DR. PINAULT HAS SMALL POX CHECKED

Has Placed Restrictions on Indians at Reserve
Visited Every House

TWELVE CASES

To the Editor of the Graphic:—
Having charge of putting a stop to the epidemic outbreak of smallpox on the Indian Reserve, I deem it my duty to inform the public of the conditions now existing regarding the real outbreak, so that no unnecessary alarm shall prevail.

Smallpox exists on the Reserve since a month and a half. The first of being quarantined has been the cause that the Indians have kept the thing secret to these days.

I have visited each and every house at the Reserve, and I have found seven houses where the disease had existed and eleven where it exists now. Twenty persons have been affected with the disease and are now cured and fifteen are actually sick. Some of the patients are not seriously sick, others more seriously. The population of white people living on the Reserve are free from the contagion, and as a precaution the Messrs. Champoux have had their children and their men vaccinated. Until further notice white people living on the Reserve can move about without being a cause of danger, but the Indians cannot go off the Reserve without a certificate signed by myself.

It is to be hoped that the Indians will find it impossible to provide them with investigating liquor, as the use of liquor by these Indians makes the task of checking the disease excessively difficult. Should the Indians be unable to obtain liquor I am in favor of checking the progress of the smallpox within a relatively short time.

PLANNING FOR ANNUAL ICE MEET AT NEWCASTLE

Local Horses Getting into Shape and Meet Promises to be of Great Interest

Miramichi gentlemen interested in horses are planning to hold their annual ice meet shortly, and as there are now a large number of local fast horses good sport is expected.

Already the local flyers are out of the ice shape. These races are open to all New Brunswick horses.

MAN OF 35 BEGINS LIFE ANew ALMOST AS A CHILD

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 7.—His mind a blank on his own name, his home and everything in his past life, a man of thirty-five years, of apparent education and education, will tomorrow leave Grace Hospital, if he is not identified meanwhile, to begin existence over again almost as a child. However, he strangely retains fully developed powers of intelligence and all the elements of a fine education.

The man was picked up unconscious on the street December 10, with a skull badly cut. When he recovered he could give no rational account of what had happened. A difficult operation saved his life, but failed to restore his memory.

TELEGRAPHERS ARE OUT FOR MORE PAY

Railway Operators all Over Dominion are Preparing for Determined
Struggle

TORONTO, Jan. 9.—The railway telegraph operators throughout Canada, the United States and Mexico, are said to be preparing for a struggle with the companies in an effort to better their working conditions. According to local officials a petition asking the government of Canada to establish an eight hour day is being very largely signed, while individual members of the House are being approached on the matter. Operators say that they have to work anywhere from twelve to eighteen hours in the twenty-four.

CARD

We extend our thanks to the good people of Campbellton and to our many out-of-town customers for the liberal patronage they have given us during our five years of business here. We have sold out to our manager Mr. W. L. McFarlane, and bespeak for him a continuance of your liberal patronage. We feel sure that he will maintain the high standard of "Best values and lowest prices" that standard, and stands for yours truly.

Yours very truly,
Frasier, Fraser & Co.

CARD

I wish to announce to the people of Campbellton and vicinity that I have bought out the clothing business of Fraser, Fraser & Co. popularly known as "Oak Hall," and will continue in the same building.

A complete line of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishings Goods will be carried. It will be my endeavor to please all, and give each and everyone the best goods at the lowest possible prices. Oak Hall standard will always be upheld.

Selecting a continuance of the very liberal patronage with which you have favored my predecessors.

I remain,
Yours very truly,

TWENTY-FIVE KILLED IN MINE DISASTER

Explosion of Gas in Coal
Mine Zeigler, Ill., Causes
Wreck.

ONE SURVIVOR

DUQUOIN, Ill., Jan. 10.—A disastrous gas explosion in which twenty-five men lost their lives, occurred today in Joseph Zeigler's famous colliery at Zeigler. A spark from a trolley pole of an electric motor, coming in contact with a pocket of gas, is given as the cause of the explosion.

Americans killed by the explosion included Foreman Willis Wanner and Albert Kerr. Eight bodies yet remain in the mine, but they are expected before midnight it is thought.

Joseph Zeigler conducted the relief party which descended into the mines to recover the bodies. The lone survivor of the explosion was an Irish youth who escaped unhurt.

An expert who had been experimenting with gas in the mines at Zeigler, left on Wednesday confident that he had placed the mine in safe condition to be operated.

The men entombed were engaged in clearing away the debris caused by the recent fire in the mine and it was expected that operations would be resumed this week after two months' experience.

CHURCH HORROR IN SWITZERLAND

Edifice Collapsed During Service, Congregation
All killed or Injured.

THINKS IT EARTHQUAKE

BERNE, Switzerland, Jan. 10.—During divine service today an ancient church near Sion suddenly collapsed, burying the worshippers in the ruins. Practically all the members of the congregation were killed or injured. The widest panic prevailed, those who escaped rushing through the fields and shouting that an earthquake had overtaken the village. Other villagers joined in the outcry and were with difficulty calmed.

After an hour's exertions the fire company of the place extinguished the flames, but it is believed that there is still a number under the timbers. Sixty persons were badly injured. The collapse of the church was caused by the time-worn pillars in the underground crypt giving way.

A curious question in evolution was once put to a scientist prominent in the service of the government: Why is it, some one asked, that horses say donkeys do not?

The answer was to the following effect:

The ancestors of the horse were accustomed to roam over the plains, where every day of danger or hunt might conceal an enemy waiting in ambush. In these circumstances they must have time and again saved their lives by quickly starting back or suddenly jumping to one side when without warning some strange object appeared to them. The habit must have induced him to start and jump that so many years of domestication have not eradicated it.

On the other hand, the donkey is descended from animals that lived among the hills, with no such dangers and no such necessities; and from these conditions, it would appear there resulted its slowness and sure-footedness. So the donkey's ancestors were not, then, so liable to sudden attacks from wild beasts and snakes. Moreover, sudden and wild starts would have been positively dangerous to the donkey's forebears. Consequently, they learned to avoid the characteristic trick of the horse. The habit of starting, therefore, peculiar to the donkey, seems also to have been inherited by its ancestors. In the dry, barren localities they inhabited there was often very little food; therefore they learned to eat the hard, dry, and even prickly plants and undergrowth when nothing else presented itself.

It is a curious fact that when the island of Malta was in possession of the Templars those donkey knights defended their forts by means of cannon cut into the solid rock.

Each of these strange engines of war was capable of containing an entire barrel of gun-powder, and it is said, could throw ten thousand pounds of projectiles. Immense however, as these natural cannons could not be aimed, fifty were cut out of the rock guarding the various channels of approach, and the vessels of that time were therefore unable to come within their range before being annihilated by the big weapons of defense.

Although the frame of these cannons was spread far and wide, they were not supposed to shatter, and to this day they remain the only rock cannons of which there exists any record.

Some men will give assent to a benevolent scheme when it is proposed, but not even one cent afterwards.

FATHER DOUCETTE DIED AT MONTREAL

Was Undergoing Operation
for Cancer When End Came.

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY

Rev. Joseph R. Doucette late pastor of St. Urban's church (Gloucester county), died at Montreal on Saturday, about nine o'clock Sunday evening. Many friends on the North Shore will regret to learn of Father Doucette's death. The Reverend gentleman had been suffering from cancer, and went to Montreal for treatment. The cancer was in the vicinity of the jugular vein and it was known that the end could not be far removed. The end came peacefully on Saturday last.

The funeral will take place at Grand Anse on Wednesday on the arrival of the train, where the late priest had been a long time pastor and where he was greatly beloved by his parishioners, and where his cousin, Rev. S. J. Doucette is now in charge.

FREDERICKSON CURLEWS DID NOT ARRIVE

Would Come Later

The Frederickses, which were to have played the Campbellton rink here could not leave Fredericks as planned Monday evening and were obliged to postpone their trip. A telegram was received Monday night from them promising to come here later in the season.

SENTENCE SERMONS

Character is what we make of life's conditions.

It takes more than good living to make the good life.

It takes a lot of piety to stand up against prosperity.

If carelessness is a sin we are all in the awful cases.

He is a lie to truth who would try to defend it with error.

The holy life is the one that is healthy all the way through.

No day is long enough to waste any of it in nursing enmity.

The man who is going to heaven never tries to take up all the road.

Do heaven's business and heavenly beauty will take care of itself.

There's a little of the water of life in works of religious hydropostatics.

There's a lot of difference between the tongue of fire and the fire tongue.

Whom patience has its perfect work, it does not stop work for shorter hours.

No man is as good as he might be; who does not try to be better than he can be.

No man needs our pity more than he who is indifferent to the sorrows of others.

It's always safe to deny the authority of an opportunity that thrusts itself in on a duty.

The steps downward are so many and so small that men seldom recognize the grade.

There's some moral disease present when the sight of another's happiness gives us pain.

It is often worth while to do an apparently fruitless act for the sake of acquiring a helpful habit.

When people are hungry for the living bread it's folly feeding them lectures on agriculture.

Too many of us make the mistake of thinking that the more load we can carry the more life we live.

HOUSE BURNED AT OAK BAY SUNDAY

Fire Spread Rapidly and Only Small Portion of Furniture Remained.

WAS INSURED.

A large frame house owned by J. B. Sowerby at Oak Bay, caught fire about nine o'clock Sunday evening and was totally destroyed, together with a quantity of the household furniture.

The house was occupied by Enoch Hunter, who had his furniture insured. The house was also insured, so that the loss is partly covered.

The blaze lit up the sky in the Quebec shore and from Campbellton it looked in the vicinity of Mr. Sowerby's lumber mill.

The van that brought the first load of furniture for the family moving in last week had as a passenger a small boy of about his own age. He welcomed the new home with a happy smile.

Hello, yourself.

Say, you've got red hair too, ain't you?

Yes, so have you, ain't you, just like mine.

Do they ever call you Red?

Umhmm, and Reddie and Redney.

And Ginger?

You bet, and Cedar.

Any Bricks?

Yes, and Berrett.

Does your Uncle Bob say you're copper mounted?

I said, got no Uncle Bob, but Granddaddy says I've got brass fittings. Ever call you Beans?

No; but they call me Charley some times, cause I've got freckles, too. See next order. Graphic Press.

Charles A. Diana only a few years ago in his laboratory in West Orange, N. J. yesterday expressed confidence in the success of his latest invention a practical storage battery for over-propeller cars, which is destined to solve the traffic problem in large cities.

His scheme is to place these batteries under the seats of cars, and he says they can be sufficiently charged at the existing power houses to run an entire day continuously.

No additional tracks, poles or power houses will be required, added Mr. Diana, and the needs of future transit facilities can be economically cared for by the new battery cars. They will run one hundred miles without recharging and will utilize the machinery which brings the car to a stop for the recharging. The cars will run on any rail, the present street car tracks or steam rails, and if they jump the tracks can go back on the rails with their own power.

More than one quarter of all the persons in Greater New York city are Jews. Warsaw, Poland, contains the third largest settlement of Jews; the Borough of Brooklyn, which contains 250,000, being the second on the list.

Only within the last fifteen years have Jews been settling in numbers in Brooklyn, fifty years ago there having been not a single Jewish name in the Brooklyn directory.

There are more Jews in Greater New York than in the European cities of Vienna, Berlin, Viena, Lemberg, Amsterdam and London all put together. Ten per cent, in fact, of all the Jews in the world reside within the boundaries of Greater New York.

BLACK CAPE

BLACK CAPE, Jan. 8.—Our teachers Miss Caldwell and Miss Dow, who have been spending the holidays at their homes, returned on Saturday to resume their duties.

Mr. A. McNair, one of our most popular young men, left on Monday for Ontario, where he has accepted a position. M. and Mrs. D. L. Campbell returned from Papeete on Saturday.

The W. P. M. S. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. B. Henderson on Saturday afternoon.

The many friends of Mrs. Robert Fairweather will regret to learn that she is confined to her residence by illness.

Mr. Felix Curry is hauling lumber for the New Richmond landing-stage extension.

Your correspondent would be grateful if Mr. Richmond would drop the Graphic a few notes from that thriving town.

Interesting news from the town of New Campbellton appeared in the Graphic very regular during the past summer, but some time has passed since we have noted any. Trusting to hear from these thriving towns in the near future.

HE MIGHT HAVE BEEN SOMEBODY

He might have been an author and have written many pages.

To blossom for a little hour and proffer very regular during the past summer, but some time has passed since we have noted any. Trusting to hear from these thriving towns in the near future.

He was clever, he was cultured, he was traveled, he could write;

But the product of his genius never seemed to reach the light.

You seldom saw his name attached to Letters to the Press;

But he always wrote a gentle word to soothe a friend's distress;

And he was in it was in Petersburg, and he was in it was in Rome,

Instead of writing "travels," he was writing letters home.

He might have been an orator and wielded words of flame.

To illuminate the nation and to glorify his name.

He was subtle, he was tactful, he was eloquent of speech;

But he did not spread the eagle and rejoice to hear it screech.

So he never spoke on the public platform did he ever play a part;

But he always had a happy word to help a heavy heart.

And perhaps his cheerful speeches were too simple plan.

But they made a fallen friend forget he'd ever had a bump.

He might have been a scholar with a string of high degrees,

And have found some hidden meaning in a play of Sophocles;

But, instead of ever studying the dim and ancient letters,

He was studying his little world and how to make it better;

How to do some little kindness, common to the passing eyes,

But which the hurried rest of us had noted—ang passed by.

He might have been somebody on some self acquired plan.

If he had been so busy being something of a man.

A stupid man may sin on purpose, and yet not have much purpose in his sins.

ELECTION FIGHT IS WAXING WARM

Petition Filed Against Both Parties in Hope of Un-seating Some.

CABINET MINISTERS

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., Jan. 10.—The struggle between the adherents of Sir Robert Bond, the premier of Newfoundland, and the opposition headed by Sir Edw. Morris, as a result of the deadlock created by the election of the members of the legislature by each party at the general election presents some remarkably features today.

On Thursday the Bondites filed petitions in the supreme court, asking that two opposition members—Sir Edw. Morris and Sir John Morris—be unseated because of the alleged illegal acts committed during the campaign.

The Morrisites retorted by petitioning against the returns of the Bondite members for Carbonear, but the Bond party managers claimed that while their own petitions were safe, that of the opposition's was unsafe because filed too late. In spite of the claims, the leaders of the opposition have followed their habit course by filing petitions against six more Bondites, including the minister of finance and the minister of public works.

Lawyers for the opposition take the view that the construction of the elections act as announced by the government is defective and that this can be easily shown. They hold that the act permits petitions to be filed during the coming week, and say that the premier's own seat and that of the minister of agriculture are still liable to petition.

The developments of the past few days have created great public interest and the outcome of the proceedings in court is eagerly awaited.

KURUPATKIN ON INDIA

The noted Russian General, Kurupatkin, has an article in McClure's Magazine, dealing with the causes of the late war between Russia and Japan and incidentally touching upon the matter of the deepest interest just now to our mother country and the restless people of India. The passage relating to the latter is significant and runs as follows:—

"Concerning our frontier with Afghanistan, I came to the belief long ago that it was not to Russia's interest to alter her position there for one that might be worse. As long ago as 1878, while I occupied the post on the general staff connected with Central Asia, I was a thoroughly convinced advocate of the idea that peaceful co-operation between Russia and England in Asia was imperative and an opponent of all offensive plans in the direction of India. Establishment of friendly relations with England is not only natural but desirable; for, in the event of a rebellion against England in India, we should be on the side of the English. The twentieth century is bound to bring a terrible conflict in Asia between Christian and non-Christian races. For the good of humanity, it is imperative and necessary that in this conflict we should be on the side of Christian England against the non-Christian race of Asia."

Hiram Maxim may know what he is talking about when he says Britain's greatest danger in the future will be "from the air." In the meantime a good idea of the stir placed before the people at the present time may be truly classed as "hot air."

How are your New Year resolutions? Inact yet?

The Canadian post office handled nearly four million letters last year. The Grand Trunk Pacific's last letter at the Northwest when it took in two million bushels. And the officials of the road intimate that it hasn't even got all its milk teeth yet.

The King of Italy seems to be made of the right stuff. He and the Queen started right off to do what they could for the children suffering, and when some courier slipped that their presence alone would be enough to console the unhappy, he said, "Don't talk, nonsense."

The Nova Scotia coal output in 1908 was in the vicinity of six million tons.

There are nearly 5,000,000 subscribers' telephones in operation in the United States, or one for every eighteen persons in the country.

Out of 22,000 shareholders in Canadian banks no fewer than 13,578 are women. They at least are able to look after themselves.

That Philadelphia telephone "girl" who gets $200 a month salary from her wealthy husband can now say "hello" with great complacency.

San Francisco has a surplus from its relief fund of $397,267 on hand. It would be most appropriate to devote this sum to India at the present time. Francisco ought to know what it feels like.

A London cable states that it is estimated there that in 1908 over two hundred million dollars were invested in Canadian securities. That does not look as if John Bull regarded Canada as in the bad way with some politicians would have us believe.

BRONCHITIS

Bronchitis is generally the result of a cold caused by exposure to wet and inclement weather, and is a very dangerous inflammatory affection of the bronchial tubes.

The Symptoms are tightness across the chest, sharp pains and a difficulty in breathing, and a secretion of thick phlegm, at first white, but later of a greenish or yellowish color. Neglected Bronchitis is one of the most general causes of Consumption.

Cure it at once by the use of

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine SYRUP

Mrs. D. D. Miller, Allandale, Ont., writes: "My husband got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for my little girl who had Bronchitis. She wheezed so badly you could hear her from one room to the other, but it was not long until we could see the effect your medicine had on her. That was last winter when we lived in Toronto."

"She had a bad cold this winter, but instead of getting another bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I tried a home made receipt which I got from a neighbor but found that her cold lasted about twice as long. My husband highly praises 'Dr. Wood's', and says he will see that a bottle of it is always kept in the house."

The price of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is 25 cents per bottle. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pins from the trade mark, so be sure and accept none of the many substitutes of the original "Norway Pine Syrup."

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE

Commencing Friday, January 8th.

Everybody should take advantage of the Great Bargains we are giving. If you have not seen our bargains just ask your neighbor or friend, they will tell you all about the great saving you can always make at our store and particularly during our BIG CLEARANCE SALE. Remember you will be sorry the rest of the winter if you do not buy your goods now while you can save from 10 to 50 per cent, and it is certainly worth saving these hard times. Read over the list below, you will find something you are in need of.

My wishes are that all persons suffering with stomach or liver troubles will try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I will advertise him whenever and wherever I have an opportunity and I hope that at any time I can get the pills I will be fortunate enough to get the formula."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25 cents per vial or 5 vials for $1.00, at all dealers or will be mailed direct by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

And to any reader chooses he may find this entry in the reports made to the coroner that was trying to gain possession of the coal lands:

As for young Blanchard and the very valuable property he controls matters were in excellent shape and we had him going all right; but the fool got married.
