

TO INCREASE SESSIONAL INDEMNITIES

The Total Cost in Sessional Indemnities Alone Will Be Increased Over Half Million.

DECISION COMES AS BIG SURPRISE

Premier Gave Impression Thursday That He Considered Advance Now as Undesirable.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Ont., June 25.—Today's indemnity caucus developments may be summed up briefly as follows:

(1) Sir Robert Borden sternly lectured members and senators for divulging caucus secrets, declaring that this constituted a grave breach of confidence, and adding that those found guilty of such misdemeanour in the future would be duly punished.

(2) The Prime Minister proceeded to heal the wound thus made by announcing the following generous increase in indemnities:

- (a) Members and senators to have their indemnities advanced from $2,500 to $4,000 a session. (b) Cabinet ministers to have their salaries increased from $7,000 to $10,000 a year, plus their indemnity, making a yearly total of $14,000. (c) The Leader of the Opposition to be given the same salary as a Cabinet Minister, to wit $14,000 a year. (d) The salary of the Prime Minister to be increased from $10,000 to $15,000 a year, plus the indemnity, making a total of $19,000. (e) The salary of the Solicitor General to be increased from $6,000 to $7,000, plus the indemnity, or a total of $11,000. (f) The salaries of judges to be substantially increased.

Half Million Increase.

The foregoing represents a net total increase of more than half a million dollars—$554,000—and brings the total cost of a session in indemnities alone to $1,320,000.

News of the increases spread like wildfire. Despite the Prime Minister's lecture about secrecy, members fairly fell over themselves in spreading the glad tidings, and long before the Prime Minister had issued a formal statement outlining and defending what had been done, the news had been spread broadcast over the wires to nearly every newspaper in the country.

The Prime Minister's decision came as a surprise because in his speech in the Commons on Thursday, he left little doubt in the mind of his hearers that he considered an advance in indemnities at the present time undesirable.

However, now that the deed is done and members are preparing to pocket their $1,500 and go home (legislation to be rushed through at the usual end-of-the-session bewildering rate) there is not likely to be much criticism of the course taken. It is pointed out (Sir Robert's statement emphasizes these points) that the Canadian indemnity is still lower than in the United States; that our Cabinet Ministers have been grossly underpaid, and that this applies with equal force to the members of the Bench. The only objection which the Prime Minister himself voiced this week, but even this members believe, will be more than met by a calm consideration of all the facts.

NFLD. ELECTION CASE FINALLY SETTLED

Declaration of Poll Shows Minister of Shipping Victorious by Majority of 421.

St. John's, Nfld., June 25.—(Canadian Press)—Declaration of the poll in the district of Bay De Verde, today, shows that W. J. Cave, Minister of Shipping, was elected by a majority of 421 votes. The standing of the candidates when the final count was concluded gave Cave 1,334 and J. C. Piddeters 913. A very aggressive fight was put up by both sides in the by-election. Premier Squires actively campaigned in the district for his candidate, while the opposition was presented in the fight by former Colonial Secretary Bennett.

The general policy of the new government was made the issue of the campaign but the fish export regulations were the storm centre of discussion. Cave's victory is regarded as a great popular endorsement of the Squires administration.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY AT VAUDREUIL

Prominent Westmount Family Wiped Out in Drowning Accident — No Witnesses to Affair.

Montreal, June 25.—A tragedy broods over Vaudreuil tonight owing to the wiping out by drowning of a prominent Westmount family who were staying there for the summer. The victims are Mrs. W. F. Hamilton, 38, her two daughters, Louise and Yvette, aged 5 and 9 respectively, and her niece Helene Hamilton, aged ten. The accident occurred shortly after three this afternoon and was not discovered until 3.45 when Andre, aged 12, son of the drowned woman, saw the body of his cousin, Helene, floating face downwards in the water. There are no witnesses to the accident which, it is supposed, occurred through Mrs. Hamilton going to the rescue of one of the children and becoming herself helpless in the deep water. Then, it is thought, the other children tried to rescue her and were drowned. Mr. William F. Hamilton, the bereaved husband and father, is a civil engineer and a graduate of McGill.

DERRY SITUATION FURTHER IMPROVED

Gov't Prepared to Protect All Routes Leading to Shipyards—Business Resumed.

Londonderry, June 25.—The situation in Londonderry following the week of civil warfare showed further improvement today when business again started up. A peace conference is now in session largely with a view to getting refugees back to their homes. It is being attended by the Protestant and Catholic Bishops, the Magistrates and Irish Under-Secretaries.

General Carter Campbell, commander of the Government troops, today reiterated his guarantee to protect all the routes leading to the shipyards and factories, thus insuring a resumption of work in their plants. Colonel Chaplin, of the Scottish Rifles, is in charge of the troops in the city.

At the inquest today over the body of Augustus Austin, a former soldier, who was killed while crossing a street, the Coroner promised to give Austin's widow every opportunity to identify the persons who slew her husband. The Coroner regarded all such cases as that of Austin as nothing less than wilful murder.

HOPEFUL SIGNS OF SETTLEMENT

Toronto Railway Co. and Strikers Met in Conference Yesterday — Compromise Offer.

Toronto, June 25.—At the adjourned conference of the representatives of the striking street railway employees, the company, the Ontario Railway Board and other bodies this forenoon, the company offered to increase the maximum wage from 55 cents to 60 cents per hour, and the offer will be considered at a mass meeting of the employees tomorrow night.

The mere fact that the Toronto Railway Company and the officials of the Street Railwaymen's Union, representing the strikers, met in conference was a hopeful sign. The situation became still more hopeful when Manager R. J. Fleming, of the Toronto Railway Company, told the Railway Board that his suggestion of a five-cent increase would be considered by the company.

COMMERCE B'D WRANGLE TO BE AIRED IN HOUSE

Sir Robert Borden Promises All Correspondence in Connection With Robson Resignation.

MURDOCK UNDER MISAPPREHENSION

Premier Will Give Same Publicity in Reply to Commissioner as Latter Gave His Letter.

Ottawa, June 25.—(By Canadian Press)—Sir Robert Borden promised the House of Commons this afternoon that the correspondence between the government and the Board of Commerce, relating to the resignation of the Hon. H. A. Robson from the Board, would be tabled in the House of Commons. He promised the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King that the House would have an opportunity of discussing the matter contained in the resignation of James Murdoch from the Board in view of this, Mr. King postponed further discussion until after the Robson correspondence had been submitted to Parliament.

At the opening of the House, Mr. King said that assuming the published letter from Mr. Murdoch to be the correct version, he would like to suggest that the correspondence, which the government had declined hitherto to submit to parliament, should now be tabled in the House so that Parliament might have an opportunity of discussing the Board of Commerce in all its phases before prorogation.

LABORS UNDER ERROR

Sir Robert said that he only received Mr. Murdoch's letter today. He presumed it was the same as the version published in the press. Mr. Murdoch was under a misapprehension, no doubt sincere, as to the Government's intention.

"I did not intend to suggest to him," said the Prime Minister, "that the Government would wait for the decision of the Privy Council before filing in the board. On the contrary, I asked him to name a suitable person to appoint when Mr. O'Connor resigned. I did say to Mr. Murdoch that the question was of so serious a character that I was afraid the Government would be unable to give it proper attention until after prorogation. I went so far as to name to my colleagues, the gentleman suggested by Mr. Murdoch as a suitable chairman, but there is some doubt that this gentleman would accept the post."

WILL PUBLISH REPLY

My reply to Mr. Murdoch's letter of resignation will be given the same publicity that has been given his letter.

"The greater part of the correspondence relating to Judge Robson's resignation has been already tabled in the House. The balance was considered by Judge Robson as absolutely private, and he did not think it ought to be published without his consent. My colleagues, in my absence, decided to withhold certain letters because Judge Robson felt that they might be misinterpreted, in view of the fact that Mr. Murdoch has published a part of this correspondence. I am inclined to agree with the leader of the Opposition that the whole correspondence ought to be submitted to parliament."

FIRE IN CARDING AND WOOLLEN MILL

Loss Estimated at $5,000. Insurance $2,500.

Woodstock, June 25.—The old Dryden factory, River street, was partly destroyed by fire this morning. It was occupied the last few months by Fish and Hammond, as a carding and woollen mill. The machinery was badly damaged, while very little goods or wool was removed from the building. The front part of the factory was saved in which the carding department can be conducted for a short time. The loss is estimated at $5,000 with $2,500 insurance.

ORPHAN CHILDREN ENJOYED THEMSELVES

While the scholars at the Protestant Orphan Asylum were unable to give a public programme, as they are quarantined for whooping cough, several of the pupils gave recitations, and their school work and sewing were on exhibition. Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond, of the Board of Management, was present and presented her prizes. The children enjoyed for their dinner salmon as J. Steyn sent a four-pound pound fish to the Home. Mrs. Raymond donated ice cream.

KEEPING UP THE JUDGE ROBSON CONTROVERSY

Mr. Murdoch Again Rushes Into Print in Effort to Bettle Commerce Board Work.

WAS URGED TO RESIGN FROM BOARD

Would Make Judge Robson the Goat, Placing All Shortcomings of Board on His Shoulders.

MURDOCK CHARGES DENIED BY ROBSON

Winnipeg, June 25.—Absolute denial of charges laid against him by James Murdoch was wired to Premier Borden today by Jack Robson. Telegram says: "I characterize Murdoch's imputations against me personally as maliciously false in their entirety and as far as known to me, there is no basis of truth in the suggestion that ministers desired to destroy or hinder the board. I invite the fullest scrutiny from the inception of the board."

Toronto, June 25.—The Toronto Star today publishes a letter from James Murdoch, the last remaining member of the Board of Commerce, who himself resigned last night, in which Mr. Murdoch tells what is described as "inside history that smashed the Board of Commerce." His letter was addressed to the Dominion Cabinet at the time that Judge Robson resigned, as Chairman of the Board of Commerce, last February, and according to the introduction to the article is one of the letters which Liberal members in the House demanded for several weeks, and which the Government refused to lay on the table. In connection with the publication of the letter, Mr. Murdoch today gave emphatic and unqualified denial to the statements made by Judge Robson, in a despatch from Winnipeg, following the statement made by Mr. Murdoch last night.

JUDGE WANTED TO RESIGN

Mr. Murdoch, in his letter, detailed at considerable length the circumstances of his appointment to the Board, and his first meeting with Judge Robson during which the Judge intimated that he did not expect to hold the position of Chairman of the Board very long, and as Mr. Murdoch was in a position to return to his old position, he suggested that the Judge suggested that they should carry on for a while, and then later make arrangements to both resign together, or nearly so. Then follows an account of what occurred at various sessions of the Board, largely dealing with the Judge's continual mention of resigning.

While conducting investigation in Toronto in January Mr. Murdoch says: "At noon on January 16th, the Chairman and I had lunch at the King Edward Hotel, and during the course of the lunch, he suggested that we resign together, staying certain reasons in opposition to the Board's efforts, etc., and he had reason to believe that I was sympathetically inclined to consider the matter of resigning.

"The Judge at this time, was very insistent that we could not be expected to consider small matters such as restaurants' prices, etc., and said that there was one important question further that we must get into, and that was the tariff."

"On January 22, 1920, the Judge again left for Winnipeg, returning to Ottawa on February 5th, 6th and 7th, but was absent from Ottawa the next eight days thereafter on business for the Board. The Judge stated that this was his last trip to Ottawa as he was a member of the Board and that he was going to resign and he suggested that it might be a desirable arrangement if we could all three resign together (at least as paper controllers), and, if thought desirable, as members of the Board of Commerce. No definite steps, however, were taken in this direction, although the Board was surely meeting difficulties in everything undertaken and in securing proper assistance.

PAPER CONTROL

Dealing with the Board's investigation into paper control matters, Mr. Murdoch's letter said:

"The Judge prepared a statement of our position to be read, and a copy of the original document, so prepared, is hereto annexed. He also held before me a four-page, closely typewritten letter, dated February 17, wherein he had tendered his resignation, giving many and various reasons, citing disapproval of the intended workings of the Act under which the Board was acting, and I told him that I could not agree with his views as outlined in his letter of resignation. Vice-Chairman O'Connor was absent from the office on account of sickness on the morning of the 18th, and when we discovered that he could not come to the office, the Judge suggested, and in fact insisted, that it would be better if I

SCOTIA STEEL FORMALLY VOTES RATIFICATION

Of Agreement With British Empire Steel Corporation at Its Meeting Yesterday.

UNANIMOUS VOTE FOR CONSOLIDATION

Smaller Companies Are Eliminated from the Merger, Regarded Beneficial to Scotia.

New Glasgow, N. S., June 25.—(By Canadian Press)—Ratification of the agreement entered into between the directors of the Nova Scotia Steel Company and the British Empire Steel Corporation was unanimously voted at a general meeting of the shareholders of the former company held here today. The meeting scheduled for eleven o'clock, did not get down to the business in hand for upwards of an hour, owing to the amount of stock represented. But after the scrutineers had reported that 106,569 of the 150,000 shares outstanding were represented it required less than half an hour to communicate Scotia's share in the proposition.

Colonel Thomas Cantley, as Chairman of the Board, presided, and following the report of the scrutineers, called upon the secretary to read the agreement entered into by the directors with the Empire Corporation. Presently D. H. MacDougall, President of the Company, moved that this agreement be ratified forthwith. The motion was seconded by the vice-president, W. D. Ross.

SCOTIA OUTLOOK REVIEWED.

Speaking to the motion, Mr. MacDougall reviewed the outlook for the Scotia Company. As an independent organization and as a member of the Empire organization and, on the basis of this review, unhesitatingly recommended ratification. He felt that the time to enter the organization was now, when it was in process of formation, and expressed his belief that the inclusion of the smaller concerns was not inimical to the interests of the owners of Scotia.

COMPANIES ELIMINATED

W. D. Ross, in speaking to the motion, referred to the elimination of the Port Arthur Shipbuilding Company and Canada Foundry, and stated that other changes likely to develop in the gradual formation of such a large organization, would also prove beneficial to Scotia shareholders. He expressed himself as being enthusiastic over the proposition, and stated that the shares of the latter would not get anywhere by sitting down and contemplating them and letting it go at that. The property required development and this, the Empire organization proposed to carry out. He concluded by stating that in his judgment, the future of the Empire Corporation would abundantly justify the vote of ratification.

UNIONISTS SHOULD CLARIFY ATMOSPHERE

All Uncertainties Might be Cleared up by Definite Announcement of Leadership and Platform.

Ottawa, June 25.—The Ottawa Journal, an unyielding supporter of the Union Government since its formation will contain the following editorial tomorrow: "The resignation of Mr. James Murdoch from the Board of Commerce and his accompanying letter seem to illustrate the difficulty, if not the mistake of attempting to carry on Government without definite present leadership. The endeavor of the Unionists to carry on last winter, under the necessity of Sir Robert Borden's absence was a tribute to his personality and creditable to the heart of the party, but, apparently it rendered inevitable an uncertainty in administration which has afforded ground for irritation in various quarters of which the Board of Commerce has been one of the most important. It is possible to end the uncertainty by a definite announcement upon the Unionist leadership and platform this should be done. Otherwise, a general election is due the people at an early date, and we imagine, has come to be desirable this year in any case."

SINN FEINERS READY TO TALK PEACE TERMS

Present Irish Crisis May be Settled Without Recourse to Rebellion and Civil War.

GRIFFITH WILLING TO MEET PREMIER

Every Reason to Believe Sinn Fein is Now Prepared to Accept Dominion Home Rule.

(Overseas Service, Copyright by Sydney B. Cave.)

London, June 25.—An interview in Irish Bulletin, with Arthur Griffith, Sinn Fein leader, brings hope to England that present Irish crisis may be settled without recourse to rebellion and civil war, which all have been expecting to break out hourly.

Griffith offers to meet Lloyd George for discussion of Irish situation and to negotiate "Treaty of Peace." Lloyd George is known to have sought a conference several days ago, and had been refused by Sinn Feinners who refused to come to London, saying their minimum demands were known, and that such a trip would be wasted time, as they had placed their only demands at absolute independence from England. I have every reason to believe Sinn Feinners are now prepared to accept "Dominion Home Rule" with the condition that the principle of self-determination, as laid down by President Wilson, be applied to Ulster. Under such principles they believe at least two out of six Ulster counties would go with the rest of Ireland.

JUDICIAL SALARIES TO BE INCREASED

Sir Robert Borden Announces Increase, Giving Reasons Why Such Should Be Made.

Ottawa, June 25.—In the evening night Sir Robert Borden announced that the Government had decided to increase the salaries of Judges and Cabinet Ministers and others and the sessional indemnity to members of parliament. The Prime Minister's statement is in part as follows: "The government recognizes that one of its first obligations to maintain the honest and impartial administration of justice and to insure that the judges should be paid such remuneration as will command the services of the best men and free them from undue anxiety as to their means of support."

The government has decided, therefore to recommend to parliament the following increases in judicial salaries:

- Supreme Court of Canada—Chief Justice from $10,000 to $15,000. Puisne Judges—From $9,000 to $12,000.

Superior Courts from the Provinces—Chief Justice from $8,000 to $10,000. Puisne Judges from $7,000 to $9,000.

County Courts—Judges of County Courts in Counties in which there is a city with a population of 40,000 or over—an increase of $1,000, that is, from $4,000 to $5,000 per annum.

At the present time Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts undertaking other duties, such as acting commissioners, etc. at the request of either the Federal or Provincial Governments, are paid fees for such services. The government has reached the conclusion that this is not in the public interest and that the salary should be adequate to cover all services. The proposed legislation will require that the judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts undertaking special duties at the request of either the Federal or Provincial Governments shall not be paid any additional compensation for such services, but that the salaries voted shall cover all services rendered.

HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP LEBLANC WAS WELCOMED HOME YESTERDAY

Ceremony at the Cathedral Last Evening Was Attended by Vast Concourse of People—Presented With Address and Large Amount of Money—Tells Interestingly of His Visit to Rome.

His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc arrived home at noon yesterday. He was met at the depot by Mgr. Walsh, administrator of the diocese in his absence and many other priests. In the evening at 7:30 the Catholic people of the city congregated in the Cathedral, taking the spacious edifice to capacity to pay their chief pastor a public welcome. As a tangible expression of their esteem His Lordship was presented with an address accompanied by a substantial cheque for the amount of $3,100. The address was inscribed on a beautiful sheet of parchment, enclosed in a handsome folder of purple leather on which was engraved a cross and the date "June, 1920". The Bishop announced that he would use the purse for a prouze dear to his heart—the School Building Fund.

The Procession.
Promptly at 7:30 the Cathedral chimes rang out and a procession was formed at the palace and passing through a guard of honor of the Fourth Degree Assembly of the Knights of Columbus and the A. O. H. Knights to the main door of the Cathedral and on to the Sanctuary. The procession was headed by the cross bearer and acolytes followed by the altar boys and the priests of the diocese and lastly the bishop, who as he passed through the aisles imparted his blessing. The following priests were on the sanctuary: Mgr. Walsh, Rev. Dr. A. W. McEahan of St. John the Baptist Church, Rev. J. J. Ryan of Assumption parish, Rev. Fr. Duke, rector of the Cathedral, Dean Collins of St. Rose's Church, Fatville, Rev. Edw. Scully, C.S.S.R.P.E., Wm. Hogan, C.S.S.R.P.E. of St. Peter's, Rev. W. McLaughlin of London, Ont., Rev. Harold Connolly of St. Martin's, Rev. M. O'Brien of Norton and Revs. Francis Walker, S. Oram, Noel Landry and A. P. Allen. After the processions had been made Mgr. Walsh read the following address of welcome to the Bishop:

Address to Bishop.
To the Right Reverend Edward A. LeBlanc, D.D., Bishop of Saint John.
May I greet Your Lordship—the Catholic clergy and laity, of your episcopal city greet you today with a cordial welcome home after your absence abroad. We followed Your Lordship with prayerful solicitude on your journey to Rome, since we were well aware it was not undertaken merely for pleasure, but in order to fulfil an important duty which the Sacred Canons demand of you as a Catholic bishop, namely, to visit the Sovereign Pontiff in person at stated periods, to give the chief Pastors of the flock of Christ an account of the state of the diocese committed to your care, and at the same time to venerate the tomb of the blessed apostles Peter and Paul, the founders of the Roman See which God had established as the centre and bond of Catholic faith and unity.

We feel it may have been a source of great satisfaction to Your Lordship to have been able to assure the Holy Father that his children of the diocese of Saint John are devotedly attached to the principles and practices of their religion, and that they are animated with sentiments of the most profound respect and veneration for himself personally and for his exalted office as Our Lord's Vicar on earth and supreme visible Head of His Church.

We congratulate Your Lordship especially because of the unique privilege which it was your good fortune to enjoy during your visit to the Eternal city, that of being present in the historic basilica of St. Peter, at the impressive ceremonies of the canonization, with all the pomp and majestic ritual of the Catholic religion, of the national heroine of France, St. Joan of Arc, of St. Margaret Mary, the gentle Saint of the Sacred Heart and of the beatification of the venerable martyr prelate, Blessed Oliver Plunkett, the glory of the Irish Church.

We rejoice today to have Your Lordship once more in our midst. We know you have come back to us inspired with the generous resolve to continue your work in the Lord's vineyard with all your accustomed zeal and energy. We pray God, therefore, to bless your labors and to render them fruitful for many years to come, and we assure you that in whatever you undertake for the glory of God and the advancement of religion in the diocese you may always rely on having our hearty goodwill and co-operation.

We ask Your Lordship to accept this cheque as a token of our respect and esteem.

(Signed) JOHN J. WALSH, V. G., Chairman.

RY. MATTERS AIRED BEFORE PARLIAMENT

Alleged That Deficit of $47,000,000 in Operation Last Year Was Result of Faulty Management.

Ottawa, June 25.—(Canadian Press)—That the deficit of $47,000,000 on last year's operation of the Canadian National Railways was the result of some fault in the management was the contention of O. Turgeon (Conservative) during the debate on railways and canal estimates in the Commons tonight. Mr. Turgeon urged that no increases should be made in either freight or passenger rates without serious consideration. If passenger rates must be increased then the burden should be borne by those who travelled first class instead of second class passengers.

James McEneaney (Kings, P. E. I.) said the car ferry service between Prince Edward Island and the mainland was a great step forward in transportation facilities there. He urged that an auxiliary car ferry should be having speeded that the Prince Edward Island Rail should be standardized.

During the debate on the item of $6,212,194 for construction and betterment of the car ferry service between Prince Edward Island and the mainland was a great step forward in transportation facilities there. ### BETTER EQUIPMENT GREATEST NEED

Equipment Sent West to the Detriment of Best Interests of the East.

Ottawa, June 25.—(Canadian Press)—That the deficit of $47,000,000 on last year's operation of the Canadian National Railways was the result of some fault in the management was the contention of O. Turgeon (Conservative) during the debate on railways and canal estimates in the Commons tonight. Mr. Turgeon urged that no increases should be made in either freight or passenger rates without serious consideration. If passenger rates must be increased then the burden should be borne by those who travelled first class instead of second class passengers.

During the debate on the item of $6,212,194 for construction and betterment of the car ferry service between Prince Edward Island and the mainland was a great step forward in transportation facilities there. He urged that an auxiliary car ferry should be having speeded that the Prince Edward Island Rail should be standardized.

NEGOTIATIONS WITH KRASSIN WILL CONTINUE

Allied Premiers State Soviets Will Not Be Recognized.

ALLAYS FRENCH FEARS

France Had Been Suspicious of the Lloyd George Negotiations.

Boulogne, June 24.—The Allied Premier let it be known today that trade negotiations with Krassin would go on in London, but repeated the assurance that there would be no question of recognizing the Russian Soviet Government. This represents the result of a clash between British and French opinions and denotes no real change. The final communiqué says:

"It was agreed that the economic negotiations with the Russian economic delegation which have been commenced in London should be continued on the understanding that there be no question of recognition of the Soviet Government."

Here are the reasons for this decision:
Ever since Lloyd George and Krassin began their conferences the French have been suspicious that the British Premier was getting ready for the recognition of the Moscow Government, which would make it difficult for them to maintain their attitude of refusal to do so. The French held that in dealing with commercial matters it was enough for Krassin to meet the Allied Economic Council, on which France is represented only half-heartedly. When Millerand and Lloyd George met at Hythe the French Premier read a statement on the subject, and Lloyd George made no objections.

At the meeting today it is understood that Lloyd George advised that it might be well to take up certain other matters with Moscow through Krassin in the name of the Allies, as it is well known that Lloyd George has been doing so in the name of England. Not all the others were adverse, but Millerand stood out, with the result that the Allies again declare their aversion to the Soviets as political matters.

It may be said in passing that the French have not the least idea that anything worth while will result from Krassin's commercial negotiations; but, as they have promised to do so, they will go on with them under the protection of Lloyd George's official record promise that they shall not be involved in any political dealings with Lenin and Trotzky.

Kelly, Somerset street, the object in taking the horse was not clearly determined. He was found guilty but allowed to go on suspended sentence on entering into assurance for his future behavior.

George Paris was found not guilty of stealing $30 from his father-in-law John Haberfield, J. King Kelly, K. C., appeared for the defence.

Alfred Foster, recently found guilty of stealing goods from a pedlar, was allowed to go on suspended sentence. Judge Armstrong stated that he was showing leniency in view of the fact that the jury had returned a verdict with a strong recommendation to mercy and that the goods had been returned to the owner.

Herbert N. Dean, charged with theft, was examined by Doctors Baxter, Roberts and Anglin, as there was some question as to his sanity and he was ordered sent to the Provincial Hospital for observation.

Close Game In South End League

After Battling for Six Innings the Franklins in Uphill Fight Defeated the Braves by Score of 7 to 6.

Last evening after battling for six innings with a score of seven to six the Franklins won an uphill game from the Braves when Price, running for Saunders, who had been injured the previous evening, stole second base and scored on Middleton's third clean hit.

Although Diggs was wild he struck out 14 men and pulled out of several bad holes by wonderful pitching. Price made a beautiful stop of a Fraser's scorching hit in the 6th inning stopping the ball with his left hand.

Potter was hit freely by his opponents. Nixon retained his position as leading batter and stole the sacks at will.

Rooter's Ethics

Each rooter has a code of conduct all his own. You cannot change this code if you want to. But there are some traits and some superstitions shared by nearly all rooters. Through the seasons the army of fans clings faithfully to certain traditions. Standing up and stretching in a certain fashion, remaining discreetly silent when the home pitcher is pitching what promises to be a no-hit game and going temporarily insane when a home player "cleans up" with a triple or home run—these are time-honored institutions, not subject to change by any ruling of the National Commission.

No critic fan, however, resorts to violence to clinch an argument. Eloquence and statistics are his weapons, and since the nation has become arid eloquence is on the wane; for, in the words of the immortal Dooley, "The average church member does not, prepare himself for any definite Christian talk." There is one set of ethics for the grand stand throng and another for the bleachers. Arguments in the bleachers are more decisive than those in the stands. In the latter the winner says the right thing. In the bleachers the winner uses the right ewing.

Until his last ride up the hill The Baseball Fan is never still.

Another Record For Man o' War

Set New Mark for Lowest Price Ever Laid Against a Horse.

New York, June 24.—Having smashed world records and literally scored all the other three-year-olds in the country out of the stakes for horses of that age, Samuel D. Riddle's champion Man o' War had little left to accomplish except to establish a record for the shortest price ever laid against a horse in this country, and this he did at Jamaica Tuesday as he added the $500,000 Handicap at a mile to his long list of victories. The Chestnut son of Fair Play and Mahubah was held at 1 to 20 against his lone rival, R. T. Wilson Jr.'s Yellow Horn, who is believed to be an ordinary ability and it is believed that that sets a record for a short price. Man o' War just galloped around the egg-shaped track and gave Yellow Horn occasional glimpses at his precious leads.

The champion gave the crowd one moment of excitement just at the start. He showed them how he takes his tremendous bound which sends him to the front of his field as the barrier goes up. The Fair Play colt was very anxious to be on his way and once when it seemed the two horses were about to be sent away he threw himself on his haunches, made one tremendous leap and, taking the barrier with him, covered nearly twenty feet in the bound. Krummer could not halt him until he had reached the paddock gate, although Man o' War seemed to understand that it was a false start.

The powerful, irascible, and handsome son of Fair Play—Mahubah has proved himself the king of thoroughbreds—the greatest race-horse this country ever looked upon. Even the gray-haired veterans of the turf are almost unanimous in conceding Man o' War to be the best horse in turf history. Even the names of Hanover, the immortal Silvester, Domino, Snybon, and the unbeaten Colin prove pale beside the name of the present-day king.

Man o' War won the Belmont stakes—an American turf classic—and set a new world record for a mile and three furlongs. He carried 126 pounds and flashed past the judges in the astounding time of 2:14 1/5, about twenty-five lengths in front of Donnocona—and clipping 2 2/5 seconds off the old figures for the distance.

Samuel D. Riddle of Philadelphia, owner of the champion of champions, has refused $250,000 for him. Riddle would not sell Man o' War at any price. At the present time it looks as though the big chestnut three-year-old might go on through several hard campaigns as he is the soundest horse imaginable.

THE TENNIS CLUB. One of the evening clubs mentioned last evening that arrangements were being made to start the tennis club next year by the Y.W. P.A. and the G. W. V. A. The Standard is informed that at least one of the parties mentioned knows absolutely nothing of such a move. Moreover in view of the fact that a large deficit was made last year, it is very doubtful if this party would consider such a project this season.

St. Peter's city league leaders. Both teams will have their strongest players on the diamond and good games are expected.

Big Field Day This Afternoon

Large Field of Entries to be Run off on East End Grounds—Olympic Marathon Trial a Feature Event.

Everything is in readiness for the big Field Day on the East End grounds this afternoon. There is a large field of entries, including some of the best athletes in the Maritime Provinces. The different organizations that have promoted the sports day have worked hard and all that is needed, now is fine weather. It is hoped that Old Jupiter Pluvius will continue to send down those warm rays that have prevailed during the past week. If his comes through then the hopes of every lover of good clean sport will be fulfilled and a great revival of sport in the Maritime Provinces will have been initiated.

The feature of the sports will be the 15 mile run which is also an Olympic Marathon Trial. The best long distance men in the East have entered for this event and it is bound to produce some excitement. The runners will start out beyond Quispamsis, 14 miles from the city. The last mile of the race will be run on the grounds in full view of all the spectators. The other sports will serve as an indication of material for the Olympic trials to be held in Charlottetown in July. Jimmie Misse, the Truro Indian will not run in the fifteen mile race. He is training for the mile run for the Olympic trials and reports from those who know something about the running game say that he will be the man to beat at the finals in Montreal. Misse, however, will compete in the mile and also run an exhibition three miles. The track at the East End Grounds has been put in the best shape possible, all the depressions have been filled in and everything looked after by men who know the game.

One little tip that the athletes follow this way want to get in their "poodles" is that just at present there are no real top-notchers on this side of the line as the papers giving the results show that they have a good chance to represent Canada at the Olympic games if they only get to it and work.

SHAMROCK LOOKS MORE DANGEROUS

Sandy Hook, N. J., June 25.—Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV, challenger for the America's Cup, defeated his 23rd Shamrock in a 25 1/2 mile tacking up contest off here today by 13 minutes and 21 seconds, actual time. The challenger covered the course in a northeast breeze of nearly 10 knots in three hours, 18 minutes and 27 seconds.

The Shamrock is still far from approaching true racing form insofar as her sailor life concerned. Nevertheless her work today gave the impression that she will be a dangerous rival opponent in light weather.

Sudden Falling off in the Wind Necessitated the Cancellation of Resolute—Vanitie Race Yesterday.

Newport, R. I., June 25.—Today's trial race between the Resolute and Vanitie was called off after the yachts had completed the first round of the leeward and windward course and were half way to the outer mark on the second round. A sudden falling off in the wind necessitated the cancellation of the race. The Resolute was three and a half minutes ahead in beginning the second lap of the course.

"Newsy" Lalonde On Way To Pacific

Will Play Lacrosse and Perhaps Hockey—His Former Team-mate There, Popular Herve Dandurand, is Very Ill.

"Newsy" Lalonde is going back to the Pacific Coast. The famous lacrosse and hockey star is leaving for Vancouver on Thursday where he will finish the season with the Vancouver Lacrosse team, conducted by Harry Pickering and Pete Muldoon. Lalonde played in this league in 1911 and 1912 and also played hockey for the Vancouver Millionaires with Frank Patrick. George Kennedy secured him for the Canadians and brought him back east. It is just possible that Lalonde will be seen in the Pacific Coast Hockey Association again next winter. Undoubtedly after making the long trip to the west he would welcome a contract from the Patriots and will probably get one so that a trade will be consummated between the P. C. H. A. and the N. H. L. He has only one regret and that is that he cannot take his youthful chum and former teammate, Herve Dandurand with him this time. But poor Herve, is promoting and clean a lacrosse player as ever held a stick and one of the best of the younger crop of National A. A. players is very ill. His brother Leo is much depressed at his condition which seems to be a certain extent indirectly due to the energy with which he threw himself into every kind of sport when he took part in it at all. He has a host of friends both amongst the French and English-speaking sportsmen of Canada.

But in Order to Become a Successful Minister to Have a Call That Ministry is "A Nice Position." In Leading Work—it Has Many Difficult Points of View, and Like V. Not Its Own Reward.

(London Free Press.) At one of the church conferences held this spring in other provinces it was reported that one of the ministers made the alarming statement that if the decrease of men for the ministry continued as at present, in forty years the denomination which his representative would be without a ministry. From another province comes the word made after considerable investigation that twenty years will deplete them of a ministry in that province at the present rate of decrease. We presume that these are reliable statements made after considerable investigation.

Such conditions compel us to ask many questions. First: What can be the cause for such a depletion? Have we too many churches? Is Christianity overly organized? Do we still need the ministry?

There is no doubt that some parts of the country are over-churchled, while other parts are suffering for the lack of any church services. No one questions the vast influence exerted by organized Christianity on the life of the nation, but one cannot but feel at times there is too much machinery and too little efficiency. Multitudes of people unite with a church with little or no sense of responsibility, with no intention of rendering a real service to the church or through it to the community. They are not really "added to the church," they are only added to the church roll. The average church member does not prepare himself for any definite Christian talk and expects George to do it.

The minister in consequence becomes "a hewer of wood and a drawer of water." He is expected to fritter away his time in a thousand and one different ways, usually getting more criticism than commendation from the congregation while he is doing it. Such conditions are keeping many able young men from thinking of the ministry.

In the army, every soldier was expected to do his bit without a question or excuse. Rotary and Kiwanis clubs expect the same spirit from their members. There must be a demand for it in the churches. This lying and beseeching of church members to do their duty should not be necessary.

There is no doubt that the nation still needs the ministry, and now did we more need it in all its strength than now. Who can measure the influence on the life of the nation the ministries of men like Canon Hudson, Canon Farrer, Dr. Dale, Dr. Parker, Charles Haddon Spurgeon, Henry Ward Beecher, MacLaren and Jowett. Their churches and pulpits were centers of influence felt throughout the world. The same is true in dozens of churches less known and in remote corners of the nation. There is no question that the Christian ministry is still needed.

If the ministry is needed it should be adequately supported. It is a sad commentary on our lack of the sense of fitness of things that our prize fighters and baseball players should be handsomely paid compared with preachers and school-teachers. Hundreds of church members spend for more of their pleasures than they do for the promotion of religion throughout the world. There seems to be a lamentable lack of the sense of stewardship on the part of the average church

ARE MINISTERS STILL NEEDED? IF SO, THEN THEY SHOULD BE PAID SALARIES WORTHY THEIR WORK

But in Order to Become a Successful Minister it is Necessary to Have a Call That Way — The Fact That the Ministry is "A Nice Position" Should Not be the Dominating Factor in Leading up to choice of it as a Life Work—It Has Many Disadvantages from a Worldly Point of View, and Like Virtue, is More Often Than Not Its Own Reward.

(London Free Press.)

At one of the church conferences held this spring in the province it was reported that one of the ministers made the alarming statement that if the decrease of men for the ministry continued as at present, in forty years the denomination which he represented would be without a ministry. From another province comes the word concerning another denomination stating that twenty years will deplete them of a ministry in that province at the present rate of decrease. We presume that these are reliable statements made after considerable investigation. Such conditions compel us to ask many questions. First: What can be the cause for such a depletion? Have we too many churches? Is Christianity over-organized? Do we still need the ministry?

There is no doubt that some parts of the country are over-churches, while other parts are suffering for the lack of any church services. No one questions the vast influence exerted by organized Christianity on the life of the nation, but one cannot but feel at times there is too much machinery and too little efficiency. Multitudes of people unite with a church with little or no sense of responsibility, with no intention or rendering a real service to the church or through it to the community. They are not really "added to the church," they are only added to the church roll. The average church member does not prepare himself for any definite Christian task. He pays his church tax and expects George to do it. The minister, in consequence becomes a "hewer of wood and drawer of water." He is expected to fritter away his time in a thousand and one different ways, usually getting more criticism than commendation from the congregation while he is doing it. Such conditions are keeping many able young men from thinking of the ministry. In the army, every soldier was expected to do his bit without a question or excuse. Rotary and Kiwanis clubs expect the same spirit from their members. There must be a demand for it in the churches. This begging and bemoaning of church members to do their duty should not be necessary.

There is no doubt that the nation still needs the ministry; and never did we more need it in all its strength than now. Who can measure the influence on the life of the nation of the ministries of men like Canon Sifton, Canon Farrer, Dr. Dale, Dr. Parker, Charles Hadon, Spurgeon, Henry Ward Beecher, MacLaren and Jowett. Their churches and pulpits were centers of influence felt throughout the world. The same is true in degrees of churches less known and in remote corners of the nation. There is no question the Christian ministry is still needed.

If the ministry is needed it should be adequately supported. It is a sad commentary on our lack of the sense of fitness of things that our prize fighters and baseball players should be handsomely paid compared with preachers and school-teachers. Hosts of church members spend for more on their pleasures than they do for the promotion of religion throughout the world. There seems to be a lamentable lack of the sense of stewardship on the part of the average church member. If people value religion and the church, then they must see to it that the minister secures a living wage; a salary that will enable him to maintain the position required of him, to educate his children, buy books, exercise hospitality, and keep abreast of the thought of his day. John R. Mott has said: "A minister today in many a case must choose debt, celibacy or a rich wife." This is a reproach which should be lifted and must be lifted if we are still to have a ministry.

That is not saying the young should avoid the ministry because of the scanty remuneration. No man should take up the ministry as a mere profession, a means of earning a living, or an avenue of cultured leisure or desirable social distinction. If he enters the ministry it must be because he hears, as Dr. Jowett says: "The call of the Eternal Ruler through the rooms of his soul as clearly as the sound of the morning bell rings through the valley of Switzerland calling the peasants to early prayer and praise." For him there should be no alternative road. His call must appeal to him as the imperative summons of the Eternal God.

The ministry is not in need of men to whom it appeals merely as a means of securing a more or less comfortable living. Christ did not call the apostles from their nets because fishing in Galilee was poor, nor yet because He had wealth to offer them. The lure of the ministry is not its tangible rewards, but its glorious possibilities. The greatest things of life do not come by way of the stock exchange. There are some vocations too lofty to be placed on a level of mere financial gain. Divinity is not dependent on dollars, and the progress of truth should always be preferred to personal advancement. The true student and prophet works in the simple love of truth. Science becomes seriously compromised by too close association with industrialism. Science, literature, art and religion never flourished in the lap of luxury. They flourished in the hands of men who suffered hardships and knew not the indulgences of wealth or worldly advantages.

The home is largely responsible for the dearth of ministers. Monetary positions are magnified before the children, and they are often advised to seek callings that will lead to lives of luxury. One father has stated he did not want his son to be a minister for three reasons: First, the minister is intellectually fettered; he is not free to preserve the scientific attitude and devotion toward truth. Second, he must submit to unnecessary social limitations. Third, it is a lonely occupation. This parent ably argued his points in an article published in one of our papers, but these objections are not convincing.

There is no disputing the assertion that the ministry is all too poorly paid, and this condition should be rapidly remedied, but it is also true that the minister has many valuable compensations. His opportunities for spiritual service are very great. He has a vantage ground for dealing with the very sources and springs of community life, and is able to make noble contributions to the life of the home and nation. We still need min-

OBITUARY.

William Hamilton.

William Hamilton, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of the parish of Shediac, passed away at noon Thursday at his home in Shediac Cape. He had been in ill health for several months. Mr. Hamilton was born in Shediac 55 years ago, the oldest son of the late Robert and Elizabeth (Huntington) Hamilton. He was of Scottish descent through his mother. He was a life-long resident of Shediac, and in his younger days was quite widely known as a lover of well bred horses some of which he owned at various times.

In religion he was a member of the Church of England, and in politics, always a Conservative.

He is survived by a wife, formerly Miss Annie Bayre, two sons, W. Franklin at home, and Harvey of San Jose, Calif., a veteran of the world war and formerly of the C. N. R. offices, Moncton and a sister, Mrs. E. H. Gray of San Jose. Miss Ada Hamilton of St. John is a niece and Frederick H. Gashy also of this city a nephew.

The funeral will be held this afternoon from Mr. Hamilton's late home to St. Martin's Anglican Church, Shediac Cape.

Health and Happiness

Women of today seem to listen to every call of duty except the supreme one that tells them to guard their health. Home duties, church duties, war activities, and the hundred-and-one calls for charitable enterprises soon lead women to overdo. Nervousness, headaches, backaches and female troubles are the inevitable result.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I was very weak, always tired, my back ached, and I felt sickly most of the time. I went to a doctor and he said I had nervous indigestion, which, added to my weak condition, kept me worrying most of the time—and he said if I could not stop that, I could not get well. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my husband wanted me to try it. I took it for a week and felt a little better. I kept it up for three months, and I feel fine and can eat anything now without distress or nervousness. Health and happiness? Yes, I have both now."—Mrs. J. WORTHINGTON, 2843 North Taylor Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The majority of women nowadays overdo, there are so many demands upon their time and strength; the result is invariably a weakened, run-down nervous condition with headaches, back-ache, irritability and depression—and soon more serious ailments develop. Avoid them by taking in time.

To Vote for These July 10th Means to Defeat Prohibition — H. A. Powell's Unique Experience.

H. A. Powell, who has returned recently from an eight thousand mile trip in the United States, and a few Ontario points made the interesting statement that during all that time he had never seen an intoxicated person, and while in association with his brother members of the Waterways Commission he had been entertained extensively, he never in a single instance had the slightest indication of liquor come under his notice. Instead Mr. Powell came in contact with the deep rooted impression that Prohibition is the greatest uplifting movement of the century. By gradual process Mr. Powell expects to see similar Canadian conditions, and, in commenting upon local criticisms, the eminent lawyer referred to the fact that laws against thieving and murder had been on the statutes in England for over a thousand years, and, while crime still existed, the extent of same would be unthinkably without the law. Mr. Powell believes the prohibitory law is a parallel instance, and that even if deserving of criticism such facts should not discredit the law. Voters should remember that a vote for Light Wine and Beers will mean to kill prohibition; also that victory July 10th means that we will ultimately have real Prohibition similar to that now enjoyed in the United States.—Adv.

June Brides

McPherson-Ross. Special to The Standard. Richibucto, June 18.—A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride, when Rev. T. S. Gardner united in marriage Margaret Mathilde eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ross to George Bruce McPherson of Mylster, Scotland. The bride who entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, looked charming in a suit of beige velour with hat of beige and blue and carried a shower bouquet of carnations, sweet peas and maidenhair ferns. She was attended by her sister, Nellie, who wore a suit of navy tricotine with taffeta hat and carried Austrian Beauty roses. The groom was supported by Raymond F. Bernard, of Moncton, a cousin of the bride. The ceremony was performed under an arch of chrysanthemums and ferns, in the presence of near relatives and friends of the family. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. The dining room was tastefully decorated with roses and lily of the valley. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to Moncton. From there they will visit St. John, Montreal, the Great Lakes, Winnipeg and other Canadian cities. They will reside in Prairie River, Sask., where the groom is an extensive land owner. The bride brought with her a number of beautiful and costly gifts received testily to the esteem in which the young couple are held. The groom's gift to the bride was a pin of white gold set with pearls; to the bridesmaid a pearl pin, and to the groomsmen cuff links. The bride will be greatly missed in social circles. She was a member of St. Andrew's church and has been employed on the clerical staff of R. O'Leary's store. The groom has been much active service, being in France with the First Division and Army of occupation. He was decorated twice, receiving the 1914-15 star and the Military Medal for bravery on the field.

Keans-Conley.

A quiet wedding took place last evening at the home of Mrs. Redmond, 85 Duke street, when Miss Alice Irene Conley was united in marriage to George Keans. Rev. George Morris, pastor of Queen Square, Methodist church officiated at the ceremony and only a few intimate friends of the participants were present. The happy young couple, who have the warm wishes of a host of acquaintances, will make their home in the city.

Gifted Lady

In The City

Miss Katherine Hughes, Provincial Archivist for Alberta, an Author and Newspaper Write, En Route to Former Home in Prince Edward Island.

Miss Katherine Hughes, one of Prince Edward Island's most gifted daughters is in the city at present en route to her former home. Miss Hughes was engaged for some years in newspaper work, and later was the provincial archivist for Alberta. She is also an author of note. During the war she was attached to the office of the Agent General of the Province of Alberta, in London.

A Standard reporter interviewed Miss Hughes last evening. Asked by the reporter if she was in the Maritime Provinces searching for material for a new book or was it just a vacation, Miss Hughes replied that the last book she had written was the life of Sir William Home, since then all her energies had been devoted to other things. She had not really time to write.

"Our Canadian soldiers risked, and many gave their lives for freedom. I am giving my life in the same cause. The definite shape is to help advance the 'Self-Determining' for Ireland League' in Canada. Already there are similar leagues in England and Australia. As a Canadian I believe that this movement will be supported by Canadians of all races and creeds who want to live in times of peace, up to the ideals of human liberty for which Canada sent her sons to fight in Europe.

"The aim of the league is to secure organized support for the right of the Irish people to choose freely their own governmental institutions and their relationship with other nations without coercion or dictation from outside.

"During the war I was overseas with Alberta government offices in London. Our offices were turned into clubs for Canadian soldiers and sailors. I know what our Canadian boys fought for and that is what I am fighting for now."

The reporter asked if she had anything to say in regard to the London-derry riots which are at present agitating Ireland. "It is significant," she said, "that the Unionist soldiers are largely composed of British ex-soldiers. It is also a well known fact that a large number of British soldiers have been in Ireland for some time. They are well armed, while the Irish rioters are ill-armed. To my mind the British troops used their machine guns as soon as the Sinn Feiners became better-armed. My interpretation of London-derry as being the result of deliberate provocation is exactly in a line with what Sir Herbert Samuel said last year, speaking at St. Albans, in a public address, when he said 'If what is happening in Ireland had happened in Austria before the war all England would be ringing at the outrage.'

A meeting of the League was held some weeks ago in Montreal. It was addressed by Rev. Dr. Irvin of Kildare, Belfast, one of the most prominent Presbyterian divines in Ireland, when he spoke in favor of the League.

At that meeting, over one thousand members were secured. Miss Hughes also said that wherever they go wonderful support is met with. A convention of the League is to be held in Toronto in September. Miss Hughes will return to the city after a visit to the island and it is her intention to hold a public meeting at that time.

FLUCTUATION IN MARKET GENERAL

Sugar and Quebec Ry. Were Leaders in Activity Throughout Yesterday.

(F. B. McCurdy & Co.)
Montreal, June 25.—Total transactions on the Stock Exchange amounted to 7,493 shares, including 1,315 shares of Sugar, and 2,374 Quebec Railway. These stocks were leaders in activity, none of the others amounting to as much as 1,000 shares. The market was again generally firm. Fluctuations were not for the most part wide. A few stocks were rather marked in the matter of strength. Included in these was Wayagmack. There is no specific news to account for the fluctuation in this issue and for the recent and present strength. Brompton was unchanged throughout the session. Riorion was firm but dull, and Abitibi practically neglected. Laurentide sold at 107, and the Spanish River issues were a little on the easy side. How and Smith from an opening of 132 rose to 135, but transactions were light. Textile and cotton issues were firm but inactive. Public utilities were generally easier with the exception of Quebec Railway. To what extent the recent activity and strength in this stock may be associated with the talk of a closer relationship between the company and the Quebec Public Service Corporation, which has heretofore been regarded as a rival, may be questioned. The announcement was made this morning of an increase in the dividend of the latter stock, control of which is held by Shawinigan. Simultaneous with this was a rather sharp decline in Shawinigan itself. Montreal Power was lower, but Brazilian held at 42 1/2 to 43. Sugar was again active, and the price of the stock ranged from 126 1/2 up to 127 3/4.

METALS HEAVY ON N. Y. EXCHANGE

Business, as a Whole, Registered the Lowest Levels of the Season.

New York, June 25.—Business on the Stock Exchange today registered almost the lowest level of seasonal dullness, transactions for the full five hours scarcely approximating 275,000 shares.

The movement of prices, while firm to strong in the main, reflected this stagnant condition. The usual market favorites advanced and receded within a radius of 1 to three points, fractional gains ruling at the close.

Almost the only stocks to manifest consistent heaviness were the metals, that group evidently laboring under the disadvantage resulting from yesterday's cut in the inspiration Copper dividend.

Low priced oils also lost ground for a time, but rallied in the general upturn of the last hour.

So far as public participation in the day's trading, their efforts were again chiefly directed towards steels, equipments, oils, and chemicals. Secondary risks, especially St. Paul preferred, Missouri Pacific preferred, Rock Island, Western Pacific, New York Central and New Haven also responded to moderate buying.

Developments directly affecting the stock market were regarded as more reassuring. Call money held between 9 and 11 per cent compared with yesterday's maximum of 14 per cent. Gold import rumors assumed more definite form in the prospective receipts of a small consignment of the metal from London with intimation that a larger amount is in transit to this market. Leading foreign exchange rates, however, were not materially altered.

In the bond market foreign issues were again the only feature. Anglo-French 5 1/2 changing hands in large blocks up to the new high of 99 1/2. Liberty bonds and most domestic issues yielding 4 to 5 per cent. Total sales, par value, $11,850,000.

Old United States bonds unchanged on call.

BULL MOVEMENT IN SUGAR EXPECTED

Sugar Statistics Promise Little in Way of Lower Prices.

New York, June 25.—Definite announcement that a consignment of gold is on the way here increased feeling of optimism that has prevailed in leading commission houses for last week. Banking opinion is that at least $100,000,000 in gold will come to this country from Europe during next three months.

There is talk of revival of bull movements which carried sugar stocks up to new high levels. For past two or three weeks sugar stocks have been under pressure due to belief that prices had peaked. The head of one large banking house says: "Pittsburg and West Virginia is expected to make a good showing in last half of current year. There is pronounced shortage of coal and prices are considerably higher than last year. A settlement of Railway wage disputes will facilitate movement in coal."

WHALEN PULP SHOWS BIG SURPLUS

Montreal, June 25.—Preliminary figures of the Whalen Pulp and Paper Mills, Limited, for the fiscal year ended February 29, 1920, indicate a strong position for the company. During the year construction work to the value of $700,000 has been done and total pulp production in the British Columbia Pulp and Paper enterprise amounted to approximately 48,000 tons. After deducting general expenses of $173,000, nearly $877,000 will be available for interest, taxes and depreciation, as compared with $497,000 for the previous year. Gross profits will, it is understood, amount to about $1,050,000 compared with the estimate of $900,000 at the time of the public issue of bonds. Surplus for the year will amount to about $325,000.

BETTER MARKET EXPECTED SOON

After Democratic Convention Stock Trading Expected to Get on Better Basis.

(F. B. McCurdy & Co.)
New York, June 25.—An early settlement of the railway wage question, to be followed by an increase of freight rates and normal railway traffic, are problems that will be worked out in the near future. After July 1st Democratic nominations will be over and the consensus is that confidence in a Republican victory will grow strong as time goes on, say traders on the constructive side of the market. The head of one large banking house says: "Brokers' houses are among the largest holders of money. They are carrying good lines of certain classes of stocks, but these stocks, in most cases, have been paid for. Stocks carried on margin today are comparatively small. One reason is traders do not care to pay brokers from 8 to 12 p. c. on debit balances. It would require a world-wide catastrophe to create a panic in Wall Street under present conditions with prices as low as they are."

Copenhagen, June 24.—Bolshevik emissaries are giving keen attention to developments in the Irish situation. They are known to feel that Irish soil is ripe for soviet agitation, and if propaganda is not already afoot there, there is every indication here that a campaign of Bolshevik infiltration will be shortly under way.

I have interviewed Comrade Rakovsky, prominent Bolshevik leader of the Ukraine, who superceded Krasin in the Danish capital. In a general summary of Russian plans and purposes abroad, he confirms Bolshevik interest in Ireland.

"My present plans are rather unsettled," Rakovsky said. "I may perhaps go to Ireland, where the soil is ripe for a Bolshevik revolution; but I am expecting to meet certain delegates from the United States here with whom I am going to discuss the form our propaganda is to take in that great republic.

The principal feature of interest to travellers out of St. John in connection with Canadian National time changes effective June 27th is the inauguration of a sleeping car service from St. John to Campbellton. A standard sleeper will be attached, except on Saturday and Sunday, to No. 10 train leaving at 11:45 p. m., connecting at Moncton with train No. 31 leaving at 3:20 a. m. and arriving at Campbellton at 9:30 a. m.

Credit Power.

(Grain Growers' Guide.) The report of the Canadian chartered banks of the Dominion Government shows that the current loans of the banks, on April 30, 1920, amounted to $1,347,238,230, which was $24,971,000 in excess of the loans on March 31, 1920, and $23,351,707 more than the loans on April 30, 1919. Loans abroad on April 30 were $185,053,020, which was $1,442,362 over the month previous, and $69,756,459 in excess of the same item at the end of April last year.

The figures furnished by the banks to the Government thus show that the banks instead of curtailing credits as a whole are lending more money than ever before. Whether or not the percentage of the total loans which have been made to farmers is greater or less than previously, the figures presented by the banks do not reveal.

GRANT SIX
You Don't Have To Nurse It

THE Grant Six will keep tuned up with less fussing and attention than any other medium priced car you know of. Grant Six engineers have built the car to stay right. The forced feed oiling system for the power plant is the same system used on nationally known cars costing $2000 more than the Grant Six. The chassis is lubricated by the clean, quick, simple Alemite system.

The Grant Six carburetion system minimizes carbon trouble. The mechanical refinement of the entire power plant has reduced wear to the vanishing point. The car is vibrationless at all speeds and remains noiseless after thousands of miles of use.

All these things mean much to you if you demand satisfying, economical, dependable service. In the Grant Six you get a car that completely satisfies at every point. And it's one of the best looking cars on the road, regardless of price.

Reception Held In St. Andrew's
Miss Eleanor Galbraith Was Guest of Honor Thursday
—Leaves in August as Missionary Nurse for Honan, China.

A reception was held by the ladies of St. Andrew's church from four to six Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Eleanor Galbraith, who leaves in August as a missionary nurse for Honan, China.

Miss Galbraith is a St. John girl who received her training in Boston, graduating as a nurse. She is a member of the St. Andrew's congregation, and is being sent by the Presbyterian Board of Toronto.

Her many friends were glad to spend a social hour with her and have this opportunity of wishing her success in her chosen career. During the afternoon Mrs. John H. Thomson presented Miss Galbraith with a purse containing over one hundred dollars, accompanied by a large bouquet of carnations. Mrs. Thomson congratulated Miss Galbraith on her choice of a life work, speaking of the new duties, dangers, and self-sacrifice which it entailed. "It is a special privilege for one so young," Mrs. Thomson said.

"to go so far in the Master's service." Miss Galbraith, in reply, thanked the ladies for their gifts and good wishes. She spoke of the pleasure it had always been to work in St. Andrew's Sunday School, and said she was delighted to go as a missionary from St. Andrew's Church.

Mrs. I. Mowatt, of Kingston, Ont., a delegate to the National Council of Women, was present and gave a splendid talk on missionary work, telling of the number of missionaries from China whom she had met and of their successful work, the encouragement received, and the enlargement of hospital work.

Mrs. James MacTavish gave an interesting talk on missionary work among the East Indians in Trinidad and British Guiana. She recently visited all the mission fields of the Presbyterian Church in that part of the world.

She described what she saw in the schools, speaking particularly of the first-year's Bible study, and the keen memory which the children had. They are able to recite long portions of scripture without prompting. Mrs. MacTavish had helped to distribute articles from a bale of goods sent from St. John to the Rev. Harvey Morton at Tunapuna, Trinidad, and told of the great pleasure afforded the children in the opportunity of its contents.

Mrs. John Magee was convener of the Refreshment Committee, assisted by Mesdames Murphy, White, Simon, Murray, Miss Rennie and Miss Homer. Among those present was Mrs. James Gilbert, of Carleton, Trinidad, who brought greetings from Mr. and Mrs. Morton.

Miss Galbraith is to be designated July 28th in St. Andrew's Church for her new work. A joint meeting of all the Presbyterian Churches in the city will be called for this service.

From the Savage Tribes of Borneo Comes a Strange Poison, and Though It is a Far Cry From Malaysia to London There the Poison Did its Deadly Work.

When my friend, Hogg Tredways, that distinguished specialist in ways that are dark, turned down the case of Oswald Street, his opinion, that it was hollow of interest, that it was not a case at all, in fact, and that one does not angle for big fish in clear shallow waters, was sincere and final.

That was why he sent away Margaret Wildrave, who had come, at my suggestion, on behalf of Street, who had loved her before the clang of a firing-prison door shut him out from her life.

It was merely the call of impulse, therefore, which, a fortnight later, as Tredways and I were passing Miss Wildrave's house, which is within five minutes' walk of the Marble Arch, spurred him to say, "Suppose we see if the lady is in?"

Two minutes later we were with her. "This is very kind of you," she said wistfully, "but you have come too late."

I experienced a shock of horror. Street had ended his life?

The great convict, prison called Chains had opened to him for egress its gates three weeks ago. I was Chaplain there: the Reverend Horace Franca. Men sometimes pass through the Gehenna of prison erroneously condemned. When I suspected as much, I brought such cases to Hogg Tredways, who took them up on the expiration of sentence. For some years I had watched Street. I could not think his conduct that of a man who had committed a terrible crime. His sentence had been reduced because of his self-sacrificing bravery in a fire which had raged through one of the prison galleries. I wished to take him to Tredways, but he refused. He went straight off and buried himself in his furlough day. Persistent, I sought Miss Margaret Wildrave, who went to my friend with Street's story. As I said, it was held without a flicker of suggestion that Street had not killed Auguste Brandervine.

Indeed, he admitted it.

More, Brandervine himself lived long enough to scribble a message, a dying message, blurred, feeble, but legible: "Oswald Street the man who murdered me."

And now we were in the house of the late Auguste Brandervine who had been a traveller and keen naturalist, in his hour.

Miss Wildrave, his niece, whom he had brought up from babyhood, had been left his property.

"Too late," Tredways echoed sharply. "What has happened?"

The lady flushed. She was obviously embarrassed. "Time is so precious; we have lost another fortnight," she stammered.

Tredways took the chair offered to him.

"Come," he demurred, pleasantly, "that is not so serious when we remember that Street was eight years in Chains. I propose, very tersely, to recapitulate the facts—" he stopped. A picture on the wall had gripped his attention.

"That is almost horrible," said he. "I am of your opinion," answered Miss Wildrave, turning round. "Professor Brandervine brought it home with him from one of his journeys into the Malay Peninsula. It is a native painting done on some fibrous material. I do not know what those characters underneath mean."

"Is it the face of a corpse?" I asked.

"At any rate it is a ghastly fancy, not without merit," remarked Tredways. He jerked his chair round and faced our hostess.

"Understand, Miss Wildrave, that a mutual attachment was between you and Oswald Street, and that it was not regarded favorably by Professor Brandervine, chiefly on account of Street's comparative poverty. The latter, however, persisted until he was ordered to keep away altogether. This was the motive for the crime put forward by the prosecution. It lacks originality, certainly, but is not without strength, the power of a hopeless passion on an uncontrolled will."

"On the night of the crime your lover had determined to see you again. He climbed to a balcony, helping in the feat by his sailor's life, he being then first mate on a cargo boat. His idea was to traverse this balcony until he reached your room. Unluckily, as he climbed over the iron parapet he was stopped by Brandervine himself, who was in his room, the blinds being up, and the glass door open. Street stated that the professor was sitting in an armchair, that he beckoned to him to enter, that he asked him to fetch him a board in the room and to pour him out a few drops immediately. He complained of faintness, he said. Street obeyed. No sooner had Brandervine swallowed the liquid than he sank back—a dead man. Horrified, Street turned a hasty attention to the contents of the phial. Too late, he recognized in it a powerful poison. Either he had fetched the wrong bottle, or the professor had asked for the wrong one. At any rate, he had inadvertently killed Brandervine."

"At that moment he heard a knocking at the door. Every instinct warned him that to be caught there, in the circumstances, would be fatal to him. He fled by the way he had come."

"He was arrested on the following day, trying to get back to his ship, and the imprints of his fingers, soiled by his climb, were plain on the label of the phial. Then he admitted his stealthy ingress to the house. His story was proved to be false, because the professor had not at once expired. He had had time and strength sufficient to write one line condemning Oswald Street in the most effectual manner. Beyond doubt he had been

The meetings of the National Council which have occupied the attention of a large number of St. John's most prominent women, came to a close on Tuesday evening after a highly successful convention. The custom of serving luncheon each day to delegates by the several societies affiliated with the Council and which proved so enjoyable last week, was continued this week. On Monday the hostesses were the ladies of the Church of England Institute. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion with white and purple lilac and honeysuckle. Mrs. James H. McAvity and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong presided and were assisted by young ladies from the different Anglican Churches. On Tuesday luncheon was served by the Women's Hospital Aid and the Quatuor Niveae Association, with Mrs. Walter W. White as convener, assisted by Mrs. Harold Mayes, Mrs. Duncan Smith and Miss Addy. The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion with blue, white and yellow flowers. The place cards, pictures of the General Hospital were the work of Mrs. White, Mrs. Stewart Skinner and Miss Murdoch. Members of the two societies assisted in serving the guests. On Wednesday the delegates were the guests of the United Methodist Women's Missionary Society, convenered by Mrs. George Steel, Mrs. Charles S. Sanford, president of the N. B. and P. E. I. branch assisted Mrs. Steel. The tables, unique in decoration represented the missionary districts in which the Methodist church is actively operating. The young ladies who assisted were dressed in Oriental costumes and added much to the attractiveness of the scene. Appropriate souvenirs of the occasion were at each guest's place. On Thursday the executive of the Local Council entertained the delegates at luncheon at the Manor House. The large rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers, ribbons and emblems in the colors of the Council. The place cards bore the emblem of the council in color, a little booklet prepared by Mrs. Raymond, and containing original poems from her pen and tied with the Council colors was at each place. Through the kindness of the Corona Company a box of candy tied with the Council colors was presented to each guest, and from the Sims' Fish Factory a small whisk—in an attractive case. The guests were conveyed to the Manor House by motor.

HEALTHY CHILDREN ARE HAPPY CHILDREN

The well child is always a happy child—it is a baby's nature to be happy and contented. Mothers, if your little ones are cross and peevish and cry a great deal they are not well—they are in need of medicine—something that will set their bowels and stomach in order, for nine-tenths of all childhood ailments arise from a disordered state of the bowels and stomach. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach, and thus drive out constipation, colic, indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make the baby healthy and happy. Concerning them, Mrs. Albert Hamel, Pierreville, Que. writes: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I know of for little ones. They relieved my little girl from constipation when nothing else would and I can strongly recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Motto: Kindly Deeds

Weekly Chat

Dear Kiddies:— This must be a very happy day for most of you for I imagine nearly all the schools closed yesterday for the nice long summer vacation. What a relief it will be to feel that the beautiful evenings are free from study and preparing the home work and better still to know that the days are free. No more hurrying in the mornings so as to sit just so without a whisper or even a chow of gum in action. Indeed I can quite imagine your joy and I surely rejoice with you hoping that the coming weeks will bring lots of good times, many pleasures, few duties, and less duties. It really should be a free and happy holiday for all of you that you may receive every benefit possible and thus return to your arduous school duties in the autumn, feeling rested in mind and body and fit to again "carry on".

Now, because I give you an inch kiddies don't try to take a mile and declare that you should not do anything or say anything all summer, but just play and be idle. That is not the idea at all, a little effort on your part will save you from becoming lazy and really make you more contented and happy, so please do not misunderstand me but the scale rule of doing a kind act every day might very nicely be applied to your vacation and either the act or duty might be performed each day by you without causing any inconvenience or injury to your person. Now we must admit that we are past the Spring into the good old summer days and perhaps we might say Mother Nature now really looks her best. There has not been enough hot sun to cause the foliage to look parched and dusty and the occasional rains have kept the many greens as fresh looking as if they had had a coat of paint. So all the world looks gay and seems to bid the children come out and play. Wouldn't it be a good idea to keep a diary of each day during the vacation and in the autumn use it as the foundation of a story or composition. You may have many exciting adventures, who know? The good ones could be published in our page and would be most interesting reading for the members of the C. C. Let me know what you think of the suggestion and if enough adopt the plan we could offer a prize, but of course I should like to know your views on the matter and have an idea of about how many would care to participate.

There are still some winners to hear from in our last contest prize list. It is only courtesy to your little friends to acknowledge such things as prizes or presents and a great satisfaction to the sender. If you form the habit of doing the polite and proper thing while you are young you will be less likely to make what might turn out to be serious mistakes later in life. I notice that some of the members are very punctual about such matters while others I regret to say are very careless and indifferent.

With all good wishes for happy days and heaps of fun.

UNCLE DICK.

Birthday Greetings

Many, many happy returns of the day is the C. C. wish to all those celebrating their birthday during the coming week. On our list are the following:

Motto: Kindly Deeds Make Happy Lives

Weekly Chat Answers To Letters

Dear Kiddles:— This must be a very happy day for most of you for I imagine nearly all the schools closed yesterday for the nice long summer vacation. What a relief it will be to feel that the beautiful evenings are free from study and preparing the home work and better still to know that the days are free. No more hurrying in the mornings so as to be on time and no more having to sit just so without a whiplash or even a chew of gum in action. Indeed I can quite imagine your joy and I surely rejoice with you hoping that the coming weeks will bring lots of good times, many pleasures, few duties, and less don't's. It really should be a free and happy holiday for all of you that you may receive every benefit possible and thus return to your arduous school duties in the autumn feeling rested in mind and body and fit to again "carry on."

Now, because I give you an inch kids don't try to take a mile and declares that you should not do anything for anybody all summer, but just play and be idle. That is not the idea at all, a little effort on your part will save you from becoming lazy and really make you more contented and happy, so please do not misunderstand me but the secret rule of doing a kind act every day might very nicely be applied to your vacation and either the act or duty might be performed each day by you without causing any inconvenience or injury to your person. Now we must admit that we are past the Spring into the good old summer days and perhaps we might say Mother Nature now really looks her best. There has not been enough hot sun to cause the foliage to look parched and dusty and the occasional rains have kept the many greens as fresh looking as if they had had a coat of paint. So all the world looks gay and seems to bid the children come out and play. Wouldn't it be a good idea to keep a diary of each day during the vacation and in the autumn use it as the foundation of a story or composition. You may have many exciting adventures, who knows? The good ones could be published in our page and would be most interesting reading for the members of the C. C. Let me know what you think of the suggestion and if enough adopt the plan we could offer a prize, but of course I should like to know your views on the matter and they have an idea of about how many would care to participate.

There are still some winners to hear from in our last contest prize list. It is only courtesy on your part little friends to acknowledge such things as prizes or presents and a great satisfaction to the sender. If you form the habit of doing the polite and proper thing while you are young you will be less liable to make what might turn out to be serious mistakes later in life. I notice that some of the members are very punctual about such matters while others I regret to say are very careless and indifferent.

With all good wishes for happy days and heaps of fun,

UNCLE DICK.

THE COWARDLY HERO

(Continued from last week.) Under the belief that he was the coward he seemed to be but wishing to offer a word of comfort, Jack started after him; but Tubby called him back. "Let him go. It will do him good," he said, thinking of the many times that Jimmy had made fun of him. "Feeling miserable and sick at heart Jimmy took a roundabout course back to the Academy and as he walked along his mind dwelt on the occurrence that had proved so disastrous for him. "Why was it," he asked himself fiercely, "that I fainted that way. I never thought I was a coward before." He decided to stop at a thought flashed through his mind. What if he was a coward after all. Might it not be that it was a knowledge of possible danger to himself that had turned him sick. Having never, as far as he knew, been in any danger before he could be certain about his feelings at the time. Unfortunately for Jimmy this thought persisted in annoying him and until he reached the school the question uppermost in his mind was, "Am I or am I not a coward." In the meantime the other boys had returned to the school and soon the chief topic of conversation in the dormitories and on the campus was Jimmy's fall from grace. Next to loyalty to their old school the students of Millford Academy regarded courage as the most essential quality to possess and Jack, a short distance up the river on a lily skipping stone across the broad expanse of water. As Jimmy started to approach them a sudden spurt of wind lifted Jack's cap off his head and dropped it into the water close to the bank. Grabbing a long pole Jack cast himself down at the river's edge and made a lunge for the cap; but it was just beyond his reach. Eager to get his cap again he leaped over further and tried again. He might be able to pick him up there. With that he started off on a run but stopped again with a jerk. "Look!" he gasped pointing downstream. "It's Jimmy," Tubby muttered. "But see what he's trying to do," and he grasped his companion's arm in a convulsive grasp. Jimmy was between the falls and the boys further upstream and had witnessed Jack's plunge into the water. With a startled gaze he watched Jack's vain struggles with the swift current and then he started to the rescue. With only one thought in his mind, that of saving Jack if possible, and discounting the terrible risks he was running, Jimmy sprang to the edge of the river. As in a former case he was rushing to the rescue of someone in danger but, though the risks were far greater, he did not this time turn back. Throwing aside his hat and coat he dived into the water and headed for the centre of the stream so as to intercept Jack as he came down. Jimmy's prowess as a swimmer stood him in good stead and, in spite of the fact that the current was carrying him downstream at a lively clip, he managed to overcome this to some extent Brain Test. The change from the old lady's pocket-book must have consisted of a 50 cent piece, three 2-cent pieces and two cents. The eldest boy took the 50 cent piece, which left four cents apiece for the others. QUITE AN ACCIDENT. Matilda's mother had sent her out to do such a lot of shopping. "Now mind, no loitering," she said, "no dawdling, and no stopping!" Carry the things most carefully—the butter, the cheese, the jam. I know you are going to do your best," and Matilda said, "I am!"

But she couldn't possibly tell, you know, and no one was there to warn her. The very odd and surprising things that happen just round the corner. For just as she trotted happily home, with her basket full to the brim. Down the next street came Teddy Brown, with his lively young puppy Tim; And Tim was galloping on in front, and rushed with a bang and bump. Right into poor Matilda, and down she went with a thump. All her butter and cheese and jam, and the other nice things to eat. Were scattered out of the basket, and fell about in the street.

Matilda was simply flabbergasted, that's the only word. As for Tim. Who had done the mischief, I leave you to think how dreadful it was for him! He couldn't pick up the things, you see, or help Matilda to rise. All he could do was to wander round and watch her mopping her eyes. And say, in a whiney, squeaky voice, "I'm awfully sorry for this. But it really was quite an accident—oh, won't you believe me, miss?"

Then Teddy Brown came hurrying up. Oh dear, how his cheerful face did change, when he saw Matilda there, and Tim in such sad disgrace. "It's all his fault!" Matilda sobbed, and Tim hung down his head. "Your horrid, clumsy, rude little dog has thrown me down!" she said. "And all my parcels are covered with dust, one's as bad as another. And I'm half myself, and entirely upset, and what shall I say to Mother?"

But Teddy kindly lifted Matilda, and kissed her tears all dry. And tucked her parcels and put them back in the basket. "I'll be by and even began to smile again, and then he said, "Look here, Tim is waiting to beg your pardon—now won't you forgive him, dear?" For though to knock you down like that, of course, was a dreadful shame, it really was quite an accident, and I'm sure you will say the same." So they all shook hands and were happy, and Teddy took Matilda a ride. Pickaback on his shoulders, with the basket and Tim at his side. And what had begun quite dismal, ended, as often a sad thing ends.

In fun, and kindness and laughter, and making some nice new friends. "William!" she shouted in a voice fit to command a regiment, "take your feet off the table this very instant!" "Margaret, I want you to know," he said in a voice that was surcharged with manly determination, "that there is but one person in the world that I will allow to talk to me in that way." With an irate mime she arose and looked into his eyes. "And who is that, sir, may I ask?" she thundered. "Why, my dear," he gently answered, as he removed his feet from the table. There's no use arguing with a young man who has made up his mind to be a June groom. If the present prices won't scare him nothing you can say will.

THE BEAUTIFUL RUGGED SOUTH SHORE OF NOVA SCOTIA

By IRENE TODD.

Who that dwells amid the noise and rush of the busy markets of commerce but has felt the warring winds of the work-day world, breaking in upon the soul with a fierceness that at times has become well nigh unbearable.

Who, pushed along the ceaseless march of a civilization ever increasing in its velocity, but has longed to step out of the current for a time and let the world rush by?

Have we not, during our reflective moments, all asked ourselves, if after all, modern civilization, with its wolfish struggle for gold, its rush and hurry and worry and its so-called high standards of efficiency, measured up to our ordinary idea of its worth? Do we not all have frequently come to the conclusion that it does not, and that our grandmothers lived a saner, healthier and happier life than the majority of the people of today. Were we right or were we wrong?

The pale light of evening. The dusky road winding in and out by the sea like a white ribbon was peculiarly alluring. Never can I remember being in such an atmosphere of brooding peace and quiet—all sounds seemed to have been hushed and only a few twinkling lights from the neat, unpretentious little white houses broke the darkness—they might have been fires in the still purple twilight.

While travelling along the Halifax and South-western Division of Canadian National Railways, along the southern shore of Nova Scotia, I came, a little while ago, upon a quaint little fishing village which I afterward learned had been founded about 1650 by Maj. Philippe Muls D'Entremont, Baron de Pombourc, a son of the royal house of Bourbon and where his descendants and many other Acadians still dwell and spend their days in much the same manner as their forefathers of a century ago—a spot that modern civilization seems to have almost untouched—a little place apart.

At that moment a fine-looking, curly youth of about 19, wearing blue overalls, entered. He was Henri, the youngest of their eleven children, and a fisherman like his father; but, to quote the old gentleman, "Henri played the fiddle pretty good," and during the evening, sitting with his chair propped back against the wall, one leg thrown over the other, Henri played selection after selection on the old fiddle that had been handed down by the old gentleman and was thought to have originally come from France. He had never had a lesson in his life, but that was quite ordinary, as it seemed that a great many boys in the village played the fiddle, and the girls the organ by ear.

Never shall I forget my first glimpse of it as I stood on the little station platform in the spring twilight, watching my train speed away and curve around the harbor like a great black snake dotted with golden spots. Dusk approached from the east, spreading her arms about the sleepy hamlet, and only in the west remained the soft rosy light of the afterglow that fell with magic touch on the gleaming waters of the quiet, safe little harbor, where five or six brown-sailed fishing smacks rested, swaying gently with the motion of the water. Far out on the point, tall and straight in dark relief against the western sky, stood the Puloscoo lighthouse. At the far end of the harbor, high above the houses, a church spire with a glittering golden cross stood out darkly in the sky. The young man, Henri, who was sitting in a low rocker with his hands folded on her big, snowy apron, had been looking at me and smiling serenely and replied, "Oh, they grow out in the pasture. Yes, and I did up 100 quarts last year."

At that moment a fine-looking, curly youth of about 19, wearing blue overalls, entered. He was Henri, the youngest of their eleven children, and a fisherman like his father; but, to quote the old gentleman, "Henri played the fiddle pretty good," and during the evening, sitting with his chair propped back against the wall, one leg thrown over the other, Henri played selection after selection on the old fiddle that had been handed down by the old gentleman and was thought to have originally come from France.

But it was growing late, and as my friends were accustomed to retiring early and rising at 5:30 in order that the fishermen could be off with the tide, I repaired to my neat little sleeping-room. There, later, as I lay sunk in the feather bed between snowy sheets, I could see the moon, cradled in soft clouds, shining on the water, and, afar, gleamed the flashes from the lighthouse, warning "the mariners of the deep," but there was no sound save the sea crooning, like a mother to her weary children. So, I fell into dreams.

After school the children, instead of crowding into a stuffy "movie," straining their eyes and for hours afterwards trying to puzzle out life as they saw it depicted on the screen, made their way down to the white beach to gather shells or but I castles in the sand. They learned the secrets of the sea and knew it in all its moods, and often the old fishermen would tell them wonderful stories of that other world. They also made many trips to the woods to gather flowers or pick berries, and when love came into the lives of these Acadian youths and maidens, it was natural and beautiful, as the unfolding of a flower. Never have I had a peep into more beautiful "Hope boxes" than some which were shown me down here. They contained the finest of hand-embroidered and hemstitched linens, crocheted laces and beautiful quilts not to speak of a number of heavy velvets, hooked mats the girl and her mother had made. One particularly attractive one had a design of autumn leaves on a shell gray background—really a work of art.

COLOSSAL PROFITS FROM KNITTING MILLS

Interim Report of Commerce Board Reveals Huge Returns from Small Investments.

Ottawa, June 25.—(Canadian Press)—That knitting mills have made colossal profits in Canada during the last few years is shown in the interim report of the Board of Commerce, made public today. Because it has been unable to pursue its inquiries to the limit, the Board refrains from expressing an opinion as to whether further investigation is called for, but prefers to cite facts gained in its enquiry, which has taken up the profits made on sales of common stock and on investments presented by stock plus invested earnings. The report takes eight companies as typical of the knitting trade out of the sixty operating in Canada. It shows that huge profits have been made by nearly all on small investments of capital. But the reports point out that while some companies have made from 60 to 510 per cent profit on common stock in the last two years, on a system of investing surplus earnings the most successful of the companies made actually just over 15 per cent profit on investment. This company, which is not named, is shown to have paid as high as 40 per cent dividend on common stock as far back as 1914. In 1919 it paid 116 2/3 per cent.

Coming to the "cutters-up of textiles," which include all general clothing items, hats, bags, window blinds, etc., the Board refers to three companies (not named) which control the collar and cuff trade of Canada. These retailers informed the Board that they were compelled to sell at a price fixed by the manufacturers which appears to be the price of similar goods in the United States, plus carriage and duty. The Board recommends that action be taken against the manufacturers under the Combines Act for arbitrary price fixing for resale. Details show that generous profits have been made by a number of companies in the last two years, and that the average profit is much higher now than it was in 1919.

Everyone of its many tiny screws, plates, wheels, pinions, jewels and springs is fashioned with marvellous accuracy. This is accomplished very largely by the use of special automatic machinery developed by Waltham experts and used exclusively in the Waltham factories. And then there is the assembling of all the parts into the perfectly adjusted movement. These machines do their work with a precision and speed that no human hands could equal. The result is a piece of mechanism that measures time with unflinching accuracy. And this wonderful little machine deserves your care. Cox is both able and popular; he would probably poll a larger vote than McAdoo, who has aroused opposition among the business interests of the country. "The lady's mysterious conduct by suggesting marriage to me, sent me to the office of the superintendent-registrar. Edwards had got the license all right. That he would use it instantly and get out of the country with his wife was sure. That was why I would not lose sight of him even for twenty minutes by going myself to Street. The situation was too critical. The questions I asked Street were if he had met Margaret Wilgrave in the glade of the park that night; and if it was he who had encountered Branderwine on the following one and struck him. ## FORMER KAISER IS NOT SAFE YET

According to Lloyd George in Answering a Question as to Former Emperor's Fate.

London, June 24.—(By Canadian Associated Press)—Premier Lloyd George, answering questions in the House today, said the Government intended to undertake the reform of the House of Lords during the present Parliament.

Germany, he announced, would be invited to join the League of Nations when she showed a desire to fulfill the Peace Treaty obligations.

Several questions regarding the fate of the Kaiser were put and to one questioner, the Premier replied: "Your friend is not safe yet."

In a brisk debate in supply on the vote for the Transport Ministry, one of the departments was most persistently condemned for extravagance.

New points of attack were developed, special criticism being levelled at the high salaried staff, but Sir Eric Geddes put up a vigorous defence.

A written answer to parliamentary questions available today shows that 210 officials in government departments are receiving 2000 pounds a year or were and of these the Transport Ministry has 16 and the Foreign Office two.

Kings and Their Characters.

The class composition was on "Kings," and this is what one boy wrote:

"The most powerful king on earth is wor-king; the laziest, shir-king; one of the worst kings, smo-king; the wit-kiest, jo-king; the quietest, thin-king; the thirstiest, drink-king; the slickest, win-king; and the noisest, talk-king."

SHORT OF BREATH

Could Hardly Walk Without Resting.

When you go to a physician to be examined for any heart trouble one of the first questions he asks is: "Are you short of breath?"

Now, when the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy you require. They regulate and stimulate the heart, and strengthen and restore the whole nervous system.

Mr. Stephen Crouse, East Clifford, N. S., writes:—I suffered for five years with heart trouble. I could hardly walk from the house to the barn without resting, as I used to get so short of breath. Doctors could not help me. My wife told me to get a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and I felt better after taking them; three boxes made me quite well. I am now helping my son to work on the farm, and can truthfully say I feel like a different man.

Price 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

REDUCTION OF GERMAN ARMY IS IMPOSSIBLE

Governments Ask That Time Limit be Extended Until October 10.

WANT TO RETAIN TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND

Expect to Thrash Matter Out at Spa Conference.

By S. B. CONGER.
Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co., Berlin, June 24.—While Council of Ambassadors, according to Paris dispatches, has decreed that the German army must be reduced to 100,000 men by July 10, there is no probability, or even possibility that the order will be obeyed. No preparations have been made for meeting out the supernumerary 100,000 from the present establishment of 200,000 which was reduced only in recent months, after the time limit originally set.

The government on the contrary, has stood on its recent notes, one of which asked authorization to retain permanently 200,000 men with heavy artillery and an aviation service while the other asked that the reduction in any case should be deferred until October 10, as it now is a physical impossibility to select for dismissal and muster out the excess soldiers and officers by July 10, even if the government possessed the courage to attempt the task.

Divided into Districts.
The country has been divided into the number of military districts—seven—corresponding with the number of infantry divisions which the peace conference experts prescribe for the future German army, and between thirty and forty thousand men have been enlisted for the new army on the prescribed fourteen years service basis, the balance of the men being recruited only for short terms, but practically everything else connected with the reduction remains to be done.

The government upon receipt of official notification of the ambassadors' decision, will ask the postponement of that decision until the Spa conference, will point out the impossibility of carrying out the order by the date set and ask consideration on the ground of the danger to Germany of throwing her superfluous soldiers out of employment at a moment of economic depression. Government representatives profess to fear such an attempt will meet with armed resistance on the part of the battalions to be disbanded, and point as an illustration to the recent mutiny at Soest, in the Ruhr district, when a machine-gun unit selected for elimination opened fire on its officers and upon troops sent to disarm it, and was subdued only after considerable bloodshed.

The council of ambassadors met in Paris Sunday and reached decisions on the disarmament of Germany which were in conformity with those of the interallied military committee. The conclusions were sent to Boulogne for submission to the allied council there. Presumably the decision that the army must be reduced by July 10 is included in the note drawn up at Boulogne recently.

Miramichi Unions With Over 2,700 Members Making Arrangements for Monster Labor Celebration on Dominion Day.

The organized labor bodies of the Miramichi comprising a membership now of over 2,700 men are making arrangements for a monster Labor celebration on July 1st, Dominion Day. The event will be under the auspices of the Chatham branch of the I. L. A. of which J. S. Martin is the president. It is expected that all the labor bodies on the river will take part. The programme includes a parade to be held in the morning. Business firms and many others are expected to put in floats. Sports will be held in the afternoon including track and field events and ball game between the local and a St. John or Moncton team. The promoters are quite optimistic about the demonstration and they say that it will be the biggest thing that Chatham has witnessed for years in the evening a band concert will be held in the Exhibition Building. Attempts were made to get the City Council band of this city to take part, but on account of the fact that the band had been engaged for Seaside Park on the holiday, that had to be abandoned.

It Pays to Feed Empire Feeds!

Cattlemen, farmers and dairymen have learned that it is profitable to buy stock feeds by proteins and that the feed containing the proper amount of proteins is the feed that brings results.

Another consideration steps in, however, and that is, that beyond a certain point, protein ingredients may be present in too great quantity for the animal to use, and there is waste.

EMPIRE FEEDS are rightly balanced

Empire Dairy and Hog Feeds contain not less than 16% proteins (guaranteed), which will be used for the nourishment of the animal, without waste.

We aim to put up feeds that will pay the user. Only good sound grains and other ingredients are used, and certainly no filler or other useless stuff will ever enter into EMPIRE FEEDS. Try a quantity for a fair testing time. We will abide by the resulting improvement in your stock. Ask your dealer for the honest feeds—EMPIRE BRANDS.

FACING SOCIAL REVOLUTION IN IRELAND

Original Demand for "Irish Republic" Broadened to One for "Workers' Republic."

SITUATION THREATENS EUROPEAN STRUCTURE

Bishop Kelly Warns Against Present Trend Which Would Upset Society.

By HUGH CURRAN

(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic Newspapers)

Dublin, June 25.—The Irish Sinn Fein, born of political revolt, is evolving at break-neck speed into a movement carrying all aspects of political, economic and social revolution.

It is daily perfecting an alliance in spirit, and purpose with the general labor movement; and concordant action is becoming manifest with increasing regularity.

The original ideal of an "Irish republic" is today broadening on all sides here into a demand for a "workers' republic" based on fundamental recognition of the needs of the great 44 per cent of the Irish population made up of farm workers and small land-owners immediately dependent for subsistence upon the tilling of the soil.

This wholesale trend is becoming increasingly evident to observers on the spot here. That it contains the germs of a threat to the existing European structure that reached out beyond Ireland's political quarrel with England, is becoming recognized. An Ireland containing at present, France may ultimately present the first "break" in the phalanx of western nations in favor of a workers' regime.

Social Revolution Coming

Warning against the emergence of the Sinn Fein and labor movements, Bishop Kelly, of Ross, widely-known Roman Catholic prelate, demands whether Ireland is not "drifting into social revolution." He asks whether the Sinn Fein is still "the political movement that you have been accustomed to" or whether it is not now "aimed at evolving a new form of society."

"Numbers of our fellow-countrymen are professed republicans. The word 'republic' has, in their use of it, two distinct meanings. Some mean by a republic such a form of government as exists in the United States, France or Switzerland. Such a republic is a perfectly legitimate form if it can be obtained peacefully and maintained efficiently."

"But by 'republic' many Irishmen now mean a workers' republic. The farmers propose to take over all the sources of production in the country and work and manage them and run the democracy. The programme of the workers' republic is to abolish industrial ownership."

The revolutionary doctrines of the Irish leader, Jim Larkin, recently convicted in New York of criminal conspiracy, according to Bishop Kelly, "have been steadily percolating to every part of Ireland."

"It is the business of the Irish workers to prepare for the political changes that are coming; and to be in a position to establish a social and economic change at the same time," Thomas Johnston, one of the most prominent of the Irish labor leaders has declared publicly.

Attacks Bishop Kelly

Vehemently attacking Bishop Kelly, Johnston declared he had no hesitation in saying that "the workers of Ireland are not seeking a republic such as the American republic."

"They have no intention of establishing a republic where the very basis of personal liberty is unknown," Johnston declared. "That is not a land of liberty; that is not a republic such as we wish to see in Ireland."

Defending the recent action of Irish labor in blocking the export of food from Ireland until the requirements of the combined action of Irish and British dock and transport workers in returning to transport British government munitions to Ireland, Johnston declared the same "duty" would devolve upon labor next winter, when, he forecast, food supplies will again be short.

He declared for a revolution that would "bring the workers of the town and country into close cooperation without any intervention of the capitalist system."

"People talk about the independence of the small farmer, but where is his independence when it comes to the marketing of his produce? Then he requires the co-operation of the workers, and if they refuse it, his vaunted independence goes for nothing."

Johnston declared the labor party, if brought into power, would not destroy any property, but would insist on all properties put "to good social use."

"It would not allow factory owners, mill owners, or land-holders to close down their properties, for labor would enter into possession and insist that property of all kinds be put to its rightful use—the satisfaction of the reasonable demands of the Irish people."

That British statesmen are awake to these larger aspects of the Irish situation is manifest in recent public utterances not generally interpreted at their full value. Sir Edward Carson, Ulster leader, addressing the Commons, declared the Irish movement extends beyond the borders of Ireland, and constitutes a general threat, which he describes superficially as a conspiracy against the British Empire.

"The Sinn Fein movement is only part of a great conspiracy against the British Empire which is growing also in India and Egypt and has its center in the United States."

Garbo Mill Owner Is Now Convinced

Says He Thought Merits of Tanlac Were Exaggerated Until He Tried It.

"Wrap me up four bottles of that Tanlac medicine to take back with me to Garbo, for after the wonderful way it has helped me I wouldn't be without it on any account," said Allen L. Pritchett, who lives at Middlebrook, Garbo, when he called in at M. Connor's drug store in St. John's, the other day. Mr. Pritchett has been in the lumbering business for the last twenty-two years, is the owner of mills at Garbo and Dray Cove, and is very highly respected by all who know him.

"I can't tell you what a relief it is to be free from all the suffering that I've had for the past eight years on account of stomach trouble. I used to have such pains in the pit of my stomach after eating that it would bring tears to my eyes, and many a time I was in such misery that death would have been welcome. I tried special dieting, but that didn't work, as I only got weaker, and my stomach finally got so bad that I had to lay off from work for weeks at a stretch. I often had such headaches that they almost drove me out of my mind and I became so dizzy at times that I simply had to stop whatever I was doing and take a rest."

"When I first read the statements in the papers about the way folks were being helped by Tanlac, I was a bit inclined to think they were exaggerating, but after what the medicine has done for me I can believe anything that is said about it and I can't praise it enough. Why, I've only taken three bottles, and I've now got an appetite like a wolf and am never bothered either with indigestion or pains in the stomach. I don't know what it is to have a headache now and I am so much stronger that I can do the hardest kind of work without ever getting tired out. In my opinion there's no medicine in the world like Tanlac and anybody suffering with stomach trouble couldn't do better than try a few bottles for Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv't.

Honolulu, June 21.—Str. West Mingo, bound to Yokohama from San Francisco, arrived here today with broken propeller blade.

into the island, as well as great quantities of military supplies, motor lorries and some armored cars. While outward manifestations of the situation are not of a military character, there is a general feeling that widespread preparations against eventualities are in progress on both sides. The declaration of Lord French, that the Sinn Fein have today 100,000 well-trained and well-armed men available is met on many sides with credence despite the utter absence of any outward display of such strength to support the statement.

The British government is now declared to have troops in Ireland heavily in excess of the first British expeditionary forces into Belgium.

ASBESTOS MAKES SLIGHT ADVANCE

B. C. Fisheries and Montreal Cotton Were Weak Stocks Friday.

Montreal, June 25.—Quebec Railway was again the active leader of the stock market here today, but was under pressure, the price receding to 20, a decline of 1 1/8 points. Atlantic Sugar, which was next active, continued to show strength selling as high as 127 3/4 and closing at 126 3/4, a net gain of a point. No other stocks exceeded a thousand shares turnover.

Wayagamack again made a spectacular advance, closing at 128, a five point advance for the day.

In the steels and merger stocks, Dominion Steel held at 63, Steamship common rose 1 1/4 points to 73 1/4. Ontario Steel was offered at 77 and Steel of Canada lost a fraction at 75.

Stronger issues took in Asbestos which rose 3 1/2 points to 85; Sugar preferred which rose 1 1/2 points to 62; Canners up 1 1/2 points to 62.

MARKET CLOSED FIRM WITH GAINS

Expected Favorable Developments at Washington Gives More Confidence to Market

New York, June 25.—Stocks held without much change in the afternoon, while the amount of transactions fell below that of yesterday each hour until the last, when some activity developed in response to a fall in the money rate from 11 per cent to 6 per cent.

The market closed firm with a few gains in the specialties and pool favorites. There has been a good deal of talk in the Street about specific favorable developments to come out during the coming week particularly from Washington.

Some reports say that this news is the decision of the I. C. C. in the rate case. It should be noted that the hearings in that case are not over yet and will probably continue until the end of the month.

It seems hardly possible that the commission will render its decision without considering the evidence for at least a week or ten days, and it may take longer than that.

Reduce Present High Building Costs

Avoid Lumber Shortage

Lumber Shortage—a virtual famine of lumber—exists in many parts of the Dominion. Reports indicate it is impossible even now to get material for certain needs. Stocks were never as low as they are now. The demand was never as great as it is now. This means still higher lumber prices. It means that prices will go upward rapidly—that it will possibly take $150 in six months or a year to buy $100 worth of lumber. Will you be forced to pay these prices? Will you need for a home in six months cost you a 50 p. c. or a 100 p. c. penalty?

Complete Material for Immediate Shipment

Aladdin taps the greatest forests of Canada. Each one has sufficient standing timber to take care of the needs of the Dominion for many years. The probable lumber famine predicted in all parts of the Dominion will not affect the Canadian Aladdin Company. Every Aladdin house ordered in 1920 will be shipped quickly and completely. Sufficient lath and plaster for lining the interior of the home. Nails in necessary sizes and quantities. Perfect quality interior trim. Doors of high quality material and excellent workmanship. Every item of the complete home will be promptly shipped to every Aladdin purchaser in 1920, regardless of shortages of lumber and other building materials in general markets.

Save the Waste—Reduce the Cost

The Aladdin system scientifically prepares the materials and conserves the labor. You can save 18 p. c. on the cost of the lumber and 30 p. c. on the cost of the labor. Certified records of thousands of Aladdin home builders in every Province prove these statements. You can prove these statements for yourself, for there is an Aladdin home near you wherever you live. Fourteen years' success of the Aladdin system of construction have firmly established its many advantages. The Lumber That's Wasted Costs Just as Much as Lumber That's Used. The only possible way to reduce present high rates of lumber and labor is to save the usual waste. The Aladdin system prepares all the lumber in our mills ready to be nailed in place. Waste of lumber is reduced to less than 2 p. c. Cost of labor is reduced 30 p. c. One man will do in six days, with Aladdin materials, what it requires ten days to accomplish without Aladdin's system.

Build Now—Don't Delay

Early buyers are assured delivery of a substantial, warm, comfortable and attractive home. Aladdin buyers are also assured a big saving—from $300 to $1,000. But quick action is necessary. The enormous demand for homes will soon fill the Aladdin Mills to capacity. Your order will possibly be too late. An important message to every builder is contained in the Aladdin catalogue. It is the message to you from the Dominion's greatest home building organization.

Aladdin Homes Are Complete

The Aladdin Book of Homes has a message for you. Amongst its 100 pages, leading home designs are presented to you. Aladdin homes are cut-to-fit as follows: Lumber, millwork, flooring, car-side and inside finish, doors, windows, shingles, lath and plaster, hardware, locks, nails, paints, varnishes. The material is shipped to you in a sealed box-car, complete, ready to erect. Send today for a copy of the book. Aladdin Homes No. 3111.

PALE AND WEAK WIVES AND MOTHERS

Can Regain Health and Strength Through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Many women who had a good color in their girlhood grow pale and colorless when they become wives and mothers. When the fading color in the cheeks and lips is accompanied by a loss of brightness in the eyes, and an increasing heaviness in the step, the cause will be found in the state of the blood.

Many causes contribute to the condition of the blood known as anaemia. Overwork in the home, a lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient rest and sleep, improper diet—these are a few of them. The important thing is to restore the blood to normal, to build it up so that the color will return to cheeks and lips is accompanied by eyes and lightness to the step. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the great blood builder and nerve strengthener. They begin with the very first dose, and through a fair use make new blood that carries strength and health to every part of the body. The appetite increases, digestion becomes more perfect and energy and ambition return. The case of Mrs. Wm. McNish, Abbott Street, Brockville, proves the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind. Mrs. McNish says: "I was quite young when I married, and in raising my family I became all run down and a nervous wreck. I became so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without sitting down to get my breath. I slept poorly and at times my nerves would twitch so that I could not keep still, and I was in constant misery. I tried many medicines, but they did not help me; indeed, my condition was growing worse, until one day a friend told me that she had been in a somewhat similar condition and had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, so I decided to try this medicine. After the use of a couple of boxes I felt they were helping me. My appetite was better and I slept better. By the time I had used half a dozen boxes I felt like a new woman, my health had fully returned and I could do my housework with ease. In view of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me I cannot recommend them too highly."

The best time to begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the moment you feel the least bit out of sorts. The sooner you do so the sooner you will regain your old-time energy. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mothers Receive Milk For Children

The milk depot established by the Board of Health in the Home of the Victorian Nurses, corner of Carleton and Dorchester streets, was the oasis of our milkless city yesterday and was visited by many mothers in search of milk.

As the location of the home had become more widely known, it was visited by over twice the number of visitors of the day before and nearly all the mothers were supplied with milk. All the women expressed the utmost gratitude and evinced a willingness to pay almost any price to obtain the food for which their children had been craving, although only a nominal charge was made.

Several of the mothers told of their experiences during the milkless days, truly trying ones for both mother and child. One mother, the mother of twins had attempted the condensed milk diet with her offspring, but the manufactured product proved too rich for them and their little stomachs became upset.

Women's Dearest Right Violated

Intolerance Has Reached Its Greatest Height in Law Now Being Advocated in New Brunswick.

If the women of New Brunswick were sufficiently acquainted with the provisions of the Prohibition Act they would vote in a body against it for this drastic piece of legislation violates the dearest rights of women. This Act does not mean temperance, it stands rather for intolerance and revulsion, as under the Bolshevik treatment of women in Russia.

Among other things this act: 1. Gives the Chief Inspector and all of his sub-inspectors or constables the right to search at pleasure at any hour of the night without a warrant the sleeping berth of any passenger—male or female—on any train passing through New Brunswick, Section 153.
