Report of Session

ON account of the progress which has been made by the congregation during the year, it is a pleasant task for the Session to make their annual report.

Having, during the year, watched with approval the working of the different organizations of the church, we are now glad of the opportunity to express our gratitude to all who have faithfully worked in the interests of the congregation. While so doing, we do not forget that the Great Master, who has given salvation to the world, is entitled to all praise for every blessing which has been given to this congregation in 1896.

Early in the year, after an election by the congregation, seven elders were ordained. They have performed the duties of the eldership during the greater part of the year.

With this addition to the eldership, the members of Session will endeavor to perform the duties which devolve upon them, and that they may do so most efficiently, they request the members of the congregation to render them every assistance possible in their work. There are many ways in which assistance may be given to the Session. Any member who knows that a Presbyterian family has moved into a certain district will do well to notify the elder of that district. Information in regard to sickness in families may be given to the Session by those who have heard of such sickness on account of their acquaintance with those families. When a change of residence is made by a family of the congregation the Session are always glad to be informed of the change, that the family may not be overlooked. Often the Session would not be aware of distress among the poor of the congregation if the members of the church did not send such information to the Session. It will be seen that there are many ways of aiding the elders in the performance of their duties, and we request the members and adherents to afford all the assistance possible.

During the year there were not so many additions to the membership by certificate as usual, and fewer names of members were removed from the communion roll by certificate than during any previous year for a considerable period. The roll has been carefully revised and there has been a slight gain in membership.

While there have been many deaths among the adherents of the church the number of members removed by death has been smaller than usual. We know that we voice the mind of the congregation when we extend our sympathy to all who have suffered on account of the death of loved ones.

A Junior Christian Endeavor Society has been organized and is doing an excellent work among the young people. While not enumerating the different organizations, we are glad to commend the work which all have done during the year which has so recently closed.

Managers' 18th Annual Report

YOUR Board of Managers are extremely gratified to be able to present a financial statement which will compare favorably in many respects with any presented in previous years. We are pleased to express our appreciation of the sustenance contributed by members and adherents. The sum raised has been practically voluntary, and for that reason the more to be commended. It is known to members of your Board that many of our people are contributing all they can afford, and in many cases putting forth extra effort to sustain payments which in easier times entailed no personal sacrifice. Such being the case, your board has been extremely careful in outlay and has endeavored to limit the expenditure as much as reasonable demands would warrant. We are particularly pleased to draw attention to the forbearance of pewholders, and to express our thanks for their co-operation in providing sittings for visitors. As managers, our gratification would be heightened by more tangible evidences of appreciation upon the part of those so generously provided for.

The attendance at both morning and evening services throughout the year have been uniformly good, the evening services being usually overcrowded.

Vacant sittings have been in urgent demand, and the readiness with which persons securing allocations have accepted and used offering envelopes is an evidence of the desire and willingness of worshippers to contribute to the maintenance of the church when reasonably supplied with pews which will make them feel they can worship regularly with us.

Your Board would suggest to the congregation the desirability of sustaining any reasonable proposition looking to future provision of adequate accommodation for the children who assemble at the Sabbath School.

The Session having decided to leave in the hands of the congregation the making of a new arrangement for the service of praise, your Board, with a desire to promote harmony and careful executive action, beg to recommend as follows: That a committee, composed of five members from the Session, five from the Board of Managers, and five from the congregation outside of these bodies, take into advisement the whole matter and report their recommendation to the congregation at an early date.

Following the instructions given at the last annual meeting, your Board sought and secured a reduction in the rate of interest payable upon the mortgage. The trustees of the estate holding the mortgage consented to a reduction to five per cent. without making any additional demands for security, and their offer was accepted.

In order to interest the young men of the congregation in the work of the church, the Board recommends that the duty of ushering and collecting the offerings be placed in the hands of young men who may be chosen by the Session and Managers jointly.

The following members of the Board retire this year: Messrs. Murchison, Dods, Milne, Grant, Bryce, and Wilkie, and we would impress upon the congregation the desirability of interesting new members in church work by changing entirely the personnel of the portion of the Board retiring annually. Eight new members will now require to be elected.

The Board for '96 have now cast off the burden of the year which has gone, and hopefully assume that for '97, trusting that each member of the congregation will do his or her share in making it a blessing to all.

The Treasurer's statement is herewith submitted for your approval.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board.

D. C. LITTLE,

W. MURCHISON,

PEW SECRETARY'S REPORT

IN making my report for the past year I wish to acknowledge my appreciation of the assistance offered me by Mr. Grant, associated with me in my duties, and also the various officers of the church who have co-operated with me in finding comfortable accommodation for all who have desired to join with us. In several instances pew holders have reduced their holdings in order to accommodate new applicants for sittings, and the pew-holders generally have shown the utmost generosity in the endeavor to make all who attend the services welcome and comfortable. All sittings on the ground floor except some 13 at the back are now allocated. There are a few most desirable sittings unallocated in the gallery. Besides several changes, sittings have been allocated to 27 families who have joined the congregation during the year.

THE Committee appointed by a joint meeting of the Session and Board of Managers to bring in a recommendation regarding increased accommodation for the Sabbath school, beg to report as follows: That the congregation select a committee to procure every available information as to the best plan for providing the necessary accommodation. That the committee be instructed to secure without expense the opinions of lay and ministerial experts in the formation of schools, and that at as early a date as possible they present a complete report and recommendation to a congregational meeting called to consider the same.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

A YEAR has passed since our last report was made and we are afforded another opportunity of referring to what has been accomplished and to the hopes we cherish as well as our desires.

It is gratifying to believe that the efforts of our faithful teachers and officers may well be regarded as having been successful on account of the results which manifest themselves through the regular attendance of scholars and their interest in their work as well as on account of the number that have connected themselves with the church through professing faith in Christ.

While our teachers are striving to do their part faithfully we would remind parents of their duty to see that lessons are prepared regularly at home, at least so far as the memory work is concerned, in order that the minds of their children may be filled with gems of purest thought and greatest wisdom from the Book of books and from the standard Catechism of our beloved Church. Too much importance cannot be attached to the careful memorizing of the Golden Texts and the Catechism, at least, and this can only be properly done at home.

We have again to refer to the pressing need which continues to exist for better accommodation for our school, and we do this reluctantly owing to the fact that attention has been so frequently and urgently called to this most important matter, apparently to so little purpose.

In his report for the year 1891, when the school was very much smaller than it is now, the Superintendent said, "the work in the school has been considerably hampered by the crowded condition of the school," and in each report since that time the needs of the school have been urgently referred to, and yet we have neither increased nor improved our accommodation for this most important section of our church. Is it any wonder then that we desire to impress upon parents the fact that their children are not receiving proper consideration? Perhaps nothing could better emphasize this neglect than to point out the circumstances of our primary class. In the small room which was originally intended for from sixty to seventy-five children, we have an average attendance of double that number, and we have had as many as one hundred and seventy-five children crowded together in the room with those in charge trying to instruct them. Why should this be necessary in our school? Not only is the primary class room greatly overcrowded every Sabbath, but it is in no way such a room as our children should be required to occupy, and not only is this room badly ventilated and far too small, but our general accommodation lacks in the same important particulars. In fact, the needs of our school are such that we feel that we cannot too strongly urge upon parents and others who wish our school prosperity, and realize the importance of an efficient Sabbath-school to the future welfare of our children and of our church, to be much more liberal than they have ever been heretofore in their contributions to our Sabbath-school Extension Fund. Surely the urgent needs of our school, a desire to do justice to the children and to glorify the God whom we serve, should stimulate all members and adherents of our church to liberal giving for this object. Let us help ourselves to the utmost of our ability and we shall certainly be blessed in so doing.

Signed on behalf of the Teachers and Officers of the School,

H. SUTHERLAND

Superintendent.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

YOUR Librarians have much pleasure in reporting that for the first time in its history, the Library has at last reached that state which enables it to meet all demands made upon it.

We would gratefully acknowledge the grant of $50.00 from the Board of Management, which has been expended in the purchasing of two hundred and twelve volumes. Sixty-one volumes have been removed partly on account of the length of time that they have been in the library, and partly on account of their delapidated condition. These have been sent to the Sailors' Home in Kingston.

The number of volumes now in the library is eight hundred and seventy-six, and as part of the grant from the Jesse Ketchum Trust is to be expended in the purchasing of library books, we fully expect to reach the nine hundred mark. During the year a new catalogue was drawn up and one thousand copies printed.

Report of Missionary Committee

IN presenting their twelfth annual report and financial statement for the year ending December 31st, 1896, the missionary committee are pleased to announce an increase in contributions as compared with the previous year.

While we gratefully acknowledge our thanks to those who have so generously supported the mission schemes of our church, thereby enabling us to show a better statement than we did in our 1895 report, we are candid enough to confess to a measure of disappointment at the general results of our year's offerings, particularly in view of the fact that we find a widespread apathy manifested by a very large percentage of our congregation in this most important branch of Christian work.

Early in the past year your committee issued a printed circular, setting forth the schemes of the Presbyterian Church, and asked for a more liberal support of the same and for a more general use of the regular missionary envelope, urging members to state on a slip attached to the circular the amount they were willing to contribute monthly to the mission schemes. This appeal was delivered at the homes of over 400 members and seatholders, with the result that we received responses from less than a dozen.

Later we resolved to provide a special missionary envelope to be placed in the pews on the Sabbaths of the monthly missionary offering, hoping thereby to bring this great branch of our church work more immediately before those who apparently overlooked or ignored it. For several months this plan worked fairly well, but latterly there has been a considerable falling off in their use, even after being placed so conspicuously before the congregation, so that at the present time there are not more than eight or ten contributions per month from this source.

In regard to our giving by the regular missionary envelope the following statistics should be of interest to the congregation and are very necessary if we are to review our work thoroughly: Out of a membership of some 750 in full communion, besides many adherents, we have less than seventy who are regular contributors to missions, and this includes all annual subscribers. We have had a total of 523 contributions through the blue envelope for the entire year, or an average of 44 per month—only 6 per cent. of our full membership that contribute regularly of their means to carry light into the dark places of the earth. Surely our Heavenly Father's command to "love our neighbors as ourselves" ought to find a more warm-hearted response from the 90 per cent. of our membership than hitherto. May He open our eyes that we may behold "the fields, for they are white already to harvest," and the laborers are ready and willing to go into the fields; but we—what are we doing to support the noble missionary band and to extend the work of carrying the glad tidings of salvation to those who live and die in heathen darkness.

Let us ever be jealous of our position as a congregation in relation to missionary work, for, as we review the past decade, we remember with pride the nine noble hearted workers who went from our midst to carry the gospel message to those who were perishing without God and without hope, and who to-day are still cheerfully toiling on.

We trust that this year our congregation may more fully appreciate the privilege that Christ has conferred upon us by permitting us to be co-workers with Him in helping on the great missionary work which He came on earth to establish and which He enjoined on us to "carry into all the world and to preach the gospel to every creature."

With this end in view, your committee would respectfully request the members, both old and young, to make a more general use of the blue envelope than in the past, and give a regular contribution to missions, however small, for we feel assured that the congregation only need reminding of the interest displayed by our membership in past years, when our offerings were much larger and our membership much less than at present, to inspire them to far greater and nobler efforts than ever before, and we would like to see the number contributing increased at least tenfold.

What we particularly desire is not so much a small increase of large contributors, but rather a large increase of small contributors. Let us not withhold our help because our means are small, for mighty issues spring out of what are considered trifles, and a cent-a-day contribution from our membership would aggregate a splendid missionary revenue of nearly $3,000 per annum.

In closing this report your committee would commend this Christ appointed work to the prayerful attention of His people, with the hope that this year we may all realize more fully than ever before that it is indeed "more blessed to give than to receive," and would ask those who are willing to help in this glorious work to communicate with the Mission Secretary or to ask for missionary envelopes from the Weekly Offering Secretary, who is in attendance every Sabbath at the south entrance to the church.

IN presenting the eleventh annual report of the Parkdale Woman's Foreign Missionary Society we are thankful for the success that has attended our efforts during the past year. Although we are compelled to report a falling off in membership, we feel that the interest in the work has not decreased.

During the year eleven meetings were held, and the average attendance has been nearly as large as any year since the formation of the Society.

A committee of three ladies have had charge of the programme for each meeting and the Auxiliary is much indebted to them for their faithful and efficient work.

In February we had the privilege of entertaining the Toronto Presbyterian Society at its annual meeting. The thanks of the Auxiliary are tendered to the ladies of the congregation, who gave generously and liberally, and worked faithfully with us, contributing largely to the success of the meeting.

Two entertainments were given for the benefit of the North-West Clothing Fund, the first in March, at which the Rev. R. P. MacKay lectured on "Missions" and Mrs. Caldwell sang several sacred selections. The second in April, at which the Rev. L. H. Jordan gave an interesting lecture on "Glimpses of China."

A bale of substantial clothing, valued at $60, was sent to the Indians in the North-West.

The annual thankoffering meeting was held in the church and realized $50.20.

Thirty-eight ladies subscribe for the "Letter Leaflet."

And now, as we stand looking back on the year that is past, and forward to the one we have just entered, let us each one reflect on the motives that prompt us in our deeds for, and gifts to, this Society. Do we remember that "The real motive of mission work is the motive of love?" Such love for our Divine Master and gratitude for His unspeakable and unutterable gifts as will make the extension of His kingdom the first object of our lives, and we know that there is not one record of self-denial or one real effort made for those poor heathens that shall be forgotten by Him to whom the motives of all hearts are known. We feel assured that if we carry on this work in which we are engaged earnestly, faithfully and prayerfully, it will not only prove a blessing to those heathen women for whom we labor, but will return in abundant blessing upon ourselves.

IN presenting our third annual report, we sincerely thank our Lord and Master for the great measure of success He has bestowed on the work of the faithful few who have labored earnestly to advance His kingdom and make known the wonderful love of Christ to our heathen sisters sitting in darkness, and for the deep interest manifested among our members to learn how to make others happy.

Meetings were held fortnightly, except during July and August, with an average attendance of fifteen. Two very interesting addresses were given, one by Miss Wilkie, on "India," the other by Miss Laidlaw, of Portage la Prairie, giving a very minute account of the work done by the boys and girls of the Industrial School. Our thankoffering meeting was held in December. Dr. Hardie, of Corea, very kindly addressed us on the work done there, illustrated by a number of appropriate views.

The clothing, dolls, scrap-books, etc., valued at $69.80, were sent to India and the Home Mission Schools.

IN presenting our report for 1896 we desire to thank God for the measure of prosperity granted to us during the year.

We have 67 names on the roll, 33 being active members who, on the whole, have taken part very well, although a number have not attended as regularly as desired, but it is hoped that we will all be more earnest and willing for service in the year upon which we have now entered.

During the early part of the year cottage meetings were held in some of the sick members' homes. A Junior Endeavor has been formed which is doing good work. We had a very interesting lecture by Mr. Galloway, of Uxbridge, on "A trip through Ireland on a jauntying car," which was very much enjoyed. We also had a visit from Miss MacIntyre, who gave us an account of the grand work done at the Girls' Shelter.

The Flower Committee have taken quite a number of bouquets to the sick of the congregation, distributed good literature, also provided fruit, and supplied the pulpit with flowers.

Our contribution to Missions has been largely increased by means of the Fulton plan. A collection has been taken at our Missionary meetings, which are held every four weeks, the proceeds of one of which go to Miss MacIntyre to help her in her work.

We have helped two poor families and one member of our church in this vicinity this winter by paying the rent and by providing provisions and clothing.

In bringing this report to a close, we trust that God will prosper us in our endeavor to be more active in His service and that more young people will see their way to join our society.

IN presenting our report of the work done by the Junior Endeavor for 1896, we thank God for the showers of blessings He has bestowed upon us during the year and the way he has prospered us in our efforts. We have ninety members on the roll, all of which are active, with an average attendance of 50 per Sunday. Our Sunshine Committee has been doing excellent work, distributing flowers and visiting the sick children of the congregation. We have taken three poor families under our care, providing them with fuel, groceries, etc. We have also paid one month's rent for one family. It is encouraging to see the missionary spirit growing among the children. At the close of the year we had a Christmas Tree, each child receiving something. We extend a hearty invitation to all to join us at our meetings, which are held every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Come and encourage your children.
