Toronto's Industrial
Situation is Gloomy
Movement for Provincial
Eight-Hour Day.ONTARIO MACHINISTS VOT-ING ON STRIKE
QUESTION

TORONTO, May 3.—It is a very gloomy industrial situation which confronts Toronto at the present time and there is every indication that the numbers of the strikers will be greatly increased unless the parties are brought together in negotiation.

The men of the iron trades are out over 4,000 strong, and they are moving in every direction to extend the strike. The employers in the meantime are standing firm in their refusal to open negotiations with the metal trades council or consider their demands.

There is one bright spot in the whole business to date and that is the announcement of President R. C. Brown that many small firms have settled and the men are back to work and the announcement of Harry Kirwin of the marine trades federation that the Dominion Shipbuilding Company has introduced the eight-hour day.

To-day a special committee of the metal trades council is meeting with the executive council of the trades and labor council with a view to making plans to cover the whole province of Ontario, in a movement for an eight-hour day in support of the striking metal trades. It will also take the form of a Dominion-wide movement as well. The executive council of the trades council was given full power at last Thursday's meeting to go ahead. The plans will include the idea of a provincial-wide strike.

The machinists are gathering in the returns from the vote of their members and the provincial council will soon be in a position to decide on the question of a provincial strike of the machinists.

Belgium Dissatisfied
With Peace TreatyPREMIER ARRIVES AT PARIS
WITH PROTEST FROM BEL-GIAN SENATE.

PARIS, May 2.—The Belgian delegation to the peace conference is expressing dissatisfaction over the terms of the preliminaries for peace as they affect Belgium. None of the territorial claims of Belgium have been granted except that for Malmédy, in Rhineland Prussia, a short distance south of Aix La Chapelle, the population of which before the war was largely Walloon. Malmédy will revert to Belgium. The territory on the left bank of the Scheldt river and Maastriicht and the Limbourg peninsula are not mentioned in the terms.

Financial Terms.
Of the $500,000,000 already mentioned as an immediate financial indemnity for Belgium, more than half the amount has merely been placed to Belgium's credit in allied countries as part payment of war loans. No provision has been made for the recall by Germany of the six billion marks which were left in Belgium and now are lying in Belgian banks and vaults, bearing no interest and unproductive as the circulation of the mark in Belgium is not permitted.

"The amount of six billion marks represents virtually the total Belgian liquid wealth assets," said a member of the Belgian delegation to-day.

M. Delacroix, the Belgian premier, arrived in Paris this morning bringing a message of protest from the Belgian Senate. He conferred with M. Bismarck, of the Belgian peace delegation, who is expected to appear before the

Making SituationSoviet in Central Europe
Approaching Downfall.RUSSIA SENT AN ULTIMATUM
NEW YORK May 2.—The Associated Press to-night issues the following:

Aside from discussion by the Council of Three of minor articles of the Peace Treaty Friday in Peace Conference circles in Paris was quiet. Likewise at Versailles where the German delegates are awaiting the pleasure of delegates of the allied and associated Governments to hand them the terms of peace there were no extraordinary happenings.

With the controversy between Italy and the Council of Three still unsettled and the Chinese delegation reported to be disposed to protest against the award of Kiao-Chau to the Japanese, Belgium now is declared to be dissatisfied with the terms of the peace treaty as regards her territorial desires in Germany. Apparently no great attempts are being made by the Council of Three to bring about a reconciliation in ideas with the Italian delegates. The French Ambassador to Italy however has conferred at length with Premier Orlando regarding the situation and the development of events in Paris since the Italians quit the French capital and returned to Rome.

The Soviet movement in Central Europe seemingly is fast approaching its downfall. Munich sent of the Bavarian Soviet which was known to be surrounded by Government forces of Premier Hoffmann is report of a final victory to have been received. In Hungary the forces of King Ferdinand of Roumania with the monarch at their head are about to enter Budapest while Bela Kun, the Foreign Minister in the Hungarian Soviet continues to make overtures for a cessation of hostilities with Roumania and also by the Czechs Slovaks and Jugoslavians.

Wireless advices from Moscow asserted that the Bolshevik Government in Russia has sent an ultimatum to Roumania demanding the evacuation of Bessarabia. Forty-eight hours have been given the Roumanians to comply.

The Spanish Parliament has been dissolved by King Alfonso and new elections set for June 1, according to reports received in London from the Spanish capital.

A council of three to make representations concerning the terms granted Belgium.

Confirmation.
London May 2.—Reports received here to-night confirm the recapture of Munich by the Government forces.

A dispatch from Copenhagen dated Thursday says the Bavarian capital was taken on Wednesday evening. The dispatch adds that somewhat severe fighting preceded the victory of the Government troops.

The Empress of Britain sailed on Saturday for Quebec with 137 officers and 3,000 other troops.

The Chinese delegation to the Peace Conference have requested an official statement on the Kiao-Chau agreement which will be presented in the

Prairie Homes For the Soldier SettlersOUTLINE OF THEIR KIND AND COST.

TORONTO, May 3.—Plans have been completed by the Federal Soldier Settlement board for supplying standard houses to soldier settlers in the prairie provinces. Four types are contemplated, ranging in price from $3,000 to $7,750, beginning with a moderately convenient and comfortable two-roomed house, suited to the needs of a bachelor settler, which can be erected for $3,000. This house is 17 ft. 10 inches by 14 ft. and is so constructed that as the home needs of the farmer increase he can add to it without waste of material using the original construction. This house is called type (A).

Type (B) is merely an extension of (A), one room being added and a basement excavated. This building, which has dimensions of 24x14 feet, when completed will cost approximately $500. Type (C) is (B) with a portion of the roof lifted and an upstairs bedroom added. Total cost $700.

Type (D) is the same as (C) with the remainder of (1) roof lifted and two extra upstairs bedrooms added. The cost complete of (D) and two extra upstairs bedrooms added is approximately $775. This type of house will give the farmer living room, kitchen and parlor downstairs and three bedrooms upstairs.

If in the course of time he requires a still more pretentious home, plans are being prepared by the board for a wing, which will give him a much more commodious and comfortable structure. Great care has been given by the boards situated to combine cheapness of construction with utility.

Bad Weather Halting
Trans-Ocean FlightFliers Tackled Thing too
Early in Season.HAWKERS BEEN IN NEW-FOUNDLAND FIVE WEEKS

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld.—A carrier of adverse local winds was raised to keep the Sopwith and Martinique airplanes from flying. Conditions in mid-ocean appeared on the meteorological map as favorable to trans-Atlantic flight, but reports were received of divergences coming northward from the West Indies that should reach Newfoundland by tomorrow. As a result the "big hop" has been adjourned to the uncertain future. Hawker and Raynam are preparing for an indefinite delay in getting their great adventure under way, and they are almost ready to accept prognostications that weeks may elapse before weather offers them ideal conditions all the way across which they require before they will risk a start.

The pilots are beginning to understand that conditions they have been meeting here are normal for this season, and that they might have believed what they were told before they left England. Records show yesterday winds prevailing across the Atlantic are not to be expected before June and cannot be counted on before July. Odd spells of such winds, which have been exceptional. Hawker will have been in Newfoundland five weeks today. Raynam has been here three weeks to-day. Hawker has had but four days out of thirty-five on which he could have hoped to fare through, and on only two of those were conditions in the local area free of menace. Raynam has had but two chances to get away, and an entirely commendable discretion kept him on the ground both times.

Every day that passes offers new evidence of how ill-advised the backers of the two ventures were in seeking to attempt a flight at this season. All the aviators could find to do to-day was going over for the hundredth time the equipment of their machines. Hawker received calcium fares that he will carry for use as distress signals should he come down in mid-ocean. The fares are of the type that burns on water. At the Martinsyde hangar the morning was spent in wireless communication with the steamer Sackham which sailed this morning for Liverpool. The Raynors receivers picked up signals with reassuring clearness, over a distance of 80 miles. F. A. Pritchard, wireless engineer for the Marconi Co., who is in charge of the Raynor installation has been checking up among wireless operators of vessels making this port, on receipt of orders from Britain to watch for planes making trans-Atlantic flight and render all possible assistance to them.

Carter's strike at Montreal has ended. The men gained an established wage of from $18 to $20 per week, an increase of from $2 to $6. Miss Leonine Gravel, 28, is using Capt. J. Faubert, 70, in the Quebec Superior Court for breach of promise of marriage. Both are residents of St. Louis.

AT THE MARKET

There was an unusually large crowd at the market this morning, owing to the fine weather this morning. Potatoes were very scarce and sold at $1.00 a bag. One farmer stated that owing to the mild winter most of the farmers had sold their potatoes early which now makes a shortage.

Apples were also scarce, various prices were asked, the lowest being 30 cents a pail. Butter sold at 55 cents up eggs at 40 cents up. There were several loads of young porkers for sale, the prices ranging $11 to $13 each. Hay sold at $21 a ton. Maple syrup is still available at the market, (but it is a case of first there, first served. Honey was also for sale and sold at about 25 cents a pound.

Quite a crowd were drawn around a carriage in the market square, when a visitor was exhibiting some patent medicines. Some good tricks were pulled off which amused the spectators.

Several farmers when asked about spring seeding, stated that the land in most instances is too wet to work but several are already seeding.

There will probably be fewer farmers out next Saturday because the seeding operations will be in full swing.

THIRTY YEARS.

This afternoon the remains of Mr. Alfred A. Pipe were laid to rest in Mt. Hope Cemetery. The death of this well-known and popular citizen occurred in Chicago, on April 29, while he and Mrs. Pipe were returning home.

Owing to ill-health, Mr. Pipe had spent between three and four months in Chicago, in the hope that he would be able to recover it. Unfortunately the trip did not result as favorably as hoped for.

He had lived here for upwards of thirty years, having come from Guelph, to establish a coal and wood business. He possessed much ability and was accounted a successful business man.

Mr. Pipe was a son of John Pipe of Guelph, and a nephew of the Dr. Pipe who was the first mayor of the city. The Pipe family has resided in this community for two generations.

He is survived by his wife, as well as a daughter of the late James Potter, the founder of another respected and prominent family. A brother, James Pipe of Oregon and three sisters: Mrs. Anglin of Seattle; Mrs. Campbell of Guelph; and Mrs. Tolson of Walkerton also survive him.

Mr. Pipe was a progressive citizen and supported every good measure looking to the city's advancement. In politics, he early espoused the Conservative cause and throughout life remained a staunch member of this party. He was possessed of a sociable disposition and made and retained friends.

His funeral was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Rev. Mr. Langford conducted the services. The pallbearers were, Messrs: C. Kranz, R. Smyth, H. J. Sims, W. T. Barrie, A. C. Milne and Isaac Eby. His obsequies were attended by many friends, who mourn his death.

The community, wherein he lived for so long a period and occupied a prominent place, regrets his passing and will extend to Mrs. Pipe its condolences in her hours of bereavement. In this extension of sympathy, The Record joins.

Y. M. C. A. Campaign Launched

Capt. Best Gives Stirring Address.

As was to be expected at a meeting called on such short notice, the attendance at the town hall last night to hear the address of Capt. Best on Y.M.C.A. work was comparatively small but those who heard the talented speaker were more than delighted his address being listened to with great attention throughout. Capt. Best who has seen service in South African War has been in the very thick of the fight in France and Belgium and his description of conditions over there, of how the gallant Canadian boys right from the very beginning laid the foundation by their fine stand at the outbreak of the war, for the successful conclusion of the struggle, his description of the Battle of the Marne which proved the turning point in favor of the allies and of the wonderful work done by the Y.M.C.A. not only at the front but in England, on the transports, and on the railroads while the boys are on their way home, raised the enthusiasm of his hearers. Capt. Best laid great stress on three factors, that were directly instrumental in winning the war given preference to the British Navy, secondly to the spirit of Patriotism of the Allied Nations and last but not least to the Merchant marine. While the armistice has been signed there is still great work for the Y.M.C.A. to do. In the campaign last year the sum of $3,000,000 was raised for this purpose. This year only $1,100,000 was asked and of this amount $175,000 was set aside for the Dominion Council of the Y.M.C.A. A campaign would be inaugurated on May 25 to raise this amount. It was necessary continued the speaker and he felt sure the Canadian people would not forget the boys who had done their bit at the front and would not only raise the amount but would do the same as in other campaigns and go over the top. Before closing he made many touching references of the boys who sacrificed their lives in the terrible struggle and on taking his seat was loudly applauded. Before the meeting opened the boys of the Texas Club of Kitchener who were present in a body kept things lively with a number of college songs.

Mr. J.A. Harper was chairman of the meeting and at the conclusion of the address those present volunteered to assist in the coming campaign which will open on Monday next.

Waterloo objective has been set at $2500. Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock a mass meeting will be held in the Methodist Church the speaker for the occasion being Taylor Station National Boys Secretary who will speak on "The Canadian Boy in the War."

Ministerial Assoc. Regret Departure

At a meeting of the Kitchener and Waterloo Ministerial Association held recently the following resolution was unanimously passed:

The Kitchener, Ont. May 2, 1919.

Rev. Mr. Scott, D.D., Kitchener, Ont.

Dear Brother:—

Having learned that you are soon to leave the church which you have faithfully served as pastor for the past seven years, and our city, the Kitchener and Waterloo Ministerial Association takes this means of conveying to you its deep regret at your leaving, and of expressing its appreciation of the valuable services which you have rendered this Association, and the Kingdom of God is our city.

As an Association we regret your going from us, for we have come to value highly your kindly and helpful advice, your wise counsel, your brotherly spirit, and your readiness to assume your share in all responsibilities. You will be greatly missed in our meetings for you have been faithful in attendance, and your presence and help have been a source of inspiration and strength to us in the work of our Association.

We also regret your going because it means a decided loss to the Christian forces of our city.

We have appreciated very greatly your untiring efforts to promote a deeper interest in and study of the Bible among the Christian people of our city. Believing it to be the inspired Word of God, and "profitable for instruction in righteousness," you have labored faithfully to bring others to a greater knowledge of its teachings. The Y.W.C.A. of our city when some time ago considering the selection of a Bible teacher, to lead them in a course of study, very wisely agreed upon you as their choice, and both they and we appreciate the valuable services which you have rendered. We are sure that the lesson taught and learned will be remembered long after you have gone from us.

We remember the readiness with which you cooperated in the recent evangelistic campaign held in our city. Unflinching in your zeal, unselfish in your service, and thinking always of the spiritual welfare of others, your willing cooperation and "work of faith and labor of love" is counted as adding much towards the success of that campaign.

Your faithful ministry among us has been blessed of God, which is evidenced in part by the growth of your church. But your ministry has been blessed to many not of your church membership whose lives you have touched.

As you go from us we wish you God speed, and may His blessing, which maketh rich, and to which He addeth no sorrow, go with you into your new field of labor, and through life.

"Go thou thy way and I go mine, Apart, yet not afar. Only a thin veil hangs between The pathways where we are. And 'God keep watch 'tween thee and me; This is my prayer. He looks thy way. He looketh mine And keeps us near."

Signed on behalf of the Kitchener and Waterloo Ministerial Association: Wm. Parker, Sec'y.

HOUSING PROBLEM DISCUSSED

Action will be taken if situation warrants.

The special committee of the Town Council appointed to get information in regard to the advisability of accepting the Government offer whereby houses can be built the Govt. supplying the money at a low rate of interest met last night in conjunction with members of the Board of Trade when the question was thoroughly discussed.

It was pointed out at the meeting that there is a shortage of houses in Waterloo and at least 25 could be used at once were they built. Other towns are going whole heartedly into the matter and as the Govt. have set aside a certain amount of money Waterloo will have to move quickly if they wish to share in the allowance.

The question as to whether the houses could be rented or not was cleared up last night and on this question the committee are quite satisfied it can be done.

In another column will be found the names of the gentlemen appointed last night who will give any necessary information in regard to the proposition.

BOWLERS ORGANIZE FOR COMING YEAR

THE WEEKLY MARKET

Today being the first Saturday in May the market opened one hour earlier and as was the case last year one lone farmer was on hand to dispose of his produce. From then until 8 o'clock they came one by one and while the crowd of buyers was there at the earlier hour there was not the same congestion as on former occasions. Instead of being a detriment it seemed to improve conditions and while some may object there will be very little inconvenience. There was an abundance of produce offered and making its first appearance on the market were quickly disposed of. Butter remained firm at 58 cents per lb. while eggs ranged from 40 to 45 cents per dozen. Very few chickens were offered while all lines of vegetables sold at the usual prices.

Inspector Seized a Big Shipment

$2000 Worth of Montreal's Best

There again are mixed feelings at the city hall. The reason is evident. Two thousand dollars worth of the "best stuff" that Montreal can supply is in the cellar. How long it will remain there will depend upon the preference of the men of the License Department in Toronto.

Thirty - one "sugar - barrels" filled with bottles containing the liquid have been taken in charge by Inspector Winterhalt after efforts which cost him some loss of sleep during the last forty-eight hours. The seizure is the equivalent of one hundred and fifty cases.

Late Thursday night, to tell the story, the inspector on the byways and highways of the vicinity thinking that there were special reasons why it should be, sometime after eleven o'clock commissioned an auto and proceeded towards Breslau. Not so very far from the village his suspicions became so keen that he stopped a dray which was coming along in the opposite direction. His orders to halt and reveal the nature of the mysterious articles on the vehicle were complied with. And what was being so eagerly sought by the inspector was there before his eyes. He had the driver continue to stop during the time that he proceeded to investigate the source of the much desired liquid. Mr. Winterhalt continued his journey until were returned the winners. The Club also decided to admit all returned soldiers as members of the Club free of charge.

Mrs. John Ferguson and the Misses Watson were joint hostesses of the Waterloo Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society on Thursday afternoon in the School-room of the Church, which was prettily decorated for the occasion with Spring flowers and plants. There was a large attendance of the members and friends, who spent the afternoon in quilting for the Missionary bazaar for the North West. Delicious refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour much enjoyed.

I tell you this, as an example of the nerve of our Chaplain, who has been constantly on the front line since last July. I cannot tell you all he has done. When not on the battlefield, you will find him saying Mass, hearing confessions or among our boys. He is busy all the time in his office writing his reports, answering parents' inquiries and sending letters of condolence.

SUCCESSFUL DANCE

There was an exceptionally good crowd out last evening to the dance held in the Orpheum Hall and those who were present enjoyed themselves to the limit. Krugs orchestra supplied the music and no comments are necessary their playing being up to their usual high standard and every number. A special car conveyed the Kitchener patrons home after the dance which was highly appreciated.

THE WEEKLY MARKET

Today being the first Saturday in May the market opened one hour earlier and as was the case last year one lone farmer was on hand to dispose of his produce. From then until 8 o'clock they came one by one and while the crowd of buyers was there at the earlier hour there was not the same congestion as on former occasions. Instead of being a detriment it seemed to improve conditions and while some may object there will be very little inconvenience. There was an abundance of produce offered and making its first appearance on the market were quickly disposed of. Butter remained firm at 58 cents per lb. while eggs ranged from 40 to 45 cents per dozen. Very few chickens were offered while all lines of vegetables sold at the usual prices.

PRODUCTION OF MILK Recommendations Made as Result Of Survey

The almost painful question of the cost of producing milk has at last been thoroughly investigated, and answered very fully by the department of farm business surveys at the Ontario Agricultural College and the producers of milk at least. During the months of March and April, 1918 there was obtained by individual visit to each of 497 farms in Oxford County—which has for a long time been considered the best dairy county of the Province of Ontario—an itemized statement of the farm transactions, crops grown, live stock and machinery values with a view to determining the true financial condition of the dairy farming business; the cost of production of milk; the factors of the business that have the greatest effect in raising or lowering farm profits and in order to give suggestions for the most profitable organization of the dairy farming business based on the conditions found on the farms which showed the greatest financial returns.

Conclusions arrived at those in charge of the survey and the recommendations made by them on the strength of the findings are as follows:

1. That farm profits of the average farmer increase as the size of farm increases.

2. That many farms can be profitably increased in size by clearing and draining rough land.

3. That there are many opportunities for increasing profits without increasing the size of the farms.

4. That the greatest opportunity lies in increasing returns from live stock.

5. That this increase can be most effectively obtained by better breeding methods.

6. That an increase in crop yields brings greater profits, but only if accompanied by keeping up and improving the quality of the live stock.

7. That efforts should be made by dairymen to produce at least 40 per cent of their milk in the six winter months.

8. That the best organized farm business for the average dairymen is that which gives about 70 per cent of the total revenue from dairy cattle, and the balance from other sources, crops, hogs, horses, etc.

9. That the dairy business offers large returns for men specially fitted for specializing in high producing cows.

10. That the cost of milk during year of 1917 was $2.20 per cwt.

Canada's Future depends on BOYS

Help the "Y"
Construct the Manhood that will
Reconstruct Canada

OVER three hundred thousand teen-age boys are growing up to replace the wastage of Canada's man-power in the war, and to "carry on" as her future citizens. What work of reconstruction—financial, industrial, or commercial—is so vital to the nation as the reconstruction of Canada's Manhood!

Canada lost 60,383 men in the great war, and 156,799 men were wounded. More than ever it is important that the growing boys of this country be efficient, manly and be inspired with true ideals of Canadian Citizenship. Literally it is true that Canada's future depends upon her boys.

Nation-Wide Appeal

Red Triangle Campaign

$1,000,000 May 5th to 9th

In co-operation with the Churches the Young Men's Christian Association is extending its service to Canadian boys. The Y.M.C.A. is essentially an institution for boys, and a large proportion of its work since its first establishment has been with boys.

What the Y.M.C.A. is Doing for Boys

There are four phases to human development—physical, intellectual, spiritual and social. The Y.M.C.A., in close co-operation with churches and Sunday schools systematizes the development of boys in each of these four phases by what is called "The Canadian Standard Efficiency Training." A boy is "charted" and his development is noted periodically. His record helps the Y.M.C.A. to supply the training he needs most to bring him up to the efficiency standard. With his record chart before him the boy is inspired to improve the faculties wherein he is deficient and to make himself a "four-square man."

What Makes the Four-Square Man

PHYSICAL TRAINING of boys includes camp craft, health education, swimming, running, jumping, throwing, basket ball and other team and group games.

INTELLECTUAL TRAINING includes supplementary school or college work, direction of home reading, educational lectures, practice in public speaking, sex education, craftsmanship and woodcraft training.

SPIRITUAL TRAINING supplements and supports the work of churches and other religious bodies; it spreads the ideal of daily prayer and scripture readings among boys; it inspires interest in nature, in music, in things artistic.

SOCIAL TRAINING gives the boy an idea of his duty towards others, inculcates ideals of clean speech, clean sport, clean habits, teaches good citizenship and helps a boy choose his life work to best advantage to himself and to society.

The "Y" in High Schools

The Y.M.C.A. recognizes the great field for reaching teen-age boys found in the high schools, and is promoting the establishment of activities in that field. In the High Schools committees and "Boys' Cabinets" are organized and programmes put into operation to stimulate scholarship, inspire purpose, encourage clean speech, clean sport, and clean habits, to direct towards their true vocation in life boys who are "drifting," and to develop manliness and character.

Many boys are forced by circumstances to leave school and begin the battle of life before they are fully equipped. The

For Canada's Girlhood

The Dominion Council of the Young Women's Christian Association has to do with the supervision, promotion and stimulation of all the varied national and local activities of the Y.W.C.A., including the work of caring for the soldiers' wives and dependents coming to Canada from overseas. The Y.W.C.A. budget for Dominion Council purposes this year amounts to $175,000, and it is planned to set aside that amount from the total objective of the Red Triangle Campaign for the purposes of developing Y.W.C.A. work for Canada's girlhood along somewhat similar lines to those followed for boys.

The expenditure of the Dominion Council of the Y.W.C.A. comprises items for the promotion and superintendence of Immigration and Travelers' Aid, under which head comes the work of caring for soldiers' dependents on the boats and trains; the direction of local Associations in the cities; supervision of Y.W.C.A. girls at work on fruit and dairy farms during the summer; extension of Y.W.C.A. work into the Country districts, and many other forms of service for Canadian girls.

Y.M.C.A. wants to reach out to these boys by way of athletic meets, work-and-camps and social work in the industries, the shops, and factories. Problems such as gambling, industrial relationships, thrift, home relationship, sex education, etc., will thus be dealt with.

"Underprivileged" boys are those whose environment has been poor, boys who have had little opportunity for mental, physical, religious, or social development. The Y.M.C.A. wants to help these boys, by increasing their interests in wholesome sports and games, attracting them to the Y.M.C.A.'s and the Churches, inculcating in them and in the boys born of foreign parents, Canadian ideals of citizenship.

Red Triangle in Rural Life

The Y.M.C.A., in co-operation with the churches and other social organizations, is carrying the Red Triangle to the boys on the farm, the boys in the villages and small towns which lack Y.M.C.A. buildings and equipment. The Y.M.C.A. organizes these Church groups and others to carry on active work to interest, entertain, instruct and develop boys; trains their leaders and stimulates and supervises.

The Y.M.C.A., in co-operation with the churches, will hold conferences and camps this year to train leaders in Boys' Work, and in Canadian Standard Efficiency Training methods. These men will go back to their own communities equipped to "carry on." From 18,000 to 20,000 delegates will attend these conferences throughout the Dominion.

The "Father and Son Movement," by which fathers and their boys are brought together in sympathetic relationship is another branch of useful Y.M.C.A. work.

All Y.M.C.A. work is fundamentally religious, and by reaching the boys the Y.M.C.A. reaches men. Fifty per cent of the Y.M.C.A. work for boys is done in the churches and the proportion is growing.

Helps Boys to Choose Vocation

The "Find Yourself" campaign of the Y.M.C.A. has helped many a boy to analyze his natural abilities and circumstances so as to make the most of himself and his opportunities. A boy is examined and advised what he is fitted for and what amount of education, time and expense is necessary to attain vocations for which he may be suited. In that way he is helped to make an intelligent choice.

Help the "Y" complete its work for soldiers; help extend "Y" service to Canadian boys; help bring the Red Triangle to the Army of Industry and to Rural Canadian Life.

TOWN PLANNING AND RESIDENTIAL STREETS

On Wednesday next, the Railway and Municipal Board will convene here, to pass upon a city planning project prepared by the local Commission.

The plan to be submitted embraces a number of streets which it is proposed to open, widen or extend. Included in the list are:

Duke Street produced from Queen to Frederick St. and widened its whole length.
Margaret Avenue produced from Queen to Otto St., 40 ft. wide.
Mansion Street produced from Ellen to Ahrens St.
Holmer Avenue produced from Lancaster to Irvin St., across lower end of school grounds.
Elgin and Brubacher Street produced to meet.
Elgin Street produced from Pandora to Stirling Ave. and from Stirling across Menomonee Cemetery, along its easterly boundary, to East Avenue, (new).
East Avenue, (new), from King St. opposite South St. across Frederick and Mansion Sts. along La Grange and across G. T. R., by overhead bridge, to Spring St.
Spring Street produced easterly to River St.
Buehler Boulevard produced easterly to Lancaster St. and westerly across G. T. R. by overhead bridge to Waterloo St.
Guelph Street produced westerly to Margaret Ave., to Brunswick Ave. joining Schulte St.
St. Leger Street produced to Bridgeport-Waterloo Road.
Mutual Avenue, (new), from Devitt St., Waterloo, opposite end of Union St., easterly to Lancaster St. across Margaret Ave. and St. Leger St. produced.
New street across Mount Hope Cemetery from Pels Ave. to King St.
Pels Avenue produced easterly to Waterloo St.
Boulevard from Queen to Albert Sts. along south limit of Woodside Park, etc.
Cameron Street produced southerly to Courtland Ave.
Devonshire Street, (new), from Henry to Theresa, and Turk Street, produced to Devonshire St.

While granting that the motives of the City Planning Commission may be good and that it may force the day when the city will possess double its present population, we are unable to see eye to eye with it, and particularly so with regard to residential streets which have already been improved.

Duke Street, from College to Queen Street, for example, is a residential street, and as far as can be foreseen that portion of it will always remain a residential street. It would be advisable to have this street extended from Queen to Frederick and there would probably not be any serious objections on the part of the owners to this, but as for the other part, opposition is forthcoming.

In a number of instances good residences have been erected between College and Queen. They take a pride in these and are acting within their rights in objecting to having wide slices of land, and in some instances parts of their homes, cut off.

The owner of a lot cannot add thereto. Its dimensions are fixed and generally speaking unalterable. Even though the house were untouched by the proposed street line, he would object to having it squatted on or near the street boundary, cheek by jowl. The appearance of a property count heavily. Residences are usually located at or near the center of the lot, with a frame of lawn, adorned with trees, shrubs and flowers.

Were the Duke Street plan adopted, the greater number of properties would be damaged. It would be tantamount to ordering the owners to buy or build elsewhere.

When a citizen has a residential property, upon which he has expended years of effort and care, in moulding it to his liking, he becomes attached to it and would not willingly part with it, nor relish being told to transplant it on a disfigured lot. The promise of a sum of money in lieu of damages would not recompense him for the inroad.

Were those concerned less attached to their homes and to allow the plan to be adopted without protest, it is estimated that the property damages on Duke, between College and Queen Streets, would amount to $50,000. Seeing that the widening of the street cannot be viewed as one which would enhance the value of the affected properties, the ratepayers at large might have to bear the whole cost. Are they prepared to do this?

In the list of streets there are improvements recommended which merit adoption but providing we gauge opinion aright, the public is opposed to any general widening of residential streets, which would damage homes and their grounds.

Dead ends can, in numerous instances, be advantageously opened, giving through connections between streets. New roadways should be made wider than many of the present streets. These undertakings will be endorsed.

In proposing to widen Duke Street, the city planners may conceive that it will become a business street. It may subsequently do so, along that part on the south side from Foundry to Frederick and on the north from Queen to Frederick. But King and Queen streets will likely remain the principal business thoroughfares of the city.

Before King Street's mercantile space facilities have been exhausted, there will be a revival of the proposal to widen it. In doing so, the rightful sentiments attaching to neat, substantial and beautiful homes will not become an impediment. Owners of business premises may later perceive that it would be a painful procedure to make such an improvement, block by block, over a five-year period.

The residents of the streets named above would be well-advised to examine the changes affecting their properties and themselves; to discuss these changes with their neighbors and in every instance where reasonable objections can be taken, to appear, either personally or by proxy, next Wednesday afternoon, before the Railway and Municipal Board.

ACQUIRING THE GRAND TRUNK

In opposing the taking over of the Grand Trunk Railway system, that Bourbon of the Bourbons, the Montreal Star says:

The welfare of Canada depends upon healthy railway competition. The one great successful railway must have competition. The interests of the country demand it. But instead of strengthening the C. P. R.'s only competitor, the Government proposes to buy the Grand Trunk and run it by Government employees.

What competition can there be between a great company like the C. P. R. and a railway run by politicians who have to face an election every four years? Rates and conditions of traffic will become matters of political bargaining on the general principle of "The public be damned."

When the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme was launched, it was to cost thirteen millions, and was to prove a boon to the whole Dominion; a great revival of business. It has cost two hundred millions, is responsible for ten millions per annum of the taxes that are collected, and has now gone bankrupt. The Star and some other papers protested its building, but a clique of politicians forced the mad thing through by the purchased help of politicians.

There should be railway competition in Canada. There is, however, under private ownership, none. On the contrary, the railways have adopted common rates and compete only in service. Under public ownership competition in rates would be a probability.

The Star says the one successful railway must have competition. While pretending to argue for the public and set up competition, it is in reality contending that its friend, the C. P. R., be permitted to have no other rival than the weak, struggling C. N. R. and G. T. R. In essence neither the C. N. R. nor the G. T. R. had ever been serious contenders against the strong and wealthy C. P. R. Why it should desire to see these stay in the field is easily understood.

When the G. T. R. is acquired, it will not be operated by politicians. Though were it and the C.N.R. to be operated by the Department of Railways, it could not make a worse failure of it than the boards who have directed this pair of lame-duck railways. A bill has been introduced and passed the committee stage, forming a company, owned by the country, to take over and operate all the railways owned and to be acquired by Canada; and whose directors are to be chosen for their ability and experience; to be independent of parliament and to hold office for life, providing they make good.

This country would not have taken over the C. N. R. had it not failed to live up to requirements as a transportation company and fulfilled its financial obligations.

The country would be willing to have the G. T. R. and its Grand Trunk Pacific system, rehabilitate themselves, pay their debts and give the right kind of service to the public.

Canada, after lavishly aiding both enterprises, saw that they could neither beg nor borrow money from investors, with which to get on their feet; and having gone the limit in loaning them money and guaranteeing their bonds, had to step in.

It is estimated that the C. P. R. endeavored to buy both the G. T. R. and C. N. R. but public opinion was opposed to its securing a monopoly of the transportation business of Canada.

Governments have, in the past, like profligates, squandered money on private railway schemes. They were in many instances misled or over sanguine. Yet there are solid grounds for believing that the former C. N. R., G. T. P., G. T. R., National Continental and Intercolonial can be rescued from the ditches into which they have fallen, coordinated and eventually made to pay.

No one desires to see a parliamentary committee operate the amalgamated system. Their tenure of office is too uncertain. There can be no question of their being eventually placed on a sound and profitable basis, providing their management is placed into the hands of capable men. Get the right class of men and the success of the Hydro power undertaking will be repeated.

The Star's lament is not sincere. It is the servant of the big private interests of the country.

BY THE WAY

Instead of summer there is dilated winter.

The Baltimore Sun asserts that what the whole world needs is the fishing cure, claiming there is no other balm so effectual for strained nerves and wearied souls. No doubt that even where there are no fish, it would be beneficial to go through the motions.

The preference which Britain is to give the Dominions will apply to the following manufactures: Films, playing cards, beer, cider, clocks, watches, cocoa, preserved fruits, glucose, matches, motor cars, musical instruments, soap, sugar, confectionery, fruit, marmalade, condensed milk, milk powder, tobacco. Not an extensive list. Its importance lies in the adoption of a principle.

EXTRACTS OF EXCHANGE

A CONTRAST

Portland Oregonian.—Canada is paying its discharged soldiers a "war service gratuity" which amounts to $100 a month for married men and $70 a month for single men, for six months after leaving the service. This is in the form of continuation of pay, field allowance and all other allowances, and is in addition to provision made for those who come under the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment. Soldiers who require vocational rehabilitation receive this, and the war service gratuity is paid to them after this has been completed.

The United States meanwhile is discharging men without bonus pay or allowance. It tells them, in substance, that it is through with them. They have done the work expected of them. Now they may go out and hustle jobs.

The example of Canada is a complete answer to those who always find obstacles to accomplishment. It shows conclusively that the thing can be done. Peace came to Canada and to the United States simultaneously. Canada has acted and the United States has not.

The moral of the contrast ought not to be lost upon the American people.

Not A Deserter

He was very disreputable looking, uncleaned for like, and he was before the court.

"What is the charge?" asked the learned judge.

"Desertion," said the prosecutor, solemnly.

"I ain't a deserter," protested the prisoner, vehemently, at the same time removing a bandage from a black eye and displaying welts all over his head.

"I'm a refugee."

Four Good Lessons to Remember

First—Once your kidneys are affected, chronic complaints are sure to follow—if you don't remove the cause immediately.

Second—You can't neglect kidney or bladder derangements and stay healthy. Putting off will never cure. You must assist Nature.

Third—The symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble—the commonest symptoms—are: Pains in the back and sides, swollen joints, painful urination, back, dust deposits, and constant headache or dizziness.

Fourth—The sure and safe remedy for all afflictions caused by weak or deranged kidneys is Gin Pills.

Gin Pills have been the means of restoring thousands of chronic sufferers to health and strength again. If you suffer from kidney or bladder troubles—use Gin Pills. They seldom fail to bring relief.

Read what Gin Pills did for Mr. James Stackhouse, of Toronto. Mr. Stackhouse became convinced that he was in for an attack of kidney trouble. Although subjected to X-ray treatment, the cause could not be located. Finally he was forced to leave his work and go to a hospital. His place was filled by another, as he never expected to go to work again.

Five boxes of Gin Pills put him on his feet again, and to-day he is physically fit again and ready for work.

Under-Currents

By The Duchess

"Is there? Really? What?" demanded Griselda eagerly. She leans forward—what a blessed thing it will be for Vera if he can make good these words!

"Why, bless my stars, a man can't be in love with two girls at once, and the laws of the land forbid more than one wife at a time, and Darsart to my knowledge is as good as engaged to a girl in the north!"

Chapter XXVIII.

Sham'st thou to show thy dangerous brow by night
 When evils are most free? Oh, then, by day
 Where wilt thou find a cavern dark enough
 To mask thy monstrous visage?
 Seek none, conspiracy.
 Hide it in smiles and affability.

"What?" says Griselda faintly; so faintly, and with such evident agitation, that he turns a sharp eye upon her.

"Didn't you know it?" asks he. "No-o," says Griselda. "But are you sure?" "She is decided—eager to hear his answer, and a warm blush springs into her cheeks. That does it."

"What are you blushing about?" demands he abruptly. "What is it to you whether he is engaged to another girl or not? Or—with an ominous hesitation—"is it anything? Am I to learn that now?"

"Learn what?"

"You know very well. Your interest in this fellow Darsart is evidently deeper than you wish it to appear."

"Is that how you call him now? Why, only a moment since you alluded to him in the highest terms as your dearest friend. That fellow Darsart! Dear me, what has he done since?"

"Never mind what he has done, though to be paying his addresses to three women all at the same time seems to me to be about as low a thing as I ever heard of any fellow doing. Is that what you have done, you told him of your walks in the wood with me—of—"

"This is the second time you have accused me of being in love with my cousin," interrupts Griselda with suspicious calmness. "Now why?"

"Have I no reason to doubt you? Do you think I'm blind? The moment I said he was engaged to another girl, you went red, and—"

"I said red, not 'very red.' I really wish you could choose your language better," says Griselda, now growing hot within her. "Is that all? Is that your accusation?"

"Do you mean to deny that you betrayed no anxiety about it at all?"

"I certainly was anxious to know if he was engaged, not my own. Can't you see you could if you were not so bent on being rude to me—that if she could once learn that he was formally bound to another woman, she could defy Uncle Geoffrey and his plans? There are you satisfied now? Though why I take the trouble to explain matters to you at all is—"

"Griselda, let me speak. If you would only try to be patient!"

"Patient? Why, what do you call me? Just look at me. I really think myself that I'm an angel to bear with you as I do."

"Well, that's what I think you too," very humbly.

"I shall not stay here a second longer at all events. I'm going," rising to her feet. "Look on me for the last time, our acquaintance is at an end from this instant. Good-bye, Mr. Peyton. I trust to time to prove to you how cruelly you have wronged me by your suspicions."

"She moves away a yard or so, with so upright a gait that Mr. Peyton's soul grows weak within him."

"You must have a heart of stone to treat me like this," he says, in such a wretched way that she relents, stares severely at him as it to make sure of his contrition, and finally returns.

"Now before we begin," says she sternly, "promise me faithfully you will never do it again."

"I swear it."

"And you believe me to be the most trustworthy person you know?"

"You know what I believe you to be, an angel, worthy of all trust."

"And you acknowledge you have treated me infamously?"

"Oh, now really, Griselda—"

"Infamously!" in a relentless tone, "and that you are extremely sorry for it?"

"I'll say I'm a brute at once if you like," says he with deep resignation, "and I'm extremely sorry for it. But you like me, don't you, Griselda?"

"Ye-es," says she doubtfully.

"Well, you couldn't like a brute, could you?" artlessly.

"It appears so—since I like you, with uncompromising persistency."

"And I assure you, lovably. I should not have come back on any account whatsoever, except for my anxiety," with a withering glance at him, "to hear more of this engagement of Seaton's, that I may be able to tell it to Vera."

"It isn't so to speak—settled," says Mr. Peyton, who is looking rather crushed, "not given out, you know, but they are always together, he and Miss Butler. It is from Gracie I hear all about it, and she sees a good deal of both Seaton and Miss Butler. If they haven't arranged matters yet it hardly signifies, as their world have arranged it for them. That saves time and trouble."

"But? Miss Butler? I'll remember that well" drawing a long breath. "I do think men are the most perfidious wretches upon earth."

May Day witnessed a strike of three thousand men in Ottawa in the building trades, and some fourteen hundred shipbuilding workers in Halifax; otherwise little labor trouble was experienced.

Girls! Use Lemons!

Make a Bleaching,
 Beautifying Cream

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost of one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream.

Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months.

Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is simply marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

Comb Sage Tea in Faded or Gray Hair

If Mixed with Sulphur it Darkens so Naturally Nobody Can Tell

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost.

This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Balanced Value

Value, as represented in Gray-Dort Motor Cars, is a union of good qualities.

Strength that means faithful service, free from trouble, yet sacrificing nothing of the lightness so essential to economy.

Beauty unquestionable, that yet allows for every essential of good engineering. Comfort, too, both in riding and driving.

And then a price kept surprisingly low by factory efficiency and big production.

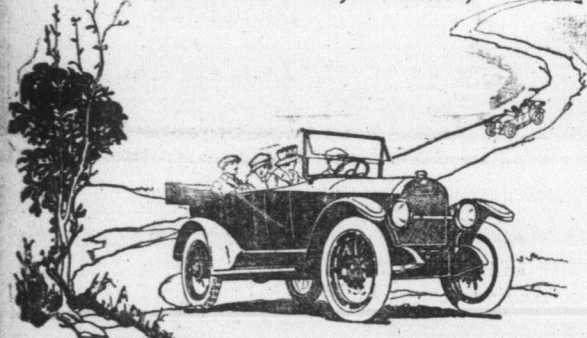

You need in your car ALL the qualities the Gray-Dort has. And probably you need nothing more. Certainly you can get nothing more without paying very much more. The touring car is $1245; the Gray-Dort Special—the car with added refinements and extra equipment, is $135 extra; there are also a coupe and a sedan. All prices f.o.b. Some Methods Dealers Use To Help You Pay For Car

Assistance of Guaranty Corporation Is Employed by Many Companies and Buyer Not Burdened With Providing Security

By Glad

The question of financing the purchase of an automobile has become greatly simplified during the past year so that the purchase of a car by the average citizen is almost as easy as the proverbial roll from a log.

Many dealers in Ottawa now employ the assistance of a guaranty corporation to facilitate motorcar transactions. This helps both the buyer and the dealer. A commendable feature of the plan is that the new car owner is not burdened with the necessity of providing security in case of a "time sale" and of securing insurance on his car for the first season—up until the time that the automobile becomes his absolute property.

Schedule Worked Out.
A schedule of fixed charges has been worked out so that the customer is required to pay only a small percentage for the "service". There is no interest on deferred payments and there is no charge for collection, brokerage fees, investigation fees or legal expense. The one charge under the guaranty plan cover all of these former annoyances and, in addition, insurance against fire and theft is bought and paid for by the guaranty corporation to cover the motor vehicle for one full year.

A customer may choose to pay, for example, forty per cent. of fifty per cent. of the value of a car in the first cash payment. If he is buying a Chevrolet, he can arrange to pay one third down and the balance in four, six, eight or ten months. If he chooses to take advantage of the limit of time, ten months, then the guaranty charge, which he must pay in lieu of interest, insurance and the usual fees for the transaction, will amount to $38.10.

If the man who buys a Chevrolet pays down fifty per cent. of the cash price of the car and chooses to pay off the balance in four months the one and only charge is only $60.38. In buying a Ford car, is the purchaser pays down one half of the cash price and arranges to pay the balance in four months, the one charge amounts to only $37.39. If he takes the ten months, the charge becomes $43.23.

Makes Cash Sale.
The dealer who sells under the guaranty plan enjoys the benefit of receiving a payment from the corporation amounting to the total cash price of the car, thus he is practically making a cash sale. The customer gets time and pays the one charge for the time and other details. The customer of course, is required to buy his own Provincial license.

and it is also invariably the rule that the customer must pay the freight on the car from point of manufacture or main point of distribution in Canada. Cars which sell from $350 up to $4,499 may be bought with the assistance of the guaranty corporation's plan.

Commercial motor vehicles are sold under the same arrangements as passenger cars with the exception that the insurance for trucks covers liability for collisions in addition to protection against fire and theft. In the case of both passenger cars and motor vehicles eighty per cent. of the total value of the investment is covered in the protection against fire.

Payment in Ten Months.

In all cases full payment of the price of a car is required in at least ten months and the balance must be paid off in equal monthly instalments. This is a practice that is followed by nearly all dealers whether use is made of a guaranty company plan or not. Nearly all dealers want their money in less than one year and they invariably ask that it be paid in equal monthly instalments after the first cash is paid down. The average monthly payment is generally about $50 when a medium priced car has been bought. If a man buys a Ford or a Chevrolet, he will be able to pay the balance in monthly instalments of about $33 if he takes the ten months to provide the balance.

A number of financing companies are able to finance their own transactions but they follow a plan which is quite similar to the one provided by a guaranty company. The buyer pays from a third to one-half down and the balance is monthly instalments, the whole to be paid inside of a year. The company not using the guaranty plan will charge interest at the current rate on the balance. The buyer signs a note for the whole balance and as he makes a monthly payment a new note for the less amount will be made out to be signed. He pays the interest as he goes along.

Easy For Steady Income.
It is comparatively easy for a man with a steady income or who can show reliable security to buy an automobile on time. Buying a car to fit the pocketbook is the most important detail to be watched by prospective owner himself. The prospective purchaser must also remember that he will have gasoline and oil to buy during the time that he is paying off the balance on his car, but this is not an expensive item. Money that he would pay for street car fares or train tickets will probably cover the cost for gasoline and oil and more besides. The new owner gets all the important advantages to be gained through the use of a car in the mean time as well. If he is a business man, he probably finds that his work capacity is increased easily 50 per cent. If he uses the car for family transportation, he will find that the car will bring contentment to the wife and kiddies increase health to the whole family, and a far more enjoyable existence. An automobile has become a great utility—it is adaptable to all purposes and is always ready, day and night for any transportation need. No exact valuation can be placed on the usefulness of the modern automobile.

Companies Help Greenhorns.
Practically all automobile companies will look after the early mechanical needs of a motorist providing assistance is required. Slight adjustments, correction of mechanical details, instruction in driving and the maintenance of a car are all made or given by the dealer or the automobile company without fuss or quibble during the first few months that man is driving a new car. Some companies have worked out a service plan whereby they promise to give without charge, so many hours of mechanical assistance to a new car owner. There are many new drivers, however who are seldom seen in a salesroom except when they want to fill up with gasoline or to make their monthly payments.

The automobile owner who really takes care of his car seldom has any difficulties even at the start. New cars should not be driven faster than 20 miles per hour for the first 50 miles and plenty of grease and oil during the first 500 miles will also save a lot of trouble.

Superdrednought Tennessee, 32,000 tons was launched at the New York navy yard. When completed it will cost $15,000,000.

MOST ACTIVE CYCLING SEASON IN YEARS.

One of many indications that the bicycle is now classed in its proper place is the fact that bicycle racing is now a popular feature in many cities of Canada. The riders are also much interested in bicycle runs and tours once more, while decorated wheel competition is another feature that is now seen in many cities.

With war worries a thing of the past many cities are planning to have bicycle racing and touring events, and it is apparent that there will be more of the wheel sport this year than for many years. The wheeling activities are really taking their place among the big post-war revivals of the sporting world, and many newspapers have already been devoting considerable space to the subject of bicycle outings and contests this year.

Vancouver, B.C., enjoyed the distinction of staging the first bicycle races of the season when they were held at Brockton Point Track in April as a benefit for returned soldiers. The next bicycle sport was scheduled to be held at Ottawa, Ontario, where a big revival is in evidence. This consisted of a series of bicycle track and road races on Saturday, May 10.

Winnipeg, Manitoba, promises to hold a real bicycle road race on May 24, while races are also scheduled for Toronto on the May holiday. Brantford has planned to hold a series of weekly twilight races throughout the season, while Montreal enthusiasts also propose to stage a number of events.

There was real competition this year for the National Championships of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association, which were awarded for the duration of the war. London, Ontario, has secured the National meet and it is promised that it will be so attractive that many United States riders will try their luck against the Canadian speed specialists. The titular meet will be held on July 1st.

Other championship races are to be held at Ottawa, probably in August, the C.W.A. having awarded a number of titular events to the Capital at its thirty-ninth annual meeting at Toronto. Orillia, Ontario, Kingston, Windsor, Chatham, Woodstock and Brockville will also be the scene of bicycle races this year, according to present information. Many cities of Canada will confine their attention to bicycle runs and parades, however, because of lack of facilities and experience for the staging of races. These outings will go a long way toward demonstrating the health-giving and practical uses of the silent two-wheeler.

The War Magic, sister ship to the War Fiend, which has landed a cargo of Canadian grain in Sicily, was launched at Midland.

SOLDIER SWEARS BY THE BICYCLE.

Dallas, Texas.—The following story comes from across the seas, expressing the sentiments of a returned soldier who had been a member of an English Cycle Corps since the beginning of the war.

"I have ridden, driven, swam, boated, sailed, steamed, tobogganed, skated, climbed and walked. I have had under my hands some of the sweetest things in cardom, and I have also had a decent car or two of my own. But I swear, hands up, that there is no movement-sensation in the world of things as they are which compares with a good bicycle, one that fits the rider, ridden by anybody with an open mind, a clean tongue and a free shank."

"That's why I advocate the use of the cycle all the year round, by old, middle-aged or young of either sex."

AUTHOR LIKES BICYCLES.

Robson Black, of Ottawa, Ontario, an author and writer of some prominence in the Dominion, is an enthusiastic cyclist. He became sickened of street car service, and resorted to the use of a bicycle as a relief from the struggle and annoyances of trolley transportation. The result has been that he has become a staunch believer in the benefits of cycling.

SAVES SPORTSMAN'S TIME.

Rae Halliday, of Ottawa, is one of the most prominent sportsmen of the Canadian Capital. Halliday decided to buy a bicycle this year as a means to health, exercise and utility. He bought the best bicycle obtainable, and is now an out-and-out bicycle enthusiast. The first thing that he discovered was that he could cut the time required for his journey home from twenty-five minutes to twelve minutes, and he is now able to go home for a real lunch each noon with ease. The street cars carried him through the busy section of the city, and the cars were always crowded. With the bicycle he has found a short cut along one of the Capital's famous thoroughfares, and he is able to enjoy the scenery as well as the fresh air on his trips back and forth four times each day. Halliday's one regret is that he did not decide to make use of a bicycle many years ago.

THEY BOOST CYCLING

Canada is credited with having the largest bicycle trade organization in the whole of North America in the Canadian Bicycle Dealers' Association, Ontario Section. This organization is made up of many dealers throughout the Province of Ontario, whose aim is to do all in their power to increase the advantages of cycling for all riders. The Toronto branch of this association won the highest honors last year in a competition among all dealers of the United States and Canada for the best "boosting" of cycling activities. Incidentally, the idea of holding a National Bicycle Week originated in Canada. This is the fourth year for a "Bicycle Week" in the Dominion, while in the United States the wheelmen are having their third annual Bicycle Week this Spring.

WHOLE FAMILIES RIDE.

The "bicycle" is quite the vogue. In a number of Canadian cities there are many families each member of which is a cyclist. A father or a son has started to use a wheel for business or other purposes, with the result that other members of the family have also quickly adopted the bicycle. The sale of three, four and five bicycles to one family was not infrequently reported during 1918. A man or a woman walks into a bicycle store and declares that it is the intention to buy bicycles for each member of his or her family. Questions follow, and it is found that the family has studied the subject of cycling through the use which has been given to it by some relative or friend. The conclusion reached is that the bicycle is just the thing for utility, health and pleasure.

IN CLASS BY ITSELF.

Nothing has been discovered to take the place of the bicycle. It is in a class by itself, and it is probable that nothing will ever be discovered to replace it. For general use, for business purposes, for exercise, for sport, for outings and for economy there is nothing that fits quite so easily as a bicycle. Its value was proved quite a number of years ago, but it is a truthful statement that its worth has never before been admitted to such an extent as at present. War demands have something to do with the recognition accorded the simple bicycle, and now that the fighting days are over, the wheel has become still more popular. The world will never be able to do without the reliable and inexpensive bicycle.

"It's Either a 'Dunlop' or an Imitation!"

That phrase came into dealers' minds through the coming of other bicycle tires. As "Dunlop" were the basic tires, naturally other tires had to be more or less patterned after the original. But no man living can make a pattern of Quality. You can still get the "original" tire with its wealth of unmatched features. Why buy the imitation—the experimental tire?

Night-Time Time-Pieces

THE movement for the electric clock in the Toronto City Hall was brought over from England 21 years ago. It cost thousands of dollars. And it showed time in the dark.

About the same time very wealthy men were carrying in their pockets another kind of a time-in-the-dark time-piece—a watch that sounded the time for them on a tiny gong when they "pressed the button." This striking watch was known as a "repeater" and cost from $150.00 up.

Now you can buy a guaranteed Ingersoll Radiolite, the modern time-in-the-dark time-piece, for as low as $3.00. Instead of the old exasperating striking mechanism to sound the time, the Ingersoll Radiolite glows the time. Genuine radium in the substance on the figures and hands does it.

It's the watch for up-to-the-minute-men, the leaders, the kind of men who get things before the crowd knows they are a necessity. The retailer has a complete line, including the $3 model pictured above. Now is the time to select. Look for INGERSOLL on the dial.

LAUNCH GIGANTIC LUMBER COMPANY

British Columbia Enterprise to be Conducted on a Colossal Scale.
Victoria B. C., April 30—What is undoubtedly the most gigantic lumber enterprise ever conceived and a scheme that is fraught with tremendous possibilities in the development of the British Columbia lumber industry, is about to be launched by a syndicate headed by Percy Furber, president of the Mexican Oil Field Co. of New York and John Arbuthnot, financier, well known in this city. This syndicate will be known as the Furber Lumber Company and the operations of the syndicate will be conducted on a colossal and world-wide scale.

Orders have already been placed with the syndicate by British interests to deliver 30,000,000 feet of lumber, which, in the event of a satisfactory agreement being reached on purchase price with the sawmills and lumber manufacturers will be supplied by British Columbia mills.

COP IS CUPID'S AIDE

William Russell in "Brass Buttons" plays a part that gives all the room in the world for the display of mental "pop" muscular punch and those irresistible sunny smiles of his, which seems to set the wedding bells a-tinkling with the very first look into "her" eyes.

In this latest release, produced by William Russell Productions for the American Film Company, he borrows the uniform of an accommodating policeman in order to woo The Girl, having been told she is a lady's maid. How the uniform gets him into a lively scrap with an ugly gunman; how with its authority, seconded by his original methods, he cleans up a lawless western town in less than twenty-four hours; how he manages his trip to the altar and then breaks up the wedding in order to dodge a supposed assassin—these are only a few of the thrilling happenings that are crowded into the five reels of fun and romance.

Here lovely Eileen Percy again plays opposite Russell. Their excellent team-work will prove a joy to you when "Brass Buttons" comes to the Star Theatre next Thurs. Fri. Saturday.

THE POPULAR COP

Ever hear the story of the man who, after chasing a scared visitor over the asylum grounds for two hours, was found to be merely playing "tag"? A brand-new version of that mind-boggling situation furnishes the tag to William Russell's latest feature play "Brass Buttons". You'll enjoy it hugely when you see it at the Star Theatre on Mon.

Russell looks handsomer than ever in the uniform of a New York "cop" assumed by way of carrying up a friendship with a pretty girl whom he has glimpsed in a Fifth Avenue crowd and followed home. He thinks her a lady's maid, whereas in reality she is the maid's ady. She thinks him a policeman, although he belongs to the city's smartest set. However, each finds the other wholly delightful, and both think hard about wedding long before the chapter of revelations is resolved. You'll enjoy every inch of the courtin'.

Eileen Percy is the maid "with hair that would make a hole of fine

DOROTHY GISH IS DIFFERENT
YET ALL ALIKE ADMIRE HER
Famous Paramount Star to be
"The Hope Chest"

To be different from any one else in the world and still to be liked by every one who knows you is the desire of Dorothy Gish who will be seen in a picture of Mark Lee Luther's book, "The Hope Chest" at the Allen Theatre Mon. Tues.

Miss Gish has created every part of importance she has ever played. She finds things to do that are original, funny, and highly entertaining. Her every action is something that has never been seen on any screen at any time, and she has a new way of doing everything that is done on the stage.

While at work in the studio she is a constant source of surprise to every one around her. If she is not "cutting up" with the director or playing tricks on some one she is sitting in some secluded corner figuring out the next move that will bring a round of laughter from the company or in many cases at her own expense.

Her director, Elmer Clifton, says he never knows what she is going to do next, and she very enthusiastically agrees with him, and says she doesn't either. Her work on the screen is spontaneous, most of it entirely different from the way it was rehearsed and every bit of it is natural.

In "The Hope Chest" Miss Gish has a delightful role, and her support is made up of picked players from the David W. Griffith studio, George Fawcett, the veteran actor has an important part while Richard Barthelmess plays opposite to the star.

SPANKED ONE OF LEE CHILDREN AND THEN WISHED SHE HADN'T

If one scene of "Smiles" the new comedy which will be shown at the Theatre next Monday, Tue. Wed. Jane and Katherine Lee, the juvenile William Fox stars have a great time, dressed in overalls, washing a dog in a bathroom. They make a fine mess of the place and their housekeeper comes in and begins to chastise them.

While making this photoplay Director Gillstrom released the scene mentioned and during the rehearsal Jane felt quite a smack on the rear of her overalls. There was a wait before the scene was filmed. Jane disappeared.

"All right," said Director Gillstrom. "Let's make the scene now."

Jane had returned and she and her sister began rubbing the soap-suds over the dog. In came the housekeeper, and as a matter, shook the children well, then took her hand off Katherine to wallop Jane. Katherine ran and the woman according to direction shipped the rear of Jane's overalls good and hard. The women cried "Oh," and assumed a position of indignation.

"Fine," called out the director, "Fine," cried the women. "What do you mean, Mr. Gillstrom? I nearly broke my hand."

"Why did you hit so hard, then?" "Hit so hard? Why that youngster has a horsehoe in her overalls!"

When they found Jane she was rolling on the floor in laughter behind one of the sets.

JANE AND KATHERINE LEE IN A MILE OF "SMILES"

Another fine comedy drama has been booked by Manager McCutcheon for the Star. It is called "Smiles," and has as its stars those popular funmakers, Jane and Katherine Lee, known as the fox Baby Grands.

It will be shown for the first time at the Star Theatre on Mon. and will be continued for 3 days. The things these popular children do in "Smiles" is said to be the best of any father and mother and will make the youngsters roar with glee. In this play Jane and Katherine have added a four-footed humorist in the shape of a dog. They make the animal do tricks as funny in effect as their own.

The picture is said to be not only exceedingly clever as a story, but beautiful in its scenic effects.

ARBUCKLE'S NEW COMEDY IS "LOVE"

Fatty Said to Provide Great Fun in Latest Film

Fatty Arbuckle, whose new Paramount comedy "Love" is announced as an entirely new and original vehicle, will be seen in that production at the Allen theatre Wed. Thurs. The title itself suggests infinite possibilities, for what may not be expected of the genial Fatty when laboring under the wounds inflicted by Cupid? It is safe to say that if love every had a funny side it is adequately presented in this comedy. And it has a distinctly beautiful side, too, because Winifred Westover, one of the most delightful of ingenues is cast for the leading feminine role.

The story is by Mr. Arbuckle and Vincent Bryan. The comedian directed it himself, and it was made at the new Paramount-Arbuckle Studios in Los Angeles, wherein the star has lately been fastidiously comfortable. The plot of "Love" is completely away from any of the preceding Paramount-Arbuckle comedies and presents the heavy-weight laughmaker in unfamiliar but wholly amusing situations and with incidents enough, it is declared to keep everybody interested in to the last foot of the film.

RUSSELL'S BIG KNOCKOUT
After all, there is nothing like a muscular demonstration when arguing with an unreasonable person, and "Big Bill" Russell, who is a prime mirth-provoker and whose either "right" or "left" is a prime sleep-producer is surely some "arguer". Which means that he is in the pictures for laughing and loving and that, outside of his athletic work on the screen, he has a job with other first which enables him to membership in the champion class.

But the knock-out in "All the World to Nothing" is not the result of a scuffle, but of an ingenious turn of an extraordinarily clever story.

It ranges in a single character from the spendthrift life of a young millionaire to the cheerful driving of a coal wagon; and, through all of its contrasting emotions and unexpected phases, Mr. Russell brings a convincing character.

And the Girl? She is unlike any other girl that you have seen in films romance—not unusual in the fact that she finally loves a big handsome fellow but from the fact that, in the very beginning, she marries a burglar whom she had never met before.

The character is played by Winifred Westover who, with Mr. Russell, furnishes an unusually clever entertainment. "All the World to Nothing" will be shown at the Roma Theatre on Thursday.

THE AMAZING WIFE

Mary McLaren "The American Beauty of the Screen" returns to the Roma Theatre Mon. only in her latest Universal Special, "The Amazing Wife." Those who saw this popular star in "Breed" and "Creaking Stairs" are promised another photoplay of equal interest.

"The Amazing Wife" as might be imagined in Miss McLaren who plays the part of Cicely Osborne. Cicely, the widow of an arduous murderer in a coherent brawl is on the verge of starvation when she reads the name of another man of the same name as her husband, John Ashton, has been killed in action in France.

This Ashton was a lieutenant, the son of wealthy parents. Driven by want, Cicely passed herself as his widow and is accepted by his parents. The complications arise when Lieutenant Ashton returns, the news of his death having been an error. These lead to a big climax in which Lieutenant Ashton despite his wounds, fights his cousin in defense of his wife's honor.

Idly May Park directed the picture and wrote the scenario from a story by Elmore Chipp. In the cast are Frank Mayo, Stanhope Wheatcroft, Ethel Lynne, Seymour Zelliff, Joseph W. Girard, Charlene Seelynn and Molly McConnell.

IN THE MATTER of the application of the Board of Park Management of the City of Kitchener, under subsection (6) of section 13 of "The Public Parks Act" (Chap. 293 R.S.O. 1914) for the approval of its By-law No. 16 passed the 25th day of April, 1919 to set aside a further portion of Victoria Park for Athletic purposes at which an admission fee may be charged such portion being composed of part Lot 17, German Company Tract, of the Township of Waterloo, now in the City of Kitchener, containing by measurement 38-100ths of an acre and being more particularly described in the said By-law No. 16.

COP IS CUPID'S AIDE
William Russell in "Brass Buttons" plays a part that gives all the room in the world for the display of mental "pop" muscular punch and those irresistible sunny smiles of his, which seems to set the wedding bells a-tinkling with the very first look into "her" eyes.

In this latest release, produced by William Russell Productions for the American Film Company, he borrows the uniform of an accommodating policeman in order to woo The Girl, having been told she is a lady's maid. How the uniform gets him into a lively scrap with an ugly gunman; how with its authority, seconded by his original methods, he cleans up a lawless western town in less than twenty-four hours; how he manages his trip to the altar and then breaks up the wedding in order to dodge a supposed assassin—these are only a few of the thrilling happenings that are crowded into the five reels of fun and romance. Here lovely Eileen Percy again plays opposite Russell. Their excellent team-work will prove a joy to you when "Brass Buttons" comes to the Star Theatre next Thurs. Fri. Saturday.

THE POPULAR COP

Ever hear the story of the man who, after eluding a scared visitor over the asylum grounds for two hours, was found to be merely playing "tag"? A brand-new version of that mirthful situation furnishes the tag to William Russell's latest feature play "Brass Buttons". You'll enjoy it hugely when you see it at the Star Theatre on Mon.

Russell looks handsomer than ever in the uniform of a New York "cop" assumed by way of seeping up a friendship with a pretty girl whom he has glimpsed in a Fifth Avenue crowd and followed home. He thinks her a lady's maid, whereas in reality she is the maid's ady. She thinks him a policeman, although he belongs to the city's smartest set. However, each finds the other wholly delightful, and both think hard about wedding long before the chapter of revelations is resolved. You'll enjoy every inch of the courtin'.

Eileen Percy is the maid "with hair that would make a bale of fine gold look like a handful of dandelions in the park." The cast and direction are superb, and the result is a picture in which William Russell Productions may well take pride.

DOROTHY GISH IS DIFFERENT
YET ALL ALIKE ADMIRE HER
Famous Paramount Star to be

"The Hope Chest"
To be different from any one else in the world and still to be liked by every one who knows you is the desire of Dorothy Gish who will be seen in a picture of Mark Lee Luther's book, "The Hope Chest" at the Allen Theatre Mon. Tues.

Miss Gish has created every part of importance she has ever played. She finds things to do that are original, funny, and highly entertaining. Her every action is something that has never been seen on any screen at any time, and she has a new way of doing everything that is done on the stage.

While at work in the studio she is a constant source of surprise to every one around her. If she is not "cutting up" with the director or playing tricks on some one she is sitting in some secluded corner figuring out the next move that will bring a round of laughter from the company or in many cases at her own expense.

Her director, Elmer Clifton says he never knows what she is going to do next, and she very enthusiastically agrees with him, and says she doesn't either. Her work on the screen is spontaneous, most of it entirely different from the way it was rehearsed and every bit of it is natural.

In "The Hope Chest" Miss Gish has a delightful role, and her support is made up of picked players from the David W. Griffith studio. George Fawcett, the veteran actor has an important part while Richard Barthelmess plays opposite to the star.

SPANKED ONE OF LEE CHILDREN AND THEN WISHED SHE HADN'T

If one scene of "Smiles" the new comedy which will be shown at the Theatre next Monday Tue. Wed. Jane and Katherine Lee, the juvenile William Fox stars have a great time, dressed in overalls, washing a dog in a bathroom. They make a fine mess of the place and their housekeeper comes in and begins to chastise them.

While making this photoplay Director Gillstrom rehearsed the scene mentioned and during the rehearsal Jane felt quite a smack on the rear of her overalls. There was a wait before the scene was filmed. Jane disappeared.

"All right," said Director Gillstrom. "Let's make the scene now."

Jane had returned and she and her sister began rubbing the soap-suds over the dog. In came the housekeeper, and as a matter, shook the children well, then took her hand off Katherine to wallop Jane. Katherine ran and the woman according to direction slipped the rear of Jane's overalls good and hard. The woman cried "Oh," and assumed a position of indignant surprise.

"Fine," called out the director. "Fine," cried the woman. "What do you mean, Mr. Gillstrom? I nearly broke my hand."

"Why did you hit so hard, then?" "Hit so hard? Why that youngster has a horseshoe in her overalls". When they found Jane she was rolling on the floor in laughter behind one of the sets.

JANE AND KATHERINE LEE IN A MILE OF "SMILES"

Another fine comedy drama has been booked by Manager Mcintosh for the Star. It is called "Smiles" and has as its stars those popular funmakers, Jane and Katherine Lee, known as the Fox Baby Grands.

It will be shown for the first time at the Star Theatre on Mon. and will be continued for 3 days. The things these popular children do in "Smiles" it is said, will cheer the heart of any father and mother and will make the youngsters near with glee. I a this play Jane and Katherine have added a four-footed humorist in the shape of a dog. They make the animal do tricks as funny in effect as their own. The picture is said to be not only exceedingly clever as to story but beautiful in its scenic effects.

ARBUCKLE'S NEW COMEDY IS "LOVE"

Fatty Said to Provide Great Fun in Latest Film

Fatty Arbuckle, whose new Paramount comedy "Love" is announced as an entirely new and original vehicle will be seen in that production at the Allen theatre Wed. Thurs. The title itself suggests infinite possibilities, for what may not be expected of the genial Fatty when laboring under the wounds inflicted by Cupid? It is safe to say that if love every had a funny side it is adequately presented in this comedy. And it has a distinctly beautiful side, too because Winifred Westover, one of the most delightful of ingenues is cast for the leading feminine role.

The story is by Mr. Arbuckle and Vincent Bryan. The comedian directed it himself and it was made at the new Paramount-Arbuckle Studios in Los Angeles, wherein the star has lately been installed comfortably. The plot of "Love" is completely away from any of the preceding Paramount-Arbuckle comedies and presents the heavy-weight laughmaker in unfamiliar but wholly amusing situations and with incidents enough, it is declared to keep everybody interested in to the last foot of the film.

RUSSELL'S BIG "KNOCKOUT"

After all, there is nothing like a muscular demonstration when arguing with an unreasonable person, and "Big Bill" Russell, who is a prime mirth-provoker and whose either "right" or "left" is a prime sleep-producer is surely some "arguifier". Which means that he is in the pictures for laughing and loving and that, outside of his athletic work on the screen, he has a job with either fist which entitles him to membership in the champion class.

But the knockout in "All the World to Nothing" is not the result of a wallop, but of an ingenious turn of an extraordinarily clever story. It ranges in a single character from the spendthrift life of a young millionaire to the cheerful driving of a coal wagon; and, through all of its contrasting emotions and unexpected phases, Mr. Russell brings a convincing characterization.

And the Girl? She is unlike any other girl that you have seen in films romance—not unusual in the fact that she finally loves a big handsome fellow but from the fact that, in the very beginning, she marries a burglar whom she had never met before. The character is played by Winifred Westover who, with Mr. Russell furnishes an unusually clever entertainment. "All the World to Nothing" will be shown at the Roma Theatre on Thursday.

THE AMAZING WIFE
Mary MacLaren "The American Beauty of the screen" returns to the Roma Theatre Mon. only in her latest Universal Special "The Amazing Wife". Those who saw this popular star in "Bred" and "Creaking Stairs" are promised another photoplay of equal interest.

"The Amazing Wife" as might be imagined is Miss MacLaren who plays the part of Cicely Osborne. Cicely the widow of a raffish murderer in a cabinet brawl is on the verge of starvation when she reads that another man of the same name as her husband, John Ashton, has been killed in action in France. This Ashton was a lieutenant, the son of wealthy parents. Driven by want, Cicely passes herself as his widow and is accepted by his parents. The complications arise when Lieutenant Ashton returns, the news of his death having been an error. These lead to big climax in which Lieutenant Ashton despite his wounds, fights his cousin in defense of his wife's honor.

Idy May Park directed the picture and wrote the scenario from a story by Elinor Chipp. In the cast are Frank Mayo, Stanhope Wheatcroft, Ethel Lynne, Seymour Zeliff, Joseph W. Givard, Charles Sewlynn and Molly McConnell.

JOIN THE HOST OF RED-BLOODED MEN AND WOMEN

Get More Pleasure Out of Life and be of More Use in the World by Toning Up Your System With Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

There are many people who lack the red blood to give color to their lips, warmth to their hands and brightness to their eyes. These people tire easily and cannot compete in school, in store, or shop or factory with the more energetic red-blooded people. Their blood being thin they are nervous and do not sleep well. Arising in the morning they feel an unrefreshing sleep, they begin the day badly and miss much of the pleasure of living.

To become active and energetic these people need a blood-building tonic. A tonic that gives new strength that restores the nerves, increases the appetite and aids digestion, will put color in the cheeks and lips and give vigor to the steps. That means new joy in living, increased usefulness and longer life.

Wherever you find a person who has taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills faithfully, you find an enthusiastic friend of the tonic that has made life mean more in many ways. These blood-making pills have been used for many years throughout Canada, and in almost every community, however small, can be found those who owe health and happiness to this famous household remedy.

WEAK AND NERVOUS.

One who owes present health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Miss Binae Chissoon, South Beach, Que., who says: "I am a teacher by profession, and probably due to the close confinement and arduous nature of my duties, I became much run down and suffered from extreme nervousness. The least noise would startle me, and my heart would beat violently. Indeed my condition was an unhappy one. I had often heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a cure for nervous troubles and decided to give them a fair trial. I am happy to say that this medicine completely restored my health, and I can confidently recommend it to all suffering from nervous troubles."

INDIGESTION CURED.

Mrs. M. Kelly, Windsor, Ont., says: "I suffered from indigestion for several years, and although I was constantly taking doctor's prescriptions, they did not cure me, and the result was that I was greatly run down and always feeling poorly. Finally I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and as I soon found they were helping me I continued their use until I was fully cured, and am now able to properly digest any food I take. As a tonic and blood-builder I know of no medicine to equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I recommend them to all in need of a medicine."

THIN AND BLOODLESS.

Among the thousands of women who bear testimony to the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mrs. W. Ferguson, Plattsville, Ont., who says: "After the birth of my second baby I was left very weak, and was steadily growing thinner and more bloodless. As time went on I became so run down that my friends thought I was in a decline. I tried different medicines, but none helped me until I was advised to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began taking them and was not long in finding that they were helping me, and by the time I had taken a half dozen boxes I felt like a new person. I had increased in weight, my color returned and I was again enjoying my old-time health. You may be sure when opportunity offers I will gladly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

RHEUMATISM CURED.

Among the rheumatic sufferers who have been cured by the use of this medicine is Mrs. Wm. Johnston, Chatham, Ont., who says: "Some years ago, while living in Mount Forest, I was stricken with inflammatory rheumatism, from which I suffered terrible agony. Neither the doctor nor attended me, nor the remedies I tried, gave me that little relief for a time, and as a consequence, I grew very weak and was on the verge of nervous prostration. At this stage an uncle advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as they had cured him of a severe attack of rheumatism. I took the pills for several months, when I found myself fully restored to health, with every vestige of the rheumatism and every symptom of the nerve trouble gone. I have had no return of either trouble since, and feel very grateful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me."

WEAK AND ANAEMIC.

The correction of anaemic conditions by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is as certain as anything in medical science. Miss Jessie McLean, Trenton, N. S., says: "I was as weak as it was possible for any one to be, and yet be able to go about. My blood seemed to have turned almost to water. I was pale, the least exertion would leave me breathless, and when I went up stairs I would have to stop and rest on the way. I often had severe headaches, and at times my heart would palpitate alarmingly. A good friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I have reason to be grateful that I took the advice. Soon after beginning the use of the pills I began to get stronger, and by the time I had taken seven boxes I felt that I was again enjoying good health. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a blessing to weak girls and I shall always warmly recommend them."

AFTER INFLUENZA.

Mrs. Thos. Covert, R.R. No. 2, Bancroft, Ont., says: "Following an attack of grippe I was left very weak and miserable. My appetite was poor, I suffered from headaches, my skin was sallow, and two boils broke out. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and had only used a few boxes when I felt as well as ever. They drove all the impurities from my blood, gave me a good appetite, and I have since enjoyed the best of health. I can recommend the pills to anyone suffering from impure blood or skin disease."

By building up the blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure all that group of troubles due to weak, watery blood. Among these may be mentioned anaemia, rheumatism, indigestion, neuritis, pimples and eruptions, and that always fretting feeling that comes from weak blood, even where there may be no more pronounced symptoms of ill-health. Take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a tonic, if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate resistance that will keep you well and strong. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

the base for the American flying boats.

The arrival of the Aroostook, with the hint it brought of the early arrival of the American naval seaplanes for their start on the Transatlantic flight, caused no noticeable concern to Harry Hawker, Australian, and Capt. F. P. Raynham, his British rival, who have been here nearly a month waiting for favorable weather for the trip in their land planes.

Inadequate air-drome facilities have contributed largely to the delay in the Australian and British aviators' start, they said today. This condition has been due to the topography of the country. Adverse weather at sea has held them up mainly, but several lulls have offered chances for safe passage, only to find them locally "wind bound."

The mail which is scheduled to be carried by Hawker and Raynham was today declared "closed" because of the proportions it is assuming. Postmaster J. A. Robinson refused more of it for "enough letters have been sent here already to sink a dreadnaught," he said. Both aviators have protested at the size of the mail they have been asked to carry. Only official letters which have the approval of the flyers will be accepted for delivery, it was announced to-night.

EASY WAY TO REMOVE FRECKLES AND BLOTCHES

Some women have skin of such texture they occasionally are annoyed by the sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines. In such cases if one will procure an ounce of ordinary mercurized vas at any drug store, apply the little of it before retiring, like cold cream, she can easily overcome the trouble. When the wax is washed off next morning, minute flaky skin particles come with it. The entire outer cuticle is removed in this way in a week or so with all its defects. No bleach could so effectively remove freckles or blemishes. The new surface is smooth, clear, fresh looking. No pain or inconvenience accompanies this simple treatment.

One of the last acts was to prepare and send down an overture to the general assembly respecting an increase in stipend to ministers of the church. If the suggestion is acted on the ministers' increase will be increased from $1,200 to $1,500 per annum, with the use of a manse. It was further recommended that a bonus of $150 be given ministers required to maintain a team or an automobile in their work. Prior to adjournment Dr. J. F. Railway Men Making Fresh Demands

AGREEMENT WITH FEDERATED SHOP TRADES WORKERS EXPIRES AND NEW ONE NECESSARY

Montreal May 2.—Will the sub-committee of the Canadian Railway Board grant the demands of the 35,000 men of the Federation Shop Trades of the railways of Canada for 44-hour week and a 20 per cent increase in wages or will it be necessary for the men to be pulled out on strike to enforce the demands.

This is the question that is giving considerable anxiety to the eight delegates of the Canadian division of the Federated Shop Trades No. 4. Division some of whom have arrived in the city and some who are coming from various parts of the Dominion to meet the employers in conference here on May 13 The 1918 Schedule.

A year ago the delegates met the representatives of the railways and presented a schedule of wages and working conditions, which was adopted for a year after much dickering. The year has expired and the delegates and book with the request for a new agreement. They have been empowered to demand a 44-hour week and 20 per cent increase in wages and to use the full power and strength of the union of the railways of Canada to obtain it.

The delegates of the men are Robert Talion, of Calgary; Frank McKenna of Vancouver; Dickie of Winnipeg; R.J. Johns of Winnipeg; Harry Davis of Winnipeg; F. MacKintosh of Winnipeg; F. Harrison of Montreal, and J.C. McCutcheon, late of Winnipeg who has been doing organizing work in the East for the boilermakers. Mr. Talion is president of the federation and Mr. Dickie is secretary and the former in an interview today said that the delegates in addition to pressing for the 44-hour week and a 20 per cent increase in wages will attempt to form a complete schedule of working conditions for all the Canadian railway shop trades, in which at least 35,000 men are employed.

The men who are affected by the demands are boiler makers, blacksmiths, machine metal workers, machinists, electricians, car men. Those engaged in the repairing construction, and maintenance of cars, pipe fitters and helpers. Questioned if the demands were likely to be turned down by the representatives of the railway companies, Mr. Talion said: "We are not looking for trouble or difficulties, but there is always the possibility that a hitch may occur."

31,371,843 ACRES OF LAND GIVEN TO THE RAILWAYS SINCE 1883.

Ottawa May 2.—A return tabled in the Commons to-day shows that 31,371,843 acres of public lands have been given to railway companies by the Federal Government since 1883. The return shows the grants made year by year. The largest were between July 1900 and June 1901, when the railways were given 6,440,999 acres of public land.

Dr. Mitchell Clark on Alien Immigration

OTTAWA, May 3.—It might have been expected that the statement of S. W. Jacobs, of Montreal, in the House that "it seems to me that soon as peace is signed we have no quarrel with these people as yet, on the ground that they have been alien enemies in the past, refuse to allow them into this country or bar their entrance" would have been the spark leading to an explosion, and that a general denunciation of the enemy and all his works would have followed, but the reverse was the case.

Dr. Michael Clark, of Red Deer, three of whose sons fought in the war, agreed with the general tenor of Mr. Jacobs' remarks that the "alien enemy of to-day may become the friendly alien of to-morrow. I don't believe racial hostility will last forever. This war was fought to end all wars and to put an end to that hate from which all wars come."

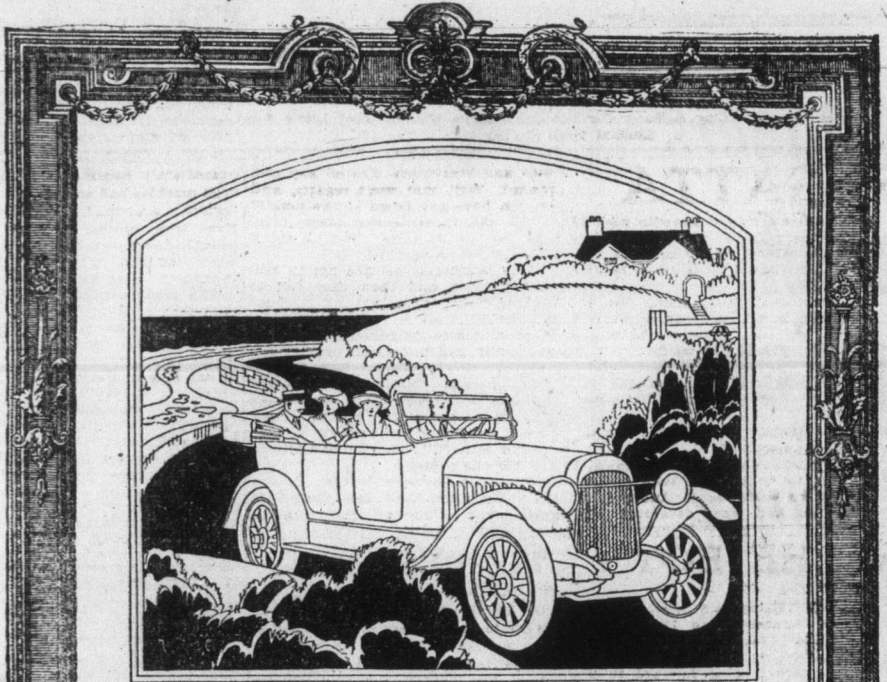

Later on he said: "Within 35 miles of my home live Germans, who have lived here as long as I have been in Canada; their conduct has been perfectly correct during the war. They have been very friendly for seventeen years, and I hope I'll continue to live on friendly terms with them in the future."

The HOT SPOT Chalmers is the One Car of the Day

THE great Canadian public, never fooled for long, is beginning to realize that Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.

Sales are climbing fast. From coast to coast the movement is toward Chalmers.

Today this car is on a production basis at the factory that Chalmers executives little expected to occur even in July.

Why is this? The answer is "Hot Spot." For this simple but really magnificent device does a trick in the use of gas that is almost beyond belief.

It "smashes up" raw gas, "pulverizes" it, makes it "fine as dust" so that you can get every last bit of power out of gas.

Then the great Ram's-horn rushes it gently but quickly through "easy air bends" to the cylinders, and what is the result?

Not only high power from a low-grade gas, but an even, soft flow of power that rests your nerves, saves your tires, and gives you a new and rare delight in driving.

Please don't miss this present day Chalmers. It's the one car of the day.

Every Man is a Wise Man

Because every man has something to teach; the thing life through experience has taught him to do.

Nature but reproduces: man's experience taking the world where Nature stops builds it better; whether he makes an iron plow to improve the crooked stick—

Or turns mere rubber and cotton into pneumatic tires.

Experience is that unseeing thing in tires, the quality of which turns them out good or bad.

It vouches for Goodrich experience that Goodrich made the first American pneumatic tire, and ever since has fathered the improvement of automobile tires.

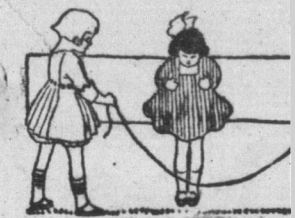

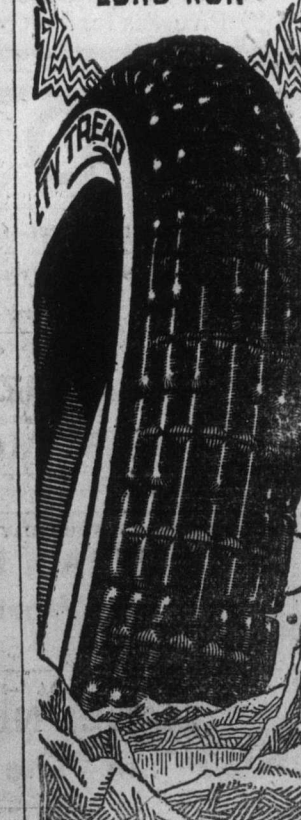

It shows in burly, full-rounded bodies, and thicker BLACK SAFETY TREADS, extra wide, fortifying the sidewall against rut scraping.

It returns value for your money in service value on your car on the road.

SALLY

SALLY sat by the window, a little face gloomier than usual for I am sorry to say, Sally had a reason for her sorrow. She was orphan and though the other girls the town often wished that THEY had such pretty clothes and lived in a big, handsome house, not one of them would have given up their Mamma and Papa to be so glad faced little Sally. However, Sally had a nice, pretty Auntie who was very kind and had tried the best she knew how to make her orphan niece happy.

"She really ought to be ashamed of herself," her friend Rosie said one day quite impatiently. "Her Aunt does quite all she can to make her happy and she has so many pretty things! I wouldn't be so ungrateful to her Aunt. I'd rather have all any amount of nice things and all she knows how to make her orphan niece happy."

"That's so," Rosie agreed, "an really oughtn't to have said such things about poor Sally."

Of course, all this discussion before the day the children began to be so very busy, the very day Sally sat by the window watching the Rosie wheeling a baby carriage up and down the street. There was a busy little boy, too, who ran in out of the corner store loaded with packages, and further up the street another energetic young person, bigger little girl stitching and mending with a will as she sat on the porch.

Sally gave a great sigh and looked down at her folded hands. Her Aunt was so very kind, but her Aunt happened to be passing the day stopped to look in at her little niece. "What in the wide world is the matter with you, little Sally?" she asked. Sally looked up, her small face fuller than ever, if that could be said.

"O, a whole lot, Auntie Maude," said, "really and truly, I wish I was useful like all the other children in town."

"Why, dear, you are useful just being happy and gay," her Aunt said. "But tell me, why in the world do you sit inside the house mope on a beautiful day like this? Now, I advise you to run out and play in the bright sunshine with little friends."

"That's just it," Sally sighed. "I haven't time. They're all working." "Working?" puzzled Aunt Maude. "What are they working at, where are Rosie and Ted and Agnes?"

BILLY'S

IT ALL started when big brother Bob went to the Great Lakes N. Training Station. Oh, of course, all boys, and lots of girls, like Billy, play with boats and make them. But when your big brother is in the navy—well, then boats positively the most interesting things possible to find. Billy and his friends spent all their play hours making sailing boats; Billy whittled and the wooden parts and Mary cut and sewed the sails and helped put parts together when the whittling finished. And they sailed boats in the bath tub or in a big, old-fashioned wash tub that their mother sometimes let them use.

"Well, you don't need to feel so for them," said Uncle Harry, who just returned from a stay in Tokyo. To be sure they go to bed when get up, but then you are asleep when they are playing their games and going to school and having a good time. As for holidays—well the little boys enjoy their Flag Day just as much as you enjoy the Fourth July."

SALLY'S VICTORY BOND

SALLY sat by the window, her little face gloomier than usual, for I am sorry to say, Sally was a gloomy child. And really poor Sally had a reason for she was an orphan and though the other girls in the town often wished that THEY had such pretty clothes and lived in such a big, handsome house, not a one of them would have given up their dear Mamma and Papa to be gloomy-faced little Sally. However, Sally had a nice, pretty Auntie who was very fond indeed of her and tried the best she knew how to make her orphaned niece happy.

"She really ought to be ashamed of herself," her friend Rosie said one day quite impatiently. "Her Auntie does quite all she can to make her happy and she has so many pretty things! I wouldn't be so ungrateful." "But she's all by herself," Teddy, Rosie's brother, put in quickly, "I must be awfully lonely not to have five brothers and sisters in one's family. Indeed I'd rather have us than any amount of nice things and all the big houses in the world."

"That's so," Rosie agreed, "and I really oughtn't to have said such harsh things about poor Sally." Of course, all this discussion was before the day the children began to be so very busy, the very day that Sally sat by the window watching little Rosie wheeling a baby carriage up and down the block. There was a busy little boy, too, who ran in and out of the corner store loaded with packages, and further up the street another energetic young person—a bigger little girl sitting and mending with a will as she sat on the porch.

Sally gave a great sigh and looked down at her folded hands. Her sigh was so very loud that her Aunt who happened to be passing the door stopped to look in at her little niece. "What in the wide world is the matter with you, little Sally?" she asked. Sally looked up, her small face doleful, then ever, if that could be possible.

"O, a whole lot, Auntie Madge," she said, "really and truly, I wish I were useful like all the other children in this town." "Why, dear, you are useful just being happy and gay," her Aunt declared. "But tell me, why in the world do you sit by the window and mope on a beautiful day like this? Now, I advise you to run out and play in the bright sunshine with your little friends." "That's just it," Sally sighed. "They haven't time. They're all working." "Working?" puzzled Aunt Madge. "What are they working at, where are Rosie and Ted and Agnes?"

"Auntie, they're all earning Victory Bonds, Rosie takes care of her baby brother every single day for two hours. Teddy is working at the store helping to take packages so he's earning one too, and Agnes is doing mending for her big brother and sisters and she says she'll have her Bond bought in no time, her Brother Fred is so hard on his socks!"

"Well, well," laughed Auntie Madge, "so you want to earn a Victory Bond, too, do you?" "I'd like to be as good a patriot as they are," said Sally. "But I can't think of a thing to do." She looked quite depressed again and Aunt Madge shook her head sorrowfully.

"I declare, I just thought of something you could do," she remarked, "but I'm not sure it would do—"

"O, Auntie," cried the little girl, smiling at once. "What is it?" "Well, to begin with, I know a certain fairy godmother who has the dearest old lady for a god-child you ever saw. Now this old lady has been sick for quite a time and will most probably have to stay in bed for the rest of her life. Of course, the old lady grows very lonely and sad lying day by day alone and, you know how things about poor Sally."

Rosie Was Wheeling A Baby Carriage And There Was A Busy Little Boy Loaded With Packages.

BILLY'S REGATTA

IT ALL started when big brother Bob went to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. Oh, of course, all boys, and lots of girls, like to play with boats and like to make them, but when your big brother is training for the navy—well, then boats are positively the most interesting play things possible to find. Billy and Mary spent all their play hours making or sailing boats; Billy whittled and made the wooden parts and Mary cut and sewed the sails and helped put the parts together when the whittling was finished. And they sailed boats in the bath tub or in a big, old-fashioned wash tub that their mother sometimes let them use.

But even the most fun in the world gets tiresome if you have to play by yourself—or almost by yourself. And Billy and Mary wished many a time that their little friends liked boating too. "If we could only make 'em see what fun it is," said Mary one day, "or at any rate, if it would be fun to everybody played like we do." "Yes," agreed Billy thoughtfully, "if we only could. Oh, I tell you, Mary," he added suddenly, "let's have a regatta."

"A regatta?" exclaimed Mary. "What's a regatta?"

"Don't you remember that time Bob took us up to the big lake and we saw all the boats race? And they all got prizes and were decorated with flags and everything was so gay and pretty? Well, that was a regatta. And we can have one down at the pond!" "Oh Billy!" exclaimed Mary, clapping her hands gaily, "you do think of the nicest things to do." Billy laughingly saluted her in real navy fashion and then they fell to making plans. Of course, all the boys and girls in their neighborhood were to be invited to the regatta and everybody who sailed a boat for a prize had to make it without help from a grown person. Sisters were allowed to make sails because the more folks who played the better, but no grown person was in the game at all. Except brother Bob, Billy planned to write to him for the prizes.

It's not much wonder that all the boys and girls liked the plan Billy made—who wouldn't? Boat making immediately became "the style" and even marbles had to give up their regatta. And finally, when a box arrived from brother Bob the workers thought they couldn't wait another week and they planned to hold the regatta the next Saturday.

The regatta began at one o'clock with an exhibition of craft and a prize was given for the prettiest boat. Then the races came next, five of them. It was a lot of fun to start the boats at one side of the pond and then run around to catch them as they came to shore. And the prizes! Buttons and ribbons and ties from sailors uniforms and pictures of the training station and best of all a cap that had been worn by a real sailor on board a destroyer.

No wonder that the children all liked that regatta and resolved to have another very soon.

will be very valuable to you, but I'm sorry that you think the task is going to be so very hard to do."

Well, Sally went to see the old lady that very day and found that she was a nice person indeed and not at all hard to cheer up. In fact Sally began to be ashamed of herself when she thought how she used to mope and sulk over little things. Every day she made a little call and often the fairy godmother's hour stretched into two. There was so much Sally could think of to make her charge comfortable.

"Really, it's great fun," Sally told her Aunt some weeks after, her little face radiant, "and when I get through earning my Victory Bond I won't give her up. Auntie, do you think I could make her some jelly?"

"I'm sure you can," Aunt Madge replied, "and I'm glad you like the fairy godmother's charge, you really seem to be a different little girl."

Sally put her arms around her Aunt's neck. "You never told me," she said, "that it's making other people happy that makes one happy, though you knew it all the time, you goody little Auntie, and, of course, I know you were the Fairy Godmother to both of us weren't you?"

"Well, well, you aren't giving any credit to that nice Victory Bond you are earning, just like Teddy and Rosie and Agnes," Auntie laughed.

"O, yes, I am. Mine is a Victory Bond all right, Auntie," Sally said seriously, "it helped me win a victory over my glooms, too, didn't it?"

The FIRST UMBRELLA MAN

MOTHER looked out of the window at the sunny April sky and then she glanced at the newspaper which she held in her hand.

"The weather man says 'showers to-day,'" said Mother. "You had better carry your umbrella."

"Oh, botheration," exclaimed Molly, "Who'd dream of taking an umbrella on a perfectly beautiful day like this. Umbrellas are awful nuisances, anyway. Who ever invented such a thing, I'd like to know."

The Little Boys Pelted Him With Stale Vegetables And Eggs.

"If you really would like to know," said Mother, "Open your coat for a few minutes and I will tell you."

"Oh, goody," cried Molly. "Tell me about the first umbrella man."

"Umbrellas were used over twenty-five hundred years ago in Assyria. If you go to the museum you can see carved stones showing the King of ancient days going forth to battle with his servant following with an umbrella to hold over the fighting king's head. But umbrellas were not used in modern times as a general thing until they were introduced into England by a man named Jonas Hanway. This young man spent many of his days in foreign travel, and on one of his journeys he encountered a man carrying an umbrella. 'What a very useful article,' exclaimed Hanway. 'I will buy one to protect my new hat from the falling rain. Before this time women had carried umbrellas and therefore umbrellas were thought to belong to the costume of women. Much as we think today that parasols are to be carried by ladies only. So you can imagine the fun that was poked at Jonas Hanway, when he appeared on the streets of London—the first man to walk with an umbrella—with his new umbrella raised above his head to ward off the falling drops of rain."

"See the man with the lady's umbrella," cried some of the passersby, while the little boys pelted him with stale vegetables and eggs, which really made a worse storm descending upon Jonas's head than the rain which fell from heaven. 'The umbrellas will ruin our trade,' moaned the cab drivers who always did a flourishing business on wet days. 'God sends the rain,' murmured the pious, 'who is this man to keep the rain off of his person? Would the rain be sent if it were not to wet the mortals on earth? This storm of abuse had continued long after Mr. Hanway had passed on his way with his stout umbrella held firmly over his head. 'Never mind,' he told himself, 'soon it will be a very popular thing.'

But he had made a mistake. It took over thirty years before the umbrella became popular in England. At first they were owned only by hotels and inn keepers who kept them closed at hand to hold over their patrons as they went to and from their carriages. Later when they were used by people other than inn keepers for business reasons, there would be one umbrella in a family for the use of all. When their use became still more common, some people said that there were three classes of people in England. The class of people who could afford a carriage and did not need an umbrella. The class of people who could afford an umbrella but not a carriage. And the class of people who could afford neither."

"How interesting," cried Molly. "Look, how dark it has gotten. I think I'll carry my umbrella after all. I'm glad I don't have to stand being made fun of the way Mr. Hanway did, and Molly kissed her mother, took her umbrella and started out."

DING AND DONG

GOODNESS! GRACIOUS! Heavens! Me! Ding and Dong, please let me be!"

"No we won't—now give us pie! Give us light-bread, give us rye!"

Give us nickels, give us dimes! Reprimand us twenty times! We don't want to go to bed, We will stay down here instead!

All day long they dinged and donged! Wasn't their poor mother wronged? How they nagged and how they cried! They were so dissatisfied!

When they woke up one fine day, Mother dear, had slipped away. First they said, "Well we don't care, We'll go romping everywhere."

Somehow, though when night came on, They were sorry mother'd gone. Ding and Dong said "Father dear, We are very sad, we fear."

Then they begged him on their knees, "Bring our mother back, now please." Father went out in the hall— Then he gave a gentle call!

In a very little while, There was mother with a smile She'd been hiding in the gloom Of the big old lumber room.

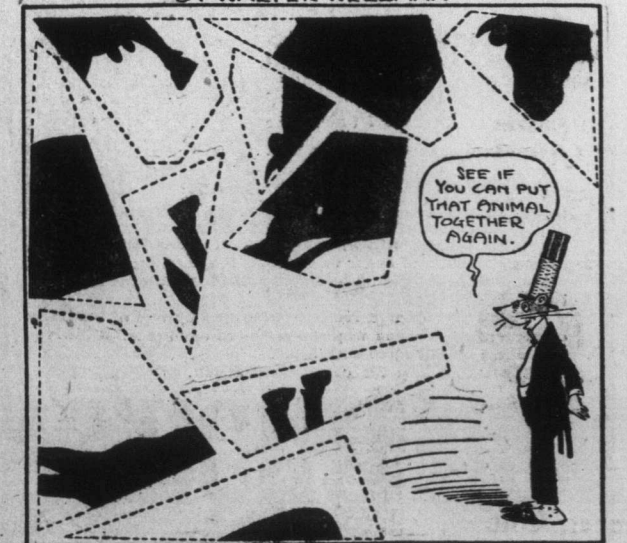

Ding and Dong said something nice: Yes they said it even twice. And they kept their promise well; Guess the promise! I can't tell!

Notes From The Collegiate Halls

The classes at the collegiate reopened on Monday morning for the final term of the school year, with all members of the staff present, and with practically all the students of the winter term. During the remaining eight weeks of school the test examinations and the final promotion examinations will be held.

Miss Mallory spent the holidays in Bloomingfield. Miss Barber in Guelph, Miss Leo near Port Dover, Miss Boyd at Brantford and Hamilton, Miss Hodgins in Buffalo, and Miss de Guerre in Toronto.

We are very glad to see Miss Jones back again, after an illness of two months or more following an attack of influenza. As the board was not able to secure a substitute during the interval, the girls' physical culture classes fell by the wayside to some extent.

Mr. Pengelly spent the Easter week with his parents in Peterborough; Mr. Erb visited friends in Toronto and attended several sessions of the O. E. A.; Mr. Forsyth and Mr. Brown attended the annual meeting of the W. F. A. in Stratford on Good Friday, and both were re-elected to their respective offices—president and first vice-president.

Mr. W. H. Williams, formerly of our staff, spent a few days in the city recently. He was entertained by Mr. D. A. Bean, a former member of the board and by Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, and Mr. and Mrs. Pugsley.

The first Hough Cup match of the season will be played to-day in the Athletic Park, the contestants being the Stratford Collegiate boys and the K. & W. boys. A good game, weather permitting, is expected. Next Saturday our boys journey to Woodstock to play the boys of the Baptist College.

The directors of the Horticultural Society met last evening to attend to several matters of immediate importance. This is, as it were, the harvest time for the society, as operations in all local gardens are about to commence. There have been so far about three hundred applications for membership, and the number will increase steadily, as gardeners and owners of gardens come to realize the bargains they may get by way of premiums, in addition to the advantage of actual membership.

Applications for seeds from pupils of the public and separate schools far exceed those of any former year, partly because the children are really becoming interested in gardening, and partly because the society is making a very generous offer of seeds—five packets in all—to those who will plant them and care for their gardens. A leaflet setting forth the prize list, as far as school children are concerned, and giving instructions as to gardening and exhibiting was prepared by the directors early in the year, and has been distributed in all the schools.

One of the activities of which the Society is particularly proud is its exhibition, which is held in August of each year, and will be held this year on Aug. 20 and 21. Having in mind the fact that a number of returned soldiers, who are convalescing at Freeport and who are engaged in various kinds of handicraft, as well as in gardening, the directors passed a resolution inviting all such to exhibit of their products in any section of any class in the prize list, without having to conform to the condition of paying an exhibitor's fee.

JOHN SUNDERLAND VETERAN AVIATOR SCREEN ACTOR

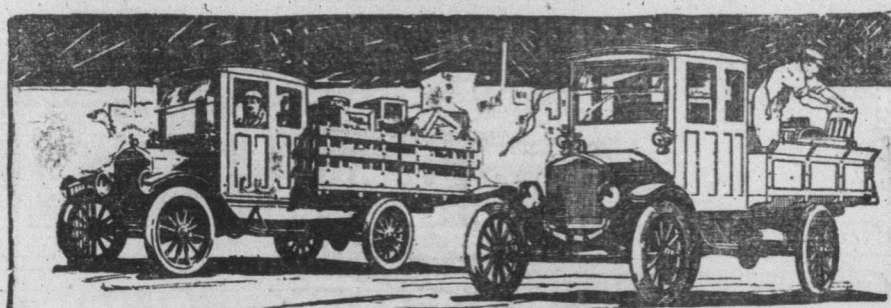

Has Important Role in Support of William Faversham in "The Silver King"

Playing the part of Geoffrey Wace, in support of William Faversham in the Paramount-Artcraft Special picture "The Silver King" which will be shown at the Allen Theatre, Wed. Thurs. a young actor who has a unique claim to distinction. The name which he has chosen for his motion picture advent is John Sunderland, and he is a veteran of the Great War, having served nearly three years in the aviation service of the Belgian army.

After receiving no fewer than thirteen wounds he was honorably discharged. He could not go back to his former occupation for he had no business left to go to. Both he and his father lost all they had in worldly goods to help save Belgium from destruction and that was nearly twelve million dollars. Their business was freight transportation between East Africa ports. Their ships were sunk and their business entirely wiped out.

Mr. Sunderland came to this country and soon was attracted by the appeal offered by a career in motion pictures. Because he is exceptionally good looking and has demonstrated that he can act, and because he can fly, he was chosen as leading man for Clara Kimball Young in "Shirley Kaye" and other prominent parts followed. He has the distinction of being the only actor who ever posed in a photograph with President Wilson. This was in a propaganda film on coal conservation.

In "The Silver King" Mr. Sunderland plays the part of a scoundrel who ruins his best friend in revenge for winning a girl whom he loved in vain. Mr. Sunderland proves that he is actor as well as aviator and fighter for world freedom.

Opportunity for Retail Merchants

THE next few years will mark a tremendous change in the business of retailing.

A small outlay will motorize your deliveries and open to you the opportunity for business expansion.

Motor Transportation, now reduced to a low-cost basis must revolutionize local trading just as Railroad Transportation revolutionized national trading.

As men everywhere grasp this idea, as they seize the opportunity for business growth that now presents itself, the retail business will be operated on a higher, more efficient plane. The public will be better served. Larger and more varied stocks will be offered for sale. Better and bigger stores will appear.

The Ford One-Ton Truck makes available this opportunity. It is Motor Transportation at low cost—low first cost, low maintenance cost, low operating cost.

Complete Trucks—Two Standard Bodies

Ordinary hauling and delivery work can be best adapted to two standard types—the Stake Body and Express Body.

These two body types are kept in stock ready for immediate delivery. They insure the maximum efficiency from the Ford Truck. They give the buyer of a Ford Truck the recognized benefits of Ford production.

Both types have the Enclosed Cab with the two-way windshield which gives the driver proper protection from the weather.

Yesterday a good Maxwell —Today a Better One

THAT is the policy of the Maxwell Motor Company.

It began five years ago on a single chassis plan and today 300,000 Maxwells have been built on this program.

Not 300,000 Maxwells identically alike—for that would be admitting that the car has never improved in five years' time.

More than 1000 refinements have been made in the Maxwell.

But the original chassis plan was not changed. It has simply grown better as the days went by.

The logic of building one thing and thus building it well is too clear, too sound, too emphatic in results to argue against.

Like any fine piece of machinery the Maxwell seems to improve with age.

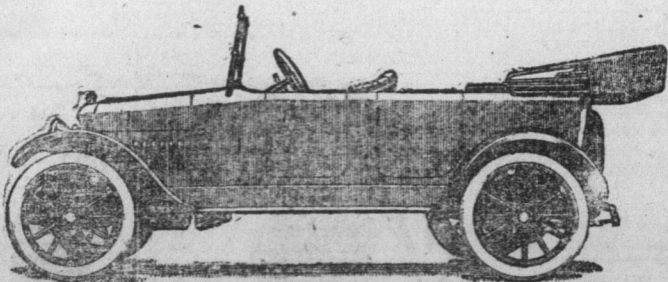

It runs on and on without end. We have never heard of a Maxwell salvaged.

There is no car with a better road ability record. And it saves many a thrifty dollar by shying at the repair shop.

This Maxwell you see today is not a new Maxwell; though many persons have thought so. It has been so much improved in appearance that our contemporaries in the trade repeatedly refer to it as the new Maxwell.

However, good looks have not in any way handicapped its running. And the latter is the main thing, after all, in a motor car.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should seek only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, sallow complexion, others who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

Registrar is honored By Hespeler Citizens

Farewell To Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ely and Daughter.

The following report from Hespeler refers to the honor shown Mr. Oscar Ely, county registrar, and Mrs. Ely, and daughter, Miss Norma, who left Hespeler citizens last week.

The citizens of Hespeler gathered at the Town Hall Wednesday night to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ely and daughter Miss Norma. The event was a delightful one.

It was a delight of the town gathering to know that they were about to lose Mr. and Mrs. Ely and daughter, who are highly respected and whose removal is regretted by all classes of citizens.

Mr. Ely came to Hespeler some 25 years ago and was the founder of the Hespeler Herald. He owned and conducted that paper until a few months ago when he sold it to Mr. George Hudson.

An invitation had been extended to every citizen of the town to attend the farewell reception to Mr. and Mrs. Ely, and many responded to shake the hands of the guests of the evening who were thought so highly of by all. Citizens began to gather shortly after 8 o'clock and by 9 a large number were in attendance.

The Council Chamber, the fire hall, the lobbies and the halls were nicely decorated for the occasion with the flags of the Allies and presented a most attractive appearance.

A platform was erected in the Fire Hall and on it a table was set, and on the table was a magnificent cabinet of Sterling silver, which was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Ely later on in the evening. As the guests arrived they were met at the entrance of the building by the committee, which consisted of L. E. Weaver, Mrs. W. J. Firth and Mrs. Oscar Ely.

The guests then proceeded to the Council Chamber where they passed the time in a social manner and listening to the piano selections given by Mr. Howard Galt, who filled his part of the program in a very creditable manner.

At 9:30 the entire gathering assembled in the Fire Hall which had been cleaned for the occasion, and the piano was brought into the room. Immediately Mayor L. E. Weaver took the chair, and in a few well-chosen remarks outlined the reason for the gathering. He expressed his regret and the regret of every citizen at losing such a valuable citizen as Mr. Ely. He spoke of the many good things that Mr. Ely had done for Hespeler and said that he as well as his wife and daughter were always ready to assist in anything that would help the citizens of the town. The chairman then called on Mr. J. D. Ramsay who gave a lengthy address in which he referred to the many good things that Mr. Ely had done for the general public, as well as the good town of Hespeler. The speaker could not speak too highly of the great work Mr. Ely had accomplished as Secretary of the Soldiers' Aid Commission. Despite the vast amount of work he had to perform he had never complained. He also referred to the work of Mrs. Ely and Miss Norma in connection with patriotic causes. At the close of his remarks Mr. Ramsay unveiled the cabinet of silver, which was covered by a large Union Jack and presented it to Mr. and Mrs. Ely. The speaker referred to the clean manner in which Mr. Ely had conducted his paper and the kindness he always showed to the wives, mothers and sweethearts of the boys who were in France doing their bit. At the conclusion of his remarks, Mr. Howard struck up on the piano, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and all present sang the old song.

Mayor Weaver then called for three cheers and a tiger which were given with such force that the rafters shook. He then called on who took the platform and he spoke, and when he did get started he was interrupted by a piper in full uniform who entered the hall playing the bag pipes. The incident caused much laughter and rounds of applause.

Mr. Ely's remarks referred to many incidents that had occurred during the 25 years of his residence in Hespeler. He said he was sorry he was leaving Hespeler, and so was Mrs. Ely and his daughter Norma, but nevertheless the good times they had had in Hespeler would always be remembered by them. He had always been a booster of Hespeler and would continue to be. In closing he thanked the citizens on behalf of his wife, daughter and himself for the beautiful gift, closing with, "Thanks, and God bless you."

Mr. Z. A. Hall, M.P.P., then gave a short address and referred to the high esteem in which Mr. Ely, his wife and daughter were held, stating that what would be Hespeler's loss would be Kitchener's gain. He recalled his acquaintance with Oscar when he was a boy and told of many humorous incidents of their boyhood days.

The evening's program came to a close with the singing of the National Anthem, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ely and daughter were kept busy shaking the hands of their friends, who parted wishing them every success in their new field of labor. Mr. and Mrs. Ely will leave for their new home in Kitchener the

It's ONLY A RING, BUT MY WHAT A FUSS IT MADE

Mabel Normand's Little Talisman Unravels Curious Plot in "The Pest"

Mabel Normand is known to be superstitious. She does all the time-honored things to propitiate the goddess of chance and sedulously avoids doing anything that might annoy the gods of the lady's wrath.

Miss Normand might be said to be as superstitious as a Sicilian. Invariably she wears some article in the course of a Goldwyn Picture which she imagines will bring her luck. Oddly enough it, usually does—something brings it about.

Her quibbles remember the tiny ivory elephant she clung to in "The Floor Below" one of her earliest Goldwyn hits. Nothing could separate her from the little image and to this she clings.

She contends that it made people like her, when that production was shown. All of which leads up to her latest whim. It occurs in "The Pest" her new Goldwyn Picture coming to the Regal Theatre Fri. and Sat. A ring is the talisman.

Miss Normand so fickers a farmhouse drudge is invited to attend a party given by the daughter of the town's richest man. She resolves to go just as she is in her rags and tatters because there ain't anything else to wear. Rummaging through many odds and ends in a vain effort to improve her appearance all she can find is a ring—and it doesn't amount to much at that, but she wears it and by so doing unravels a curious and unlooked-for plot. Immediately Miss Normand read the scenario and learned what part was played by the ring, an idea flashed across her mind. She determined to use a ring of her own, one around which happy memories cluster.

What is a double acting baking powder?

A double-acting baking powder is one that starts its action in the mixing bowl and finishes it in the oven.

Ordinary baking powders develop their full strength in the mixing bowl and you have to hurry your cakes into the oven. Then, you are always afraid that the oven is not just hot enough, or that a door will slam or something else happen to cause the cakes to fall.

You don't have to hurry or worry when Egg-O Baking Powder is used. Egg-O rises only partly in the bowl. You may let the dough stand 15 or 20 minutes or longer—doing so will give better results. When put into the oven, Egg-O continues its action—this second action being so steady and strong that a cake is not likely to fall even if it does get an unexpected jar.

With Fingers! Corns Lift Off

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift any corn or callus right off. Try it!

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug freezone recently discovered by a Cincinnati man. Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, itching corn or callus and instantly all annoyance disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it off with the fingers. Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freezone afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin. Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet, shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical. Ladies! Keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

GOOD WORK OUT TODAY

From ten to one o'clock and from two to three o'clock the Beavers had a strenuous workout on the field, all the players being out. With the exception of two or three positions the Beavers men are all here. Those who are still to arrive are Sharpe, pitcher, and Rourke, the Detroit hurler. Negotiations with another man are still under way. The outfield, infield and catcher positions are all filled now.

LODESTRO ARRIVED

Manager Beatty is well pleased with the showing that is being made by the youngsters and believes he will have one of the best all-round teams on the M.O. circuit Andy Kyle reported for duty yesterday.

The latest arrival yesterday was Lory Lodestro of Falconer who is a pitcher, and showed a good variety of "shoots" in today's practice. The exhibition game with the Bradford semi-pros, for to-morrow has been cancelled until next week when exhibition games will be played with the Toronto Athenaeums, Detroit Stars and Knotty Lee's nine.

That the local grounds and diamond will be among the best in the league is the opinion of Manager Beatty.

A good work was enjoyed by the men this morning, the weather having cleared and the grounds consequently turned into better shape.

Lowest Cost Per Mile

"I HAVE ridden my C.C.M. bicycle pretty regularly for sixteen or seventeen years," writes an enthusiast, "and it is still a good machine."

What was the cost per mile of that splendid service? Certainly far and away less than that of a cheap, inferior bicycle. The few dollars you might save on an ordinary wheel are likely to be lost over and over again in the shorter life and poorer service of such a machine. Make certain of lowest cost per mile with

Could you see the inside of the frame joints, you would find there a "fish-mouth" reinforcement of unusual length and special design that greatly increases the strength. This typical example of sincerity is found at the points of heaviest strain—always with a reserve of strength.

What has extra finish to do with service? Note the depth of brilliancy in the enamel and nickelling. C.C.M. handle bars and all bright parts are generously nickelled over a coat of copper and copper can't rust. Years after ordinary bicycles are not fit for good company, the sparkle of your C.C.M. makes you proud of it.

All C.C.M. bicycles have the Hercules coaster brake—the only brake without a side arm. It is light, simple, powerful and effective. After coasting the clutch engages without slipping and brake with our guarantee.

HAMILTON, May 3.—If the United

Farmers and farmers in general as producers will not cooperate with consumers in an effort to limit the exportation of foodstuffs, and reduce the present high cost of living, the Veterans of Canada intend to wage a campaign for free trade.

They argue that, if protection benefits farmers by keeping prices sky high, free trade would be applicable as good for bringing down the price of commodities for the consumers.

After four years of unbounded prosperity, the veterans claim that farmers should now be content with smaller profits, thereby affording the

Louisa St. House

Damaged by Fire

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED TO

44 LOUISA STREET.

Damage Estimated at $500 to $700.

What appeared to be developing into a serious blaze occurred this morning at 44 Louisa street when a fire broke out. After the blaze had been extinguished and a survey made of the ravages of the same it was estimated that damage to the extent of $500 to $700 had been caused to the residence and the interior furnishings, including clothing.

It was at about 10:05 o'clock that smoke was seen coming out of the home, passerby and neighbors having their attention called to the same. A phone call was sent to the fire-department at 10:08. There was an immediate response by the two brigades. By the time the men of the department arrived it was found that the blaze had consumed the four panels in a door leading to the attic from one of the bedrooms upstairs where the fire started. A quantity of clothing stored on the stairways fed the flames and caused dense smoke. For a moment there was a particular anxiety on the part of the spectators and the mother of the home on account of the fact that a five year old lad was still in the room. Investigation was immediately made as soon as the fact had become known that human life was in danger. It was discovered that the boy was at the window in desperation ready to leap out of the same. Fireman Charles Graber came to the rescue and snatched the youngster away from all danger and handed him over to other hands, thus removed into safety.

Unknowningly to the fire-men the blaze had found its way into the attic. The inside approach to the same being blocked the Chief had an entrance into the attic forced from the outside. It was found that the fire was rapidly eating its way through the same. A hand chemical was applied and this stemmed the blaze. A stream of water was applied and soon the fire was under control not, however, before considerable unavoidable damage by water had been done to the interior.

How the fire broke out is not known as yet. The occupant of the house, Mrs. Pfeiffer was out at the time on a call to a meat market place in the neighborhood, and the five year old son was alone in the home.

The damages that were caused, include that to the woodwork in the attic stairway, the attic and roof, shingles and the wallpaper in the house.

At the evening service Rev. Dr. Little, Dean of the Waterloo Seminary, occupied the pulpit of the church.
