THE WOODSTOCK ELECTRIC MUDDLE

Still Up in the Air—Town Plant Would Work Hardship on Taxpayers—Here's Notes of Woodstock

Town election is over and the Public Utilities Board have given their decision on electric light and power rates. The whole business is yet up in the air. The Council are not satisfied with the rate for power and street lighting and are talking of putting in a plant of their own which is expected to do all their work at a cheaper rate. If the Town Council do not take power from the Woodstock Electric Light and Power Co., the rates for householders and local power users will have to be advanced at once in order for the Company to do business without too much loss. So while the average citizen will save a small sum in taxes he will lose a much larger amount in advanced rates for light. So for the town to put in their own plant looks to the ordinary non-partisan citizen like cutting off your nose to spite your face.

The County Council for various reasons refused a grant to the Agricultural Society here, evidently not appreciating the great advantage, both to the county and town, which a plant and yearly show of the kind pulled off at Woodstock gives, both in encouraging farmers to raise better stock and produce and in advertising. One excuse advanced was the fact that racing was carried on at the show. It seems now to be the general opinion of all show managers that a large successful show cannot be pulled off without the attraction of good racing. The Woodstock Driving Club go along smoothly and quietly. Their latest venture is the purchasing three more horses, two of them two-year-old colts and one stallion seven years old. Their horses are all bred in the purple and will be a great addition to the stock of the county. The club have had feelers out all winter and at last located what appeared to be a good prospect.

The genial Jimmie Gallagher was appointed by the Club to look over this horse and buy it satisfactory. He took Fred Cameron along as an adviser and body-guard. The prospect was not suitable but the other three were promptly located and looked to be worth the money in both breeding, speed and looks. Mr. Gallagher is home and Fred Cameron leaves with the three horses from Boston. The breeding is so good that every horse fancier will be interested.

Forbes Worthy, colt pacer, foaled 1922 by Peter Worthy, three year old, record pacing 2:00 1/4 and 2:10 1/4, trotting. Peter Worthy's dam was Lady Caleta 2:15 1/4 (dam of 4) by Peter the Great. Forbes Worthy has for his dam Alma Forbes 2:05 1/4, dam Crystal Night, also dam of Thistle Night, 2 year old record 2:14 1/4. Hillsboro Peter pacer, foaled 1917, two year old, record trotting 2:19 1/4, sire Peter the Great, dam Sue D., with a two-year-old trotting record of 2:08 1/4. Sue D is out of Todd and Calpe, dam of 3. This last horse has gone to the pace and is eligible to the slow classes. He has never been raced but shows some speed which is very natural considering his breeding.

A track has been prepared on the river at the upper end of town and the club expects to hold weekly races every Friday afternoon. There are quite a supply of ice speed horses and all outsiders will be gladly welcomed and given a chance to show their mettle.

Royal McKinney, the old ice king, and Moneyman will have their first battle next week. If the weather is favorable these ice races should provide a lot of sport. The meeting of the Circuit Delegates takes place here this Thursday when dates and classes will be arranged for the season. A large number of visiting horsemen are expected and a banquet will be given in their honor.

FIRST MEETING, NEW COUNCIL

Town's Budget for Year is $10,000—Street Extension

The town council for 1924 had its inaugural meeting on Monday evening, when Rev. E. W. Lester opened with prayer and scripture reading. Mr. Lester also gave a short address expressing his interest in the welfare of the town and his appreciation of the doings of the council during the past year. A request from the residents of Hillcrest for extension of the street was left with the street committee. Ald. White moved that the town pay the county $2448.69 on account, but Ald. Hatfield made an amendment that only $2000 be paid at present, pending the county's agreement to meet Hatfield gave notice of a by-law bill on matter of taxation. Alderman district of the town. The new boundary changing the water district and fire district of the town. The new boundaries of the water district will take in Hillcrest Avenue. J. B. McCollom and E. C. Morgan and H. J. Alton were appointed assessors for the coming year. After considerable discussion the general budget for 1924 was made up as follows:

County Drainage	$2400
Lighting	1600
Streets and Sidewalks	1400

Salaries	500

Hydro Commission Returns From Grand Falls Power Commission

Quebec is most friendly to New Brunswick in general and regards the proposed Grand Falls development with favor, was the impression created in the minds of members of the N. B. Hydro Commission in their recent visit to Quebec for the purpose of ascertaining the attitude of the Quebec storage for the Grand Falls development.

Hon. Dr. E. A. Smith, chairman of the N. B. Commission; Hon. J. M. Michaud, member, and S. R. Weston, acting chief engineer of the commission, who arrived in Quebec on Wednesday morning last, left Thursday night after several conferences.

A meeting was held with Premier Taschereau, Hon. M. Mercier, minister of lands and forests; officials of the Quebec Streams Commission, and Chief Engineer Lafleur of that commission. The impression of the New Brunswick representatives during the meeting was that Quebec will co-operate and on the whole the meeting was decidedly assuring.

The chief storage area, sought in Quebec by this province in Temiscouata Lake, which is 25 miles long and which, between low and high water marks, permits of a storage of 7,000,000,000 cubic feet without affecting any land about the lake.

The Quebec Government has the necessary legislation to give the required storage rights by order-in-council.

With the stream flow and Quebec storage, a development of 60,000 horse power can be attained at Grand Falls without creating storage in Maine. A feature is that the 60,000 h.p. is the most economical.

A NEW INDUSTRY IN THIS PROVINCE

Hardwood Lumber Demand Greatest in History of New Brunswick

The demand for hardwood logs in New Brunswick during the present winter is the greatest on record and greatly exceeds the supply. This is taken as an indication that lumbering of hardwood in this province is about to take its proper place as an industry. The fact of the demand being greater than the supply is said to be due to the attention of lumbermen in the past being chiefly devoted to the softwoods, hardwood being neglected except in a few sections where last blocks were made or small quantities of hardwood deal manufactured.

The Seaman-Kent Company, which has several plants for the making up of hardwood products in Ontario and Quebec, is taking large quantities of hardwood from New Brunswick and the crosscutting plant at Newcastle is also taking large quantities, chiefly for the purpose of turning out ties for the Canadian National Railway. Hardwood ties are new in this section of Canada, the softwood heretofore having been used exclusively. As the lumbering industry becomes more accustomed to handling hardwoods, development of the huge hardwood areas of New Brunswick will take place. Up to the present much of the timber has gone to waste on account of lack of demand and difficulty of hauling. Fuel for the heating of dwellings has been the chief use.

The Seaman-Kent Company was interested in a proposition to locate a hardwood plant at St. Leonard, both C. N. R. and C. P. R. strongly supporting the project. Plans were prepared and it is expected that this year the project will proceed another step.

MAY DECIDE ON POLITICAL ACTION

United Farmers of Carleton to Meet on February 16

Owing to the storm and the impassable condition of the roads the United Farmers' Convention for Carleton county was postponed till 2 p.m. on Saturday, February 16 to meet in the Farmers' Hall, Woodstock. Amongst the important business to be transacted will be the election of officers and a discussion of the formation of the N. B. Certified Seed Potato Growers' Association, including the marketing of potatoes, etc.

It is thought also that the question of the farmers in politics as a separate party will be considered. It is quite generally understood that the United Farmers in this county, now represented by Messrs. Smith, Tracey and Burlock, will not put candidates in the field in the provincial election, but that they will again nominate T. W. Caldwell, M. P. for the Federal House. In the local election, the two old parties will probably line up as in years gone by.

ALCOHOL SEIZED

(Edmundston Observer)

Congratulations to our local Customs Officers. We believe that we have in Officers Sirols and Dube two men who are on the job for the Government. Some small things may sometimes slip past them, but when it comes to the larger things they are right on the job.

Lately they seized at St. Hilaire 22 barrels of Alcohol which was falsely assigned to a local druggist. The value of this alcohol was $19,000. The goods were shipped from Baltimore and the car was traced from Baltimore to Frenchoville, the person implicated being Norris Margale. The officers mentioned above made the seizure, Messrs. Sirols and Dube. We congratulate these officers and hope that the Government officials have taken due notice of the promptness with which these men fulfilled their duty.

TREAT HEAD COLDS
WITH VICKS

"Never Had Anything Better," Says Ontario Man

At the first sign of a cold in the head melt a little Vicks VapoRub in a spoon. Inhale the vapors. Then insert some in nostrils, snuffing it well back. You will be delighted to see how quickly it helps to break up a cold.

Another way is to heat a tin cup, put in a teaspoonful of Vicks and inhale the vapors that way. At last the vapors lose their strength, throw out the melted Vicks and add fresh.

Vicks VapoRub, the discovery of a Southern druggist, is a combination in salve form of Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Turpentine etc. It is the modern, direct treatment for all cold troubles, the successor to goose grease, camphorated oil, liniments, poultices and plasters.

Mr. Thomas Bakewell of 83 Lincoln street, Welland, Ont., says: "I tried Vicks VapoRub and found it satisfactory in every way. As a remedy for a cold in the head I have never had anything better. I melted a spoonful and inhaled it and got immediate relief and was able to go to my work the following morning. I always recommend it to anyone I know who is suffering from a cold the way I did."

Vicks is the ideal treatment for colds—both for grown-ups and for children—because it avoids so much internal dosing. Just as good, too, for cuts, burns, bruises, stings and skin itching.

At all drug stores, 50c a jar. For free test size package write Vicks Chemical Co., 344 St. Paul St., W., Montreal, P. Q.

Though Vicks is new in Canada it has a remarkable sale in the States. Over 17 million jars used yearly.

REVIEWS OF RECENT BOOKS

Notwithstanding the flood of American so-called literature, and our verbal non-appreciation of native talent, Maritime authors still continue to make occasional forays into the literary field. Rob MacNab, written by Reverend Frank Baird now of Bedford, N. S., and published by the Royal Print of Halifax, is the latest Maritime production along literary lines.

Reverend Mr. Baird is a native New Brunswick, residents of Carleton County in general and Presbyterians in particular will recall that he was in charge of the Presbyterian church at Woodstock for a number of years, and many will no doubt be interested enough to read the book on that account, apart from its literary merit.

Rob MacNab depicts in fiction form the Scottish settlement of Pictou, N. S., the author states that his object is to carry out in a small way, for old Pictou, what Scott in a grand way did for old Scotland, and, in the reviewer's humble opinion, has succeeded admirably.

The book has many commendable features. The plot is interesting if not particularly strong, and if the book was written by an American and published by an American firm, Maritime readers would devour it as a work of genius. It portrays very clearly the condition under which the settlement was founded, accompanied by interesting sidelights, and the historical background is accurate and clear. After reading the book one understands the reason back of the saying that "every Scot at heart is a Jacobite." Not the least commendable feature is that the book is eminently "safe and sane," and the young readers will glean some valuable historical facts in reference to our own domain, coupled with high moral ideas.

Last, but not least, although the book is written by a Presbyterian minister about Presbyterians, the author does not commit the usual fault common to so many clerical authors. The Presbyterians who appear in the pages of Rob MacNab are not models of propriety, and there is no wonderful Presbyterian clergyman who is a plaster-of-paris saint. In one chapter a church meeting cannot be held because all the elders are alcoholically elevated; and while the Presbyterian clergyman appears as one of the characters, his picture is drawn along human lines, and there is no intimation throughout that the book was intended as a Presbyterian tract.

Taken altogether, the book is worth reading for two good and sufficient reasons—it is a Maritime book by a Maritime author, and is also a cracking good story apart from the local viewpoint.

Arrangements will no doubt be made for its sale and distribution locally.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

"The Last Moment" a screen drama adapted from one of Jack Boyle's Cosmopolitan stories of the same name, lost none of its thrills in its picture version. The strata from the social four strata from the social four hundred, to the rough stuff, found on the schooner to which the couple were shanghaied. The moral of the piece was, that the man who is fearsome and became ultra brave when the trying time arrives is a better man than he who knows no fear. Henry Hull and Doris Kenyon had the main roles, while a heavy character part was ably portrayed by Louis Wolheim. A Fox news and Harold Lloyd comedy completed the program. On Saturday the Fox Super-special "The Town that Forgot God," made an ample evening's program in itself. A Column of last weeks issue was devoted to this feature and those who read the extract and saw the film were satisfied that the latter bore out all the prognosis of the former. Don't forget to read the advertising for this week's picture on another page.

THE ELECTRIC TANGLE

In the matter of the application of Woodstock Electric Railway Light and Power Company and the Carleton Electric Co. for the approval of rates the Board of Public Utilities handed the rawest deal to the Carleton Electric Co. that ever was given to a new enterprise organized solely for the public welfare. Just why Woodstock town desires to knife the people of the county is not clear, but "the nigger in the wood pile" is not going to get away with his scheming. In a nutshell pressure was apparently brought to bear that made the Public Utilities Commission believe that it was quite the right thing to rule that the Carleton Electric Co. should furnish Woodstock with current at less than cost. The Commission seems to have an idea that Carleton Electric Co. and the Woodstock Co. are identical, when in fact there is absolutely no connection between the two except that one buys what the other has to sell.

The Carleton Electric Co. was organized by men of Hartland, Florenceville, Bristol, Bath, Lakeville and Centreville, and the only share holder who is also a share holder in the Woodstock Co. is Hon. F. B. Carvell. The object of the Carleton Electric Co. was not to make money in any sense except that its members as well as the public at large would profit by having hydro current brought to them. The Company seeks only a 7 per cent return upon the actual cash investment, but they cannot get even that. In fact, they will at once commence operating at a loss if the rates fixed by the Public Utilities Commission are to stand.

The town of Woodstock can thank the enterprise of the citizens of the villages of the county for the fact that they have all-day hydro-electric service and light at ten cents instead of a "hit or miss" service with light at fifteen cents. The people of the county solved the Woodstock problem and gave them electric current more cheaply than could be available anywhere else in the province except where the Musquash current is distributed.

The people of all the villages outside of Woodstock are well satisfied to pay twelve cents per k.w.h. for light, but they are not satisfied if they have to pay that price in order that Woodstock may get light at ten cents. It may be admitted that it is a greater burden for Woodstock to pay ten cents than for those who live in more prosperous communities, to pay twelve, but nevertheless the unjustness is there. It is interesting to compare rates for electric current per k.w.h. in the different towns of the province:

County Towns	.....12c
Woodstock	.....10c
Shediac	.....13 1/2c
Bathurst	.....11c
Sackville	.....18c
Moncton	.....11c
St. Stephen	.....20c
Fredericton	.....20c
Chatham	.....14c

It seems that Woodstock desires the whole of something for all of nothing. They want cheaper light! How do they get that way!

Readers who feel kindly disposed toward The Observer and especially toward the editor can render a great favor if they will phone or otherwise send in any news happenings that the editor may not know of. Every home in town can furnish one or several interesting items each week and it is The Observer's desire to record these things in order that the paper may keep its reputation of giving all the home news. Not only are there interesting items of people coming and going, accidents, marriages, births, deaths, fires, social events, but there are also many interesting things concerning the churches, the Sunday schools, the lodges and other societies, all of which would brighten these columns. The paper is not in a position to pay for the services of a local reporter and the editor, the busiest and hardest worked man in town, has not been able to leave the office except for a few minutes on two occasions all winter.

These are "The Prisoner," a screen version of George Barr McCutcheon's popular story Castle Crayne-Grow. #### ON SOME ADVANTAGES OF TRADING AT HOME

We chanced to drop into a furniture store one day soon after Christmas, and were forcibly reminded of the benefits and advantages of following the advice of the oft-told phrase, "Patronize your home merchant." It appears that a fond parent had purchased a sled at that particular store as a Christmas present for his young son, the boy having broken one of the braces under the sled the day after he had received it. The lad showed the break to the merchant who examined the sled, saying, "Faulty material, the brace is cross-grained. About the best thing to do is to give you a new sled," which he proceeded to do without charge. And the thought struck us, what if the man had sent out of town for the sled, would the outside merchant have made good? The chances are he would not unless the sled were sent back, causing additional expense for transportation charges both ways. Meanwhile the boy would be without his sled for a week or so.

It certainly does pay to patronize your home town in more ways than one. —The Aroostook Republican.

A PARABLE

Grand Whittaker said in an address in Washington: "My war experiences have done me good. They have broadened my mind. I am a writer rather than a politician, and we writers live too restricted lives."

"You know the story of Carlyle and his soundproof room in Chelsea. Carlyle had built a soundproof room for himself on the top of his house. The room had no windows, but only a skylight for illuminating purposes. To an elderly visitor from Oregon, the room was shown. Carlyle, and the visitor gave a cackling laugh and said: 'My conscience, this is fine! Here I may write and study all the rest of my life, and nobody'll be a bit the wiser!'"

Tough Luck.
His wife had followed him across to be a Red Cross nurse. During a bit of German strafing he fell wounded and was in several hours later in a field hospital. His wife was bending over him. "Ain't that just my luck, Jenny?" he murmured. "With all the pretty nurses there are over here to look after the soldiers I had to draw you."

NO SCORCHING

First Autolite—I was out in my new auto today and got arrested.
Second Autolite—Exceeding the speed limit, eh?
First Autolite—No, the blame thing wouldn't hardly go at all. I was arrested for blocking the traffic.

A Superior Mortal.
His style of dress shows some neglect. "He's not an overnice man. But, eh, I treat him with respect, because he is the toeman."

Married Again.
"I don't like to send out wedding cards," said Fluddub. "You know, I married the day after I got my divorce."
"I understand. Suppose you announce 'Under new management,' and let it go at that."

How Could Bridget Help It?
Misses—Bridget, I'm tired of your carelessness. Only look at that dust on the furniture. It's six weeks old, at the very least.
Bridget—Sure, it's no fault at mine. Ol' Ben has been only three weeks—Life.

Fine All Around.
"How do you like the neighbors in your new apartment house?"
"Best I ever had. We were anxious not to know anybody and everybody is evidently determined not to know us."

Not Altogether Unusual.
"The amendment to this bill is getting more thought and discussion than the original document."
"Well," inquired Senator Sorghum, "ain't it natch the same way with the Constitution of the United States?"

Succeeded.
Napoleon—I made a perfect fool of myself today.
Miss Keen—How nice! I was sure you'd make something of yourself if you kept on trying.

A MERE SUGGESTION.

Mrs. Goodwin—I wish to select a birthday present for my husband and I can't think of anything. He doesn't smoke or drink nor go out nights nor play cards.
The Salesman—Is he fond of fancy work?

Will!
"A rainy day sure gives me pains. I am worn out," murmured the subject. "And I'm used up each time it rains." We hear the old umbrella blubber.

Very Properly.
"How would you manage the march at night?"
"I'd perform it on an upright piano."

BREEZY BUDGET FROM BUSY BATH

Many Sudden Deaths Sadden Community—Business Asks Generally—Social Notes

The past two weeks have been epoch-making ones in the history of our little town, wherein dwell few "Knockers" and many "Boosters."

The latter, sane optimists, realizing that both old and young require healthful exercise and recreation and more over being strong believers in the maxim, "That all work and no play makes Johnny a dull boy" have been successful in establishing "The Bath Premier Open-Air Rink," with the result that many former corpulent citizens, strong advocates of the new reducing school of thought, have thrown their heart-breaking exercises and diets to the four winds, and even at this early stage are minus many pounds avoirdupois.

Snowshoeing, skiing and tobogganing have also its ardent supporters.

"Canada, the ideal nation of winter sports, is coming year by year into its own, as a mecca for winter tourists, thereby enriching the coffers of our country."

Of far greater importance, however, is the fact that our own people taking a more lively interest in exercises of the great out of doors, must necessarily result in a straighter thinking, a more robust and a healthier race of people.

Another important factor which must not be overlooked is the inducement afforded our young people to remain at home and thus lessen the exodus of young men and women, the cream of our country, to a foreign land. Such views are at this very time occupying the minds of our leading sociologists and social workers from coast to coast.

Although interest and enthusiasm in the social side of life is all that could be wished for, a gloom has been cast over this section by the very sudden deaths which have occurred in the country surrounding.

There are many who will learn with regret of the sudden death of John McAllister of Johnville, who was found dead on Saturday evening, January 26, in the yard of his home. Mr. McAllister had left the house, a short time previous to bring in some firewood and it was near the wood pile where he was found dead. Mr. McAllister was born at St. Thomas 55 years ago, the son of the late Daniel McAllister, who was at one time a school teacher in that place. The late Mr. McAllister when quite young moved with his parents to Johnville where he has since resided. He leaves to mourn two sisters and several nieces and nephews. Mrs. McGinley and Mrs. Hagan of Houlton, Me., are nieces. Mr. McAllister was a man of sterling worth and one who will be greatly missed.

The funeral, which took place on Tuesday morning from his late home to St. John the Evangelist church, where requiem mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. W. M. Donohoe, interment took place in the Johnville Catholic cemetery.

Another sudden death occurred in Rosine, when Leonard Bourke, passed away on Wednesday morning, after a few hours illness. The late Mr. Bourke complained on Tuesday evening of a pain in his head, which at the time was not thought to be serious. He leaves to mourn, four sisters, Mrs. Ezekiel Secord, Bristol, Mrs. Steven Gibson of Muniac, Mrs. Alpheus Grey of Hartland, Mrs. James DeMerchant of Beechwood; three brothers, Steven and Wesley at home and Richard of Upper Brighton. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon.

Many are they who will be grieved to hear of the death of Richard Wallace who passed away at his home in Perth on Friday last. A man of general disposition, he had a host of personal friends and acquaintances, all of whom extend their heart-felt sympathy to his widow, who was formerly Miss Esther DeMerchant, sister of James and Ezekiel DeMerchant of Beechwood; his daughters, Mrs. Alva Phillips, Bristol, and Mrs. Scott Darke, British Columbia, and to his sons Robert of Beechwood and James of Perth. Another son, William, predeceased him about two years ago. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. Interment took place in the Beechwood cemetery.

Miss Vera DeMerchant, teacher of the Upper Waterville school, came home on Friday to attend the funeral of her uncle, the late Richard Wallace. Misses Catherine and Ursula Bohan, accompanied by Thos. C. Bohan, spent Friday last in Woodstock.

Mrs. S. S. Slattery and Mrs. Addy who have been visiting Mrs. S. McDonald have returned to their homes.

Congratulations Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Tierney on Jan. 29—a son.

William Hoyt returned to his home in Andover last week after making a survey of the site on which the Soldiers' Memorial Drinking Fountain is situated. The ownership of the land on which it is erected had been disputed.

Hanford Kingston has returned from Fredericton after attending the conference of the branch managers of the firm of J. Clark & Son Ltd.

O. R. Betsy, Woodstock, was a business caller in town during the past week.

Masters Derral and Herbert Larlee, sons of G. S. Larlee, C. P. R. station agent, were joint-hosts to a number of their friends on Wednesday evening of last week.

Owen McCullough, who is attending the Florenceville school, spent Sunday here the guest of his uncle, Mr. John Dugan, Church Street.

Bill Hamilton, who was formerly employed in the C. P. R. station here, but who was transferred last summer to a western Ontario division, will be glad to hear that he is back again at work in Woodstock. Joe Campbell who also went west with him, returned and is stationed at Perth.

Miss Margaret Lynch met with a painful accident on Thursday evening at "The Premier Rink" when she sustained a badly wrenched ankle, tearing the ligaments and necessitating her to be confined to her bed for the next couple of weeks.

Mrs. F. M. Gibson spent Friday last in Woodstock.

The potato situation appears to be brightening in this town at least. The market during the past week has been steadily on the upward trend.

One produce firm, Bohan Bros. Estate, are loading on an average of from one to two carloads per day in order to make room for new stock.

On Saturday last, about 6 p.m. Hanford Craig, on the completion of his day's work, unhooked his team from a double sled and while leading one of the horses, a colt into the barn, the other following behind, for some unknown reason, the colt kicked, breaking the leg of the other, a valuable horse, weighing approximately 1400 pounds. Mr. Craig upon examining the injured member, saw immediately that nothing could be done to help it and in order to alleviate the poor animal's sufferings, procured a rifle and shot it.

Leonard Drost is the first this year to start ice-harvesting, having started on January 24, on the St. John river in front of Geo. Nixon's harness shop. He is now busily engaged supplying the needs of those who anticipate a hot July and a sultry August. The ice-crop this year is very clear and of exceptionally good quality.

T. Rankine Smith was a business caller in Woodstock last Friday. He returned home the same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nixon drove down from Perth on Sunday and were guests of Mr. Nixon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nixon, Main street.

That the sons of the Parish of Kent, who are now residing in distant parts do not forget their native heath, is evident by the letter addressed by former Councillor Michael Bohan, formerly a resident of Bath, and who represented this parish at the municipal council in days gone by.

Mr. Bohan advocates a system of organized dairies, poultry and egg circles and Boards of Trade in different towns, which should meet with the co-operation of both merchants and farmers throughout the country.

The letter of Mr. Bohan's contained excellent food for thought. It was not written with the idea of any gain or profit for himself, but was backed by years of observations made by him, during his travels through different parts of Canada and the United States and by which he had the opportunity to study and weigh the merits of different systems pertaining to stock raising, agriculture and business and their inter-dependence on each other. Mr. Bohan knows conditions. He has farmed. By trade he was a mechanic, lumbered and operated a saw mill and wood-working factory. For fifteen years he was a commercial traveller in different lines of business and is now proprietor of the oldest hotel in British North America, "The British-American Hotel," Kingston, Ont.

Miss Gertrude Connors returned on Saturday from St. John, after a very pleasant three weeks holiday spent with friends.

Grover Springer of the local branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia left on Thursday last for Toronto, he having been transferred to the Queen and McGill street branch in that city. His departure, although regretting his departure, are pleased to know that his transfer is in the nature of a promotion and wish him every success.

Mr. Young of the Chatham branch, arrived on Wednesday of last week, and will take over the position of teller, which Mr. Springer formerly held. On Monday evening a large number of those interested in the social welfare of our little town met in the Farmer Hall, and decided that they should again reorganize the dance club, which proved such a success three years ago, but which since that time had not received much support, due chiefly to so many of our young people having left for the United States. It was decided at this meeting to purchase a gramophone which should be suitable for dancing. On next Tuesday evening, it was decided that a dance should be held and that then the club would again be formally reorganized.

After the meeting was concluded an enjoyable dance was held. Those present included: Mrs. Leo Kearney, Mrs. James P. Burke, Mrs. G. S.
