A. CHIPMAN SMITH.

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in striiny that I put every confidence in your Dismons Rheumatic Cure. I have suffered for the rast two years with Rheumatic Pains, drving which time I have had the advice of some of the miss prominent medical men in the Province, in experienced no relief, until I tried the I inrond Rheumatic Cure. I have now taken three factors and I feel greatly improved, and now am confident of a permanent cure.

Yours truly,

James O'Brien.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, Feb. 5.-The House, sterday, passed a bill appropriating yesterday, passed a bill appropriating $90.000 for settlers in the districts devastated by drought and grasshoppers. The Clerk announced that Mrs. Bickerdyke had thirty car loads of provisions in transit to Kansas, and requested the members to report to her at the Gordon House the amount of destitution in their respective districts. The announcement was received with cheers for Mrs. Bickerdyke.

Father Ryan, a Catholic priest of New Orleans, in a lecture recently delivered, attributed a kind of sordid cowardica to the men of the East, by saying that while to call a Southern a liar is to provoke a duel, to eall an Eastern man by that name is to elicit the retort, "Bet you five cents you can't prove it." This has drawn from an ex Confederate soldier a letter, published in the New Orleans Times, in which he rebukes the priest in these words: "Perhaps if he had stood, as so many of us did, on those long days of Fredericksburg and Gettysburg, under the fire of Maine and Massachusetts regiments, he might have been inspired with a little more respect for Yankees."

In the Maine Lagislature, last week a resolve was reported making appropriations for the Penobscot tribe of Indians as follows: Amount of interest on trust fund held by the State for the benefit of the tribe, $4,429.70; annual annuity, $1,800; agricultural purposes, $600; bounty on crops, $100; salary of agent, $300; teachers, $150. The following sums were appropriated to be paid for shore rents: Schools, $400; $250 on Oldtown island; $80 on Mattanawcook island; $70 on Olamon island. Salary of priest, $100, provided he says mass at least 24 Sundays during the year; salary of Governor, $50; stary of Lt. Governor, $30; $50 for completion of school house on Olamon island. Mr. Reade has had some correspondence with the editor of the Leeds Mercury, touching the narrative of "James Lambert," and closes the correspondence by telling the editor that he "encouraged a literary reptile to write a long, insolent retort to him" and that he, the editor, is "a liar, a coward, and a blackguard." Which may be called tall writing. "This is outrageous," said a lady, as Also—Agents for the MARITIME KNITTINE KNITTINE KNITTINE KNITTINE KNITTINE

And then she gathered up her skirts around her, pouted out her pretty lips, sat down upon the seat, and rode ten miles, showing by her frequent exclamations, how perfectly dignified she was, "Only varnish, and perfectly dry," remarked a by-sitter. Then she dried up, too, and was soon lost in contemplating Longfellow's remark, "Things are not what they seem."
