5 o'clock tea. At the close of Sunday evening's service in the Ludlow street Baptist church, a congregational meeting was held. Rev. W. R. Robinson presiding. The meeting was for the purpose of electing two deacons, and resulted in the election of L. E. Shearpe and James Gray. Good feeling and harmony prevailed and the congregation was much pleased with the result. With the consent of King George V., Capt. H. R. de Bury, of the Royal Artillery, has been given authority to assume the name and title of Count Vincent de Bury. Capt. de Bury was graduated from the Royal Military College, Kingston, in 1892.

MONTREAL CAPTURING THE NEW YORK GRAIN TRADE. James T. Parker, of the firm of Parker & Graf, members of the New York Produce Exchange. Mr. Parker contended that a continuation of the five and a half cents per bushel rate would result in New York losing all of its export grain business. As a matter of fact, he asserted, it had already been lost and he maintained that a rate of four cents per bushel in effect between May 15 and November 15 is needed in order to encourage the movement by way of this port. The alleged discrimination of railroad grain rates against New York and in favor of Montreal. The witness who so testified was that the chamber proposed to submit a new basis of rates which would not disturb the existing rate structure, but which would put New York on an equal footing with Montreal. In a letter received from H. M. Everett, of Sackville, who ranching in the middle west, he says that he will soon return to New Brunswick, as he is not satisfied with things in the west. He would advise all farmers who are comfortably situated in this province to remain on their holdings.

DUTIES OF PARENTS TO CHILDREN

What Magistrate Daley of t'e Winnipeg Juvenile Court Has to Report—A Timely Article

(Toronto Mail and Express)

It is a pleasure to receive a report by Magistrate J. Mayne Daley, who presides over the Juvenile Court in Winnipeg, and who, as he admits, goes somewhat beyond the bounds of his official duties to make some remarks on the bringing up of children. It is these somewhat extraneous remarks that interest us, and that should interest every father and mother in the country who has a son or a daughter of tender years. It may be rather a shock to many to suppose that a police court judge can have anything to say that concerns their children, the general idea being that judges have to deal only with the children of the so-called criminal classes. The fact is that the vast majority of the children who come before Magistrate Daley, and every other judge, we suppose, come from Christian homes, and of respectable parents.

What of the Preachers?

It is, therefore, Christian parents who should be most concerned in what he has to say. It is these Christian parents who he holds responsible for unruly sons and daughters. Says Judge Daley: "If the doctrine of parental responsibility could be expounded more frequently from our pulpits and the hard facts driven home to those parents who attend our different churches that they are not fulfilling their proper duties, but by their neglect are even worse for their boys and girls, a time might soon come when there would be little need for a juvenile court." One might go a step further back and demand to know what the ministers are doing? What parents are they assuming to be of their responsibilities? None of their duties can be greater than this, to which Mr. Daley attracts their attention.

Father and Son

There are many theories as to the relationship that should exist between father and son, mother and daughter. "Companionship" is the note struck by Judge Daley. "Fathers should make chums of their boys from an early age," he declares. "A boy should feel that his father is the very best friend he has on earth, next to his mother. Then he can tell his father all his troubles and childish woes, and later on his boyish pranks. The father should be a good and attentive listener, and should enter into all the joys and sorrows of his boy, comfort him, guide him, help him. He should know how his boy is getting on at school, who his companions are, what his play is, and where he plays and with whom. In fact, a father should devote the most of his spare time to his family."

Mother and Daughter

Mothers' responsibilities are even greater than those of fathers, for it is Judge Daley's experience that girls are harder to deal with than boys when they show a bent toward evil, and it is naturally over girls that the mothers can exercise the most influence. Many of them are inclined to be over-indulgent, and too much wrapped up in the personal appearance and adornment of their girls to the exclusion of character building. They neglect to instill into their daughters the necessity of their sharing in the home duties and responsibilities. Solidness on the part of the daughters is a natural consequence, and an undue desire for excitement, amusement and dress usually retards the old-fashioned idea of home life and simple pleasures. The end of this road is often the children's court, if not a more disgraceful fate. Then everybody wonders at the miracle of the girls with such a respectable father and mother behaving in such scandalous fashion, whereas the miracle would have been if she had done anything else.

The Real Neglect

Magistrate Daley calls attention to a fact that has been often commented on, namely, that parental control seems to be going by the board. The majority of parents have no particular sense of moral responsibility for their children. They may love them, and tenderly supply all their physical wants, but are more than willing to entrust the all important work of character building to an over-worked teacher in a day school, or a young lady in a Sunday school, who sees the children once a week. The Socialist doctrine that the state should be responsible for the children, and that the only function of parents in the matter is to bring the little ones into the world, seems to be practised to a greater extent than one would expect, and by parents who would be horrified at the idea that they were neglecting their children. It is time that we should get a deeper understanding of the word "neglect" as applied to children. It does not mean children who are physically ne-

COMMEMORATE HIS HEROIC ACT

Torpedo Boat Destroyer, To Be Launched Next Month, Will Be Named After Ensign Monaghan

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 31.—To commemorate one of the bravest acts of heroism in the history of naval life, the torpedo boat destroyer Monaghan will be launched at Newport News, Va., February 18. The sponsor for the destroyer will be a sister of the brave ensign who lost his life while endeavoring to rescue a comrade on April 1, 1899.

Ensign John Robert Monaghan was a Spokane boy. He lost his life in an engagement with the Samoans near Apia, Samoa, in which seven members of an allied force of 107 British and American sailors and marines lost their lives, three of the seven being officers. His death was due to his determination to stand by a wounded comrade, Lieutenant Philip N. Landale, U. S. N., who commanded the American detachment of fifty-nine men. When last seen alive he was defending his wounded comrade single-handed against a horde of savages. In the official report of the fight Captain White of Philadelphia said:

"Ensign Monaghan stood steadfastly by his wounded superior and friend—on the rifle against many, one brave man against a score of savages. He knew he was doomed. He could not yield. He died in the heroic performance of his duty."

A monument to his memory, erected by the citizens of his native state, Washington, stands in a public thoroughfare. It was unveiled on October 5, 1906.

James Monaghan, of Spokane, father of Ensign Monaghan, received the following message from George Von L. Meyer, secretary of the navy, and his oldest daughter Miss Estimer R. Monaghan, will christen the torpedo boat destroyer on February 18.

The torpedo boat destroyer Monaghan, named in honor of your son, the late Ensign John R. Monaghan, will be launched at Newport News, Va., on February 18. The navy department would be pleased to have you name a young lady member of your family to act as sponsor at the launching.

PREPARING FOR CORONATION

Five Months Away But Many Are Busy in Getting Ready for Great Event

London, Jan. 31.—Though it is still about five months before the coronation will take place, the signs of its approach are everywhere apparent in interminable preparations. The coronet makers and the dress-makers are already busy at work preparing the robes and coronets which the peers and princess will wear at the ceremony, and the traffic in seats along the route of the procession is steadily increasing.

Applications for these seats are pouring in from all parts of the colonies, the demand being probably increased by the fact that the route along which the actual coronation procession will pass is extremely short, while the greater part of it is bordered by government offices, clubs and a few private houses. In these circumstances it is not surprising that one window in Piccadilly has been already booked for 5215.

The route for this procession and that of the much longer progress through London, which is to take place on the following day, will require some 60,000 troops to line them. The regiments for this purpose will be drawn from all branches of the British, Indian and colonial forces, and will include a strong contingent of territorials. The task of providing for these will itself be a considerable one, and as on previous occasions the parks will be converted into camps.

One of the most interesting features of the week will be the gala performance to be held in His Majesty's theatre, the entire proceeds of which will be devoted to theatrical charities. The idea has been warmly taken up by the profession, from which a large and influential committee has been formed.

PERISHABILITY OF RICHES

One of the facilities which the provisions of the Canadian Government Annuities Act affords, is that given to old people of investing their capital with absolute security and safety, and with a much greater return than any other form of investment will give them. A woman of eighty years of age, who is living in one of the small villages in Ontario, and has outlived all her near relatives, has a deposit of $1,200 in the Savings Bank, and it is all that remains of a very considerable fortune left her by her husband.

living expenses are more than $300 a year. One day the little booklet "Comfort and Happiness" found its way into lady's hands. She perused it carefully, and considered its statements thoughtfully, and with the result that she was advised to transfer her $1,200 to the government. She will then receive an income of $288 every year instead of $45, and the probability is that her life will be very much extended. Certainly her happiness and comfort while she lives will be increased, as the difference of $284 a year in her income will mean to her all the difference between poverty and affluence. She may live to be 100. Her paternal grandfather did.

Particulars concerning this provident system of investment may be had from your postmaster, or from the Superintendent of Annuities, Ottawa, to whom letters may be addressed postage free.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so? The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round rosy where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from such troubles have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It restores vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. C. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N.Y.

EARLY STATEMENT OF TIMBER PRODUCTS OF THE DOMINION

Forestry Branch at Ottawa Adopts Plan of Value—Spruce Leading Canadian Wood

To overcome the great lack of reliable information concerning the lumber trade, and to show to what extent the forests are being used each year, the Forestry Branch of the Department of the Interior has inaugurated a system of collecting and publishing each year a statement of the timber products of Canada.

The Times has received a copy of the first complete report, that for 1909, just issued, compiled by H. R. MacMillan, which contains interesting information concerning the variety and value of the forest products of the various provinces.

The tables and text of the bulletin give the details of the quantity and value of the cut by provinces and species for both 1908 and 1909. The cut of each species of lumber is discussed separately, together with the quantity of the same species manufactured in the United States.

It is worthy of note that Ontario produces two-fifths of the Canadian lumber, that spruce is the leading Canadian species, that only 6 per cent. of the wood produced in Canada is hardwood, and that more hardwoods are imported each year than are produced domestically.

The production of square timber for export is shown to have declined to such an extent that only one-twelfth as much is produced as formerly.

The success of this unusual success are ascribed by the management to the fact that the authors struck a new idea in musical plays and developed with unusual skill.

Curfew

Carleton Skips.

The great crowd that attended the Curfew at the Carleton Skips and evening attended their keen appreciation of the excellent programme provided, by frequent applause. The new soprano, Miss Bernice Humphrey, appeared a favorite from her commencement song, namely "The Carmena Waltzes," and her pleasing appearance added to the charm of her rich voice. The Chronophones in five-verse numbers was in a point of interest to the people and it has been a long while since the Nickel presented so fine an array of pictorial films. The chief topical interest was the "Battle of the London Police with Anarchist Murderers" a few weeks ago. This was a thrilling picture and the manner in which the "bobbies" governed the crowds in the streets of St. John was a revelation. The "Dramas of General Wolfe's State in Westchester (Eng.)" was greeted with much enthusiasm by the people and the O. Canada, by the orchestra. The other films were "A Trip Over the Selkirk-shovels" and "Victoria, the fine western Biograph story The Italian Barber, appeared to catch the fancy of the people, and The Lassie's Birthday was good also. With the orchestra and extra pictures in the afternoon it was a fine bill throughout. Same today.

THE LYRIC

The home fire-side offered a strong invitation to stay in doors last evening from the inclement weather, but notwithstanding this fact the Lyric Theatre was well filled. Those who braved the weather were treated to an excellent bill, and Miss Lyric, the change artists, and other dancers seemed to win the favor of the audience from the minute they appeared on the stage and the entertainment was stamped as being just what was needed to amuse the night. He also does a remarkable quick change, in full view of the audience, from a city suit in dress suit to an old Southern negro, which proved a novelty. While in this costume, with the assistance of his partner, the popular southern melody, "Down Where the Swanee River Flows," was sung with fine effect. Miss Burt's songs and dances were most enjoyable, giving enough variety to suit all. Four pictures of high standard completed the programme. It will be repeated tomorrow.

WAS MUCH ENJOYED.

The concert of Scottish selections given last evening in the Opera House by the Alec Lauder Concert Company was only fairly well attended because of the inclement weather. The audience, however, enjoyed the numbers, and besides receiving heartily Mr. Lauder in impersonations and caricatures, also extended a warm welcome to Miss Flora Donaldson, who will be remembered for her work with the Royal Scots. She sang well last evening and was repeatedly renewed. Mr. Harman was praised for his part of the entertainment which consisted of a variety of musical sketches.

ABE ATTELL HURT; HE MAY FIGHT NO MORE

(Canadian Press)

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 31.—Abe Attell broke his arm in the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round bout with Tommy Kilbane here last night. The fight was also stopped.

The doctors say Attell may never enter the ring again. In the fourth round the boys were clinched and wrestling when they fell. Attell had his arm about Kilbane's neck. When the champion fell writing to the floor he was carried out and an X-Ray examination showed that the humerus bone of the right arm was broken.

ARCHBISHOP RYAN OF PHILADELPHIA NEAR DEATH

Philadelphia, Jan. 31.—The condition of the Most Rev. Patrick John Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia, who has been ailing for some time, is extremely grave, from which he barely rallies. Archbishop Ryan is in his 80th year. He is not suffering from any specific disease, but his condition is the result of overwork, which has weakened his heart. The last rites of the church have been administered.

THE STRENUOUS LIFE.

AX-GRINDING

A Science With Some Dealers—Done at the Expense of the Public

There is nothing "just as good" as New-Herpside. Some dealers will even go so far as to tell you they have some thing better.

That dealer has an axe to grind. You can't stop his grinding, but you can prevent him grinding it at your expense.

There is one sure, swift way to do it. Go where you can get what you ask for.

You won't be obliged to do this very often, as fortunately the majority of drugists are honest and conscientious.

New-Herpside has been so long and favorably known as the original dandruff germ destroyer that no one should be deceived.

When you need a hair remedy, you don't want one which merely promises to kill the dandruff germ and prevent the hair from falling.

You want that which will be gentle on the scalp and hair.

The hair is the life of the body and the life of the body is the hair. New-Herpside is a life and health guarantor by all druggists.

Kindly mention this paper when applying for your name and address.

RECOMMENDATION TO MERCY.

VICTORIA STREET SUNDAY SCHOOL HAS MEMBERSHIP OF 595

A reunion of the Sunday school of the Victoria street Baptist church was held on Sunday afternoon in the school room, when the annual reports of the superintendent, Geo. B. Cronwell, the secretary, B. Appleby, and the treasurer, Ezra Kierstead, were submitted. All showed that the year had been very successful. The report of the superintendent showed that the Men's Brotherhood was in a flourishing condition, with E. M. Sippell teacher, 130 enrolled and sixty-five present last Sunday. The Ladies' Progressive Bible Class has an enrollment of sixty, average attendance twenty, and forty-five present last Sunday. They collected during the year for the school $20.00, and with money held by the treasurer, the funds amounted to $41.23. They made 89 calls during the year. M. J. Doney is teacher.

The young ladies' class taught by Guy Kierstead has been well attended, while the primary department enrollment of seventy-seven has also been encouraging. If this number seems small, it must be considered that many have graduated from the school and are now in the higher classes. The superintendent praises the work of the heads of the departments. Regret is also expressed at the loss of Norris Vanwart, late superintendent, who was a good and faithful officer.

There are twelve classes in the Sunday school. The total enrollment is 695, the average attendance is 267 and the largest attendance at any one session in the year was 404.

MAY RESTORE TEMPLE BAR TO LONDON SITE

London, Jan. 31.—It is probable that Temple Bar, which was removed from its original position in the city in 1875, will once more be restored to London. It is understood that when the final arrangements have been completed it will be erected as an entrance to Temple Gardens.

Temple Bar was removed from the position it occupied originally on account of the obstruction to traffic which it caused. The question of removing Temple Bar was first discussed in 1788, but the actual removal was not carried out until ninety years later. When this interesting landmark of the city of London was pulled down, every stone was carefully numbered and deposited on a vacant site in the neighborhood of Farringdon street. Here they remained ten years, when Sir Henry Meux arranged for the re-erection of the material as a gateway at the entrance of Bebbald's park, Chestnut, where it is now to be seen.

THE C. P. R. and Boston

The Christian Science Monitor of Boston Saturday contained a lengthy article dealing with the probable increased trade between the New England states and the maritime provinces as the result of the acquisition of terminals in Boston, by the C. P. R. The move, the Monitor thinks, foreshadows the coming of freer trade relations between the Dominion and the United States. Boston as a terminal of the Dominion Atlantic Railway was not the terminal of a great transportation line in the Dominion and the terminal of the Canadian Pacific, it will be the terminal of a great transportation system.

CANADIANS TO SHOW NEW YORKERS HOW

(Canadian Press)

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 31.—It is practically settled that the Ottawa and Wanderer teams will play a series of exhibition games in New York in March. Secretary Martin Essential of the Ottawa, has been in communication with the officers of the St. Nicholas Rink company of New York and in consequence everything is about arranged. The games will take place immediately after the close of the National Association schedule and the series will be for a purse of $1,000.

New York, Jan. 31.—The University of Toronto defeated the New York Athletic Club in a game hockey game last night by the score of 6 to 3. In the first half New York outplayed the visitors, scoring three goals to 2. In the second half, Mills of the New York A. C. was penalized twice for tripping and during his absence Toronto succeeded in caging the puck four times, while New York scored twice.

IT GROWS HAIR

Here Are Facts I Want You To Prove at My Risk

Marvelous as it may seem, Reall "99" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

Reall "99" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for balding, and penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a potent scalp toilet necessary to delicate persons, and will not give the unpleasantly stinging hair.

I want you to get a bottle of Reall "99" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not remove scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair, and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell me, and without question or formality I will hand back to you every penny you paid me for it. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Sold only at my store—The Reall Store, Chas. R. Wasson.

CONFIRMS REPORT OF BIG EXPENDITURES BY C.P.R. AT ST. JOHN

Million Dollars in Improvements on Newly Acquired Property—Two Steamer Trips a Day Across the Bay and Two Montreal Trains Daily

A Montreal Canadian Press despatch today says: "It is said that the Canadian Pacific Railway is planning large expenditures at the port of St. John, and that the company will expend more than $1,000,000 on terminals on the property recently purchased at the head of the harbor." In this connection it is said that the company will put two steamers on the Bay of Fundy, making two trips a day between St. John and Digby, instead of one as at present. The company is also considering the question of running two trains a day between St. John and Montreal to accommodate the increasing passenger and express business. The change will likely be made in the spring. Much of this is practically along lines intimated in the Times before.

Before leaving the Thomson employ he was called to the toy department, where all the clerks had assembled, and on their behalf, G. W. About 100 of his friends gathered at the depot and gave three loud cheers as the train steamed out.

HAD A GOOD YEAR Annual Meeting of Brussels Street Church Sunday School of Last Evening

The annual business meeting of the Brussels street Baptist Sunday school was held last evening in the vestry of the church. At 6.15 o'clock, the officers, teachers and adult members sat down to a tea after which the meeting was called to order by the superintendent. There was a service of song followed by a prayer and the reports of the officers were then presented and read. The secretary's report showed a steady growth in every department. The treasurer had, at the close of 1910, a good balance to the credit of the school. Special measures have been taken to strengthen the cradle roll, primary and temperance departments and all showed excellent results. A sum was voted to provide new books for the library. L. A. Belyea, who has been superintendent of the school for the last six years, was re-elected to that office. At the monthly business meeting in December, W. H. Moor, secretary of boys' work in the Y. M. C. A. and A. H. Chipman were elected assistant superintendents. This school is the second in the city to break away from the old system of holding sessions at 2.30 and meets at 12.15, directly after the morning church service. The change has worked out admirably and men and women now attend the Sunday school who would not come if the school was held in the afternoon. The young people also are taking a keener interest in the school, and in every direction prosperity is shown.

LOSES LIFE IN HANGING OUT CLOTHES

Mrs. Geo. Maxwell of Lancaster Killed This Morning

THE LINE BROKE

Weighted by Articles Already Hanging, it Pulled Woman Down and She Fell Eighteen Feet, Breaking Her Neck

Mrs. George Maxwell, aged about fifty years, of Cushing street, Lancaster Heights, just opposite Tilton's corner, was instantly killed by a fall while hanging out clothes about 6.30 o'clock this morning. The clothes line was about 55 feet long, and for about 25 feet was filled with light-colored clothes. Mrs. Maxwell stood about five feet inside of a door at the back of the woodhouse, and she was engaged in passing out the clothes, when the line broke and she was pulled through the open door, falling a distance of about eighteen feet. She fell on her head, breaking the frontal bone and dislocating her neck. Death was instantaneous.

Coroner Macfarland was at once summoned from Fairville and decided that no inquest was necessary. Besides her husband, she is survived by the following children—Mary, wife of Fred McIntyre, superintendent of Cedar Hill cemetery; Loretta, married and living in Roxbury, Mass.; Andrew, living in Roxbury; Samuel, living in Carleton; Mrs. McAnulty, living in Carleton; and George, living at home.

SATURNIA HAVING A HARD TIME

New Donaldson Liner Heard From by Wire—Cannot Get Here Before Tomorrow

Building with a fierce wind and blinding snow storm off the Nova Scotia coast, the new Donaldson liner Saturnia, due here on Monday, and whose arrival was expected late last night, and again tonight, cannot now reach here before tomorrow. A wireless message to the Marconi station at the Island from Cape Sable, which is in continuous communication with the steamer, was to the effect that she was fifty miles off Cape Sable at 10 o'clock this morning, and moving at less than half speed in the face of a blinding snow storm and big sea. A message at about noon announced that she was about forty miles off Cape Sable and still moving very slowly. The wind was still strong and the snow storm continued, making navigation difficult. She cannot now arrive before tomorrow, and it is expected that she will be off the island in time to dock before noon.
