ADDRESS OF THE LORD BISHOP.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY,

We are permitted to meet for the fourth time in Diocesan Synod. And we have seen within the Colony, the establishment of a Provincial Synod, which has already been once assembled and is to meet again during the present year. We have also seen the formation of a new Diocese, with a separate Synod of its own. Five Diocesan Synods are now constituted within the Province. These are great changes, as compared with the state of Church affairs upon which we stretch our view but a little way, to look back. And they are changes which carry with them great responsibilities on the part of those who become charged to so considerable an extent with the interests of the Church of God in this ecclesiastical section of the country. I pray that we may all come to our work in a spirit of faith and love and in an earnest determination to do it "heartily as unto the Lord,"—not allowing ourselves to be satisfied unless we can carry away the belief at the close of our labours, that we have done something more than giving our attendance in Synod and doing our part to exhibit a representation of the Church—no—let us not be satisfied unless, by "the good hand of our God upon us," we really obtain some tangible object, unless we really effect some substantial benefit for the Church.

Under the circumstances of this Diocese, the time which our Clergy and Lay-delegates can make their arrangements to stay in Quebec, is exceedingly limited, and that limited time is proportionably precious—added to which consideration, there is, upon the present occasion, some time unavoidably deducted by the occurrence of the triennial Visitation of the Clergy. I shall forbear, therefore, from occupying your attention at any great length, and from even specifying such of those objects, to which our attention has been directed in previous Synods, as remain yet to be followed up. I do not know that there are any of them which ought to be dropped: I am sure there are some of them which it is important to accomplish.

It cannot, I trust, be suspected that I desire, by any observations which I now proceed to offer, to fetter in the most remote manner, the freedom of the discussions which are to follow, or to exercise a particle of undue influence over the deliberations of the Synod. But as the result of my journeying over this immense and straggling Diocese, and of serious reflections suggested by things which have thence fallen under my observation, I do desire to draw the attention of my brethren of the Clergy and Laity to the inexpediency, as it appears to my judgment, of making it imperative to hold annual Synods. Observe, I say of making it imperative, because if, year by year, there should be important reasons for a session, if there should be circumstances and exigencies evidently dictating such a course, if there should be a strong wish on the part of experienced members of the Synod to return without delay to any subjects happening to have been left unfinished, or to originate new designs which appear to press for adoption,—then it may be assumed, as a matter of course, that Synods would be held as often as these reasons should be made to appear, and that the Bishop would resist such a demand, is a supposition hardly to be taken into calculation.

The objections, on the other hand, to an obligatory convention of the Synod in every year, appear to me to be of a grave and important character. First, the Diocese is poor. Our Clergy are poor: our delegates, if sent from the spots which they represent, are in many instances, likely to be men also of small means and ill able to afford any frequent interruption of their attention to their own concerns: and most of the congregations are weak in resources, many of them are weak in numbers, the Church of England population of twenty seven thousand souls, being scattered over a Diocese which reaches from Labrador upwards of seven hundred miles below Quebec, to Stanstead which is a hundred and fifty miles above it. I do think, therefore, that the expenses entailed upon our people by a necessity imposed of annual Synods would operate hardly upon individuals and would injuriously affect other interests of the Church. The Diocese is dotted all over with Churches, which, although they are in use, are seen standing for years and years together in too unfinished a condition for consecration, because the people, after their best efforts and all the extraneous help which they can invoke, are unable to complete the work. And here, in Quebec itself, we have public charities and Church institutions maintained not without much effort and dependent, in good measure (I take this simply as an example,) upon Sunday collections in the Cathedral, which object of the collections is already set aside repeatedly during the year, by appeals on behalf of the Diocesan Church Society and other demands—and then comes in the additional call for the Synod. In fact our Church Institutions and establishments are, all of them, on the right hand and on the left, charged, although not hopelessly charged, with debt: the Cathedral is in debt: the College is in debt: the National Schools and Charitable Asylums of this city are in debt, and there are Churches in debt in all directions. It is to be remembered also that, in the tax levied upon the several Dioceses for the Provincial Synod, this poor Diocese bears an equal share with Dioceses in all respects more favorably situated, some of which number upwards of a hundred thousand Church members:—And so the case, of course, must continue to stand, while we send the same number of delegates to the Provincial Synod, as is sent by those other Dioceses. Perhaps, therefore, we are going too fast, if in the face of all these considerations and with the fact before us, that we are still unable to establish the long projected and continually agitated rule, which would bring up the salaries of our Clergy to a minimum of £150 currency a year, we apply, unless with some reserves, to the particular question here agitated, the principle that the more we multiply our appeals, the more we get in each separate case, and that therefore we are to discard the idea of being influenced by any economical regards. That we should cultivate in the Church of God, the habitual sentiment of being ready and cheerfully ready to give of our worldly substance for objects connected with our Religion, is what no man will more strenuously insist upon than myself,—but as good stewards of the manifold grace (or favor) of God, we must consider that here is a field in which there is a great deal to be done, and a great deal which ought to be done is actually not done and cannot except very slowly, be done, for want of means: And it is part therefore of our religious duty wisely to husband our resources and to see that in the distribution of what it pleases God to place at our command, we do no prejudice to one part of our charge by exalting too much the claims of another.

The observations which I have here made, apply with a peculiar pertinency to the Clergy and Church population of the Gulf. In that remote section of the Diocese there are eight missions, and the expenses and delays incurred from the length of way to be travelled up and down, and in some instances, from the want of all facilities of conveyance, render a yearly visit to Quebec a very serious affair for those who have to perform and to provide for it. A clergyman who has since removed to Canada West, having been for some time in this Diocese, was, for a short space, in charge of a mission in the District of Gaspé. This gentleman was prompted by what he saw of our wants in the portion of Canada which we occupy, to make a collection for our Church Society, among a Military body under his pastoral care : and in a letter enclosing the remittance, he says, (having first spoken generally of the spiritual wants of our people and the inadequacy of local means to supply them, notwithstanding a prevalent anxiety for religious instruction,)—“ A third of the persons whom I called upon” when stationed in that District, “ had not a chair in their houses to sit upon, and yet they all contributed to the minister’s stipend.” Now in these missions of the Gulf, we have large congregations for whom thirteen Churches have been built,—in the mission of New Carlisle for example there are very nearly seven hundred Church members,* and the number of persons confirmed in the District amounts, according to the results of my last visit, to a full fifth of the whole number confirmed in the Diocese. It is not a light matter independently of the expense already noticed, of travelling for such a distance, to bring away all the clergy and to impose the necessity, of sending up lay delegates from that quarter of the Province once a year, whether there be a particular call for their attendance or not ; and, with reference to the Clergy, to make so great an annual break in the ministrations which they afford, leaving the District for the length of time required for the purpose, without any provision for Sunday service, for baptisms, marriages, burials and visits to the sick or dying,—for some of which objects there may happen to be urgent calls. It is true that the alternative presents itself of non-attendance at the Synod. But the few particulars which I have stated may serve, I think, to shew that the District is not a portion of the Diocese which ought to be, in a manner, unrepresented.

I will only add what I have heard said of the Diocese of Vermont, where annual conventions of the Church are made obligatory,—namely, that the business to be transacted in that Diocese where the number of Clergy and Church-people is comparatively small, hardly justifies a needlessly frequent interruption of those pastoral labours, which ought so to engage the thoughts and time of the Clergy, as never to be prejudiced by the danger of their absorption in Church business of a more secular complexion. There is a possible tendency, which is to be deprecated, towards some sort of fondness for quasiparliamentary proceedings, discussions and debates, especially in the case of any accidental personal gift for taking a prominent part in such occasions.

I think it will be perfectly understood, from what I have already said, that these remarks are not offered in a spirit of dictation. I give you the results of my own experience and my own reflections—willing and desirous, at the same time, to hear and to weigh and to profit by all that may be advanced on the other side; and quite open to conviction if it should be shown that there are considerations in favour of an imperative law, for annual sessions of the Synod, which overbalance the force of these objections, powerful as they seem to me to be. I am only anxious that gentlemen should carry in their minds and have before their eyes the particulars which I have stated, and should take them deliberately into account, before we engage in the disposal of the question.

I now proceed to render, for the information of the Synod, some particulars connected with the financial arrangements of the Diocese and the provisions made for Missionary labour.

In accordance with the terms of a Resolution of the Synod, I have been assisted during the year, in the administration of the grant of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, by the Committee appointed to carry on negociations with that body. On the subject of those negociations, the Committee will report separately; but with reference to the administration of the funds, I have to inform the Synod, that the payments previously authorized by that society have been continued up to this date, with the exception of the salary of the missionary of Nicolet, that place having unfortunately been vacant since October last, owing to the retirement of the Reverend Henry Burges. The committee concurred in the appropriation to this mission, of the reduced amount of £75 sterling to the 31st December next, the congregation undertaking to pay $100, and the endowment-fund yielding a similar amount. The Reverend Silas Crosse, Missionary at Percé and Cape Cove, was designated to the charge of Nicolet, but before he could complete the arrangements for his removal, which it was impossible to effect during the winter, the small congregation at Percé exerted themselves so vigorously to secure the continuance of his services among them, that when they undertook the unaided charge of his maintenance in order to retain his ministrations at Percé alone, I could have no hesitation in acceding to their wishes. With liberal help from the house of Messrs. Robin & Co., they have pledged themselves to provide £100 sterling per annum with a residence. This congregation having voluntarily relinquished all claim to any portion of the home society's grant, the whole amount (£60 sterling for the present year, and £50 sterling for each of the three following years,) was applied to the benefit of Cape Cove, and the appointment to that place offered to a missionary, who has long labored hard in the Society's cause and seeks a less onerous sphere of duty. The arrangements for this appointment are not however, fully complete. Nicolet, in the meantime, was not left wholly destitute, having been supplied with a monthly service during the winter by the Reverend George Heaton, then doing duty at Three Rivers, for which, the sum of £12. 10s. sterling was voted to him, beside which he received $4 on each occasion from local sources, to defray the expense of his visit. On the decision respecting Mr. Crosse's remaining at Percé, Nicolet was offered to the Reverend John Torrance, formerly a missionary in this Diocese, but for some years past residing out of it, and unable from the state of his health, to perform active duty. His health having been of late to a great degree restored, so as to enable him almost constantly for some time past to take occasional duty, he is desirous of again engaging in labors, to which his strength may be found equal, within the Diocese to which he properly belongs. He has officiated for the last few Sundays at Nicolet, but has not yet rendered his decision respecting the permanent acceptance of the charge.

The office of Chaplain to the Marine and Emigrant Hospital at Quebec, towards the maintenance of which a special grant has been made, for some years past, of £50 stg., from the Emigrant's Spiritual Aid Fund of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, having become vacant on the first July, 1861, by the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Percy, the Committee concurred in the temporary appointment of the Rev. Robert Pless to the charge, which he held to 1st May last, when it passed to the hands of the Rev. James Sykes, who holds it in conjunction with that of Chaplain to the sailors in the port.

The Revd. John P. Richmond was appointed in September last, Missionary on the coast of Labrador. This appointment, however, the Home Society has seen fit to retain in its own hands, and the amount allowed for the salary not being included in its annual grant, the Synod will not be in future concerned with it.

The Mission of Portneuf has this day become vacant, the Revd. Arthur Pearse being obliged to leave the Diocese, by the state of his health. The Committee concurred in the appointment of the Revd. John Dalziel as his successor.

The missions of Lennoxville and Melbourne have both also very recently become vacant by the deaths of two of the oldest Missionaries of the Society, to the loss of whom I have more particularly alluded in my charge delivered this morning to the Clergy. The Reverend A. C. Scarth who acted as assistant to the late Reverend L. Doolittle, has continued, ad interim, in the charge of Lennoxville. The vacancy at Melbourne has occurred within the last ten days. It will be for the Synod or the body whom it may depute to act for it in this behalf, to take measures for supplying the existing vacancies without loss of time. The annual expenditure of the Missions of the Home Society stands now at £75 per annum less than the amount of its grant, and some considerable farther reduction will be probably effected, when the arrangements shall have been decided upon for filling up the places to which reference has just been made. On the other hand, however, the aid which the Church Society has been obliged for the last few years to render in the maintenance of three missions of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, is not pledged, and from the state of its funds cannot be reasonably looked for, beyond the first of October next. The grant of that Society to one of these places (Stoncham), expires today.

I am thankful to state that the recent convocation of the University of Bishop's College, with the dependent proceedings, connected with the Junior Department of that Institution, passed off in the most gratifying manner and yielded new promise of great advantages to be thence carried over and beyond the Diocese. In that example, as well as here in the Synod, we have most successfully enlisted the co-operation of the laity, and it so happened that, at the time of the Convocation held on the 25th of last month, of seventeen members present in a meeting of the College Corporation, only six were ecclesiastics. May God give grace to us all to work together in wisdom and in love, and so bless and prosper our work that we may be effectually instrumental in promoting the great and sacred interests with which we are charged! The glory be all to Him, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, whose we are and whom we serve!

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

The Revd. A. J. Woolryche read the Report of the Committee appointed to negociate with the Church Society.

The Committee appointed to carry on negociations with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, and to arrange the details of the agreement to be made with the Diocesan Church Society, in order to its being entrusted with the administration of the grant of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel for Missionary stipends within the Diocese, beg to report :

That the Church Society having appointed a Committee, of equal numbers with this Committee,* the joint Committee met, and after an attentive consideration of the proposed Canons referred by the Synod to this Committee, agreed upon a form in which the terms of mutual co-operation between the Synod and the Church Society should be embodied, in one case in a Canon, in the other in a By-Law of the Society.

That form, of which a copy is annexed to this Report, was submitted to the consideration of the Church Society at its annual meeting in January last, and agreed to with some alterations. A copy of the By-law as amended by the Church Society, is also subjoined to this Report. The action then taken by the Society was not final, but must be approved or otherwise at a special meeting which is to be held to-morrow for this purpose.

The Committee regret to have to inform the Synod that although from the correspondence between the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel and the Bishop of the Diocese, acting on behalf of the Committee, which was embodied in their Report presented last year to the Synod, it had been understood that the arrangement between the Society and the Synod should date from the time of its being ultimately adopted by the Synod, i. e., from July last, the Society has since stated, by its Secretary, that the intention was that it should take effect from the 1st January, 1860. The Diocese is therefore called upon, eighteen months earlier than had been expected, to provide for the diminution in the grant of the Society of £100 strg. per annum for three years, which is now to take effect on 31st December next, and will also arrive so much earlier at the period when the distinct vote, as to amount, will expire. The Society, however, upon an urgent representation of the case made by the joint Committee, has consented to pay over to the Diocese the sum of £75 strg., by which amount the Diocese had been underpaid, reckoning the grant at £2057 10s. strg. per annum, from 1st January 1860 to 1st July 1861. This sum is in the hands of the Treasurer of the Synod, and is available for the Missionary operations of the Diocese.

The Society has also seen fit to reverse the decision communicated to the Synod in a letter addressed by its Secretary to the Lord Bishop, dated London, 7th July, 1861,* by which the amount of £200 strg. per annum, for the salaries of the Revd. R. G. Ward and the Missionary at Labrador, was to be added to the Diocesan grant. These salaries are now to be drawn for, separately. The arrangement with the Society now stands thus : £2057 10s. strg. (exclusive of the £200 just mentioned) for the current year, and £1957 10s. strg. for each of the years 1863, 1864 and 1865.

A. J. WOOLRYCHE,
Secretary.

PROPOSED BY-LAW OF CHURCH SOCIETY AND CANON OF SYNOD.

MISSION FUND,—SUSTENTATION FUND,—DIOCESAN BOARD.

The annual grant of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, and the Mission Fund of this Society shall be entrusted to the management of a Diocesan Board on the following terms :—

A—The conditions attached to its grant by the S. P. G. shall be strictly observed.

* (Journal of Synod, 1861, p. 27.)

B—In order to anticipate as far as possible, the contemplated reduction of the annual grant of the S. P. G. the Capital of the Mission Fund shall form a Sustentation Fund, which capital shall be progressively increased by the following means :—

1—The addition of the annual interest arising thereon.

2—The addition of any surplus from the Revenue account.

3—The addition of Special Subscriptions, Donations and Legacies.

C—The Revenue Account of the said Fund shall consist of the Annual grant of the S. P. G. of the proceeds of Sermons, and annual subscriptions for Missionary purposes, and of grants to be made from time to time by the Central Board of the Church Society, and shall be augmented by incorporating with it the fund already commenced as the Clergy Stipened Fund, and shall be available for the general purposes of the Diocesan Board ; among which, prominence shall be given to the object of raising the stipends of all the Clergy of the Diocese to a minimum of £150 cy., per annum.

D—The Diocesan Board shall be composed of the Lord Bishop of the Diocese as President, the Treasurer of the Church Society, who shall also fill the same office at the Board ; the Secretary of the Church Society who shall also fill the same office at the Board, if so required to do by the Board, and of six clergymen and six laymen, being members of the Corporation of the aforesaid Society ; one-half of whom in each order shall be elected by the Church Society, and the other half by the Synod of the Diocese, the members to hold office for a period of three years, and until their successors be respectively chosen. Any vacancies arising from death, resignation, or removal from the Diocese, shall be provisionally filled up by the Central Board of the Church Society, and the persons so appointed shall continue in office till the next meeting of the Diocesan Synod, or of the Church Society, when the vacancies aforesaid shall be respectively supplied. Five members of the Board shall form a quorum for the transaction of business. The first election of members by this Society shall take place immediately after the passing of this By-law. The Board shall have authority to make rules and regulations for the management of their affairs, provided that none of them be contrary to, or inconsistent with the By-laws of the Church Society, or the Canons of the Diocesan Synod. The Board shall report their proceedings to the Central Board and the Synod of the Diocese, and shall at the close of each year prepare for the Synod and the Church Society a general statement of the condition and prospects of their Missionary Stations. The proceedings of the Board shall be subject to the sanction of the Lord Bishop. All moneys entrusted to the Board shall be applied exclusively towards the support of the Clergy of the Diocese. No Mission shall be closed or new Mission opened without the concurrence of the Board. But nothing contained in this By-law shall be held or considered to prevent the Board from seeking or accepting on behalf of the Church in this Diocese the aid and assistance of any Societies of the Church,* FOREIGN OR DOMESTIC, AGREEABLY TO THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF SUCH SOCIETY, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY PROVISIO IN THIS BY-LAW TO THE CONTRARY. All appointments to any cure or charge, until and unless otherwise vested, shall be made by the Lord Bishop acting in concert with the Board. But it shall be at the option of any Congregation, Parish or Mission, binding itself to contribute not less than £100 currency per annum towards the support of its Pastor, to present to the Lord Bishop for approval and appointment the name or names of one or more Clergymen, being in Priest's orders, who may have signified his or their willingness to accept the vacant appointment: provided always that a notification in writing of such intention on the part of any Congregation, Parish or Mission, shall be forwarded to the Lord Bishop within one and twenty days from the date when such cure or charge became vacant. And on the occurrence of a vacancy in any Parish or Mission, or at the request of the Church Wardens of any Parish or Mission, or at the desire of the Lord Bishop, and at the expiration of every three years, it shall be the duty of the Board to confer and arrange with the local authorities as to the amount to be contributed therein towards the maintenance of a resident clergyman ;—it being an instruction to the Board that no clergyman, being in Priest's Orders shall hereafter be appointed with their concurrence or by their assistance to a sole charge, whose clerical income shall be less than £150 currency per annum ; and that no aid shall be given to any Congregation, Parish or Mission, which shall be considered by the Board unwilling to do its part towards the support of its Pastor. The Board shall require of every clergyman in charge of a Parish or Mission, a half-yearly certificate to the effect that the amount guaranteed by the people towards his maintenance has been duly received by him. And in every instance where a Congregation, Parish or Mission shall be found to have failed in contributing the amount promised, it shall be the duty of the Board to make immediate enquiries of the local authorities as to the cause of the non-fulfilment, and to take such action as they shall see fit.

The Committee beg leave also to suggest the expediency of some such addition to the By-law creating the Clergy Trust Committee as follows :

That any surplus arising from the income of the said fund after the payment of those clergy who have claims thereon, shall be added from time to time to the capital of the said fund, until otherwise provided by a By-law of the Church Society.

The whole respectfully submitted.

A. J. WOOLRYCHE,
Secretary to Committee.

Moved by Rev. A. Balfour, seconded by E. Hemming, Esq :

That the Report now read be the first order of the day tomorrow.—Carried

No Report was presented by the Committee on Parishes.

Mr. W. G. Wurtele read the Report of the Committee on Representation :

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REPRESENTATION.

The Committee to whom were intrusted the several subjects, as laid down in the Resolutions passed at the last Synod, beg leave to report:

The Resolutions referred to this Committee, proposing an alteration in the fourth article of the Constitution, has had their careful attention, and after examining the rules adopted by the several Synods in this Province as to the number and mode of election of Delegates for the Parishes, Missions or Cures; the Committee recommend that the following be adopted by the Synod, and that the Fourth Article of the Constitution be amended to read thus :

Every Parish, Mission or Cure, with or without a Church edifice, and served by a licensed Minister, shall be entitled to send one Delegate to Synod, but any Parish, Mission, or Cure, having two or more Church edifices with congregations attached thereto, may send two Delegates and no more, save and except the Congregation of the Cathedral Church of the Diocese, used as a Parish Church in the City of Quebec, shall be entitled to three representatives.

The Committee beg leave also to report that having drawn up forms of report, to be filled up by the Clergy and Churchwardens throughout the Diocese, and having, in compliance with the resolution of the Synod submitted the same to the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, they afterwards transmitted them to each Clergyman in charge of Cures for himself and Churchwardens. Of the Churchwarden's Reports, sufficient were sent to each Clergyman, which correspond with the number of Constituencies in each Mission sending Delegates to this Synod, making forty-three to the Clergy and seventy-eight to the Churchwardens; of this number thirty-seven Clergy and fifty-three Churchwardens have sent in reports.

The following have not sent reports :

Nicolet, vacant ; Gaspé Basin, Rev. F. Delamare ; Magdalene Islands, Rev. F. Boyle ; Stanstead, vacant ; Melbourne, vacant ; Three Rivers, vacant.

The Churchwardens of Three Rivers, Nicolet, St. Patrick's, St. Margaret's, St. George, Cumberland, Hope Town, Port Daniel, Stanstead, Kingsey, Spooner's Pond, St. Stephens, Chigouac, Magdalene Islands, four Reports ; Richmond, Melbourne, Robinson, River-du-Loup, en bas ; Gaspé Basin, St. Paul's, St. James.

Your Committee have made a compilation of these reports which they now present to the Synod. It is to be regretted that it is not as full as desired, the Committee having had so little time to prepare, owing to the reports not having been sent in by the 10th May, as ordered. It is only by such reports that the real state of the Diocese can be ascertained.

Your Committee would direct the attention of the Synod to the small number of Churches and Parsonages in the Diocese insured against fire, and recommend that immediate steps be taken to carry out a uniform system of insurance.

All which is respectfully submitted.

W. G. WURTELE,
Chairman.

Moved by H. S. Scott, Esq., seconded by Revd. R. G. Ward :

That the Report now read be received and considered.—Carried.

Moved by Revd. J. H. Jenkins, seconded by Revd. G. J. Magill :

That the words "may send two Delegates and no more" be expunged, and that these words be substituted, "every congregation having a Church edifice be allowed to send one Delegate to this Synod."—Lost.

Moved by Mr. Irvine, seconded by Revd. M. M. Fothergill :

That so much of the Report now before the chair as recommends any change in the constitution respecting the representation of congregations be not adopted.—Carried.

Moved by Rev. A. W. Mountain, seconded by Mr. W. Spragge :

That the Report as amended be adopted.

The Synod then adjourned to meet on Wednesday morning at half-past nine o'clock.

The Synod met after Morning Prayer, in " All Saints' " Chapel.

The Lord Bishop opened the proceedings with prayer.

The Report of the Committee to negotiate with the Church Society was taken up as the first order of the day, when it was moved by Rev. A. J. Woolryche, seconded by Rev. A. W. Mountain :

That the Report of the Committee to negotiate with the Church Society, be considered clause by clause.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Hemming, seconded by Revd. W. King :

That the Report of the Committee to negotiate with the Church Society be not now proceeded with, but that a Committee be named by the Synod to confer with the Church Society, in order to ascertain on what terms, if any, the said Society would consent to be amalgamated with the Synod, and what Legislative enactments may be necessary to carry out such union, so as, if possible, to obviate the otherwise unavoidable expense and complications which are certain to arise from the double organization now existing in this Diocese, and that pending such negotiations the Lord Lord Bishop be authorized to make such arrangements with the concurrence of the Committee, as he has heretofore done, for carrying out the designs of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.—Lost.

Moved by Revd. S. S. Wood, seconded by Revd. W. King :

That under the circumstances, as explained by Revds. S. S. Wood and A. Balfour, accounting for Lord Aylmer having no certificate of his election, Lord Aylmer be requested to take his seat as a member of the Synod.—Carried.

habitually attend Divine Worship in such Church, and shall affix the said list on the church door on the first Sunday in Lent in each year, and the Minister shall on the said Sunday give notice that at such time and place as shall be mentioned in the notice, the Minister and Churchwardens, or the Minister alone when there are no Churchwardens, will attend, when he or they shall finally determine all objections to the said list, either by persons who claim to have their names inserted thereon, or by members of the Congregation who desire to have their names erased therefrom; and the persons whose names shall remain on the said list after it shall be so amended, and no others, shall form the Vestry of such Church.

B.—In order to anticipate, as far as possible, the contemplated reduction of the annual grant of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, the capital of the Mission Fund shall form a Sustentation Fund, which capital shall be progressively increased by the following means :—

- 1.—The addition of the annual interest arising thereon.
- 2.—The addition of any surplus from the Revenue account.
- 3.—The addition of special subscriptions, donations and legacies.

C.—The Revenue account of the said fund shall consist of the annual grant of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, of the proceeds of sermons, and of annual subscriptions for Missionary purposes, and of grants to be made from time to time by the Central Board of the Church Society, and shall be augmented by incorporating with it the fund already commenced as the Clergy Stipend Fund, and shall be available for the general purposes of the Diocesan Board, among which prominence shall be given to the object of raising the stipends of all the Clergy of the Diocese to a minimum of £150 currency per annum.

D.—The Diocesan Board shall be composed of the Lord Bishop of the Diocese as President, the Treasurer of the Church Society, the Secretary of the Church Society, who shall also fill the same office at the Board, if so required by the Board, of the Clerical Secretary of the Synod, of the Treasurer of the Synod, who shall also fill the same office at the Board, and of six Clergymen and of six laymen, all the members of the Board, being also members of the Corporation of the Church Society, one half of whom, in each order, shall be elected by the Church Society, and the other half by the Synod of the Diocese, the members of the Board to hold office for a period of three years, and until their successors be respectively chosen. Any vacancies arising from death, resignation, or removal from the Diocese, shall be provisionally filled up by the Lord Bishop, and the persons so appointed shall continue in office till the next meeting of the Diocesan Synod, or of the Church Society, when the vacancies aforementioned shall be respectively supplied. Seven members of the Board shall form a quorum for the transaction of business. The Board shall have authority to make rules and regulations for the management of their affairs, provided that none of them be contrary to, or inconsistent with, the By-Laws of the Church Society, or the Canons of the Diocesan Synod. The Board shall report their proceedings to the Central Board of the Church Society and to the Synod of the Diocese, and shall annually prepare for the Synod and the Church Society a general statement of the condition and prospects of their missionary stations. The proceedings of the Board shall be subject to the sanction of the Lord Bishop. All moneys entrusted to the Board shall be applied exclusively towards the support of the Clergy of the Diocese. All appointments to any cure or charge in connection with the Board, shall be made by the Lord Bishop, acting in concert with the Board. On the occurrence of a vacancy, in any parish or mission, or at the request of the Churchwardens of any parish or mission, or at the desire of the Lord Bishop, and at the expiration of every three years, it shall be the duty of the Board to confer and arrange with the local authorities as to the amount to be contributed therein towards the maintenance of a resident Clergyman, it being an instruction to the Board that no Clergyman, being in Priests' Orders, shall hereafter be appointed, with their concurrence or by their assistance, to a sole charge whose clerical income shall be less than £150 currency per annum, and that no aid shall be given to any congregation, parish or mission, which shall be considered by the Board unwilling to do its part toward the support of a pastor.
